ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY  DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

This is an appeal and cross-appeal from a district court findings of fact, conclusions of law, and judgment. Initial review of the notices of appeal and docketing statements reveals potential jurisdictional defects. It appears the notices of appeal were untimely filed. The challenged order was entered in the district court on November 10, 2020. Notice of entry of the order was served electronically on November 11, 2020. Accordingly, the notice of appeal was due to be filed in the district court by December 11, 2020. See NRAP 4(a)(1) (generally requiring a notice of appeal to be “filed after entry of a written judgment or order, and no later than 30 days after the date that written notice of entry of the judgment or order appealed from is served”). But appellant/cross-respondent did not file his notice of appeal in the district court until December 14, 2020.

Respondent/cross-appellant’s notice of appeal was filed in the district court on December 17, 2020, after expiration of the appeal period established by NRAP 4(a)(1). Although NRAP 4(a)(2) provides an extended appeal period if another party has previously timely filed a notice of appeal, it appears that rule does not apply here where appellant/cross-respondent did not timely file his notice of appeal.

Accordingly, the parties shall each have 30 days from the date of this order to show cause why their appeals should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Failure to demonstrate that this court has jurisdiction may result in the dismissal of this appeal and cross-appeal.

The deadlines to file documents in this matter are suspended pending further order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.
