DOCKETING STATEMENT CIVIL APPEALS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Appellants must complete this docketing statement in compliance with NRAP 14(a). The purpose of the docketing statement is to assist the Supreme Court in screening jurisdiction, identifying issues on appeal, assessing presumptive assignment to the Court of Appeals under NRAP 17, scheduling cases for oral argument and settlement conferences, classifying cases for expedited treatment and assignment to the Court of Appeals, and compiling statistical information.

WARNING

This statement must be completed fully, accurately and on time. NRAP 14(c). The Supreme Court may impose sanctions on counsel or appellant if it appears that the information provided is incomplete or inaccurate. Id. Failure to fill out the statement completely or to file it in a timely manner constitutes grounds for the imposition of sanctions, including a fine and/or dismissal of the appeal.

A complete list of the documents that must be attached appears as Question 27 on this docketing statement. Failure to attach all required documents will result in the delay of your appeal and may result in the imposition of sanctions.

This court has noted that when attorneys do not take seriously their obligations under NRAP 14 to complete the docketing statement properly and conscientiously, they waste the valuable judicial resources of this court, making the imposition of sanctions appropriate. See KDI Sylvan Pools v. Workman, 107 Nev. 340, 344, 810 P.2d 1217, 1220 (1991). Please use tab dividers to separate any attached documents.

October 07, 2020	3:00 AM	Minute Order	Plaintiff Armando Pons-Diaz Motion to Strike Defendant's Request for Trial de Novo

HEARD BY: Earley, Kerry

COURTROOM: Chambers

COURT CLERK: Louisa Garcia

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- THIS MATTER came before the Court on Plaintiff Armando Pons-Diaz' Motion to Strike Defendant's Request for Trial de Novo, filed on July 23, 2020; the Opposition to Motion to Strike Defendant's Request for Trial de Novo, filed August 6, 2020; and Plaintiff's Reply filed on September 10, 2020.

THE COURT having reviewed the matter, including all points and authorities, and exhibits, and good cause appearing hereby GRANTS Plaintiff Armando Pons-Diaz Motion to Strike Defendant's Request for Trial de Novo, based on the following:

This matter arises out of a car accident that occurred on December 15, 2017. Plaintiff alleged that he was travelling southbound on Arville Street, attempting to make a right turn onto Spring Mountain Road when his vehicle was struck by Defendant's vehicle who failed to yield right of way to Plaintiff.

Plaintiff argues that Defendant failed to participate in the Arbitration proceedings in good faith because Defendant failed to participate in discovery during the Arbitration phase, failed to produce documents in discovery, failed to respond to Plaintiff's Interrogatories and Requests for Production, and failed to appear at her deposition which was re-scheduled twice due to defense counsel's inability to locate defendant.

Plaintiff further argues Defendant failed to timely serve her Arbitration brief. The Arbitration Hearing in this matter was originally scheduled for March 19, 2020, and Plaintiff served his

PRINT DATE: 10/07/2020

Minutes Date: October 07, 2020

Arbitration Brief on March 13, 2020, in accordance with the Arbitration Discovery Order. The Arbitration Hearing was rescheduled due to COVID-19 and defense counsel's firm having technology issues preventing a telephonic Arbitration Hearing. Plaintiff argues that Defendant failed to serve an Arbitration Brief in March, and although she benefitted from the hearing being rescheduled to May, Defendant failed to serve a timely brief because it was not served until May 11, 2020, the eve before the May 12, 2020 Arbitration Hearing. The Notice of Change of Arbitration Hearing Date/Time stated that the Arbitration Brief was due by May 7, 2020.

Moreover, Plaintiff argues that Defendant did not attend the Arbitration Hearing, and did not oppose Plaintiff's Motion for Costs, Interest, and Attorney's fees. Last, Plaintiff argues that the decision to request a Trial de Novo rests solely with the client and defense counsel has not communicated with Defendant throughout the litigation thereby indicating that Defendant did not authorize the filing of the Request for Trial de Novo.

In Defendant's opposition, defense counsel concedes that he was unsuccessful in communicating with Defendant and as a result could not respond to Plaintiff's interrogatories. Defendant argues that Defendant's participation at the Arbitration Hearing was not necessary because duty and breach were conceded and the only issues that remained were causation and damages, and the Defendant has a right to a civil jury trial under the Nevada Constitution.

NAR 18 allows a party to file a request for trial de novo within 30 days after the arbitration award is served upon the parties. The party requesting trial de novo must certify that all arbitrator fees and costs for such party have been paid or shall be paid within 30 days, or that an objection is pending and any balance of fees or costs shall be paid in accordance with subsection (C) Rule 18.

Here, the Arbitration Award was entered on June 1, 2020. Defendant's Request for Trial de Novo was filed on June 30, 2020 and contained the certification statement. Therefore, THE COURT FINDS that Defendant's Request for Trial de Novo was timely.

NAR 22(A) states that the failure of a party or an attorney to defend a case in good faith during the arbitration proceedings shall constitute a waiver of the right to a trial de novo.

The Nevada Supreme Court has held that all sanctioning orders under NAR 22(A) must be accompanied by specific written findings of fact and conclusions of law describing what type of conduct was at issue and how that conduct rose to the level of failed good faith participation. Chamberland v. Labarbera, 110 Nev. 701, 705, 877 P.2d 523, 525 (1994).

The Nevada Supreme Court has stated that although the Nevada Constitution provides a litigant with the right to a jury trial in civil proceedings. Nev. Const. art. 1, § 3, this right can be waived by various means prescribed by law. One of those means is NAR 22, which states that the district court may sanction an arbitration participant by striking a request for a trial de novo if the participant has not acted in good faith. Gittings v. Hartz, 116 Nev. 386, 390, 996 P.2d 898, 900 01 (2000).

The Nevada Supreme Court has equated good faith with meaningful participation in the arbitration proceedings. Gittings, 116 Nev. at 390, citing Casino Properties, Inc. v. Andrews, 112 Nev. 132, 135, 911 P.2d 1181, 1182 83 (1996). However, the mere failure of a party to attend or call witnesses in an arbitration hearing does not amount to bad faith or a lack of meaningful participation. Id. at 392. It is the substance of the arbitration that is important in determining the good faith of the participants. Gittings v. Hartz, 116 Nev. 386, 393, 996 P.2d 898, 902 (2000).

A party's failure to respond to interrogatories and requests for production, or otherwise fail to participate in discovery may be grounds for striking a trial de novo request if the failure to provide the requested discovery had an impact on the arbitration proceedings or Plaintiff's ability to present their case. Bakke v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., No. 75342-COA, 2019 WL 6003341, at *2 3 (Nev. App. Nov. 13, 2019)

Plaintiff argued that he was prohibited from properly preparing for the Arbitration and from preparing for the numerous personal attacks contained in Defendant's Arbitration Brief, which was filed the day before the re-scheduled Arbitration Hearing. Plaintiff further stated that he was not able to fully prosecute his case due to Defendant's absence.

THE COURT FINDS that Defendant failed to respond to interrogatories, requests for production, or appear at her deposition, which was noticed twice.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Defendant failed to produce any of the documents requested by Plaintiff during discovery.

Therefore, THE COURT FINDS the Defendant's failure to participate in discovery and failure to provide the requested discovery had a negative impact on Plaintiff's ability to adequately prepare for the arbitration proceedings and on Plaintiff's ability to present his case.

The original Arbitration Hearing was scheduled for March 19, 2020. Defendant's deposition had been re-set to March 4, 2020, the last day of discovery, due to Defendant's failure to appear at the first scheduled deposition based on counsel's inability to communicate with Defendant. On March 3, 2020, the day before Defendant's second deposition and nearly two weeks before the Arbitration Hearing, defense counsel's office emailed plaintiff's counsel stating we have been unsuccessful at reaching our client. Therefore we want to cancel the depo and will concede liability. Please cancel the deposition. Thank you.

Moreover, Defendant's Arbitration Brief stated that it was anticipated that the named Parties will testify at the arbitration hearing. (Id. at p. 7). However, Defendant did not appear at the Arbitration Hearing.

THE COURT FINDS that defense counsel's last minute concession of liability on the last day of discovery as a means to vacate the deposition of Defendant, who had already failed to respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests caused unnecessary burden and expense to Plaintiff. Plaintiff was unable to adequately conduct discovery due to Defendant's failure to respond to interrogatories and requests for production. This was exacerbated by Defendant's failure to appear for her deposition, which also caused Plaintiff to incur additional costs, and caused Plaintiff's counsel to spend unnecessary time preparing for Defendant's deposition, twice. The lack of any type of testimony under oath from Defendant prevented Plaintiff from addressing statements made in Defendant's recorded statement or obtaining information from Defendant about the subject accident and relevant to Plaintiff's claims.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Defendant's Arbitration Brief consisted mainly of attacks on Plaintiff's credibility citing contradictions in Plaintiff's discovery responses and deposition testimony. However, Defendant prevented Plaintiff from being able to conduct this type of analysis as Defendant did not respond to interrogatories, did not appear for her deposition, and did not attend the Arbitration hearing. Plaintiff had no opportunity to elicit any testimony from Defendant whatsoever.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Defendant's Arbitration Brief explicitly called Plaintiff a liar stating [b]ecause he has lied and been evasive, and because his case is reliant on the credibility of the oral representations made to his treatment providers. Therefore, testimony about the accident was a necessary part of Plaintiff's case. However, Plaintiff did not have the ability to elicit testimony from Defendant about the nature and extent of the impact, the speed at which she was traveling, whether she applied the brakes, or whether Defendant herself sustained any injuries from the subject collision so as to address the attacks on Plaintiff's testimony. Plaintiff was provided with Defendant's recorded statement, but had no opportunity to obtain any testimony from Defendant under oath and did not have the ability to cross-examine Defendant about the basis for her statements concerning Plaintiff's veracity as contained in her brief.

Therefore, THE COURT FINDS that Plaintiff's inability to conduct any discovery or elicit any testimony from Defendant negatively impacted Plaintiff's case such that Defendant did not meaningfully participate in the Arbitration proceedings resulting in bad faith participation.

There may be many valid reasons why a party would not wish to expend money at the arbitration stage of a case on medical experts. Effective cross-examination may be sufficient to point out discrepancies in a person's claim of injury without such testimony, or without presentation of countervailing medical evidence. Gittings v. Hartz, 116 Nev. 386, 392, 996 P.2d 898, 902 (2000)

Defendant did not provide any expert testimony in support of her challenge to Plaintiff's injuries and treatment. Defendant's Arbitration Brief called for the Arbitrator to make a "Common Sense Evaluation" stating that "the arbitrator is not bound by case law to award Plaintiff his entire claimed medical specials, merely because Defendant has not retained a medical expert at this juncture of the case." (Defendant's Arbitration Brief, p. 6).

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that although standing alone a lack of medical experts is not a sufficient basis to strike a Request for Trial de Novo, in this matter Plaintiff received no discovery from Defendant leaving counsel's arguments in the late-filed Arbitration Brief as the only evidence regarding Plaintiff's medical treatment contained in the proceedings record. Therefore, although defense counsel argued that causation and damages were the only issues to be decided after counsel conceded liability on the last day of discovery in order to avoid Defendant's re-noticed deposition, Defendant produced no evidence during the Arbitration proceedings that provided a basis for Plaintiff to ascertain what causation and damages defenses were being presented.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Defendant's failure to oppose Plaintiff's Motion for Attorney's Fees, Costs, and Interest provided further evidence to lack of meaningful participation in the Arbitration proceedings.

As a result, Defendant's failure to respond to Plaintiff's interrogatories and requests for production, failure to appear for her deposition (twice), failure to present any expert testimony to support the arguments about Plaintiff's medical treatment and damages, failure to appear for the Arbitration Hearing, and failure to oppose Plaintiff's Motion for Attorney's Fees and Costs demonstrate a pattern lacking meaningful participation in the Arbitration proceeding resulting in a lack of a good faith defense of this case such that sanctions pursuant to NAR 22(A) are warranted.

Based on the foregoing, THE COURT FINDS that Defendant VERONICA JAZMIN CASTILLO failed to meaningfully participate in the Arbitration proceedings and failed to defend this case in good faith; pursuant to NAR 22(A) such failure shall constitute a waiver of the right to trial de novo.

Therefore, Plaintiff Armando Pons-Diaz' Motion to Strike Defendant's Request for Trial de Novo is hereby GRANTED.

Plaintiff's counsel is to prepare the Order in accordance with this Minute Order pursuant to EDCR 7.21 and in compliance with Administrative Order 20-17.

 21 ATTORNEYS, appearing as counsel for Plaintiff, and, TRAVIS AKIN, ESQ. of STORM LEGAL 22 GROUP, appearing as counsel for Defendant VERONICA JAZMIN CASTILLO (hereinafter referred 23 to as "Defendant");

24 The Court having reviewed the matter, including exhibits, all points and authorities, and for 25 good cause appearing, hereby GRANTS Plaintiff Armando Pons-Diaz Motion to Strike Defendant's
 26 Request for Trial de Novo, based on the following:

27 This matter arises out of a car accident that occurred on December 15, 2017. Plaintiff alleged 28 that he was travelling southbound on Arville Street, attempting to make a right turn onto Spring

1 Mountain Road when his vehicle was struck by Defendant s vehicle who failed to yield right of way to 2 Plaintiff.

3 Plaintiff argues that Defendant failed participate in the Arbitration proceedings in good faith
4 because Defendant failed to participate in discovery during the Arbitration phase, failed to produce
5 documents in discovery, failed to respond to Plaintiff's Interrogatories and Requests for Production,
6 and failed to appear at her deposition which was re-scheduled twice due to defense counsel's
7 inability to locate defendant.

8 Plaintiff further argues Defendant failed to timely serve her Arbitration brief. The Arbitration
9 Hearing in this matter was originally scheduled for March 19, 2020, and Plaintiff served his Arbitration
10 Brief on March 13, 2020, in accordance with the Arbitration Discovery Order. The 11 Arbitration Hearing was rescheduled due to COVID-19 and defense counsel's firm having 12 technology issues preventing a telephonic Arbitration Hearing. Plaintiff argues that Defendant failed to 13 serve an Arbitration Brief in March, and although she benefitted from the hearing being rescheduled to 14 May, Defendant failed to serve a timely brief because it was not served until May 11, 2020, the eve
15 before the May 12, 2020 Arbitration Hearing. The Notice of Change of Arbitration Hearing Date/Time
16 stated that the Arbitration Brief was due by May 7, 2020.

17 Moreover, Plaintiff argues that Defendant did not attend the Arbitration Hearing, and did not 18 oppose Plaintiff s Motion for Costs, Interest, and Attorney's fees. Last, Plaintiff argues that the decision
19 to request a Trial de Novo rests solely with the client and defense counsel has not communicated with 20 Defendant throughout the litigation thereby indicating that Defendant did not authorize the filing of the 21 Request for Trial de Novo.

22 In Defendant's opposition, defense counsel concedes that he was unsuccessful in 23 communicating with Defendant and as a result could not respond to Plaintiff's interrogatories.
24 Defendant argues that Defendant's participation at the Arbitration Hearing was not necessary because 25 duty and breach were conceded and the only issues that remained were causation and damages, and the 26 Defendant has a right to a civil jury trial under the Nevada Constitution.
27

28 NAR 18 allows a party to file a request for trial de novo within 30 days after the arbitration award is served upon the parties. The party requesting trial de novo must certify that all arbitrator fees

1 and costs for such party have been paid or shall be paid within 30 days, or that an objection is pending
2 and any balance of fees or costs shall be paid in accordance with subsection (C) Rule 18. Here, the 3 Arbitration Award was entered on June 1, 2020. Defendant's Request for Trial de Novo was filed on 4 June 30, 2020 and contained the certification statement. Therefore, the Court finds that Defendant's
5 Request for Trial de Novo was timely.

6 NAR 22(A) states that the failure of a party or an attorney to defend a case in good faith during 7 the arbitration proceedings shall constitute a waiver of the right to a trial de novo.

8 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that all sanctioning orders under NAR 22(A) must be 9 accompanied by specific written findings of fact and conclusions of law describing what type of 10 conduct was at issue and how that conduct rose to the level of failed good faith participation.
11 Chamberland v. Labarbera, 110 Nev. 701, 705, 877 P.2d 523, 525 (1994).

12 The Nevada Supreme Court has stated that although the Nevada Constitution provides a litigant
13 with the right to a jury trial in civil proceedings. Nev. Const. art. 1, 3, this right can be waived by 14 various means prescribed by law. One of those means is NAR 22, which states that the district court
15 may sanction an arbitration participant by striking a request for a trial de novo if the participant has not 16 acted in good faith. Gittings v. Hartz, 116 Nev. 386, 390, 996 P.2d 898, 900 01 (2000).

17 The Nevada Supreme Court has equated good faith with meaningful participation in the 18 arbitration proceedings. Gittings, 116 Nev. at 390, citing Casino Properties, Inc. v. Andrews, 112 Nev.
19 132, 135, 911 P.2d 1181, 1182 83 (1996). However, the mere failure of a party to attend or call
20 witnesses in an arbitration hearing does not amount to bad faith or a lack of meaningful participation.
21 Id. at 392. It is the substance of the arbitration that is important in determining the good faith of the 22 participants. Gittings v. Hartz, 116 Nev. 386, 393, 996 P.2d 898, 902 (2000).

23 A party's failure to respond to interrogatories and requests for production, or otherwise fail to 24 participate in discovery may be grounds for striking a trial de novo request if the failure to provide the 25 requested discovery had an impact on the arbitration proceedings or Plaintiff's ability to present their 26 case. Bakke v. Am. Family Mut. Ins. Co., No. 75342-COA, 2019 WL 6003341, at *2 3 (Nev. App.
27 Nov. 13, 2019).

1 Plaintiff argued that he was prohibited from properly preparing for the Arbitration and from
2 preparing for the numerous personal attacks contained in Defendant's Arbitration Brief, which was
3 filed the day before the re-scheduled Arbitration Hearing. Plaintiff further stated that he was not able to 4 fully prosecute his case due to Defendant's absence.

5 THE COURT FINDS that Defendant failed to respond to interrogatories, requests for 6 production, or appear at her deposition, which was noticed twice.

7 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Defendant failed to produce any of the documents
8 requested by Plaintiff during discovery.

9 THE COURT THEREFORE FURTHER FINDS the Defendant's failure to participate in 10 discovery and failure to provide the requested discovery had a negative impact on Plaintiff's ability to 11 adequately prepare for the arbitration proceedings and on Plaintiff's ability to present his case.

12 The original Arbitration Hearing was scheduled for March 19, 2020. Defendant's deposition
13 had been re-set to March 4, 2020, the last day of discovery, due to Defendant's failure to appear at the 14 first scheduled deposition based on counsel's inability to communicate with Defendant. On March 3,
15 2020, the day before Defendant's second deposition and nearly two weeks before the Arbitration
16 Hearing, Defense counsel's office emailed Plaintiff's counsel stating they had been unsuccessful at 17 reaching their client (the Defendant), and therefore conceded liability and asked to cancel the 18 deposition that day. Moreover, Defendant's Arbitration Brief stated that it was anticipated that the 19 named Parties will testify at the arbitration hearing. (Id. at p. 7). However, Defendant did not appear at 20 the Arbitration Hearing.

21 THE COURT FINDS that Defense counsel's last minute concession of liability on the last
22 day of discovery as a means to vacate the deposition of Defendant, who had already failed to respond
23 to Plaintiff's discovery requests caused unnecessary burden and expense to Plaintiff. Plaintiff was 24 unable to adequately conduct discovery due to Defendant's failure to respond to interrogatories and 25 requests for production. This was exacerbated by Defendant's failure to appear for her deposition,
26 which also caused Plaintiff to incur additional costs, and caused Plaintiff's counsel to spend 27 unnecessary time preparing for Defendant's deposition, twice. The lack of any type of testimony under 28 oath from Defendant prevented Plaintiff from addressing statements made in Defendant's recorded

1 statement or obtaining information from Defendant about the subject accident and relevant to 2 Plaintiff's claims.

3 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Defendant's Arbitration Brief consisted mainly of 4 attacks on Plaintiff's credibility, citing contradictions in Plaintiff's discovery responses and deposition
5 testimony. However, Defendant prevented Plaintiff from being able to conduct this type of analysis as 6 Defendant did not respond to interrogatories, did not appear for her deposition, and did not attend the 7 Arbitration hearing. Plaintiff had no opportunity to elicit any testimony from Defendant whatsoever.

8 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Defendant's Arbitration Brief explicitly called Plaintiff
9 a liar, stating [b]ecause he has lied and been evasive, and because his case is reliant on the credibility of 10 the oral representations made to his treatment providers. Therefore, testimony about the accident was a 11 necessary part of Plaintiff's case. However, Plaintiff did not have the ability to elicit testimony from 12 Defendant about the nature and extent of the impact, the speed at which she was traveling, whether she 13 applied the brakes, or whether Defendant herself sustained any injuries from the subject collision
14 so as to address the attacks on Plaintiff's testimony. Plaintiff was provided with Defendant's recorded 15 statement, but had no opportunity to obtain any testimony from Defendant under oath and did not have 16 the ability to cross-examine Defendant about the basis for her statements concerning Plaintiff's veracity
17 as contained in her brief.

18
19 THE COURT THEREFORE FINDS that Plaintiff's inability to conduct any discovery or 20 elicit any testimony from Defendant negatively impacted Plaintiff's case such that Defendant did not 21 meaningfully participate in the Arbitration proceedings resulting in bad faith participation.

22 There may be many valid reasons why a party would not wish to expend money at the 23 arbitration stage of a case on medical experts. Effective cross-examination may be sufficient to point 24 out discrepancies in a person's claim of injury without such testimony, or without presentation of 25 countervailing medical evidence. Gittings v. Hartz, 116 Nev. 386, 392, 996 P.2d 898, 902 (2000).

26 Defendant did not provide any expert testimony in support of her challenge to Plaintiff's
27 injuries and treatment. Defendant's Arbitration Brief called for the Arbitrator to make a "Common 28 Sense Evaluation" stating that "the arbitrator is not bound by case law to award Plaintiff his entire

1 claimed medical specials, merely because Defendant has not retained a medical expert at this juncture
2 of the case." (Defendant s Arbitration Brief, p. 6)

3 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that standing alone, a lack of medical experts is not a
4 sufficient basis to strike a Request for Trial de Novo, however in this matter Plaintiff received no
5 discovery from Defendant. This left counsel's arguments in the late-filed Arbitration Brief as the only 6 evidence regarding Plaintiff's medical treatment contained in the proceedings record. Therefore,
7 although defense counsel argued that causation and damages were the only issues to be decided after 8 counsel conceded liability on the last day of discovery in order to avoid Defendant's re-noticed
9 deposition, Defendant produced no evidence during the Arbitration proceedings that provided a basis
10 for Plaintiff to ascertain what causation and damages defenses were being presented.

11 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Defendant's failure to oppose Plaintiff's Motion for 12 Attorney's Fees, Costs, and Interest provided further evidence to lack of meaningful participation in the 13 Arbitration proceeding. As a result, Defendant's failure to respond to Plaintiff's interrogatories and 14 requests for production, failure to appear for her deposition (twice), failure to present any expert
15 testimony to support the arguments about Plaintiff s medical treatment and damages, failure to appear
16 for the Arbitration Hearing, and failure to oppose Plaintiff's Motion for Attorney's Fees and Costs
17 demonstrate a pattern lacking meaningful participation in the Arbitration proceeding resulting in a lack 18 of a good faith defense of this case such that sanctions pursuant to NAR 22(A) are warranted.

19 THE COURT FINDS that Defendant VERONICA JAZMIN CASTILLO failed
20 to meaningfully participate in the Arbitration proceedings and failed to defend this case in good faith;
21 pursuant to NAR 22(A) such failure shall constitute a waiver of the right to trial de novo.
