CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER

This is an appeal from a district court order denying a pretrial petition for a writ of habeas corpus or, in the alternative, a petition for a writ of mandamus challenging a bail determination. Respondents have moved to dismiss the appeal on the ground that no appeal lies from an order denying a pretrial petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Castillo v. State, 106 Nev. 349, 352, 792 P.2d 1133, 1135 (1990). Appellant opposes the motion and argues that this court has jurisdiction based on NRS 2.090 (the Supreme Court “has jurisdiction to review upon appeal . . . an order granting or refusing to grant an injunction or mandamus in the case provided for by law”).

After considering the arguments of the parties, this court concludes that these arguments are best resolved by the panel assigned to resolve this case on the merits. Accordingly, the motion to dismiss is denied without prejudice to this court's right to consider the issue of jurisdiction and the appropriate procedural process as this court's analysis of the merits proceeds.

It is so ORDERED.
