

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

TRACY LEE CASTL,
Appellant,
vs.
PENNYMAC HOLDINGS, LLC,
Respondent.

No. 82296

FILED

MAR 10 2022

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY  CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

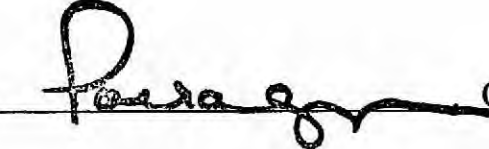

ORDER DENYING MOTION

Appellant has filed a motion for a sixth extension of time to file the opening brief and for reconsideration of the order denying her motion for a fifth extension of time. Appellant asserts that she has not received exhibits from the court reporter. Respondent opposes the motion and moves to dismiss this appeal.

When this court denied appellant's fifth motion for an extension of time, appellant was advised that exhibits are properly ordered from the district court clerk, not the court reporter and that appellant's failure to timely and properly request copies of exhibits does not constitute extraordinary circumstances and extreme need warranting an additional extension of time. In the current motion, appellant again seems to indicate that the court reporter has not provided the exhibits. Appellant does not indicate that she has contacted the clerk of the district court to obtain copies of any necessary exhibits. Accordingly, appellant does not demonstrate extraordinary circumstances and extreme need warranting a sixth extension of time. Appellant also fails to demonstrate that reconsideration of the order denying her motion for a fifth extension of time is warranted. The motion is denied.

Appellant shall have 7 days from the date of this order to file and serve the opening brief and appendix. Any additional extensions will be granted only on showing of extraordinary circumstances and extreme need. NRAP 31(b)(3)(B). Counsel's caseload normally will not be deemed such a circumstance. Cf. Varnum v. Grady, 90 Nev. 374, 528 P.2d 1027 (1974). Respondent's motion to dismiss this appeal is denied at this time. However, appellant is cautioned that failure to timely file the opening brief and appendix may result in the imposition of sanctions, including the dismissal of this appeal. NRAP 30(d).

It is so ORDERED.
