As for the Sao for dismissal of the appeals with prejudice sounds good. As for number (ii) it is meant to say that all actions to enforce are done in the Court and any terms that would be applicable to enforcement of an agreement that are not specifically set out in the agreement are incorporated into it. Jerimy,

I think that if Kyla withdraws instead of a stipulated dismissal, she may be responsible for costs all around. Maybe check the rules and we can just do a stipulated dismissal with prejudice.

Thanks,

Liane

Couple of quick notes:

1. Kyla will be withdrawing the appeals which acts as a dismissal with prejudice, however the order says she must do a dismissal with prejudice. Can you simply order that she is to withdraw the appeals within 10 days?
2. Also, not sure what this phrase means" (iii) the Settlement Agreement is enforceable with any actions to enforce the agreement to be brought to this Court with any terms of enforceability that are not explicitly set out in the agreement are incorporated into the agreement;" Do you mean "any actions to enforce this Settlement Agreement must be brought to this Court" ?
