ORDER DENYING STAY

These consolidated appeals are from a post-divorce decree order reducing child support and spousal support arrearages to judgment and an order awarding attorney fees and costs. Appellant has filed a motion to stay any enforcement of the orders until this court issues a decision on the appeals. Respondent opposes the motion.

When considering a motion for a stay pending appeal, this court considers the following factors: whether (1) the object of the appeal will be defeated absent a stay, (2) appellant will suffer irreparable or serious harm without a stay, (3) respondent will suffer irreparable or serious harm if a stay is granted, and (4) appellant is likely to prevail on the merits of the appeal. NRAP 8(c). Having considered appellant's arguments in light of these factors, this court concludes that the factors do not militate in favor of a stay. Accordingly, the motion for stay is denied. NRAP 8(c).

It is so ORDERED.
