FILED

MAY 12 2021

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

Rule 208. Powers and duties of board. Subject to oversight by the court, the board shall administer these rules. Without limiting the generality of this duty, the board has the following specific powers and duties:

1. To accredit individual courses and all or portions of programs of continuing legal education which, in the judgment of the board, will satisfy the educational requirements of these rules, according to regulations adopted by the board and to assess fees regarding such programs upon sponsors and attorneys subject to these rules in accordance with regulations adopted by the board.

2. To grant accredited sponsorship status to certain sponsors of continuing legal education courses or programs, on such terms or conditions as the board may deem appropriate, according to regulations adopted by the board.

3. To determine the number of hours of credit each participant shall be entitled to receive for attendance or participation in each accredited course or educational activity, according to regulations adopted by the board.

4. To discover and encourage the offering of courses and programs which will satisfy the educational requirements of these rules, whether offered within or without the State of Nevada.

5. To adopt, publish, and enforce regulations within the limits of and consistent with these powers and duties; provided, any significant alteration of the board's business model is subject to prior court approval.

6. To adopt and publish forms to facilitate compliance with these rules and the board's regulations.

7. Subject to prior court approval, to adopt bylaws to govern the internal conduct of its affairs. Any amendments to existing bylaws shall, however, require prior court approval.

8. To make recommendations to the court concerning these rules.

9. To report at least annually, no later than ninety (90) days after December 31, to the court and board of governors concerning its operations and financial condition. On the application of the board of governors or on its own motion, the court may order the board to review these rules or any of its regulations, forms, or bylaws and to report to the court concerning any proposed amendments thereto.

10. To collect an annual fee from each attorney subject to these rules, and to assess fees and other penalties for noncompliance with these rules. All fees collected must be utilized for the cost of administration by the board of these rules.

11. To sue and be sued in its own name, and to carry out and defend the purposes, duties, and powers imposed upon or granted to the board in these rules. Individual members of the board, its executive director, and all staff persons assisting them shall have absolute immunity from civil liability for all acts undertaken in the course of their official duties pursuant to these rules.

12. To refer to the state bar for appropriate disciplinary action any attorney who engages in perceived illegal or unethical conduct in response to any of the requirements of these rules.
