ANNUAL DUES AND OTHER CHARGES.

The annual dues of each member shall be $20, payable in advance by each member. Each member shall also pay monthly, upon rendition of bill at the end of the month, such charges as may be fixed by the Board of Directors for water, power, light, supplies, service, or for any other accommodation rendered him.

ARTICLE XVIII.

CERTIFICATES OF MEMBERSHIP.

Each member, upon payment of his admission fee and his first years' dues shall be entitled to a certificate of membership, a form of which shall be adopted by the Board of Directors. Any and all rights stated by such certificate and any and all stated by these by-laws or by the article of incorporation shall be subject to change and modification by amendment of the Articles of Incorporation or these By-laws.

No certificate of membership nor any right of membership nor right of property shall be assignable without the consent of the Board of Directors given by duly adopted resolution but such consent shall be given upon demand of any member, after payment of all arrearages, provided the proposed assignee is proven to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors to be a member in good standing of a Nevada Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

ARTICLE XIX.

PROPERTY RIGHTS OF MEMBERS.

Each membership shall entitle the legal holder thereof to the use and occupation during the life of his membership, of one lot of land owned by the club, the particular lot to be assigned to him by the Board of Directors and designated in his certificate of membership, provided that members may have choice of lots in the order in which they have signed for membership and that lots so chosen by them shall be assigned them by the directors. Each member shall use the lot so assigned to him for himself, his own immediate family and temporary guests. He shall not permit improvements to be erected thereon by others and shall have no power to lease, sublet or otherwise part with the exclusive ownership and control of the whole or any part of the lot assigned to him.

ARTICLE XX.

TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP.

Membership shall be terminated by the owner ceasing for any reason to remain a member in good standing of a Nevada Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, by his resignation from this Club, by his expulsion therefrom, by attempting to transfer his membership or any incidental right without the consent of the Board of Directors, by his death, and by his failure after demand and for six months thereafter to pay any sums for which he may have become indebted to the Club.

ARTICLE XXI.

EXPULSIONS

A member may be expelled for any cause deemed sufficient by the Board of Directors after investigation and an opportunity to the accused to be heard. A two-thirds vote of the Board shall be necessary for an expulsion. The accused may serve upon the Board a notice of appeal to the membership and the Board shall forthwith call a meeting of the members for the purpose of considering the appeal at which the accused shall have a further opportunity to be heard. If a majority of those present vote to sustain the action of the Board the expulsion shall be final, but if not the accused shall retain his membership.

ARTICLE

FORFEITURES.

A membership shall be forfeited upon the termination of the membership by any of the causes mentioned in Article XX. hereof and it shall thereupon become the duty of the Board of Directors to declare such membership so forfeited.

ARTICLE XXIII.

PROPERTY RIGHTS AFTER FORFEITURES.

Upon forfeiture of a membership all rights of its former owner in or upon the property of the club and in or upon the particular property incidental to his membership shall cease.

The Board of Directors shall thereupon equitably appraise the lot formerly occupied by the member and the improvements thereon as made by him and the said lot and improvements shall be deemed to be and shall be his only interest in the property of the club.

The club shall thereafter have the option to pay to the member, or his legal representatives, in full of all his rights, the following:

Upon the death or expulsion of a member, the full appraised value thereof as determined by the Board of Directors. But in cases of expulsion such payment shall be obligatory upon the club and shall be made within sixty days of the expulsion.

Upon the termination or forfeiture of membership for any other cause seventy-five per cent of such appraised value.

Such payments shall be less all arrearages to the club.

In case the club shall not, within ninety days of its accrual, exercise its option and pay to the member, or his legal representative, the amount payable for his rights then the member, or his legal representatives, shall have the privilege of disposing of the former membership and of all interests of such former member, in the club, to any member in good standing of a Nevada Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, and if this privilege is exercised the Board of Directors shall approve the transfer and, upon payment of the first years' dues and all arrearages of the former member, issue a full certificate of membership to the transferee.

In the event that such privilege shall not be exercised within one year after its accrual, or with within such additional time as may be granted by resolution of the Board of Directors, then all rights of the former member shall terminate and all of his interest shall revert to the club; provided, however, that if any deceased member shall leave a widow, such widow may, during her widowhood, and thereafter should she remarry a Nevada Elk in good standing and while he remains a Nevada Elk in good standing, retain the property privileges, subject to all the liabilities of such deceased member.

Whenever the club shall acquire the interest of any former member it may dispose of such interest, by action of the Board of Directors, to any member in good standing of any Nevada Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, but in so doing it shall exact from him in addition to his admission fee, upon such terms as it may deem best, such additional sum as it may deem proper in order to make the amount paid equivalent to the actual value of the interest disposed of.

ARTICLE XXIV.

TAXES.

Whenever, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, it shall be deemed desirable, the Board may charge back to any member an amount equal approximately to the taxes upon the land, or land and improvements, occupied by such member.

ARTICLE XXV.

DISSOLUTION.

Upon the termination of the life of the corporation or upon its sooner dissolution for any cause the particular lots assigned to each member shall become vested in them and the corporation shall deed each such lot to the member then entitled to it. All other assets shall be converted into cash and the net thereof divided among the members. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent a renewal of the charter of the corporation in the manner provided by law thereby extending the life of the corporation.
