Brief Nature of the Action:

Petitioner Ashley Bennett, filed a Petition for Determination of Factual Innocence pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. 34.960. Specifically, Mr. Bennett requested the district court order a hearing to examine the newly discovered evidence, along with other reliable evidence, establishing Mr. Bennett's factual innocence.

6 Mr. Bennett asserted that the newly discovered evidence, when considered with all the 7 other evidence, raised a bona fide and compelling claim of Mr. Bennett's Factual Innocence. 8 Under Nev. Rev. Stat. 34.960, newly discovered evidence must be "material" and must not rely 9 "solely on the recantation of the testimony of a witness against the petitioner." Specifically, new 10 evidence includes: 1) a 2017 declaration recanting the only evewitness's trial testimony where 11 Mr. Bennet was identified as one of the shooters; and 2) a 2012 declaration from a wholly new 12 eyewitness, Mr. Walker, to the shooting stating Mr. Bennett was not involved in the crime. 13 Importantly, Nev. Rev. Stat. 34.960 does not preclude evidence of recantation, but simply states 14 the recantation of a single witness is not alone sufficient to create a bona fide issue of factual 15 innocence.

Another requirement for newly discovered evidence is that it must not "merely be cumulative of evidence that was known" at the time of trial. See Nev. Rev. Stat. 34.930. First, recantations by their very nature cannot be cumulative. Further, Mr. Bennett was convicted solely on witness testimony that falsely framed him for murder. Second, the 2012 declaration is from a new eyewitness, unavailable at the time of trial. This newly discovered evidence is of a completely different nature than anything presented at trial, and directly refutes the only evidence against Mr. Bennett.

Under the Innocence Statute, new evidence cannot merely be impeachment evidence, used to attack the credibility of a witness. In this case, Mr. Walker's statement asserts that he was an eyewitness to the crime and that Mr. Bennett was not the perpetrator and is not merely 1 impeachment evidence. 2 3 Finally, Nev. Rev. Stat. 34.960 requires the petitioner show that when viewed with all 4 other evidence in the case, regardless of whether such evidence was admitted during trial, the 5 newly discovered evidence demonstrates factual innocence. The new evidence in this case, standing alone, proves Mr. Bennett's innocence. When combined with all other relevant 6 7 evidence, the only reasonable conclusion is that Mr. Bennett was wrongfully convicted and 8 should be declared factually innocent or, at the very least, receive a hearing on his claim of 9 factual innocence.

Type of Order Being Appealed:

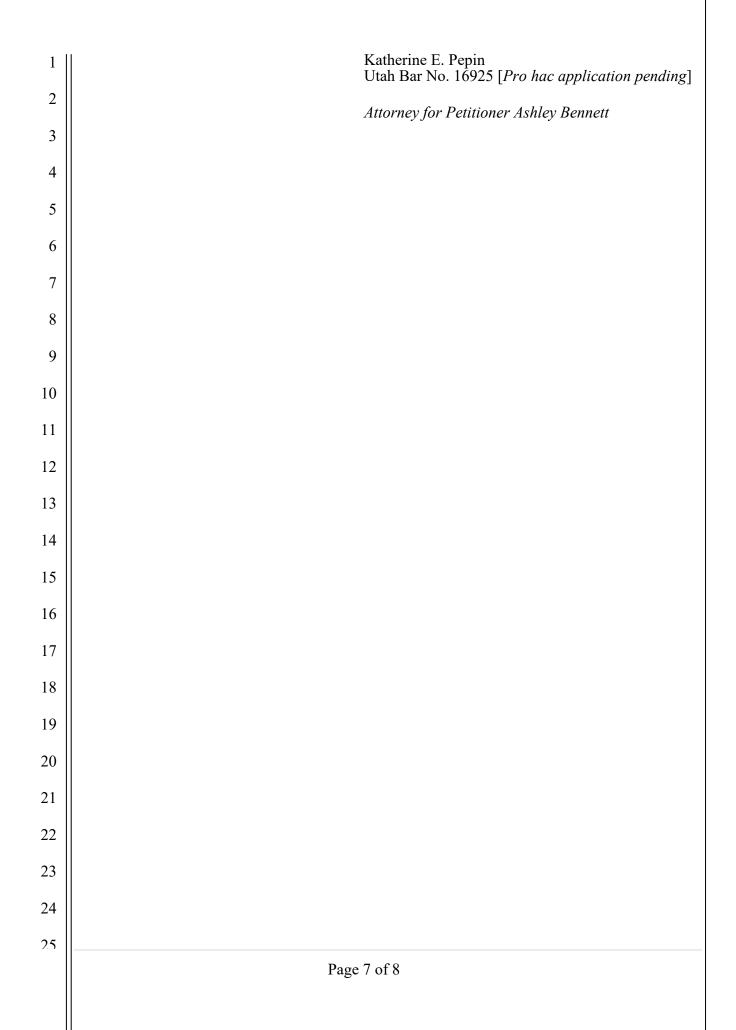

Order Denying Defendant's Petition for Determination of Factual Innocence.

Relief Granted/Denied by District Court:

The district court erroneously denied the Petition for Determination of Factual Innocence, finding that Mr. Bennett did not meet two of the requirements outlined in Nev. Rev. Stat. 34.960. 15 Specifically, the district court erred in holding that Mr. Walker's declaration is impeachment 16 evidence and Ms. Neil's affidavit is recantation evidence. First, Mr. Walker's statement is not impeachment evidence. Rather, he is a wholly new eyewitness who indicates definitively that 18 Mr. Bennett was not involved in the crime. Mr. Walker's statement does not qualify as 19 impeachment evidence because as of 2017 no evewitness placed Mr. Bennett at the scene.

20 Second, although Ms. Neil's declaration is a recantation of her trial testimony, it is not 21 the sole evidence showing Mr. Bennett's innocence. Importantly, the district court overlooked 22 the clear language of Nev. Rev. Stat. 34.960 which does not preclude evidence of recantation, 23 but simply states the recantation of a single witness is not alone sufficient to create a bona fide 24 issue of factual innocence. Here, the new evidence includes Ms. Neil's recantation as well as

1	Mr. W	alker's eyewitness account of the crim	ne. Further, evidence presented after trial supports
2	Mr. Be	ennett's claim of innocence. This incl	udes the declaration of one of Mr. Bennett's co-
3	defendants stating that Mr. Bennett was not involved in the crime.
