9 MAYRA E. ARREGUIN,
10 Petitioner,

11 vs.

12 JAVIER RAMIREZ-RIVAS,
13 Respondent.

ORDER AFTER JANUARY 7, 2021

15 This matter comes before the Court on an Order After December 17, 2020 Hearing on 16 Respondent's Motion Regarding the Children, filed on December 2, 2020. In the Order, the 17 Court noted Petitioner did not attend the hearing because there was no proper notice provided.
18 The Court set another hearing for January 7, 2021. Respondent filed a Motion for Orders to 19 Modify Child Custody, Visitation, and/or Child Support and a Motion to Enforce and/or for an 20 Order to Show Cause Regarding Contempt on December 17, 2020. The Court held a hearing on 21 January 7, 2021. Both parties appeared in their proper persons. Melanie McCormick, CASA
22 Director, also appeared before the Court.

23 Prior to the January 7, 2021 hearing, the Court met in Chambers with the two minor
24 children, EDUARDO JAVIER RAMIREZ ARREGUIN (DOB: 04/13/2006) and CARLOS
25 ADRIAN RAMIREZ ARREGUIN (DOB: 10/09/2007) to discuss concerns with their academics
26 and to ascertain their opinion as to any potential change of custody. At the hearing, the Court
27 noted that both children stated they wanted to continue living with Petitioner, that they were both 28 committed to working harder on their schoolwork to improve their grades, and their feelings

1 about visitation with the Respondent. Eduardo stated he wanted no contact with Respondent, 2 while Carlos stated he wanted to see his dad, but was not able to see him often due to 3 Respondent's work schedule.

4 Respondent expressed his concerns regarding the children's attendance at school and 5 their failure to sign into the online program to participate in classes. Respondent stated he was 6 not asking for the children to reside with him full-time, but rather he desired more access to the 7 children to follow up and provide support regarding their academics. Respondent told the Court 8 he was concerned about the situation and wanted to do whatever he could to avoid the children 9 from falling further behind and making things worse in the long run.

10 Petitioner stated she stays in communication with the principal at Eagle Valley Middle 11 School ("EVMS"), and she specifically requested that Carlos stay after school to catch up on his 12 schoolwork. Petitioner also indicated she communicates regularly with Carlos regarding his 13 schoolwork, whether he did his homework, or if he needs help with getting anything done, but 14 that Carlos often gets angry when she asks. Petitioner told the Court she has no issues with 15 Eduardo and that he is up to date on his classes. Other than having constant discussions with both 16 children regarding the importance of school and taking responsibility for their work, Petitioner 17 stated she was at a loss as to what else to do to support them academically.

18 Ms. McCormick provided a report to the Court regarding the children's academic issues.
19 Specifically, Ms. McCormick stated she contacted Carlos's academic counselor at EVMS, Ms.
20 Cherie Mathis, who believed it would be beneficial for Carlos to attend Homework Club on a
21 regular basis, after school on Tuesdays and Thursdays, to receive one-on-one help from a teacher
22 who is present with the students in the classroom. Ms. Mathis indicated other teachers are often 23 present after school, so attending Homework Club would allow Carlos to spend time with those 24 teachers for additional assistance and to ensure his assignments are turned in on time. Ms.
25 McCormick recommended both parents contact Ms. Mathis at EVMS to set up a "contract" 26 between themselves, the school, and Carlos and require him to sign and acknowledge his 27 consistent attendance and participation in Homework Club so he may catch up on his classes.
28

1 Regarding Eduardo, Ms. McCormick stated she spoke with Ms. Dorothy Draper,
2 Eduardo's academic counselor at Carson High School ("CHS") to discuss his academic situation.
3 Ms. Draper told Ms. McCormick about forthcoming changes to the academic program in use at 4 CHS, which would enable students to have more one-on-one interaction with their specific 5 teachers on a more consistent basis. This new program is scheduled to roll out beginning January 6 19, 2021, and while it may have initial implementation issues, in the long run, the program is 7 believed to address the struggles of all students in the District in dealing with online education.
8 Ms. McCormick also stated her belief that the academic struggles of both boys are not unique to 9 them or their situation – it is something most, if not all, students are dealing with in the time of 10 the pandemic. Additionally, Eduardo has developed a "safe place" relationship with Ms.
11 Alejandra, a social worker at CHS, who is the school's safety provider. Eduardo has a safe place 12 at school to discuss any issues he may be dealing with.

13 Defendant asked the Court about possible ways to reconcile his relationship with 14 Eduardo. The Court inquired whether the children are currently in any type of counseling.
15 Petitioner stated Eduardo was in counseling last year, but it was discontinued due to insurance 16 issues. The Court then asked whether there was a way for the children to have someone to talk to 17 and hopefully assist, specifically whether Ms. Alejandra could discuss Eduardo's relationship 18 with the Respondent. Ms. McCormick stated that it is possible for Ms. Alejandra to have that 19 conversation with Eduardo, she does not recommend it because of her fear that it would alienate 20 Eduardo's relationship with her. Ms. McCormick stated there was the possibility of working with 21 Lisa Yeddes at the Ron Wood Family Resource Center ("RWFRC"), who previously worked 22 with the family before; however, she noted her concerns with Respondent's ability to realize that 23 any type of reunification is not going to be "an overnight process" and would require Respondent
24 to exercise patience.

25 This Court having heard the information provided by all parties stated its desire not to 26 change custody at this time. The Court reiterated its concerns with the children's academics and 27 education, but believed they are in a similar situation with most students in the District. The 28 Court allowed both parents to contact Ms. Mathis at EVMS to set up an academic contract with

1 Carlos to attend Homework Club on Tuesdays and Thursdays to obtain additional assistance with 2 completing assignments. The Court stressed the importance of Carlos taking every advantage of 3 whatever the School District has to offer him, and this was important for the academic success of 4 both children. Additionally, the Court authorized both parents to contact CHS regarding the new 5 academic program and what they need to do to assist Eduardo in improving his grades. The 6 Court also recommended the parties and Ms. McCormick contact Ms. Yeddes at the RWERC to 7 possibly assist in taking steps to reconcile the relationship between Eduardo and Respondent.
8 The Court stated it is in the best interest of the children for all prior Orders issued remain in 9 effect.

10 Therefore, based on the foregoing and good cause appearing,

11 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Respondent's Motion for Orders to Modify Child
12 Custody, Visitation, and/or Child Support and Motion to Enforce and/or for an Order to Show
13 Cause Regarding Contempt, both filed on December 17, 2020, are DENIED.

14 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that all prior Orders of this Court are to 15 remain in effect.

16 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that both parties may contact Ms. Mathis at 17 EVMS to establish an academic contract with Carlos and to enroll Carlos into the Homework
18 Club on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

19 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that both parties may reach out to CHS in 20 order to obtain additional information about the new academic program and how best to support 21 Eduardo.

22 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent may have telephone contact
23 with Carlos on both Tuesday and Thursday evenings in order to keep apprised of Carlos's 24 education.

25 Dated this 7th day of January, 2021.
