PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY DEFENDANT SHOULD NOT BE FOUND IN CONTEMPT OF COURT, FOR SANCTIONS, TO REDUCE PRIOR ATTORNEY'S FEE AWARD TO JUDGMENT, FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS...DEFENDANT'S OPPOSITION AND COUNTERMOTION FOR ORDER FOR PLAINTIFF TO PAY DENTIST BILL IN FULL AND FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES Mr. Blackham stated most issues have been satisfied since the filing of this motion, but there is an outstanding bill from UMC in the amount of $57.51, for which he believes both parties should be equally responsible. Mr. Blackham requested the $5,000 Attorney's Fee Award be reduced to judgment. Mr. Blackham requested an additional $3,500 in attorney's fees for appearing today, since he believes the matter could have been resolved with defendant's cooperation. Ms. Dupree stated plaintiff owes an outstanding dental bill for a no-show appointment, which amounted to $150.00. Mr. Blackham stated plaintiff paid $75.00 towards the bill and believes defendant should be responsible for the remaining half. Ms. Dupree further stated defendant has no problem with the $5,000 being reduced to judgment, but opposes an additional $3,500 being awarded, in that defendant would have signed off on an order of some sort to have it reduced. She also feels the amount requested for fees far outweigh the amounts in dispute by the parties. Ms. Dupree requested $1,500 for attorney's fees for having to appear today. COURT ORDERED: 1. The Parties have shall no COMMUNICATION with the minor children regarding the case. All COMMUNICATION shall be by EMAIL and/or TEXT only, and should be CIVIL in language. 2. ATTORNEY'S FEES in the amount of $5,000.00, previously owed by defendant, shall be REDUCED to JUDGMENT. 3. Plaintiff shall pay the remaining $75.00 towards the NO-SHOW DENTAL BILL, being this was NOT an unreimbursed medical expense. 4. The UMC balance, if any, shall be DIVIDED equally between the parties. 5. Defendant shall pay an additional $1,000 to plaintiff for ATTORNEY'S FEES, and the amount shall be REDUCED to JUDGMENT. 6. Mr. Blackham shall prepare the Order from today's hearing. ;

4 Alecia Draper reopened the case on December 9, 2014, with the filing of
5 her motion to modify legal and physical custody. Jeffrey Reed's opposition and
6 countermotion was filed on January 2, 2015. The court set an evidentiary
7 hearing. At the evidentiary hearing the parties made a partial agreement. The
8 parties' Stipulation and Order from the January 12, 2015 hearing, was filed on
9 March 18, 2015. It contains the parties' agreement that the court will set an
10 evidentiary hearing to resolve Alecia Draper's request that child support continue
11 for Emily Reed after she graduates from high school due to a disability. The
12 parties agreed to continue the joint legal custody order, and modified Jeffrey
13 Reed's visitation. The parties agreed that Alecia Draper would provide insurance
14 for the children, and that Jeffrey Reed would pay $66.00 per month beginning
15 January 1, 2015, towards the insurance cost. The parties agreed that Jeffrey
16 Reed's child support shall be based on an average income of $60,000.00 per year.
17 Jeffrey Reed's child support was set at $1,450.00 per month beginning January 1,
18 2015, with $725.00 due on the fifth (5th) and $725.00 due on the twentieth (20th)
19 day of each month.

25 On January 14, 2015, the court filed an Order setting the evidentiary
26 hearing to resolve Alecia Draper's request that child support continue for Emily
27
28

1 Reed after she graduates from high school due to a disability for May 11, 2015.
2 On March 9, 2015, Alecia Draper, through counsel, filed Plaintiff's Notice of
3 Withdrawal of request to Continue Child Support for Emily after High School
4 Graduation Due to Child Disability & Request to Vacate Evidentiary Hearing.
5 The court vacated the evidentiary hearing, and Department S statistically closed
6 the case on June 29, 2015, citing the parties' Stipulation and Order filed on March 7 18, 2015.
9

10
11 Jeffrey Reed reopened the case on June 29, 2017, with the filing of his
12 motion to modify child support based upon emancipation of a child. Alecia
13 Draper filed her opposition and countermotion for child support for Emily
14 pursuant to NRS 125B.110 on July 21, 2017. The matter was heard on August
15 28, 2017. At the hearing, the parties agreed that two of the three children had
16 emancipated. The parties agreed that Jeffrey Reed would pay the presumed 17 maximum for one child, $837.00 per month, plus $66.00 per month towards
18 insurance for the remaining minor child. The court continued the matter to 19 November 8, 2017, to address the claim for post-majority support for Emily. The 20 order from the hearing was filed on December 15, 2017.
21
23

24
25 The court heard the matter on November 8, 2017. The court requested
26 briefings in anticipation of an evidentiary hearing. On January 2, 2018, Jeffrey
27
28

1 Reed filed a motion for summary judgment. Alecia Draper's opposition was filed
2 on February 8, 2018. The matter was heard on April 9, 2018. The court took the
3 matter under advisement for decision. Judge Ochoa denied the motion for
4 summary judgment in his Decision and Order filed on May 22, 2018. The court
5 found, in part, that even though Alecia Draper's request to continue child support
6 for Emily was withdrawn on March 9, 2015, Jeffrey Reed continued to pay child
7 support for Emily for the next two years until he filed for child support
8 modification on June 29, 2017. The court found that Emily was receiving Social
9 Security Disability payments, and that there was a factual dispute about whether
10 Emily was disabled prior to age 18, and not able to engage in any substantial
11 gainful activity by reason of her significant and chronic mental impairment. The 12 court concluded that Emily had the right to bring her own action for support from 13 her parents. The court concluded that while a separate action for support was
14 available to Emily because she was an adult, this claim for post-majority child
15 support against the parents could be brought in the parties' divorce case.

21 On July 23, 2018, the case was administratively reassigned to Department
22 H. Alecia Draper became Emily Reed's legal guardian in California in October,
23 2018. On January 22, 2019, Alecia Draper filed a Notice of Joinder in her
24 individual capacity and as Conservator for Emily Reed. On January 22, 2019,
25 Alecia Draper, as Conservator for Emily Reed, filed a motion for child support
26
27
28

1 pursuant to NRS 125B.110. The motion was set for hearing on March 4, 2019.
2 Prior to the hearing, the parties submitted a stipulation and order to continue the
3 hearing. On April 9, 2019, Jeffrey Reed filed a motion to disqualify counsel from
4 bringing the child support claim on behalf of Emily Reed. On April 10, 2019,
5 Alecia Draper, as Conservator for Emily Reed, filed an amended motion for child
6 support pursuant to NRS 125B.110, clarifying that Ms. Draper is seeking child
7 support for Emily solely from Jeffrey Reed. The matter was heard on April 10,
8 2019. The court granted the motion to join Emily Reed as a party in interest. The 9 court set a discovery schedule, and set a case management conference for July 24,
10 2019.
12
13
14

15 The matter was heard on July 24, 2019. The court received a report from
16 counsel concerning the status of discovery, and continued the case management
17 conference to October 23, 2019. On that date, the court received a report from
18 counsel concerning the status of discovery, and continued the case management
19 conference to January 8, 2020. The matter was heard on January 8, 2020, and 20 this case was set for evidentiary hearing on April 16, 2020, and April 17, 2020.
21

23 After the entry of Administrative Orders, AO 20-09 and AO 20-11 in
24 response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the court scheduled a telephone conference
25 with counsel. On March 31, 2020, the court spoke with counsel, and found good 26
27
28

1 cause to continue the evidentiary hearing. The matter was rescheduled for June
2 18, 2020, and June 19, 2020. The court filed a Second Amended Order Setting
3 Evidentiary Hearing on May 12, 2020, resetting the evidentiary hearing for
4 August 6, 2020, and August 7, 2020.
5

7 The evidentiary hearing was held over four days between August 6, 2020,
8 and January 12, 2021. Alecia Draper, Jennifer Love Farrell, Emily Reed, and
9 Jeffrey Reed testified. The court received closing briefs, and the matter was
10 submitted for this decision and order. The court concludes that the witness
11 testimony and the documentary proof admitted at the hearing were sufficient for 12 the court to decide the child support matter.
13

15 FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

16

17 This court has subject matter jurisdiction and personal jurisdiction over the 18 parties to this case.
19

20 A. POST- MAJORITY CHILD SUPPORT

21

22 NRS 125B.110 Support of child with handicap beyond age of majority.

23 1. A parent shall support beyond the age of majority his or her child with a
24 handicap until the child is no longer handicapped or until the child becomes self-
25 supporting. The handicap of the child must have occurred before the age of 26 majority for this duty to apply.
27
28

1 2. For the purposes of this section, a child is self-supporting if the child
2 receives public assistance beyond the age of majority and that assistance is
3 sufficient to meet the child's needs.

4 3. This section does not impair or otherwise affect the eligibility of a person
5 with a handicap to receive benefits from a source other than his or her parents.

6 4. As used in this section, "handicap" means an inability to engage in any
7 substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or
8 mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or
9 can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months.
(Added to NRS by 1987, 2268; A 1991, 1336)

10 The court concludes that the duty to support Emily Reed applies to both
11 parents based on its finding that Emily Reed was handicapped prior to her
12 reaching the age of majority. The court finds that Emily Reed suffered significant
13 mental and physical trauma prior to reaching the age of majority, and that Alecia
14 Draper proved that Emily suffers from severe mental illness. Emily was sexually
15 abused for more than eight years during her minority. The molestation was not 16 discovered until 2014. Emily attempted suicide more than once before she
17 graduated from high school. Records admitted at trial show that Emily suffered
18 panic attacks, and injured herself while in high school. Emily applied for SSI in
19 March, 2014, and she was granted Social Security Disability benefits in October,
20 2015. Jeffrey Reed advanced a defense that Emily was not disabled before she
21 reached the age of majority, and that Emily is not currently disabled. The court
22 heard evidence that Emily graduated from high school with a 3.78 GPA, obtained
23 a California driver's license, and has some independence in Alecia Draper's
24
26
27
28

1 home. The court weighed the evidence as the trier of fact and concludes that
2 Emily is handicapped and that her mental health issues began prior to the age of
3 majority. Emily has been diagnosed with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD),
4 Dissociative Identity Disorder, Major Depressive Disorder, and Dependent
5 Personality Disorder. Exhibit 5 shows that Emily was diagnosed with PTSD,
6 Major Depressive Disorder, and Anxiety Disorder before she turned age eighteen.
7
8

9 Emily is being treated by Dr. Jennifer Love Farrell (Dr. Love). Alecia
10 Draper selected Dr. Love to manage Emily's medication. Dr. Love testified on 11 August 6, 2020, that she has seen Emily approximately 46 times since 2016.
12 Exhibit 14 and Dr. Love's testimony support the finding that Emily continues to
13 suffer from chronic PTSD, Major Depressive Disorder, and Dissociative Identity
14 Disorder, and Dr. Love describes Emily as one of her most severely ill patients.
15 Emily was hospitalized most recently from December 31, 2019, through January 16 27, 2020.
17
18
19

20 Dr. Love testified that Emily has many "alters" and that Emily will switch
21 personalities frequently. Dr. Love testified that Emily suffers auditory
22 hallucinations, and engages in strange public behavior. The court had the
23 opportunity to see Emily testify on August 6, 2020. Emily answered questions
24 from counsel, and testified through several "alters". The court heard from Heidi,
25
26
27
28

1 age 7; Lilly, age 16; Holly, age 2; Dorothy, age 9; and Rose. Emily did not
2 engage as Emily during the testimony. This part of the case was unsettling.
3
4 Counsel for Alecia Draper spoke with Emily the day before the testimony, and
5 coordinated how she would examine Emily and the “alters”. This made Emily’s
6 testimony look contrived. The court carefully considered all of the evidence and 7
8 concludes that Emily’s testimony was not contrived, and was consistent with the 9 observations of Emily’s treating doctors, and the documentary proof.

10
11 The court concludes that Emily Reed is not self-supporting, and that her
12 Social Security Disability benefits are insufficient to meet her needs. A
13 Conservatorship or Guardianship to manage Emily Reed’s person and estate was 14
15 granted in October, 2018, by a California court. Alecia Draper filed a Financial
16 Disclosure Form for Emily on August 4, 2020. Emily Reed receives monthly
17 income of $686.24 SSI, plus $194.00 from Cal Fresh. Emily’s expenses are 18
19 $48.00 for a cellular phone, $228.00 for food, $376.75 for insurance, and $600.00
20 for rent paid to Alecia Draper. Additional expenses include ongoing professional 21 fees for Dr. Love’s treatment that are not covered by insurance.

22
23 The court concludes that Emily Reed is unable to engage in any 24 substantially gainful activity by reason of a medically determinable physical or 25
26 mental impairment which has lasted for a continuous period of not less than 27

1 twelve months. "Substantial gainful activity" means economic activity that
2 results in the child being financially self-supporting. Edgington v. Edgington, 119
3 Nev. 577, 585, 80 P.3d 1282, 1288 (2003). The Nevada handicapped child
4 support statute is designed to ensure that handicapped children have adequate
5 ongoing financial support from their parents, if needed. Edgington v. Edgington,
6 119 Nev. 577, 585, 80 P.3d 1282, 1288 (2003).
7

9 NRS 125B.110 was intended to require parents to bear some of the
10 financial burden for the support of their disabled child. As a general rule, court
11 ordered support obligations cease "[w]hen the child reaches 18 years of age if he 12 is no longer enrolled in high school, otherwise, when he reaches 19 years of age."
13 The law presumes that once a child reaches the age of majority, the child is
14 capable of self-support. Nevada's Legislature has created a statutory exception to
15 this general rule; under NRS 125B.110, Nevada's handicapped child support
16 statute; parents must support a handicapped child beyond the age of majority if
17 the child cannot support himself or herself because of a qualifying disability.
18 Edgington v. Edgington, 119 Nev. 577, 582, 80 P.3d 1282, 1286 (2003). NRS
19 125B.110 authorizes a court to obligate either or both parents to support his or her
20 handicapped child for an indefinite period, even if that child has reached the age
21 of majority.

1 B. ALECIA DRAPER’S SUPPORT OBLIGATION

2

3 There are financial implications to this custody order. The obligation to support

4 one child is 16% of the obligor parent’s gross monthly income pursuant to NAC

5 425. Alecia Draper testified on August 6, 2020, that she earned $49,000.00 per

6 year or $4,100.00 per month. On January 11, 2021, Alecia Draper testified that

7 she has gross monthly income of $4,260.00. Ms. Draper testified that she is a

8 51% owner of Moonwood Coffee Co., and that she receives $1,000.00 per month

9 from that catering business. This testimony was contrasted by the profit and loss

10 statement that was attached to Alecia Draper’s Financial Disclosure Form that

11 was filed on April 9, 2019, that showed Moonwood Coffee Co.’s gross profits of

12 $51,374.00 in the first quarter of 2019. The pandemic has materially affected the

13 business, but Alecia Draper testified that she received federal government

14 assistance including a PPP payment of $17,000.00 and an EIDL loan of

15 $117,000.00. The court concludes that Alecia Draper can receive more income

16 that $1,000.00 per month from her ownership interest in Moonwood Coffee Co.

17

19

20

22 Alecia Draper testified that the bulk of her income comes from her

23 compensation from the State of California for In-House Social Services. Alecia

24 Draper is paid $14.50 per hour to care for Emily Reed. Alecia Draper testified

25 that she often incurs overtime. The court concludes that Alecia Draper’s true

26

27

28

1 earning capacity for calculating her child support obligation is at least $60,000.00
2 per year. On January 11, 2021, Alecia Draper testified that her income of
3 approximately $4,200.00 per month was sufficient to pay her current living
4 expenses.
5

7 Alecia Draper testified that she is divorcing her husband and that she
8 receives no other sources of income. Ms. Draper testified that she will not
9 receive spousal support in her divorce settlement, and that while her two other
10 adult children live with her, unlike Emily, they do not pay rent or contribute to 11 household expenses. Alecia Draper testified that Emily pays her $500.00 per 12 month, $400.00 for rent and $100.00 for a cellular phone.
13

15 Based on Alecia Draper's employment and earnings history, the court finds
16 that Ms. Draper's gross monthly income for calculating child support is 17 $5,000.00, representing her current true earning capacity. 16% of $5,000.00 is
18 $800.00, which is the base child support calculation. The court exercises
19 discretion to adjust the child support formula amount by $300.00, per month,
20 taking into consideration the collateral source of the other parent's child support
21 payment and the federal SSI and state benefits Emily receives. With this order,
22 Emily Reed will receive child support from her parents in the amount of 23
24
25
26
27
28

1 $1,000.00, plus SSI of $686.24, plus $250.00 on the arrears judgment, for a total
2 of $1,936.24 per month.

3
4 Beginning on February 1, 2021, Alecia Draper should pay child support for
5 Emily Reed in the amount of $500.00 per month. Payment shall be due on the 6 first day of each month thereafter.

7
8 The court concludes that Alecia Draper owes no constructive arears for 9 post majority child support. Emily Reed lives with Alecia Draper. The court
10 received substantial proof that Alecia Draper provided support for Emily Reed in 11 excess of an amount that might have been ordered since July, 2017.

12
14 The court concludes that this child support order complies with Nevada
15 law.

16
17 C. JEFFREY REED'S SUPPORT OBLIGATION

18
19 There are financial implications to this custody order. The obligation to 20 support one child is 16% of the obligor parent's gross monthly income pursuant
21 to NAC 425. Jeffrey Reed testified on January 11, 2021, that he was employed
22 by the Neptune Society, part of Palm Mortuary. Mr. Reed testified that he works
23 in a mortuary and that his income is based on sales commissions. Mr. Reed
24 testified that his 2020 gross annual income was $38,000.00. In 2019, Jeffrey
25 Reed earned $69,299.00. Exhibits 83, and 84, support the finding that Jeffrey
26
27
28

1 Reed earned $80,301.00 in 2018 and $78,564.00 in 2017. Jeffrey Reed testified
2 that because of a health issue, he changed to a less stressful job in 2019. Mr.
3 Reed testified that his income expectation in the less stressful job was $50,000.00
4 - $60,000.00 per year. Jeffrey Reed testified that he lives with a significant other,
5 and that she is employed, and they share monthly living expenses equally.
6

8 Based on Jeffrey Reed's employment and earnings history, the court finds
9 that Mr. Reed's gross monthly income for calculating child support is $5,000.00,
10 representing his current true earning capacity. 16% of $5,000.00 is $800.00,
11 which is the base child support calculation. The court exercises discretion to 12 adjust the child support formula amount by $300.00, per month, taking into 13 consideration the collateral source of the other parent's child support payment and
14 the federal SSI and state benefits Emily receives. With this order, Emily Reed
15 will receive child support from her parents in the amount of $1,000.00, plus SSI
16 of $686.24, plus $250.00 on the arrears judgment, for a total of $1,936.24 per 17 month.
18
19
20

21 Beginning on February 1, 2021, Jeffrey Reed should pay child support for 22 Emily Reed in the amount of $500.00 per month. Payment shall be due on the 23 first day of each month thereafter.
24

26 The court concludes that Jeffrey Reed owes a judgment for constructive
27 post-majority child support. Jeffrey Reed voluntarily paid child support to Alecia
28

1 Draper for Emily for approximately two years after Emily reached age 18 and
2 graduated from high school. Mr. Reed paid no additional post-majority child
3 support for Emily after the countermotion was filed on July 21, 2017. The court
4 exercises its discretion to deviate or adjust the amount of constructive child
5 support arears after considering that Jeffrey Reed paid child support for Adam
6 Reed in the amount of $903.00 per month until 2019. The court reviewed the
7 formula amount for two children in relationship to the gross income for 2017 –
8 2019, and reviewed the formula amount for one child for 2019 and 2020. The 9 court adjusted the formula support amount downward after considering the
10 collateral source of post-majority child support through SSI and the support from 11 Alecia Draper. The court concludes that the constructive arrears judgment should
12 be granted by multiplying an averaged net child support amount of $500.00 by 43
13 months (July, 2017 - January, 2021). Judgment should be entered in favor of 14 Emily Reed against Jeffrey Reed in the amount of $21,500.00. The court will 15 order a monthly payment on the arrears judgment in this order.
16
17
18
19
20

21 The court concludes that this child support order complies with Nevada
22 law.

1 D. ALECIA DRAPER’S REIMBURSEMENT CLAIMS

2

3 Alecia Draper seeks a judgment against Jeffrey Reed for monies that she

4 and her husband spent related to Emily Reed in 2017, 2018, and 2019, well after

5 Emily reached the age of majority. Alecia Draper summarized the claimed

6 expenses in Exhibit 82. Alecia Draper claims that she and her husband spent

7 $33,752.00 in 2017, for cost of living, a therapy dog, Dr. Love, Dr. Rowanzoin,

8 and other medical expenses. Alecia Draper claims that she and her husband spent

9 $40,623.35 in 2018, for cost of living, for conservatorship, a therapy dog, Dr.

10 Love, Dr. Rowanzoin, Dr. Boehm, and other medical expenses. Alecia Draper

11 claims that she and her husband spent $50,057.00 in 2019, for cost of living, for

12 conservatorship, a therapy dog, Dr. Love, Dr. Boehm, and other medical

13 expenses. The court had difficulty reaching a conclusion that these expenses were

14 paid as alleged. The court had issues with the credibility of Alecia Draper’s

15 testimony and filings concerning her financial condition. Specifically, Alecia

16 Draper testified that she earned little or no income, and that her husband

17 contributed only $5,000.00 to $7,200.00 per month toward household expenses.

18 The allegation of available resources was inconsistent with the amount Alecia

19 Draper and her husband allege they spent on Emily Reed. Alecia Draper filed a

20 Financial Disclosure Form on July 21, 2017, alleging that she left employment in

21 June, 2017 to care for Emily. Alecia Draper filed a Financial Disclosure Form on

22

24

25

26

27

28

1 April 9, 2019, alleging that she earned $1,500.00 per month or $18,000.00 in
2 2019. On August 6, 2020, Alecia Draper testified that she earns $4,100.00 per
3 month or $49,000.00 per year.
4

5 Emily reached the age of majority in 2014. Alecia Draper seeks a judgment
6 in excess of $120,000.00 against Jeffrey Reed. There is no contract between the
7 parties for reimbursement for any of the post-majority living expenses for Emily.
8 Any responsibility for these expenses would have to come from Nevada statutes
9 or decisional law. The court concludes that the request for judgment should be
10 denied because Alecia Draper provided insufficient proof, and because the
11 amounts requested are disproportional to a parent's post-majority support
12 obligation pursuant to Nevada child support laws. The amount of post-majority
13 child support must have some relationship to income, the Nevada child support
14 formula, and adjustment or deviation considerations. The court concludes that
15 Alecia Draper's motion for judgment should be denied.
16
18
19

20 ORDER

21
22 WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Alecia Draper's
23 motion, as Conservator for Emily Reed, for child support pursuant to NRS
24 125B.110 is granted. Alecia Draper and Jeffrey Reed shall pay child support to 25
26
27
28

1 Emily Reed pursuant to this order, and those payments shall be managed and
2 accounted for by the Conservator pursuant to applicable California law.
3

4 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Alecia Draper shall pay child support
5 to Emily Reed in the amount of $500.00 per month beginning February 1, 2021.
6 This child support obligation shall be paid on the first day of each month
7 thereafter, and may be modified or terminated by the court based on material
8 changes in circumstances.
9

11 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Jeffrey Reed shall pay child support to 12 Emily Reed in the amount of $500.00 per month beginning February 1, 2021.
13 This child support obligation shall be paid on the first day of each month
14 thereafter, and may be modified or terminated by the court based on material
15 changes in circumstances.
16

18 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a judgment for constructive child
19 support arrears is granted in favor of Emily Reed against Jeffrey Reed in the 20 amount of $21,500.00, representing $500.00 per month owed from July, 2017
21 through January, 2021. This judgment shall be paid in the amount of $250.00
22 per month beginning February 15, 2021. This arrears payment shall be paid on 23 the fifteenth day of each month thereafter, and may be modified by the court
24 based on material changes in circumstances.
25
26
27
28

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Alecia Draper's request for judgment against Jeffrey Reed for post-majority monies spent by Ms. Draper and her husband for Emily Reed between 2017 and 2020 is denied.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that both parties shall bear their own costs incurred in this matter.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this matter shall be closed upon the entry of this order.

1 on August 2, 2011. The court granted the motion to move, modified the visitation
2 order, and modified Jeffrey Reed's child support to $725.00 per month.
3

4 Alecia Draper reopened the case on December 9, 2014, with the filing of
5 her motion to modify legal and physical custody. Jeffrey Reed's opposition and
6 countermotion was filed on January 2, 2015. The court set an evidentiary
7 hearing. At the evidentiary hearing the parties made a partial agreement. The
8 parties' Stipulation and Order from the January 12, 2015 hearing, was filed on
9 March 18, 2015. It contains the parties' agreement that the court will set an
10 evidentiary hearing to resolve Alecia Draper's request that child support continue
11 for Emily Reed after she graduates from high school due to a disability. The
12 parties agreed to continue the joint legal custody order, and modified Jeffrey
13 Reed's visitation. The parties agreed that Alecia Draper would provide insurance
14 for the children, and that Jeffrey Reed would pay $66.00 per month beginning
15 January 1, 2015, towards the insurance cost. The parties agreed that Jeffrey
16 Reed's child support shall be based on an average income of $60,000.00 per year.
17 Jeffrey Reed's child support was set at $1,450.00 per month beginning January 1,
18 2015, with $725.00 due on the fifth (5th) and $725.00 due on the twentieth (20th)
19 day of each month.
20
22
23
24

25 On January 14, 2015, the court filed an Order setting the evidentiary
26 hearing to resolve Alecia Draper's request that child support continue for Emily
27
28

1 Reed after she graduates from high school due to a disability for May 11, 2015.
2 On March 9, 2015, Alecia Draper, through counsel, filed Plaintiff's Notice of
3 Withdrawal of request to Continue Child Support for Emily after High School
4 Graduation Due to Child Disability & Request to Vacate Evidentiary Hearing.
5 The court vacated the evidentiary hearing, and Department S statistically closed
6 the case on June 29, 2015, citing the parties' Stipulation and Order filed on March 7 18, 2015.
9

10
11 Jeffrey Reed reopened the case on June 29, 2017, with the filing of his
12 motion to modify child support based upon emancipation of a child. Alecia
13 Draper filed her opposition and countermotion for child support for Emily
14 pursuant to NRS 125B.110 on July 21, 2017. The matter was heard on August
15 28, 2017. At the hearing, the parties agreed that two of the three children had
16 emancipated. The parties agreed that Jeffrey Reed would pay the presumed
17 maximum for one child, $837.00 per month, plus $66.00 per month towards
18 insurance for the remaining minor child. The court continued the matter to 19 November 8, 2017, to address the claim for post-majority support for Emily. The 20 order from the hearing was filed on December 15, 2017.
21
23

24
25 The court heard the matter on November 8, 2017. The court requested
26 briefings in anticipation of an evidentiary hearing. On January 2, 2018, Jeffrey
27
28

1 Reed filed a motion for summary judgment. Alecia Draper's opposition was filed
2 on February 8, 2018. The matter was heard on April 9, 2018. The court took the
3 matter under advisement for decision. Judge Ochoa denied the motion for
4 summary judgment in his Decision and Order filed on May 22, 2018. The court
5 found, in part, that even though Alecia Draper's request to continue child support
6 for Emily was withdrawn on March 9, 2015, Jeffrey Reed continued to pay child
7 support for Emily for the next two years until he filed for child support
8 modification on June 29, 2017. The court found that Emily was receiving Social
9 Security Disability payments, and that there was a factual dispute about whether
10 Emily was disabled prior to age 18, and not able to engage in any substantial
11 gainful activity by reason of her significant and chronic mental impairment. The
12 court concluded that Emily had the right to bring her own action for support from 13 her parents. The court concluded that while a separate action for support was
14 available to Emily because she was an adult, this claim for post-majority child
15 support against the parents could be brought in the parties' divorce case.

21 On July 23, 2018, the case was administratively reassigned to Department
22 H. Alecia Draper became Emily Reed's legal guardian in California in October,
23 2018. On January 22, 2019, Alecia Draper filed a Notice of Joinder in her
24 individual capacity and as Conservator for Emily Reed. On January 22, 2019,
25 Alecia Draper, as Conservator for Emily Reed, filed a motion for child support
26
27
28

1 pursuant to NRS 125B.110. The motion was set for hearing on March 4, 2019.
2 Prior to the hearing, the parties submitted a stipulation and order to continue the
3 hearing. On April 9, 2019, Jeffrey Reed filed a motion to disqualify counsel from
4 bringing the child support claim on behalf of Emily Reed. On April 10, 2019,
5 Alecia Draper, as Conservator for Emily Reed, filed an amended motion for child
6 support pursuant to NRS 125B.110, clarifying that Ms. Draper is seeking child
7 support for Emily solely from Jeffrey Reed. The matter was heard on April 10,
8 2019. The court granted the motion to join Emily Reed as a party in interest. The 9 court set a discovery schedule, and set a case management conference for July 24,
10 2019.
12
13
14

15 The matter was heard on July 24, 2019. The court received a report from
16 counsel concerning the status of discovery, and continued the case management
17 conference to October 23, 2019. On that date, the court received a report from
18 counsel concerning the status of discovery, and continued the case management
19 conference to January 8, 2020. The matter was heard on January 8, 2020, and
20 this case was set for evidentiary hearing on April 16, 2020, and April 17, 2020.
21

23 After the entry of Administrative Orders, AO 20-09 and AO 20-11 in
24 response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the court scheduled a telephone conference
25 with counsel. On March 31, 2020, the court spoke with counsel, and found good 26
27
28

1 cause to continue the evidentiary hearing. The matter was rescheduled for June
2 18, 2020, and June 19, 2020. The court filed a Second Amended Order Setting
3 Evidentiary Hearing on May 12, 2020, resetting the evidentiary hearing for
4 August 6, 2020, and August 7, 2020.
5

7 The evidentiary hearing was held over four days between August 6, 2020,
8 and January 12, 2021. Alecia Draper, Jennifer Love Farrell, Emily Reed, and
9 Jeffrey Reed testified. The court received closing briefs, and the matter was
10 submitted for this decision and order. The court concludes that the witness
11 testimony and the documentary proof admitted at the hearing were sufficient for 12 the court to decide the child support matter.
13

15 FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

16
17 This court has subject matter jurisdiction and personal jurisdiction over the 18 parties to this case.
19

20 A. POST- MAJORITY CHILD SUPPORT

21 22 NRS 125B.110 Support of child with handicap beyond age of majority.

23 1. A parent shall support beyond the age of majority his or her child with a
24 handicap until the child is no longer handicapped or until the child becomes self-
25 supporting. The handicap of the child must have occurred before the age of 26 majority for this duty to apply.
27
28

1 2. For the purposes of this section, a child is self-supporting if the child
2 receives public assistance beyond the age of majority and that assistance is
3 sufficient to meet the child's needs.

4 3. This section does not impair or otherwise affect the eligibility of a person
5 with a handicap to receive benefits from a source other than his or her parents.

6 4. As used in this section, "handicap" means an inability to engage in any
7 substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or
8 mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or
9 can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months.
(Added to NRS by 1987, 2268; A 1991, 1336)

10 The court concludes that the duty to support Emily Reed applies to both
11 parents based on its finding that Emily Reed was handicapped prior to her
12 reaching the age of majority. The court finds that Emily Reed suffered significant
13 mental and physical trauma prior to reaching the age of majority, and that Alecia
14 Draper proved that Emily suffers from severe mental illness. Emily was sexually
15 abused for more than eight years during her minority. The molestation was not 16 discovered until 2014. Emily attempted suicide more than once before she
17 graduated from high school. Records admitted at trial show that Emily suffered
18 panic attacks, and injured herself while in high school. Emily applied for SSI in
19 March, 2014, and she was granted Social Security Disability benefits in October,
20 2015. Jeffrey Reed advanced a defense that Emily was not disabled before she
21 reached the age of majority, and that Emily is not currently disabled. The court
22 heard evidence that Emily graduated from high school with a 3.78 GPA, obtained
23 a California driver's license, and has some independence in Alecia Draper's
24
25
26
27
28

1 home. The court weighed the evidence as the trier of fact and concludes that
2 Emily is handicapped and that her mental health issues began prior to the age of
3 majority. Emily has been diagnosed with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD),
4 Dissociative Identity Disorder, Major Depressive Disorder, and Dependent
5 Personality Disorder. Exhibit 5 shows that Emily was diagnosed with PTSD,
6 Major Depressive Disorder, and Anxiety Disorder before she turned age eighteen.
7
8

9 Emily is being treated by Dr. Jennifer Love Farrell (Dr. Love). Alecia
10 Draper selected Dr. Love to manage Emily's medication. Dr. Love testified on 11 August 6, 2020, that she has seen Emily approximately 46 times since 2016.
12 Exhibit 14 and Dr. Love's testimony support the finding that Emily continues to
13 suffer from chronic PTSD, Major Depressive Disorder, and Dissociative Identity
14 Disorder, and Dr. Love describes Emily as one of her most severely ill patients.
15 Emily was hospitalized most recently from December 31, 2019, through January 16 27, 2020.
17
18
19

20 Dr. Love testified that Emily has many "alters" and that Emily will switch
21 personalities frequently. Dr. Love testified that Emily suffers auditory
22 hallucinations, and engages in strange public behavior. The court had the
23 opportunity to see Emily testify on August 6, 2020. Emily answered questions
24 from counsel, and testified through several "alters". The court heard from Heidi,
25
26
27
28

1 age 7; Lilly, age 16; Holly, age 2; Dorothy, age 9; and Rose. Emily did not
2 engage as Emily during the testimony. This part of the case was unsettling.
3
4 Counsel for Alecia Draper spoke with Emily the day before the testimony, and
5 coordinated how she would examine Emily and the “alters”. This made Emily’s
6 testimony look contrived. The court carefully considered all of the evidence and 7
8 concludes that Emily’s testimony was not contrived, and was consistent with the 9 observations of Emily’s treating doctors, and the documentary proof.
10

11 The court concludes that Emily Reed is not self-supporting, and that her
12 Social Security Disability benefits are insufficient to meet her needs. A
13 Conservatorship or Guardianship to manage Emily Reed’s person and estate was 14 granted in October, 2018, by a California court. Alecia Draper filed a Financial
15 Disclosure Form for Emily on August 4, 2020. Emily Reed receives monthly
16 income of $686.24 SSI, plus $194.00 from Cal Fresh. Emily’s expenses are
17 $48.00 for a cellular phone, $228.00 for food, $376.75 for insurance, and $600.00
18 for rent paid to Alecia Draper. Additional expenses include ongoing professional 19 fees for Dr. Love’s treatment that are not covered by insurance.
20
22

23 The court concludes that Emily Reed is unable to engage in any
24 substantially gainful activity by reason of a medically determinable physical or 25 mental impairment which has lasted for a continuous period of not less than 26
27
28

1 twelve months. "Substantial gainful activity" means economic activity that
2 results in the child being financially self-supporting. Edgington v. Edgington, 119
3 Nev. 577, 585, 80 P.3d 1282, 1288 (2003). The Nevada handicapped child
4 support statute is designed to ensure that handicapped children have adequate
5 ongoing financial support from their parents, if needed. Edgington v. Edgington,
6 119 Nev. 577, 585, 80 P.3d 1282, 1288 (2003).
7
8

9 NRS 125B.110 was intended to require parents to bear some of the
10 financial burden for the support of their disabled child. As a general rule, court
11 ordered support obligations cease "[w]hen the child reaches 18 years of age if he
12 is no longer enrolled in high school, otherwise, when he reaches 19 years of age."
13 The law presumes that once a child reaches the age of majority, the child is
14 capable of self-support. Nevada's Legislature has created a statutory exception to
15 this general rule; under NRS 125B.110, Nevada's handicapped child support
16 statute; parents must support a handicapped child beyond the age of majority if
17 the child cannot support himself or herself because of a qualifying disability.
18 Edgington v. Edgington, 119 Nev. 577, 582, 80 P.3d 1282, 1286 (2003). NRS
19 125B.110 authorizes a court to obligate either or both parents to support his or her
20 handicapped child for an indefinite period, even if that child has reached the age
21 of majority.

1 B. ALECIA DRAPER’S SUPPORT OBLIGATION

2

3 There are financial implications to this custody order. The obligation to support

4 one child is 16% of the obligor parent’s gross monthly income pursuant to NAC

5 425. Alecia Draper testified on August 6, 2020, that she earned $49,000.00 per

6 year or $4,100.00 per month. On January 11, 2021, Alecia Draper testified that

7 she has gross monthly income of $4,260.00. Ms. Draper testified that she is a

8 51% owner of Moonwood Coffee Co., and that she receives $1,000.00 per month

9 from that catering business. This testimony was contrasted by the profit and loss

10 statement that was attached to Alecia Draper’s Financial Disclosure Form that

11 was filed on April 9, 2019, that showed Moonwood Coffee Co.’s gross profits of

12 $51,374.00 in the first quarter of 2019. The pandemic has materially affected the

13 business, but Alecia Draper testified that she received federal government

14 assistance including a PPP payment of $17,000.00 and an EIDL loan of

15 $117,000.00. The court concludes that Alecia Draper can receive more income

16 that $1,000.00 per month from her ownership interest in Moonwood Coffee Co.

17

19

20

22 Alecia Draper testified that the bulk of her income comes from her

23 compensation from the State of California for In-House Social Services. Alecia

24 Draper is paid $14.50 per hour to care for Emily Reed. Alecia Draper testified

25 that she often incurs overtime. The court concludes that Alecia Draper’s true

26

27

28

1 earning capacity for calculating her child support obligation is at least $60,000.00
2 per year. On January 11, 2021, Alecia Draper testified that her income of
3 approximately $4,200.00 per month was sufficient to pay her current living
4 expenses.
5

7 Alecia Draper testified that she is divorcing her husband and that she
8 receives no other sources of income. Ms. Draper testified that she will not
9 receive spousal support in her divorce settlement, and that while her two other
10 adult children live with her, unlike Emily, they do not pay rent or contribute to
11 household expenses. Alecia Draper testified that Emily pays her $500.00 per 12 month, $400.00 for rent and $100.00 for a cellular phone.
13

15 Based on Alecia Draper's employment and earnings history, the court finds
16 that Ms. Draper's gross monthly income for calculating child support is 17 $5,000.00, representing her current true earning capacity. 16% of $5,000.00 is
18 $800.00, which is the base child support calculation. The court exercises
19 discretion to adjust the child support formula amount by $300.00, per month,
20 taking into consideration the collateral source of the other parent's child support
21 payment and the federal SSI and state benefits Emily receives. With this order,
22 Emily Reed will receive child support from her parents in the amount of 23
24
25
26
27
28

1 $1,000.00, plus SSI of $686.24, plus $250.00 on the arrears judgment, for a total
2 of $1,936.24 per month.

3
4 Beginning on February 1, 2021, Alecia Draper should pay child support for
5 Emily Reed in the amount of $500.00 per month. Payment shall be due on the 6 first day of each month thereafter.

7
8 The court concludes that Alecia Draper owes no constructive arears for
9 post majority child support. Emily Reed lives with Alecia Draper. The court
10 received substantial proof that Alecia Draper provided support for Emily Reed in 11 excess of an amount that might have been ordered since July, 2017.

12
14 The court concludes that this child support order complies with Nevada
15 law.

16
17 C. JEFFREY REED'S SUPPORT OBLIGATION

18
19 There are financial implications to this custody order. The obligation to 20 support one child is 16% of the obligor parent's gross monthly income pursuant
21 to NAC 425. Jeffrey Reed testified on January 11, 2021, that he was employed
22 by the Neptune Society, part of Palm Mortuary. Mr. Reed testified that he works
23 in a mortuary and that his income is based on sales commissions. Mr. Reed
24 testified that his 2020 gross annual income was $38,000.00. In 2019, Jeffrey
25 Reed earned $69,299.00. Exhibits 83, and 84, support the finding that Jeffrey
26
27
28

1 Reed earned $80,301.00 in 2018 and $78,564.00 in 2017. Jeffrey Reed testified
2 that because of a health issue, he changed to a less stressful job in 2019. Mr.
3 Reed testified that his income expectation in the less stressful job was $50,000.00
4 - $60,000.00 per year. Jeffrey Reed testified that he lives with a significant other,
5 and that she is employed, and they share monthly living expenses equally.
6

8 Based on Jeffrey Reed's employment and earnings history, the court finds
9 that Mr. Reed's gross monthly income for calculating child support is $5,000.00,
10 representing his current true earning capacity. 16% of $5,000.00 is $800.00,
11 which is the base child support calculation. The court exercises discretion to 12 adjust the child support formula amount by $300.00, per month, taking into
13 consideration the collateral source of the other parent's child support payment and
14 the federal SSI and state benefits Emily receives. With this order, Emily Reed
15 will receive child support from her parents in the amount of $1,000.00, plus SSI
16 of $686.24, plus $250.00 on the arrears judgment, for a total of $1,936.24 per 17 month.
18
19
20

21 Beginning on February 1, 2021, Jeffrey Reed should pay child support for
22 Emily Reed in the amount of $500.00 per month. Payment shall be due on the 23 first day of each month thereafter.
24

26 The court concludes that Jeffrey Reed owes a judgment for constructive
27 post-majority child support. Jeffrey Reed voluntarily paid child support to Alecia
28

1 Draper for Emily for approximately two years after Emily reached age 18 and
2 graduated from high school. Mr. Reed paid no additional post-majority child
3 support for Emily after the countermotion was filed on July 21, 2017. The court
4 exercises its discretion to deviate or adjust the amount of constructive child
5 support arears after considering that Jeffrey Reed paid child support for Adam
6 Reed in the amount of $903.00 per month until 2019. The court reviewed the
7 formula amount for two children in relationship to the gross income for 2017 –
8 2019, and reviewed the formula amount for one child for 2019 and 2020. The
9 court adjusted the formula support amount downward after considering the
10 collateral source of post-majority child support through SSI and the support from
11 Alecia Draper. The court concludes that the constructive arrears judgment should
12 be granted by multiplying an averaged net child support amount of $500.00 by 43
13 months (July, 2017 - January, 2021). Judgment should be entered in favor of 14 Emily Reed against Jeffrey Reed in the amount of $21,500.00. The court will
15 order a monthly payment on the arrears judgment in this order.

21 The court concludes that this child support order complies with Nevada
22 law.

1 D. ALECIA DRAPER’S REIMBURSEMENT CLAIMS

2

3 Alecia Draper seeks a judgment against Jeffrey Reed for monies that she

4 and her husband spent related to Emily Reed in 2017, 2018, and 2019, well after

5 Emily reached the age of majority. Alecia Draper summarized the claimed

6 expenses in Exhibit 82. Alecia Draper claims that she and her husband spent

7 $33,752.00 in 2017, for cost of living, a therapy dog, Dr. Love, Dr. Rowanzoin,

8 and other medical expenses. Alecia Draper claims that she and her husband spent

9 $40,623.35 in 2018, for cost of living, for conservatorship, a therapy dog, Dr.

10 Love, Dr. Rowanzoin, Dr. Boehm, and other medical expenses. Alecia Draper

11 claims that she and her husband spent $50,057.00 in 2019, for cost of living, for

12 conservatorship, a therapy dog, Dr. Love, Dr. Boehm, and other medical

13 expenses. The court had difficulty reaching a conclusion that these expenses were

14 paid as alleged. The court had issues with the credibility of Alecia Draper’s

15 testimony and filings concerning her financial condition. Specifically, Alecia

16 Draper testified that she earned little or no income, and that her husband

17 contributed only $5,000.00 to $7,200.00 per month toward household expenses.

18 The allegation of available resources was inconsistent with the amount Alecia

19 Draper and her husband allege they spent on Emily Reed. Alecia Draper filed a

20 Financial Disclosure Form on July 21, 2017, alleging that she left employment in

21 June, 2017 to care for Emily. Alecia Draper filed a Financial Disclosure Form on

26

27

28

1 April 9, 2019, alleging that she earned $1,500.00 per month or $18,000.00 in
2 2019. On August 6, 2020, Alecia Draper testified that she earns $4,100.00 per
3 month or $49,000.00 per year.
4

5 Emily reached the age of majority in 2014. Alecia Draper seeks a judgment
6 in excess of $120,000.00 against Jeffrey Reed. There is no contract between the
7 parties for reimbursement for any of the post-majority living expenses for Emily.
8 Any responsibility for these expenses would have to come from Nevada statutes
9 or decisional law. The court concludes that the request for judgment should be
10 denied because Alecia Draper provided insufficient proof, and because the
11 amounts requested are disproportional to a parent's post-majority support
12 obligation pursuant to Nevada child support laws. The amount of post-majority
13 child support must have some relationship to income, the Nevada child support
14 formula, and adjustment or deviation considerations. The court concludes that
15 Alecia Draper's motion for judgment should be denied.

Mr. Blackham stated most issues have been satisfied since the filing of this motion, but there is an outstanding bill from UMC in the amount of $57.51, for which he believes both parties should be equally responsible. Mr. Blackham requested the $5,000 Attorney's Fee Award be reduced to judgment. Mr. Blackham requested an additional $3,500 in attorney's fees for appearing today, since he believes the matter could have been resolved with defendant's cooperation.

Ms. Dupree stated plaintiff owes an outstanding dental bill for a no-show appointment, which amounted to $150.00. Mr. Blackham stated plaintiff paid $75.00 towards the bill and believes defendant should be responsible for the remaining half.

Ms. Dupree further stated defendant has no problem with the $5,000 being reduced to judgment, but opposes an additional $3,500 being awarded, in that defendant would have signed off on an order of some sort to have it reduced. She also feels the amount requested for fees far outweigh the amounts in dispute by the parties. Ms. Dupree requested $1,500 for attorney's fees for having to appear today.

COURT ORDERED:

1. The Parties have shall no COMMUNICATION with the minor children regarding the case. All COMMUNICATION shall be by EMAIL and/or TEXT only, and should be CIVIL in language.
2. ATTORNEY'S FEES in the amount of $5,000.00, previously owed by defendant, shall be REDUCED to JUDGMENT.
3. Plaintiff shall pay the remaining $75.00 towards the NO-SHOW DENTAL BILL, being this was NOT an unreimbursed medical expense.
4. The UMC balance, if any, shall be DIVIDED equally between the parties.
5. Defendant shall pay an additional $1,000 to plaintiff for ATTORNEY'S FEES, and the amount shall be REDUCED to JUDGMENT.

Court stated it reviewed the decision from May, 2018. Court noted Attorney Brennan's clients have a guardianship in California. Court stated the child, Emily, could file for post majority support from her parents and could file a separate action or join in this case.

Attorney Brennan stated it is contested that the Emily is disabled. Court noted Emily reopened the divorce case and she did not open her own case. To add Emily to the divorce case does not make sense.

Court and counsel reviewed the Decision and Order from Dept. S. Court noted this is Emily against her parents and not mom against dad. Court stated Attorney Brennan needs to file a Motion to join and then a claim against the parents (one or both), she is to specifically plead the elements of the request, and she does not have to re-file the Motion from 1/22/19. Attorney Roberts stated the child first filed against both parents and then amended it against Defendant only.
