STATE'S SENTENCING MEMORANDUM

DATE OF HEARING: April 26, 2017 TIME OF HEARING: 9:00 AM

COMES NOW, the State of Nevada, by STEVEN B. WOLFSON, Clark County District Attorney, through ERIKA MENDOZA, Chief Deputy District Attorney, and hereby submits this Memorandum for the Court's consideration.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

STATEMENT OF FACTS

As the Court heard during Defendant's trial, on the morning of June 18, 2017, Defendant was sleeping in a public area on Las Vegas Boulevard at Hawaiian Marketplace. Two (2) security officers approached him an asked him to leave. Defendant argued with the officers and reached for a knife. One of the security officers pepper sprayed Defendant. Defendant thereafter stabbed both officers with the knife. Body camera video revealed Defendant was belligerent after taken into custody. Defendant was screaming, laughing, and taunting the injured security officers, yelling "you can't fuck with me on your best day and my worst day", "they underestimate me, I took they bitch ass down", and "I tore his ass up". Defendant brags "I've been on every yard" and also warned "they gonna keep going to the hospital" and "every time I get out of jail this is the first place I'm coming".

Defendant's criminal history includes six (6) felonies, four (4) gross misdemeanors, and ninety-seven (97) misdemeanors. His criminal history is so extensive that Metro assigned him a second ID number. His scope report under his original ID number is forty-eight (48) pages, while the report under his second ID number is fourteen (14) pages. He has been the defendant in one hundred and two (102) cases submitted to the DA's office. His criminal history dates back thirty-one (31) years and includes violent felony convictions of Robbery and Assault With a Deadly Weapon. Defendant's on going history demonstrates he is incredibly violent and a prolific nuisance in the strip corridor. Just a few of the cases demonstrating Defendant's character are as follows:

87M05487X (Event 87-83701)

On September 3, 1987, Defendant was at the Holiday Casino on Las Vegas Boulevard to report a lost wallet. See, State's Exhibit 1, Arrest Report. Security realized Defendant was a prior trespass, did a records check, and discovered he was "wanted". Id. When security informed Defendant he was wanted, Defendant attempted to flee. Id. Security officers chased Defendant and Defendant picked up a chair and attached a security officer by striking him on the leg with the chair. Id. Security was able to restrain Defendant until police arrived. Defendant was charged with Battery and adjudicated guilty.

98F16114X (Metro Event 981113-1547)

On November 30, 1998, Defendant was intoxicated and violent in his home. See, State's Exhibit 2, Crime Report. Defendant attempted to throw a coffee table out the window. Id. Defendant threatened multiple family members, including three (3) children, 8-10 years old, with a twelve (12) inch knife. Id. Defendant ran towards the children with the knife, yelling "I'm going to kill you if you don't go in your room". Id. Defendant thereafter held the victims in the room by threatening to kill them. Id. Defendant pled guilty to Assault.

03F21064X (Metro Event 031130-0538)

On November 30, 2003, officers received a report of fight between a man and a woman on the corner of Paradise and Harmon, outside the Hard Rock Casino. See, State's Exhibit 3, Arrest Report. Police did not find anyone at the location. Id. However, shortly thereafter they responded to the Hard Rock regarding a Robbery. Id. The victim, matching the description of the female in the earlier call, said she had been drinking and gambling at the Hard Rock with Defendant, who matched the description of the male from the earlier call. Id. The victim left to buy cigarettes at a nearby store and Defendant followed her. Id. While on the corner of Paradise and Harmon, Defendant asked for money. Id. When the victim said no, Defendant threw her to the ground and grabbed her wallet. Id. The victim and Defendant physically struggled and Defendant took the victim's shoe. Id.

Defendant claimed he never had any contact with the victim and was at Hard Rock by himself. Id. However, several security officers saw Defendant and the victim together at the Hard Rock. Id. Further, one of the security officers witnessed Defendant throw something into a dumpster. Id. The security officer recovered a shoe, matching the one the victim was missing, from the dumpster. Id. Defendant was charged with Robbery. However, the State dismissed the case when the victim failed to appear at the preliminary hearing.

05M21861X/05M23709X (Metro Event 050920-1860)

On September 20, 2005, Defendant was sleeping in the sports book at the Mirage. See, State's Exhibit 4, Citation and Voluntary Statements. When a Mirage employee asked Defendant to leave, Defendant replied "fuck you, you broke ass nigger, I'll cut you from your navel to your throat". Id. The employee notified security, who attempted to detain Defendant. Id. Defendant pulled out a knife and told security "I will cut your boy". Id. Defendant had recently been trespassed from MGM properties and therefore was taken into custody and cited for Trespass. Id. Defendant was adjudicated guilty of Trespass and Possession Drug Paraphernalia.

06M22751X (Metro Event 060925-2742)

On September 25, 2006, Defendant approached a couple on Las Vegas Boulevard and offered to sell them a shirt. See, State's Exhibit 5, Arrest Report. When the couple declined Defendant said "don't be so rude or I'll fuck you up" then reached into his pocket and said "I'm gunna shoot you mother fucker". Id. One of the victims pushed Defendant away. Id. Defendant pulled something out of his pocket and swung it at the victim's side. Id. The victim believed the object was a knife and therefore pulled out his own pocket knife. Id. Defendant then fled the scene, but was apprehended by police officers. Id. Police submitted the case on a Battery charge, but the State did not file a complaint before the statute of limitations expired.

07M23392X (Metro Event 070713-1793)

On July 13, 2007, Defendant stole several pieces of merchandise from a business on Twain Avenue. See, State's Exhibit 6, Citation and Voluntary Statement. When an employee attempted to stop Defendant he pushed her to the ground and exited the business. Id. Defendant was cited for Battery and adjudicated guilty.

07M36971X/07M36979X (Metro Event 070927-1781)

On September 27, 2007, Defendant attempted to steal merchandise from Walgreens on Las Vegas Boulevard. See, State's Exhibit 7, Citation and Voluntary Statement. Defendant physically attacked multiple employees who tried to stop him. Id. Defendant punched an employee, bit an employee, and threw merchandise at several employees. Id. Defendant pulled out pliers, which one of the employees was able to recover. Id. Employees and other witnesses detained Defendant until police arrived. Id. Defendant "insulted everyone with racial comments and saying threatening things. [Defendant] never shut his mouth." Id. Defendant was cited for Battery and Disorderly Conduct and was adjudicated guilty of both.

08M21369X (Metro Event 080722-3650)

On August 7, 2008, Defendant was harassing customers at the Stage Door Casino, just east Las Vegas Boulevard. See, State's Exhibit 8, Arrest Report and Voluntary Statement. Security officers asked Defendant to leave. Id. As officers read Defendant a trespass warning Defendant pulled a knife. Id. Defendant eventually retreated after officers pulled their batons.

Id. As Defendant walked away he told them "I got something else for ya" and "I'll pop both your asses" while motioning towards a container he held. Id.

Police responded and found Defendant nearby drinking liquor. Id. Defendant ran from police and initially refused to provide identifying information. Id. Defendant had imitation cocaine on his person. Id. Police submitted charges for Consuming Liquor Where Purchased, Obstructing, and Possession Imitation Controlled Substance. However, the State did not file a complaint prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations.

C248058 (Metro Event 080901-1780)

On September 1, 2008, Defendant concealed bleach and several cans of insecticide in a bag at Albertson's and left without paying. See, State's Exhibit 9, Arrest Report. Defendant pled guilty to Burglary and was sentenced to 12-30 months.

C264910 (Metro Event 100414-4804)

On April 14, 2010, Defendant approached two (2) restaurant employees and tried to sell them alcohol. See, State's Exhibit 10, Arrest Report. When the employees declined, Defendant told them he had a gun and would shoot them. Id. Defendant pulled a large shiny item of his pocket and waved it at the employees. Id. The shiny item turned out to be a large pair of nail clippers. Id. Police also found imitation controlled substances in Defendant's belongings. Id. Defendant plead guilty to Assault With a Deadly Weapon and the State agreed to dismiss 10F07851X (see below). Defendant was sentenced to 19-48 months.

10F07851X (Metro Event 100425-0008)

On April 25, 2010, nine (9) days after the above robbery, Defendant was ordered to leave the MGM after causing a disturbance. See, State's Exhibit 11, Arrest Report. Defendant was drunk, struggling with security, and refused to leave. Id. Police officers intervened. Id. Defendant was extremely intoxicated and uncooperative. Id. Defendant tried to bite multiple officers and refused to walk. Id. On the way to jail Defendant kicked out one of the windows in the police vehicle. Id. Defendant had imitation cocaine on his person. Id. The case was dismissed pursuant to negotiations in C264910.

12F13108X (Metro Event 120816-3714)

On August 16, 2012, Defendant attempted to steal alcohol from a convenient store on the strip. See, State's Exhibit 12, Arrest Report. When the manager attempted to stop Defendant, he grabbed a glass bottle and tried to hit her with it. Id. Defendant then pulled "something shiny" on a security guard and told the security guard he (Defendant) was going to hurt him (the security guard). Id. The security guard believed Defendant had a knife and ran away. Id. Defendant ran off through Planet Hollywood. Id. A second security officer came into contact with Defendant in the Planet Hollywood shops. Id. Defendant was verbally abusive and yelling. Id. Security turned Defendant over to police. Id.

A police officer tried to walk Defendant to the police vehicle. Id. Defendant refused to walk, kicked the officer, and tried to bite the officer. Id. Defendant also kicked the window out of the patrol car. Id. Officers found imitation cocaine on Defendant's person. Id. Defendant pled guilty to Assault and Trespass with eight (8) months in CCDC.

C293768 (Metro Event 131012-3855)

On October 12, 2013, undercover police officers came into contact with Defendant on Las Vegas Boulevard. See, State's Exhibit 13, Arrest Report. Defendant tried to sell the officers a bottle of vodka. Id. The officers thought the bottle looked suspicious as the label was torn in a way that suggested a security device had been ripped off. Id. Officers searched Defendant's backpack and discovered another bottle of vodka, a bottle of champagne, and some sharp clippers. Id. Moreover, officers discovered imitation cocaine and a hotel room key card in Defendant's wallet. Id. Officers also discovered Petit Larceny citations from other events wherein Defendant was cited for stealing a bottle of champagne from Harrah's and a backpack from Paris. Id.

Officers contacted an employee at a nearby liquor store, who stated a male matching Defendant's description (including his black and white backpack) comes by almost every day and tries to steal liquor. Id. Defendant told police he "constantly steals alcohol on the strip because it's easy". Id. Defendant specifically admitted to stealing from Paris, Bally's, The Quad, MGM, Excalibur, and numerous other casinos. Id. Defendant further told police that arresting him is a waste of time because he will just receive credit for time served. Id. He explained "stealing alcohol and selling it to tourists was [his] hustle], and that's how [he] made money, and that [he] was going to continue doing it, regardless of the outcome." Id. Defendant pled guilty to Conspiracy Burglary and was sentenced to three hundred and sixty four (364) days.

ARGUMENT

In light of Defendant's history and the facts of the underlying case, Defendant should be adjudicated under the large habitual criminal statute with a sentence of life without the possibility of parole as recommended by the Department of Parole and Probation.

The purpose behind habitual criminal statutes is to increase sanctions for the recidivist in an effort to discourage repeat offenders. Lisby v. State, 82 Nev. 183, 414 P.2d 592 (1966); Rezin v. State, 95 Nev. 461, 596 P.2d 226 (1979). The statute allows an enlarged punishment for one who cannot be rehabilitated, and, who as a recidivist, repeatedly violates the law. Howard v. State, 83 Nev. 53, 422 P.2d 548 (1967). In Howard, the Supreme Court noted, "society has the right to remove from its ranks for a longer time those who refuse to conform to a lawful mode of living." Id.

Sentencing under the habitual criminal statute is within the discretion of the sentencing court. While the defense frequently argues one should be excused from habitual treatment because priors are "stale" or for nonviolent offenses, the Nevada Supreme Court has acknowledged the statute makes no special allowance for such crimes. Arajakis v. State, 108 Nev. 976, 843 P.2d 800 (1992), citing French v. State, 98 Nev. 235, 645 P.2d 220 (1982). The appellate court reviews a habitual sentence for an abuse of discretion as the Supreme Court previously noted it is "presumptively improper for this court to superimpose its own views on sentences of incarceration lawfully pronounced by our sentencing judges." Arajakis, 108 Nev. at 984, citing Sims v. State, 107 Nev. 438, 814 P.2d 63 (1991). As such, the appellate courts routinely uphold habitual sentences<sup>1</sup>.

&lt;sup>1</sup> Arajakis, 108 Nev. 976 (two (2) consecutive life without the possibility of parole sentences under habitual criminal statute upheld for embezzlement convictions where State provided three (3) prior fraud related convictions, including one from 1977); Sims, 107 Nev. 438 (habitual life without the possibility of parole sentence upheld for Grand Larceny where Sims stole a purse and had three (3) prior felonies); White v. State, 105 Nev. 121, 771 P.2d 52 (1989)(10-life

In determining whether to impose a habitual sentence, the sentencing court should not only consider the prior felonies forming the basis of the request for habitual treatment, but totality of circumstances. See, Tillema v. State, 112 Nev. 266, 914 P.2d 605 (1996). Such includes, but is not limited to, the facts of the offenses, the presentence investigation report, other convictions and arrests, and a defendant's prior performance on supervision. Id.; Arajakis, 108 Nev. 976.

Here, Defendant has six (6) prior felonies, four (4) gross misdemeanors, and ninetyseven (97) misdemeanor convictions. He also has two hundred and twenty-one (221) arrests in Nevada alone<sup>2</sup>. Such excludes several years Defendant was in Minnesota in the early 1990s. The only years during which Defendant has zero (0) arrests coincides with extended periods of incarceration<sup>3</sup>. Defendant returns to theft and violence again and again despite convictions and incarcerations. Defendant's pattern is to steal repeatedly, cause disturbances on the strip, and threaten violence against anyone who attempts to stop him.

The underlying event wherein he stabbed two (2) security officers is one of seven (7) events the State discovered wherein he threatened employees or victims with weapons when the victims thwarted his plans (outlined above). Defendant's history is also replete with arrests for Obstructing/Resisting an Officer and Petit Larcenies. See, p.6-7 PSI. Moreover, by Defendant's own admissions in C293768, he is going to continue pursuing "his hustle" of stealing on the strip regardless of the consequences. Defendant is exactly the criminal the habitual sentence for Burglary upheld where defendant had six (6) prior felonies, including one (1) violent felony)(subsequently overruled on other grounds); Tanksley v. State, 113 Nev. 997, 946 P.2d 148 (1997)(habitual sentence of life with the possibility of parole for Arson upheld where defendant had priors for Criminal Mischief, Possession of Firearm by Ex Felon, and Aggravated Assault ranging from three (3) to sixteen (16) years old). Sessions v. State, 106 Nev. 186 (1990) is the only case wherein the Nevada Supreme Court found the lower court abused its discretion in imposing a habitual sentence. Defendant Sessions was sentenced to life without the possibility of parole for a marijuana offense. Id. Sessions' priors were 23-30 years old and were for Theft, Grand Theft, and Escape Without the Use of Force. Id.

&lt;sup>2</sup> According to Defendant's SCOPE report, he was arrested thirteen (13) times in 1987, fifteen (15) times in 1993, nine (9) times in 1995, twelve (12) times in 1996, eight (8) times in 1997, sixteen (16) times in 1998, ten (10) times in 1999, ten (10) times in 2001, five (5) times in 2002, eight (8) times in 2003, two (2) times in 2004, fifteen (15) times cics in 2005, seven (7) times in 2006), twenty-three (23) times in 2007, twelve (12) times in 2008, three (3) times in 2010, six (6) times in 2012, sixteen (16) times in 2013, nine (9) times in 2014, seven (7) times in 2015, ten (10) times in 2016, and five (5) times between January, 2017 and June, 2017.

1	legislature enacted the habitual statute for – one who refuses to confirm to a lawful mode of
2	living.
3	Additionally, Defendant is transient with no employment history or family support.
4	While such are unfortunate circumstances, such also means Defendant has no feasible options
5	for a lawful existence out of custody. The only way to ensure Defendant will not threaten the
6	lives of productive, law abiding citizens is to incarcerate him for the rest of his life.
7	CONCLUSION
8	In light of the foregoing, the State respectfully requests both Courts to sentence
9	Defendant as a large habitual criminal and impose a life without the possibility of parole as
10	recommended by the Department of Parole and Probation.
11	DATED this 24th day of April, 2018.
12	Respectfully submitted,
13	STEVEN B. WOLFSON

DETAILS:

On 11/30/03, I, Officer E. Ortega, P#6747, and Officer E. Rosenthal, P#7778, were dispatched to the area of Harmon and Paradise in Las Vegas, NV in reference to a possible 417 occurring on the street or near those two cross streets. We were assigned the call at 0608 and we arrived and searched the area without finding the suspects. We cleared from that call at 0614. Details of the call stated that a cab driver, a Mr. Glen Taylor, phone number 279-9281, had been in that area and he had seen a black male and a black female possibly involved in a fight on that corner. Details of the call stated that the black female was wearing a black leather jacket and blue pants and that the black male involved in that incident was of medium height, medium build, with short hair wearing a dark sweatshirt and dark pants. Not finding those two suspects anywhere near the corner of Paradise and Harmon, Officer Rosenthal and I cleared from that call as being unable to locate or suspects GOA.

After clearing that call, we were assigned to call number 031130-0538 in which we were told the Hard Rock security had a suspect in custody and a victim standing by at their security office. Details of the call stated that the victim had been robbed or had items stolen from her by the suspect. We immediately went to the Hard Rock Hotel and made contact with the victim who identified herself as Karen Armfield. She was wearing a black leather coat and blue pants which matched the description of the black female who was involved in the altercation on the corner of Harmon and Paradise that we had been dispatched to earlier. She stated that she had met a friend inside the Hard Rock Hotel; a person that she knew that she identified to us as Toyer Edwards. She said that they had been inside the bar and that they had been gambling and drinking together and Ms. Armfield stated that she got up out of the bar and walked out of the Hard Rock casino and was walking to the St. Tropez Market which is located on the southwest corner of Harmon and Paradise near the Hard Rock Hotel. She said she was walking towards the St. Tropez Market to buy a pack of clgarettes and she said she did not buy the cigarettes inside the Hard Rock Hotel because they wanted $6,00 for one pack of cigarettes and she could get them cheaper at the St. Tropez. She said that her friend, Edwards, had followed her out of the casino and had approached her as she was standing on the northwest corner of Harmon and Paradise near the Hard Rock Café which is located to the east of the Hard Rock casino. She said that Edwards approached her and asked her for money. Armfield said she refused to give him any money at which time Edwards had grabbed her and thrown her on the ground and had grabbed her black wallet forcibly from her hands and had taken the wallet. She said that that wallet contained personal papers and personal items and approximately $150,00 in cash. She said that she began to fight with Edwards and that during the incident she had lost a shoe and that she believed that Edwards had taken her shoe with him.

I then made contact inside the security office with the suspect, Toyer Edwards. He refused to answer any questions and refused to talk to police officers, but he did say that he had to answer any questions and refused to talk to police officers, but he did say that he had not been with the victim, Karen Armfield, and he said that he had absolutely no contact with Armfield. He said that he did not know who she was and he said that he had been inside the Hard Rock casino completely by himself and had not talked to anybody. He said that he had not had any contact with any female or anybody else outside the casino and that he was absolutely totally not involved in any incident that morning.

I then spoke with Hard Rock security officers including Michael Meisel. Meisel and other Hard Rock security officers told me that they had asked Armfield and Edwards to leave the Hard Rock security officers told me that they had asked Armfield and Edwards to leave the casino because they believed that the two were bothering people inside the bar trying to get those people to buy them drinks. They said that they had been watching the two for a few minutes and that Edwards and Armfield had been sitting together and had been drinking together earlier in the evening. Security Officer Melsel said that after he had been drinking together earlier in the evening. Security Officer Melsel said that after he had been robbery and that Edwards had been involved in that robbery, informed that there had been robbery and that Edwards had been involved in that robbery.

east side of the Hard Rock casino property. He said that he had seen Edwards throw some object into that dumpster. He said that he had approached Edwards and again advised him that he was not to be on the property and that Edwards had left the dumpster and walked back towards the Hard Rock casino where Edwards was subsequently taken into custody by other Hard Rock security personnel. Meisel said that after discovering that Edwards was a suspect in a robbery, he had returned to the dumpster that Edwards had been standing next to and had retrieved a shoe from the top of that dumpster. This shoe was the match of the shoe that Armfield was wearing. It was the shoe that Armfield stated she believed Edwards had taken from her during the robbery incident.

At this time, I, again, attempted to speak with Edwards and he, again, stated that he would not answer any queetions, but did deny having any contact with Armfield whatsoever. I then spoke with Armfield again and she told me that her purse had contained approximately $150.00 and, again, told me that Edwards had forcibly taken the purse from her hands and had, in fact, punched her and thrown her on the ground to take that purse from her. At this time, Edwards was placed under arrest for ROBBERY. Edwards was wearing a dark sweatshirt and dark pants and he had short hair and was of medium height and build and Edwards also matched the description given by the cab driver, Mr. Glen Taylor, as being involved in an altercation with a black female on that corner of Harmon and Paradise. Armfield sustained no visible injuries from the altercation and was not photographed. Security Officer Meisel retrieved the shoe from the dumpster before police officers could photograph the dumpster with the shoe in it and Armfield was unsure as to the exact location of the incident where she was pushed to the ground so that crime scene could not be found. Edwards was transported and booked into CCDC and charged with ROBBERY.

On September 1, 2008, while operating as marked patrol unit 2H1, I, Officer N. Banez, P#9030, was dispatched to assist T251, Officer S. Lehtinen, P#5995, in reference to a petite larceny call. Upon arrival, I made contact with the store employee, Sam Stevenson, who said that he saw a black male with a black duffle bag walking up and down aisle number six. The black male appeared nervous. The black male then walked passed all points of pay in a hurry with his bag. Stevenson then notified the store manager, Juan Ramirez, date of birth 02/14/71. Ramirez then viewed the store surveillance camera and saw the black male stuff items that were three cans of Raid bug spray and one bottle of Clorox bleach into his duffle bag. The black male then walked passed all points of pay in a hurry and went out of the store without paying. Officer S. Lehtinen, P#5995, who was in the area of Maryland Parkway and Flamingo was hailed by a citizen in reference to a black male with a black bag that was stealing from the above address.

Officer S. Lehtinen, P#5995, took the black male into custody, who was in the area of Maryland Parkway and Flamingo. The black male identified himself as Toyer Edwards, date of birth 08/24/59, verbally. At 1330 hours, Officer S. Lehtinen, P#5995, read Edwards his Miranda rights. At which time, Edwards said, "Yes," he understood his rights. A one-on-one was conducted with Officer C. Barnbeck, P#6902, call sign 2K2, and Ramirez pointed out Edwards as the person that took items off the shelf through the video surveillance. While sitting in the back of my patrol car, Edwards told me what he did was a petite larceny because the items he took was less than $20. Edwards repeating saying, "It's a petite larceny," without him asking me any questions. A records check showed that Edwards has priors for petite larceny. Based on the above circumstances, the fact that Edwards entered the store without money and with a duffle bag, Edwards also knew that the items he was going to take were less than $250, he was placed under arrest for burglary and transported to Clark County Detention Center. It should be noted that the items were recovered from Edwards' bag and were returned to the store.

service at 412 East Flamingo, Las Vegas, Nevada, 89109. The details of the call were a black male adult, carrying a white grocery bag, who had threatened people with a pair of scissors in the parking lot at the location of 412 East Flamingo. Further details included that the black male adult had proceeded on foot northbound on Palos Verde Street.

Officer Stevens and myself made contact with a black male adult, carrying a white grocery bag, heading northbound on foot at the location of Palos Verde and Albert Street, Las Vegas, Nevada, 89109. The black male adult was later identified by his Nevada inmate ID and social security card as Edwards, Toyer, date of birth 08/24/59. When Edwards was initially contacted he stated that he only had a pair of nail clippers in his back pocket. The clippers were found in Edwards's rear pants pocket by Officer Stevens during a patdown for weapons.

Officer Stevens began to conduct a patdown for weapons. I, Officer G. McAnally, asked Edwards if he had anything illegal on him and could we pat him down and search. Edwards responded by saying, "No," he did not have anything illegal and by stating, "Go ahead. You guys are going to do what you do." Edwards at that time informed officers that he was an ex-felon and had just recently been released.

During Officer Stevens's patdown and search of Edwards, a small baggy containing a green, leafy substance was found in Edwards's front-left pants pocket. The green, leafy substance was rolled into a small ball and tightly covered with the baggy, which was tied in a knot at one end. Officer Stevens also found two tightly folded pieces of paper in the right-front coin pocket of Edwards's pants. The papers were folded into the shape of a closed envelope. I opened the envelopes and found they both contained white powder. Initially when the white powder and green, leafy substance were found, due to the way they were packaged and carried in Edwards's pants, it was suspected that the substances were cocaine and marijuana.

Edwards also had two bags in his possession. One bag was a white grocery bag, and the other was a black satchef-type bag. Again Edwards was asked by officers if there was anything illegal in the bags and could officers search them. Edwards again replied, "Go ahead. You guys are going to do what you do." In the black satchel a small plastic bag was found. The plastic bag contained several pieces of paper folded up containing white powder. The white powder, due to the individual packaging and the way it was possessed was suspected of being cocaine.

All substance were ODV tested. The substances were negative for cocaine and marijuana. Edwards was walking through the parking lot at 412 East Flamingo prior to being contacted by police officers. Witnesses stated that Edwards was trying to sell two employees alcohol in the parking lot. Bell, John, date of birth 07/24/91, and Carver, Derrick, date of birth 12/20/89, stated that Edwards approached them and tried to sell them alcohol. When Bell and Carver told Edwards no, Edwards became irate. Bell and Carver stated that Edwards told them he had a gun and would shoot them. Both Bell and Carver stated that Edwards then pulled a shiny item from his person. Smith, Marshall, date of birth 10/18/85, witnessed what happened and also stated that Edwards had an unidentified shiny object in his hands, saying that he had a gun and was going to shoot someone. Witnesses stated that eventually Edwards produced the item in his hand, which turned out to be a large pair of nail clippers, approximately four to five inches in length and three inches wide. Edwards then took the clippers and waved them and pointed them with the sharp end in Bell and Carver's face in a threatening manner.

Due to the above circumstances of intentionally placing another person in reasonable apprehension of immediate bodily harm and possessing the present ability to use a deadly weapon, the clippers concealed to resemble a gun and stating he had a gun in his possession and then taking the sharp instrument and waving it in a threatening manner at people's faces, Edwards was arrested for assault with a deadly weapon. Also due to the circumstances of possessing individually-wrapped packages of a white powder substance resembling cocaine and an individually-wrapped baggy of green, leafy substance resembling marijuana, Edwards was arrested for PCS imitation controlled substance. Edwards was arrested, transported to Clark County Detention Center, and booked accordingly. The clippers and the packages of imitation controlled substance were digitally photographed and downloaded into G-Pack system (phonetic). All evidentiary items were impounded at Convention Center Area Command evidence vault.

On April 24, 2010, at approximately 2355 hours, I, Officer F. Bien, P#7946, and Officer J. Bertuccini, P#8247, were operating in a plain-clothes capacity at 3785 South Las Vegas Boulevard.

We were alerted to a disturbance when we observed Toyer Edwards struggling with security at the food court. Toyer was asked to leave several times by security and refused. When I observed Toyer, he was in a place open to the public, and because he was drunk and struggling with security, he was causing a disturbance. The choice was made to arrest Toyer for disorderly conduct. Officer Bertuccini then identified himself as a police officer by badge and police ID. Toyer was placed under arrest for disorderly conduct.

A search incident to arrest revealed a plastic baggy of a white, powder substance believed to be cocaine. It was found in his front, right pooket by Officer Bertuccini. The powder was weighed at 4.88 grams gross and ODV-tested negative. As Officer Bertuccini was testing the powder substance, Toyer stated, "It's fake dope." The charge of imitation controlled substance was added.

Toyer was extremely intoxicated and being uncooperative. He kept standing up and trying to walk away. Both Officer Bien and Officer Bertuccini had to force Toyer to sit down for fear that he was going to run. When Officer Bertuccini pushed down on Toyer's right shoulder, Toyer made an attempt to bite Officer Bertuccini on his right forearm. Luckilly, Officer Bertuccini was able to quickly move his arm, avoiding the bite.

Toyer was then escorted to a different location by Officer M. Fairweather, P#8390, and Officer Bien. In the process of moving Toyer, he purposely fell to the ground to make it difficult for officers to move him. Toyer then told Officer Fairweather he was going to get up and run. Officer Fairweather grabbed his shoulder, and when he did, Toyer tried to bite Fairweather in his left knee. Again, because Officer Fairweather was aware of his biting history, he was able to move quickly and avoid being bit. The charge of assault on a police officer was added, two counts, for intentionally placing two officers in reasonable apprehension of immediate bodily harm.

Toyer was then escorted by Officer Fairweather and other officers to marked patrol unit CC1918 to be transported to jail. Once placed in the back, passenger's seat of the patrol vehicle, he kicked the back, passenger's window and shattered it. The charge of destruction of county property was then added.

Digital photos of the damage were taken and downloaded. Voluntary statements by Michael Sartor and Dennis Pail were obtained to document the disorderly conduct. Toyer was then transported to the Clark County Detention Center and booked accordingly.

The total estimated value of the broken window per LVMPD Risk Management is $475.00. After further examination of marked patrol unit CC1918, it was determined that the hinges to the rear, passenger's door were also bent and damaged, thus not allowing the door to close properly.

DETAILS:

On 08/16/12, I, Officer A. Kelvington, P#8878, and Officer B. Leahy, P#9021, were working as marked patrol unit 3M5 bike, when a person with a knife call came out at 3663 South Las Vegas Boulevard. The details of the call stated that the subject tried to steal from the ABC Store and threatened security with a knife when confronted.

Myself and Officer Leahy were parked out front, immediately arrived. I then made contact with security officer Javier Ochoa. Ochoa said that ABC manager, Yili Zhang, said that a subject, later IDed in SCOPE as Toyer Edwards, ID#878456, tried to steal alcohol from the ABC store. Zhang confronted Edwards and Edwards put the bottle of alcohol back. Zhang then attempted to flag down security officer Ochoa. Edwards saw that Zhang was trying to flag security, so Edwards grabbed a glass bottle and tried to hit Zhang with it.

Edwards then walked out of the store. As Edwards walked out, Ochoa saw him and tried to escort him out. Edwards then reached behind and removed something "shiny" that Ochoa believed was a knife. Edwards then told Ochoa he was going to hurt him and started to chase him. Ochoa ran away and Edwards ran through Planet Hollywood, where Ochoa lost sight.

A second security officer located Edwards inside Urban Outfitters, also at 3663 South Las Vegas Boulevard. I then made contact with Edwards and Edwards became verbally abusive and started yelling. I then took Edwards into custody without incident. I then began to walk Edwards back to my car. After 20 yards of walking, Edwards started collapsing, using his body weight to fall to the ground. I then had security get a wheel chair.

LAS VEGAS METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT CONTINUATION REPORT

ID/EVENT #:	878456

As Edwards was waiting for the wheelchair, he started trying to bite me. I held him down so he wouldn't hurt himself. Edwards then started to kick me. At this point Officer Leahy arrived.

I then conducted a search incident to arrest where I located in Edwards's back pocket a large set of clippers. The clippers were pointed and sharp. I then removed from Edwards's front pocket a white powdered substance, which had the appearance of cocaine. Edwards laughed and made the statement, "That ain't cocaine, you don't have anything on me." The powdered substance was tested for cocaine, ODV, and returned negative.

Edwards was then placed into wheelchair and taken back to the patrol car. While Edwards was in the patrol car, he kicked out the driver's side rear window. The car had to be taken out of service until repaired. A new event# was created for the damage to the car, event# 120816-3858. An officer's report is completed under that event#.

Based on the above facts and statements, that Ochoa thought and felt Edwards would stab him, and Zhang though Edwards would hit him with a glass bottle, Edwards was booked into Clark County Detention Center for AWDW times two.

The large clippers and white powdered substance were booked into evidence at Convention Center Area Command.

DETAILS:

On October 12, 2013, at 2200 hours, Detectives R. Nakhla, P#9665; V. Leaman, P#9628; B. Rose, P#9661; D. Denton, P#7306; and T. McMurtry, P#8375, were patrolling the area of Tropicana and Las Vegas Boulevard in a plainclothes capacity. Extra patrol was being conducted there based on the increase in crime, per LVMPD crime statistics.

Detective Nakhla began talking to a male later identified as Toyer Edwards, date of birth 08/24/59. Edwards was holding a bottle of Ciroc Ilquor. The top of the bottle, where a security device would be placed, looked tampered. The top label was completely torn, as if someone forcibly had taken off the security device. Edwards attempted to sell the bottle of Ciroc to Detective Nakhla for $25.00.

LVMPD 6021 (Rev. 5/19/11) WORD 2007

LAS VEGAS METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT CONTINUATION REPORT

ID/EVENT #:	878456

Detective Nakhla bargained the price, at which time Edwards told Detective Nakhla to follow him into the New York-New York Casino to sell him the Ciroc. Detective Nakhla followed Edwards into the casino. Edwards wanted to sell Detective Nakhla the bottle of Ciroc inside the New York-New York Casino. Detectives recognized Edwards from prior contacts. Detectives believed that Edwards was committing a crime or was going to commit a crime.

Detectives identified themselves verbally and physically by showing Edwards their LVMPD-issued badges and identification cards. Detective McMurtry asked Edwards if he could search his pockets and backpack. Edwards replied, "Yes." Edwards had a black and white backpack, which was on his back while he was walking. Inside Edwards' backpack, Detective Denton recovered two more bottles of liquor—one of Smirnoff vodka and one of Moet champagne. Also in the backpack was a pair of sharp clippers.

Inside Edwards' wallet, Detective Rose recovered two baggies of a white substance consistent with cocaine. Also, inside Edwards' coin pocket was a baggie containing a white substance also consistent with cocaine. Edwards also had a pipe inside his crotch area. When Detective Nakhla asked Edwards what was inside his crotch, he replied, "a crack pipe." Detective Nakhla removed the pipe, which was consistent with the type of pipe used to smoke crack cocaine.

Detective Learnan made contact with Edin Neal (phonetic), who works at 24-7 Liquor, located at the Excalibur Casino, where Edwards was walking from. Edin stated she observed a black male in his 40s or 50s with a black and white backpack enter the store and take the alcohol. Edin stated that she sees the male come by the store almost every day and look inside the store to see who is working.

Edin stated the male constantly steals liquor from the store and that she calls security every time she sees him enter. But by the time security responds, Edwards is nowhere to be found. Edin stated that the male used his backpack to conceal the bottles of liquor prior to exiting the store.

Inside Edwards' wallet were two citations. Under LVMPD event #130913-3398, Edwards was cited for petit larceny for stealing a bottle of Moet champagne from the Harrah's Casino. Under LVMPD event #131008-2455, Edwards was cited for petit larceny for stealing a backpack from the Paris Hotel/Casino. Edwards also had a Bally's room key inside his wallet. Detective Rose asked Edwards if he was staying at Bally's. He stated that he was trespassed from Bally's.

At 2215 hours, Detective Nakhla read Miranda to Edwards from his LVMPD-issued 148 card. Edwards replied that he understood his rights, in the presence of Detective Rose. Edwards stated that he used the Bally's room key card to break into locked doors, placing the card in between the door and the door frame, where the lock would be. Detective Rose made contact with security officer Travis Farris, who stated that Edwards was not staying on property. Edwards was arrested for illegal possession of hotel room key card.

The white substance tested negative for cocaine. Edwards stated that he sells the white substance, a powder he disguises as cocaine, for $180 for one gram. Edwards has numerous priors for possessing an imitation controlled substance. Based on Edwards manufacturing a substance to resemble cocaine, which he sells to tourists for $180 a gram, Edwards was arrested for manufacturing a controlled substance.

LAS VEGAS METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT CONTINUATION REPORT

ID/EVENT#:	878456

Based on Edwards entering a structure (7-24 Liquor) to taking liquor without permission of the owner, he was in violation of NRS 205.060, burglary. Based on Edwards using the backpack to conceal the liquor, he was arrested for possession of burglary tools. Edwards stated to Detectives Nakhla and Rose that he constantly steals alcohol on the strip because it's easy. Edwards stated that he has stolen from the Paris, Bally's, The Quad, MGM, Excalibur, and numerous other casinos on the Las Vegas Strip.

Edwards stated that arresting him was a waste of time, because when he gets out of CCDC for credit time served, he will be on the Strip doing the same thing. Edwards stated that stealing alcohol and selling it to tourists was his hustle, and that's how he made money, and that he was going to continue doing it, regardless of the outcome. Edwards stated that the judge was just going to give him time served for this offense, so it was a complete waste of time.

Edwards was arrested and transported to Clark County Detention Center, where he was booked accordingly.

DISTRICT COURT

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

THE STATE OF NEVADA,
Plaintiff,	CASE NO. C-17-324805-1
v.	DEPT. NO. XVIII
TOYER EDWARDS,  Defendant,	DATE: May 10, 2018 TIME: 9:00 a.m.

DEFENDANT'S SENTENCING MEMORANDUM

COMES NOW, the Defendant, TOYER EDWARDS, by and through ELAINE ODEH, Deputy Public Defender and hereby submits this memorandum for the Court's consideration.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On June 18, 2017, the Defendant, Toyer Edwards had just taken medication for a heart condition, which makes him drowsy, and he fell asleep while sitting at a table at the outdoor Hawaiian Marketplace on the Las Vegas Strip. Within minutes of his arrival, he was approached by security guards, Allison and Lovato. They woke Mr. Edwards up, and when he did not immediately leave the area, the situation was escalated. When Mr. Edwards stood from his chair he was sprayed with pepper spray by Lovato. As Mr. Edwards backed up with his hand in his pocket clutching his knife, Allison moved in to take Mr. Edwards down. As Allison put his hands upon Mr. Edwards, Mr. Edwards cut Allison and then as Lovato moved in, Mr. Edwards cut him as well. As a result, Mr. Edwards was charged with two counts of Battery with a Deadly Weapon Resulting in Substantial Bodily Harm. After a jury trial before this Court, Mr. Edwards was found guilty of both counts.

ARGUMENT

The Department of Parole and Probation prepared a Pre-Sentence Report (PSR) in this case detailing Mr. Edwards background. It appears from the PSR that Mr. Edwards has an extensive criminal background. However, the defense believes that when the details of the PSR are looked at more closely, Mr. Edwards history is not as egregious as it seems.

The State, in its Sentencing Memorandum, lists some of Mr. Edward's criminal history. Presumably, the State presents the worst of his offenses to support their argument for the imposition of a habitual sentence of life without the possibility of parole. The State chose to highlight the following from Mr. Edward's history:

- 1987 Misdemeanor Battery
- 1998 Misdemeanor Assault
- 2003 Robbery Case dismissed
- 2005 Misdemeanor Trespass and Misdemeanor Possession of Drug Paraphernalia
- 2006 Battery No charges filed
- 2007 Misdemeanor Battery
- 2007 Misdemeanor Battery and Disorderly Conduct
- 2008 Consuming Liquor, Possessing Imitation Controlled Substance No charges filed
- 2008 Burglary for stealing bleach and insecticide from Albertson's
- 2010 Assault with a Deadly Weapon The "weapon" being fingernail clippers
- 2010 Injury to Property of Another Case dismissed
- 2012 Misdemeanor Assault and Trespass
- 2013 Conspiracy Burglary for selling a stolen bottle of liquor.

This is not the type of offender background the legislature had in mind when it enacted the habitual offender statute. "The purpose of the habitual criminality statute is to allow the criminal justice system to deal determinedly with career criminals who seriously threaten public safety". (emphasis added). Johnson v. State, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 58, 354 P.3d 667, 677 (Nev. App. 2015) citing Sessions v. State, 106 Nev. 186, 191, 789 P.2d 1242, 1245 (1990). It is within this Court's discretion to decide whether or not to treat Mr. Edwards as a habitual criminal under NRS 207.010, and to disregard the enhanced sentencing when the prior offenses are stale or trivial, or in other circumstances where an adjudication of habitual criminality would not serve the purposes of the statute or the interests of justice. French v. State, 98 Nev. 235, 237, 645 P.2d 440, 441 (1982).

In this case, justice would not be served by treating Mr. Edwards as a habitual criminal. His PSR reflects the history of a homeless drug user and not a serious threat to the public safety. 58-year-old Toyer Edwards has been on his own since the age of 13. It appears that in his 100+ contacts with the criminal justice system (for mostly petty nuisance offenses), rather than being assisted or provided services so that he could be a productive member of our society, he was instead repeatedly locked up. Mr. Edwards history is a reflection of the failings of our criminal justice system.

The purpose of the PSR is to aid this Court in its sentencing decision. The defense is asking this Court to not rely on the PSR entirely in making its sentencing decision. First, the offenses for which Mr. Edwards has been convicted are not as serious as their titles would suggest. For example, he was convicted in 2010 of Assault with a Deadly Weapon – that weapon being a fingernail clipper, Burglary in 2008 for stealing household necessities (bleach and insecticide) from Albertson's, and Conspiracy Burglary in 2013 for selling a stolen bottle of liquor. Second, Parole and Probation utilizes a points system to determine their recommended sentencing structure: x amount of points means x amount of time. However, Parole and Probation was not there when this Defendant had to face the world alone at 13, and they were not there for his trial in this case. The PSR points system does not even begin to tell the story.

Mr. Edwards' past behavior, as well as his behavior in this case, certainly does not warrant habitual criminal treatment, and the defense argues that it does not even warrant the 66-18- month sentence recommended by Parole and Probation.

Mr. Edwards lives on the streets of Las Vegas, which is no doubt a dangerous situation. It is not unreasonable for him to carry a weapon (a kitchen knife here) in the event that he needs to protect himself. Additionally, it would be fair to assume that Mr. Edwards' experience with police officers and Las Vegas Strip security, over mostly petty homeless person crimes, does not include being offered assistance or being treated with human kindness. So, it should be no surprise that when confronted by such authority, he would be defensive. On the day of this offense, Mr. Edwards was not causing any trouble. He was sound asleep. Perhaps he should not have taken a nap at the Hawaiin Marketplace, but everything that happened after he fell asleep happened because security guards Allison and Lovato were either not properly trained, were on a power trip, or both.

Allison and Lovato immediately escalated the situation. Before Mr. Edwards was fully awake or even knew what was happening he was maced. In the scuffle that followed, Allison and Lovato were cut. They characterized their injuries as "stabs", but even the police officer who took their statements and made the report in this case called their injuries "minor". In fact, when asked by Parole and Probation if they wanted to include an impact statement or make a claim for restitution, Allison and Lovato declined.

Mr. Edwards was found guilty, he respects the jury's verdict, and he understands that there must be consequences. But this Court's duty is not to rubber-stamp the PSR. In considering an appropriate sentence, the court "may consider facts such as a defendant's criminal history, mitigation evidence, victim impact statements and the like." O'Neill v. State, 123 Nev. 9, 15, 153 P.3d 38, 42 (2007). The Court has the ability to look at the human being behind the charge and at the circumstances and to make a thoughtful decision as to the appropriate sentence. A sentence where the punishment fits the crime.

CONCLUSION

Mr. Edwards' behavior under these circumstances does not justify a severe penalty. An appropriate penalty considering Mr. Edwards' background and the circumstances of this case would be 24 to 60 months in the Nevada Department of Corrections.

DATED this 4th day of May, 2018.

Respectfully submitted,

7	THE COURT: And do you have any objection to the
8	filing of the certified copies of judgment convictions?
9	MS. ODEH: No.
10	MS. DERJAVINA: May I approach, Your Honor?
11	THE COURT: You may.
12	MS. DERJAVINA: And, Your Honor, the State did submit
13	a sentencing memorandum in this case. One of the reasons is we
14	did want to provide to Your Honor some of the police reports from 15	Defendant's other case. But I do have some points that I'd like to
16	highlight.
17	First, obviously, as a memorandum mentions
18	THE COURT: Counsel?
19	UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Apologize.
20	THE COURT: That's all right.
21	Go ahead.
22	MS. DERJAVINA: In this case, the State is requesting
23	that you adjudicate him under the Large Habitual and you sentence
24	him to life without the possibility of parole.
25	Now. State realizes that is a high sentence. But in this case, it is warranted. If you look at the PSI, it actually does recommend that if this Honor is to adjudicate Defendant under the Large Habitual, that he be sentenced to life without parole. And, as Your Honor knows, that is rare for parole and probation to recommend such a sentence. But they realize what a danger this defendant is.

First, if you just look at the length of his criminal history, it's appalling. First, the defendant actually has two Scope IDs because of the length of his criminal history. And even though I haven't been a deputy for that long, this is the first time that I've ever seen somebody have such a lengthy criminal history where they need to give him a second Scope ID. His first Scope ID has 48 pages.

Now, he has six felonies, four gross misdemeanors, 97 misdemeanors, and I'll talk about the concern for those misdemeanors. Because if you look closely, those misdemeanors should have been filed as felonies, because they weren't just trespasses or batteries, they were assaults with deadly weapons, they were battery with deadly weapons. He's been in prison six times and he's been in jail 101 times. And again, as I'll talk about it, a lot of those should have been felonies in the first place.

Now, one thing that I found interesting is that in defense's sentencing memorandum, they talk about what the intent of the Habitual Criminal Statute was, and that's -- it's to determine and deal with career criminals who are a serious threat to public safety. And they argue the defendant is not that. And the State would respectfully totally disagree. The defendant is the definition of somebody that the Large Habitual Statute was meant for.

Now, a lot of the things that defense mentions in their sentencing memorandum and the fact that was elicited at trial, the fact the defendant is homeless, and that's a sad fact. It's sad that he had a rough life, it's sad the fact that he's living on the streets.

But with all due respect to Defendant, a lot of the crimes that he's committing are more than just sleeping in public or trespassing or petty larcenies. If you look deeply into the fact of all his criminal history, it relates to the fact that he has total disregard for the law. He does not care what the law is, he has full disregard for authority, full disregard for peoples' safety. And that is a very big concern for the State.

Now, in their sentencing memorandum, I believe what defense writes is if you look at the details of the PSI more closely, Defendant's criminal history is not as egregious as it seems. And the State would respectfully disagree.

I think when you look at that criminal history closely, it's the total opposite, that it actually is a lot more egregious than what it appears. Because as they mentioned in their sentencing memorandum, they list a lot of the charges Defendant was charged with, which was battery misdemeanor, assault misdemeanor, trespass, things like that, what are just misdemeanors. But if you look closely at the facts, and which is the reason we did a sentencing memorandum, in order to be able to highlight those facts, in order for Your Honor to be able to read the police reports and realize that this defendant has gotten break after break after break. He commits serious offenses that are felonies, when you read the facts. But he gets cited for trespass or he gets cited for a simple misdemeanor. And he doesn't face the consequences.

I believe this is the first time where he committed a serious offense and he was charged properly for that offense when it relates to assaulting security officers or assaulting officers in general.

And that again, is a very, very big concern for the State. I'm not going to go into the details, because you had a sentencing memorandum and I know Your Honor does a wonderful job of reading everything in detail. But as you saw in those, he batters police officers, he batters security guards, he assaults customers in stores, he assaults employees in stores, he is a threat to visitors on the Strip, because when he's trying to sell alcohol to them and they refuse it, he starts threatening them.

He is not just a nuisance, and that's not the reason that the State is seeking Large Habitual; he's somebody who is a serious threat. And in this case, he started off with first having the knife in his pocket and then using it.

And the concern the State has is eventually he's going to kill somebody. And it's obvious in this case that he has no problem using a deadly weapon on somebody, and that's a very big concern for the State.

Now, one of the things I know defense counsel mentions in their sentencing memorandum, and I think that was a clear thing that they argued at trial is the fact that this case would have never happened if it wasn't for the security officers, that they're the ones who escalated this, that if they didn't bother him, he would have never pulled the knife, that he did it in self-defense. Which I think is an argument maybe you can make at trial. But now that we have his criminal history, that argument goes out the door, because his criminal history is totally counterintuitive to that.

Because as Your Honor saw, there are two cases that we mention in our sentencing memorandum. One is on page 3, that, basically, are the exact same facts of this case, where he's asked to leave the Mirage, he refuses, and he tells them, Fuck you, you broke-ass niggers, I'll cut you from your navel to your throat, I will cut you, boy. Which is exactly what he did in this case and pretty much exactly what he was threatening the security guards in this case. And this case was from 2005. And in that case, all he got charged with was trespass and possession of drug paraphernalia.

But, ultimately, that's not a misdemeanor case. That is an assault with a deadly weapon, because I believe he had something in his hand. But, again, that just goes to show that this theory of all he's doing is trying to protect himself, that they escalated this, that if they didn't think they are wanna-be cops, none of this would have happened. And his criminal history shows the opposite. It shows that this is his pattern, this is what he does.

And the other big concern the State has, and we mentioned in our sentencing memorandum, is he's never going to stop. And how do we know that? We know it by his own words. In this case, first of all, he tells the officers and you -- Your Honor got to see the video when the jury's watching the video, got to see his demeanor, this wasn't somebody who was scared or remorseful. This is somebody who did not care.

And as he is yelling profanities at the two people that he stabbed, what does he tell them? He tells them, Hey, I know where you work, and when I get out, I'm coming right back here. Which is, basically, telling us that he's never going to stop. And the concern with that is that's not the first time he's said that. Because if you look in one of the cases that we mention in our sentencing memorandum, he basically tells the cops the same thing. He tells them that I steal and I sell alcohol, because that's my hustle, that's what I do. Go ahead, arrest me. That's a waste of time, because I'm going to get credit time served and I'll be back out here, because I don't care about the consequences.

And his criminal history shows that's exactly what he does. Because the only time since 1987 that he's not committed crimes is when he's been incarcerated. And that, Your Honor, is a definition of somebody who needs to be sentenced by a Large Habitual. This is not somebody who's going to stop. This is somebody, by his own words and by his criminal history, as soon as he's let out, he's going to commit more crimes. And for the safety of this community and with the intent of the Large Habitual Statute is, is for Defendant to be sentenced to life without parole.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MS. DERJAVINA: We'll submit with that.

THE COURT: Mr. Edwards, before your attorneys speak, is there anything you'd like to tell the Court in your own behalf before I pronounce sentence?

THE DEFENDANT: No.

THE COURT: Defense, any argument in mitigation?

MS. ODEH: Yes. Thank you, Judge.

So I'll agree, on paper, on the PSI, Toyer Edwards looks terrible. He has a long criminal history and the PSI makes him look very bad. But the reason that we're all here, the reason that Your Honor is here, is because there's more to sentencing than what we see on the PSI.

And I'm going to reiterate, when we look closer at it, it's not what it seems. His history isn't what it seems. Now, the State is asking you to lock him up for the rest of his life. And they filed a sentencing memorandum to support that.

And in their sentencing memorandum, they included a whole list of prior offenses, presumably, the worst ones that they could pick out of his hundred-plus contacts with police to show Your Honor what a bad guy he is. And that list is:

1987, misdemeanor battery.

1	1998, misdemeanor assault.
2	2003, robbery, case dismissed.
3	2005, misdemeanor trespass, misdemeanor possession
4	of drug paraphernalia.
5	A 2006 battery, no charges filed.
6	2007, misdemeanor battery.
7	2007, a misdemeanor battery.
8	2008, consuming liquor and possessing an imitation
9	controlled substance, no charges even filed.
10	2008, burglary, which is one of the JOCs they submitted.
11	This is a burglary for stealing bleach and insecticide from
12	Albertson's.
13	2010, assault with a deadly weapon. Another JOC. The
14	deadly weapon was a pair of nail clippers.
15	2010, injury to property of another, case dismissed.
16	2012, misdemeanor assault and trespass.
17	2013, conspiracy burglary for selling a stolen bottle of
18	liquor.
19	Is this is the worst the State can pick out, the his
20	history is not as bad as it appears on paper.
21	This is a PSI of a homeless drug user, not a dangerous
22	criminal that needs to be removed from the streets. Mr. Edwards,
23	as you see from the PSI, has been on his own since he was 13 years
24	old. And I'm going to ask, as a society, what have we done for this
25	man in all the contacts he's had with the notice? Have we offered him any assistance? Any kind of rehabilitation? As a society, what have we done to help our fellow human being? It looks like nothing.

And then we're going to turn around and blame him for what he's become. He is a product of our criminal justice system. And I think blaming him for what he's turned out to be at 58 years old is wrong. And asking Your Honor to lock him up and throw away the key is just wrong.

Now, the purpose of the PSI is to give Your Honor information, and it's to aid you in making your sentencing decision. I'm going to ask you to not rely entirely on the PSI for a couple of reasons.

First, the offenses are not as serious as they seem.

Assault with a nail clipper, stealing bleach from Albertson's.

And secondly, what Parole and Probation does when they recommend a sentence is they have some kind of point system. And in this case, 31 points equals x-amount of time, whether Your Honor treats it as nonhabitual, small habitual, or large, the point system just -- they recommend a certain amount of time.

But P&P wasn't here for the trial. They didn't hear all the circumstances. They're not here right now. They didn't see the videos. Your Honor is in a better position to make a reasoned judgment as to sentencing.

I would submit that Mr. Edwards' behavior does not warrant habitual treatment. I don't even think it warrants the 66 to 180 months that Probation recommends.

So I wanted to say a few words about what happened in this case in the context of Mr. Edwards' personal history and his experience. So, as we know, he's had I think over 100 interactions with police and probably many more with Strip security. And as I said before, I think it's fair to say that he wasn't treated with -- he wasn't given assistance, treated with kindness, or even basic respect in those interactions.

So he comes into this with an idea of how he feels about authority, about security, and about the police, and how he's treated when he has interactions with them.

Secondly, Judge, I ask you to remember that he's homeless. And being homeless in Las Vegas is very dangerous. I don't think it's unusual to expect that a person would carry a weapon for self-protection. I can say that when I count my blessings, at the top is that I have a roof over my head. I can't imagine what it's like to live on the streets. So I don't think it's unreasonable to expect that he would be carrying a weapon to protect himself.

So on this day, as we saw in the trial, he wasn't bothering anybody. He -- you know, was it wrong for him to take a nap outside? I don't know. It was 7:00 in the morning, there was nobody around. He didn't hurt or interfere with anybody.

And I think it's true, everything that happened, from the point he fell asleep, was because of what these security guards did. They either were not properly trained, they were on a power trip, or it was a combination of both. But they're the ones that came upon a sleeping man and escalated the situation.

In the scuffle, these guards were cut. They weren't stabbed. And I understand he was charged with that. But the testimony at trial was, from the State's own witness, that these injuries were minor.

MS. DERJAVINA: And, objection. That's not what the testimony came out. They didn't testify to it being minor.

THE COURT: Okay. I heard the trial, counsel.

MS. DERJAVINA: Thank you.

MS. ODEH: And I'm -- just so I'm clear, the officer testified he made the report that the injuries were minor.

I believe, as the State says, if Mr. Toyer wanted to kill them, I think he certainly could have. He had the weapon, he had the ability. He didn't. He cut them and got them off of him.

And then the State's going to ask you to look at his statements that he made afterwards, after he was in custody, handcuffed to a chair, he starts yelling. Well, why is he yelling? Is that wrong? He's worked up. He -- a few minutes earlier, he had just been sleeping. Now he's sitting there in handcuffs and he's the one who was the most injured, Judge. I would ask if you recall, Toyer Edwards was the one that was the most injured, even when the paramedics got there, Your Honor, they went straight to

Mr. Edwards. And the police officers told them, No, not him. Go treat these people.

So, of course, he was angry. Of course he was upset.

And we're going to stand here and say Toyer Edwards, how dare you be mad that you got knocked in the side of your head, that your face was bleeding, and that nobody offered you assistance.

THE COURT: Counsel.

MS. ODEH: How dare you be angry?

THE COURT: Counsel, if you could -- counsel --

MS. DERJAVINA: I think he --

THE COURT: He got -- if you all could speak a little bit lower. Thank you.

I'm sorry, go ahead, counsel.

MS. ODEH: So, Judge, I think to fault him for being angry after what happened to him, again, is just wrong. He's not even being treated with the most basic human dignity.

He was found guilty after trial, and we do respect the verdict. And he understandings that there has to be consequences. But the reason that there's a person here, the reason Your Honor is here is because you have the ability to look at the circumstances, to look at the man, to look at his history, and to make a reasoned, rational judgment, and not just rubber-stamp the PSI.

His behavior on that day, under these circumstances, I believe warrants a sentence of 24 to 60 months in the Department of Corrections. That's what I'm going to ask Your Honor to impose.

Consequences that are appropriate, punishment that fits the crime. Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you, counsel.

In accordance with the law of the State of Nevada, this Court does now sentence you as to Count -- I am going to --

Counsel, I am going to adjudicate him on -- under the Large Habitual Criminal Statute.

In accordance with the law of the State of Nevada, this Court does now sentence you to confinement in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a definite term of 25 years with eligibility for parole beginning when a minimum of 10 years has been served in the Nevada Department of Corrections. That is as to Count 1.

As to Count 2, I sentence you to confinement in Nevada Department of Corrections for a definitely term of 25 years with eligibility for parole beginning with a memo that 010 years has been served. County 1 will run concurrent to Count 2 -- I'm sorry, Count 2 will run concurrent to Count 1.

In addition, there will be a $25 as administrative assessment fee, $150 for a DNA analysis, fee, $3 for a DNA administrative assessment fee, no fine is imposed, no restitution is owed. You'll be given 313 days credit for time served.

MS. DERJAVINA: And, Your Honor, I believe we can -- I don't know if you said we can waive the DNA, I believe it's been taken already.

1	THE COURT: DNA fee will be waived.
2	MS. DERJAVINA: Thank you, Your Honor.
3	THE COURT: Thank you, counsel.

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a pro se appeal from a judgment of conviction. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Mark B. Bailus, Judge.

This court's preliminary review of this appeal reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically, the district court entered the judgment of conviction on May 22, 2018. Appellant did not file the notice of appeal, however, until October 29, 2018, well after the expiration of the 30-day appeal period prescribed by NRAP 4(b). "[A]n untimely notice of appeal fails to vest jurisdiction in this court." Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 352, 871 P.2d 944, 946 (1994). Accordingly, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, and we

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS (POST-CONVICTION)

INSTRUCTIONS:

- (1) This petition must be legibly handwritten or typewritten signed by the petitioner and verified.
- (2) Additional pages are not permitted except where noted or with respect to the facts which you rely upon to support your grounds for relief. No citation of authorities need be furnished. If briefs or arguments are submitted, they should be submitted in the form of a separate memorandum.
- (3) If you want an attorney appointed, you must complete the Affidavit in Support of Request to Proceed in Forma Pauperis. You must have an authorized officer at the prison complete the certificate as to the amount of money and securities on deposit to your credit in any account in the institution.
- (4) You must name as respondent the person by whom you are confined or restrained. If you are in a specific institution of the department of corrections, name the warden or head of the institution. If you are not in a specific institution of the department within its custody, name the director of the department of corrections.
- (5) You must include all grounds or claims for relief which you may have regarding your conviction and sentence.

RECEIVED

- (6) You must allege specific facts supporting the claims in the petition you file seeking relief from any conviction or sentence. Failure to allege specific facts rather than just conclusions may cause your petition to be dismissed. If your petition contains a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel, that claim will operate to waive the attorney-client privilege for the proceeding in which you claim your counsel was ineffective.
- (7) If your petition challenges the validity of your conviction or sentence, the original and one copy must be filed with the clerk of the district court for the county in which the conviction occurred. Petitions raising any other claim must be filed with the clerk of the district court for the county in which you are incarcerated. One copy must be mailed to the respondent, one copy to the attorney general's office, and one copy to the district attorney of the county in which you were convicted or to the original prosecutor if you are challenging your original conviction or sentence. Copies must conform in all particulars to the original submitted for filing.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On July 6, 2017, the State filed an Information, charging Toyer Edwards with two counts of Battery With Use Of A Deadly Weapon Resulting in Substantial Bodily Harm. On March 2, 2018, the jury found Edwards guilty on all counts. On May 10, 2018, the District Court sentenced Edwards to the following: Count one – a maximum of twenty-five (25) years and a minimum of ten (10) years; Count two – maximum of twenty-five (25) years and a minimum of ten (10) years, concurrent with Count one, with 315 days credit for time served. On May 22, 2018 the Court filed Edwards' Judgment of Conviction. Edwards filed a pro se appeal on October 29, 2018. On November 16, 2018, the Nevada Supreme Court filed an Order of Dismissal due to untimeliness. On April 25, 2019, Edwards filed a Post-Conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On June 18, 2017, Defendant Toyer Edwards, was sleeping in a public area on Las Vegas Boulevard at Hawaiian Marketplace. Two security officers approached him and asked Edwards to leave. Edwards argued with the officers and reached for a knife. One of the security officers pepper sprayed Edwards. Edwards thereafter stabbed both officers with the knife. The officers wrestled the knife away from Mr. Edwards and ultimately took him into custody. Metropolitan Police Officers arrived, and body camera video revealed Defendant was belligerent and obnoxious. Edwards was screaming, laughing, and taunting the injured security officers, yelling "you can't fuck with me on your best day and my worst day," "they underestimate me, I took they bitch ass down," and "I tore his ass up." Defendant continued to brag shouting racial slurs and odd phrases. Police officers located the knife in Mr. Edwards' right front pocket. Mr. Edwards was arrested and transported to the Clark County Detention Center.

25 26 T. DEFENDANT HAS A RIGHT TO A LIMITED EVIDENTIARY HEARING

Under Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 254-55, 71 P.3d 503, 507-08 (2003), the deprivation of a right to appeal may constitute good cause if the defendant actually believed an appeal was pending, such belief was objectively reasonable, and the defendant brought his post-conviction request for relief within a reasonable time after discovering no appeal was pending. Such a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel was available to Defendant within the statutory time period provided by NRS 34.726. See Hathaway, 119 Nev. at 253-54, 71 P.3d at 507 (distinguishing between claims that counsel refused to file a requested direct appeal from circumstances where counsel promises to file a requested appeal but fails to do so and finding the former must be brought within one year after the Judgment of Conviction). The Court in Hathaway held: "A petitioner's mistaken but reasonable belief that his or her attorney was pursuing a direct appeal is good cause if the petitioner raises the claim within a reasonable time after learning that his or her attorney was not in fact pursuing a direct appeal on the petitioner's behalf." Hathaway, 119 Nev. at 251, 71 P.3d at 505. (Emphasis added).

Moreover, the Nevada Legislature has given courts the discretion to appoint postconviction counsel so long as "the court is satisfied that the allegation of indigency is true and the petition is not dismissed summarily." NRS 34.750. NRS 34.750 reads:

> A petition may allege that the Defendant is unable to pay the costs of the proceedings or employ counsel. If the court is satisfied that the allegation of indigency is true and the petition is not dismissed summarily, the court may appoint counsel at the time the court orders the filing of an answer and a return. In making its determination, the court may consider whether:

- (a) The issues are difficult:
- (b) The Defendant is unable to comprehend the proceedings:
- (c) Counsel is necessary to proceed with discovery.

(emphasis added). Under NRS 34.750, it is clear that the court has discretion in determining whether to appoint counsel.

1	Here, Defendant's timely Petition claims counsel failed to file a requested appeal.
2	Defendant's claims, while suspect, are not strictly belied by the record, and Defendant may be
3	entitled to file an appeal. See Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 71 P.3d at 503. Even though
4	Defendant's appeal deprivation claims are presented in a bare and naked fashion, this issue
5	should be decided by an evidentiary hearing. Consequently, the Court should hold an
6	evidentiary hearing strictly limited to the appeal deprivation claim per Hathaway v. State , 119
7	Nev. 248, 71 P.3d at 503 Lozada v. State , 110 Nev. 349, 871 P.2d 944 (1994), and Roe v.
8	Ortega, 528 U.S. 470, 120 S.Ct. 1029 (2000). Since Defendant is currently a pro se litigant,
9	this Court has the discretion under NRS 34.750 to appoint counsel for the purpose of an
10	evidentiary hearing.
11	CONCLUSION
12	Based on the foregoing, the State suggests a limited evidentiary hearing on Defendant's
13	appeal deprivation claim. The State submits Defendant's request for counsel to the Court's
14	discretion.

DISTRICT COURT

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

TOYER EDWARDS,

Petitioner.

v.

STATE OF NEVADA,

Respondent.

CASE NO: A-19-793729-W

DEPT. NO.: XXIX

ORDER GRANTING PETITIONER'S WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Petitioner Toyer Edwards ("Petitioner") filed a Post-Conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus ("Petition") on April 25, 2019. Following a response by the state, an evidentiary hearing was set. This Court held an evidentiary hearing on December 3, 2019. Having considered the papers and pleadings on file and the testimony at the evidentiary hearing, this Court hereby GRANTS the Petition.

"A petitioner's mistaken but reasonable belief that his attorney was pursuing a direct appeal is good cause if the petitioner raises the claim within a reasonable time after learning that his attorney was not in fact pursuing a direct appeal on the petitioner's behalf." Hathaway v. State, 71 P.3d 503, 505–07 (Nev. 2003). Here, Petitioner argues that his trial and direct appeal counsel was ineffective because she failed to file a notice of appeal. Petitioner contends that he voiced his desire to appeal the conviction and believed counsel was appealing his case. He discovered that belief was wrong when he filed a notice of appeal on October 29, 2018, which the Supreme Court of Nevada dismissed as untimely. At the evidentiary hearing, Shana Brouwers, second chair at the trial, testified that anytime a guilty verdict comes back subsequent to a jury trial it is the Public Defenders Office's policy to send the file to the appellate team for review. It is also the Office's policy to send the file for review regardless of whether the defendant requests counsel to pursue an appeal. Ms. Brouwers further testified that lead trial counsel never sent the file to the appellate team for review. Ultimately, Ms. Brouwers admitted that lead trial counsel failing to file a notice of appeal was ineffective.

Petitioner was clearly deprived of his right to appeal. Accordingly, the Court finds that there is good cause for Petitioner's delay in filing his notice of appeal. The Court further finds that lead trial counsel was ineffective in not sending Petitioner's file to the appellate team and failing to file a notice of appeal.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED the Petition is GRANTED

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that pursuant to NRS 34.750, post-conviction counsel is to be appointed.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 4th day of December, 2019.

CASE NO: A-19-793729-W

DEPT. NO.: XXIX

ORDER GRANTING PETITIONER'S WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Petitioner Toyer Edwards ("Petitioner") filed a Post-Conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus ("Petition") on April 25, 2019. Following a response by the state, an evidentiary hearing was set. This Court held an evidentiary hearing on December 3, 2019. Having considered the papers and pleadings on file and the testimony at the evidentiary hearing, this Court hereby GRANTS the Petition.

"A petitioner's mistaken but reasonable belief that his attorney was pursuing a direct appeal is good cause if the petitioner raises the claim within a reasonable time after learning that his attorney was not in fact pursuing a direct appeal on the petitioner's behalf."

Hathaway v. State, 71 P.3d 503, 505–07 (Nev. 2003). Here, Petitioner argues that his trial and direct appeal counsel was ineffective because she failed to file a notice of appeal.

Petitioner contends that he voiced his desire to appeal the conviction and believed counsel was appealing his case. He discovered that belief was wrong when he filed a notice of appeal on October 29, 2018, which the Supreme Court of Nevada dismissed as untimely. At the evidentiary hearing, Shana Brouwers, second chair at the trial, testified that anytime a guilty verdict comes back subsequent to a jury trial it is the Public Defenders Office's policy to send the file to the appellate team for review. It is also the Office's policy to send the file for review regardless of whether the defendant requests counsel to pursue an appeal. Ms. Brouwers further testified that lead trial counsel never sent the file to the appellate team for review. Ultimately, Ms. Brouwers admitted that lead trial counsel failing to file a notice of appeal was ineffective.

Petitioner was clearly deprived of his right to appeal. Accordingly, the Court finds that there is good cause for Petitioner's delay in filing his notice of appeal. The Court further finds that lead trial counsel was ineffective in not sending Petitioner's file to the appellate team and failing to file a notice of appeal.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED the Petition is GRANTED

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that pursuant to NRS 34.750, post-conviction counsel is to be appointed.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 4th day of December, 2019.

AMENDED ORDER GRANTING PETITIONER'S WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

DATE OF HEARING: March 11, 2021 TIME OF HEARING: 12:30 p.m.

THIS CAUSE having come on for hearing before the Honorable Carli Kierny, District Judge, on the 11th day of March, 2021, the Petitioner represented by JESSIE L. FOLKESTAD, the Respondent being represented by STEVE WOLFSON, District Attorney, and the Court having considered the matter, reviewing all documents on file herein, including the December 11, 2019, Order Granting Petitioner's Writ of Habeas Corpus, now therefore, the Court makes the following additional findings:

FINDINGS OF FACT

Petitioner Toyer Edwards previously filed a Post-Conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus on April 25, 2019. Following a response by the State, an evidentiary hearing was set. The district court held an evidentiary hearing on December 3, 2019.

Thereafter, the district court granted the Petition, finding Mr. Edwards was deprived of his right to a direct appeal and the Order was filed December 11, 2019. The December 11, 2019 Order found:

"A petitioner's mistaken but reasonable belief that his attorney was pursuing a direct appeal is good cause if the petitioner raises the claim within a reasonable time after learning that his attorney was not in fact pursuing a direct appeal on the petitioner's behalf." Hathaway v. State, 71 P.3d 503, 505—07 (Nev. 2003). Here, Petitioner argues that his trial and direct appeal counsel was ineffective because she failed to file a notice of appeal. Petitioner contends that he voiced his desire to appeal the conviction and believed counsel was appealing the case. He discovered that belief was wrong when he filed a notice of appeal on October 29 2018, which the Supreme Court of Nevada dismissed as untimely. At the evidentiary hearing, Shana Brouwers, second chair at the trial, testified that anytime a guilty verdict comes back subsequent to a jury trial it is the Public Defenders Office's policy to send the file to the appellate team for review. It is also the Office's policy to send the file for review regardless of whether the defendant requests counsel to pursue an appeal. Ms. Brouwers further testified that lead trial counsel never sent the file to the appellate team for review. Ultimately, Ms. Brouwers admitted that lead trial counsel failing to file a notice of appeal was ineffective.

Petitioner was clearly deprived of his right to appeal. Accordingly, the Court finds that there is good cause for Petitioner's delay in filing his notice of appeal. The Court further finds that lead trial counsel was ineffective in not sending Petitioner's file to the appellate team and failing to file a notice of appeal.

The district court also ordered appointment of counsel to assist Mr. Edwards. On March 11, 2021, counsel was appointed to assist Mr. Edwards with his direct appeal. Therefore:

AMENDED ORDER GRANTING PETITIONER'S WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

DATE OF HEARING: March 11, 2021 TIME OF HEARING: 12:30 p.m.

THIS CAUSE having come on for hearing before the Honorable Carli Kierny, District Judge, on the 11th day of March, 2021, the Petitioner represented by JESSIE L. FOLKESTAD, the Respondent being represented by STEVE WOLFSON, District Attorney, and the Court having considered the matter, reviewing all documents on file herein, including the December 11, 2019, Order Granting Petitioner's Writ of Habeas Corpus, now therefore, the Court makes the following additional findings:

FINDINGS OF FACT

Petitioner Toyer Edwards previously filed a Post-Conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus on April 25, 2019. Following a response by the State, an evidentiary hearing was set. The district court held an evidentiary hearing on December 3, 2019.

Thereafter, the district court granted the Petition, finding Mr. Edwards was deprived of his right to a direct appeal and the Order was filed December 11, 2019. The December 11, 2019 Order found:

"A petitioner's mistaken but reasonable belief that his attorney was pursuing a direct appeal is good cause if the petitioner raises the claim within a reasonable time after learning that his attorney was not in fact pursuing a direct appeal on the petitioner's behalf." Hathaway v. State, 71 P.3d 503, 505—07 (Nev. 2003). Here, Petitioner argues that his trial and direct appeal counsel was ineffective because she failed to file a notice of appeal. Petitioner contends that he voiced his desire to appeal the conviction and believed counsel was appealing the case. He discovered that belief was wrong when he filed a notice of appeal on October 29 2018, which the Supreme Court of Nevada dismissed as untimely. At the evidentiary hearing, Shana Brouwers, second chair at the trial, testified that anytime a guilty verdict comes back subsequent to a jury trial it is the Public Defenders Office's policy to send the file to the appellate team for review. It is also the Office's policy to send the file for review regardless of whether the defendant requests counsel to pursue an appeal. Ms. Brouwers further testified that lead trial counsel never sent the file to the appellate team for review. Ultimately, Ms. Brouwers admitted that lead trial counsel failing to file a notice of appeal was ineffective.

Petitioner was clearly deprived of his right to appeal. Accordingly, the Court finds that there is good cause for Petitioner's delay in filing his notice of appeal. The Court further finds that lead trial counsel was ineffective in not sending Petitioner's file to the appellate team and failing to file a notice of appeal.

The district court also ordered appointment of counsel to assist Mr. Edwards. On March 11, 2021, counsel was appointed to assist Mr. Edwards with his direct appeal. Therefore:
