3 On behalf of defendant, Pride Mobility Products Corp., was Brian K. Terry. On behalf of 4 Ramparts, Inc. d/b/a Luxor Hotel & Casino was Thomas Maroney. On behalf of defendant/third
5 party-plaintiff, Desert Medical Equipment was Courtney Christopher. Appearing on behalf of 6 third-party defendant, Stan Sawamoto, was Stacey Upson. The court, after being advised of the 7 various arguments of counsel and entertaining lengthy argument, and after having reviewed the 8 briefs and attachments thereto, issues the following findings of facts and conclusions of law.

10 I.

11 FINDINGS OF FACT

12 1. Defendant, Pride Mobility, initially filed a motion for summary judgment seeking 13 dismissal of the claims against it on grounds that there was no product for it to inspect. A 14 hearing on the matter was held on June 26, 2017, and this court denied the motion without 15 prejudice, and allowed plaintiff to proceed forward on a design defect claim.
16

17 2. Discovery ensued, with experts designated on behalf of all parties. After 18 deposition of plaintiff's design expert, Pride determined to re-file its motion for summary
19 judgment asserting plaintiff's expert failed to opine that any alleged defect in the design 20 proximately caused the injuries sustained by plaintiff. Moreover, plaintiff's expert failed to 21 opine that any alternative design would have prevented the accident involving plaintiff.
22

23 3. In the pleadings provided to the court in support and in opposition to the motion,
24 copies of the various expert reports were provided in total. Those reports included the report 25 prepared by Timothy M. Hicks, P.E., of Professional Analysis and Consulting on behalf of 26 plaintiff. Also attached was the report of Kenneth A. Solomon, Ph.D., P.E., of the Institute of 27 Risk & Safety Analysis on behalf of Pride Mobility, as well as the report of Michael Zablocky,
28 also in support of Pride Mobility. Lastly, the complete report of William A. Ammer, of Ammer

1 Consulting was provided, which was prepared on behalf of Desert Medical Equipment. In 2 preparation for the oral argument and hearing, the court reviewed all expert reports.

3 4. On August 29, 2018, the renewed motion for summary judgment by Pride
4 Mobility came on for hearing. Lengthy oral argument was entertained by Brian K. Terry, on 5 behalf of Pride Mobility, as well as by Matthew Pfau on behalf of plaintiff.

6 5. During oral argument, the court specifically inquired of Matthew Pfau on behalf
7 of plaintiff regarding the alternative design referenced by plaintiff's expert and the anti-tip
8 wheels which could have been installed on the front of the scooter.

9 6. The court specifically inquired and indicated that even though an alternative 10 design theory was argued, nowhere in the expert report of Mr. Hicks did he indicate the 11 alternative design, if implemented, would have prevented the incident from happening. It is the 12 court's determination this is a predicate finding in order to support the validity of the alternative 13 design and to overcome defendant's renewed motion for summary judgment. There was no such 14 finding nor opinion contained anywhere in Mr. Hicks' report.

17 II.

18 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

19 1. Expert testimony regarding causation must be made to a reasonable degree of 20 scientific probability in order to assist a trier of fact. Williams v. Eighth Judicial District Court
21 of Nevada, 127 Nev. 518, 529, 262 P.2d. 360, 367 (2011).

22 2. In a product liability case, plaintiff must establish the product was defective, that 23 the defect existed at the time the product left the manufacturer and the defect caused plaintiff's
24 injuries. Ford Motor Company v. Trejo, 402 P.3d. 649, 653 Nev. (2017). See also, Shoshone
25 Coca Cola Company, 82 Nev. 439, 443, 420 P.2d. 855 (1996).

26 3. In order for plaintiff to prevail that an alternative design was available, expert 27 testimony is required to establish the availability and reasonableness of the alternative design and 28

1 that if said alternative design had been implemented, it would have prevented the incident in 2 question.

3 4. Plaintiff's expert failed to opine that if the anti-tip wheels had been added to the 4 front of the scooter, the incident would not have happened. This opinion must be present in 5 order to prevail on an alternative design theory.

6 Based on the above findings of facts and conclusions of law, it is hereby

7 ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that defendant, Pride Mobility Products
8 Corporations' renewed motion for summary judgment is granted.

Memorandum of Points and Authorities

I.

Introduction

To recover costs and attorney's fees based on an offer of judgment, Defendants must first satisfy the "Beattie factors." Defendants must demonstrate that Vivia brought forth this lawsuit and proceeded to trial in "bad faith" and that Vivia's decision not to accept Defendants' Offer of Judgment was "grossly unreasonable."

Based on the information known at the time of the offer of judgment (and not retrospectively based on the jury's undervalued verdict), Vivia's decision not to accept Defendants' offer of judgment simply cannot be fairly characterized as unreasonable, let alone "grossly unreasonable" or in "bad faith". Accordingly, this Court should not award any attorney's fees or costs to Defendants.

1 II.

2 Law and Argument

4 A. Defendants are not entitled to an award for attorney's fees based on thier
5 Offer of Judgment because of the Beattie factors analysis.

6 An award of attorney's fees based on a rejected offer of judgment is discretionary,
7 not mandatory. In deciding whether to award fees under these circumstances, a 8 court must consider the following factors: (1) whether the offeree's claim or defense 9 was maintained in good faith; (2) whether the offer of judgment was reasonable and 10 in good faith in both its timing and amount; (3) whether the offeree's decision to 11 reject the offer and proceed to trial was grossly unreasonable or in bad faith; and (4)
12 whether the fees sought by the offeror are reasonable and justified in amount.<sup>1</sup>

13
14 1. Vivia's claims were maintained in good faith.

15 Defendant concedes the argument that Vivia's claims were not in good faith 16 therefore, no further argument is needed on this point.

17
18 2. Luxor's Offer of Judgment was not in good faith given the timing and the 19 amount offered.

20 On March 23, 2017, the day that Luxor served their Offer of Judgement,
21 substantial discovery as to the extent of Luxor's liability had not yet been completed.
22 Luxor's 30(b)6 representatives were not deposed until December 20, 2017. During 23 those depositions Vivia learned through Luxor's witness, Lyndsi Stull, that the Luxor
24 had a policy to always have someone in the dining room of the Deli when multiple 25

26 <sup>1</sup> See Beattie v. Thomas, 99 Nev. 579, 588-89, 668 P.2d 268, 274 (1983) (reversing award of attorney's 27 fees due to district court's failure to make findings on all four factors); Yamaha Motor Co. v. Arnoult, 28 114 Nev. 233, 251-52, 955 P.2d 661, 673 (1998) (reversing award of attorney's fees in favor of prevailing plaintiff for failing to adequately consider reasonableness of offeree's defenses).

1 witnesses stated that there were no Luxor employees present 40 minutes before the 2 incident. Vivia also learned through Luxor's witness, Kimberly Diagacomo, that Luxor
3 had not implemented a screening policy to assure that the proper mobility scooter
4 was rented to a disabled individual.

5 Luxor did not disclose the furniture layout of the Backstage Deli until September 6 15, 2017 which Lyndi Stull said was the safety director's approved plan for the 7 restaurant. Then based on the representations of the disclosed furniture layout, as 8 inspection of the Backstage Deli was completed on January 31, 2018.

9 These facts, discovered after Luxor's Offer, were all presented to a jury during the 10 trial. After the verdict was read, on the record, 2 jurors stated that they wanted to 11 give a verdict in favor of Vivia. Defendant makes reference to its own interpretation
12 of conversations off the record to attempt to convince the court that Vivia's claims
13 were meritless. The Defendant states that none of Vivia's experts provided evidence 14 that the Backstage Deli was dangerous, yet, two jurors agreed with Vivia and wanted
15 to render a verdict in her favor. This is a manipulation of the recorded facts to suit
16 the Defendant's own motives.

17 Further, Vivia's injury was substantial and far in excess of the $1,000 offered by 18 Luxor. Vivia had $418,544.37 in documented medical expenses that the Luxor was 19 fully made aware of at the time of the Offer.

20 The scope of Luxor's liability was still in question at the time the Offer was made
21 and the inconsequential amount that was offered to Vivia demonstrated that Luxor's 22 offer was not in good faith. If Luxor wanted to act in good faith, they could have 23 served an renewed Offer of Judgment after discovery had closed and all the facts
24 regarding liability were exposed. After discovery closed everyone had their cards on 25 the table and a reasonable discussion could be held between Vivia and Luxor as to 26 why Luxor was valuing their case the way they did. However, without all the facts
27 regarding Luxor's liability on the table, Luxor could not properly evaluate their liability 28

1 and therefore could not serve an Offer to Vivia that they felt was in good faith.

3 3. Vivia's decision to reject the Offer of Judgment and proceed to trial was 4 not grossly unreasonable or in bad faith.

5 Vivia's decision not to accept Defendants' Offer of Judgment cannot be fairly 6 characterized as unreasonable, let alone "grossly" unreasonable. As previously
7 stated, at the time Defendants' Offer of Judgment was rejected, Vivia and her counsel
8 has significant discovery that needed to be accomplished before Defendant's liability
9 could be properly assessed. Not knowing what Luxor's 30(b)6 witnesses were going 10 to testify to and the approved layout of the dining area of the Backstage Deli, it was 11 impossible to properly value whether a $1,000 offer would be appropriate. The 12 proper facts to evaluate the case were not in Vivia's hands at the time of the Offer.
13 The rejection of Defendant's Offer therefore was not unreasonable or in bad faith.

14
15 4. The amount of fees sought by Defendant are irrelevant under the Beattie 16 factors.

17 Because Vivia's claims were maintained in good faith, and because Vivia's
18 decision not to accept Defendants' Offer of Judgment was not grossly unreasonable
19 or in bad faith, this final factor is irrelevant, and fees should not be awarded.<sup>2</sup>

20
21 B. Defendants are not entitled the requested award for attorney's fees based 22 NRS 18.010.

23 Defendants are not entitled for an award for attorney's fees for the reasons
24 previously stated. If this Court determines that Defendant is entitled to some fees 25 under NRS 18.010 for prevailing at trial, the award for attorney's fees should be 26 related specifically for the fees that were incurred at trial. Defendant should not be entitled for attorney's fees for work completing in preparing for trial, including time to prepare and perform depositions and time preparing and defending Motions. If they court were to grant Defendants any fees in this case they should be limited to the time spent during the 9 days of trial.

27 _____
28 <sup>2</sup> See Frazier v. Drake, 357 P.3d 365, 17 373, 131 Nev. Adv. Rep. 64 (2015).

C. Defendants are not entitled to an award of costs pursuant to NRCP 68 and NRS 18.020.

Defendant is not entitled to an award of costs under NRCP 68 for reasons previously described herein. Namely, defendant's offer was not in good faith given the amount and the lack of discovery completed. Defendant's offer was rejected in good faith and the amount requested in fees is not justified under the Beattie factors.

NRS 18.005(5) allows for an award of costs for "reasonable fees of not more than five expert witnesses in an amount of not more than $1,500 for each witness, unless the court allows a larger fee after determining that the circumstances surrounding the expert's testimony were of such necessity as to require the larger fee." Here, Defendants have not shown that a higher fee is warranted.

Defendants decided to hire Dr. Segil, an out of state Doctor, to travel to Las Vegas for trial when a local doctor could have provided testimony in this case. Defendants provide no justification for spending the extra money for the time that it would take to have Dr. Segil testify. Similarly, defendants hired Michelle Robbins who billed in excess of $16K to provide one expert report, two rebuttal reports and to testify at trial. This is an excessive expense that should not be borne by Vivia.

Ms. Corwin was hired to rebut Ms. Lustig's report. Ms. Lustig's testimony was used in court to validate the facts that Vivia needed ongoing care and assistance. Defendants could have presented Ms. Corwin at trial to rebut Ms. Lustig's assertions that Vivia needed ongoing care, however, Ms. Corwin happened to agree with Ms.

1 Lustig on nearly all accounts with the exception of dollar amounts for some items that 2 Ms. Lustig suggested. It was Defendant's strategic decision not to put Ms. Corwin on 3 the stand to agree with Ms. Lustig. However, it is not Vivia's responsibility to pay the 4 excess time and money spent on Ms. Corwin for Defendant's strategy at trial.

5 If the Court is inclined to award the remaining expert witnesses' costs (Dr. Segil,
 6 Michelle Robbins and Ms. Corwin), then such costs should be limited to $1,500.00
 7 each, for a total of $4,500.00 for expert witnesses pursuant to NRS 18.005(5).
 8

9 1. Defendants not entitled to award of cost against Vivia and her counsel 10 jointly and severally.

11 Defendants make no argument and cite no legal authority that would make Vivia
 12 and her counsel jointly and severally liable for an award of costs. Defendants attempt 13 to sneak in a demand for joint and several liability in the Defendant's conclusion
 14 without any legal support is another example of the Defendant's lack of forthright
 15 participation in this process. Given Defendant's request for joint and several liability 16 for Vivia and her counsel is not supported by argument or law, their request should 17 be denied.
 18

19 IV.

20 Conclusion

21 An award of attorney's fees and costs based on a rejected offer of judgment
 22 should be the exception, not the rule. Only when a party acts in bad faith and in a 23 grossly unreasonable manner with respect to its claims and settlement decisions are 24 attorney's fees permissible. Defendants have not made the requisite showing here.
 25 During all relevant times, Vivia maintained her claims in good faith. It was not 26 unreasonable, let alone grossly unreasonable, for Vivia to decline to accept 27 Defendants' Offer of Judgment. This Court should deny Defendants' request for 28

1 attorney's fees and costs entirely.
