4 THE COURT: THE CLERK: Case No. C 300032, State of Nevada v.
5 Natasha Jackson.

6 THE COURT: Could we have appearances for the record please.

7 MS. WECKERLY: Good morning, Your Honor. Pam Weckerly on behalf of 8 the State.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Dan Silverstein and Christy Craig on behalf of Ms.
11 Jackson, who is present in custody.

12 THE COURT: Very well. Thank you. Good morning.

13 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Good morning.

14 THE COURT: This was a defense motion to compel disclosure of 15 exculpatory evidence.

16 Mr. Silverstein.

17 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 Your Honor, I believe that the State and the defense agree on a large part of 19 these motions. There is only a few areas that I'm going to talk about because I think 20 we've agreed on most of these items.

21 With respect to request A, the compensation or any benefit given to any 22 witness in exchange for cooperation. Ms. Weckerly represented that none - - there 23 hasn't been any compensation or any benefits given to any witness. I'll accept her 24 representations, however, she has said that if something comes to her knowledge
25 that she'll either disclose it or bring it up to the Court so I'll - -

THE COURT: Ms. Weckerly.

1 MS. WECKERLY: That's correct, Your Honor. The State's position is it would 2 only have to be disclosed if the witness testified, the defense disagrees with that as 3 sort of interim agreement, I'll inform the defense if an issue like that arises and we 4 can litigate before the Court whether or not it's to be disclosed.

5 THE COURT: It doesn't sound like what Mr. Silverstein said the 6 understanding was.

7 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Well, my understanding was that if something came to 8 light that there was a payment to some witness that Ms. Weckerly would either 9 disclose it or if she felt that she had a valid basis to not disclose it that would then 10 bring it before the Court.

11 MS. WECKERLY: That's correct.

12 THE COURT: In that case A is granted to that extent as represented by 13 counsel.

14 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 As to B, citizen sources, again, Ms. Weckerly represented there haven't been 16 any confidential informants. I'll accept that representation so I think B is either moot 17 or granted.

18 THE COURT: Ms. Weckerly.

19 MS. WECKERLY: Yeah, in this particular case because of how this case
20 unfolded the State is not aware of any informants. If that type of information 21 becomes available in terms of, I guess, uncharged conduct I will certainly make the 22 defense aware of it.

23 THE COURT: B is granted to that extent.

24 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 As to C, we do have a dispute as to the reach of Brady in this particular

1 situation. My position is that we are entitled to the complete criminal history of any 2 State witness, not just felony convictions, not just crimes of moral turpitude but any 3 criminal history, any arrest, any police report that's been generated on that witness,
4 any entries in scope, NCIC or other criminal data bases. The reason being is that 5 evidence does not have to be admissible to be discoverable. Ms. Weckerly would 6 limit Brady to what is admissible in trial from felony convictions and moral turpitude.
7 And I think that gives Brady short shrift. What she wants to do is she wants to say
8 she only has to turn over information that I can use at trial. And that is not the 9 standard for discoverability.

10 Information on these witnesses' criminal histories could lead to witnesses who 11 could talk about those witnesses' reputation for violence which would be admissible so 12 even though the criminal history itself may not be admissible at trial, which the Court
13 would have to rule on, but even though that information may not be admissible it 14 may lead to discoverable information and may lead to admissible information. And 15 for that reason Brady allows me the complete criminal history, not just what the 16 statute says can be used to attack credibility.

17 THE COURT: Ms. Weckerly.

18 MS. WECKERLY: Your Honor, Mr. Silverstein is partially correct as to the 19 State's position with regard to witnesses. The State's position is our obligation is to 20 crimes of moral turpitude and felony convictions that fall within the statute. There 21 has also been a request for the murder victim's scope in NCIC. The State fails to 22 see how that particular search is relevant given that this person is obviously not 23 going to be a witness in the case and how that person's arrest even though he was 24 killed in this incident, would be discoverable.

25 In terms of NCIC itself the State's access to NCIC is governed by statutes.

1 We're unable to run generalized searches for NCIC. If I run one I'm happy to show
2 it to the defense but I don't generally run NCIC on every witness. I know in other 3 cases the chief criminal Judge will sometimes run an NCIC at the request of the 4 defense because the access of the Courts and their agreement conditions are 5 different than that of the State. So the State objects to any order for us to run a 6 generalized NCIC search for the defense. I object to the murder victim's scope in 7 NCIC being discoverable and I stated our position as to witnesses, felony
8 convictions or crimes of moral turpitude.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Silverstein.

10 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Well, Your Honor. And, again, I don't know for sure but 11 it sounds what like Ms. Weckerly is saying is that there is an entry on the murder 12 victim's scope or NCIC, it sounds like she's kind of saying that there is one but she 13 doesn't feel it's discoverable, and I would simply say that whether or not that 14 information is admissible at trial or whether or not it's even good strategy to talk 15 about the murder victim's arrest at trial, that has nothing to do with whether it's 16 discoverable. It is clearly discoverable if the victim in this case has a criminal 17 history, has a prior arrest, it is clearly discoverable, and whether or not it's 18 admissible or useful in trial that's a different question. But Brady mandates that that 19 information be turned over. If Ms. Weckerly knows about it she has to inform the 20 defense.

21 THE COURT: I agree with that analysis. However, the Court is inclined to 22 grant in part and deny in part your request. I do agree that the defendant's request 23 is overly broad, and I agree that the State is not obligated to build a defense for the 24 defendant, and I agree that the State is prohibited from disclosing the NCIC request, 25 however, if the State has such information that constitutes Brady material and it is

1 not accessible to the defense the portions of the scope or NCIC constituting Brady
2 material as opposed to the entire record should be provided to the defendant.

3 Furthermore, it's the Court's view that the defendant has made a requisite 4 showing of materiality noting that such information would go to credibility or bias and 5 may assist the defense in their investigation even if the material is inadmissible.

6 Request Number D, Mr. Silverstein.

7 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 This is simply asking for disclosures of any statements that are inconsistent
9 including statements made during pretrial conferences. I know some prosecutors
10 take the position if it's not in writing it's not discoverable. I don't think Ms. Weckerly 11 is going to make that argument. I think Ms. Weckerly's argument is basically she 12 shouldn't have to turn over inconsistencies that are not material. For example, if the 13 witness were to say that the crime happened the 17th and it happened on the 18th. I
14 would simply say that any inconsistent statement is potential impeachment. I agree 15 that it's up to Ms. Weckerly to decide what's material. But the case law also 16 suggests that prosecutors err on the side of disclosure so I'll leave this to the Court.
17 I don't think the State disagrees with me in theory that inconsistent statements that 18 are material must be disclosed.

19 THE COURT: Ms. Weckerly.

20 MS. WECKERLY: That's correct. Giglio says material inconsistencies must 21 be disclosed. The State has no objection to disclosing those.

22 THE COURT: D is granted.

23 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 As far as E, primarily I was concerned with some of this testing returns
25 multiple results. For example, the AFIS testing will give a print out of ten possibles

1 instead of spitting out one match and I'm simply asking that all that information be 2 delivered, not just the final match but any possible matches that were run through 3 some of these computerized systems that they have. And I don't think that Ms.
4 Weckerly disagrees with that either.

5 MS. WECKERLY: I don't disagree with that for AFIS or possibly a CODIS hit.
6 That is usually contained in the underlying data. As to this request what my 7 objection mainly goes to is the information from the Clark County Coroner's office.
8 That's not a police agency and I don't have control over what the coroner's office
9 provides or doesn't provide. To the extent that the defense is asking for early drafts 10 of autopsy reports, which we don't generate and we don't have any control over, the 11 State's position is that the defense either needs to serve the coroner's office itself or 12 ask them for that information if unsuccessful I guess come to the Court. But I can't 13 be responsible for an agency that's not a police agency and how they hold their 14 information.

15 With regard to AFIS and CODIS I can certainly make inquiries into alternative 16 suspects.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Silverstein.

18 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Your Honor, that is simply not the law. I mean Ms.
19 Weckerly is responsible for the actions of other government agencies including the 20 Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department even though she doesn't have - - may 21 not have control over the department, anything that is in the possession of a 22 government agency is considered to be in State possession for purposes of Brady.
23 So there is exculpatory evidence sitting at the coroner's office, Ms. Weckerly can't 24 come to the Court and say I can't tell the coroner what to do. If it's in the coroner's 25 custody it is in Ms. Weckerly's custody for purposes of Brady. Kyles v. Whitley say

1 specifically that other government agency, even though Ms. Weckerly may not have 2 control over them if they have possession of exculpatory information she has the 3 obligation to affirmatively seek out that information.

4 MS. WECKERLY: The coroner's office responds to defense subpoenas.
5 Brady and Giglio talk the State having sole access, and that does sometimes occur
6 with police agencies. But with the coroner's office that is a government agency. It's 7 not involved in the prosecution and that is the distinction between Brady and Giglio.
8 The defense has the same access to the coroner's office that the State has. To the 9 extent that the defense thinks there is exculpatory information at the coroner's office 10 they have the same ability to subpoena witnesses and subpoena reports or 11 whatever information they want from that office. It's different than an investigatory 12 agency like the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department and it's to that extent the 13 State objects.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Silverstein, any response to that?

15 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Just briefly. I mean to say that the coroner is not 16 involved in the prosecution it was the coroner that told the Grand Jury that this was 17 homicide. It was the coroner's opinion that was relied upon at this Grand Jury
18 process. So to argue that both the coroner has nothing to do with the prosecution
19 and also tell the Grand Jurors and eventually the trial jury that this coroner's opinion 20 has nothing to do with the case, I believe that's inconsistent. The coroner's office is 21 a government agency just like the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department and if 22 they have exculpatory information the State has to turn it over.

23 THE COURT: The Court agrees with the defense's analysis and notes that 24 the State offers no authority or argument as to why the coroner's office is not acting 25 on the State's behalf and therefore why materials from the coroner's office are not in

1 the State's constructive possession. E is granted in its entirety.

2 Parties agree that request F is moot.

3 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Correct, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Very well. Request G.

5 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Your Honor, this has to do with the handwritten notes
6 that actually exist in this case, and I thank Ms. Weckerly for asking the police
7 department to preserve those notes. I know that the State objects to giving me the 8 notes personally. What I'm going to ask for is that the notes be given to the Court 9 for an in camera review so at least someone can look at the notes and disclose any 10 exculpatory information. If the Court is not comfortable giving them directly to me or 11 ordering the State to provide them to me, I would simply ask for an in camera review
12 and that they be filed under seal so that somebody other than the State has a 13 chance to review the notes for potential exculpatory information.

14 THE COURT: Ms. Weckerly.

15 MS. WECKERLY: Your Honor, the NRS 174235 outlines what is to be 16 provided for discovery, and that's written or recorded statements made by the 17 defendant or other witnesses, reports of physical or mental examinations or books, 18 papers and documents that maybe used at trial. Nowhere in the statute is there any 19 obligation for the State to turn over notes, handwritten notes of the investigating 20 detectives. What we do have an obligation to do is ask the detectives if there is 21 anything in the notes that is possibly exculpatory. If there is we have a constitutional
22 obligation that supersedes the statute to turn over that information. But the notes 23 themselves there is no generalized discovery statute that covers that, and there is 24 no authority for producing that. Saying Brady applies - - well, Brady applies to 25 everything. There is no specific statutory provision that says that Detectives' notes

1 are discoverable. If there is something exculpatory our constitutional obligation is to 2 turn over the information but there is no generalized discovery for notes because 3 there might be something discoverable.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Silverstein.

5 MR. SILVERSTEIN: What I am asking for is the exculpatory information and 6 what I take issue with is Ms. Weckerly's position is that what she would have this 7 Court grant is for her to ask the police officer if there was anything in the notes and if 8 he says no, drop it and let the notes get shredded. Someone else should review 9 these notes whether it's Ms. Weckerly, whether it's the Court, whether it's the 10 defense. It shouldn't simply be we take it on faith that the police officers say well, 11 there is nothing exculpatory. They also said there was nothing exculpatory in the 12 Vulwalta(phonetic) case - -faced a life sentence for eight years and then they found
13 the notes eight years later and he's free. There should be another set of eyes 14 looking at these notes, and to just say, well, the police officers told me there was 15 nothing in them so I let them go ahead and shred them, I don't believe that that 16 gives Brady the respect that it deserves.

17 THE COURT: Well, I agree with the defense, Ms. Weckerly, and it causes 18 me some concern that the State would want to shirk their responsibly in reviewing 19 those notes.

20 MS. WECKERLY: I'm not shirking my responsibility. I believe I have an 21 obligation to seek out exculpatory information. What I object to is once I do that I'm 22 held to that standard. Brady and Giglio are post-conviction relief if in the event
23 some information isn't turned over. I am held to the standard of inquiring whether or 24 not there is exculpatory information. If there is I'm constitutionally obligated to 25 disclose it. If there is not there is no reason to turn over any notes. What I object to 1 is a pretrial discovery of those notes that isn't based in constitutional law or statutory 2 law. There is simply no provision for them to produce the notes. We are always 3 obligated to hold onto and produce exculpatory information. But that exist

4 constitutionally. In terms of whether there is some provision that actually covers
5 police officers' notes there simply isn't one. It is not in the Nevada statutes. It's not 6 mentioned in Brady and it's certainly not mentioned in Giglio.

7 THE COURT: I don't think the police can be held accountable for 8 determining what is exculpatory and what isn't. It's the prosecution that has that 9 responsibility. So I don't think I can defer that responsibility to a law enforcement 10 organization. The motion is granted.

11 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Letter H.

13 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Your Honor, this is - - again, I don't think the State has 14 any issue with turning over any information that's in these personnel files pursuant 15 to the United States v. Henthorne.

16 THE COURT: Ms. Weckerly.

17 MS. WECKERLY: I have no objection if there is information that reflects on 18 what is covered, essentially, Henthorne which is the Federal interpretation or Sonner
19 v. State, which is the Nevada provision.

20 THE COURT: Any response?

21 MR. SILVERSTEIN: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Motion is granted to that extent.

23 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Thank you, Your Honor. I don't believe that we had 24 much in argument with respect to I. I think we've come to an agreement that if Ms.
25 Weckerly were to obtain these phone calls that she would then share them with the 1 defense. I don't have any issue with that.

2 THE COURT: Ms. Weckerly.

3 MS. WECKERLY: Yes, that is correct to the extent I get her phone calls or 4 other, I guess, video information from the detention center I'll produce it for the 5 defense.

6 THE COURT: The motion is granted.

7 It's my understanding that J was unopposed by the State.

8 MR. SILVERSTEIN: That's correct.

9 THE COURT: J is granted as well.

10 I'll ask for an order for the Court's signature. Please run it past opposing 11 counsel before you submit it to me.

12 MR. SILVERSTEIN: I will. There was also another motion on. This one is 13 very brief. This is simply my motion to extend the deadline to file the pretrial petition
14 for writ of habeas corpus. That deadline is set to expire on September 8th. And I
15 don't have any discovery yet in the case, and I don't fault the State for that at all. I
16 would simply ask for 21 days from my receipt of the discovery to file the writ, and I
17 don't think Ms. Weckerly has an issue with that.

18 MS. WECKERLY: That's correct. No objection.

19 THE COURT: I noticed there wasn't any written opposition so very well, 20 motion is granted.

21 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 ORDER

15 THIS MATTER having come before the Court on September 10, 2014, and good 16 cause appearing therefor,

17 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that with respect to the Defendant's motion to compel 18 disclosure of any and all compensation, express or implied promises of favorable treatment or 19 leniency, or any other benefit received in exchange for their cooperation with the prosecution, the 20 Court accepts the State's representations that no witnesses have received any compensation or 21 benefits, and that the State will either inform the Defendant or raise the issue in a new motion if such 22 benefits or compensation come to the State's attention, and to that extent, the Defendant's request is 23 GRANTED.

24 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that with respect to the Defendant's motion to compel 25 disclosure regarding informants or Citizen Sources of information, the Court accepts the State's 26 representations that there were no informants or citizen sources of information utilized in the 27 investigation of this case, and that if such information becomes available, it will be provided to the 28 defense, and to that extent, the Defendant's request is GRANTED.

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that with respect to the Defendant's motion to compel
2 disclosure of the criminal histories of all State witnesses and the deceased, the Court finds that the 3 State is not required to independently run criminal background checks on its witnesses at the 4 Defendant's request, nor is the State required to produce the actual NCIC printouts regarding its 5 witnesses, however, the Court finds that the Defendant is entitled to any exculpatory criminal history
6 information in the State's possession, even if such information is not itself independently admissible
7 at trial, and to this extent, the Defendant's request is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN 8 PART.

10 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that with respect to the Defendant's motion to compel
11 disclosures of any inconsistent statements made by a State witness, the State did not object to this 12 request, and such request is GRANTED.

14 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that with respect to the Defendant's motion to compel
15 disclosures of any crime scene analysis or other testing performed in this case, including any testing
16 performed by the Clark County Coroner, this request is GRANTED.

18 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that with respect to the Defendant's motion to compel
19 any and all polygraph information, the Court accepts the State's representations that no polygraphs 20 were utilized in this case, and this request is MOOT.

22 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that with respect to the Defendant's motion to compel 23 production of any and all handwritten, recorded, or otherwise memorialized notes generated by the 24 investigating police officers, this request is GRANTED.

26 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that with respect to the Defendant's motion to compel 27 disclosure of any and all impeachment information located in the personnel files of the testifying 28

1 officers pursuant to United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991), this motion is
2 GRANTED.

4 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that with respect to the Defendant's motion to compel
5 disclosure of any and all Detention Center Support Section files related to this case, the Court
6 accepts the State's representations that any and all information obtained from the Detention Center
7 by the State shall be shared with the defense, and to this extent the request is GRANTED.

9 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that with respect to the Defendant's motion to compel
10 disclosure of any and all records, reports, statements, or other documentation prepared by the Las 11 Vegas Metropolitan Police Department's Force Investigations Team, the State did not oppose this 12 request, and this request is GRANTED.

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND ORDER

THIS MATTER having come before the Court on November 10, 2014, the defendant, Ms. Jackson being represented by Dan Silverstein and Christy Craig of the Clark County Public Defender's Office and the plaintiff being represented by Steven B. Wolfson, District Attorney, through Pam Weckerly, Deputy District Attorney, based on pleadings and arguments by counsel and good cause appearing therefore,

1 FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

2 The Court has reviewed the briefs filed by the parties, has heard arguments from the parties
3 and has also reviewed the applicable case law cited by the parties in their briefs. The Court has also 4 carefully considered the potential impact of the forgoing findings and orders in their relation to both 5 the defense and the prosecution.

6 THE COURT FINDS THAT, insufficient evidence was presented to support Count 1, 7 Burglary While in Possession of a Firearm and Count 8, Burglary While in Possession of a Deadly 8 Weapon.

9 The state failed to present slight or marginal evidence that Ms. Jackson had actual possession
10 of a firearm or deadly weapon during the commission of a burglary of the Ramos residence or the 11 vacant home on July 29th, 2014.

12 The court noted that NRS 205.0560(4) specifically states a person convicted of burglary who 13 has in his or her possession or gains possession of a firearm or deadly weapon at any time during the 14 commission of the crime is guilty of a category B felony.

15 The plaintiff must present slight or marginal evidence that Ms. Jackson possessed a firearm 16 or deadly weapon as opposed to just using as weapon as set out in NRS 193.165. Because the 17 statutes are separate and require the state to provide different facts Brooks v. State is inapplicable 18 here.

19 The state's argument that is presented slight or marginal evidence to support Counts 1 and 8
20 by presenting evidence that Ms. Jackson was aware that Cody Winters had a firearm fails. Counts 1 21 and 8 are dismissed.

22 THE COURT FINDS THAT, the state presented slight or marginal evidence to support a 23 finding of probable cause that Ms. Jackson entered the vacant house with the intent to commit 24 murder.

25 THE COURT FINDS THAT, the state was not required to submit a copy of Ms. Jackson's 26 statement to the grand jury and that Best Evidence Rule does not apply nor was that failure to 27 present Ms. Jackson's statement to the grand jury a violation of NRS 172.135(2).
28

1 THE COURT FINDS THAT, the state did properly instruct the grand jury on felony murder
2 as the instruction calls for the murder occurring during the perpetration of, or attempted perpetration
3 of robbery, burglary or home invasion.

4 While the grand jury instruction does not provide the emphasis on when intent is formed to 5 commit a felony or killing to constitute felony murder, the state did provide that element.

7 IT IS HEREBY ORDERD that defendant's Petition For Writ Of Habeas Corpus is granted in 8 part and denied in part as explained above.

For the State:

RECORDED BY: VICTORIA BOYD, COURT RECORDER

1 MONDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 2014 AT 9:52:21 A.M.

3 THE MARSHAL: Page twenty-six, Natasha Jackson.

4 THE COURT: Case number C300032. Okay. Could we have appearances
5 for the record, please?

6 MS. WECKERLY: Good morning, Your Honor. Pamela Weckerly on behalf of 7 the state.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Dan Silverstein and Cristy Craig on behalf of Ms.
10 Jackson who is present in custody.

11 THE COURT: Thank you. Good morning. So, this is on calendar as the 12 Petition for Habeas Corpus pre-trial.

13 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Silverstein.

15 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Your Honor, I'm gonna take the arguments in turn, I'm 16 gonna start out with the Counts 1 and Count 8. The argument that we've made is 17 that there was insufficient evidence to support those counts. And no based on the 18 fact that no crimes were committed but based on the fact that the evidence that was 19 presented was insufficient to meet the standard of the crimes that they've charged.
20 In other words, they've charged Ms. Jackson with Burglary 1 and Possession of a 21 Deadly – of a Firearm.

22 Now there are some other charges that are – involve a use of a deadly 23 weapon and has – we did not challenge those charges, we didn't file a writ on those 24 charges because I think those charges were properly brought, but when you talk 25 about possession of a firearm that is a different standard than the use of a deadly

1 weapon. And the case that Ms. Weckerly cited, Brooks versus State, actually points
2 out that difference between the use and the possession. And the Court has said
3 that you can have use without possession but they've never said that you can have 4 possession without ever touching the weapon and that's what happened in this 5 case. Ms. Jackson while she was present with the co-defendant who clearly 6 committed a burglary while in possession of a firearm based on the evidence, Ms.
7 Jackson never touched the weapon, never entered the home with the weapon, 8 never gained possession of the weapon while in the home. At no point did she 9 touch the weapon. The evidence that was presented to the Grand Jury was that the 10 weapon was struggled over by one of the victims and Mr. Winters who was – who 11 was shot and killed by the police after this incident, but at no time did any witness
12 testify that Ms. Jackson had possession of the firearm. And so while the use 13 enhancements I believe are properly charged because she can be on the hook for 14 the use that Mr. Winters perpetrated, I don't believe she can be on the hook for 15 burglary while in possession having never touched the weapon and there's no case
16 law that says otherwise. So, I'd ask the Court to dismiss Count 1 and Count 8, 17 those are the burglary while in possession charged.

18 There's an additional argument as to Count 8, and I believe Count 8 – I 19 don't think the state has even shown a criminal intent that would be sufficient to 20 make out a charge of regular burglary much less burglary while in possession. The 21 state – the evidence that came out at the Grand Jury was that while inside this 22 abandoned house – and I just want to clarify that Count 1 pertains to the house
23 where the victims resided, Count 8 pertains to the abandoned house that her and 24 Cody entered after what happened inside the residents' homes.

25 So, what happened in the abandoned house is that Ms. Jackson

1 entered with Mr. Winters and while they were inside the police claim that Ms.
2 Jackson was pretending to be a hostage and faking the fact that Mr. Winters was 3 terrorizing her and screaming out, "help, help, help." And the police make it sound
4 that this was sort of a subterfuge that Ms. Jackson was just pretending to be a
5 hostage. But even if that's the case and even if you take everything Ms. Weckerly
6 says as fact that she was just pretending to be a hostage, there is no crime
7 pretending to be a hostage. Entering the house with the intent to pretend to be a 8 hostage is not burglary. In order for there to be a burglary she has to enter that 9 home with the intent to commit some very specific enumerated crimes and none of 10 those were in her head – or facts established that she committed any of those 11 crimes while she was inside that abandoned home. So, I'm going to ask the Court
12 to dismiss Counts 1 and Count 8.

13 Now, I have some other arguments as to the indictment in its entirety.
14 I'm not sure if the Court wants to argue – wants me to argue everything at once or 15 go back and forth.

16 THE COURT: I'd prefer to you – to hear your entire argument and then I'll 17 hear Ms. Weckerly and any rebuttal from you.

18 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

19 With respect to the argument that the state should have introduced Ms.
20 Jackson's entire statement, I think that there are two competing views of the best 21 evidence rule that are presented in the briefs. My view of the best evidence rule is 22 that the best evidence of what a statement says is the statement itself. In 23 otherwords the state can't put on a witness to give a summary version of that 24 statement to the Grand Jury without actually introducing the statement because the 25 Grand Jury should have the right to look at the statement and decide whether the

1 witness told them what actually happened or whether they were just spinning it. The 2 way that the Grand Jury went down in this case the lead detective testified to what 3 he thought the statement meant and his gut feelings about the statement and his 4 impressions about the statement. And he's – he's more than welcome to do that,
5 but the best evidence rule also requires that the Grand Jury have the opportunity to 6 see if the actual evidence he was describing matches what he said. Now, Ms.
7 Weckerly's version of the best evidence rule is that, well, as long as everybody
8 agrees that what was on the tape was Ms. Jackson talking we don't actually have to 9 introduce it. And I don't believe that that is a proper interpretation of the rule. I think 10 the rule is is that the state cannot put on a biased, subjective view of evidence that 11 exists without introducing that evidence. The tape of her statement, Ms. Weckerly
12 had it, she could have introduced it. She didn't have to play it for the Grand Jury, 13 just to introduce it and give the Grand Jury the opportunity to review the statement 14 to see if it matched what the police detective testified to. And I think not doing that is 15 a violation of the best evidence rule.

16 And if the Court disagrees with me as far as the best evidence rule I 17 would also point to NRS 47.120. And that statute says that the state – “Any time a 18 part of a writing or recorded statement is introduced by a party the party may be 19 required at that time to introduce any other part of it which is relevant to the part 20 introduced.” And the reason I think this statute is also implicated here is because 21 what the state did was they introduced everything Ms. Jackson said that supported 22 the idea that she was guilty and all of the things she said that suggested that Mr.
23 Winters was coercing her, forcing her, terrorizing her and she committed she crimes
24 under duress. Those statements were either not introduced at all or they were 25 introduced in such a manner as to make them valueless to the Grand Jury because

1 the detective minimized everything Ms. Jackson said when she would say that,
2 "Well, I couldn't get away from Mr. Winters." The police officer said, "Well, in my 3 opinion she was making that up." I mean, that to me is not the best evidence of 4 anything.

5 As far as my next argument, the state violated the statute requires them
6 to present exculpatory evidence to the Grand Jury. And this – this argument is – I'll 7 concede it's really kind of wrapped up in the previous argument because it's the 8 failure to introduce Ms. Jackson's statement in its entirety that in my opinion is a 9 violation of NRS 172.145 subsection 2. I will admit that Ms. Weckerly did introduce 10 certain aspects of that statement and I'm sure she's going to say that she fulfilled
11 her obligation because the detective did testify that Ms. Jackson said certain things 12 that suggested duress, but the statement itself had a – there were facts in her actual 13 statement that were not presented to the Grand Jury. In addition, her statement 14 would have presented her story in a manner that was not shaded and biased the 15 way that the lead detective in this case shaded it to the Grand Jury.

16 And finally, Your Honor, my last argument is that the state failed to 17 properly instruct the Grand Jurors on the felony murder rule. There is – there's no
18 question that the state told the Grand Jury about the felony murder rule. I mean, 19 they wanted to tell them about the felony murder rule because that was one of their 20 theories. So, obviously they wanted the Grand Jurors to know that is you commit
21 murder in the course of a felony that you can be on the hook for first degree murder,
22 but the problem is that the state only gave them half of the law. There's another part 23 of the felony murder rule that that Grand Jury was not told about which is that the 24 intent to commit that felony must exist before or at the time of the killing. If you kill 25 someone and then an hour later you decide, hey, I'm gonna take their car that is not

1 felony murder; that is not murder in the course of a robbery. It's a killing followed by 2 an act of robbery. The Grand Jury was not told about that and that is sort of a new 3 aspect of Nevada law. That's from the Nay versus State case which is not – it's a 4 fairly recent case but it is the law and it is something the Grand Jury should have 5 been told about.

6 And I'm well aware of Hylar versus State, I'm well aware that the state
7 has no obligation to present any instructions and I understand that. And my position
8 is if the state didn't want to present any instructions to the Grand Jury they didn't 9 have to, but my position is what you can't do is present half of the instructions. You
10 can't tell the Grand Jury about everything that points towards guilt and not tell them
11 about anything that points towards a potential defense. It would be like in a case
12 where the state is a little weak on the deliberation aspect of first degree murder. It
13 would be like telling the Grand Jury first degree murder is a willful and premeditated
14 killing and leaving out the part that includes deliberation because that's where you 15 know that you're weak. That is not something that Hylar has ever suggested is 16 allowed and that is what happened here. If they didn't want to instruct at all they 17 don't have to, I agree with that. But you can't tell the Grand Jury half the law in a 18 way that misleads them into believing that there was no defense. And so those are 19 my arguments to the Court. And if the Court has any questions after Ms. Weckerly's 20 argument I'll be happy to answer them.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Weckerly.

22 MS. WECKERLY: Your Honor, on July the 29th of this year this Defendant
23 along with Cody Winters were stranded on the side of the freeway in a vehicle that 24 would later prove to be stolen but was not charged in this indictment. They had a 25 Nevada Department of Transportation worker ask them if they needed help. They

1 both told that worker the same lie that they had lost a car key. Eventually Ms.
2 Jackson and Mr. Winters go back and forth speaking with the Nevada Department of 3 Transportation worker, eventually Mr. Winters pulls a gun on the worker and Ms.
4 Jackson unloads the property in the stolen car into the NDOT vehicle and she gets 5 what the victim later describes it looks like a machete in a sheath and they both get 6 inside the vehicle of the transportation worker and essentially carjack him to an area
7 just off the freeway. During that time period Ms. Jackson never asked for help, she 8 participates and coordinated actions with Mr. Winters and she of course has her 9 own weapon and she also unloads all the stuff.

10 When they get to the neighborhood where the Ramos's live Mr. Winters
11 gets out of the state vehicle and Ms. Jackson gets out as well, she's unloading stuff 12 never asking for help, never saying she doesn't want to do anything and also she 13 has her weapon at that point. Eventually the two make it to the Ramos residence 14 which is a totally random selection at that point. They have no connection to this 15 residence whatsoever. The teenage or nineteen year old son of the victim in the 16 case, Mr. Ramos, eventually wakes up that morning and hears his mother
17 screaming, "Dominic, come help us, Dominic, come help us." This nineteen year old 18 comes out to the living room and sees Mr. Winters and his father engaging in a 19 struggle over a gun and he observes this Defendant, Ms. Jackson, stabbing his 20 mother in the back with a screwdriver and pulling her hair. Dominic has to pull Ms.
21 Jackson off of his mother in order to stop Ms. Jackson from attacking her. And the 22 struggle over the gun occurs, Dominic hears a shot go off and his father doesn't 23 move after that. Inside the house was also Dominic's seven year old brother 24 Michael and his teenage sister Jasmine.

25 When the gun finally went off he's asked for car keys because that's

1 what these two were seeking in order to get out of there. Dominic can't find the 2 keys, he gets his sister and they climb out a window and run around in the 3 neighborhood and hide under an RV in a neighbor's lot. He eventually comes out to 4 see if he can find his mom and brother and figure out what's going on and he sees
5 this Defendant looking around for Mr. Winters because she wants to hook back up
6 with him. The two are eventually – by this time the police have come because 9-1-1
7 has been called to the area and Ms. Jackson somehow hooks up with Mr. Winters
8 again, is in yet another residence that's adjacent to – where the RV was and it turns
9 out to be an abandoned residence. They're in that residence for several minutes
10 and they're engaged with the police the whole time. At one point there's an officer
11 who is in the next door house looking over a wall and he can see into the window
12 where Ms. Jackson is with Mr. Winters. At one point Mr. Winters is indeed holding a 13 gun to Ms. Jackson's head and she's saying, "Please help me, help me." But then 14 that stops. He puts – he doesn't hold the gun, he goes upstairs and Ms. Jackson is 15 left downstairs. They move place back and forth, they're separated at various times 16 inside the residence. Finally the officer tells Ms. Jackson to come to him and they 17 will rescue her. She comes – she can't get over the wall, the officers assist her to 18 pull her over the wall and at that point when they're close, when they're dealing with 19 her is when Ms. Jackson shouts out to Mr. Winters, "Shoot them, Cody, shoot them."
20 And she yells that several times to the officers who are stunned because they 21 believed they have just rescued a hostage.

22 Count 1 in this case is charged under the regular burglary statute which 23 is 205.060. That's just a straight burglary. Subsection four of the statute enhances 24 the sentence if you use or possess a firearm – sorry, possess a firearm in 25 connection with the burglary. Now certainly from the facts we know that there are

1 slighter marginal evidence that Ms. Jackson certainly without question committed a 2 burglary. She doesn't know the Ramos's, she was on the inside of the house, she 3 knew they were asking for car keys because they wanted to get out of the place.
4 We certainly know from her prior conduct with the state worker that the two were 5 seeking a car, they were seeking a vehicle. She goes into the residence with Mr.
6 Winters; she has committed a burglary at that point because they're seeking car
7 keys. They later ask Dominic for the keys when they can't find them and they can't 8 get them from the ultimate murder victim in this case, Mr. Ramos. So, there is 9 certainly slight or marginal evidence at least of the burglary count.

10 Now, what the defense is quibbling with or arguing against is whether or 11 not the enhancement of with a deadly – or in possession of a deadly weapon can 12 apply. I could not find any case law that dealt with that specific section of the 13 statute. Mr. Silverstein is correct that the only interpretation of that is sort of a 14 related interpretation when it's with use of a deadly weapon, but in this instance 15 she's at least in constructive possession of the weapon. She and Mr. Winters are 16 working together. They don't know the Ramos's; they have no reason to be in that 17 house. And she knows by seeing it, at least with the state worker, that they have a 18 gun as they're going into that Ramos residence and I'd say that substantiates with 19 use of a deadly weapon. Essentially the argument of the defense seems to be that 20 you cannot enhance on that defense if there's only one gun between the two 21 perpetrators of the crime and that doesn't seem like a proper interpretation of the 22 law to me.

23 If the Court finds some issue with how it's pled I don't see her as a true 24 aidor and abettor on the burglar because she doesn't unlock a door, she doesn't 25 provide a ruse on the outside. She's not sitting in a getaway car, she's in there,

1 she's in there stabbing Julie Ramos. I mean, she's in on this, you know, up to her
2 ears. While she may not be the person that holds a gun she definitely knows they 3 have a gun going in there. However, if the Court wants us to add pleading language
4 for aiding and abetting that she was aware that her co-conspirator had a gun, you 5 know, that's certainly permissible under the law and under statute because all that's 6 required for us to amend is notice and certainly adequate evidence has been 7 presented to the Grand Jury to substantiate that she knew a gun was in play when 8 they committed this burglary. That same argument would apply to the abandoned 9 residence as well.

10 Mr. Silverstein's secondary argument on the abandoned residence is 11 that there was no evidence elicited that showed her intent to commit a crime once 12 she went into the abandoned residence. The state views that differently. First we 13 know they carjacked Mr. Euford who is the state worker, so they wanted
14 transportation which suggests a robbery. They certainly went into the Ramos house 15 seeking transportation which suggests they're going into this house too. They don't 16 know it's abandoned of course when they get in there which suggests that they're 17 entering to commit another robbery, find a car to get out of there. But secondarily at 18 this point when they go into that abandoned residence they know police are in the 19 area and she engages and Mr. Winters engages in a ruse to lure the police closer in 20 so Mr. Winters can shoot at them. So, she enters that residence with the intent to 21 commit murder. And certainly at this stage of the proceedings where we only have 22 to satisfy a burden of slight or marginal evidence the state has met its burden as to 23 burglary for both of those two counts.

24 Mr. Silverstein – excuse me, is correct that we have a different 25 interpretation of the best evidence rule. When the contents of a writing or when the

1 contents of a reporting – or a reporting are at issue that is when the best evidence 2 rule applies in contract situations or whether something or not – something was 3 recorded or not. But as the Nevada Supreme Court, Ninth Circuit, and U.S.
4 Supreme Court have recognized what is on a recording is not at issue in the criminal 5 case. In a criminal case what is at issue is literally, what did she say? Whether it's 6 contained in the recording or not the best evidence rule has no application in that 7 sense. And curiously the writ and the reply there is no citation to this Court
8 whatsoever of any case where the best evidence rule has been used to dismiss a 9 portion or a part of an indictment or even at trial let alone an indictment or a 10 preliminary hearing transcript when the state elicits testimony about a statement
11 from an officer without playing their recording or putting in a transcript. We do this 12 all the time. I mean, where is the case law? There isn't a single case that the 13 defense has cited where it says this was a violation of the best evidence rule. By 14 contrast in the state's return, we did cite this Court to Carter and the Ninth Circuit
15 and the U.S. Supreme Court case where those courts all found that there's no 16 application of the best evidence rule in this context in a criminal case.

17 Where I think their argument is a legitimate argument in a writ is when 18 they say there was no – there wasn't a fair presentment of what was contained in 19 her statement which is essentially her claims of duress. That could be an issue
20 raised in a writ and certainly statements made by a defendant that could explain 21 away the charges are – it is our obligation to present those at Grand Jury, but the 22 duress defense is a little bit different than the case cited in the habeas petition. The 23 case cited in the petition concerns a sexual assault and they talk about not 24 introducing a statement of the defendant where he claimed consent, and consent or 25 non-consent is an actual element of a crime in a sexual assault. By contrast duress

1 is, yes, I committed all those elements, all those elements were met but I really – I
2 didn't mean to do that, I was forced to do it or I didn't want to do it. That doesn't 3 explain away the charge. Those questions are left of course to the trial jury because 4 Grand Jury presentments, preliminary hearings and such aren't supposed to be an 5 entire recitation of every fact. Those types of statements duress and even self-6 defense are not things that are to be introduced at the preliminary hearing stage or 7 at the Grand Jury stage. However, even the statements that are pointed to in this 8 instance by the defense concern, well, how much of the duress was – you know,
9 how much of it was presented? They certainly concede that some statements 10 regarding her claims of duress were presented but they don't say how that would 11 have changed the outcome. I mean, the Grand Jury was instructed on duress at the 12 request of defense counsel once he received the Marcum notice, we did instruct on 13 that. They heard her claims of duress. Maybe not the certain instances that 14 defense counsel wanted. But given that we didn't even have an obligation to 15 present it at all there's no possible reason an indictment could be dismissed based 16 on that. Finally, it doesn't apply to Count 4 which is murder. Duress is never a 17 defense to murder.

18 But overarching all of that of course is the Lay [sic] case which is 110
19 Nev. 1189 which says that in order for there to be sufficient prejudice to dismiss an 20 indictment the Court has to question whether or not the outcome – and in this case a 21 true bill would have been different if whatever was improper wasn't presented. And 22 that certainly is an easy answer, right? I mean, we had the testimony of Euford, we 23 had the testimony of Dominic both of whom identified Ms. Jackson and described 24 vividly her interactions and what her actions were in committing all of these crimes.
25 There's no question at all that an indictment would have been returned regardless if

1 we had added in a few more statements about her claims of duress.

2 Lastly, in terms of the Lay [sic] case and the felony murder argument. I
3 believe that's the last argument. The Nay case – sorry, Lay. The Nay case is a 4 valid jury instruction but that's a trial instruction. That case has been around since 5 2007, that's the citation on the case so we're – you know, we're coming up on seven
6 years old. And that case has never been a reason – or failure to instruct, as to Nay
7 has never been used to dismiss any portion of an indictment. I'd also reference this 8 Court to the Cortinas case which says that even if there's a faulty theory within your 9 murder – within your murder charge, if there's sufficient evidence on one of the 10 theories of liability a conviction can be sustained. Lastly, they cannot cite to this 11 Court a single case where failure to instruct according to Nay was – was an 12 indictment properly dismissed.

13 Finally, there's no question that when Ms. Jackson entered that 14 residence an ultimately the murder of Mr. Ramos occurred that they were there to 15 commit a robbery. There were there to do that when they showed up on the 16 doorstep. They don't know the Ramos's; they don't have any reason to be in that 17 house. The police hadn't been called by that point; they asked Dominic for the keys
18 because they want to get out of there. Their whole point was they needed
19 transportation. Their first car broke down, the other car could have been tracked 20 according to the state worker and they go to the Ramos house seeking another –
21 another means of travel. So clearly, even if you applied Nay, their intent to commit a 22 robbery was formed prior to the murder and based on all of that the defense or the 23 Petitioner has not presented this Court with any legally proper basis to dismiss the 24 indictment.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Mr. Silverstein.

1 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Your Honor, I'll be brief. I just want to focus on the first 2 argument again as far as the burglary charges. And even Ms. Weckerly kind of 3 blurred the distinction between use versus possession when she was making her 4 argument to the Court and I think it's an important distinction. The reason that we 5 didn't challenge Counts 2, 3, 4 and the other counts that have the use enhancement
6 is because we understood that they can charge use even though she didn't touch
7 the gun. However, there is no case law that suggests they can charge her with 8 possession without touching the gun. And when Ms. Weckerly argues to the Court 9 that "Ms. Jackson was not a true aider and abettor" -- those were her words to the 10 Court. "Ms. Jackson was not a true aider and abettor at least with respect to the 11 burglary charge." So, how then can she be held to be in constructive possession of 12 the weapon? That she wasn't an aider and abettor in those counts? Then how can 13 she be responsible for Mr. Winters' actions? That doesn't make much sense to me 14 either.

15 They have charged Ms. Jackson in those -- in Counts 1 and Count 8
16 directly with the crime. They haven't charged her with any conspiracy, they haven't 17 charged her with any aiding and abetting, they charge her directly with doing these 18 things. Apart from what Mr. Winters did -- there's no question that Mr. Winters
19 committed that crime and if he was alive to stand trial I'm sure that those counts
20 would stand against him, but this woman did not possess a firearm inside the house, 21 she didn't possess a firearm before she entered the house, she didn't possess a 22 firearm while she was in the house. She was never in possession of a firearm and 23 to say that she's responsible for that possession I think runs contrary to what -- the 24 case that was cited in Ms. Weckerly's own return I think it's contrary to the Brooks
25 case. The Brooks case says that possession is not an element of use. You can use

1 a weapon without possessing it but that's suggested you – in order to be on the 2 hook for possession of the weapon you actually have to possess it because 3 otherwise it would make – their ruling would make no sense. I don't believe the 4 Brooks decision can be read any other way then to say that if you use a – you can 5 use a weapon without holding it but you can't possess a weapon without holding it.
6 And so that's – that is the argument that I would make to the Court on those counts.

7 THE COURT: Okay. So, the Court is inclined to grant the petition in part and 8 deny in part. With respect to Count 1 and Count 8 Defendant's petition is granted as 9 the state has failed to present slight or marginal evidence that the Defendant 10 possessed a firearm or a deadly weapon during the commission of the burglaries of 11 the Ramos residence or the vacant house. And the Court notes NRS 205.0560
12 subsection 4 specifically states: "A person convicted of a burglary who has in his or 13 her possession or gains possession of any firearm or deadly weapon at any time 14 during the commission of the crime, at any time before leaving the structure or upon 15 leaving the structure is guilty of a Category B Felony. Defendant must present slight 16 or marginal evidence that Defendant possessed – I'm sorry. Plaintiff must present
17 slight or marginal evidence that Defendant possessed a firearm or deadly weapon 18 as opposed to just using the weapon as set out in NRS 1 – NRS 193.165." Because 19 the statutes are separate and require the state to prove different facts Brooks v.
20 State is inapplicable here and the state's argument that it presented slight or 21 marginal evidence to support Counts 1 and 8 by providing evidence that Defendant
22 was aware that Cody David Winters has a firearm during the burglaries fails.

23 With respect to the Defendant's argument with respect to Count 8
24 burglary while in possession of a deadly weapon should be dismissed because the 25 state failed to presents slight or marginal evidence that the Defendant intended to 1 commit a felony inside the vacant house. Defendant's petition is denied. The 2 indictment shows that the state asserts that the Defendant entered the vacant

3 property with the intent to commit murder therein which fulfills the intent requirement
4 for burglary. The state did provide slight or marginal evidence to support a finding of 5 probable cause that the Defendant entered the vacant house with the intent to 6 commit murder. The state presented testimony from Officer William Moore that the 7 Defendant called for help at the vacant house as if she were Winters' hostage but 8 that once she was pulled to safety by officers the Defendant began screaming for 9 Winters to shoot the officers. Officer Moore further testified that the Defendant told 10 him Winters wanted to commit suicide by cop. Further, the state presented 11 testimony from Detective McCarthy that the Defendant told him she has called out 12 for Winters to shoot the officers because she knew it was Winters intention to get 13 into a shootout with the police and be killed in the process. Intent to commit 14 burglary maybe inferred based on the Defendant's conduct and other facts in this 15 case.

16 As to the defense argument that the state erred by presenting the 17 testimony from Detective McCarthy as opposed to Defendant's recorded statement, 18 the Court is not persuaded by that argument. Defendant's argument that the state 19 violated NRS 172.135 subsection 2 fails. The Court must consider whether the 20 evidence which was not presented to the Grand Jury would serve to explain away
21 the charges. The evidence does not explain the charges – does not explain away
22 the charges or where it supports a finding other than Defendant's innocence. Here 23 there was no violation of NRS 172.145 as the statements Defendant references in 24 the petition would not serve to explain away the charges. These statements 25 Defendant cites certainly support an argument that the Defendant acted under

1 duress but they do not only support a finding of innocence.

2 The Defendant's argument that the state violated NRS 47.120
3 subsection 1 fails. The best evidence rule requires the production of an original 4 document or recording where the actual contents of the document or recording are 5 at issue and sought to be proved. Here the best evidence rule is inapplicable.
6 Detective McCarthy's testimony was not to prove the contents of the Defendant's
7 recorded statement but to testify regarding his interview with the Defendant. The 8 best evidence rule is not implicated in an instance where a recording of the interview
9 is not played for the jury.

10 The Defendant's argument that the state improperly instructed the jury
11 – Grand Jury on the felony murder rule the Court is not persuaded by that argument.
12 In order for a robbery to serve as an underlying felony for a charge of a felony
13 murder rule the state must present evidence that the Defendant intended to commit 14 the robber before killing the victim. What intent the Defendant had and when that 15 intent was formed may be inferred from Defendant's actions during the – 16 immediately after the killing. The Nevada Supreme Court has held that it is not 17 mandatory for the prosecuting attorney to instruct the Grand Jury on the law, instead 18 the Nevada Supreme Court limited the state's responsibility to informing the Grand 19 Jury of the specific elements of any public offense which they may consider as the 20 basis of the indictment.

21 The state provided the following instruction to the Grand Jury on felony
22 murder. A murder which is perpetrated or which is committed during a perpetration 23 or attempted perpetration of a robbery or a burglary, or a home invasion is murder of 24 a first degree whether the killing was intentional, unintentional or accidental. The 25 state did properly instruct the Grand Jury on felony murder as the instruction calls

1 for the murder being perpetrated during the perpetration of or attempt to commit the 2 robbery, burglary, or home invasion. While the jury – while the Grand Jury
3 instructions does not provide the emphasis on when intent is formed to commit a 4 felony or a killing to constitute felony murder the state did provide that element as 5 required by Clay.

6 I'll ask the defense to draft an order for the Court's signature. Please 7 run the proposed order passed Ms. Weckerly before you submit it to me.

8 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Thank you, Your Honor. So, Counts 1 and 8 are 9 dismissed?

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 MS. WECKERLY: Could I just ask for a clarification as to Counts 1 and 8? Is 13 the Court striking while in possession of a deadly weapon or are you striking the 14 burglary as well?

15 THE COURT: As the matter was briefed the entire counts have been stricken.

16 MR. SILVERSTEIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 MS. WECKERLY: Okay.

CLERK OF COURT

CLERK'S CERTIFICATE

STATE OF NEVADA, ss.

I, Tracie Lindeman, the duly appointed and qualified Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada, do hereby certify that the following is a full, true and correct copy of the Judgment in this matter.

JUDGMENT

The court being fully advised in the premises and the law, it is now ordered, adjudged and decreed, as follows:

"ORDER the judgment of the district court REVERSED AND REMAND this matter to the district court for proceedings consistent with this order."

ORDER OF REVERSAL AND REMAND

This is an appeal from a district court order granting in part a pretrial petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Jessie Elizabeth Walsh, Judge.

Respondent, Natasha Jackson, along with Cody Winters, allegedly entered into a home to steal a car. During the course of the crime, they killed one occupant and stabbed another. Jackson and Winters then allegedly entered an abandoned house nearby where, after attempting to shoot police officers, the officers shot and killed Winters and arrested Jackson. At the grand jury indictment hearing, the State elicited testimony that Winters carried a handgun throughout the course of events. Although there was no testimony that Jackson handled the gun, evidence was presented that she was aware that Winters had it, and at times even gave Winters directions on what to do with it. After the hearing, the State charged Jackson via indictment with, among other crimes, burglary while in possession of a firearm and burglary while in possession of a deadly weapon.

In response to a pretrial petition for a writ of habeas corpus, the district court struck the aforementioned charges in their entirety because there was no evidence that Jackson actually possessed the weapon. The district court ruled that “possession” for the purposes of NRS 205.060(4)’s definition of burglary while in possession of a firearm or deadly weapon is only satisfied upon a showing of actual possession of the weapon. We disagree.

“In reviewing a district court’s order granting a pretrial petition for writ of habeas corpus for lack of probable cause, . . . [t]his court will not overturn the district court’s order unless the district court committed substantial error.” Sheriff, Clark Cty. v. Burcham, 124 Nev. 1247, 1257, 198 P.3d 326, 332 (2008). In doing so, this court must “determine whether all of the evidence received . . . establishes probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the accused committed it.” Kinsey v. Sheriff, Washoe Cty., 87 Nev. 361, 363, 487 P.2d 340, 341 (1971). A finding of probable cause may be based upon slight or marginal evidence. State v. White, 130 Nev., Adv. Op. 56, 330 P.3d 482, 486 (2014).

offender's being armed, and where the unarmed offender has . . . the ability to exercise control over the [weapon]." Id. at 630, 600 P.2d at 244. This interpretation of "possession" is consistent with other holdings by this court "involving interpretations of the term 'possession.'" Id. (citing Glispey v. Sheriff, Carson City, 89 Nev. 221, 510 P.2d 623 (1973)); see also Jones v. State, 111 Nev. 848, 852, 899 P.2d 544, 546 (1995) (concluding that an unarmed offender constructively possessed firearms possessed by his cohorts when he collected property of victims at gunpoint); Walters v. State, 108 Nev. 186, 189, 825 P.2d 1237, 1239-40 (1992) (concluding that an unarmed offender did not constructively possess the knife used by the armed offender because there was no evidence that he could have controlled the armed offender); Moore v. State, 105 Nev. 378, 382, 776 P.2d 1235, 1238 (1989) (concluding that a defendant constructively possessed the rock thrown by the armed offender when the defendant was able to verbally deter the armed offender), overruled on other grounds by Peck v. State, 116 Nev. 840, 7 P.3d 470 (2000), overruled on other grounds by Rosas v. State, 122 Nev. 1258, 147 P.3d 1101 (2006). Control can be demonstrated merely by the ability to give verbal instructions or deterrence to the person with actual possession of the weapon. Moore, 105 Nev. at 382, 776 P.2d at 1238.

Jackson does not deny that she was aware that Winters was armed. Further, the evidence presented appears to indicate that minutes prior to the first home invasion, she loaded a commandeered NDOT van with items from her and Winters' car while Winters held the NDOT driver at gunpoint.

The evidence also showed that Jackson had sufficient control over the weapon. Jackson allegedly directed occupants in the first house based on the threat of the firearm. Additionally, Jackson allegedly instructed Winters to shoot the police officers. While there may be doubt regarding her actual ability to control Winters and the firearm, there was at least slight and marginal evidence to support a finding of probable cause that Jackson was able to exercise control and thus had constructive possession of the firearm.

Therefore, we conclude that the district court substantially erred when it ruled that "possession" refers only to actual possession. Moreover, we conclude that the district court substantially erred when it failed to find slight or marginal evidence that Jackson constructively possessed the weapon and when it struck the relevant counts, based on our conclusion that there was sufficient evidence for a rational juror to determine that Jackson both knew about the firearm and was able to exercise control over it. Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court REVERSED AND REMAND this matter to the district court for proceedings consistent with this order.²

 C. J.
Parraguirre

 J.
Douglas

 J.
Cherry

²Because we reverse the district court's judgment, we need not reach the issue of whether the district court erred in striking the counts in their entirety rather than merely striking the possession language.

14 Defendant.

CASE NO: C-14-300032-1

DEPT NO: JD

15 GUILTY PLEA AGREEMENT

16 I hereby agree to plead guilty to: Count 1 - MURDER WITH USE OF A DEADLY
17 WEAPON (FIRST DEGREE) (Category A Felony - NRS 200.010, 200.030.1, 193.165 - NOC
18 50006); and Count 2 - ROBBERY WITH USE OF A DEADLY WEAPON (Category B
19 Felony - NRS 200.380, 193.165 - NOC 50138), as more fully alleged in the charging document
20 attached hereto as Exhibit "1".

21 My decision to plead guilty is based upon the plea agreement in this case which is as 22 follows:

23 The parties stipulate to a sentence of twenty (20) years to Life for the Murder, with a 24 consecutive sentence of eight (8) to twenty (20) years for the deadly weapon enhancement.
25 The parties stipulate to a sentence of four (4) to fifteen (15) years for the Robbery, with a 26 consecutive three (3) to fifteen (15) year sentence for the deadly weapon enhancement. The 27 sentence in Count 2 will run consecutively to the sentence in Count 1. The total sentence will 28

1 be thirty-five (35) years to Life.

2 I agree to the forfeiture of any and all weapons or any interest in any weapons seized 3 and/or impounded in connection with the instant case and/or any other case negotiated in 4 whole or in part in conjunction with this plea agreement.

5 I understand and agree that, if I fail to interview with the Department of Parole and 6 Probation, fail to appear at any subsequent hearings in this case, or an independent magistrate,
7 by affidavit review, confirms probable cause against me for new criminal charges including 8 reckless driving or DUI, but excluding minor traffic violations, the State will have the 9 unqualified right to argue for any legal sentence and term of confinement allowable for the 10 crime(s) to which I am pleading guilty, including the use of any prior convictions I may have 11 to increase my sentence as an habitual criminal to five (5) to twenty (20) years, life without 12 the possibility of parole, life with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years, or a definite 13 twenty-five (25) year term with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years.

14 Otherwise I am entitled to receive the benefits of these negotiations as stated in this 15 plea agreement.

16 CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLEA

17 I understand that by pleading guilty I admit the facts which support all the elements of 18 the offense(s) to which I now plead as set forth in Exhibit "1".

19 As to Count 1 - I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty, the Court must 20 sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada State Prison for Life without the possibility of 21 parole OR Life with the possibility of parole with eligibility for parole beginning at twenty 22 (20) years; OR a definite term of fifty (50) years with eligibility for parole beginning at twenty 23 (20) years, plus a consecutive one (1) to twenty (20) year term for the deadly weapon
24 enhancement. I understand that the law requires me to pay an Administrative Assessment Fee.

25 As to Count 2 - I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty, the Court must 26 sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term 27 of not less than two (2) years and a maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years, plus a 28

1 consecutive one (1) to fifteen (15) year term for the deadly weapon enhancement. The 2 minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of 3 imprisonment.

4 I understand that, if appropriate, I will be ordered to make restitution to the victim of 5 the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty and to the victim of any related offense which is 6 being dismissed or not prosecuted pursuant to this agreement. I will also be ordered to 7 reimburse the State of Nevada for any expenses related to my extradition, if any.

8 I understand that I am not eligible for probation for the offenses in Count 1 and Count
9 2 to which I am pleading guilty.

10 I understand that I must submit to blood and/or saliva tests under the Direction of the 11 Division of Parole and Probation to determine genetic markers and/or secretor status.

12 I understand that if I am pleading guilty to charges of Burglary, Invasion of the Home, 13 Possession of a Controlled Substance with Intent to Sell, Sale of a Controlled Substance, or 14 Gaming Crimes, for which I have prior felony conviction(s), I will not be eligible for probation 15 and may receive a higher sentencing range.

16 I understand that if more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed and I am
17 eligible to serve the sentences concurrently, the sentencing judge has the discretion to order 18 the sentences served concurrently or consecutively.

19 I understand that information regarding charges not filed, dismissed charges, or charges
20 to be dismissed pursuant to this agreement may be considered by the judge at sentencing.

21 I have not been promised or guaranteed any particular sentence by anyone. I know that 22 my sentence is to be determined by the Court within the limits prescribed by statute.

23 I understand that if my attorney or the State of Nevada or both recommend any specific 24 punishment to the Court, the Court is not obligated to accept the recommendation.

25 I understand that if the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty was committed while I
26 was incarcerated on another charge or while I was on probation or parole that I am not eligible 27 for credit for time served toward the instant offense(s).

1 I understand that if I am not a United States citizen, any criminal conviction will likely 2 result in serious negative immigration consequences including but not limited to:

- 3 1. The removal from the United States through deportation;
- 4 2. An inability to reenter the United States;
- 5 3. The inability to gain United States citizenship or legal residency;
- 6 4. An inability to renew and/or retain any legal residency status; and/or
- 7 5. An indeterminate term of confinement, with the United States Federal 8 Government based on my conviction and immigration status.

9 Regardless of what I have been told by any attorney, no one can promise me that this 10 conviction will not result in negative immigration consequences and/or impact my ability to 11 become a United States citizen and/or a legal resident.

12 I understand that the Division of Parole and Probation will prepare a report for the 13 sentencing judge prior to sentencing. This report will include matters relevant to the issue of 14 sentencing, including my criminal history. This report may contain hearsay information 15 regarding my background and criminal history. My attorney and I will each have the 16 opportunity to comment on the information contained in the report at the time of sentencing.
17 Unless the District Attorney has specifically agreed otherwise, the District Attorney may also 18 comment on this report.

19 WAIVER OF RIGHTS

20 By entering my plea of guilty, I understand that I am waiving and forever giving up the 21 following rights and privileges:

- 22 1. The constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, including the right 23 to refuse to testify at trial, in which event the prosecution would not be 24 allowed to comment to the jury about my refusal to testify.
- 25 2. The constitutional right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, 26 free of excessive pretrial publicity prejudicial to the defense, at which 27 trial I would be entitled to the assistance of an attorney, either appointed 28 or retained. At trial the State would bear the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt each element of the offense(s) charged.
3. The constitutional right to confront and cross-examine any witnesses who would testify against me.

- 4. The constitutional right to subpoena witnesses to testify on my behalf.
- 5. The constitutional right to testify in my own defense.
- 6. The right to appeal the conviction with the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained, unless specifically reserved in writing and agreed upon as provided in NRS 174.035(3). I understand this means I am unconditionally waiving my right to a direct appeal of this conviction, including any challenge based upon reasonable constitutional, jurisdictional or other grounds that challenge the legality of the proceedings as stated in NRS 177.015(4). However, I remain free to challenge my conviction through other post-conviction remedies including a habeas corpus petition pursuant to NRS Chapter 34.

VOLUNTARINESS OF PLEA

I have discussed the elements of all of the original charge(s) against me with my attorney and I understand the nature of the charge(s) against me.

I understand that the State would have to prove each element of the charge(s) against me at trial.

I have discussed with my attorney any possible defenses, defense strategies and circumstances which might be in my favor.

All of the foregoing elements, consequences, rights, and waiver of rights have been thoroughly explained to me by my attorney.

I believe that pleading guilty and accepting this plea bargain is in my best interest, and that a trial would be contrary to my best interest.

I am signing this agreement voluntarily, after consultation with my attorney, and I am not acting under duress or coercion or by virtue of any promises of leniency, except for those set forth in this agreement.

5 I am not now under the influence of any intoxicating liquor, a controlled substance or

8 My attorney has answered all my questions regarding this guilty plea agreement and its 9 consequences to my satisfaction and I am satisfied with the services provided by my attorney.

1 CERTIFICATE OF COUNSEL:

2 I, the undersigned, as the attorney for the Defendant named herein and as an officer of the court 3 hereby certify that:

- 4 1. I have fully explained to the Defendant the allegations contained in the charge(s) to which guilty pleas are being entered.
- 5 2. I have advised the Defendant of the penalties for each charge and the restitution
6 that the Defendant may be ordered to pay.
- 7 3. I have inquired of Defendant facts concerning Defendant's immigration status 8 and explained to Defendant that if Defendant is not a United States citizen any criminal conviction will most likely result in serious negative immigration consequences including but not limited to:
- 9 a. The removal from the United States through deportation;
- 10 b. An inability to reenter the United States;
- 11 c. The inability to gain United States citizenship or legal residency;
- 12 d. An inability to renew and/or retain any legal residency status; and/or
- 13 e. An indeterminate term of confinement, by with United States Federal Government based on the conviction and immigration status.

14 Moreover, I have explained that regardless of what Defendant may have been 15 told by any attorney, no one can promise Defendant that this conviction will not 16 result in negative immigration consequences and/or impact Defendant's ability to become a United States citizen and/or legal resident.

- 17 4. All pleas of guilty offered by the Defendant pursuant to this agreement are 18 consistent with the facts known to me and are made with my advice to the Defendant.
- 19 5. To the best of my knowledge and belief, the Defendant:
- 20 a. Is competent and understands the charges and the consequences of 21 pleading guilty as provided in this agreement,
- 22 b. Executed this agreement and will enter all guilty pleas pursuant hereto voluntarily, and
- 23 c. Was not under the influence of intoxicating liquor, a controlled 24 substance or other drug at the time I consulted with the Defendant as certified in paragraphs 1 and 2 above.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

NRS 7.055 states in pertinent part:

1. An attorney who has been discharged by his client shall upon demand and payment of the fee due from the client, immediately deliver to the client all papers, documents, pleadings and items of tangible personal property which belong to or were prepared for that client.
2. ...If the court finds that an attorney has, without just cause, refused or neglected to obey its order given under this section, the court may, after notice and fine or imprison him until contempt purged. If the Court finds that the attorney has, without just cause, withheld the client's papers, documents, pleadings, or other property, the attorney is liable for costs and attorney's fees.

Counsel in the above-entitled case was court-appointed due to Defendant's indigence. Defendant does not owe counsel any fees.

WHEREFORE, Defendant prays this Honorable Court, GRANT her Motion to Withdraw Counsel and that counsel deliver Defendant all papers, documents, pleadings, discovery and any other tangible property which belong to or were prepared for the Defendant to allow Defendant the proper assistance that is needed to insure that justice is served.

1 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 NRS 7.055(1), which deals with the duty of a discharged attorney, states:

3 "An attorney who has been discharged by his client shall upon demand and payment of 4 the fee due from the client, immediately deliver to the client all papers, documents, pleadings and items of tangible personal property which belong to or were prepared for that client."

5 As can be seen in this case, the defendant does not owe any fees. In fact, they, meaning
6 counsel(s) of record, were appointed by the Court to represent the defendant, who was an indigent, in Case Number C-14-300032-1, in Department Number _____

7 NRS 7.055(2) gives this Court the power to Order the Attorney(s) of record to produce and 8 deliver to the defendant in her possession, which states:

9 "A client who, after demand therefore and payment of the fee due from him, does not 10 receive from his discharged attorney all papers, documents, pleadings and items of tangible personal property may, by a motion filed after at least 5 days notice to the attorney, obtain an order for the production of his papers, documents, pleadings and other property."

11 In numerous cases throughout this great land, the courts have held attorneys to a high degree 12 of professional responsibility and integrity. This carried from the time of hiring to and through the attorney's termination of employment.

13 Supreme Court Rule 173 states quite clear that a withdrawn attorney owes his former client a 14 "...prompt accounting of all his client's...property in his possession." This is echoed in Canon 2 of the Code of Professional Responsibility of the American Bar Association, which states in pertinent part EC 15 2-32: "A lawyer should protect the welfare of his client by...delivering to the client all papers and property to which the client is entitled." Again in Disciplinary Rule 2-110(A)(2) of the ABA, this is brought out that a withdrawn attorney must deliver to the client all papers and comply with applicable laws on the subject.

16 In the cases of In Re Yount, 93 Ariz. 322, 380 P.2d 780 (1963) and State v. Alvey, 215 Kan.
17 460, 524 P.2d 747 (1974), both of which dealt with a factual situation involving a withdrawn attorney refusing to deliver to a former client his documents after being requested to do so by the client. The 18 court in Yount, supra, ordered the attorney disbarred while in Alvey, supra, the court had the attorney censored.

19 While not the intention of the Defendant in this case to have the attorney disbarred, these 20 cases do show a pattern in the court in considering the refusal to deliver to a former client all his documents and property after being requested to do so, a serious infraction of the law and of professional ethics. See In Re Sullivan, 212 Kan. 233, 510 P.2d 1199 (1973).

21 In summary, this Court has jurisdiction through NRS 7.055 to Order the attorney(s) to produce 22 and deliver to the Defendant all documents and personal property in his/her possession belonging to her or prepared for her. The Defendant has fulfilled her obligation in trying to obtain the papers. The 23 attorney(s) is in discord with Canon 2 of the Code of Professional responsibility and the Nevada
Supreme Court Rules 173, 176 and 203.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On 2.20.18 I filed a motion to withdraw counsel which was granted on 3.20.18. I followed up by writing a letter to Christy L. Craig on 3.19.18 and 5.9.18 which both went unanswered. I then wrote to the Clerk of Courts on 5.24.18 and 6.6.18 requesting an investigation of reasons for the delay of the delivery of my documents, I then received my Court Minutes. I contacted the P.D.'s office and left yet another unanswered message on 6.27.18. After consulting the institutional law library, I filed a motion to Produce Documents which was granted on 8.9.18. I followed up by calling Mrs. Craig at the P.D.'s office and left a message on 8.20.18 and 8.30.18 which have also gone unanswered. On 10.17.18 I contacted the P.D.'s Office, and left a message for Mr. Darren Richards explaining my situation. I followed up on 10.23.18 and spoke with Mr. Richards explaining in detail my entire process leading up to my contacting him. He assured me that he'd "get to the bottom of this and if the documents have not been mailed, he'd get them out as soon as possible". On 10.25.18 I called the P.D.'s office to follow up and was informed of Mr. Richards' absence and was transferred to Mr. Ryan Basker. He stated to me that he'd "follow up". I am requesting this extension due to negligence from the P.D.'s office. I feel compelled to protect my Due Process rights.

¹ NRS 171.102 Complaint defined; oath or declaration required. The complaint is a written statement of the essential facts constituting the public offense charged. It must be made upon:

1. Oath before a magistrate or a notary public; or
2. Declaration which is made subject to the penalty for perjury.
(Added to NRS by 1967, 1400; A 1969, 387; 1983, 446)

² NRS 208.165 Execution of instrument by prisoner. A prisoner may execute any instrument by signing his or her name immediately following a declaration "under penalty of perjury" with the same legal effect as if he or she had acknowledged it or sworn to its truth before a person authorized to administer oaths. As used in this section, "prisoner" means a person confined in any jail or prison, or any facility for the detention of juvenile offenders, in this state.
(Added to NRS by 1985, 1643)

§1746. Unsworn declarations under penalty of perjury

Wherever, under any law of the United States or under any rule, regulation, order, or requirement made pursuant to law, any matter is required or permitted to be supported, evidenced, established, or proved by the sworn declaration, verification, certificate, statement, oath, or affidavit, in writing of the person making the same (other than a deposition, or an oath of office, or an oath required to be taken before a specified official other than a notary public), such matter may, with like force and effect, be supported, evidenced, established, or proved by the unsworn declaration, certificate, verification, or statement, in writing of such person which is subscribed by him, as true under penalty of perjury, and dated, in substantially the following form:

(1) If executed without the United States: "I declare (or certify, verify, or state) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on (date). (Signature)".

(2) If executed within the United States, its territories, possessions, or commonwealths: "I declare (or certify, verify, or state) under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on (date). (Signature)".

(Added Pub. L. 94-550, §1(a), Oct. 18, 1976, 90 Stat. 2534.)

PRIOR PROVISIONS

A prior section 1746 was renumbered section 1745 of this title.

§ 1621. Perjury generally

Whoever—

(1) having taken an oath before a competent tribunal, officer, or person, in any case in which a law of the United States authorizes an oath to be administered, that he will testify, declare, depose, or certify truly, or that any written testimony, declaration, deposition, or certificate by him subscribed, is true, willfully and contrary to such oath states or subscribes any material matter which he does not believe to be true; or

(2) in any declaration, certificate, verification, or statement under penalty of perjury as permitted under section 1746 of title 28, United States Code, willfully subscribes as true any material matter which he does not believe to be true; is guilty of perjury and shall, except as otherwise expressly provided by law, be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both. This section is applicable whether the statement or subscription is made within or without the United States.

(June 25, 1948, ch. 645, 62 Stat. 773; Pub. L. 88-619, § 1, Oct. 3, 1964, 78 Stat. 995; Pub. L. 94-550, § 2, Oct. 18, 1976, 90 Stat. 2534; Pub. L. 103-322, title XXXIII, § 330016(1)(i), Sept. 13, 1994, 108 Stat. 2147.)

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On November 14th 2018 I received the first of an alleged 5 part file subsequent to filing a motion for Production of Documents granted on 8.9.2018. I received the 3rd part on 12.4.2018 and currently have yet to receive any further additions to this supposed 5 part file. Due to the deliberate negligence of Christy L. Craig DPD and 2 of her supervisors, I was forced to file a motion for Enlargement of time in which to file Post Conviction Writ of Habeas Corpus on 10.25.18. This motion was granted on 11.27.18 and awarded me an extension of 6 months for a 5.28.19 deadline. My mother, Gloria Hamer and I have collectively attempted contact with Mrs. Craig's supervisor Mr. Curtis Brown. On 2.1.19 @ 1:15pm and 2.8.19 @ 2pm leaving accurate contact information for my mother. On 2.19.19 my mother spoke with Mr. Brown and he stated that he'd 'look into it because he doesn't know the actions of Mrs. Craig and to call him back in a few days.' On 3.4.19 @ 11:05am, 3.12.19 @ 11:15am and 3.18.19 @ 10:55am I personally left messages on Mr. Brown's voicemail with accurate contact information including my mother's name and cell phone number which is the most effective and efficient means of contact she possesses. Furthermore, I am respectfully requesting an additional Enlargement of time in which to file Post Conviction Writ of Habeas Corpus for Ineffective assistance of counsel due to the consistent negligence from the Public Defender's office and the evident breach of court orders by Christy L. Craig DPD. I have been keeping detailed documentation of all calls, messages left and letters sent in order to retrieve the information necessary for completion of the Habeas Corpus if so requested by the courts.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On 7.23.19 I contacted the Public Defender's office to learn of Mrs. Christy Craig having another supervisor by the name of Melissa Navarro. She happens to be the fourth supervisor I've been in contact with since February 2018. I left detailed messages on 7.23.19 @ 10:20 AM, 7.25.19 @ 8:45 am and 7.29.19 @ 9:35 am with my mother's name and accurate contact information. On 8.1.19 I actually had the pleasure of speaking with Mrs. Navarro in regards to my entire situation. She informed me that she had addressed Mrs. Craig and was actually misinformed by her stating that she had sent all parts of my discovery which by her own admissions to the courts were "five (5) different parts due to its size." I then reminded Mrs. Navarro of my being detained in a correctional facility that keeps logs of all incoming legal mail and I've certainly only received three (3) separate parts from her office. I was then transferred to Mrs. Craig's voicemail in order to jog her recollection and leaving my mother's name and contact information.
On 8.3.19 I contacted the mailroom officer for definitive confirmation of any and all legal correspondence received from the P.D.'s office addressed to me. He concluded in writing the three (3) packets and dates of receipt. I drafted a letter to Mrs. Navarro that was mailed on 8.1.19. On 8.6.19 I drafted and mailed a list of known missing documents from the discovery to both Mrs. Navarro and Mrs. Craig. I am requesting an enlargement of time in which to file post conviction writ of habeas Corpus for Ineffective Assistance of Counsel due to the continued deliberate refusal to obey the law and court orders in addition to the inconsistent representation and frequent turnover of supervisory staff and my having to begin with each one, each time. I have detailed documentation of all calls, messages, conversations and correspondence in order to retrieve the information necessary for completion of the habeas corpus if so requested by the courts.

15 RECORDER'S TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING RE:
16 MURDER TEAM ASSIGNMENT

19 For the State: PAMELA WECKERLY, ESQ.
20 Chief Deputy District Attorney

22 For the Defendant: CHRISTY CRAIG, ESQ.

24
25 RECORDED BY: SARA RICHARDSON, COURT RECORDER

1 Las Vegas, Nevada; Tuesday, September 12, 2017

2 [Proceeding commenced at 9:27 a.m.]

4 THE COURT: Christy, you ready on yours?

5 MS. CRAIG: If it's stamped, I'm ready.

6 THE COURT: Pardon?

7 THE CLERK: Stamped?

8 THE COURT: Oh. Okay.

9 MS. CRAIG: I gave her a guilty plea --

10 THE COURT: Got it.

11 MS. CRAIG: -- on Natasha Jackson. Pam's here.

12 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Jackson is present in custody.

13 MS. CRAIG: She is.

14 THE COURT: This is 300032. We do also have an amended
15 indictment that was filed. Ms. Jackson, my understanding is -- and first off, we're 16 gonna interlineate at line 12 of pages 1 on both the amended indictment and 17 guilty plea to reflect Department 3 instead of Department 10.

18 MS. WECKERLY: Oh.

19 THE COURT: That's okay. Ms. Jackson, my understanding is that 20 you're going to be pleading guilty this morning to one count of first degree murder
21 with use of a deadly weapon and one count of robbery with use of a deadly 22 weapon. Is that correct?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: That you and your attorney and the State have all 25 stipulated to a sentence of 20 years to life for the first-degree murder charge;

1 with a consecutive 8 to 20 years for the deadly weapon enhancement. Is that 2 your understanding?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: So that would be 28 years to life on the first-degree
5 murder charge.

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Additionally, you and your attorney and the 8 State have stipulated to a sentence of 4 to 15 years for the robbery charge; with a 9 consecutive 3 to 15 years for the deadly weapon enhancement on the robbery
10 charge. Is that correct?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: So that would be a 7 to 30-year sentence for the 13 robbery with a deadly weapon charge. You understand that?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And furthermore, that the parties are agreeing that the 16 robbery with the deadly weapon charge will run consecutively to the murder with 17 a deadly weapon charge. So that would be a total of 35 years to life for the two 18 charges combined. Do you understand that?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And you're in agreement with those 21 negotiations?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And is your true name Natasha Galenn
24 Jackson?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: How old are you Ms. Jackson?
2 THE DEFENDANT: 38.
3 THE COURT: And how far did you go in school?
4 THE DEFENDANT: High School.
5 THE COURT: You read, write, and understand the English language?
6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
7 THE COURT: You've received a copy of the amended indictment in 8 this case that lists those two charges that we just discussed?
9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
10 THE COURT: And you've had a chance to discuss those charges
11 with your attorney?
12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
13 THE COURT: And you believe you understand the nature and 14 elements of those charges and what they're alleging that you did wrong?
15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
16 THE COURT: And I would assume that as part of your discussions
17 entering into today's plea agreement, you had discussions with your attorney 18 particularly with regard to the murder charge about the varying degrees of a 19 homicide charge including first-degree murder, second-degree murder, voluntary 20 manslaughter, and involuntary manslaughter.
21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
22 THE COURT: And you're comfortable that you understand the 23 distinctions between those different levels of a homicide charge.
24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
25 THE COURT: Okay. How do you plead to count one, murder with 1 use of a deadly weapon, first degree?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

3 THE COURT: Count two, robbery with use of a deadly weapon?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

5 THE COURT: Before I accept your pleas, I need to make sure they're 6 freely and voluntarily made. Are they?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: Anybody force you or coerce you or threaten you in 9 any way to get you to plead guilty?

10 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

11 THE COURT: Anybody make any promises to you other than the 12 agreed upon sentencing structure, to get you to plead guilty?

13 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

14 THE COURT: Anybody -- okay. I have before me as well a -- I was 15 getting ready to repeat myself that's why I stopped. I'm sorry. I have before me
16 a written plea agreement which looks like it has your signature on page 6. Did 17 you sign that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: Did you have a chance to read that before you signed 20 it?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Mm-hmm.

22 THE COURT: And that's interlineated to reflect a September date on 23 --

24 MS. CRAIG: Your Honor, if I could, she and I had been talking about 25 this negotiation since January.

1 THE COURT: Right.

2 MS. CRAIG: So we've had very long term discussions over the last --

3 THE COURT: Well, I notice that --

4 MS. CRAIG: -- nine months or so.

5 THE COURT: -- the plea agreement was originally dated in June --

6 MS. CRAIG: That's correct.

7 THE COURT: -- so obviously this particular offer has been 8 outstanding for some period of time.

9 MS. CRAIG: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Is that correct, Ms. Jackson?

11 MS. CRAIG: Yes, that's accurate.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So you did have a chance to read the plea

13 agreement before you signed it?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: And was your attorney available to answer any

16 questions you had before you signed it?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: And do you believe you understood everything in it?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Did you all discuss the six constitutional rights listed on 21 pages 4 and 5 that you waive and give up by entering a plea?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes -- okay. Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Do you remember what I'm talking about in there?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Mm-hmm.

25 THE COURT: Okay. And you're comfortable that you understand

1 those?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: Okay. You understand that for the charges you're 4 pleading to, on the murder charge, there's a variety of sentences that would be 5 available under the law. Separate apart from what you agreed upon with your 6 attorney and the State. And that includes the sentence of life without the 7 possibility of parole; life with the possibility of parole with eligibility for parole 8 beginning after 20 years has been served; or a definite term of 50 years with 9 eligibility for parole beginning after 20 years. You understand that?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

11 THE COURT: And that there is a consecutive mandatory sentence of 12 not less than 1, nor more than 20 years for the weapon enhancement.

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

14 THE COURT: You understand that for count two, the law provides for 15 a sentence of not less than 2, nor more than 15 years for the robbery portion; as 16 well as a mandatory consecutive sentence of not less than 1, nor more than 15
17 years for the weapon enhancement.

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

19 THE COURT: You understand that for the two charges you're 20 pleading guilty to, you are not eligible for probation. So you have to serve the 21 prison sentence.

22 THE DEFENDANT: Right.

23 THE COURT: And you understand that sentencing is completely up
24 to the Court. No one's in a position to guarantee you a particular sentence.

25 THE DEFENDANT: Right.

1 THE COURT: Okay. You have any --

2 MS. CRAIG: And she wouldn't have to -- she would be eligible for 3 parole. At some point.

4 THE COURT: Oh, yeah.

5 MS. CRAIG: Yes. I just want to make --

6 THE COURT: Just not eligible to be placed on probation for the 7 charges.

8 MS. CRAIG: Right.

9 THE COURT: Okay. You have any questions for myself or your 10 attorney before I accept your plea?

11 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

12 THE COURT: Okay. My understanding is you're pleading guilty here
13 today because on or about July 29, 2014, here in Clark County, Nevada, you did 14 at that time, willfully, unlawfully and feloniously and with malice aforethought, kill 15 Richard Ramos with use of a deadly weapon that being a firearm by shooting at 16 and into the body of that gentleman. That killing having been willful, deliberate, 17 and premeditated and/or having occurred during the perpetration or attempted 18 perpetration of a burglary, robbery and/or a kidnapping. Is that correct?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Right. Yes.

20 THE COURT: And that you're guilty of that charge under one or more 21 of the following principals of liability: Number 1, that you directly committed those 22 acts or that you engaged in a conspiracy and/or a conspiracy to commit a 23 burglary and/or robbery and/or kidnapping and/or murder and/or 3) by aiding and 24 abetting Cody Winters in the commission of that crime with the intent that a 25 burglary, robbery or kidnapping and/or murder occur by approaching the

1 residence of Mr. Ramos with Mr. Winters; requesting to use a telephone and 2 engaging in a course of conduct where Mr. Winters produced a gun, struggled
3 with Mr. Ramos, during which time period you stabbed Mr. Ramos with a 4 screwdriver and attacked Julie Ramos with the screwdriver with the intent to aid
5 Mr. Winters in the commission of the burglary of the Ramos residence and/or the 6 robbery of Mr. Ramos and/or kidnapping and/or killing of Mr. Ramos. Is all of 7 that correct?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay. With regard to count two, same date here in 10 Clark County, Nevada you willfully, unlawfully and feloniously took personal 11 property to wit, keys, cellular telephone and/or an iPhone from the person of 12 Scott Ufert, U-F-E-R-T. Or in his presence by means of force or violence or fear 13 of injury to that gentleman and without the consent and against his will and that 14 you used a deadly weapon to wit, a firearm and/or a knife during the perpetration
15 of that crime. That you are criminally liable either by directly committing that 16 crime and/or by aiding and abetting Mr. Winter's in the commission of that crime
17 with the intent that the crime be committed. By entering into a course of conduct 18 where by Mr. Winters pointed a firearm at Mr. Ufert and demanded property while 19 you pulled out and wielded a knife and by providing counsel and encouragement
20 to one another during the course of that crime and/or pursuant to a conspiracy.
21 Is all that correct as well?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Court finds the Defendant's pleas are freely and 24 voluntarily made and she understands the nature and consequences of her 25 pleas. Set sentencing in 50 days and refer the matter to Department of Parole

1 and Probation for preparation of a sentencing report.

2 THE CLERK: October 31st at 9:00 a.m.

3 THE COURT: You need any more time than --

4 MS. CRAIG: Yeah --

5 THE COURT: -- 50 days?

6 MS. CRAIG: -- I'm gonna be out of town that day.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Do you need any more time than the 50 days or 8 just a --

9 MS. CRAIG: No --

10 THE COURT: -- different date?

11 MS. CRAIG: -- just like one more day I come back.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MS. CRAIG: I fly back that day.

14 THE COURT: We will continue it to the week following that.

15 THE CLERK: Let's do November 7th at 9:00 a.m.

16 MS. CRAIG: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: All right. Calendar call and trial date are vacated, 18 ladies. Thank you.

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF

DATE OF HEARING: FEBRUARY 11, 2021
TIME OF HEARING: 8:30 AM

THIS CAUSE having come on for hearing before the Honorable TIERRA JONES, District Judge, on the 10 day of February, 2021, the Petitioner being present, proceeding in proper person, the Respondent being represented by STEVEN B. WOLFSON, Clark County District Attorney, by and through MICHELLE FLECK, Chief Deputy District Attorney, and the Court having considered the matter, including briefs, transcripts, testimony and arguments by counsels, and documents on file herein, now therefore, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1 FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

2 PROCEDURAL HISTORY

3 On August 8, 2014, the State charged Respondent Natasha Jackson (“Petitioner”) with
4 Count 1 – Burglary While in Possession of a Firearm (Category B Felony - NRS 205.060);
5 Counts 2 and 3 – Attempt Robbery with use of a Deadly Weapon (Category B Felony - NRS
6 200.380, 193.330, 193.165); Count 4 – Murder with use of a Deadly Weapon (Category A
7 Felony - NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165); Count 5 – Attempt Murder with use of a Deadly
8 Weapon (Category B Felony - NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.330, 193.165); Count 6 – First
9 Degree Kidnapping (Category A Felony - NRS 200.310, 200.320); Count 7 – Robbery with 10 use of a Deadly Weapon (Category B Felony - NRS 200.380, 193.165); and Count 8 – Burglary
11 while in Possession of a Deadly Weapon (Category B Felony - NRS 205.060).

12 On October 6, 2014, Petitioner filed a Pretrial Petition for Writ Of Habeas Corpus
13 (“Pretrial Writ”). The State filed its Return on October 24, 2014. Petitioner filed a Reply on
14 October 29, 2014. On November 10, 2014, the District Court granted Petitioner’s Pretrial Writ
15 in part and denied it in part. Specifically, the District Court dismissed Counts 1 and 8. The 16 Order was filed December 4, 2014. On December 12, 2014, the State appealed the Court’s
17 ruling. On March 25, 2016, the Nevada Supreme Court reversed the District Court’s dismissal
18 of the two (2) counts and remanded the case back to the District Court.

19 On September 12, 2017, Petitioner pled guilty to Count 1 – Murder with use of a Deadly
20 Weapon (First Degree); and Count 2 – Robbery with Use of a Deadly Weapon pursuant to a
21 Guilty Plea Agreement (“GPA”).

22 On November 17, 2017, the Court sentenced Petitioner as follows: Count 1 – twenty
23 (20) years to life, plus a consecutive sentence of ninety-six (96) to two hundred forty (240)
24 months for the deadly weapon enhancement; and Count 2 – forty-eight (48) to one hundred
25 eighty (180) months, plus a consecutive sentence of thirty-six (36) to one hundred eighty (180)
26 months for the deadly weapon enhancement. Petitioner’s aggregate sentence was thirty-five 27 (35) years to life. The Judgment of Conviction was filed on November 13, 2017. Petitioner did 28 not file a direct appeal.

1 On February 27, 2018, Petitioner's counsel filed a Motion to Withdraw as counsel. On
2 March 20, 2018, the Court granted counsel's Motion.

3 On July 18, 2018, Petitioner filed a Motion for the Production of Documents, Papers,
4 Pleadings and Tangible Property of Defendant. On August 9, 2018, the Court granted
5 Petitioner's Motion.

6 On November 1, 2018, Petitioner filed a Motion for Enlargement of Time in Which to
7 File Post-Conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. On November 27, 2018, the Court
8 granted Petitioner's Motion, and ordered a briefing schedule set should Petitioner file a
9 Petition.

10 On April 19, 2019, Petitioner filed a second Motion for Enlargement of Time to file.
11 The Court granted Petitioner's Motion on May 14, 2019 and ordered Petitioner to file any 12 Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus by August 13, 2019.

13 On August 9, 2019, Petitioner filed a third Motion for Enlargement of Time to File. On 14 August 15, 2019, the Court granted Petitioner's Motion, and ordered Petitioner to file any
15 Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus by December 12, 2019. On February 20, 2020, the Court
16 set another briefing schedule and ordered Petitioner to file a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus
17 by April 23, 2020.

18 On February 26, 2020, Petitioner filed the instant Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus
19 (Post-Conviction) ("Petition"). On March 25, 2020, the State filed a Response to Petitioner's
20 Petition. On February 11, 2021, this Court made the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions
21 of Law.

23 I. PETITIONER RECEIVED EFFECTIVE ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL

24 Courts must dismiss a petition if a petitioner plead guilty and the petitioner is not 25 alleging "that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered, or that the plea was entered 26 without effective assistance of counsel." NRS 34.810(1)(a). Further, substantive claims—even 27 those disguised as ineffective assistance of counsel claims—are beyond the scope of habeas

1 and waived. NRS 34.724(2)(a); Evans, 117 Nev. at 646–47, 29 P.3d at 523; Franklin, 110 Nev.
2 at 752, 877 P.2d at 1059.

3 The United States Supreme Court has long recognized that “the right to counsel is the
4 right to the effective assistance of counsel.” Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686, 104
5 S. Ct. 2052, 2063 (1984); see also State v. Love, 109 Nev. 1136, 1138, 865 P.2d 322, 323
6 (1993). To prevail on a claim of ineffective assistance of trial counsel, a petitioner must prove 7 he was denied “reasonably effective assistance” of counsel by satisfying the two-prong test of 8 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 686–87, 104 S. Ct. at 2063–64. See also Love, 109 Nev. at 1138, 865
9 P.2d at 323. Under the Strickland test, a petitioner must show first that his counsel's
10 representation fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, and second, that but for 11 counsel's errors, there is a reasonable probability that the result of the proceedings would have 12 been different. 466 U.S. at 687–88, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2065, 2068; Warden, Nevada State
13 Prison v. Lyons, 100 Nev. 430, 432, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984) (adopting the Strickland two-14 part test). “[T]here is no reason for a court deciding an ineffective assistance claim to approach
15 the inquiry in the same order or even to address both components of the inquiry if the defendant
16 makes an insufficient showing on one.” Strickland, 466 U.S. at 697, 104 S. Ct. at 2069.

17 A habeas corpus petitioner must prove the disputed factual allegations underlying his 18 ineffective-assistance claim by a preponderance of the evidence. Means v. State, 120 Nev.
19 1001, 1012, 103 P.3d 25, 33 (2004). Claims of ineffective assistance of counsel asserted in a 20 petition for post-conviction relief must be supported with specific factual allegations, which if
21 true, would entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove v. State, 100 Nev. 498, 502, 686 P.2d 222,
22 225 (1984). “Bare” and “naked” allegations are not sufficient, nor are those belied and repelled
23 by the record. Id. NRS 34.735(6) states in relevant part, “[Petitioner] must allege specific 24 facts supporting the claims in the petition[.] . . . Failure to allege specific facts rather than just 25 conclusions may cause your petition to be dismissed.” Id. at 502–03, 686 P.2d at 225.

26 “There are countless ways to provide effective assistance in any given case. Even the 27 best criminal defense attorneys would not defend a particular client in the same way.”
28 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 689, 104 S. Ct. at 689. “Strategic choices made by counsel after

1 thoroughly investigating the plausible options are almost unchallengeable.” Dawson v. State,
2 108 Nev. 112, 117, 825 P.2d 593, 596 (1992); see also Ford v. State, 105 Nev. 850, 853, 784
3 P.2d 951, 953 (1989). Counsel cannot be ineffective for failing to make futile objections or 4 arguments. Ennis v. State, 122 Nev., 694, 706, 137 P.3d 1095, 1103 (2006).

5 In order to meet the “prejudice prong” of the Strickland test when a conviction is the 6 result of a guilty plea, the petitioner must show a “reasonable probability that, but for counsel’s
7 errors, he would not have pleaded guilty and would have insisted on going to trial.” Kirksey,
8 112 Nev. at 988, 923 P.2d at 1107 (quoting Hill, 474 U.S. at 59, 106 S.Ct. at 370) “A
9 reasonable probability is a probability sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome.”
10 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2068. “Bare” or “naked” allegations are not sufficient
11 to show ineffectiveness of counsel. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225.

12 Here, Petitioner claims of ineffective assistance of counsel center around pretrial
13 investigation and obtaining discovery after Petitioner was sentenced. Petitioner’s claims do
14 not allege that counsel’s actions made her plea unknowing, unintelligent, or involuntary; or 15 that she entered her plea without effective assistance of counsel. Therefore, Petitioner waived
16 her ability to raise these claims and this Court should summarily dismiss the instant Petition.
17 However, even on the merits of Petitioner’s claims, the Court nevertheless denies this Petition
18 as all of Petitioner’s claims are either belied by the record or bare and naked assertions devoid
19 of factual support.

20 A. Petitioner’s claims in Ground 1 fail.

21 In Ground 1, Petitioner raises several claims dealing primarily with the adequacy of 22 counsel’s investigation and trial preparation prior to her guilty plea. Petition at 1-3 & 6.

23 Counsel is expected to conduct legal and factual investigations when developing a
24 defense so they may make informed decisions on their client’s behalf. Jackson v. Warden, 91
25 Nev. 430, 433, 537 P.2d 473, 474 (1975) (quoting In re Saunders, 2 Cal.3d 1033, 88 Cal.Rptr.
26 633, 638, 472 P.2d 921, 926 (1970)). “[D]efense counsel has a duty ‘to make reasonable
27 investigations or to make a reasonable decision that makes particular investigations
28 unnecessary.” Love, 109 Nev. at 1138, 865 P.2d at 323 (quoting Strickland, 466 U.S. at 691,

1 104 S. Ct. at 2066). A defendant who contends his attorney was ineffective because he did not
2 adequately investigate must show how a better investigation would have rendered a more
3 favorable outcome. Molina, 120 Nev. at 192, 87 P.3d at 538.

4 Petitioner first argues that counsel failed to note inconsistencies between witness
5 statements and the physical evidence. Petition at 1. Specifically, Petitioner notes that the 6 medical examiner's Grand Jury testimony conflicted with Julie Ramos's statement. The 7 medical examiner testified, while Julie Ramos stated that Petitioner hit her husband with a
8 wrench and stabbed her with a screwdriver. Petition at 2. Petitioner further notes that Julie
9 Ramos's statement conflicted with Petitioner's statement to the police and therefore, Julie
10 Ramos is not to be believed. Petition at 2. As a result of these inconsistencies, Petitioner
11 appears to claim that Count 8 was disingenuous and counsel should have challenged it. Petition
12 at 2.

13 Petitioner's claim is belied by the record. Counsel did challenge the factual basis for 14 Count 8 in the Pretrial Writ filed on October 6, 2014. Pretrial Writ, at 5-7. Initially, counsel
15 appeared to be successful because, the District Court granted Petitioner's Pretrial Writ in part 16 and dismissed Counts 1 and 8. Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order, at 2. It was 17 the Nevada Supreme Court who disagreed with counsel's interpretation and reversed the 18 Court's decision on March 25, 2016. Order of Reversal and Remand at 4. Counsel can hardly 19 be expected to do more. Further, any additional challenge would have been futile, given that 20 even the Nevada Supreme Court stated there was a sufficient factual basis supporting Count
21 8. As such, Petitioner's claim that counsel did not investigate any inconsistencies or challenge
22 the evidence is belied by the record. Regarding any other inconsistencies counsel allegedly 23 failed to investigate, Petitioner does not demonstrate what specific information that 24 investigation would have revealed or how it would have resulted in her deciding to proceed to 25 trial. Molina, 120 Nev. at 192, 87 P.3d at 538.

26 Petitioner next claims that counsel failed to prepare a trial strategy. Petition at 2.
27 Petitioner claims this shows that counsel's only plan of action was for Petitioner to plead
28 guilty. Id. at 2. Not only is this a bare and naked claim unsupported by any specific facts, but

1 whether counsel prepared for trial is irrelevant because Petitioner pled guilty over two (2)
2 months before the scheduled trial date. As Petitioner pled guilty, there was no need for trial
3 strategy and counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for allegedly not preparing one. United
4 States v. Cronin, 466 U.S. 648, 657 n.19, 104 S.Ct. 2039, 2046 n. 19 (1984) (“The constitution
5 does not require that defense counsel do what is impossible or unethical. If there is no bona 6 fide defense to the charge, counsel cannot create one and may disserve the interests of his
7 client by attempting a useless charade”).

8 Third, Petitioner accuses counsel of ineffectiveness because the State’s offer was 9 extended three and a half years after her arrest and allegedly did not change. Petition at 2.
10 Counsel had no control over the timing or the substance of the State’s offer. From December
11 2014 until March 2016, this matter was pending before the Nevada Supreme Court on appeal
12 and the District Court did not have the jurisdiction to do anything, including accept a guilty
13 plea. Once the Nevada Supreme Court remanded the matter back to the District Court, counsel
14 immediately began discussing offers with the State. That the offer conveyed by the State did
15 not change is not something counsel had any control over, and Petitioner fails to provide any 16 authority stating otherwise. Indeed, common sense dictates that defense counsel cannot be 17 deemed ineffective for failing to do something they had no control over. Additionally,
18 Petitioner had six (6) months to decide whether to plead guilty and the plea canvass established
19 that when Petitioner did plead guilty, she did so freely and voluntarily.

20 Moreover, Petitioner cannot show prejudice because she does not claim she would have 21 rejected a better or earlier conveyed offer and insisted on proceeding to trial. Kirksey, 112
22 Nev. at 988, 923 P.2d at 1107. Indeed, she cannot, as such a claim would be logically
23 inconsistent. Had counsel received a better offer, because Petitioner accepted the instant
24 negotiation, Petitioner would not have likely accepted a more favorable offer. As such, this 25 claim fails.

26 Fourth, Petitioner claims counsel should have challenged the deadly weapon
27 enhancement and that she would have received a lesser sentence had counsel done so. Petition
28 at 6. To the extent Petitioner claims counsel should have challenged the deadly weapon

1 enhancement pre-plea, such a claim was waived when she pled guilty and is further belied by
2 the record. In Petitioner's Pretrial Writ, counsel expressly argued that there was not sufficient
3 evidence supporting the deadly weapon enhancement. Pretrial Writ, at 5-7. To the extent
4 Petitioner is claiming counsel should have challenged the enhancement post-plea, Petitioner
5 continues to fault counsel of ineffectiveness for failing to make a futile motion or argument.
6 Ennis, 122 Nev. at 706, 137 P.3d at 1103. Petitioner pled guilty to Murder with Use of a Deadly
7 Weapon (First Degree). GPA at 1. Once Petitioner did so, the deadly weapon enhancement
8 could not be removed from the charging document. As such, Petitioner's claim is baseless and 9 otherwise belied by the record.

10 Fifth, Petitioner's final claim raised in Ground 1 revolves around her police
11 interrogation. Petitioner first claims counsel should have filed a motion to admit the 12 interrogation at the Grand Jury so they could assess the accuracy of Detective McCarthy's
13 version of Petitioner's story, intent, and lucidity. Petition at 6. Second, Petitioner claims
14 counsel should have attempted to suppress the interrogation as the statements were made while 15 she was under the influence of methamphetamine and experiencing delusional thoughts, erratic
16 speech patterns and sporadic loss of consciousness. Id. Petitioner's first claim is belied by 17 counsel's arguments in the Pretrial Writ. Counsel argued that the charges against Petitioner
18 should be dismissed because the State should have, and failed to, admit Petitioner's
19 interrogation to the Grand Jury to highlight the inconsistencies in Detective McCarthy's
20 statement. Pretrial Writ, at 7-12. As counsel has no control over what evidence the State
21 presents to a Grand Jury save for a pretrial writ, counsel did all they could and cannot be 22 deemed ineffective. Second, Petitioner's claim that counsel should have moved to suppress
23 her statements is meritless because Petitioner pled guilty in lieu of trial. When Petitioner pled
24 guilty, any question of her state of mind during the police interrogation became irrelevant as 25 there was no longer a trial where her statement could or could not be admitted. Moreover,
26 Petitioner does not establish that counsel could have successfully suppressed her statement.
27 Counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for failing to make a futile motion. Ennis, 122 Nev. at 28 706, 137 P.3d at 1103. Finally, Petitioner does not explain that had counsel attempted to

1 suppress her statement, she would have insisted on proceeding to trial. Therefore, Petitioner's
2 claim fails.

3 B. Petitioner's claims in Ground 2 fail.

4 The crux of Petitioner's claims in Ground 2 revolve around the speed with which
5 defense counsel provided copies of her discovery post-sentence. Petitioner claims that counsel
6 ignored Court orders to send Petitioner her discovery in a timely fashion. Petition at 4.
7 Petitioner then claims that even when she received her file from counsel, the file did not
8 include a transcript of the plea canvass and did not include emails between counsel and the 9 state regarding negotiations. Id. at 7.

10 As an initial matter, counsel's actions after she was sentenced and transported to prison
11 had absolutely no bearing on the validity of her plea. Therefore, there is no way Petitioner can 12 demonstrate that counsel's actions impacted her decision to plead guilty and her claim is 13 dismissed.

14 Further, Petitioner cannot show prejudice. The court allowed Petitioner to file the 15 instant Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus over two and a half years after the Judgment of 16 Conviction was filed because Petitioner continued to inform the Court she did not have all of 17 the information necessary to file a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Moreover, Petitioner
18 has not established that any email communication between the State and counsel regarding 19 negotiations exists. Counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for failing to provide nonexistent
20 information. Finally, counsel did not provide a copy of the transcript of Petitioner's plea
21 canvass because that transcript was not prepared until the State requested the Court prepare it
22 after Petitioner filed her Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). Order for 23 Transcript, filed on March 11, 2020. Therefore, Petitioner's claim in Ground 2 should fail.

24 Petitioner also appears to claim in Ground 2 that she was sentenced on incorrect
25 information. Petition at 7. Such a claim is nothing more than a bare and naked claim
26 unsupported by specific facts in the record. Petitioner does not point to specific facts that she
27 alleges to be incorrect. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. To the extent Petitioner
28 claims the Court incorrectly sentenced her on the Deadly Weapon enhancement, as explained

1 above, because Petitioner pled guilty to Murder with use of a Deadly Weapon (First Degree),
2 she admitted to using a deadly weapon. As such, the Court did not err in considering that fact
3 when sentencing her and counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for not making a futile
4 objection. Ennis, 122 Nev. at 706, 137 P.3d at 1103.

5 C. Petitioner's plea was knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily made.

6 Petitioner appears to claim that counsel was ineffective in advising her to accept the 7 State's plea deal of a stipulated aggregate sentence of thirty-five (35) years to life. Petition at 8 3. Petitioner claims counsel did not elaborate on the terms outlined in the Guilty Plea
9 Agreement and led her to believe it was in her best interest to plead guilty and file an appeal
10 after. Petition at 6. Petitioner further claims that counsel did not warn her that by pleading
11 guilty, she would be waiving her right to file a direct appeal. Petition at 6. Petitioner's claim 12 is belied by the record.

13 To establish a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel for advice regarding a guilty
14 plea, a defendant must show "gross error on the part of counsel." Turner v. Calderon, 281 F.3d
15 851, 880 (9th Cir. 2002). It is true that defendant is entitled to effective assistance of counsel
16 in the plea-bargaining process and in determining whether to accept or reject a plea offer.
17 Lafler v. Cooper, 566 U.S. 156, 163, 132 S. Ct. 1376, 1384 (2012); see also McMann v.
18 Richardson, 397 U.S. 759, 771, 90 S. Ct. 1441 (1970) (the Constitution guarantees effective
19 counsel when accepting guilty plea). In considering the defendant's "right to make a 20 reasonably informed decision whether to accept a plea offer," importantly, the question is not 21 whether, "counsel's advice [was] right or wrong, but . . . whether that advice was within the 22 range of competence demanded of attorneys in criminal cases." Id. (quoting United States v.
23 Day, 969 F.2d 39, 43 (3rd Cir. 1992), and McMann, 397 U.S. 771, 90 S. Ct. at 1449.

24 Petitioner's claim that counsel was ineffective when advising her to accept the plea deal
25 was is nothing more than a bare and naked claim. Petitioner offers no specific facts indicating 26 that counsel's advice to plead guilty was unreasonable. Petitioner was charged with eight (8)
27 serious felony counts, including Murder with use of a Deadly Weapon, and First-Degree
28 Kidnapping, both of which carried potential sentences of life without the possibility of parole.

1 Had Petitioner proceeded to trial, and had Petitioner been convicted of only those two (2)
2 counts, she could have been sentenced to two (2) consecutive life sentences. As such, counsel
3 was very reasonable in recommending that Petitioner accept the State's offer to stipulate to an
4 aggregate sentence of thirty-five (35) years to life. Moreover, it was Petitioner's decision of 5 whether to plead guilty and counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for offering candid advice.

6 Further, Petitioner's claim that counsel did not spend time reviewing the GPA with her
7 or that counsel forced her to plead guilty is belied by the record. First, in signing the GPA,
8 Petitioner acknowledged that she knew and understood she was waiving the right to file a
9 direct appeal. Guilty Plea Agreement at 5. The Court confirmed that she understood that 10 waiver during the plea canvass. Plea Canvass at 6. During the plea canvass, Petitioner further
11 confirmed that she had been discussing and reviewing the GPA with counsel for nine (9)
12 months and that counsel had reviewed the entire GPA with her:

13 MS. CRAIG: Your Honor, if I could, she and I had been talking about this 14 negotiation since January.

15 THE COURT: Right.

16 MS. CRAIG: So we've had very long term discussions over the last --

17 THE COURT: Well, I notice that --

18 MS. CRAIG: -- nine months or so.

19 THE COURT: -- the plea agreement was originally dated in June --

20 MS. CRAIG: That's correct.

21 THE COURT: -- so obviously this particular offer has been outstanding
22 for some period of time.

23 MS. CRAIG: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Is that correct, Ms. Jackson?

25 MS. CRAIG: Yes, that's accurate.

26 THE COURT: Okay. So you did have a chance to read the plea
27 agreement before you signed it?

28 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And was your attorney available to answer any questions you had before you signed it?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And do you believe you understood everything in it?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Did you all discuss the six constitutional rights listed on pages 4 and 5 that you waive and give up by entering a plea?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes -- okay. Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Do you remember what I'm talking about in there?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Mm-hmm.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And you're comfortable that you understand
4 those?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir

6 Recorder's Transcript of Hearing Re: Murder Team Assignment ("Plea Canvass"), at 6-7
7 (emphasis added).

8 Therefore, the record is clear that Petitioner understood the consequences outlined in 9 the GPA, which belies her claim that counsel did not review the entirety of the GPA or that 10 she did not understand what rights she was waiving by pleading guilty. Id. at 5-6. Finally,
11 Petitioner confirmed that her attorney reviewed the agreement with her and answered all of 12 her questions. Id. at 6. As such, Petitioner knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily pled guilty,
13 and Petitioner has failed to demonstrate otherwise.

14 II. PETITIONER IS NOT ENTITLED TO POST-CONVICTION COUNSEL

15 Under the U.S. Constitution, the Sixth Amendment provides no right to counsel in post-
16 conviction proceedings. Coleman v. Thompson, 501 U.S. 722, 752, 111 S. Ct. 2546, 2566
17 (1991). In McKague v. Warden, 112 Nev. 159, 163, 912 P.2d 255, 258 (1996), the Nevada
18 Supreme Court specifically held that with the exception of NRS 34.820(1)(a) (entitling 19 appointed counsel when petitioner is under a sentence of death), one does not have "any 20 constitutional or statutory right to counsel at all" in post-conviction proceedings. Id. at 164,
21 912 P.2d at 258.

22 Although NRS 34.750 gives courts the discretion to appoint post-conviction counsel,
23 that discretion should be used only to the extent "the court is satisfied that the allegation of 24 indigency is true and the petition is not dismissed summarily." NRS 34.750. NRS 34.750
25 further requires courts to "consider whether: (a) the issues are difficult; (b) the Defendant is 26 unable to comprehend the proceedings; or (c) counsel is necessary to proceed with discovery."
27 Id.

28 Here, Petitioner is not entitled to counsel. First, her claims are either waived or belied by the record. Moreover, Petitioner's claims are not complex, and no additional discovery is needed. As such, Petitioner's Motion for Appointment of Counsel is denied.

2 THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Petition for Post-Conviction Relief
3 ^{Dated this 4th day of March, 2021}
and Motion for Appointment of Counsel shall be, and it is, hereby denied.

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND ORDER

TIME OF HEARING: 8:30 AM

THIS CAUSE having come on for hearing before the Honorable TIERRA JONES, District Judge, on the 10 day of February, 2021, the Petitioner being present, proceeding in proper person, the Respondent being represented by STEVEN B. WOLFSON, Clark County District Attorney, by and through MICHELLE FLECK, Chief Deputy District Attorney, and the Court having considered the matter, including briefs, transcripts, testimony and arguments by counsels, and documents on file herein, now therefore, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1 FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

2 PROCEDURAL HISTORY

3 On August 8, 2014, the State charged Respondent Natasha Jackson (“Petitioner”) with
4 Count 1 – Burglary While in Possession of a Firearm (Category B Felony - NRS 205.060);
5 Counts 2 and 3 – Attempt Robbery with use of a Deadly Weapon (Category B Felony - NRS
6 200.380, 193.330, 193.165); Count 4 – Murder with use of a Deadly Weapon (Category A
7 Felony - NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165); Count 5 – Attempt Murder with use of a Deadly
8 Weapon (Category B Felony - NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.330, 193.165); Count 6 – First
9 Degree Kidnapping (Category A Felony - NRS 200.310, 200.320); Count 7 – Robbery with 10 use of a Deadly Weapon (Category B Felony - NRS 200.380, 193.165); and Count 8 – Burglary
11 while in Possession of a Deadly Weapon (Category B Felony - NRS 205.060).

12 On October 6, 2014, Petitioner filed a Pretrial Petition for Writ Of Habeas Corpus
13 (“Pretrial Writ”). The State filed its Return on October 24, 2014. Petitioner filed a Reply on
14 October 29, 2014. On November 10, 2014, the District Court granted Petitioner’s Pretrial Writ
15 in part and denied it in part. Specifically, the District Court dismissed Counts 1 and 8. The 16 Order was filed December 4, 2014. On December 12, 2014, the State appealed the Court’s
17 ruling. On March 25, 2016, the Nevada Supreme Court reversed the District Court’s dismissal
18 of the two (2) counts and remanded the case back to the District Court.

19 On September 12, 2017, Petitioner pled guilty to Count 1 – Murder with use of a Deadly
20 Weapon (First Degree); and Count 2 – Robbery with Use of a Deadly Weapon pursuant to a
21 Guilty Plea Agreement (“GPA”).

22 On November 17, 2017, the Court sentenced Petitioner as follows: Count 1 – twenty
23 (20) years to life, plus a consecutive sentence of ninety-six (96) to two hundred forty (240)
24 months for the deadly weapon enhancement; and Count 2 – forty-eight (48) to one hundred
25 eighty (180) months, plus a consecutive sentence of thirty-six (36) to one hundred eighty (180)
26 months for the deadly weapon enhancement. Petitioner’s aggregate sentence was thirty-five 27 (35) years to life. The Judgment of Conviction was filed on November 13, 2017. Petitioner did 28 not file a direct appeal.

1 On February 27, 2018, Petitioner's counsel filed a Motion to Withdraw as counsel. On
2 March 20, 2018, the Court granted counsel's Motion.

3 On July 18, 2018, Petitioner filed a Motion for the Production of Documents, Papers,
4 Pleadings and Tangible Property of Defendant. On August 9, 2018, the Court granted
5 Petitioner's Motion.

6 On November 1, 2018, Petitioner filed a Motion for Enlargement of Time in Which to
7 File Post-Conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. On November 27, 2018, the Court
8 granted Petitioner's Motion, and ordered a briefing schedule set should Petitioner file a
9 Petition.

10 On April 19, 2019, Petitioner filed a second Motion for Enlargement of Time to file.
11 The Court granted Petitioner's Motion on May 14, 2019 and ordered Petitioner to file any 12 Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus by August 13, 2019.

13 On August 9, 2019, Petitioner filed a third Motion for Enlargement of Time to File. On 14 August 15, 2019, the Court granted Petitioner's Motion, and ordered Petitioner to file any
15 Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus by December 12, 2019. On February 20, 2020, the Court
16 set another briefing schedule and ordered Petitioner to file a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus
17 by April 23, 2020.

18 On February 26, 2020, Petitioner filed the instant Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus
19 (Post-Conviction) ("Petition"). On March 25, 2020, the State filed a Response to Petitioner's
20 Petition. On February 11, 2021, this Court made the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions
21 of Law.

23 I. PETITIONER RECEIVED EFFECTIVE ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL

24 Courts must dismiss a petition if a petitioner plead guilty and the petitioner is not 25 alleging "that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered, or that the plea was entered 26 without effective assistance of counsel." NRS 34.810(1)(a). Further, substantive claims—even 27 those disguised as ineffective assistance of counsel claims—are beyond the scope of habeas 28 ///

1 and waived. NRS 34.724(2)(a); Evans, 117 Nev. at 646–47, 29 P.3d at 523; Franklin, 110 Nev.
2 at 752, 877 P.2d at 1059.

3 The United States Supreme Court has long recognized that “the right to counsel is the
4 right to the effective assistance of counsel.” Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686, 104
5 S. Ct. 2052, 2063 (1984); see also State v. Love, 109 Nev. 1136, 1138, 865 P.2d 322, 323
6 (1993). To prevail on a claim of ineffective assistance of trial counsel, a petitioner must prove
7 he was denied “reasonably effective assistance” of counsel by satisfying the two-prong test of
8 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 686–87, 104 S. Ct. at 2063–64. See also Love, 109 Nev. at 1138, 865
9 P.2d at 323. Under the Strickland test, a petitioner must show first that his counsel's
10 representation fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, and second, that but for 11 counsel's errors, there is a reasonable probability that the result of the proceedings would have
12 been different. 466 U.S. at 687–88, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2065, 2068; Warden, Nevada State
13 Prison v. Lyons, 100 Nev. 430, 432, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984) (adopting the Strickland two-14 part test). “[T]here is no reason for a court deciding an ineffective assistance claim to approach
15 the inquiry in the same order or even to address both components of the inquiry if the defendant
16 makes an insufficient showing on one.” Strickland, 466 U.S. at 697, 104 S. Ct. at 2069.

17 A habeas corpus petitioner must prove the disputed factual allegations underlying his 18 ineffective-assistance claim by a preponderance of the evidence. Means v. State, 120 Nev.
19 1001, 1012, 103 P.3d 25, 33 (2004). Claims of ineffective assistance of counsel asserted in a
20 petition for post-conviction relief must be supported with specific factual allegations, which if
21 true, would entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove v. State, 100 Nev. 498, 502, 686 P.2d 222,
22 225 (1984). “Bare” and “naked” allegations are not sufficient, nor are those belied and repelled
23 by the record. Id. NRS 34.735(6) states in relevant part, “[Petitioner] must allege specific 24 facts supporting the claims in the petition[.] . . . Failure to allege specific facts rather than just 25 conclusions may cause your petition to be dismissed.” Id. at 502–03, 686 P.2d at 225.

26 “There are countless ways to provide effective assistance in any given case. Even the 27 best criminal defense attorneys would not defend a particular client in the same way.”
28 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 689, 104 S. Ct. at 689. “Strategic choices made by counsel after

1 thoroughly investigating the plausible options are almost unchallengeable.” Dawson v. State,
2 108 Nev. 112, 117, 825 P.2d 593, 596 (1992); see also Ford v. State, 105 Nev. 850, 853, 784
3 P.2d 951, 953 (1989). Counsel cannot be ineffective for failing to make futile objections or 4 arguments. Ennis v. State, 122 Nev., 694, 706, 137 P.3d 1095, 1103 (2006).

5 In order to meet the “prejudice prong” of the Strickland test when a conviction is the 6 result of a guilty plea, the petitioner must show a “reasonable probability that, but for counsel’s
7 errors, he would not have pleaded guilty and would have insisted on going to trial.” Kirksey,
8 112 Nev. at 988, 923 P.2d at 1107 (quoting Hill, 474 U.S. at 59, 106 S.Ct. at 370) “A
9 reasonable probability is a probability sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome.”
10 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2068. “Bare” or “naked” allegations are not sufficient
11 to show ineffectiveness of counsel. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225.

12 Here, Petitioner claims of ineffective assistance of counsel center around pretrial
13 investigation and obtaining discovery after Petitioner was sentenced. Petitioner’s claims do
14 not allege that counsel’s actions made her plea unknowing, unintelligent, or involuntary; or 15 that she entered her plea without effective assistance of counsel. Therefore, Petitioner waived
16 her ability to raise these claims and this Court should summarily dismiss the instant Petition.
17 However, even on the merits of Petitioner’s claims, the Court nevertheless denies this Petition
18 as all of Petitioner’s claims are either belied by the record or bare and naked assertions devoid
19 of factual support.

20 A. Petitioner’s claims in Ground 1 fail.

21 In Ground 1, Petitioner raises several claims dealing primarily with the adequacy of 22 counsel’s investigation and trial preparation prior to her guilty plea. Petition at 1-3 & 6.

23 Counsel is expected to conduct legal and factual investigations when developing a
24 defense so they may make informed decisions on their client’s behalf. Jackson v. Warden, 91
25 Nev. 430, 433, 537 P.2d 473, 474 (1975) (quoting In re Saunders, 2 Cal.3d 1033, 88 Cal.Rptr.
26 633, 638, 472 P.2d 921, 926 (1970)). “[D]efense counsel has a duty ‘to make reasonable
27 investigations or to make a reasonable decision that makes particular investigations
28 unnecessary.” Love, 109 Nev. at 1138, 865 P.2d at 323 (quoting Strickland, 466 U.S. at 691,

1 104 S. Ct. at 2066). A defendant who contends his attorney was ineffective because he did not
2 adequately investigate must show how a better investigation would have rendered a more
3 favorable outcome. Molina, 120 Nev. at 192, 87 P.3d at 538.

4 Petitioner first argues that counsel failed to note inconsistencies between witness
5 statements and the physical evidence. Petition at 1. Specifically, Petitioner notes that the 6 medical examiner's Grand Jury testimony conflicted with Julie Ramos's statement. The
7 medical examiner testified, while Julie Ramos stated that Petitioner hit her husband with a
8 wrench and stabbed her with a screwdriver. Petition at 2. Petitioner further notes that Julie
9 Ramos's statement conflicted with Petitioner's statement to the police and therefore, Julie
10 Ramos is not to be believed. Petition at 2. As a result of these inconsistencies, Petitioner
11 appears to claim that Count 8 was disingenuous and counsel should have challenged it. Petition
12 at 2.

13 Petitioner's claim is belied by the record. Counsel did challenge the factual basis for 14 Count 8 in the Pretrial Writ filed on October 6, 2014. Pretrial Writ, at 5-7. Initially, counsel
15 appeared to be successful because, the District Court granted Petitioner's Pretrial Writ in part 16 and dismissed Counts 1 and 8. Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order, at 2. It was 17 the Nevada Supreme Court who disagreed with counsel's interpretation and reversed the 18 Court's decision on March 25, 2016. Order of Reversal and Remand at 4. Counsel can hardly 19 be expected to do more. Further, any additional challenge would have been futile, given that
20 even the Nevada Supreme Court stated there was a sufficient factual basis supporting Count
21 8. As such, Petitioner's claim that counsel did not investigate any inconsistencies or challenge
22 the evidence is belied by the record. Regarding any other inconsistencies counsel allegedly 23 failed to investigate, Petitioner does not demonstrate what specific information that
25 trial. Molina, 120 Nev. at 192, 87 P.3d at 538.

26 Petitioner next claims that counsel failed to prepare a trial strategy. Petition at 2.
27 Petitioner claims this shows that counsel's only plan of action was for Petitioner to plead
28 guilty. Id. at 2. Not only is this a bare and naked claim unsupported by any specific facts, but

1 whether counsel prepared for trial is irrelevant because Petitioner pled guilty over two (2)
2 months before the scheduled trial date. As Petitioner pled guilty, there was no need for trial
3 strategy and counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for allegedly not preparing one. United
4 States v. Cronin, 466 U.S. 648, 657 n.19, 104 S.Ct. 2039, 2046 n. 19 (1984) (“The constitution
5 does not require that defense counsel do what is impossible or unethical. If there is no bona
6 fide defense to the charge, counsel cannot create one and may disserve the interests of his
7 client by attempting a useless charade”).

8 Third, Petitioner accuses counsel of ineffectiveness because the State’s offer was
9 extended three and a half years after her arrest and allegedly did not change. Petition at 2.
10 Counsel had no control over the timing or the substance of the State’s offer. From December
11 2014 until March 2016, this matter was pending before the Nevada Supreme Court on appeal
12 and the District Court did not have the jurisdiction to do anything, including accept a guilty
13 plea. Once the Nevada Supreme Court remanded the matter back to the District Court, counsel
14 immediately began discussing offers with the State. That the offer conveyed by the State did
15 not change is not something counsel had any control over, and Petitioner fails to provide any 16 authority stating otherwise. Indeed, common sense dictates that defense counsel cannot be 17 deemed ineffective for failing to do something they had no control over. Additionally,
18 Petitioner had six (6) months to decide whether to plead guilty and the plea canvass established
19 that when Petitioner did plead guilty, she did so freely and voluntarily.

20 Moreover, Petitioner cannot show prejudice because she does not claim she would have
21 rejected a better or earlier conveyed offer and insisted on proceeding to trial. Kirksey, 112
22 Nev. at 988, 923 P.2d at 1107. Indeed, she cannot, as such a claim would be logically
23 inconsistent. Had counsel received a better offer, because Petitioner accepted the instant
24 negotiation, Petitioner would not have likely accepted a more favorable offer. As such, this 25 claim fails.

26 Fourth, Petitioner claims counsel should have challenged the deadly weapon
27 enhancement and that she would have received a lesser sentence had counsel done so. Petition
28 at 6. To the extent Petitioner claims counsel should have challenged the deadly weapon

1 enhancement pre-plea, such a claim was waived when she pled guilty and is further belied by
2 the record. In Petitioner's Pretrial Writ, counsel expressly argued that there was not sufficient
3 evidence supporting the deadly weapon enhancement. Pretrial Writ, at 5-7. To the extent
4 Petitioner is claiming counsel should have challenged the enhancement post-plea, Petitioner
5 continues to fault counsel of ineffectiveness for failing to make a futile motion or argument.
6 Ennis, 122 Nev. at 706, 137 P.3d at 1103. Petitioner pled guilty to Murder with Use of a Deadly
7 Weapon (First Degree). GPA at 1. Once Petitioner did so, the deadly weapon enhancement
8 could not be removed from the charging document. As such, Petitioner's claim is baseless and 9 otherwise belied by the record.

10 Fifth, Petitioner's final claim raised in Ground 1 revolves around her police
11 interrogation. Petitioner first claims counsel should have filed a motion to admit the 12 interrogation at the Grand Jury so they could assess the accuracy of Detective McCarthy's
13 version of Petitioner's story, intent, and lucidity. Petition at 6. Second, Petitioner claims
14 counsel should have attempted to suppress the interrogation as the statements were made while 15 she was under the influence of methamphetamine and experiencing delusional thoughts, erratic
16 speech patterns and sporadic loss of consciousness. Id. Petitioner's first claim is belied by 17 counsel's arguments in the Pretrial Writ. Counsel argued that the charges against Petitioner
18 should be dismissed because the State should have, and failed to, admit Petitioner's
19 interrogation to the Grand Jury to highlight the inconsistencies in Detective McCarthy's
20 statement. Pretrial Writ, at 7-12. As counsel has no control over what evidence the State
21 presents to a Grand Jury save for a pretrial writ, counsel did all they could and cannot be
22 deemed ineffective. Second, Petitioner's claim that counsel should have moved to suppress
23 her statements is meritless because Petitioner pled guilty in lieu of trial. When Petitioner pled
24 guilty, any question of her state of mind during the police interrogation became irrelevant as 25 there was no longer a trial where her statement could or could not be admitted. Moreover,
26 Petitioner does not establish that counsel could have successfully suppressed her statement.
27 Counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for failing to make a futile motion. Ennis, 122 Nev. at 28 706, 137 P.3d at 1103. Finally, Petitioner does not explain that had counsel attempted to

1 suppress her statement, she would have insisted on proceeding to trial. Therefore, Petitioner's
2 claim fails.

3 B. Petitioner's claims in Ground 2 fail.

4 The crux of Petitioner's claims in Ground 2 revolve around the speed with which
5 defense counsel provided copies of her discovery post-sentence. Petitioner claims that counsel
6 ignored Court orders to send Petitioner her discovery in a timely fashion. Petition at 4.
7 Petitioner then claims that even when she received her file from counsel, the file did not
8 include a transcript of the plea canvass and did not include emails between counsel and the 9 state regarding negotiations. Id. at 7.

10 As an initial matter, counsel's actions after she was sentenced and transported to prison
11 had absolutely no bearing on the validity of her plea. Therefore, there is no way Petitioner can 12 demonstrate that counsel's actions impacted her decision to plead guilty and her claim is 13 dismissed.

14 Further, Petitioner cannot show prejudice. The court allowed Petitioner to file the 15 instant Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus over two and a half years after the Judgment of 16 Conviction was filed because Petitioner continued to inform the Court she did not have all of 17 the information necessary to file a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Moreover, Petitioner
18 has not established that any email communication between the State and counsel regarding 19 negotiations exists. Counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for failing to provide nonexistent
20 information. Finally, counsel did not provide a copy of the transcript of Petitioner's plea
21 canvass because that transcript was not prepared until the State requested the Court prepare it
22 after Petitioner filed her Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). Order for 23 Transcript, filed on March 11, 2020. Therefore, Petitioner's claim in Ground 2 should fail.

24 Petitioner also appears to claim in Ground 2 that she was sentenced on incorrect
25 information. Petition at 7. Such a claim is nothing more than a bare and naked claim
26 unsupported by specific facts in the record. Petitioner does not point to specific facts that she
27 alleges to be incorrect. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. To the extent Petitioner
28 claims the Court incorrectly sentenced her on the Deadly Weapon enhancement, as explained

1 above, because Petitioner pled guilty to Murder with use of a Deadly Weapon (First Degree),
2 she admitted to using a deadly weapon. As such, the Court did not err in considering that fact
3 when sentencing her and counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for not making a futile
4 objection. Ennis, 122 Nev. at 706, 137 P.3d at 1103.

5 C. Petitioner's plea was knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily made.

6 Petitioner appears to claim that counsel was ineffective in advising her to accept the 7 State's plea deal of a stipulated aggregate sentence of thirty-five (35) years to life. Petition at 8 3. Petitioner claims counsel did not elaborate on the terms outlined in the Guilty Plea
9 Agreement and led her to believe it was in her best interest to plead guilty and file an appeal
10 after. Petition at 6. Petitioner further claims that counsel did not warn her that by pleading
11 guilty, she would be waiving her right to file a direct appeal. Petition at 6. Petitioner's claim
12 is belied by the record.

13 To establish a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel for advice regarding a guilty
14 plea, a defendant must show "gross error on the part of counsel." Turner v. Calderon, 281 F.3d
15 851, 880 (9th Cir. 2002). It is true that defendant is entitled to effective assistance of counsel
16 in the plea-bargaining process and in determining whether to accept or reject a plea offer.
17 Lafler v. Cooper, 566 U.S. 156, 163, 132 S. Ct. 1376, 1384 (2012); see also McMann v.
18 Richardson, 397 U.S. 759, 771, 90 S. Ct. 1441 (1970) (the Constitution guarantees effective
19 counsel when accepting guilty plea). In considering the defendant's "right to make a 20 reasonably informed decision whether to accept a plea offer," importantly, the question is not 21 whether, "counsel's advice [was] right or wrong, but . . . whether that advice was within the 22 range of competence demanded of attorneys in criminal cases." Id. (quoting United States v.
23 Day, 969 F.2d 39, 43 (3rd Cir. 1992), and McMann, 397 U.S. 771, 90 S. Ct. at 1449.

24 Petitioner's claim that counsel was ineffective when advising her to accept the plea deal
25 was is nothing more than a bare and naked claim. Petitioner offers no specific facts indicating 26 that counsel's advice to plead guilty was unreasonable. Petitioner was charged with eight (8)
27 serious felony counts, including Murder with use of a Deadly Weapon, and First-Degree
28 Kidnapping, both of which carried potential sentences of life without the possibility of parole.

1 Had Petitioner proceeded to trial, and had Petitioner been convicted of only those two (2)
2 counts, she could have been sentenced to two (2) consecutive life sentences. As such, counsel
3 was very reasonable in recommending that Petitioner accept the State's offer to stipulate to an
4 aggregate sentence of thirty-five (35) years to life. Moreover, it was Petitioner's decision of 5 whether to plead guilty and counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for offering candid advice.

6 Further, Petitioner's claim that counsel did not spend time reviewing the GPA with her
7 or that counsel forced her to plead guilty is belied by the record. First, in signing the GPA,
8 Petitioner acknowledged that she knew and understood she was waiving the right to file a
9 direct appeal. Guilty Plea Agreement at 5. The Court confirmed that she understood that 10 waiver during the plea canvass. Plea Canvass at 6. During the plea canvass, Petitioner further
11 confirmed that she had been discussing and reviewing the GPA with counsel for nine (9)
12 months and that counsel had reviewed the entire GPA with her:

13 MS. CRAIG: Your Honor, if I could, she and I had been talking about this 14 negotiation since January.

15 THE COURT: Right.

16 MS. CRAIG: So we've had very long term discussions over the last --

17 THE COURT: Well, I notice that --

18 MS. CRAIG: -- nine months or so.

19 THE COURT: -- the plea agreement was originally dated in June --

20 MS. CRAIG: That's correct.

21 THE COURT: -- so obviously this particular offer has been outstanding
22 for some period of time.

23 MS. CRAIG: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Is that correct, Ms. Jackson?

25 MS. CRAIG: Yes, that's accurate.

26 THE COURT: Okay. So you did have a chance to read the plea
27 agreement before you signed it?

28 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And was your attorney available to answer any questions you had before you signed it?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And do you believe you understood everything in it?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Did you all discuss the six constitutional rights listed on pages 4 and 5 that you waive and give up by entering a plea?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes -- okay. Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Do you remember what I'm talking about in there?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Mm-hmm.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And you're comfortable that you understand
4 those?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir

6 Recorder's Transcript of Hearing Re: Murder Team Assignment ("Plea Canvass"), at 6-7
7 (emphasis added).

8 Therefore, the record is clear that Petitioner understood the consequences outlined in 9 the GPA, which belies her claim that counsel did not review the entirety of the GPA or that 10 she did not understand what rights she was waiving by pleading guilty. Id. at 5-6. Finally,
11 Petitioner confirmed that her attorney reviewed the agreement with her and answered all of 12 her questions. Id. at 6. As such, Petitioner knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily pled guilty,
13 and Petitioner has failed to demonstrate otherwise.

14 II. PETITIONER IS NOT ENTITLED TO POST-CONVICTION COUNSEL

16 conviction proceedings. Coleman v. Thompson, 501 U.S. 722, 752, 111 S. Ct. 2546, 2566
17 (1991). In McKague v. Warden, 112 Nev. 159, 163, 912 P.2d 255, 258 (1996), the Nevada
18 Supreme Court specifically held that with the exception of NRS 34.820(1)(a) (entitling 19 appointed counsel when petitioner is under a sentence of death), one does not have "any 20 constitutional or statutory right to counsel at all" in post-conviction proceedings. Id. at 164,
21 912 P.2d at 258.

22 Although NRS 34.750 gives courts the discretion to appoint post-conviction counsel,
23 that discretion should be used only to the extent "the court is satisfied that the allegation of 24 indigency is true and the petition is not dismissed summarily." NRS 34.750. NRS 34.750
25 further requires courts to "consider whether: (a) the issues are difficult; (b) the Defendant is 26 unable to comprehend the proceedings; or (c) counsel is necessary to proceed with discovery."
27 Id.

28 Here, Petitioner is not entitled to counsel. First, her claims are either waived or belied by the record. Moreover, Petitioner's claims are not complex, and no additional discovery is needed. As such, Petitioner's Motion for Appointment of Counsel is denied.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Petition for Post-Conviction Relief
(Dated this 4th day of March, 2021)
and Motion for Appointment of Counsel shall be, and it is, hereby denied.

- Lorna Wojciechowski, Grand Jury Foreperson, stated to the Court that at least twelve members had concurred in the return of the true bill during deliberation, but had been excused for presentation to the Court. State presented Grand Jury Case Number 13BGJ137X to the Court. COURT ORDERED, the Indictment may be filed and is assigned Case Number C-14-300032-1; Department 10. Ms. Weckerly requested a warrant and argued bail. Opposition by Mr. Silverstein. COURT ORDERED, NO BAIL WARRANT WILL ISSUE; Exhibit(s) 1-9 lodged with the Clerk of District Court. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Justice Court case 14F12024X DISMISSED; matter SET for Arraignment.

Mr. Silverstein requested to file a Motion to Preserve Evidence in open Court. Ms. Weckerly objected, noting that the State wishes to file any response to Defendant's Motion in writing; further, she has notified law enforcement not to destroy any evidence until further notice. COURT SO NOTED, and DIRECTED counsel to file any Motions in the assigned District Court Department for a decision.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Mr. Silverstein advised the case is in the Nevada Supreme Court, and briefing was ordered on the issue. Further, counsel requested a trial continuance as he just received the police report, last week. Further, counsel isn't sure if this court has jurisdiction, as the Supreme Court has the case now. Upon Court's inquiry, as to outstanding discovery issues, counsel advised he doesn't believe the state is withholding anything, it's just been a slow process to get the information from the police dept. Ms. Fleck stated no opposition. COURT ORDERED, trial date VACATED and RE-SET.
