1 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 The instant Motion concedes, as it must, that the MARGAUX ORNELAS, aka,
3 Margaux Shannon Ornelas did not qualify for release conditions that require a residence. At 4 the time of the numerous criminal charges MARGAUX ORNELAS, aka, Margaux Shannon
5 Ornelas, along with her co-defendant, DUSTIN LEWIS were living in a tent trespassing on 6 private property next to the storage units that were ultimately burglarized by MARGAUX
7 ORNELAS, aka, Margaux Shannon Ornelas and DUSTIN LEWIS. Counsel claims, without 8 any factual discussion of the underlying facts, that based upon this Court's granting of the 9 recently heard motion to suppress, that "the strength of evidence against the defendant as well 10 as the likelihood of conviction at trial" is somehow qualitatively changed.

11 MARGAUX ORNELAS, aka, Margaux Shannon Ornelas is seen on security video,
12 along with DUSTIN LEWIS stealing the items from the storage unit property. The State
13 disputes that the prints from DUSTIN LEWIS that were found on the subject storage units are 14 properly within the scope of this Court's ruling regarding the suppression of the evidence.
15 There are numerous photos/videos of MARGAUX ORNELAS, aka, Margaux Shannon
16 Ornelas and DUSTIN LEWIS pawning and attempting to pawn stolen items from the storage 17 units.

18 There is a viable and solid criminal case against both DUSTIN LEWIS and 19 MARGAUX ORNELAS, aka, Margaux Shannon Ornelas that exists even after this Court's 20 recent ruling. As such the instant Motion should be denied.

21 DATED this 9th day of April, 2021.

22 Respectfully submitted,

23 STEVEN B. WOLFSON

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14, 2021 AT 8:51 A.M.

THE COURT: Page number 7, State of Nevada versus Dustin Lewis, case number C-19-340051-1 and page number 8, State of Nevada versus Margaux Ornelas, case number C-19-340051-2. Mr. Almase present on behalf of Mr. Lewis via BlueJeans, Mr. Lewis is present via BlueJeans, Mr. Troiano is present via BlueJeans for Ms. Ornelas who is also present via BlueJeans, and Mr. Stanton for the State. I've read all of the motions.

Mr. Almase, I've read the previous motion and the minutes from the previous hearings as well on your matter.

And I've read all of the motions for Mr. Troiano's client. I read the motion for the OR with ISU, the opposition, and the reply to the opposition. Does anybody have anything they'd like to add?

MR. ALMASE: No, Judge, I would like to note, though, as of yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, there had been no opposition filed to my motion.

THE COURT: Right, I saw that. I looked at it at. I had it at 4:14 p.m.

MR. ALMASE: Thank you.

THE COURT: Okay?

MR. STANTON: And, Judge, I had this calendared for Mr. Lewis on the 21st for the hearing on this motion. I did have Ms. Ornelas' hearing date actually Monday and I filed an opposition to

1 that. It is the same, in some sort, response to Mr. Lewis'. Obviously,
2 the vast majority of Mr. Lewis' motion deals with a COVID issue. I'm 3 here only to add any perspective and specific facts to the Court about 4 the claims made by -- in the Ornelas motion and also obliquely in the 5 Lewis motion that somehow this Court's ruling of last week would affect 6 the State's ability to present this case to a jury trial.

7 THE COURT: Okay. So, as to Ms. Ornelas, I understood
8 your motion about -- I mean, your stance is there's still a lot of evidence, 9 including the surveillance videos and the stills; however, I do think that 10 there's going to be a lot of issues presenting this to a jury with what 11 you've got left, especially considering that the police officers were 12 looking to other people who fit the description at the time.

13 So, I am inclined to grant the motion, Mr. Troiano's motion for 14 the own recognizance release with intensive supervision. So,
15 Ms. Ornelas is going to be released with intensive supervision.

16 As to Mr. Lewis, he's not necessarily in the same position as 17 Ms. Ornelas because of the -- because he came back for the violations
18 on the house arrest when he was released previously, Mr. Almase.
19 The -- so, you talked about the fact that, you know, the conviction may 20 be less likely and things of that nature, but one of the factors in NRS 21 178.4853 is the likelihood of more criminal activity by the person after 22 release. And the issue is, I mean, I understand that everything that he 23 was, you know, brought back on house arrest for was nonviolent and,
24 you know, drug-related issues, but it's still additional, you know,
25 potentially criminal activity. So, Mr. Almase, go ahead and address that.

1 MR. ALMASE: Well, Judge, as the Court's aware, those were
2 deemed violations, but no new charges were filed against him. And I
3 think what they found there, what they determined in one instance to be 4 a weapon, a single bullet, shouldn't qualify and shouldn't --

5 THE COURT: But you were discounting all of the six knives
6 that they also mentioned.

7 MR. ALMASE: I'm sorry?

8 THE COURT: You're discounting the six knives that they also 9 mention and the fact of the locked room that they couldn't get into.

10 MR. ALMASE: That is troubling, Judge, but the six knives,
11 there was no description of them.

12 THE COURT: That's true.

13 MR. ALMASE: I looked through and there's nothing to say
14 that those were steak knives or ordinary kitchen knives or had any kind 15 of special thing about them. They just noted -- the officer noted that 16 there were knives present. Well, I have knives in my home and I
17 assume the Court does as well. I don't know why that would be such an 18 issue. Now, his drug use certainly --

19 THE COURT: Just so -- just for your record, I don't cook
20 anything, so no, there are no knives in my house, but that's neither here
21 nor there. Most normal people who actually use a kitchen --

22 MR. ALMASE: Yes.

23 THE COURT: -- have knives.

24 MR. ALMASE: Yes, Judge. I think certainly there -- his 25 admittance to drug use is --

1 THE COURT: Mm-hmm.

2 MR. ALMASE: -- cause for concern, but that's -- can certainly
3 be remedied.

4 THE COURT: Mm-hmm.

5 MR. ALMASE: And I would submit that given this case and 6 the current posture and my conversations with Mr. Lewis, he certainly 7 understands what's at stake and what's going to be expected of him if 8 he --

9 THE COURT: Mm-hmm.

10 MR. ALMASE: -- is released, if he's given this opportunity by 11 this Court to prove himself. And that's really what this case is about. He 12 wants to prove himself. He's stood firm on what he's believed in this 13 case. And it was unfortunate that he ran into some trouble when he was 14 released --

15 THE COURT: Mm-hmm.

16 MR. ALMASE: -- but he's in a different position now.

17 Certainly with the status of the case and the issues that we 18 have and the fact that this is certainly -- this is going up on appeal, it's 19 going to take some time before this whole process unwinds, I would ask 20 the Court to give him this opportunity, Judge. And I think he 21 understands that -- what's at stake and he's going to be well-behaved 22 while out.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Stanton, I know that you hadn't had 24 an opportunity to reply, so go ahead and reply orally.

25 MR. STANTON: Well, because, Judge, look, the exact same

1 circumstance occurred when he was released before. He was on a
2 rather high bail because, as this Court has reviewed, a number of the 3 watches that were stolen have still not been recovered and it is -- that 4 dovetails to the point about what this case remains after the court ruling.
5 And put aside the issue of the appeal for a moment. Both Defendants 6 are identified visually on very clear digital surveillance video inside the 7 storage unit along with the items that are specifically delineated by the 8 victims seen being carried by both victims in that videotape to include
9 the wheelchair that was discovered close to the Defendants' tent that 10 now this Court is certainly familiar with in the pretrial litigation in the 11 motions of last week.

12 In addition, after this, the -- there is numerous video and still 13 photos and testimony supporting and identifying both Defendants as 14 attempting to and successfully pawning the stolen property from these 15 storage units.

16 So, when -- I'm at a loss really to understand that the Court's 17 ruling affects bail as it relates to this Defendant, frankly, both, but 18 certainly this Defendant, when the exact same argument what -- that 19 Mr. Almase made, you could have cut and pasted that when he was 20 granted his previous release after the State requested a very high bail in 21 attempts to further their recovery of the outstanding watches that still to 22 this day are outstanding. And we'd ask that you deny it as to Mr. Lewis.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Almase, why should I be comfortable
24 granting him an OR release when we know that he was unsuccessful
25 when he had house arrest, we know that there are still outstanding

1 watches which could make him a flight risk? I just -- frankly, I just 2 don't --

3 MR. ALMASE: Well, as to --

4 THE COURT: -- find that he's in the same position as 5 Ms. Ornelas because she hasn't been released with problems.

6 MR. ALMASE: Judge, with regard to the watches, I would 7 note that Judge Miley reduced his bail and this was --

8 THE COURT: Right.

9 MR. ALMASE: -- Mr. Stanton's argument last time --

10 THE COURT: Mm-hmm.

11 MR. ALMASE: -- that he's a flight risk, he's going to -- he's 12 got all this access to millions of dollars because of the watches. Well, 13 that simply isn't true. Ten thousand dollars -- it was reduced to 14 $10,000.00; it was posted by his family, the bond.

15 THE COURT: Mm-hmm.

16 MR. ALMASE: And he stayed here in Clark County.

17 THE COURT: Mm-hmm.

18 MR. ALMASE: And he's going to return to the same
19 apartment that he had been at where they were able to find him. He 20 understands what's at stake.

21 And what's changed here is the likelihood of his conviction.
22 And as much as Mr. Stanton would like to protest, it -- it's simply the law 23 of this case that the identity -- the issue of identity with a suppression is 24 very much in question or perhaps not even able to be proven before a 25 jury. That remains to be seen.

1 Again, my client understands what's at stake. He knows he 2 made a mistake last time. And I feel he can be trusted with an OR with 3 low-level or mid-level electronic monitoring. He's going back to the 4 same apartment where he was before, they're familiar with it, if he 5 qualified for house arrest before. On all of this I would submit, Judge.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Because there is the issue of the 7 identity being able to be established, because there is the outbreak of 8 COVID that is currently happening in the jail where we've had a number
9 of people on quarantine and I know that there are probably, I think, four 10 units on quarantine right now, I am going to release him with mid-level 11 electronic monitoring. The bail will remain the same. I think it was 12 already posted and remains in it. So, he can be --

13 MR. ALMASE: Yes.

14 THE COURT: -- released as -- with mid-level electronic 15 monitoring.

16 And I think Mr. Troiano had something else he wanted to add.

17 MR. TROIANO: Your Honor, can you hear me?

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 MR. TROIANO: Just two things. One, I just wanted to pass
20 on to Ms. Ornelas, she's been in custody for 27 months, please contact 21 me as soon as you get out. It's vitally important you get ahold of me;
22 otherwise, you're going to be right back into custody. Do you hear that,
23 Margaux?

24 DEFENDANT ORNELAS: Yes.

25 MR. TROIANO: Okay.

1 And then secondly, for Your Honor, just briefly, I know you
2 read my reply and the State mentioned again today in their arguments
3 these photos, videos, I've been on the case since January, 2019, have 4 yet to receive any of them. If the Court could just please order the State
5 produce those in a timely fashion, I would appreciate that.

6 THE COURT: We do --

7 MR. ALMASE: And I would join in Mr. Troiano's request.

8 THE COURT: We do have a jury trial currently scheduled for 9 May 24th. I understand that that might not be going, but I would still 10 order the State to disclose the video and stills that they've got that 11 they've made reference to in the opposition to the OR motion.

12 MR. ALMASE: Thank you, Judge.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.
