CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY STAY

This is an appeal from a district court order denying a motion to compel arbitration. Appellant has filed an emergency motion to stay the ongoing district court proceedings pending appeal. Respondent has filed a notice of intent to oppose the motion and attempted to file an opposition, but the opposition was rejected as it exceeded the applicable page limit. See NRAP 27(d)(2).

Citing Mikohn Gaming Corp. v. McCrea, 120 Nev. 248, 251, 89 P.3d 36, 38 (2004), appellant argues that the object of the appeal will be defeated without a stay and points to today's responsive deadline in district court as an example. To preserve the status quo until the respondent files its opposition and the motion for stay is decided, we grant a temporary stay pending further order of this court. Additionally, we direct respondent to file an opposition in compliance with NRAP 27 on or before June 15, 2021.

It is so ORDERED.
