ORDER AFTER SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

HEARING: ORDER GRANTING MOTION

TO RELOCATE WITH MINOR CHILD

22 The parties appeared before the Court on September 15, 2020, for a hearing on 23 Defendant, Amanda Kaitlyn Hogan's ("Mother") Motion to Relocate, filed June 8, 2020.
24 Plaintiff, Anthony Jacob Monahan ("Father"), was present and represented by counsel, 25 Aaron Bushur, Esq. Defendant, Amanda Hogan, was present and represented by counsel, 26 Roderic A. Carucci, Esq. of Carucci and Associates. The Court, having heard argument
27 and testimony of the parties, having considered the pleadings and papers on file herein, 28 and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds and orders as follows:

- 1 1. The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter.
- 2 2. Nevada is the home state and habitual residence of the minor child.
- 3 3. The parties have one minor child the issue of their relationship: Malakai
- 4 Jaco Monahan, born July 18, 2012.
- 5 4. The Court's most recent custodial order was entered on November 20, 2019.
- 6 The parties share joint legal custody of the minor child. Mother has primary physical
- 7 custody of the minor child, subject to Father's custodial time.
- 8 Father presently exercises custody of Malakai for 10 continuous days each month
- 9 beginning on the first Friday of each month at approximately 5:00 p.m. and ending on the
- 10 second Monday morning thereafter, when school commences, or at approximately 5:00
- 11 p.m., if school is not in session.
- 12 5. Mother has been married to Brandon Hogan since August 28, 2018. Mr.
- 13 Hogan is a Lieutenant with the United States Navy on active duty. Mr. Hogan is
- 14 presently serving as a Top Gun flight instructor at the Fallon Naval Air Station. Mother
- 15 and Mr. Hogan reside in Fallon, Nevada, and Father resides in Yerington, Nevada.
- 16 6. Mother moved the Court for permission to relocate with the minor child
- 17 pursuant to NRS 125C.006 from Fallon, Nevada to Virginia Beach, Virginia on June 8,
- 18 2020. In her motion, Mother requested permission to relocate based upon Mr. Hogan's
- 19 reassignment to the United States Naval Base at Virginia Beach, Virginia beginning in
- 20 September, 2020.
- 21 7. Father filed an opposition to the motion on July 13, 2020, objecting to the
- 22 request to relocate.
- 23 8. The parties appeared for an evidentiary hearing on Mother's motion to
- 24 relocate on September 15, 2020. At that time, the Court received evidence and heard
- 25 testimony from the parties.
- 26 9. NRS 125C.007 provides statutory guidance to the Court regarding the factors
- 27 which must be considered in granting a petition to relocate. Having considered the factors
- 28 set forth in NRS 125C.007, the Court makes the following findings:

1 (1). In every instance of a petition for permission to relocate with a child
2 that is filed pursuant to NRS 125C.006 or 125C.0065, the relocating parent must demonstrate to the court that:

3 (a) There exists a sensible, good-faith reason for the move, and the 4 move is not intended to deprive the non-relocating parent of his or her parenting time;

5 The Court finds Mother has demonstrated a good-faith basis for 6 her request to relocate with the minor child. Mother's request is not 7 intended to deprive Father of his parenting time. Mother's Husband
8 is active duty military and has been reassigned to Virginia Beach, 9 Virginia.

10 (b) The best interests of the child are served by allowing the 11 relocating parent to relocate with the child; and

12 The Court finds it is in the minor child's best interest to 13 relocate with Mother to Virginia. The Court previously considered the 14 best interest factors in its' November 20, 2019 Order which granted
15 Mother primary physical custody of the minor child, and the relocation
16 does not modify any prior best interest factor findings. Mother's future 17 move based upon her Husband's reassignment was contemplated at the time of the last custodial order.

18 (c) The child and the relocating parent will benefit from an actual 19 advantage as a result of the relocation.

20 The relocation will provide an improvement in the overall
21 quality of life for both the minor child and Mother. Mother testified 22 she researched the schools in Virginia and that the academic perfor-
23 mance is greater than the child's current school. The child will benefit 24 from greater educational opportunities in Virginia including access to 25 outside tutoring and other educational resources which are not readily 26 available to the child in Fallon. As Virginia Beach is a much larger 27 city, the child will also benefit from greater opportunities and 28 activities. Additionally, Mr. Hogan indicated he will receive a

1 promotion to the rank of Lieutenant Commander after the relocation
2 which will provide better economic opportunities for the minor child
3 and Mother. This increase in income will allow Mother the opportu-
4 nity to stay home with the minor child, and the child's half sibling. If 5 Mother is not permitted to relocate, her household will incur addi-
6 tional expenses for maintaining two households which is a disadvan-
7 tage to the child.

8 (2). If a relocating parent demonstrates to the court the provisions set forth 9 in subsection 1, the court must then weigh the following factors and the 10 impact of each on the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating
11 parent, including, without limitation, the extent to which the compelling 12 interests of the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent are 13 accommodated:

14 (a) The extent to which the relocation is likely to improve the 15 quality of life for the child and the relocating parent;

16 The relocation will improve the quality of life for both the minor 17 child and Mother. They will have better living accommodations, a 18 higher household income with Mr. Hogan's promotion and more 19 financial stability, educational advantages, and advantages associated 20 with residing in a much larger city.

21 (b) Whether the motives of the relocating parent are honorable and 22 not designed to frustrate or defeat any visitation rights accorded to 23 the non-relocating parent;

24 The Court finds Mother's request to relocate is honorable and 25 not designed to frustrate or defeat Father's visitation. Mother's 26 husband is active duty military and has been reassigned to duty in 27 another state. Mother's Husband's reassignment and the child's 28 possible relocation was contemplated at the last hearing.

(c) Whether the relocating parent will comply with any substitute visitation orders issued by the court if permission to relocate is granted;

There is no evidence that Mother would not comply with supplemental orders regarding custody.

1 (d) Whether the motives of the non-relocating parent are honorable
2 in resisting the petition for permission to relocate or to what extent 3 any opposition to the petition for permission to relocate is intended to 4 secure a financial advantage in the form of ongoing support obligations or otherwise;

5 Father's motives in contesting the relocation are honorable and 6 the objection was filed in good faith. Father indicates he wishes to 7 maintain a relationship with the minor child.

8 (e) Whether there will be a realistic opportunity for the non-relo-
9 cating parent to maintain a visitation schedule that will adequately 10 foster and preserve the parental relationship between the child and 11 the non-relocating parent if permission to relocate is granted; and

12 While the relocation will have an impact upon Father's 13 relationship with the minor child, there are opportunities which will 14 allow Father to continue to maintain a relationship with the minor 15 child despite the relocation.

16 (f) Any other factor necessary to assist the court in determining 17 whether to grant permission to relocate.

18 This factor is not applicable.

19 10. After considering the evidence presented and the testimony of the parties,
20 and having weighed the above factors, the Court finds that Mother has met the threshold
21 requirements to grant the request to relocate with the minor child to the State of Virginia.
22 Relocation is in the minor child's best interest. Mother may relocate with the minor child 23 immediately.

24 11. Father shall have custodial time with the minor child during the child's 25 school breaks based upon the school calendar in the district in which the child will be 26 attending school.

27 A. Father shall have custody of the minor child the majority of the child's 28 summer break. Father's custodial time shall begin one week after the school year ends for the summer and shall end one week before the new school year begins.

B. The parties shall equally share the child's Christmas Break from school. In even numbered years, Father shall have the child for the second half of the break

1 (including the Christmas holiday), and Mother shall have the child for the first half of the 2 break. In odd numbered years, Mother shall have the child for the second half of the break
3 (including the Christmas holiday), and Father shall have the child for the first half of the 4 break. Mother shall have Thanksgiving break in each year except 2020, when Father
5 shall have the child from Wednesday before Thanksgiving, return on the following 6 Sunday.

7 C. Father shall have custody of the minor child during the child's Spring Break 8 each year.

9 D. Should Father choose to travel to Virginia Beach, Virginia where the minor 10 child is residing, he shall be entitled to additional custodial time. Father shall provide at 11 least 60 days advance notice of his intent to visit with the child in Virginia Beach. Notice
12 shall be in writing. If Father travels to Virginia during a week day, the visit shall begin 13 after school and end at 8:00 p.m. the same day. If Father travels to Virginia over the 14 weekend, the visit shall begin at 8:00 a.m. and end at 10:00 p.m. the same day.

15 E. Father shall be solely responsible for the costs of air travel for the child for 16 each visit. Father shall provide proof of purchase of plane tickets to Mother at least 30
17 days in advance of each visit or that visit will be forfeited. Father shall receive a 18 downward deviation on his monthly child support obligation for the cost of travel. The 19 Court will issue a separate order regarding child support which will address deviations 20 for cost of travel.

21 F. The parties may modify the custodial schedule by mutual agreement in 22 writing.

23 G. The non-custodial parent shall be entitled to communicate with the minor 24 child telephonically during the child's reasonable waking hours. Mother shall provide a 25 cell phone at her expense for the minor child on which Father may contact the child. The 26 phone shall also be made available to the child at all times during Father's custodial time
27 so that Mother may contact the child. The minor child shall be permitted to contact either 28 parent at any time. Telephonic communication shall not be monitored by either parent

1 at any time.

2 H. Neither party shall disparage the other in the presence of the child, or allow 3 third parties to disparage the other parent in the presence of the child.

4 12. The parties shall continue to share joint legal custody of the minor child in 5 accordance with the prior order of this Court.

6 13. As Mother's husband is on active duty with the military and it is likely he 7 will be reassigned in the next few years, the parties expressly agreed on the record that 8 Mother may relocate with the minor child to any other location in the United States based 9 upon the reassignment. Mother shall provide Father with the appropriate advance notice, 10 but she is not required to obtain Father's permission before relocating. Should Father 11 object to the relocation, he may file a motion with the Court. Relocation outside of the 12 United States shall require either Father's written permission or permission from the 13 Court before relocation occurs. The parties stipulate that this Court shall retain exclusive 14 continuing jurisdiction over the minor child pursuant to the UCCJEA provided that 15 Father remains a resident of the State of Nevada.

16 14. Mother's request for an award of attorney's fees and costs based upon 17 allegations that Father wrongfully withheld consent to the relocation is denied. Each 18 party shall be responsible for their own attorney's fees and costs.

19 15. PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEAL-20 MENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISH-
21 ABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359
22 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent
23 having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child 24 from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of 25 the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction 26 of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to 27 custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in 28 NRS 193.130.

16. The parties are hereby put on notice that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully detains a child in a foreign country.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 2nd day of October, 2020.

Case Summary

with Defendant

Notes: Plaintiff's Exhibits 1 through 9 were premarked. Defendant's Exhibit A was premarked. Mr. Carucci requested the hearing be closed. Ms. Schumann advised there is no stipulation as to closing the hearing. Court denied request. Mr. Carucci requested the court to invoke the rule of exclusion. So ordered. Amanda Hogan fka King, Anthony Monahan, Michael Monahan, Samantha Morrison, were sworn. Michael Monahan and Samantha Morrison left the courtroom. Counsel addressed their concerns with the domestic violence issue. Court finds there was no domestic violence and there is no presumption under NRS 125C.0035. Amanda Hogan fka King testified. Defendant's Exhibit A was offered and admitted. Brandon Hogan was sworn and testified. Anthony Jacob Monahan testified. Plaintiff's Exhibit 3 was offered. Mr. Carucci objected to the admission of Plaintiff's Exhibit 3. Plaintiff's Exhibit 3 was not admitted. Plaintiff's Exhibit 4 was offered. Mr. Carucci objected to the admission of Plaintiff's Exhibit 4. Court overruled objection, Plaintiff's Exhibit 4 was admitted. Plaintiff's Exhibit 10 was marked and offered. Mr. Carucci objected to the admission of Plaintiff's Exhibit 10 based upon previous order. Court overruled objection, Plaintiff's Exhibit 10 was admitted. Plaintiff's Exhibits 5-9 were offered and admitted. Samantha Morrison testified. Plaintiff's Exhibit 11 was marked, offered and admitted. Defendant's Exhibit B was marked, offered and admitted. Amanda Hogan fka King testified as a rebuttal witness. Anthony Jacob Monahan testified as a rebuttal witness. Court heard closing argument from Mr. Carucci and Ms. Schumann. Court took matter under submission. Court requested additional briefing from counsel. Briefs are to include the analysis of de facto change of custody and when it can be considered and also how to apply the relocation under NRS 125C.006 and NRS 125C.0065. No objection to blind briefs. Court ordered blind briefs be filed with the Clerk of the Court on or before January 23, 2019. Briefs are to be served upon opposing counsel. Court advised the parties, if the court grants the relocation the child will finish out the 2018-2019 school year in Yerington Elementary School. Ms. Schumann is to discuss Child Support matters with the Plaintiff. Ms. Schumann advised the court a Financial Disclosure will be filed. Court will determine Child Support after ruling on custody and relocation. Court ordered the parties maintain status quo pending the Order. Plaintiff is to have visitation for ten (10) days per month. Plaintiff is to have the child January 4, 2019 through January 11, 2019 and January 25, 2019 through January 27, 2019. Mr. Carucci requested the custodial parent pick up the child for visitation. Ms. Schumann objected. Counsel argued transportation. Court ordered the parent who's visitation is ending is to drop off the child. Court directed counsel to exchange proposed 20-10 schedules and a week on/week off schedule, if parties cannot agree to a schedule, proposed schedules are to be submitted to the court and the Court will choose a schedule.

After the hearing court directed the Clerk to return Plaintiff's Exhibit 11 once a final decision is rendered.

Notes: Counsel questioned New Year's Visitation. Ms. Schumann advised the court the previous court order awarded the Plaintiff visitation on New Years. Counsel argued the New Year's Visitation. Court ordered the defendant have visitation on New Year's, with make up visitation next year for plaintiff. Counsel argued the right of first refusal. Mr. Carucci advised the court the previously ordered briefs court be filed early. Court directed counsel to speak with their clients and if they agree, the briefs could be filed early. Court determined due to the distance between the parties Right of First Refusal does not make sense. Court directed counsel to include a proposed primary visitation schedule in the briefs.

ORDER AFTER SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

HEARING; ORDER GRANTING MOTION

21 The parties appeared before the Court on September 15, 2020, for a hearing on 22 Defendant, Amanda Kaitlyn Hogan's ("Mother") Motion to Relocate, filed June 8, 2020.
23 Plaintiff, Anthony Jacob Monahan ("Father"), was present and represented by counsel, 24 Aaron Bushur, Esq. Defendant, Amanda Hogan, was present and represented by counsel, 25 Roderic A. Carucci, Esq. of Carucci and Associates. The Court, having heard argument
26 and testimony of the parties, having considered the pleadings and papers on file herein, 27 and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds and orders as follows:
28

1 1. The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter.

2 2. Nevada is the home state and habitual residence of the minor child.

3 3. The parties have one minor child the issue of their relationship: Malakai
4 Jaco Monahan, born July 18, 2012.

5 4. The Court's most recent custodial order was entered on November 20, 2019.
6 The parties share joint legal custody of the minor child. Mother has primary physical 7 custody of the minor child, subject to Father's custodial time.

8 Father presently exercises custody of Malakai for 10 continuous days each month 9 beginning on the first Friday of each month at approximately 5:00 p.m. and ending on the 10 second Monday morning thereafter, when school commences, or at approximately 5:00 11 p.m., if school is not in session.

12 5. Mother has been married to Brandon Hogan since August 28, 2018. Mr.
13 Hogan is a Lieutenant with the United States Navy on active duty. Mr. Hogan is 14 presently serving as a Top Gun flight instructor at the Fallon Naval Air Station. Mother
15 and Mr. Hogan reside in Fallon, Nevada, and Father resides in Yerington, Nevada.

16 6. Mother moved the Court for permission to relocate with the minor child
17 pursuant to NRS 125C.006 from Fallon, Nevada to Virginia Beach, Virginia on June 8,
18 2020. In her motion, Mother requested permission to relocate based upon Mr. Hogan's 19 reassignment to the United States Naval Base at Virginia Beach, Virginia beginning in 20 September, 2020.

21 7. Father filed an opposition to the motion on July 13, 2020, objecting to the 22 request to relocate.

23 8. The parties appeared for an evidentiary hearing on Mother's motion to 24 relocate on September 15, 2020. At that time, the Court received evidence and heard 25 testimony from the parties.

26 9. NRS 125C.007 provides statutory guidance to the Court regarding the factors
27 which must be considered in granting a petition to relocate. Having considered the factors
28 set forth in NRS 125C.007, the Court makes the following findings:

1 (1). In every instance of a petition for permission to relocate with a child
2 that is filed pursuant to NRS 125C.006 or 125C.0065, the relocating parent
must demonstrate to the court that:

3 (a) There exists a sensible, good-faith reason for the move, and the 4 move is not intended to deprive the non-relocating parent of his or her
parenting time;

5 The Court finds Mother has demonstrated a good-faith basis for 6 her request to relocate with the minor child. Mother's request is not 7 intended to deprive Father of his parenting time. Mother's Husband
8 is active duty military and has been reassigned to Virginia Beach, 9 Virginia.

10 (b) The best interests of the child are served by allowing the 11 relocating parent to relocate with the child; and

12 The Court finds it is in the minor child's best interest to 13 relocate with Mother to Virginia. The Court previously considered the 14 best interest factors in its' November 20, 2019 Order which granted
15 Mother primary physical custody of the minor child, and the relocation
16 does not modify any prior best interest factor findings. Mother's future 17 move based upon her Husband's reassignment was contemplated at the time of the last custodial order.

18 (c) The child and the relocating parent will benefit from an actual 19 advantage as a result of the relocation.

20 The relocation will provide an improvement in the overall
21 quality of life for both the minor child and Mother. Mother testified 22 she researched the schools in Virginia and that the academic perfor-
23 mance is greater than the child's current school. The child will benefit 24 from greater educational opportunities in Virginia including access to 25 outside tutoring and other educational resources which are not readily 26 available to the child in Fallon. As Virginia Beach is a much larger 27 city, the child will also benefit from greater opportunities and 28 activities. Additionally, Mr. Hogan indicated he will receive a

1 promotion to the rank of Lieutenant Commander after the relocation
2 which will provide better economic opportunities for the minor child
3 and Mother. This increase in income will allow Mother the opportu-
4 nity to stay home with the minor child, and the child's half sibling. If 5 Mother is not permitted to relocate, her household will incur addi-
6 tional expenses for maintaining two households which is a disadvan-
7 tage to the child.

8 (2). If a relocating parent demonstrates to the court the provisions set forth 9 in subsection 1, the court must then weigh the following factors and the 10 impact of each on the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating
11 parent, including, without limitation, the extent to which the compelling 12 interests of the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent are 13 accommodated:

14 (a) The extent to which the relocation is likely to improve the 15 quality of life for the child and the relocating parent;

16 The relocation will improve the quality of life for both the minor
17 child and Mother. They will have better living accommodations, a 18 higher household income with Mr. Hogan's promotion and more 19 financial stability, educational advantages, and advantages associated 20 with residing in a much larger city.

21 (b) Whether the motives of the relocating parent are honorable and 22 not designed to frustrate or defeat any visitation rights accorded to 23 the non-relocating parent;

24 The Court finds Mother's request to relocate is honorable and 25 not designed to frustrate or defeat Father's visitation. Mother's 26 husband is active duty military and has been reassigned to duty in 27 another state. Mother's Husband's reassignment and the child's 28 possible relocation was contemplated at the last hearing.

(c) Whether the relocating parent will comply with any substitute visitation orders issued by the court if permission to relocate is granted;

There is no evidence that Mother would not comply with supplemental orders regarding custody.

1 (d) Whether the motives of the non-relocating parent are honorable
2 in resisting the petition for permission to relocate or to what extent 3 any opposition to the petition for permission to relocate is intended to 4 secure a financial advantage in the form of ongoing support obliga-5 tions or otherwise;

6 Father's motives in contesting the relocation are honorable and 7 the objection was filed in good faith. Father indicates he wishes to 8 maintain a relationship with the minor child.

9 (e) Whether there will be a realistic opportunity for the non-relo-
10 cating parent to maintain a visitation schedule that will adequately 11 foster and preserve the parental relationship between the child and 12 the non-relocating parent if permission to relocate is granted; and

13 While the relocation will have an impact upon Father's 14 relationship with the minor child, there are opportunities which will 15 allow Father to continue to maintain a relationship with the minor 16 child despite the relocation.

17 (f) Any other factor necessary to assist the court in determining 18 whether to grant permission to relocate.

19 This factor is not applicable.

20 10. After considering the evidence presented and the testimony of the parties,
21 and having weighed the above factors, the Court finds that Mother has met the threshold
22 requirements to grant the request to relocate with the minor child to the State of Virginia.
23 Relocation is in the minor child's best interest. Mother may relocate with the minor child 24 immediately.

25 11. Father shall have custodial time with the minor child during the child's 26 school breaks based upon the school calendar in the district in which the child will be 27 attending school.

28 A. Father shall have custody of the minor child the majority of the child's summer break. Father's custodial time shall begin one week after the school year ends for the summer and shall end one week before the new school year begins.

B. The parties shall equally share the child's Christmas Break from school. In even numbered years, Father shall have the child for the second half of the break

1 (including the Christmas holiday), and Mother shall have the child for the first half of the 2 break. In odd numbered years, Mother shall have the child for the second half of the break
3 (including the Christmas holiday), and Father shall have the child for the first half of the 4 break. Mother shall have Thanksgiving break in each year except 2020, when Father
5 shall have the child from Wednesday before Thanksgiving, return on the following 6 Sunday.

7 C. Father shall have custody of the minor child during the child's Spring Break 8 each year.

9 D. Should Father choose to travel to Virginia Beach, Virginia where the minor 10 child is residing, he shall be entitled to additional custodial time. Father shall provide at 11 least 60 days advance notice of his intent to visit with the child in Virginia Beach. Notice
12 shall be in writing. If Father travels to Virginia during a week day, the visit shall begin 13 after school and end at 8:00 p.m. the same day. If Father travels to Virginia over the 14 weekend, the visit shall begin at 8:00 a.m. and end at 10:00 p.m. the same day.

15 E. Father shall be solely responsible for the costs of air travel for the child for 16 each visit. Father shall provide proof of purchase of plane tickets to Mother at least 30
17 days in advance of each visit or that visit will be forfeited. Father shall receive a 18 downward deviation on his monthly child support obligation for the cost of travel. The 19 Court will issue a separate order regarding child support which will address deviations 20 for cost of travel.

21 F. The parties may modify the custodial schedule by mutual agreement in 22 writing.

23 G. The non-custodial parent shall be entitled to communicate with the minor 24 child telephonically during the child's reasonable waking hours. Mother shall provide a 25 cell phone at her expense for the minor child on which Father may contact the child. The 26 phone shall also be made available to the child at all times during Father's custodial time
27 so that Mother may contact the child. The minor child shall be permitted to contact either
28 parent at any time. Telephonic communication shall not be monitored by either parent

1 at any time.

2 H. Neither party shall disparage the other in the presence of the child, or allow 3 third parties to disparage the other parent in the presence of the child.

4 12. The parties shall continue to share joint legal custody of the minor child in 5 accordance with the prior order of this Court.

6 13. As Mother's husband is on active duty with the military and it is likely he 7 will be reassigned in the next few years, the parties expressly agreed on the record that 8 Mother may relocate with the minor child to any other location in the United States based 9 upon the reassignment. Mother shall provide Father with the appropriate advance notice, 10 but she is not required to obtain Father's permission before relocating. Should Father 11 object to the relocation, he may file a motion with the Court. Relocation outside of the 12 United States shall require either Father's written permission or permission from the 13 Court before relocation occurs. The parties stipulate that this Court shall retain exclusive 14 continuing jurisdiction over the minor child pursuant to the UCCJEA provided that 15 Father remains a resident of the State of Nevada.

16 14. Mother's request for an award of attorney's fees and costs based upon 17 allegations that Father wrongfully withheld consent to the relocation is denied. Each 18 party shall be responsible for their own attorney's fees and costs.

19 15. PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEAL-20 MENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISH-
21 ABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359
22 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent
23 having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child 24 from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of 25 the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction 26 of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to 27 custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in 28 NRS 193.130.

16. The parties are hereby put on notice that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully detains a child in a foreign country.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 2nd day of October, 2020.

ORDER AFTER SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

HEARING; ORDER GRANTING MOTION

The parties appeared before the Court on September 15, 2020, for a hearing on Defendant, Amanda Kaitlyn Hogan's ("Mother") Motion to Relocate, filed June 8, 2020. Plaintiff, Anthony Jacob Monahan ("Father"), was present and represented by counsel, Aaron Bushur, Esq. Defendant, Amanda Hogan, was present and represented by counsel, Roderic A. Carucci, Esq. of Carucci and Associates. The Court, having heard argument and testimony of the parties, having considered the pleadings and papers on file herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds and orders as follows:

1 1. The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter.

2 2. Nevada is the home state and habitual residence of the minor child.

3 3. The parties have one minor child the issue of their relationship: Malakai
4 Jaco Monahan, born July 18, 2012.

5 4. The Court's most recent custodial order was entered on November 20, 2019.
6 The parties share joint legal custody of the minor child. Mother has primary physical 7 custody of the minor child, subject to Father's custodial time.

8 Father presently exercises custody of Malakai for 10 continuous days each month 9 beginning on the first Friday of each month at approximately 5:00 p.m. and ending on the 10 second Monday morning thereafter, when school commences, or at approximately 5:00 11 p.m., if school is not in session.

12 5. Mother has been married to Brandon Hogan since August 28, 2018. Mr.
13 Hogan is a Lieutenant with the United States Navy on active duty. Mr. Hogan is 14 presently serving as a Top Gun flight instructor at the Fallon Naval Air Station. Mother
15 and Mr. Hogan reside in Fallon, Nevada, and Father resides in Yerington, Nevada.

16 6. Mother moved the Court for permission to relocate with the minor child
17 pursuant to NRS 125C.006 from Fallon, Nevada to Virginia Beach, Virginia on June 8,
18 2020. In her motion, Mother requested permission to relocate based upon Mr. Hogan's 19 reassignment to the United States Naval Base at Virginia Beach, Virginia beginning in 20 September, 2020.

21 7. Father filed an opposition to the motion on July 13, 2020, objecting to the 22 request to relocate.

23 8. The parties appeared for an evidentiary hearing on Mother's motion to 24 relocate on September 15, 2020. At that time, the Court received evidence and heard 25 testimony from the parties.

26 9. NRS 125C.007 provides statutory guidance to the Court regarding the factors
27 which must be considered in granting a petition to relocate. Having considered the factors
28 set forth in NRS 125C.007, the Court makes the following findings:

1 (1). In every instance of a petition for permission to relocate with a child
2 that is filed pursuant to NRS 125C.006 or 125C.0065, the relocating parent
must demonstrate to the court that:

3 (a) There exists a sensible, good-faith reason for the move, and the 4 move is not intended to deprive the non-relocating parent of his or her parenting time;

5 The Court finds Mother has demonstrated a good-faith basis for 6 her request to relocate with the minor child. Mother's request is not 7 intended to deprive Father of his parenting time. Mother's Husband
8 is active duty military and has been reassigned to Virginia Beach, 9 Virginia.

10 (b) The best interests of the child are served by allowing the 11 relocating parent to relocate with the child; and

12 The Court finds it is in the minor child's best interest to 13 relocate with Mother to Virginia. The Court previously considered the 14 best interest factors in its' November 20, 2019 Order which granted
15 Mother primary physical custody of the minor child, and the relocation
16 does not modify any prior best interest factor findings. Mother's future 17 move based upon her Husband's reassignment was contemplated at the time of the last custodial order.

18 (c) The child and the relocating parent will benefit from an actual 19 advantage as a result of the relocation.

20 The relocation will provide an improvement in the overall
21 quality of life for both the minor child and Mother. Mother testified 22 she researched the schools in Virginia and that the academic perfor-
23 mance is greater than the child's current school. The child will benefit 24 from greater educational opportunities in Virginia including access to 25 outside tutoring and other educational resources which are not readily 26 available to the child in Fallon. As Virginia Beach is a much larger 27 city, the child will also benefit from greater opportunities and 28 activities. Additionally, Mr. Hogan indicated he will receive a

1 promotion to the rank of Lieutenant Commander after the relocation
2 which will provide better economic opportunities for the minor child
3 and Mother. This increase in income will allow Mother the opportu-
4 nity to stay home with the minor child, and the child's half sibling. If 5 Mother is not permitted to relocate, her household will incur addi-
6 tional expenses for maintaining two households which is a disadvan-
7 tage to the child.

8 (2). If a relocating parent demonstrates to the court the provisions set forth 9 in subsection 1, the court must then weigh the following factors and the 10 impact of each on the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating
11 parent, including, without limitation, the extent to which the compelling 12 interests of the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent are 13 accommodated:

14 (a) The extent to which the relocation is likely to improve the 15 quality of life for the child and the relocating parent;

16 The relocation will improve the quality of life for both the minor
17 child and Mother. They will have better living accommodations, a 18 higher household income with Mr. Hogan's promotion and more 19 financial stability, educational advantages, and advantages associated 20 with residing in a much larger city.

21 (b) Whether the motives of the relocating parent are honorable and 22 not designed to frustrate or defeat any visitation rights accorded to 23 the non-relocating parent;

24 The Court finds Mother's request to relocate is honorable and 25 not designed to frustrate or defeat Father's visitation. Mother's 26 husband is active duty military and has been reassigned to duty in 27 another state. Mother's Husband's reassignment and the child's 28 possible relocation was contemplated at the last hearing.

(c) Whether the relocating parent will comply with any substitute visitation orders issued by the court if permission to relocate is granted;

There is no evidence that Mother would not comply with supplemental orders regarding custody.

1 (d) Whether the motives of the non-relocating parent are honorable
2 in resisting the petition for permission to relocate or to what extent 3 any opposition to the petition for permission to relocate is intended to secure a financial advantage in the form of ongoing support obligations or otherwise;

4 Father's motives in contesting the relocation are honorable and 5 the objection was filed in good faith. Father indicates he wishes to 6 maintain a relationship with the minor child.

7 (e) Whether there will be a realistic opportunity for the non-relo-
8 cating parent to maintain a visitation schedule that will adequately 9 foster and preserve the parental relationship between the child and the non-relocating parent if permission to relocate is granted; and

10 While the relocation will have an impact upon Father's 11 relationship with the minor child, there are opportunities which will 12 allow Father to continue to maintain a relationship with the minor 13 child despite the relocation.

14 (f) Any other factor necessary to assist the court in determining whether to grant permission to relocate.

15 This factor is not applicable.

16 10. After considering the evidence presented and the testimony of the parties,
17 and having weighed the above factors, the Court finds that Mother has met the threshold
18 requirements to grant the request to relocate with the minor child to the State of Virginia.
19 Relocation is in the minor child's best interest. Mother may relocate with the minor child 20 immediately.

21 11. Father shall have custodial time with the minor child during the child's 22 school breaks based upon the school calendar in the district in which the child will be 23 attending school.

24 A. Father shall have custody of the minor child the majority of the child's 25 summer break. Father's custodial time shall begin one week after the school year ends for 26 the summer and shall end one week before the new school year begins.

27 B. The parties shall equally share the child's Christmas Break from school. In 28 even numbered years, Father shall have the child for the second half of the break

1 (including the Christmas holiday), and Mother shall have the child for the first half of the 2 break. In odd numbered years, Mother shall have the child for the second half of the break
3 (including the Christmas holiday), and Father shall have the child for the first half of the 4 break. Mother shall have Thanksgiving break in each year except 2020, when Father
5 shall have the child from Wednesday before Thanksgiving, return on the following 6 Sunday.

7 C. Father shall have custody of the minor child during the child's Spring Break 8 each year.

9 D. Should Father choose to travel to Virginia Beach, Virginia where the minor 10 child is residing, he shall be entitled to additional custodial time. Father shall provide at 11 least 60 days advance notice of his intent to visit with the child in Virginia Beach. Notice
12 shall be in writing. If Father travels to Virginia during a week day, the visit shall begin 13 after school and end at 8:00 p.m. the same day. If Father travels to Virginia over the 14 weekend, the visit shall begin at 8:00 a.m. and end at 10:00 p.m. the same day.

15 E. Father shall be solely responsible for the costs of air travel for the child for 16 each visit. Father shall provide proof of purchase of plane tickets to Mother at least 30
17 days in advance of each visit or that visit will be forfeited. Father shall receive a 18 downward deviation on his monthly child support obligation for the cost of travel. The 19 Court will issue a separate order regarding child support which will address deviations 20 for cost of travel.

21 F. The parties may modify the custodial schedule by mutual agreement in 22 writing.

23 G. The non-custodial parent shall be entitled to communicate with the minor 24 child telephonically during the child's reasonable waking hours. Mother shall provide a 25 cell phone at her expense for the minor child on which Father may contact the child. The 26 phone shall also be made available to the child at all times during Father's custodial time
27 so that Mother may contact the child. The minor child shall be permitted to contact either
28 parent at any time. Telephonic communication shall not be monitored by either parent

1 at any time.

2 H. Neither party shall disparage the other in the presence of the child, or allow 3 third parties to disparage the other parent in the presence of the child.

4 12. The parties shall continue to share joint legal custody of the minor child in 5 accordance with the prior order of this Court.

6 13. As Mother's husband is on active duty with the military and it is likely he 7 will be reassigned in the next few years, the parties expressly agreed on the record that 8 Mother may relocate with the minor child to any other location in the United States based 9 upon the reassignment. Mother shall provide Father with the appropriate advance notice, 10 but she is not required to obtain Father's permission before relocating. Should Father 11 object to the relocation, he may file a motion with the Court. Relocation outside of the 12 United States shall require either Father's written permission or permission from the 13 Court before relocation occurs. The parties stipulate that this Court shall retain exclusive 14 continuing jurisdiction over the minor child pursuant to the UCCJEA provided that 15 Father remains a resident of the State of Nevada.

16 14. Mother's request for an award of attorney's fees and costs based upon 17 allegations that Father wrongfully withheld consent to the relocation is denied. Each 18 party shall be responsible for their own attorney's fees and costs.

19 15. PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEAL-20 MENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISH-
21 ABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359
22 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent
23 having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child 24 from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of 25 the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction 26 of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to 27 custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in
