HOLIDAY AND VACATION PLAN

Department G

The Court encourages parents to communicate regarding holiday and vacation time with their children. The following Holiday and Vacation Plan is a "default" schedule where parents are unable to otherwise agree. Any deviation therefrom should be memorialized in writing with both parents' signatures. Holidays/Special Occasions take precedence over residential time and Vacation time. Unless otherwise ordered, reference to a "school" schedule for the purpose of defining a Holiday or Special Occasion shall be defined by the Clark County, Nevada School District Schedule. (See www.ccsd.net)

THREE DAY HOLIDAYS (Holiday visitation begins when school gets out on the day preceding the holiday weekend (or 3:00 p.m. if the children are not in school and continues until 9:00 a.m. on the day following the holiday weekend or when the children are scheduled to resume school.)	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Martin Luther King Day	Mom	Dad
President's Day	Dad	Mom
Memorial Day	Mom	Dad
Labor Day	Dad	Mom
Nevada Admission Day	Mom	Dad

EXTENDED HOLIDAYS	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Thanksgiving: The holiday visitation shall begin when school gets out on the Wednesday preceding Thanksgiving (or 3:00 p.m. if the children are not in school) and continue until school is scheduled to resume (or 9:00 a.m. if the children are not in school). The parent exercising this time is responsible for all transportation for the children.	Mom	Dad

JA000757

EXTENDED HOLIDAYS, cont'd	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Christmas/Winter Break: Winter break shall be divided between the parents, with the first block of time commencing when the children get out of school to begin the Winter Break (or 3:00 p.m. if the children are not in school), and continue until December 26 at 10:00 a.m. The second block of time shall commence on December 26 at 10:00 a.m. and continue until school is scheduled to resume (or 9:00 a.m. if the children are not in school).
First Block	Dad	Mom
Second Block	Mom	Dad
Easter/Spring Break: The holiday visitation shall begin when school gets out on the last day of school (or 3:00 p.m. if the children are not in school) and continue until school is scheduled to resume (or 9:00 a.m. if the children are not in school). The parent exercising this time is responsible for all transportation for the children.	Dad	Mom

SPECIAL OCCASIONS (Special Occasions begin at 9:00 a.m. on the individual day and continue until 9:00 p.m. on the same day)	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Mother's Day	Mom	Mom
Father's Day	Dad	Dad
Children's Birthdays	Dad	Mom

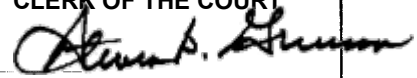

SUMMER/TRACK BREAK VACATIONS
Each parent shall be entitled to one (1) vacation each year with the children for a period not to exceed two (2) consecutive weeks (unless otherwise agreed to in writing). Each parent shall designate his/her respective vacation plans by May 1st of each year. The dates shall be conveyed to the other party in writing by way of e-mail, or certified mail. If there is a conflict related to the dates designated by the parties, Mom shall have priority in even years and Dad shall have priority in odd years. Neither party shall schedule vacation time during the other party's holiday time or during time the children are scheduled to be in school.

If two holiday/special occasions overlap or conflict, Mom's holiday shall take precedence over Dad's holiday, in odd numbered years; Dad's holiday shall take precedence over Mom's holiday in even numbered years.

HOLIDAY AND VACATION PLAN

Department G

The Court encourages parents to communicate regarding holiday and vacation time with their children. The following Holiday and Vacation Plan is a "default" schedule where parents are unable to otherwise agree. Any deviation therefrom should be memorialized in writing with both parents' signatures. Holidays/Special Occasions take precedence over residential time and Vacation time. Unless otherwise ordered, reference to a "school" schedule for the purpose of defining a Holiday or Special Occasion shall be defined by the Clark County, Nevada School District Schedule. (See www.ccsd.net)

THREE DAY HOLIDAYS
(Holiday visitation begins when school gets out on the day preceding the holiday weekend (or 3:00 p.m. if the children are not in school and continues until 9:00 a.m. on the day following the holiday weekend or when the children are scheduled to resume school.)	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR

Each parent shall be entitled to one (1) vacation each year with the children for a period not to exceed two (2) consecutive weeks (unless otherwise agreed to in writing). Each parent shall designate his/her respective vacation plans by May 1st of each year. The dates shall be conveyed to the other party in writing by way of e-mail, or certified mail. If there is a conflict related to the dates designated by the parties, Mom shall have priority in even years and Dad shall have priority in odd years. Neither party shall schedule vacation time during the other party's holiday time or during time the children are scheduled to be in school.

If two holiday/special occasions overlap or conflict, Mom's holiday shall take precedence over Dad's holiday, in odd numbered years; Dad's holiday shall take precedence over Mom's holiday in even numbered years.

ANDREW WARREN,

CASE NO.: D-19-590407-C
DEPT. NO.: G

Plaintiff/Counterdefendant, vs.

AIMEE JUNG YANG,

Defendant/Counterclaimant

FINDINGS OF FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This matter having come on for an Evidentiary Hearing before the Honorable Rhonda K. Forsberg, on 4th day of February, 2020, and the 4th day of March, 2020, Plaintiff, ANDREW WARREN, appearing by and through his attorney of record, AMBER ROBINSON, ESQ., of ROBINSON LAW GROUP, and Defendant, AIMEE JUNG YANG, appearing by and through her attorney of record, KENNETH S. FRIEDMAN, ESQ. of WALSH & FRIEDMAN, LTD., the Court being fully advised as to the law and facts of this case, FINDS

WALSH & FRIEDMAN, LTD
400 S. Maryland Parkway
Las Vegas, NV 89101
(702) 474-4660

1 That 125C.0035(4)(a): the wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient
2 age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his custody. The Court
3 does not find factor (a) to be applicable.

5 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(b): any nomination
6 by a parent or a guardian for the child. The Court does not find factor (b) to be 7 applicable.

9 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(c): which parent is 10 more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing
11 relationship with the other parent. Mother's behavior on helping Father to have 12 visitation, even on the child's birthday is commendable. Mother is trying very 13 hard to allow the child to have frequent association with the Father. Since the 14 time of the Order, Mother has never denied Father his time; however, Father did
15 not always exercise his time and the Court finds that Father had valid reasons.
16 Mother would assist with visitation when it's needed and when it's ordered. The 17 Court Finds, that Factor (c) favors Mother.
20

22 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(d): the level of 23 conflict between the parents. The Court finds the conflict is relatively low, other
24 than Father's previous paranoia/behavior from his mental instability that was 25 evidenced by his statements in the text messages of "I want to die". That 26 behavior and the fact that he took the child to the hospital after he told Mother

1 he was going to be a few minutes late. The Court finds that any increase in
2 conflict is due to Father's behavior and not Mother's behavior. The Court still
3 finds that conflict relatively low.

5 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(e): the ability of
6 the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child. The Court finds that both
7 parents have taken the child to the doctor. There was some communication
8 between the Parties and it seemed that they could work together, however, the 9 Court finds Father's statement to the Court concerning when he stated he 10 "doesn't believe the Parties can do that now". The Court can only grant joint 11 physical custody if it believes the Parents can cooperate to meet the needs of the 12 child. The Court believes that Mother has tried to meet the needs by planning a
13 birthday. Father did not meet the needs. Father did not discuss with Mother
14 regarding the drug tests he conducted on the child. Father did not discuss that he 15 was going to take the child to the hospital, he was really late, and he caused
16 Mother to worry. Additionally, Father did not meet the needs of the child when 17 he missed the visitation although he had some excuses. The Court Finds that 18 Mother has the ability to cooperate to meet the needs of the child and Father
19 does not. The Court finds that factor (e) favors Mother.
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(f): the mental and
2 physical health of the parents. The Court is very concerned as to this Factor. The
3 Court finds that Mother used to have a drug issue, but she has fixed it. The Court
4 is concerned that it was stated Father's issue is ADD; however, his behavior
5 shows some paranoia which is not really consistent with ADD. The Court is 6 concerned about Father's mental health. The Court finds that Mother has 7 improved her situation. The Court was presented with multiple drug tests for 8 Mother that were negative and that show Mother is not using any illegal drugs.
9 Mother has that issue under control. The Court is concerned that Father does not 10 have that under control; there is an incident concerning paranoia regarding the 11 neighbors. There was a police incident where Father took the child upstairs and 12 he said he took the child into the shower which is concerning to the Court.
13 Father's threats that he wants to die is extremely concerning. The Court finds that
14 Father's behavior is in opposition to the fact that Father is able to maintain a job.
15 The only testimony Father gave about his mental health is that he goes to the 16 therapist, however, he did not provide any medical records. The position is that 17 Father had to find an expert; however, that is not his burden. The Court is 18 concerned that Father seems to know what special plates are on a vehicle. The 19 Court finds that factor (f) favors Mother.
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(g): the physical,
2 developmental and emotional needs of the child. The court finds that the child
3 does not have special needs. Father thinks the child has some delusions about
4 drugs; however, there was no evidence. Father stated the Doctor saw a drug test
5 that was positive. The Court does not believe that a Doctor would see such a drug
6 test without reporting it to CPS as a mandatory reporter. The child has no special
7 needs and he needs to not be put in harm's way by being drug tested and taken to 8 the hospital. Factor (g) slightly favors Mother.

9 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(h): the nature of the 10 relationship of the child with each parent. The Court believes the child loves both 11 parents, most children do. The Court believes that Father has always loved and 12 cared for the child, which was also a statement made by Mother. The Court is 13 concerned about Father's relationship with the child as he only stayed for 20
14 minutes on the child's birthday even though Mother made accommodations and 15 the Father had sufficient time. The Court is concerned that Father is hurting his 16 relationship with the child, but the Court believes that the child loves both the 17 parents.

18 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(i): the ability of the 19 child to maintain a relationship with any sibling. This would be a factor if Father
20 had any relationship with Tanner. Per Father's testimony, he sees the child 2 to 3
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 times per year which is really sad. The other statement made was that Father did
2 not see the other child between 2017 and 2019. The fact that Father did not see
3 Tanner means Father did not foster the relationship between Tanner and Roen.
5 The Court does not find factor (i) to be a factor in this case.

6 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(j): any history of
8 parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child. The Court does not
9 find any proven history of abuse or neglect. The Court is concerned about 10 multiple drug tests on the child and rushing the child to the emergency room.
12 Currently, factor (j) is not a factor in this case.

13 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(k): whether either
15 parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in an act of domestic 16 violence. The Court does not find that either parent did so or that there was any 17 evidence presented to that effect.

19 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(l): whether either 20
21 parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in an act of abduction.
22 The Court does not find that either parent did so or that there was any evidence
23 presented and the Court does not find it to be factor.

25 NOW THEREFORE, THE COURT HEREBY ORDERS THAT: the
26 Defendant shall have Primary Physical Custody of the subject minor child to-wit:
27 ROEN WARREN, born February 13, 2017.

1 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that the parties shall share Joint
2 Legal Custody of the subject minor child to-wit: ROEN WARREN, born
3 February 13, 2017.

5 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that Mother shall have Primary
6 Physical Custody of the subject minor child to-wit: ROEN WARREN, born
7 February 13, 2017.

9 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that Plaintiff's supervised
10 visitation shall be lifted.

12 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that Father shall have
13 VISITATION with the subject minor child to-wit: ROEN WARREN, born
14 February 13, 2017 on Fridays at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. for every 15 weekend until the child starts school. Once the child starts school, Father shall 16 have visitation with the child on the first, second, and fourth weekends. Mother
17 shall have the third weekend of the month and any fifth weekend; with Father
18 having the child from Monday after school until Wednesday with drop off at 19 school during mom's weekends with the child.
22

23 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that both parties had a reason to 24 appear in Court and ATTORNEY'S FEES are not granted for either parent.
25

26 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that based on Father's gross
27 monthly income of Eight Thousand Seventy Five Dollars ($8,075.00) minus a

1 DEVIATION DOWNWARD of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) for Father's
2 other child support obligation, Father shall pay Mother CHILD SUPPORT in the
3 amount of Eight Hundred Twenty Six Dollars ($826.00) per month effective
5 March 1, 2020.

6 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that Father shall maintain the
8 child's health insurance. The parties shall split the child's health insurance
9 premium.

10 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that the parties shall follow
11
12 the 30/30 Rule that any unreimbursed medical, dental, optical, orthodontic or 13
14 other health related expense incurred for the benefit of the minor child are to be
15 divided equally between the parties. Either party incurring an out of pocket 16 medical expense for the child shall provide a copy of the paid invoice/receipt to 17
18 the other party within thirty (30) days of incurring such expense, if not tendered 19 within the thirty (30) day period; the Court may consider it as a waiver of 20 reimbursement. The other party will then have thirty (30) days from receipt
21
22 within which to dispute the expense in writing or reimburse the incurring party
23
24 for one-half of the out of pocket expense, if not disputed or paid within the thirty 25 (30) day period, the party may be subject to a finding of contempt and 26 appropriate sanctions.
28

1 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that attorney Kenneth S. Friedman
2 shall prepare the Findings of Facts, Conclusions of Law, and Order of the Court;
3 Attorney Robinson shall review and countersign.

5 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the following provision of NRS
6 125.510(6):

8 PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE
9 ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A
10 CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE
11 AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS
12 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited 13 right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to 14 the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a 15 parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of 16 visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, removes 17 the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of 18 either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or 19 visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as 20 provided in NRS 193.130.

22 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the terms of the Hague Convention of 23 October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on 24 Private International Law apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child
25 in a foreign country. The parties are also put on notice of the following 26 provisions in NRS 125.510(8):
27

28 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

(a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

(b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to

1 post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent
2 risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country
3 of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by 4 the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child
5 and returning him to his habitual residence if the child is wrongfully
6 removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence.
7 The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country
8 does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of 9 wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

10 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the following provision of NRS
11 125C.006:

- 12 1. If PRIMARY PHYSICAL CUSTODY has been established
13 pursuant to an order, judgement or decree of a court and the 14 custodial parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place
15 outside of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a 16 distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other
17 parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and 18 the custodial parent desires to take the child with him or her, the 19 custodial parent shall before relocating:
20 (a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the noncustodial
21 parent to relocate with the child; and
22 (b) If the noncustodial parent refuses to give that consent,
23 petition the court for permission to relocate with the child.
24 2. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the 25 custodial parent if the court finds that the noncustodial parent 26 refused to consent to the custodial parent's relocation of the 27 child:
28 (a) Without having reasonable grounds for such refusal; or
(b) For the purpose of harassing the custodial parent.
3. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section without written consent of the noncustodial parent or the permission of the court is subject to the provisions of NRS
200.359.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the following provision of NRS
125C.0065:

1. If JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY has been established pursuant to an

1 order, judgement or decree of a court and the custodial parent intends to
2 relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place
3 within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially
4 impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful
5 relationship with the child, and the custodial parent desires to take the 6 child with him or her, the custodial parent shall before relocating:

7 (a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating parent
8 to relocate with the child; and

9 (b) If the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent, petition
10 the court for primary physical custody for the purpose of 11 relocating.

12 2. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the 13 relocating parent if the court finds the non-relocating parent refused to 14 consent to the relocating parent's relocation with the child:

15 (a) Without having reasonable grounds for such refusal, or

16 (b) For the purpose of harassing the relocating parent.

17 3. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section before the 18 court enters an order granting the parent primary physical custody of the 19 child and permission to relocate with the child is subject to the 20 provisions of NRS 200.359.

21 NRS 125C.0035 Best interests of child: Joint physical custody;
22 preferences; presumptions when court determines parent or person seeking 23 custody is perpetrator of domestic violence or has committed act of 24 abduction against child or any other child.

25 1. In any action for determining physical custody of a minor child, the sole
26 consideration of the court is the best interest of the child. If it appears to the court
27 that joint physical custody would be in the best interest of the child, the court may 28 grant physical custody to the parties jointly.

2. Preference must not be given to either parent for the sole reason that the parent is the mother or the father of the child.

3. The court shall award physical custody in the following order of preference unless in a particular case the best interest of the child requires otherwise:

(a) To both parents jointly pursuant to NRS 125C.0025 or to either parent pursuant to NRS 125C.003. If the court does not enter an order awarding joint physical custody of a child after either parent has applied for joint physical custody, the court shall state in its decision the reason for its denial of the parent's application.

(b) To a person or persons in whose home the child has been living and

1 where the child has had a wholesome and stable environment.

2 (c) To any person related within the fifth degree of consanguinity to the child
3 whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for 4 the child, regardless of whether the relative resides within this State.

5 (d) To any other person or persons whom the court finds suitable and able to
6 provide proper care and guidance for the child.

7 4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider and
8 set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

9 (a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to 10 form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical custody.

11 (b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

12 (c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent
13 associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

14 (d) The level of conflict between the parents.

15 (e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

16 (f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

17 (g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

18 (h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

19 (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

20 (j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the 21 child.

22 (k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has 23 engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or 24 any other person residing with the child.

25 (l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has 26 committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

27 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that they are subject to the provisions of 28 NRS 31A and 125.450 regarding the collection of delinquent child support payments.

1 That 125C.0035(4)(a): the wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient
2 age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his custody. The Court
3 does not find factor (a) to be applicable.

5 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(b): any nomination
6 by a parent or a guardian for the child. The Court does not find factor (b) to be 7 applicable.

9 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(c): which parent is 10 more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing
11 relationship with the other parent. Mother's behavior on helping Father to have 12 visitation, even on the child's birthday is commendable. Mother is trying very 13 hard to allow the child to have frequent association with the Father. Since the 14 time of the Order, Mother has never denied Father his time; however, Father did
15 not always exercise his time and the Court finds that Father had valid reasons.
16 Mother would assist with visitation when it's needed and when it's ordered. The 17 Court Finds, that Factor (c) favors Mother.
20
21

22 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(d): the level of 23 conflict between the parents. The Court finds the conflict is relatively low, other
24 than Father's previous paranoia/behavior from his mental instability that was 25 evidenced by his statements in the text messages of "I want to die". That 26 behavior and the fact that he took the child to the hospital after he told Mother

1 he was going to be a few minutes late. The Court finds that any increase in
2 conflict is due to Father's behavior and not Mother's behavior. The Court still
3 finds that conflict relatively low.

5 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(e): the ability of
6 the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child. The Court finds that both
7 parents have taken the child to the doctor. There was some communication
8 between the Parties and it seemed that they could work together, however, the 9 Court finds Father's statement to the Court concerning when he stated he
10 "doesn't believe the Parties can do that now". The Court can only grant joint 11 physical custody if it believes the Parents can cooperate to meet the needs of the 12 child. The Court believes that Mother has tried to meet the needs by planning a
13 birthday. Father did not meet the needs. Father did not discuss with Mother
14 regarding the drug tests he conducted on the child. Father did not discuss that he
15 was going to take the child to the hospital, he was really late, and he caused
16 Mother to worry. Additionally, Father did not meet the needs of the child when 17 he missed the visitation although he had some excuses. The Court Finds that 18 Mother has the ability to cooperate to meet the needs of the child and Father
19 does not. The Court finds that factor (e) favors Mother.
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(f): the mental and
2 physical health of the parents. The Court is very concerned as to this Factor. The
3 Court finds that Mother used to have a drug issue, but she has fixed it. The Court
4 is concerned that it was stated Father's issue is ADD; however, his behavior
5 shows some paranoia which is not really consistent with ADD. The Court is 6 concerned about Father's mental health. The Court finds that Mother has
7 improved her situation. The Court was presented with multiple drug tests for 8 Mother that were negative and that show Mother is not using any illegal drugs.
9 Mother has that issue under control. The Court is concerned that Father does not 10 have that under control; there is an incident concerning paranoia regarding the 11 neighbors. There was a police incident where Father took the child upstairs and 12 he said he took the child into the shower which is concerning to the Court.
13 Father's threats that he wants to die is extremely concerning. The Court finds that
14 Father's behavior is in opposition to the fact that Father is able to maintain a job.
15 The only testimony Father gave about his mental health is that he goes to the 16 therapist, however, he did not provide any medical records. The position is that 17 Father had to find an expert; however, that is not his burden. The Court is 18 concerned that Father seems to know what special plates are on a vehicle. The 19 Court finds that factor (f) favors Mother.
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(g): the physical,
2 developmental and emotional needs of the child. The court finds that the child
3 does not have special needs. Father thinks the child has some delusions about
4 drugs; however, there was no evidence. Father stated the Doctor saw a drug test
5 that was positive. The Court does not believe that a Doctor would see such a drug
6 test without reporting it to CPS as a mandatory reporter. The child has no special
7 needs and he needs to not be put in harm's way by being drug tested and taken to 8 the hospital. Factor (g) slightly favors Mother.

9 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(h): the nature of the 10 relationship of the child with each parent. The Court believes the child loves both 11 parents, most children do. The Court believes that Father has always loved and 12 cared for the child, which was also a statement made by Mother. The Court is 13 concerned about Father's relationship with the child as he only stayed for 20
14 minutes on the child's birthday even though Mother made accommodations and 15 the Father had sufficient time. The Court is concerned that Father is hurting his 16 relationship with the child, but the Court believes that the child loves both the 17 parents.

18 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(i): the ability of the 19 child to maintain a relationship with any sibling. This would be a factor if Father
20 had any relationship with Tanner. Per Father's testimony, he sees the child 2 to 3
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 times per year which is really sad. The other statement made was that Father did
2 not see the other child between 2017 and 2019. The fact that Father did not see
3 Tanner means Father did not foster the relationship between Tanner and Roen.
5 The Court does not find factor (i) to be a factor in this case.

6 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(j): any history of
8 parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child. The Court does not
9 find any proven history of abuse or neglect. The Court is concerned about 10 multiple drug tests on the child and rushing the child to the emergency room.
12 Currently, factor (j) is not a factor in this case.

15 parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in an act of domestic 16 violence. The Court does not find that either parent did so or that there was any 17 evidence presented to that effect.

19 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(l): whether either 20
21 parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in an act of abduction.
22 The Court does not find that either parent did so or that there was any evidence
23 presented and the Court does not find it to be factor.

25 NOW THEREFORE, THE COURT HEREBY ORDERS THAT: the
26 Defendant shall have Primary Physical Custody of the subject minor child to-wit:
27 ROEN WARREN, born February 13, 2017.
28

1 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that the parties shall share Joint
2 Legal Custody of the subject minor child to-wit: ROEN WARREN, born
3 February 13, 2017.

5 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that Mother shall have Primary
6 Physical Custody of the subject minor child to-wit: ROEN WARREN, born
7 February 13, 2017.

9 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that Plaintiff's supervised
10 visitation shall be lifted.

12 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that Father shall have
13 VISITATION with the subject minor child to-wit: ROEN WARREN, born
14 February 13, 2017 on Fridays at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. for every 15 weekend until the child starts school. Once the child starts school, Father shall 16 have visitation with the child on the first, second, and fourth weekends. Mother
17 shall have the third weekend of the month and any fifth weekend; with Father
18 having the child from Monday after school until Wednesday with drop off at 19 school during mom's weekends with the child.
22

23 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that both parties had a reason to 24 appear in Court and ATTORNEY'S FEES are not granted for either parent.
25

26 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that based on Father's gross
27 monthly income of Eight Thousand Seventy Five Dollars ($8,075.00) minus a 28

1 DEVIATION DOWNWARD of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) for Father's
2 other child support obligation, Father shall pay Mother CHILD SUPPORT in the
3 amount of Eight Hundred Twenty Six Dollars ($826.00) per month effective
5 March 1, 2020.

6 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that Father shall maintain the
8 child's health insurance. The parties shall split the child's health insurance
9 premium.

10 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that the parties shall follow
11
12 the 30/30 Rule that any unreimbursed medical, dental, optical, orthodontic or 13
14 other health related expense incurred for the benefit of the minor child are to be
15 divided equally between the parties. Either party incurring an out of pocket
16 medical expense for the child shall provide a copy of the paid invoice/receipt to 17 the other party within thirty (30) days of incurring such expense, if not tendered
18 within the thirty (30) day period; the Court may consider it as a waiver of 19 reimbursement. The other party will then have thirty (30) days from receipt
20 within which to dispute the expense in writing or reimburse the incurring party
21 for one-half of the out of pocket expense, if not disputed or paid within the thirty 22 (30) day period, the party may be subject to a finding of contempt and 23 appropriate sanctions.
25
26
27
28

1 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that attorney Kenneth S. Friedman
2 shall prepare the Findings of Facts, Conclusions of Law, and Order of the Court;
3 Attorney Robinson shall review and countersign.

5 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the following provision of NRS
6 125.510(6):

8 PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE

12 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited 13 right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to 14 the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a 15 parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of 16 visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, removes 17 the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of 18 either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or 19 visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as 20 provided in NRS 193.130.

21 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the terms of the Hague Convention of 22 October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on 23 Private International Law apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child
24 in a foreign country. The parties are also put on notice of the following
25 provisions in NRS 125.510(8):

26 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant
27 commitments in a foreign country:

28 (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

(b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to

1 post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent
2 risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country
3 of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by 4 the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child
5 and returning him to his habitual residence if the child is wrongfully
6 removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence.
7 The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country
8 does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of 9 wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

10 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the following provision of NRS
11 125C.006:

- 12 1. If PRIMARY PHYSICAL CUSTODY has been established
13 pursuant to an order, judgement or decree of a court and the 14 custodial parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place
15 outside of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a
16 distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other
17 parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and 18 the custodial parent desires to take the child with him or her, the 19 custodial parent shall before relocating:
20 (a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the noncustodial
21 parent to relocate with the child; and
22 (b) If the noncustodial parent refuses to give that consent,
23 petition the court for permission to relocate with the child.
24 2. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the 25 custodial parent if the court finds that the noncustodial parent 26 refused to consent to the custodial parent's relocation of the 27 child:
28 (a) Without having reasonable grounds for such refusal; or
(b) For the purpose of harassing the custodial parent.
3. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section without written consent of the noncustodial parent or the permission of the court is subject to the provisions of NRS
200.359.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the following provision of NRS
125C.0065:

1. If JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY has been established pursuant to an

1 order, judgement or decree of a court and the custodial parent intends to
2 relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place
3 within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially
4 impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful
5 relationship with the child, and the custodial parent desires to take the
6 child with him or her, the custodial parent shall before relocating:

7 (a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating parent
8 to relocate with the child; and

10 the court for primary physical custody for the purpose of 11 relocating.

12 2. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the 13 relocating parent if the court finds the non-relocating parent refused to 14 consent to the relocating parent's relocation with the child:

15 (a) Without having reasonable grounds for such refusal, or

16 (b) For the purpose of harassing the relocating parent.

17 3. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section before the 18 court enters an order granting the parent primary physical custody of the 19 child and permission to relocate with the child is subject to the 20 provisions of NRS 200.359.

21 NRS 125C.0035 Best interests of child: Joint physical custody;
22 preferences; presumptions when court determines parent or person seeking
23 custody is perpetrator of domestic violence or has committed act of 24 abduction against child or any other child.

25 1. In any action for determining physical custody of a minor child, the sole
26 consideration of the court is the best interest of the child. If it appears to the court
27 that joint physical custody would be in the best interest of the child, the court may 28 grant physical custody to the parties jointly.

2. Preference must not be given to either parent for the sole reason that the parent is the mother or the father of the child.

3. The court shall award physical custody in the following order of preference unless in a particular case the best interest of the child requires
otherwise:

(a) To both parents jointly pursuant to NRS 125C.0025 or to either parent pursuant to NRS 125C.003. If the court does not enter an order awarding joint physical custody of a child after either parent has applied for joint physical custody, the court shall state in its decision the reason for its denial of the parent's application.

(b) To a person or persons in whose home the child has been living and

1 where the child has had a wholesome and stable environment.

2 (c) To any person related within the fifth degree of consanguinity to the child
3 whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for
4 the child, regardless of whether the relative resides within this State.

5 (d) To any other person or persons whom the court finds suitable and able to
6 provide proper care and guidance for the child.

7 4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider and
8 set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

9 (a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to 10 form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical custody.

11 (b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

12 (c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent
13 associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

14 (d) The level of conflict between the parents.

15 (e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

16 (f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

17 (g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

18 (h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

19 (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

20 (j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the 21 child.

22 (k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has 23 engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or 24 any other person residing with the child.

25 (l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has 26 committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

27 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that they are subject to the provisions of 28 NRS 31A and 125.450 regarding the collection of delinquent child support payments.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. STATEMENT OF FACTS

3 A. History of the Case

4 Plaintiff, Andrew Warren (hereinafter referred to as “Andrew”) and 5 Defendant, Aimee Yang (hereinafter referred to as “Aimee”) were in a long term
6 relationship to which they had a minor child to wit: Roen Warren (hereinafter 7 referred to as “Roen”), born February 13, 2017, age 3.

8 On May 30, 2019, Andrew filed a Complaint for Custody wherein he 9 requested joint legal custody and primary physical custody.

10 On June 14, 2019, Aimee filed an Answer and Counterclaim requesting joint 11 legal custody and joint physical custody as long as the Plaintiff’s treating physicians 12 state that he is not a danger to the child and he continues to follow the directives of 13 his physicians. If Plaintiff’s physicians do not state that he is not a danger around the 14 child or if Plaintiff is not following his physician’s directives, then the Defendant
15 shall be awarded Primary Physical Custody of the minor child.

16 On July 25, 2019, Andrew was contacted by CPS regarding allegations of 17 abuse and/or neglect against Aimee.

18 On or about July 26, 2019, Aimee moved out of the parties’ residence, took 19 Roen with her and denied Andrew all contact with him.

1 On July 31, 2019, Aimee filed a Motion for Temporary Primary Physical
2 Custody of the Parties' Minor Child, for Child Support and For Attorney's Fees,
3 alleging that Andrew was diagnosed with emotional instability and that he had not
4 provided a HIPAA release to enable her counsel to obtain Andrew's mental health
5 records. Moreover, she requested that Andrew only receive supervised visitation, on 6 the basis of his alleged emotional instability and a text message saying "I don't care
7 if I die anymore."

8 On August 15, 2019, Andrew filed an Opposition and Countermotion for 9 Primary Physical Custody, Random Drug Testing and an Outsourced Evaluation, Et 10 Al. Andrew requested that Aimee be subject to random drug testing and undergo an 11 outsourced substance abuse evaluation due to her abuse of illegal drugs and 12 prescribed medications, as well as the behavior she had been displaying including 13 talking to herself, being paranoid and refusing to lock doors during dark hours.

14 Throughout the relationship Aimee has had a drug problem. The parties
15 attended couple's counseling, but Aimee refused to attend counseling to address her 16 drug problem.

17 Andrew acknowledged he has been diagnosed with ADHD and has been 18 prescribed medications to treat the ADHD. Andrew takes his medications as 19 prescribed and follows his doctor's orders.

1 On September 5, 2019, Aimee filed her Reply to her Opposition wherein she
2 acknowledged that in early 2018 she was prescribed controlled substances for a c-3 section and on occasion instead of paying for her prescription, she would ask her
4 brother for pain medications. In support of her Reply, she provided a negative drug 5 test from ATI, which she took voluntarily on July 18, 2019.

6 On September 10, 2019, this matter came on for a hearing on all pending
7 motions and ordered as follows:

8 “Plaintiff shall immediately provide Mr. Friedman with a fully executed
9 H.I.P.A.A. Release Form. Mr. Friedman shall obtain Plaintiff's medical 10 records and provide Plaintiff's therapist with a copy of Plaintiff's text 11 messages regarding his appearance of paranoia.”

12 “A Status Check is SET for 11/19/19 at 10:00 AM. In the interim, Plaintiff
13 shall have TEMPORARY SUPERVISED VISITATION every Saturday
14 from 11:00 AM to 7:00 PM. Plaintiff's friend/roommate (Jerry) shall provide 15 line of sight supervision and shall accompany Plaintiff when he picks up the 16 child. Pending the return, if there is nothing concerning in the medical 17 records, the Court expects counsel to confer and lift the supervised visitation 18 restriction.”

19 Andrew complied with the Court's orders by providing a HIPAA release to 20 Aimee's counsel and exercised his supervised visitation as much as possible.

At the Status check on November 19, 2019, the Court inquired once again about whether counsel had lifted Andrew's supervised visitation. However, counsel stated that Aimee had continued to require supervision because there were no medical records (omitting the fact that a HIPAA release had been provided).

1 The Court then set the matter for an evidentiary hearing with a calendar call
2 set for January 30, 2020, all temporary orders remained in full force and effect and 3 Plaintiff was to submit to a psychological evaluation at Aimee's expense. Aimee's
4 counsel was ordered to provide Andrew's counsel with the names of three 5 professionals.

6 Aimee did not provide the three names and did not pay for an evaluation; thus,
7 Andrew did not submit to a psychological evaluation. She also did not provide 8 Andrew's medical records and, in fact, did not provide proof that the records had 9 even been requested from the provider using the HIPAA release Andrew had 10 provided.

11 B. Trial

12 The trial on this matter was held on February 4 and 18, 2020, both half days.
13 During trial both parties offered evidence. Aimee did not present evidence that 14 showed Andrew was a danger to Roen or that he does not follow the directives of 15 his physicians. She further had no personal knowledge to even testify as to Andrew's 16 compliance with his doctor's orders. Andrew offered his medical records into 17 evidence; however, they were not admitted into evidence even though they were 18 highly relevant, and, upon information and belief, Aimee had not previously 19 objected to their authenticity. The parties were the only witnesses.

20 ///

1 C. Decision

2 On March 4, 2020 the Court issued its decision and on July 19, 2020, Findings
3 of Fact, Conclusions of Law were entered. In short, the Court found there is no
4 history of child abuse or neglect or domestic violence from either party, the level of 5 conflict between the parties is relatively low and the child loves both parents. The 6 findings as to the parties' mental and physical health are as follows:

7 “THE COURT FINDS that 125C.0035(4)(f): the mental and physical 8 health of the parents. The Court is very concerned as to this Factor. The 9 Court finds that Mother used to have a drug issue, but she has fixed it.
10 The Court is concerned that it was stated Father's issue is ADD;
11 however, his behavior shows some paranoid which is not really 12 consistent with ADD. The Court is concerned about Father's mental 13 health. The Court finds that Mother has improved her situation. The 14 Court was presented with multiple drug tests for Mother that were 15 negative and that show Mother is not using any illegal drugs. Mother
16 has that issue under control. The Court is concerned that Father does 17 not have that under control; there is an incident concerning paranoia regarding the neighbors. There was a police incident where Father took the child upstairs and he said he took the child into the shower which is concerning to the Court. Father's threats that he wants to die is extremely concerning. The court finds that Father's behavior is in opposition to the fact that Father is able to maintain a job. The only testimony Father gave about his mental health is that he goes to the therapist, however, he did not provide any medical records. The position is that Father had to find an expert; however, that is not his burden. The Court is concerned that Father seems to know what special plates are on a vehicle. The Court finds that factor (f) favors Mother.”

18 The Court ordered that Aimee shall have Primary Physical Custody of Roen 19 with the parties having joint legal custody.

20 This motion follows.

1 II. LEGAL ARGUMENT

2 A. The Court Should Reconsider Plaintiff's Request for Primary
3 Physical Custody.

4 1. This Motion to Reconsider is Timely.

5 “A party seeking reconsideration and/or rehearing of a ruling (other than an 6 order that may be addressed by motion pursuant to NRCP 50(b), 52(b), 59, or 60), 7 must file a motion for such relief not later than 14 days after service of notice of 8 entry of order.”¹

9 Here, the Order from the February 4 and 18, 2020 Hearing was filed July 19,
10 2020. The Notice of Entry of Order was subsequently filed and served on July 20, 11 2020. Therefore, 14 days from service of the Notice of Entry of Order is August 3, 12 2020 — the date on which this Motion is filed. Therefore, this Motion to Reconsider 13 is timely.

14 2. Bases for Reconsideration/Rehearing

15 The Nevada Supreme Court has long held that “a court may, for sufficient
16 cause shown, amend, correct, resettle, modify, or vacate, as the case may be, an order
17 previously made and entered on motion in the progress in the cause or proceeding.”²
20

² Trail v. Faretto, 91 Nev. 401, 536 P.2d 1026 (1975).

1 Indeed, the Nevada Supreme Court stated as follows: “[U]nless and until an order is 2 appealed, the District Court retains jurisdiction to reconsider the matter.”³

3 The granting of a motion for reconsideration is a discretionary decision.⁴ Two 4 cases provide district courts with guidance in exercising this discretion. In the first 5 of these cases, the Nevada Supreme Court held that “[o]nly in very rare instances in 6 which new issues of fact or law are raised supporting a ruling contrary to the ruling
7 already reached should a motion for rehearing be granted.”⁵ The second case
8 provides that “[a] District Court may consider a previously decided issue if 9 substantially different evidence is subsequently introduced or the decision is clearly
10 erroneous.”⁶ The United States Supreme Court has defined the clearly erroneous 11 standard as follows: “A finding is ‘clearly erroneous’ when although there is 12 evidence to support it, the reviewing court on the entire evidence is left with the 13 definite and firm conviction that a mistake has been committed.”⁷

14 Here, we first argue that the decision from the trial was clearly erroneous as 15 the Court failed to consider the substantial evidence presented and legal analysis for 16 this type of matter. Specifically the Court did not consider Andrew’s medical records, 17 despite the fact that the Court voiced its concerns multiple times about his health and

19 ³ Gibbs v. Giles, 97 Nev. 243, 607 P.2d 118 (1980),

20 ⁴ Harvey’s Wagon Wheel, Inc. v. MacSween, 96 Nev. 215, 606 P.2d 447 (1980).

⁷ United States v. Gypsum Co., 333 U.S. 364, 395, 68 S.Ct. 525, 542 (1948).

1 issued Orders consistent with those concerns such as ordering that Aimee pay for his
2 mental health evaluation. Aimee did not follow those Orders which was the reason
3 Andrew did not submit to an evaluation. The Court acknowledged in its decision
4 that calling an expert was not Andrew's burden, therefore one can only conclude that 5 Aimee failed to meet her burden. The Court's decision rests on Aimee's allegations
6 without personal knowledge and a few text messages. Aimee did not present
7 evidence sufficient for this Court to now award joint physical custody to Andrew 8 and Andrew's evidence supported an award of joint physical custody. Aimee was 9 given a HIPAA release but either did not request Andrew's records or requested
10 them and chose not to include them as proposed exhibits due to them being beneficial
11 to Andrew. She then objected to the admission of those same records by Andrew.

12 The District Court may not enter a default judgment regarding child custody 13 because child custody must only be determined based on the best interests of the 14 child.⁸ By excluding Andrew's mental health records and relying on baseless
15 allegations with no evidence from Aimee, this Court did not make a decision based 16 upon the best interests of the child, but made a decision based upon exclusion of 17 relevant evidence that went to the exact issue that was the deciding factor in this case.

18 Based on this, the Court should reconsider its Orders granting Aimee's request
19 for primary physical custody of Roen.

⁸ Blanco v. Blanco, 129 Nev. Adv. Op. 77 (Oct. 31, 2013).

1 B. The Court Should Set a New Trial in this Matter pursuant to

2 NRCP 59

3 NRCP 59(a)(1) provides:

4 (1) Grounds for New Trial. The court may, on motion, grant a new trial on all 5 or some of the issues — and to any party — for any of the following causes or 6 grounds materially affecting the substantial rights of the moving party:

7 (A) irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury, master, or adverse 8 party or in any order of the court or master, or any abuse of discretion by which 9 either party was prevented from having a fair trial;

10 (B) misconduct of the jury or prevailing party;

11 (C) accident or surprise that ordinary prudence could not have guarded 12 against;

13 (D) newly discovered evidence material for the party making the 14 motion that the party could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and 15 produced at the trial;

16 (E) manifest disregard by the jury of the instructions of the court;

17 (F) excessive damages appearing to have been given under the 18 influence of passion or prejudice; or

19 (G) error in law occurring at the trial and objected to by the party
20 making the motion.

 The decision to grant or deny a motion for new trial under NRCP 59 rests within the sound discretion of the trial court.⁹

3. This Motion is Timely

 A motion for a new trial must be filed no later than 28 days after service of written notice of entry of judgment.¹⁰ Here, the written judgment was filed on July 19, 2020. The Notice of Entry of this judgment was entered and served on July 20, 2020. Therefore, 28 days from service of written notice of entry of judgment is ⁹ Southern Pac. Transp. Co. v. Fitzgerald, 94 Nev. 241, 577 P.2d 1234 (1978).

¹⁰ NRCP 59(b).

1 August 17, 2020. This Motion was filed on August 3, 2020. Therefore, this Motion
2 is timely under NRCP 59(b).

3 Andrew reiterates that the Court did not consider his medical records,
4 presumably because they were not certified by a Custodian of Records or a witness.
5 Based on Aimee's baseless allegations, the Court voiced its concerns multiple times
6 about Andrew's health and issued Orders consistent with those concerns such as 7 ordering that Aimee pay for his mental health evaluation and ordering Andrew to 8 provide a HIPAA release. Andrew followed those orders. Aimee did not follow those 9 Orders, thereby not allowing this Court to have any evidence that would be sufficient 10 to justify an award other than joint physical custody.

11 The Court acknowledged in its decision that calling an expert was not 12 Andrew's burden, therefore one can only conclude that Aimee failed to meet her 13 burden. The Court's decision rests on Aimee's allegations and some text messages.

14 Andrew was prevented from having a fair trial due to irregularity in the 15 proceedings or abuse of discretion because the Court made a decision based upon 16 allegations regarding his mental health from a person with no personal knowledge 17 on the issue and yet refused to admit his mental health records into evidence even 18 though Andrew had provided a HIPAA release to Aimee allowing her to obtain the 19 same records.

1 Andrew's was subject to accident or surprise that ordinary prudence could not
2 have guarded against. Andrew provided Aimee's counsel with a HIPAA release and 3 then also obtained those same records himself. Ordinary prudence could not have 4 guarded against his surprise at Aimee objecting to the admission of his mental health
5 records when they were the only evidence on the issue beyond his own testimony 6 and she had not previously objected to their authenticity, thereby waiving that 7 objection.

8 The Court should grant Andrew's request for a new trial to allow him to 9 properly offer his medical records, which are highly relevant in this matter.

11 BASED ON THE FOREGOING, Andrew Warren requests this Court issue
12 an Order:

- 13 1. Reconsidering the Order from the February 4 and 18 2020, hearing;
- 14 2. Granting Plaintiff's Request for a New Trial; and
- 15 3. For any other relief this Court deems fair and appropriate.

Plaintiff/Petitioner

v.
AIMEE YANG

Defendant/Respondent

Case No. D-19-590407-C

Dept. G

MOTION/OPPOSITION FEE INFORMATION SHEET

Notice: Motions and Oppositions filed after entry of a final order issued pursuant to NRS 125, 125B or 125C are subject to the reopen filing fee of $25, unless specifically excluded by NRS 19.0312. Additionally, Motions and Oppositions filed in cases initiated by joint petition may be subject to an additional filing fee of $129 or $57 in accordance with Senate Bill 388 of the 2015 Legislative Session.

Step 1. Select either the $25 or $0 filing fee in the box below.

- ☐ $25 The Motion/Opposition being filed with this form is subject to the $25 reopen fee.
- OR-
- ☒ $0 The Motion/Opposition being filed with this form is not subject to the $25 reopen fee because:
- ☐ The Motion/Opposition is being filed before a Divorce/Custody Decree has been entered.
 - ☐ The Motion/Opposition is being filed solely to adjust the amount of child support established in a final order.
 - ☒ The Motion/Opposition is for reconsideration or for a new trial, and is being filed within 14 days after a final judgment or decree was entered. The final order was entered on 07/20/20.
 - ☐ Other Excluded Motion (must specify) _____.

Step 2. Select the $0, $129 or $57 filing fee in the box below.

- ☒ $0 The Motion/Opposition being filed with this form is not subject to the $129 or the $57 fee because:
- ☐ The Motion/Opposition is being filed in a case that was not initiated by joint petition.
 - ☐ The party filing the Motion/Opposition previously paid a fee of $129 or $57.
- OR-
- ☐ $129 The Motion being filed with this form is subject to the $129 fee because it is a motion to modify, adjust or enforce a final order.
- OR-
- ☐ $57 The Motion/Opposition being filing with this form is subject to the $57 fee because it is an opposition to a motion to modify, adjust or enforce a final order, or it is a motion and the opposing party has already paid a fee of $129.

Step 3. Add the filing fees from Step 1 and Step 2.

The total filing fee for the motion/opposition I am filing with this form is:

☒ $0 ☐ $25 ☐ $57 ☐ $82 ☐ $129 ☐ $154

13 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES
14

15 Rule 59. New Trials; Amendment of Judgments

16 (a) In General.

17 (1) Grounds for New Trial. The court may, on motion, grant a new 18 trial on all or some of the issues — and to any party — for any of the following 19 causes or grounds materially affecting the substantial rights of the moving party:

20 (A) irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury, master, or 21 adverse party or in any order of the court or master, or any abuse of discretion by 22 which either party was prevented from having a fair trial;

23 (B) misconduct of the jury or prevailing party;

24 (C) accident or surprise that ordinary prudence could not have 25 guarded against;

26 (D) newly discovered evidence material for the party making the 27 motion that the party could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and 28 produced at the trial;

(E) manifest disregard by the jury of the instructions of the court;

(F) excessive damages appearing to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice; or

(G) error in law occurring at the trial and objected to by the party making the motion.

2 I.

3 PROCEDURAL HISTORY

5 The instant matter came on for evidentiary hearing before the Honorable
6 Judge Rhonda Forsberg on February 4, 2020 and February 18, 2020. Following
7 the conclusion of the Evidentiary Hearing, Judge Forsberg entered the following 8 findings of fact:

- 10 A. That 125C.0035(4)(a): the wishes of the child if the child is of 11 sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to 12 his custody. The Court does not find factor (a) to be applicable.
- 13 B. That 125C.0035(4)(b): any nomination by a parent or a guardian for 14 the child. The Court does not find factor (b) to be applicable.
- 15 C. That 125C.0035(4)(c): which parent is more likely to allow the 16 child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship 17 with the other parent. Mother's behavior on helping Father to have 18 visitation, even on the child's birthday is commendable. Mother is 19 trying very hard to allow the child to have frequent association with 20 the Father. Since the time of the Order, Mother has never denied
21 Father his time; however, Father did not always exercise his time
22 and the Court finds that Father had valid reasons. Mother would 23 assist with visitation when it's needed and when it's ordered. The 24 Court Finds, that Factor (c) favors Mother.
- 25 D. That 125C.0035(4)(d): the level of conflict between the parents.
26 The Court finds the conflict is relatively low, other than Father's 27 previous paranoia/behavior from his mental instability that was 28 evidenced by his statements in the text messages of "I want to die".
That behavior and the fact that he took the child to the hospital after he told Mother he was going to be a few minutes late. The Court finds that any increase in conflict is due to Father's behavior and not Mother's behavior. The Court still finds that conflict relatively low.

2 E. That 125C.0035(4)(e): the ability of the parents to cooperate to 3 meet the needs of the child. The Court finds that both parents have 4 taken the child to the doctor. There was some communication
5 between the Parties and it seemed that they could work together,
6 however, the Court finds Father's statement to the Court concerning 7 when he stated he "doesn't believe the Parties can do that now". The 8 Court can only grant joint physical custody if it believes the Parents
9 can cooperate to meet the needs of the child. The Court believes
10 that Mother has tried to meet the needs by planning a birthday.
11 Father did not meet the needs. Father did not discuss with Mother 12 regarding the drug tests he conducted on the child. Father did not 13 discuss that he was going to take the child to the hospital, he was 14 really late, and he caused Mother to worry. Additionally, Father did 15 not meet the needs of the child when he missed the visitation
16 although he had some excuses. The Court Finds that Mother has the 17 ability to cooperate to meet the needs of the child and Father does 18 not. The Court finds that factor (e) favors Mother.

19 F. That 125C.0035(4)(f): the mental and physical health of the parents.
20 The Court is very concerned as to this Factor. The Court finds that 21 Mother used to have a drug issue, but she has fixed it. The Court is 22 concerned that it was stated Father's issue is ADD; however, his 23 behavior shows some paranoia which is not really consistent with 24 ADD. The Court is concerned about Father's mental health. The 25 Court finds that Mother has improved her situation. The Court was 26 presented with multiple drug tests for Mother that were negative
27 and that show Mother is not using any illegal drugs. Mother has that 28 issue under control. The Court is concerned that Father does not have that under control; there is an incident concerning paranoia regarding the neighbors. There was a police incident where Father took the child upstairs and he said he took the child into the shower which is concerning to the Court. Father's threats that he wants to die is extremely concerning. The Court finds that Father's behavior is in opposition to the fact that Father is able to maintain a job. The only testimony Father gave about his mental health is that he goes to the therapist, however, he did not provide any medical records.
The position is that Father had to find an expert; however, that is not his burden. The Court is concerned that Father seems to know

1 what special plates are on a vehicle. The Court finds that factor (f)
2 favors Mother.

3 G. That 125C.0035(4)(g): the physical, developmental and emotional
4 needs of the child. The court finds that the child does not have 5 special needs. Father thinks the child has some delusions about 6 drugs; however, there was no evidence. Father stated the Doctor
7 saw a drug test that was positive. The Court does not believe that a
8 Doctor would see such a drug test without reporting it to CPS as a 9 mandatory reporter. The child has no special needs and he needs to 10 not be put in harm's way by being drug tested and taken to the 11 hospital. Factor (g) slightly favors Mother.

12 H. That 125C.0035(4)(h): the nature of the relationship of the child
13 with each parent. The Court believes the child loves both parents, 14 most children do. The Court believes that Father has always loved 15 and cared for the child, which was also a statement made by 16 Mother. The Court is concerned about Father's relationship with the 17 child as he only stayed for 20 minutes on the child's birthday even 18 though Mother made accommodations and the Father had sufficient
19 time. The Court is concerned that Father is hurting his relationship 20 with the child, but the Court believes that the child loves both the 21 parents.

22 I. That 125C.0035(4)(i): the ability of the child to maintain a 23 relationship with any sibling. This would be a factor if Father had 24 any relationship with Tanner. Per Father's testimony, he sees the 25 child 2 to 3 times per year which is really sad. The other statement 26 made was that Father did not see the other child between 2017 and 27 2019. The fact that Father did not see Tanner means Father did not 28 foster the relationship between Tanner and Roen. The Court does 29 not find factor (i) to be a factor in this case.

30 J. That 125C.0035(4)(j): any history of parental abuse or neglect of 31 the child or a sibling of the child. The Court does not find any 32 proven history of abuse or neglect. The Court is concerned about 33 multiple drug tests on the child and rushing the child to the 34 emergency room. Currently, factor (j) is not a factor in this case.

1 K. That 125C.0035(4)(k): whether either parent or any other person
2 seeking custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence. The 3 Court does not find that either parent did so or that there was any 4 evidence presented to that effect.

5 L. That 125C.0035(4)(l): whether either parent or any other person
6 seeking custody has engaged in an act of abduction. The Court does
7 not find that either parent did so or that there was any evidence
8 presented and the Court does not find it to be factor.

9 II.

10 ARGUMENT

11 The Nevada Supreme Court has long held that “a court may, for sufficient 12 cause shown, amend, correct, resettle, modify or vacate, as the case may be, an 13 order previously made and entered on motion in the progress in the cause or 14 proceeding.”¹ Indeed, the Nevada Supreme Court, stated as follows: “[U]nless
15 and until an order is appealed, the District Court retains jurisdiction to reconsider 16 the matter.”²

17 The granting of a motion for reconsideration is discretionary decision.³
18 Two cases provide district courts with guidance in exercising this discretion. In 19 the first of these cases, the Nevada Supreme Court held that “[o]nly in very rare
20 instances in which new issues of fact or law are raised supporting a ruling 21 contrary to the ruling already reached should a motion for rehearing be

1 granted.”⁴ The second case provides that “[a] District Court may consider a 2 previously decided issue if substantially different evidence is subsequently 3 introduced or the decision is clearly erroneous.”⁵ The United States Supreme 4 Court has defined the clearly erroneous standard as follows: “A finding is 5 ‘clearly erroneous’ when although there is evidence to support it, the reviewing 6 court on the entire evidence is left with the definite and firm conviction that a 7 mistake has been committed.”⁶

10 Plaintiff essentially objects that the decision from the Evidentiary Hearing 11 was clearly erroneous inasmuch as the Court did not consider Andrew’s medical 12 records. Nothing could be further from the truth. First, the Court’s decision was 13 based upon all of the factors as enumerated in NRS 125C.0035(4), not just NRS
14 125C.0035(4)(f). More specifically NRS 125C.0035(4)(c), NRS
15 125C.0035(4)(e), NRS 125C.0035(4)(f), NRS 125C.0035(4)(g) all favored the 16 Defendant. Moreover, the Court did not find any factor that specifically favored 17 the Plaintiff.

19 Second, the Court heard detailed testimony concerning the Plaintiffs 20 emotional stability. More specifically, there was testimony by the Plaintiff where 21 he acknowledged that he took the child into the bathroom and barricaded himself

1 therein and only released the child after police intervention. There was evidence
2 that Plaintiff threatened that he wanted to die, which was extremely concerning.
3 Additionally, Plaintiff testified about individuals "following him." Premised on 4 the foregoing, the Court made the determination that by the Plaintiff's own
5 actions that there was an issue with his mental health.

8 Finally, Plaintiff objects that the Court did not consider any of the 9 Plaintiff's medical records however Plaintiff's assertion is a red herring as the 10 Plaintiff failed to produce any medical records during the discovery process.
11

12 Based on the foregoing, this Court's decision on February 4, 2020 was 13 well-grounded in facts and law, thus said decision was not clearly erroneous in 14 any way, shape, or form.

2 I. STATEMENT OF FACTS

3 Plaintiff, Andrew Warren (hereinafter referred to as “Andrew”) reiterates
4 and incorporates herein the facts stated in his Motion.

5 A. Trial

6 Plaintiff, Andrew Warren (hereinafter referred to as “Andrew”) agrees with 7 the procedural history in Defendant’s Opposition and adds the following:

8 1. Visitation pending trial

9 The Court heard testimony regarding Andrew’s supervised visitation
10 pending trial and found that Aimee would assist with visitation when it’s needed
11 and when it’s ordered. However, on December 7, 2019, Andrew requested to see 12 Roen and Aimee denied the visit simply because Jerry, the supervisor, was not 13 available that day. She could have facilitated Andrew seeing Roen with the 14 babysitter’s presence, however, she did not¹.

15 2. The parents’ ability to cooperate to meet the needs of the child

16 Andrew acknowledged he believes he can co-parent with Aimee:

17 Ms. Robinson to Andrew: “So coparenting, do you believe you can co-18 parent with clearly outlined orders?”

² See video time stamp 3:08:07 – 3:08:22.

2 Ms. Robinson to Andrew: "How did you learn recently that Roen had 3 changed doctors?"

4 Andrew: "Aimee told me that she changed doctors³."

5 Ms. Robinson to Andrew: "And did she [Aimee] consult with you
6 before making that decision?"

7 Andrew: She did not consult with uh me about changing his doctors. I
8 didn't know she was looking for a new doctor⁴."

9 3. Andrew's mental health

10 a) Andrew's mental health diagnosis and medical records

11 The Court found that the only testimony Father gave about his mental health 12 is that he goes to the therapist, however, he did not provide any medical records.

13 However, the Court indeed heard more testimony regarding Andrew's mental 14 health and there were medical records submitted as proposed exhibits.

15 The court heard testimony that Andrew has been diagnosed with adult ADD
16 and was prescribed Adderall.

17 Moreover, Andrew testified as a child he had ADHD, so this is not something 18 new. He also testified that his Adult ADD does not impede him in any way shape or 19 form in the parenting of Roen, when he manages it with medication and he takes his 20 medication unless the pharmacy is out of his medication but that does not happen

³ See Video Time Stamp 3:08:23 - 3:08:32.

⁴ See Video Time Stamp 3:08:32 - 3:08:52.

1 often. Even when he is out of his medication, he does not feel it would impede him
2 from caring for Roen, as he is more affected if solving complex issues at work or 3 managing work and school.

4 Ms. Robinson: do you have anything that would be classified as a mental health issue?

5 Andrew: Yes

Ms. Robinson: What is that?

6 Andrew: I have adult ADD

Ms. Robinson: What are some symptoms of adult ADD?

7 Andrew: If not medicated, lack of attention, lethargic, brain scattered and lack of focus⁵.

8 Ms. Robinson: did you have ADHD or ADD as a child?

9 Andrew: Yes

Ms. Robinson: What are you currently taking to manage your adult
10 ADD?

11 Andrew: I'm taking Aderall...⁶

Ms. Robinson: Do you feel that your adult add impedes you in any way
12 shape or form in the parenting of Roen?

13 Andrew: Not when managed with medication, no ⁷.

Ms. Robinson: Do you consistently take your medication as prescribed?
14 Yes, but there's been a couple of issues where pharmacies have been lacking just recently like 3 or 4 days they ran out and then I didn't have 15 medication.

Ms. Robinson: How often does that occur?

16 Andrew: More so, not not as recent so this is just the only occurrence
17 in recent memory that I can recall⁸.

19 ⁵ See Video at 1:59:32 – 2:01:31.

⁶ See Video at 2:03:15-2:03:23.

20 ⁷ See Video at 2:04:00 - 2:04:13

⁸ See Video at 2:04:15 -2:04:52

1 Ms. Robinson: If you are without your medication for a few days, how do you think that affects you?

2 Andrew: I mean it usually only affects me if I have to it doesn't affect me along the lines of caring with my son it usually affects me when I 3 have school and work because of the complex problems I solve let's say at work⁹.

4 Aimee alleges in her Opposition that Andrew failed to produce medical 5 records during discovery. While it is true that Andrew did not produce the records
6 during discovery, the evidence showed that he attempted to obtain them and was not 7 able to do so until after discovery had closed. Specifically, the Court heard testimony
8 that not only was Mr. Friedman's office having trouble obtaining the records, but so
9 was Andrew. He attempted numerous times to get his doctor to release the records
10 to Mr. Friedman's office and it was not until February 4, 2020, the day of the trial,
11 that the records were sent to Mr. Friedman's office. In fact, Mr. Friedman 12 acknowledged having received them that day and had not reviewed them yet.

13 Andrew was testifying as to specific details regarding his mental health, but 14 the Court had that part stricken from the record because no one had reviewed the 15 medical records yet.

16 When Andrew's counsel offered the medical records as evidence, the Court
17 declined to admit them because Mr. Friedman had not had the opportunity to review
18 them and unless he was stipulating to them, the Court would not allow them. Mr.

⁹ See Video at 02:05:06.

1 Friedman did not stipulate to admit the records that day and the Court indicated the 2 medical records would be discussed on day 2 of the trial.

3 On February 18, 2020, the second day of trial, the medical records were not 4 discussed or admitted.

5 Andrew's mental health records clearly show that he is mentally and 6 emotionally stable and there is nothing in them to cause concern¹⁰. Specifically, they 7 show:

8 1) Andrew consistently saw his doctor for management of his ADHD medication
9 between 7/23/2018 and 1/22/2020 when the records end.

10 2) Andrew shows no concerns about suicide in EVERY VISIT.

11 3) Andrew is diagnosed with ADHD.

12 4) Andrew is consistently prescribed medication for his ADHD.

13 5) Andrew's issues with ADHD affect his work.

14 6) Andrew is consistently noted as being cooperative, stable, well groomed, etc.

15 7) Andrew mentions in two visits that his girlfriend (Aimee) is using drugs.

16 8) Andrew mentions that his girlfriend (Aimee) accused him of being paranoid
17 because he suspected Aimee was cheating and found out she was using drugs.

18 ///

20 ¹⁰ See Exhibit 2 – Andrew's medical records.

1 b) Andrew’s text message about wanting to die

2 The Court stated in its findings that “Father’s threats that he wants to die is 3 extremely concerning.” However, Andrew’s testimony indicates that 1) his text
4 message to Aimee from March 2019 “I don’t care if I die” was not a suicidal threat, 5 and 2) he discussed the issue with his psychiatrist.

6 Aimee did not present any evidence that Andrew had indeed attempted to 7 commit suicide at any given time or showed more text messages that showed a 8 continuous pattern of “wanting to die.” One text message, taken out of context and 9 blown out of proportion was all that was entered into evidence on this issue and all 10 there even exists.

11 4. The physical, development and emotional needs of the child and the 12 nature of the relationship of the child with each parent

13 a) Andrew’s bond with Roen

14 The Court heard testimony regarding Andrew’s bond with Roen, he described 15 in detail what he does with Roen for fun and how Roen enjoys those things.

16 Ms. Robinson: I would like you to please tell the court just about your 17 relationship with Roen. What do you guys like to do for fun?

18 Andrew: Just recently we got some coloring books and stuff like that 19 we play around; it was pretty cool the other day we were doing some 20 sit ups and we just found the fun in that, he was enjoying it. We play

1 with cars, a lot of toys, read books, this little music book that we like to 2 play and trying to teach both of us how to play the Ukulele¹¹.

3 As Andrew testified the above, he smiled and seemed like he was having a 4 conversation with a friend, rather than testifying at trial.

5 b) Developmental needs of the child

6 The Court heard testimony regarding Andrew's plans should he get primary 7 or joint physical custody while he is at work, as follows:

8 Ms. Robinson: What is your plan should you get primary physical 9 custody or joint physical custody, what would be your plan with Roen
10 when you are at work?

11 Andrew: So when I am at work he would go to preschool but I would 12 like to keep the same consistency, I would take him to the same baby 13 sitter that he's had but also a couple of days a week I would like him to 14 go to preschool¹².

15 c) Roen's birthday

16 The Court is concerned about Father's relationship with the child as he only 17 stayed for 20 minutes on the child's birthday even though Mother made 18 accommodations and the Father had sufficient time. Yes, Andrew saw Roen for a 19 short time on his birthday. He showed up late because he worked that day and stayed 20 for a short time because the visitation supervisor was not present and Aimee, who was supervising at that time, kept running upstairs. When she ran upstairs Roen kept ¹¹ See Video at 2:07:11 – 2:08:06.

¹² See Video at 2:06:30 – 2:07:06.

1 wondering what she was doing; to avoid Roen from being further disturbed and 2 Andrew being left alone with him, he left. Regardless, Andrew saw Roen on his 3 birthday and Aimee agreed Roen was happy to see him.

4 Moreover, Andrew had reached out to Aimee to plan Roen's birthday but she 5 insisted that they plan it separately¹³. Andrew had a birthday party with Roen at a 6 train station on another day.

7 II. LEGAL ARGUMENT

8 A. The Court Should Reconsider Plaintiff's Request for Primary 9 Physical Custody and/or Grant a New Trial.

10 The evidence and testimony presented at trial warrant a reconsideration, as it
11 shows that Andrew has been in Roen's life since day one, he has taken him to the 12 doctor, cooked for him, played with him, read to him and provided for him 13 financially, all of which have contributed to the physical, developmental and 14 emotional needs of Roen.

15 Moreover, it should be considered that his plan to put Roen in preschool and 16 keep him with the same babysitter to keep consistency in his life, as it shows his goal 17 for stability.

19 20
¹³ See video from 02/04/20 at 03:10:12.

1 Andrew's testimony shows that he is taking his prescribed medications, and 2 even when he hasn't for whatever reason, it does not impair him or prevent him from 3 properly caring for Roen.

4 Andrew took his son to the hospital because he believed he had drugs in his 5 system but did not put Roen in danger.

6 While it is concerning that Andrew sent a text message he didn't care if he 7 died, it was not a suicidal threat and Aimee did not present additional or similar 8 messages for it to be a continuing concern. It can be generalized that at some point 9 almost everyone has said in their life, without actually meaning to kill oneself, that 10 they didn't care if they died. Further, if it was such a concern, then those concerns 11 would have been allayed by admission of Andrew's mental health records. Yet, the 12 Court chose to not admit the records and instead simply rely on one out of context 13 text message.

14 Andrew's mental health records clearly show that he is mentally and 15 emotionally stable, seeks regular oversight from his ADHD doctor and monitoring
16 of his ADHD medication. They also show there is nothing concerning about Andrew 17 mental health-wise that is sufficient to warrant an award of primary physical custody 18 to mom.

19 This Court should reconsider and/or grant a new trial and award Andrew 20 primary physical custody.

1 III. CONCLUSION

2 BASED ON THE FOREGOING, Plaintiff requests this Court issue an Order:

- 3 1. Reconsidering the Order from the February 4 and 18, 2020 hearings;
- 4 2. Granting Plaintiff's Request for a New Trial;
- 5 3. For any other relief this Court deems fair and appropriate.

3 (THE PROCEEDINGS BEGAN AT 10:29:24)

5 THE COURT: Good morning. We're on the record in 6 Case D-590407, Andrew Warren vs. Aimee Ahyang. Counsel, your
7 appearances for the record? Let's start with Plaintiff's
8 Counsel, please.

9 MS. MCFARLING: Emily McFarling, Bar number 8567,
10 appearing on behalf of the Plaintiff, Andrew Warren --

11 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Friedman, your appearance, 12 please.

13 MS. MCFARLING: -- who is present.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. FRIEDMAN: Yes. Good morning, Your Honor.
16 Kenneth Friedman, Bar number 5311, on behalf of Ms. Ahyang who 17 is present in my office.

18 THE COURT: Okay. This is the time set on 19 Mr. Warren's motion for new trial pursuant to NRCP-9 and 20 reconsideration, and Mom's opposition and reply. Counsel, I 21 have read it. I also read your objection, Mr. Friedman. But 22 I'm going to tell you up front that I did still review them as 23 an offer of proof.

24 And so I also want to give him every possible chance

1 to -- to address it. I still didn't find that portion
2 compelling, Mr. Friedman, but I did review them. So you
3 understand, I know you filed an objection, but I did review
4 them as just an offer of proof.

5 Ms. McFarling, it is your motion. I have, like I 6 said, reviewed all of your information, including your 7 exhibits that showed all the medical records, went through 8 them in detail -- went through them in detail and reviewed 9 them.

10 So I'm happy to hear from you, but I'm not seeing 11 anything, Counsel, that's going to change my mind as to 12 locking him and the child in the bathroom, his statements on 13 the record, and all the -- all the testimony that was 14 presented regarding the paranoia or that he doesn't want to 15 live. I don't think that even that that I've seen so far,
16 that it would have outweighed it even if that -- that evidence
17 had come before me, Ms. McFarling. But I will hear from you
18 if there's anything else you want to add.

19 MS. MCFARLING: I don't really think there's 20 anything beyond what is in the briefing. And you've noted
21 that you have read everything. So I'm not going to waste time
22 going into any detail or rehashing what you've already read.

23 You -- you have the ability in your discretion to 24 reconsider or grant a new trial. At this time, I think all of

1 the evidence and information in the motion and the reply brief
2 are sufficient for you to do that. If you do deny those
3 requests at this time, I ask that you make sure to have clear
4 findings of fact in that order so that it can be fully 5 reviewed.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Friedman --

7 MS. MCFARLING: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: -- your -- your turn, sir.

9 MR. FRIEDMAN: Judge, I'm going to submit.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Counsel, my finding is -- this is 11 my finding. I do not find -- even after thorough review of 12 the medical records that -- that your client has stated that 13 -- that would change my mind as to it, the Court still finds 14 that it is in the child's best interest, Rowan Warren, as to 15 the previous order that I have ordered.

16 My concern is still there regarding his behavior,
17 and his testimony regarding his behavior. That has not 18 changed. I do not find anything that has swayed that I think
19 there's a basis for granting a new trial, nor a 20 reconsideration, Counsel. Specifically, I still have -- I 21 still believe the findings are accurate in the order from the 22 evidentiary hearing, that it is in Rowan's best interest for 23 the custody to remain as ordered.

24 Anything else you need, Counsel?

1 MS. MCFARLING: I can prepare the order from today.
2 THE COURT: That's fine. Mr. Friedman, unless you
3 want to prepare it, you -- you did prevail on this issue.
4 But --
5 MR. FRIEDMAN: No. Ms. McFarling can do it. My 6 client was very generous. We didn't ask for an award of 7 attorney's fees. So if Ms. McFarling would prepare the order,
8 that would be great.
9 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Prepare the order, 10 Counsel, and submit it to my court. Thank you for your 11 appearances.
12 MS. MCFARLING: Thank you.
13 MR. FRIEDMAN: Thank you. Have a nice morning.
14 (PROCEEDINGS CONCLUDED AT 10:33:01)

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- PLAINTIFF'S RE-NOTICE OF MOTION FOR NOTICE OF MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL PURSUANT TO NRCP 59, AND RECONSIDERATION

The Court reviewed the case history and the pleadings on file. Court advised Counsel, the Court reviewed all pleadings and exhibits as an offer of proof; however, the Court does not see anything that outweighs what occurred in the bathroom.

Discussion.

Court FINDS, after reviewing the medical records, the Court still FINDS the previous order was in the child's best interest as to his behavior. Court further FINDS there is no basis for a new trial or reconsideration.

COURT ORDERED,

Custody shall be status quo as to Court's previous order.

There shall be no award of Attorney Fees.

Attorney McFarling shall prepare the order from today's hearing; Attorney Friedman shall review and countersign.
