JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Ms. Jacobson stated she did not receive Defendant's Financial Disclosure Form (FDF) until last night and stated that his FDF did not include all assets. Court noted it appears the only issue is financial. Ms. Jacobson requested the Court inform the Defendant that he must include the residence in his FDF. Defendant stated the residence is not community property. Court indicated that the house is a trial issue and if mortgage payments were made by the Plaintiff, then there would be a community property interest and the Court would need to know the value of the home. Court informed the parties that they are to understand that anything acquired during the marriage is community property (including bank accounts, retirement accounts, cash on hand, and any other assets). COURT ORDERED, as follows;

1. Matter set for a NON-JURY TRIAL on 9/28/15 at 1:30 PM. Each party shall have ninety (90) minutes to present their case which includes opening statements, examination time (direct and cross) and closing statements.

2. Pretrial memorandum to be exchanged and filed with courtesy copies delivered to chambers no later than 9/21/15.

3. Discovery shall close at the close of business on 9/21/15.

4. Parties are to exchange lists of witnesses no later than the close of business on 8/31/15 which is to include the name of the witness, address of the witness, telephone number and a brief description of what each witness shall have to offer. Any witness not identified in advance of the hearing who is presented at the hearing will not be permitted to testify at the hearing absent compelling circumstances. (The Court expects testimony from the parties.)

5. Parties are to exchange their proposed exhibits and they are to provide their proposed exhibits to the Court Clerk by the close of business on 9/21/15. Plaintiff's exhibits are to be marked numerically and Defendant's exhibits are to be marked alphabetically. Exhibits are not to be filed.

6. The Joint Preliminary Junction remains IN EFFECT and is recognized as an Order of this Court. There is to be no transfer or disposal of any assets.

7. There shall be no award of ATTORNEY'S FEES at this time.

The Court shall issue an Order based on the minutes.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Ms. Jacobson stated she did not receive Defendant's Financial Disclosure Form (FDF) until last night and stated that his FDF did not include all assets. Court noted it appears the only issue is financial. Ms. Jacobson requested the Court inform the Defendant that he must include the residence in his FDF. Defendant stated the residence is not community property. Court indicated that the house is a trial issue and if mortgage payments were made by the Plaintiff, then there would be a community property interest and the Court would need to know the value of the home. Court informed the parties that they are to understand that anything acquired during the marriage is community property (including bank accounts, retirement accounts, cash on hand, and any other assets). COURT ORDERED, as follows:

1. Matter set for a NON-JURY TRIAL on 9/28/15 at 1:30 PM. Each party shall have ninety (90) minutes to present their case which includes opening statements, examination time (direct and cross) and closing statements.

(The Court expects testimony from the parties.)

MOTION

(Your name) Justin Maurice ______, in Proper Person, moves this Court for an Order modifying child support and/or spousal support.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES LEGAL ARGUMENT

 $(\boxtimes$  you must check and comply with the box below)

☑ I understand that I must file my Financial Disclosure Form to support my request to modify child support and/or spousal support, and that failure to file my Financial Disclosure Form may result in my request being denied.

A child support order must be reviewed by the court every three years upon request of a parent or guardian. A child support order may be reviewed at any time on the basis of changed circumstances. A change in 20% or more in the gross monthly income of a person subject to a child support order shall be deemed changed circumstances. NRS 125B.145. Any inaccuracy or falsification of financial information which results in an inappropriate award of child support is also grounds to modify child support. NRS 125B.080.

An order for alimony may be modified on the basis of changed circumstances. A change in 20% or more in the gross monthly income of a person ordered to pay alimony shall be deemed changed circumstances. In addition to any other factors the court finds relevant, the court shall consider whether the income of the spouse ordered to pay alimony, as indicated on the spouse's federal tax return from the previous year, has been reduced to such a level that the spouse is financially unable to pay the amount ordered. NRS 125.150.

| 13       | POINTS AND AUTHORITIES  |
| 14       | I. FACTS  |
| 15       |   |
| 16       | The Parties, Plaintiff SARAH MAURICE ("Sarah") and Defendant JUSTIN MAURICE                       |
| 17       | ("Justin") were divorced by this Court, by way of a Stipulated Decree of Divorce, on September    |
| 18       | 30, 2015. Of main issue herein is the child support, child care and health expenses to be paid by |
| 19       | Justin regarding the parties' minor children. Together, the parties have two daughters: Savannah  |
| 20       | Maurice, born April 27, 2007; and Emma Maurice, born February 12, 2014.                           |
| 21       | The parties entered the Decree after having addressed all child related issues and the only       |
| 22       | remaining issues were property related. As such, the Decree reiterated the already existing       |
| 23       | orders for child support and division of the cost of child care as had been previously ordered by |
| 24       |   |
| 25       | this Court at the time of the February 10, 2015 and May 11, 2015 hearings in this matter. As      |
| 26       | provided in the Schedules of Arrears concurrently filed herewith, during those hearings Sarah     |
| .27      | was awarded primary physical custody. Justin was awarded specific days of visitation and,         |
| 28       |   |

| 1          | regarding child support, was to pay Sarah $1,260 each month commencing February 2015. As   |
|------------|---|
| ,2.        | for child care, the parties were to equally divide same. At the May 11, 2015 hearing, the only  |
| 3          | revision made to the foregoing is that the parties agreed to lower Justin's child support obligation  |
| 4          | to $1,200 per month. Justin was also ordered to provide health insurance for the parties'  |
| 5          | daughters.  |
| :6; :7 |   |
| 7          | Specifically, at hearing before the Court on February 10, 2015, child support was ordered   |
| 8          | as follows:   |
| 9.10   | "Defendant's CHILD SUPPORT obligation is set at one thousand two hundred sixty dollars ($1,260.00) per month beginning February 2015, payable in two |
| 11         | equal installments (of $630.00) on the 10th and 20th day of each month. (This  |
| 12         | amount takes into consideration a $130.00 offset for the cost of insurance.)"  |
| 13         | Thus, the amount of $1,260 takes into account Sarah's share of the health insurance for  |
| 14         | the parties' children and Justin's child support obligation is reduced accordingly - as he was to   |
| 1.5        | have been providing health insurance for the parties' children. But that was not the case as Justin   |
| 16         |   |
| 17         | stopped providing same, to Sarah's knowledge and belief, as of September of 2015. So Justin   |
| 18         | has been benefiting from this offset without actually covering the expense. Thus, the amount of   |
| 19         | $130 per each month should be added to Justin's arrears for the period of September 2015 to  |
| 20         | date. Moreover, Sarah herself has been forced to secure health insurance for the children and has   |
| 21         | been covering the entire monthly premium on her own since October of 2015. The cost for same  |
| 22         | has been $282.46 per month and Sarah respectfully requests that the Court order Justin to  |
| ,2,3       | reimburse her for his half of this expense. See letter from Employer attached hereto as Exhibit   |
| 24         |   |
| 25         | 1. At the time of the May 11, 2015 hearing, Justin's child support obligation was reduced to  |
| 26         | $1,200 per month commencing in May of 2015. <sup>2</sup> This was the only revision to the prior order as  |
| 28         | see a monade or an entried a containty Day three of health 1,   |

1 the Court, in May, specifically ordered that "all other orders not addressed herein shall remain in 2 effect."3

Since the parties' divorce, Sarah has remained the children's primary care provider. And, while Justin continues to enjoy an expensive lifestyle, he remains in arrears regarding child support and has altogether refused to pay his share of the child care and/or health related expenses.

ARGUMENT

A. JUSTIN'S MOTION SHOULD BE DENIED

Justin has filed a motion to reduce his child support obligation as he alleges a significant 11 reduction in income. Said reduction should raise red flags regarding the willfulness of Justin's 12 conduct in lowering his income from the $5,428 he claimed in January of 2015 to the current 13 14 amount of $3,400 claimed in his current Financial Disclosure Form. Further, the Court is able to 15consider separate property in securing and/or setting a parties' support obligation. It is believed 16that Justin continues to engage in the same expensive lifestyle he enjoyed while earning the 17 higher income. While Justin's Financial Disclosure Form does not reveal an additional source of 18 funds, it is presented that Justin's lifestyle does not accurately reflect his currently claimed 19 20 income. Thus, an inquiry into his assets and financial resources is requested by way of limited 21 discovery regarding same.

B. SARAH'S SCHEDULES OF ARREARS SHOULD BE REDUCED TO JUDGMENT

Concurrently with this Opposition and Countermotion, Sarah has filed two Schedules of 24 Arrears. The first Schedule addresses child support arrears which Justin has failed to pay and the 25 26 second addresses the portion of child care expenses which Justin has also failed to pay and has, 27thereby, forced Sarah to alone shoulder this expense. Additionally, Sarah has had to provide <sup>3</sup> Id. at page 2, item 8.

|----------|--|----|
| I        | health insurance for the parties' daughters as, though he was ordered to maintain same, Justin has   |    |
| 2        | failed to do so since September 2015. Thus, along with reducing the child care and child support   |    |
| 3        | arrears to judgment, Sarah respectfully requests that the health insurance premium and expenses  |    |
| 4        | also be taken into consideration and that the Court order Justin to remit his portion of the   |    |
| 5        | expenses at this time and that same also be reduced to judgment.   |    |
| 6        |  |    |
| 7        | C. JUSTIN'S CONDUCT CONSTITUTES CONTEMPT AND HE SHOULD BE SANCTIONEDAccordingly.   |    |
| 99   | Despite the Court's clear orders, Justin failed to perform the following:  |    |
| 10       | 1. Provide Court ordered amount of child support per month;  |    |
| 11       | 2. Provide health insurance for the parties' minor children since September of 2015; and   |    |
| 12       | 3. Equally divide the child care expenses (including but not limited to the monthly  |    |
| 13       | premiums) related to the parties' minor children.  |    |
| 1415 | Though failing to meet his financial obligations for the care of the parties' minor children,  |    |
| 1516 | Justin continued to enjoy the same lifestyle he had before being laid off. It is believed that Justin  |    |
| 17       | even purchased new vehicles and provided for the care and support of others he was dating.   |    |

Re: Insurance premium

This is to verify the cost of Medical, Dental & Vision coverage through YESCO's least expensive insurance plan. The cost of YESCO's single plan is $209.86 per month and the cost for YESCO's family plan is $492.32 per month. Therefore the additional cost to add dependents to the plan is $282.46 per month.

If you require further assistance, please contact me in the Human Resources Department.

01/20/2016 10:00 AM DEFENDANT'S MOTION AND NOTICE OF MOTION FOR ORDERS TO MODIFY CHILD SUPPORT AND/OR SPOUSAL SUPPORT...PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION AND COUNTERMOTION TO REDUCE ARREARS TO JUDGEMENT AND FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES Ms. Jacobson said she believed the parties had resolved the issues. The Court explained to Defendant it could not retroactively modify his child support. The Court said it could only modify his child support from when he filed his Motion on December 18, 2015, and since the Motion was filed in December, the modification would take place effective January, 2016. The Court said any arrearages accrued prior to the filing of his Motion, could not be modified retroactively. Ms. Jacobson said the Schedule of Arrearages were for child support arrearages and unreimbused day care expenses. COURT ORDERED, the following: 1. Pursuant to the stipulation of the parties, based on Defendant's representation he makes $1,700.00 every two weeks, his child support will be reduced to $920.00 per month effective January, 2016. The District Attorney's Office is currently garnishing Defendant's wages, and three (3) checks have already been garnished; however, Plaintiff has only received one payment. Defendant will look into this. Commencing February, 2016, Defendant will receive an offset against his child support in the amount of $134.00 per month for the minor children's medical insurance premium cost. 2. Pursuant to the stipulation of the parties, two Schedules of Arrearages have been filed with the Court, one for child support arrearages, and one for day care reimbursement, and each schedule will be REDUCED TO JUDGMENT, collectible by any legal means, which will be STAYED, provided Defendant pays $217.00 per month towards his arrearages until they are paid in full. The District Attorney's Office may add that amount to the wage garnishment from Defendant's pay check every month. 3. Since Defendant did not provide medical insurance for the minor children in October, November, and December, 2015, and January, 2016, he shall reimburse Plaintiff the sum of $130.00 for the offset he was receiving to his child support every month to provide medical insurance for the children, in the amount of $520.00, which shall be REDUCED TO JUDGMENT. 4. Since Plaintiff was forced to obtain medical insurance for the minor children during the months of October, November, and December, 2015, and January, 2016, Defendant shall reimburse Plaintiff for half of the premium amount she was paying for the medical insurance for the children. Since Plaintiff was paying $280.00 per month for the medical insurance, with Defendant's share being $140.00 per month, he shall also reimburse

Plaintiff the sum of $560.00, which shall be REDUCED TO JUDGMENT. 5. Ms. Jacobson is awarded attorney fees in the amount of $250.00. 6. Ms. Jacobson shall prepare the Order. Defendant shall have fourteen (14) days to review and sign off on the order.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that, commencing February 2016 and provided he begins to provide health insurance for the parties' minor children as presented, Justin shall receive an offset of $134.00 per month for health insurance for the minor children. (VT 11:22:40).

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the two (2) Schedules of Arrears (arrears 13 14 of child care to date in the amount of $4,690.94 and arrears of child support to date in the amount 15 of $5,102.24) filed by Sarah and the total amounts therein are hereby reduced to judgment 16 accruing interest and collectible by any legal means. beginning in February 2016, but, to date, that amount has been $282.00 per month. This amount is hereby also reduced to judgment accruing interest and collectible by any legal means which are stayed so long as Justin continues to pay the above-state amount toward arrears in addition to his child support obligation each month for a total arrears reduced to judgment amount of $10,873.18.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that Justin shall pay a total of $1,003 per month in total, not including day care expenses from January 2016 forward, which amount is comprised of his $920 per month child support obligation; his $217 arrears payment (until the total amount of arrears $10,873.18 is paid in full); and together with an offset (commencing February 2016) of $134 as and for health insurance premium.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that all other prior orders not specifically modified herein, including but not limited to the parties' obligations to equally bear the children's day care expenses, shall remain unmodified.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that Sarah is awarded $250.00 as and for attorney's fees incurred herein. This amount is reduced to judgment and collectible by any legal means.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES T Statement of Facts

On September 30, 2015, Defendant Justin Maurice ("Justin") and Plaintiff Sarah Maurice ("Sarah") were divorced. Because of Justin's work schedule at Yesco<sup>1</sup> at the time of the Decree and initial custodial determination, the Parties agreed that Sarah would be awarded primary custody of their two children born from their marriage, namely Savannah Maurice ("Savannah"), born April 27, 2007 and Emma Maurice ("Emma"), born February 12, 2014. Per the Decree and the Parties' agreement, Justin's visitation with Savannah and Emma is every other weekend from Friday after school or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session. Per stipulation of the Parties on December 5, 2016, Justin's current child support obligation is $1,200 a month. Additionally, pursuant to the Decree, Sarah claims Savannah and Emma on her income taxes each year.

- 14 Since entry of the Decree, Justin has changed employment and currently works four (4) days per week (Monday through Thursday) from 8am to 4 pm, and works remotely from home. Additionally, since entry of the Decree, Sarah's hours have increased, as well as her income, and she works Monday through Friday. Sarah's work schedule does not allow her to get home from work until 6:00 p.m. As such, Savannah and Emma are necessarily being taken care of during the week by a third party<sup>2</sup>--despite the fact Justin is home and able to watch the girls and supervise their schooling (which is also currently being done remotely). Further, Justin's wife is home each day supervising her children's schooling and could easily, and is willing to, also assist with Savannah's and Emma's schooling.

It should also be noted that in March, 2020, Justin took care of the minor 3 children during the week when Sarah was at work. However, when Justin 4 requested they change the custodial timeshare to joint custody on a 2-2-3 5 schedule<sup>3</sup>, which eliminates and/or reduces the time the children must be cared for 6 7 by others and ensures greater attention to their schooling, which is clearly in their best interests, Sarah retaliated and abruptly stopped having Justin take care of 8 Savannah and Emma during the week while she was at work. Instead of agreeing 9 to a schedule that benefits the children, she decided she would rather a third party 10 11 watch the minor children—during the times Justin is not working and available for the children--and since school has started, this means a third party is now also 12 supervising their remote education. 13

Because the facts of this case, applicable law, and best interests of the 14 minor children, merit modification of the custodial timeshare to joint physical 15 custody, the court will readily determine that the best interests of the minor 16 children support the relief Justin requests. Accordingly, given the fact Justin's 17 work schedule has changed, enabling him to be home with Savannah and Emma 18 during the week and during school, Justin seeks modification of the custody and 19 support provisions of the decree as well as requests the tax deductions for the 20 minor children be shared. 21

Legal Analysis

A. The Best Interests of Savannah and Emma Mandates Modification of the Current Custodial Schedule.

4 The law is clear that a change in custody or visitation is warranted when: 5 (1) the circumstances of the child or family unit as a whole have been 6 substantially changed; and (2) the modification is in the best interest of the 7 child under the factors set forth in NRS 125.480(4). Ellis v. Carucci, 123 Nev. 8 145, 161 P.3d 239 (2007). The Court's paramount consideration in making 9 decisions pertaining to custody and support of minor children must be the 10 welfare of the minor children. Culbertson v. Culbertson, 91 Nev. 230, 533 11 P.2d 768 (1974). Moreover, the guiding principle in the court's exercise of 12 its discretion in cases affecting the rights and welfare of the minor children is 13 the best interests and the welfare of the minor children whose rights are 14 Frenkell v. Frenkell, 86 Nev. 397, 469 P.2d 701 (1970). Broad involved. 15 discretion is given to the Court in decisions regarding custody so as to 16 promote the best interests of the minor children, not the rights of the Parties. 17 Atkins v. Atkins, 50 Nev. 333, 259 P.2d 288 (1927).

Furthermore, the law is clear that preference must not be given to either parent for the sole reason that the parent is the mother or the father of the child. NRS §125C.0035(2). Indeed, when determining custody of minor children, joint custody shall be awarded unless the best interests of the children dictate otherwise.

28

In Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57 (2000), the United States Supreme Court emphasized the presumption that "a fit parent acts in the best interests of their children." Such action was undertaken and effectuated when the parties engaged in a settlement conference and reached a custodial agreement. By the same token, the parties have made a subsequent determination that modifies/changes the initial custodial determination in order to meet the best

1 || interests of their children.

Indeed, our Nevada Supreme Court has repeatedly held "[p]arties are free to agree to child custody arrangements and those agreements are enforceable if they are not unconscionable, illegal, or in violation of public policy."<sup>4</sup>

Clearly, the Parties agreed to Sarah being awarded primary custody<sup>5</sup> of 5 Savannah and Emma based upon the belief and expectation that Justin would 6 7 continue to work at Yesco and not have the ability—despite his desire—to spend additional time with the children. At that time, Savannah was eight (8) and 8 Emma was one (1) years of age. Savannah is now thirteen (13) and Emma is six 9 (6) years of age and both minor children are in school. Clearly, since the above 10 referenced custodial determination, there has been a significant change of 11 circumstances that materially affect the minor children and necessitate a 12 change/modification of the custodial designation. 13

When determining the best interest of the child NRS §125C.0035 directs the court to consider a number of factors with any custodial determination. Among those, relevant to the matter at hand, are:

- 17
- 18

a. The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her custody. NRS §125C.0035(4)(a).

Emma is 6 years old and Savannah is 13 years old. Savannah is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to her custody and visitation. The minor children have conveyed their preference of wanting to spend more time with their father rather than with a third party. This factor favors Justin and the modification of the current custodial timeshare.

25 26

b. Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent. NRS §125C.0035(4)(c).

Justin has always encouraged and supported Savannah and Emma to have a strong relationship with both parents. Justin agreed to Sarah having primary custody of the minor children given their ages at the time of the Decree as well as Justin's work schedule. Sarah was agreeable to Savannah and Emma spending more time with Justin when he began working remotely two of the four work days in March, 2020. However, when Justin recognized the benefit to the children and expressed his desire for joint physical custody, Sarah retaliated and disallowed the minor children to have additional time with Justin during the week. As such, the Parties' actions reveal that Justin is the parent who ensures frequent associations and is the parent who ensures the needs of Savannah and Emma are met.

On the other hand, Sarah would prefer that Savannah and Emma be taken care of by a third party rather than by their father. Sarah's conduct establishes that she is not the parent who will allow frequent associations and a continuing relationship between Savannah and Emma and their father. It is believed that Sarah has decided she want to remain Savannah's and Emma's primary physical custodian so she can continue to receive child support regardless of the detriment such a position has upon the minor children. Thus, this factor favors Justin and the modification of the current custodial timeshare.

c. Level of conflict between the parties. NRS §125C.0035(4)(d).

Justin is loving and exceptionally attentive to the needs of the Savannah and Emma. Justin believes it is best to avoid conflict, especially when it affects Savannah and Emma, but as long as Sarah continues to ignore what is best for Savannah and Emma, coupled with her continuing desire to frustrate and thwart a frequent, meaningful and strengthening relation between the minor children and their father, the conflict will remain. Sadly, because of Sarah's focus on what financially benefits her, she does not recognize, or more troubling—does not care about, the detriment her position has upon the children. The law supports 1 Justin's request for joint physical custody. Thus, this factor also favors Justin and 2 the modification of the current custodial timeshare. 3 # d. Ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child. NRS §125C.0035(4)(e).

The Parties have the ability to cooperate to meet the needs of Savannah and Emma, but Sarah has made it clear that she is unwilling to do so if child support is going to be reduced as a result of such accommodation. In other words, Sarah believes the emotional and educational benefits to the children can be neglected if doing so financially benefits Sarah. Justin has shown that he is a suitable caregiver and will cooperate to meet the needs of Savannah and Emma. More upsetting is Sarah's willingness to gamble Savannah's and Emma's best interests to prevent Justin from having more time with minor children and being a stable and constant party of Savannah's and Emma's lives. The best interests of 14 Savannah and Emma warrant a modification of the current custodial arrangement 15 to allow Savannah and Emma to spend equal time with both parents. 16

e. Mental and physical health of the parties. NRS §125C.0035(4)(f).

Both Parties are health and have the ability to properly car for Savannah and Emma. Sarah's refusal to recognize Savannah's and Emma's need for Justin as their joint physical custodian, as well as his (and the children's) unequivocal preference for the same, raises concern to the mental state of Sarah. As long as she remains under the belief that she alone is able to determine the custodial arrangement that will be followed by the Parties, her unreasonableness will continue to impact the minor children's well-being. There can be no dispute that based upon Sarah's behavior modification of the current custodial schedule is warranted. This factor clearly favors Justin and the modification of the current custodial arrangement.

f. The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child. NRS §125C.0035(4)(g).

Savannah's and Emma's physical, development and emotional needs are 3 typical of children their age. Justin has proven himself capable of recognizing 4 and satisfying those needs. Having the ability to avail themselves to the love, care 5 and guidance of both parents on a regular and frequent bases is in Savannah's and 6 Emma's best interests and preventing them from doing so is undeniably not in 7 their best interest. Justin wants Savannah and Emma to have a loving and 8 significant bond with both parents. This factor certainly favors Justin and the 9 modification of the current custodial arrangement. 10

g. The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent. NRS §125C.0035(4)(h).

Savannah and Emma have a relationship with both parents and they love both of them dearly. Justin wants the relationship Savannah and Emma have with both parents to continue to grow and strengthen; to be a reliable and constant source of strength and support as they continue through challenges, joys and experiences life has for them, whereas Sarah's focus is financial rather than the best interests of the children. With the increasing presence of peer pressure especially for Savannah in her teenage years, parental involvement is critical.

Additionally, NRS 125.460 describes the policy of this State as one that ensures "minor children have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with both parents." Likewise, NRS 125.480 opens with the directive that the "sole consideration of the court" in custody cases must be that of the "best interest of the child[ren]."

Based upon the substantial change of circumstances, that clearly affect the well-being of the children, coupled with consideration to the best interest factors enumerated in NRS 125C.0035, Justin has set forth a prima facia case to modify the current custodial order under Rooney<sup>6</sup> designating him and Sarah as joint 1 physical custodians of Savannah and Emma. This factor plainly favors Justin and 2 the modification of the current custodial timeshare. 3 h. Whether either parent has engaged in an act of domestic violence 4 against the parent of the child. NRS §125C.0035(4)(k). 5 Not applicable. 6 7 i. Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent 8 of the child or any other person residing with the child. NRS 9 §125C.0035(4)(k). 10 Not applicable 11 Accordingly, for the best interest of Savannah and Emma, Justin reasonably 12 requests modification of the current custodial timeshare to joint physical custody 13 of the minor children. 14 B. The modification of the current custodial schedule warrants a modification of child support. 15 With the modification of the current custodial schedule, as joint custodians, 16 child support must necessarily be modified and should be set in accordance with 17 Wright v. Osburn, 114 Nev. 1367, 970 P.2d 1071 (1998), NRS 125B.070, NRS 18 125B.080 and NAC 425.15. Justin has always been willing to support his children 19 and remains intent on providing for the children's needs. Sarah has shown she is 20 willing to sacrifice the best interests of the children if that means Justin's child 21 support will not be reduced. 22 23 C. Modification of the child tax deduction is warranted. 24 With the modification of the current custodial schedule, as joint custodians, 25 the child tax deduction must necessarily be modified so the Parties share the tax 26 deduction each year. 27 28 <sup>6</sup> Rooney v. Rooney, 109 Nev. 540 (Nev. 1993). 10

BACKGROUND AND STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS

The parties to this action divorced in September of 2015. Together the parties have two minor children: Savannah Maurice, born April 27, 2007; and Emma Maurice, born February 12, 2014. Prior to their divorce, the parties separated in September of 2014. Sarah filed the underlying Complaint for Divorce in December of 2014. After several filings and hearings, the parties ultimately entered a stipulated Decree of Divorce on September 30, 2015. This Decree marks the last custodial order in this matter.

As provided in the parties' Decree of Divorce, in relevant part, primary physical custody was confirmed upon Sarah and Justin's visitation was set every other weekend from Friday after school or 3:00 p.m. if no school to Sunday at 6:00 p.m. The Decree also set Justin's child support obligation at $1,260 per month. And Sarah shall claim the minor children on her income taxes every year.

Three months after entry of the Decree, Justin filed a motion to modify child support claiming that his income had changed by more than 20% and Justin sought to lower his monthly obligation to $680.00. At the January 2016 hearing upon Justin's motion and Sarah's opposition and countermotion, the parties represented to the Court their agreement to lower Justin's child support obligation to $920 per

| 2        | insurance for the parties' children, Justin was to receive an offset of $134.00 each         |
| 3        | month. <sup>1</sup> The Court also ordered that Sarah was awarded $5,102.24, reduced to      |
| 45   |   |
| 6        | judgment, as and for Justin's child support arrears. Collection was stayed so long            |
| 7        | as Justin paid $217.00 per month toward the arrearages until paid in full. The D.A.          |
| 8        | was instructed to add this amount to the child support amount to be garnished from            |
| 910  | Justin's pay checks. Justin was also ordered to pay to Sarah an additional $1,080            |
| 11       | stemming from his failure to provide health insurance for the parties' children. <sup>2</sup> |
| 12       | On December 5, 2016, the parties filed their Stipulation and Order                            |
| 13       | increasing Justin's child support obligation to $1,200 per month as his income               |
| 14       | increasing Justin's clinic support obligation to $1,200 per month as his medine              |
| 15       | increased to $5,252 per month. The parties further agreed that Justin shall provide          |
| 1617 | health insurance for the parties' children with no offset to his support obligation (as       |
| 18       | there is no additional charge to cover the girls). And, as Justin failed to pay his           |
| 19       | portion of the childcare costs, the parties agreed that his arrearages of $3,950.50          |
| 20       | were reduced to judgment with the D.A. to add $350.50 to Justin's current monthly            |
| 21       |   |
| 22       | arrears payments. This Stipulation and Order also specifically left all other                 |
| 23       | previous order intact.  |

On July 26, 2017, the parties filed a document entitled Partial Payment for Property Equalization stating that Justin had paid to Sarah some of the equalization payment obligation Justin was to pay to Sarah pursuant to the terms of the parties' Decree of Divorce. The document further stated that Justin had a remaining balance of $10,000 toward this payment obligation.

To date, Justin has not paid this remaining equalization obligation, nor has he paid to Sarah the arrearages ordered by this Court.

Since the entry of the parties' Decree of Divorce, Sarah has demonstrated a 11 12 willingness to work with Justin and has agreed to lower his obligations when he so 13 Likewise, Sarah has accommodated Justin's request regarding the requested. 14 children. During the first week of school, Sarah agreed for the girls to attend 15 16 school at Justin's residence. This agreement was only regarding the first week of 17 school. As Justin has remarried, his wife (who has 4 other children of varying 18 19 ages) was available to assist the parties' children assimilate into the new on-line 20 school arrangement during the first week of school. This agreement, however, has 21 backfired. Not only have the girls encountered chaos in Justin's home during 22 23 school hours, Justin began demanding this arrangement on a regular basis. The 24 children's nanny started the following week. She comes to Sarah's home on 25 26 Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays and is committed to supervising the girls' 27 school attendance and compliance. The girls know her and are comfortable with 28

1 She has provided nanny services, babysitting, and help with school her. 2 pickups/drop offs for over two and a half years while Justin and his current wife 3 have only been together a total of one year. Moreover, Justin's wife has not 4 5 provided adequate care for the parties' daughters. For example, Savannah has 6 overheard Justin's wife bribing the parties' younger daughter, Emma, to get her to 7 8 say she wants to stay at their house. When Sarah brought this up to Justin, Justin 9 expressed that he knew nothing about it; thus, it appears Justin is not aware of what 10 his wife is telling the parties' minor children. Justin's wife has also disparaged 11 12 Sarah and undermined her parenting to the girls. She tells the girls that Sarah is 13 too harsh and that she needs to learn how to choose her battles. Moreover, Justin's 14 wife has allowed Savannah to try alcohol on more than one occasion. Despite this, 15 16 Sarah has continually attempted to cooperate with Justin. 17

In further efforts to work with Justin, as the schools closed following 18 19 COVID related restrictions, Justin and Sarah agreed that, temporarily, the girls 20 would visit with Justin during the day several days a week. This arrangement 21 commenced on March 16, 2020 and lasted three weeks. On April 3, 2020, Justin 2.2 23 and Savannah had an altercation wherein Savannah feared for her safety. 24 Savannah texted Sarah explaining that her dad had been drinking a lot and she 25 26 27 heard him calling the five-year-old twins "little pussies."<sup>3</sup> Savannah stated that the boys were upset and were crying but Justin kept yelling at them. When Savannah asked Justin to stop and to calm down, he directed his anger at her. Shortly after her text, Savannah also called Sarah.

Savannah told Sarah that she would be coming home. Savannah would not tell Sarah why. Savannah was indeed dropped off at Sarah's home. Justin's wife brought Savannah to Sarah. In doing so, she provided no explanation and neither did Justin. Sarah learned from Savannah what had happened.

12 Savannah advised Sarah that Justin had followed Savannah to her room. 13 Justin then got in Savannah's face and told her she could never talk to him that 14 way and that she should be thanking him for saving her life. Justin told Savannah 15 16 that, when her mom was pregnant with her, she was going to be aborted and that 17 her mom did not want her. Understandably, Savannah was extremely hurt and 18 19 upset. Justin scared Savannah by getting in her face and being visibly intoxicated. 20 Savannah began refusing to visit with Justin in his home and the girls expressed 21 that they did not feel safe in his care. Further, Justin expressed indifference to the 2.2

<sup>3</sup> Sadly, Justin also frequently disparages his wife's children. In addition to calling her 5-year-old twins "little pussies" (and in front of the parties' children) he is constantly yelling at his wife's 13 year old daughter. At one point she yelled back and said "you're not my Dad; I don't have to listen to you!" And Justin cruelly replied, "well your dead Daddy isn't here is he?" This was a reference to the child's deceased father.

1 emotional trauma he caused Savannah. When Sarah asked Justin why he would 2 tell Savannah something so hurtful, he simply stated that Savannah needed to know 3 her mom is not as perfect as she thought. After this incident, Sarah did not feel it 4 5 was in the girls' best interest to visit Justin on his non-visitation days. Now, in his 6 efforts to reduce his child support obligation and apparently claim the parties' 7 daughters on his returns, Justin is attempting to utilize Sarah's flexibility in 8 9 parenting to buttress his argument for a custodial modification. But, as mentioned 10 above, Justin exercised additional visitation during a three-week period in March 11 12 of 2020.

Specifically, Justin is now asking the Court to modify the custodial 14 designation to that of joint. In support of his request, Justin argues that his 15 16 alternating weekend visitation schedule was the result of his previous work hours. 17 This is not true. As the Court will please recall, Justin was not visiting the girls 18 19 even on his time off. And though the prior orders allowed Justin to pick up the 20 girls from school, he failed to do so – even though he would get off of work at 1:00 21 p.m. allowing him plenty of time to be with the girls but he, instead, elected to 22 23 have them remain in school. As such, Sarah had no choice but to put them in 24 daycare/after school care. In any event, Justin's "new" job is not so new as he has 25 26 had the same job since May of 2016. Justin's allegation that Sarah's work hour 27

1 have increased is also not true as Sarah has had the same schedule the entire 15 2 years she has been working for her employer. 3 II. 4 5 LEGAL ARGUMENT 6 The parties' minor children have remained in Sarah's primary care since the 7 8 parties' separation in September of 2014. As such, any request to modify custody 9 should be reviewed under Ellis v. Carucci, 123 Nev. 145, 161 P.3d 239 (2007). 10 Pursuant to Ellis, modification of primary physical custody is warranted only 11 12 when (1) the party seeking a modification proves there has been a substantial 13 change in circumstances affecting the welfare of the children and (2) the children's 14 best interests are served by the modification. Justin's current motion fails to meet 15 16 either prong. 17 As presented above, the minor children have remained in Sarah's primary 18 19 care since September of 2014. Since that time, the parties' children have visited 20 with Justin on alternating weekends. Because Sarah was flexible and attempted to 21 work with Justin (until he accosted and emotionally traumatized their children) in 22 23 March of 2020, Justin feels he has established grounds to bring forth a motion to 24 modify custody. But Justin's allegations do not meet the threshold requirement as 25 26 he fails to demonstrate that there has been a substantial change in circumstances 27 affecting the welfare of the parties' minor children. 28

Further, pursuant to Rooney v. Rooney, 109 Nev. 540, 542, 853 P.2d 123, 124 (1993), Justin's Motion should not result in an evidentiary hearing as it fails to demonstrate adequate cause.

Pursuant to Rooney, the Court may deny hearing upon a motion to modify unless the moving party demonstrates adequate cause for the hearing. To demonstrate adequate cause, Justin must set forth a prima facie case for modification which necessitates a showing that "(1) the facts alleged in the affidavits are relevant to the grounds for modification; and (2) the evidence is not merely cumulative or impeaching."<sup>4</sup>

In his Motion, Justin simply alleges that his schedule has changed such that 14 he is now able to work from home and watch the girls during home school. Justin 15 16 omits the fact that his schedule changed back in 2016 and that, when the girls did 17 spend a few school days in his home, they reported a chaotic environment. Justin 18 19 wants the Court to believe that his wife (of less than one year) is able to watch the 20 children during their home school hours. Justin coasts over the fact that his wife 21 has 4 other children she must attend to during those time – a few of behavioral and 2.2 23 learning problems requiring greater attention and rendering Justin's new wife less 24 available to provide adequate care for six children.<sup>5</sup> Though Justin wants the Court 25

27 <sup>5</sup> The household environment is chaotic and not good for the girls to be 28 around. Several of the children have behavioral issues that negatively to find that this fact satisfies the substantial change prong, it is respectfully presented that Justin's Motion is devoid of facts necessary to support the serious request of modification. As such, pursuant to Rooney, Justin's Motion should be denied.

Likewise, Justin's Motion fails to demonstrate the children's best interest would be served by the requested modification.

As provided in NRS 125C.0035, when reviewing the children's best interests, the Court is directed to consider the following factors:

(a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical custody. The parties' oldest child has requested to limit her visitation with Justin given, in part, the recent incident described above.

17 18

19

20

(b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent. Since 2014, the parties nominated Sarah to provide the children's primary care.

(c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent. Since the impact the girls. The oldest daughter curses at her mom, has called her a bitch and has even hit her own mom. She is constantly on restriction and on the last occasion did not want to return from her father's house after 26 27 visitation. The household is chaotic, especially when all 6 of the children 27 are there and does not lend itself to comfortable/productive home school

28 conditions.

1 inception of this case, Sarah has accommodated each of Justin's requests regarding 2 custody (as well as finances). Until now, Justin limited his time with the parties' 3 This fact is not a reflection of Sarah's willingness to facilitate a children. 4 5 continuing relationship. Sarah has also agreed to a temporary school change for the 6 girls due to COVID and continually demonstrates a willingness to cooperate with 7 And, as an example of Sarah's willingness to facilitate frequent 8 Justin. 9 associations, though it was her 4th of July weekend with the girls this year, Sarah 10 had the girls travel with Justin to his father's cabin in Utah. Likewise, Sarah 11 12 facilitates Savannah summer visitations to Maine so she may continue to build her 13 relationship with her paternal grandmother. 14

(d) The level of conflict between the parents. In his Motion, Justin blames 15 16 Sarah for his negligible interest in the parties' children to date. To that end, he 17 wants the Court to believe that Sarah is simply "money hungry." This allegation is 18 19 false and also ironic as Justin makes this allegation while standing in an attitude of 20 contempt as he has failed to pay to Sarah $11,000 in child support arrears as well 21 as the remaining equalization funds owed to her pursuant to the parties' Decree of 22 23 Divorce. As noted in Lamb v. Lamb, 83 Nev. 425, 433 P.2d 265 (1967), "[n]o 24 party to an action can with right or reason, ask the aid and assistance of a court in 25 26 hearing his demands while he stands in an attitude of contempt to the court's legal 27 orders and processes." 28

Moreover, as Justin well knows, it has never been about money for Sarah. Since the parties' separation (and before), Sarah's priority has been the best interests of the parties' children. As to the conflict between the parents, it appears that Justin has made the parties' relationship adversarial as he has begun to disparage Sarah to the children a lot more since getting married.

(e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.Despite the current allegations, this has never been an issue for the parents and there is no indication it should be so now.

(f) The mental and physical health of the parents. It is ironic that Justin now raises concerns regarding Sarah's mental health. Sarah assures the Court that she is of sound mental and physical health. On the other hand, as to Justin, Sarah has concerns as Justin is constantly intoxicated - even when he has the girls.
Additionally, he is unable to control his anger and can become violent and has scared Savannah several times to the point she has expressed fear for her safety.

(g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child. As mentioned above, since Justin told Savannah that her mother wanted to abort her in addition to continually disparaging Sarah before the girls, the girls have expressed fear and anxiety when it is time to visit their father. In his Motion, Justin argues that he is loving and exceptionally attentive. But this is also false. Even on the weekends that the girls are in Justin's care, it is presented that he rarely spends quality time with them.

In support of this factor, Justin also now argues that he is attentive to their 4 5 needs. Even their material needs come into question when they are at his home. 6 He requires that the girls must go home with the same clothes Sarah sent them with 7 8 and if they take something home with them that he purchased he gets upset and 9 demands they make sure to bring it back the next time. Savannah still must take 10 her basic necessities with her when she goes to her Dad's (deodorant, lotion, etc.). 11 12 In this regard, Justin has also told Savannah on several occasions that as he pays 13 her mom so much money every month, she should be buying them two sets of 14 everything - one set for Sarah's house and one set for his. 15

16 Additionally, Sarah is concerned about the girls' environment and 17 inadequate supervision while in Justin's home. Savannah, for example, is often left 18 19 to baby-sit while Justin and his wife go out. On one occasion, they left the 20 children home alone while they went to Phoenix, Arizona for the day. Of 21 additional import here is that Justin and his wife did not let anyone know that they 2.2 23 were out of town, so no one knew that the children were unattended. Likewise, 24 when the children are physically with him, Justin is often not sufficiently attentive. 25 26 In August of 2019, for example, Emma had to get stiches following a visit to the 27 lake. While Justin did tell Sarah about the incident, he refused to let her know 28

2 each parent. While the parties' children love both of their parents, they are bonded 3 with their mother who has been their primary care provider since birth. 4 5 (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling. The 6 girls should remain together. As such, this factor is not applicable. 7 8 (j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the 9 child. As mentioned above, Justin can become violent and has scared Savannah 10 several times where she has expressed fear for her safety. Further, while the 11 12 parties were married, Justin hit Sarah while she was holding Savannah. Justin was 13 also arrested for domestic violence against one of his girlfriends. It is believed that 14 his criminal case ultimately resolved in July 2020. 15 16 (k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has 17 engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or 18 19 any other person residing with the child. In his Motion, Justin denies this factor 20 but this is also not true. There is a history of domestic violence between the parties 21 as Justin abused Sarah in front of their oldest daughter. 22 23

(h) The nature of the relationship of the child with as Justin abused Sarah in front of their oldest daughter. Justin hit Sarah in September 2014 (the act causing their separation). Justin was intoxicated at the time of the incident and he hit Sarah while she was holding their daughter Savannah who was 7 years old at the time. Unfortunately, Savannah was old enough to understand and remember this event. After hitting Sarah, Justin went

28

25

which hospital she was at.

2 Sarah called police for assistance and Justin (though intoxicated) fled the scene. 3 There is also concern as Justin was arrested for perpetrating domestic 4 5 violence upon a former girlfriend while the two were residing together. He called 6 Sarah to bail him out of jail! 7 8 (1) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has 9 committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child. Not 10 applicable. 11 12 In essence, Justin's Motion should be denied as he has failed to provide 13 adequate cause under Rooney. Moreover, Justin's Motion does not demonstrate 14 the children's best interest would be served by a modification. Rather, the 15 16 children's best interests are served by allowing them permanency by maintaining 17 the status quo - which has been the case for the last 6 years. 18 19 20 COUNTERMOTION 21 A. Sarah Should be Awarded Reasonable Attorney's Fees and Costs. 22 23 As it is believed that Justin's Motion is not ripe before the Court and as Justin 24 comes before the Court under an attitude of contempt, it is respectfully requested 25 26 that the Court grant Sarah an award of reasonable attorney's fees for the necessity 27 of addressing this Motion. 28

In this regard, NRS 18.010 provides as follows:

1. The compensation of an attorney and counselor for his or her services is governed by agreement, express or implied, which is not restrained by law.

2. In addition to the cases where an allowance is authorized by specific statute, the court may make an allowance of attorney's fees to a prevailing party:

(a) When the prevailing party has not recovered more than $20,000; or 8 (b) Without regard to the recovery sought, when the court finds that the claim, counterclaim, cross-claim or third-party complaint or 9 defense of the opposing party was brought or maintained without 10 reasonable ground or to harass the prevailing party. The court shall liberally construe the provisions of this paragraph in favor of awarding 11 attorney's fees in all appropriate situations. It is the intent of the 12 Legislature that the court award attorney's fees pursuant to this paragraph and impose sanctions pursuant to Rule 11 of the Nevada Rules of Civil 13 Procedure in all appropriate situations to punish for and deter frivolous or 14 vexatious claims and defenses because such claims and defenses overburden limited judicial resources, hinder the timely resolution of 15 meritorious claims and increase the costs of engaging in business and 16 providing professional services to the public.

3. In awarding attorney's fees, the court may pronounce its decision on the fees at the conclusion of the trial or special proceeding without written motion and with or without presentation of additional evidence.

4. Subsections 2 and 3 do not apply to any action arising out of a written instrument or agreement which entitles the prevailing party to an award of reasonable attorney's fees.

Further, in the context of family law cases, guidance is provided by several given to the work. As to the character of the work, given the research into the history of this case, and the enormity of correspondence to attempt settlement, instead filing a motion that must be responded to, it is of high skill importance. As to work actually performed, the undersigned respectfully asks this Court to find that the work presented is adequate and well contemplated.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

Introduction

4 Unfortunately, the opposition and countermotion crafted and submitted by 5 the Plaintiff, Sarah Maurice ("Sarah") is a vitriolic, defamatory, ad hominem attack 6 of Justin and his wife, intended to prejudice this Court and divert focus on those 7 modifications that are not only warranted, but which are truly in the children's best 8 interests. Sadly, Sarah hopes her false, fabricated, and malicious representations 9 will appear credible if the relief Sarah seeks is consistent with her false narrative<sup>1</sup>. 10 However, the facts of this case do not support Sarah's positions, and the experience 11 of this Court, when considering Sarah's claims, will enable this Court to readily 12 recognize the inconsistencies in Sarah's actions, her intent to mislead and deceive 13 14 this Court, and the absence of evidence/truth to her opposition.

Sarah's dishonesty and corresponding comments demonstrate an unreasonable intent to prevent any modification that is beyond her ability to control, and suspend or leverage for her convenience and/or benefit. However, when consideration is directed and limited to the best interests of the children, Justin is confident the Court will find, as we have, the modification Justin seeks is best for the children.

For example, Justin does not have any problems, nor suffered any consequences, with alcohol, yet Sarah (knowing this) nevertheless seeks a behavioral order "limiting Justin's alcohol consumption while the girls are in his care." Obviously, Justin cannot disprove a negative, but to impose such an unwarranted limitation would be as warranted as imposing upon Sarah "caloric restrictions" or dictate her "sexual orientation". Likewise, Justin does not disparage Sarah to the parties' children or tell them anything inappropriate. Justin is a wonderful parent—a fact Sarah does not dispute, and in fact relies upon—except when Justin seeks to obtain and memorialize a custodial timeshare that is in the children's best interests.

II.

Statement of Facts

Justin accurately addressed the material facts in his underlying motion, and 4 for the sake of brevity, will incorporate them herein by reference. It is significant 5 to note, however, that Sarah does not dispute those facts, including Justin's 6 change of employment, work schedule, and days off; Sarah's work schedule<sup>2</sup>, or 7 the fact that a custodial timeshare was agreed upon between the parties. Thus, in 8 order to divert this Court's attention, Sarah presents a "background" that is largely 9 untrue or irrelevant-designed to malign Justin and create an unwarranted 10prejudice/bias with the Court. Because of that, Justin will provide needed 11 clarification and correct some of the more misleading, inaccurate, and defamatory 12 13 representations made by Sarah.

14 There is no dispute Justin and Sarah were divorced September 30, 2015, 15 and Sarah does not dispute that because of Justin's work schedule at Yesco<sup>3</sup> at the 16 time of the Decree and initial custodial determination, the Parties agreed that 17 Sarah would be awarded primary custody of their two children born from their 18 marriage, namely Savannah Maurice ("Savannah"), born April 27, 2007 (8 years 19 old at the time of the parties' divorce; currently 13 years of age) and Emma 20 Maurice ("Emma"), born February 12, 2014 (1 year old at the time of the parties' 21 divorce; currently 6 years of age). Sarah further admits per the Decree and the 22 Parties' agreement, Justin's visitation with Savannah and Emma is every other 23 weekend from Friday after school or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session. 24

The narrative Sarah presents pertaining to the history of the amount of child 1 2 support Justin was ordered to pay is meaningless. Justin's child support was 3 decreased, and increased, according to his income, consistent with legislative 4 guidelines, and equally important, set pursuant to agreement of the parties. 5 Additionally, Sarah's attention to "arrearages" is misleading-and again, 6 irrelevant, as is her reference to the "remaining equalization obligation." Even if 7 Sarah was accurate with her representations (which she is not), if made to malign 8 Justin, it has nothing to do with what custodial arrangement is best for the 9 children. If Sarah's expectation was instead, that custodial determinations will, or 10 could be, somehow used to "punish" parental misconduct (again if such 11 representations were true—which they are not), such expectation is ill-judged, and 12 contrary to statute and the directives of the Nevada Supreme Court<sup>4</sup>. 13

14 Sarah professes she has demonstrated a willingness to work with Justin, and 15 admitted expanding the time the children spent with Justin—and in a transparent 16 attempt to conceal her unreasonableness when Justin sought to memorialize their 17 agreement-Sarah fabricates claims and excuses-and conceals the fact that 18 whenever Justin seeks more time with the girls, she tells him to "go to Court". 19 For example, the parties' agreement, and her "willingness to work", disappeared 20 upon Justin's request to memorialize their agreement, and Sarah distorts their 21 agreement and now characterizes it as a "demand" by Justin. Sarah is not being 22 candid with this Court. 23

- 25 26

Continuing, the girls have not "encountered chaos" in Justin's home<sup>5</sup>. It is telling that in retaliation for Justin's attempt to provide the stability and predictability that was best for the children, Sarah terminated the agreed upon custodial schedule, reverted back to the custodial order of the Court, and chose to replace the time the children had been—and would be—spending with Justin, with a nanny,<sup>6</sup> who Sarah admits now comes to her home on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays"<sup>7</sup>. Sarah confirms she is willing to sacrifice what is best for the children when litigating with, or needing to control, Justin.

Sarah's newly crafted claims that Justin's wife has not provided adequate 10 care for the children and disparaged/undermined Sarah is patently false and 11 offensive. Likewise, the conduct and statements Sarah attributes to Justin are 12 equally false, demeaning, and unwarranted. As noted above, Justin does not have 13 14 a problem with alcohol—and Sarah knows this—but has demonstrated she is not 15 limited to the truth. Justin, and his wife, have an incredible, loving relationship 16 with the children. Justin is actively involved with the girls and they benefit from 17 his support, involvement, encouragement and guidance.

Since entry of the Decree, Justin has changed employment and currently works four (4) days per week (Monday through Thursday) from 8am to 4 pm, and works remotely from home. Justin picked up the girls from school for his custodial time periods, and he and his wife ("Casey") are able to take and pick the girls up from school when "distance learning" is not required. Sarah is not able to

- <sup>24</sup>/<sub>5</sub> While implementation of "distance learning" necessitated adjustments. What <sup>25</sup>/<sub>8</sub> Sarah fails to disclose to the Court is that she is the one who had difficulties and <sup>26</sup>/<sub>10</sub> texted both Justin and his wife for help submitting or figuring out the schedule.

- 28 <sup>7</sup> Which, incidentally, comprise of the days Justin is seeking—for the children to be with their father rather than a nanny.

take the girls to school or pick them up from school. Indeed, Sarah works 1 2 Monday through Friday and does not get home from work until 6:00 p.m. As such, Savannah and Emma are necessarily being taken care of during the week by 3 a third party (nanny and/or friend<sup>8</sup>) --despite the fact Justin is home and able to 4 watch the girls and supervise their schooling (which is also currently being done 5 Further, Justin's wife is home each day supervising her children's remotely). 6 7 schooling and could easily, and is willing to, also assist with Savannah's and Emma's schooling. 8

Because the facts of this case, applicable law, and best interests of the 9 minor children, merit modification of the custodial timeshare to joint physical 10 custody, the court will readily determine that the best interests of the minor 11 children support the relief Justin requests. Accordingly, given the fact Justin's 12 work schedule has changed, enabling him to be home with Savannah and Emma 13 during the week and during school, Justin seeks modification of the custody and 14 support provisions of the decree as well as requests the tax deductions for the 15 minor children be shared. 16

III. Legal Analysis

A. The Best Interests of Savannah and Emma Mandates Modification of the Current Custodial Schedule.

The law is clear that a change in custody or visitation is warranted when: (1) the circumstances of the child or family unit as a whole have been substantially changed; and (2) the modification is in the best interest of the child under the factors set forth in NRS 125.480(4). Ellis v. Carucci, 123 Nev. 145, 161 P.3d 239 (2007). Sarah accepts Ellis and cites the same authority.

<sup>27</sup> <sup>8</sup> The nanny/babysitter is not consistent and has another job. Sarah's friend,

The facts of this case—which are a matter of record, admitted by, or not 1 2 otherwise disputed by Sarah, confirm there has been a substantial change of 3 circumstances affecting the welfare of the children. When the parties' divorced 4 and the initial custodial determination was made, Savannah was eight (8) and 5 Emma was one (1) years of age. Savannah is now thirteen (13) and Emma is six 6 (6) years of age and both minor children are in school. Also, Justin has remarried, 7 the children have developed close relationships with their step-siblings, Justin's 8 employment, days off, and availability for the children, have changed<sup>9</sup>—which has 9 led to the parties' agreeing to and implementing custodial periods where the 10 children spend more time with Justin. 11

Sarah stoops in her response to Justin being remarried by falsely claiming "a chaotic environment" which apparently "appears" if Justin wants to maintain spending time with the children during the weekdays—and "disappears" when the children spend the current court ordered time with him. Sarah's argument is inconsistent with the facts, unreasonable, untrue<sup>10</sup>, and borders on the ridiculous. Sarah's repeated attack of the marriage as being "less than one year" is inappropriate, mean-spirited, and meaningless. Perhaps Sarah fails to recognize &lt;sup>9</sup> See e.g. Ritter v. Ritter, 450 N.W.2d 204 (1990) (holding "time which a parent is able to devote to a child is a consideration in resolving a child custody question in a marital dissolution proceeding."); Bryant v. Bryant, 739 So. 2d 53 (1999); Collier v. Collier, 698 So.2d 150 (1997); Maloblocki v. Maloblocki, 646 N.E.2d (1995); In re Muell, 408 N.W.2d 774 (1987); Del Papa v. Del Papa, 172 A.D.2d 798 (1991);

Diane L. v. Richard L., 151 A.D.2d 760 (1989). 25 10 First and foremost Justin's home is not chaotic

<sup>27</sup> issues that negatively impact the children, Sarah's claims are untrue, and the fact <sup>28</sup> the environment is conducive of productive school performance has been proven—<sup>28</sup> and then promptly ignored (and misrepresented by Sarah) when Justin wished to that all marriages—including those deep, everlasting relationships that remain for decades, and produce a union of exemplary parents—all were, at one time "less than one year". Sarah should be, but clearly isn't, embarrassed.

Clearly, since the above referenced custodial determination, there has been a significant change of circumstances that materially affect the minor children and necessitate a change/modification of the custodial designation.

7 Continuing, when determining the best interest of the child NRS 8 §125C.0035 directs the court to consider a number of factors with any custodial 9 determination. Justin has accurately addressed those factors in his underlying 10 motion and incorporates such facts/discussion by reference. However, based upon 11 Sarah's lack of candor with this Court, supplemental 12 information/clarification/correction will be provided to the Court. 13

a. The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her custody. NRS §125C.0035(4)(a).

16 Emma is 6 years old and Savannah is 13 years old. Savannah is of 17 sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to her custody and 18 visitation. The minor children have conveyed their preference of wanting to 19 spend more time with their father rather than with a third party; Sarah's claim 20 Savannah wishes to "limit" her time with Justin is false. In fact, Savannah is of the 21 age she prefers time with her friends over her parents—something most parents 22 encounter as their children weather the teenage years. This factor favors Justin 23 and the modification of the current custodial timeshare.

- 25 26

b. Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent. NRS §125C.0035(4)(b).

In 2015 the parties agreed, for the reasons stated herein, for Sarah to be the children's primary physical custodian. When Justin sought to memorialize the custodial modification the parties found to benefit the children, Sarah retaliated.
 Justin's nomination would be for joint physical custody of the children.

c. Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent. NRS §125C.0035(4)(c).

5 Sarah claims she has accommodated each of Justin's requests, admits to the 6 children spending more time with Justin, but when he sought to memorialize his 7 "request", Sarah refused and retaliated; disallowing the minor children to continue 8 having additional time with Justin during the week. Sarah hired a nanny and now 9 prefers that Savannah and Emma be taken care of by a third party rather than by 10 their father. When Justin asks for more time with the girls, Sarah retorts by telling 11 him to "go to Court", which is why (being in the best interests of the girls) the 12 underlying motion was filed. Sarah's conduct establishes that she is not the parent 13 who will allow frequent associations and a continuing relationship between 14 Savannah and Emma and their father. Sarah is not being candid with the court 15 and contradicts herself.

Thus, this factor favors Justin and the modification of the current custodial

d. Level of conflict between the parties. NRS §125C.0035(4)(d).

Sarah misrepresents Justin's position to mislead this Court. Justin has never claimed to have "negligible interest" in the children—but just the opposite.
Justin has undying love, commitment and devotion to his children, is loving and exceptionally attentive to their needs<sup>11</sup>, and is simply asking to spend more time based upon their needs, his ability, and Sarah's inability. Sarah's willingness to

1 sacrifice the children's best interests and violate the duty of candor owed this 2 Court creates conflict<sup>12</sup>.

The law supports Justin's request for joint physical custody. Thus, this 3 factor also favors Justin and the modification of the current custodial timeshare. 4

e. Ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child. NRS §125C.0035(4)(e).

To her credit, Sarah claims this has never been an issue. However, given her current opposition to Justin's requests, Sarah's unwillingness to cooperate is This factor and the best interests of Savannah and Emma warrant a undeniable. modification of the current custodial arrangement to allow Savannah and Emma to spend equal time with both parents.

f. Mental and physical health of the parties. NRS §125C.0035(4)(f).

Both Parties are health and have the ability to properly car for Savannah 13 and Emma. Sarah's refusal to recognize Savannah's and Emma's need for Justin 14 as their joint physical custodian, as well as his (and the children's) unequivocal 15 preference for the same, raises concern to the mental state of Sarah<sup>13</sup>. As long as 16 she remains under the belief that she alone is able to determine the custodial arrangement that will be followed by the Parties, her unreasonableness, and 18 brazen dishonesty, will continue to impact the minor children's well-being. There 19

&lt;sup>12</sup> Another blatant contradiction from Sarah is her claim "it has never been about 21 money for Sarah", but yet, her opposition needlessly devotes considerable attention 22 raising, distorting, and misrepresenting, financial matters, despite the fact custody is that which is at issue. Further, it is significant to note Sarah doesn't seek any 23 financial relief. 24

&lt;sup>13</sup> This concern is validated with Sarah fabricating allegations that Justin "is 25 constantly intoxicated" (which is untrue and never been an issue or used as a basis for Sarah to remove the children from such an environment), and that Justin is 26 unable to control his anger and can become violent (which like above, are untrue 27 used as a basis for Sarah to remove the children from such an environment). Exhibit "A" disproves these claims, and the other defamatory statements made 28 by Sarah.

can be no dispute that based upon Sarah's behavior<sup>14</sup>, modification of the current 1 custodial schedule is warranted. This factor clearly favors Justin and the 2 modification of the current custodial arrangement. 3

g. The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child. NRS §125C.0035(4)(g).

Savannah's and Emma's physical, development and emotional needs are 6 typical of children their age. Justin has proven himself capable of recognizing and satisfying those needs; Sarah's claims Justin disparages her is not true<sup>15</sup>. 8 Moreover, Sarah's reference to an injury Emma sustained when she was at the lake with Justin and the family is not only inaccurate and misleading, it is hypocritical<sup>16</sup>. Justin is an extremely attentive, loving, caring, and devoted father. See Exhibit "A". Having the ability to avail themselves to the love, care and guidance of both parents on a regular and frequent bases is in Savannah's and 13 Emma's best interests and preventing them from doing so is undeniably not in 14 their best interest. Justin wants Savannah and Emma to have a loving and 15

- 24
- 25
- 26
- 27

<sup>15</sup> Savannah is a teenager and has routines she follows and favorite products she uses. Justin buys what she needs and does not monitor or restrict what she takes or brings from/to her mothers. Moreover, the children are always properly cared

&lt;sup>14</sup> Of note, Sarah's parents separated when Sarah was very young. Sarah's father 18 moved on, married another woman, and named the children he had with her 19 "Sarah" and the other names of her siblings, but terminating all contact and support 20 with/for Sarah. Sarah also claims to have been sexually abused by her siblings from her father's deserted family at an early age. Sarah also has a history of 21 extreme depression and bipolar acts resulting in suicidal ideation and harm to the 22 children. Whether these incidents have any bearing on her alienation towards men or merit further intervention remains unknown. 23 for-despite Sarah's claims otherwise. <sup>16</sup> For example, Emma, while under Sarah's care, suffered a trampoline accident that resulted in significant bruises and stitches; but while Justin promptly notified Sarah when Savannah got hurt, Sarah chose to wait days until notifying Justin of 28 Emma's accident.

significant bond with both parents. This factor certainly favors Justin and the modification of the current custodial arrangement.

h. The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent. NRS §125C.0035(4)(h).

Savannah and Emma have a relationship with both parents and they love both of them dearly. Justin wants the relationship Savannah and Emma have with both parents to continue to grow and strengthen; to be a reliable and constant source of strength and support as they continue through challenges, joys and experiences life has for them, whereas Sarah's focus is financial rather than the best interests of the children—as confirmed with her opposition submitted with this Court. With the increasing presence of peer pressure especially for Savannah in her teenage years, parental involvement is critical.

Additionally, NRS 125.460 describes the policy of this State as one that ensures "minor children have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with both parents." Likewise, NRS 125.480 opens with the directive that the "sole consideration of the court" in custody cases must be that of the "best interest of the child[ren]."

i. The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling. NRS §125C.0035(4)(i).

Parties agree the girls are to remain together. Additionally, the girls have developed close relationships with their step-siblings and the requested modification enables all children to derive the support and benefit of the sibling relationships.

j. Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child. NRS §125C.0035(4)(j).

Sarah's commentary is deliberately misleading. While Justin can become violent, and would be so if his life, or the safety and lives of loved ones were in jeopardy, it is submitted Sarah has the same ability—and hopefully predisposition.
However, Justin is not violent and certainly has not scared Savannah several times as claimed by Sarah. The allegation is ludicrous, offensive, and designed solely to obtain an unwarranted "knee-jerk" reaction from this Court. Fortunately, this Court has seen such a tactic on countless occasions and won't succumb to such deception.

5 6

k. Whether either parent has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the parent of the child. NRS §125C.0035(4)(k).

Not applicable. Sarah raises the issue, but admits there is no evidence to support her allegation. The children, Justin's wife, and the multitude of witnesses that have submitted statements to this Court—and who are more than willing to testify to the Court, attest her claims are not true. Justin has never been convicted of domestic violence—another claim seeking that unwarranted "knee-jerk" reaction.

1. Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child. NRS §125C.0035(4)(1).

Not applicable.

13

14

15

16

Conclusion.

Based upon the substantial change of circumstances, that clearly affect the well-being of the children, coupled with consideration to the best interest factors enumerated in NRS 125C.0035, Justin has set forth a prima facia case to modify the current custodial order under Rooney<sup>17</sup> designating him and Sarah as joint physical custodians of Savannah and Emma. This factor plainly favors Justin and the modification of the current custodial timeshare.

Accordingly, for the best interest of Savannah and Emma, Justin reasonably requests modification of the current custodial timeshare to joint physical custody of the minor children.

27

28

B. The modification of the current custodial schedule warrants a modification of child support.

With the modification of the current custodial schedule, as joint custodians, 3 child support must necessarily be modified and should be set in accordance with 4 Wright v. Osburn, 114 Nev. 1367, 970 P.2d 1071 (1998), NRS 125B.070, NRS 5 125B.080 and NAC 425.15. Sarah does not address of oppose this portion of 6 Justin's motion or the legal authority cited therein. Justin has always been willing 7 to support his children and remains intent on providing for the children's needs. 8 Sarah has shown she is willing to sacrifice the best interests of the children if that 9 means Justin's child support will not be reduced. 10

C. Modification of the child tax deduction is warranted.

With the modification of the current custodial schedule, as joint custodians, the child tax deduction must necessarily be modified so the Parties share the tax deduction each year. Sarah does not address this in the opposition she submitted with the Court.

D. Justin is entitled to an award of attorney's fees and costs.

This section was also ignored by Sarah; notwithstanding, she incredulously filed a countermotion seeking an award of attorney's fees—tantamount to seeking a reward for her dishonesty, lack of candor, and inexcusable refusal to maintain a custodial timeshare that is in the children's best interests. Sarah's violation of the duty of candor that is owed this Court, coupled with forcing Justin to seek judicial intervention to ensure the best interests of the children are met, renders Sarah's request for attorney's fees without merit—and in turn, supports and warrants such an award to Justin.

In Barney v. Mt. Rose Heating & Air Conditioning, 192 P.3d 730, 736 (2008) citing Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 455 P.2d 31 (1969), cited by Sarah, the Court enumerated factors that the district court should consider in awarding attorney fees, with no one factor controlling, as follows:

|----------|---|
| 2        | (1) the advocate's qualities, including ability, training, education, experience, professional standing, and skill;   |
| 3        | experience, professional standing, and skin,  |
| 4        | (2) the character of the work, including its difficulty, intricacy, importance, as well as the time and skill required, the responsibility imposed, and the |
| 5        | prominence and character of the parties when affecting the importance of  |
| 67   | the litigation;   |
| 78   | (3) the work performed, including the skill, time, and attention given to the   |
| o9   | work; and   |
| 10       | (4) the resultwhether the attorney was successful and what benefits were derived.   |
| 11       |   |
| 12       | Justin has met the factors outlined in Brunzell . Justin's counsel is qualified  |
| 13       | and has considerable experience, ability and training in the field of family law  |
| 14       | litigation. It is the responsibility of Justin's counsel to finalize outstanding issues   |
| 15       | to ensure Justin's rights are preserved and litigated, and more importantly, that   |
| 16       | minor children's best interests remain paramount. Justin's counsel was attentive  |
| 17       | to work performed. Accordingly, based upon the foregoing, it is not only fair, but  |
| 18       | also reasonable under the circumstances that Sarah be responsible for Justin's  |
| 19       | reasonable attorney fees and costs in the sum of $3,500.   |
| 20       | IV.   |
| 21       | Conclusion  |
| 22       | Based upon the above, the safety and best interests of the children call for  |
| 23       | the immediate modification of the custodial arrangement. Justin respectfully  |
| 2425 | requests that this Court enter an Order:  |
| 2326 | 1. Modifying child custody of Savanah Maurice and Emma Maurice to   |
| 2027 | joint physical custody on a 2-2-3 schedule;   |
| 28       | 2. Modifying child support, and set support in accordance with Wright v .  |

Subject: Custody Case : Justin Maurice vs. Sarah Sarabia

To Whom It May Concern:

My wife and I are the Grandparents to our son's (2) two daughters from his previous marriage to (Sarah Sarabia). Their children are Savannah, age 13, and Emma age 6. We are writing this letter on behalf of our son's upcoming court situation over custody issues of the 2 children with his Ex-wife concerning their children. Our reason for writing this letter is we believe there is information that needs to be brought to the attention of the parties involved and the court that may have bearing when deciding the outcome of their case.

Ever since their separation (Sept 2014) We have been the witness and also feel victims of what we would describe as a constant and deliberate act of parental Alienation control and we all have had to suffer and struggle thru from Sarah. The reason we bring this up, is that prior to the separation we (all of us) would always spend many weekends, special occasions, Holidays and more - Boating, traveling and camping with Justin, Sarah & the kids, after the separation we have watched Sahara solely and seemingly methodically cut him off from the girls as much as possible. When they got divorced and the courts gave her all that they did, she has had the upper hand and has been using it against him as well as us.

She has kept up that Alienation of Justin and has used the original court order as a weapon other than a guide to raise the children in a co-parenting way, here are just a few examples:

He (Justin) has inquired numerous times, and time again over the years to have the grandkid(s) stay with us and travel with us. There has always been some excuse of 'this isn't a good time' or 'I'm busy that weekend' or 'They're going to California to see the cousins', when asked when would be a good time then, there was never a good time. When she had in fact offered numerous times to Tammy that 'anytime it's her (Sarah's) weekend' we are welcome to take the kids, then in return, 'she' (Sarah) claims, to others, 'we are social drinkers, partiers, unreliable and unsafe'. Sarah has created a distrust within the children toward all of us, with statements like that to other people - thus begs the question why!

Justin has always provided a secure environment for his family. Made sure the children had their needs provided: Food, clothing, medical insurance, toys, life experiences and above all, love. Justin always inspired to give more to the girls to help them expand and grow as individuals. Making sure they got to experience all of the childhood experiences he had as a child and more. From bicycles, kite flying, atv's, jeeping, hiking, camping, boating, fishing, parks, friends, a puppy, teaching them to swim – name it – he has shared the experience with them. Sarah argued with Justin frequently about teaching/sharing these experiences she did not like with the kids – saying he was trying to manipulate them, and she did not approve.

Another incident we witnessed was at the time of their wedding, Sarah's mother – Monica – we also believe helped created a hostile environment for the entire family. Monica told Sarah prior to the wedding: 'GOD had told her she and grandma should not attend the wedding'. There was also an issue for Monica for the date of the wedding. May 5, 2014 (Cinco de Mayo). Monica stated these things to us directly and also stated she would not allow Sarah's father or Grandmother to attend the wedding. Her farther did attend the wedding in the end but seemed like he was not welcomed by his family.

After the separation, the only times we were able to visit with the girls is when Justin had visitations, he would bring them by, or, when we would go to his house when the girls just happened to be there. Creating yet again a situation difficult for Justin when we would call and ask permission to have the girls and due to her uncooperativeness, it just seemed to cause more trouble and drama in his (Justin's) life.

- > After years of walking around on egg shells with Sarah, we felt it was time to speak out and make the situation known.
- From the very beginning of Emma's birth there were hostile moments with Sarah We stopped in a few weeks after Emma's birth to check on Sarah & Emma to see if we she needed any assistance as well as to visit. The visit was cut short as Sarah had a meltdown and started screaming at us to GET OUT, I DON'T WANT YOU HERE, I DON'T WANT YOU NEAR MY CHILDRED, Sarah's Mother Monica was there as well, she stated to us "YOU NEED TO LEAVE'. Again, creating control and hostility. One would think Sarah merely had postpartum depression, however the hostile cycle toward Justin and family has never ended.

- We believe that Sarah was convinced over time by her mother to believe that Women do NOT need men to take care of them. That GOD will provide for all of their needs. Monica was divorced early in her marriage and would not allow the father to see the children. We believe that Monica taught this theory to Sarah, and thus treated us as if we were criminals for asking to see the grandkids. Monica made Sarah believe, Sarah needed NO emotional support from her husband (Justin), but that it was expected of him to take care of all the expenses and bills owed to raise the children in the manner Sarah saw fit. Thus Sarah has controlled the visiting rights of Justin, and us as well, while demanding he pay the money to her and everything else she required to support them.
- As of to date, Sarah has never contacted us to let us know she and the girls had moved to a new home, or give us the new address. When we asked Savanna she said she couldn't tell us. Sarah never reaches out to let us know of the girl's school functions, any plans for the girls Birthdays, Holidays or even medical conditions. Justin has always been the one to keep us informed.
- This is just a small snap shot of a long line of uncooperative behavior, she has had a great career with a job that pays full benefits but still demands Justin be financially responsible for taking care of it. Even during financial hardship Justin has always provided for his children. Our opinion is that the alienation is nothing more than abuse of power, has been extreme, unnecessary and unproductive.

Dear Honorable Judge Duckworth,

My name is Erin Ferris and I am the neighbor of Jay Maurice. I have lived in Henderson with my husband and 5 children for 3.5 years. Jay has lived next to my family for over 1 year. During this time our families have grown very close. We all support one another, allow our children to play together and take trips together. Our neighborhood is filled with with children who are close to age as his 2 daughters Savannah and Emma. I regularly see Jay playing in our cul-de-saq with the girls, that is, when they aren't enjoying family time on the lake or at the family cabin in Duck Creek, Utah. I have witnessed his relationship with his girls to be stable, loving and warm. Because of this, I completely trust and prefer their household of ever need help with my own kids.

Jay has watched my children on multiple occasions. He has helped pick them up from school, drop them off to school, watch them over night and they play at his house. Most recently he dropped everything last minute to help me take care of my son while I went into labor and my husband was out of town. Jay is reliable, trustworthy, an exceptional father and friend.

Living so close to Jay has given me the opportunity to see his true character. We consider ourselves blessed to have been given such a great neighbor.

Thank you for taking your time to read this letter. Please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions.

Much Respect,

Erin Ferris

It is my pleasure to write a witness statement on behalf of Mr. Justin Maurice for his request to have shared custody of his daughters Savannah and Emma.

I have know Mr. Maurice for approximately seven years. During that time he has displayed a loving and enthusiastic relationship with his daughters. We have shared many weekends, holidays and birthdays together. Both in my home as well as his own; also spending family time at his parents property in Duck Creek Utah.

Mr. Maurice has always made his daughters a priority while they are in his care and I have never seen any disregard for their safety. I believe it would benefit them greatly to have more available time together as a family unit. The girls are growing fast and need shared time with their father.

Thank you for your consideration.

To whom it may concern:

This letter is written with the intent to denote Justin Maurice's character as we've come to know him.

Justin was a neighbor of ours, living directly across the street from our family for the past 3 years until he re-married. We would often see him in his garage working on various projects or teaching his girls to ride their bikes. Justin has always been a kind, helpful and giving person with our family.

We have a 4 year old daughter who loves playing with his girls sometimes at their house or ours as she and his daughter Emma are close in age.

Once Justin married and moved our family's kept in touch and continue to do so on a regular basis although we do not see the family as often as before, we feel Justin is a loving father and provider.

Thank you, The Robison Family
