FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The parties were intermarried on April 29, 2006 in Las Cruces, New Mexico. There are two (2) minor biological children born the issue of this marriage, to wit: Harley Rose Eorio, born March 8, 2007, and Hayden Bell Eorio, born October 24, 2009. Plaintiff is also the equitable father of a third minor child born during the marriage, to wit: Gianni Edward Eorio, born October 17, 2015. The three (3) minor children collectively are hereinafter referred to as "the subject minor children". Joel is currently employed on a part time basis at Auto Zone while Lisa is employed at IHop and was a manager until June 26, 2020 when she was fired in that capacity for giving the middle finger to an employee. Lisa is now employed at IHop as a waitress. Throughout the parties' marriage, Lisa has always been the primary wage earner.

In April 2019, Lisa was offered a job in Las Vegas to be the general manager for Denny's. As such, she relocated to the state of Nevada. Joel and the children remained in New Mexico until August 2019 so the children could complete school.

From the birth of the subject minor children to present, Joel has performed all the necessary tasks for the rearing and upbringing of the subject minor children, (i.e. bathing, clothing, feeding, schooling, extra curriculars, medical, etc.) More specifically, Lisa routinely has opportunities to care for the subject minor children, but almost always delegates the same to Joel or Joel's family (when the parties lived in New Mexico). Throughout the parties' marriage, Lisa has always worked long hours and left the children in Joel's care. Moreover, There was a period of time where Lisa engaged in extra marital affair(s) and spent a significant amount of time away from the marital residence. During said time, Joel was the parent who cared for the subject minor children. Most recently, Lisa asked Joel to take the minor children back to New Mexico from May 17, 2020 to May 31, 2020 and the children loved every second of it.

As such, the best interest of the subject minor children is best served by Joel be awarded Primary Physical Custody.

In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity (a) to form an intelligent preference as to his or her custody.

The children have expressed a desire to live with their father and routinely asked their father when they can move back to New Mexico.

(b) Any nomination by a parent or a guardian for the child.

N/A.

Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent (c) associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

Joel is the parent more likely to allow the child to have frequent association and a continuing relationship with the non-custodial parent. Joel has never denied Defendant visitation with the subject minor children and is more than willing to allow a visitation schedule that will foster and preserve the parental bond.

(d) The level of conflict between the parents.

> The level of conflict between the parties is slightly heightened premised upon the instant litigation and the fact that the parties still reside under one roof.

The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the (e) child.

The parties have historically been able to cooperate to meet the needs of the children inasmuch as Lisa delegates the majority of the tasks in the rearing and upbringing of the minor children to Joel. As such, in all likelihood the parties will continue to meet the needs of the child as Lisa will continue to delegate said tasks to Joel.

The mental and physical health of the parents. (f)

> Joel is mentally and physically healthy. Upon information and belief, Lisa is physically healthy but struggles with suicidal thoughts. Lisa has journaled about taking her own life on more than one occasion throughout the parties' marriage.

(g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

Historically, Joel is the parent who has met the physical, developmental and emotional needs of the children (i.e. bathing, clothing, feeding, schooling, therapy, medical, etc). Joel ensures the children get to and from school, prepares their meals, assists in the completion of their homework and schedules all doctor's appointment.

(h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

Joel has an extremely strong maternal bond with the children. Upon information and belief, Lisa has a decent bond with the minor children.

(i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

All three (3) children should be kept together. While the youngest child is not biologically Joel's child, Joel is the only father the minor child has ever known. Moreover, said child was the result of an extra marital affair on the part of Lisa and the biological father is not in the child's life in any way, shape, or form.

(j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child.

N/A

(k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child.

N/A

(1) Whether either parent or any other person seeking custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

N/A

CORDELL LAW L.L.P. 170 So. Green Valley Parkway, Suite 300 Henderson, NV 89012

Based on the foregoing, Joel respectfully requests that he be awarded Primary Physical Custody of the subject minor children.

B. RELOCATION TO THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO

In considering a motion for permission to relocate with a minor child, the District Court must consider the following factors detailed in NRS125C.007:

(a) There exists a sensible, good-faith reason for the move, and the move is not intended to deprive the non-relocating parent of his or her parenting time.

A good faith reason (to relocate) means one that is not designed to frustrate the visitation rights of the noncustodial parent. Jones v. Jones, 110 Nev. 1253, 885 P.2d 563, 569 (1994) (quoting Holder v. Polanski, 111 N.J. 344, 544 A.2d 852,856-7 (1988). Joel is asking this Honorable Court to allow him to return to New Mexico where he and the minor children spent the majority of their lives and where numerous family members reside. Joel is in no way, shape, or form trying to deprive Lisa of her parenting time.

(b) The best interests of the child are served by allowing the relocating parent to relocate with the child; and

Please see the best interest analysis detailed above.

(c) The child and the relocating parent will benefit from an actual advantage as a result of the relocation.

If Joel is permitted to relocate with the parties' minor children to the State of New Mexico then the benefit realized by Joel and the minor children is threefold. First both Plaintiff and Defendant's extended family, consisting of grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, and the child's counselor reside in New Mexico. As such, Plaintiff and the parties' minor children would be close to a nurturing family environment and support system. This environment will enhance the living and growing condition for the parties' minor children. Second, the children will be reunited with the life that they know and love including residing in their grandparent's home and resuming their extra-curricular activities such as church, gymnastics, and cheerleading.

Joel's motives are solely based on improving the quality of life for that of himself and the minor children. In New Mexico, the children will reside in a safe and loving home, be reunited with friends and family members, and Joel will have a job waiting for him upon his return.

If a relocating parent demonstrates to the court the provisions set forth in above, the court must then weigh the following factors and the impact of each on the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent, including, without limitation, the extent to which the compelling interests of the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent are accommodated:

(a) The extent to which the relocation is likely to improve the quality of life for the child and the relocating parent;

In determining whether the move will improve the quality of life, the court should consider subfactors, such as: whether positive family care and support will be enhanced, whether housing and living conditions will be improved, whether educational advantages will result for the children, whether the custodial parent's employment will improve, whether special needs of a child will be better served, and whether, in the child's opinion, circumstances and relationships will be improved. Schwartz, at 383.

As illustrated above, the minor children have numerous family members, friends, and trusted counselors who reside in New Mexico. Additionally, the cost of living in Las Cruces, New Mexico is less than that of Las Vegas, Nevada and Joel's expenses will be manageable as he will reside with his parents in a large home where the children all have their own rooms.

> (b) Whether the motives of the relocating parent are honorable and not designed to frustrate or defeat any visitation rights accorded the non-relocating parent: to

As detailed above, Joel is asking this Honorable Court to allow him to return to New Mexico where he and the minor children spent the majority of their lives and where numerous family members reside. Joel is in no way, shape, or form trying to deprive Lisa of her parenting time.

> (c) Whether the relocating parent will comply with any substitute visitation orders issued by the court if permission to relocate is granted;

Joel will comply with any Order issued by this Honorable Court.

(d) Whether the motives of the non-relocating parent are honorable in resisting the petition for permission to relocate or to what extent any opposition to the petition for permission to relocate is intended to secure a financial advantage in the form of ongoing support obligations or otherwise;

Lisa's motives are not Honorable in denying Joel's request to relocate. Lisa knows full well that both Joel and the subject minor children not only wish to return to New Mexico but will all thrive in said environment,.

> (e) Whether there will be a realistic opportunity for the nonrelocating parent to maintain a visitation schedule that will adequately foster and preserve the parental relationship between the child and the non-relocating parent if permission to relocate is granted; and

If Joel is permitted to relocate then the current visitation with Lisa cannot be realized. Given the foregoing, Lisa must have substantial substitute visitation such that Lisa can preserve and foster her relationship with the subject minor children. Joel purposes the following visitation schedule: a) a six (6) week block during summer vacation, b) a one (1) week block during Christmas vacation, c) a one (1) week block during Spring Break, and d) every other Thanksgiving. Said visitation will provide an adequate basis for preserving and fostering the maternal relationship between Lisa and the subject minor children. Joel has never denied Lisa visitation with the subject minor children. Consequently, Joel has exhibited the characteristics that he will comply with any substitute visitation orders issued by the court. It must also be noted that Lisa has always delegated all tasks to Joel.

(f)	Any	other	factor	necessary	to	assist	the	court	in	determining wh	ether	to gra	nt peri	nission to 1	elo	cate.

3. A parent who desires to relocate with a child pursuant to NRS 125C.006 or 125C.0065 has the burden of proving that relocating with the child is in the best interest of the child.

IV.

CONCLUSION

Given the foregoing, Plaintiff, JOEL EORIO, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order granting Plaintiff Primary Physical custody of the parties' minor children, and to allow the Plaintiff to relocate with the minor children to the State of New Mexico.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

The parties were married on April 29, 2006 in the City of Las Cruces, County of Dona Ana, State of New Mexico; their marriage is duly registered therein. From the marriage, two children were born to the parties, to wit: Harley R. Eorio, born March 8, 2007 who is currently 13 years old, and Hayden B. Eorio, born October 24, 2009 who is currently 10 years old. No custody order has been entered in any jurisdiction regarding these two minor children.

During the course of the marriage, one child was born to Lisa as a result of an extramarital relationship; namely, Gianni E. Eorio, born October 17, 2015, who is currently four (4) years old. No custody order has been entered in any jurisdiction involving Gianni's biological father. At this time, Joel alleges he is the "equitable father" of Gianni, acting in loco parentis, however Gianni's biological father is not a party to this case and Joel has not legally adopted Gianni.

דכ

On July 2, 2020, Joel filed in the above captioned divorce proceeding a Motion for Primary Physical Custody of the Parties' Minor Children for the Purposes of Relocating with the Parties' Minor Children to the State of New Mexico. Joel's Motions should be denied outright because he has failed to adequately provide justification as to why awarding him Primary Physical Custody and moving to New Mexico is any way in the children's best interests.

II. ARGUMENT

A. JOEL'S MOTION FOR PRIMARY PHYSICAL CUSTODY OF THE PARTIES' MINOR CHILDREN SHOULD BE DENIED OUTRIGHT BECAUSE HE HAS FAILED TO SHOW HIS REQUEST IS IN THE CHILDREN'S BEST INTERESTS.

When determining the physical custody of a minor child, the motivation for the court's decision should be solely based on the welfare of the child. Elsman v. Elsman, 54 Nev. 20, 2P.2d 132 (1932); Paine v. Paine, 71 Nev. 262 at 264, 287 P.2d 716 (1955). In determining the welfare of the child, Nevada legislature has established "best interest" factors codified as NRS 125.480. In his Motion for Primary Custody of the Minor Children, Joel fails to appropriately cite to NRS 125.480 in violation of Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure 7 which states: "A request for a court order must be made by motion. The motion must state with particularity the grounds for seeking the order." NRCP 7(b)(1)(B). [Emphasis added]. This court should not have to parse out a movant's pleading to insert the authority under which a request is brought.

In addition to the aforementioned legal deficiency in his Motion, Joel has crafted a fictitious account of the parties' current situation yet still fails to provide adequate reasoning to award him primary physical custody. To start, Joel's first argument is that "Joel has performed all the necessary tasks for the rearing and upbringing of the subject minor children, (i.e. bathing, clothing, feeding schooling, extra curriculars, medical, etc.)." See Plaintiff's Motion for Primary Physical Custody of the Parties' Minor Children at 4, line 5. Yet later in his Motion, Joel alleges that it is Lisa who "delegates the majority of the tasks in the rearing and upbringing of the minor children to Joel." Id. at 5, line 20.

In an attempt to show that Joel performs "all necessary tasks" for the children, he skates over the parties' reality. Until recently, Lisa has been the General Manager of a local IHOP working 50 or more hours per week, while Joel works part-time in the evenings at AutoZone averaging about 10-20 hours per week. The parties' schedules allow Joel to be with the children during the daytime, for example when doctors' offices are open, and therefore they do not have to hire childcare.

Joel is correct in stating that Lisa has to "delegate" tasks to him because it is not certain whether Joel has the capability of facilitating activities of daily living for the children without Lisa's guidance. Joel even states that should he be granted Primary Physical Custody it is assumed Lisa will "continue to delegate said tasks to Joel." Id. at 5, line 21. Joel has demonstrated a pattern of improvident parenting which includes regularly sleeping until 10 or 11 AM and letting the children begin their day alone without supervision. Often Harley is responsible for assuring that the younger two children are cared for until Joel decides to wake up. Joel has drastically mischaracterized the parties' relationships to their children, and discounts the parties' reality.

Joel asserts in his Motion that he should be awarded primary physical custody of the parties' minor children because Lisa "has journaled about taking her own life on more than one occasion throughout the parties' marriage." Id, line 27. This allegation is a transparent attempt by Joel to throw anything against the wall to see what will stick. While it is true that Lisa had maintained a journal during the beginning of the parties' marriage, Lisa affirmatively states that the sole purpose of her journal was to write out the frustrations that she was feeling within her marriage. Lisa has consistently been employed in stressful positions and often has taken on multiple jobs to make ends meet and account for Joel's spotty employment history. On top of her work-related pressures, Lisa came home to a culture of manipulation and control promulgated by Joel and his immediate family when they were living in New Mexico. Lisa's writings demonstrate a feeling of desolation and are self-reflections on whether her conditions would be improved if she removed herself from her circumstances.

Joel's Motion for Primary Physical Custody of the Parties' Minor Children is littered with inconsistencies and half-truths that are a blatant attempt to distract from his own shortcomings. His arguments fail to show that he has any claim to be awarded Primary Physical Custody of these minor children pursuant to what NRS 125.480 demands. Because of these deficiencies, Joel's Motion must be denied outright.

B. JOEL'S MOTION TO RELOCATE WITH THE PARTIES' MINOR CHILDREN TO THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO SHOULD BE DENIED BECAUSE GRANTING HIM PRIMARY PHYSICAL CUSTODY IS NOT IN THEIR BEST INTERESTS

In continuation of the foregoing argument, Joel must not be granted Primary Physical Custody of the parties' minor children because doing so is not in their best interests. Therefore, Joel's request to relocate with the minor children to New Mexico must be denied.

In the alternative, Joel's proffered reasoning as to why he wants to relocate to New Mexico is inherently suspect in that he does not account for the parties' motive for the initial move to Las Vegas from New Mexico in August 2019. Joel alleges in his Motion that his intention to relocate is "solely based on improving the quality of life for that of himself and the minor children. In New Mexico, the children will reside in a safe and loving home, be reunited with friends and family members, and Joel will have a job waiting for him upon his return." See Plaintiff's Motion to Relocate to the State of New Mexico at 8, line 12. [Emphasis added].

Joel has specifically omitted from his Motion that the reason the parties chose to move to Las Vegas in 2019 was to distance themselves from Joel's "helicopter" parents who are manipulative and create a toxic family environment. While in his Motion Joel alleges that the only reason the family relocated to Las Vegas in 2019 was because Lisa was offered a job, this is not accurate. Lisa moved ahead of her family to Las Vegas to be closer to her family, who could offer support and assistance without turning the parties against each other, and also to see if there were other, better jobs, besides what she had been offered., and secure a home for them to move to. Upon her arrival, she began employment as the General Manager of a local Denny's faster, and Joel remained in New Mexico for several months to allow the children to finish the school year. Although Joel characterizes the move as something motivated solely by Lisa's employment opportunity, it was a calculated relocation to separate their children from Joel's extended family.

Joel has attempted to glorify his future living arrangements and job prospects in New Mexico upon his return. He states "...the children will be reunited with the life that they know and love including residing in their grandparent's [sic] home," and "...Joel will have a job waiting for him upon his return." Id at 8, lines 8, 15. Joel's apparent goals for relocation here include free rent and the "promise" of a job. While Joel has stated that within their potential new home each child will have their own bedroom, he has failed to provide relevant information like how many adults will be residing with the parties' children in this hypothetical home. Additionally, he has not provided this court any quality information about his job prospects such as an offer letter or new employment letter casting doubt on his claims.

Joel's request to relocate to New Mexico with the parties' minor children must be denied because granting Joel Primary Physical Custody is not in the children's best interests. In the alternative, Joel's request to relocate with the parties' minor children is motivated by selfish goals

1 2 and loose promises that cannot be backed up by proof. Joel can relocate to New Mexico, but these children must not.

DEFENDANT'S COUNTERCLAIM FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

Defendant hereby files her Counterclaim against Plaintiff or an Order to Award Lisa Attorneys' Fees and Costs associated with the preparation and filing of this Opposition and Counterclaim pursuant to NRS 18.010.

This Counterclaim is made and based upon the pleadings on file with the court herein, the points and authorities contained below, and any argument proffered at the time of hearing.

- 1. That Joel has filed a Motion for Primary Physical Custody of the Parties' Minor Children for the Purposes of Relocating with the Parties' Minor Children to the State of New Mexico.
- 2. That within that Motion, Joel has failed to cite adequate authority for which to bring his claims for Primary Physical Custody and has made inaccurate statements in his pleading.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The parties were intermarried on April 29, 2006 in Las Cruces, New Mexico. There are two (2) minor biological children born the issue of this marriage, to wit: Harley Rose Eorio, born March 8, 2007, and Hayden Bell Eorio, born October 24, 2009. Plaintiff is also the equitable father of a third minor child born during the marriage, to wit: Gianni Edward Eorio, born October 17, 2015. The three (3) minor children collectively are hereinafter referred to as "the subject minor children". While the parties have never formally signed any documentation relating to the custody of Gianni, the parties have always had an understanding that Joel is Gianni's father. More specifically, at the time of Gianni's birth, Lisa requested that Gianni take Joel's last name, Eorio. Moreover, Gianni's biological father is aware that he has a son and has never made a single effort to contact Gianni in any way, shape, or form. Joel is and has always been ready, willing and able to formally adopt Gianni and take on all responsibilities associated with the same.

Joel is currently employed on a part time basis at Auto Zone while Lisa is employed at IHop and was a manager until June 26, 2020 when she was fired in that capacity for giving the middle finger to an employee. Lisa is now employed at IHop as a waitress. Throughout the parties' marriage, Lisa has always been the primary wage earner.

As detailed in Joel's initial motion, it is in the best interest of the subject minor children to relocate to the State of New Mexico.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. PRIMARY PHYSICAL CUSTODY

Lisa argues that Joel failed to cite NRS 125.480. Unfortunately, what Lisa may not be aware of is that NRS 125.480 is no longer good law and has been replaced by NRS 125C.0035 which Joel accurately analyzes on pages four (4) through six (6) of his motion. Even more concerning is the fact that Lisa simply provides conclusory statements throughout her opposition yet fails to provide any analysis as to why the children should continue to reside in Las Vegas, Nevada. Lisa further fails to go through the best interest factors or detail how she would manage to take care of the children while she is at work. This is not a mere coincidence. Lisa knows full well that it is in the best interest for the children to relocate as she cannot take care of them on her own. It is crystal clear that Joel has been the primary caregiver throughout the parties' marriage. It is undisputed that Lisa worked full time and Joel took care of the children. On many occasions, Lisa had the opportunity to partake in the rearing and upbringing of the subject minor children, yet she elected to have Joel do it, i.e., delegate. Lisa is often unaware of the children's schedules, so she has never been able to give anyone instruction on what to do with the children. It is also important to note that Lisa chose to work and go out with friends during the evening. Lisa chose to let Joel raise the children and Joel gladly accepted.

There was a time after the parties moved to Las Vegas that Gianni had a fever over 100 degrees. On said date, Lisa was off work and chose to call Joel while he was working stating that Joel needed to take Gianni to the hospital because Lisa was tired. When Joel got home, Lisa was already in bed. This is just one of many examples where Lisa chose to delegate the tasks to Joel because she could not be bothered to do it herself.

Over the last few months, Lisa has decided to go out after work instead of coming home to spend time with the children. When the children ask where she's going, she responds by saying "I deserve time to go out". With a disappointed look on their faces, the parties' girls have recently said "mommy is going to the casino again". The children have asked Joel why mommy doesn't want to spend time with them anymore. Even more confusing to the children is why Lisa started buying the children gifts out of the blue. The girls have stated that their mom is trying to buy them off.

On July 26, 2020, Joel worked from 4:00 pm to 9:00 pm. When he got home from work he went upstairs to say goodnight to the children and found out that Hayden the ten (10) year old made peas for Harley and herself and Gianni ate a corndog. Both Lisa and Lisa's mom were home during this time and neither of them made dinner for the children. The children were still hungry as they did not eat a proper dinner, so Joel went to Burger King to ensure the children did not go to bed hungry. This is just another example of Lisa failing to take care of the minor children.

As detailed in Joel's underlying motion it is in the best interests of the subject minor children to reside primarily with Joel.

B. RELOCATION

First and foremost, just as Lisa failed to analyze the best interest factors. Lisa also failed to analyze the factors for relocation to support her claim that the children should remain in Las Vegas, Nevada. Second, despite Lisa's allegations to the contrary, the parties did NOT move to Las Vegas, Nevada to get away from Joel's family. Joel's family is and has always been loving and supporting. The subject minor children have a fantastic relationship with Joel's family and cannot wait to return to New Mexico. Third, detailed in Joel's underlying motion, Joel has a job lined up in New Mexico. More specifically, Joel's manager has confirmed that Joel will be transferred to a location in New Mexico. Joel has no problem providing this Honorable Court with a letter from said manager confirming the same. The court can see the forest through the trees and realize that Lisa does not have a valid reason to deny Joel's request to relocate. As such, Joel respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant his request for relocation with the minor children.

C. ATTORNEY'S FEES

As detailed above, Lisa cites antiquated law and fails to plead her case as to why the children should remain in the State of Nevada. Moreover, Lisa fails to state how she plans to take care of the children and ensure their needs are met on her own. As such, Lisa's claim for attorney's fees pursuant to NRS 18.010 should be denied.

III. CONCLUSION

Given the foregoing, Plaintiff, JOEL EORIO, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order granting Plaintiff Primary Physical custody of the parties' minor children, and to allow the Plaintiff to relocate with the minor children to the State of New Mexico.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

The parties were married on April 29, 2006 in the City of Las Cruces, County of Dona Ana, State of New Mexico; their marriage is duly registered therein. From the marriage, two children were born to the parties, to wit: Harley R. Eorio, born March 8, 2007 who is currently 13 years old, and Hayden B. Eorio, born October 24, 2009 who is currently 10 years old. No custody order has been entered in any jurisdiction regarding these two minor children.

During the course of the marriage, one child was born to Lisa as a result of an extramarital relationship; namely, Gianni E. Eorio, born October 17, 2015, who is currently four (4) years old. No custody order has been entered in any jurisdiction involving Gianni's biological father. At this time, Joel alleges he is the "equitable father" of Gianni, acting in loco parentis, however Gianni's biological father is not a party to this case and Joel has not legally adopted Gianni.

The parties moved from New Mexico to Nevada in 2019, with Lisa moving first in April to accept a job as the general manager of a Denny's, and then Joel and the children following in August of 2019 once the children completed school. Lisa has always been the main income earner for the household. Because Joel has not held full-time employment, Lisa has occasionally been forced to work long hours to provide the standard of living that she and Joel both wanted for their children. The motive for the move from New Mexico to Las Vegas was partially financial — the Denny's position was a good job for Lisa — but also in part because Joel and Lisa both wanted at that time to put some distance between themselves and their relatives in New Mexico. This was not intended to keep the kids from relatives in New Mexico, however, and in fact in May of this year, Lisa asked Joel to take the kids to New Mexico for the last two weeks of May, which Joel did.

Both Lisa, and Joel, have clearly established a meaningful relationship with the minor children. Lisa works long hours in order to make sufficient income to afford the children some advantages in life, but also maintains extremely close mother-child bonds with her children. She also frequently must check up on Joel to ensure that needed parenting tasks get completed, and she will do so even at work if she has to. Joel, for his part, is by all accounts a devoted father who also has close relationships with the children.

II. ARGUMENT

A. JOEL'S MOTION FOR PRIMARY PHYSICAL CUSTODY OF THE PARTIES' MINOR CHILDREN IS NOT IN THE CHILDREN'S BEST INTERESTS.

NRS 125C.002 and NRS 125C.0025 establish presumptions in favor of joint legal and joint physical custody for involved parents. NRS 125C.003 and NRS 125C.0035 apply a best interests of the child standard in making physical custody determinations. NRS 125C.0035(f) provides for the following factors to be considered in determining "best interests:"

4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

This is due to Joel's attempts to take the children away from Lisa, though, and not due to any actions on Lisa's part. Additionally, upon information and belief Joel has began an affair with a houseguest who has been Lisa's friend for many years. While it is unknown if the affair has become physical, it is definitely an emotional affair which causes much conflict between all three parties, with the third party refusing the leave the home and taking sides against Lisa wherever possible and spending time with Joel outside of the home.

(e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

It is unclear how well the parties will be able to cooperate at this time.

(f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

Both of the parties are believed to be in good mental and physical health.

Joel alleges that because Lisa has journaled about thoughts about taking her own life, that this is a reason to be concerned about her fitness to share physical custody. However, a great many people have one form or the other of suicidal ideation at one point or the other, and very few then try to take their own lives. Among other things, trying to use journal entries that mention thoughts of suicide as grounds to award primary physical custody to the other parent, would have the result of stripping a great many parents of shared custody, to the great detriment of the majority of children who would be so affected.

(g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

The children have strong bonds with both parents, and developmentally are at ages where having both parents close remain critically important to them.

(h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

The children have close relationships with both parents.

The remaining factors in the statute are not applicable in this case.

In examining these factors in their totality, it seems clear that, so long as Joel remains in Nevada, that both parties should have joint physical custody. However, should Joel be determined to leave Nevada for New Mexico, with or without the kids, so too is it clear that that Lisa is likely to be the parent who better fosters a strong bond between the minor child and the other parent. Further, Lisa is not the reason for the current high level of conflict.

Joel himself supported the move from New Mexico to Las Vegas, and his desire to now take the kids back to New Mexico, to a location that is a very long drive away from Mom seems spurred almost entirely by the pending divorce. Lisa supports the kids maintaining close ties to their New Mexico relatives, but not at the expense of their losing a close relationship with their mother.

B. RELOCATION-SPECIFIC FACTORS AND ANALYSIS

NRS 125C.007(3) makes clear that the burden of proof rests on the parents who wishes to relocate, in showing that relocation would be in the best interest of the minor child or children. While no order, judgment or decree is currently in place establishing custody, by analogy the burden of proof standard of NRS 125C.007(3), and the balancing of interests factors of NRS 125C.007(1) and (2), should likewise apply in the current case. NRS 125C.007 provides in full as follows:

NRS 125C.007 Petition for permission to relocate; factors to be weighed by court.

- 1. In every instance of a petition for permission to relocate with a child that is filed pursuant to NRS 125C.006 or 125C.0065, the relocating parent must demonstrate to the court that:
- (a) There exists a sensible, good-faith reason for the move, and the move is not intended to deprive the non-relocating parent of his or her parenting time;
- (b) The best interests of the child are served by allowing the relocating parent to relocate with the child; and

- (c) The child and the relocating parent will benefit from an actual advantage as a result of the relocation.
- 2. If a relocating parent demonstrates to the court the provisions set forth in subsection 1, the court must then weigh the following factors and the impact of each on the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent, including, without limitation, the extent to which the compelling interests of the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent are accommodated:
- (a) The extent to which the relocation is likely to improve the quality of life for the child and the relocating parent;
- (b) Whether the motives of the relocating parent are honorable and not designed to frustrate or defeat any visitation rights accorded to the non-relocating parent;
- (c) Whether the relocating parent will comply with any substitute visitation orders issued by the court if permission to relocate is granted;
- (d) Whether the motives of the non-relocating parent are honorable in resisting the petition for permission to relocate or to what extent any opposition to the petition for permission to relocate is intended to secure a financial advantage in the form of ongoing support obligations or otherwise;
- (e) Whether there will be a realistic opportunity for the non-relocating parent to maintain a visitation schedule that will adequately foster and preserve the parental relationship between the child and the non-relocating parent if permission to relocate is granted; and
- (f) Any other factor necessary to assist the court in determining whether to grant permission to relocate.
- A parent who desires to relocate with a child pursuant to NRS 125C.006 or 125C.0065 has the burden of proving that relocating with the child is in the best interest of the child.
 (Added to NRS by 2015, 2588)

(a) There exists a sensible, good-faith reason for the move, and the move is not intended to deprive the non-relocating parent of his or her parenting time.

Because Joel has not yet tried to "make a go of it" post-divorce in Las Vegas, it is hard to say that moving the kids many hours away from Mom is at this point sensible. Joel literally has not yet tried to make post-divorce life work on his own. It is true that he was lucky to have a spouse as hard-working and supportive as Lisa, so the transition to single life could be difficult for Joel. But, that is true for many divorces, and not of itself a reason to relocate.

(b) The best interests of the child are served by allowing the relocating parent to relocate with the child; and

As noted above, even before applying the burden of proof that rests of Joel to establish that relocation is warranted in this case, the best interests of the children simply are not met by taking them away from their Mom. Lisa has always supported, and continues to support, the kids having close relationships with their relatives in New Mexico.

(c) The child and the relocating parent will benefit from an actual advantage as a result of the relocation.

Joel stresses that the kids will be close to family if they move back to New Mexico, and that they will be able to do extracurricular activities such as church, gymnastics and cheerleading.

Of course, Las Vegas is blessed with world-class gymnastics and cheerleading opportunities. Las Vegas also has a great many churches, of all faiths. Joel has not shown, at all, that the kids are limited in these regards by living in Las Vegas.

As for saying that the kids will be closer to their New Mexico relatives by moving there, that is true. But, developmentally, the kids' relationship to their mother, Lisa, is far more important to them over time. The reality is that cousins or aunts and uncles with whom one is close, often lost touch once kids grow up. The family that kids tend to stay closest too over times are: their mother and father. And, Joel in no way establishes that the kids will experience a net benefit from being taken away from Lisa.

NRS 125C.007(2) then contains a series of balancing tests to be applied, if the initial threshold tests of NRS 125C.007(1) are met sufficiently. The key standard in this case is (e): "Whether there will be a realistic opportunity for the non-relocating parent to maintain a visitation schedule that will adequately foster and preserve the parental relationship between the child and the non-relocating parent if permission to relocate is granted."

The reality is that the move that Joel proposes will result in the kids growing up with a fairly remote relationship with their mother. Facetime calls are not a good substitute for a mother being able to comfort, encourage and nurture young children. Joel is not proposing to move an hour away, but instead to move a full day's travel away. If his relocation request is granted, the kids will then see their mother on a few holidays, for the summer once they are in school, and perhaps a few other weekends a year. Joel's Motion itself makes clear that he does not intend to even try to give Lisa and the kids sufficient time together, as he proposes only six weeks for the kids with Mom over the summer, and a week over Christmas and a week over Spring Break, plus every other Thanksgiving. Eight or eight and a half weeks a year is not a lot of time, and would involve a lot of "catching up" at the start of each period of time with Mom, as Lisa and the kids would in that case not have seen each other for quite a while between visits.

III. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Lisa prays for judgment as follows:

- That Joel's request for Primary Physical Custody of the parties' minor children be denied outright;
- That Joel's request to relocate with the parties' minor children to New Mexico be denied outright;
- 3. For such other and further relief as the court deems just.

- 8. If you fail to timely complete, file, or serve the appropriate financial disclosure form required by this rule, or the required information and disclosures under this rule, the Court must impose an appropriate sanction upon you, your attorney, or both, unless specific affirmative findings of fact are made that you have proven:
 - (A) either good cause for the failure by a preponderance of the evidence or that the violating party would experience an undue hardship if the penalty is applied; and
 - (B) that other means fully compensate the non-violating party for any losses, delays, and expenses suffered as a result of the violation.

Sanctions may include an order finding the violating party in civil contempt of court, an order requiring the violating party to timely file and serve the disclosures, to pay the opposing party's reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and costs incurred as a result of the failure, and any other sanction the court deems just and proper; and/or

Sanctions may include an order refusing to allow the violating party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting that party from introducing designated matters in evidence, and/or any other sanction the Court deems just and proper. These discretionary sanctions are encouraged for repeat or egregious violations.

9. Failure to include any asset or accurately report income will result in sanctions if the non-violating party can establish, by a preponderance of the evidence, that there is not good cause for the failure.

Sanctions may include an order finding the violating party in civil contempt of court, an award of reasonable attorney fees and costs to the non-violating party, and any other sanction the Court deems just and proper.

Sanctions may include an order awarding the omitted asset to the opposing party as his or her separate property or making another form of unequal division of community property, and/or any other sanction the Court deems just and proper. These discretionary sanctions are encouraged for repeat or egregious violations.

Pursuant to EDCR 5.401, each party may file and serve a brief at least 7 calendar days prior to the scheduled NRCP 16.2 Case Management Conference. The brief should include, if relevant, the following:

- (1) A statement of jurisdiction.
- (2) If custody is at issue in the case, a proposed custodial timeshare and a proposed holiday, special day, and vacation schedule.
- (3) For each issue in the case, a statement of what information, documents, witnesses, and experts are needed.
- (4) A list of the property (including pets, vehicles, real estate, retirement accounts, pensions, etc.) the litigant seeks to be awarded in the action.

- (5) Identification of each specific issue preventing immediate global resolution of the case, along with a description of what action is necessary to resolve each issue identified.
- (6) A litigation budget.
- (7) Proposed trial dates.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Lisa and the Plaintiff ("Joel") first moved to Las Vegas in August of 2019. At that time, they reached an agreement with Jessica Carpenter that Ms. Carpenter could move into the residence that Lisa and Joel were renting together, with the agreement that Ms. Carpenter would pay $500 a month rent and also help when needed with childcare.

In the event, Ms. Carpenter only paid the full rent to Lisa twice (in November and December) but mainly paid small amounts of between $80 and $200. All told, Ms. Carpenter still owes Lisa $1,600 in back rent from the first residence. She has reported to Lisa that she has given cash to Joel from time to time, but Lisa never saw this cash. Rent for the current residence is $1,775 a month, plus associated utilities and other costs of living, and until last month Lisa had paid rent and expenses exclusively out of her funds (except that Joel would occasionally buy food for himself and Ms. Carpenter). Now, Joel has begun contributing $300 a month towards expenses, but Lisa remains, overwhelmingly, the main financial provider for the household.

Lisa had never agreed to Ms. Carpenter moving into the current residence as a resident as opposed to a guest. The parties moved into the current residence on March 9th of 2020. Lisa had agreed for Ms. Carpenter to stay for a maximum of 30 days, on the condition that her belongings be placed in storage so that she didn't get too "comfortable." This was agreed to only because Ms. Carpenter claimed she was looking for an apartment but hadn't found one yet.

After the move to the new residence, Joel and Ms. Carpenter took it upon themselves to move Ms. Carpenter's things into the new residence without agreement, knowledge, or any sort of approval on the part of Lisa. On or about the time that Joel filed for divorce in June of this year, Joel and Ms. Carpenter began sleeping together on the living room couch. Since that time, the living room has contained significant personal effects of both Joel and Ms. Carpenter. Because Joel tends to sleep late while Lisa prepares the minor children for the day, his sleeping on the couch with Ms. Carpenter while the kids get started for the day causes stress for the whole household most mornings.

Ms. Carpenter has unfortunately also been verbally belligerent towards Lisa on multiple occasions. She has also sent Lisa multiple texts trying to tell Lisa that Lisa is not a good mother, etc.

Ms. Carpenter and Joel are on information and belief beginning to look at apartments together, but have not yet made any tangible move towards leaving the current residence. Ms.

Carpenter maintains that she and Joel are not romantically involved – that instead she is simply a "close friend" who Joel moved into the current residence against the wishes of his wife, with Joel being a friend that she now sleeps with on the same couch, and who she now seems to be apartment-shopping with.

Ms. Carpenter's presence as a "third wheel" in the middle of a divorce creates obvious social stress not only for Lisa, but also for the minor children. The minor children find her attempts to assert herself against Lisa while in the household not simply stressful, but also very confusing as then they see their father, Joel, siding against their Mom when Mom (Lisa) and Ms. Carpenter disagree. While so far the disagreements between Lisa and Ms. Carpenter have not turned physical, Ms. Carpenter has "squared up" against Lisa, and made statements to the effect that she already has a criminal record so doesn't have a lot to lose. This sort of belligerence is unacceptable behavior, even for a household without minor children, but is completely unacceptable and completely unhealthy in an environment with minor children.

Lisa has always been the primary wage-earner for the household, working very hard to provide a good standard of living for the minor children that she and Joel have together. Ms. Carpenter, for her part, as noted owes Lisa $1,600 in back rent, herself. On information and belief, since Ms. Carpenter and Joel are apartment-shopping together, between them they should easily be able to find a residence. Therefore, the current high stress level that their continued presence in the current residence, as they sleep together on the couch, creates, and the threat to personal safety that in particular the belligerence of Ms. Carpenter towards Lisa presenst for Lisa and the minor children, can easily be ameliorated by the simple step of their moving out.

a. EDCR 5.501 - Efforts to Resolve

Lisa's counsel reached out to Joel's counsel to try to resolve this situation informally, so that the parties could avoid the need for motion practice in this regard. Joel's counsel has been very responsive in communication with opposing counsel in this case, and did both discuss this with her client and then follow up with Lisa's counsel. However, Joel has not given a date that he and Ms. Carpenter will commit to leaving the current residence, but has merely represented that he is looking for an apartment with Ms. Carpenter. His track record, which includes moving Ms. Carpenter's personal belongings into the current residence against his own wife's wishes, is not a good one in terms of keeping commitments. And, even he refuses to commit to a date when he represents he will be out. Consequently, if Lisa does not ask for relief from this Court through this current Motion for exclusive possession, a likely scenario is that that Joel and Ms. Carpenter will still be "looking" for their new lodgings together, while Lisa pays the vast majority of the expenses for the current residence, well into 2021.

II.

ARGUMENT

A. Lisa Should be Awarded Exclusive Possession of the Marital Residence.

Pursuant to Nevada statute, this court has the authority to enter an order affecting the property of parties to a divorce action to provide temporary maintenance and support for a child of the parties. NRS 125.040. Specifically, the statute states:

- "1. In any suit for divorce the court may, in its discretion, upon application by either party and notice to the other party, require either party to pay moneys necessary to assist the other party in accomplishing one or more of the following:
 - (a) To provide temporary maintenance for the other party;
 - (b) To provide temporary support for children of the parties; or
 - (c) To enable the other party to carry on or defend such suit.

- 2. The court may make any order affecting the property of the parties, or either of them, which it may deem necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this section. Such orders shall be made by the court only after taking into consideration the financial situation of each of the parties.
- 3. The court may make orders pursuant to this section concurrently with the orders pursuant to NRS 125.470."

NRS 125.040.

Because of the exceptional and unhealthy circumstance of Joel having moved Ms. Carpenter into the current residence against Lisa's wishes, and his now staying on the couch with Ms. Carpenter, there is inherently an unhealthy level of stress in the household. The fact that Ms. Carpenter has tried to "square up" with Lisa suggests that there is always a level of unsafety, or potential lack of safety, by virtue of the living situation Joel and Ms. Carpenter have chosen for themselves at present. This unsafety, or potential lack of safety, extends to the minor children who are exposed to this behavior and this environment.

Lisa requests that this court use its authority provided by statute to grant her exclusive possession of the marital residence during these proceedings so as to ensure she is safe and that the kids are not subjected to the unhealthy and stressful environment presented by the current living situation.

III.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Lisa prays for judgment as follows:

That Lisa be granted exclusive possession of the marital home during the pendency of these proceedings; and

2. For such other relief as the Court finds to be just and proper.

PURSUANT TO EDCR 5.513

EX-PARTE MOTION ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME

COMES NOW, Defendant, Lisa Eorio ("Mom"), by and through her legal counsel

PATRICIA WARNOCK, ESQ., and JOHN SCHALLER, ESQ., of JOHN BUCHMILLER &

ASSOCIATES, LLC, , and files this Application for an Order Shortening Time pursuant to

EDCR 5.513, and requests this Court shorten the time in which Mom's MOTION FOR

EXCLUSIVE POSSESSION OF THE MARITAL RESIDENCE is heard. This application is based upon the pleadings and papers on file and upon the Declaration of John Schaller, Esq., attached to this Application. DATED this 3d Day of November, 2020. JOHN BUCHMILLER & ASSOCIATES, LLC /S/ JOHN SCHALLER, ESQ. PATRICIA WARNOCK, ESQ. Nevada Bar # 14432 Patricia@Buchmillerlaw.com JOHN SCHALLER, ESQ. NV Bar # 15092 jschaller@Buchmillerlaw.com 516 S. AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN SCHALLER, ESQ. IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER SHORTENING TIME

STATE OF NEVADA) )SS COUNTY OF CLARK)

JOHN SCHALLER, ESQ. being first duly sworn, hereby deposes and says:

- I am an attorney licensed to practice in the State of Nevada, and am the attorney for Mom in this matter.
- 2. That the facts stated within this accompanying Motion being sought to have its time shortened are affirmed as if fully set forth herein.
- 3. Mom is filing this Ex Parte Application because the December 15, 2020 hearing set in this matter is too far away given the unhealthy and stressful environment created for the minor children and Mom by Plaintiff Joel Eorio's ("Dad's") insistence on remaining in the marital residence with his unwelcome female guest, Jessica Dawn Carpenter, while continuing to fail to provide adequate financial support for the household.
- 4. Mom's counsel recently learned that Ms. Carpenter pled guilty in 2012 to a count of contributing to the delinquency of a minor in Arizona, and on information and belief served seven years' probation which only ended in 2019. Exhibit A. On information and belief, Ms. Carpenter has also lost custody of two or more children to Child Protective Services, also in Arizona. Mom has also learned that Ms. Carpenter has been reportedly been mentioning to third-parties that she intends to get Mom's own children taken from Mom.
- 5. A woman living, at Dad's insistence, in the same residence as Mom and the minor children, who only recently seems to have finished seven years' probation for contributing to the delinquency of a minor, who on information and belief has lost her own children to CPS, and who reportedly is now stating that she wants to get Mom's children taken from Mom, clearly poses a hazard to the well-being of the minor children and Mom. Mom believes that Dad's actions in choosing to stay in the marital residence with Ms. Carpenter is causing ongoing stress and emotional harm to the minor children. Given Ms. Carpenter threatening statements to have the children taken away from Mom, Dad's choice to try to stay in the marital residence with her, while trying to minimize any financial contribution on his part, also poses a real threat by Ms. Carpenter to Mom.

- 6. Dad has obviously filed a Motion requesting permission from this Court to relocate with the minor children, but at present insists it is impossible for him to even relocate himself out of the marital residence along with Ms. Carpenter.
- 7. Mom requests an Order Shortening Time be issued so that she may attend a hearing in this matter as soon as possible, and Dad can explain to the Judge why his choice to stay in the marital residence and sleep on the couch with Ms. Carpenter, while he contributes only $300 to the household budget but on information and belief among other things gambles, and while Ms. Carpenter (who only recently seems to have completed probation for contributing to the delinquency of a minor, and who on information and belief lost custody of her own children to CPS, and who on reports now says she will get Mom's kids taken from Mom) represents a threat to the well-being of the minor children and of Mom.
- 8. This request is made in good faith and not for the purposes of harassment or delay. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

DATED this 3d day of November, 2020.

POINTS & AUTHORITIES

Mom incorporates the facts and legal argument set forth in her Motion as if the same were fully set forth herein.

EDCR 5.513 addresses hearing motions on shortened time, providing:

- (a) Unless prohibited by other rule, statute, or court order, a party may seek an order shortening time for a hearing.
- (b) An ex parte motion to shorten time must explain the need to shorten the time. Such a motion must be supported by affidavit.
- (c) Absent exigent circumstances, an order shortening time will not be granted until after service of the underlying motion on the nonmoving parties. Any motion for order shortening time filed before service of the underlying motion must provide a satisfactory explanation why it is necessary to do so.
- (d) An order shortening time must be served on all parties promptly. An order that shortens the notice of a hearing to less than 10 calendar days may not be served by mail. In no event may a motion be heard less than 1 judicial day after the order shortening time is filed and served.
- (e) Should the court shorten the time for the hearing of a motion, the court may direct that the subject matter of any countermotion be addressed at the accelerated time, at the original hearing time, or at some other time.

The longer Dad stays in the house with Ms. Carpenter, the more stress and harm will be inflicted on the minor children and Mom, and the greater the risk that actual harm including violence may result from his choice to keep Ms. Carpenter -- who only recently completed seven years of probation for contributing to the delinquency of a minor, who on information and belief had custody of her own children taken by CPS, and who reportedly has said she intends to get Mom's own children taken from Mom – in the marital residence and sleeping on the couch with him while Dad also fails to pay sufficient financial support to the household.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that this Honorable Court issue an Order Shortening Time to hear Mom's Motion.

Respectfully submitted this 3d day of November, 2020. JOHN BUCHMILLER & ASSOCIATES, LLC /s/ John Schaller PATRICIA WARNOCK, ESQ. Nevada Bar # 14432 Patricia@Buchmillerlaw.com JOHN SCHALLER, ESQ. Mr. Schaller stated Dad's new girlfriend Jessica Carpenter who is currently residing in the marital home represented to Mom she has a conviction for burglary charges and a Child Protective Services (CPS) case in Arizona and further represented Mom did not know this information at the time the parties drafted the agreements at mediation. Mr. Schaller requested to be able to shorten the time on the motion for exclusive possession of the marital residence and stated is not healthy to have Dad's girlfriend's presence in the house with the children.

Ms. Friedman argued there is no evidence to support allegations against Ms. Carpenter and further clarified Ms. Carpenter is not Dad's girlfriend but rather a mutual friend of the parties. Ms. Friedman further indicated Mom never had a problem before with Ms. Carpenter's presence as Mom even delegated Ms. Carpenter's with tasks regarding the children's care and school.

The Court noted it will set trial on this matter based on the parties' arguments and requests.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On November 29,2020, Lisa propounded her first Requests for Production up the Plaintiff ("Joel"). After several delays, Joel finally served Responses on January 18, 2020. Exhibit A. However, Joel failed to provide a meaningful response to Requests No.: 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, or 13, or to nearly half of the total requests, stating simply in each relevant response that "Plaintiff is still working on gathering the documents responsive to this request." On January 27th, 2021, just before the instant Motion to Compel was to be filed, Joel provided responses that may relate to, and be partially responsive to, Requests No. 7, 8 and 9, but apparently without Bates stamp marking and without identification as to which request such documents actually were responsive to.

Lisa's counsel had initially inquired about an EDCR 5.501 conference regarding discovery on January 3rd, then again on January 15th, and then finally on January 24th. Finally counsel for the parties had a telephone conference on the morning of January 26th. Counsel for Joel has been responsive to communications from Lisa's counsel, but it appears that Joel has simply not collected documents that would be responsive to the relevant requests.

II.

ARGUMENT

A. Legal Standard

District courts have broad discretion to address and resolve discovery-related issues. Club Vista Fin. Servs. V. Dist. Ct., 128 Nev, Adv. Op. 21, (2012); Jones v. Bank of Nev., 91 Nev. 368, 370 (1975). Liberal discover serves "the integrity and fairness of the judicial process by promoting the search for the truth." Shoen v. Shoen, 5. F. 3d 1289 (9th Cir. 1993). Accordingly, "[p]arties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party." NRCP 26(b)(1). Consistent with these objectives, a "discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with [a discovery request]" when the non-discovering party fails to adequately respond to a discovery request. NRCP 37(a)(2)(B).

B. Argument

Lisa has repeatedly asked Joel, or Joel's counsel, for the relevant production. Joel has not objected to the relevant requests, but instead simply states that he is "still working on" gathering the requested documents.

"[A]n evasive or incomplete disclosure, answer, or response must be treated as a failure to disclose, answer or respond." NRCP 37(a)(3). The failure to produce responsive documents to any of the noted requests is obviously a profoundly incomplete response or disclosure. Accordingly, this Court should compel Joel to produce the remaining documents with it has senselessly withheld.

C. Counsel for Lisa and Joel did Meet Telephonically and Confer about the Discovery Issue before Lisa Sought the Commisssioner's Intervention.

"The motion [to compel] must include a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the party not making the disclosure in an effort to secure the disclosure without court action." NRCP 37(a)(2)(A).

Lisa's counsel gave Joel every opportunity to provide an appropriate response, inquiring about the need for an EDCR 5.501 conference multiple times, being told that responsive production was forthcoming, and then finally being met with responses that, as noted, were, in nearly half of the total responses, wholly inadequate.

D. Joel Should Pay Lisa's Reasonable Attorney's Fees in Making the Instant Motion

NRCP 37(a)(4)(A) provides that a movant is entitled to reasonable fees, including attorney's fees and costs, if a motion to compel is granted or the requested discovery is provided after the motion was filed.

III.

CONCLUSION

Lisa properly served Joel with her Requests for Production, and has worked with Joel's counsel for roughly a month after the responses were due in order to try to give Joel every chance to provide a meaningful response. Unfortunately, while Joel's counsel had acknowledged the Requests and the need to provide a response, Joel simply appears to have failed to provide responsive production. This Court, therefore, should grant the instant motion and order Joel to produce the requested documents within seven (7) days of the hearing on this motion. Moreover, Lisa should be awarded the reasonable costs and fees she has incurred in pursuing the matter.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the August 26, 2020 Case Management Conference and Hearing on All Pending Motions, this Court noted the due process concerns inherent in making a custody determination of the third minor child in this matter, Gianni. The Court noted that the biological father of Gianni would need to be named, and given notice of the instant action.

In a telephone conference with counsel for Plaintiff Joel Eorio ("Joel') on Tuesday, January 26th, 2021, during an EDCR 5.501 conference addressing Joel's failure to provide timely responses to Lisa's Requests for Production, Lisa's counsel learned that as of that date, Joel still had not contacted, nor apparently even tried to contact, Gianni's biological father for purposes of giving notice of the instant action, and of determining whether Gianni's biological father would provide a voluntary relinquishment of parental rights or whether there would need to be a paternity action in conjunction with the instant proceedings. Lisa's counsel was in fact the one who raised the issue during the call, as a review of the file made clear to him that an effort to locate Gianni's father and give him notice had to be made. Lisa had long ago given Joel all the information she had in this regard: namely, that Gianni's biological father was named Joseph Flores, and that when last she was aware he was residing in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The central dispute in this divorce and custody action is Joel's desire to return to New Mexcico, with the three minor children, to the town (Las Cruces) where Joel and Lisa had lived until mid-summer 2018, two and a half years ago. The parties do not appear to have outstanding disputes concerning the distribution of assets and liabilities. When Joel finally moved out of the marital residence with the "close friend," Jessica Carpenter, who he had been sharing the couch with in the marital residence, moving with Ms. Carpenter to a new residence, Joel and Lisa at that point divided basically all of the relevant personal property.

Consequently, the reason why this case has proceeded to an evidentiary hearing is simply that Lisa does not wish to relocate to Las Cruces, New Mexico, where she, Joel and the three kids last lived 2.5 years ago. Joel does want to move back, to be with his parents. Since Joel has not yet, at least as of January 26, 2021, made an effort to contact Gianni's father, it is unclear whether Joel is proposing that this Court make a custody determination only as regards the two older minor children, until Gianni's father can be given notice of the instant action, or whether Joel would have this Court conduct two hearings, first to address any remaining issues as to marital assets and liabilities, and then a later hearing to address Joel's Motion to Relocate after Gianni's father is located and given notice. Lisa's counsel believes that a bifurcation of the evidentiary hearing would be unnecessary, particularly so since Joel could have avoided this issue simply by having sought to contact Mr. Flores on a timely basis in the fall of 2020.

II.

ARGUMENT

A. EDCR 5.501 COMPLIANCE

EDCR 5.501 requires that parties attempt to resolve issues informally amongst themselves before seeking court intervention.

On January 26th, 2021, during the EDCR 5.501 conference with Joel's counsel over his failure to provide responses to many Requests for Production, Lisa's counsel suggested to Joel's counsel that they could do a Stipulation and Order to give Joel time to find, or serve via publication, Gianni's biological father. At that time, Joel's counsel indicated that she would be speaking with Joel soon and would the let Lisa's counsel know as regards to whether 1) Joel was able to find Joseph Flores and, if so, whether Mr. Flores was willing to provide a voluntary relinquishment of parental rights, or not, and, in not 2) whether they would be agreeable to continuing the trial date.

On January 28th, Lisa's counsel emailed Joel's counsel as follows:

Hi Jessica,

We had discussed via phone a couple days ago that, counter to what had been directed by Judge Duckworth at the 8/26 CMC for this case, apparently no attempt has been made by Joel to contact Joseph Flores, the biological father of Gianni. Joel already knows from Lisa everything that Lisa knows about Mr. Flores; he was last known to reside in Albuquerque. You have had a couple of days to try to contact Mr. Flores at this point.

If Mr. Flores has been contacted and has consented to a voluntary relinquishment of parental rights, please let me know by close of business today. If this is not the case, I ask that you give your consent by close of business today to a continuance of the trial in this matter for at least 90 days, to give time for service of Mr. Flores by publication if he cannot be located.

Failure to include Mr. Flores in this matter would mean that we would in effect have to have a bifurcated trial...

Joel's counsel did not respond in timely fashion to this request. Lisa's counsel acknowledges that he asked for a response to the email within the day, but since the issue had first been discussed during the phone call two days earlier, and given the rapidly approaching February 11th trial date, counsel believe it was appropriate to not wait longer before bringing the instant Motion. Lisa and her counsel have complied with their EDCR 5.501 obligations.

B. REQUEST TO CONTINUE EVIDENTIARY HEARING

Rule 14. Motions for continuance: Contents, service of affidavits; counter-affidavits; argument.

- 1. All motions for the continuance of cases shall be made on affidavit except where it shall appear to the court that the moving party did not have time to prepare an affidavit, in which case counsel for the moving party need only be sworn and orally testify to the same factual matters as hereinafter required for an affidavit.
- 2. When a motion for the continuance of a cause is made on the ground of absence of witnesses, the affidavit shall state:
 - (a) The names of the absent witnesses and their present residences, if known.
- (b) What diligence has been used to procure their attendance or their depositions, and the causes of a failure to procure the same.
- (c) What the affiant has been informed and believes will be the testimony of each of such absent witnesses, and whether or not the same facts can be proven by other witnesses than parties to the suit whose attendance or depositions might have been obtained.

- (d) At what time the applicant first learned that the attendance or depositions of such absent witnesses could not be obtained.
 - (e) That the application is made in good faith and not merely for delay.
- No continuance will be granted unless the affidavit upon which it is applied for conforms to this rule, except where the continuance is applied for in a mining case upon the special ground provided by NRS 16.020.
- 4. Copies of the affidavits upon which a motion for a continuance is made shall be served upon the opposing party as soon as practicable after the cause for the continuance shall be known to the moving party.
- 5. Counter-affidavits may be used in opposition to the motion.
- 6. No amendments or additions to affidavits for continuance will be allowed at the hearing on the motion and the court may grant or deny the motion without further argument.

Lisa's counsel, in the attached Affidavit submitted herewith, meets the requirements of Rule 14. Counsel notes that Lisa strongly believes that it is in the best interest of all three minor children that they remain in Nevada, where she and Joel jointly chose to relocate in mid-2019. Further, Lisa already has parental rights, including legal and physical custody, as regards Gianni. Consequently, while Lisa acknowledges that Joel has played the social and parenting role of father as regards Gianni, it was not incumbent upon Lisa to be the one to try to find Joseph Flores and try to arrange for him to terminate his parental rights.

Joel has known about the need to do so for five full months, at least, by this point, since the time of the August 26, 2020 Case Management conference and hearing, and does not appear to have made diligent efforts to date to find Gianni's biological father.

III.

CONCLUSION

Wherefore, it is respectfully requested that this Honorable Court continue the Evidentiary Hearing. Lisa asks that a Status Check be scheduled for ninety (90) days, to give Joel time to make diligent efforts to locate Joseph Flores and then, if need be, to make service via publication. At the time of the Status Check, if Mr. Flores has been served, a new date can be scheduled, or, if not, Lisa asks that at that point Joel's request for permission to relocate be dismissed with prejudice.

DECLARATION OF JOHN SCHALLER, ESQ.

JOHN SCHALLER, ESQ., hereby declares under penalties of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada and says:

- I am an attorney duly license to practice law in the State of Nevada, and along with Patricia Warnock, Esq. am the attorney of record for the Defendant, Lisa Eorio, in this matter.
- A DEFENDANT'S MOTION AND NOTICE OF MOTION TO CONTINUE EVIDENTIARY HEARING SCHEDULED ON FEBRUARY 11, 2021, AT 9:00 A.M., has been filed in this matter. This Affidavit is submitted in conjunction with such Motion.
- 3. In a telephonic EDCR 5.501 conference with counsel for Plaintiff Joel Eorio, on January 26, 2021, I also learned that no effort had yet been made by Joel to locate or notify the biological father of the youngest minor child in this matter, Gianni.
- 4. Because of the constitutional rights involved, and due to the direction of the Court in this regard at the August 26, 2020 Case Management Conference and Hearing, this surprised me as I did not see how Joel's Motion to Relocate could be considered efficiently without first giving Gianni's biological father notice or in the alternative service by publication.

- 5. I offered during that phone conversation to agree to a Stipulation and Order to continue this matter, so that Mr. Flores could be contacted and given notice, and/or service by publication could be done.
- Joel's counsel at that time indicated she would be speaking with Joel soon and would get back to me.
- 7. Lisa has already given Joel all of the information available to her as regards the identity and last known location (Albuquerque, N.M.) of Mr. Flores.
- 8. I followed up with Joel's counsel via email on January 28th, 2021, but have not heard back.
- 9. This Motion to Continue is made in good faith, and not merely for delay.
- 10. I thank the Court for its consideration in this matter.

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN SCHALLER, ESQ. IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER SHORTENING TIME

STATE OF NEVADA)SS COUNTY OF CLARK

JOHN SCHALLER, ESQ. being first duly sworn, hereby deposes and says:

- I am an attorney licensed to practice in the State of Nevada, and am the attorney for Defendant in this matter.
- 2. That the facts stated within this accompanying Motion being sought to have its time shortened are affirmed as if fully set forth herein.
- 3. Defendant is filing this Ex Parte Application because the March 10th, 2021 hearing set for Defendant's Motion to Continue is after the February 11, 2021 date set for the evidentiary hearing.
- 4. Defendant requests an Order Shortening Time be issued so that she may attend a hearing in this matter as soon as possible, and Plaintiff can explain to the Judge why no relinquishment of parental rights has been obtained from the biological father of the youngest minor child in this case, and why the biological father appears to have not been contacted until the last week of January. Counsel for Defendant has received, after filing the Motion to Continue, on the afternoon of January 29, 2021, from Plaintiff's counsel a text purporting to be from the biological father expressing that the biological father does not object to Plaintiff being recognized as the father of the youngest minor child. But, no information confirming the identity of the author of the text has been provided, and as of Wednesday, February 3rd there has been no further communication indicating that the biological father has either been formally served, or that a formal, valid relinquishment of parental rights has been obtained.

- 5. Conducting an evidentiary hearing that determines custody of only the two older children as regards the Plaintiff, and leaves the custody of the youngest minor child to a further proceeding, would needlessly complicate and extend the legal proceedings in this matter. Consequently Defendant requests that this Court shorten the time in which her Motion to Continue is heard, and then on that Motion continue the proceedings in this case for at least 90 days to provide a chance for Plaintiff to resolve the legal status of the youngest minor child at issue.
- 6. This request is made in good faith and not for the purposes of harassment or delay. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

DATED this 3rd day of February, 2021.

/s/ John Schaller JOHN SCHALLER, ESQ.

POINTS & AUTHORITIES

Defendant incorporates the facts and legal argument set forth in her Motion as if the same were fully set forth herein. As noted, Plaintiff waited until the last week of January, 2021 to attempt to resolve the status of the youngest minor child.

Defendant therefore filed her Motion to Continue. EDCR 5.513 addresses hearing motions on shortened time, providing:

- (a) Unless prohibited by other rule, statute, or court order, a party may seek an order shortening time for a hearing.
- (b) An ex parte motion to shorten time must explain the need to shorten the time. Such a motion must be supported by affidavit.
- (c) Absent exigent circumstances, an order shortening time will not be granted until after service of the underlying motion on the nonmoving parties. Any motion for order shortening time filed before service of the underlying motion must provide a satisfactory explanation why it is necessary to do so.
- (d) An order shortening time must be served on all parties promptly. An order that shortens the notice of a hearing to less than 10 calendar days may not be served by mail. In no event may a motion be heard less than 1 judicial day after the order shortening time is filed and served.
- (e) Should the court shorten the time for the hearing of a motion, the court may direct that the subject matter of any countermotion be addressed at the accelerated time, at the original hearing time, or at some other time.

Significant trial preparation will have to occur between now and the February 11, 2021 hearing date, and obviously this Court's calendar would be needlessly taken up by the time allotted for the scheduled hearing if it is determined as of the day of the evidentiary hearing that that status of the biological father of the youngest minor child..

WHEREFORE, Defendant requests that this Honorable Court issue an Order Shortening

Time to hear the Motion to Continue of Defendant.

Respectfully submitted this 3rd day of February, 2021.

- 2. Children: There are two minor children born of the marriage, to wit: Harley R. Eorio, born March 8, 2007 who is currently 13 years old, and Hayden B. Eorio, born October 24, 2009 who is currently 11 years old.
- 3. Equitable Child: Gianni E. Eorio, born October 17, 2015, is currently five (5) years old, and is the biological child of Lisa and of Joseph Flores. Joel is views himself as the "equitable" father of Gianni, and on February 3, 2021 submitted an Affidavit from the biological father of Gianni but not a formal relinquishment of parental rights.
- 4. Resolved issues, including agreed resolution: Legal custody the parties have agreed to joint legal custody.
- 5. Unresolved issues: Physical custody, relocation out of state, potential out of state visitation/timeshare, division of the marital estate, child support, alimony, travel costs for the minor children if relocation is granted, and attorney's fees and costs.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. JOEL CANNOT STATE SUFFICIENT GROUNDS FOR BEING AWARDED PRIMARY PHYSICAL CUSTODY

The Court is required to make an initial custody determination before conducting an analysis of the relocation factors. Joel's request for primary physical custody is revealed as tactical: his own July 2nd, 2020 Motion filed with this Court for permission to relocate is entitled: "Motion for Primary Physical Custody of the Parties' Minor Children for Purposes of Relocating With the Parties' Minor Children to the State of New Mexico."[emphasis added.] In his response to Lisa's Interrogatory No. 25, Joel says that if Lisa relocates to New Mexico with him, he would like a week on/week off timeshare. In short, Joel wants to move back to New Mexico to be with his family, but doesn't really believe that the best interests of the children are served by him having primary physical custody.

Joel then alleges facts that do not support an award of primary physical custody to him.

Lisa, for instance, is blamed for having worked hard, while Joel acknowledges in his Interrogatory Response No.7 working 40 hours a week currently, himself (and 60 hours a week a couple years ago when he worked at IHOP). After Joel finally moved out of the marital residence, the parties have had a week on/ week off temporary timeshare which has been working well. The week on/week off timeshare the parties currently have, is the same timeshare that Joel says he would like if both he and Lisa move back to New Mexico.

By statute in Nevada, there is a preference for joint physical custody where both parties have demonstrated a meaningful relationship with the minor children. NRS 125C.0025. The Nevada Supreme Court has consistently held that "[i]n custody matters, the polestar of judicial decision is the best interest of the child." Schwartz v. Schwartz, 107 Nev. 378, 382 (1991). See NRS 125C. 003 and 125C.0035 (articulating the current version of the applicable "best interest" standard). In this case, Joel is essentially arguing that if Lisa is in proximity to him and the minor kids, then a joint physical custody, week on/week off timeshare is in the best interests of the kids.

But, as "filler" to try to bootstrap a primary physical custody ruling, Joel then alleges that Lisa has been the primary wage earner during their marriage, and he has often been underemployed, and that he therefore should get primary physical custody of the children. This approach ignores the fact that Lisa has been intimately involved with the children along with a presumption against joint physical custody on the part of Lisa are present in this case in support of Joel's claim for primary custody: Lisa is clearly capable of taking care of the children, and neither Joel nor Lisa are accused of domestic violence or abuse.

Joel, with a profoundly meaningful relationship with them. None of the factors that would create

B. LISA HAS IN FACT BEEN THE PARTY ENSURING THE KIDS' NEEDS ARE MET; JOEL DOES NOT APPEAR ABLE TO TAKE CARE OF THE KIDS WITHOUT ASSISTANCE AND LISA SHOULD HAVE PRIMARY CUSTODY

Joel, as noted, seems in actuality to want he, Lisa, and the kids to move back to New Mexico. Joel currently has his parents travel from New Mexico to assist him with parenting on weeks when he has the kids, and would be moving in with his parents in New Mexico as well.

Lisa has always been the spouse actually making sure that the kids went to the doctor, got ready for school, etc. Because Joel's schedule since the move to Las Vegas often involved him sleeping until late morning, Lisa has in fact primarily been the one getting the kids ready for the day. Given this schedule, it is unclear how he would get the kids ready for the day on a regular basis without assistance from others, whether Lisa or his parents. As evidenced by Joel's recent refusal to cooperate with Lisa on getting a counselor for the middle child, Hayden, Lisa has had to be the one to take the lead in arranging "life details" for the kids.

Because Joel himself states he plans to move into his parent's residence in New Mexico, and has his parents driving from New Mexico to help him with the kids when he has them, here, under the current joint custody timeshare, this Court may infer that Joel is not capable of caring for the minor children for at least 146 days of the year on his own. Therefore, under NRS 125C.003, an award of joint physical custody to Lisa and Joel is presumed to not be in the best interests of the minor children, and Lisa should be awarded primary physical custody.

C. THE NRS 125C.0035(4) FACTORS SUPPORT LISA'S CLAIM FOR PRIMARY CUSTODY, NOT JOEL'S

Joel argues that an analysis of the NRS 125C.0035(4) factors supports awarding him primary custody. However, Joel does not accurately analyze those factors.

Joel argues that the children have expressed a desire to return to New Mexico with Joel and that therefore the NRS 125C.0035(4)(a) "wishes of the child" factor supports an award of primary physical custody to Joel. Joel ignores that the children not of sufficient age to form an "intelligent preference" as to physical custody. The oldest, Harley, is only thirteen at present.

Further, Joel presents no proof that the children actually want to live with Joel and not Lisa under a primary physical custody timeshare.

Joel also tries to disparage Lisa for the fact that she had extramarital relationships during the marriage. The reality is that both Lisa and Joel had affairs during the marriage. Nevada is a no-fault divorce state. Lisa had two extramarital relationships before Joel filed for divorce. One of those was with a man who, after Lisa had ended the relationship, later got in trouble with the law. Lisa's relationship with that man had ended; Joel, by contrast, moved out of the marital residence with "close friend" Jessica Dawn Carpenter and continues to reside with her in his current residence after learning that she had been convicted in Arizona of a felony for contributing to the delinquency of a minor. On information and belief, Joel plans to return to New Mexico with Ms. Carpenter as well if permitted to relocate.

D. JOEL BEARS THE BURDEN OF PROOF REGARDING RELOCATION

Joel, as the party seeking permission to relocate, bears the burden of proving that relocation is in the best interests of the minor children, in the event that this Court were to grant

Joel primary physical custody. NRS 125C.007(3). Respectfully, bearing in mind that the burden of proof is on Joel, Joel fails to meet the specific requirements of NRS 125C.007.

E. JOEL DOES NOT HAVE A SENSIBLE, GOOD-FAITH REASON TO RELOCATE TO NEW MEXICO.

Joel is working a 40-hour week, here in Las Vegas, and "standing on his own" financially.

During the ongoing COVID pandemic, Joel now proposes to move back to a town in New Mexico that he and the minor children have not lived in for three years, without Joel yet having a job there.

Neither is relocating to New Mexico in the best interests of the minor children. The children are doing well here. After high school, Nevada has great college options for in-state students. Las Vegas offers a vast array of options for childhood extracurricular activities in the meantime.

Lisa is being actively considered for assistant manager "team leader" positions with her current employer. Harley has applied for magnet high schools here, both pre-med and hospitality. Both girls have started gymnastics. Hayden would have started counseling here, but Joel has refused to cooperate with Lisa's efforts to get this scheduled.

If Joel is 1) granted primary physical custody of the children, and then 2) granted permission to relocate, Lisa and Joel would both have to find new jobs in the Las Cruces area, in the middle of the COVID pandemic, in a much smaller economy than here in Las Vegas. (Lisa intends to stay with the minor children, so if Joel is given primary physical custody and then also granted permission to relocate, the Court would effectively be forcing Lisa to also give up her employment and excellent career prospects here in Nevada.)

relocation may not be the of the following states of t

Neither would Joel and the minor children benefit from an "actual advantage" as a result of a relocation to New Mexico. The children have not lived in Las Cruces for three years. Joel is working full-time, here. His brother is estranged from Joel's father, and Joel frequently complained to Lisa about his parents being too controlling during their marriage, so life post-relocation may not be the escape that Joel appears to hope it will be.

F. POTENTIAL OUT OF STATE VISITATION/TIMESHARE

While Lisa intends to relocate to New Mexico if Joel is granted primary custody and then given permission to relocate, Lisa would be delayed in making a move while seeking comparable employment and while trying to exit the lease on the current marital residence.

Thus, in the event that this Court were to so rule, Lisa asks that this Court order the following provisional unrestricted visitation schedule: Spring Break, ten weeks of summer vacation, half of Christmas break (parties to alternate), Thanksgiving week every odd-numbered year, reasonable and liberal weekend visitation, and daily Facetime calls. Then, once Lisa relocates, Lisa asks that the Court order in that event the week on/week off timeshare Joel says he would like in his response to her Interrogatory 25.

G. CHILD SUPPORT AND TRAVEL COSTS FOR THE MINOR CHILDREN

If Joel's request to relocate were to be granted, as the relocating parent Joel should have to pay for all costs associated with the minor children's travel for visitation with Lisa. Wallace v. Wallace, 1112 Nev. 1015, 1020, 1021 (1996); NAC 425.150. Additionally, Lisa should be granted an offset against her child support obligation, in that case, for the costs of her travel to New Mexico for weekend visitation.

If this Court awards Lisa primary physical custody, Lisa should be awarded child support pursuant to NAC 425. If the Court decides on a joint physical custody timeshare, no child support should be owed by either party.

H. ALIMONY

Joel has worked throughout the marriage. He now works a 40-hour work week at $10.81 an hour. Lisa works full-time and makes $9 an hour plus tips. She qualifies for food stamps currently. There is no need for rehabilitative alimony, and there is no extreme disparity of incomes nor of professional prospects. Under NRS 125.150, no award of alimony is therefore warranted.

I. DIVISION OF ASSETS AND DEBTS

The parties have effectively divided their community assets at this time, with the last meaningful division occurring when Joel moved out of the marital residence. Significant debts still remain, and given their finances Lisa believes the best approach regarding the debts is for the Court to leave the debts as-is. Lisa's counsel will seek a formal resolution of this matter before the trial.
