6 Petitioner,

7 v.

PETITION FOR WRIT
OF HABEAS CORPUS
(POSTCONVICTION)

A-19-793315-W
Dept: XIX

8 State of Nevada, Warden
9 Respondent: Brian Williams

INSTRUCTIONS:

- (1) This petition must be legibly handwritten or typewritten, signed by the petitioner and verified.
(2) Additional pages are not permitted except where noted or with respect to the facts which you rely upon to support your grounds for relief. No citation of authorities need be furnished. If briefs or arguments are submitted, they should be submitted in the form of a separate memorandum.
(3) If you want an attorney appointed, you must complete the Affidavit in Support of Request to Proceed in Forma Pauperis. You must have an authorized officer at the prison complete the certificate as to the amount of money and securities on deposit to your credit in any account in the institution.
(4) You must name as respondent the person by whom you are confined or restrained. If you are in a specific institution of the Department of Corrections, name the warden or head of the institution. If you are not in a specific institution of the Department but within its custody, name the Director of the Department of Corrections.
(5) You must include all grounds or claims for relief which you may have regarding your conviction or sentence. Failure to raise all grounds in this petition may preclude you from filing future petitions challenging your conviction and sentence.
(6) You must allege specific facts supporting the claims in the petition you file seeking relief from any conviction or sentence. Failure to allege specific facts rather than just conclusions may cause your petition to be dismissed. If your petition contains a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel, that claim will operate to waive the attorney-client privilege for the proceeding in which you claim your counsel was ineffective.
(7) When the petition is fully completed, the original and one copy must be filed with the clerk of the state district court for the county in which you were convicted. One copy must be mailed to the respondent, one copy to the Attorney General's Office, and one copy to the district attorney of the county in which you were convicted or to the original prosecutor if you are challenging your original conviction or sentence. Copies must conform in all particulars to the original submitted for filing.

12 the appellant posted BOND on both charges and 13 released.

14 Whereas, the state proceeded to preliminary hearing 15 in Justice Court for the crime(s) of Burglary and Attempt 16 Grand Larceny less than $3500 and ~~and~~ at the completion 17 of the hearing only the charge of Burglary was bound 18 over to District Court leaving the charge of Attempt 19 Grand Larceny less than $3500 dismissed/dropped for 20 No Corpus Delicti, slight or marginal evidence to bound 21 over to District Court for the 1st time appellant was 22 subjected to jeopardy and appellants bond for Attempt 23 Grand Larceny less than $3500 exonerated.

24 Whereas, the appellant was subjected to jeopardy 25 for the 2nd time when the state by the way of amended 26 information in District Court drop the charge of Burglary 27 and once again charge appellant with Attempt Grand 28 Larceny less than $3500 that was filed in open court

"Double Jeopardy"

GROUND ONE CONTINUE:

1. ON November 7, 2018
2. INTEREST, the state for the 3rd TIME subjected
3. APPPELLANT to FACE jeopardy ON February 4, 2019 by a
4. RETURN ON the charge of Attempt Grand Larceny LESS THAN 5. $3500 AND ISSUED A NO BOND.
6. FINALLY, the state CONVICTED the APPPELLANT ON the 7. charge of Attempt Grand Larceny LESS THAN $3500 ON
8. March 6, 2019 to ONCE AGAIN for the 4th TIME subject
9. the APPPELLANT to jeopardy for the SAME OFFENSE through
10. PROSECUTION AND/OR PUNISHMENT without a GRAND
11. JURY INDICTMENT.

(b) Ground TWO: U.S. Constitution 6 and 14th Amendment
Violations "Right to Due Process"

Supporting FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law.): Appellant contends that it was "Lack of Probable Cause" to bound over to District Court.

Whereas, the State did not produce sufficient evidence to show that a crime was committed and the appellant committed it by slight or marginal evidence.

Whereas, the State did not have the 3 (three) female occupants of said room testify or give written statements that appellant did not have their permission or consent to be in said room. When in fact, one of the female occupants perform fellatio on appellant in bathroom of said room on the night in question. Furthermore, none of the female occupants made statements that any of their belongings were missing or tampered with, so no loss or injury occurred.

Whereas, the victim Joshua Jarvis testified at preliminary hearing that he had no valuables or property in said room only his iPhone that he had on his person.

Whereas, when the appellant was on the charge of Attempt Grand Larceny at prelim for No Corpus Delicti, slight or marginal evidence that the State predicted the intent on for the Burglary charge that the burglary charge should have been dismissed for No corpus delicti, slight or marginal evidence.

"DUE PROCESS"

GRAND TWO CONTINUE:

- 1.
2. WHEREAS, THERE IS NO CORPUS DELICTI, CRIME IS A BREACH
3. OF LAWS OR GOVERNING AUTHORITY. WHILE THIS ALLEGED OFFENSE
4. WAS A VIOLATION OF THE LAW IT WAS NOT A CRIME. NOTWITH-
5. STANDING, PROOF OF THE CORPUS DELICTI IS REQUIRED IN ALL
6. CRIMINAL MATTERS. PROOF OF THE CORPUS DELICTI IS REQUIRED
7. IN ALL CRIMINAL CASES AND THERE ARE THREE BASIC ELEMENTS
8. IN THE PROOF OF A CRIME: (1) THE OCCURRENCE OF LOSS OR INJURY, 9. (2) CRIMINAL CAUSATION OF THAT LOSS OR INJURY AND (3) THE 10. IDENTITY OF THE DEFENDANT AS THE PERPETRATOR OF THE CRIME.
11. WHEREAS, LACK OF EVIDENCE A CHARGE FILED ^{INFORMATION} ~~CHARGE~~
12. WITH NO BOND ISSUE, OR CONVICTION ISSUE IS HEARSAY, AND
13. THEREFORE IRRELEVANT, AND IN LEGAL CONTEMPLATION IS INOPERATIVE, 14. AS THOUGH IT HAD NEVER BEEN ISSUED. FOR A CRIME TO EXIST,
15. THERE MUST BE AN INJURED PARTY. "THERE CAN BE NO SANCTION
16. OR PENALTY IMPOSED ON ONE BECAUSE OF THE EXERCISE 17. OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT." WHERE RIGHTS ARE SECURED BY THE 18. CONSTITUTION ARE INVOLVED THERE CAN BE NO RULEMAKING OR 19. LEGISLATION WHICH WOULD ABROGATE THEM. THE CLAIM AND 20. EXERCISE OF A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT CANNOT BE CONVERTED
21. INTO A CRIME.
22. WHEREAS, IF APPELLANT IS TO BE SUBJECT TO THE ALLEGED
23. CRIMINAL ACTS IT IS CONCLUDED THAT NO ACT WAS IN FACT
24. BROKEN. BECAUSE THERE IS NO RETIFICATION OF COMMENCEMENT,

(c) Ground THREE: U.S. Constitution 8th Amendment Violation
"Cruel and Unusual Punishment" Illegal Sentence.

Supporting FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law.): Appellant contends that being adjudicated as a habitual criminal is cruel and unusual punishment that shock the conscience as being disproportionate to the crime charged Attempt Grand Larceny less than $3500 which is a miscarriage of Justice.

Whereas, appellants criminal history at the time was Credit Card Abuse and Fraudulent Use/Poss. of Identifying Information that's a State Jail Crime in Texas that does not carry a prison term, mandatory supervision, nor parole and is Not a category A, B, C, D, E felony it's a State Jail Crime that carries only jail time equal to what Nevada considers a Gross Misdemeanor that appellant was convicted of in March 2007. In August 2011 appellant was convicted of a category E felony Attempt poss. of credit or debit card without cardholders consent here in Nevada.

Whereas, at the date the adjudicated charge of Attempt Grand Larceny less than $3500 occurred the appellant had never been to prison or ever had a violent ~~crime~~ or serious crime charged against him.

Whereas, the state deemed the conviction in Texas

"Illegal Sentence"

1.
2. as a felony. Is there any felony in the USA that does
3. not carry a prison term, mandatory supervision or
4. parole? So at the very least you would have to concede
5. that it's ambiguous as being a felony conviction so as
6. the light most favorable to the appellant it would not
7. be a felony conviction for enhancement to adjudicate.
8. Wherefore, appellant contends that the state breach
9. the Guilty Plea Agreement on impeachable and highly suspect
10. evidence that allegedly occurred in January 2019 that 11. greatly prejudice the appellant case number 19701534X in 12. Dept NO. 14. Whereby, the victim testified at preliminary 13. hearing under oath facing the penalty of perjury that the
14. appellant was NOT the perpetrator of the alleged event
15. and 100% sure not 80%. So there was no corpus delicti,
16. slight, or marginal evidence leaving no causation for the 17. state to breach the terms and spirit of agreement that does
18. not serve the interests of justice.

19. Wherefore, appellant never violated a provision of a statute
20. that would have allowed the District Court to not stand
21. by the sentence agreed upon by the parties set forth
22. in the Guilty Plea Agreement. Furthermore, the appellant was 23. never given notice that the District Court would seek 24. habitual treatment if appellant violated a provision of a
25. statute making this an illegal sentence.

26. Wherefore, consecutive sentences violates the legislative

Ground Three Continue:

27. instant of NRS 176.035 and does not serve the interests
28. of Justice

29. Whereby, the instant offense took place on or about
30. April 9, 2013 and was not subsequent to the Burglary
31. conviction that occurred April 2, 2010 but prior. So the 32. District Court erred by sentencing the appellant to consecutive 33. sentence rather than concurrent.

34. Whereby, the appellants bond for the instant offense
35. was exonerated at the conclusion of the preliminary
36. hearing for lack of probable cause [No Corpus Delicti, slight
37. or marginal evidence]. So the appellant should receive 38. time credit from that point to the present towards the 39. instant offense Attempt Grand Larceny.

INCORRECT PSI

GROUND FOUR: DUE PROCESS VIOLATION

1. Appellants Pre-Sentence Investigation report did have several material
2. facts in error that was objected to and untrue assumptions made by
3. state prosecutor M. Dickerson which work to the extreme detriment
4. of the appellant

5. Whereas, M. Dickerson's profile was assumptions that was NOT
6. based on any facts or evidence as he stated appellant was a career
7. "DOOR PUSHER" and NOT ONE of appellants crimes had any evidence
8. of "DOOR PUSHING"

9. Whereas, the appellants PSI had several material facts in error
10. as follows: Convictions should read Felony 2(ONE) NOT 4(FOUR);
11. Misdemeanors 2(two) NOT 3(three)... INCESTUOUS should read
12. PRISON 0(ZERO) NOT 1(ONE) Jail 3(THREE) NOT 5(FIVE)... SUPERVISOR
13. History should read Current 0(ZERO) NOT 1(ONE)... INSTANT OFFENSE
14. C-16-315718-1 WA 1. Burglary 1st(7) 2. Attempt GRAND LARCENY < $7500(7)
15. should be dated 04-09-2013 NOT 04-02-2016... TEXAS CONVICTIONS
16. 1083785 and 1083786 is 1(ONE) EVENT NOT 2(two) and NOT
17. FELONIES but state jail CRIMES)... Case Number C-16-315125-1
18. should NOT be anywhere on appellants PSI for the instant
19. offense as it occurred sum 3(three) years to the latter.

20. Wherefore, based on the foregoing facts and constitutional
21. violations this Honorable Court is respectfully urged to 22. dismiss/vacate the appellants judgement against him.

24. Dated this 10th day of April, 2019 I, James A. Hayes, do solemnly swear
25. under penalty of perjury that the above writ of Habeas Corpus is accurate
26. correct and true to the best of my knowledge

INSTRUCTIONS:

- (1) This petition must be legibly handwritten or typewritten, signed by the petitioner and verified.
- (2) Additional pages are not permitted except where noted or with respect to the facts which you rely upon to support your grounds for relief. No citation of authorities need be furnished. If briefs or arguments are submitted, they should be submitted in the form of a separate memorandum.
- (3) If you want an attorney appointed, you must complete the Affidavit in Support of Request to Proceed in Forma Pauperis. You must have an authorized officer at the prison complete the certificate as to the amount of money and securities on deposit to your credit in any account in the institution.
- (4) You must name as respondent the person by whom you are confined or restrained. If you are in a specific institution of the Department of Corrections, name the warden or head of the institution. If you are not in a specific institution of the Department but within its custody, name the Director of the Department of Corrections.
- (5) You must include all grounds or claims for relief which you may have regarding your conviction or sentence. Failure to raise all grounds in this petition may preclude you from filing future petitions challenging your conviction and sentence.
- (6) You must allege specific facts supporting the claims in the petition you file seeking relief from any conviction or sentence. Failure to allege specific facts rather than just conclusions may cause your petition to be dismissed. If your petition contains a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel, that claim will operate to waive the attorney-client privilege for the proceeding in which you claim your counsel was ineffective.
- (7) When the petition is fully completed, the original and one copy must be filed with the clerk of the state district court for the county in which you were convicted. One copy must be mailed to the respondent, one copy to the Attorney General's Office, and one copy to the district attorney of the county in which you were convicted or to the original prosecutor if you are challenging your original conviction or sentence. Copies must conform in all particulars to the original submitted for filing.

If yes, specify where and when it is to be served, if you know:

23. State concisely every ground on which you claim that you are being held unlawfully. Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary you may attach pages stating additional grounds and facts supporting same.

(a) Ground ONE: U.S. Constitution Violation 6 and 14th Amendments "Ineffective Assistance of Counsel"

Supporting FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law.): COUNSEL failed to provide zealous and quality representation.

WHEREAS, COUNSEL failed to investigate the facts of the case; failed to identify defects in the prosecution i.e. Double Jeopardy, Equal Protection, as counsel failed to fully explain to petitioner the rights waived by entering into and signing the Guilty Plea Agreement. When in fact, counsel told petitioner that the agreement was for a gross misdemeanor not felony. Counsel failed to file motions challenging the defects in the charging document and Guilty Plea Agreement. Counsel failed to protect petitioner's rights by waiver or procedural default. Counsel failed to protect the record for collateral review. Counsel failed to investigate and study the case before petitioner's acceptance of the plea agreement. Counsel failed to meet with petitioner in a confidential setting to make sure that petitioner understands the rights he would waive by entering the plea agreement and that it was knowing, voluntary, and intelligent. Counsel failed to completely inform petitioner of the maximum punishment and consequences that he would be exposed to as petitioner was surprised when sentence to habitual offender.

(b) Ground TWO: DUE PROCESS VIOLATION

Supporting FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law.): NO NOTICE TO SEEK HABITUAL TREATMENT

WHEREAS, THE STATE DID NOT GIVE WRITTEN NOTICE AND NO AGREEMENT BY BOTH PARTIES THAT THEY WOULD SEEK HABITUAL TREATMENT FOR THE CHARGE OF ATTEMPT GRAND LARCENY LESS THAN $3500. WHEN IN FACT THE PETITIONER WAS SURPRISED AT SENTENCING WHEN ADJUDICATED HABITUAL AS COUNSEL HAD INFORM PETITIONER THAT THE CHARGE WAS NEGOTIATED TO A GROSS MISDEMEANOR. AS PETITIONER HAS NEVER HAD A SERIOUS OR VIOLENT CHARGE HELD AGAINST HIM AND THE INSTANT CASE THERE WAS NO LOSS OR INJURY, NO CORPUS DELICTI, NO PROBABLE CAUSE AS THE CHARGE WAS DISMISSED IN JUSTICE COURT AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE PRELIMINARY HEARING FOR NO PROBABLE CAUSE AND LACK OF EVIDENCE. NO CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE.

WHEREAS, ALLEGED VICTIM JOSHUA JARVIS TESTIFIED THAT HE DID NOT HAVE ANY VALUABLES IN THE SAID ROOM ONLY HIS IPHONE THAT WAS ON HIS PERSON AND THE STATE FAILED TO PRESENT THE THREE FEMALE OCCUPANTS OF ROOM AT PRELIM HEARING OR ENTER ANY WRITTEN STATEMENTS FROM ANY OF THE SAID FEMALE OCCUPANTS OF SAID ROOM.

(c) Ground THREE: U.S. Constitution 5th Amendment Violation and Due Process Violation

Supporting FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law.): Double Jeopardy applies to jeopardy or risk stemming from the same offense.

Whereas, the petitioner may not lawfully be subjected to the risk of twice being tried for the same offense or face multiple punishments for the same offense (NRS 174.085) in the instant case the charge for Attempt Grand Larceny less than $3500 was dismissed at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing after the state presented all their evidence and only the charge of Burglary was bound over to District Court that was in error by Justice Court Judge. When in fact as the state used the the Att. Grand Larceny charge for the instant for the Burglary charge so when the Att. Grand Larceny charge was dismissed it made the Burglary charge fatal and it should have been dismissed leaving no causation and no jurisdiction for District Court to proceed.
No substantial evidence and no clear and convincing evidence for the charge of Burglary to be bound over to District Court that was dismissed by the state for the way of Amended Information to once again charge petitioner with Attempt Grand Larceny less than $3500.

BEFORE, petitioner prays that the court grant petitioner relief to which petitioner may be entitled in this proceeding.

- (6) You must allege specific facts supporting the claims in the petition you file seeking relief from any conviction or sentence. Failure to allege specific facts rather than just conclusions may cause your petition to be dismissed. If your petition contains a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel, that claim will operate to waive the attorney-client privilege for the proceeding in which you claim your counsel was ineffective.
- (7) When the petition is fully completed, the original and one copy must be filed with the clerk of the state district court for the county in which you were convicted. One copy must be mailed to the respondent, one copy to the Attorney General's Office, and one copy to the district attorney of the county in which you were convicted or to the original prosecutor if you are challenging your original conviction or sentence. Copies must conform in all particulars to the original submitted for filing.

3 AND a Judicial Violation.

5 Supporting FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law.): WHEREAS, at sentencing 6 hearing for the INSTANT OFFENSE District Court Judge William 7 Kephart made prejudicial comments about petitioner as 8 he stated that petitioner is smart but will you be able 9 to overcome prior bad acts" referring to a criminal 10 case that is pending in said Judge's court room that 11 due to go to trial May 13, 2019, that petitioner made 12 reference to because the state use this is perjured case 13 to breach the Guilty Plea Agreement entered into by both 14 parties for the INSTANT OFFENSE. When in fact this is 15 impalpable and highly suspect evidence as the victim 16 in-court identification was not of the petitioner and 17 he stated he's 100% sure that petitioner was not the 18 perpetrator of said alleged event and this shows Judge 19 William Kephart's Bias and Prejudice towards the petitioner 20 and this is a Miscarriage of Justice that does not serve 21 the interests of Justice.

22 WHEREAS, the court transcripts and in camera review
23 of said day in question March 6, 2019 would show clear 24 and convincing evidence of Judge Kephart's prejudice and 25 bias displayed towards petitioner throughout the proceedings 26 as he predetermine a Petrocelli hearing ruling instead 27 of proceeding on the facts and the law that hasn't been 28 presented before this Judge for such a ruling at this time and this is egregious.

BEFORE, petitioner prays that the court grant petitioner relief to which petitioner may be entitled in this proceeding.

Motion

Comes now, JAMES H. HAYES, in proper person requests that Clark County District Court Judge William "Bill" Kephart be disqualified and transfer the above titled action to ~~another~~ another District Court Judge due to inappropriate personal attack and a judicial violation that occurred on March 6, 2019 that showed Judge's bias and prejudice.

Whereas, the petitioner is concerned that the Judge may be biased or unfair for some reason as he has shown in the past that would not serve the interests of Justice.

Wherefore, petitioner requests that the court grant such relief to which petitioner may be entitled.

2 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

3 The relevant procedural history is as follows. In a June 17, 2016 Information, the State 4 charged Petitioner with Burglary (Category B Felony). It filed a Notice of Intent to Seek 5 Punishment as a Habitual Criminal on November 21, 2016. It filed an Amended Notice on 6 August 29, 2017.

7 On November 7, 2018, Petitioner pleaded guilty pursuant to North Carolina v. Alford, 8 400 U.S. 25 (1970) to Attempt Grand Larceny (Category D Felony/Gross Misdemeanor). The 9 State agreed to make no recommendation at the time of sentencing. GPA at 1. It did, however, 10 reserve the right to argue for habitual treatment if “an independent magistrate, by affidavit 11 review, confirms probable cause against [Petitioner] for new criminal charges.” Id. at 2.

12 On January 29, 2019, Justice of the Peace De La Garza found probable cause existed 13 that Petitioner had committed another count of Burglary in what eventually became Case No.
14 C-19-338412-1, which is currently before this Court.

15 Based on that finding of probable cause, the State filed a Motion to Revoke Bail on 16 January 31, 2019. Further, as contemplated in the Guilty Plea Agreement, it argued for habitual 17 treatment in a March 6, 2019 sentencing. This Court found that the State met the statutory 18 requirements of NRS 207.010 and accordingly sentenced Petitioner to between sixty and one 19 hundred seventy-four months in the Nevada Department of Corrections.

20 The Judgment of Conviction was filed on March 12, 2019. On March 28, 2019, 21 Petitioner filed a Notice of Appeal. That appeal is currently pending before the Supreme Court.

22 Petitioner filed the instant post-conviction habeas petition on April 15, 2019. The State 23 herein responds.

25 I. PETITIONER’S SUBSTANTIVE CLAIMS ARE PROCEDURALLY
26 BARRED.

27 NRS 34.810(1)(a) reads:

28 The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:

1 (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or guilty 2 but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an allegation that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

3 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that "challenges to the validity of a guilty plea and claims 4 of ineffective assistance of trial and appellate counsel must first be pursued in post-conviction 5 proceedings...[A]ll other claims that are appropriate for a direct appeal must be pursued on 6 direct appeal, or they will be considered waived in subsequent proceedings." Franklin v. State, 7 110 Nev. 750, 752, 877 P.2d 1058, 1059 (1994) (emphasis added) (disapproved on other 8 grounds by Thomas v. State, 115 Nev. 148, 979 P.2d 222 (1999)). "A court must dismiss a 9 habeas petition if it presents claims that either were or could have been presented in an earlier 10 proceeding, unless the court finds both cause for failing to present the claims earlier or for 11 raising them again and actual prejudice to the petitioner." Evans v. State, 117 Nev. 609, 646-
12 47, 29 P.3d 498, 523 (2001).

13 Here, Petitioner does not challenge the effectiveness of his counsel or the validity of 14 his guilty plea. Instead, Petitioner raises four claims which are suitable only for direct appeal.
15 His failure to raise them at that juncture waives them for purposes of this petition. Moreover, 16 each claim is meritless. It is well established that jeopardy does not attach until either the jury 17 is sworn or, in a bench trial, the first witness is called. Downum v. United States, 372 U.S.
18 734, 83 S.Ct. 1033 (1963); Wheeler v. District Court, 82 Nev. 225, 415 P.2d 63 (1966); Hylton
19 v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court of State of Nev., Dep't IV, 103 Nev. 418, 421 n.1, 743 P.2d 622, 20 624 n.1 (1987); Crist v. Bretz, 437 U.S. 28, 37 n.15, 98 S. Ct. 2156, 2162 n.15 (1978) ("In 21 nonjury trials jeopardy does not attach until the first witness is sworn."). Here, no jury was 22 ever sworn and no witness was ever called in a non-jury trial. Ground 1, which alleges a 23 Double Jeopardy violation, necessarily fails because jeopardy never attached. Pet. 6-7.

24 Ground 2, the probable cause claim similarly fails. Although Petitioner's motion to 25 dismiss was originally granted in Justice Court regarding that ground, the Amended 26 Information which reintroduced the count was only filed after Petitioner agreed to plead guilty 27 to the charge. In similar circumstances, the Nevada Supreme Court has declined to find error 28 when a fair trial resulted in a conviction for a crime after inadequacies in the grand-jury

1 proceedings. Hill v. State, 124 Nev. 546, 552, 188 P.3d 51, 54–55 (2008). Here, Petitioner
2 pleaded guilty to Attempt Grand Larceny, thereby nullifying any potential probable-cause 3 related issue at the preliminary hearing. Even if the State lacked probable cause at the time of 4 the hearing, there is no colorable argument that it lacks it now. Petitioner admitted that he 5 committed the crime. GPA at 1.

6 In Ground 3, Petitioner claims that the Cruel and Unusual Punishment Clause of the 7 Eighth Amendment was violated when he was sentenced as a habitual criminal, but his 8 sentence is appropriate considering his criminal history. The Eighth Amendment to the United 9 States Constitution, as well as Article 1, Section 6 of the Nevada Constitution, prohibits the 10 imposition of cruel and unusual punishment. The Nevada Supreme Court has stated that “[a] 11 sentence within the statutory limits is not ‘cruel and unusual punishment unless the statute 12 fixing punishment is unconstitutional or the sentence is so unreasonably disproportionate to 13 the offense as to shock the conscience.’” Allred v. State, 120 Nev. 410, 420, 92 P.2d 1246, 14 1253 (2004) (quoting Blume v. State, 112 Nev. 472, 475, 915 P.2d 282, 284 (1996) (quoting 15 Culverson v. State, 95 Nev. 433, 435, 596 P.2d 220, 221-22 (1979)).

16 Additionally, the Nevada Supreme Court has granted district courts “wide discretion” 17 in sentencing decisions, and these are not to be disturbed “[s]o long as the record does not 18 demonstrate prejudice resulting from consideration of information or accusations founded on 19 facts supported only by impalpable or highly suspect evidence.” Allred, 120 Nev. at 410, 92
20 P.2d at 1253 (quoting Silks v. State, 92 Nev. 91, 94, 545 P.2d 1159, 1161 (1976)). A 21 sentencing judge is permitted broad discretion in imposing a sentence and absent an abuse of 22 discretion, the district court’s determination will not be disturbed on appeal. Randell v. State, 23 109 Nev. 5, 846 P.2d 278 (1993) (citing Deveroux v. State, 96 Nev. 388, 610 P.2d 722 (1980)).
24 As long as the sentence is within the limits set by the legislature, a sentence will normally not 25 be considered cruel and unusual. Glegola v. State, 110 Nev. 344, 871 P.2d 950 (1994).

26 Here, NRS 207.010(1)(a) governs the sentencing of habitual criminals:

27 1. Unless the person is prosecuted pursuant to NRS 207.012 or 207.014, a 28 person convicted in this State of:

1 (a) Any felony, who has previously been two times convicted, whether in this 2 State or elsewhere, of any crime which under the laws of the situs of the 3 crime or of this State would amount to a felony is a habitual criminal and 4 shall be punished for a category B felony by imprisonment in the state prison 5 for a minimum term of not less than 5 years and a maximum term of not more 6 than 20 years.

6 In its Notice of Intent to Seek Punishment as a Habitual Criminal,¹ the State alleged that 7 Petitioner had been previously convicted of two counts of Fraudulent Use/Possession of 8 Personal Identification Information, two counts of Credit Card Abuse, and one count of 9 Attempt Possession of Credit or Debit Card Without Cardholder's Consent. Notice (Nov. 21, 10 2016) at 2. Each of those counts is a felony in the State where the crime was committed.

11 Then, in an Amended Notice of Intent to Seek Punishment as a Habitual Criminal, the 12 State alleged that Petitioner had been convicted of Credit Card Abuse, a Texas felony, Attempt 13 Possession of Credit or Debit Card Without Cardholder's Consent (Category E Felony), and 14 Burglary (Category B Felony). At sentencing, this Court found that the State carried its burden 15 of proving each. Accordingly, the State was free to argue for habitual treatment under NRS 16 207.010(1)(a).

17 Petitioner argues that the State breached the guilty plea agreement, but the agreement 18 itself contemplated that the State would be free to argue for habitual treatment if a magistrate 19 found probable cause that he committed another crime. Pet. 12; GPA at 1-2. Justice of the 20 Peace De La Garza found probable cause² that he committed another Burglary on January 29,

22 ¹ Because the State filed its Notice, Petitioner's claim that his sentence was illegal because he 23 was never given notice is belied by the record. Pet. 12. "Bare" and "naked" allegations are not 24 sufficient to warrant post-conviction relief, nor are those belied and repelled by the record.
25 Hargrove v. State, 100 Nev. 498, 502, 686 P.2d 222, 225 (1984). "A claim is 'belied' when it is contradicted or proven to be false by the record as it existed at the time the claim was made."
Mann v. State, 118 Nev. 351, 354, 46 P.3d 1228, 1230 (2002).

26 ² Petitioner argues that this was based on impalpable and highly suspect evidence, but this 27 ignores the full reason why probable cause was ultimately found, as not only was Petitioner 28 identified with 80% certainty initially, but he also had a hotel key that did not belong to him in his pocket when he was detained. See State's Notice of Motion and Motion to Revoke Bail (Jan. 31, 2019) at Exhibit 3; Tr. Preliminary Hearing, 19F01534X (Feb. 26, 2019) at 25, 31 (filed on Odyssey as case C-19-338412-1).

1 2019. Accordingly, the State was free to argue for habitual treatment. That case, C-19-338412-
2 1, is currently pending before this Court. Once probable cause was found, the State was free
3 to argue for habitual treatment under the plain terms of the GPA. Because Petitioner's ultimate 4 sentence fell within the parameters of the small habitual statute, the Eighth Amendment was 5 not violated.

6 Finally, in Ground 4, Petitioner's claim that his Presentence Investigation Report
7 contained errors is nothing more than a bare and naked allegation. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 8 686 P.2d at 225. Further, challenges to the Presentence Investigation Report are not cognizable
9 after sentencing. NRS 176.135(1) requires the Division of Parole and Probation to prepare a 10 Presentence Investigation Report for any defendant who pleads guilty of a felony. This Court 11 has previously addressed the importance of a factually accurate PSI at sentencing:

12 A PSI contains information about the defendant's prior criminal record, the 13 circumstances affecting the defendant's behavior and the offense, and the impact 14 of the offense on the victim. NRS 176.145(1). Because the sentencing court will 15 rely on a defendant's PSI, the PSI must not include information based on 16 "impalpable or highly suspect evidence." Goodson v. State, 98 Nev. 493, 495-
17 96, 654 P.2d 1006, 1007 (1982).

18 Stockmeier v. Bd. of Parole Comm'rs, 127 Nev. 243, 248, 255 P.3d 209, 212-13 (2011).

19 If a PSI does have errors, a defendant can object. He cannot, however, object in 20 perpetuity. Instead, this Court has limited the time in which a defendant can object to factual 21 or methodological errors in a presentence investigation report. A defendant can only object to 22 errors "so long as he or she objects before sentencing." Sasser v. State, 130 Nev. 387, 394, 324 23 P.3d 1221, 1226 (2014). Once sentencing has occurred, neither the "Division of Parole and 24 Probation nor the district court" have the "authority to amend ... [a] PSI." Stockmeier, 127 25 Nev. at 245, 255 P.3d at 211 (2011).

26 Petitioner claims that an objection was raised about the alleged errors in his PSI, and 27 he enumerates those errors without any attempt to support his bare and naked claims. Pet. 14.
28 Accordingly, this claim lacks merit.

1 In sum, each of Petitioner's claims has been waived for purposes of the instant petition 2 under NRS 34.810 and is otherwise meritless. The petition should be denied.

3 II. BY ENTERING A GUILTY PLEA AGREEMENT, PETITIONER
4 WAIVED ANY PRIOR CONSTITUTIONAL DEFECTS.

5 In this case, Petitioner entered a guilty plea. By doing this, he "waived all constitutional 6 claims based on events occurring prior to the entry of the pleas, except those involving the 7 voluntariness of the pleas themselves." Warden, Nevada State Prison v. Lyons, 100 Nev. 430, 8 432, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984); Kirksey v. State, 112 Nev. 980, 1002, 923 P.2d 1102, 1116 9 (1996).

10 Petitioner raises two claims which occurred prior to the entry of his guilty plea in the 11 instant petition. First, he claims that the State violated the Double Jeopardy Clause by adding 12 a charge of Attempt Grand Larceny at district court after it had been dismissed in justice court.
13 Second, he claims that there was no probable cause to bind his case over. Petitioner's guilty 14 plea waived both of those claims.

15 For these reasons, Petitioner waived Grounds 1 and 2 when he entered his guilty plea, 16 and they are barred by the plea in addition to NRS 34.810.

17 III. THIS COURT SHOULD STRIKE PETITIONER'S ADDENDA.

18 After filing his first Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus on April 15, 2019, Petitioner 19 filed two addenda to his petition without first requesting leave of this Court. Each should be 20 stricken.

21 NRS 34.750(3) allows appointed counsel to file a supplemental petition after 22 appointment. "No further pleadings may be filed except as ordered by the court." Id. (5). The 23 Nevada Supreme Court has addressed when the district courts can allow a litigant to file a 24 supplemental petition, holding that leave can be granted only if the petitioner shows good 25 cause to explain the delay in raising a claim. Barnhart v. State, 122 Nev. 301, 303-04, 130 P.3d 26 650, 652 (2006). Any finding of good cause must be made "explicitly on the record" and 27 enumerate "the additional issues which are to be considered." Id. at 303, 130 P.3d at 652.
28 Barnhart affirmed a district court's decision to deny leave to expand the issues because

1 “[c]ounsel for petitioner provided no reason why that claim could not have been pleaded in the 2 supplemental petition. Id. at 304, 130 P.3d at 652 (emphasis added).

3 This Court should strike each of the addenda filed by Petitioner in proper person.
4 Petitioner never sought leave from this court to file supplements to his timely first petition.
5 Although counsel would be entitled to file a supplement by NRS 34.750(3), that entitlement 6 to file a supplement is explicitly a right of appointed counsel.

7 Furthermore, none of Petitioner’s pro-per addenda make any attempt to show good 8 cause for failing to raise the issue in the initial petition. Barnhart precludes Petitioner from 9 filing supplemental petitions in perpetuity without good cause for neglecting to include the 10 new claims in the initial petition, and the record is void of any explicit findings of this court 11 to allow for the rogue filings.

12 Because Petitioner was not entitled to supplement his initial petition and never sought 13 this Court’s leave, his two addenda should each be stricken.³

15 CONCLUSION

16 For these reasons, the instant petition should be denied.

17 DATED this 26th day of June, 2019.

1 Procedural Background ON CASE: Petitioner filed a writ of Habeas 2 Corpus on April 15, 2019 under case NO C-16-315718-1. And 3 subsequently, this court ordered that the respondent "SHALL" 4 have 45 days to reply to the writ of Habeas Corpus. The 5 court has set a date of August 12, 2019 for the parties to 6 appear in court for a hearing on this matter. However; 7 the allowed 45 day deadline has passed, and petitioner
8 Hayes has not received a response to the Habeas Corpus, 9 and one hasn't been filed as of June 21, 2019 at 10:45AM

26 LEGAL Argument(s)

1 Failure to respond to an argument within the 2 litigation will be taken as "Confession of Error."

3 Failure to reply to any litigation within a case 4 is a Procedural Bar to that Issue. Also known as 5 "Default" or "Procedural Default"

6 Failure to comply with a Court order is "Contempt 7 of Court" and Disobedience of Order (Writ)

8 "SHALL" the word shall means Mandatory!! It is a 9 must, and is not a discretionary word.

11 Failure for any party to respond to an argument within the 12 litigation of a case will be taken as a "Confession of Error"; 13 The Nevada Supreme Court ruled that, "We elect to treat 14 the chronister failure to respond to this argument in the 15 3pgs of Arguments in their Answering brief as Confession 16 of Error."

17 Also, under N.R.A.P # 31 - The Court shall not grant 18 additional extensions of time except upon a showing 19 of Extra-ordinary circumstances and extreme need and 20 Respondent has not shown any extreme need.

22 Failure of any party to Reply to any litigation within a 23 case is a Procedural Bar to that Issue, also known as 24 "Default" or "Procedural Default". A writ of habeas corpus 25 is a writ civil in nature, because it is a petition. And 26 under U.S. Constitution Art 1 Sec 9 - The Writ of Habeas 27 Corpus shall not be suspended, and under U.S Constitution

1 1st Amend. Hayes, has the right to petition the gov't for 2 a redress of grievances And for the petitions to be adjudicated 3 based on the merits. And so, since the respondent(s), didn't 4 reply within the Court Ordered 45 day time frame then it is 5 apparent that the State of Nevada and the N.A.S.C can't 6 justify imprisoning Hayes, And Hayes, confinement is 7 illegal and unconstitutional. Whereas, had it been justifiable 8 then the respondent(s) would've justified it, instead the 9 respondent(s) had No rebuttal to ~~his~~ ^{HAYES} meritorious claims 10 and voluntarily chose to go into Default.

11 therefore, James H. Hayes, urges this Honorable court to 12 grant his Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, and release 13 Hayes, Immediately. Pursuant To: 34.38D and 34.39D.
14 Also, under Hillis vs. State if a party fails to object then 15 that party has waived any opposition. Wells vs Brewster 16 failure to respond is treated as consent to grant motion 17 Polk vs State 233 P.3d 357

19 Failure to comply with a Court Order is considered a 20 "Contempt of Court". Pursuant to: State Emp. Ser Dept.
21 vs Weber. So, Now Hayes urges this Court to actually 22 hold respondent(s) in Contempt of Court for violating the 23 court's order to respond to Mr. Hayes, Petition for a Writ
24 of Habeas Corpus. And so, NEVER in history has a litigant 25 ever been rewarded or decided in their favor, when the 26 litigant whom is the party in Default, and is in Contempt 27 of a court order. This is Judicial principles outlined

1 in the CSC and NRS Chapter 2. And Hayes, urges that 2 Pursuant to: Hillis vs State respondent(s) is procedurally
3 barred to try and respond now to this Petition for writ
4 of Habeas Corpus based on Hillis vs. State.

5 Wherein, it is well established in Anglo-Saxon Law, 6 that the word "SHALL" means must. And it puts a 7 mandate on the context of the subject As opposed to 8 if the word "May" is used. And in the Court's Order it 9 expressly states that: "It is hereby ordered that respondent
10 "SHALL" within 45 days after the date of this order, Answer 11 or otherwise respond to the Petition and file a return in 12 accordance with the provisions of NRS 34.360 to 34.830 13 INCLUSIVE."

RETURN AFTER 10 DAYS

174.085. Proceedings not constituting acquittal; effect of acquittal on merits; proceedings constituting bar to another prosecution; retrial after discharge of jury; effect of voluntary dismissal.

1. If a defendant was formerly acquitted on the ground of a variance between the indictment, information or complaint and proof, or the indictment, information, or complaint was dismissed upon an objection to its form or substance, or in order to hold a defendant for a higher offense without a judgment of acquittal, it is not an acquittal of the same offense.

2. If a defendant is acquitted on the merits, the defendant is acquitted of the same offense, notwithstanding a defect in the form or substance in the indictment, information, or complaint on which the trial was had.

3. When a defendant is convicted or acquitted, or has been once placed in jeopardy upon an indictment, information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in subsections 5 and 6, the conviction, acquittal or jeopardy is a bar to another indictment, information or complaint for the offense charged in the former, or for an attempt to commit the same, or for an offense necessarily included therein, of which the defendant might have been convicted under that indictment, information or complaint.

4. In all cases where a jury is discharged or prevented from giving a verdict by reason of an accident or other cause, except where the defendant is discharged during the progress of the trial or after the cause is submitted to them, the cause may be again tried.

5. The prosecuting attorney, in a case that the prosecuting attorney has initiated, may voluntarily dismiss a complaint:

(a) Before a preliminary hearing if the crime with which the defendant is charged is a felony or gross misdemeanor; or

(b) Before trial if the crime with which the defendant is charged is a misdemeanor, without prejudice to the right to file another complaint, unless the State of Nevada has previously filed a complaint against the defendant which was dismissed at the request of the prosecuting attorney. After the dismissal, the court shall order the defendant released from custody or, if the defendant is released on bail, exonerate the obligors and release any bail.

6. If a prosecuting attorney files a subsequent complaint after a complaint concerning the same matter has been filed and dismissed against the defendant:

(a) The case must be assigned to the same judge to whom the initial complaint was assigned; and

(b) A court shall not issue a warrant for the arrest of a defendant who was released from custody pursuant to subsection 5 or require a defendant whose bail has been exonerated pursuant to subsection 5 to give bail unless the defendant does not appear in court in response to a properly issued summons in connection with the complaint.

7. The prosecuting attorney, in a case that the prosecuting attorney has initiated, may voluntarily dismiss an indictment or information before the actual arrest or incarceration of the defendant without prejudice to the right to bring another indictment or information. After the arrest or incarceration of the defendant, the prosecuting attorney may voluntarily dismiss an indictment or information without prejudice to the right to bring another indictment or information only upon good cause shown to the court and upon written findings and a court order to that effect.

1967, p. 1416; 1971, p. 596; 1997, ch. 504, § 1, p. 2391.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Robbery convictions of defendants who entered guilty pleas did not bar subsequent prosecution for murder committed during the robbery when victim died from his injuries on double jeopardy grounds; robbery and murder are separate and distinct offenses. Carmody v. Seventh Judicial Dist. Court, 81 Nev. 83, 398 P.2d 706, 1965 Nev. LEXIS 205 (Nev. 1965) (decision under former similar statute).

A void conviction is not a bar to a second conviction.

Where the initial complaint was fatally defective, the municipal court never acquired jurisdiction over the defendant, since the court was without jurisdiction, the defendant's conviction was void; therefore, the prior conviction is not a bar to the present proceedings, and double jeopardy has not attached. Williams v. Municipal Judge of Las Vegas, 85 Nev. 425, 456 P.2d 440, 1969 Nev. LEXIS 391 (Nev. 1969).

The beating administered to a robbery victim with an empty firearm after all the elements of the crime of robbery were complete, constituted a separate offense from the offense of robbery, and trying defendant for assault with intent to kill by virtue of said beating did not constitute double jeopardy. State v. Feinzelber, 76 Nev. 142, 350 P.2d 399, 1960 Nev. LEXIS 91 (Nev. 1960) (decision under former similar statute).

Where a defendant has been placed in jeopardy in a trial which is terminated prior to an acquittal or a conviction, retrial is not automatically barred; retrial is not prohibited by the double jeopardy bar if a prosecutor demonstrates "manifest necessity" for the mistrial. There was a manifest necessity for the mistrial, where the record established that the witness' own conduct was the sole reason for her failure to appear and the witness' absence would have effectively prevented the state from presenting its case.

Petitioner,

v.

(POSTCONVICTION)

State of Nevada; Warden B. Williams
Respondent.

"Reply to STATE'S RESPONSE"

INSTRUCTIONS:

- (1) This petition must be legibly handwritten or typewritten, signed by the petitioner and verified.
- (2) Additional pages are not permitted except where noted or with respect to the facts which you rely upon to support your grounds for relief. No citation of authorities need be furnished. If briefs or arguments are submitted, they should be submitted in the form of a separate memorandum.
- (3) If you want an attorney appointed, you must complete the Affidavit in Support of Request to Proceed in Forma Pauperis. You must have an authorized officer at the prison complete the certificate as to the amount of money and securities on deposit to your credit in any account in the institution.
- (4) You must name as respondent the person by whom you are confined or restrained. If you are in a specific institution of the Department of Corrections, name the warden or head of the institution. If you are not in a specific institution of the Department but within its custody, name the Director of the Department of Corrections.
- (5) You must include all grounds or claims for relief which you may have regarding your conviction or sentence. Failure to raise all grounds in this petition may preclude you from filing future petitions challenging your conviction and sentence.
- (6) You must allege specific facts supporting the claims in the petition you file seeking relief from any conviction or sentence. Failure to allege specific facts rather than just conclusions may cause your petition to be dismissed. If your petition contains a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel, that claim will operate to waive the attorney-client privilege for the proceeding in which you claim your counsel was ineffective.
- (7) When the petition is fully completed, the original and one copy must be filed with the clerk of the state district court for the county in which you were convicted. One copy must be mailed to the respondent, one copy to the Attorney General's Office, and one copy to the district attorney of the county in which you were convicted or to the original prosecutor if you are challenging your original conviction or sentence. Copies must conform in all particulars to the original submitted for filing.

PETITION

- 1. Name of institution and county in which you are presently imprisoned or where and how you are presently restrained of your liberty: High Desert State Prison
- 2. Name and location of court which entered the judgment of conviction under attack: Clark County District Court Dept 19; Clark County, Nevada
- 3. Date of judgment of conviction: March 12, 2019
- 4. Case number: C-16-315718-1

(a) Ground ONE: Violation of United States and Nevada
Constitution & Federal and State Constitutional Violations & NRS Violations...

Supporting FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law.): The state's ENTIRE RESPONSE filed 6-26-19 is MERITLESS and each claim fails because the charge of Attempt Grand Larceny was dismissed at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing in Justice Court for lack of evidence, NO corpus delicti, NO slight or marginal evidence for the charge to be bound over to District Court. Leaving the District Court to never have jurisdiction for the charge of Attempt Grand Larceny or the ground(s) to proceed on the said charge against petitioner and all the state's claims are belied by the ~~fact~~ RECORD, the law, and the facts.

Whereas, it is black letter law in the State of Nevada as stated in NRS 174.085 that once the petitioner was placed in jeopardy upon the filed criminal complaint in Justice Court and proceeded to preliminary hearing on the said charge and charge dismissed at the conclusion of the hearing that said charge is barred from any subsequent proceedings and the law is clear and unambiguous.

Whereas, the state's own admissions that the charge Attempt Grand Larceny was dismissed in Justice Court at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing (Page 3 at 24-25).
So without a doubt it is clear and uncontradicted that petitioner was placed in jeopardy at the preliminary hearing under the charge's criminal complaint for the charge of Attempt grand larceny. Leaving the charge of Attempt Grand

5 Supporting FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law.): Larceny barred from any 6 subsequent proceedings. Moreover, from the Amended information 7 filed in open court November 2, 2018 making the Guilty Plea
8 invalid, involuntary, unknowingly, and unintelligently 9 that was actual prejudice to petitioner.

10 Whereas, the state knowingly and voluntarily filed 11 a fraudulent UNCONSTITUTIONAL amended information in 12 open court to deprive and mislead petitioner to his prejudice, 13 that was malicious, unprofessional, and grossly unethical.
14 As to deprive the petitioner of the protections that the 15 Constitution was designed to protect him of and denied 16 him due process of law. The amended information left the 17 petitioner without knowledge as to the nature of the charge 18 upon which he pleaded that he could not plead the crime 19 with certainty as the said charge attempt grand larceny 20 was dismissed at the conclusion of preliminary hearing 21 in Justice Court leaving no causation or jurisdiction for 22 District Court to proceed. When in fact, the character of 23 the material evidence in the Amended information is false, 24 due process inevitably been denied the petitioner and the 25 proceedings was constitutionally inadequate.

26 Whereas, when the charge of Attempted Grand Larceny 27 was dismissed that the state predicated its intent on for the 28 charge of Burglary in the filed criminal complaint in Justice Court,

5 Supporting FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law.): That the Burglary charge was 6 set aside and it must be dismissed leaving no charge and no
7 jurisdiction for the District Court to proceed at all Making 8 the Guilty Plea invalid, involuntary, unknowingly, and un-9 intelligently that was actual prejudice to the petitioner.

10 WHEREAS, petitioner is not schooled in the law of the law 11 that's why counsel is a must and had counsel not been ineffective 12 by failing to investigate the facts of the case he would have 13 known that the charge of attempted grand larceny was barred 14 from all proceedings in District Court per NRS 174.085 and 15 inform petitioner of such. But due to the fact, counsel failed to 16 adequately investigate the law and the facts relevant to the 17 case it left petitioner ignorant and with no plausible options 18 that has greatly prejudice the petitioner and left him with 19 irreparable injury. What in fact, a adequate investigation 20 would have lead to a more favorable outcome and petitioner 21 would not have entered a Alford Plea to attempt grand larceny 22 as it would have lead to information for a better outcome as 23 there was no evidence slight or marginal that petitioner committed 24 the crime of attempted grand larceny and no more evident than 25 the charge being dismissed at the conclusion of the preliminary 26 hearing in Justice Court. So it's without question that counsel 27 failed to inform petitioner regarding the details of the GPA.
28 As petitioner still maintains Actual Innocence as he had permission

1 CONTINUE: Violation of United States and Nevada
2 Constitution & Federal and State Constitutional
3 Violations & NRS Violations...

5 Supporting FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law.): to be in said room on night 6 in question and there was no loss or injury, no causation 7 of that loss or injury and no reasonable jury would have 8 convicted petitioner of attempt grand larceny nor the charge 9 of Burglary. So this is a clear and convincing showing that 10 petitioner's plea was involuntarily and unknowingly that 11 was actual prejudice to petitioner and a miscarriage of justice.

12 Whereas, the sentence imposed was unreasonably disproportionate 13 to the charge crime Att grand larceny that easily shock the 14 conscience as it was based on impetible and highly suspect 15 evidence. As the state's amended notice to seek punishment 16 as a habitual criminal was for the charge of burglary (2nd offense)
17 not att. grand larceny a wobbler. In addition, the credit card 18 abuse in Texas was one count not ~~two~~ and a state jail crime 19 that doesn't carry any prison time, mandatory supervision, nor 20 parole not a category A, B, C, D, or E felony, but a state jail crime 21 that is only punishable by jail time as a gross misdemeanor 22 here in Nevada so its trivial and shall not have been used in 23 adjudication and the Burglary conviction used was not 24 a prior felony as it occurred in 2016 and the instant
25 offense Att grand larceny occurred in 2013. Furthermore, petitioner 26 did object to validity of felony convictions used to adjudicate.
27 So this is a clear and convincing showing that the guilty plea 28 was involuntarily and unknowingly that was actual prejudice.

CONTINUE:

Whereas, petitioner and his counsel objected to errors in the PSI prior to sentencing. When in fact, petitioner's counsel made oral motion to the court to continue sentencing hearing until corrections were made to petitioner's PSI to no avail.

Whereas, the petitioner must understand the consequences of a guilty plea and the record must affirmatively show that the petitioner understands that a habitual criminal determination may be a consequence of his plea. In the instant case petitioner was never conversed on the possibility of a habitual sentence and was surprised by the habitual treatment as there was no written notice for the negotiated charge of 1st. grand larceny that the state would seek habitual treatment and the judge inform petitioner that the maximum punishment would be 19 to 48 months. And petitioner's counsel inform petitioner that he had it negotiated to gross-misdemeanor with time credit served.

Wherefore, petitioner requests that due to the invalid Guilty plea and the Guilty Plea being involuntarily and unknowingly entered and counsel ineffective assistance that this Honorable court grant petitioner's writ of Habeas Corpus and allow such relief to which petitioner is entitled. As a writ must issue; when the jurisdiction of the court has been exceeded and when the process is defective in some matter of substance required by law NRS 34.500

BEFORE, petitioner prays that the court grant petitioner relief to which petitioner may be entitled in this proceeding.

(1) THAT, James M. Hayes is the Affiant in this affidavit and is currently incarcerated at H.O.S.P brings cause that this Honorable court issue writ of habeas corpus for affiant James Hayes (petitioner).

WHEREAS, the Clark County District Courts did not have subject matter jurisdiction for the offense charged Attempt Grand Larceny.

WHEREAS, neither NRS 173.095, NRS 174.145, NRS 174.085(3) nor this section permits the court the amendment of an information to restate a charge that has been dismissed by the magistrate at the preliminary examination. Once a judicial officer has determined that probable cause does not exist it would be the most naked deprivation of due process and an intolerable interference with the privilege of the writ to retain petitioner in custody.

WHEREAS, the state knowingly and intelligently filed a fraudulent unconstitutional GPA and Amended Info. and it is unconscionable for the state to attempt to insulate a conviction from collateral constitutional review by conditioning its willingness to enter into

2 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

3 On or about July 23, 2013, James H. Hayes (hereinafter, "Defendant") was charged by 4 way of Criminal Complaint with one count of BURGLARY (Category B Felony – NRS
5 205.060) and one count of ATTEMPT GRAND LARCENY (Category D Felony/Gross
6 Misdemeanor – NRS 205.220.1, 205.222.2, 193.330). Following a Preliminary Hearing in 7 Justice Court, Las Vegas Township on June 14, 2016, the charge of BURGLARY was bound
8 over to District Court, and the charge of ATTEMPT GRAND LARCENY was dismissed.

9 On June 17, 2016, the State filed an Information with the District Court, charging 10 Defendant with one count of BURGLARY. On August 29, 2017, the State filed an Amended 11 Notice of Intent to Seek Punishment as a Habitual Criminal. On November 7, 2018, pursuant 12 to a Guilty Plea Agreement ("GPA"), Defendant entered a plea of Guilty pursuant to North 13 Carolina v. Alford, 400 U.S. 25 (1970) to one count of ATTEMPT GRAND LARCENY. The 14 terms of the GPA are as follows:

15 The State has agreed to make no recommendation at the time of sentencing. The 16 State has no opposition to probation with the only condition being thirty (30)
17 days in the Clark County Detention Center (CCDC), with thirty (30) days credit for time served.

18 GPA at 1:22-24. The GPA further includes, in pertinent part, the following acknowledgement:

19 I understand and agree that, if...an independent magistrate, by affidavit review, 20 confirms probable cause against me for new criminal charges including reckless 21 driving or DUI, but excluding minor traffic violations, the State will have the 22 unqualified right to argue for any legal sentence and term of confinement
23 allowable for the crime(s) to which I am pleading guilty, including the use of 24 any prior convictions I may have to increase my sentence as a habitual criminal to five (5) to twenty (20) years, Life without the possibility of parole, Life with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years, or a definite twenty-five (25) year term with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years.

25 GPA at 2: 1-9. An Amended Information reflecting the new charge of ATTEMPT GRAND 26 LARCENY was filed in conjunction with the GPA. Defendant was adjudged Guilty pursuant 27 to Alford that same day, and the sentencing hearing was scheduled for March 6, 2019.

28 ///

1 On January 31, 2019, the State filed a State's Notice of Motion and Motion to Revoke
2 Bail, asserting that in Las Vegas Justice Court case number 19F01534X, a Justice of the Peace
3 had found probable cause to charge Defendant with Burglary for acts committed on or around 4 January 26, 2019. The State's Motion to Revoke Bail was granted after a hearing on February 5 4, 2019.

6 At the sentencing hearing on March 6, 2019, the State argued that it had regained the 7 right to argue pursuant to the terms of the GPA. The Court agreed, and the State argued that 8 Defendant should be punished under NRS 207.010 (the "Small Habitual Statute"). The Court 9 agreed, and Defendant was sentenced to sixty (60) to one hundred seventy-four (174) months 10 in the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC), consecutive to Defendant's sentence in 11 another case (C315125). The Court also awarded Defendant ten (10) days credit for time
12 served. The Judgment of Conviction in this case was filed on March 12, 2019.

13 Defendant filed a Notice of Appeal on March 28, 2019. Defendant's Case Appeal 14 Statement was filed on August 9, 2019. Defendant's Appeal of the instant case is still pending 15 before the Nevada Supreme Court (Case Number 78590).

16 On April 15, 2019, Defendant filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus ("Petition").
17 Pursuant to Court order, the State filed its Response on June 26, 2019. At the hearing on the 18 Petition on August 19, 2019, the Court noted that Defendant filed two Addenda to his original 19 Petition (the first on May 7, 2019, and the second on May 9, 2019). Pursuant to the Court's 20 order, the State responds to the Addenda as follows:

22 The Nevada Supreme Court has explained:

23 "[A] guilty plea represents a break in the chain of events which has preceded it 24 in the criminal process. When a criminal defendant has solemnly admitted in 25 open court that he is in fact guilty of the offense with which he is charged, he 26 may not thereafter raise independent claims relating to the deprivation of constitutional rights that occurred prior to the entry of the guilty plea."

27 Webb v. State, 91 Nev. 469, 470, 538 P.2d 164, 165 (1975) (quoting Tollett v. Henderson, 411
28 U.S. 258, 267, 93 S.Ct. 1602, 1608 (1973)). An entry of a guilty plea "waive[s] all

1 constitutional claims based on events occurring prior to the entry of the plea[], except those 2 involving voluntariness of the plea[] [itself].” Warden, Nevada State Prison v. Lyons, 100
3 Nev. 430, 431, 683 P.2d 505 (1984); see also Kirksey v. State, 112 Nev. 980, 999, 923 P.2d
4 1102, 1114 (1996) (“Where the defendant has pleaded guilty, the only claims that may be
5 raised thereafter are those involving the voluntariness of the plea itself and the effectiveness
6 of counsel.”). Under NRS 34.810,

7 1. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:

8 (a) The petitioner’s conviction was upon a plea of guilty or guilty but 9 mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an allegation that the plea was 10 involuntarily or unknowingly entered or that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

11 ...
12 unless the court finds both cause for the failure to present the grounds and actual prejudice to the petitioner.

13 (emphasis added). Furthermore, the Nevada Supreme Court has held that “challenges to the 14 validity of a guilty plea and claims of ineffective assistance of trial and appellate counsel must 15 first be pursued in post-conviction proceedings.... [A]ll other claims that are appropriate for a 16 direct appeal must be pursued on direct appeal, or they will be considered waived in 17 subsequent proceedings.” Franklin v. State, 110 Nev. 750, 752, 877 P.2d 1058, 1059 (1994)
18 (emphasis added) (disapproved of on other grounds by Thomas v. State, 115 Nev. 148, 979 19 P.2d 222 (1999)). “A court must dismiss a habeas petition if it presents claims that either were 20 or could have been presented in an earlier proceeding, unless the court finds both cause for 21 failing to present the claims earlier or for raising them again and actual prejudice to the 22 petitioner.” Evans v. State, 117 Nev. 609, 646-47, 29 P.3d 498, 523 (2001), overruled on other
23 grounds by Lisle v. State, 131 Nev. 356, 351 P.3d 725 (2015). Additionally, substantive claims 24 are beyond the scope of habeas and waived. NRS 34.724(2)(a); see also Evans, 117 Nev. at 25 646-47, 29 P.3d 498 at 523; Franklin, 110 Nev. at 752, 877 P.2d 1058 at 1059.

26 A proper petition for post-conviction relief must set forth specific factual allegations
27 that would entitle the petitioner to relief. NRS 34.735(6) states, in pertinent part, “[Petitioner]
28 must allege specific facts supporting the claims in the petition [he] file[s] seeking relief from

1 any conviction or sentence. Failure to raise specific facts rather than just conclusions may 2 cause the petition to be dismissed.” “Bare” and “naked” allegations are not sufficient to 3 warrant post-conviction relief, nor are those belied and repelled by the record. Hargrove v.
4 State, 100 Nev. 498, 502, 686 P.2d 222, 225 (1984). “A claim is ‘belied’ when it is contradicted
5 or proven to be false by the record as it existed at the time the claim was made.” Mann v. State, 6 118 Nev. 351, 354, 46 P.3d 1228, 1230 (2002).

7 I. DEFENDANT’S FIRST ADDENDUM DOES NOT PROVIDE GROUNDS FOR 8 RELIEF

9 A. Defendant’s Claims of Ineffective Assistance of Counsel are Belied by the 10 Record

11 Defendant’s first claim alleges that his counsel, Michael Sanft, Esq. (“Mr. Sanft”) failed 12 to provide “zealous and quality representation.” First Addendum to Petition for Writ of Habeas 13 Corpus (“1 Add.”) at 6. However, this claim is belied by both the GPA and the record of 14 Defendant’s entry of plea.

16 in pertinent part:

17 I have discussed the elements of all of the original charge(s) against me with 18 my attorney and I understand the nature of the charge(s) against me.

19 ...

20 I have discussed with my attorney any possible defenses, defense strategies 21 and circumstances which might be in my favor.

22 All of the foregoing elements, consequences, rights, and waiver of rights 23 have been thoroughly explained to me by my attorney.

24 ...

25 I am signing this agreement voluntarily, after consultation with my 26 attorney...

27 ...

28 My attorney has answered all my questions regarding this guilty plea agreement and its consequences to my satisfaction and I am satisfied with the services provided by my attorney.

1 GPA at 5-6. Defendant affirmed that he had read the GPA. Recorder's Transcript of Hearing:
2 November 7, 2018 ("Transcript") at 2:24-25, 3:21-22. Defendant affirmed that Mr. Sanft
3 answered any questions regarding the GPA. Transcript at 3:1-3, 3:23-4:6. Defendant affirmed
4 that he understood the charge in the Amended Information. Id. at 3:4-6, 4:7-9. Defendant 5 affirmed that he signed the GPA. Id. at 3:16-20. Contrary to Defendant's assertion that he was 6 told he was agreeing to a gross misdemeanor, when asked by the Court about his 7 understanding, Defendant acknowledged two possible sentencing outcomes:

8 THE COURT: Okay. Can you tell me what your understanding is that you're 9 facing as a form of punishment for the charge of attempt grand larceny here in 10 the State of Nevada?

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 THE DEFENDANT: Or a gross misdemeanor of 364 days.

14 THE COURT: Okay. You can also be fined up to $5,000 if I treat it as a felony.
15 And you could be fined up to $2,000 if I treat it as a gross misdemeanor?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: You understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

19 Id. at 4:16-5:3. Defendant affirmed, both verbally to the court and by signing the GPA, that he 20 knew the terms of the GPA, the potential outcomes of his plea, and that Mr. Sanft answered
21 all the questions Defendant had to Defendant's satisfaction. Therefore, pursuant to Hargrove 22 and Mann, Defendant is not entitled to relief on these claims.

23 Because Defendant's first allegation is belied by the record, this Court should deny 24 Defendant's Petition, and the Addenda thereto.

25 B. Defendant's Claim Regarding Notice of Intent to Seek Habitual Treatment
26 was Waived and is Belied by the Record

27 Defendant's second claim is that the State failed to properly notice its intent to seek 28 habitual treatment at sentencing. 1 Add. at 7. This claim is not cognizable in a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and was waived by Defendant's failure to raise it on direct appeal.

Defendant's second claim does not relate to the voluntariness of Defendant's plea, or the effectiveness of Defendant's counsel. This claim was more appropriate for a direct appeal,

1 and Defendant should have pursued it thus. NRS 34.810(1); Franklin, 110 Nev. at 752, 977
2 P.2d at 1059. In the instant Petition and the Addenda thereto, Defendant fails to show any 3 instance of good cause or prejudice for not bringing these claims on a direct appeal and raising 4 them for the first time only in these habeas proceedings. Indeed, Defendant cannot establish 5 good cause, because Defendant unconditionally waived his right to a direct appeal, “including 6 any challenge based upon reasonable constitutional, jurisdictional or other grounds that 7 challenge the legality of the proceedings.” GPA at 5:3-7. This claim has been affirmatively 8 waived and, therefore, must be summarily denied.

9 Furthermore, Defendant’s allegation is belied by the record. A review of the District 10 Court record reveals that the State filed a Notice of Intent to Seek Punishment as a Habitual 11 Criminal on November 21, 2016. The State further filed an Amended Notice of Intent to Seek 12 Punishment as a Habitual Criminal on August 29, 2017. At the sentencing hearing, the Court 13 found that the State had not only properly noticed but had met its burden to seek punishment 14 as a habitual criminal. See Court Minutes – March 6, 2019 (“Sentencing Minutes”). Pursuant 15 to Hargrove and Mann, Defendant is not entitled to relief on this claim.

16 Because Defendant affirmatively waived this claim, and furthermore because this claim 17 is belied by the record, this Court should Deny Defendant’s Petition and the Addenda thereto.

18 C. Defendant’s Claim Regarding Double Jeopardy Does Not Entitle Defendant
19 to Relief

20 Defendant’s final claim is that his conviction is invalid because the charge of Attempt 21 Grand Larceny, as alleged in the original Criminal Complaint, was not bound over to the 22 District Court. 1 App. at 8. Like Defendant’s second claim, this claim is not cognizable in a 23 Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and was waived by Defendant’s failure to raise it on direct 24 appeal.

25 This claim does not challenge the voluntariness of Defendant’s guilty plea, nor does it 26 allege ineffective assistance of counsel. Therefore, this claim should have been pursued on 27 direct appeal, rather than for the first time in a petition. NRS 34.810(1); Franklin, 110 Nev. at 28 752, 977 P.2d at 1059. Defendant does not attempt to argue good cause or prejudice for raising

1 this claim for the first time in the instant proceedings. Such an argument would be meritless,
2 as Defendant specifically and unconditionally waived his right to a direct appeal on this issue, 3 as discussed in Section I(B), supra. GPA at 5:9-13. Therefore, this claim has been 4 affirmatively waived and must be summarily denied.

5 II. DEFENDANT'S SECOND ADDENDUM DOES NOT PROVIDE GROUNDS
6 FOR RELIEF

7 A. Defendant Does Not Adequately Claim Ineffective Assistance of Counsel

8 In Defendant's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Addendum Two ("2 Add."), 9 Defendant first claims that he received ineffective assistance of counsel. 2 Add. at 6. However, 10 Defendant makes only a bare and naked allegation, which, pursuant to Hargrove does not 11 entitle Defendant to relief.

12 To prevail on a claim of ineffective assistance of trial counsel, a defendant must prove 13 he was denied "reasonably effective assistance" of counsel by satisfying the two-prong test of 14 Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686-87, 104 S.Ct. 2052, 2063-64. See also State v.
15 Love, 109 Nev. 1136, 1138, 865 P.2d 322, 323. Under Strickland, a defendant must show first 16 that his counsel's representation fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, and 17 second, that but for counsel's errors, there is a reasonable probability that the result of the 18 proceedings would have been different. 466 U.S. at 687-88, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2065, 2068; 19 see also Lyons, 100 Nev. at 432, 683 P.2d at 505 (adopting the Strickland two-part test).
20 "[T]here is no reason for a court deciding an ineffective assistance claim to approach the 21 inquiry in the same order or even to address both components of the inquiry if the defendant 22 makes an insufficient showing on one." Strickland, 466 U.S. at 697, 104 S. Ct. at 2069.

23 The Court begins with the presumption of effectiveness and then must determine 24 whether the defendant has demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that counsel was 25 ineffective. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1011, 103 P.3d 25, 32 (2004). The role of a court 26 in considering allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel is "not to pass upon the merits 27 of the action not taken but to determine whether, under the particular facts and circumstances 28 of the case, trial counsel failed to render reasonably effective assistance." Donovan v. State,

1 94 Nev. 671, 675, 584 P.2d 708, 711 (1978). In essence, the court must “judge the 2 reasonableness of counsel's challenged conduct on the facts of the particular case, viewed as 3 of the time of counsel's conduct.” Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690, 104 S. Ct. at 2066.

4 Even if a defendant can demonstrate that his counsel’s representation fell below an 5 objective standard of reasonableness, he must still demonstrate prejudice and show a 6 reasonable probability that, but for counsel’s errors, the result of the trial would have been 7 different. McNelson v. State, 115 Nev. 396, 403, 990 P.2d 1263, 1268 (1999) (citing
8 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687, 104 S. Ct. at 2064). “A reasonable probability is a probability 9 sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome.” Id. (citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687-10 89, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2064-65, 2068). This portion of the test is slightly modified when the 11 convictions occurs due to a guilty plea. Hill v. Lockhart, 474 U.S. 52, 59 (1985); Kirksey v.
12 State, 112 Nev. 980, 988 (1996). For a guilty plea, a defendant “must show that there is a 13 reasonable probability that, but for counsel’s errors, he would not have pleaded guilty and 14 would have insisted on going to trial.” Kirksey, 112 Nev. at 998 (quoting Hill, 474 U.S. at 59).

15 Defendant simply states, “there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel’s 16 failures and unprofessional errors, the result would have been different.” 2 Add. at 6:5-8.
17 Defendant fails to provide any specific instance of Mr. Sanft’s perceived ineffectiveness, and 18 Defendant does not attempt to show how, exactly, the results would have been different had 19 Mr. Sanft acted differently. Therefore, Defendant’s allegation amounts to a bare and naked 20 conclusory statement that does not entitle Defendant to relief under Hargrove and does not 21 meet Defendant’s burden under Strickland.

22 Because Defendant does not meet his burden, this Court should deny Defendant’s 23 Petition and the Addenda thereto.

24 B. Defendant’s Second and Third Claims Do Not Entitle Defendant to Relief

25 Defendant claims that his conviction is a violation of the prohibition against double 26 jeopardy. 2 Add. at 7. Defendant also claims that he was the subject of an “inappropriate 27 personal attack and a judicial violation.” 2 Add. at 8:2-3. Like the claims in Defendant’s first

28 ///

1 Addendum, these claims are not properly raised for the first time in a Petition for Writ
2 of Habeas Corpus and were waived by Defendant's failure to raise them on direct appeal.

3 Neither of these two claims challenge the validity of Defendant's guilty plea or allege 4 ineffective assistance of counsel. These claims were appropriate for a direct appeal, and 5 Defendant should have pursued them thus. NRS 34.810(1); Franklin, 110 Nev. at 752, 977
6 P.2d at 1059. In the instant Petition, Defendant fails to show any instance of good cause or 7 prejudice for not bringing these claims on a direct appeal and raising them for the first time
8 only in these habeas proceedings. Indeed, he cannot establish good cause, because in his Guilty 9 Plea Agreement, Defendant specifically agreed that he understood he was "unconditionally 10 waiving [his] right to a direct appeal of this conviction, including any challenges based upon 11 reasonable constitutional, jurisdictional or other grounds that challenge the legality of the 12 proceedings as stated in NRS 177.015(4)." GPA at 5:4-7. These claims have been 13 affirmatively waived and, therefore, must be summarily denied.

14 CONCLUSION

15 For the foregoing reasons, the State respectfully requests that this Court DENY 16 Defendant's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, and the First and Second Addendum thereto, 17 in their entirety.

18 DATED this 10 day of October, 2019.

7 23. (a) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): _____

8 I HAVE EXPLICITLY RESERVED MY RIGHT NOT TO BE

17 CONSTITUTIONAL REVIEW BY CONDITIONING ITS WILLINGNESS 18 TO ENTER INTO PLEA NEGOTIATIONS ON PETITIONER'S "WAIVER 19 OF THE RIGHTS" TO PURSUE POST-CONVICTION REMEDIES.

20 WHEREAS, THE PETITIONER IS ENTITLED TO HABEAS 21 CORPUS IF THERE IS NO MATERIAL DISPUTE AS TO A 22 MISTAKE OF FACT RELATING TO HIS CONVICTION (7 R.C.P. 32d) 23 AND SET ASIDE THE JUDGMENT OF CONVICTION AFTER 24 SENTENCE IN ORDER TO CORRECT MANIFEST INJUSTICE.
25 WHERE, AS HERE, BOTH PARTIES AGREE TO THE FACT THAT

5 23. (b) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): by 6 magistrate for lack of evidence, no corpus delicti, 7 slight or marginal evidence, and this is clear and 8 convincing dismissal of an action.

9 Whereas, the state did violate NRS 178.562(1) 10 by bringing another prosecution following dismissal 11 of an action to constitute "another prosecution" 12 without another pending vehicle for the prosecution 13 of the charge of Attempt Grand Larceny that runs 14 afoul of the provisions of NRS 178.562(1) and BARS 15 further prosecution of the petitioner on that charge.
16 Where, as here, the state's guilty plea agreement filed 17 in open court November 7, 2018 was a subsequent 18 prosecution for the same offense "Attempt Grand 19 Larceny" that was dismissed at the conclusion 20 of preliminary examination by magistrate without 21 another pending vehicle for prosecution. leaving 22 the charge barred from all district court proceedings, 23 and this jurisprudence set forth is perfectly clear
24 and unambiguous.

25 Whereas the state did violate NRS 174.085(3)
26 when the petitioner was once placed in jeopardy 27 upon the criminal complaint and proceeded

23. (c) ~~CONCLUSION~~ PETITIONER'S REPLY CONTINUE

23. (c) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): to the preliminary examination and at the conclusion of the examination the charge of "Attempt Grand Larceny" was dismissed by magistrate for lack of evidence, no corpus delicti, slight or marginal evidence that is a bar to another indictment, information or complaint for the offense charged in the former. Thus the state triggered the protection of NRS 174.085(3)(a) to bar the subsequent prosecution of the charge of "Attempt Grand Larceny" against the petitioner in all district court proceedings when the dismissal occurred before the subsequent form of prosecution was obtained and no good cause shown to the court or court order. Where as here, there is no material dispute of fact that the charge of Attempt Grand Larceny was dismissed against petitioner at the conclusion of preliminary examination and barred from any subsequent proceedings leaving the district court with no subject matter jurisdiction against petitioner for the charge of "Attempt Grand Larceny"

Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary, you may attach pages stating additional grounds and facts supporting same.

23. (a) GROUND ONE: Violations of United States and Nevada Constitution & Federal and State Constitutional violations & NRS violations... and its worthless noting petitioner still have not received a copy of state's response filed 10-10-19...

23. (a) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): On or about the 7th day of November 2018 the state knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily filed in open court a fraudulent amended information and guilty plea Agreement, and the very initiation of the proceedings against MR. Hayes (petitioner) operated to deprive petitioner of Due Process of Law (94 S.C. 2018). IN this Due Process violation "No Real party in Interest" as the state has not been harm by petitioner's alleged actions and there is neither an injured party nor trespass. When in fact, the charge crime of Attempt Grand Larceny was dismissed at the conclusion of the preliminary examination Not Plead for Lack of Evidence, No corpus delicti, slight Nor marginal evidence (Lack of Admissible Evidence). The state has committed fraud upon the court by prosecuting its case without first establishing that jurisdiction personam or subject-matter exists. The law blatantly shows the state's lack of jurisdiction over petitioner as NRS 124.085(a) and NRS 178.562(1), Rule 11 FRCP provides the authority by which petitioner is immune from prosecution of this case and the charge Attempt

That had COUNSEL USE ANY DUE DILIGENCE this egregious mistake would have BEEN KNOWN and would have let PETITIONER know that said charge was BARRIED from District Court and the state's proffered information and GUILTY PLEA Agreement for lack of jurisdiction. Furthermore had COUNSEL challenge probable cause the charge of Burglary would have BEEN dismissed. When in fact the state had used Larceny as its intent for the Burglary charge as stated in the filed information dated 6-17-2016. So when the Attempt Grand Larceny was dismissed it left the Burglary charge fatal and it to must have BEEN dismissed once again leaving NO jurisdiction for the District Court to proceed against PETITIONER.

4 Constitutionally guaranteed "right to effective
5 assistance of counsel" (Federal and State Constitutional
6 rights 3rd and 14th Amendment Violations:

7 23. (a) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): _____

8 WHEREAS, trial counsel failed to provide zealous and 9 quality representation at all stages of the criminal
10 process. Counsel's performance was deficient and representation
11 fell below the objective standard of reasonableness as 12 counsel failed to do appropriate investigation and study
13 of the case, including an analysis of controlling law
14 (NRS 174.085(3); NRS 178.562) and had counsel use due 15 diligence and investigated the facts and the law he 16 would have known that the charge of Attempt Grand 17 Larceny was Perred from District Court against the 18 petitioner as NRS 174.085(3) and NRS 178.562 provides 19 the authority that made petitioner immune from 20 prosecution on charge of Attempt Grand Larceny in 21 District Court. Counsel failed to make certain that the 22 petitioner fully and completely understood the conditions
23 and limits of the plea agreement and the maximum 24 punishment and other consequences the petitioner
25 would be exposed to by entering his "Alford plea"
26 as petitioner was surprised by the habitual criminal 27 sentence. When in fact, even though petitioner signed

1 the guilty plea agreement he was ignorant to the potential
2 outcome as counsel had informed petitioner that he was 3 agreeing to a gross-misdemeanor with time served credit
4 and concurrent to case NO C-16-315125-1. Counsel failed
5 to file a motion to withdraw guilty plea pre-sentencing
6 and post-sentencing when sentencing was not in 7 accordance with the negotiated agreement and a
8 determination of habitual criminal was adjudicated.
9 When in fact, when alleged Attempt Grand Larceny occurred
10 on or about April 2, 2013 petitioner had never served a 11 prison term or been to prison and had only one prior 12 felony conviction for a Class E felony "Attempt possession 13 of credit or debit card without cardholder's consent" as 14 Texas crime was one event for credit card abuse and 15 fraudulent use/possession of identifying information that 16 did not and does not carry a prison term mandatory 17 supervision, nor parole. Counsel failed to challenge alleged 18 breach that was founded on impalpable and highly 19 suspect evidence as the Burglary charge used was 20 dismissed and the finding of probable cause was 21 misplaced as alleged victim testified under oath that 22 petitioner was not the perpetrator of alleged event and 23 he was 100% sure and further testified that alleged 24 perpetrator did not enter said room only stood in doorway
25 said "Sorry" and closed door without incident so this is 26 a clear and convincing showing that no probable cause
27 existed against petitioner. Counsel failed to challenge 28 probable cause and subject matter jurisdiction for

1 the Burglary charge in case NO C-16-315718-1 that had 2 counsel challenge the Burglary charge was fatal as the 3 state's intent for the charge of Burglary of Attempt 4 Grand Larceny was dismissed following a preliminary
5 hearing in Justice Court, Las Vegas Township on June 14, 6 2016 and the Burglary charge also must have been 7 dismissed leaving no jurisdiction for the district court
8 to proceed with the filed information dated June 17, 2016.
9 Nor the amended information of Attempt Grand Larceny
10 filed November 7, 2018. Where, as here, counsel failures
11 are a clear and convincing showing of prong one 12 of the two prong test of Strickland that has greatly 13 prejudice petitioner and that petitioner's Alford plea 14 was not knowingly, intelligently, or voluntarily entered.

15 WHEREAS, counsel's deficient performance prejudiced
16 petitioner to his extreme detriment causing irreparable
17 injury, and if not for counsel's unprofessional errors
18 and lack of due diligence of failure to investigate
19 the facts and the law the results of the proceedings
20 would have been different. Where as here petitioner
21 would not have entered an "Alford Plea" as the charge(s)
22 of Attempt Grand Larceny was barred from District Court
23 for lack of jurisdiction, lack of admissible evidence,
24 and violation of state law pursuant to NRS 174.085(3)
25 and NRS 178.562 and the Burglary charge case NO.
26 C-16-315718-1 was fatal as the state had no intent.

27 When in fact, no reasonable jury would have convicted
28 petitioner of Attempt Grand Larceny nor the charge

1 of Burglary as the state's intent for the Burglary charge
2 of Larceny in the filed information on June 17, 2016.
3 was dismissed following preliminary hearing for NO
4 slight or marginal evidence, NO corpus delicti, and 5 lack of admissible evidence. As counsel's failures are 6 shown by a preponderance of the evidence, the record,
7 and state law. In addition, counsel failed to file a 8 Notice of appeal and failed to inform petitioner of the 9 right to appeal. Wherein, this is a clear and convincing
10 showing of prong two of the two prong test of Strickland
11 that has greatly prejudiced petitioner and a valid
12 showing that petitioner's Afford plea to the charge
13 of Attempt Grand Larceny was not knowingly, 14 intelligently, or voluntarily entered. What is fact, the 15 petitioner stands convicted of a crime he did not commit!!
16 due to counsel failures. Furthermore this is an affront
17 to justice and due process to hold petitioner to his 18 Afford plea when the conduct upon which the plea
19 was entered did not occur. Finally, for the above
20 reasons, but for counsel's errors and failures petitioner
21 would not have not entered an Afford plea and went 22 to trial on the charge of Burglary and been ~~convicted~~ acquitted.

23 Wherein, appellate counsel failed to provide zealous and 24 quality representation at all stages of appeal process.
25 Counsel's performance was deficient and representation
26 fell below the objective standard of reasonableness as 27 appellate counsel failed to do appropriate investigation
28 of potentially meritorious claims of error and assert

1 claims of error that are supported by facts and the 2 law and failed to assert claims that were complex,
3 unique, and issues of first impression. Counsel did 4 not thoroughly research the issues in the case and 5 set forth all viable issues in his prepared and 6 sanctioned "fast track" statement. Appellate counsel failed
7 to raise meritorious claims of failure of the state
8 to properly notice its intent to seek habitual treatment
9 at sentencing for the wobbler charge of Attempt
10 Grand Larceny. When in fact, State's Amended Notice
11 of intent to seek punishment as a habitual criminal 12 was for the charge of Burglary. Counsel failed to 13 raise the claim that District Court lacked jurisdiction
14 for the charge of Attempt Grand Larceny, when in fact,
15 jurisdiction is derived by the law and Nevada 16 State law NRS 174.085(3) and NRS 178.562 is the 17 authority that State's amended information for the 18 charge of Attempt Grand Larceny was without subject
19 matter jurisdiction and was BARRED from district
20 court proceedings against petitioner. Counsel did not 21 challenge the habitual criminal adjudication pursuant 22 to NRS 207.010. When in fact, petitioner is not a
23 habitual criminal and his prior criminal ^{history} proves it
24 as petitioner had only the Texas state jail crime(s)
25 that was one event and not felonies as they did
26 not carry any prison term and not any category
27 of felony and only carries jail time and the

1 Purgatory conviction was not a prior, so in essence 2 petitioner ~~was~~ first time in prison and ^{and} one prior 3 felony has been treated as a habitual criminal that 4 is easily deemed cruel and unusual punishment
5 and violates the legislative intent of NRS 207.010.
6 In addition, petitioner was deprived of effective
7 assistance of counsel on direct appeal when district
8 court Judge William Kephart dismissed petitioner's 9 appellate counsel on July 15, 2019 pursuant to 10 motion to withdraw counsel that was granted as 11 District court Judge William Kephart stated his reason 12 for granting and dismissing counsel was that 13 the Supreme Court of Nevada had issued a remittitur 14 where, as here, counsel failures are a clear and 15 convincing showing of the prejudice prong of 16 Strickland.
17 Whereby petitioner requested many times over 18 that counsel file appeal and express to counsel on 19 several occasions his dissatisfaction with the 20 conviction and sentence and counsel failed to do
21 so that easily satisfies the deficient performance
22 of Strickland and shows the prejudice against 23 petitioner cause had counsel use ~~the~~ diligence 24 and raised the meritorious claims and not been 25 withdrawn as counsel prior to the perfection of 26 the appeal petitioner appeal (direct) would have 27 been successful.

23. (b) GROUND TWO: The state violated Mr. Hayes right to Due Process as guaranteed by both the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution and the Nevada Constitution. "Breach of guilty plea agreement on impeachable evidence"

23. (b) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): Whereas, the breach of issue was not material nor volitional, when in fact, the court was required to hold an evidentiary hearing on the alleged breach which has resulted in dire consequences to petitioner and an additional five(5) to fourteen and a half (14½) years in prison in violation of the bargained for stipulations. That the state entered in BAD FAITH with petitioner as the agreement was unconstitutional, malicious, and a manifest injustice. Indeed, in retelling the factual and procedural history of the case, the state has taken great liberties to continue the sort of narrative that has likely fueled inconsistent and unfair mass incarceration in Nevada.

Whereas, the petitioner knows the record and has tried to contextualize this actual record to reveal that an manifest injustice was done in his specific case. Although his counsel's presented a very unconvincing argument worthy of sanctions and a Bar complaint and is blatant ineffective assistance of counsel that has greatly prejudice petitioner to his extreme detriment causing petitioner irreparable injury.

Whereas, in other words, the state's claim of breach that petitioner was found to have probable cause for.

1 a New Burglary charge is absurd when the alleged victim
2 of alleged Burglary testified under oath facing the penalty
3 of perjury that he was 100% sure petitioner was not the 4 perpetrator of the ispe divit crime and that this alleged 5 charge crime was without probable cause against petitioner
6 as the Justice court Judge ruling of probable cause was 7 misplaced and eventually the charge was dismissed in the 8 first district court appearance. Furthermore the guilty plea 9 agreement in this case did not explicitly provide for the 10 abdication of stipulation for a more run into the law
11 for a allege crime he had no part of, let alone for a 12 charge that was dismissed to further solidify his non-13 participation in the ispe divit Burglary charge lodged 14 against him without due process considerations.

15 Whereas, petitioner's case of "Attempt Grand Larceny"
16 is the one ostensibly before us in this petition which 17 allegedly occurred on April 18, 2013 and was formally
18 charged by way of Criminal complaint on July 23, 2013
19 that was dismissed following a preliminary hearing in 20 Justice court, Las Vegas township on June 14, 2016 for 21 lack of admissible evidence, no corpus delicti, no slight
22 or marginal evidence to proceed to district court
23 leaving the District court 8th Judicial District with no
24 subject matter jurisdiction for the charge of Attempt 25 Grand Larceny as it was BARRED from subsequent 26 prosecution against petitioner as mandated by state
27 law pursuant to NRS 174.085(3) and NRS 178.562

1 Making the state's amended information for Attempt Grand
2 Larceny unconstitutional, in BAD FAITH, and fraud upon
3 the court by not first establishing jurisdiction before
4 prosecution that has prejudice petitioner to his extreme
5 detriment causing petitioner irreparable injury.

6 WHEREAS the UNCONSTITUTIONAL guilty plea agreement
7 at issue here for the "Mobbler" charge of Attempt Grand 8 Larceny indicated that there was a stipulated sentence
9 of probation with the only condition to be 30 days in 10 the Clark County Detention Center with 30 days credit 11 for time served with no suspended prison term and 12 no time period of probation to be served that solidifies
13 petitioner's position that the agreement was for gross
14 misdemeanor treatment and further stipulated that
15 it was to run CONCURRENTLY to CASE NO C-116-315125-1.
16 This stipulation is UNIQUE to this case and do not contain 17 any boilerplate language and do not explicitly rely upon 18 or even reference the loss of stipulation in their language.

19 WHEREAS here, indeed, the boilerplate language
20 regarding "Magistrate to find probable cause" does not 21 explicitly refer to loss of stipulation, but only that "the 22 state will have the UNQUALIFIED right to argue for any 23 legal sentence and term of confinement allowable
24 for the crime to which I am pleading guilty, including 25 the use of any prior convictions I may have to 26 INCREASE my sentence as an habitual criminal to five(5) 27 to twenty(20) years. which in fact, there could not

1 be a legal sentence in the instant offense as the charge
2 of Attempt Grand Larceny was BARRED from subsequent 3 prosecution against petitioner and the District Court had 4 no subject matter jurisdiction for instant offense Attempt
5 Grand Larceny. In addition, the 2016 Burglary charge used
6 in adjudication was not a prior conviction as the instant
7 offense occurred in 2013.

8 Where, as here, it is also undisputed that the boilerplate 9 language does not explicitly refer to a right to argue for 10 consecutive sentence. It should also be noted that the 11 boilerplate language of the guilty plea agreement does not 12 refer in any way to what would constitute (or not constitute) 13 an excusable ruling of probable cause by magistrate or 14 make any reference to any ability for a "due process" to 15 challenge an overment of a material breach. Furthermore, 16 petition received no consideration whatsoever in exchange
17 for his "Alford plea" to a crime that petitioner did not commit.

1 23. (c) GROUND THREE: State violated Mr. Hayes Right to "Due 2 Process" when it failed to adhere to State law (NRS.
3 174.085(3) and NRS 178.522 making conviction
4 invalid and unconstitutional)

5 23. (c) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): ~~Whereas~~ 6 petitioner has explicitly reserved his right not to be 7 compelled to perform under any contract or agreement 8 that I have not entered into knowingly, voluntarily, 9 and intelligently and that my valid reservation of 10 Rights has preserved all my Rights and prevented 11 the loss of any such Rights by application of the 12 concepts of waiver or estoppel as in the instant 13 case.

14 ~~Whereas~~, it is unconscionable for the state to 15 attempt to insulate a conviction from collateral 16 constitutional review by conditioning its willingness 17 to enter into plea negotiations on petitioners 18 "waiver of the Rights" to pursue post-conviction 19 remedies.

20 ~~Whereas~~ as here, petitioner is entitled to habeas 21 corpus if there is no material dispute as to a mistake 22 of fact relating to his conviction (7.R.C.P 32(d)) 23 and this court must set aside the judgment of 24 conviction after sentence in order to correct 25 this manifest injustice. As here, both parties agree 26 to the mistake of fact that the charge of Attempt 27 Grand Larceny was dismissed following preliminary 28

1 hearing by Justice Court Magistrate for lack of admissible
2 evidence, No corpus delicti, No slight or marginal evidence
3 to be further prosecuted in district court, and this is 4 clear and convincing showing of dismissal of an 5 action.

6 Whereas, the state did violate NRS 178.562(4) by bringing 7 another prosecution following dismissal of an action to 8 constitute "another prosecution" without another pending
9 vehicle for the prosecution of the charge of Attempt Grand 10 Larceny that runs afoul of the provisions of NRS 178.562(4)
11 and BARS further prosecution of the petitioner on that 12 charge. When in fact the state held the preliminary hearing
13 June 14, 2016 pursuant to the filed criminal complaint
14 as the vehicle for prosecution of the instant offense
15 and no other vehicle was filed for the instant offense
16 Attempt Grand Larceny until November 7, 2018 by the 17 way of an amended information ~~that~~ and there is 18 no colorable argument that would allow them to over-
19 come the violation of state law NRS 178.562.

20 Where, as here, the state's amended information
21 filed in open court November 7, 2018 was a subsequent 22 prosecution for the same offense in the former "Attempt 23 Grand Larceny" that was dismissed following preliminary 24 hearing by magistrate without another pending vehicle
25 for prosecution leaving the instant offense barred
26 from all district court proceedings against petitioner
27 and this jurisprudence set forth is perfectly clear

1 and unambiguous.

2 WHEREAS the state did violate NRS 174.085(3) when the petitioner
3 was once placed in jeopardy upon the criminal complaint and 4 proceeded to the preliminary hearing and following the preliminary 5 hearing the charge of Attempt grand larceny was dismissed by 6 magistrate, that is a BAR to another indictment, information or 7 complaint for the offense charged in the former. Thus the state 8 triggered the prohibitions of NRS 174.085(3) to bar the subsequent 9 prosecution of the instant offense Attempt grand larceny against 10 the petitioner in all district court proceedings ~~and the district~~
11 ~~court and the subsequent trial of prosecution~~

12 Where, as here, there is no material dispute of fact that 13 the charge in the instant offense Attempt grand larceny was 14 dismissed following the preliminary examination and BARRED 15 from any subsequent prosecution against petitioner in 16 district court leaving no subject matter jurisdiction for 17 prosecution in district court. In addition, the state may not 18 convict petitioner no matter how validly his factual guilt
19 is establish without subject matter jurisdiction and the 20 court that rendered the judgment had no subject matter
21 jurisdiction and left the court with no power to enter 22 the conviction or impose the sentence.

23 WHEREAS, subject matter jurisdiction is not waivable
24 as the state has contended as jurisdiction is derived from 25 the law and it neither can be waived nor conferred
26 by consent of the petitioner. As there is no colorable argu-
27 ment to overcome the lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

23. (d) GROUND FOUR: Violation of Mr. Hayes right to "Due Process" Material mistakes of fact regarding criminal record in PSI that work to his extreme detriment.

23. (d) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

Whereas, the court made material mistakes of fact about petitioner's criminal record, as the petitioner's PSI had several material facts in error that work to his extreme detriment.

Where, as here, petitioner and his counsel objected to the mistakes at sentencing hearing and sentencing judge continued the proceedings without allowing the corrections to be made. When, in fact, if the judge would have allowed the corrections to be completed in the instant case upon petitioner's objections petitioner's raw score, social score, and the Department of Public Safety Division of Parole and Probation recommendation would have been astronomically different and would have showed that petitioner had never been to prison so there would not have been any habitual offender recommendation for the instant offense of Attempt Grand Larceny. As the instant offense occurred in the year 2013 and at that time petitioner had one felony conviction not four as the PSI read, no prison incarcerations not one as the PSI read; no current supervisor history not one

1 as the PSI read; the instant offense should be dated
2 April 9, 2013 NOT April 2, 2016 as the PSI reads;
3 Burglary conviction case NO C-16-315125-1 should NOT
4 be included anywhere on petitioner's PSI for the instant
5 offense as it occurred sum three years later on April 6 2, 2016; Finally the Taxes conviction(s) case NO(s)
7 1083285 and 1083286 was ONE event NOT two as it
8 reads on PSI, NOT two felony convictions but ONE
9 state jail conviction for Credit Card Abuse and fraudulent 10 use/possession of identifying information. Whereas the 11 numerous material mistakes of facts about petitioner's
12 criminal record that have worked to his extreme detriment
13 has rise to a manifest injustice and Due Process
14 violation that cannot stand uncorrected.

1 23. (d) GROUND ~~FOUR~~ ^{FIVE}: State Violated Mr. Hughes Right to "Due Process"
2 as guaranteed by both the "DUE PROCESS CLAUSE of the United 3 State's Constitution and the Nevada Constitution: "DUE
4 PROCESS violation guilty plea was NOT equally voluntary, knowing
5 and intelligent."
6 23. (d) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): ~~Whereas~~,
7 waivers of constitutional rights not only must be voluntary
8 but must be knowing, intelligent acts done with sufficient 9 awareness of the relevant circumstances and likely 10 consequences. As here, petitioner's "waiver of his fund-11 mental rights" was not knowingly and intelligently
12 made as the court failed to adequately inform petitioner 13 of the full consequences of his Alford plea that has 14 created a manifest injustice, because the trial court 15 did not straightforwardly explain consequences of 16 petitioner's breach of the agreement while awaiting 17 sentencing that the state would unilaterally impose 18 an enhanced sentence as the boilerplate language was 19 ambiguous and had imprecisions that did not explicitly 20 state loss of stipulation. Most significantly, petitioner did 21 not intelligently and knowingly waive his constitutional 22 rights with full knowledge of the consequences. Nor was 23 he told that his Alford plea would stand regardless of whether 24 he was rearrested for a Burglary charge that was dismissed, 25 after alleged victim testified at preliminary hearing under 26 oath facing the penalty of perjury that petitioner was not 27 the perpetrator of alleged event and 100% sure of it.
28 So petitioner has raised sufficient doubt as whether his

1 Afford plea was ever accepted, and even if it was, whether 2 he was fully and fairly apprised of its consequences.

3 Whereas, the state interpret the court's statement to 4 mean "do you understand that if you breach any of 5 the conditions in guilty plea agreement, this court will 6 sentence you". Yet, that is not what the trial court said.
7 What it is surely equally plausible explanation of the 8 plea colloquy that petitioner would -- were here to breach 9 the agreement -- face trial on the Burglary charge. In 10 particular, it is impossible to conclude that petitioner
11 truly understood that he was waiving his right to be 12 tried on the original charge of Burglary, and agreed 13 instead that were he arrested the state trial court could 14 unilaterally impose a habitual criminal sentence upon him.
15 So it is without question that whatever waiver petitioner 16 agreed to was without adequate knowledge of the 17 consequences flowing from his breach of the plea agreement

The Nevada Revised Statute 34.740, Petition : Expeditious Judicial Examination states : "The original petition must be presented promptly to a District Judge or a Justice of the Supreme Court by the Clerk of the Court. The Petition must be examined expeditiously by the Judge or Justice to whom it is assigned."

In the United States Constitution, Article 1, Section 9. It states: "The Privilege of the Writ of Habeas Corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in Cases of Rebellion or Invasion the public safety may require it."

In the Nevada Constitution, Article 1, Section 5. It states: "The privilege of the Writ of Habeas Corpus, shall not be suspended unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require its suspension."

In accordance with the provisions of NRS 34.360 - 34.830, Denial of Due Process which violates the United States Constitution, which violates the 5th and 14th Amendment(s).

The District Court has essentially suspended the petitioner's Writ of Habeas Corpus, without rendering a decision in a reasonable time frame, or showing just cause to do so. This is causing the petitioner prejudice, by unreasonable delay and preventing him access to the Judicial Appeals process. Also, this is hindering or delaying justice, and preventing adjudication. The improper suspension of a Writ of Habeas Corpus, would constitute a Due Process violation. By doing so, would be a violation to the United States Constitution. (5th and 14th Amendment)

"The basic purpose of the Writ of Habeas Corpus is to enable those unlawfully incarcerated to obtain their freedom." "Access of prisoners to courts for purpose of presenting petitions for Habeas Corpus may not be denied or obstructed." (89 S.Ct. 747, Johnson v. Avery)

"This Court has constantly emphasized the fundamental importance of the Writ of Habeas Corpus in our constitutional scheme, and the Congress has demonstrated its solicitude for the vigor of the Great Writ. The Court has steadfastly insisted that there is no higher duty than to maintain it unimpaired. (59 S.Ct. 442, Bowen v. Johnston)

1 "The plight of a man in prison may in these respects be even more acute than 2 the plight of a person on the outside. He may need collateral proceedings to test the 3 legality of his detention or relief against management of the parole system or against 4 defective detainers lodge against him which create burdens in the nature of his 5 incarcerated status." (89 S.Ct. 747, Johnson v. Avery)

6 "Reasonable access to the courts is a right (secured by the Constitution and 7 laws of the United States), being guaranteed as against state action by the Due 8 Process Clause of the 14th Amendment. (65 S.Ct. 978, Write v. Ragen)

9 "The constitutional Writ of Habeas Corpus heretofore used, within defined limits, 10 as a post-conviction procedure to challenge the validity of a conviction, may not be 11 abolished as a post-conviction remedy by legislative fiat." (434 P.2d 437, Marshall v.
12 Warden)

14 Clerk of the Court which are hereby incorporated by this reference, the Points and 15 Authorities Herein, and attached Affidavit of Defendant.

FACTS OF THE CASE:

The Petitioner has filed a timely Writ of Habeas Corpus on, April 15th 2019. The Petitioner, still has not received a decision on his Writ of Habeas Corpus. It has been exactly, TEN (10) months and sixteen (16) days without a decision.

The Petitioner has shown good cause, to request the NEVADA SUPREME COURT. To expedite and review the petitioner's Writ of Habeas Corpus for Judicial Review. SEE PAGES FIVE (5) THROUGH TWENTY-TWO (22) OF ADDITIONAL FACTS:

3 (a) GROUND ONE: MR. HAYES (petitioner) was denied his 4 Constitutionally guaranteed right to effective
5 assistance of counsel (Federal and State Constitutional 6 rights 3rd 6th and 14th Amendment Violation:

7 23. (a) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

8 Whereas, trial counsel failed to provide zealous and 9 quality representation at all stages of the criminal
10 process. Counsel's performance was deficient and representation
11 fell below the objective standard of reasonableness as 12 counsel failed to do appropriate investigation and study
13 of the case, including an analysis of controlling law
14 (NRS 174.085(3); NRS 178.562) and had counsel use due 15 diligence and investigated the facts and the law he 16 would have known that the charge of Attempt Grand 17 Larceny was Perred from District Court against the 18 petitioner as NRS 174.085(3) and NRS 178.562 provides 19 the authority that made petitioner immune from 20 prosecution on charge of Attempt Grand Larceny in 21 District Court. Counsel failed to make certain that the 22 petitioner fully and completely understood the conditions
23 and limits of the plea agreement and the maximum
24 punishment and other consequences the petitioner
25 would be exposed to by entering his "Alford plea"
26 as petitioner was surprised by the habitual criminal 27 sentence. Whereas in fact, even though petitioner signed

1 the guilty plea agreement he was ignorant to the potential
2 outcome as counsel had informed petitioner that he was
3 agreeing to a gross-misdemeanor with time served credit
4 and concurrent to case NO C-16-315125-1. Counsel failed
5 to file a motion to withdraw guilty plea pre-sentencing
6 and post-sentencing when sentencing was not in 7 accordance with the negotiated agreement and a
8 determination of habitual criminal was adjudicated.
9 When in fact, when alleged Attempt Grand Larceny occurred
10 on or about April 12, 2013 petitioner had never served a 11 prison term or been to prison and had only one prior
13 of credit or debit card without cardholder's consent" as 14 Texas crime was one event for credit card abuse and 15 fraudulent use/possession of identifying information that 16 did not and does not carry a prison term, mandatory
17 supervision, nor parole. Counsel failed to challenge alleged 18 breach that was founded on implausible and highly 19 suspect evidence as the Burglary charge used was 20 dismissed and the finding of probable cause was 21 misplaced as alleged victim testified under oath that 22 petitioner was not the perpetrator of alleged event and 23 he was 100% sure and further testified that alleged 24 perpetrator did not enter said room only stood in doorway
25 said "Sorry" and closed door without incident so this is 26 a clear and convincing showing that no probable cause
27 existed against petitioner. Counsel failed to challenge
28 probable cause and subject matter jurisdiction for

1 the Burglary charge in case NO C-16-315718-1 that had
2 counsel challenge the Burglary charge was fatal as the 3 state's intent for the charge of Burglary of Attempt
4 Grand Larceny was dismissed following a preliminary
5 hearing in Justice Court Las Vegas Township on June 14,
6 2016 and the Burglary charge also must have been 7 dismissed leaving no jurisdiction for the district court
8 to proceed with the filed information dated June 17, 2016.
9 Nor the amended information of Attempt Grand Larceny
10 filed November 7, 2018. Where, as here, counsel failures
11 are a clear and convincing showing of prong one
12 of the two prong test of Strickland that has greatly 13 prejudice petitioner and that petitioner's Affid Petition 14 was not knowingly, intelligently, or voluntarily entered.

15 Where, counsel's deficient performance prejudiced
16 petitioner to his extreme detriment causing irreparable
17 injury, and if not for counsel's unprofessional errors
18 and lack of due diligence of failure to investigate
19 the facts and the law the results of the proceedings
20 would have been different. Where as here petitioner
21 would not have entered an "Affid Petition" as the charges
22 of Attempt Grand Larceny was barred from District Court
23 for lack of jurisdiction, lack of admissible evidence,
24 and violation of state law pursuant to NRS 174.085(3)
25 and NRS 178.562 and the Burglary charge case NO.
26 C-16-315718-1 was fatal as the state had no intent.

27 What in fact no reasonable jury would have convicted
28 petitioner of Attempt Grand Larceny nor the charge

1 of Burglary as the state's intent for the Burglary charge
2 of Larceny in the filed information on June 12, 2016
3 was dismissed following preliminary hearing for NO
4 slight or marginal evidence, NO corpus delicti, and 5 lack of admissible evidence. As counsel's failures are 6 shown by a preponderance of the evidence, the record,
7 and state law. In addition, counsel failed to file a 8 notice of appeal and failed to inform petitioner of the 9 right to appeal. Wherein, this is a clear and convincing
10 showing of prong two of the two prong test of Strickland
11 that has greatly prejudiced petitioner and a valid
12 showing that petitioner's Afford plea to the charge
13 of Attempt Grand Larceny was not knowingly,
14 intelligently, or voluntarily entered. What is fact, the 15 petitioner stands convicted of a crime he did not commit!!
16 due to counsel failures. Furthermore this is an affront
17 to justice and due process to hold petitioner to his 18 Afford plea when the conduct upon which the plea
19 was entered did not occur. Finally, for the above
20 reasons, but for counsel's errors and failures petitioner
21 would not have not entered an Afford plea and went 22 to trial on the charge of Burglary and been ~~convicted~~ acquitted.

23 Wherein, appellate counsel failed to provide zealous and 24 quality representation at all stages of appeal process.
25 Counsel's performance was deficient and representation
26 fell below the objective standard of reasonableness as 27 appellate counsel failed to do appropriate investigation
28 of potentially meritorious claims of error and assert

1 claims of error that are supported by facts and the 2 law and failed to assert claims that were complex,
3 unique, and issues of first impression. Counsel did
4 not thoroughly research the issues in the case and 5 set forth all viable issues in his prepared and 6 sanctioned "fast track" statement. Appellate counsel failed
7 to raise meritorious claims of failure of the state
8 to properly notice its intent to seek habitual treatment
9 at sentencing for the underlying charge of Attempt
10 Grand Larceny. When in fact, State's Amended Notice
11 of intent to seek punishment as a habitual criminal 12 was for the charge of Burglary. Counsel failed to 13 raise the claim that District Court lacked jurisdiction
14 for the charge of Attempt Grand Larceny, when in fact,
15 jurisdiction is derived by the law and Nevada
16 State law NRS 174.085(3) and NRS 178.562 is the 17 authority that state's amended information for the 18 charge of Attempt Grand Larceny was without subject
19 matter jurisdiction and was ~~BARRED~~ from district
20 court proceedings against petitioner. Counsel did not 21 challenge the habitual criminal adjudication pursuant 22 to NRS 207.010. When in fact, petitioner is not a
23 habitual criminal and his prior criminal ^{history} proves it
24 as petitioner had only the Texas state jail crime(s)
25 that was one event and not felonies as they did
26 not carry any prison term and not any category
27 of felony and only carries jail time and the

1 Burglary conviction was not a prior, so in essence
2 petitioner ~~was~~ first time in prison and ^{with} one prior 3 felony has been treated as a habitual criminal that
4 is easily deemed cruel and unusual punishment
5 and violates the legislative intent of NRS 207.010.
6 In addition, petitioner was deprived of effective
7 assistance of counsel on direct appeal when district
8 court Judge William Keckert dismissed petitioner's 9 appellate counsel on July 15, 2019. Pursuant to 10 motion to withdraw counsel that was granted as 11 District court Judge William Keckert stated his reason 12 for granting and dismissing counsel was that 13 the Supreme Court of Nevada had issued a remittitur.

14 Where, as here, counsel failures are a clear and 15 convincing showing of the prejudice prong of 16 Strickland.

17 Whereas, petitioner requested many times over 18 that counsel file appeal and express to counsel on 19 several occasions his dissatisfaction with the 20 conviction and sentence and counsel failed to do
21 so that easily satisfies the deficient performance
22 of Strickland and shows the prejudice against 23 petitioner cause had counsel use ^{due} diligence 24 and raised the meritorious claims and not been 25 withdrawn as counsel prior to the perfection of 26 the appeal, petitioner appeal (direct) would have 27 been successful.

1 23. (b) GROUND TWO: The state violated Mr. Hayes right to Due 2 Process as guaranteed by both the Due Process Clause of 3 the United States Constitution and the Nevada
4 Constitution. "Breach of guilty plea agreement on impeachable evidence"

5 23. (b) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): Whereas, 6 the breach of issue was not material nor volitional, when 7 in fact, the court was required to hold an evidentiary 8 hearing on the alleged breach which has resulted in dire 9 consequences to petitioner and an additional five(5) to 10 fourteen (and a half (14 1/2)) years in prison in violation of the 11 breagined for stipulations that the state entered in BAD 12 FAITH with petitioner as the agreement was unconstitutional, 13 malicious, and a manifest injustice. Indeed, in relating 14 the factual and procedural history of the case, the state 15 has taken great liberties to construct the sort of narrative 16 that has likely fueled inconsistent and unfair mass 17 incarceration in Nevada.

18 Whereas, the petitioner knows the record and has tried 19 to contextualize this actual record to reveal that an 20 manifest injustice was done in his specific case.

21 Although his counsel's presented a very unconvincing 22 argument worthy of sanctions and a bar complaint 23 and is blatant ineffective assistance of counsel that 24 has greatly prejudice petitioner to his extreme detriment 25 causing petitioner irreparable injury.

26 Whereas, in other words, the state's claim of breach 27 that petitioner was found to have probable cause for.

28 •••

1 a new Burglary charge is absurd when the alleged victim
2 of alleged Burglary testified under oath facing the penalty
3 of perjury that he was 100% sure petitioner was not the 4 perpetrator of the rape drive crime and that this alleged 5 charge crime was without probable cause against petitioner
6 as the Justice Court Judge ruling of probable cause was 7 misplaced and essentially the charge was dismissed in the 8 first district court appearance. Furthermore, the guilty plea
9 agreement in this case did not explicitly provide for the 10 abdication of stipulation for a mere run into the law
11 for a allege crime he had no part of, let alone for a 12 charge that was dismissed to further solidify his non-13 participation in the rape drive Burglary charge lodged 14 against him without due process considerations.

15 WHEREAS, petitioner's case of "Attempt Grand Larceny"
16 is the one ostensibly before us in this petition which 17 allegedly occurred on April 18, 2013 and was formally
18 charged by way of criminal complaint on July 23, 2013
19 that was dismissed following a preliminary hearing in 20 Justice Court, Las Vegas Township on June 14, 2016 for 21 lack of admissible evidence, no corpus delicti, no slight
22 or marginal evidence to proceed to district court
23 leaving the District Court 8th Judicial District with no
24 subject matter jurisdiction for the charge of Attempt 25 Grand Larceny as it was BARRIED from subsequent 26 prosecution against petitioner as mandated by state
27 law pursuant to NRS 174.085(3) and NRS 178.562

1 Making the state's emended information for Attempt Grand
2 Larceny unconstitutional, in BAD FAITH and fraud upon
3 the court by not first establishing jurisdiction before
4 prosecution that has prejudice petitioner to his extreme
5 detriment causing petitioner irreparable injury.

6 WHEREAS the UNCONSTITUTIONAL guilty plea agreement
7 at issue here for the "Mobbler" charge of Attempt Grand
8 Larceny indicated that there was a stipulated sentence
9 of probation with the only condition to be 30 days in 10 the Clark County Detention Center with 30 days credit
11 for time served with no suspended prison term and 12 no time period of probation to be served that solidifies
13 petitioner's position that the agreement was for gross
14 misdemeanor treatment and further stipulated that 15 it was to run concurrently to case NO C-16-315125-1.
16 This stipulation is UNIQUE to this case and do not contain 17 any boilerplate language and do not explicitly rely upon 18 or even reference the loss of stipulation in their language.

19 WHEREAS here, indeed, the boilerplate language
20 regarding "Magistrate to find probable cause" does not 21 explicitly refer to loss of stipulation, but only that "the 22 state will have the UNQUALIFIED right to argue for any 23 legal sentence and term of confinement allowable
24 for the crime to which I am pleading guilty, including 25 the use of any prior convictions I may have to 26 INCREASE my sentence as an habitual criminal to twenty 27 to twenty (20) years. Which in fact, there could not

1 be a legal sentence in the instant offense as the charge
2 of Attempt Grand Larceny was BARRED from subsequent
3 prosecution against petitioner and the District Court had 4 no subject matter jurisdiction for instant offense Attempt
5 Grand Larceny. In addition, the 2016 Burglary charge used
6 in adjudication was not a prior conviction as the instant
7 offense occurred in 2013.

8 Where, as here, it is also undisputed that the boilerplate
9 language does not explicitly refer to a right to argue for 10 consecutive sentence. It should also be noted that the 11 boilerplate language of the guilty plea agreement does not 12 refer in any way to what would constitute (or not constitute) 13 an exculpatory ruling of probable cause by magistrate or 14 make any reference to any ability for a "due process" to 15 challenge an enforcement of a material breach. Furthermore, 16 petitioner received no consideration whatsoever in exchange
17 for his "Alford plea" to a crime that petitioner did not commit.

23. (c) GROUND THREE: State violated Mr. Hayes Right to "Due Process", when it failed to adhere to State law (NRS 174.085(a) and NRS 178.522) making conviction invalid and unconstitutional

23. (c) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): Whereas, petitioner has explicitly reserved his right not to be compelled to perform under any contract or agreement that I have not entered into knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently and that my valid reservation of Rights has preserved all my Rights and prevented the loss of any such Rights by application of the concepts of waiver or estoppel as in the instant case.

Whereas, it is unconscionable for the state to attempt to insulate a conviction from collateral constitutional review by conditioning its willingness to enter into plea negotiations on petitioners "Waiver of the Rights" to pursue post-conviction remedies.

Where, as here, petitioner is entitled to habeas corpus if there is no material dispute as to a mistake of fact relating to his conviction (7.R.C.P 32(d)) and this court must set aside the judgment of conviction after sentence in order to correct this manifest injustice. As here, both parties agree to the mistake of fact that the charge of Attempt Grand Larceny was dismissed following preliminary

2 evidence, no corpus delicti, no slight or marginal evidence
3 to be further prosecuted in district court, and this is 4 clear and convincing showing of dismissal of an 5 action.

6 whereas, the state did violate NRS 178.562 by bringing 7 another prosecution following dismissal of an action to 8 constitute "another prosecution" without another pending
9 vehicle for the prosecution of the charge of Attempt Grand 10 Larceny that runs afoul of the provisions of NRS 178.562,
11 and BARS further prosecution of the petitioner on that 12 charge. When in fact the state held the preliminary hearing
13 June 14, 2016 pursuant to the filed criminal complaint
14 as the vehicle for prosecution of the instant offense
15 and no other vehicle was filed for the instant offense
16 Attempt Grand Larceny until November 7, 2018 by the 17 way of an amended information that and there is 18 no colorable argument that would allow them to over-
19 come the violation of state law NRS 178.562.

20 where, as here, the state's amended information
21 filed in open court November 7, 2018 was a subsequent 22 prosecution for the same offense in the former "Attempt 23 Grand Larceny" that was dismissed following preliminary
24 hearing by magistrate without another pending vehicle
25 for prosecution leaving the instant offense barred
26 from all district court proceedings against petitioner
27 and this jurisprudence set forth is perfectly clear.

1 and unambiguous.

2 WHEREAS, the state did violate NRS 174.085(3) when the petitioner
3 was once placed in jeopardy upon the criminal complaint and 4 proceeded to the preliminary hearing and following the preliminary 5 hearing the charge of Attempt grand larceny was dismissed by 6 magistrate, that is a BAR to another indictment, information or 7 complaint for the offense charged in the former. Thus the state 8 triggered the protections of NRS 174.085(3) to bar the subsequent 9 prosecution of the instant offense Attempt grand larceny against 10 the petitioner in all district court proceedings ~~and the district~~
11 ~~court on the subsequent time of prosecution~~

12 WHERE, as here, there is no material dispute of fact that 13 the charge in the instant offense Attempt grand larceny was 14 dismissed following the preliminary examination and BARRED
15 from any subsequent prosecution against petitioner in 16 district court leaving no subject matter jurisdiction for 17 prosecution in district court. In addition, the state may not 18 convict petitioner no matter how validly his factual guilt
19 is establish without subject matter jurisdiction and the 20 court that rendered the judgment had no subject matter
22 the conviction or impose the sentence.

23 WHEREAS, subject matter jurisdiction is not waivable 24 as the state has control as jurisdiction is derived from 25 the law and it neither can be waived nor conferred
26 by consent of the petitioner. As there is no colorable argu-
27 ment to overcome the lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

23. (d) GROUND FOUR: Violation of MA. Hoyer's right to Due Process Material mistakes of fact regarding criminal record in PSI that work to his extreme detriment.

23. (d) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

Inheres, the court made material mistakes of fact about petitioner's criminal record, as the petitioner's PSI had several material facts in error that work to his extreme detriment.

Where, as here, petitioner and his counsel objected to the mistakes at sentencing hearing and sentencing judge continued the proceedings without allowing the corrections to be made. When, in fact, if the judge would have allowed the corrections to be completed in the instant case upon petitioner's objections petitioner's raw score, social score, and the Department of Public Safety Division of Probation and Parole recommendation would have been astronomically different and would have showed that petitioner had never been to prison so there would not have been any habitual offender recommendation for the instant offense of ~~Attempt~~ Grand Larceny. As the instant offense occurred in the year 2013 and at that time petitioner had one felony conviction not four as the PSI read; no prison incarcerations not one as the PSI read; no current supervisor history not one

2 April 9, 2013 NOT April 2, 2016 as the PSI reads;
3 Burglary conviction case NO C-16-315125-1 should NOT
4 be included anywhere on petitioner's PSI for the instant
5 offense as it occurred sum three years later on April
6 2, 2016; Finally the TEXAS CONVICTIONS case NO(s)
7 1083785 and 1083786 was ONE AVEAT NOT TWO as it
8 reads on PSI NOT two felony convictions but ONE
9 state jail conviction for Credit Card Abuse and Fraudulent
10 USE/POSSESSION of Identifying information. Whereas the 11 numerous material mistakes of facts about petitioners
12 criminal record that have worked to his extreme detriment
13 has rise to a manifest injustice and DUE PROCESS
14 violation that cannot stand uncorrected. Furthermore,
15 the Texas crime(s) would not constitute a felony under 16 Nevada law.

1 23. (d) GROUND ~~ONE~~ ^{ONE}: State Violated Mr. Hayes Right to "Due Process"
2 as guaranteed by both the "DUE PROCESS CLAUSE of the United 3 State's Constitution and the Nevada Constitution: "DUE
4 PROCESS VIOLATION guilty plea was NOT equally voluntary, knowing 5 and intelligent."

7 23. (d) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): ~~whereas~~,
8 waivers of constitutional rights not only must be voluntary
9 but must be knowing, intelligent acts done with sufficient
10 awareness of the relevant circumstances and likely 11 consequences. As here, petitioner's "waiver of his fund-12 amental rights" was not knowingly and intelligently
13 made as the court failed to adequately inform petitioner 14 of the full consequences of his Afford plea that has 15 created a manifest injustice, because the trial court
16 did not straightforwardly explain consequences of 17 petitioner's breach of the agreement while awaiting 18 sentencing that the state would unilaterally impose
19 an enhanced sentence as the boilerplate language was 20 ambiguous and had imprecisions that did not explicitly 21 state loss of stipulation. Most significantly, petitioner did
22 not intelligently and knowingly waive his constitutional
23 rights with full knowledge of the consequences. Nor was 24 he told that his Afford plea would stand regardless of whether 25 he was re-arrested for a Burglary charge that was dismissed, 26 after alleged victim testified at preliminary hearing under 27 oath facing the penalty of perjury that petitioner was not 28 the perpetrator of alleged event and 100% sure of it.
So petitioner has raised sufficient doubt as whether his

1 Afford plea was ever accepted, and even if it was, whether 2 he was fully and fairly apprised of its consequences.

3 Whereas, the state interpret the court's statement to 4 mean "do you understand that if you breach any of 5 the conditions in guilty plea agreement, this court will 6 sentence you". Yet, that is not what the trial court said.
7 When it is surely equally plausible explanation of this 8 plea colloquy that petitioner would -- were here to breach 9 the agreement -- face trial on the Burglary charge. In 10 particular, it is impossible to conclude that petitioner
11 truly understood that he was waiving his right to be 12 tried on the original charge of Burglary and agreed 13 instead that were he re-arrested the state trial court could 14 unilaterally impose a habitual criminal sentence upon him.
15 So it is without question that whatever waiver petitioner 16 regard to was without adequate knowledge of the 17 consequences flowing from his breach of the plea agreement.
18 If in fact there was a material breach that in the 19 instant case was in question as the facts of the alleged 20 breach was based on impeachable and highly suspect 21 evidence of an alleged Burglary charge that was 22 dismissed after alleged victim testified that petitioner
23 was not the perpetrator of alleged event.

a protestation of innocence was constitutionally acceptable

when "a defendant intelligently concludes that his interests

require entry of guilty plea and the record before the judge contains strong evidence of guilt" (400 U.S. at 37). In the instant case, there was, of course, no evidence of actual guilt of the crime of Attempted Grand Larceny, as the sentencing judge and the state knew

Mr. Hayes had no involvement in such a crime. Moreover, when prior examination showed no criminal act of Attempted Grand Larceny,

it is clear that no evidence of actual guilt existed on the underlying criminal conduct that may have justified accepting Mr. Hayes plea, therefore Mr. Hayes did not waive his right to complain of the acceptance of an unconstitutional plea. Mr. Hayes neither made factual statements regarding an admission to the attempted grand larceny

charge nor admitted facts constituting the elements of attempted grand larceny. Mr. Hayes did not understand the elements of the crime that he pleaded to.

FACTS OF THE CASE:

The Petitioner has filed a timely Writ of Habeas Corpus on, April 15th 2019. The Petitioner, still has not received a decision on his Writ of Habeas Corpus. It has been exactly, TEN (10) months and SIXTEEN (16) days without a decision.

COURT. To expedite and review the petitioner's Writ of Habeas Corpus for Judicial Review. SEE PAGES FIVE (5) THROUGH TWENTY-TWO (22) OF ADDITIONAL FACTS:

3 (a) GROUND ONE: MR. HAYES (petitioner) was denied his 4 Constitutionally guaranteed "right to effective
5 assistance of counsel" (Federal and State Constitutional 6 rights) 6th and 14th Amendment Violation:

7 23. (a) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

8 WHEREAS, trial counsel failed to provide zealous and 9 quality representation at all stages of the criminal
10 process. Counsel's performance was deficient and representation
11 fell below the objective standard of reasonableness as 12 counsel failed to do appropriate investigation and study
13 of the case, including an analysis of controlling law
14 (NRS 174.085(3); NRS 178.562) and had counsel use due 15 diligence and investigated the facts and the law he 16 would have known that the charge of Attempt Grand 17 Larceny was barred from District Court against the 18 petitioner as NRS 174.085(3) and NRS 178.562 provides 19 the authority that made petitioner immune from 20 prosecution on charge of Attempt Grand Larceny in 21 District Court. Counsel failed to make certain that the 22 petitioner fully and completely understood the conditions
23 and limits of the plea agreement and the maximum
24 punishment and other consequences the petitioner
25 would be exposed to by entering his "Alford plea"
26 as petitioner was surprised by the habitual criminal
27 sentence. When in fact, even though petitioner signed

1 the guilty plea agreement he was ignorant to the potential
2 outcome as counsel had informed petitioner that he was
3 agreeing to a gross-misdemeanor with time served credit
4 and concurrent to case NO C-16-315125-1. Counsel failed
5 to file a motion to withdraw guilty plea pre-sentencing
6 and post-sentencing when sentencing was not in 7 accordance with the negotiated agreement and a
8 determination of habitual criminal was adjudicated
9 when in fact, when alleged Attempt Grand Larceny occurred
10 on or about April 2, 2013 petitioner had never served a 11 prison term or been to prison and had only one prior 12 felony conviction for a Class E Felony "Attempt possession 13 of credit or debit card without cardholder's consent" as 14 Texas crime was one event for credit card abuse and 15 fraudulent use/possession of identifying information that 16 did not and does not carry a prison term, mandatory
17 supervision, nor parole. Counsel failed to challenge alleged 18 breach that was founded on impalpable and highly 19 suspect evidence as the Burglary charge used was 20 dismissed and the finding of probable cause was 21 misplaced as alleged victim testified under oath that 22 petitioner was not the perpetrator of alleged event and 23 he was 100% sure and further testified that alleged 24 perpetrator did not enter said room only stood in doorway
25 said "sorry" and closed door without incident so this is 26 a clear and convincing showing that no probable cause
27 existed against petitioner. Counsel failed to challenge
28 probable cause and subject matter jurisdiction for

1 the Burglary charge in case NO C-16-315718-1 that had 2 counsel challenge the Burglary charge, was held as the 3 state's intent for the charge of Burglary of Attempt
4 Grand Larceny was dismissed following a preliminary
5 hearing in Justice Court Las Vegas Township on June 14, 6 2016 and the Burglary charge also must have been 7 dismissed leaving no jurisdiction for the district court
8 to proceed with the filed information dated June 17, 2016,
9 nor the amended information of Attempt Grand Larceny
10 filed November 7, 2018. Where, as here, counsel failures
11 are a clear and convincing showing of prong one
12 of the two prong test of Strickland that has greatly 13 prejudice petitioner and that petitioner's Affidavit
14 was not knowingly, intelligently, or voluntarily entered.

15 Where, counsel's deficient performance prejudiced
16 petitioner to his extreme detriment causing irreparable
17 injury, and if not for counsel's unprofessional errors
18 and lack of due diligence of failure to investigate
19 the facts and the law, the results of the proceedings
20 would have been different. Where as here, petitioner
21 would not have entered an "Affidavit" as the charges
22 of Attempt Grand Larceny was barred from District Court
23 for lack of jurisdiction, lack of Admissible Evidence,
24 and violation of state law pursuant to NRS 174.085(3)
25 and NRS 178.562 and the Burglary charge case NO.
26 C-16-315718-1 was held as the state had no intent.

27 What in fact, no reasonable jury would have convicted
28 petitioner of Attempt Grand Larceny nor the charge

1 of Burglary as the state's intent for the Burglary charge
2 of larceny in the filed information on June 17, 2016
3 was dismissed following preliminary hearing for no
4 slight or marginal evidence, no corpus delicti, and 5 lack of admissible evidence. As counsel's failures are 6 shown by a preponderance of the evidence, the record,
7 and state law. In addition, counsel failed to file a 8 notice of appeal and failed to inform petitioner of the 9 right to appeal. Inherens, this is a clear and convincing
10 showing of prong two of the two prong test of Strickland
11 that has greatly prejudiced petitioner and a valid
12 showing that petitioner's Alford plea to the charge
13 of Attempt Grand Larceny was not knowingly, 14 intelligently, or voluntarily entered. When in fact, the 15 petitioner stands convicted of a crime he did not commit
16 due to counsel failures. Furthermore, this is an affront
17 to justice and due process to hold petitioner to his 18 Alford plea when the conduct upon which the plea
19 was entered did not occur. Finally, for the above
20 reasons, but for counsel's errors and failures petitioner
21 would not have not entered an Alford plea and went 22 to trial on the charge of Burglary and been ~~convicted~~ acquitted.
23 Inherens, appellate counsel failed to provide zealous and 24 quality representation at all stages of appeal process.
25 Counsel's performance was deficient and representation
26 fell below the objective standard of reasonableness as 27 appellate counsel failed to do appropriate investigation
28 of potentially meritorious claims of error and assert

1 claims of error that are supported by facts and the 2 law and failed to assert claims that were complex,
3 unique, and issues of first impression. Counsel did
4 not thoroughly research the issues in the case and 5 set forth all viable issues in his prepared and 6 sanctioned "fast track" statement. Appellate counsel failed
7 to raise meritorious claims of failure of the state
8 to properly notice its intent to seek habitual treatment
9 at sentencing for the wobbler charge of Attempt
10 Grand Larceny. When in fact, State's Amended Notice
11 of intent to seek punishment as a habitual criminal 12 was for the charge of Burglary. Counsel failed to 13 raise the claim that District Court lacked jurisdiction
14 for the charge of Attempt Grand Larceny, when in fact,
15 jurisdiction is derived by the law and NACLS 16 State Law NRS 174.085(a) and NRS 178.562 is the 17 authority that State's amended information for the 18 charge of Attempt Grand Larceny was without subject
19 matter jurisdiction and was BARRED from district
20 court proceedings against petitioner. Counsel did not 21 challenge the habitual criminal adjudication pursuant 22 to NRS 207.010. When in fact, petitioner is ^{not} a
23 habitual criminal and his prior criminal ^{history} proves it
24 as petitioner had only the Texas state jail crime(s)
25 that was one event and not felonies as they did
26 not carry any prison term and not any category
27 of felony and only carries jail time and the

1 Burglary conviction was not a prior, so in essence
2 petitioners ~~was~~ first time in prison and ^{with} one prior 3 felony has been treated as a habitual criminal. The 4 is easily deemed cruel and unusual punishment,
5 and violates the legislative intent of NRS 207.010.
6 In addition, petitioner was deprived of effective
7 assistance of counsel on direct appeal when district
8 court Judge William Kephart dismissed petitioners
9 appellate counsel on July 15, 2019. Pursuant to 10 motion to withdraw counsel that was granted as 11 District court Judge William Kephart stated his reason
12 for granting and dismissing counsel was that
13 the Supreme Court of Nevada had issued a remittitur
14 where, as here, counsel failures are a clear and 15 convincing showing of the prejudice prong of 16 Strickland.

17 Whereas, petitioners requested many times over 18 that counsel file appeal and express to counsel on 19 several occasions his dissatisfaction with the 20 conviction and sentence and counsel failed to do
21 so that easily satisfies the deficient performance
22 of Strickland and shows the prejudice against 23 petitioner cause had counsel use ~~the~~ diligence
24 and raised the meritorious claims and not been 25 withdrawn as counsel prior to the perfection of 26 the appeal, petitioners appeal (direct) would have 27 been successful.

23. (b) GROUND TWO: The state violated Mr. Hayes right to Due Process as guaranteed by both the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution and the Nevada Constitution. Breach of guilty plea agreement on impeachable evidence

23. (b) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): Whereas, the breach of issue was not material nor volitional, when in fact, the court was required to hold an evidentiary hearing on the alleged breach which has resulted in dire consequences to petitioner and an additional five(5) to fourteen and a half (14 1/2) years in prison in violation of the bargained for stipulations. That the state entered in BAD FAITH with petitioner as the agreement was unconstitutional, malicious, and a manifest injustice. Indeed, in relating the factual and procedural history of the case, the state has taken great liberties to continue the sort of narrative that has likely fueled inconsistent and unfair mass incarceration in Nevada.

Whereas, the petitioner knows the record and has tried to contextualize this actual record to reveal that a manifest injustice was done in his specific case. Although his counsel's presented a very unconvincing argument worthy of sanctions and a bar complaint and is blatant ineffective assistance of counsel that has greatly prejudice petitioner to his extreme detriment causing petitioner irreparable injury.

Whereas, in other words, the state's claim of breach that petitioner was found to have probable cause for

• II

1 a new Burglary charge is absurd when the alleged victim
2 of alleged Burglary testified under oath facing the penalty
3 of perjury that he was 100% sure petitioner was not the 4 perpetrator of the indecent crime and that this alleged 5 charge crime was without probable cause against petitioner
6 as the Justice Court Judge ruling of probable cause was 7 misplaced and essentially the charge was dismissed in the 8 first district court appearance. Furthermore, the guilty plea
9 agreement in this case did not explicitly provide for the 10 abdication of stipulation for a mere run into the law
11 for a allege crime he had no part of, let alone for a 12 charge that was dismissed to further solidify his non-13 participation in the indecent Burglary charge lodged 14 against him without due process considerations.

15 Whereas, petitioner's case of "Attempt Grand Larceny"
16 is the one ostensibly before us in this petition which 17 allegedly occurred on April 1, 2013 and was formally
18 charged by way of Criminal Complaint on July 23, 2013
19 that was dismissed following a preliminary hearing in 20 Justice Court, Las Vegas Township on June 14, 2016 for 21 lack of admissible evidence, no corpus delicti, no slight
22 or marginal evidence to proceed to district court
23 leaving the District Court 8th Judicial District with no
24 subject matter jurisdiction for the charge of Attempt
25 Grand Larceny as it was BARRED from subsequent 26 prosecution against petitioner as mandated by state
27 law pursuant to NRS 174.085(3) and NRS 178.562

1 Making the state's emailed information for Attempt Grand
2 Larceny unconstitutional, in BAD FAITH, and fraud upon
3 the court by not first establishing jurisdiction before
4 prosecution that has prejudice petitioner to his extreme 5 detriment causing additional irreparable injury.

6 Whereas the unconstitutional guilty plea agreement
7 at issue here for the "Mobbler" charge of Attempt Grand
8 Larceny indicated that there was a stipulated sentence
9 of probation with the only condition to be 30 days in 10 the Clark County Detention Center with 30 days credit
11 for time served with no suspended prison term and 12 no time period of probation to be served that solidifies
13 petitioner's position that the agreement was for gross
14 misdemeanor treatment and further stipulated that 15 it was to run concurrently to case NO C-16-315125-1.
16 This stipulation is unique to this case and do not contain 17 any boilerplate language and do not explicitly rely upon
18 or even reference the loss of stipulation in their language

19 Where, as here, indeed, the boilerplate language
20 regarding "Magistrate to find probable cause" does not 21 explicitly refer to loss of stipulation, but only that "the 22 state will have the unqualified right to argue for any 23 legal sentence and term of confinement allowable
24 for the crime to which I am pleading guilty, including 25 the use of any prior convictions I may have to 26 increase my sentence as an habitual criminal to levels
27 to twenty (20) years. Which in fact, there could not

1 be a legal sentence in the instant offense as the charge
2 of Attempt Grand Larceny was BARRED from subsequent 3 prosecution against petitioner and the District Court had 4 no subject matter jurisdiction for instant offense Attempt
5 Grand Larceny. In addition, the 2016 Burglary charge used
6 in adjudication was not a prior conviction as the instant
7 offense occurred in 2013.

8 Where, as here, it is also undisputed that the boilerplate
9 language does not explicitly refer to a right to argue for 10 consecutive sentence. It should also be noted that the 11 boilerplate language of the guilty plea agreement does not 12 refer in any way to what would constitute (or not constitute) 13 an exculpatory ruling of probable cause by magistrate or 14 make any reference to any ability for a "due process" to 15 challenge an overruling of a material breach. Furthermore,
16 petitioner received no consideration whatsoever in exchange
17 for his "Alford plea" to a crime that petitioner did not commit.

23. (c) GROUND THREE: State violated Mr. Hayes Right to "Due Process" when it failed to adhere to State law (NRS 174.085(3) and NRS 178.522) making conviction invalid and unconstitutional

23. (c) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law) Whereas petitioner has explicitly reserved his right not to be compelled to perform under any contract or agreement that I have not entered into knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently and that my valid reservation of Rights has preserved all my Rights and prevented the loss of any such Rights by application of the concepts of waiver or estoppel as in the instant case.

Whereas it is unconscionable for the state to attempt to insulate a conviction from collateral constitutional review by conditioning its willingness to enter into plea negotiations on petitioner's "waiver of the rights" to pursue post-conviction remedies.

Whereas here, petitioner is entitled to habeas corpus if there is no material dispute as to a mistake of fact relating to his conviction (7.R.C.P 32(d)) and this court must set aside the judgment of conviction after sentence in order to correct this manifest injustice. As here, both parties agree to the mistake of fact that the charge of Attempted Grand Larceny was dismissed following preliminary

2 evidence, no corpus delicti, no slight or marginal evidence
3 to be further prosecuted in district court, and this is 4 clear and convincing showing of dismissal of an 5 action.

6 Whereby the state did violate NRS 178.562(4) by bringing 7 another prosecution following dismissal of an action to 8 constitute "another prosecution" without another pending
9 vehicle for the prosecution of the charge of Attempt Grand 10 Larceny that runs afoul of the provisions of NRS 178.562(4), 11 and BARS further prosecution of the petitioner on that 12 charge. When in fact the state held the preliminary hearing
13 June 14, 2016 pursuant to the filed criminal complaint
14 as the vehicle for prosecution of the instant offense
15 and no other vehicle was filed for the instant offense
16 Attempt Grand Larceny until November 7, 2018 by the 17 way of an amended information ~~that~~ and there is 18 no colorable argument that would allow them to over-
19 come the violation of state law NRS 178.562.

20 Where as here, the state's amended information
21 filed in open court November 7, 2018 was a subsequent 22 prosecution for the same offense in the former "Attempt 23 Grand Larceny" that was dismissed following preliminary
24 hearing by magistrate without another pending vehicle
25 for prosecution leaving the instant offense barred
26 from all district court proceedings against petitioner
27 and this jurisprudence set forth is perfectly clear.

1 and unambiguous.

2 WHEREAS, the state did violate NCS 174.085(2) when the petitioner
3 was once placed in jeopardy upon the criminal complaint and 4 proceeded to the preliminary hearing and following the preliminary 5 hearing the charge of Attempt grand larceny was dismissed by 6 magistrate, that is a BAR to another indictment, information or 7 complaint for the offense charged in the former. Thus the state 8 triggered the protections of NCS 174.085(3) to bar the subsequent 9 prosecution of the instant offense Attempt grand larceny against 10 the petitioner in all district court proceedings ~~where the offense~~ 11 ~~committed before the subsequent time of prosecution~~

12 WHEREAS, as here, there is no material dispute of fact that 13 the charge in the instant offense Attempt grand larceny was 14 dismissed following the preliminary examination and BARRED
15 from any subsequent prosecution against petitioner in 16 district court leaving no subject matter jurisdiction for 17 prosecution in district court. In addition, the state may not 18 convict petitioner no matter how validly his factual guilt 19 is established without subject matter jurisdiction and the 20 court that rendered the judgment had no subject matter
21 jurisdiction and left the court with no power to enter
22 the conviction or impose the sentence.

23 WHEREAS, subject matter jurisdiction is not waivable
24 as the state has contended as jurisdiction is derived from 25 the law and it neither can be waived nor conferred
26 by consent of the petitioner. As there is no colorable argu-
27 ment to overcome the lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

23. (d) GROUND FOUR: Violation of MA. Boyer right to Due Process Material mistakes of fact regarding criminal record in PSI that work to his extreme detriment.

23. (d) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law):

Whereas the court made material mistakes of fact about petitioner's criminal record, as the petitioner's PSI had several material facts in error that work to his extreme detriment.

Where, as here, petitioner and his counsel objected to the mistakes at sentencing hearing and sentencing judge continued the proceedings without allowing the corrections to be made. When, in fact, if the judge would have allowed the corrections to be completed in the instant case upon petitioner's objections petitioner's raw score, social score, and the Department of Public Safety Division of Parole and Probation recommendation would have been astronomically different and would have showed that petitioner had never been to prison so there would not have been any habitual offender recommendations for the instant offense of Attempted Grand Larceny. As the instant offense occurred in the year 2013 and at that time petitioner had one felony conviction not four as the PSI read, no prison incarcerations not one as the PSI read; no current supervisor history not one

25 the PSI read; the instant offense should be dated April 9, 2013. Not April 2, 2016 as the PSI reads;
Burglary conviction case NO C-16-315125-1 should NOT be included anywhere on petitioner's PSI for the instant
offense as it occurred sum three years later on April
2, 2016; Finally the Texas conviction(s) case NO(s) 10B3785 and 10B3786 was ONE event not two as it reads on PSI not two felony convictions but ONE
state jail conviction for Credit Card Abuse and Fraudulent use/possession of Identifying information. Whereas the Numerous material mistakes of facts about petitioner's criminal record that have worked to his extreme detriment
has rise to a manifest injustice and due process violation that cannot stand uncorrected. Furthermore,

23. (d) GROUND ~~ONE~~ ^{FIVE}: State Violated Mr. Hayes Right to "DUE PROCESS" as guaranteed by both the "DUE PROCESS CLAUSE of the United States Constitution and the Nevada Constitution: "DUE PROCESS VIOLATION guilty plea was NOT Equally Voluntary, KNOWING AND INTELLIGENTLY MADE."

23. (d) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): Inheres, waivers of constitutional rights not only must be voluntary but must be knowing, intelligent acts done with sufficient awareness of the relevant circumstances and likely consequences. As here, petitioner's "waiver of his fundamental rights" was not knowingly and intelligently made as the court failed to adequately inform petitioner of the full consequences of his Atford plea that has created a manifest injustice, because the trial court did not straightforwardly explain consequences of petitioner's breach of the agreement while awaiting sentencing that the state would unilaterally impose an enhanced sentence as the indeterminate language was ambiguous and had imprecisions that did not explicitly state loss of stipulation. Most significantly, petitioner did not intelligently and knowingly waive his constitutional rights with full knowledge of the consequences, nor was he told that his Atford plea would stand regardless of whether he was arrested for a Burglary charge that was dismissed, after alleged victim testified at preliminary hearing under oath facing the penalty of perjury that petitioner was not the perpetrator of alleged event and 100% sure of it. So petitioner has raised sufficient doubt as whether his

2 he was fully and fairly apprised of its consequences.
3 Whereas, the state interpret the court's statement to 4 mean "do you understand that if you breach any of 5 the conditions in guilty plea agreement, this court will 6 sentence you". Yet, that is not what the trial court said.
7 When it is surely equally plausible explanation of the 8 plea colloquy that petitioner would -- were here to breach 9 the agreement -- face trial on the Burglary charge. In 10 particular, it is impossible to conclude that petitioner
11 truly understood that he was waiving his right to be 12 tried on the original charge of Burglary, and agreed
13 instead that were he re-arrested the state trial court could 14 unilaterally impose a habitual criminal sentence upon him.
15 So it is without question that whatever waiver petitioner
16 agreed to was without adequate knowledge of the 17 consequences flowing from his breach of the plea agreement.
18 If in fact there was a material breach that in the 19 instant case was in question as the facts of the alleged 20 breach was based on impeachable and highly suspect
21 evidence of an alleged Burglary charge that was 22 dismissed after alleged victim testified that petitioner
23 was not the perpetrator of alleged event.

the following: Whereas, In Alford, the court held a plea contain a protestation of innocence was constitutionally acceptable
when "a defendant intelligently concludes that his interests
require entry of guilty plea and the record before the judge
contains strong evidence of guilt" (400 U.S. at 37). In the instant case, there was, of course, no evidence of actual guilt of the crime of Attempted Grand Larceny, as the sentencing judge and the State & Mr. Hayes had no involvement in such a crime. Moreover, when and examination showed no criminal act of Attempted Grand Larceny,
it is clear that no evidence of actual guilt existed on the under
plea, therefore Mr. Hayes did not waive his right to complain of the acceptance of an unconstitutional plea. Mr. Hayes neither made for statements regarding an admission to the attempted grand larceny
charge nor admitted facts constituting the elements of attempted grand larceny. Mr. Hayes did not understand the elements of the crime that he pleaded to.

STATE'S RESPONSE TO PETITIONER'S AMENDED PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS AND
PETITION: EXPEDITIOUS JUDICIAL EXAMINATION NRS 34.360-34.830

DATE OF HEARING: MAY 4, 2020
TIME OF HEARING: 8:30 AM

20 COMES NOW, the State of Nevada, by STEVEN B. WOLFSON, Clark County 21 District Attorney, through TALEEN PANDUKHT, Chief Deputy District Attorney, and 22 hereby submits the attached Points and Authorities in Response to Petitioner's Amended 23 Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and "Petition: Expeditious Judicial Examination NRS 24 34.360-34.830."

25 This Response is made and based upon all the papers and pleadings on file herein, the 26 attached points and authorities in support hereof, and oral argument at the time of hearing, if 27 deemed necessary by this Honorable Court.

1 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

3 On or about July 23, 2013, James H. Hayes (hereinafter, "Petitioner") was charged by 4 way of Criminal Complaint with one count of BURGLARY (Category B Felony – NRS
5 205.060) and one count of ATTEMPT GRAND LARCENY (Category D Felony/Gross
6 Misdemeanor – NRS 205.220.1, 205.222.2, 193.330). Following a Preliminary Hearing in
7 Justice Court, Las Vegas Township on June 14, 2016, the charge of BURGLARY was bound
8 over to District Court, and the charge of ATTEMPT GRAND LARCENY was dismissed.

9 On June 17, 2016, the State filed an Information with the District Court, charging 10 Petitioner with one count of BURGLARY. On August 29, 2017, the State filed an Amended 11 Notice of Intent to Seek Punishment as a Habitual Criminal. On November 7, 2018, pursuant 12 to a Guilty Plea Agreement ("GPA"), Petitioner entered a plea of Guilty pursuant to North
14 terms of the GPA are as follows:

15 The State has agreed to make no recommendation at the time of sentencing. The 16 State has no opposition to probation with the only condition being thirty (30)
17 days in the Clark County Detention Center (CCDC), with thirty (30) days credit for time served.

18 GPA at 1:22-24. The GPA further includes, in pertinent part, the following acknowledgement:

19 I understand and agree that, if...an independent magistrate, by affidavit review, 20 confirms probable cause against me for new criminal charges including reckless 21 driving or DUI, but excluding minor traffic violations, the State will have the 22 unqualified right to argue for any legal sentence and term of confinement
23 allowable for the crime(s) to which I am pleading guilty, including the use of 24 any prior convictions I may have to increase my sentence as a habitual criminal to five (5) to twenty (20) years, Life without the possibility of parole, Life with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years, or a definite twenty-five (25) year term with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years.

25 GPA at 2: 1-9. An Amended Information reflecting the new charge of ATTEMPT GRAND 26 LARCENY was filed in conjunction with the GPA. Petitioner was adjudged Guilty pursuant 27 to Alford that same day, and the sentencing hearing was scheduled for March 6, 2019.

1 On January 31, 2019, the State filed a State's Notice of Motion and Motion to Revoke
2 Bail, asserting that in Las Vegas Justice Court case number 19F01534X, a Justice of the Peace
3 had found probable cause to charge Petitioner with Burglary for acts committed on or around
4 January 26, 2019. The State's Motion to Revoke Bail was granted after a hearing on February 5 4, 2019.

6 At the sentencing hearing on March 6, 2019, the State argued that it had regained the 7 right to argue pursuant to the terms of the GPA. The Court agreed, and the State argued that 8 Petitioner should be punished under NRS 207.010 (the "Small Habitual Statute"). The Court 9 agreed, and Petitioner was sentenced to sixty (60) to one hundred seventy-four (174) months 10 in the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC), consecutive to Petitioner's sentence in 11 another case (C315125). The Court also awarded Petitioner ten (10) days credit for time
12 served. The Judgment of Conviction in this case was filed on March 12, 2019.

13 Petitioner filed a Notice of Appeal on March 28, 2019. Petitioner's Case Appeal 14 Statement was filed on August 9, 2019 (SCN 78590).

15 On April 15, 2019, Petitioner filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus ("Petition").
16 Pursuant to Court order, the State filed its Response on June 26, 2019. At the hearing on the 17 Petition on August 19, 2019, the Court noted that Petitioner filed two Addenda to his original 18 Petition (the first on May 7, 2019, and the second on May 9, 2019). Pursuant to the Court's 19 order, the State filed a Response to the Addenda on October 10, 2019. Petitioner filed a Reply 20 to the State's Response on November 4, 2019. On November 18, 2019, Petitioner's Petition 21 came before the Court, at which time the Court took the matter OFF CALENDAR due to 22 Petitioner's pending appeal.

23 On November 19, 2019, Petitioner filed another Notice of Appeal, appealing the denial 24 of his Coram Nobis motion. His Case Appeal Statement was filed on December 11, 2019 (SCN 25 80222). As of the date of this Response, Petitioner's appeal was still outstanding.

26 On January 14, 2020, the Nevada Supreme Court AFFIRMED Petitioner's Judgment
27 of Conviction in SCN 78590. Remittitur issued on February 25, 2020.

1 On February 12, 2020, Petitioner filed an “Amended Petition for Writ of Habeas 2 Corpus” (his “Amended Petition”). This Court ordered a Response to that Amended Petition
3 on March 4, 2020. Thereafter, on March 6, 2020, Petitioner filed a “Petition: Expeditious 4 Judicial Examination NRS 34.360-34.830” (his “Petition: EJE”). Pursuant to this Court’s 5 order, and out of an abundance of caution, the State responds to both the Amended Petition 6 and the Petition: EJE, as follows:

8 I. PETITIONER’S AMENDED PETITION IS BARRED AS SUCCESSIVE

9 As a preliminary matter, the State respectfully submits that the instant pleadings must 10 be stricken pursuant to statute. NRS 34.750(3) allows appointed counsel to file certain 11 supplemental pleadings within 30 days. However, “[n]o further pleadings may be filed except 12 as ordered by the court.” NRS 34.750(5). Additionally, NRS 34.810(2) reads:

13 A second or successive petition must be dismissed if the judge or justice 14 determines that it fails to allege new or different grounds for relief and that the 15 prior determination was on the merits or, if new and different grounds are 16 alleged, the judge or justice finds that the failure of the petitioner to assert those grounds in a prior petition constituted an abuse of the writ.

17 (Emphasis added). It is strictly the petitioner’s burden to demonstrate good cause and prejudice 18 to survive the court’s analysis. NRS 34.810(3); Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 358, 871 P.2d 19 944, 950 (1994); see also, Hart v. State, 116 Nev. 558, 563-64, 1 P.3d 969 972 (2000) (holding, 20 “where a defendant previously has sought relief from the judgment, the defendant’s failure to 21 identify all grounds for relief in the first instance should weigh against consideration of the 22 successive motion.”)

23 The Nevada Supreme Court has stated: “Without such limitations on the availability of 24 post-conviction remedies, prisoners could petition for relief in perpetuity and thus abuse post-25 conviction remedies. In addition, meritless, successive and untimely petitions clog the court 26 system and undermine the finality of convictions.” Lozada, 110 Nev. at 358, 871 P.2d at 950.
27 The Nevada Supreme Court recognizes, “[u]nlike initial petitions which certainly require a 28 careful review of the record, successive petitions may be dismissed based solely on the fact of

1 the petition.” Ford v. Warden, 111 Nev. 872, 882, 901 P.2d 123, 129 (1995) (emphasis added).
2 In other words, if the claim or allegation was previously available with reasonable diligence, 3 it is an abuse of the writ to wait to assert it in a later petition. McClesky v. Zant, 499 U.S. 467, 4 497-98 (1991). Application of NRS 34.810(2) is mandatory. State v. Eighth Judicial Dist.
5 Court (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 231, 112 P.3d 1070, 1074 (2005) (noting, “[h]abeas corpus 6 petitions that are filed many years after conviction are an unreasonable burden on the criminal 7 justice system.”) The Riker Court further determined that district courts have no discretion 8 regarding application of statutory procedural bars, and such bars “cannot be ignored [by the 9 district court] when properly raised by the State.” Id. at 233.

10 In the instant case, Petitioner continues to file supplemental pleadings in the form of 11 multiple addenda as well as the instant “Amended Petition.” However, under NRS 34.750, the 12 right to file supplements lies exclusively with appointed counsel. Furthermore, the factual 13 bases for Petitioner’s claims existed at the time Petitioner filed his first Petition. Therefore, 14 Petitioner’s pleadings are successive and subject to dismissal absent a showing of good cause 15 and prejudice. NRS 34.810(2). Petitioner does not argue good cause nor prejudice. See 16 generally, Amended Petition. Thus, pursuant to statute, Petitioner’s pleadings “must be 17 dismissed.” NRS 34.810(2) (emphasis added).

18 II. PETITIONER’S AMENDED PETITION DOES NOT ENTITLE HIM TO 19 RELIEF

20 The Nevada Supreme Court has explained:

21 “[A] guilty plea represents a break in the chain of events which has preceded it
22 in the criminal process. When a criminal defendant has solemnly admitted in 23 open court that he is in fact guilty of the offense with which he is charged, he 24 may not thereafter raise independent claims relating to the deprivation of constitutional rights that occurred prior to the entry of the guilty plea.”

26 U.S. 258, 267, 93 S.Ct. 1602, 1608 (1973)). An entry of a guilty plea “waive[s] all 27 constitutional claims based on events occurring prior to the entry of the plea[], except those 28 involving voluntariness of the plea[] [itself].” Warden, Nevada State Prison v. Lyons, 100

1 Nev. 430, 431, 683 P.2d 505 (1984); see also Kirksey v. State, 112 Nev. 980, 999, 923 P.2d
2 1102, 1114 (1996) (“Where the defendant has pleaded guilty, the only claims that may be
3 raised thereafter are those involving the voluntariness of the plea itself and the effectiveness
4 of counsel.”). Under NRS 34.810,

5 I. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:

6 (a) The petitioner’s conviction was upon a plea of guilty or guilty but 7 mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an allegation that the plea was 8 involuntarily or unknowingly entered or that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

9 ...
10 unless the court finds both cause for the failure to present the grounds and actual prejudice to the petitioner.

11 (emphasis added). Furthermore, the Nevada Supreme Court has held that “challenges to the 12 validity of a guilty plea and claims of ineffective assistance of trial and appellate counsel must 13 first be pursued in post-conviction proceedings.... [A]ll other claims that are appropriate for a 14 direct appeal must be pursued on direct appeal, or they will be considered waived in 15 subsequent proceedings.” Franklin v. State, 110 Nev. 750, 752, 877 P.2d 1058, 1059 (1994)
16 (emphasis added) (disapproved of on other grounds by Thomas v. State, 115 Nev. 148, 979 17 P.2d 222 (1999)). “A court must dismiss a habeas petition if it presents claims that either were 18 or could have been presented in an earlier proceeding, unless the court finds both cause for 19 failing to present the claims earlier or for raising them again and actual prejudice to the 20 petitioner.” Evans v. State, 117 Nev. 609, 646-47, 29 P.3d 498, 523 (2001), overruled on other
21 grounds by Lisle v. State, 131 Nev. 356, 351 P.3d 725 (2015). Additionally, substantive claims
23 646-47, 29 P.3d 498 at 523; Franklin, 110 Nev. at 752, 877 P.2d 1058 at 1059.

24 A proper petition for post-conviction relief must set forth specific factual allegations
25 that would entitle the petitioner to relief. NRS 34.735(6) states, in pertinent part, “[Petitioner]
26 must allege specific facts supporting the claims in the petition [he] file[s] seeking relief from 27 any conviction or sentence. Failure to raise specific facts rather than just conclusions may 28 cause the petition to be dismissed.” “Bare” and “naked” allegations are not sufficient to

1 warrant post-conviction relief, nor are those belied and repelled by the record. Hargrove v.
2 State, 100 Nev. 498, 502, 686 P.2d 222, 225 (1984). “A claim is ‘belied’ when it is contradicted
3 or proven to be false by the record as it existed at the time the claim was made.” Mann v. State, 4 118 Nev. 351, 354, 46 P.3d 1228, 1230 (2002).

5 A. Petitioner’s Claims of Ineffective Assistance of Counsel are Belied by the Record

6 Petitioner first claims that his counsel, Mr. Michael Sanft, Esq. (“Mr. Sanft”) was 7 ineffective for 1) failing to appropriately investigate; 2) failing to ensure Petitioner fully 8 understood the conditions of the GPA; 3) failing to file a Motion to Withdraw Guilty Plea; and 9 4) failing to file a Notice of Appeal and/or informing Petitioner of his right to appeal. However, 10 Petitioner’s claims are belied by the record.

11 The Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution provides that, “[i]n all criminal 12 prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right...to have the Assistance of Counsel for his 13 defense.” The United States Supreme Court has long recognized that “the right to counsel is 14 the right to the effective assistance of counsel.” Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686, 15 104 S. Ct. 2052, 2063 (1984); see also State v. Love, 109 Nev. 1136, 1138, 865 P.2d 322, 323 16 (1993).

17 To prevail on a claim of ineffective assistance of trial counsel, a defendant must prove 18 he was denied “reasonably effective assistance” of counsel by satisfying the two-prong test of 19 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 686-87, 104 S. Ct. at 2063-64. See also Love, 109 Nev. at 1138, 865
20 P.2d at 323. Under Strickland, a defendant must show first that his counsel's representation 21 fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, and second, that but for counsel's errors, 22 there is a reasonable probability that the result of the proceedings would have been different.
23 466 U.S. at 687-88, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2065, 2068; Warden, Nevada State Prison v. Lyons, 100 24 Nev. 430, 432, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984) (adopting the Strickland two-part test). “[T]here is 25 no reason for a court deciding an ineffective assistance claim to approach the inquiry in the 26 same order or even to address both components of the inquiry if the defendant makes an 27 insufficient showing on one.” Strickland, 466 U.S. at 697, 104 S. Ct. at 2069.

1 The Court begins with the presumption of effectiveness and then must determine 2 whether the defendant has demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that counsel was 3 ineffective. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1011, 103 P.3d 25, 32 (2004). "Effective counsel 4 does not mean errorless counsel, but rather counsel whose assistance is '[w]ithin the range of 5 competence demanded of attorneys in criminal cases.'" Jackson v. Warden, 91 Nev. 430, 432, 6 537 P.2d 473, 474 (1975).

7 Counsel cannot be ineffective for failing to make futile objections or arguments. See 8 Ennis v. State, 122 Nev. 694, 706, 137 P.3d 1095, 1103 (2006). Trial counsel has the 9 "immediate and ultimate responsibility of deciding if and when to object, which witnesses, if 10 any, to call, and what defenses to develop." Rhyne v. State, 118 Nev. 1, 8, 38 P.3d 163, 167 11 (2002). Further, a defendant who contends his attorney was ineffective because he did not 12 adequately investigate must show how a better investigation would have rendered a more 13 favorable outcome probable. Molina v. State, 120 Nev. 185, 192, 87 P.3d 533, 538 (2004).

14 Based on the above law, the role of a court in considering allegations of ineffective 15 assistance of counsel is "not to pass upon the merits of the action not taken but to determine 16 whether, under the particular facts and circumstances of the case, trial counsel failed to render 17 reasonably effective assistance." Donovan v. State, 94 Nev. 671, 675, 584 P.2d 708, 711 18 (1978). This analysis does not mean that the court should "second guess reasoned choices 19 between trial tactics nor does it mean that defense counsel, to protect himself against 20 allegations of inadequacy, must make every conceivable motion no matter how remote the 21 possibilities are of success." Id. To be effective, the constitution "does not require that counsel 22 do what is impossible or unethical. If there is no bona fide defense to the charge, counsel 23 cannot create one and may disserve the interests of his client by attempting a useless charade."
24 United States v. Cronin, 466 U.S. 648, 657 n.19, 104 S. Ct. 2039, 2046 n.19 (1984).

25 "There are countless ways to provide effective assistance in any given case. Even the 26 best criminal defense attorneys would not defend a particular client in the same way." 27 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 689, 104 S. Ct. at 689. "Strategic choices made by counsel after 28 thoroughly investigating the plausible options are almost unchallengeable." Dawson v. State,

1 108 Nev. 112, 117, 825 P.2d 593, 596 (1992); see also Ford v. State, 105 Nev. 850, 853, 784
2 P.2d 951, 953 (1989). In essence, the court must “judge the reasonableness of counsel's 3 challenged conduct on the facts of the particular case, viewed as of the time of counsel's 4 conduct.” Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690, 104 S. Ct. at 2066.

6 objective standard of reasonableness, she must still demonstrate prejudice and show a 7 reasonable probability that, but for counsel’s errors, the result of the trial would have been 8 different. McNelson v. State, 115 Nev. 396, 403, 990 P.2d 1263, 1268 (1999) (citing
10 sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome.” Id. (citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687-11 89, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2064-65, 2068). This portion of the test is slightly modified when the 12 convictions occurs due to a guilty plea. Hill v. Lockhart, 474 U.S. 52, 59 (1985); Kirksey v.
13 State, 112 Nev. 980, 988 (1996). For a guilty plea, a defendant “must show that there is a 14 reasonable probability that, but for counsel’s errors, he would not have pleaded guilty and 15 would have insisted on going to trial.” Kirksey, 112 Nev. at 998 (quoting Hill, 474 U.S. at 59).

16 The text of the GPA includes the following (labeled “VOLUNTARINESS OF PLEA”), 17 in pertinent part:

18 I have discussed the elements of all of the original charge(s) against me with 19 my attorney and I understand the nature of the charge(s) against me.

20 ...

21 I have discussed with my attorney any possible defenses, defense strategies 22 and circumstances which might be in my favor.

23 All of the foregoing elements, consequences, rights, and waiver of rights 24 have been thoroughly explained to me by my attorney.

25 ...

26 I am signing this agreement voluntarily, after consultation with my 27 attorney...

28 ...

My attorney has answered all my questions regarding this guilty plea agreement and its consequences to my satisfaction and I am satisfied with the services provided by my attorney.

1 GPA at 5-6. Petitioner affirmed that he had read the GPA. Recorder's Transcript of Hearing:
2 November 7, 2018 ("Transcript") at 2:24-25, 3:21-22. Petitioner affirmed that Mr. Sanft
3 answered any questions regarding the GPA. Transcript at 3:1-3, 3:23-4:6. Petitioner affirmed
4 that he understood the charge in the Amended Information. Id. at 3:4-6, 4:7-9. Petitioner 5 affirmed that he signed the GPA. Id. at 3:16-20. Contrary to Petitioner's assertion that he was 6 told he was agreeing to a gross misdemeanor, when asked by the Court about his 7 understanding, Petitioner acknowledged two possible sentencing outcomes:

8 THE COURT: Okay. Can you tell me what your understanding is that you're 9 facing as a form of punishment for the charge of attempt grand larceny here in 10 the State of Nevada?

11 THE DEFENDANT: One to four in the Nevada Department of Corrections.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 THE DEFENDANT: Or a gross misdemeanor of 364 days.

14 THE COURT: Okay. You can also be fined up to $5,000 if I treat it as a felony.
15 And you could be fined up to $2,000 if I treat it as a gross misdemeanor?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: You understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

19 Id. at 4:16-5:3. Petitioner affirmed, both verbally to the court and by signing the GPA, that he 20 knew the terms of the GPA, the potential outcomes of his plea, and that Mr. Sanft answered 21 all the questions Petitioner had to Petitioner's satisfaction.

22 A review of the record easily belies Petitioner's claim regarding his appeal. As stated 23 supra, Petitioner timely filed a notice of appeal on March 12, 2019. Therefore, Petitioner 24 cannot demonstrate prejudice sufficient to satisfy Strickland, as his appellate rights were not 25 infringed upon.

26 Furthermore, to the extent that Petitioner argues Mr. Sanft was ineffective in his 27 investigation, Petitioner fails to allege, much less show, what a proper investigation would 28 have uncovered, much less how that information would have led Petitioner to reject guilty plea negotiations and proceed to trial. See, Amended Petition at 10-11. Instead, Petitioner merely relies upon the vague allegation that Mr. Sanft "failed to do appropriate investigation of potentially meritorious claims." Id. at 10. Such vague allegations are insufficient to warrant

1 relief under Molina. 120 Nev. at 192, 87 P.3d at 538. Furthermore, Petitioner's lack of specific 2 factual support for his claim leaves the same bare and naked under Hargrove, and suitable only 3 for summary dismissal. 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225.

4 Because each of Petitioner's arguments in support of his claim of ineffective assistance 5 of counsel is belied by the record, pursuant to Hargrove and Mann, Petitioner is not entitled to 6 relief on this claim. 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225; 118 Nev. at 354, 46 P.3d at 1230.

8 B. Petitioner's Claim Against his Breach of the Guilty Plea Agreement is Belied by 9 the Record

10 Petitioner goes on to claim that the State violated his right to Due Process in arguing 11 that Petitioner had surrendered the stipulated sentence in the GPA. Amended Petition at 13.
12 This claim is likewise belied by the record.

13 In the GPA, Petitioner expressly agreed to the clause:

14 I understand and agree that, if I fail to interview with the Department of Parole 15 and Probation (P&P), fail to appear at any subsequent hearings in this case, or 16 an independent magistrate, by affidavit review, confirms probable cause against 17 me for new criminal charges including reckless driving or DUI, but excluding 18 minor traffic violations, the State will have the unqualified right to argue for any 19 legal sentence and term of confinement allowable for the crime(s) to which I am 20 pleading guilty, including the use of any prior convictions I may have to increase 21 my sentence as an habitual criminal to five (5) to twenty (20) years, Life without the possibility of parole, Life with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years, or a definite twenty-five (25) year term with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years.

22 GPA at 2 (emphasis added). Later in the GPA, Petitioner also expressly agreed: "the 23 sentencing judge has the discretion to order the sentences served concurrently or 24 consecutively." Id. at 3.

25 As stated supra, a Justice of the Peace found probable cause to charge Petitioner with 26 Burglary in Las Vegas Justice Court case 19F01534X. Therefore, pursuant to the the express 27 language of the GPA, the State regained the unqualified right to argue for any legal sentence.
28 GPA at 2. Petitioner seeks to limit the language of the GPA, where no such language is present.

1 See, Amended Petition at 16 (“the boilerplate language does not explicitly refer to a right to 2 argue for consecutive sentence”).

3 Furthermore, Petitioner’s representations that the probable cause in the other case had 4 been erroneously found is also belied by the record. In District Court case C338412, in which 5 the Information was filed after probable cause had been found, there was no dismissal or other 6 acquittal of Petitioner. In fact, Petitioner pled guilty in that case to reduced charges.

7 Because Petitioner’s claim consists of arguments that are belied by the record, 8 Petitioner is not entitled to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225.

9 C. Petitioner’s Conviction Does Not Implicate Double Jeopardy

10 Petitioner’s third ground for relief essentially alleges that his conviction is invalid 11 because it violates statutory prohibitions against “Double Jeopardy.” See, Amended Petition 12 at 17-19. However, this claim is not cognizable in a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and 13 was waived by Petitioner’s failure to raise it on direct appeal.

14 The Nevada Supreme Court has explained:

15 “[A] guilty plea represents a break in the chain of events which has preceded it 16 in the criminal process. When a criminal defendant has solemnly admitted in 17 open court that he is in fact guilty of the offense with which he is charged, he 18 may not thereafter raise independent claims relating to the deprivation of constitutional rights that occurred prior to the entry of the guilty plea.”

19 Webb v. State, 91 Nev. 469, 470, 538 P.2d 164, 165 (1975) (quoting Tollett v. Henderson, 411
20 U.S. 258, 267, 93 S.Ct. 1602, 1608 (1973)). An entry of a guilty plea “waive[s] all 21 constitutional claims based on events occurring prior to the entry of the plea[], except those 22 involving voluntariness of the plea[] [itself].” Warden, Nevada State Prison v. Lyons, 100
23 Nev. 430, 431, 683 P.2d 505 (1984); see also Kirksey v. State, 112 Nev. 980, 999, 923 P.2d
24 1102, 1114 (1996) (“Where the defendant has pleaded guilty, the only claims that may be 25 raised thereafter are those involving the voluntariness of the plea itself and the effectiveness
26 of counsel.”). Under NRS 34.810,

1 I. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:

2 (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or guilty but 3 mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an allegation that the plea was 4 involuntarily or unknowingly entered or that the plea was entered without 5 effective assistance of counsel.

7 unless the court finds both cause for the failure to present the grounds and actual 8 prejudice to the petitioner.

9 (emphasis added). Furthermore, the Nevada Supreme Court has held that "challenges to the 10 validity of a guilty plea and claims of ineffective assistance of trial and appellate counsel must 11 first be pursued in post-conviction proceedings.... [A]ll other claims that are appropriate for a 12 direct appeal must be pursued on direct appeal, or they will be considered waived in 13 subsequent proceedings." Franklin v. State, 110 Nev. 750, 752, 877 P.2d 1058, 1059 (1994)
14 (emphasis added) (disapproved of on other grounds by Thomas v. State, 115 Nev. 148, 979
15 P.2d 222 (1999)). "A court must dismiss a habeas petition if it presents claims that either were 16 or could have been presented in an earlier proceeding, unless the court finds both cause for 17 failing to present the claims earlier or for raising them again and actual prejudice to the 18 petitioner." Evans v. State, 117 Nev. 609, 646-47, 29 P.3d 498, 523 (2001), overruled on other
19 grounds by Lisle v. State, 131 Nev. 356, 351 P.3d 725 (2015). Additionally, substantive claims 20 are beyond the scope of habeas and waived. NRS 34.724(2)(a); see also Evans, 117 Nev. at 21 646-47, 29 P.3d 498 at 523; Franklin, 110 Nev. at 752, 877 P.2d 1058 at 1059.

22 This claim does not challenge the voluntariness of Petitioner's guilty plea, nor does it 23 allege ineffective assistance of counsel. Therefore, this claim should have been pursued on 24 direct appeal, rather than for the first time in a petition. NRS 34.810(1); Franklin, 110 Nev. at 25 752, 977 P.2d at 1059. Petitioner does not attempt to argue good cause or prejudice for raising 26 this claim for the first time in the instant proceedings. Such an argument would be meritless, 27 as Petitioner specifically and unconditionally waived his right to a direct appeal on this issue.
28 GPA at 5. Furthermore, Petitioner waived any potential constitutional defect by entering his guilty plea. Lyons, 100 Nev. at 431, 683 P.2d at 505.

1 Because Petitioner waived all constitutional issues prior to the entry of his plea, and 2 because his claim does not challenge the voluntariness of Petitioner's plea, this claim must be 3 summarily denied.

4 D. Petitioner's Claim Regarding his PSI Does Not Warrant Relief

5 Petitioner then claims that his sentence was based on multiple mistakes regarding his 6 criminal history in his PSI. Amended Petition at 20. However, Petitioner fails to demonstrate 7 that he properly raised this claim before the Court at sentencing. Further, Petitioner's 8 assertions are belied by a reading of the controlling authority regarding his sentence.

9 When imposing a sentence on a defendant, the district court must base its sentence on 10 accurate information contained in a PSI. Stockmeier v. Bd. of Parole Comm'rs, 127 Nev. 243, 11 247, 255 P.3d 209, 212 (2011). "[I]t is important for a defendant to object to his PSI at the 12 time of sentencing because 'Nevada law does not provide any administrative or judicial 13 scheme for amending a PSI after the defendant is sentenced.'" Sasser v. State, 130 Nev. 387, 14 390, 324 P.3d 1221, 1223 (2014) (quoting Stockmeier, 127 Nev. at 249, 255 P.3d at 213).
15 Furthermore, "if not resolved in the defendant's favor, the objections [to the PSI] must be 16 raised on direct appeal." Stockmeier, 127 Nev. at 250, 255 P.3d at 213 (emphasis added).

17 Pursuant to Stockmeier, Petitioner should have raised his claims regarding the 18 misinformation in his PSI to the Court at sentencing, then upon direct appeal. 127 Nev. at 250, 19 255 P.3d at 213. Petitioner did neither. Therefore, pursuant to Franklin, Petitioner waived these 20 claims. 110 Nev. at 752, 877 P.2d at 1059. Petitioner does not argue good cause or prejudice 21 to overcome the procedural bars, and could not successfully do so, as these alleged 22 incorrections were available at the time Petitioner pursued his direct appeal.

23 Furthermore, to the extent Petitioner claims that the timing of his separate claims was 24 misinterpreted by the sentencing court, his claim is belied by the statute governing treatment 25 as a habitual criminal. Pursuant to NRS 207.010, the analysis of prior convictions occurs at 26 the time of conviction, not at the time the crime was alleged. See NRS 207.010(1). At the time 27 of sentencing, the State argued in support of habitual criminal treatment, and the Court 28 determined that the State had met its burden pursuant to statute.

1 Because Petitioner waived this claim, and because it is further belied by the record and 2 by applicable laws, this claim must be summarily denied.

3 E. Petitioner's Claim Against Entry of his Guilty Plea is Belied by the Record

4 Petitioner's final claim is that his guilty plea was not knowingly and voluntarily 5 entered, as he alleges that he did not understand the consequences of a breach of the agreement.
6 Amended Petition at 22. Again, Petitioner's claim is belied by the record.

7 Contrary to Petitioner's assertion that he believed he would simply go to trial if he 8 violated the terms of the GPA (see, Amended Petition at 23), the plain language of the GPA 9 sets forth that, upon a breach, "the State will have the unqualified right to argue for any legal 10 sentence and term of confinement..." GPA at 2. As stated supra, the Court thoroughly 11 canvassed Petitioner and determined that Petitioner understood the terms of the GPA. See, 12 Section II(A), supra. Furthermore, Petitioner's claim that he was unaware that a sentence as a 13 habitual criminal was possible is belied, as the State Noticed its Intent to Seek Habitual 14 Criminal Treatment on August 29, 2017, and the GPA expressly included the possibility of 15 habitual criminal treatment as a result of Petitioner's breach of the terms of the GPA. GPA at 16 2.

17 Because Petitioner's claim is expressly belied by the record, he is not entitled to relief 18 on the same and his claim should be summarily denied. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d 19 at 225.

20 II. PETITIONER'S PETITION: EJE DOES NOT SET FORTH ANY 21 INDEPENDENT GROUNDS FOR RELIEF

22 A review of Petitioner's Petition: EJE reveals that it is, essentially, a request for a ruling 23 on Petitioner's various Petitions and Addenda. See, Petition: EJE at 2. However, beyond the 24 boilerplate language of Petitioner's Petition: EJE, it appears that Petitioner has affixed mere 25 copies of his five (5) grounds for relief, as alleged in his earlier Petitions and Addenda. See, 26 id. at 4-22. As this new Petition: EJE fails to raise any new grounds for relief, for the sake of 27 judicial economy the State hereby incorporates its arguments in its Response to Petitioner's 28 Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction), filed on June 16, 2019, its Response to

1 Petitioner's First and Second Addendum to Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-2 Conviction), filed on October 10, 2019, and its Response to Petitioner's Amended Petition, 3 contained supra.

4 Because Petitioner waived certain claims by entering his guilty plea, others by failing 5 to raise them on direct appeal, and because his other claims are belied by the record, 6 Petitioner's Petition and all supplemental pleadings thereto should be dismissed in their 7 entirety and the claims thereof should be denied.

8 CONCLUSION

9 For the foregoing reasons, the State respectfully requests that this Court DENY 10 Petitioner's Amended Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus in its entirety.

11 DATED this 17th day of April, 2020.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I, James H. Hayes, the undersigned, do hereby swear that the following statements and description of events, are true and correct, of my own knowledge, information, and belief, and to those I believe to be true and correct. Signed under penalty of perjury pursuant to NRS 208.165.

(1) THAT James H. Hayes is the affiant in this affidavit and is currently incarcerated at Southern District Correctional Center a victim of a fundamental miscarriage of justice trying to overcome a fundamentally unjust incarceration, and all procedural bars against the ruling on the merits of his Amended petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. When in fact, a fundamental miscarriage of justice would continue from the failure to consider Mr. Hayes claims for relief on the merits.

Whereas, Mr. Hayes is actually innocent of the crime of Attempted Grand Larceny through clear and convincing evidence shown at preliminary examination when magistrate dismissed the charge for lack of evidence, No corpus delicti, No slight or marginal evidence. Moreover, this is a colorable showing that it is more likely than not that no reasonable juror would have convicted Mr. Hayes absent a constitutional violation. Where as that, there was, of course, no evidence of actual guilt of the crime of Attempted Grand Larceny, as the sustaining Judge and the State knew Mr. Hayes had no

1 involvement in such a crime, as it is clear that no evidence

3 that may have justified accepting Mr. Hayes' ~~Alford~~ plea 4 to a crime he did not commit, and sentence was based 5 on speculation, not based on the acts Mr. Hayes committed.
6 So here Mr. Hayes has made a colorable showing of cause 7 and prejudice to overcome a procedural default and to 8 ensure fundamental fairness that is the central concern 9 of the writ of habeas corpus. As the instant case, is an 10 extraordinary case, where a constitutional violation has 11 resulted in the conviction of Mr. Hayes who is actually 12 innocent, and it would be an affront to justice and due 13 process to hold Mr. Hayes to his plea when the conduct upon 14 which the plea was entered did not occur. Furthermore, 15 Mr. Hayes received no consideration whatsoever in exchange 16 for his ~~Alford~~ plea to a crime he did not commit as he was 17 induced by the state to plead to a crime not committed and 18 Mr. Hayes' agreement to this unconstitutional guilty plea was 19 predicated on his belief of time credit served for a gross 20 misdemeanor sentence and did not explicitly agree to a 21 period of imprisonment in exchange for a plea.

22 That, this court is fully aware Mr. Hayes was not properly 23 advised or conversed as to the defects he may have waived 24 as part of the negotiations. When in fact, Mr. Hayes never 25 agreed to waive any and all defects in the pleadings so 26 Mr. Hayes never waived claims to "defects" voluntarily, nor 27 did Mr. Hayes waive right to complain of the acceptance 28 of an unconstitutional plea. Furthermore, Mr. Hayes' guilty

1 plea agreement did not explicitly specify waiver to defects and 2 Mr. Hayes was not well-aware of the charges against him 3 nor the surrounding negotiations and the plea canvass is 4 unambiguous evidence of this and confirms Mr. Hayes did 5 not explicitly understand the plea negotiations. Moreover, 6 there is clear and convincing evidence Mr. Hayes did not 7 commit the crime of Attempted Grand Larceny and the 8 charge of Burglary was fatal without the state's intent of 9 Attempt Grand Larceny that's a colorable showing that no 10 jury would have convicted Mr. Hayes of Attempted Grand 11 Larceny nor the underlying crime of Burglary leaving the 12 sentencing judge no factual basis for acceptance of Mr.
13 Hayes Affirmative Plea as he never admitted in open court to 14 committing the acts underlying the offense for which he 15 entered his plea, and the prosecution knew that the evidence 16 was false and without probable cause.

17 That, the record shows without doubt that Mr. Hayes has 18 pleaded Affirmative to a crime that he did not commit, and this 19 court must hesitate to apply technical rules to prevent Mr.
20 Hayes from obtaining relief. What is fact, the cause and 21 prejudice formula of Weinwright v. Suker is not dispositive 22 when the fundamental fairness of a prisoner's conviction 23 is at issue as in the instant case, that appellate procedural 24 default should not foreclose habeas corpus review of a 25 meritorious constitutional claim that will establish Mr.
26 Hayes innocence. As this is an extraordinary case, where 27 a constitutional violation has resulted in the conviction of 28 one who is actually innocent and this court shall grant the 1 writ even if the absence of a showing of cause and prejudice

2 for the procedural default, when counsel's failure to raise a 3 particular claim on appeal is to be scrutinized under the 4 cause and prejudice standard when that failure is treated 5 as a procedural default would deny Mr. Hayes fundamental 6 fairness and continue this manifest injustice. When the 7 writ of habeas corpus is the fundamental instrument for 8 safeguarding individual freedom against arbitrary and 9 lawless state actions and its well-known history bears 10 repetition. As it has been given explicit protection in our 11 constitution, and the very nature of the writ demands 12 that it be administered with the initiative and flexibility 13 essential to insure that miscarriages of justice within its 14 reach are surfaced and corrected that must occur in the 15 instant case, as there is no rigid procedural rules that 16 prevented the writ's fundamental mission - securing justice 17 from being realized and must yield to the imperative of 18 correcting a fundamentally unjust incarceration and 19 prevent illegal imprisonments.

20 That, the state breached the guilty plea agreement on 21 impeachable and highly suspect evidence as the evidence used 22 was false and the state was well aware that the alleged victim 23 at preliminary examination for the 1st degree Burglary 24 charge (case no: 19701534X) testified under oath facing the 25 penalty of perjury that Mr. Hayes was not the perpetrator 26 of alleged B&E and 100% sure of it and further stated 27 that alleged perpetrator did not enter room only stood in 28 doorway said sorry and close door and left without

1 incident, so Mr. Hayes has showed detrimental reliance since 2 there was no breach and no fault of Mr. Hayes as the 3 Burglary charge was dismissed and Justice court magistrate 4 ruling of probable cause was misplaced as alleged victim
5 testified Mr. Hayes was not perpetrator and Mr. Hayes 6 had a valid room hotel key issued to him from an 7 authorized registered hotel guest, so this is a manifest 8 impropriety in permitting the state to break the agreement 9 when they know Mr. Hayes did not break his promise making 10 the state estopped from asserting right to argue for a 11 different sentence. When there was in essence no substantial 12 breach that warrants releasing state of its promises. What 13 in fact, the agreement did not contain explicit language 14 conditionally releasing the state from its promise for an 15 excusable ruling of probable cause by magistrate as we 16 have in the instant case. Whereby had the sentencing 17 judge held an evidentiary hearing as required to determine 18 if there was a breach per the rulings of the Nevada 19 Supreme Court and the 9th Circuit this fundamental mis-20 carriage of justice would not have occurred as Mr. Hayes 21 has clear and convincing evidence he did not break 22 his promise and no breach occurred on his behalf.
23 That, habitual adjudication was not just and proper for 24 Mr. Hayes to be punished and segregated as a habitual 25 criminal and the court abused its discretion as crimes 26 use was nonviolent and not a felony under the state 27 and laws of Nevada. (Court Card Abuse in Texas) and not 28 prior (Burglary in Nevada 2016). As the sentencing judge

1 violated legislation intent of NRS 207.010 and failed
2 to serve the purposes of the statute or the interests
3 of justice. When in fact, Mr. Hayes did not warrant 4 the harsh sanction under the habitual criminal statute 5 though past conduct reprehensible simply does not 6 warrant habitual treatment.

7 That, the court that rendered the judgment and 8 sentence lack subject matter jurisdiction per NRS 174.085
9 and NRS 178.562. Whereby jurisdiction of the subject 10 matter is derived from the law; it neither can be 11 waived nor conferred by consent of Mr. Hayes
