6 THE COURT: Is Mr. Fritz here?

7 MR. FRITZ: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Good morning. Welcome back.

9 MR. FRITZ: Thank you, Your Honor. Good to 10 see you. It's been a while.

11 THE COURT: Brett Linder, Case No. 0018,
12 0019, and 0020.

13 MR. FRITZ: Your Honor, Andrew Fritz
14 appearing, Bar No. 6649. He should be in custody in 15 Tonopah. It looks like he is there.

16 DETENTION DEPUTY: What's the last name?

17 MR. FRITZ: Linder.

18 THE BAILIFF: Brett Linder.

19 MR. FRITZ: It looks like that's him on the 20 lower screen there.

21 THE COURT: Louise -- never mind, he's on 22 the top screen now.

23 MR. FRITZ: Your Honor, I'm going to make 24 some representations.

25 THE COURT: Go ahead.

1 MR. FRITZ: Your Honor, this is -- I don't 2 know if it's complex. It is complex, but yet a very 3 thorough Plea Agreement. He has numerous cases, 4 approximately 12 cases that started in the Justice
5 Court, and we got three up here in District Court.

6 I need a little bit more time to go over 7 the Plea Agreement with my client, Your Honor, as well
8 as with the State. I just want to make sure that it 9 absolutely incorporates everything. I had some 10 concerns when I went over it Friday after receiving it 11 via email.

12 I would ask for perhaps your next law in 13 motion. I do believe, Your Honor, I am before this 14 Court on Monday, March -- what would that date be? -- 15 March 8th.

16 THE COURT: I have two of them, the 8th and 17 the 22nd. You would like to have the 8th?

18 MR. FRITZ: I would, Your Honor. Just 19 because he is in custody, part one. And part two, is 20 he does have a Justice Court appearance on the 11th in 21 which we're going to hopefully clean up everything 22 still left in Justice Court on the 11th. So I would 23 like to get the plea down on the 8th.

24 THE COURT: All right. Without objection, 25 it's granted.

1 MR. FRITZ: And thank you, Your Honor. And 2 then I just have maybe a housekeeping matter, a 3 logistic matter.

4 Procedurally, now that we live in the Covid 5 era, with the Plea Agreement, he is in Tonopah.
6 Should I mail it to him, go over it with him, have him
7 mail it back, or should I -- would the Court allow me
8 to sign it at his direction? I will just do whatever 9 the Court's policy and procedures are.

10 THE COURT: Andrew, normally I don't have 11 anything to do with it. The attorneys go and talk 12 with the jail and work out the best way to do it. But 13 if you would like assistance from my office, I would 14 imagine Louise or Jared, my law clerk, will help you 15 coordinate with the Sheriff's Office.

16 MR. FRITZ: Well, what I will do is I will 17 mail it to him in Tonopah then. I know that some 18 courts have been allowing us to sign at the client's 19 direction. But I would much prefer that the Court has 20 the original signature on it.

21 THE COURT: Yes, sir. Anything we can do 22 to help you, let us know.

23 MR. FRITZ: Okay. Mr. Linder, it will be 24 in today's mail hopefully. If it's not in today's 25 mail by the time I get back to Las Vegas, it's going

1 to be in tomorrow's mail. Okay. And we'll talk soon 2 on the phone.

3 Thank you, Your Honor. I appreciate you 4 accommodating that.

IN THE FIFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Plaintiff,

GUILTY PLEA AGREEMENT

BRETT ALAN LINDER,

Defendant. /

COMES NOW, THE STATE OF NEVADA ("Plaintiff"), by CHRIS ARABIA, Nye
County District Attorney, through MICHAEL D. ALLMON, and BRETT ALAN LINDER, ("Defendant"), represented by Attorney ANDREW FRITZ, Esq., and files this Guilty
Plea Agreement in the above-entitled case.

I, BRETT ALAN LINDER, hereby agree to plead guilty to, GRAND LARCENY
OF A FIREARM, in violation of NRS 205.226, A CATEGORY 'B' FELONY, as more fully alleged in the charging document attached hereto as Exhibit 1. My decision to plead guilty is based upon the plea agreement in this case, which is as follows:

1. In exchange for pleading guilty as set forth above, the prosecution will not pursue any other charges related to the instant case, District Court case CR21-0018/Pahrump Justice Court case 20CR02744.

NYE COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY
P.O. BOX 39
PAHRUMP, NEVADA 89041
(775) 751-7085

2. This is a global plea deal. As such, I will enter a plea of guilty to other cases as part of this deal: in District Court, to a charge of DISCHARGING FIREARM AT OR INTO STRUCTURE, VEHICLE, AIRCRAFT, OR WATERCRAFT, in violation of NRS 202.285, A CATEGORY 'B' FELONY, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 10 years, or by a fine of not more than $5,000, or by both fine and imprisonment., punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 10 years, and by a fine of not more than $10,000 for events stemming from a separate incident, reference NCSO Case 20NY-2847/Pahrump Justice Court case 20CR02607; Domestic Battery, First Offense, a misdemeanor in Pahrump Justice Court case 20CR01366, and Domestic Battery, Second Offense, in Pahrump Justice Court case 20CR02607. In the Justice Court, the State will recommend the minimum sentences. The State will recommend that all counts run concurrent.
3. In exchange, as part of this global deal, the State will dismiss or not file on the following charges: 20TR00948 (speeding), 20CR02806 (Battery, a misdemeanor), 20CR03098 (Harassment, a misdemeanor), CR21-0019/Pahrump Justice Court 20CR03800 (Battery on an Older Person, a Gross Misdemeanor), 20NY-3047 and 20NY-3093 (Burglary with a Firearm or Deadly Weapon, a Category B Felony, 2 counts of Grand Larceny of a Firearm, a Category B Felony), 20NY-2935 (Residential Burglary, a Category B Felony), 20NY-2857 (Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, a misdemeanor), 20NY-2884 (Commercial Burglary, a Category C Felony).

- 1 4. At sentencing on the felony cases in District Court, the State will recommend 2 that each case runs concurrent. Other than that, both parties are free to argue 3 the appropriate sentence.
- 4 5. I acknowledge and accept that for the purposes of habitual offender/criminal 5 statutes, that by pleading guilty to these two counts, these cases will be 6 considered two convictions because they stem from separate events or 7 transactions.
- 8 6. I acknowledge and accept that should I fail to interview with the Department of 9 Parole and Probation; fail to appear at any subsequent hearings in this case; 10 escape custody if applicable; provide a sample of breath, blood or urine that 11 tests positive for the unlawful use of a controlled substance, dangerous drug(s), 12 or alcohol at any point, or refuse such test, a test for which I willingly and 13 voluntarily consent and agree to submit to, or an independent magistrate, by 14 affidavit review, confirms probable cause against me for new criminal charges
15 arising after the day I enter my plea pursuant to this agreement, but excluding 16 minor traffic violations below reckless driving, I agree that the prosecution will 17 be free to either withdraw from the plea agreement, argue for any legal 18 sentence and term of confinement possible, pursuant to the charges set forth in 19 the charging document to which I have pleaded guilty, to include any increased 20 punishment if enhancements are applicable, such as but not limited to Habitual 21 Criminal treatment; and that a failure to appear after the day I enter my plea 22 pursuant to this agreement can be the basis for a new and separate criminal 23 prosecution. I understand that with two prior felony convictions I could be 24 sentenced from 5-20 years in prison (for crimes committed prior to July 1, 2020), and that with three prior felony convictions or more, I face the potential of life in prison without the possibility of parole, life with the possibility of parole, or a sentence of 10-25 years in prison (for crimes committed prior to July 1, 2020). In the event that any of the above described circumstances come to pass, I understand and agree that the prosecution could adopt any sentencing posture legally allowed for the charges I have pleaded guilty to, and still pursue charges that had been agreed to be dismissed because of my breach of the agreement reached. Lastly, any breach of the agreement reached, including a failed, faked, adulterated, or otherwise invalid test to ascertain the presence of drugs or alcohol in my system after pleading guilty pursuant to this agreement will immediately (and ex parte) be considered a basis for revoking my own recognizance (OR) release if in fact I have been released to my OR pending sentencing or any other court date or appearance after entry of plea. As an example, if I have been enrolled in drug court as a condition of an OR release, and fail, fake, refuse, or otherwise provide an invalid test I agree that the court may immediately revoke my OR release until such time as I may seek to thereafter have my OR restored.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLEA

I understand that by pleading guilty I admit the facts that support all the elements of the offense(s) to which I now plead as set forth in Exhibit 1.

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty, on the charge of Count I, GRAND LARCENY OF A FIREARM, in violation of NRS 205.226, A CATEGORY 'B' FELONY, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 10 years, and by a fine

1 of not more than $10,000. I understand that certain Administrative Assessment Fees
2 are mandatory and applicable and that I will be court ordered to pay them.

3 I understand that, if appropriate, I will be ordered to make restitution to the 4 victim of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty and to the victim of any related 5 offense(s) being dismissed or not prosecuted pursuant to this agreement. I also 6 understand that any victim to any offense I have plead guilty to, or any victim included 7 for the purposes of restitution, may take the stand and testify at sentencing. I will also 8 be ordered to reimburse the State of Nevada for expenses related to my extradition, if 9 any.

10 I understand that I am NOT eligible for probation for the offense(s) to which I
11 am pleading guilty. See NRS 176A.100. I understand that, except as otherwise 12 provided by statute, the question of whether I receive probation is in the discretion of 13 the sentencing judge.

14 I understand that if more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed and I 15 am eligible to serve the sentences concurrently, the sentencing judge has the 16 discretion to order the sentences served concurrently or consecutively, irrespective of 17 any parties' recommendation.

18 I understand that information regarding charges not filed, dismissed charges, or 19 charges to be dismissed pursuant to this agreement may be considered by the judge 20 at sentencing.

21 I have not been promised or guaranteed any particular sentence by anyone. I 22 know that my sentence is to be determined by the Court within the limits prescribed by 23 statute. I understand that if my attorney or the State of Nevada or both recommend 24

1 any specific punishment to the court, the court is not obligated to accept the 2 recommendation.

3 I understand if the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty to was committed
4 while I was incarcerated on another charge or while I was on probation or parole that I
5 am not eligible for credit for time served toward the instant offense(s)

6 I understand that the Division of Parole and Probation of the Department of 7 Public Safety may prepare a written report for the sentencing judge before sentencing.
8 This report will include matters relevant to the issue of sentencing, including my 9 criminal history. I understand that this report may contain hearsay information 10 regarding my background and criminal history. My attorney and I will each have the 11 opportunity to comment on the information contained in the report, if any, at the time of 12 sentencing. Unless the prosecutor has specifically agreed to stand silent at 13 sentencing, the prosecutor will likewise retain the right to fully address any and all 14 matters contained within the report.

15 I understand that pleading guilty may have adverse consequences to my 16 citizenship or immigration status.

17 WAIVER OF RIGHTS

18 By entering my plea of guilty, I understand that I have waived the following 19 rights and privileges:

- 20 1. The constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, including the right to 21 refuse to testify at trial, in which event the State would not be allowed to 22 comment to the jury about my refusal to testify.
- 23 2. The constitutional right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, free of 24 excessive pretrial publicity prejudicial to the defense, at which trial I would be

1 entitled to the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained. At trial, 2 the State would bear the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt each 3 element of each offense charged.

4 3. The constitutional right to confront and cross-examine any witnesses who would 5 testify against me.

6 4. The constitutional right to subpoena witnesses to testify on my behalf.

7 5. The constitutional right to testify in my own defense.

8 6. The right to appeal the conviction, with the assistance of an attorney, either 9 appointed or retained, unless the appeal is based upon reasonable 10 constitutional, jurisdictional or other grounds that challenge the legality of the 11 proceedings and except as otherwise provided by subsection 3 of NRS

13 VOLUNTARINESS OF PLEA

14 I have discussed the elements of all the original charges against me with my 15 attorney and I understand the nature of these charges.

16 I understand that the State would have to prove each element of each charge 17 against me at trial.

18 I have discussed with my attorney any possible defenses and circumstances 19 that might be in my favor.

20 All of the foregoing elements, consequences, rights and waiver of rights have 21 been thoroughly explained to me by my attorney.

22 I believe that pleading guilty and accepting this plea bargain is in my best 23 interests and that a trial would be contrary to my best interests.

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Plaintiff,

v.

BRETT ALAN LINDER,

Defendant.

COMES NOW, THE STATE OF NEVADA ("Plaintiff"), by CHRIS ARABIA, Nye County District Attorney, through MICHAEL D. ALLMON, and BRETT ALAN LINDER, ("Defendant"), represented by Attorney ANDREW FRITZ, Esq., and files this Guilty Plea Agreement in the above-entitled case.

I, BRETT ALAN LINDER, hereby agree to plead guilty to, DISCHARGING FIREARM AT OR INTO STRUCTURE, VEHICLE, AIRCRAFT, OR WATERCRAFT, in violation of NRS 202.285, A CATEGORY 'B' FELONY, as more fully alleged in the charging document attached hereto as Exhibit 1. My decision to plead guilty is based upon the plea agreement in this case, which is as follows:

1. In exchange for pleading guilty as set forth above, the prosecution will not pursue any other charges related to the instant case, District Court case CR21-0020 (Pahrump Justice Court case 20CR02744).

NYE COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY
P.O. BOX 39
PAHRUMP, NEVADA 89041
(775) 751-7085

2. This is a global plea deal. As such, I will enter a plea of guilty to other cases as part of this deal: in District Court, to a charge of Grand Larceny of a Firearm, in violation of NRS 205.226, A CATEGORY 'B' FELONY, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 10 years, and by a fine of not more than $10,000 for events stemming from a separate incident, reference NCSO Case 20NY-2847/Pahrump Justice Court case 20CR02607; Domestic Battery, First Offense, a misdemeanor in Pahrump Justice Court case 20CR01366, and Domestic Battery, Second Offense, in Pahrump Justice Court case 20CR02607. In the Justice Court, the State will recommend the minimum sentences. The State will recommend that all counts run concurrently.
3. In exchange, as part of this global deal, the State will dismiss or not file on the following charges: 20TR00948 (speeding), 20CR02806 (Battery, a misdemeanor), 20CR03098 (Harassment, a misdemeanor), CR21-0019/Pahrump Justice Court 20CR03800 (Battery on an Older Person, a Gross Misdemeanor), 20NY-3047 and 20NY-3093 (Burglary with a Firearm or Deadly Weapon, a Category B Felony, 2 counts of Grand Larceny of a Firearm, a Category B Felony), 20NY-2935 (Residential Burglary, a Category B Felony), 20NY-2857 (Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, a misdemeanor), 20NY-2884 (Commercial Burglary, a Category C Felony).
4. At sentencing on the felony cases in District Court, the State will recommend that each case runs concurrently. Other than that, both parties are free to argue the appropriate sentence.

1 5. I acknowledge and accept that for the purposes of habitual offender/criminal 2 statutes, that by pleading guilty to these two counts, these cases will be 3 considered two convictions because they stem from separate events or 4 transactions.

5 6. I acknowledge and accept that should I fail to interview with the Department of 6 Parole and Probation; fail to appear at any subsequent hearings in this case; 7 escape custody if applicable; provide a sample of breath, blood or urine that 8 tests positive for the unlawful use of a controlled substance, dangerous drug(s), 9 or alcohol at any point, or refuse such test, a test for which I willingly and 10 voluntarily consent and agree to submit to, or an independent magistrate, by 11 affidavit review, confirms probable cause against me for new criminal charges
12 arising after the day I enter my plea pursuant to this agreement, but excluding 13 minor traffic violations below reckless driving, I agree that the prosecution will 14 be free to either withdraw from the plea agreement, argue for any legal 15 sentence and term of confinement possible, pursuant to the charges set forth in 16 the charging document to which I have pleaded guilty, to include any increased 17 punishment if enhancements are applicable, such as but not limited to Habitual
18 Criminal treatment; and that a failure to appear after the day I enter my plea 19 pursuant to this agreement can be the basis for a new and separate criminal 20 prosecution. I understand that with two prior felony convictions I could be 21 sentenced from 5-20 years in prison (for crimes committed prior to July 1, 22 2020), and that with three prior felony convictions or more, I face the potential of 23 life in prison without the possibility of parole, life with the possibility of parole, or 24 a sentence of 10-25 years in prison (for crimes committed prior to July 1, 2020).

1 In the event that any of the above-described circumstances come to pass, I 2 understand and agree that the prosecution could adopt any sentencing posture
3 legally allowed for the charges I have pleaded guilty to, and still pursue charges 4 that had been agreed to be dismissed because of my breach of the agreement 5 reached. Lastly, any breach of the agreement reached, including a failed, faked, 6 adulterated, or otherwise invalid test to ascertain the presence of drugs or 7 alcohol in my system after pleading guilty pursuant to this agreement will 8 immediately (and ex parte) be considered a basis for revoking my own 9 recognizance (OR) release if in fact I have been released to my OR pending 10 sentencing or any other court date or appearance after entry of plea. As an 11 example, if I have been enrolled in drug court as a condition of an OR release, 12 and fail, fake, refuse, or otherwise provide an invalid test I agree that the court 13 may immediately revoke my OR release until such time as I may seek to 14 thereafter have my OR restored.

15 CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLEA

16 I understand that by pleading guilty I admit the facts that support all the 17 elements of the offense(s) to which I now plead as set forth in Exhibit 1.

18 I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty, on the charge of Count 19 I, DISCHARGING FIREARM AT OR INTO STRUCTURE, VEHICLE, AIRCRAFT, OR 20 WATERCRAFT, in violation of NRS 202.285, A CATEGORY 'B' FELONY, I am 21 subject to imprisonment in the state prison for a minimum term of not less than 1 year 22 and a maximum term of not more than 10 years, or by a fine of not more than 23 $5,000, or by both fine and imprisonment.

24 ///

1 I understand that certain Administrative Assessment Fees are mandatory and 2 applicable and that I will be court ordered to pay them.

3 I understand that, if appropriate, I will be ordered to make restitution to the 4 victim of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty and to the victim of any related 5 offense(s) being dismissed or not prosecuted pursuant to this agreement. I also 6 understand that any victim to any offense I have plead guilty to, or any victim included
7 for the purposes of restitution, may take the stand and testify at sentencing. I will also 8 be ordered to reimburse the State of Nevada for expenses related to my extradition, if 9 any.

10 I understand that I am NOT eligible for probation for the offense(s) to which I
11 am pleading guilty. See NRS 176A.100. I understand that, except as otherwise 12 provided by statute, the question of whether I receive probation is in the discretion of 13 the sentencing judge.

14 I understand that if more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed and I 15 am eligible to serve the sentences concurrently, the sentencing judge has the 16 discretion to order the sentences served concurrently or consecutively, irrespective of 17 any parties' recommendation.

18 I understand that information regarding charges not filed, dismissed charges, or 19 charges to be dismissed pursuant to this agreement may be considered by the judge 20 at sentencing.

21 I have not been promised or guaranteed any particular sentence by anyone. I 22 know that my sentence is to be determined by the Court within the limits prescribed by
24

1 any specific punishment to the court, the court is not obligated to accept the 2 recommendation.

3 I understand if the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty to was committed
4 while I was incarcerated on another charge or while I was on probation or parole that I
5 am not eligible for credit for time served toward the instant offense(s)

6 I understand that the Division of Parole and Probation of the Department of 7 Public Safety may prepare a written report for the sentencing judge before sentencing.
8 This report will include matters relevant to the issue of sentencing, including my 9 criminal history. I understand that this report may contain hearsay information 10 regarding my background and criminal history. My attorney and I will each have the 11 opportunity to comment on the information contained in the report, if any, at the time of 12 sentencing. Unless the prosecutor has specifically agreed to stand silent at 13 sentencing, the prosecutor will likewise retain the right to fully address any and all 14 matters contained within the report.

15 I understand that pleading guilty may have adverse consequences to my 16 citizenship or immigration status.

17 WAIVER OF RIGHTS

18 By entering my plea of guilty, I understand that I have waived the following 19 rights and privileges:

- 20 1. The constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, including the right to 21 refuse to testify at trial, in which event the State would not be allowed to 22 comment to the jury about my refusal to testify.
- 23 2. The constitutional right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, free of 24 excessive pretrial publicity prejudicial to the defense, at which trial I would be

1 entitled to the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained. At trial, 2 the State would bear the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt each 3 element of each offense charged.

4 3. The constitutional right to confront and cross-examine any witnesses who would

6 4. The constitutional right to subpoena witnesses to testify on my behalf.

7 5. The constitutional right to testify in my own defense.

8 6. The right to appeal the conviction, with the assistance of an attorney, either 9 appointed or retained, unless the appeal is based upon reasonable 10 constitutional, jurisdictional or other grounds that challenge the legality of the 11 proceedings and except as otherwise provided by subsection 3 of NRS

5
6 THE COURT: Mr. Fritz's case are next. And 7 you have two, Linder and Fisher. Do you have a 8 preference of which one you'd like to do first?

9 MR. FRITZ: Let's do Mr. Linder first. He 10 should be -- well, he is in custody in Tonopah.

11 THE COURT: Brett Linder, Case No. 21-0018,
12 0019, 0020. Time and place set for arraignment on all 13 three. Mr. Linder is present on the TV. And so we'll 14 ask Mr. Fritz to brief the record for us.

15 MR. FRITZ: Yes, Your Honor. This is truly
16 a large global resolution. He still has numerous 17 cases in the Justice Court, and we're going to be 18 entering some pleas -- he's going to be entering some 19 pleas down there on the 11th, which is later this 20 week, to a couple of Domestic Batteries.

21 But what we have before Your Honor is a 22 Plea Agreement in cases that end in 18 and end in 20.
23 The case, after the Court accepts his pleas, on 19 24 will be dismissed. Your Honor, you may recall, two 25 weeks ago we were here. Since then, just to brief the

1 record a little bit, I did forward these Plea
2 Agreements to the Tonopah Jail. My client did go over 3 them. He read them, he had copies, he initialed them, 4 he signed them, he sent them back. He called my 5 office, and I went over them with him, and so I'm 6 comfortable going forward with the Plea Agreements in 7 the cases that end in 18 and 20. And I did file those 8 in open court this morning, Your Honor. And that's 9 where we are.

10 THE COURT: And it shows on the Guilty Plea
11 Agreements 21-18, he's going to be pleading to Grand 12 Larceny of a Firearm, category B, one to ten.

13 MR. FRITZ: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: And on 21-20, he's going to be 15 pleading to Discharging a Firearm Into a Structure, 16 Vehicle, et cetera, a category B. And that also is a 17 one to ten. What's the State's sentencing posture?

18 MR. FRITZ: We'll be arguing, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Free to argue?

20 MR. FRITZ: Yes, sir, that's exactly right.
21 And again, just I am repeating myself a little bit 22 here, but this is part of a large global resolution.
23 And with having said that, we're prepared to go 24 forward with the Plea Agreements this morning, 25 Your Honor, have you canvass my client.

1 THE COURT: Very good.

2 COURT STAFF: I think our video is 3 stopped -- oh, no, it's moving now.

4 MR. FRITZ: We can see him.

5 COURT STAFF: Okay.

6 THE COURT: 21-19 will be dismissed, and it
7 looks like on page 2 of your Guilty Plea Agreement, it
8 shows a misdemeanor Domestic and a Second Offense 9 Domestic that he's going to plead to down below, if 10 I'm reading it correctly, and then a number of 11 Speeding, Battery, Harassment and other charges down 12 below that are going to be dismissed and not filed.

13 MR. FRITZ: Yes, Your Honor, as I said, 14 it's my understanding those are going to go forward on 15 the 11th later this week before Judge Jaspersen.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Vitto, do you have anything 17 else you want to add to that summary?

18 MR. VITTO: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Your name is Brett Alan Linder?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: How old are you, Mr. Linder?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Twenty-four, sir.

23 THE COURT: How far did you get through 24 school?

25 THE DEFENDANT: I graduated.

1 THE COURT: Do you read and write English
2 fine?

3 THE DEFENDANT: I'm sorry.

4 THE COURT: Do you read and write English
5 fine?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Have you ever been treated for 8 a mental disorder?

9 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Are you under the influence 11 right now of any prescriptions, drugs, alcohol -- 12 anything that messes with the mind?

13 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Did you read through the Guilty
15 Plea Agreement with your attorney?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: He answered your questions page 18 by page?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: It indicates you're going to be 21 pleading guilty to two category B felonies. One is 22 for Grand Larceny of a Firearm, and the other is for 23 Discharging a Firearm Into a Structure or Vehicle, 24 et cetera. For each of those, you can receive one to 25 ten years in prison and/or a $5,000 fine. 21-19 will 1 be dismissed.

2 We're going to get a Presentence
3 Investigation Report prepared by the Division of 4 Parole and Probation, and the weekend before your 5 sentencing, I will read through that to see what your 6 criminal history is, what the facts of this case are, 7 and so forth.

8 Then we'll come in Monday morning, and you
9 and your attorney will get a chance to argue to me 10 what you think an appropriate sentence is, and then 11 the State will make their argument. And at that 12 moment, I will decide whether or not to give you the 13 maximum sentence in prison or probation or whatever I 14 think is the right thing to do. Do you understand I'm 15 free to do whatever I think is the right thing to do?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Did anybody make any threats or 18 promises besides the negotiation to get you to plead 19 today?

20 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: To the charges of the Grand 22 Larceny of a Firearm, category B, and Discharging a 23 Firearm Into a Structure, category B, what are your 24 pleas?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: By pleading guilty, you're 2 waiving your right to a trial. Mr. Fritz would 3 represent you at the trial and help you prepare your 4 defense. He would subpoena witnesses to come in and 5 testify on your behalf, and he would cross-examine all 6 of the State's witnesses to make sure they meet their 7 legal burden of proving each and every element of the 8 underlying charges beyond a reasonable doubt.

9 It would be a speedy and public trial in 10 front of a jury of your peers, and you can testify at 11 the trial if you want to. If you don't want to 12 testify, you have a constitutional right to remain 13 silent, and your silence couldn't be used against you 14 by the State during the course of the proceedings.

15 Do you understand the trial rights you're 16 waiving?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: By pleading guilty, you're also 19 waiving your appellate rights. After today, you can 20 only appeal for four reasons: That I sentenced you 21 illegally, that the State didn't follow through with 22 their end of the plea agreement, that your plea wasn't 23 entered voluntarily, or that the law itself is illegal 24 or unconstitutional.

25 Other than those four reasons, you can't

1 appeal after today; do you understand?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Understanding your appellate 4 rights and trial rights, do you still want to plead 5 guilty?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty because 8 in fact on or about -- on or about August 22nd, 2020, 9 here in Pahrump, Nye County, you stole a firearm 10 belonging to somebody named Miranda Matal with the 11 intent to deprive them of it; is that accurate?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty because 14 in fact on or about September 8th, 2020, here in 15 Pahrump, Nye County, you discharged a firearm into a 16 vehicle on Dutch Ford Road occupied by Joseph Fenton; 17 is that correct?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: We'll accept your guilty pleas 20 then. We'll set it for sentencing on -- is this the 21 newest one?

22 COURT STAFF: Yes.

23 THE COURT: -- on May 17th, May 17th at 24 0900.

25 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 Anything else you need on that case,

3 Mr. Fritz.

4 MR. FRITZ: Not on this case, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Very good.

5
6 THE BAILIFF: All rise.

7 THE COURT: Good morning. Thank you.
8 Please be seated.

9 Let's start with Brett Linder, 21-0018.
10 Time and place set for Sentencing.

11 COURT STAFF: He has three files,
12 Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. We have 14 0018, -19, and -20. And do we have the PSIs?

15 MR. FRITZ: We do, Your Honor, and I think 16 that's something that we need to address first.

17 I'm a little concerned about the PSI --

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. FRITZ: -- and I will bring a couple of 20 things, if you will, to the Court's attention.

21 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

22 MR. FRITZ: As you know these are 23 important; they follow the person around forever, 24 especially if you go to prison and that. His criminal 25 history file, it accurately reflects what we have

1 before us, Your Honor. I think there's an issue here.
2 You see on page 4, it shows he has two felony 3 convictions. If we go to page 5 and 6 of the PSI, the 4 bottom case of page 5, the top case on page 6, shows 5 that my client had a felony conviction, he was 6 honorably discharged from probation on both of those 7 cases in 3/8 of '19.

8 Now, here's what happened. Upon honorable
9 discharge, those cases were to be reduced to gross 10 misdemeanors. That was never done, though. Whoever 11 his attorney of record was at the time -- I don't know 12 who it was -- didn't bring the case back before 13 Your Honor -- he thinks they're before Your Honor, 14 those two cases -- and get the necessary reduction.
15 Now, the PSI report does accurately reflect what 16 should have happened on the top of page 8.

17 So I think this needs to be cleared up, 18 Your Honor, before he's formally sentenced today. And 19 I don't know procedurally how we should do it; if we 20 should continue the sentencing date and maybe place 21 those two cases on calendar before Your Honor that 22 day, and perhaps get the reduction on that day. But I 23 just don't think this accurately reflects his criminal 24 history.

25 Now, his criminal history, it looks long

1 and it is, but there are no felony convictions until 2 this case, the case you have before Your Honor today.
3 There would be no felony convictions, and I think 4 that's important when sentencing him.

5 Part 2, the second case, I think it ends 6 in -- the case that ends in 20, he was arrested on 7 that September the 8th of last year. He has been in 8 custody since September the 8th of last year on this 9 case, I believe. You know, that's eight-and-a-half 10 months ago, Your Honor. And it says on that case, he 11 has a grand total of three days credit, and that just 12 cannot be right. That's on page 9 of that PSI report, 13 and it says he has three days of credit from 14 August 22nd to August 24th -- well, this case didn't 15 even happen until September the 8th; so that just 16 can't be all right.

17 So that's where we are, Your Honor. Maybe 18 I'm looking for some direction from the Court as to 19 procedurally, how we should proceed. But those are my 20 concerns.

21 THE COURT: All right. Let's hear what the 22 State has to say about it.

23 MR. ALLMON: Your Honor, Mr. Fritz did 24 point that out to me; however, I did also point out to 25 Mr. Fritz that I do believe it's accurate. One issue

1 here is not only is it accurate, it's noted. I think, 2 if you look on page 8, there's the first paragraph 3 there, the last two lines before "Offense synopsis," 4 it says in bold italicized, "As of the writing of this 5 report, the defendant has not returned to the court to 6 withdraw his please and enter guilty pleas to the 7 gross misdemeanors." I believe that's accurate based 8 on my review of the criminal history of the defendant, 9 and my review of charging it in this case.

10 So this was -- this is a case assigned to 11 me personally. I'm aware of how the guilty plea went.
12 This issue was raised by Defense counsel previously, 13 "Hey, there's a Felon in Possession charge; I don't 14 think that's accurate because he's got this dropdown.
15 I looked into at that time and I found that he did 16 have an agreement to a drop down, but he never 17 motioned the Court to do it until -- he was still 18 validly a felon, a convicted felon." So he was not to 19 be carrying a firearm.

20 And so this issue has already been 21 raised -- it was raised about five months ago now, I 22 want to say. This report is accurate. In fact, the 23 PSI investigator went out of her way to specifically 24 bring that to the Court's attention.

25 As far as the credit for time served, I

1 would have to look and see if that's a matter of 2 assigned credit to one case or the other. There's two 3 PSIs. I would have to look at the other one and see 4 if that's -- I haven't had a chance to do that 5 (inaudible).

6 THE COURT: I'm not real concerned about 7 the credit for time served issue, because it's quite 8 normal when you do sentencings to note that a credit 9 for time served isn't accurate in the PSIs. And it's 10 normal for P and P and my staff to recalculate it 11 based on the totality of the circumstances, share that 12 information with the attorneys. And if there's a 13 disagreement and we come back in for a hearing on it, 14 usually, the attorneys say, "Yeah. Your calculation 15 is right and that's the credit for time served."

16 And of course we would recalculate it if an 17 attorney stood up and said, "He was in jail almost six 18 months; it shows three days," of course we would 19 recalculate it. I'm not real concerned about the 20 credit for time served issue.

21 I'm a little bit concerned about the 22 dropdown issue, but mainly because I'm approaching it 23 from the knowledge I'm not sure how all of this stuff 24 works. Normally, when defendants come into court and 25 they say, "We entered a negotiation with the State and

1 I will plead guilty today to this, and they agree 2 they'll drop it down in three years if I'm good," and 3 so forth. And I normally tell defendants, you know,
4 "I don't have to go along with that. You can make a 5 motion to drop it down, but I may say, 'No. I'm not 6 going to do it,' depending on the history and facts of 7 the case, and so forth."

8 And then they enter the plea. Ninety-eight 9 percent of the time, they come back in three or four 10 years later with their attorney and say, "We want to 11 drop it down," and I rubber-stamp it and say, "Okay.
12 If the State wants to drop it down, it's okay with 13 me." There might have been one or two situations in 14 the last 20 years where I said, "No. I'm not going to 15 drop it down. We're going to leave it a felony."

16 I'm not sure whose responsibility that is 17 to bring it in front of me. And if it is the 18 defendant's attorney's responsibility to bring it in 19 front of me, it sounds like it's still something he 20 can do. But because he hasn't done it yet, the 21 State's basically saying, "Everything's correct right 22 now. Let's go forward because he hasn't done it yet."
23 And I would tend to agree with that because I'm not 24 familiar with any statute or case law on point that 25 says you can't sentence a guy for this when he's had

1 this dropdown in the past. So what I'm saying is I'm 2 confused about it. I'm not really sure what to do 3 either.

4 MR. FRITZ: And just, again, my concern, 5 you know, he has a lengthy history, and we can talk 6 about that, but the concern is those are his only two 7 felony convictions; so he really should be sitting 8 before Your Honor ready to be sentenced on his first 9 felony conviction. That's also another thing I want 10 to point out, plus I know the PSI Report follows you 11 around.

12 THE COURT: Yeah. And you noted that if 13 those felonies went away, then there's nothing about 14 being a felon with a gun. And I noticed that the 15 charges are Discharging and Larceny. So I am not even 16 contemplating that aspect of it until you said it.
17 "Oh, he's a felon. He shouldn't have a gun." I 18 wasn't even thinking about that because of the two 19 underlying crimes that we're here for today.

20 MR. ALLMON: And, Your Honor, this case was 21 CR8668 is a Fifth Judicial District case prosecuted by 22 the Nye County District Attorney's Office. Paragraph 23 2 of that GPA -- I'm looking at my files right here -- 24 says, "At sentencing..." -- it says what it's going to 25 be -- and then it says, "If defendant successfully

1 completes the regimental discipline program and 2 completes probation with no violations, graduates from 3 Drug Court successfully, and pays all fines and fees, 4 the State will not oppose a motion by defendant to 5 withdraw his two guilty pleas and enter a guilty plea 6 to Conspiracy To Commit Burglary on each case, both 7 gross misdemeanors, with a sentence of credit for time 8 served."

9 It was on the defendant to make that 10 motion; he never made it. It's a valid felony 11 conviction, and that's this jurisdiction. There's 12 really no question.

13 THE COURT: So based on your argument, you 14 would say let's go forward with sentencing today, 15 Judge?

16 MR. ALLMON: I would, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: And you would -- you might say 18 even, "Judge, go forward and sentence him today, and 19 keep in your mind that maybe those two will be dropped 20 in the future. Likely they might be, but for now, 21 let's go forward with that knowledge"?

22 MR. ALLMON: Yes, Your Honor. The State
23 would agree defendant is still eligible to make that 24 motion. I don't think that the new crimes change that 25 there was no requirement that he not pick up a new

1 conviction between the time that he finished probation
2 and actually got his dropdown.

3 THE COURT: Of course.

4 MR. ALLMON: So I think he's eligible for 5 it. I think these are issues for Defense to raise as 6 to why it should be considered less. I'm of course 7 going to argue that it should still stand.

8 THE COURT: State's saying, "Let's go
9 forward today, Judge. You had the knowledge you made 10 about the dropdown. We're good to go." What do you 11 say, Andrew?

12 MR. FRITZ: I'd say to Your Honor, point me 13 on those two cases. I don't know who his attorney of 14 record was. Let's set if for a court date to where 15 they can be dropped down, and then perhaps even do the 16 sentencing on the cases you have before Your Honor at 17 that time.

18 THE COURT: I'm fine with that, because I 19 don't see any prejudice anywhere except for the fact 20 that we don't need new PSIs, do we?

21 MR. FRITZ: Well, I don't know. Again,
22 that was one of my concerns where it says right here 23 on whatever page we're looking at.

24 THE COURT: In the old days, you know, they 25 made recommendations. And I could see a Defense

1 attorney saying, "Hey, that recommendation might 2 change with these two dropdowns."

3 MR. FRITZ: What concerns me is having that 4 "2" beside the word "felony" on page 4.

5 THE COURT: Yeah, but they're not making 6 recommendations in here, are they?

7 MR. FRITZ: Not to my knowledge.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And I'm smart enough to 9 know that if we do the dropdown, those two felonies go 10 away.

11 MR. FRITZ: Okay. So that would be my 12 request that we'll proceed if the Court --

13 THE COURT: All right. Counsel, do you see 14 any reason why we shouldn't bounce it a month and let 15 Andrew take care of that paperwork, even though we all 16 acknowledge that we can acknowledge it now? He's 17 sitting in custody; so I don't see the prejudice.

18 MR. ALLMON: I suffer no prejudice; you're 19 correct, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: We'll go ahead and do that 21 then.

22 Andrew?

23 MR. FRITZ: Okay. I'm just asking for 24 perhaps clarification logistics. So you said 25 approximately 30 days. Great.

1 THE COURT: I made that number up. You can 2 ask --

3 MR. FRITZ: Exactly. We'll look at the 4 calendar here.

5 And then who's the attorney of record on 6 those two cases?

7 MR. ALLMON: I am -- no, for the old ones?

8 MR. FRITZ: Yeah, the one he was sentenced;
9 do you recall?

10 MR. ALLMON: Let me check.

11 THE COURT: Maybe P and P can get together
12 with Louise and recalculate the CTS while we're going 13 through this issue.

14 MR. FRITZ: And I believe now Judge Chamlee
15 was the attorney of record on those cases. So it 16 would appear that he would need a new lawyer on these 17 two cases.

18 THE COURT: This is your chance to go down 19 and chastise them.

20 MR. FRITZ: I have a very good relationship 21 with the Judge; so no, I --

22 THE COURT: Is a month enough?

23 MR. FRITZ: Please. And just again,
24 logistically, before your department do you require a 25 motion, or are we just going to come back in and let

1 me have time to get the Judgment of Conviction, the 2 Plea Agreement, and the -- maybe the honorable 3 discharge before --

4 THE COURT: Let me ask my brain, find out a 5 second.

7 COURT STAFF: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Yeah, they do.

9 MR. FRITZ: So there will be a motion.

10 THE COURT: Yeah. And that way, the State
11 will have a chance to respond.

12 MR. FRITZ: Okay. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Is a month long enough?

14 MR. FRITZ: Maybe 45 days -- 30 days, 45 15 days.

16 THE COURT: A week to do the motion.

17 MR. FRITZ: I just want to make sure I get 18 everything.

19 THE COURT: How does July 12th look?

20 MR. FRITZ: No, Your Honor. But I think --

21 THE COURT: I've got June 21st.

22 MR. FRITZ: I have a -- well, that's too 23 far out. Shoot. I have a case before you on 24 July 26th, but that would be too far out.

25 THE COURT: Right. So that leaves us

1 July 12th and June 21st. June 21st is about a month 2 from now.

3 MR. FRITZ: We'll make June 21st happen,
4 Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. June 21st, 0900.
6 We'll set it for a hearing on the Motions to Dropdown
7 and also for Sentencing.

8 MR. FRITZ: Okay; perfect. Thank you,
9 and --

10 THE COURT: Yeah. We'll appoint Mr. Fritz 11 to --

12 MR. FRITZ: On those two cases.

13 THE COURT: -- substitute in as the 14 attorney for those.

15 MR. FRITZ: And those are CR8669A and 16 CR8667.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 MR. FRITZ: And again, the concern with the 19 calculation was on the second case, the one that ends 20 in 20, and that's just my opinion he should have 21 credit since September the 8th of last year.

22 THE COURT: I just want to note for the 23 record again, Andrew, that it's kind of sad that we're 24 doing all of this, because I have the feeling the 25 sentence I'd give him today is the same one I'm going

1 to give him then. But you want to cross your "i's"
2 and dot your "t's." I understand.

3 MR. FRITZ: I do, Your Honor. It makes me 4 more comfortable to have somebody come before you with 5 no felony convictions --

6 THE COURT: Sure.

7 MR. FRITZ: -- and be sentenced, than it 8 does with a couple of felony convictions.

9 THE COURT: Very good. Anything else we 10 can do for you today?

11 MR. FRITZ: No. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thanks for coming 13 in.

6 THE COURT: Brett Linder, 8668, 8669, 0018, 7 0019, 0020.

8 MR. FRITZ: And good morning again,
9 Your Honor. Andrew Fritz appearing, Bar No. 6649.

10 Is he --

11 THE BAILIFF: Yeah, he's back there.

12 MR. FRITZ: Okay. Because I know he had 13 been in Tonopah.

14 THE BAILIFF: Have a seat right there, sir.

15 MR. FRITZ: Good morning, Brett.

16 THE COURT: All right. We have a Motion
17 For a Dropdown on two cases, Sentencing on two 18 cases -- I'm sorry, Sentencing on three cases.

19 So let's do the Motion For Dropdown first, 20 if you want to.

21 MR. FRITZ: Yes, Your Honor. And I know 22 that's the reason why the last hearing was continued, 23 if you will, to try and keep a clean record because 24 he, in our opinion, was entitled to the dropdown; that 25 had not been done yet. PSI Report still reflecting

1 two felony convictions. And like I said, we wanted to 2 clean that up prior to Your Honor sentencing him on 3 the three cases he had before Your Honor today.

4 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. I was handed
5 an Opposition. Did you get a copy of it?

6 MR. FRITZ: About the time you walked in 7 the office -- I mean the courtroom, Your Honor.
8 Excuse me.

9 THE COURT: In a nutshell, it says that he 10 didn't do everything right that was supposed to be 11 done to get the dropdown.

12 MR. FRITZ: And our position is -- and in 13 hearing that in the hallway and here in court this 14 morning, it's our position that he is entitled to it.
15 He was honorably discharged my understanding in both 16 cases, and that was the issue.

17 THE COURT: There's a part in his 18 Opposition where he says, "The defendant was arrested 19 for a violation of probation," and then it just kind 20 of fades away. I don't know if he came in front of me 21 on that violation of probation and I found that he in 22 fact had violated his probation or what.

23 MR. FRITZ: Well, again, I don't know if I
24 know the answer to that, but I think I know the answer 25 to the fact that he was honorably discharged on the

1 two cases and it would be our position that by being 2 honorably discharged, he is entitled to the dropdown.
3 It's the gross misdemeanor.

4 THE COURT: Yeah. We'll ask the State in a 5 moment, but I want you to know that somebody could be 6 put on probation, brought in front of me for a 7 violation. I will find that, yeah, you violated it, 8 reinstate you on probation maybe with another term of 9 Drug Court or whatever; you successfully complete it
10 and you get an honorable discharge. But the State

11 would argue, well, if you found that he violated, 12 Judge, which violated the agreement of the dropdown, 13 even if he did successfully get an honorable discharge 14 later.

15 But I don't know. I'm making up a fact 16 scenario here.

17 MR. FRITZ: Sure.

18 THE COURT: And you don't know either?

19 MR. FRITZ: I don't, Your Honor. As you
20 know, he did have different counsel on those, and I 21 know that --

22 THE COURT: Let's see what the State has to 23 say.

24 MR. FRITZ: Sure.

25 THE COURT: Counsel?

1 MR. ALLMON: Yes, Your Honor. So in the 2 State's review of it, the terms of the GPA
3 specifically say if he has no violations. So the 4 State's position is he was arrested for a violation.
5 Now, what's going to determine that was whether or not 6 you found it. The State's review of the record could 7 not find anything that said that the Court had said 8 that he violated or admit that he violated.

9 However, that raises questions about it,
10 and I know it's the Defense's burden in this case --

11 he's the moving party -- and so I think I have at 12 least laid out a prima facie case to where it should 13 not be granted without further review of whether or 14 not he was found to have violated by this Court. And 15 that would be the determining factor.

16 THE COURT: Yeah. You know, it's a real 17 simple look through the file and see if the Court made 18 a finding of he violated probation. So it's kind of 19 weird to put the burden on either one of you. It's as 20 simple as look through the file.

21 Did you have that chance to do that?

22 MR. ALLMON: I did, Your Honor. In the 23 State's record keeping, the State does not show that 24 the Court found a violation. I have no proof of that 25 either way. I just see an arrest for it, and I have 1 no further record so...

2 THE COURT: All right. And I'm looking 3 through it while we're talking. That's why I'm 4 stalling asking questions.

5 MR. FRITZ: Your Honor, I believe it's my 6 client's position -- again, I was not representing him
7 at the time -- yes, he may have been arrested, but I 8 do not believe any charges were ever filed and that he 9 was simply OR'd approximately three days after the 10 alleged event. And his position, he never appeared

11 before Your Honor on any kind of revocation hearing, 12 probation revocation hearing.

13 THE COURT: The last thing is, Andrew -- it 14 doesn't happen in every case, but I try to remember to 15 make it happen in every case, which is the State will 16 come in and say, "Judge, we charged this guy with five 17 felonies"; however, we'll drop it -- and I'm making up 18 a hypothetical right now -- we charged this guy with 19 five felonies, and we made a deal that he'll plead 20 guilty. And if he's good on probation for three 21 years, we agree we'll drop it down to a gross 22 misdemeanor.

23 And I say to myself up on the bench, "Wow, 24 that's quite a deal, five felonies to a gross 25 misdemeanor." And then I'll canvass the defendant and

1 I'll say, "You know, they're reaching this deal, but 2 that doesn't mean I'm going to go along with it. I 3 have the discretion whether I'm going to give you the 4 dropdown or not, depending on the totality."
5 Ninety-eight percent of the time, I rubber-stamp it
6 and say, "Okay, fine."

7 But there could be that rare 2 percent time 8 where I look at the totality of the circumstances and 9 I say, using my discretion, that I'm not going to drop 10 it down. Any chance either one of you reviewed it to 11 see if that was the case here?

12 MR. ALLMON: I did not read the minutes or 13 the transcript, Your Honor. I do have the Judgment of 14 Conviction in that case.

15 MR. FRITZ: And, Your Honor, I must admit I 16 based my position on --

17 THE COURT: At any rate, I'm going to put 18 the burden on the State. They -- they're opposing the 19 dropdown because of a probation violation, but we 20 don't have evidence of that probation violation except 21 for the allegation. No finding by the Court that he 22 did; and therefore, I'm going to grant the Motion For 23 the Dropdown.

24 MR. FRITZ: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Now we'll proceed to 1 sentencing.

2 MR. FRITZ: And just, Your Honor, as a

4 THE COURT: Go ahead.

5 MR. FRITZ: Logistically, we just dropped 6 it down now so he can be canvassed on the grosses, or 7 we just make it part of the record now that there's a 8 Judgment of Conviction for two gross misdemeanors?

9 THE COURT: I believe that the deal was 10 that it would be just be dropped down to a gross

11 misdemeanor and I'm fine with that.

12 MR. FRITZ: Okay. On both cases?

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 MR. FRITZ: Okay. Thank you. That 15 answered that question.

16 THE COURT: Now, we have Sentencing. One
17 case is No. 21-0018, Grand Larceny of a Firearm, 18 category B felony; he can get one to ten years. The 19 other one is Case 21-0020, Discharging a Firearm, 20 category B felony, one to ten years. Ten thousand and 21 5,000 on two cases.

22 We're going to hear from Mr. Fritz, what he 23 thinks an appropriate sentence is based on your 24 criminal history, the facts of this case. And after 25 Mr. Fritz, we're going to hear from you about what you

1 think the sentence should be and why. You don't have 2 to say anything if you don't want to; it's up to you.
3 And then we'll hear from the State.

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

5 MR. FRITZ: Your Honor thank you. Just so 6 now his PSI should reflect that he does not have any 7 felony convictions. I think that is important.
8 That's why we continued the last hearing for today.

9 Just some housekeeping matters too,
10 Your Honor. Part of this negotiation was my client

11 pled to two cases down at the Justice Court level.
12 Those were two Domestic Battery cases. We cleaned 13 those up on or about May 26th of this year in front of 14 Judge Jasperson.

15 Those cases, he was sentenced, if you will,
16 to credit time served basically six months on each. I 17 will talk about his credit for time served here in a 18 second. So that has been cleaned up. He has taken 19 responsibility for those actions, and we do have that 20 behind us.

21 Also, you see in the PSI he has an 22 outstanding case in Clark County. I can tell you last 23 week, Your Honor, I had a really nice discussion with 24 the PD handling that case in Clark County. It's my 25 understanding that case is no longer in warrant. They

1 did remand him on that case. They are working on it.
2 They are looking to hear from me later today as to 3 what happened this morning.

4 So we have gotten things moving. Justice
5 Court level, cleaning that up where he's addressing 6 the outstanding issues through the PD's Office in 7 Clark County on the pending case there. Also, he has 8 two pending cases in Tonopah. Those are set for 9 status check July 6th of this year. It's my 10 understanding they are going to be dismissed after 11 sentencing in this case. So that gives, I think, the 12 Court -- I think it's important to give you a little 13 history of all of the things going on with him.

14 Your Honor, this is a case of which drugs
15 are the problem. I think you even see in the PSI
16 report he started using drugs at the age of 12 years 17 old. So there's no question that drugs are the 18 problem here.

19 You know, usually when we ask for somebody 20 to be placed on probation, the question is well, are 21 they supervisable or not? Can we keep track of them 22 when they're outside? Are they going to do what 23 they're supposed to do, or are they just going to go 24 out there and cause more problems? Well, I think, it 25 touches on what we talked about here already this

1 morning, Your Honor, is that he is supervisable. He 2 has been honorably discharged from probation before, 3 out of the probation office here in Nye County. We've 4 also seen that he was sentenced, to my understanding, 5 to Boot Camp, the regimental treatment program, the 6 Boot Camp Program; he successfully completed that.

7 He gets on drugs again. Well, there's no 8 excuse or reason why he got on them, but he was on 9 them. And that caused quite a number of things.
10 Having a parent in very ill health, who I understand

11 unfortunately has now passed away. A very volatile 12 relationship, a domestic relationship, and you can see 13 from what happened in Justice Court; and as I said, 14 he's taken responsibility for. And then so what do we 15 do?

16 He's been in custody according to my 17 math -- and I checked this out with the State; they 18 didn't confirm it -- but I have him in custody about 19 286 days already. I do my math from September the 8th 20 of last year; he's been in continuously since then.
21 And part of the negotiations were that this case and 22 the Justice Court cases run concurrent, with the 23 Court's permission of course, and the two counts run 24 concurrent here.

25 And I say that, because spending over nine

1 months in jail, I like to think has gotten somebody's 2 attention. I like to think he's seen the ways were 3 wrong. And so what we're going to ask for is a 4 probationary term, but not just any probationary term.
5 One with Drug Court as a condition. He needs help.
6 We don't want to just simply warehouse him in Nevada 7 State Prison for a while, send him back out, and he's 8 right back to where he is. I believe we place him on 9 probation, place him in the Drug Court Program. He 10 can still be an active and productive member of 11 society while getting help, and I think that's 12 important.

13 And again, he's proven he can get through 14 one of these regimental programs, whether it be 15 Drug Court or the Boot Camp Program, and I think this 16 would be best in my client's situation. As I said, a 17 unique way of putting one -- I know the Court can 18 always give to someone up to 364 days as a condition 19 of probation. Well, here, we don't have 364, but 20 we've got 286, and I think that has gotten his 21 attention.

22 If we do that, place him on probation, put 23 a high suspended sentence hanging over his head so 24 that he knows he has a hammer over his head that if he 25 goes out there and starts using again, if he goes out

1 there and starts committing crimes again, if he goes 2 out there and he's not supervisable, well, we're going 3 to be back before Your Honor on a probation violation 4 and presumably he's going to the State Prison at that 5 time. So we're asking for a chance, another chance, 6 and that's where we are, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

8 Mr. Linder, is there anything you would like 9 to say?

10 THE DEFENDANT: I wrote a little bit,
11 Your Honor.

12 First off --

13 MR. FRITZ: Would you like him to stand up, 14 Your Honor, and address the Court?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 THE DEFENDANT: First off, I appreciate the 17 chance to speak today. I have a lot of things that 18 I've wanted to say over the past few months, many 19 apologies I wanted to give. Obviously, I can't give 20 them all here. I'm not proud to be back in front of 21 you again in these chains. Obviously, you sent me off 22 for success, and I succeeded for a while. And then it 23 kind of -- it got bad for me out there on the streets.

24 There's no excuse for some of the decisions 25 I've made. Many of the things I was accused of were

1 false, but that's by no means am I not taking 2 responsibility for the things that I have done. I
3 understand that I've made some serious poor choices.
4 I was doing very well. I completed Boot Camp. I
5 completed Drug Court, probation successfully. Thanks
6 to the supervision on probation, I had so many people 7 proud. I was a law-abiding citizen. I proved 8 probation does help for people to do better, be 9 better, become better, and have great success with it.

10 (Inaudible) was a great job. I paid off my 11 mom's house, had a beautiful girlfriend, a brand-new 12 car, proud mother, and a credible reputation. After 13 completing all of these programs, I continued my 14 success for over two years. And then the worst thing 15 that could happen to someone like me happened. My 16 mother was diagnosed with a brain tumor, along with 17 brain cancer after a stroke at work. She was the 18 manager at all of the Horizon's, and most importantly, 19 she was everyone's friend. She had the most beautiful 20 heart; my favorite person in the whole world.

21 It destroyed me. I quit my job. I picked 22 up drugs. I basically picked up my whole life back up 23 from where I left it, which was in the dirt. I 24 reached -- I should have reached out for help, but 25 instead I did the opposite. I started looking to 1 anger for help, for ways of coping. I'm sorry to my 2 mother. I know she's looking down waiting for me to 3 do better.

4 My next apology is to one of my victims, my 5 best friend, my ex-girlfriend. My first mistake was 6 turning my pain on to her. I'm sorry to Miranda for 7 all of the bad that destroyed us and you. I lost
8 everything and everyone in three months. It was a 9 record time -- including my freedom, sobriety, and my 10 motivation. I wanted it to all be over. I just 11 wanted to go where my mother was.

12 When I got arrested, I knew God wasn't done 13 with me yet. I began coping and healing from this 14 pain. I know now that my mom and God both want me to 15 be better, make them proud, and not just rot away.
16 Your Honor, I understand how badly I've handled this 17 crisis, and for that I apologize to you and to the 18 courts. I pray that you see that I truly regret my 19 mistakes, that you put my life back on track once 20 before, and I humbly ask just for one more chance to 21 show the courts, the public, and myself that I can 22 rise and overcome this hiccup.

23 I've learned that things in life can be a 24 great thing, but my actions and reactions are what 25 control everything, and I have the right to control it

1 as long as I don't fail myself. I do not want to go 2 to prison and affiliate with people that could just 3 teach me to be a smarter criminal. I want one more 4 chance, Your Honor, to be put under supervision and 5 probation and to get my life back to something worth 6 being proud of. I have a ton of potential, and I've 7 learned a lot from this hard time. I've wasted it 8 long enough. Please just let me show you and everyone 9 else the good I can do, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 Counsel?

12 MR. ALLMON: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 Your Honor, the State's going to ask for 14 four to ten years. I think that's a very reasonable 15 request under the terms of this GPA. Let's start with 16 the original charges that Mr. Linder was facing. He 17 was facing a charge of Attempted Murder on his friend.
18 He was facing a charge of felony Possession in that 19 case, Grand Larceny of a Firearm, Discharging a 20 Firearm At Or Into Structure Or Vehicle. In that case
21 all of those charges he's pleading to, Discharging 22 Firearm At Or Into Structure.

23 His girlfriend, his best friend Miranda.
24 He stole a firearm from her. He's also battered her 25 several times. The firearm that he is pleading to,

1 the Theft of the Firearm is from that girlfriend.

2 What's important to note too is the 3 defendant is also getting several other cases
4 dismissed. One importantly is a random victim of a 5 Burglary. He had a Burglary With a Firearm. He broke 6 into that house. He stole that firearm. When he was 7 arrested in the incident where he fired into another 8 vehicle, the firearm from that house was recovered in 9 his luggage that he admitted was his. The evidence 10 was pretty strong.

11 So you're looking at numerous charges
12 involving firearms. The defendant is a very violent 13 man. He steals firearms from people, including random 14 strangers, people he knows and that trusted him, and 15 then he commits violent acts with those firearms, 16 which is what he did with his friend. He fired a gun 17 at him after telling him -- placing a bullet on the 18 table and telling him, "This one's for you." When 19 that victim fled, he fired a shot at him. That's the 20 man that he is. That's the man that he's always been.

21 From 2014, the criminal justice system got 22 his attention. He's gotten several breaks, and he 23 keeps blowing them off. Looking at his PSI, you see 24 2014, arrested for Burglary, pled guilty to Petit 25 Larceny. We just had a motion for a dropdown here.

1 Pled guilty to two counts of Burglary, dropdown to 2 gross misdemeanors. I think that is the exact scaling 3 of getting someone's attention, giving them second and 4 third chances. How many chances did we give him?
5 We've given him three is the answer.

6 So many of these accusations are false. I 7 would like to address that. They are not false. The 8 State charged these. The State had good evidence in 9 these cases. The evidence is mutually supportive of 10 one another. The defendant has a similar MO in all of 11 these offenses. He likes guns. He steals guns.
12 That's his offense. He breaks into houses. He does 13 that.

14 He's in Vegas on yet another charge
15 involving Burglary, Robbery; it's the same stuff.
16 Additionally, one case I forgot to note was he broke 17 into El Jefe's. The evidence there was very strong.
18 He admitted. He was found with physical evidence of 19 it. There's no question he committed that crime. So 20 he's getting these charges, a number of them reduced, 21 all the way from Attempted Murder With a Deadly 22 Weapon, to Discharging a Firearm; so numerous charges
23 dismissed; other cases dismissed, including Burglary
24 With a Firearm and Burglary of a Business.

25 So the fact that many of these accusations

1 are false, I do not think that that bears out based on 2 his history and the fact that we have numerous 3 accusations from multiple people.

4 Let's talk about his mother's diagnosis as 5 the basis for his criminal behavior. It is not.
6 2014, he was the same person committing the same 7 offenses before any of this happened with his mother.
8 He may offer excuses to the Court all he wants, but 9 the fact is the defendant is a violent criminal who 10 will victimize the public at large whether he knows 11 that person or not.

12 Sentence him to four to ten years,
13 Your Honor. Take him off the streets. Incapacitate 14 him for as long as we can.

15 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

16 For the last 20 years that I've been Judge, 17 I've told people frequently in court -- it's a common 18 hearing -- that 90 percent of society are good people 19 who don't do anything wrong; 10 percent are people we 20 see in court all of the time. Of that 10 percent, 21 9 percent of people are addicted to drugs and stealing 22 from their neighbors and doing stuff like that, and 23 we're constantly working to try and figure out how to 24 get them off drugs and straighten their lives out and 25 hope they don't commit crimes anymore.

1 There's a small segment of society of the 2 population that are what we call psychopaths or 3 sociopaths, criminals that repeatedly keep doing 4 crimes and hurting other people. Most of those would 5 never dream of hurting other people -- sexually 6 assaulting a woman, molesting a child, hitting 7 somebody in the face, et cetera -- we would never 8 dream of doing that, most of the normal people.
9 There's a small segment of our society that for some 10 reason doesn't think normal and they don't mind doings 11 what they need to do to hurt other people, and so 12 forth.

13 Starting in 2014, you had Conspiracy To 14 Commit Burglary, Burglary, Drug charges, another 15 Burglary, another Burglary, more Drug charges, FTAs, 16 other crimes -- Speeding, Paraphernalia, and so 17 forth -- Domestic Battery With an Enhancement For a 18 Deadly Weapon Against an Older Person, Harassment, 19 Simple Battery, Battery on an Older Person, Domestic 20 Battery, Grand Larceny Of a Gun, Attempted Murder, 21 Possession Of a Gun By Prohibited Person, Discharging 22 a Gun, Burglary While In Possession of a Gun, Deadly 23 Gun, Owning/Possession of Gun By Prohibited Person, 24 Violated Stalking/Harassment, Violated
25 Stalking/Harassment, Child Abuse, Conspiracy, Battery,

1 Grand Larceny, Burglary, Unlawful Use, Battery two 2 counts, et cetera.

3 Now, obviously what that tells any normal
4 person is you're a psychopath. You don't mind going 5 out and hurting other people -- older people, younger 6 people, whatever -- you're going to do whatever you 7 think you want to do to make yourself happy.

8 We've tried Drug Court with you. We've 9 tried Boot Camp with you. Nothing works. As soon as 10 I let you out, you're going to go out and hurt other 11 people again, because there's something in your brain 12 that doesn't click right that says, "Hey, that's not 13 normal. I shouldn't do that." You're a dangerous 14 person.

15 Forty-eight to 120 on each count,
16 consecutive to each other, with credit for time served 17 calculated by Mr. Fritz of 286. We'll recalculate 18 that. And we'll keep you away from people as long as 19 we can to try and keep them protected from you.

20 Any other matters that we need to do?

21 MR. FRITZ: Just real quick, Your Honor.
22 The third case is to be dismissed?

23 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

24 MR. FRITZ: And you said that was 25 consecutive?

1 THE COURT: The two are consecutive, yes.

2 MR. FRITZ: Okay. I would just point out 3 the State didn't have any -- I know it's in the 4 discretion of the Judge --

5 THE COURT: Because he's so dangerous to 6 other human beings, we won't to keep him in as long as 7 we can.

8 MR. FRITZ: -- and I just want to point out 9 that the State though is not arguing for that, and 10 they had no opposition to concurrent time.

11 THE COURT: Noted for the record.

12 MR. ALLMON: That is correct.
