/s/ Sara Jelinek

An Employee of the Federal Public Defender, District of Nevada knowingly am going against his what he feels are in my best interest, and his advice
- his and a number of others who I've known considerably a longer time; not to discredit the relationship between Mr. Ericsson and I, that's not the case at all, it's just there's other attorneys who I've had a much more extensive history with that have worked even harder than Mr. Ericsson has, trying to dissuade me from this course of action. I'm set – there will be no dissuading me from this course of action.

THE COURT: So – if I sign this, then the attorneys that want to associate in with you understand the significance of associating in quickly and filing whatever it is they want to file on his behalf that he's agreed to, related to discovery of the drugs?

MR. ERICSSON: Yes, Your Honor, and they are in court this morning.

THE COURT: And just so that I'm clear, I think I asked Mr. Dozier, you have reviewed the first supplemental warrant of execution. The District Attorney made the changes that you requested related to the reservation of rights in the event that the execution is actually impossible the week of October 16th because the drugs are not available or the prison is unable to impose that sentence. What about the rest of the language?

MR. ERICSSON: Your Honor, I would submit it as to the rest of the language.
I have no objection.

THE COURT: So you have no reason to challenge any of the dates or any ofthe information, and any of the language of the order?

21

MR. ERICSSON: No, Your Honor.

MR. PESCI: As far as Mr. Dozier, we need to make a record that he's reviewed the rest of it as well.

24 THE COURT: You read the entire document, correct?

25 THE DEFENDANT: I have, yes Your Honor, I did. ROUGH DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

- 15 -

1	THE COURT: And you understand what this document says?
2	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor, I do.
3	THE COURT: You understand that it sets a date the week of October 16,
4	2017 for your execution?
5	THE DEFENDANT: I do, Your Honor.
6	THE COURT: Do you have any questions about it?
7	THE DEFENDANT: Not about that, Your Honor.
8	THE COURT: Are you sure this is what you wish me to do?
9	THE DEFENDANT: I am. Yes, 100% sure, Your Honor.
10	THE COURT: Okay, the record should reflect I've signed a first supplemental
11	warrant of execution setting the execution date, as required by statute, the week of
12	October 16, 2017, and the first supplemental order of execution. Can I see counsel
13	at the bench?
14	[Bench Conference]
15	THE COURT: Okay, so I mentioned up at the bench to the attorneys, and I'll
16	make a record of it now. There's a requirement that there be a triplicate by the Clerk
17	of the Court, and the Clerk of the Court has to be involved in the filing of this, and so
18	I have signed them. I am going to deliver them to the Clerk of the Court. They will
19	be filed and subject to a certified copy, I anticipate no later than tomorrow. Do you
20	have any questions?
21	THE DEFENDANT: One question and then another unrelated question. First
22	related question would be; do you anticipate there are amicus briefs or other third
23	party interest filed in the attempts of preventing this, that I would have to be in court
24	during those days?
25	THE COURT: Well, probably. ROUGH DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

THE COURT: It's hard to talk about your life without you -2 THE DEFENDANT: Okay. 3 THE COURT: -- or your death. 4 THE DEFENDANT: Okay. The issue that provides is that they – 5 THE COURT: I mean, I'm not making light of it. 6 THE DEFENDANT: -- no I understand --7 THE COURT: I can't anticipate what's gonna happen, but I can't – I can't 8 presume – I know – believe me, you and I have known each other since 2007, and 9 you are a man of singular purpose, and I am – I understand where – what your 10 position is right now, but I can't presume that every time; you know, I can't. 11 THE DEFENDANT: I understand. 12 THE COURT: It wouldn't be proper or appropriate or ethical. 13 THE DEFENDANT: I guess the question then is that do we – do we address 14 that with central transportation and – because the problem – my concern is that they 15 are hot and heavy to get me out of High Desert State Prison, they ship me up to Ely. 16 All of a sudden they're like whoa amicus brief, Dozier's gotta be back here, they turn 17 around and ship me back down, and then I do a yoyo back and forth for the next 60 18 19 days, missing these last opportunities for visitation with my family, constantly on 20 transport, etcetera. I don't – that is my overlying – what would be brought into a bad situation. 21 THE COURT: Here's my question – I would prefer, not that he gets to 22 choose, but it makes sense that if the Federal Public Defender is going to associate 23 in, and I'm gonna have a motion, you know, just on what we've talked about that I'm 24 aware of, amicus briefs set aside for just what we already know is coming, does it 25

ROUGH DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1	make sense to have him go back to Ely right now, or can he stay down here until
2	they associate in, and I get some kind of motion that they're moving with singular
3	purpose to file?
4	MR. PESCI: Judge as far as sense goes, it makes sense to keep him here,
5	but I don't have control over the Department of Corrections.
6	THE COURT: Right, I understand.
7	MR. PESCI: I'm sure if the representatives are here and they could take
8	whatever you say and take that into consideration.
9	THE COURT: Can you – because I'm going to –
10	MR. PESCI: I think they might be –
11	THE COURT: set a status check already in this case.
12	THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, I believe if you set a status check they'll
13	keep me – they'll keep transportation frozen for me.
14	THE COURT: Yeah, because I need to have you here a week from now so
15	that I can see if – can they associate in that fast? Can you ask the front row if they
16	could associate in or get an order shortening time to me or get something to me?
17	MR. ERICSSON: Your Honor, we've discussed that already. They indicated
18	to me they're going to have to me today an association, and the way we plan to do it
19	is just a notice of association, and we weren't gonna do it with an order, just notice
20	that they're associating in.
21	THE COURT: All right. So here's what I'm doing. I'm setting a status check
22	one week from today on association of the Federal Public Defender. I'm setting a
23	status check one week from today on warrant of execution. I'm setting a status
24	check one week from today on order on warrant of execution because I anticipate
25	there's going to be some drug motion filed. ROUGH DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1	I would put in the minutes that the Court's preference would be that he
2	remain at High Desert until I have concluded the litigation of the matter, which allows
3	me to set it you know, it takes too long to get him from up there anyway. It would
4	be my preference as well. I know I can't control the prison on where they house
5	someone, but if you could put in the minutes and maybe get those minutes to
6	someone. Do you think you could do that?
7	MR. PESCI: I believe Mr. Pesci, Your Honor, that if – so long as I have court
8	dates pending, that they will not transport me.
9	THE COURT: Okay.
10	MR. PESCI: My understanding, talking to the transport people here, is that if I
11	have pending court dates, transportation for me is frozen.
12	THE COURT: Okay. Well, you have pending court dates.
13	THE DEFENDANT: Do you I'm sorry Mr. Pesci –
14	MR. PESCI: Go ahead sir.
15	THE DEFENDANT: Do you need to see me next week for the – for them
16	signing in?
17	THE COURT: Yes. Sorry. One other thing, you said; I have an unrelated
18	thing, and I have a related thing – what's your unrelated thing? Transport?
19	THE DEFENDANT: Can you please fix that picture. It's driving me crazy.
20	THE COURT: What picture? What picture?
21	THE DEFENDANT: The one on the all that's hanging sideways. Do you not
22	notice that?
23	MR. PESCI: Judge, for the record, I will endeavor with the people that we
24	normally do transport orders to see if they'll – I'll tell them your wishes, that he stays;
25	but I don't know what they'll do, but I'll pass that along. ROUGH DRAFT TRANSCRIPT

1	MR. ERICSSON: Your Honor, where this is a capital case, I believe that
2	transcripts should – I don't know if that only applies during trial, but we would
3	request a transcript of today's proceedings.
4	THE COURT: Sure. Could you get me an order please?
5	MR. ERICSSON: Yes.
6	THE COURT: Okay. So, I have a status check. You have to come, fix the
7	picture, anything else?
8	MR. PESCI: What was the date?
9	THE DEFENDANT: That's it for right now, Your Honor, thank you very much.

3	THE COURT: State of Nevada versus Scott Dozier, C215039. The record
4	should reflect the presence of the Defendant in custody. This is a status check.
5	Counsel can you state your appearances for the record?
6	MR. VANBOSKERCK: Jonathan Vanboskerck for the State.
7	MR. PESCI: Giancarlo Pesci also for the State.
8	MR. ERICSSON: Tom Ericsson on behalf of Mr. Dozier.
9	MR. ANTHONY: David Anthony from the Federal Public Defender's Office on
10	behalf of Mr. Dozier.
11	THE COURT: Okay, so Mr. Dozier wrote the Court a letter. It said that he
12	cc'd both sides. I assume you have a copy of that.
13	MR. VANBOSKERCK: The State does not have a copy, Your Honor.
14	THE COURT: Can you approach? It's not about anything substantive.
15	MR. ERICSSON: We've seen it, Your Honor.
16	MR. VANBOSKERCK: May I show Mr. Pesci?
17	THE COURT: It's not necessarily – Mr. Dozier is assuring the Court that he's
18	taking these proceedings seriously. Would that be an accurate summary?
19	THE DEFENDANT: I would concur with that, Your Honor. Yes, Your Honor.
20	THE COURT: Notwithstanding his concern about the photograph, he wanted
21	to reassure me that he still gets how incredibly important this is, and that a
22	courtroom is an important place where people go to have their, you know, stressful
23	matters decided, words to that effect; agreed?
24	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
25	THE COURT: So, that's all he was saying. So moving on to – there were two

1 motions filed by the – Defense Counsel that I was provided a courtesy copy of 2 yesterday. The – there was also an order to, you know, an order shortening time or 3 some document without an order with it, like a motion to shorten time or something 4 to that effect without an – an order shortening time order with it, so that I could set 5 the motion earlier than it's already set. When my staff inquired of counsel, 6 somebody at your office said it's just to put the Court on notice that this motion is 7 coming and to set a briefing schedule or something to that effect, but I mean I can't 8 do an OST without an order on an OST. It was just a – a straight file, you know, it 9 was just a motion with no actual setting order. Does that make sense?

MR. ANTHONY: I understand, Your Honor. The other purpose was to give notice to the Attorney General's Office so they could be aware as well because one of the issues that arises is that the District Attorney has taken the position that they're not going to be defending the State with respect to the motions that have been filed. So, the purpose for filing the motion was to make sure the Attorney General's Office was aware that this was going to be handled today as far as setting a scheduling order for the briefing schedule.

MR. VANBOSKERCK: And Judge, we did file oppositions. I don't know if your department got a courtesy copy or should have, but we did file oppositions that essentially set out why this belongs to the AG to respond to and also sort of arguing that you shouldn't address it, and that there's not – it's not the appropriate time for discovery.

THE COURT: Okay. Well first, it's not on calendar today. So, the whole – you know, it's kind of hard to set a briefing schedule with someone who's not present. And so, I appreciate – it's not our responsibility to oppose it, but we oppose it and don't hear it argument; but I'm still going to require the Attorney General to appear. So could someone contact her and find out A, did she get it; B, when could she be here; C, is somebody else in the office going to appear and not her. I mean I don't know that – how do you know she's – because she's the Department of Corrections assigned deputy or what?

MR. ANTHONY: My understanding is that she was brought to the attention of Mr. Ericsson as the representative for the Department of Corrections, and there was an email exchange between Mr. Ericsson and Ms. McDermott, and so it was our understanding that she would be the representative for the Attorney General's Office appearing before the Court.

MR. VANBOSKERCK: Additionally Judge, I will reach out to her. I didn't do it yesterday because I was trying to get something into you since they only filed it yesterday morning.

THE COURT: Okay. So, so my first question is, were you given a date by the Clerk's Office that you could serve on the AG. And if you're asking me to accelerate the date, then I need an order setting it that you can serve her with. That's how we, you know, get her here; not just mailing her a copy of something. It has to be on calendar, we give her notice. I mean I can't really give her a hard time for not being here today when it's not on calendar, and she wasn't noticed of any date per se.
 [Colloquy - The Court]

THE COURT: Except for August 29th. Is there any reason why I need to move it up for a briefing schedule, and if so where's that proposed order?

²² MR. ANTHONY: Your Honor, I –

²³ THE COURT: Is someone gonna give me one?

²⁴ MR. ANTHONY: -- Your Honor, I can prepare a proposed order for the Court
 ²⁵ and have it to the Court within the hour.

1	THE COURT: Okay so if you could – I would like to set a hearing scheduling
2	your two motions shortening the time to set a briefing schedule on your two motions
3	for August 24 th at 9 a.m., you could serve her with that. I assume State you served
4	her with your –
5	MR. VANBOSKERCK: We served her with our –
6	THE COURT: it's her job to oppose –
7	MR. VANBOSKERCK: yes.
8	THE COURT: but we oppose and you shouldn't address this?
9	MR. VANBOSKERCK: Yes.
10	THE COURT: Okay. And what else do we need to do?
11	MR. VANBOSKERCK: Judge you would also –
12	THE COURT: Have you seen these motions?
13	THE DEFENDANT: Not yet, Your Honor. She was going to discuss
14	THE COURT: Because one of the things that we're going to talk about is he
15	indicated to me kind of a limited engagement, for lack of a better term, that I will be
16	interested to see if some of what you're requesting is consistent with that.
17	MR. ANTHONY: Absolutely, Your Honor. And again, I think that our goals
18	are similar here that are – what we seek is transparency; and that's the concern that
19	we have is that starting at the hearing on July 27 th , we know that the Court had
20	questions about what drugs were gonna be used, do they have the drugs, questions
21	like that and in talking with Mr. Dozier, that's also a concern. We just want to have
22	transparency so the Court knows that the order it's going to be signing is
23	enforceable and that it can be done in a lawful manner, and that's the purpose for
24	the motions.
25	THE COURT: Okay. While $-I - I$ have my law clerk running back there to get the motion that I'm referring to so that I can maybe read into the record some of the language that I'm talking about. When is it that you would be serving him with this motion, the Defendant?

⁴ MR. ANTHONY: Your Honor, our intention was to give Mr. Dozier a copy at ⁵ the conclusion of this hearing, so that he can take it back with him to review.

THE COURT: Okay, so for example on page 13, on the motion for determination whether Scott Dozier's execution will proceed in a lawful manner and notice of motion, subsection C on page 13; NDOC's most current, unsigned, not adopted execution protocol presents an unjustified risk that the execution will cause cruel pain and suffering, and so you know, these are things that he needs to be familiar with.

12

13

MR. ANTHONY: Absolutely, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Because –

¹⁴ MR. ANTHONY: And again the purpose behind saying that, Your Honor, is ¹⁵ that as far as we are aware, there is no current signed adopted protocol.

16 THE COURT: I understand the purpose. I just don't know that your objection 17 about there not being a signed protocol is what he wanted pursued. That's up to 18 him. That's not my decision and I will consider all the arguments that are put before 19 me, and I'll make the tough call. I'm just saying that if there's an unsigned protocol, 20 and discovery isn't satisfactory to the Defense in that regard, then the next step 21 would be them asking me to declare it cruel and unusual, and not impose it or 22 vacate my order, and I'm just making sure that he reads it before I spend, you know, 23 a significant amount of time and he seems – if he seems surprised by what's going 24 on. So you need to read it.

THE DEFENDANT: I understand, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: Just to be abundantly clear, these items we've discussed,
I have discussed with them. Granted I have not looked at this motion, but I am familiar with what the – the gist of it is. I feel that theoretically if the State is killing someone, that those things probably should be available to the public, and if I don't know those – I got into this recognizing I very well may not know those, and so not knowing those is not going to deter me from my course of action. So –

8 THE COURT: Well that's inconsis – that's what I'm saying. I'm – I – let's say 9 hypothetically, I allow discovery on some of these things or all of these things or part 10 of these things, or half of these things. I don't know because I haven't heard 11 everything I need to. And it turns out that there – that some of the concerns that 12 they have are true. Then what is the remedy or the next step, and I'm – you know, 13 that is an issue between you and your attorneys as far as what you said to me 14 repeatedly in open court on a regular basis ever since this started versus what 15 they're going to be asking for here -

THE DEFENDANT: Right.

THE COURT: -- on your behalf. We don't have to address it today because you haven't read it. I haven't heard from the AG. There's a lot of unfinished business with it. I just think it's really important that you read it.

- ²⁰ THE DEFENDANT: I got ya, Your Honor.
- THE COURT: And it's you know, it's a light read.
- THE DEFENDANT: Yeah I know Your Honor, [unintelligible] small motion [unintelligible].
 - THE COURT: So, you'll have that to him when?
 - MS. TEICHER. Your Honor, I have the motions. I do not have all the exhibits

1 that are the bulk of what you have there, but I have all of the motions and the 2 oppositions to give to him right now to take back with him. 3 THE COURT: Okay, so when will he have everything? 4 MS. TECHIER: We can mail that to him today. 5 THE COURT: Okay. So – could you get started on the motions and 6 oppositions by next week, and then hopefully you will have received everything else, 7 even if you haven't read it all by next week. 8 THE DEFENDANT: I can read it all in a night, Your Honor, even if it is that big 9 one. I pretty much take my time with that and get it done. Is there something you need me here for the 24th because I thought we were under the understanding that – 10 11 please - you know, correct if I'm wrong -12 THE COURT: Can you get me another copy of this? 13 MR. ANTHONY: Absolutely, which document Your Honor? 14 THE COURT: I want another copy of the motion for determination whether 15 Scott Dozier's execution will proceed in a lawful manner and notice of motion. Is 16 there any reason, with no paperclips or anything else that the Defendant can't have 17 this? 18 THE CORRECTIONS OFFICER: No that's fine, Your Honor. 19 THE COURT: You've been served. 20 THE DEFENDANT: All right. Oh man. 21 MR. ANTHONY: Your Honor, may I approach? 22 THE COURT: Yes. So I'll just need one with all the exhibits. So instead of 23 mailing it to him, you can drop it off to my department. Easier? 24 MR. ANTHONY: Absolutely, Your Honor. THE COURT: Okay. All right. So August 24th – now there was the issue of 25

1	the order which – timing of which was important to at least the Defendant if in fact
2	his wishes are going to be carried out as he's requested so far, and the State's
3	position as to what the prison could do within the statutory timeframe. So – I think –
4	I anticipated what I was going to do is sign an order with a different date today with
5	the understanding that if something from these motions changes anything or the
6	Defendant changes any position, then what would be left to do would be enter a stay
7	of the amended order.
8	MR. VANBOSKERCK: And Judge we do have the updated order and
9	warrant, if I may approach.
10	THE COURT: Did you look at it?
11	MR. ANTHONY: Yes, Your Honor.
12	THE COURT: Does it comply with the statutory timeframe?
13	MR. ERICSSON: Yes, Your Honor, it does.
14	THE COURT: Okay. Can I – can you approach with it?
15	MR. VANBOSKERCK: And Judge additionally did you want Mr. Dozier to
16	have a copy of their motion for discovery as well so that he can review that?
17	THE COURT: She's giving it to him right?
18	MS. TEICHER: Yes, Your Honor, I'm taking the staples off.
19	MR. VANBOSKERCK: Okay. I just heard you say the first one and not the
20	second one.
21	THE COURT: Well no, what I was told was it didn't have the exhibits, and the
22	discovery motion had all the exhibits. I don't know that the other motion had as
23	much to go with it.
24	Okay. So Mr. Dozier, I have here a second supplemental warrant of
25	execution. It does in fact order that the execution within the limits of the state prison
	-9-

located at or near Ely, State of Nevada, during the week commencing the 13th day of 1 2 November, 2017. And you're already familiar with the language of an order like this 3 because I've signed one previously at your request, correct? 4 THE DEFENDANT: That is absolutely correct, Your Honor. Looks exactly the 5 same except for the dates, Your Honor. 6 THE COURT: All right. And so, it's your desire again for me to sign this 7 second supplemental warrant of execution? 8 THE DEFENDANT: It is, Your Honor. 9 THE COURT: Setting your execution for the week of the 13th day of 10 November, 2017? 11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor. 12 THE COURT: And then there's the supplemental order, which basically 13 you've seen before in a previous format that was similar to this with a different date, 14 correct? 15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor. 16 THE COURT: Okay. So I've signed both the second supplemental order of 17 execution, and a second supplemental warrant of execution. I believe my clerk 18 takes this to the – my court clerk takes this to the Clerk of the Court if I'm not 19 mistaken. You know, I'm not signing these every day, so I'm making sure 20 procedurally I've got that handled. 21 You're on for next Thursday at 9 o'clock. As a courtesy, you are going 22 to call the AG and advise that she's going to be receiving a notice setting these two 23 motions. 24 The attorneys for the Defendant are going to prepare an order setting 25 the motion for discovery and the motion for determination whether Scott Dozier's

1	execution will proceed in a lawful manner. For briefing – you're going to actually
2	place them on calendar for a briefing schedule in the order setting it for the $27^{th} - I$
3	mean, I'm sorry the 24 th at 9 o'clock. I'll sign that, and you will serve it on her, which
4	would give her notice to appear.
5	MR. VANBOSKERCK: The 21 st vacated?
6	THE COURT: The 21 st is vacated.
7	THE DEFENDANT: What about the 29 th ? Is that also vacated?
8	THE COURT: That's vacated.
9	THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.
10	MR. ERICSSON: Your Honor, we were just discussing scheduling. Mr. Pesci
11	and I we are currently in a capital murder trial in Department 20. That is going to be
12	going all of next week including on the 24 th . I think that I –
13	THE COURT: What if I set it at 8:30? I'll set this. Is he starting trial before
14	8:30 in the morning?
15	MR. ERICSSON: That is the time that he's been – we're scheduled to start
16	Tuesday and Wednesday at 8:30 –
17	THE COURT: And Thursday?
18	MR. PESCI: There's a truncated schedule that day, Your Honor, because the
19	Defense was only available on that particular day.
20	THE COURT: So you're saying you're starting early on Thursday in front of
21	Judge Johnson on a murder case?
22	MR. PESCI: That's my understanding, to try to accommodate Defense
23	Counsel's expert that's only available on that particular day, the 24 th .
24	THE COURT: Okay. So I'm sorry – so move this up, but we're not available
25	any other day. I had it on the 29 th right? And so –
	-11-
I

1	MR. ERICSSON: Your Honor, we're trying to coordinate. I'm – you say
2	you're not available on the 29 th ? Because that's when I think it's currently set for.
3	THE COURT: It's going to be set for the 29 th , but I presumed because I had a
4	notice of motion, which I interpreted as an order shortening time to move it up to the
5	extent I could to set a briefing schedule because this is going to take time, is the
6	representation of the little two-page document that I got yesterday, with no actual
7	setting order. It just was a notice, and so I interpreted, let's move this up. That's
8	how I interpreted it.
9	MR. ERICSSON: And Your Honor, I think maybe I was mis – I was thinking
10	you wanted the hearing on the motions on the 24 th . You're just wanting to have –
11	setting the briefing schedule on that date?
12	THE COURT: Yeah.
13	MR. VANBOSKERCK: It's just to set the briefing schedule.
14	THE COURT: I just want to have the AG here, and she – she can, you know,
15	tell me she doesn't want to respond I guess, and then when I direct her to, she can
16	tell me how long she needs. That was the idea.
17	MR. ERICSSON: Okay. And that would be fine. I don't even think I need to
18	be here for that.
19	MR. VANBOSKERCK: Myself and Mr. Anthony could be here.
20	MR. ANTHONY: I think that would be just fine, Your Honor.
21	THE COURT: Okay. So you understand the drill. I know you don't want to
22	come.
23	THE DEFENDANT: That would be fine. It's just setting a briefing schedule
24	right? I mean, I don't need to be here for that.
25	THE COURT: Okay. Your appearance is waived on the 24 th , one time.
	-12-

1	THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.
2	THE COURT: You know, it's not a lot to ask. You want to pursue this – you
3	know, just be able to look me in the eye and say I'm still pursuing this.
4	THE DEFENDANT: I know – Mr. Van –
5	MR. VANBOSKERCK: Well Judge, did you want him here to address your
6	questions?
7	THE COURT: It's a thing. We talked about this already.
8	THE DEFENDANT: I know. I [indiscernible] Mr. VanBoskerck [indiscernible] I
9	didn't mean to interrupt you.
10	MR. VANBOSKERCK: And I apologize for interrupting. You had said you
11	wanted him to read it and address whether he felt it was inconsistent with the
12	pleadings.
13	THE COURT: Well that was part of it.
14	MR. VANBOSKERCK: Do you want him here for that date, because that
15	might be a reason for him to be here.
16	THE COURT: I think that – let me put it to you this way. He has no trouble
17	communicating his thoughts or feelings to me in writing, and he is free to do so
18	between now and then if he'd like to. All of his letters make it to my department.
19	So, I'm going to waive your appearance that one day.
20	THE DEFENDANT: Okay. Thank you. Your Honor?
21	THE COURT: Yes.
22	THE DEFENDANT: Well – ummm – my – this is not – whatever happens with
23	this, it's not going to change anything. I went into this, Your Honor, recognizing I
24	would know those things. And they tell me; listen, there's a good chance it's going
25	to be a real miserable experience for you for those two hours before you actually

1 expire. I'm still going to do this if it's up to me. I recognize it's really your call, Your 2 Honor, but I'm not gonna waiver on this, Your Honor.

3

THE COURT: Okay. Well that's why --

4 THE DEFENDANT: So – just – any of these 12 hours in this rig right here 5 compiled are as bad in actuality.

6 THE COURT: I understand. I'm waiving your appearance, but I do want you 7 to read what they've argued on your behalf.

8 THE DEFENDANT: I well recognize that, Your Honor, and I have no 9 complaints about that.

THE COURT: Okay. So I'll waive your appearance on the $29^{th} - 24^{th}$, excuse 10 me. The 21^{st} – I'm sorry, the 21^{st} and the 29^{th} is vacated. The only matter – the only 11 date right now is the 24th for the AG to come in, take a position one way or another, 12 13 be noticed in writing by the Defense and by a courtesy phone call from the District 14 Attorney. Anything else?

15 MS. TEICHER: For the record, Your Honor, we're [indiscernible] Mr. Dozier, I 16 am giving him copies of the motion for leave to conduct discovery as well as the 17 State's opposition to the motion to leave to conduct discovery. Any exhibits that are 18 referenced in that are the ones that Your Honor presented to Mr. Dozier, and I'm 19 also giving him a copy of the State's filed opposition to the motion for leave for 20 determination.

21 THE COURT: Okay, and so you're going to provide me another courtesy 22 copy with all the exhibits?

23 MS. TEICHER: Yes.

24 MR. ANTHONY: Yes, Your Honor, today.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Okay, that's it.

-14-

1	MR. VANBOSKERCK: Thank you, Your Honor.
2	MR. ERICSSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

Death penalty debate reemerges in Nevada after past stalls

By SAM METZ March 24, 2021

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — A Nevada legislative committee introduced a proposal Wednesday to end the death penalty with nearly identical language to a 2019 bill that stalled and never received hearings in the state Senate or Assembly.

Lawmakers who oppose the death penalty say they're confident that 2021 is the year they will finally carry the effort across the finish line.

They have campaigned to end the death penalty in the past two legislative sessions, only to see their efforts thwarted before reaching the floor for a vote.

That's the plan at the moment. Of course, it's subject to everything else going on in the building," the Las Vegas Democrat said, referring to the way the pandemic has slowed the pace of legislative activity.

The Assembly Judiciary Committee's bill would remove provisions of state law that allow people found guilty of first-degree murder to be sentenced to death.

Although about 80 inmates remained on its death row as of 2020, Nevada has not executed anyone since 2006. The state has faced difficulties procuring lethal injection drugs. Last year, a state court ordered the Department of Corrections to return drugs used as part of Nevada's lethal injection combination. The department has a batch of fentanyl that expires on June 30, but does not posses the other two drugs called for in its execution protocol.

Death penalty opponents hope the growth of the criminal justice reform movement and renewed attention on the death penalty will generate enough political will to enact a ban. In the final months of President Donald Trump's tenure, the U.S. Justice Department resumed executions after a 17-year federal hiatus. The 13 executions carried out drew newfound attention to the death penalty, said state Sen. James Ohrenschall, D-Las Vegas, who is sponsoring a similar bill in the Senate.

"I think a lot of people were shocked. The fact that there'd been this moratorium for so long, and then all of a sudden, it's the opposite," brought momentum to push to end the death penalty, he said.

2021, according to the Death Fenancy Information Center.

Gov. Ralph Northam on Wednesday signed a bill abolishing the death penalty in Virginia, and the Wyoming Legislature voted down a proposal last week.

Democrats control both chambers in the Nevada Statehouse, but many have hesitated to take a stance on the death penalty. In the historically law-andorder state, memories of the 2017 Route 91 mass shooting are still fresh.

Both state Senate Majority Leader Nicole Cannizzaro, D-Las Vegas, and Gov. Steve Sisolak have recently sidestepped questions about their stances on the issue.

"There are a lot of differing opinions on that. Personally, it's something that I'm open to to hearing and having a discussion," Cannizzaro said.

State official: Nevada execution chamber unusable

Prison Board told state could not carry out a death penalty at aging facility

By Cy Ryan

Tuesday, March 8, 2011 | 4:34 p.m.

CARSON CITY – The execution chamber at the ancient Nevada State Prison in Carson City is unusable and the state could not carry out a death penalty.

Gus Nunez, manager of the state Public Works Board, Tuesday listed numerous violations at the prison including the death chamber which is not ADA accessible.

He told the state Prison Board that an elevator would have to be installed on the outside to carry the public up to see the execution and there were code violations. And the stairs and hand rails leading up to the execution chamber violated the ADA code.

The last execution was in 2006 and Greg Cox, interim director of the state Department of Corrections, said the state could not put an inmate to death because it doesn't have the drug to do the job and a judge would probably stop the execution because of the code violations.

There are no executions presently scheduled.

It would cost thousands of dollars to correct the deficiencies associated with upgrading the death chamber.

Curtis Brown, a 14-year correctional officer, disputed the testimony of Nunez and said "Executions could be carried out without a problem.

Rebecca Gasca of the ACLU recommended the state impose a moratorium on the death penalty. She said a study should be done on the implications of capital punishment.

A bill is sitting on the desk of the governor of Illinois to abolish the death penalty, she said.

Gov. Brian Sandoval has recommended in his budget to the Legislature to close the prison at a savings of $16 million in the next two years. The inmates would be transferred to High Desert prison in Southern Nevada where there are two vacant dormitories with 600 beds.

The board, with Sandoval as its chairman, did not take a position on closure of the prison. Secretary of State Ross Miller said that should be left up to the Legislature and the governor. Attorney General Catherine Cortez Masto, the third board member, was absent from the meeting.

Cox said he has urged the Legislature to make a quick decision on the closure of the prison. It costs the state $700,000 for every month there is a delay. He said he would probably have to lay off 30-40 correctional officers instead of the initial estimate of 130 losing their jobs.

The correctional officers could be transferred to other prisons.

The board imposed a hiring freeze on the prison to allow flexibility of Cox to move correctional officers around when jobs become vacant.

Cox is proposing a phased-down closure with it being fully shut down on Oct. 31 which is Nevada Day.

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND ORDER ENJOINING THE NEVADA DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS FROM USING A PARALYTIC DRUG IN THE EXECUTION OF PETITIONER

12 Upon Petitioner's Motions for Determination Whether Scott Dozier's 13 Execution Will Proceed in a Lawful Manner and for Leave to Conduct Discovery, 14 and this matter having come before the Court for multiple hearings, including an 15 evidentiary hearing conducted on November 3, 2017, and the Court having heard 16 expert testimony and oral argument presented by respective counsel for both 17 parties, and having reviewed and considered the parties' pleadings and supporting 18 exhibits admitted into the record, and with good cause appearing therefor, this 19 Court issues the following findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order:

22

BACKGROUND

2 Petitioner Scott Raymond Dozier is an inmate on death row in the 1. custody of the Nevada Department of Corrections ("NDOC"). In October of 2016, by 3 4 letter to this Court, Petitioner expressed his desire to waive or discontinue his legal proceedings so that his sentence of execution could be carried out. Various 5 proceedings transpired in which Petitioner was made to appear and present his 6 wishes before this Court and eventually subject himself to a competency 7 examination by a court-appointed mental health expert. In a July 2017 lengthy and 8 thorough report, Michael S. Krelstein, M.D., determined that Petitioner was 9 competent to waive his post-conviction and appellate proceedings. Premised on this 10 determination, at another hearing in July 2017, Dozier and the Clark County 11 District Attorney's Office agreed to stay Dozier's habeas corpus action provided 12 13 NDOC had the ability to conduct the execution. This Court later signed an execution warrant presented by the Clark County District Attorney's Office, 14 scheduling Petitioner's execution by lethal injection to take place the week of 15 16 October 16, 2017.

2. Thereafter, on August 15, 2017, Petitioner filed Motions for Determination Whether Scott Dozier's Execution Will Proceed in a Lawful Manner and for Leave to Conduct Discovery. At that time, Petitioner's motions were based on constitutional concerns regarding NDOC's unknown execution protocol for carrying out his scheduled execution. On the same date, the Clark County District

22 23

Attorney's Office filed oppositions to Petitioner's motions arguing, in part, that the 2 motions were improperly served upon it.

3 3. On August 17, 2017, at the request of the Clark County District Attorney's Office, Mr. Dozier's execution was rescheduled for the week of November 4 5 13, 2017.

On August 23, 2017, NDOC filed a Notice in Advance of Status Check 6 4. to set a briefing schedule on Petitioner's motions. Attached to NDOC's Notice was 7 Exhibit A disclosing the lethal injection drugs (Diazepam, Fentanyl and 8 9 Cisatracurium) that NDOC intended to use for the execution of Mr. Dozier. On September 5, 2017, NDOC disclosed an execution manual dated the same day 10 ("September 5th manual"). On September 6, 2017, NDOC filed an Opposition to 11 Petitioner's motions. On September 7, 2017, Petitioner filed Objections to NDOC's 12 13 disclosure of the protocol under seal.

14 5. In response to NDOC's Opposition, and upon consultation regarding 15 the execution protocol with a retained expert in anesthesiology, Petitioner filed a Reply on September 25, 2017, followed by a Declaration from its expert in 16 anesthesiology, David B. Waisel, M.D., dated October 4, 2017. Dr. Waisel asserted 17 18 in his Declaration that he interpreted the American Board of Anesthesiology's rules "as preventing [him] from advocating an alternative form of execution." He did not 19 20 believe that he could "take any position that a reasonable person could interpret as advocating for a particular method of execution." Accordingly, in his Reply, 21 Petitioner proffered, as a known and available alternative execution procedure 22 pursuant to federal constitutional precedent in Baze v. Rees, 553 U.S. 35, 61 (2008) and Glossip v. Gross, 135 S. Ct. 2726, 2737 (2015), that NDOC utilize a two-drug version of the protocol, via administration of the drugs Diazepam and Fentanyl, as already provided for in NDOC's draft protocol but in higher doses, and eliminate the use of the third paralytic drug (Cisatracurium).

6 6. At the Court's request, NDOC submitted a Declaration by John M. 7 DiMuro, D.O., the former Chief Medical Officer of the State of Nevada,¹ dated 8 October 20, 2017. NDOC also submitted revised protocol provisions, also dated 9 October 20, 2017, within the Execution Manual (EM) for Sections 103 and 110. The 10 October 20, 2017 revisions addressed titration and entailed significant increases in 11 the dosage of the three drugs to be used under the protocol. NDOC's revised protocol 12 retained all three of the drugs as set forth in its earlier version of the protocol, and

¹⁴ ¹ Nevada law requires the Director for the Department of Corrections to consult with the State's Chief Medical Officer ("CMO") regarding the selection of the drug or combination of drugs to be used for executions. NRS 176.355. In addition, provisions of NDOC's execution protocol require the CMO be consulted regarding the drugs' dosages to ensure they cause death, and further require that the CMO, or his designee, direct the preparation of the execution drugs. EM 100.02, 103.01 and 103.03.

Dr. DiMuro resigned as the State's Chief Medical Officer effective October 30, 2017. At the close of a status hearing conducted on October 31, 2017, during which this Court scheduled the November 3, 2017 evidentiary hearing, NDOC announced Dr. DiMuro's resignation and submitted a Declaration signed by Dr. DiMuro in which he stated that his resignation was "completely unrelated to the scheduled execution of Scott Dozier" and that he stood by his opinions contained in his earlier Declaration of October 20, 2017. See NDOC's Notice of Supplemental Declaration of John M. DiMuro, D.O., on November 1, 2017, Ex. A. At a post-evidentiary hearing on November 6, 2017, NDOC announced that Dr. DiMuro had been replaced by a new acting CMO, Leon Ravin, M.D., whose background is in psychiatry. NDOC also announced that Dr. John Scott, M.D. would serve as Dr. Ravin's designee for purposes of Dozier's execution. The manual requires that the CMO or his designee oversee the preparation of the lethal injections drugs.

thus issues surrounding the use of the paralytic drug became the primary focal 2 point of the litigation.

3 7. This Court then scheduled an evidentiary hearing on November 3, 4 2017, for purposes of receiving expert testimony. NDOC continually objected to the 5 appropriateness and necessity of this hearing because, in its view, Dozier had not properly plead or presented a "known and available" alternative method of 6 7 execution as required by Baze and Glossip. At the evidentiary hearing, Petitioner's 8 expert Anesthesiologist, Dr. Waisel, testified about his concerns regarding NDOC's 9 revised protocol and in particular regarding NDOC's proposed use of a paralytic in 10 the execution. NDOC cross-examined Dr. Waisel. This Court, over Petitioner's 11 hearsay objection, admitted as evidence the October 20, 2017, Declaration of Dr. 12 DiMuro, that was requested earlier by this Court.

13 8. At a follow up hearing conducted on November 6, 2017, this Court accepted into evidence, this time over NDOC's objection, a second Declaration of Dr. 14 Waisel signed that same date.² On November 8, 2017, NDOC submitted further 15 revisions to EM 103 and 110. On November 9, 2017, NDOC filed a signed and 16 17 adopted execution manual.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The fundamental question presented to this Court for resolution, once 9. 19 20 NDOC submitted its three drug execution protocol on September 5, 2017, followed 21 by two subsequent revisions to EM 103 and 110 of the protocol on October 20, 2017, and November 8, 2017, concerns NDOC's use of a paralytic agent as the third and 1 lethal drug in its lethal injection protocol. Specifically, the issue is whether NDOC's 2 proposed use of the paralytic drug (Cisatracurium) presents a violation of 3 Petitioner's constitutional rights under either Article 1, Section 6 of the Nevada 4 Constitution and/or the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution. The 5 Court finds that NDOC's proposed use of the paralytic drug in the execution of 6 Petitioner Scott Dozier presents a substantial risk of harm to Petitioner in violation 7 of his state and federal constitutional rights, based upon the untested protocol of 8 9 NDOC, and the limited medical evidence presented by NDOC.

² See Petitioner's November 6, 2017 Supplemental Errata, Ex. 38.

A. Known and Available Alternative

NDOC opposes Petitioner's position regarding elimination of the 10. 11 paralytic agent on essentially two grounds. First, NDOC argues that Petitioner 12 failed, in accordance with the requirements of Baze and Glossip, to plead or show a 13 known and available alternative method of execution. Yet Petitioner, through his 14 defense team, and specifically in his Reply, did provide a known and available 15 alternative. To the extent NDOC's position is that the defense's expert 16 anesthesiologist did not himself offer the alternative, the Court finds NDOC's 17 argument unpersuasive. The argument is based on a technicality, a fine line 18 without a distinction, as Petitioner's expert was ethically obligated to couch his 19 testimony in a particular way while not offering the best way to kill someone based 20 on his anesthesiology experience. Based upon the totality of the testimony of the 21 expert and his declarations, the Court finds NDOC's position that the Petitioner did 22 not pose a known and available method to be an oversimplification. This Court can properly consider Dr. Waisel's testimony in conjunction with the proffered alternative by the defense.

The United States Supreme Court requires that the proffered 4 11. alternative be known, feasible, and readily implementable. Baze, 553 U.S. at 52. 5 6 The Petitioner's proposed alternative here is feasible according to the testimony of Dr. Waisel. The alternative is available according to NDOC's representations that 7 they have access to 15,000 micrograms of Fentanyl and also have sufficient 8 amounts of Diazepam. In addition, NDOC's argument that the alternative proffered 9 is not "known" is of no help to NDOC because the alternative is actually contained 10 within the State's protocol. Additionally, the extent to which the alternative is 11 unknown is equally attributable to the State's own protocol. Nothing is "known" 12 13 about NDOC's untested protocol in this particular case. However, the only cross-14 examined testimony of any medical expert here is that the protocol proposed by Petitioner will in fact kill Petitioner without risk of suffering air hunger or 15 awareness of suffocation. The Court therefore finds that the Petitioner has met his 16 burden of proffering a known and available alternative method of execution. 17

B. Substantial Risk of Harm

19 12. In opposing Petitioner's request to remove the paralytic drug, NDOC 20 argues he cannot establish that its use of the paralytic is unconstitutional under the 21 standard announced by the Supreme Court in Baze and Glossip. Under those 22 decisions, Petitioner must show that, absent removal of the paralytic agent, he is being subjected to a "substantial risk of serious harm." Glossip, 135 S Ct. at 2737; Baze, 553 U.S. at 50. NDOC relies on the Baze decision, in which the Supreme Court determined the use of a paralytic agent in a three-drug protocol was not unconstitutional on the basis that the Baze petitioners were unable to demonstrate use of the paralytic presented the requisite risk of harm. This Court has reviewed Baze in detail and is fully aware that the decision makes it very difficult to mount a lethal injection challenge based upon the language of the case.

8 13. This Court recognizes and appreciates that an inmate sentenced to 9 death is not entitled to a perfect execution. See Baze, 553 U.S. at 48 ("the 10 Constitution does not demand the avoidance of all risk of pain in carrying out 11 executions."). In addition, there will always be some risk of movement – twitching 12 or fist clenching – by the condemned inmate. That is to be expected.

13 14. This Court finds, however, that the circumstances presented in this 14 instance are distinguishable from the circumstances presented in Baze, for 15 numerous reasons.

16 15. First, the protocol proposed by NDOC, unlike Kentucky's protocol in 17 Baze, is untested. Kentucky was using a well-established three-drug protocol 18 (consisting of sodium thiopental, pancuronium bromide and potassium chloride), 19 that had a history of use in Kentucky and in many executions by many other death 20 penalty states. Further, the Supreme Court observed in Baze that of the thirty-six 21 death penalty states at that time, thirty of the states were using the same protocol 22 with the exact same drugs. Baze, 553 U.S. at 44. Here, there is no such similarity

23

2

3

4

among the states: the protocol proposed by NDOC has never been used in any state in the United States and has never previously been reviewed by any court.

3 16. Second, the Supreme Court in Baze referenced a number of studies and periodicals supporting the use of the three-drug protocol utilized by Kentucky. See, 4 e.g., Baze, 553 U.S. at 107-111 (concurring opinion of Breyer, J.). These included 5 studies regarding the adequacy of the first drug anesthetic (Sodium Thiopental), 6 and the potential for awareness of the inmate during the lethal injection process. Id. 7 It is notable that Justice Breyer concluded that it could not be found, either in the 8 record or in readily available literature, that there were grounds to believe that 9 Kentucky's lethal injection method created a significant risk of unnecessary 10 suffering. Here, however, there are no such studies because the Court is examining 11 a protocol that has no similarity and has never been used in any state. 12

13 17. Unlike in Baze, here the only studies presented and that this Court 14 can rely upon are those presented by Petitioner's expert Anesthesiologist, Dr. 15 Waisel, showing that when Fentanyl is administered, awareness can occur even 16 with high doses. See November 3, 2017 hearing, Petitioner's Exs. H, I and J.³ This 17 presents a serious concern. Dr. Waisel's testimony was clear that the condemned 18 inmate could be not breathing yet still be aware, and that the inmate could be 19 unable to respond to stimuli yet still be aware. See infra Paragraphs 19-23.

21

18. Unlike the record in Baze, here all that has been presented to the Court in terms of live testimony is the testimony of Petitioner's expert. This Court finds Dr. Waisel to be a very credible witness. Dr. Waisel testified regarding the risk presented by the proposed use of the Cisatracurium, specifically concerning the 2 3 risk of the inmate suffering "air hunger," and the risk of being aware yet paralyzed and suffocating to death. The Court did not hear any other significant concern 4 5 except for "air hunger" or awareness during the administration of Cisatracurium. For example, the Court heard no evidence about pain in the extremities or anything 6 else.

22 23

19. Dr. Waisel testified that his concern about the risk of air hunger and 8 9 awareness is premised upon an error in the administration of the protocol. If the 10 protocol is followed as written, and Mr. Dozier receives the maximum dosages of 11 Diazepam and Fentanyl as described in the protocol, Dr. Waisel stated there is no risk of air hunger or awareness. Dr. Waisel acknowledged that as long as the 12 13 protocol is followed correctly, there is not a substantial risk of pain from the 14 Cisatracurium.

20. Further, Dr. Waisel stated that, if the first two drugs are delivered 15 successfully as written in the protocol, removing the Cisatracurium is not a slight or 16 17 marginally better alternative method of execution. Dr. Waisel also testified that the 18 Cisatracurium provides no additional benefit. Dr. Waisel testified that Cisatracurium increases the risk of inhumane treatment rather than decreases the 19 20 risk. He stated that in medicine, a doctor would never take a risk that does not 21 provide a benefit.

21. Dr. Waisel testified that it is extremely unlikely to the point of medical certainty that there would be a substantial risk of pain or suffering if Mr. Dozier was executed using 100 mg of Diazepam and 7500 mcg of Fentanyl (without the Cisatracurium).

22. Additionally, Dr. Waisel testified that it is unlikely that Mr. Dozier 5 will experience air hunger or panic after the initial loading doses of diazepam and 6 fentanyl, if the drugs are actually successfully delivered. Just on the loading doses 7 themselves, if the protocol is carried out as written and intended, Dr. Waisel 8 testified there was no need to worry about awareness, air hunger, or pain. Dr. 9 Waisel's opinion here was predicated upon the assumption that the drugs were fully 10 and successfully delivered and an experienced person correctly made the 11 assessments of lack of response to both verbal and tactile stimuli. Dr. Waisel 12 testified that even a surgeon who had been to medical school would not necessarily 13 be able to reliably assess awareness. He testified that there was no objectively 14 ascertainable definition of a medical grade pinch, which is the critical time period 15 where the execution team decides to administer the Cisatracurium. 16

Dr. Waisel testified that there was always more of a potential risk if only the initial loading doses were administered versus the maximum doses of 100 mg of Diazepam and 7,500 mcg of Fentanyl.

20 24. Dr. Waisel also testified that use of the two drugs, Diazepam and 21 Fentanyl, would work, would not be painful, and would cause Mr. Dozier's death.
22 His testimony is unrebutted.

25. Mr. Dozier's execution will be the first execution in Nevada in eleven years in a new and unused execution chamber. Thus, beyond other concerns about NDOC's untested protocol, it is unknown how the delivery or administration of the drugs will go, i.e., whether it will proceed smoothly, given the absence of any recent experience in carrying out lethal injection executions by the prison staff and other participants involved. This adds to the risks presented.

7 26. While this Court admitted the Declaration of Dr. DiMuro, despite the fact that NDOC did not present his live testimony, the Declaration presents little to 8 9 counter the opinions of Petitioner's expert. There is little contained in the 10 Declaration in the way of debate or anticipatory rebuttal of the testimony provided by Dr. Waisel. While the Court does have Dr. DiMuro's Declaration, provided at the 11 Court's request, that is all that the Court has from the State. The Court has 12 13 NDOC's stated purpose of the paralytic, but has very little if anything to contravene 14 the testimony of Petitioner's expert except for written materials presented by the 15 State relating to packaging inserts for Diazepam and Fentanyl and some additional 16 study information. This is in stark contrast to the State of Kentucky and the Baze case where the Court was confronted with a known protocol with numerous 17 18 supporting studies.

Cisatracurium - that the inmate could attempt to move the diaphragm muscle to

Here, the specific rationale offered by Dr. DiMuro to justify use of the

1	initiate a breath ⁴ · constitutes a "masking" event. In accordance with the testimony
2	of Petitioner's expert, this rationale serves as a reason why the Cisatracurium
3	should not be used. It is widely recognized that a major complaint regarding use of a
4	paralytic agent in an execution is that the paralytic serves to "mask" any signs of
5	distress, pain or suffering being experienced by the condemned inmate. This
6	concern was mentioned multiple times by the various justices in the Baze opinions.
7	See Baze, 553 U.S. at 57 (Roberts, C.J., announcing judgment of the Court, joined
8	by Kennedy, J., and Alito, J.) (Petitioner's contend Kentucky should omit the
9	pancuronium bromide "because it serves no therapeutic purpose while suppressing
10	muscle movements that could reveal an inadequate administration of the first
11	drug"), id. at 71 (Stevens, J., concurring in the judgment) ("Because it masks any
12	outward sign of distress, pancuronium bromide creates a risk that the inmate will
13	suffer excruciating pain before death occurs"), id. at 111 (Thomas, J., joined by
14	Scalia, J., concurring in the judgment) ("Petitioners argued that Kentucky
15	should eliminate the use of a paralytic agent, such as pancuronium bromide, which
16	could, by preventing any outcry, mask suffering an inmate might be experiencing
17	because of inadequate administration of the anesthetic"), and id. at 122 (Ginsburg,
18	J., joined by Souter, J., dissenting) ("Kentucky's use of pancuronium bromide to
19	paralyze the inmate means he will not be able to scream after the second drug is
20	injected, no matter how much pain he is experiencing.").

⁴ October 20, 2017 Declaration of John M DiMuro, D.O., p. 3.

While the Supreme Court in Baze observed that use of the paralytic 1 28. 2 serves the purpose of preserving the dignity of the execution, there has been nothing submitted to this Court indicating its use is to serve that purpose here. No 3 medical evidence has been presented that the Cisatracurium is necessary to 4 preserve the dignity of the proceeding or that the request to take out the paralytic 5 is, in the words of Justice Thomas, being offered by the defense to disgrace the 6 death penalty. Id. at 107. This Court simply has not heard any argument or seen 7 any evidence of that being the purpose of the paralytic in this protocol. 8 9 29. Finally, Petitioner additionally raised arguments pursuant to the Glossip and Baze decisions regarding the adequacy of the qualifications and 10 training of prison officials and staff to reliably carry out an execution. This Court 11 finds that NDOC has done a reasonable and appropriate job in having enough 12 personnel under the new protocol to carry out Petitioner's execution. The Court does 13 14 not find that there is any evidence of improperly trained staff based upon the signed 15 protocol. Other than those specifically addressed in this Order, this Court does not 16 find persuasive Petitioner's numerous other alleged failures in the protocol or 17 staffing. NDOC has put together a comprehensive execution protocol in this regard. 18 This finding is provided some support by the opinion of Petitioner's expert, whose testimony the Court has already found to be very credible, that the execution 19 20 protocol will work without use of a paralytic.

- 22 23

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

2 30. For the above stated reasons, and based on the evidence presented, 3 this Court finds that NDOC's proposed use of a paralytic agent in the execution of 4 Petitioner Scott Dozier presents an unconstitutional "substantial risk of serious 5 harm," and an "objectively intolerable risk of harm" in violation of the Eighth 6 Amendment to the United States Constitution and Article 1, Section 6 of the 7 Nevada Constitution, Baze, 553 U.S. at 50. This Court further finds that Petitioner 8 has identified an alternative method of execution that is "feasible, readily 9 implemented, and in fact significantly reduce[s] a substantial risk of severe pain." 10 Id. at 52. Thus, this Court hereby enjoins NDOC from use of a paralytic agent in 11 carrying out the planned execution of Scott Raymond Dozier.

12 The action taken by this Court in response to Petitioner's filings 31. 13 regarding the lawfulness of his planned execution rests upon the Court's inherent 14 authority to inquire into the lawfulness of its own order, here the Court's signing and entry of a warrant of execution for Petitioner Scott Dozier. See Halverson v. 15 Hardcastle, 123 Nev. 245, 261, 163 P.3d 428, 440 (2007); cf. NRS 1.210(3). In 16 17 particular, this Court has the "inherent power to prevent injustice," Halverson, 123 18 Nev. at 261.62, 163 P.3d at 440, and to tailor the scope of its orders to avoid 19 constitutional concerns. See, e.g., Jordan v. State ex rel. Dep't of Motor Vehicles and 20 Public Safety, 121 Nev. 44, 60, 110 P.3d 30, 42 (2005) (orders regarding vexatious litigants must be narrowly tailored to avoid violation of constitutional right of 21 22 access to the courts). Counsel for the NDOC has noted on the record that the Court

1	has the inherent authority to review the execution procedure, but has maintained it
2	must do so within the parameters of case law as established in Baze and Glossip .

Steve Sisolak Governor

Charles Daniels Director

State of Nevada Department of Corrections

March 16, 2020

TO: All Employees FROM: Charles Daniels, Director

SUBJECT: DIRECTOR'S UPDATE IN RESPONSE TO COVID-19

Consistent with national and state health and human services protocols, protecting your health and safety is my top priority. With the issuance of the Governor's emergency declaration we are armed with additional tools and the flexibility to respond to and ultimately contain COVID-19.

With the activation of the State Emergency Operations Center and our Nevada Health Response team, a one stop COVID-19 information website was created to avail you of rapidly developing data, guidance and news impacting you, your family, co-workers and the community. You can access the website here: https://nvhealthresponse.nv.gov/. NDOC has been actively participating in the fight against COVID-19 and exploring ways to mitigate the impact to our State and its citizens.

Here are the current measures we have already implemented with public, staff and inmate safety in mind:

- Suspended all inmate visitation;
- Legal visitation modified to video only;
- Town Hall meetings conducted and scheduled with staff and inmates at every institution;
- Suspended volunteers and external service provider entry into our facilities;
- Commenced symptom detection protocols to include visual observation of influenza-like symptoms and assessment of body temperature of all individuals entering our facilities. For anyone with a temperature greater than 100.3, will be denied entry and instructed to see a community health care provider immediately;
- Suspended all inmate access to the community;
- Activated an Emergency Operation Center at each facility. The hours of operation are 5 a.m. 12 a.m. daily, until further notice.

I extend my thoughts and prayers to the victims, families, and friends who have been impacted by COVID-19. This has been a challenging time for all of us, and I just want you to know how much I appreciate your patience, resolve and your selfless determination to protect the public and one another.

There is no one-size-fits-all approach to how we address this issue, and this is a rapidly developing situation that we will continue to monitor. All options are on the table to ensure the safety of you and your families.

Please remember to monitor and educate those with an underlying serious or long-term medical condition. Please take additional actions to reduce their risk of getting sick with this virus.

I strongly urge you to:

- Conduct an inventory check of personal items recommended to aid in the fight against COVID-19. Gather extra supplies such as soap, tissue, alcohol-based hand sanitizer and basic pantry staples.
- Make a list of emergency contacts to have on hand—family, friends, neighbors, carpool drivers, health care providers, teachers, employers, local public health department and community resources to include relevant websites.

Perform normal everyday precautions to try to avoid getting sick and avoid people who are sick and wash your hands often.

I have formed a team led by Dr. Minev, NDOC's Medical Director. This group has been directed to provide me with ongoing assessment results and recommendations specific to keeping our staff safe.

Should you have any additional questions or concerns, please work through your immediate chain of command.

Thank you

Johnny Nunley, 56, was one of 55 Nevada prisoners who have died of the coronavirus, according to Clark County coroner records and data from the Department of Corrections. Nunley was serving a sentence of six to 15 years for burglary charges when he died on Dec. 3, 2020, at High Desert State Prison. (Lisa Nunley-Macon)

"He said: 'Right now I'm not feeling normal— I have no energy, my eyes hurt, I can't taste my food and everything smells the same; it stinks,'" said Donna Davis, reading from the letter.

Nunley's fears came true. The 56-year-old died of COVID-19 on Dec. 3 at High Desert State Prison, when his family said he was close to being released on parole for burglary charges.

Clark County coroner records identified Nunley as one of 55 Nevada prisoners who died after testing positive for COVID-19, according to March 29 data provided by the Department of Corrections.

Davis said that before her son died, he complained of feeling sicker and sicker to her over the phone. She said he should have received better medical treatment.

"It's like they took the position that he was just an inmate, what difference does it make?" Davis said.

Activists 'stonewalled'

The Department of Corrections declined to identify the 55 prisoners who records show died after testing positive for the virus.

But using records from Nevada coroner's offices and sheriff's departments, the Review-Journal identified 39. All were men.

Those not identified either were considered pending cases, because an agency had not yet independently confirmed and cataloged their cause and manner of death. Or their cases fell under the jurisdiction of the Pershing County Sheriff's Office, which did not respond to requests for comment. Lovelock Correctional Center is located in Pershing County.

Nevada prisoners die after contracting coronavirus

Since the start of the pandemic, among all state prisons, the Northern Nevada Correctional Center in Carson City has seen the most prisoners die after testing positive — 30, according to Department of Corrections data.

The Nevada Sentencing Commission has twice declined to recommend that Gov. Steve Sisolak depopulate the prison population to minimize spread. Last May, the Nevada Supreme Court also denied a petition to release vulnerable and elderly prisoners because of the virus. State data as of Wednesday shows 4,500 coronavirus cases among state prisoners since the start of the pandemic and 980 cases among prison employees.

The youngest prisoner confirmed to have died of COVID-19 was Jeremy Heathmon, 37, who records show was serving two to six years for burglary charges. He died at High Desert State Prison on Nov. 27 amid a reported surge in state prison cases.

At the time, activists implored the state to intervene. But no action came.

Sarah Hawkins, a Clark County public defender and president of Nevada Attorney's for Criminal Justice, said the prison system has "stonewalled" those seeking answers throughout the pandemic. She said activists suspect that more than 55 prisoners have died of the virus.

"What we have been hearing from NDOC does not match what we're hearing from folks who are actually in custody," Hawkins said.

WHAT WE HAVE BEEN HEARING FROM NDOC DOES NOT MATCH WHAT WE'RE HEARING FROM FOLKS WHO ARE ACTUALLY IN CUSTODY.

SARAH HAWKINS, A CLARK COUNTY PUBLIC DEFENDER AND PRESIDENT OF NEVADA ATTORNEY'S FOR CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The prison system has confirmed that 46 of the 55 prisoners reflected in its data died from COVID-19; state law requires an autopsy to confirm the cause of all prisoner deaths. COVID-19 data from the Department of Health and Human Services shows 53 prisoner deaths. A spokeswoman said the agency was reviewing the prison system's other two reported cases.

Hawkins said deaths related to the virus were preventable, and that prison outbreaks are "a result of the Nevada Department of Corrections' failure to act."

"We are incredibly disheartened, and we feel really helpless because we can't get the information we need to challenge that," she said.

In an emailed statement, the Department of Corrections cited the "confidentiality of medical information" when refusing to identify which inmates died of the virus.

"While we all strive to protect the health of offenders and staff, cases have been identified in NDOC facilities and, unfortunately, we have lost both offenders and staff to this virus," the department said in the statement. "Our hearts go out to the families and loved ones of all those who have died from COVID-19."

Three department employees have died of COVID-19, according to state data.

'He only had a few months left'

As cases began to rise, Jamee Fitch could tell that her father was nervous.

"He knew once it got to where it started taking off, that people would start dying," Fitch said. "Those were his words to me."

Following a stroke several years ago, Robert Bowman was housed in a medical unit at the Northern Nevada Correctional Centerwith other men at high risk of contracting COVID-19.

They talked through letters and weekly phone calls, a relationship that took nearly 10 years to repair. Alcoholism had haunted Bowman throughout his life, Fitch said. It's why he was again in prison on a DUI charge. His sentence was set to expire in 2023, but he was due to be released on parole as early as 2021. Then came Christmas time.

THE WARDEN COULDN'T EVEN TELL ME HOW LONG HE WAS SICK FOR, OR HOW LONG HE WAS IN THE HOSPITAL

JAMEE FITCH

Fitch hadn't heard from her father in weeks. The Christmas card he faithfully sent each year never came. Finally, she got a call from the prison, and she immediately knew something was wrong.

"The warden couldn't even tell me how long he was sick for, or how long he was in the hospital," Fitch told the Review-Journal.

Bowman died Dec. 27 at the Carson Tahoe Regional Medical Center, according to the Carson City Sheriff's Office. He was 70.

Fitch said her father and prisoners like him were sandwiched together, never given a "fighting chance" against COVID-19.

She teared up, thinking about how close she was to seeing him again. He was supposed to meet his great-granddaughter upon release, who is now 4; he didn't want her first memory of him to be from behind bars. She will now have to meet him through a letter he left her and the cowboy mementos from his rodeo days that Fitch holds on to.

"That was her only living great-grandparent," she said. "And now that chance is gone, and he only had a few months left."

Like Bowman, Nunley also was close to being released on parole. He had been searching for a place to stay in Clark County when he died of the virus — the same day his mother received his last letter, his sister Lisa Nunley-Macon said.

Nunley-Macon said she partly blames a "lack of care" from the prison system for her brother's death. The former football player, who was serving a six-to-15-year sentence for stealing items from a Las Vegas grocery store, was a "clean freak," she said, and likely would have taken stringent precautions given the freedom to do so.

"I don't believe he would have died if he wasn't in prison," she said.

"The Department of Corrections has simply failed," said a civil liberties advocate. (NDOC social media photo)

Less than 10 percent of nearly 11,000 inmates in the Nevada Department of Corrections are fully vaccinated, officials told Gov. Steve Sisolak Tuesday at the Board of Prison Commissioners meeting.

The low vaccination numbers come despite the department indicating in a March 4 press release, when it began vaccinating eligible inmates, that 46 percent of inmates statewide had signed up to receive the Covid-19 vaccine.

Sisolak was concerned by the "extremely low" numbers presented to the board and questioned staff about efforts to get inmates and staff vaccinated.

"The vaccination program for both the staff and the inmates is a priority for me and this board," Sisolak told NDOC director Charles Daniels. "I want to make sure you reach out to everyone, make them aware of what is available."

Daniels didn't elaborate on why they haven't been vaccinating more inmates and staff despite eligibility, but implied they In exchange with Lee, Haaland noncommittal on BLM HQ

"started seeing a lot of hesitation" after federal officials urged a pause of administering the Johnson & Johnson vaccine a week before Tuesday's commission meeting. The system was relying heavily on the J&J vaccine.

"We are working on our best to increase interest and compliance among our staff and our offenders," added Michael Minev, the medical director for the department. "We actually had a very robust vaccinated effort at Florence McClure Women's Correctional Center but that data has not been compiled."

As of last week, 565 inmates have received the first dose of the Moderna vaccine and 277 have received both doses of Moderna. Another 688 have received the J&J single dose. There are currently 10,796 people incarcerated in the Nevada prison system.

Families of those incarcerated pushed back against corrections officials, saying their loved ones have requested the vaccine but still haven't received anything.

"My husband qualified for the vaccination last week. However, the only thing you're giving out is Johnson & Johnson and they pulled it," said Patricia Adkinson during public comment.

Nick Shepack, a policy fellow with the ACLU of Nevada, called the numbers "abysmal."

"The Department of Corrections has simply failed," he said. "This is another failure on part of the new NDOC leadership. It speaks to the same issues that led to the outbreaks where they were unable to get people PPE and they were unable to get people enough food. Now, they aren't able to get people the vaccine."

Since the Johnson & Johnson vaccine was pulled, Daniels said

"Everyone will have available to them a vaccine other than the Johnson product if they so desire to get one," he said.

The Nevada Department of Corrections began vaccinating staff in December.

Minev said 33 percent of all staff are fully vaccinated, with 831 having received both doses of the Moderna and another 39 staff members getting the J&J vaccine. Another 1,230, or 48 percent of the staff, have received the first dose of Moderna.

Sisolak said the low vaccination numbers could scrap plans to allow visitations again on May 1, which have been halted for more than 13 months.

"It was my desire, and I expressed to Director Daniels, I would like to open up visitation for our offenders but I can't do that when it's only 5 percent who have been fully vaccinated and only 11 percent have gotten the first dose," Sisolak said.

Some families speaking during public comment said they have received conflicting information about the resumption of visits.

"Literally there has not been a word until a few days ago and that has turned into a rumor and gossip mill about what is true, what facility heard what and who heard what," said Jodi Hocking, the founder of the prison advocacy group Return Strong. "If the department would actually communicate in a way that let people have open access to information that isn't a security risk without everything being secretive it would be much better."

A member of Return Strong said she reached out to the family services coordinator an hour before the Board of Prison

Daniels said NDOC is providing inmates information about visitations and "putting information out to the general public on our social media sites."

As Daniels was saying that , none of the department's social media accounts provided any such information, but by early Tuesday evening there was an NDOC Facebook post announcing visitation would resume May 1.

The Nevada Department of Corrections has been often and repeatedly criticized during the last year for a lack of transparency by civil rights groups, criminal reform activists, private attorneys and elected officials.

As if to underscore the criticisms, Tuesday's meeting, which was supposed to be streamed for the public, wasn't. An NDOC official told commissioners, which includes Sisolak, Attorney General Aaron Ford and Secretary of State Barbara Cegavske, that the video was down.

Shepack said the ACLU is looking into whether this violated Nevada's open meeting law, noting that since people could call in for public comment he couldn't say definitively.

"There are some meetings held during Covid that were call-in only and had no video, but those (conditions were) clearly stated when the meetings were posted," he said. "We believe that since it was posted that it would be televised on YouTube it very well may be (in violation). It's problematic even if it's not. It barred a lot of people from participation. Nobody can go back and watch it."

It's not the first time a Board of Prison Commissioners meeting has been scrutinized for sidelining the public. "The last Board of Prison Commissioners' meeting, they tried to set a deadline that was six days before for a written comment," he added. "It was on Martin Luther King Day. The deadline was at noon, on a holiday, six days before a meeting. It feels intentional that they don't want the families to show up and call out the director."

In addition to updates around vaccinations, Minev also told the board 70 people have been "medically evaluated for compassionate release," a substantial increase from previous years.

When asked about the 298 program, which outlines compassionate release, NDOC officials told Nevada Current that in 2020 "only three applied, but two of the offenders did not have physician's letters."

Hocking previously said those numbers don't paint an accurate picture adding that people "don't apply because the process is so difficult and most of (the inmates) don't even know that they can apply."

Minev told the board of the 70 people that have been medically evaluated for compassionate release statewide:

- 22 inmates from Northern Nevada Correctional Center
- 17 inmates from High Desert State Prison
- Seven inmates from Florence McClure Women's Correctional Center
- 14 inmates from Southern Desert Correctional Center
- One inmate from Warm Springs Correctional Center
- One inmates from Wells Conservation Camp
- Eight from Lovelock Correctional Center

He added that as of Monday, "17 of these 70 offenders for compassionate release cleared initial medical screening.

"Of these 17 offenders, nine are being reviewed for compassionate release," he added. "One offender at Florence McClure Women's Correctional Center has been accepted and approved by director Daniels pending the 45-day notification to the County Commission."

Commissioners were supposed to discuss an administrative regulation on inmate deductions, but took no action. Inmate deductions have been discussed several times at prior board meetings after NDOC began seizing up to 80 percent of funds in inmate accounts last September.

Money, usually deposited by families and friends, is used to buy necessities such as food and soap or pay for medical needs. Despite the board rescinding the regulation in January, many families called in to say the practice is ongoing.

Hocking said they submitted 59 letters for written public comment, but none of the letters have been made available on the Board or Prison Commissioners' website where other meeting agenda items are available.

Since Senate Bill 22, which is currently being heard in the legislative session, would regulate inmate deductions, Ford suggested they table discussions until the next board meeting.

OF EL PASO COUNTY, TEXAS

STATE OF TEXAS	$ $
v.	§ CAUSE NO 20060D05825
FABIAN HERNANDEZ	8 §

ORDER DENYING STATE'S MOTION REQUESTING EXECUTION DATE

On this date, this Court, came to consider the State's Third Motion Requesting Execution Date for Defendant Fabian Hernandez. After considering the State's Motion and the Defendant's response brief, the court hereby DENIES the State's motion without prejudice, for the reasons set forth below:

- 1. On April 23, 2020 the execution date was stayed by the Court of Criminal Appeals due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- 2. Defendant intends to seek clemency.
- 3. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, counsel was unable to meet with Mr. Hernandez because all visitation in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) was suspended.
- 4. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic traveling to meet with Mr. Hernandez posed a significant health risk to not only counsel but anyone else that wished to travel to TDCJ.
- 5. According to the TDCJ website, that suspension has now been lifted starting today, March 15, 2021 and visitation has now resumed but in a limited capacity.

6. Even though TDCJ resumed visitation in a limited capacity today, there is still an unnecessary risk not only to TDCJ personnel, but to the victim's family as well as the defendant's family who will be present during the execution process.

THEREFORE, this matter will be set for a status hearing in June 2021. The specific date and time will be provided under a separate order.

SIGNED this the 15th day of March, 2021.

Order Granting Preliminary Injunction

The Court concluded in an order issued on this date that plaintiffs Patrick R. Smith and Brandon S. Holm have demonstrated that they are entitled to a preliminary injunction. The defendants are enjoined from carrying out any future executions in the next 60 days without implementing the following policies:

- 1. The defendants will enforce mask requirements for all staff participants in the executions.
- 2. The defendants will maintain contact logs for all FCC Terre Haute staff members involved in any execution who have close contact—within 6 feet for a total of 15 minutes over the course of a 24-hour period—with any other person during execution preparation, during an execution, or during the post-execution process.
- 3. For 14 days following any such close contact, the defendants will require the impacted FCC Terre Haute staff member to produce a negative COVID-19 result using one of the complex's rapid testing machines each day before beginning ordinary duties that involve interaction with FCC inmates.

AP analysis: Federal executions likely a COVID superspreader

AP analysis: Federal executions likely a COVID superspreader

By MICHAEL TARM, MICHAEL BALSAMO and MICHAEL R. SISAK February 5, 2021

WASHINGTON (AP) — As the Trump administration was nearing the end of an unprecedented string of executions, 70% of death row inmates were sick with COVID-19. Guards were ill. Traveling prisons staff on the execution team had the virus. So did media witnesses, who may have unknowingly infected others when they returned home because they were never told about the spreading cases.

Records obtained by The Associated Press show employees at the Indiana prison complex where the 13 executions were carried out over six months had contact with inmates and other people infected with the coronavirus, but were able to refuse testing and declined to participate in contact tracing efforts and were still permitted to return to their work assignments.

ADVERTISEMENT

Other staff members, including those brought in to help with executions, also spread tips to their colleagues about how they could avoid quarantines and skirt public health guidance from the federal government and Indiana health officials.

The executions at the end of Donald Trump's presidency, completed in a short window over a few weeks, likely acted as a superspreader event, according to the records reviewed by AP. It was something health experts warned could happen when the Justice Department insisted on resuming executions during a pandemic.

It's impossible to know precisely who introduced the infections and how they started to spread, in part because prisons officials didn't consistently do contact tracing and haven't been fully transparent about the number of cases. But medical experts say it's likely the executioners and support staff, many of whom traveled from prisons in other states with their own virus outbreaks, triggered or contributed both in the Terre Haute penitentiary and beyond the prison walls.

Of the 47 people on death row, 33 tested positive between Dec. 16 and Dec. 20, becoming infected soon after the executions of Alfred Bourgeois on Dec. 11 and Brandon Bernard on Dec. 10, according to Colorado-based attorney Madeline Cohen, who compiled the names of those who tested positive by reaching out to other federal death row lawyers. Other lawyers, as well as activists in contact with death row inmates, also told AP they were told a large numbers of death row inmates tested positive in mid-December.

In addition, at least a dozen other people, including execution team members, media witnesses and a spiritual adviser, tested positive within the incubation period of the virus, meeting the criteria of a superspreader event, in which one or more individuals trigger an outbreak that spreads to many others outside their circle of acquaintances. The tally could be far higher, but without contact tracing it's impossible to be sure.

ADVERTISEMENT

Active inmate cases at the Indiana penitentiary also spiked from just three on Nov. 19 - the day Orlando Cordia Hall was put to death — to 406 on Dec. 29, which was 18 days after Bourgeois' execution, according to Bureau of Prisons data. The data includes the inmates at the high-security penitentiary, though the Bureau of Prisons has never said whether it included death row inmates in that count.

In all, 726 of the approximately 1,200 inmates at the United States Penitentiary at Terre Haute have tested positive for COVID-19 since the start of the pandemic, according to Bureau of Prisons data. Of them, 692 have recovered.

Advocates and lawyers for the inmates, a Zen Buddhist priest who was a spiritual adviser for one prisoner, and even the families of some of the victims fought to delay the executions until after the pandemic. Their requests were rebuffed repeatedly and their litigation failed. And some got sick.

Witnesses, who were required to wear masks, watched from behind glass in small rooms where it often wasn't possible to stand six feet apart. They were taken to and from the deathchamber building in vans, where proper social distancing often wasn't possible. Passengers frequently had to wait in the vans for an hour or more, with windows rolled up and little ventilation, before being permitted to enter the execution-chamber building. And in at least one case, the witnesses were locked inside the execution chamber for more than four hours with little ventilation and no social distancing.

Prison staff told their colleagues they should first get on planes, go back to their homes and then they could take a test, according to two people familiar with the matter. If they were positive, they said, they could just quarantine and wouldn't be stuck in Terre Haute for two weeks, said the people, who could not publicly discuss the private conversations and spoke to AP on condition of anonymity.

Following Hall's execution in November, only six members of the execution team opted to get coronavirus tests before they left Terre Haute, the Justice Department said in a court filing. The agency said they all tested negative. But days later, eight members of the team tested positive for the virus. Five of the staff members who had tested positive were brought back to Terre Haute for more executions a few weeks later.

Yusuf Ahmed Nur, the spiritual adviser for Hall, stood just feet away inside the execution chamber when Hall was executed on Nov. 19. He tested positive for the virus days later.

Writing about the experience, Nur said he knew he would be putting himself at risk, but that Hall had asked him to be at his side when he was put to death. He, and Hall's family, felt obliged to be there.

"I could not say no to a man who would soon be killed," Nur wrote. "That I contracted COVID-19 in the process was collateral damage" of executions during a pandemic.

Later, two journalists tested positive for the virus after witnessing other executions in January, then had contact with activists and their own loved ones, who later tested positive as well. Despite being informed of the diagnoses, the Bureau of Prisons knowingly withheld the information from other media witnesses and decided not to initiate any contact tracing efforts.

By mid-December, prison officials said that both Corey Johnson and Dustin Higgs were sick. They were the last two prisoners to be executed, just days before President Joe Biden took office.

Death row was put on lockdown after their results, inmates told Ashley Kincaid Eve, a lawyer and anti-death penalty activist. But even though they had also tested positive, she said Higgs and Johnson were still moved around the prison — potentially infecting guards accompanying them — so they could use phones and email to speak with their lawyers and families as their execution dates approached. Eve said prisons officials may have worried a court would delay the executions on constitutional ground if that access was denied.

In response to questions from the AP, the Bureau of Prisons said staff members who don't experience symptoms "are clear to work" and that they have their temperatures taken and are asked about symptoms before reporting for duty. (The AP has previously reported that staff members at other prisons were cleared with normal temperatures even when thermometers showed hypothermic readings.)

The agency said it also conducts contact training in accordance with federal guidance and that "if staff are circumventing this guidance, we are not aware."

Officials said staff members were required to participate in contact tracing "if they met the criteria for it" and agency officials couldn't compel employees to be tested.

"We cannot force staff members to take tests, nor does the CDC recommend testing of asymptomatic individuals," an agency spokesperson said, referring to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

The union for Terre Haute employees declined to comment, saying it did not want to "get into the public fray of this whole issue."

Elsewhere, union officials have long complained about the spread of the coronavirus through the federal prison system, as well as a lack of personal protective equipment and room to isolate infected inmates. Some of those issues have been alleviated, but containing the virus continues to be a concern at many facilities.

No more executions have yet been scheduled under Biden. The Bureau of Prisons has repeatedly refused to say how many other people have tested positive for the coronavirus after the last several executions. And the agency would not answer questions about the specific reasoning for withholding the information from the public, instead directing the AP to file a public records request.

The Bureau of Prisons said it also "took extensive efforts to mitigate the transmission" of the virus, including limiting the number of media witnesses and adding an extra van for the witnesses to space them out.

It has argued witnesses were informed social distancing may not be possible in the execution chamber and that witnesses and others were required to wear masks and were offered additional protective equipment, like gowns and face shields. The agency also refused to answer questions about whether Director Michael Carvajal or any other senior leaders raised concerns about executing 13 people during a worldwide pandemic that has killed more than 450,000 in the U.S.

Still, it appears their own protocols weren't followed. After a federal judge ordered the Bureau of Prisons to ensure masks were worn during executions in January, the executioner and U.S. marshal in the death chamber removed their masks during one of the executions, appearing to violate the judge's order. The agency argued they needed to do so to communicate clearly and that they only removed their masks for a short time and disputes that it violated the order.

In a Nov. 24 court filing on the spread of COVID at Terre Haute, Joe Goldenson, a public health expert on the spread of disease behind bars, said hundreds of staff participated in one way or another at each execution, including around 40 people on execution teams and those on 50-person specialized security teams who traveled from other prisons nationwide. He said he had warned earlier that executions were likely to become a superspreader.

Medical and public health experts repeatedly called on the Justice Department to delay

executions, arguing the setup at prisons made them especially vulnerable to outbreaks, including because social distancing was impossible and health care substandard.

"These are the type of high-risk superspreader events that the (American Medical Association) and (the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention) have been warning against throughout the pandemic," James L. Madara, the executive vice president of the AMA, wrote to the Department of Justice on Jan. 11, just before the last three federal executions were carried out.

Nevada's top doctor isn't licensed to practice medicine in the United States.

Ihsan Azzam testified in Las Vegas on Tuesday that he has a master's degree and worked for several years in environmental public health and epidemiology before being named chief state medical officer last May.

Azzam says he practiced for several years as an obstetrics and gynecology physician in Africa before moving to the United States in the 1990s.

Azzam testified that while he has no background in anesthesia or pain management, he says the doses of three drugs proposed for an inmate's lethal injection would be enough to kill a mammoth.

Gerald,

I will try and get a good feel for what is going on in some of the smaller budgets to see if there are matters of interest and let you know.

As far as the hotel college, let me know if the Governor wants to have a discussion with Gus Nunez and me. We could get overall estimates of cost, time frame and potential resources that UNLV can bring to the table. The concern is really not getting the dasign work done. Money is already available for that. The key is where we come up with construction costs in the next blennium – there are always options if this is a high priority.

The next two weeks - Fridays are my only available day. I would be happy to have meetings on those days to let you know how things are going. Let me know and I will have my assistant get it set up.

My thoughts are the general flow for this first phase of the budget will be as follows:

September 17th to 28th - full review of key budget initiatives (budget hearings)

October 1" through 10th – make major decisions regarding what comes out of agency request and what goes in (meetings set up with the Governor on Oct 2rd and 10th (the key in my opinion is to be careful about what we include so we do not have to take away in Gov Rec – also when do we put forward Governor's key initiatives – I recommend Gov Rec as it remains confidential until the State of the State – January

October 15th - Agency request is finalized and transmitted to LCB - it also becomes a public document

I have time between now and 11am, this afternoon after 4:30p or tomorrow if you want to sit down and discuss the general flow.

Hi Jeff.

I'm meeting with the Governor this afternoon on these and will let you know. I know that the Hotei College is a priority.

Thanks for having the budget hearings schedule sent over. Any recommendations on which of these are a mustattend? (I was planning to attend Ed on Monday, DPS on Thursday, NDOT, NSHE, HHS next week at a minimum).

Do you still want to have a regular meeting while the hearings are going on? I know you're going to be running all day. Let me know and I'll keep some time open Monday or Tuesday afternoon for you. Otherwise we can just touch base on the fly.

Thanks, Gerald

From: Jeff Mohlenkamp Sent: Wednesday, September 12, 2012 8:26 AM To: Gerald Gardner Subject: CIP Projects

Gerald,

The Public Warks Board meets on September 18th to finalize recommendations to the Governor of priority CIP projects. While it is ultimately the Governor's decision which projects are funded and which are not, traditionally Governor's have followed the recommendations pretty closely with a few modifications.

Most of the projects being given high consideration are larger maintenance projects that are necessary to keep state building functional. There are a few, however, that do not fall into that definition. I would like some thoughts on whether these items are priority for the Governor in order to keep the SPWB recommendations closely aligned with the final funding recommendations.

The following projects are under consideration:

- Statewide energy program -- this would be a new program to set funds aside to work on energy savings projects that have functional payback of less than 8 years. Examples would be use of high efficiency lighting, additional solar projects, replacement of older less efficient systems. The request is for approximately $2 million. Ideally, the funds would be used to secure federal grants and to leverage NV Energy funds that might be available.
- 2. Movement of Execution Chamber from NSP- this modifies Ely State Prison to create an execution chamber. Due to the closure of NSP and the lack of ADA compliance of the existing chamber, the NOOC is recommending replacement. There are significant concerns that the current facility would not pass any court challenges. Further, while the only execution facility remains at NSP, it is difficult to find other uses for the facility. This is estimated at less than $1 million. My guess is that we will have some cost creep here and end up somewhat higher but even at $1.5 million, this cost is very low.
- Movement of License Plate factory from NSP in order to use this facility for other purposes, the factory needs to be relocated. The concept is to move it to a location adjacent to NNCC in Carson. This is highway funded at a cost of $4.4 million.
- 4. Sahara DMV replacement this provides for the replacement of the DMV located on Sahara. The current facility is very old and has several issues. This is also highway funded at a cost of over $23 million. Alternatively, we could complete the design work this biennium and construct next biennium if funding is available. Due to the potential low fund balance in the highway fund, 1 am concerned about this project.
- UNLV Hotel College I need to know how high a priority this is to get done. It is likely that over the next biennium we will need to come up with $10's of millions of state funds to get this constructed.
- 6. Any other new projects desired by the Governor- i am unsure if there are other priority projects. If so, we need to keep in mind that we have approximately $70 million of significant maintenance projects that we need to fund. Therefore, additional projects may require the reduction of other enhancements under consideration.

Let me know if you would like to meet to discuss this prior to September 18th. It is not critical that we have decisions but just helps to have the Governor's ultimate projects more closely aligned with the SPWB recommendations.

Remodel Administration Building to Accommodate Executions

Detail Description:

The scope of this project is to dasign and construct tenant improvements in the current Ely State Prison Administration Building to accommodate an execution chamber. Tenant improvements will include remodeling of approximately 1,900 square feet of Ely State Prison Administration Building's Visitation and Court Room areas.

Project Justification:

The current Execution facility is located at the now closed Nevada State Prison. The relocation of the Execution facility to an active prison and is adjacent to Death Row at the Ely State Prison is critical to the operation of the correctional system.

Background Information:

Tenant improvements are to be based on the proposed Prison 8 model and the San Quentin, California model and include an erchitectural program and construction documents acceptable to the 9th District Court. State Public Works Division has developed a conceptual design and cost estimate for the facility remodel to accommodate the execution chamber.

Public Works Manager Gus Nunez on Thursday recommended a capital improvement projects budget that includes building a new execution chamber at the Ely State Prison.

The historic execution chamber is the former gas chamber at the now-closed Nevada State Prison in Carson City. Experts have said under new court rulings it may well be impossible to conduct future executions in Carson and, at present, there are more than 100 inmates on death row in Nevada.

Director of Administration Jeff Mohlenkamp said one major security advantage of building a new chamber in Ely is that those inmates are all housed there, since it's Nevada's maximum security institution. In the past, inmates had to be transported from Ely to Carson City when an execution order was issued.

According to the proposed project list, constructing an execution chamber in the Ely prison administration building would cost $692,289. That is far less than the $5.3 million estimate to build a new execution building in Southern Nevada.

Mohlenkamp, formerly the chief fiscal officer for the Department of Corrections, said the getting a new chamber - for less than $1 million that meets court-imposed standards - would be a bargain if the state was instructed by the courts to execute one of the death row inmates.

Prison spokesman Brian Connett said the plans for the execution chamber are based on the California design that has already been accepted by the 9th Circuit Court. Connett said the center will take up about 1,900 square feet of the existing administration building. He is hoping the upgrade is included in the 2014 budget.

The new execution chamber was part of a $127 million package of projects recommended by Nunez for the coming biennium. Of that total, just $79.8 million is state general fund money. Most of the rest, more than $30 million, is highway fund money.

Mohlenkamp said he doesn't yet know exactly how much money will be available for the list of projects but will have to develop an estimate by Oct. 1.

He said his office is trying to get creative because there really isn't any capacity for new bonding of projects for at least the next few years.

Nunez told the board whatever of money available will be used first on life safety and legal issues such as disability access, security issues, HVAC and electrical work and projects to prevent deterioration of state facilities.

He said one example is replacing the access bridge at the Caliente Youth Center - one of Nevada's juvenile offender institutions. He said that bridge is the only access and that, "during flooding in the past they've had to evacuate the kids by helicopter."

The life safety list, including just more than $3 million in ADA projects, totals $11.4 million.

Most of the $10.2 million in security projects goes to the prison system. That list does include renovation of the control room at Lakes Crossing, the high security facility for mentally ill and dangerous offenders.

"These projects we feel will help keep facilities functioning in a safe environment for state employees," he said.

One project that, again, is expected to be postponed is the new hotel college building at UNLV. College officials have that as one of their top priorities because they are concerned Harrah's Corp. may back out of its promise to fund half the estimated $50 million cost of the college but Nunez said there just isn't the money at this point.

HVAC and electrical work is projected to consume about $25 million of the total available and preventative maintenance some $17 million.

The Public Works Board took no action on the recommendations presented Thursday. They meet again Sept. 18 to try finalize the list.

Re: Public Records Request

Dear Mr. Pescetta:

As we discussed on the telephone, I am the Deputy Attorney General and Construction Law Counsel for the State Public Works Division. SPWD staff gathered all documents in their possession that are responsive and they are contained on the enclosed CD.

The following list tracks the Attachment 'A' included in your March 29, 2013 correspondence.

- 1. Included is a copy of Facility Analysis performed by SPWD Facility Group. All other documents responsive to this request are contained on the enclosed CD.
- 2. Photos taken of various locations throughout Nevada State Prison including the death chamber and entryways to and from the chamber.
- 3. See response to No. 2.
- 4. SPWD does not have any documents that are responsive to this request other than what is produced here.
- 5. No design or "plans" were completed for the 'new execution chamber in Ely, Nevada.' As you may know, the Nevada Legislature did not approve this project for inclusion in the 2013 Capital Improvement Program.
- 6. All documents prepared in connection with the proposal to then Nevada Legislature to design an execution chamber at Ely State Prison are included.
- SPWD does not have documents responsive to this request. I will forward your request to Department of Administration Director, Jeff Mohlencamp and NDOC Director, Greg Cox for further response as they deem appropriate.

Certain documents have been redacted for the simple reason that they contain irrelevant information. For example, a March 10-11, 2013, 4-page e-mail exchange between SPWD and the Legislature. The e-mail discusses numerous NDOC projects in addition to the Ely execution chamber. Projects irrelevant to your request were redacted. I also redacted NDOC Director Cox' e-mail address. To my knowledge Director Cox' e-mail is not public and I also do not believe it is relevant to your request.

l appreciate your patience in this matter. If you have any questions, please call me. Thank you.

Nevada State Prison, Modified Occupancy and Life Safety Plan

The NDOC has received a Legislative mandate to close the facility by April 1, 2012. With the general decommissioning of the facility there needs to be consideration for the continued operation of several buildings on the campus under the authority of a Modified Occupancy Certificate.

The NDOC Plan for continued beneficial use is as follows:

Buildings to be remain operational until such time that the operation/ mission/ use can be relocated to another facility.

A. The Generator Building

The Generator Building is operational and will continue to be operational with existing electrical service for the block heater and for lighting. The Gen-set is intended to remain operational to provide service to the DMV tag plant, Courtroom and the Northeast Corner of Unit 2.

- 1. The Use of this Building is: F-1 (factory)
- 2. The occupancy of this building is 1.
- 3. The access to this building is by uniformed Custody or Maintenance Staff only.
- 4. There is 1 exit.
- 5. Fire Watch is proposed to be by Uniformed Maintenance or Custody NDOC Staff, while there is an occupant in the building. The Building is furnished with one (1) wall mounted fire extinguisher.

B. The Tag Plant Building

The Tag Plant Building will remain operational and is self-contained with heating, cooling, and plumbing. Domestic water service and Fire Sprinkler service will be maintained. Electrical service will be supplied from the main switch gear.

- 1. The Use of this Building is: F-1 (factory)
- 2. The approximate square footage of this building is 4,000 sf. Per Table 1004.1.1. Fabrication and Manufacturing. The Floor Area per Occupant is 50.
- 3. The maximum occupancy of this building is therefore: 20. (DMV operates this plant with less than 19 persons). Two Exits are provided out of this plant. One located at the main entrance on the south side, and one on the north side.
- 4. Movement into and out of the Tag Plant is supervised by Uniformed NDOC Staff and /or DMV Staff.

- 5. Fire Protection is via Fire Sprinklers in this building.
- 6. The Fire Alarm System is monitored at the building and the service agreement with the Vendor is for maintenance only.
- 7. The Building is furnished with one (1) toilet and one (1) lavatory.

C. The New Maintenance building:

The new Maintenance building is self contained for Utility service. This building will remain operational. The building is furnished with its own fire sprinkler suppression system.

- 1. The Use of this Building mixed with F-1 and B functions.
- 2. The approximate square footage of this building is 4,000 sf. Per Table 1004.1.1. Fabrication and Manufacturing. The Floor Area per Occupant is 200.
- 3. The maximum occupancy of this building is therefore: 20. Five exits are provided out of this building.
- 4. Fire Protection is via Fire Sprinklers in this building.
- 5. The Fire Alarm System is monitored at the building and the service agreement with the Vendor is for maintenance only.

D. The Gate House:

The Gate house will be secure yet idled and will be not be used on a daily basis. This part of the operational is self contained as far as utilities. The HVAC is self contained as is the plumbing. The building is not fire sprinklered.

- 1. The Use of this Building is: B (office)
- 2. The approximate square footage of this building is 150 sf. Per Table 1004.1.1. Office. The Floor Area per Occupant is 100.
- 3. The maximum occupancy of this building is therefore: 2. Two Exits are provided out of this building.
- 4. The building serves as the main entrance to the Prison grounds and is supervised by Uniformed NDOC Staff when in use.
- 5. Fire Protection is proposed to be by Uniformed NDOC Staff when assigned. The Building is furnished with one (1) wall mounted fire extinguishers.
- 6. Combustible content has been removed from this building.

E. Court House (Tours and Events):

The Court House will remain operational on an as-needed basis. This building is selfcontained with HVAC and water and plumbing. The space is not fire sprinklered.

- 1. The Use of this Building is: A-3 (assembly)
- 2. The approximate square footage of this building is 3,000 sf. Per Table 1004.1.1. Office. The Floor Area per Occupant is 40
- 3. The maximum occupancy of this building is therefore: 75. Two Exits are provided out of this building. One located at the main entrance on the north side, and one on the southeast side.

- 4. Movement into and out of the Court House is supervised by NDOC Staff.
- 5. Fire Watch is proposed to be by Uniformed NDC Staff. The Building is furnished with one (1) wall mounted fire extinguisher.
- 6. The Building is equipped with three (3) toilets and three (3) lavatories. The existing restrooms will all be marked UNISEX, thus complying with the current requirements of IBC 2006 Chapter 29. Table 2902.1.
- 7. For ADA use, the requirement of providing (1) Accessible restroom will be accommodated with a portable ADA compliant restroom facility.
- Accessible access into and out of the facility will be provided by staff escorts through temporary means.

F. Execution Chamber Area (Between FPU and Cell Block A):

This area will remain operational on an as-needed basis. We propose that the area be heated or cooled with portable units as needed and that the NDOC staff will post a fire watch during the use of this area.

Picase refer to the attached sketch SK-2 witch highlights the area of intended use.

- 1. The Use of this Area in Cell Block A is: I-3. Condition 5. (Institutional)
- 2. The approximate square footage of this area is 200 sf. Per Table 1004.1.1. Prison. The Floor Area per Occupant is 7.
- 3. The maximum occupancy of this chamber is therefore: 29. Two Exits are provided. One Exit is provided out of this room. One located at the stair well inside building 3, and one on the exterior of the building.
- 4. Detention Cells adjacent to this room are for temporary holding and would be used under the direct supervision of Uniformed NDOC staff.
- 5. Movement into and out of the Execution Chamber is supervised by Uniformed NDOC Staff. Movement into and out of this location would be via the following route:
 - a. Enter the Main Entrance at the NSP Front Doors.
 - b. Proceed past the control room and onto the main yard.
 - c. Ascend the stairway at Cell Block A 3 to gain entrance to the main floor of the cell block.
 - d. Advance to the interior Cell house stairs. Proceed up one (1) flight.
 - e. Advance to the Execution Chamber area via the interior stairs, one (1) flight.
- 6. Fire Watch is proposed to be by Uniformed NDOC Staff. The Stairway is furnished with one (1) wall mounted fire extinguisher.
- 7. Accommodations for the disabled are as follows:

- a. Special accommodations for those person who are ambulatory and may need assistance with stairs or ramps will be assisted by NDOC Uniformed Staff.
- b. Audio and Visually challenged persons will be provided reasonable accommodations as required by ADA via electronic means.
- c. An alternate entrance and exit route will be through the vehicle sally port beneath tower 2 and into the Cell House 3 via the east exit and/or the exterior stairs.
- 8. Restrooms are not available in this area for the general public, however, temporary, (portable), restrooms will be provided in close proximity to this area.
- 9. Warden's office and Central Control:
- 10. These rooms will remain operational on an as-needed basis. We propose that the area be heated or cooled with portable units as needed and that the NDOC staff will post a fire watch during the use of this area.
- 11. The Use of this Area is: B. (office)
- 12. The approximate square footage of the Warden's office is 200 sf. Per Table 1004.1.1. Prison. The Floor Area per Occupant is 2
- 13. The approximate square footage of the Control Room is 200 sf. Per Table 1004.1.1. Prison. The Floor Area per Occupant is 2
- 14. The maximum occupancy of this area is therefore: 4. Two Exits are provided. One Exit is provided to the main yard.. One exit is provided at the main entrance.
- 15. Fire Watch is proposed to be by Uniformed NDOC Staff. This area is furnished with two (2) wall mounted fire extinguishers.
- 16. A Restroom is available near the Warden's office.

Per curiam. YEARY and SLAUGHTER, JJ., concur.

O R D E R

We have before us a motion for leave to file an application for a writ of mandamus, an application for a writ of mandamus, and a motion to stay Relator's execution. In June 2011, a jury convicted Relator of the offense of capital murder. Based on the jury's answers to the special issues submitted pursuant to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure article 37.071, the trial court sentenced Relator to death. This Court affirmed Relator's conviction and sentence on direct appeal. Hummel v. State, No. AP-76,596 (Tex. Crim. App. Nov. 20, 2013) (not designated for publication). And we denied relief on Relator's initial post-conviction application for a writ of habeas corpus. Ex parte Hummel, No. WR-81,578-02 (Tex. Crim. App. Feb. 10, 2016) (not designated for publication).

Relator is set to be executed on March 18, 2020. In the application for a writ of mandamus currently pending before this Court, Relator argues that the trial court erred in refusing to: (1) disqualify the prosecutor's office, and (2) withdraw the facially defective execution warrant issued in his case. On both issues, Relator has failed to show that he is entitled to the issuance of a writ of mandamus. Therefore, we deny leave to file the application. We also deny Relator's motion to stay his execution based upon that application.

However, we have also determined that the execution should be stayed at the present time in light of the current health crisis and the enormous resources needed to address that emergency. Therefore, on our own motion, we stay Relator's execution for a period of sixty days. The stay will be automatically lifted after that time.

STATE OF TEXAS	§	IN THE DISTRICT COURT
	ş	290TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
CARLOS TREVINO	ş	BEXAR COUNTY, TEXAS

ORDER WITHDRAWING EXECUTION DATE

The Court considered Defendant's Motion to Withdraw Order Setting Execution Date and Warrant of Execution.

Carlos Trevino is scheduled to be executed September 30, 2020, pursuant to an execution warrant issued by this Court on April 16, 2020. On March 13, 2020, Governor Abbott declared a disaster in Texas due to the threat posed by COVID-19, a disease caused by a novel coronavirus. That same date, the Texas Supreme Court issued its First Emergency Order Regarding the COVID-19 State of Disaster pursuant to Texas Government Code § 22.0035(b). That order provided, inter alia, that "all courts in Texas may in any case, civil or criminal - and must to avoid risk to court staff, parties, attorneys, jurors, and the public - without a participant's consent... [m]odify or suspend any and all deadlines and procedures, whether prescribed by statute, rule, or order, for a stated period ending no later than 30 days after the Governor's state of disaster has been lifted." This Order was renewed on June 29, 2020, (Eighteenth Emergency Order Regarding the COVID-19 State of Disaster) and August 6, 2020 (Twenty-Second Emergency Order Regarding the COVID-19 State of Disaster), which extended the Court's powers until September 30, 2020.

Because of the foregoing, and the current COVID-19 conditions in Texas, this Court ORDERS that the previous warrant of execution, setting the Defendant's execution date for September 30, 2020, be withdrawn and the death warrant be recalled.

It is also ORDERED that the Bexar County District Clerk's Office to communicate with Joni White, Assistant Director of Records and Classification, Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Institutional Division (or other such required personnel of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Institutional Division), immediately upon signing of this order, that the warrant of execution has been recalled until further ordered by this Court.

It is also HEREBY ORDRERED that the parties are to reconvene for a hearing before this court to reset the execution date, said hearing to take place March 5, 2021, at 9:00 a.m.

The Bexar County District Clerk's Office shall issue correspondence to all parties to comply with Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Art. 43.141.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. Introduction

 $\mathbf{2}$

On April 14, 2021, the State filed a motion with this Court seeking a second 3 supplemental order of execution and a second supplemental warrant of execution. 4 The State's proposed warrant seeks Mr. Floyd's execution at the Nevada State $\mathbf{5}$ Prison, which was closed and decommissioned in 2012. The State requests that this 6 Court sign the order of execution and schedule a hearing for the purpose of signing 7 the warrant. Mr. Floyd filed his initial opposition to the State's motion on April 21, 8 2021. 9

Mr. Floyd hereby files the instant amended opposition to the State's motion 10 informing the Court of a declaratory judgment action filed in Department 14 that 11 warrants deferring consideration of the State's motion. This amended opposition is 12timely filed under N.R.Cr.P. 8(4)(A). 13

Argument

Mr. Floyd objects to this Court taking any action in this matter until he 15receives notice and an opportunity to be heard, including, but not limited to, signing 16an order of execution. As explained below, legal reasons exist prohibiting the 17execution of judgment. NRS 176.505(1). First, this matter must be transferred to 18 Department 5 as the state statutory scheme requires the case and the pending state 19petition to be heard there. Second, the Clark County District Attorney's Office 20(CCDA) must be disqualified from this case and another entity must be substituted 21to represent the State. Third, Mr. Floyd is entitled to litigate his pending state 22

1	habeas petition before a warrant for his execution can be entered. ¹ Fourth, Mr.
2	Floyd has a declaratory judgment action pending in Department 14, that would
3	prevent the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) from carrying out his
4	execution. Finally, due to logistical considerations involved with effectuating a two
5	week to one month warrant and the safety issues presented by the ongoing COVID-
6	19 pandemic, this Court should order a representative of the attorney general's
7	office to be present to make representations regarding the Nevada Department of
8	Correction's (NDOC) ability to conduct a humane execution while protecting the
9	safety of the visitors and prison personnel at the execution.
10	A. The motions to transfer the case and disqualify the CCDA must be litigated before the Court considers the State's motion.
11	Before the State's motion can be considered, the case must be before a court
12	with jurisdiction to hear it. As explained in his motion to transfer the case, this
13	Court is neither the court of conviction nor the court where the sentence of death
14	was obtained. NRS 176.495; 176.505(1)–(3). Moreover, the state habeas petition
15	filed by Mr. Floyd has subsequently been improperly transferred to this Court in
16	violation of NRS 34.730(3)(b), which requires assignment to "the original judge or
17	court." As explained in Mr. Floyd's motion, Department 5 is the court where the
18	trial, sentencing, and all prior post-conviction proceedings occurred. ² There is still 19
20 21	¹ As further discussed below, one of the claims raised in the state petition is the denial of Mr. Floyd's right to seek clemency, a constitutional right in Nevada. The State is seeking Mr. Floyd's execution the week of June 7th, however, the Pardona Board doos not most again until June 22, 2021
22 23	Pardons Board does not meet again until June 22, 2021. ² Alternatively, to the extent the case management orders of the Eighth Judicial District Court control, this matter should be heard in Department 1.

no valid transfer order in existence documenting how or when this case was transferred to this Court. For the reasons stated in Mr. Floyd's motion, this case must first be transferred back to Department 5 before any other action is taken in this case or on the state habeas petition.

 $\mathbf{5}$ Moreover, before the State's motion can be considered it must be brought by 6 the appropriate representative for the State. As explained in Mr. Floyd's motion to 7 disqualify the CCDA, the people's representatives in the Legislature are currently 8 deciding whether to abolish capital punishment, which would moot this case. But 9 every time the Legislature acts, whether it be the initial reading of the bill or the 10 ultimate vote by the Assembly to pass it, the Clark County District Attorney, who 11 has testified against the legislation, acts against Mr. Floyd. Even more problematic, 12two senate-prosecutors employed with the CCDA who will potentially decide the 13fate of the legislation would have to act against the wishes of their boss to allow the 14legislation to be considered by the Senate, which is a direct violation of the 15separation of powers provision in the state constitution. Article III, § 1. This patent 16violation of the state constitution requires the disqualification of the CCDA and the 17appointment of another entity to represent the State's interests.

Mr. Floyd requests that he be permitted to litigate these issues before this Court considers the State's motion. Under EDCR 1.60(h), Mr. Floyd has the right to seek review of any decision by this Court regarding the appropriate department in which this matter should be heard. Mr. Floyd also has the remedy of mandamus and prohibition available in which to seek review with the Nevada Supreme Court of any decision regarding his motions to transfer the case and to disqualify the CCDA. Mr. Floyd requests that this Court defer consideration of the State's motion until it is before a court with jurisdiction to consider it and filed by the appropriate representative from the State.

 $\mathbf{5}$

5

B. Mr. Floyd's pending state petition requires this Court defer consideration of the State's motion.

This Court should not consider the State's motion until Mr. Floyd has had the 7 opportunity to litigate his pending state habeas petition. NRS 176.486. Staying 8 consideration of the State's motion is required because it is "necessary for a proper 9 consideration of the claims for relief." NRS 176.487. Mr. Floyd's petition "presents 10 substantial grounds upon which relief may be granted and valid justification for the 11 claims not having been presented in a prior proceeding." NRS 176.487(4). It "asserts 12claims based upon specific facts or law which, if true, would entitle the petitioner to 13relief." NRS 176.487(5). The petition raises arguments demonstrating that the 14claims are not procedurally barred. NRS 176.487(3). And the "court cannot decide 15legal claims which are properly raised or expeditiously hold an evidentiary hearing 16 on factual claims which are properly raised before the execution of sentence." NRS 17176.487(6). Therefore, the relevant statutory factors applicable here all militate in 18 favor of deferring consideration of the State's motion.

Specifically, Mr. Floyd's petition argues he is categorically exempt from the death penalty due to Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD), which is equivalent to Intellectual Disability (ID), a categorical exemption to the death penalty. Pet. at 23–37. Mr. Floyd's claim has not been previously raised, and it is not procedurally

1	barred because of previously unavailable scientific evidence, showing that adaptive
2	functioning deficits from FASD are just as severe as those occurring with
3	individuals who have ID. Pet. at 20-21. Similarly, the medical evidence showing the
4	limited brain development of twenty-three-year-olds, specifically those with FASD
5	like Mr. Floyd, was not previously available in prior proceedings. Evolving
6	standards of decency which guide the Court's application of Article 1, § 6 of the 7	Nevada Constitution and the Eighth Amendment require consideration of Mr.
8	Floyd's claim due to its factual and legal unavailability during prior state
9	proceedings. Hathaway v. State, 119 Nev. 248, 252, 119 P.3d 503, 506 (2003).
10	Moreover, as an argument regarding actual innocence of the death penalty the
11	Nevada Supreme Court recognizes that Mr. Floyd can overcome any procedural
12	bars to consideration of the issue. Cf. Ybarra v. State, 127 Nev. 47, 50, 247 P.3d 269,
13	271 (2011) (reversing district court's finding of procedural default of intellectual
14	disability claim and remanding for consideration of merits of claim).
15	Moreover, Mr. Floyd's petition argues his constitutional rights have been
16	violated by the State's intention to execute him before he has had an opportunity to
17	seek clemency with the Pardons Board. Pet. at 38–45. Mr. Floyd's claim was not
18	previously ripe for review due to pending legal challenges to his convictions and
19	sentences, cf. Clark v. Robinson, 113 Nev. 949, 952, 944 P.2d 788, 790 (1997)
20	(statute of limitations does not begin until claim is ripe), and, after the conclusion of
21	that litigation, the COVID-19 pandemic has prevented undersigned counsel from
22	investigating and proffering the facts necessary to support Mr. Floyd's clemency
	7

1	petition. Pet. at 38–42; see Section II(D)(2), below. Now, the claim is undoubtedly
2	ripe as the State seeks a warrant for Mr. Floyd's execution before the next
3	scheduled meeting by the Pardons Board. The factual and legal unavailability of the
4	claim during prior proceedings allows Mr. Floyd to overcome any procedural bars to
5	the consideration of his claim. Hathaway , 119 Nev. at 252, 71 P.3d at 506.
6	This Court should not consider the State's motion until the court in
7	Department 5 has had an opportunity to consider Mr. Floyd's petition. The petition
8	complies with NRS 34.810(4)(a) and (b), as Mr. Floyd has pleaded good cause and
9	prejudice to overcome any state procedural bars to the consideration of his claims.
10	Pet. at 20–21. The State has not filed an answer to the petition, NRS 34.760, and
11	there has been no judicial determination with respect to the petition under NRS
12	34.770(1). In fact, the proceedings on Mr. Floyd's petition have not been scheduled
13	until June 25, two weeks after his execution. In such circumstances, this Court
14	must defer consideration of the State's motion until Mr. Floyd has received an
15	opportunity to litigate his petition before a district court with jurisdiction to hear it
16	and the Nevada Supreme Court.
17	C. This Court should defer consideration of the State's motion until Mr. Floyd has had the ability to litigate his declaratory judgment action
18	that is pending in Department 14.
19	This Court should defer acting on the State's motion until Mr. Floyd has first
20	had the opportunity to litigate the declaratory judgment action pending in
21	Department 14 as it would prevent NDOC from carrying out his execution. On April
22	16, 2021, Mr. Floyd filed a complaint for declaratory and injunctive relief arguing
23
1		÷

1	that NRS 176.355 constitutes an unlawful delegation of authority by the
2	Legislature to NDOC in violation of the separation of powers provision of the state
3	constitution. Nev. Const. Art. 3, § 1. The hearing on Mr. Floyd's contemporaneously
4	filed motion for temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunction has been
5	set for June 8, 2021. This date is during and after the time-period currently sought
6	by the State for Mr. Floyd's execution. By signing a warrant now, this Court
7	irreparably prejudices Mr. Floyd's ability to seek review from the trial court and the
8	Nevada Supreme Court of the constitutionality of NRS 176.355, which constitutes
9	an issue of first impression in the state. It is an issue that has been found
10	meritorious by the Supreme Court of Arkansas in Hobbes v. Jones, 412 S.W.3d 844,
11	854-55 (Ark. 2012), where the court found an unlawful delegation of authority to the
12	department of corrections when the state statute did not specify the drugs to be
13	used in the execution. Mr. Floyd further argues that such guidance by the people's
14	representatives in the Legislature on this important question is necessary given
15	NDOC's troubling history with implementing new, novel, undisclosed, and untested
16	execution protocols. Deferring consideration of the State's motion is warranted
17	while this important issue is litigated as a decision in Mr. Floyd's favor would
18	enjoin NDOC from carrying out his execution.
19	D. This Court should not sign a warrant of execution until the Nevada
20	Attorney General's Office appears before the Court to make necessary representations regarding NDOC's position in this matter.
21	Because of the speed with which CCDA has sought this execution warrant,
22	many questions remain open. NDOC, not CCDA, has the answers to these questions, and this Court should require NDOC's representatives to appear and provide answers.

1. NDOC should represent whether it is prepared to conduct an execution.

4 This Court should require a member of the Nevada Attorney General's Office $\mathbf{5}$ to appear in court to provide assurances that NDOC is prepared to conduct an 6 execution. The CCDA normally does not contact anyone from the attorney general's 7 office or NDOC before seeking an execution warrant, and there is no indication the 8 office has done so here. For example, the last time the CCDA sought an execution 9 warrant they acknowledged the office had not been in communication with the 10 Director of NDOC about the prison's ability to carry out an execution.³ The CCDA 11 did not know whether NDOC had a current execution protocol or the drugs to carry 12out an execution.⁴ Ultimately, the execution date needed to be rescheduled even 13 though the CCDA initially proffered an execution warrant for sixty to ninety days.⁵ 14Here, the State has proffered an execution warrant for only two weeks to one month 15until the execution, but again these basic questions remain unanswered. If the 16execution date needed to be modified last time to give NDOC more time to prepare, 17then it is unlikely to be prepared here given the short time frame involved. 18 1920³ Ex. 1 at 11 (State v. Dozier, Case No. 05C215039, Transcript of Proceedings at 11 (July 27, 2017)). 21 4 Id.

1	In addition, there is no evidence that NDOC has a current execution protocol
2	or the drugs to perform an execution. When the last execution warrant was sought
3	by the CCDA in 2017, the Director informed the media that NDOC could perform
4	an execution. ⁶ However, the publicly available information now suggests that
5	NDOC does not have lethal injection drugs. Specifically, media reports indicate the
6	only drug in the possession of NDOC is fentanyl. ⁷ The last word from the Attorney
7	General to the media was that NDOC could not perform an execution because it did
8	not have all the necessary execution drugs. ⁸ In prior litigation, NDOC distanced
9	itself from the suggestion that it would proceed with an execution using high doses
10	of fentanyl. ⁹ And since the last execution warrant sought by the CCDA, it was
11	revealed that NDOC resorted to subterfuge to illegally obtain execution drugs. ¹⁰
12	That conduct by NDOC also violates federal law under 21 U.S.C. § 822(a)(2).
13	NDOC's pharmacist has made false statements to the Drug Enforcement

2	has consulted with the Chief Medical Officer regarding the drug or combination of
3	drugs to be used in the execution as required by NRS 176.355(2)(b). There is no
4	indication that NDOC has a current signed and adopted execution protocol.
5	Moreover, there is no evidence that NDOC has done the preparation and
6	training of execution staff necessary to perform an execution. NDOC has not
7	performed an execution since 2006, and the execution protocol used in that
8	execution was the same one used by all the states in conducting lethal injection
9	executions. NDOC has never conducted an execution using the novel execution
10	protocol it disclosed in 2018, and neither has any other state. There is no indication
11	that NDOC has done any recent training or test runs on the 2018 protocol or on a
12	new undisclosed execution protocol. There is no indication that the Director could
13	comply with the warrant and state law by inviting an attending physician,
14	psychiatrist, and a coroner to be present at the execution. NRS 176.355(2)(e). And
15	as explained below, there is no indication that NDOC could perform the execution
16	at the decommissioned Nevada State Prison. See Section II(D)(3), below. For all of
17	these reasons, this Court should hear from NDOC's legal representative before
18	signing an execution warrant, as it is doubtful that all of these matters could be

2. NDOC should represent whether it is safe to conduct an execution in light of the COVID-19 pandemic.

This Court should stay its decision to sign an execution warrant until NDOC $\mathbf{5}$ informs the Court that it is safe to conduct an execution and that procedures are in 6 place to ensure the safety of visitors and prison personnel in the institution. NDOC 7 has prevented all in person visitation at its facilities since March 16, 2020, due to 8 the COVID-19 pandemic.¹² At the present time, NDOC still does not permit in 9 person legal visitation. Inmates in prison facilities, including Mr. Floyd, have not 10been fully vaccinated against COVID-19. COVID-19 is currently running rampant 11 throughout NDOC facilities, causing numerous inmate deaths.¹³ The most recent 12information provided to the media from the Governor states that less than ten 13percent of NDOC inmates have been vaccinated, which means that NDOC may still 14be unable to open for visitation.¹⁴ At least one court has declined to issue an 15execution warrant precisely because of the inability of counsel to have visitation 161718¹² Ex. 6 (Memorandum from Charles Daniels, Director, State of Nevada Department of Corrections to All Employees, re: Director's Update in Response to 19Covid-19, dated Mar. 16, 2020). ¹³ Ex. 7 (Katelyn Newberg, 55 prisoners who contracted COVID died. 20Activists say it was preventable, Las Vegas Review Journal (April 9, 2021), available at https://www.reviewjournal.com/local/local-nevada/55-prisoners-who-21contracted-covid-died-activists-say-it-was-preventable-2323306/). ¹⁴ Ex. 8 (Michael Lyle, Sisolak questions prison officials on 'extremely low' 22inmate vaccinations, Nevada Current (April 21, 2021), available at https://www.nevadacurrent.com/2021/04/21/sisolak-questions-prison-officials-onextremely-low-inmate-vaccinations/)). 2313

2	staff. ¹⁸ Prisons are "super spreader" environments for COVID-19 because of the
3	small spaces, absence of adequate ventilation, and inability to engage in social
4	distancing. ¹⁹ There is no indication that visitors and correctional personnel will be clemency petition, the legal team still intends to interview and memorialize the statements of approximately fifteen witnesses spread across five states. ²¹ In person visitation with Mr. Floyd is necessary for his legal counsel and a mental health expert to conduct an evaluation. And the Director is independently obligated under the statutory scheme to determine whether a physician should evaluate Mr. Floyd to assess his sanity for execution. NRS 176.425(1). The suggestion that the prison environment is too dangerous for Mr. Floyd to meet with his own counsel or a mental health expert is entirely inconsistent with the State's suggestion that dozens of individuals outside the prison should congregate with prison personnel in a small space to witness and conduct an execution. This Court should not consider the State's motion until Mr. Floyd has been able to prepare and present his clemency petition before the Pardons Board or before the prison opens for visitation.

3. NDOC should represent whether it can conduct the execution at the Nevada State Prison.
The parties apparently agree that state law requires Mr. Floyd's execution to occur at the Nevada State Prison. Mot. at 4 (warrant noting "the State Prison" is the Nevada State Prison located near Carson City, Nevada). This is so because NRS 176.355(3) states the execution " must take place at the state prison." (Emphasis added). The use of the definite article and the singular phrasing requires the statute be interpreted as requiring that executions occur at the Nevada State Prison. Moreover, NSP was the only "state prison" in existence at the time of the statute's enactment.

3	As a factual matter, the execution chamber at the Nevada State Prison is
4	completely unsuitable to perform an execution. NSP was decommissioned and shut
5	down permanently in 2012. According to the Director of Public Works, Gus Nunez,
6	the "execution chamber at the ancient Nevada State Prison is unusable and
7	[Nevada] could not carry out a death penalty" there. ²² Nunez concludes that it is
8	"[n]ot feasible" to "[r]emodel NSP's existing execution chamber to comply with code

4	III. Conclusion
5	For the foregoing reasons, Mr. Floyd requests that this Court defer
6	consideration of the State's motion until this matter is assigned to the correct court,

Battle over drugs for Nevada execution ends with no decision

By KEN RITTER - Associated Press - Thursday, April 9, 2020

LAS VEGAS (AP) - A nearly two-year court fight over drugs that Nevada obtained for an execution it never carried out has ended with pharmaceutical companies taking back their expired products and the state accepting refunds, with no clear decision about how a lethal injection could be carried out.

A judge in Las Vegas dismissed the case Tuesday after both sides agreed to drop a lawsuit that arose from former death row inmate Scott Raymond Dozier's effort to be executed.

Dozier, a twice-convicted murderer, gave up appeals and declared he wanted to die rather than live his life behind bars. He killed himself last year in prison, making moot the drug makers' lawsuit aimed at halting the use of their products for lethal injection.

State Attorney General Aaron Ford acknowledged Thursday the dismissal means the state, with about 80 convicts on death row, does not have the drugs to carry out an execution.

Attorneys for two drug companies involved in the case did not immediately respond to emails. An attorney for pharmaceutical maker Sandoz Inc. declined to comment.

Battle over drugs for Nevada execution ends with no decision - Washington Times

Dozier's execution would have been the first in Nevada since 2006. It was scheduled and called off twice amid challenges involving the three-drug combination including the sedative midazolam, the powerful opioid fentanyl and a muscle-paralyzing agent called cisatracurium.

The agreement involving Ford, a Democrat, and drug makers Alvogen, Hikma Pharmaceuticals USA and Sandoz leaves each to pay their own legal costs. It closed the book on a lawsuit first filed by Alvogen in 2018 against Ford's predecessor, Republican Adam Laxalt.

"This is an example of the futility of the death penalty and wasted money," said Scott Coffee, a veteran public defender in Las Vegas who lobbies the Legislature on the issue. "Years of litigation and we end up with nothing. When the state goes to clandestine means to obtain drugs to kill somebody you have outcomes like that."

The agreement did not address whether Nevada's death penalty protocol is humane or constitutional.

https://www.washingtontimes.com/news/2020/apr/9/battle-over-drugs-for-nevada-execution-ends-with-n/

Pharmaceutical firm attorneys told Clark County District Court Judge Elizabeth Gonzalez that state prison officials used secrecy and suberfuge to obtain, through a third-party supplier, the drugs to be used in combination.

The sedative was intended to calm the inmate, lethal doses of fentanyl would slow and stop metabolism, and the muscle-paralyzing drug would ensure breathing ends. Fentanyl has been blamed for illegal-use drug overdose deaths nationwide.

The companies argued they didn't want their products used in executions.

Attorneys for the state countered that no ruse or subterfuge was needed to obtain the drugs, and the companies had no control over how purchased products are used.

An appeal to the Nevada Supreme Court drew support from 15 of 30 other states in the U.S. with capital punishment, but it was dismissed with no ruling after Dozier's death. Officials said at the time the drugs would expire.

The states that backed Nevada argued that harassment from advocacy groups and threats of company boycotts are keeping prison officials from enforcing the will of voters in states with capital punishment.

A new Nevada execution chamber costing some $860,000 was completed in 2016 at Ely State Prison, 250 miles north of Las Vegas. It has never been used.

On June 8, 1999, the State charged ZANE MICHAEL FLOYD (hereinafter "Defendant") by way of Criminal Complaint with four counts of Murder with Use of a Deadly 4 Weapon, three counts of Attempt Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon, five counts of Sexual Assault with Use of a Deadly Weapon, one count of Burglary While in Possession of a Firearm, 6 and one count of First Degree Kidnapping with Use of a Deadly Weapon. The State also filed a Notice of Reservation to Seek the Death Penalty. On June 25, 1999, the State filed an Amended Criminal Complaint adding an additional charge of Attempt Murder with Use of a 10 Deadly Weapon.

On June 28, 1999, the State charged Defendant by way of Information, and two 11 amendments thereafter, as follows: Count 1 – Burglary While in Possession of a Firearm 12 (Felony – NRS 205.060); Count 2 – Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Open Murder) 13 (Felony – NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165); Count 3 – Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon 14 (Open Murder) (Felony - NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165); Count 4 - Murder with Use of a 15 Deadly Weapon (Open Murder) (Felony - NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165); Count 5 - Murder 16 with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Open Murder) (Felony – NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.165); 17 Count 6 – Attempt Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Felony – NRS 200.010, 200.030, 18 19 193.165, 193.330); Count 7 – Attempt Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Felony – NRS 20 200.010, 200.030, 193.165, 193.330); Count 8 – First Degree Kidnapping with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Felony – NRS 200.310, 200.320, 193.165); Count 9 – Sexual Assault with Use of a 21 Deadly Weapon (Felony – NRS 200.364, 200.366, 193.165); Count 10 – Sexual Assault with 22 23 Use of a Deadly Weapon (Felony - NRS 200.364, 200.366, 193.165); Count 11 - Sexual Assault with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Felony – NRS 200.364, 200.366, 193.165); and Count 24 12 – Sexual Assault with Use of a Deadly Weapon (Felony – NRS 200.364, 200.366, 193.165). 25 On July 6, 1999, the State filed a Notice of Intent to Seek the Death Penalty. 26

Defendant's jury trial commenced on July 11, 2000. On July 19, 2000, the jury returned 27 a verdict finding Defendant guilty on all counts. At the penalty hearing, the State introduced 28 three aggravating circumstances in support of a death sentence. On July 21, 2000, the same jury returned a verdict of death against Defendant.

On August 11, 2000, Defendant filed a Motion for New Trial. The State filed its Opposition on August 17, 2000. On August 21, 2000, the district court denied the Motion for New Trial. The Order was filed on August 24, 2000.

On August 31, 2000, the district court adjudicated Defendant guilty, and sentenced him to death for Counts 2, 3, 4, and 5. The Judgment of Conviction and the Order of Execution were filed on September 5, 2000.

On September 11, 2000, Defendant filed a direct appeal with the Nevada Supreme Court. The Nevada Supreme Court affirmed Defendant's conviction on March 13, 2002. The Court denied Defendant's subsequent Motion for Rehearing on May 7, 2002. Appellate counsel then filed a Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the United States Supreme Court, which was denied on February 24, 2003. Remittitur issued on March 26, 2003.

On June 19, 2003, Defendant filed his first Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (PostConviction). The State filed its Response on July 24, 2003. Defendant then filed a Supplemental Petition through counsel, David Schieck, Esq., on October 6, 2004. The State filed its Supplemental Opposition on December 7, 2004. On January 18, 2005, the district court denied Defendant's Petition. The Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order was filed on February 4, 2005.

Defendant filed a Notice of Appeal on March 9, 2005, appealing the denial of his postconviction Petition. On February 16, 2006, the Nevada Supreme Court affirmed the denial of Defendant's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Remittitur issued on April 14, 2006.

On April 14, 2006, Defendant filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus in the United States District Court and requested stay and abeyance. Stay and abeyance was granted on April 25, 2007, for exhaustion of state court remedies.

Defendant then filed his second successive Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction) on June 8, 2007. The State filed its Opposition on August 18, 2007. Defendant filed his Reply on August 28, 2007. Following argument by both parties on December 13, 2007, the district court ordered an evidentiary hearing. Following the hearing on February 22, 2008, where Defendant's former counsel, David Schieck, Esq. testified, the district court denied Defendant's second Petition. The Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order was filed on April 2, 2008.

On April 7, 2008, Defendant filed a Notice of Appeal from the denial of his second Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). On November 17, 2010, the Nevada Supreme Court affirmed the district court's denial of the second Petition. Remittitur issued February 18, 2011. The Nevada Supreme Court also denied Defendant's request for Rehearing.

On September 22, 2014, the United States District Court denied Defendant's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction). Defendant filed a Notice of Appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit on October 22, 2014. On October 11, 2019, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit issued an Order affirming the United States District Court's denial of Defendant's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus.

On November 2, 2020, the United States Supreme Court denied Defendant's Petition for Writ of Certiorari. On November 5, 2020, Mandate was filed giving the judgment of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit full effect.

On April 14, 2021, the State filed a Motion Seeking an Order and Execution of Warrant.
The same day, Defendant filed the instant Motion to Transfer Case Under EDCR 1.60(H) (hereinafter "Motion"), and Motion to Disqualify the Clark County District Attorney's Office.

ARGUMENT THIS CASE WAS ASSIGNED TO THIS COURT BECAUSE IT INVOLVES A DEATH PENALTY POST-CONVICTION HOMICIDE CASE

The Eighth District Court Rules (hereinafter "EDCR") govern the "procedure and administration of the Eighth Judicial District Court and all actions or proceedings cognizable therein." EDCR 1.10. Within the Eighth Judicial District Court, the chief judge has the authority to "assign or reassign all cases pending in the district." EDCR 1.60(a). The chief judge also has the authority to determine the regular or special assignments of the judges. EDCR 1.30(b)(5).

In 2017, the chief judge issued Administrative Order ("AO") 17-05, creating the 1 "Homicide Team" within the Eighth Judicial District Court. In the Matter of the Formation of 2 the Homicide Team Pilot Project, Eighth Judicial District Court, Administrative Order 17-05 3 (filed April 12, 2017) (attached as "Exhibit 1"). The chief and the Homicide Team Case 4 Management Judge to handle the "motion practice, status conferences, evidentiary hearings, 5 all other pretrial matters, sentencing hearings, and applicable judge ordered, "pursuant to 6 EDCR 1.30(b), that all pending criminal cases wherein a defendant is charged with a 'homicide 7 crime' shall be re-assigned to the Homicide Team effective immediately." Id. at 2. The Order 8 specifies that any new criminal cases will be assigned directly to the Homicide Team. Id. The 9 10 Homicide Team is expressly authorized to coordinate with the chief judge post-conviction matters." Id. (emphasis added). Furthermore AO 17-05 places the authority with the Homicide 11 Team Case Management Judge to decide the type of homicide cases, including death penalty 12 cases, that should be heard by the Homicide Team. All cases involving death penalty verdicts 13 ultimately fell within the Order's purview, which is why this case that originated in 14 Department 5 is now assigned to Department 17. 15

This case's assignment to Department 17 is a direct result of AO 17-05 and the desire 16 to litigate homicide cases efficiently and effectively. Defendant claims that this case should 17 not have been assigned to the Homicide Team because the Administrative Order is limited to 18 19 "cases that were new or pending on the date of enactment." Motion, at 7. Defendant overlooks 20 the fact that the Administrative Order strictly gives the Homicide Team assignment over all homicide cases. It also gives the Homicide Team Case Management Judge authority over 21 "intake review and assignment of all homicide cases." Id. at 2. Thus, the Homicide Team Case 22 23 Management Judge has the ultimate authority to review and assign homicide cases under the Homicide Team. 24

Under Defendant's interpretation of the Administrative Order, cases that were not pending at the time of enactment should not be transferred to the Homicide Team. Defendant claims that homicide cases—even after subsequent filings make them active again—should still not be transferred to the Homicide Team. This interpretation is not what the chief judge intended when creating the Homicide Team, because it leaves an entire group of homicide cases nontransferable. Cases that were not pending at the time of the Order are transferred automatically to the Homicide Team when they become pending again with new filings, which is exactly what happened in this case. Defendant concedes that this case was not pending when the Homicide Team was created. Motion, at 7. Therefore, when this case became pending again, it was properly assigned to the Homicide Team.

Now, Defendant attempts to bypass the Homicide Team system that has been in place 7 for five years and requests this case be moved to Department 5 or Department 1. Department 8 5 is not the correct department because it no longer has a criminal assignment. Administrative 9 10 Order 20-25 provides, "All criminal cases in Department 5 are reassigned to Department 1 ... Department 5 will have a civil assignment." In the Administrative Matter of Civil/Criminal 11 Division Case Reassignments, Family Division Case Reassignments, and the Suspension of 12 Local Guardianship Rules, Eighth Judicial District Court, Administrative Order 20-25 at 1-2 13 (filed December 31, 2020). Because Department 5 no longer has a criminal assignment, this 14 case cannot possibly be transferred to Department 5. 15

Defendant is specifically requesting that this case be re-assigned to Department 1. If the Homicide Team was never created, then perhaps Department 1 would be the correct department. However, due to the decisions of the chief judge and the Homicide Team Case Management Judge, this death penalty case was randomly re-assigned to Department 17, which serves as one of the four judges on the Homicide Team. Because the State was not involved with this case's current assignment, the State takes no strong position on who hears this case.

Defendant, through his Federal Public Defenders, does seem to file motions where he perceives that an advantage can be gained. The Federal Public Defender's Office has litigated multiple capital cases, and it has played a large role in trying to pass A.B. 395 to abolish the death penalty. His attorneys are intimately familiar with the landscape of issues, both legal and political, related to the death penalty. The fact that this motion was filed merely hours after the State filed its motion seeking an Order of Execution does call into question some of the

1 motivations to have this case transferred, especially when considering his other request 2 on the same day was to have the Clark County District Attorney's office replaced by 3 Attorney General's Office. The cagerness to raise these issues does seem questionable 4 ultimately this is a decision for the courts to make. 5 CONCLUSION 6 As mentioned, the State is responding to Defendant's motion on the basis that this 7 was randomly re-assigned as part of the Homicide Team program. However, the duties of 8 assignment lies squarely on court administration. Whether this case is heard in Department 9 or Department 1, the State is confident in its position to finalize justice for the victims o 10 Defendant's crimes. However, the State's only concern with regards to this motion is that 11 such decision be based in rule and law, and not merely because the Defendant wishes the 12 to be transferred. 13 DATED this 26 th day of April, 2021. 14 Respectfully submitted, 15 STEVEN B. EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

IN THE MATTER OF The Formation of the Homicide Team Pilot Project

Administrative Order: 17-05

WHEREAS, Rule 1.30(b) of the Rules of Practice for the Eighth Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada ("EDCR") charges the Chief Judge of the Eighth Judicial District Court ("Court") with various responsibilities, such as supervising the administrative business of the Court, ensuring the quality and continuity of its services, supervising its calendar, reassigning cases as convenience or necessity requires, assuring the court's duties are timely and orderly performed, and otherwise facilitating the business of the Court; and,

WHEREAS, the Court desires to form a pilot project to examine the potential benefits of centralizing the management for cases wherein a defendant has been charged with a "homicide crime," with the intent of improving efficiency in the management and timely disposition of such cases, and,

WHEREAS, a "homicide crime" case, for purposes of this order, is limited to cases involving a crime of Open Murder, First Degree Murder, Second Degree Murder, Voluntary Manslaughter and/or Involuntary Manslaughter, as those crimes are delineated in NRS 200.010 through NRS 200.260, as well as any associated offenses charged within the same case.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to EDCR 1.30(b), that all pending criminal cases wherein a defendant is charged with a "homicide crime" shall be re-assigned to the Homicide Team effective immediately.

7 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to EDCR 1.30(b), that all new criminal 8 cases wherein a defendant is charged with a "homicide crime" shall be assigned directly to 9 the Homicide Team.

10 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the term "homicide crime" shall not, for the 11 purposes of this order, encompass offenses such as attempts, in violation of NRS 193.330, 12 accessories, in violation of NRS 195.030, conspiracies, in violation of NRS 199.480 and 13 solicitations, in violation of NRS 199.500, unless such crimes are associated with, and 14 charged within the same case as, a charge of Open Murder, First Degree Murder, Second 15 Degree Murder, Voluntary Manslaughter and/or Involuntary Manslaughter.

16 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to EDCR 1.30(b), that the Homicide Team 17 Case Management Judge shall be responsible for intake review and assignment of all 18 homicide cases, and shall further be responsible for coordinating with the Homicide Team Members, the motion practice, status conferences, evidentiary hearings, all other pretrial 19 20 matters, sentencing hearings and applicable post-conviction matters.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to EDCR 1.30(b), that the Homicide Team shall prioritize homicide crime cases over all other cases in their caseloads.

23 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to EDCR 1.30(b), that the Homicide Team 24 shall set firm trial dates for all homicide crime cases and shall grant a continuance only upon 25 a finding of good cause therefor.

26 II IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to EDCR 1.30(b), that the Homicide Team Case Management Judge shall assign the team's cases to the Homicide Team judges for trial; 27 28 however, if a case is ready for trial and no team members are available to conduct the trial,

1 the Homicide Team Case Management Judge may assign the case to another district judge in 2 the Civil/Criminal Division. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that beginning on July 1, 2017, the following judges 3 4 shall serve on the Homicide Team: 5 Douglas Herndon Homicide Team Case Management Judge Valerie Adair 6 Homicide Team Judge 7 Eric Johnson Homicide Team Judge 8 Jennifer Togliatti Homicide Team Judge 9 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that on July 1, 2017, all civil cases assigned to the Homicide Team Judges be randomly reassigned among judges hearing civil cases. 10 Entered this 12^{UL} day of \bigcirc 11 2017. 12 13 14 Gonzale zabet Chief Judge 15 Eighth Judicial District Court 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 - 3 -
