REPLY TO RESPONSE TO MOTION
TO TRANSFER CASE UNDER EDCR
1.60(H)

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. Introduction

On April 14, 2021, Zane Floyd moved this Court to transfer his case back to Department 5 as that department was the court of conviction, the court where the sentence of death was obtained, and the one where all prior state post-conviction proceedings were litigated. EDCR 1.60(h). On April 26, 2021, the State filed a “response” that does not take issue with Floyd’s arguments regarding the state statutory scheme or the statewide rules of criminal procedure, which both require that Department 5 adjudicate this matter. The State’s failure to address these issues operates as a concession under N.R.Cr.P. 8(4)(B).

The State speculates that this matter was properly transferred to this Court pursuant to Administrative Order 17-05, as this Court is designated as a murder court. Response at 4-7. The State does not identify any factual support for its speculation, and its argument that homicide cases are all transferred to murder court judges for random assignment in post-trial and post-conviction proceedings is incorrect.

Floyd replies to the State’s arguments below.

II. Argument

Floyd argued in his motion that the state statutory scheme controls and dictates that the case must be transferred back to Department 5. Motion at 4-5. The State does not controvert this proposition or discuss the relevant statutory provisions cited by Floyd that vest sole jurisdiction in Department 5 as the only court that can enter or stay an execution warrant. NRS 176.495(1), NRS 176.505(1,

1 2). Since the filing of Floyd's motion, his state habeas case was also transferred to
2 this Court given the (erroneous) transfer of the criminal case. However, Floyd also
3 cited NRS 34.730(3)(b) in his motion, which requires that state post-conviction
4 petitions be "assigned to the original judge or court." Motion at 5 n.3. Chapters 34
5 and 176 together create a unified procedure requiring the same department that 6 adjudicated the case to handle all post-trial and post-conviction matters. Therefore,
7 both the criminal case and the habeas case must be transferred back to Department
8 5.

9 Floyd also explained that the statewide rules of criminal procedure similarly
10 require that the case remain with Department 5. Motion at 5-6. N.R.Cr.P 2(1) &
11 2(1)(A). Again, the State does not address this issue. Based on these omissions, this 12 Court should transfer the case back to Department 5 without considering the 13 factual and legal issues raised by the State as the statutes and rules of criminal
14 procedure are controlling here.

15 To the extent the rules of the Eighth Judicial District Court control, Floyd
16 argued that AO 20-25 requires his case to be heard in Department 1. The State
17 acknowledges this same administrative order but asserts it is superseded by AO 17-
18 05. As explained in Floyd's motion, there is no factual evidence showing when and 19 under what authority the case was transferred to this Court, and Floyd seeks a 20 hearing on this issue. But even assuming this case was transferred under AO 17-05,
21 Floyd explained that the transfer was erroneous because that administrative order
22 only applies to cases that were new or pending as of the effective date of AO 17-05.

1 The State points out that AO 17-05 contains a reference to “applicable post-
2 conviction matters.” Ex. 3 to Motion at 2. However, that reference applies to cases
3 that were new or pending on the effective date of AO 17-05. See id. Floyd agrees 4 that cases that were initially assigned to the murder court must remain with the 5 same department that conducted the trial, sentencing, and prior post-conviction
6 proceedings under the statutory scheme, the statewide rules of criminal procedure,
7 and AO 17-05. But Floyd’s case is not in that group.

8 Floyd agrees with the State that under his reading of the administrative 9 orders “cases that were not pending at the time of enactment should not be 10 transferred to the homicide team.” Response at 5. According to the State,

11 This interpretation is not what the chief judge intended
12 when creating the Homicide Team, because it leaves an 13 entire group of homicide cases nontransferable. Cases that 14 were not pending at the time of the Order are transferred 15 automatically to the Homicide Team when they become 16 pending again with new filings, which is exactly what 17 happened in this case.

18 Response at 5-6. The State cites no factual support in favor of this argument, and 19 there is none.

20 To the contrary, no homicide cases that were concluded as of the effective
21 date of AO 17-05 have been transferred to the murder court for post-conviction
22 proceedings. Floyd notes that even the Clark County District Attorney’s Office has 23 made the same argument Floyd makes here. In State v. District Court (Mum), Case
No. 77221, the CCDA filed a writ petition challenging the chief judge of the Eighth Judicial District Court’s rule change requiring that post-conviction actions be

1 opened as a new civil case.¹ In the relief sought, the CCDA argued that a new state
2 petition should be transferred back to the department that adjudicated the criminal
3 case.² The CCDA did not argue that new state petitions should be randomly
4 assigned to the murder court as the State argues here.³ The State cannot have it
5 both ways and should be estopped from making arguments to this Court that are
6 inconsistent with its legal position in other cases. The bottom line is that the state
7 statutory scheme, the rules of criminal procedure, and the consistent practice in the 8 Eighth Judicial District Court all support Floyd's argument that this case must be 9 transferred back to Department 5.

10 III. Conclusion

11 For the foregoing reasons, Floyd requests that this Court transfer the 12 criminal case and the state post-conviction action back to Department 5. In the 13 alternative, he requests a hearing to determine when and under what authority the 14 case was transferred, followed by the transfer of this case back to the correct
15 department.

MEMORANDUM OF
POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

ROUTING STATEMENT

The instant action is an extraordinary writ petition challenging the authority of the district court to file a postconviction habeas petition as a new civil action instead of with the criminal case to which it relates. As such, this proceeding does not appear to fit squarely within any of the categories set forth in NRAP 17. The State has no objection to this writ petition either being retained by the Supreme Court or transferred to the Court of Appeals.

RELIEF SOUGHT

The State seeks a writ of mandamus to the Eighth Judicial District Court directing that a postconviction habeas petition which challenges the validity of a conviction or sentence must be filed with the record of the original criminal proceeding to which it relates as required by NRS 34.730(3) rather than as a new separate civil action. Real Party In Interest Phala Mum is unrepresented in the proceedings below and did not take a position as to the correct filing procedure. If this Court were to direct a response to the instant petition, the State believes that the Respondent district court is the party best suited to defending the court's current filing practice. The State further requests that disposition of this petition be expedited to the extent possible as a great number of habeas cases are effected and litigants need clarification of the correct filing procedure to prevent prejudice.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTS

On March 29, 2017, a Judgment of Conviction was filed in criminal case C319460 adjudicating Phala Mum guilty of Burglary pursuant to a guilty plea. Petitioner's Appendix (hereinafter "PA") 1-3. Subsequently, Mum stipulated to violations, her probation was revoked, and an Amended Judgment of Conviction was filed on January 24, 2018. PA 4-5. Thereafter, on or about July 18, 2018, Mum submitted a petition for writ of habeas corpus (post-conviction) for filing under criminal case C319460, which challenged the legality of her detention under the judgment in that case. PA 6-15. However, the clerk of the Eighth Judicial District Court, apparently at the direction of Chief Judge Linda Bell, assigned that petition a new civil case number, A777795, and filed the petition as a civil action separate and distinct from the criminal case record. PA 25. On September 10, 2018, the State filed a motion to transfer the petition to the criminal case pursuant to NRS 34.730(3) because it challenged the judgment of conviction. PA 16-20. That motion was transferred to and heard by Chief Judge Linda Bell on October 2, 2018, at which time she denied the motion. PA 21-23. In so ruling, Judge Bell explained that she believed the prior practice of filing such habeas petitions with the criminal case was out of compliance with the statute, and that filing them as separate civil actions is what the legislature intended. Id. Judge Bell also expressed that this was a judicial administrative matter beyond the concern or interest of the district attorney and that she was having all such similar motions to transfer in other cases routed to her for disposition since it is not a decision for the individual judges to make. Id. Meanwhile, Mum's habeas petition has since been denied. PA 24. Should Mum elect to appeal the denial of her habeas petition, the appellate record will not contain any of the criminal case documents because they do not appear in the civil case record. PA 25.

Prior to Judge Bell's order declining to transfer the Mum petition to the criminal case, the State had filed similar motions to transfer in several other cases and the motions were all granted by the individual judges. PA 26-50. This was true despite Judge Bell having sent an email to the individual judges explaining that postconviction habeas petitions would now be receiving a civil case number and would be assigned to the underlying criminal case judge and heard on criminal calendar days. PA 27. Judge Bell's email also explained that "the entire criminal file should be copied and included as an event in the post-conviction case." Id. That has not happened. Although the civil habeas cases are being assigned to the underlying criminal case judge, the criminal files are not being copied into the civil habeas cases as an event, as can be seen by the civil docket in the Mum case. PA 25. Nor are the habeas cases always being set to be heard on criminal calendar days. PA 26-31, 41-50. Where defense counsel has been appointed, they have joined in the State's motion to transfer and complained that the clerk of the court actually rejected their filings in the criminal case and they were made to re-file the petitions as new civil actions. PA 55-59, 60-64; see also PA 51-54. To date, this new procedure for filing all habeas petitions as new civil actions, even those which challenge a judgment of conviction, so far has effected approximately 42 cases by the State's informal count, and the number is increasing daily. PA 65. The State has simply selected the Mum case as the vehicle to bring the issue to the Court's attention.

REASONS WHY THE WRIT SHOULD ISSUE

This Court may issue a writ of mandamus to compel the performance of an act which the law requires as a duty resulting from an office, trust, or station or to control a manifest abuse of or arbitrary or capricious exercise of discretion. NRS 34.160; Round Hill Gen. Imp. Dist. v. Newman, 97 Nev. 601, 603-04, 637 P.2d 534, 536 (1981). This Court may issue a writ of prohibition to arrest the proceedings of any tribunal exercising judicial functions in excess of its jurisdiction. NRS 34.320; Hickey v. District Court, 105 Nev. 729, 731, 782 P.2d 1336, 1338 (1989). Neither writ issues where the petitioner has a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law. NRS 34.170; NRS 34.330; Hickey, 105 Nev. at 731, 782 P.2d 1336, 1338 (1989).

Specifically in regards to proper filing procedures performed by the clerk of the district court, this Court has a history of entertaining and granting petitions for extraordinary relief. See, e.g., Mulford v. Davey, 64 Nev. 506, 512, 186 P.2d 360 (1947) (“Mandamus is the proper remedy to compel a clerk of a court to perform an act which the law specially enjoins as a duty resulting from his office.”); Sullivan v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 111 Nev. 1367, 1372, 904 P.2d 1039, 1042 (1995) (holding that the district court had a duty to file an application to proceed in forma pauperis and "receive" a civil complaint); Bowman v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 102 Nev. 474, 478, 728 P.2d 433, 435 (1986) (holding that the clerk has a ministerial duty to accept and file documents unless given specific directions from the district court to the contrary); Donoho v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 108 Nev. 1027, 1029-30, 842 P.2d 731, 733 (1992) (holding that the clerk of the district court has a duty to file documents and to keep an accurate record of the proceedings before the court).

At issue in this case is the plain language of NRS 34.730(3) concerning the proper filing of habeas petitions which reads as follows:

3. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the clerk of the district court shall file a petition as a new action separate and distinct from any original proceeding in which a conviction has been had. If a petition challenges the validity of a conviction or sentence, it must be:
 - (a) Filed with the record of the original proceeding to which it relates; and
 - (b) Whenever possible, assigned to the original judge or court.

NRS 34.730(3). Prior to 1991, this same statute simply provided that, “The clerk of the district court shall file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus as a new action separate and distinct from any original proceeding in which a conviction may have been had.” Id. Judge Bell’s interpretation that all habeas petitions are to be filed as separate civil actions would have been correct under this version of the statute. But in 1991, the legislature added an exception and specifically distinguished petitions which seek relief from a judgment of conviction from those which challenge the computation of time served pursuant to a judgment of conviction and provided for different filing procedures:

Sec. 11. NRS 34.720 is hereby amended to read as follows:

34.720 The provisions of NRS ~~[34.725]~~ 34.720 to 34.830, inclusive, and sections 3 to 7, inclusive, of this act, apply only to petitions for writs of habeas corpus in which the petitioner [requests] :

1. Requests relief from a judgment of conviction or sentence in a criminal case [.] ; or
2. Challenges the computation of time that he has served pursuant to a judgment of conviction.

Sec. 12. NRS 34.730 is hereby amended to read as follows:

34.730 1. A petition [for writ of habeas corpus requesting relief from a judgment of conviction or sentence in a criminal case] must be verified by the petitioner or his counsel . [and filed with the clerk of the district court for the county in which the petitioner is in actual custody or with the clerk of the supreme court.] If the petition is verified by counsel, [the counsel] he shall also verify that the petitioner personally authorized him to commence the action. [Before filing the petition, the clerk of a district court shall determine by the contents of the petition whether the petitioner is in actual custody in the judicial district.]

2. The petition must be titled “Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (Post-Conviction)” and be in substantially the form set forth in NRS 34.735. The petition must name as respondent and be served by mail upon the officer or other person by whom the petitioner is confined or restrained. A copy of the petition must be served by mail upon [the] :

- (a) The attorney general ; and
- (b) In the case of a petition challenging the validity of a judgment of conviction or sentence, the district attorney in the county in which the petitioner was convicted.

3. [The] Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the clerk of the district court shall file a petition [for a writ of habeas corpus] as a new action separate and distinct from any original proceeding in which a conviction [may have] has been had. If a petition challenges the validity of a conviction or sentence, it must be:

(a) Filed with the record of the original proceeding to which it relates; and

(b) Whenever possible, assigned to the original judge or court.

4. No hearing upon the petition may be set until the requirements of NRS 34.740 to 34.770, inclusive, and section 7 of this act, are satisfied.

1991 Statutes of Nevada, Page 79 (Chapter 44, AB 227). The clear intent and effect of the 1991 changes are that petitions challenging computation of time are served on and responded to by the Attorney General (which represents the prison warden), filed in the county of incarceration (NRS 34.738), and must be filed as a new separate action distinct from the criminal case. But petitions which challenge the judgment of conviction must be served on and responded to by the District Attorney (which obtained the criminal judgment), filed in the county where the conviction occurred (NRS 34.738), assigned to the original criminal judge where possible, and filed with the criminal case

The language, “Except as otherwise provided in this subsection,” denotes an exception to the requirement that a petition be filed as a new action and of necessity must refer to the only other language appearing below in the same subsection and which was added to the statute at the same time in 1991 which regards petitions challenging the validity of a conviction. Those petitions are singled out for different treatment and “must be filed with the record of the original proceeding to which it relates.” Because the original proceeding is the criminal case, such petitions are to be filed under the same criminal case number. Since 1991, to the State’s knowledge this has been the practice and procedure routinely filed in every habeas case in the Eighth Judicial District Court until the present time.

The above interpretation of the statutory scheme enacted in 1991 is consistent with this Court’s understanding and explanation as set forth in case law:

Different statutory procedures apply to petitions that challenge the validity of the judgment of conviction and sentence and petitions that challenge the computation of time served. NRS 34.738(1) provides that a petition that challenges the validity of the judgment of conviction and sentence “must be filed with the clerk of the district court for the county in which the conviction occurred.” Under NRS 34.730(3), a petition that challenges the validity of the judgment of conviction or sentence must also be filed with the record of the original proceeding to which it relates and be assigned to the original judge or court, whenever possible. In contrast, any other petition, including a petition that challenges the computation of time served, must be filed as a separate action “with the clerk of the district court for the county in which the petitioner is incarcerated.”

Griffin v. State, 122 Nev. 737, 741, 137 P.3d 1165, 1167 (2006). While habeas itself may be a civil remedy at common law and such petitions would have been filed as separate civil actions, when used as a postconviction remedy to challenge a criminal judgment of conviction the procedural vehicle is a special statutory remedy created by the legislature and can be characterized as neither civil nor criminal for all purposes. Mazzan v. State, 109 Nev. 1067, 1069–70, 863 P.2d 1035, 1036 (1993).

This Court has acknowledged and held as constitutional the prerogative of the legislature to establish the parameters of the state habeas review which it has codified and enacted in NRS Chapter 34. Passanisi v. Dir., Nevada Dep't of Prisons, 105 Nev. 63, 66, 769 P.2d 72, 74 (1989) (Short of suspending the writ of habeas corpus, the legislature may impose reasonable regulation of habeas process and provide for procedural default). The legislature may impose a reasonable regulation on the writ of habeas corpus, so long as the traditional efficacy of the writ is not impaired. Id., citing Grego v. Sheriff, 94 Nev. 48, 574 P.2d 275 (1978). In upholding the application of the one-year time bar to successive petitions, this Court again endorsed that such a restriction was a reasonable and constitutional regulation of the right to pursue habeas corpus relief within the power of the legislature to enact. Pellegrini v. State, 117 Nev. 860, 878, 34 P.3d 519 (2001).

Requiring that a petition be filed with the criminal case when it challenges the judgment of conviction is a far less onerous regulation on the parameters of state habeas procedures than application of procedural bars. This filing requirement by the legislature is reasonable and constitutional even though it may touch on an area ordinarily left to judicial administration. Habeas petitions which challenge the judgment of conviction are uniquely subject to strict time and procedural bars which can only be analyzed by direct reference to the docket in the criminal case. Application of such procedural bars is mandatory. State v. District Court (Riker), 121 Nev. 225, 112 P.3d 1070 (2005). But when such a petition is filed as a separate civil action, the risk of error in determining timeliness and successiveness is greatly enlarged. Furthermore, when a petition is filed as a separate civil action it is not filed “with” the criminal case within the meaning of the statute, and this Court on appeal will be deprived of the trial court and prior habeas records which are not found in the new civil action being appealed. Even if Judge Bell were to include the criminal record as an event in the civil habeas case as promised, this still would not comply with the statute which requires the petition be filed with the criminal case, not the criminal case be filed with the petition. The new filing practice violates NRS 34.730(3), increases the burden on the litigants, complicates the procedural history and timeline, and has led to inconsistent results.

WHEREFORE, the State respectfully requests that mandamus be granted.

Dated this 19th day of October, 2018.

ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR A WRIT OF MANDAMUS

This petition for a writ of mandamus seeks to invalidate the Eighth Judicial District Court's announced policy of filing a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus challenging the validity of a judgment of conviction as a new civil action instead of filing the petition in the criminal case.

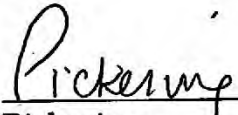

Respondents argue that this writ petition is moot because the district court denied real party in interest Phala Mum's habeas petition before the State filed its writ petition, and Mum did not appeal. Respondents assert that petitioner seeks an advisory opinion, without showing any urgency or strong necessity for this court's extraordinary intervention.

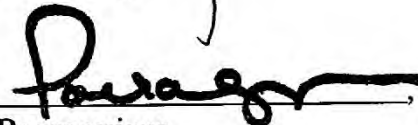

"The question of mootness is one of justiciability. This court's duty is not to render advisory opinions but, rather, to resolve actual controversies by an enforceable judgment." Personhood Nev. v. Bristol, 126 Nev. 599, 602, 245 P.3d 572, 574 (2010). "A moot case is one which seeks to determine an abstract question which does not rest upon existing facts or rights.” Nat’l Collegiate Athletic Ass’n v. Univ. of Nev., Reno, 97 Nev. 56, 58, 624 P.2d 10, 11 (1981). However, even when an issue becomes moot we may still consider the issue if it constitutes “a matter of widespread importance capable of repetition” yet evading review. State v. Second Judicial Dist. Court, 132 Nev. 352, 354, 373 P.3d 63, 65 (2016). In determining whether a party has demonstrated that an issue is capable of repetition yet evading review, we consider whether “(1) the duration of the challenged action is relatively short, (2) there is a likelihood that a similar issue will arise in the future, and (3) the matter is important.” Id. at 355, 393 P.3d at 65.

When considering the filing policy as it relates to Mum, the case was moot before petitioner filed its original writ petition in this court, and the petitioner has not met its burden of demonstrating that the issue is capable of repetition, but will otherwise evade review. While the issue of how a habeas petition is filed in the district court is of fundamental importance, the duration factor does not favor petitioner. The time to resolve a habeas petition is not so short that petitioner could not litigate an original petition challenging the filing policy before the habeas petition is resolved. See Protectmarriage.com—Yes on 8 v. Bowen, 752 F.3d 827, 836 (9th Cir. 2014) (recognizing that duration refers to the duration of a proceeding inherent at its inception because this exception is concerned with “classes of cases that, absent an exception, would always evade judicial review”) (emphasis in original). Accordingly, we conclude the issue raised in the petition regarding Mum is moot. For these reasons, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.¹

I allege that my state court conviction and/or sentence are unconstitutional, in violation of my 6TH Amendment Right to NATURE AND CAUSE OF THE ACCUSATION, based on these facts:

SENTENCING ME UNDER BURGLARY STATUE NRS 205.060 CLEARLY VIOLATES MY CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS UNDER THE 6TH & 14TH AMENDMENTS; THE RIGHT TO BE INFORMED OF THE NATURE AND CAUSE OF THE ACCUSATION, DISCRIMINATION AND DUE PROCESS OF LAW.

IT IS ESSENTIAL IN THE INTEREST OF JUSTICE THAT A STATUE IS CLEAR. IF IT ISN'T CLEAR, IT CAN BE DECLARED VOID FOR VAGUENESS, UNCERTAINTY AND/OR AMBIGUOUSNESS AND THEREFORE UNCONSTITUTIONAL. NRS 205.060 IS OVER-BROAD AND CONTAINS AND ELIMINATES VARIOUS ELEMENTS THAT ARE ARBITRARY, CONTRADICTORY, DISCRIMINATORY AND NOT CONTAINED IN GENERIC OR COMMON LAW DESCRIPTION OF BURGLARY.

ALMOST EVERY "ENTRY" ONTO ANOTHERS PROPERTY, I.E. HOME, BUSINESS, STRUCTURE, VEHICLE, PLANES OR RAILCAR INVAPES A POSSESSARY RIGHT UNDER NRS 205.060 THEREBY ENTERING THEM IS UNLAWFUL. BY CONTRAST, GENERIC OR COMMON LAW BURGLARY'S UNLAWFUL ENTRY ELEMENT EXCLUDES ANY CASE IN WHICH A PERSON HAS AN ABSOLUTE AND UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO ENTER AND/OR WHEN A PERSON ENTERS PREMISES OPEN TO THE PUBLIC; NO MATTER THE INTENT ALSO THE GENERIC OR COMMON LAW CRIME
