ORDER DENYING PETITION

This pro se original petition and amended petition¹ seek a writ of mandamus compelling the district court to permit petitioner to represent himself and accept his filings. Having considered the petition and amended petition, we are not persuaded that our extraordinary intervention is warranted. See NRS 34.170; Pan v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 120 Nev. 222, 224, 88 P.3d 840, 841 (2004) (noting that petitioner bears the burden of demonstrating that writ relief is warranted). Although petitioner has supplied a docket sheet indicating that the district court may have denied his request to represent himself, he has not provided this court with a copy of a written order signed by the district court. See NRAP 21(a)(4) (providing the petitioner shall submit an appendix containing all documents “essential ¹Petitioner has submitted two filings entitled, “Petition For Writ of Mandamus.” We construe the second filing as an amended petition as it is not identical to the first filing, but generally seeks the same relief.
