Re: TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC (the "Client")
Case No. A-20-822273-C (the "Case") and the Case Judgment

Mr. Nahabedian,

Garman Turner Gordon ("GTG") is in receipt of your January 14, 2021 letter and attachments.

As you are aware, or should be aware, on September 17, 2020, Mr. Farkas executed the Amendment to Limited Liability Company Agreement of TGC/Farkas Funding LLC (the "Amended Operating Agreement").[1] In relevant portion, I direct your attention to amended Section 3.4(a), which provides:

> (a) Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, the Members, unless they are the Administrative Member, shall not have any right or power to take part in the management or control of the Company or to act for or to bind the Company in any way

Moreover, TGC Investor was appointed the Administrative Member of the Company pursuant to Amended Section 4.1(a) of the Operating Agreement. Section 4.1(c) of the Amended Operating Agreement, provides that TGC Investor has "full, exclusive, and complete discretion, power and authority" . . . "to manage, control, administer and operate the business and affairs of the Company." Id. This power expressly extended to retaining counsel.

Mr. Farkas therefore does not have the ability to terminate counsel for the Client, retain new counsel for the Client, or execute any "settlement agreement" to resolve the Client's Case Judgment against First 100, LLC and First One Hundred Holdings, LLC.

[1] Moreover, even prior to the Amended Operating Agreement, Mr. Farkas consented to the litigation, both expressly and implicitly through his participation.

Beyond that, the facts appear much more torrid. First 100, LLC, First One Hundred Holdings, LLC, and Mr. Bloom are parties to post-judgment discovery and contempt proceedings in the Case for failure to abide by the Judgment. At this point, Mr. Bloom has failed to respond to a lawful subpoena in favor of jetting to California, nor has he provided any documents relating to the Case Judgment debtors he manages. It is extraordinary then that you also currently represent Mr. Bloom (before Department 13 in Case No. A-20-809882-B and have served as co-plaintiffs' counsel with Maier Guitterez & Associates ("MGA") on a variety of matters in which the Case Judgment debtors First 100, LLC or First One Hundred Holdings, LLC were plaintiffs along with an affiliate. The Client is clearly adverse to First 100, LLC, First One Hundred Holdings, LLC, as well as Mr. Bloom in the Judgment case.

I direct you to Nevada Rule of Professional Conduct 1.7(a), which prohibits your concurrent representation of Client and Mr. Bloom:

> Rule 1.7. Conflict of Interest: Current Clients.
> (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), a lawyer shall not represent a client if the representation involves a concurrent conflict of interest. A concurrent conflict of interest exists if:
> (1) The representation of one client will be directly adverse to another client; or > (2) There is a significant risk that the representation of one or more clients will be materially limited by the lawyer's responsibilities to another client, a former client or a third person or by a personal interest of the lawyer.
> (b) Notwithstanding the existence of a concurrent conflict of interest under paragraph (a), a lawyer may represent a client if:
> (1) The lawyer reasonably believes that the lawyer will be able to provide competent and diligent representation to each affected client;
> (2) The representation is not prohibited by law;
> (3) The representation does not involve the assertion of a claim by one client against another client represented by the lawyer in the same litigation or other proceeding before a tribunal; and > (4) Each affected client gives informed consent, confirmed in writing.

Undeniably, there is a concurrent representation and corresponding conflict of interest. Further, as a result of your prior representation of the affiliate of First 100, LLC and/or First One Hundred Holdings, LLC in conjunction with them, there appears to be a further conflict of interest subject of Rule 1.6. Your representation of the Client would be materially limited by your relationship with Mr. Bloom at the very least. As set forth in Rule 1.7(b)(3), that conflict is unwaivable. Thus, even if Mr. Farkas could retain you on behalf of the Client (he cannot), you are ethically prohibited from accepting the representation.

Of additional concern is the fact that you have spoken with Mr. Farkas. Mr. Farkas has in his possession attorney-client privileged information of the Client. The privilege belongs to the Client, not Mr. Farkas. Despite a clear conflict, you willfully obtained attorney-client information, which is a breach of your professional duties. As you represent Mr. Bloom, there is significant concern that you have shared the information with Mr. Bloom. Brown v. Eighth Judicial Dist.

Court ex rel. County of Clark, 116 Nev. 1200, 1205, 14 P.3d 1266, 1270 (2000). More problematic, as Mr. Bloom is represented by both you and MGA, the presumption is that the conflict is imputed to MGA. Even worse, since you purported to communicate with MGA regarding this case, there is a reasonable probability that there was the sharing of confidential information, and that the suspicion warrants both your and MGA's disqualification. Brown, 116 Nev. at 1204, 14 P.3d at 1269.[2]

In addition, the Client hereby demands that you produce:

1) Any files belonging to the Client or in any way related to the dispute with First 100, LLC and First One Hundred Holdings, LLC subject of the Case;
2) Any purported communications, including engagement letters and conflict letters resulting in you being purportedly retained by the Client;
3) Any and all communications you have had with First 100, LLC, First One Hundred Holdings, LLC, Jay Bloom or its counsel while also purporting to be counsel for the Client;
4) Any and all communications you have had with Client member Matthew Farkas;
5) Any and all communications and documents referencing any compensation you have received and the source of such compensation; and
6) Any and all communications and documents related to the purported settlement that was agreed to or executed with First 100, LLC and First One Hundred Holdings, LLC that you reference in your letter.

Please confirm by the end of business today whether you will produce those records by Monday, January 18, 2021.

Finally, I would strongly encourage that going forward you govern yourself in accordance with the Rules of Professional Conduct. All rights and remedies are expressly reserved.

Sincerely,

GARMAN TURNER GORDON LLP

/s Erika Pike Turner

ERIKA PIKE TURNER, ESQ.

cc: Client and Matthew Farkas

[2] A reasonable probability is further established by the fact that Mr. Farkas previously provided MGA with privileged information and Mr. Brown (through MGA) introduced the information into arbitration.

Good afternoon.

Given that there is an apparent issue re representation, I will delay further communication until I speak with Mr. Farkas. Moreover, for clarification and for the avoidance of doubt, I was not involved in and did not participate in any settlement negotiations and/or the preparation of documents relating thereto.

Good evening.

My apologies for the delayed response, but I have been dealing with a severe back/sciatic nerve issue that has caused much of my work to be delayed and stopped due to the debilitating pain.

In terms of the Settlement Agreement that you requested, it appears that Mr. Maier provided it to the Court in his filing (that we all received this afternoon via email). My apologies that my letter indicated it would be included, but was inadvertently left out. As I previously stated, I was not involved in any negotiations, the preparation of the document or the exchange of the executed documents – it was received after the fact.

Respectfully,
Raffi A Nahabedian

Good afternoon.

Given that there is an apparent issue re representation, I will delay further communication until I speak with Mr. Farkas. Moreover, for clarification and for the avoidance of doubt, I was not involved in and did not participate in any settlement negotiations and/or the preparation of documents relating thereto.

TRANSCRIPT OF RECORDED TELEPHONE CONVERSATION BETWEEN
DYLAN CICILIANO, ESQ. AND MATTHEW FARKAS
Transcribed on January 20, 2021

Transcribed by: Kimberly A. Farkas, RPR, CCR #741
Realtime Trials Reporting (702) 277-0106

DYLAN CICILIANO: Hi. This is Dylan.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Hi, Dylan. It's Matthew Farkas. How are you?

DYLAN CICILIANO: Hi, Matthew. I have to let you know that I'm recording this call, by the way.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Oh, that's absolutely fine. That's absolutely fine.

DYLAN CICILIANO: All right. So --

MATTHEW FARKAS: The reason I called, I just wanted to let you know that I got the note from Matt, which I guess is from Erika. I think it's fine. I'm glad you sent it. The First 100 people were basically threatening to sue me.

Here's the bottom line. Adam Platto, who is with TGC Farkas. I'm the Farkas part of TGC Farkas, obviously. I have an issue with First 100, which I completely agree with. The unfortunate part of this whole incident was that the head of First 100 Jay Bloom, also happens to be my brother-in-law, who I really don't like, but because he's married to my sister, I felt that I really needed to remove myself from this entire incident.

And what they did to me was they -- they brought in another attorney, who has now since resigned that space, who has stepped down. I mean, he was my attorney for, like, three seconds. And they did this without -- without, you know, telling me that they were going to do this. This guy Raffi Nahabedian, his name is. And that's who the letter went to from Erika.

DYLAN CICILIANO: So when you say -- when you say that -- hold on. When you say that they stepped in, who's they?

MATTHEW FARKAS: So Adam Platto -- what I did was I recused myself from the whole thing because I didn't want to be in between my friend Adam.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Right. In the amendment; right?

MATTHEW FARKAS: I beg your pardon?

DYLAN CICILIANO: You recused yourself through the amendment, where you gave up your managerial rights.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Yes, that's exactly -- that's exactly right.

And the only reason I called Erika yesterday was to let her know that I did not give Jay any information that he asked for. He did ask for information from me, which I refused to give him.

DYLAN CICILIANO: What did he ask for?

MATTHEW FARKAS: He asked for me to give him that amendment that I signed. I signed the amendment so that Adam could move forward with this -- with this action that he wanted to do.

DYLAN CICILIANO: When did he ask you -- when did he ask you for the amendment?

MATTHEW FARKAS: When did Jay ask me for the amendment?

DYLAN CICILIANO: Yeah.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Yesterday.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Yesterday?

MATTHEW FARKAS: I mean, I had -- I had the most hellish day yesterday. And he asked me for the amendment. And he said, I'm going to sue you. He was going to sue me for, you know, breach of fiduciary responsibility to the company, which is complete nonsense, and me trying to twist my role there as to one of being the CFO, which I was never the CFO for five minutes. My role as VP of finance was strictly to raise capital for the company. That was my only role.

And so I just wanted to let Erika know that I completely agreed with what she said, but they --

DYLAN CICILIANO: How did Nahabedian come in? That's what I don't understand. How did you eventually hire Nahabedian?

MATTHEW FARKAS: What happened -- so this is what happened. Jay wanted to sue me for, you know -- well, I shouldn't say that. He was threatening to sue me, knowing that I had no money to pay for anything. And Adam knows that, too. I mean, Jay absolutely destroyed me financially. My life -- I've been a mess for the last several years on account of First 100. I lost two jobs because of this. I mean, I don't want to even bore you with the details, but it was horrible.

So what they did was they hired Nahabedian. They hired Raffi.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Who's they, Jay Bloom hired Raffi?

MATTHEW FARKAS: Jay Bloom and Joe Gutierrez, who, I guess, Raffi is a friend of Joe's. They brought Raffi in to represent me in the event that Adam sued me.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay.

MATTHEW FARKAS: They came up with this whole scenario.

Now, in fairness, I mean, things were a mess back in -- and I spoke to Erika about this over the summer. But, in fairness, you know, they were upset with me because Jay asked me to show him what they'd sent. And I -- you know, and I stupidly did, but, in fact, it was good that I did because I had -- I wasn't -- I didn't understand exactly what was going on. I had signed a document several years back that Adam didn't sign, but I signed because they were threatening not to give me my back pay if I didn't sign.

You know, Jay -- First 100 has never done anything or asked me for anything where I wasn't under duress to sign something. And they've always held money as a, you know, as a hot button for me because they knew that I'd been in trouble financially.

DYLAN CICILIANO: So when did -- when did Joe and Jay hire Nahabedian for you?

MATTHEW FARKAS: I think last week at some point.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay.

MATTHEW FARKAS: But Nahabedian has now said he is not going to represent me at all.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay. Well -- so they've now -- so you're aware of what happened, they just filed a motion with the court to enforce a settlement agreement that you signed with Jay Bloom. Where did that settlement agreement come from?

MATTHEW FARKAS: I don't -- what settlement agreement? I didn't even know this.

DYLAN CICILIANO: There's a settlement agreement that has your signature on it dated January 6th, 2021.

MATTHEW FARKAS: A settlement agreement for January 6th?

DYLAN CICILIANO: Yeah. And in the settlement agreement, I'll tell you, it releases your arbitration or the TGC Farkas' arbitration award and fee award against Jay Bloom and First 100. It totally gets rid of the case and says the case is dismissed. And it's signed by you and it says that you have the authority to do so on behalf of TGC Farkas.

MATTHEW FARKAS: But I don't.

DYLAN CICILIANO: I understand you don't, but that's what the settlement agreement says. And it's signed by you and Jay dated January 6th.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Would it be possible for you to send me a copy of that?

DYLAN CICILIANO: I mean, I'm happy to send it to you. Are you in front of your computer right now?

MATTHEW FARKAS: Yes, I am.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay. While we're talking, I'll send it to you so we can go over it. I mean, the realty is there's going to be an evidentiary hearing on this. And you're going to have to participate and to explain what happened here. Because no one truly is, or at least on our end, we don't understand. The first we learned of it was when we got a letter, that letter from Nahabedian. And, evidently -- and in this it says that you and Jay Bloom negotiated this settlement agreement.

MATTHEW FARKAS: I didn't negotiate any agreement with Jay.

DYLAN CICILIANO: I'll send it to you. Hold on. I'm trying to extract the pages.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Which -- just let me know, Dylan, which email are you sending it to?

DYLAN CICILIANO: That was going to be my next question. I need to know your email address.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Oh, okay. Send it to Matthew, two Ts, Farkas, 70, 7-0 at Gmail, do you mean. So MatthewFarkas70, one word, at Gmail.

DYLAN CICILIANO: I'm attaching this right now.

MATTHEW FARKAS: I mean, you guys need to understand one thing. And I'm glad it's being recorded, frankly. I have never done anything when I wasn't under duress with Jay. I mean, he is -- and I told this to Erika. Jay -- Jay uses litigation. It's a blood sport for him. And the unfortunate thing here in this situation -- I just got it -- the unfortunate thing here in this situation, Dylan, is that Adam has a lawyer, Jay has a lawyer, Matthew doesn't have a lawyer.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Well, Matthew, we represent the entity. We represent the entity's interest.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Right.

DYLAN CICILIANO: That's what we do. So we don't represent Adam. We represent TGC Farkas and the interest there.

MATTHEW FARKAS: So then you are my lawyer?

DYLAN CICILIANO: Well, we're not your lawyer personally. We're the entity's lawyer.

Are you there?

MATTHEW FARKAS: Okay. So -- all right. Yes, I am right here. So I'm looking at this. So explain this to me.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Because I do not remember -- I do not remember signing this.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Have you ever seen this document?

MATTHEW FARKAS: And it was only on the 6th.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Yes. Have you seen this document before?

MATTHEW FARKAS: I do not remember seeing this document.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Did you negotiate this document?

MATTHEW FARKAS: No. I don't think so. But, you know what, let me look at -- let me look at something, Dylan. Hang on one second.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Yeah, sure. This was two weeks ago. So go ahead.

MATTHEW FARKAS: I understand. What I'm looking at or, I should say, what I'm looking for, Jay sent me a whole bunch of things to sign. And he said, you have to do this right away and get right back to me, and this is going to absolve you from everything.

I mean -- well -- so what you're telling me though is that this isn't going to happen; right?

DYLAN CICILIANO: No, no. They're moving the court to get it to happen and have everything dismissed.

MATTHEW FARKAS: They can't get it dismissed.

DYLAN CICILIANO: They're claiming that you told them that you had authority to do this.

MATTHEW FARKAS: I -- oh, now, wait a minute. They are lying. Oh, my God. This is on tape? Dylan, this is Matthew Farkas. They are lying. I never told them I had the authority to do anything. This is a complete fabrication.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Did you -- did Jay know -- well, when did Jay -- did you ever tell Jay about the amendment to the operating agreement?

MATTHEW FARKAS: He knew about it in September.

DYLAN CICILIANO: So he knew about the amendment --

MATTHEW FARKAS: And he was furious with me because it allowed Adam to move this forward and essentially win the case. But I never -- I never told -- I never told Jay I had the authority to do anything.

DYLAN CICILIANO: So in --

MATTHEW FARKAS: We never talked about this.

DYLAN CICILIANO: So in September, Jay knew about the amendment?

MATTHEW FARKAS: Of course.

DYLAN CICILIANO: When you say, "of course," why do you mean "of course." Did he look at it?

MATTHEW FARKAS: I didn't send him anything, but, you know, he told me that he knew about it. Hang on. Let me -- Let me -- I'm just -- I had to hang up on my wife. I'm sorry. She was calling me, but I'll just text her and tell her I'm on with you.

Dylan, here's my problem. I wanted to be removed from this whole thing because I didn't want to be in the middle of it. Okay. I didn't want to sue my brother-in-law and I didn't want to hurt my friends so I just wanted to be away from it. And I spoke to Michael Bush, you know, at the end of last year, last fall. And he said that they're going to handle it through the lawyers. But I never told Jay that I had the authority to do anything. He is lying.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Well, I mean, when you signed this settlement agreement, apparently, it says that you have the authority.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Well, then that's -- that's my fault because then I should have read it more carefully. But, like an idiot, I trusted Jay.

But let me -- I'm just looking through my emails right now so hang on one second. Okay. One second.

I honestly -- Dylan, I am looking through my emails right now and I don't see this email. And I certainly never told -- now, wait. Did they say that I signed this or they said that I told them that I had the authority to do this?

DYLAN CICILIANO: Well, they said that you signed it. The agreement says that you have the authority. The agreement --

MATTHEW FARKAS: Oh, all right. Well, in fairness, that is a little different.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Hold on. Hold on. Let me go up. And it is says --

MATTHEW FARKAS: So can I just write something down?

DYLAN CICILIANO: Yeah. I'm not going to stop you from writing something down.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Yeah, let me just write -- let me just write something down. So what you're saying is that these documents sent by Jay -- all right. Let me just see something. Hold on.

Yeah, I don't have anything in my email. Oh, wait a minute. I have some hard copy stuff. Hang on one second.

Because what Jay told me was that Joe -- Jay told me that Joe wanted to sue me. Joe -- and then Jay turned around and he said, well, Joe told me that I should sue you, but Jay was saying -- now, let me see. Release hold harmless, indemnification.

Yeah. See, Jay -- Jay was all over me. I had to get it back to him in 15 minutes. I didn't have a chance to give it to a lawyer, not that I had a lawyer to give it to. But because I was never under the -- yeah, there it is. There, I signed it.

But I never -- but I never -- stupid me, I didn't understand what the hell I was signing. I was just signing it because Jay was telling me that they were going to get Raffi to defend me in the event that Adam wanted to sue me.

DYLAN CICILIANO: So when -- so when did he provide you these documents?

MATTHEW FARKAS: The other day, last week.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Like, what day last week?

MATTHEW FARKAS: I'm sorry. I'm looking through my emails. I have the hard copies, but I'm looking through my emails. Hang on. Let me just see something. Tuesday.

This is the strangest thing. I don't have it in my emails, yet, I have the hard copy. Oh, I know why. He didn't send me an email. This is why it's not in my emails.

Jay sent the documents directly to the UPS store near my house. And I got the documents in the UPS store. I signed them. They scanned them and sent them back. That's why they're not in my emails.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay. And did he ever tell you what the documents were?

MATTHEW FARKAS: He just said -- no. He just said that I was signing a document to engage Raffi in case Adam decided to sue me personally. And that he would -- and that Adam would -- not Adam -- that Raffi was going to be my lawyer.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Did Raffi sign -- did you sign an engagement agreement with Raffi?

MATTHEW FARKAS: Yeah, I think I did. I think I did, yeah.

DYLAN CICILIANO: And what does --

MATTHEW FARKAS: But Jay had me convinced that I was either going to get sued by him or by Adam.

DYLAN CICILIANO: And what is the engagement agreement -- do you have the engagement agreement with Raffi?

MATTHEW FARKAS: Let me go back and look in the hard copies. Probably. Yeah, hang on one second. I'm happy to send it to you.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Please.

MATTHEW FARKAS: I am happy -- now, I'm going to have to take pictures of it because -- or I can go to the UPS store tomorrow and send it to you, if that's easier.

DYLAN CICILIANO: The pictures are fine so long as I can read them.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Okay. All right. Hang on one second. So Jay completely lied to me again. Dylan, I swear to God, I hope you fuckin' put him in jail. And I don't care that that's on the -- Attorney Retainer Agreement. Here we go. Here we go. Attorney Retainer. There's my signature.

Got it. Okay. I can send this to you right now. In fact, I can -- what I can do is I have one of those -- oh, my, God -- one of those scanners on my iPhone.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Right.

MATTHEW FARKAS: And I can send you -- I can scan it to you. I'll do it right now while we're on the phone.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay.

MATTHEW FARKAS: So I make sure that you get this. You know, once again, Jay lied to me. I fucking hate him. I swear to God, I fucking hate him.

All right. Hang on one second. All right. Sorry. I know this -- I shouldn't say that.

DYLAN CICILIANO: I understand you're frustrated. I'm not criticizing you for your language or your thoughts so -- and, honestly, I'm trying to figure out what's happening here. Because, as I've said, they now are going to court saying, get rid of the judgment and dismiss it. So we need to get to the bottom of this as quick as possible.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Okay. All right. Now, okay. So I took the pictures. Now let me get to my scanner. Okay. Oh, wait a minute. I'm an idiot. I just took pictures of it. I didn't take pictures with the scanner. Hold on. Hang on one second. Almost done. Almost done.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Now, how did you know that Joe Gutierrez was recommending Raffi?

MATTHEW FARKAS: Jay told me.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Did you talk to Joe?

MATTHEW FARKAS: Hang on. Not about this. All right. Hang on. All right. Hang on.

All right. Now, what is your email?

DYLAN CICILIANO: I just sent you the one. I just sent you an email to your Gmail; remember? My name is long. I can spell it out to you. It's D, as in Dylan; C, as in Charlie; I, as in igloo; C, as in Charlie; I, as in igloo --

MATTHEW FARKAS: There. I got it. I got it. All right. I just sent them, four pages.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay. It's encrypted.

So when you said you didn't talk to Joe about this, what did you talk to Joe about?

MATTHEW FARKAS: So this is what happened.

Jay called me and said, Joe is -- Joe wants to sue you. Meaning, Joe wanted to sue me. And they were going to sue me, allegedly -- they were going to sue me, allegedly, for -- they said they were going to sue me for breach of fiduciary responsibility to First 100. Now, I don't know why the hello -- I don't know what fiduciary responsibility I was breaching, but that's what they said.

So I get Joe on the phone and I said, Joe, what is going on here? And Joe said, Matthew, I'm not suing you. He said, I don't even have the power to sue you. I am simply First 100's lawyer.

So the thing is, Jay didn't have the guts to tell me that he was thinking about suing me. So it wasn't Joe, but it was Jay that was going to sue me.

So we had a long talk about what was going on here. And, I mean, if you want, I can give you the whole story, but in a nutshell, Joe said that nobody has more at risk here than his law firm because the company owes Joe, I think, like, a couple of million dollars at least in back fees. They owe Joe -- Jay owes Joe a fortune; right. And they keep saying, I wish Adam wouldn't do this now because they are supposedly very close to signing an agreement where someone is going to buy the judgment.

Are you aware of the judgment that First 100 has?

DYLAN CICILIANO: Yeah, the judgment that they allegedly assigned to TGC Farkas in that settlement agreement.

MATTHEW FARKAS: No, no, no, are you of the judgment --

DYLAN CICILIANO: The $2 billion judgment, yes. In that settlement agreement, they allegedly get that.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Well, right. Nobody thinks that we're going to get -- or I certainly don't think we're going to get anything. But Jay, apparently, has found someone who is willing to buy the judgment for $48 million; okay. He has allegedly found someone. And, supposedly, this is going to happen within 30 days. Now, Jay said by the end of January, but he said it could slip into February, but he has found someone. And at that point, Adam will get all his money back.

And they're saying that -- what they're complaining about, what Joe said, meaning Jay, is complaining about, is that this is -- he is saying that Adam is obstructing this deal from happening because if they feel that Jay is getting sued in the courts over this, that these people may walk away. They don't want to get in the middle of anything. Which I don't blame them, except I don't even believe that anybody is there.

Now, I don't know that for a fact. I don't know that. And both Jay and Joe have told me the same story, that it's $48 million. That this person -- you know, that they've been negotiating with this person now since August, or maybe even before that. But I know from my own experience on Wall Street that when people want to do something, they do it. They don't take six, seven, eight months to make a decision on something like this. They either get it and belief they're going to collect or they don't, and that's it.

And, in fact, three, four years ago, I actually put the judgment right after we got it in front of five very sophisticated litigation funding firms in New York, one of them being managed by one of my oldest friends from, you know, middle school. And all five of these firms walked away.

So I don't actually believe this is going to happen. But, in fairness, I haven't seen any documents. I don't know who they're talking to. I don't know anything. I'm just going based on my belief that nothing that Jay has ever told me has been true.

And, by the way, he didn't tell me that he was going to do what he did today with this so --

DYLAN CICILIANO: When you say, "with this," you're saying with the settlement agreement, he didn't tell you that?

MATTHEW FARKAS: He didn't tell me anything. He doesn't -- listen, this is what Jay does. Jay says to me, Matthew, I'm going to sue you. You know how influential I am in the courts.

And this is one thing you should be aware of here, and I told this to Erika over the summer. Jay has a black belt in defending himself and drawing things out. He's not a lawyer, but he definitely plays one on television, and this is what he is really good at. And Jay has completely ingratiated himself in Las Vegas.

Now, by the way, just so I'm clear -- I'm on tape now. That's fine. But I'm assuming that this is -- you're not going to give this tape to Jay.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Well, so, I mean, candidly, I mean, this is the -- this is -- you know, I told you I represent the company. And to the extent that if you were to testify at some point and you testify inconsistent with this, I will have -- I'm mean, I'm going to have to introduce it.

MATTHEW FARKAS: All right. Well, fine. I'm not saying anything here that's untrue.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Yeah. I'm being real candid with you. Like I said, I represent the company. I'm not your personal attorney. And the whole purpose of this is both to protect me and to protect -- well, it's mostly to protect me and the company, such that, if there's ever a disagreement as to what was said here, we can definitively resolve that because I don't want to be a witness.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Well, look, jay is very good at defending himself. And he's ingratiated himself in the legal community in Las Vegas. Like, I'm sure you know he's on the Nevada State Bar disciplinary board; right?

DYLAN CICILIANO: Or he was; right.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Is he no longer?

DYLAN CICILIANO: I don't know. I've heard that. I don't know one way or the other.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Well, unless you've heard differently, he is.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay.

MATTHEW FARKAS: And he's also -- he's also on the Metropolitan Police disciplinary board. So he's definitely very plugged in. He's friends with a lot of judges. I'm sure you know he's been politically active. You know, these aren't -- there's nothing wrong with any of this stuff. I'm just -- I'm only letting you know this to -- for you to understand that he will be quite an adversary. But in terms of telling me -- I mean, yes, I signed this stuff. I mean, my signature is on it. I can't deny it. But he didn't -- he didn't take any pains to explain to me what I was signing. He just said, you know, Joe wants to sue you so you better sign this or we're going to sue you.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Right.

MATTHEW FARKAS: I mean, I would -- I absolutely signed this under duress.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay.

MATTHEW FARKAS: And I can honestly say also that every time I have -- every time I deal with Jay related to this, I mean, it is always, you know, I hurt him, you know, that I've hurt the company. And, you know, the fact is that I think -- I mean, I don't know -- well, you know what, I probably, in all fairness, I probably said enough. I think I've given you all the information that you need. But I did not discuss anything with Jay. I did not realize that my signature was helping to end this. And Jay and I will have to have a conversation about that at another time.

DYLAN CICILIANO: All right. Well, like I said, this is now -- the court has just, as we're talking, has set this for -- it says, "Move to enforce the settlement agreement on January 28th, 2021 at 9:00 a.m."

We have to figure out what to do here because, as I said, the effect of the settlement agreement is to wipe out the proceedings, and it's all based on your signature on that what they claim was your apparent authority.

MATTHEW FARKAS: No. No. Now, that is -- that is completely untrue. I never had the authority to do that.

DYLAN CICILIANO: And Jay knew that?

MATTHEW FARKAS: Of course, he did. I told him time and again I had removed myself from having any part of this. And you can go to Michael Bush. They wrote me a letter saying as much.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay. Well, you know, we've got to figure this out. I may have to reach out to -- I mean, we're going to need a declaration from you certainly on this, you know, as to what --

MATTHEW FARKAS: Oh, believe me, it will be my pleasure to give it to you.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Okay.

MATTHEW FARKAS: I had no idea -- Dylan, I had no idea that this was -- that this is what the plan was. I had no idea. And this is why I say to Jay and I say to you, I don't have a lawyer. I don't have anybody to talk to about these things. So when one of the two parties asks me to sign something because it's going to help them, you know, I don't want to -- I didn't necessarily want to hurt Jay and I certainly didn't want to hurt Adam. I didn't want to hurt anybody. I didn't want to be a part of this.

DYLAN CICILIANO: No, I --

MATTHEW FARKAS: I didn't want to be part of this.

DYLAN CICILIANO: All right. I mean, you're very much a part of it now. And so --

MATTHEW FARKAS: Goddamnit. Oh, my God. I am so angry right now, you have no idea. You have no idea how angry I am right now at Jay. You can't even imagine.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Well, I mean, it's bad. If they win on the motion and force settlement, they extinguish a million-dollar investment.

MATTHEW FARKAS: Oh, my God. I am so angry with Jay right now. I am so angry with him. You go get him. Excuse me for saying that, but you guys go get him.

DYLAN CICILIANO: All right. Well, I'll be back in touch because it doesn't end with this phone conversation.

Can you send me anything else that Jay or anyone else had sent you regarding this subject matter in the past couple days or past couple weeks so I can see?

MATTHEW FARKAS: Yes.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Thank you. Like I said, we've got to figure out what we're going to do here because, at this point, they're hanging their hat on the fact that you signed it, you negotiated it, you had counsel --

MATTHEW FARKAS: I negotiated nothing. I negotiated nothing. Jay sent me a bunch of documents. He said, you have to sign these things right away, and that we will protect you. Those were his exact words, we will protect you. If Adam sues you, we will protect you. Those were his exact words. If Adam sues you, we will protect you. We will pay for your defense.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Who paid the retainer for Nahabedian?

MATTHEW FARKAS: Jay.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Well, you didn't pay it; right?

MATTHEW FARKAS: No. I don't have the money to pay for a lawyer. That's why I'm in this position right now. I don't have the money to pay for a lawyer. You guys go get him. You go get him.

DYLAN CICILIANO: All right. Well, thanks for taking the time, and, like I said, we'll be in touch.

MATTHEW FARKAS: All right. Thanks. Bye.

DYLAN CICILIANO: Bye.

(Whereupon, the recording was concluded.)

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Members entered into that certain Limited Liability Company Agreement of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, dated as of October 21, 2013 (the "Operating Agreement"), with respect to the Company; and

As of the Effective Date, TGC Investor shall hold office as Administrative Member until it resigns as Administrative Member in a writing delivered to all Members and its successor shall have been appointed by the unanimous vote of the Members. From and after the Effective Date, any reference to the Administrative Member shall hereinafter mean TGC Investor, who shall act solely through its manager, Adam Flatto, or such other designee appointed by TGC Investor from time to time.

2.4 Section 4.1(c) of the Operating Agreement. The following Section 4.1(c) shall be added to the Operating Agreement:

> "(c) The Administrative Member shall have full, exclusive and complete discretion, power and authority, subject in all cases to other provisions of this Agreement and the requirements of applicable law, to manage, control, administer and operate the business and affairs of the Company for the purposes herein stated and to make all decisions affecting such business and affairs, including, without limitation, the power to:
>
> (i) acquire land, buildings or any other interest in real estate which may be necessary, convenient or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes of the Company;
>
> (ii) acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise, any personal property, tangible or intangible which may be necessary, convenient or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes of the Company;
>
> (iii) sell, dispose, trade or exchange Company personal property in the ordinary course of the Company's business, including determining the terms and price upon which to sell the personal property;
>
> (iv) purchase liability and other insurance to protect the Company's properties and business;

> (vi) sell or otherwise transfer the real and personal property of the Company or any part or parts thereof;
> (vii) execute any and all agreements, contracts, documents, certifications, and instruments necessary or convenient in connection with the management, maintenance and operation of the Company's real and personal property;

(viii) execute all other instruments and documents which may be necessary or in the opinion of the Administrative Member desirable to carry out the intent and purpose of the Agreement;

(ix) contract on behalf of the Company for the employment and services of employees and/or independent contractors and delegate to such persons the duty to manage or supervise any of the assets or operations of the Company;

(x) care for and distribute funds to the Members by way of cash, income, return of capital or otherwise, all in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, and perform all matters in furtherance of the objectives of the Company or this Agreement;

(xi) enter into contracts and make any and all expenditures in connection therewith, which the Administrative Member, in its discretion, deems necessary or appropriate in connection with the management of the affairs of the Company and the performance of its obligations and responsibilities under this Agreement, including, without limitation, expenditures for legal, accounting and other related expenses incurred in connection with the organization, financing and operation of the Company;

(xii) determine whether or not distributions should be made to the Members, expect as may specifically set forth elsewhere in this Agreement; and (xiii) enter into any kind of activity necessary to, in connection with, or incidental to, the accomplishment of the purposes of the Company."

2.5 Section 4.1(d) of the Operating Agreement. The following Section 4.1(d) shall be added to the Operating Agreement:

"(d) The business and affairs of the Company are to be managed and taken by the Administrative Member, as provided in this Section 4.1. (ii) The removal or election of a new Administrative Member;

(iv) Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, the termination and dissolution of the Company.

As provided in Section 3.4(b) of this Agreement, those matters to be voted on by the Members can be done by written consent. Such a written consent may be utilized at any meeting of the Members, or it may be utilized in obtaining approval by the Members without a meeting. Except for those matters specifically designated above or otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, the consent or approval of the Members shall not be required to ratify any actions taken by the Administrative Member on behalf of the Company."

2.6 Section 4.5 of the Operating Agreement. Section 4.5 of the Operating Agreement is hereby deleted in its entirety and shall be replaced by "Section 4.5 Liability Limited; No Fiduciary Duty" set forth below. Specifically, from and after the Effective Date, there will no longer be a CEO position with the Company; it being the intention of the Members of the Company for the Administrative Member to have all such authority of the Company and be the "manager" of the Company, as set forth in Section 4.1 of the Agreement.

"Section 4.5 Liability Limited; No Fiduciary Duty. The Administrative Member shall not be liable to the Company or any Member for any act or omission performed or omitted pursuant to the authority granted by this Agreement; provided that such limitation of liability shall not apply to the extent the act or omission was attributable to the fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct or knowing violation of law of the Administrative Member. This Agreement is not intended to, and does not, create or impose any fiduciary duty on any Member. Furthermore, each of the Members and the Company hereby waives any and all fiduciary duties that, absent such waiver, may be implied by applicable law, and in doing so, acknowledges and agrees that the duties and obligation of the Administrative Member and each Member to each other and to the Company are only as expressly set forth in this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict the duties and liabilities of the Administrative Member otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Members to replace such other duties and liabilities of such Person.

SECTION 3. MISCELLANEOUS

3.1 Continued Effectiveness of Operating Agreement. Except as specifically provided herein, all of the terms and conditions of the Operating Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

3.2 Governing Law. This Amendment shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Delaware (without regard to conflict of laws principles), all rights and remedies being governed by said laws.

3.3 Headings. Section and subsection headings in this Amendment are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of this Amendment for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

3.4 Counterparts; Effectiveness. This Amendment may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single Amendment. Signature pages may be detached from multiple separate counterparts and attached to a single counterpart so that all signature pages are physically attached to the same document. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Amendment by facsimile, electronic email or other electronic imaging means (e.g., "pdf" or "tif") shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Amendment, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original.

TGC/FARKAS FUNDING, LLC, Plaintiff(s), vs. FIRST 100, LLC, Defendant(s).	CASE NO: A-20-822273-C DEPT. XIII

BEFORE THE HONORABLE MARK R. DENTON, DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 2021

RECORDER'S TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING RE:
SHOW CAUSE HEARING

APPEARANCES VIA VIDEO CONFERENCING:

For the Plaintiff(s):	ERIKA PIKE TURNER, ESQ. DYLAN T. CICILIANO, ESQ.
For the Defendant(s):	JOSEPH A. GUTIERREZ, ESQ. JASON R. MAIER, ESQ.

RECORDED BY: JENNIFER GEROLD, COURT RECORDER

Las Vegas, Nevada; Thursday, January 21, 2021

[Proceeding commenced at 9:44 a.m.]

THE COURT: All right. It appears that the next one is TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC versus First 100, LLC.

MS. TURNER: Good morning, Your Honor, --

MR. GUTIERREZ: Good morning, Your Honor, this is --

MS. TURNER: -- Erika Pike Turner of Garman Turner Gordon on behalf of the Plaintiff, TGC/Farkas.

MR. GUTIERREZ: Good Morning, Your Honor, Joseph Gutierrez and Jason Maier on behalf of the First 100 entities and Jay Bloom in his individual capacity.

MS. TURNER: And for the record, Dylan Ciciliano is also present on behalf of the Plaintiff.

THE COURT: Good morning. The calendar shows it to be on for show cause hearing. Okay.

MS. TURNER: Yes, Your Honor. This --

THE COURT: I think something's been filed -- wasn't something filed recently -- something's that been filed recently that -- a motion by the other side, I think?

MR. GUTIERREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

MS. TURNER: Yes, Your Honor. We have an order to show cause. There was a response. And then there was a motion to enforce settlement agreement that was placed on calendar for next week. And we responded to that filing last night. It couldn't be earlier because we had to respond to this -- this action. It is our position that this settlement agreement is a fraud on the Court. And it is part and parcel --

THE COURT: And I'll be hearing -- I'll be hearing them on a motion, right?

MS. TURNER: It -- it will be. Our supplement addresses why it is part and parcel of the contempt. Its interference with -- with the performance from Defendants of the obligations under the judgment. We are asking for a -- an evidentiary hearing on the extent of the contempt. And, Your Honor, you probably didn't have enough time to read the submission last night, but we have Defendants reaching out to a member of the Plaintiff and having that Plaintiff -- or the member of the Plaintiff, who has no control over Plaintiff, sign documents.

And they purported to provide him counsel who is Jay Bloom, the manager of Defendants, to provide counsel to him. Counsel that never advised him, never discussed it with him. We have a transcript we've attached to the filing last night where it says --

THE COURT: Well, here's my -- here's my inclination: I'm looking at Odyssey here. I don't see yet calendared the motion to enforce the settlement agreement.

MS. TURNER: Your Honor, it was represented to us that this hearing was vacated and that the hearing was set for next Thursday. That was what was represented to us --

THE COURT: I don't see it in Odyssey. Let me hear from opposing --

MR. GUTIERREZ: Your Honor, this is --

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. GUTIERREZ: -- this is Joseph Gutierrez on behalf of the First 100 entities. Yeah, it was a -- you signed the OST earlier this week and set the hearing on the Defendants' motion to enforce settlement for January 28th at 9:00 am. And in your ruling --

THE COURT: Like I said, then why hasn't it been filed -- served and filed yet?

MR. GUTIERREZ: It has been served and filed.

THE CLERK: I'm sorry, Judge, I'm going to step in.

MR. GUTIERREZ: It was electronically filed on January 19th --

THE CLERK: I don't think --

MR. GUTIERREZ: -- at 4:00 pm.

THE CLERK: -- Master Calendar hasn't set it in Odyssey yet.

THE COURT: Oh, I see. There's a motion -- Odyssey shows the motion filed on the 19th, okay, but it doesn't yet show the hearing date, at least -- Madalyn, do you see it?

THE CLERK: It's not -- it's because Master Calendar hasn't set the hearing yet.

THE COURT: But it's going to be on -- I signed an OST, apparently, right?

THE CLERK: Yep. Yep. It should be set. I'll set it right now so there's no confusion and I'll reach out to Master Calendar because they should've set it [indiscernible].

THE COURT: Okay. And that was the OST was for the 28th; is that right? Okay. Here's what I'd like to do, yeah, I see it now. Okay.

Here's what I'd like to do, I'd like to just go ahead and pass this to the 28th at the same time I hear the motion to enforce settlement agreement. If it appears that an evidentiary hearing is to be set, then I'll set it at that time.

MS. TURNER: Your Honor, I appreciate that.

MR. GUTIERREZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

MS. TURNER: Part of the issue that we have, and it's important that we bring it up, is in that order setting the hearing for next week, there's a provision that says the order setting judgment debtor exam is vacated. And we have the transcript attached to the filing last night where it's indicated that the purpose of this whole action, this whole purported settlement agreement that doesn't actually exist, the purpose is so that assets could be sold. So we are concerned that, Your Honor, without the proper papers, it's just one sentence that says, I agree to set the hearing on the order shortening time on the motion to enforce settlement agreement and then it says, the judgment debtor exam is vacated.

THE COURT: Where is that?

MS. TURNER: It's in this order that was submitted to set the hearing for next week.

THE COURT: Oh, I thought you said -- I understood you to say you hadn't seen it yet. I'm sorry, I guess, I misunderstood.

MS. TURNER: No.

MR. GUTIERREZ: Your Honor, the order says specifically that post-judgment discovery are stayed until further order of the Court and that this show cause hearing is continued until further order of the Court because it's our position there's a valid settlement agreement. We can just set that on the 28th when we hear Defendants' motion to enforce. And the arguments raised by counsel, which we strongly object to, and there's several misrepresentations that we're going to point out to the Court, but these issues can be decided next week, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. CICILIANO: Your Honor, this is Dylan Ciciliano, in the -- the order setting judgment debtor exam, there's the standard language that prohibits a debtor from transferring the property. It's not clear, based on this motion to enforce settlement agreement, where it says that post-judgment discovery proceedings in this matter are stayed until further order of the Court. Whether or not that vacates that provision, and I think Ms. Turner's still seeking clarification --

THE COURT: It doesn't.

MR. CICILIANO: Okay.

THE COURT: I don't see where it vacates that provision.

MR. CICILIANO: Perfect.

THE COURT: It says post-judgment discovery proceedings are stayed.

MR. CICILIANO: Okay. And we just wanted to be clear on that. That's all, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yeah. That's all that says is post-judgment discovery proceedings are stayed. It doesn't say anything about disposition of assets or transfers or anything like that.

MS. TURNER: No, it's their order setting judgment debtor exam that was the concern, but with that clarification, we have no issue with setting this over to next week. And we'll respond --

THE COURT: All right. Very well. It's the 28th at 9:00 am. Okay?

MS. TURNER: Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. GUTIERREZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

[Proceeding concluded at 9:51 a.m.]

Plaintiff/Judgment Creditor TGC/FARKAS FUNDING, LLC ("Plaintiff"), by and through counsel, the law firm of Garman Turner Gordon LLP, hereby opposes the *Motion To Enforce Settlement and Vacate Post-Judgment Discovery Proceeding*s (the "Motion") filed by Defendants/Judgment Debtors FIRST 100, LLC and FIRST ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS, LLC, aka 1st ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS LLC (collectively, the "Defendants") and countermoves to strike the Declaration of Jason Maeir submitted in support of the Motion, pursuant to Eighth Judicial District Court Rule ("EDCR") 2.21(c) and for the imposition of appropriate sanctions pursuant to EDCR 7.60(b)(1), (3), and/or (5), jointly and severally, against Defendants, their manager Jay Bloom ("Bloom"), and their counsel (the "Countermotion").

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

SUMMARY

There are certain factors that are not present in any enforceable settlement agreement, as they are clear badges of fraud, including that the settlement agreement was not negotiated, no consideration was provided to Plaintiff, the settlement agreement was not authorized by Plaintiff, Bloom coerced the settlement agreement from a member of Plaintiff, Matthew Farkas ("Farkas"), who lacked requisite authority to bind Plaintiff,[1] and the settlement agreement was actively concealed from Plaintiff's known counsel until the Motion was filed. These patently relevant factors were intentionally omitted from the Motion to secure an order shortening time and corresponding disruption of the OSC hearing and Plaintiff's other Judgment enforcement efforts.

The arbitration panel found Defendants engaged in a "long and bad faith effort" to deny Plaintiff statutory and contractual rights of inspection of Defendants' business records. (Arb

[1] Defendants are in a Catch-22 by arguing that Farkas had apparent authority to bind Plaintiff because he signed where it indicates he is a "manager" of Plaintiff, as Defendants were prohibited as a matter of law (discussed further, infra) from directly presenting the settlement agreement to Farkas (former manager of Plaintiff) with the intention of denying Plaintiff the benefit of counsel.

Award, p. 2). Those bad faith efforts to deny Plaintiff's rights have continued and expanded since the Arb Award was entered. As set forth in the OSC and Supplement at length, Defendants have failed to comply with the Arb Award or subsequent Judgment thereon in any manner. There has not been one document produced. Desperate to further conceal the truth regarding where Plaintiff's $1 million investment in Defendants went and other pertinent information regarding Defendants' business and assets, Defendants have now contrived a "settlement" in their attempt to obviate Plaintiff's Judgment without any consideration.[2]

As supported by the Farkas Dec, the Ciciliano Dec, and the exhibits thereto, the sham of a settlement agreement attached to the Motion was only procured upon violations of Nevada's Rules of Professional Conduct ("NRPC") by counsel for Bloom and Defendants and other intentional misconduct from Bloom in what is clearly a concerted effort for Defendants to avoid their obligations under the Judgment. When applicable legal and equitable principles are applied to the subject Settlement, it is rendered absolutely unenforceable.

Not only should the Motion be denied, but given that the settlement scheme is for the purpose of interfering with the administration of justice and denying Plaintiff's Judgment rights, the Countermotion for sanctions should be granted. See EDCR 7.60(b) (providing authority for the Court to impose upon a party or an attorney any and all sanctions which may, under the facts of the case, be reasonable, including the imposition of fines, costs or attorney's fees, particularly when a motion is presented that is frivolous, unnecessary or unwarranted or multiples the proceedings in a case unreasonably and vexatiously); see also NRS 7.085 (providing authority for the Court to impose upon an attorney sanctions for frivolous or vexatious proceedings).

Finally, Defendant's counsel Jason Maier submitted the only declaration in support of the Motion, despite the fact he is admittedly without any personal knowledge necessary to evidence a valid and enforceable settlement agreement, which requires the declaration be stricken under EDC 2.20(c).

[2] It is notable that Plaintiff, as a member of Defendants, would still be entitled to inspect Defendants' records, notwithstanding the purported settlement.

II.

STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS

A. Plaintiff is exclusively controlled by TGC 100 Investor, LLC, not Farkas.

1. Plaintiff is a Delaware Limited Liability Company with two members, TGC 100 Investor, LLC ("TGC Investor") and Farkas.[3]

2. Farkas was the manager of Plaintiff until September 17, 2020.[4] In the arbitration proceedings resulting in the Arb Award, Farkas found himself "conflicted as a result of [his] familial relationship with Mr. Bloom."[5] That conflict resulted in Bloom manipulating Farkas into providing Bloom with attorney-client privileged documents between Plaintiff and its counsel.[6]

3. On September 17, 2020, two-days after the Arb Award, Plaintiff's members came to a resolution to ease the conflict in which Farkas found himself.[7] That day, Plaintiff's members adopted an amended operating agreement for Plaintiff, whereby TGC Investor had "full, exclusive, and complete discretion, power and authority" . . . "to manage, control, administer and operate the business and affairs of the Company."[8]

4. After signing the Amendment, Farkas "informed Mr. Bloom that [he] no longer had any role in the management of Plaintiff."[9] At no time since the Amendment has Farkas (knowingly) represented he had the authority to bind Plaintiff.[10]

B. For years Defendants have subverted Plaintiff's rights to inspect Defendants' records.

5. Plaintiff "invested $1 million into the business of [Defendants] in exchange for a" membership interest in Defendants.[11]

6. Bloom is Defendants' manager, principal, and chairman.[12]

7. Beginning on May 2, 2017, Plaintiff made requests to inspect Defendants' records pursuant to its status as a member of Defendants.[13]

8. Defendants refused to produce the company records to Plaintiff despite multiple requests and arbitration proceedings being commenced, which the arbitration panel found to be "a long and bad faith effort by [Defendants] to avoid their statutory and contractual duties to a member to produce requested records."[14]

9. On September 15, 2020, the arbitration panel entered its Arb Award, wherein it compelled Defendants to produce the requested records within 10 days of entry of the award and awarded Plaintiff all of its fees and costs.[15]

10. On November 17, 2020, the Court confirmed the Arb Award and entered the Judgment.

11. Ironically, given the Judgment on the Arb Award, even if the Court were to enforce the settlement agreement, Plaintiff would still be entitled to inspect Defendants books and records, and res judicata prevents Defendants from disputing the right.[16]

C. Defendants are attempting to interfere with Plaintiff's Judgment enforcement efforts.

12. The Judgment established that Defendants were to produce records to Plaintiff as set forth in the final Arb Award, which required Defendants "[were] to forthwith, but no later than ten (10) calendar days from the date of this AWARD [September 15, 2020], make all the requested documents and information available from both companies to Claimant for inspection and copying." No documents were produced as ordered.[17]

13. On December 18, 2020, the Court entered the OSC and set a hearing for January 21, 2021.

14. On December 21, 2020, the Court entered orders subjecting Defendants and Bloom to Judgment Debtor Exams to discover the location of Defendants' records and accounts, which examinations were scheduled for January 25, 2021.

15. On December 18, 2020, Plaintiff issued post-judgment discovery to Defendants, including interrogatories, requests for production of documents and notices of intent to issue subpoenas.

16. Despite that responses to written requests for discovery were due on or before January 17, 2021, Defendants failed to provide any discovery requested.[18] Instead of responding to the discovery requests, Defendants, Bloom and MGA objected and otherwise refused to provide responses or attend depositions/examinations.[19]

D. The alleged settlement agreement was "secretly" entered into by Bloom and his brother-in-law, Farkas, who had no authority to execute the agreement.

17. When Defendants, Bloom, and MGA were creating excuses for not responding to post-judgment discovery, they knew of the existence of the alleged settlement agreement, dated January 6, 2021, yet the settlement agreement was not produced to Plaintiff until the Motion was filed.[20]

18. To further effectuate their scheme to avoid the Judgment, in addition to the settlement agreement, there was a further concealed (and ultimately failed) effort to supplant Plaintiff's counsel with Bloom's personal counsel, Raffi Nahabedian, Esq. ("Nahabedian"), subsequent to the settlement agreement being executed in order to try to effectuate a dismissal of the Judgment without consideration.

19. Nahabedian is Bloom's current personal counsel. In fact, Nahabedian represents Bloom before this very Court. See Nevada Speedway LLC v. Bloom, Case No. A-20-809882-B

(Judge Denton presiding, Feb. 2, 2020).[21]

20. Notwithstanding his current representation of Defendants' manager, on January 14, 2021, Nahabedian sent a letter to Plaintiff's counsel (Garman Turner Gordon, or "GTG") claiming that he had been retained to represent Plaintiff by Farkas, that GTG was terminated, that GTG was to execute a substitution of counsel, and that Plaintiff would be dismissing this matter pursuant to a settlement.[22] While Nahabedian's letter claims that it was attaching the settlement agreement, it did not.[23]

21. Despite repeated request, Nahabedian and MGA failed and/or refused to disclose the settlement agreement to GTG until the Motion.[24]

22. On January 15, 2021, GTG addressed Nahabedian's demand for substitution as Plaintiff's counsel, including Nahabedian's clear conflict(s) of interest and the lack of authority to make the demand.[25] In response to the January 15, 2021 letter from GTG, Nahabedian stepped back and he disavowed any involvement in settlement negotiations or the drafting of any settlement documents.[26] On January 20, 2021, Nahabedian went further and withdrew his purported representation of Plaintiff.[27]

[21] Nahabedian has also previously represented Defendants' affiliate (Kal-Mor-USA, LLC) in conjunction with MJA representing Defendants in multiple cases. See e.g. Case No.'s A-14-705587-C, A-16-730447-C.

Despite being advised on January 15, 2021 that Plaintiff had counsel and that Plaintiff's manager did not authorize the representation/substitution, the January 20, 2021 termination letter was sent directly to Farkas and not copied to Plaintiff's manager, TGC Investor, or Plaintiff's counsel of record, GTG. Ciciliano Dec, App Exh. 2, Bates No. OPP023, at ¶ 7. Further, despite no substitution being finalized, Nahabedian communicated directly with Farkas via telephone and communicated with Farkas using Bloom as the conduit. E. Defendants, Bloom and their counsel MJA have schemed against Plaintiff by coercing Farkas into ultra vires actions, including executing the settlement agreement, not authorized by Plaintiff.

23. After receiving the Motion, GTG contacted Farkas, Plaintiff's member and former manager. Farkas explained the applicable facts, thereby establishing a scheme by Defendants, Bloom and their counsel to secure dismissal of the Judgment by coercing Farkas into executing documents without the benefit of counsel that purportedly bind Plaintiff, including the legal representation letter with Nahabedian, the form of substitution of counsel and the settlement agreement.[28]

24. Bloom threatened his brother-in-law, Farkas, stating that Defendants and Bloom's counsel, Joseph Gutierrez of MGA, would sue Farkas if he did not cooperate and sign the documents Bloom was providing him.[29]

25. Despite Farkas being a member and former manager of Plaintiff—and according to the Motion, Defendants, Bloom and their counsel thought he was still the manager of Plaintiff—Joe Gutierrez of MGA ("Gutierrez") communicated directly with Farkas in violation of NRPC 4.2.[30] In discussions, Gutierrez disclosed that MGA was owed millions of dollars in legal fees and the only way they foresaw recovering the fees is if this action was dismissed and Defendants were able to sell off an asset so MGA would collect a contingency fee.[31]

26. Bloom told Farkas that it was Gutierrez who recommended that Farkas retain Nahabedian to effectuate dismissal of the Judgment.[32]

Even if Gutierrez believed that Farkas was not represented by GTG in his individual capacity, the subject matter of the communications was not limited to Farkas' individual interests, but extended to Plaintiff's interest in the Judgment and its enforcement that should have included GTG.

27. On January 6, 2021, Bloom sent Farkas a number of documents to a UPS store by Farkas' house.[33] Bloom demanded that Farkas immediately sign the documents and have the UPS store scan the documents and send them back to Bloom.[34] Bloom promised Farkas that if he signed the documents it would absolve Farkas from being sued.[35]

28. Farkas did not review any of the documents sent by Bloom, let alone review them with counsel.[36]

29. In the documents that Bloom provided Farkas was an engagement letter for Nahabedian.[37] Farkas believed that if he signed the document, it just meant he would have his own legal counsel in the case that Farkas was sued as Bloom made him believe would happen.[38] Farkas did not read the engagement agreement and instead signed the last page and returned it to Bloom.[39] Critically, as Nahabedian's existing duties were to Bloom, Nahabedian did not actually have any communication with Farkas until after the engagement agreement was signed and there was no effort by him to explain his intended role or to obtain any informed consent to his representation or to disclose and obtain an informed waiver of Nahabedian's conflict with the concurrent representation of Bloom and former representation of Defendants and/or their affiliates.[40] The engagement letter calls for a $2,500 retainer that Farkas did not pay.[41] At no point did Farkas realize or intend to retain Nahabedian to represent Plaintiff, nor did he think he had the ability to hire or fire Plaintiff's counsel.[42]

30. Also included in the documents Bloom sent Farkas was the alleged settlement agreement.[43] Farkas did not participate in the drafting of the settlement agreement, did not review it before he signed it or have counsel review it with him.[44] Farkas signed the settlement agreement under duress, as he believed that he would be sued if he did not sign the document.[45] At no point did Farkas tell Bloom that he had the authority to sign the settlement agreement on behalf of Plaintiff or to act on Plaintiff's behalf.[46]

31. Bloom also presented Farkas with a January 6, 2021, letter from Farkas to GTG, terminating GTG as Plaintiff's counsel.[47] Farkas did not draft or participate in the drafting of the letter and he did not send the letter to GTG- it came from Nahabedian who presumably received it from Bloom.[48]

LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. Neither the law nor equity permits the specific performance of the settlement agreement.

"A settlement agreement, which is a contract, is governed by principles of contract law." Mack v. Estate of Mack, 125 Nev. 80, 95, 206 P.3d 98, 108 (2009)(internal citations omitted). "As such, a settlement agreement will not be an enforceable contract unless there is "an offer and acceptance, meeting of the minds, and consideration.'" Id.

Because requests to enforce settlement agreements seek "specific performance," the actions are equitable in nature. Park W. Companies, Inc. v. Amazon Constr. Corp., 473 P.3d 459 (Nev. 2020); see also Calabi v. Gov't Emps. Ins. Co., 728 A.2d 206, 208 (Md. 1999) ("Because a settlement agreement is a type of contract, a motion by a party who is to be released from the adversary's claim that seeks to enforce the settlement agreement seeks a decree that the contract Moreover, “specific performance is available only when: “(1) the terms of the contract are definite and certain; (2) the remedy at law is inadequate; (3) the appellant has tendered performance; and (4) the court is willing to order [specific performance].” Mayfield v. Koroghli, 124 Nev. 343, 351, 184 P.3d 362, 367 (2008).

1. Defendants do not submit any admissible evidence that would substantiate the settlement agreement.

Importantly, the Motion is not supported by the declaration of any person with personal knowledge of the settlement agreement. The Motion is solely supported by the declaration of Jason R. Maier, Esq. of MGA (“Maier”), who is being proffered as Defendants’ sole witness. Conspicuously, Maier disclaims all direct knowledge of the execution or negotiation of the settlement agreement. (Motion at p. 2 (“My law firm did not have any involvement with the preparation or negotiation of the settlement agreement.”)). Likewise, the Motion fails to establish Farkas’ authority to bind Plaintiff. Instead, Maier’s naked musing in his declaration is that he “believes” Farkas had authority to settle the claims. Maier’s belief is completely irrelevant given his purported lack of involvement in the execution of the agreement. Mr. Maier’s declaration is not made on personal knowledge and therefore must be stricken. EDCR 2.20(c).

2. Farkas did not have actual authority to sign the settlement agreement.

“To bind a principal, an agent must have actual authority ... or apparent authority.” Simmons Self-Storage v. Rib Roof, Inc., 130 Nev. 540, 549, 331 P.3d 850, 856 (2014) (citing Dixon v. Thatcher, 103 Nev., 414, 417, 742 P.2d 1029, 1031 (1987)). “An agent acts with actual authority when, at the time of taking action that has legal consequences for the principal, the agent reasonably believes, in accordance with the principal's manifestations to the agent, that the principal wishes the agent so to act,” Restatement (Third) of Agency § 2.01 (2006). When examining whether actual authority exists, we focus on an agent's reasonable belief. Id. § 2.02 & cmt. e (“Whether an agent's belief is reasonable is determined from the viewpoint of a reasonable person in the agent's situation under all of the circumstances of which the agent has notice.").

It is undisputed that through Plaintiff's amended operating agreement, TGC Investor had "full, exclusive, and complete discretion, power and authority" . . . "to manage, control, administer and operate the business and affairs of the [Plaintiff]." (App Exh 3 at Bates OPP113, Amendment; Farkas Decl., App Exh 1, at ¶ 7). This expressly prevents Farkas from taking any action on behalf Plaintiff, and as a matter of law, he did not have actual legal authority as of September 17, 2020. (See Farkas Decl., App Exh. 1, at ¶8).

Moreover, there was no apparent authority. "An agent has apparent authority where the "principal holds his agent out as possessing or permits him to exercise or to represent himself as possessing" and "there must also be evidence of the principal's knowledge and acquiescence." Simmons Self-Storage v. Rib Roof, Inc., 130 Nev. 540, 550, 331 P.3d 850, 857 (2014)(quoting Ellis v. Nelson, 68 Nev. 410, 418–19, 233 P.2d 1072, 1076 (1951)). Thus, "[a]pparent authority (when in excess of actual authority) proceeds on the theory of equitable estoppel; it is in effect an estoppel against the owner to deny agency when by his conduct he has clothed the agent with apparent authority to act." Ellis v. Nelson, 68 Nev. 410, 418–19, 233 P.2d 1072, 1076 (1951). Moreover, to be clothed with apparent authority, there "must also be evidence of the principal's knowledge and acquiescence in them." Id. There is no authority "simply because the party claiming has acted upon his conclusions." Id. There can only be apparent authority, "where a person of ordinary prudence, conversant with business usages and the nature of the particular business, acting in good faith, and giving heed not only to opposing inferences but also to all restrictions which are brought to his notice, would reasonably rely." Id. (noting that where inferences against the existence of apparent authority are as equally reasonable as those supporting it, a party may not rely on apparent authority).

Thus, "a party claiming apparent authority of an agent as a basis for contract formation must prove (1) that he subjectively believed that the agent had authority to act for the principal and (2) that his subjective belief in the agent's authority was objectively reasonable." Great Am. Ins. Co. v. Gen. Builders, Inc., 113 Nev. 346, 352, 934 P.2d 257, 261 (1997). Reasonable reliance "is a necessary element." Id.; Forrest Tr. v. Fid. Title Agency of Nevada, Inc., 281 P.3d 1173 (Nev.

2009); Moreover, "the party who claims reliance must not have closed his eyes to warnings or inconsistent circumstances." Great Am. Ins. Co., 113 Nev. at 352, 934 P.2d at 261, citing Tsouras v. Southwest Plumbing and Heating, 94 Nev. 748, 751, 587 P.2d 1321, 1322 (1978). As the Supreme Court has explained, "the reasonable reliance requirement [] include[s] the performance of due diligence" to learn the voracity of representations. In re Cay Clubs, 130 Nev. 920, 932–33, 340 P.3d 563, 571–72 (2014).

Here, Farkas "informed Mr. Bloom that [he] no longer had any role in the management of Plaintiff." (Farkas Dec. at ¶ 8; Exh. 2-A at p. 11:2-18; p. 24:10-17). Thus, there can never be apparent authority. But even if he did not so inform Bloom, nothing suggests reasonable reliance by Defendants or that Plaintiff acquiesced to Farkas's actions. To the contrary, Defendants intentionally concealed the settlement agreement from Plaintiff and its counsel. On the evening of January 14, 2021, Nahabedian told GTG there was a settlement- the very first mention of a settlement, and as soon as it was discovered, it was immediately repudiated. (See Exh. 2-C at Bates OPP068, p. 3 (January 15, 2021 Email "For the avoidance of doubt . . . there has been no settlement."); Bates OPP069, p.4 (January 15, 2021, Email demanding settlement agreement)).

Defendants were also well aware that Plaintiff had counsel. Under normal circumstances, Defendants' counsel should have consulted with Plaintiff's counsel to discuss settlement options, and at the very least verify the authority of the person executing the settlement agreement to bind Plaintiff. There is no reason to go behind Plaintiff's counsel's back, but-for Defendants attempts to deny Plaintiff the benefit of counsel while Defendants, Bloom and their counsel were effectuating their scheme. There is absolutely no other explanation. And at the very least, the concealment from counsel is a glaring red flag that eliminates any argument of apparent authority.

In sum, there is absolutely no evidence of Plaintiff's acquiescence to Farkas' alleged authority. In fact, all of the evidence proves that Defendants were trying to pull a fast one, and Plaintiff has done everything to repudiate and prevent the wrongful action since discovery. If Farkas had authority to bind Plaintiff, there was no need for Defendants' counsel to threaten Farkas outside of the presence of Plaintiff's counsel. If Farkas had authority to bind Plaintiff, there was no need to conceal the settlement agreement from Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel until the filing of this Motion. If Farkas had authority to bind Plaintiff, there was no reason to pressure him into signing the settlement agreement before conferring with counsel. If Farkas had authority to bind Plaintiff, there was no reason to replace Plaintiff's counsel with Bloom's personal attorney. Parties attempting to enforce another's apparent authority do not need to lurk in the shadows and obtain agreements in secret. In fact, it is antithetical to the theory of apparent authority that the contract is intentionally and deliberately withheld from the principal and its counsel.

There is no explanation of apparent authority that would allow the perverse circumstances here. There is only evidence that would destroy any appearance of authority.

3. Defendants' illicit use of counsel renders any settlement agreement inequitable, such that it cannot be specifically enforced.

Assuming arugendo that Farkas could bind Plaintiff (which it could not), the law prohibits the ex-parte communications with Farkas by Bloom and his/Defendants' counsel due to potential abuse. NRPC 4.2 states that "a lawyer shall not communicate about the subject of the representation with a person the lawyer knows to be represented by another lawyer in the matter, unless the lawyer has the consent of the other lawyer or is authorized to do so by law or a court order." (emphasis added). "The purpose of the rule is generally regarded as twofold: first, it prevents lawyers from taking advantage of laypersons, and second, it preserves the integrity of the attorney-client relationship." In re Discipline of Schaefer, 117 Nev. 496, 507, 25 P.3d 191, 199 (2001) (emphasis added).

The Nevada Supreme Court "has previously characterized as reprehensible the conduct of an attorney who engages in ex parte communications with an opposing party who is represented by counsel." Cronin v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, In & For County of Clark, 105 Nev. 635, 641, 781 P.2d 1150, 1153–54 (1989)(quoting Holiday Inn v. Barnett, 103 Nev. 60, 732 P.2d 1376 (1987)). In considering the disqualification of counsel based on ex-parte communications with the opposing party's control person, the Nevada Supreme Court considered whether there was "at least a reasonable possibility" that a specifically identifiable impropriety did occur" and "whether the likelihood of public suspicion or obloquy outweighs the social interests that would be served by [counsel]'s continued participation." Cronin, 105 Nev. at 641, 781 P.2d at 1153–54. Here, Guitterez's direct communications with Farkas (who he knew was a former manager and member at the very least and is taking the position in the Motion that Farkas had actual or apparent control of Plaintiff) regarding the matters at issue while Plaintiff is known to be represented by counsel are highly irregular, inappropriate, and ultimately unethical.

Indeed, ex-parte communications with individuals having "positions giving them the authority to speak for and bind [a] corporation" are strictly prohibited. Palmer v. Pioneer Inn Associates Ltd., 257 F.3d 999, 1001–02 (9th Cir. 2001), certified question answered, 118 Nev. 943, 59 P.3d 1237 (2002). The Nevada Supreme Court recognizes that "some of the organization's agents must be viewed as the equivalent of a "party" for the rule to have any effect." Palmer v. Pioneer Inn Associates, Ltd., 118 Nev. 943, 948, 59 P.3d 1237, 1240 (2002). As such, it adopted a prohibition on ex parte communication with those persons "who have the legal authority to "bind" the corporation in a legal evidentiary sense, i.e., those employees who have "speaking authority" for the corporation." Id. at 960, 59 P.3d at 1248. Thus, whether Farkas was represented or unrepresented in his personal capacity, Gutierrez's communications with him were prohibited and render any action taken by Farkas void given the concerted action by Gutierrez and his clients to take advantage of Farkas. In re Discipline of Schaefer, 117 Nev. at 507, 25 P.3d at 199.

Furthermore, Bloom's direct communications with Farkas are also prohibited under the circumstances. Bloom sent a settlement agreement on behalf of Defendants to Farkas, as well as a letter terminating Plaintiff's counsel. If neither MJA or Nahabedian did not draft the agreement as they profess, the drafting of a settlement agreement, especially on behalf of a third-party, is the practice of law and therefore cannot be undertaken by non-lawyers. See in re Discipline of Lerner, 124 Nev. at 1237-39, 197 P.3d at 1072-73 (2008). Despite MJA and Nahabedian professing no involvement in the drafting, the settlement agreement itself states that Defendants had the benefit of counsel. There is no evidence of which counsel drafted it. Notwithstanding the identity of any drafting counsel being concealed, while clients can directly communicate with one another, "a lawyer may not use a client or a third party to circumvent [NRPC] 4.2 by telling the client or third party what to say or "scripting" the communication with the represented adversary." See Legal Ethics Op. 1755 (2001) ("Thus, while a party is free on his own initiative to contact the opposing party, a lawyer may not avoid the dictate of Rule 4.2 by directing his client to make contact with the opposing party."); LEO 233 (1974) (It is improper for an attorney to indirectly communicate with a party adverse to his client giving specific instructions to his client as to what communications to make, unless counsel for the adverse party agrees to such communication.). It is incredible for Defendants to argue that while their counsel was communicating directly with Farkas that they were not tacitly or expressly approving Bloom's attempt to secure Farkas' signature on the settlement agreement. In fact, the Motion seeking to enforce that signature is circumstantial evidence of MJA's advice and tacit approval.

And at the very least, Defendants' and Bloom's counsel (MJA and Nahabedian) was prohibited from obstructing or concealing the existence of the settlement agreement from Plaintiff's counsel, or assisting anyone, including Defendants and Bloom, from doing so. NRPC 3.4(a)(setting forth fairness to counsel). Upon learning of the settlement, Defendants' counsel should have immediately contacted Plaintiff's counsel; instead, they supported the effort to replace Plaintiff's counsel, refused to provide the settlement agreement to Plaintiff's counsel, and filed the Motion to enforce the settlement agreement with the Court that, if granted, would result in dismissal of the Judgment, on an order shortening time.

a. Nahabedian had an impermissible and non-waivable conflict.

There is no legal rule or maxim that allows an opposing party to dictate who the other side's counsel is going to be. And even if that were possible, it would never operate to allow Defendants to impose conflicted counsel to substitute in as Plaintiff's counsel. Notwithstanding, here, the unimpeachable record is that Bloom and Defendants are adverse to Plaintiff in this action. Nahabedian concurrently represents Bloom and has also previously represented Defendants' affiliated entity.

NRPC 1.7 states that "a lawyer shall not represent a client if the representation involves a concurrent conflict of interest." A conflict exists where "the representation of one client will be directly adverse to another client" or "there is a significant risk that the representation of one or more clients will be materially limited by the lawyer's responsibilities to another client, a former client or a third person or by a personal interest of the lawyer." NRPC 1.7(a)(1)-(2) (emphasis added). Further, a lawyer is prohibited from participating in making any aggregate settlement of claims of or against the clients. NRPC 1.8(g). There is no circumstance in which Nahabedian could represent Plaintiff in an action adverse to Nahabedian's current client (Bloom).[49]

The clear reason is that Nahabedian can never be expected to provide Plaintiff with fair and competent legal counsel, which is certainly why Bloom and MGA facilitated Farkas hiring Nahabedian to represent Plaintiff. And as intended, Nahabedian immediately took actions to benefit Defendants and Bloom, as opposed to Plaintiff. Nahabedian purported to terminate Plaintiff's independent counsel and enforce a settlement agreement in order to dismiss this action, despite the fact that Farkas did not control Plaintiff. Nahabedian's participation violates most ethical rules governing conflicts. As such, his involvement in the scheme so taints the settlement agreement, such that it can never be enforced.

4. The settlement agreement is unenforceable on its face.

As set forth above, settlement agreements require an offer, acceptance, meeting of the minds and consideration. Mack, 125 Nev. at 95, 206 P.3d at 108.

a. There was no acceptance or meeting of the minds.

"A meeting of the minds exists when the parties have agreed upon the contract's essential terms." Certified Fire Prot. Inc. v. Precision Constr., 128 Nev. 371, 378, 283 P.3d 250, 255 (2012). It is undisputable that neither Plaintiff, nor its manager, nor its counsel saw or reviewed the settlement agreement. Thus, there was no acceptance or meeting of the minds. Moreover, even if Farkas had authority to sign the settlement agreement (he did not), he provided sworn testimony that he did not read or understand the contents of the settlement agreement. Under these circumstances, especially where Defendants intentionally circumvented Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel, and there was no effort to confirm Farkas' authority to act on behalf of Plaintiff, there was no meeting of the minds.

[49] Further, Nahabedian clearly failed to comply with NRPC 1.13(f) (requiring a lawyer to explain the identity of the client to the constituent and reasonably attempt to ensure that the constituent realizes the lawyer's client is the organization rather than the individual).

b. Farkas was coerced into signing the settlement agreement.

Duress is a valid basis to set aside a contract or avoid specific performance. Kaur v. Singh, 136 Nev. Adv. Op. 77, 477 P.3d 358, 362 (2020); Levy v. Levy, 96 Nev. 902, 903–04, 620 P.2d 860, 861 (1980)(recognizing duress as a basis to set aside a settlement). "The coercion or duress exception applies when "(1) ... one side involuntarily accepted the terms of another; (2) ... circumstances permitted no other alternative; and (3) ... circumstances were the result of coercive acts of the opposite party." Nevada Ass'n Servs., Inc. v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., 130 Nev. 949, 956, 338 P.3d 1250, 1255 (2014).).

An improper threat can exist when a party is threatened with civil action, especially when there are circumstances of emotional consequences. Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 175, cmt. b (1981). It is clear that "a party's manifestation of assent is induced by duress if the duress substantially contributes to his decision to manifest his assent. Id., cmt. C. "The test is subjective and the question is, did the threat actually induce assent on the part of the person claiming to be the victim of duress." Id. In making the determination, courts consider, "the age, background and relationship of the parties" and the rule is designed to protect "persons of a weak or cowardly nature." Id.; see also Schmidt v. Merriweather, 82 Nev. 372, 376, 418 P.2d 991, 993 (1966).

Moreover, a threat is improper if "what is threatened is the use of civil process and the threat is made in bad faith." Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 176 (1)(c). Accordingly, when evaluating duress, bad faith of one party is relevant as to another party's capacity to contract. Barbara Ann Hollier Tr. v. Shack, 131 Nev. 582, 587, 356 P.3d 1085, 1088 (2015); Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 205 cmt. c (1981) ("Bad faith in negotiation, although not within the scope of [the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing], may be subject to sanctions. Particular forms of bad faith in bargaining are the subjects of rules as to capacity to contract, mutual assent and consideration and of rules as to invalidating causes such as fraud and duress.")

Here, Farkas sets forth in his declaration that he was threatened with civil action if he did not sign the settlement agreement and other documents provided to him by Bloom, his family member. (Farkas Dec, Bates OPP003-OPP005, at ¶¶ 7-17). Farkas felt that he had no choice but to sign any document that Bloom put in front of him. As such, Farkas did not review or negotiate the agreement, he simply signed it. He did so knowing that he did not have the authority to bind Plaintiff and without the intent to bind Plaintiff. Accordingly, he involuntarily accepted the agreement because he believed he had no other choice—which is completely subjective.

(725) 777-3000

Furthermore, as discussed above, the NRPC prohibit ex parte communications because an attorney (Gutierrez and Nahabedian) can take advantage of a layperson (Farkas). In re Discipline of Schaefer, 117 Nev. at 507, 25 P.3d at 199. This is especially disconcerting when that ex parte communication is in line with threats from Farkas' family member and the client of the attorneys (Gutierrez and Nahabedian). The result is an emotional tinderbox that Court's recognize amounts to duress that excuses the specific performance of an agreement. Plainly, Defendants were only able to procure Farkas' signature through duress, such that enforcement of the settlement agreement against the innocent Plaintiff would be inequitable.

c. There was inadequate consideration for the settlement agreement.

Additionally, "[a] release may be rescinded if obtained by ... inadequate consideration." Oh v. Wilson, 112 Nev. 38, 41–42, 910 P.2d 276, 278–79 (1996). "Gross inadequacy of consideration may be relevant to issues of capacity, fraud and the like . . . ." Id. citing Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 79 cmt. c (1979) (emphasis added). "Inadequacy "such as shocks the conscience" is often said to be a "badge of fraud," justifying a denial of specific performance. Inadequacy may also help to justify rescission or cancellation on the ground of lack of capacity, mistake, misrepresentation, duress or undue influence." Id.

Defendants did not actually provide consideration for the settlement agreement. In fact, they simply repeated an obligation that Defendants contend they already had. Here, the settlement agreement provides that Plaintiff will forego its records request and award of attorneys' fees and in exchange "if Defendants sell a [$2,211,039,718.46 judgment in Defendants' favor] that Defendants will pay Plaintiff $1,000,000 plus 6% interest." (emphasis added). Importantly, the $1,000,000 represents Plaintiff's investment in Defendant. In other words, Plaintiff will purportedly recover its investment through the sale of the Judgment (assuming the sale is even real).

While it may appear to be consideration, the Court must consider that Defendants contend that an agreement already exists to pay Plaintiff $1,500,000 per percentage membership interest upon the sale of the same judgment. (Supplemental Declaration of Jay Bloom in Support of Respondents' Arbitration Brief, App Exh 4, ¶¶ 5-7, 16).[50] Accordingly, Plaintiff actually loses its right to recover documents and fees, as well as its contractual right to recover more from the sale of the asset, in exchange for an amount of money that Defendants contend that it was already obligated to pay. Accordingly, the settlement agreement did not actually provide Plaintiff with any consideration that it did not already have and in fact, according to Bloom, provides less consideration. Accordingly, the settlement agreement's consideration is illusory.

Further, per Defendants' Operating Agreement (they are materially identical), Plaintiff is entitled to pro rata distributions. (APP Exh. 5, at OPP202, at Article V). Accordingly, if Defendants collect on their $2,211,039,718.46 judgment, Plaintiff stands to collect up to $66,331,191.55, and if Defendants sell the judgment for $48,000,000, Plaintiff will collect $1,440,000.00. Once again, the settlement agreement does not provide any consideration aside from what Plaintiff is already entitled to recover.

Accordingly, the settlement agreement was not actually supported by consideration, as Defendants contend that they had a prior obligation to provide the same or greater consideration for Plaintiff's shares. Thus, the settlement agreement and it is not enforceable.

B. The Court must sanction Defendants, Bloom and their counsel.

NRS 7.085(1) requires an attorney who files a proceeding not "warranted by existing law" or "unreasonably and vexatiously" prolongs proceeding to pay the costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees incurred because of the improper conduct. Notably, Nevada courts are required to "liberally construe the provisions of this section in favor of awarding costs, expenses and attorney's fees." NRS 7.085(2). Likewise, EDCR 7.60(b) provides that the Court may impose sanctions, including attorneys' fees, when a party presents a motion to the Court which is "obviously frivolous, [50] Plaintiff obtained a 3% membership interest in Defendants, in exchange for its $1,000,000 investment and sweat equity. App Exh 4, OPP147. Under a form of Membership Interest Redemption Agreement, Plaintiff is entitled to $1,500,000 "per percentage of Membership Interest," or $4,500,000. (See id. at App Exh 4, OPP151 "Redemptions will be paid on a best efforts basis, and paid out, each redemption in full, based on cash collected pursuant to the judgment by the outside litigation and collection team.").

unnecessary or unwarranted."

Here, the stated purpose of the Motion is to delay post-judgment discovery to allow Defendants to sell their asset. The settlement agreement was also the basis for Defendants' opposition to the OSC and corresponding obligation to comply with the Judgment. It is patently clear that for justice to prevail here, not only should the Motion be denied, but the Court should order Defendants, Bloom, and their counsel pay all fees and costs incurred in opposing the Motion.

IV

CONCLUSION

Plaintiff requests that the Court deny the Motion, strike the declaration of Jason Maier, and enter an award of sanctions in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendants, Bloom, and their counsel.

DISTRICT COURT

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

TGC/FARKAS FUNDING, LLC, Plaintiff, vs. FIRST 100, LLC, a Nevada Limited Liability Company; FIRST ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company aka 1st ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS LLC, a Nevada Limited Liability Company, Defendants.	CASE NO. A-20-822273-C DEPT. 13 ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

On November 17, 2020, Plaintiff TGC/FARKAS FUNDING, LLC ("Plaintiff") filed its Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Cost (the "Motion"). Defendants FIRST 100, LLC and FIRST ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS, LLC aka 1st ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS LLC ("Defendants") filed their Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs (the "Opposition") on November 24, 2020, and Plaintiff filed its Reply in Support of Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Cost (the "Reply") on December 14, 2020. On December 21, 2020, the matter was heard. The Court, having considered the Motion, the Opposition, and the Reply, as well as any attached exhibits, and the oral argument of counsel, finds and orders as follows:

Under NRS 38.243(3), a district court may, "[o]n application of a prevailing party to a contested judicial proceeding under NRS 38.239, 38.241 or 38.242, ... add reasonable attorney[ ] fees and other reasonable expenses of litigation incurred ... after the [arbitration] award is made to a judgment confirming... an award." Artemis Expl. Co. v. Ruby Lake Estates Homeowner's Ass'n, 464 P.3d 124 (Nev. 2020).

Plaintiff moved to confirm an arbitration award on October 1, 2020. (See Motion to Confirm Arbitration Award, on file herein). Defendants filed a limited opposition to the Motion to Confirm Arbitration Award and requested that the Court modify the award per NRS 38.242. (See Defendants' Limited Opposition to Motion to Confirm Arbitration Award and Countermotion to Modify Award per NRS 38.252 (the "Countermotion to Modify"), on file herein). The Countermotion to Modify created a contested judicial proceeding pursuant to NRS 38.243(3). The Court therefore elects to award Plaintiff its fees and costs.

While the trial court has discretion to determine the reasonable amount of attorney fees, the court must evaluate the factors set forth in Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455 P.2d 31, 33 (1969), the "Brunzell factors." See Miller v. Wilfong, 121 Nev. 619, 623, 119 P.3d 727, 730 (2005); see also Shuette v. Beazer Homes Holdings Corp., 121 Nev. 837, 864-65, 124 P.3d 530, 548-49 (2005). Upon review of the Motion and exhibits, including the declaration of Plaintiff's counsel, the Court finds that the Brunzell factors were met.

The Court finds that the hourly rates are justified based on the amount of time spend, the quality of the advocate, the result obtained, and the rates themselves.

The Court further finds that GTG's billing records were sufficiently detailed to permit the Court to evaluate the reasonableness of the billing entries. GTG billed in tenth-of-an-hour increments and there was no block billing. Moreover, GTG assigned simpler tasks to attorneys with lower billing rates to decrease the overall blended rate. As such, the fees sought where reasonable.

The Court further finds that all of Plaintiff's costs were allowable under NRS 18.005(1).

TGC/FARKAS FUNDING, LLC, Plaintiff, vs. FIRST 100, LLC, a Nevada Limited Liability Company; FIRST ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company aka 1st ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS LLC, a Nevada Limited Liability Company, Defendants.	CASE NO. A-20-822273-C DEPT. 13 ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

On November 17, 2020, Plaintiff TGC/FARKAS FUNDING, LLC ("Plaintiff") filed its Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Cost (the "Motion"). Defendants FIRST 100, LLC and FIRST ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS, LLC aka 1st ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS LLC ("Defendants") filed their Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs (the "Opposition") on November 24, 2020, and Plaintiff filed its Reply in Support of Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Cost (the "Reply") on December 14, 2020. On December 21, 2020, the matter was heard. The Court, having considered the Motion, the Opposition, and the Reply, as well as any attached exhibits, and the oral argument of counsel, finds and orders as follows:

Under NRS 38.243(3), a district court may, "[o]n application of a prevailing party to a contested judicial proceeding under NRS 38.239, 38.241 or 38.242, ... add reasonable attorney[ ] fees and other reasonable expenses of litigation incurred ... after the [arbitration] award is made to a judgment confirming... an award." Artemis Expl. Co. v. Ruby Lake Estates Homeowner's Ass'n, 464 P.3d 124 (Nev. 2020).

Plaintiff moved to confirm an arbitration award on October 1, 2020. (See Motion to Confirm Arbitration Award, on file herein). Defendants filed a limited opposition to the Motion to Confirm Arbitration Award and requested that the Court modify the award per NRS 38.242. (See Defendants' Limited Opposition to Motion to Confirm Arbitration Award and Countermotion to Modify Award per NRS 38.252 (the "Countermotion to Modify"), on file herein). The Countermotion to Modify created a contested judicial proceeding pursuant to NRS 38.243(3). The Court therefore elects to award Plaintiff its fees and costs.

While the trial court has discretion to determine the reasonable amount of attorney fees, the court must evaluate the factors set forth in Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455 P.2d 31, 33 (1969), the "Brunzell factors." See Miller v. Wilfong, 121 Nev. 619, 623, 119 P.3d 727, 730 (2005); see also Shuette v. Beazer Homes Holdings Corp., 121 Nev. 837, 864-65, 124 P.3d 530, 548-49 (2005). Upon review of the Motion and exhibits, including the declaration of Plaintiff's counsel, the Court finds that the Brunzell factors were met.

The Court finds that the hourly rates are justified based on the amount of time spend, the quality of the advocate, the result obtained, and the rates themselves.

The Court further finds that GTG's billing records were sufficiently detailed to permit the Court to evaluate the reasonableness of the billing entries. GTG billed in tenth-of-an-hour increments and there was no block billing. Moreover, GTG assigned simpler tasks to attorneys with lower billing rates to decrease the overall blended rate. As such, the fees sought where reasonable.

The Court further finds that all of Plaintiff's costs were allowable under NRS 18.005(1).

Attorneys for Defendants First 100, LLC and 1st One Hundred Holdings, LLC

DISTRICT COURT

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

TGC/FARKAS FUNDING, LLC, Plaintiff, vs. FIRST 100, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company; 1st ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company, Defendants.	Case No: A-20-822273-C Dept. No.: XIII DEFENDANTS' REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO ENFORCE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND VACATE POST-JUDGMENT DISCOVERY PROCEEDINGS AND OPPOSITION TO COUNTERMOTION TO STRIKE THE AFFIDAVIT OF JASON MAIER AND OPPOSITION TO COUNTERMOTION FOR SANCTIONS Hearing Date: January 28, 2021 Hearing Time: 9:00 a.m.

Defendants First 100, LLC and 1st One Hundred Holdings, LLC (collectively "First 100"), by and through their attorneys of record, the law firm MAIER GUTIERREZ & ASSOCIATES, hereby submit this reply in support of their motion to enforce settlement agreement and vacate post-judgment discovery proceedings, and this opposition to plaintiff TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's countermotion to strike the affidavit of Jason Maier and for sanctions.

This reply is based on the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the exhibits attached hereto, and any oral argument entertained at the hearing on the motion.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter has settled. Authorized representatives of both TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC and First 100 have executed a settlement agreement which resolves the dispute and specifically states that First 100 will repay TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC the entirety of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's $1,000,000 investment plus 6% interest in return for dismissal of this action. See Mot. to Enforce Settlement at Ex. A.

As First 100 is willing to testify, the parties resolved this dispute between themselves without the involvement of attorneys, which was permitted under Cmt. 4 to Model Rule 4.2. This was a logical and predictable development, as Jay Bloom of First 100 and Matthew Farkas of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC are family members.

The scorched-earth manner in which TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's claimed counsel Garman Turner Gordon has reacted after not being involved in the settlement process (from accusing First 100 and its counsel of engaging in a "fraud upon the Court," to strong-arming Matthew Farkas into participating in a recorded phone call where Dylan Ciciliano, Esq. of Garman Turner Gordon blatantly misrepresented that the settlement would somehow "extinguish" the $1,000,000 investment, to personally showing up at Mr. Farkas' home on a Saturday morning and forcing him to sign the latest January 23, 2021 declaration under duress) goes far beyond the role of counsel advocating for a client.

Further, going so far as to accuse First 100's counsel of being involved in a "settlement scheme" is nothing more than libelous accusations designed to distract from the real issues. There was no scheme. First 100's counsel had no knowledge that any settlement was negotiated until after counsel received a copy of the settlement agreement (which First 100's counsel had no role in preparing). Naturally, there are no grounds to sanction First 100's counsel for filing a motion to enforce settlement, which included an affidavit from Jason R. Maier, Esq. solely for purposes of obtaining an order shortening time on the motion.

To be clear, this motion to enforce settlement was filed as a last resort after TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's claimed counsel Garman Turner Gordon failed to provide clarity as to why a member of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC executed a settlement agreement and a substitution of counsel. Garman Turner Gordon's conclusory claim that there has been "no settlement," without providing any details as to why its client executed a settlement agreement, along with its steadfast insistence on continuing to conduct aggressive discovery on TGC/Farkas, Funding, LLC's nominal judgment as if no settlement had been negotiated, forced First 100 to file a motion to enforce settlement to have the Court adjudicate these issues.

It now appears that an evidentiary hearing is in order, as First 100 has serious concerns as to the underhanded tactics Garman Turner Gordon has employed in inducing Matthew Farkas to execute various declarations which go against the settlement agreement he executed. First 100 is also appalled that Garman Turner Gordon lied to Mr. Farkas on a recorded call and claimed that his actions in settling with First 100 somehow "extinguished" the $1,000,000 investment that TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC is owed. This misrepresentation clearly angered Mr. Farkas and got him to backtrack on his actions in executing the settlement agreement – clear fraudulent inducement caught on a recording.

This Court should grant the motion to enforce settlement, or in the alternative set this matter for an evidentiary hearing so that testimony may be taken from all involved, which at this point may have to include Mr. Ciciliano of Garman Turner Gordon, as he made himself a witness by deciding to misrepresent the terms of the settlement agreement to Mr. Farkas, and the motives for doing so need to be investigated.

II. PLAINTIFF'S "STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS" IS REPLETE WITH ERRORS AND SPECULATION

Plaintiff TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's "Statement of Relevant Facts" section in its opposition needs to be addressed, as there are numerous misstatements and at some points outright falsities.

First, all facts asserted by TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC which rely on "declarations" or corporate documents purportedly voluntarily executed by Matthew Farkas (which is the vast majority of facts set forth in the opposition) should be disregarded until this Court has had the opportunity to hear testimony directly from Mr. Farkas. It is First 100's understanding that Mr. Farkas, who has a history of heart problems, has been frequently harassed by TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's claimed counsel Garman Turner Gordon, and forced to sign off on declarations and other corporate documents to his own detriment. This includes the purported "amendment" to the TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Operating Agreement from September 2020 which ended up shoved in front of Mr. Farkas immediately after the Arbitration Award was released, in order to preclude Mr. Farkas from having any control over the aggressive manner in which Garman Turner Gordon planned on collecting on the nominal judgment against First 100.

The evidence reveals that Mr. Farkas never wanted Garman Turner Gordon to initiate litigation against First 100 to begin with, but Garman Turner Gordon went rogue anyway in violation of its engagement letter and took a simple matter involving the review of company documents all the way through an expensive arbitration. See Mot. to Enforce Settlement Agreement at Ex. B (Mr. Farkas' handwritten addition to the engagement letter states that "this matter shall not include litigation against First 100, LLC.").

As such, it would be inappropriate for the Court to make any decisions at this point based on Matthew Farkas-executed declarations or corporate documents that were originally drafted by Garman Turner Gordon, or that Garman Turner Gordon had a role in obtaining Mr. Farkas' signature on, as there is an obvious undercurrent of coercion that needs to be explored before determining the legitimacy of any of those documents.

Next, paragraph 11 of Plaintiff's "statement of relevant facts" is not a fact but rather a legal claim that "even if the Court were to enforce the settlement agreement, Plaintiff would still be entitled to inspect Defendants[']s books and records," which is not supported by any applicable authority. The settlement agreement indicates that upon execution, TGC/Farkas Funding will dismiss with prejudice the entire action, "including the arbitration award and all related motions and actions pending in the District Court." Mot. to Enforce Settlement Agreement at Ex. A. TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's request to inspect First 100's books and records was the sole issue adjudicated in the arbitration, so of course enforcing the settlement agreement would close the book in TGC/Farkas being able to re-argue this issue. The case law cited in the opposition with respect to the doctrine of collateral estoppel applying in the arbitration context has no application here, as this is not a case of the parties trying to adjudicate the same legal issue but rather a case of the parties negotiating a settlement and resolving the issue. See Int'l Ass'n of Firefighters, Local 1285 v. City of Las Vegas, 107 Nev. 906, 911, 823

P.2d 877, 880 (1991). As such, collateral estoppel or res judicata arguments have no relevancy to this motion to enforce a settlement agreement.

Paragraphs 12-16 of Plaintiff's "statement of relevant facts" accuse First 100 of attempting to interfere with Plaintiffs' judgment enforcement efforts. First 100 has done no such thing. First 100 simply has no ability to make corporate documents available to TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC for inspection and copying without retaining an accountant, which it does not have the funds to accomplish.

The Nevada Legislature planned for such a situation occurring, which is why NRS 86.243(3) exists, which states that the "district court may . . . order the company to furnish the demanding member or manager the records . . . on the condition that the demanding member or manager first pay to the company the reasonable cost of obtaining and furnishing such records and on such other conditions as the district court deems appropriate." First 100 is not willfully avoiding any Court order, which prevents the Court from sanctioning First 100 for not having the money to comply. See Finkelman v. Clover Jewelers Boulevard, Inc., 91 Nev. 146, 147, 532 P.2d 608, 609 (1975). ("The general rule in the imposing of sanctions is that they be applied only in extreme circumstances where willful noncompliance of a court's order is shown by the record.").

First 100 has maintained that if TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC is willing to pay for the up-front costs associated with collecting, organizing, and providing First 100's corporate records for review and inspection, then First 100 would be able to comply with the order. While the settlement resolved these issues, it certainly did not "interfere" with anything, as settlement or not, First 100 has no funds to retain an accountant to provide the documents TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC is seeking.

Further, paragraph 16 of Plaintiff's "statement of relevant facts" falsely states that "Instead of responding to the discovery requests, Defendants, Bloom[,] and MGA objected and otherwise refused to provide responses or attend depositions/examinations." In reality, First 100's counsel MGA did provide substantive responses to the subpoena it received – TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's claimed counsel Garman Turner Gordon just did not like the responses. MGA was then in the process of complying with 2.34 responsibilities when the case settled. Likewise, First 100 objected to the discovery requests because the parties had already settled the matter by the time such responses were due. See Exhibit A, 1/19/2021 Correspondence to Garman Turner Gordon. And non-party Jay Bloom objected to the discovery requests because he has zero liability in this matter which involves a judgment against First 100, not Jay Bloom personally, and all discovery requests propounded to Jay Bloom could have and should have been propounded to First 100. See Exhibit B, Bloom Objection to Subpoena.

There is simply no reason to move forward with post-judgment discovery if that judgment has been extinguished by a settlement agreement, as is the case here.

Paragraph 17 of Plaintiff's "statement of relevant facts" falsely states that "When Defendants, Bloom, and MGA were creating excuses for not responding to post-judgment discovery, they knew of the existence of the alleged settlement agreement, dated January 6, 2021, yet the settlement was not produced to Plaintiff until the motion was filed." This is inaccurate. As stated in Mr. Maier's affidavit enclosed in the motion to enforce settlement, First 100's counsel was not aware of a settlement until it received a copy of the settlement on January 7, 2021. Of course First 100's counsel was engaged in communicating with Garman Turner Gordon on January 6, 2021 and even during the day on January 7, 2021 regarding discovery disputes because at that point First 100's counsel had no knowledge of any settlement agreement. The truth is far less interesting than TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's claims of a diabolical "scheme" as put forth in the opposition.

Paragraph 25 of Plaintiff's "statement of relevant facts" claims that Joseph Gutierrez of MGA "communicated directly with Farkas in violation of NRPC." This is another lie that actually is refuted by the January 23, 2021 declaration that Garman Turner Gordon drafted for Mr. Farkas to sign on a Saturday morning. See Opp. at Ex. 1.

Mr. Farkas' declaration clarifies that it was Mr. Farkas calling Mr. Gutierrez, not the other way around (which TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC egregiously leaves out since it doesn't fit their narrative of MGA "scheming" a settlement). Further the transcript of Mr. Farkas' January 21, 2021 recorded call with Mr. Ciciliano of Garman Turner Gordon indicates that Mr. Gutierrez merely clarified he is counsel for First 100 and acts in that capacity. There was no violation of NRPC 4.2, which prohibits a lawyer from "communicat[ing] about the subject of the representation with a person the lawyer knows to be represented by another lawyer in the matter, unless the lawyer has the consent of the other lawyer or is authorized to do so by law or a court order." (emphasis added). Mr. Farkas has not alleged that Mr. Gutierrez spoke to him about the subject of this litigation or attempted to get Mr. Farkas to sign anything or settle the case with First 100 during the call that Mr. Farkas initiated to Mr. Gutierrez. Again, as much as TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC wants to expose some "scheme," there simply was none, and certainly not with respect to a call that Mr. Farkas (in his individual capacity) initiated to Mr. Gutierrez. It was not Mr. Gutierrez who personally went to Mr. Farkas' house on the morning of Saturday, January 23, 2021 and tried to coerce Mr. Farkas into signing documents – that was Garman Turner Gordon.

Paragraph 28 of Plaintiff's "statement of relevant facts" claims that Mr. Farkas did not review any of the settlement documents, let alone review them with counsel." Respectfully, even if that is true, First 100 had no role in Mr. Farkas apparently deviating from his obligations to substantively review a settlement document. First 100 reasonably relied upon Mr. Farkas' affirmative representation that the settlement agreement he signed on behalf of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC "represents the entire understanding of the Parties." Mot. to Enforce Settlement at Ex. A. Mr. Farkas was not required to show the settlement agreement to TGC/Farkas' Funding, LLC's counsel before executing it. Crucially, attorney approval was never a condition to the enforceability of the agreement, which would have been a material term. See In re Marriage of Hasso, 229 Cal. App. 3d 1174, 1181, 280 Cal. Rptr. 919, 923 (Ct. App. 1991), reh'g denied and opinion modified (May 30, 1991) ("the agreement contains no language that it is 'subject to' or 'conditioned on' attorney approval").

As for the paragraphs that claim Mr. Farkas signed the settlement agreement under duress, this is false, and ironically only supported by the declaration that Garman Turner Gordon drafted and got Mr. Farkas to sign under duress during a personal visit to his home on Saturday, January 23, 2021. The level of after-the-fact grunt work that Garman Turner Gordon has put in to create the illusion of some "scheme" in order to try to invalidate a valid settlement agreement that Mr. Farkas executed on behalf of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC (all so that Garman Turner Gordon can keep this case going and continue accumulating attorneys' fees) is beyond the pale.

III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC contends that First 100 did not submit any admissible evidence that would "substantiate" a settlement agreement. The settlement agreement itself (attached to the motion as Ex. A) constitutes admissible evidence. Jay Bloom of First 100 has authenticated that settlement agreement and has provided ample evidence substantiating its legitimacy. See Exhibit C, Declaration of Jay Bloom.

While First 100 acknowledges that its counsel does not have personal knowledge regarding the settlement agreement, that is no reason to strike Mr. Maier's affidavit, which was not made to relay substantive information regarding the settlement agreement but rather to substantiate an order shortening time. Reasonable beliefs, such as the ones Mr. Maier formed after reviewing the settlement agreement, are in fact enough of a basis to substantiate an order shortening time, as this Court has concurred when it granted the order shortening time.

B. FARKAS HAD AUTHORITY TO SIGN THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

As for the arguments that Mr. Farkas "did not have actual authority to execute the Settlement Agreement," given the repeated reversals by Mr. Farkas about what he has executed voluntarily and what he has executed while under duress, and in light of the fact that the Saturday morning visit from Garner Turner Gordon to Mr. Farkas' home on January 23, 2021 now raises questions as to the circumstances under which Mr. Farkas signed an amended operating agreement of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC just two days after the Arbitration Award was released, there is clearly an issue of fact as to whether Mr. Farkas had actual authority to sign the Settlement Agreement.

But what is not at issue is Mr. Farkas had apparent authority to settle the case, which First 100 and Mr. Bloom reasonably relied upon. A party claiming apparent authority of an agent as a basis for contract formation must prove (1) that he subjectively believed that the agent had authority to act for the principal and (2) that his subjective belief in the agent's authority was objectively reasonable. Great Am. Ins. Co. v. Gen. Builders, Inc., 113 Nev. 346, 352, 934 P.2d 257, 261 (1997).

Here, Mr. Bloom's subjective belief that Mr. Farkas had authority to act for TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC was objectively reasonable. For one thing, the Settlement Agreement is consistent with the limitations Mr. Farkas previously placed on Garner Turner Gordon on behalf of TGC/Farkas of no litigation being imposed against First 100.

Also, the August 13, 2020 declaration of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC member Adam Flatto specifically states that "Matthew Farkas was, and still is, the 'Administrative Member' of [TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC], as that term is defined in the Operating Agreement. See Exhibit D, 8/13/2020 Declaration of Adam Flatto. That TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Operating Agreement also states that Mr. Farkas is the CEO of the company with full authority to appoint and terminate agents and consultants of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. See Ex. D at TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Operating Agreement at Sections 3.1 and 4.5.

Perhaps most importantly, during the time the settlement agreement was being negotiated, Mr. Farkas never told Mr. Bloom about a change in TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC management. Not only that, but during a January 9, 2021 phone call, Mr. Farkas continued to state that he had no recollection of ever resigning his position as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. Ex. C. It was not until January 10, 2021, that Matthew Farkas (for the first time) told Mr. Bloom that he found an email where he signed a September 2020 Amendment to the TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Operating Agreement. Ex. C.

On or about January 11, 2021, Matthew Farkas told Mr. Bloom that he signed such document under duress, that he has not read the September 2020 Amendment to the TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Operating Agreement, and did not realize that he had resigned his position until he found the email and read the Amendment for the first time on or about January 11, 2021. Ex. C.

Mr. Bloom specifically relied upon Mr. Farkas' representations that he had authority to act on behalf of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC at the time the settlement agreement was negotiated and executed, which is why Mr. Bloom agreed to settle the case with Mr. Farkas instead of reaching out to negotiate with Adam Flatto of TGC 100 Investor, LLC, the other member of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. See Ex. C. This reliance, in conjunction with the Garner Turner Gordon engagement letter, as well as the TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Operating Agreement that Adam Flatto had just ratified as recently as August of 2020, made Mr. Bloom's subjective belief objectively reasonable. As such, Mr. Farkas' apparent authority to execute the Settlement Agreement should be recognized by this Court.

C. THE ONLY "ILLICIT" CONDUCT FROM COUNSEL CAME FROM GARMAN TURNER GORDON

Next, TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC contends that First 100's "illicit use of counsel" renders any settlement agreement inequitable. Opp. at p. 14. To be clear, there was no "illicit use of counsel" from First 100's counsel. TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC appears to be accusing Mr. Gutierrez of MGA of violating NRPC 4.2 during the phone call that Mr. Farkas initiated to Mr. Gutierrez, but Mr. Gutierrez did no such thing. No discussions were had about this matter, therefore NRPC 4.2 does not even come into play. Mr. Farkas has admitted this to be the case during the January 21, 2021 recorded phone call he had with Dylan Ciciliano, Esq.:

Dylan Ciciliano: Did you talk to Joe?

Matthew Farkas: Hang on. Not about this.

See Opp. at Ex. 2-A at OPP042 (emphasis added). Nor has Mr. Farkas ever accused Mr. Gutierrez of doing anything nefarious, trying to "take advantage" of him, or trying to coerce Mr. Farkas to sign anything. This is all a red herring concocted by TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

What is concerning is the nature in which Mr. Ciciliano of Garner Turner Gordon blatantly misrepresented facts during his recorded phone call with Mr. Farkas, specifically saying: "Well, I mean, it's bad. If they win on the motion and force settlement, they extinguish a million-dollar investment." See Opp. at Ex. 2-A at OPP050.

This was a complete lie, as the Settlement Agreement specifically states that TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC will be repaid its entire million dollar investment plus 6% interest. The transcript reflects Mr. Farkas clearly getting angry after taking in Mr. Ciciliano's misrepresentation, and totally turning not only on Mr. Bloom but reneging on his own prior actions and desire to settle the case based on this lie that Garner Turner Gordon fed to Mr. Farkas. See id. ("Oh, my God. I am so angry with Jay right now. I am so angry with him. You go get him. Excuse me for saying that, but you guys go get him."). This was truly despicable conduct on behalf of Garner Turner Gordon, and it is astounding that GTG would be so proud of this misconduct to think it would be a good idea to attach this transcript to a public pleading. The only thing that transcript accomplished was confirming that Mr. Ciciliano is now a witness substantively involved in this case, not just legal counsel.

TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC also contends that Mr. Bloom's direct communications with Mr. Farkas were prohibited. Opp. at p. 15. There is no case law supporting this. In fact, ethical rules encourage parties to resolve matters between each other. See Cmt. 4 to Model Rule 4.2 ("Parties to a matter may communicate directly with each other."). Moreover, there is no rule stating that the parties cannot draft a settlement agreement on their own. The one case that TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC cites in support of its argument otherwise is In re Discipline of Lerner, 124 Nev. 1232, 1235, 197 P.3d 1067, 1070 (2008), but that case involved a paralegal at a law firm drafting a settlement agreement for a client of the law firm, which is not inapplicable here.

Further, while First 100 appreciates the litany of case law that TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC cited regarding it being inappropriate for lawyers to use a client or a third party to circumvent NRPC 4.2 by telling a client what to say or by "scripting" communications, none of that happened here. And TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's rampant speculation that it happened here is not well-taken.

Grasping for straws, TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC also complains that at the very least, First 100's counsel "should have immediately contacted Plaintiff's counsel" about the settlement agreement. Opp. at p. 16. But that is exactly what First 100's counsel did, as on January 15, 2021, Danielle Barraza, Esq. with MGA contacted Dylan Ciciliano, Esq. of Garner Turner Gordon and disclosed that MGA was copied on communications from Nahabedian Law indicating that he was substituting into the case and seeking clarification on the same. This is when Garner Turner Gordon started being evasive and simply responding "No," instead of explaining why its client had signed off on a settlement agreement and a substitution of counsel, thus leaving First 100 no choice but to file this motion to flush these issues out.

Further, while it is not for First 100 to comment on whether Mr. Nahabedian had a "non-waivable conflict," there does not appear to be a real conflict, as Mr. Nahabedian does not represent numerous clients in this matter, nor does his representation of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC conflict with any other matters as far as First 100 can tell.

D. THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT IS ENFORCEABLE

Next, TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC contends that the settlement agreement is "unenforceable on its face." Opp. at p. 17. These arguments are solely supported by the new declaration that Garner

Turner Gordon got Mr. Farkas to sign on the morning of Saturday, January 23, 2021, in which Mr. Farkas now claims that he did not "understand" what he was signing.

Based on the contents of not only that January 23, 2021 declaration but the transcript from the January 21, 2021 phone call that Mr. Farkas had with Dylan Ciciliano, Esq. of Garner Turner Gordon, it is more than evident that Mr. Farkas' opinion that he did not understand what he was signing came from Mr. Ciciliano lying about the language of the Settlement Agreement and insisting that enforcement of the Settlement Agreement would somehow "extinguish" the one million dollars owed to TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. This of course would make any reasonable person come to the conclusion that they did not "understand" the agreement, as the agreement literally states the opposite. There was in fact a "meeting of the minds," and Garner Turner Gordon's underhanded attempts to create confusion in Mr. Farkas by misrepresenting the Settlement Agreement does not negate that.

Regarding the new claim that Mr. Farkas was "coerced" into signing the Settlement Agreement, this is also false, and again only comes from the new declaration that Mr. Farkas signed on Saturday, January 23, 2021 when a Garner Turner Gordon attorney personally came to Mr. Farkas' home and made him sign the declaration he had no role in drafting. Ironically, that declaration contends that Mr. Farkas "felt he had no choice but to sign any document that Bloom put in front of him," but that appears to be exactly what happened on Saturday, January 23, 2021 based on the transcript from the January 21, 2021 phone call that Mr. Farkas had with Mr. Ciciliano, where Mr. Ciciliano said he would "be in touch" after lying about the terms of the Settlement Agreement. The "duress" arguments are pure nonsense and the Court can clear this up with a simple evidentiary hearing where it can hear directly from Mr. Farkas – not through declarations drafted by Garner Turner Gordon and signed on Saturday mornings after an attorney from Garner Turner Gordon shows up at Mr. Farkas' home.

There was also adequate consideration for the Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement specifically states that $1,000,000 will be paid to TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, plus 6% interest. Mot. at Ex. A. TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC appears to take issue with this by claiming it is not "real" consideration. But TGC/Farkas Funding is inaccurate in claiming that First 100's Operating Agreement entitles TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC to pro rata distributions. It does no such thing.

Members of First 100 are not entitled to a specific percentage of revenues; they are potentially entitled to profits or distributions of the company.

In any event, the stated purpose of this motion is to enforce a settlement agreement. It has nothing to do with the sale of any assets. TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's attempt to confuse the issues with nonsensical math and references to other agreements should be disregarded.

E. NO SANCTIONS SHOULD BE IMPOSED AGAINST FIRST 100'S COUNSEL

Finally, TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC threw in a brief two-paragraph demand that First 100, non-party Bloom, and MGA all be sanctioned because the parties came to a settlement agreement. This should be immediately disregarded by the Court as frivolous. TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's claimed counsel Garman Turner Gordon may be upset and professionally embarrassed that Mr. Farkas elected to resolve the matter without further intervention from Garner Turner Gordon (which would explain the unusual occurrence of an attorney from Garner Turner Gordon scrambling on a Saturday morning and venturing to the home of Mr. Farkas to convince him to sign an inaccurate declaration), but First 100, Mr. Bloom, and certainly MGA should not be punished for that.

The false narrative that the settlement agreement was designed to "delay" post-judgment discovery is pure nonsense. First 100 has no current means of paying the judgment, so there is no real fear on First 100's end of post-judgment discovery taking place. The simple reality is the parties settled this matter, and it would be improper to continue on with "discovery" on a matter that has been resolved.

Attorneys for Defendants First 100, LLC and 1st One Hundred Holdings, LLC and non-party Jay Bloom

DISTRICT COURT

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

TGC/FARKAS FUNDING, LLC, Plaintiff, vs. FIRST 100, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company; 1st ONE HUNDRED HOLDINGS, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company, Defendants.	Case No.: A-20-822273-C Dept. No.: 13 NON-PARTY JAY BLOOM'S OBJECTION TO SUBPOENA -- CIVIL

Pursuant to Rule 45 of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure (the "NRCP"), non-party Jay Bloom ("Bloom"), by and through his attorneys, MAIER GUTIERREZ & ASSOCIATES, hereby objects and responds to the Subpoena issued by counsel for Plaintiff, TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC ("Plaintiff") in the above-captioned action (the "Action") as follows:

1. Bloom objects to the Subpoena as Plaintiff failed to take reasonable steps to avoid imposing an undue burden and expense on Bloom with regard to the documents sought by the Subpoena, which cover 36 separate requests. This is particularly burdensome as Bloom is a non-party to the Action, yet private financial information is being sought from Bloom in a personal capacity, including but not limited to Request for Production Nos. 7, 12, 21, 25, 34, 35, and 36.

2. Bloom objects to the Subpoena as the Requests for Production which seek financial information of the actual Judgment Debtors (First 100, LLC and 1st One Hundred Holdings LLC), including but not limited to Request for Production Nos. 1-6 and Nos. 8-36, should be sought directly from the Judgment Debtors themselves, instead of harassing non-parties such as Bloom.

3. Bloom objects to the Subpoena as pursuant to NRS 86.371, "[u]nless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or an agreement signed by the member or manager to be charged, no member or manager of any limited-liability company formed under the laws of this State is individually liable for the debts or liabilities of the company." No judgment was obtained against Bloom in this Action, therefore Bloom has zero personal liability for the judgment obtained against First 100, LLC and First One Hundred Holdings, LLC. Further, no alter ego findings were made in the Action as it relates to Bloom and First 100, LLC and First One Hundred Holdings, LLC. Nevertheless, Plaintiff is attempting to unilaterally pierce the corporate veil without having ever successfully obtained an alter ego finding, and without ever lodging an alter ego claim where Plaintiff would have been required to prove the existence of an alter ego relationship pursuant to the factors set forth in LFC Marketing Group, Inc. v. Loomis, 116 Nev. 896, 904, 8 P.3d 841, 846 (2000). Bloom objects to Plaintiff's attempt to obstruct the statutory and legal authorities regarding the non-liability of members or managers of LLCs with respect to the debt of the LLCs.

4. Bloom objects to the Subpoena to the extent it seeks to force Bloom to create documents or compilations that do not exist. Such will not be provided.

5. Bloom objects to the Subpoena (including but not limited to Request for Production Nos. 24 and 29) as it seeks documents and communications protected by the attorney-client privilege. See Nev. Rev. Stat. §§ 49.035, et seq.

6. Bloom objects to the Subpoena as the Requests for Production are vague and ambiguous, overly broad, and not narrowly tailored to avoid imposing undue burden, and the discovery sought is not proportional to the needs of the case, specifically with documents being requested as far back as January 1, 2015, when there is only a nominal judgment of $23,975.00.

Moreover, numerous requests which seek the private financial information of Bloom personally and financial information of First 100 and 1st One Hundred Holdings are not limited in time at all, including but not limited to Request for Production Nos. 4, 23, 26, 27, 32, and 33.

DECLARATION OF JAY BLOOM

I, JAY BLOOM, declare as follows:

1. I am over the age of eighteen (18) and I have personal knowledge of all the facts set forth herein. Except otherwise indicated, all facts set forth in this affidavit are based upon my own personal knowledge, my review of the relevant documents, and my opinion of the matters that are the issues of this lawsuit. If called to do so, I would competently and truthfully testify to all matters set forth herein, except for those matters stated to be based upon information and belief.

2. This affidavit is made with respect to Case Number A-20-822273-C.

3. On or about October 17, 2013, Matthew Farkas, as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, signed a Subscription Agreement with 1st One Hundred Holdings, LLC on behalf of and in his capacity as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. (See Exhibit C-1)

4. On or about April 14, 2017, Matthew Farkas, as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC signed a redemption of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC's membership interest in 1st One Hundred Holdings, LLC, on behalf of and in his capacity as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. (See Exhibit C-2)

5. From inception, First 100's only contact with TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC was exclusively through Matthew Farkas as it's Manager.

6. Upon information and belief, sometime prior to 2012, Matthew Farkas was terminated from his employment prior to First 100, was evicted from his apartment in New York, and was living with his wife and son in his mother's apartment in New York.

7. First 100 hired Matthew Farkas, initially as its CFO in 2013, and later reclassified his employment as Vice President of Finance.

8. As such, at all relevant times, Matthew Farkas was both a Manager and Member of plaintiff TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, as well as an officer and Member of First 100.

9. Matthew Farkas was, at all times, a signer on all First 100 bank accounts, and as such, had full access to the books and records of First 100 as the Manager of the plaintiff, TGC/Farkas.

10. I negotiated the settlement in this case with Matthew Farkas directly in what both Matthew Farkas and I believed to be in his capacity as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, as we both desired that there be no more litigation.

11. Matthew Farkas represented to me up to and through January 11, 2021, that he had never resigned his position as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. I reasonably relied upon this representation, and I recalled seeing the declaration from Adam Flatto from August 2020 in the underlying arbitration matter, where Mr. Flatto had confirmed that Mr. Farkas was the Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC which added to my reasonable belief that Mr. Farkas had authority to sign a settlement agreement on behalf of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC. This is why I agreed to settle the case with Mr. Farkas instead of reaching out to negotiate with Adam Flatto of TGC 100 Investor, LLC, the other member of TGC/Farkas Funding, as I wanted to deal with the member that actually had authority to bind TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

12. Matthew Farkas told me that he signed the August 2020 Declaration on behalf of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC in the Arbitration, as well as the Garman Turner Gordon ("GTG") retainer, under duress because Adam Flatto told him that he "had one hour to sign the papers or be sued."

13. On or about the end of August 2020, Matthew Farkas told me that he signed the August 2020 Flatto papers consisting solely of a Declaration for Flatto's use in Arbitration, using the language that he did so "under duress."

14. Matthew Farkas told me that he never met with the GTG firm prior to their engagement, never discussed engaging counsel, nor had any conversations relating to engaging this firm for the purposes of representation of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

15. Matthew Farkas told me as recently as January 11, 2021, that he had no recollection or knowledge of resigning his position as Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

16. In fact, Matthew Farkas told me that his conversations with his fellow member in TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC related solely to his intentions not to engage counsel and that he wanted no part of any litigation, against First 100 or otherwise.

17. Matthew Farkas told me that in his capacity as sole Managing Member and 50% owner of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, he had terminated GTG from further representation of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

18. Matthew Farkas retained the Law Firm of Raffi Nahabedian to substitute in as Counsel for TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

19. On or about January 9, 2021, during a telephone conference with TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC counsel, Raffi Nahabedian, Esq., Joseph Gutierrez, Esq., and myself, Matthew Farkas continued to state that he has no recollection of resigning his position as Manager, but he would check his emails.

20. It was not until on or about January 10, 2021, that Matthew Farkas, for the first time, say that he found an email where he signed a September 2020 Amendment to the TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Operating Agreement.

21. On or about January 11, 2021, Matthew Farkas told me that he signed such document under duress, that he has not read the September 2020 Amendment to the TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Operating Agreement, and did not realize that he had resigned his position until he found the email and read the Amendment for the first time on or about January 11, 2021.

22. At all relevant times, I understood Matthew Farkas to have the authority to sign the Settlement Agreement based on:

a. Matthew Farkas' being the signer, as Manager, of the TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Subscription Agreement,

b. Matthew Farkas' being the signer, as Manager, of the TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Redemption Agreement,

c. Matthew Farkas signing the Settlement Agreement in this case in the same capacity.

23. At no time prior to Matthew Farkas' execution of the Settlement Agreement did he ever represent that he was no longer the Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC.

24. At no time prior to Matthew Farkas' execution of the Settlement Agreement did the entity TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC ever represent or otherwise notify First 100 that Matthew Farkas was no longer the Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, and that First 100 should be communicating with any other person or entity.

25. It is now clear to me that Matthew Farkas didn't even know what he was signing when he signed the August 2020 Declaration for TCG/Farkas or the September Amendment to the TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC Operating Agreement, as he told me that he didn't read what Adam Flatto threatened him to sign, and therefore didn't know himself that he may not have been the Manager of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC at the time he entered into the Settlement Agreement.

26. Given the history of how Matthew Farkas has been bullied by his partner through GTG with signing documents, without counsel, that he didn't read or understand under threat of litigation by Adam Flatto, I believe that once again, when an attorney from GTG appeared at his house on a recent Saturday morning, with a prepared Declaration for his signature, for which I do not believe Matthew Farkas participated in the preparation, and for which Matthew Farkas did not have counsel present individually to review said Declaration, that Matthew Farkas was once again threatened into signing a document without reading or understanding.

27. After having reviewed the transcript of the telephone call between Matthew Farkas and a GTG attorney, I spoke directly with Matthew Farkas and asked why he had lied during the call.

28. Matthew Farkas told to me that the GTG attorney got him very angry by lying to him because he incorrectly believed that what he signed inadvertently extinguished a $1,000,000 investment, which is categorically false.

29. Matthew Farkas further told me that the statements he made during the call about me were in anger and frustration after the GTG had lied to him, and that such statements were reactionary and not really true.

30. On page 25, Lines 20 and 21, Dylan Ciciliano, Esq., told to Farkas that

> "Well, I mean, it's bad. If they win on the motion and force settlement, they extinguish a million-dollar investment."

31. However, in the Settlement Agreement, it clearly states:

> NOW, THEREFORE, 1st 100 and the TGC hereby represent, warrant and agree as follows:
> 1. 1st 100 agrees the TGC is currently owed $1,000,000.00 plus 6% per annum since the date of investment, and this amount is secured by the Judgment;
> 2. 1st 100 will pay the amount owed to the TGC as follows:
> a. Concurrent with its collection of proceeds from the sale of its Award, 1st 100 and/or F100 will cause to pay $1,000,000 plus 6% interest accrued from the date of investment to TGC/Farkas;
> 3. Interest will continue to accrue on the balance until such time of payment;
> 5. Upon execution of the Agreement, TGC will file a dismissal with prejudice of the current actions related to this matter, including the arbitration award and all relation motions and actions pending in the District Court;

32. Dylan Ciciliano's statement is patently false on its face, and served its intended purpose of inciting Matthew Farkas into making false statements about me.

33. Matthew Farkas admitted to me that the statements made during the call were made out of anger and were not true.

34. It is my belief that the Declaration signed by Matthew Farkas is yet another document signed without being read, under duress, and such statements contravene Matthew Farkas' statements made directly to me and everyone else.

35. At no time has First 100 ever been notified by Matthew Farkas, Adam Flatto, or TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC, as to any change in Management.

36. SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF ADAM FLATTO

I, Adam Flatto ("Declarant"), declare as follows:

1. I am the manager of TGC Investor 100, LLC, 50% member of TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC ("Claimant"). I am competent to testify to the matters asserted herein, of which I have personal knowledge, except as to those matters stated upon information and belief. As to those matters stated upon information and belief, I believe them to be true.

2. Attached hereto is a true and correct copy of Claimant's Limited Liability Agreement (the "Operating Agreement").

3. As explicitly set forth in the Operating Agreement, TGC/Farkas Funding, LLC ("Claimant") was formed as an investment vehicle relating to the $1 million capital contribution to First 100, LLC, and Matthew Farkas' 2% interest vested in First 100, LLC. See the Recitals.

4. Matthew Farkas was, and still is, the "Administrative Member" of Claimant, as that term is defined in the Operating Agreement. See Sect. 4.1.

5. Under Section 3.4 of the Operating Agreement, the Administrative Member can only take action to bind Claimant after consultation with, and upon the consent of, all Claimant members.

6. TGC Investor 100, LLC did not consent to any redemption of the 3% membership interest in First 100, LLC. The request for redemption appeared to reflect an interest in an entity which was unknown to me, resulting in questions as to what interest was being redeemed and whether there was a contention Claimant's interest had been converted into ownership in another entity. The request for redemption is one of the reasons for Claimant seeking to inspect the business records of both entities.

7. Claimant did not receive any communication disputing its membership had been effectuated from First 100, LLC until after a request for records was provided to counsel. As previously provided, a schedule K-1 tax form reflecting 3% membership interest was provided to reflect the membership interest in federal tax filings.

The rights of indemnification granted hereunder shall survive the dissolution, winding up and termination of the Company.

The chairman of any meeting of Members shall determine the order of business and the procedure at the meeting, including such regulation of the manner of voting and the conduct of discussion as seem to him in order.

3.9 ANNUAL MEETING. An annual meeting of the Members shall be held each year. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work as a dissolution of the Company.

3.10 SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Members may be called at any time by: (i) the Manager of the Company; (ii) the President of the Company if such office exists; or (iii) the holders of at least five percent (5%) of the Class A Membership interests. If the record books shall be closed for the purpose of determining Members entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of Members, such books shall be closed for at least ten (10) days immediately preceding such meeting. In lieu of closing the record books, the Manager may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of Members, such date in any case to be not more than sixty (60) days and in the case of a meeting of Members, not less than ten (10) days prior to the date of which the particular action requiring such determination of Members is to be taken. If the record books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of Members entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of Members, or Members entitled to receive distribution, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the Manager, declaring such distribution is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of Members. When a determination of Members entitled to vote at any meeting of Members has been made as provided in this Section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof, except where the determination has been made through the closing of record books and the stated period of closing has expired.

Each Member shall hold in strict confidence any information it receives regarding the Company that is identified as being confidential (and if that information is provided in writing, that is so marked) and may not disclose it to any person other than to another Member or a Manager, except for disclosures: (i) compelled by law (but the Member must notify the Manager promptly of any request for that information, before disclosing it, if practicable); (ii) to advisers or representatives of the Member or Persons to which that Member's Membership Interest may be Disposed as permitted by this Operating Agreement, but only if the recipients have agreed to be bound by the provisions of this Section; or (iii) of information that Member also has received from a source independent of the Company that the Member reasonably believes obtained that information without breach of any obligation of confidentiality. The Members acknowledge that breach of the provisions of this Section may cause irreparable injury to the Company for which monetary damages are inadequate, difficult to compute, or both. Accordingly, the Members agree that the provisions of this Section may be enforced by specific performance. The Members acknowledge that the Manager from time to time may determine, due to contractual obligations, business concerns, or other considerations, that certain information regarding the business, affairs, properties, and financial condition of the Company should be kept confidential and not provided to some or all other Members, and that it is not just or reasonable for those Members to examine or copy that information.

3.15 LIABILITIES TO THIRD PARTIES. Except as otherwise expressly agreed in writing, no

Member or the Manager shall be liable for the debts, obligations or liabilities of the Company.

3.16 WITHDRAWAL / SURRENDER. A Member may unilaterally withdraw from the Company as a Member, but only by ways of a written surrender of membership interest tendered to the Company and all Members then in existence.

3.17 LACK OF AUTHORITY TO BIND OR OBLIGATE. The Company is Manager-managed. No Member (other than a Manager or a duly appointed officer) has the authority or power to act for or on behalf of the Company, to do any act that would be obligating or binding on the Company, or to incur any expenditures on behalf of the Company.

3.18 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. Each Member hereby represents and warrants to the Company and each other Member that (a) if that Member is a corporation, it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the law of the state of its incorporation and is duly qualified and in good standing as a foreign corporation in the jurisdiction of its principal place of business (if not incorporated therein); (b) if that Member is a limited liability company, it is duly organized, validly existing, and (if applicable) in good standing under the law of the state of its organization and is duly qualified and (if applicable) in good standing as a foreign limited liability company in the jurisdiction of its principal place of business (if not organized therein); (c) if that Member is a partnership, trust, or other entity, it is duly formed, validly existing, and (if applicable) in good standing under the law of the state of its formation, and if required by law is duly qualified to do business and (if applicable) in good standing in the jurisdiction of its principal place of business (if not formed therein), and the representations and warranties in Clause (a), (b), or (c), as applicable, are true and correct with respect to each partner (other than limited partners), trustee, or other Member thereof, (d) that Member has full corporate, limited liability company, partnership, trust, or other applicable power and authority to execute and agree to this Operating Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder and all necessary actions by the board of directors, shareholders, Manager, Member(s), partners, trustees, beneficiaries, or other Persons necessary for the due authorization, execution, delivery, and performance of this Operating Agreement by that Member have been duly taken; (e) that Member has duly executed and delivered this Operating Agreement; and (f) that Member's authorization, execution, delivery, and performance of this Operating Agreement do not conflict with any other agreement or arrangement to which that Member is a party or by which it is bound.

3.19 ADMISSION OF ADDITIONAL MEMBERS. Following adoption of this Operating Agreement, the Company may admit one or more additional Members from time to time, but only upon the majority vote of all Class A Members then in existence. The terms of admission or issuance must specify the Capital Contributions applicable thereto, and may also provide for the creation of additional classes of Members and having different rights, powers, and duties, but is so then this Operating Agreement shall be amended to reflect such added classes. Upon the admission to the Company of any additional members, the Membership Interests of the other Members shall be reduced accordingly on a pro rata basis. SCHEDULE A shall be amended from time to time as of the effective date of the admission of an additional member to the Company. As a condition to being admitted to the Company, each additional member shall execute an agreement to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

3.20 RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFERENCE OF MEMBERSHIP INTEREST. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Membership Interest and transferability of Membership Interest in the Company are substantially restricted. Neither record title nor beneficial ownership of a Membership Interest may be transferred or encumbered without the consent of all Members. This Company is formed by a closely-held group, who will have surrendered certain management rights (in exchange for limited liability) based upon their relationship and trust. Capital is also material to the business and investment objectives of the Company and its federal tax status. An unauthorized transfer of a Membership Interest could create a substantial hardship to the Company, jeopardize its capital base, and adversely affect its tax structure. These restrictions upon ownership and transfer are not intended as a penalty, but as a method to protect and preserve existing relationships based upon trust and the Company's capital and its financial ability to continue. Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions upon transfer and ownership, the following transfers are permitted:

A. Death of a Member Who Is A Natural Person. The personal representative of a deceased Member's estate, or his or her contract beneficiary, may exercise all of the decedent's rights and powers as a Member, and the decedent's Membership Interest in the Company will continue and pass to those entitled thereto upon the Member's death. It is specifically provided that a Member may prepare a written and acknowledged document in which he or she designates one or more beneficiaries of that Person's Membership Interest, and his or her written designation will be binding upon the Company if delivered to the Company before or within at least sixty 60 days after the death of the Member.

B. Estate Planning Transfers. A Member will also have the right to make estate planning transfers of all or any part of his or her Membership Interest in the Company. The term "estate planning transfer" will mean any transfer made during the life of a Member without value, or for less than full consideration, by way of a marital partition agreement and/or a transfer of all or any part of a Membership Interest to a trust whose beneficiary or beneficiaries are the Member and/or the spouse of a Member, and/or the descendants of a Member, and/or one or more beneficiaries qualified to receive a charitable gift under § 170(c) of the Code. The Articles and this Operating Agreement will bind the transferee of any estate planning transfer to the exact terms and conditions of the Articles and this Operating Agreement.

C. Transfers for Convenience. A Member who is a company may freely transfer its Membership to another company whose ownership is identical to the ownership of the assignor Member, provided, however, that such Member may not cause or permit an interest, direct or indirect, in itself to be disposed of such that, after the disposition, (a) the Company would be considered to have terminated within the meaning of §708 of the Code or (b) that Member shall cease to be controlled by substantially the same Persons who control it as of the date of its admission to the Company. On any breach of the provisions of clause (b) of the immediately preceding sentence, the Company shall have the option to buy, and on exercise of that option the breaching Member shall sell, the breaching Member's Membership Interest all in accordance with Article XI as if the breaching Member were a Bankrupt Member.

D. Approved Sale or Transfers. A Member may transfer its Membership to another Person upon the unanimous vote of all Class A Members.

3.21 DISPUTED TRANSFERS. The Company will not be required to recognize the interest of any transferee who has obtained a purported interest as the result of a transfer of ownership which is not an authorized transfer. If the Membership Interest is in doubt, or if there is reasonable doubt as to who is entitled to a distribution of the income realized from a Membership Interest, the Company may accumulate the income until this issue is finally determined and resolved. Accumulated income will be credited to the capital account of the Member whose interest is in question.

3.22 RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL. If any Person or agency should acquire the interest of a Member as the result of an order of a court of competent jurisdiction which the Company is required to recognize, or if a Member makes an unauthorized transfer of a Membership Interest which the Company is required to recognize, the interest of the transferee may then be acquired by the Company upon the following terms and conditions:

(a) The Company will have the unilateral option to re-acquire the Membership Interest by giving written notice to the transferee of its intent to purchase within 90 days from the date it is finally determined that the Company is required to recognize the transfer.

(b) The Company will have 180 days from the first day of the month following the month in which it delivers notice exercising its option to purchase the Membership Interest. The valuation date for the Membership Interest will be the first day of the month following the month in which notice is delivered.

(c) Unless the Company and the transferee agree otherwise, the fair market value of a Member's Membership Interest is to be determined by the written appraisal of a Person or firm qualified to value this type of business. The appraiser selected by the Company must be a member of and qualified by the American Society of Appraisers, Business Valuations Division, [P. O. Box 17265, Washington, DC 20041] to perform appraisals.

(d) Closing of the sale will occur at the registered office of the Company at 10 o'clock A.M. on the first Tuesday of the month following the month in which the valuation report is accepted by the transferee (called the "closing date"). The transferee must accept or reject the valuation report within 30 days from the date it is delivered. If not rejected in writing within the required period, the report will be accepted as written. If rejected, closing of the sale will be postponed until the first Tuesday of the month following the month in which the valuation of the Membership Interest is resolved. The transferee will be considered a non-voting owner of the Membership Interest, and entitled to all items of income, deduction, gain or loss from the Membership Interest, plus any additions or subtractions therefrom until closing.

(e) In order to reduce the burden upon the resources of the Company, the Company will have the option, to be exercised in writing delivered at closing, to pay its purchase money obligation in 10 equal annual installments (or the remaining terms of the Company if less than 10 years) with interest thereon at market rates, adjusted annually as of the first day of each calendar year at the option of the Manager. The term "market rates" will mean the rate of interest prescribed as the "prime rate" as quoted in the money rates section of the Wall Street Journal, which is also the base rate on corporate loans at large United States money center commercial banks, as of the first day of the calendar year. If §§483 and 1274A of the Code apply to this transaction, the rate of interest of the purchase money obligation will be fixed at the rate of interest then required by law. The first installment of principal, with interest due thereon, will be due and payable on the first day of the calendar year following closing, and subsequent annual installments, with interest due thereon, will be due and payable, in order, on the first day of each calendar year which follows until the entire amount of the obligation, principal and interest, is fully paid. The Company will have the right to prepay all or any part of the purchase money obligation at any time without premium or penalty.

(f) The Manager may assign the Company's option to purchase to one or more of the Members (this with the affirmative consent of no less than 50% of the remaining Members, excluding the interest of the Member or transferee whose interest is to be acquired), and when done, any rights or obligations imposed upon the Company will instead become, by substitution, the rights and obligations of the Members who are assignees.

(g) Neither the transferee of an unauthorized transfer or the Member causing the transfer will have the right to vote during the prescribed option period, or if the option to purchase is timely exercised, until the sale is actually closed.

3.23 TAX TREATMENT OF TRANSFERRED MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS. With respect to any transferred Membership Interest that may occur, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit allocable to any transferred Membership Interest shall for tax purposes be allocated between the transferor and the transferee based on the portion of the calendar year during which each was recognized as owning that Membership Interest without regard to the results of Company operations during any particular portion of that calendar year and without regard to whether cash distributions were made to the transferor or the transferee during that calendar year; provided, however, that this allocation must be made in accordance with a method permissible under §706 of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

ARTICLE IV: CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

4.1 INITIAL CONTRIBUTIONS. Contemporaneously with the execution by such Member of this Operating Agreement, each Member shall make the Capital Contributions described for that Member in SCHEDULES A and B. No interest shall be earned or paid on Capital Contributions or a member's capital account.

4.2 SUBSEQUENT CONTRIBUTIONS. If necessary and appropriate to enable the Company to meet its costs, expenses, obligations, and liabilities, and if no lending source is available, then the Manager shall notify each Class A Member ("Capital Call") of the need for any additional capital contributions, and such capital demand shall be made on each Class A Member in proportion to its Class A Membership Interest. Any such Capital Call notice must include a statement in reasonable detail of the proposed uses of the required additional capital contributions and a date (which date may be no earlier than the fifth Business Day following each Member's receipt of its notice) before which the additional capital contributions must be made.

4.3 FAILURE TO CONTRIBUTE. If a Member does not contribute all of its share of a Capital Call by the time required, then either:

1) One or more Class A Members may provide the additional capital, with such added capital to be reflected in that Class A Member's Capital Contribution, however, such additional capital to be entitled to priority return superior to those set forth in Article V.

or

2) Any other Members, individually or in concert (the "Lending Member," whether one or more), to advance the portion of the Delinquent Member's Capital Call that is in default, with the following results:

(a) the sum advanced constitutes a loan from the Lending Member to the Delinquent Member and a Capital Contribution of that sum to the Company by the Delinquent Member pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Operating Agreement;

(b) the principal balance of the loan and all accrued unpaid interest thereon is due and payable in whole on the tenth day after written demand therefore by the Lending Member to the Delinquent Member;

(c) the amount loaned bears interest at the Default Interest Rate from the day that the advance is deemed made until the date that the loan, together with all interest accrued on it, is repaid to the Lending Member;

(d) all distributions from the Company that otherwise would be made to the Delinquent Member (whether before or after dissolution of the Company) instead shall be paid to the Lending Member until the loan and all interest accrued on it have been paid in full to the Lending Member (with payments being applied first to accrued and unpaid interest and then to principal);

(e) the payment of the loan and interest accrued on it is secured by a security interest in the Delinquent Member's Membership Interest, and the Lending Member may file a financing statement evidencing and perfecting such security interest; and

(f) the Lending Member has the right, in addition to the other rights and remedies granted to it pursuant to this Operating Agreement or available to it at law or in equity, to take any action (including, without limitation, court proceedings) that the Lending Member may deem appropriate to obtain payment by the Delinquent Member of the loan and all accrued and unpaid interest on it, at the cost and expense of the Delinquent Member.

4.4 RETURN OF CONTRIBUTIONS. Class A Members are not entitled to the return of any part of their Capital Contributions. In accordance with Article V, Class B Members and Class C Members are entitled to priority return of all of their Capital Contributions. An un-repaid Capital Contribution is not a liability of the Company or of any Member.

4.5 ADVANCES BY MEMBERS. If the Company does not have sufficient cash to pay its obligations, any Member(s) that may agree to do so with the Manager's consent may advance all or part of the needed funds to or on behalf of the Company. An advance described in this Section constitutes a loan from the Member to the Company, bears interest at the General Interest Rate from the date of the advance until the date of payment, and is not a Capital Contribution.

4.6 CAPITAL ACCOUNTS. A capital account shall be established and maintained for each Member, by Class. The Members' capital accounts also shall be maintained and adjusted as permitted by the provisions of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1 (b)(2)(iv)(f) and as required by the other provisions of Treas. Reg. § 1.704-1 (b)(2)(iv) and 1.704-1(b)(4), including adjustments to reflect the allocations to the Members of depreciation, depletion, amortization, and gain or loss as computed for book purposes rather than the allocation of the corresponding items as computed for tax purposes, as required by Treas. Reg. §1.704-l(b)(2)(iv)(g). On the transfer of all or part of a Membership Interest, the capital account of the transferor that is attributable to the transferred Membership Interest or part thereof shall carry over to the transferee Member in accordance with the provisions of Treas. Reg. §1.704-l(b)(2)(iv)(l).

ARTICLE V: ALLOCATIONS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 DISTRIBUTIONS. From time to time (but at least once each calendar quarter) the Manager shall determine in its reasonable judgment to what extent (if any) the Company's cash on hand exceeds its current and anticipated needs, including, without limitation, for operating expenses, debt service, acquisitions, and a reasonable contingency reserve. If such an excess exists, the Manager shall cause the Company to distribute to the Members an amount in cash (or property other than cash) equal to that excess. Distributions by the Manager shall be mandatory upon the affirmative vote of 95% or more of the Class A Members, subject to Section 5.5.

5.2 ALLOCATION OF PROFIT DISTRIBUTIONS OF THE COMPANY. Profit distributions of the Company in each fiscal quarter shall be allocated to the Members as follows:

i. first to the Class B Members, in proportion to their respective Class B Capital Contributions, in accordance with Section 5.3 ("Priority Return");

ii. next to the Class C Members, in proportion to their respective Class C Capital Contributions, in accordance with Section 5.3 ("Priority Return");

iii. next to the Class A Members in accordance with their respective Class A Membership Interests; provided, however, that Class A Members will only be allocated profit distributions after Class B Members and Class C Members have been paid their entire Priority Return.

5.3 TREATMENT OF CLASS B DISTRIBUTIONS. Class B profit distributions made pursuant to Section 5.2(i) shall be treated as a return of capital, and accordingly each Class B Member's Capital Contribution will be proportionately reduced by the dollar amount equal to the allocation of profit distributions made to that particular Class B Member, until their Capital Contribution is returned in full. Once each Class B Member's Capital Contribution is reduced to $0, the Class B class will cease to exist.

5.4 TREATMENT OF CLASS C DISTRIBUTIONS. Class C profit distributions made pursuant to Section 5.2(ii) shall be treated as a return of capital, and accordingly each Class C Member's Capital Contribution will be proportionately reduced by the dollar amount equal to the allocation of profit distributions made to that particular Class C Member, until their Capital Contribution is returned in full. Once each Class C Member's Capital Contribution is reduced to $0, the Class C class will cease to exist.

5.5 RIGHT TO RECEIVE DISTRIBUTIONS. Except as otherwise provided in NRS §86.391 and §86.521, at the time a Member becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the Member has the status of and is entitled to all remedies available to a creditor of the Company with respect to the distribution.

5.6 LIMITATION ON DISTRIBUTION. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Article, the Manager may not make a distribution to the Company's Members to the extent that, immediately after giving effect to the distribution, all liabilities of this Company, other than liabilities to Members with respect to their interests and liabilities for which the recourse of creditors is limited to specified property of this Company, exceed the fair value of this Company assets, except that the fair value of property that is subject to a liability for which recourse of creditors is limited shall be included in this Company's assets only to the extent that the fair value of that property exceeds that liability. However, a Member who receives such a distribution has no liability under the Act to return the distribution unless the Member knew that the distribution violated any provision of the Act.

ARTICLE VI: MANAGER

6.1 MANAGEMENT BY MANAGER.

A. Except for situations in which the approval of the Members is required by this Operating Agreement or by non-waivable provisions of applicable law, the powers of the Company shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company shall be managed under the direction of the Manager. No member shall take part in the management of the Company's business, transact any business in the Company's name or have the power to sign documents or otherwise bind the Company. The Manager may make all decisions and take all actions for the Company not otherwise provided for in this Operating Agreement, including, without limitation, the following:

(1) hiring, managing, and terminating officers, employees, and independent contractors

(2) entering into, making, and performing contracts, agreements, and other undertakings binding the Company that may be necessary, appropriate, or advisable in furtherance of the purposes of the Company;

(3) opening and maintaining bank and investment accounts and arrangements, drawing checks and other orders for the payment of money, and designating individuals with authority to sign or give instructions with respect to those accounts and arrangements;

(4) maintaining the assets of the Company in good order;

(5) collecting sums due the Company;

(6) to the extent that funds of the Company are available therefore, paying debts and obligations of the Company;

(7) acquiring, utilizing for Company purposes, and Disposing of any asset of the Company;

(8) borrowing money or otherwise committing the credit of the Company for Company activities and voluntary prepayments or extensions of debt;

(9) selecting, removing, and changing the authority and responsibility of lawyers, accountants, and other advisers and consultants;

(10) obtaining insurance for the Company;

(11) determining distributions of Company cash and other property as provided in Article V; and

(12) the institution, prosecution and defense of any proceeding in the Company's name.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.1 A., the Manager may not cause the Company to do any of the following without complying with the applicable requirements set forth below:

(1) sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of (other than by way of a pledge, mortgage, deed of trust or trust indenture) all or substantially all the Company's property and assets (with or without good will), other than in the usual and regular course of the Company's business, without complying with the applicable procedures set forth in the Act, including, without limitation, the requirements set forth in this Operating Agreement regarding approval by the Members (unless such provision is rendered inapplicable by another provision of applicable law);

(2) be a party to (i) a merger, or (ii) an exchange or acquisition, without complying with the applicable procedures set forth in the Act, including, without limitation, the requirements set forth in this Operating Agreement regarding approval by the Members (unless such provision is rendered inapplicable by another provision of applicable law);

(3) amend or restate the Articles, without complying with the applicable procedures set forth in the Act, including, without limitation, the requirements set forth in this Operating Agreement regarding approval by the Members, unless such provision is rendered inapplicable by another provision of applicable law.

6.2 ACTIONS BY MANAGER; DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY AND DUTIES.

A. In managing the business and affairs of the Company and exercising its powers, the Manager shall act: (i) collectively through meetings and written consents consistent as may be provided or limited in other provisions of this Operating Agreement; (ii) through officers to whom management authority and duties have been delegated, pursuant to subsection (C) below; and (iii) through committees comprised of Members and management, if any so may be appointed.

B. The Manager may, from time to time, designate one or more advisory boards to provide guidance and insight to the Company's strategic direction and operations, provided, however, that any such advisory board shall have no managerial authority or any other authority to act on behalf of or bind the Company.

C. The Manager may, from time to time, designate one or more natural persons to be officers of the Company. No officer need be a resident of the State of Nevada or a Member. Any officers so designated shall have such authority and perform such duties as the Manager may, from time to time, delegate to them. The Manager may assign titles to particular officers. Unless the Manager decide otherwise, if the title is one commonly used for officers of a business corporation formed under the NRS Chapter 78, the assignment of such title shall constitute the delegation to such officer of the authority and duties that are normally associated with that office but may also include other such specific delegation of authority and duties made to such officer by the Manager. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall be duly designated and shall qualify or until his death or until he shall resign or shall have been terminated by Manager or the President of the Company, if any. Any number of offices may be held by the same person. The salaries or other compensation, if any, of the officers and agents of the Company shall be fixed from time to time by the Manager or the President of the Company (if such position has been appointed). Any officer may resign as such at any time. Such resignation shall be made in writing and shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time be specified, at the time of its receipt by the Manager. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective, unless expressly so provided in the resignation. Any officer may be removed as such, either with or without cause, by the Manager whenever in their judgment the best interests of the Company will be served thereby; provided, however, that such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the Person so removed. Designation of an officer shall not of itself create contract rights. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company may be filled by the Manager.

D. Any Person dealing with the Company, other than a Member, may rely on the authority of the Manager or officer in taking any action in the name of the Company without inquiry into the provisions of this Operating Agreement or compliance herewith, regardless of whether that action actually is taken in accordance with the provisions of this Operating Agreement.

6.3 AGENCY. The Manager and any appointed officers are agents of this Company for the purpose of any act carrying out the business of the Company, including the execution in the name of the Company of any instrument for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business of this Company.

6.4 COMPENSATION. The Manager shall be paid reasonable compensation and reimbursed for all expenses incurred on behalf of the Company.

6.5 REMOVAL AND RESIGNATION. The Manager may not be removed or terminated by the Members except by unanimous vote. The Manager may resign at any time. Such resignation shall be made in writing and shall take effect at the time specified therein.

6.6 VACANCIES. Any vacancy occurring in the position of Manager may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of Class A Members by election at a special meeting of Members called for that purpose.

6.7 APPROVAL OR RATIFICATION OF ACTS OR CONTRACTS BY MEMBERS. The Manager in its discretion may submit any act or contract for approval or ratification at any annual meeting of the Members, or at any special meeting of the Members called for the purpose of considering any such act or contract, and any act or contract that shall be approved or be ratified by 98% of the Class A Members shall be as valid and as binding upon the Company and upon all the Members as if it shall have been approved or ratified by every Member of the Company.

6.8 INTERESTED MANAGER, OFFICERS AND MEMBERS.

A. No contract or transaction shall be voidable between this Company and any other Person in which the Company's Manager, any Member, or any officer is (i) that Person or (ii) holds a financial interest in that Person, if:

(1) The material facts as to the relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to all of the Members, and the Manager or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction; or

(2) The material facts as to the relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to all Members entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the Members; or

(3) The contract or transaction is fair as to this Company as of the time it is authorized, approved, or ratified by the Manager or the Members.

B. A Member who is a Manager may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Members which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE VII: INDEMNIFICATION

7.1 DEFINITIONS. For purposes of this Article VII:

A. "Limited Liability Company" includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of the Company in a merger, consolidation, or other transaction in which the liabilities of the predecessor are transferred to the Company by operation of law and in any other transaction in which the Company assumes the liabilities of the predecessor but does not specifically exclude liabilities that are the subject matter of this Article.

B. "Manager" means any Person who is or was a Manager of the Company and any Person who, while a Manager of the Company, is or was serving at the request of the Company as a Manager, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent, or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise.

C. "Expenses" include court costs and attorneys' fees.

D. "Official capacity" means: (1) when used with respect to a Manager, the office of Manager in the Company; and (2) when used with respect to a Person other than a Manager, the elective or appointive office in the Company held by the officer or the employment or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the Company; provided, however, that "official capacity" does not include service for any other foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, or any partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise.

E. "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative, any appeal in such an action, suit, or proceeding, and any inquiry or investigation that could lead to such an action, or proceeding.

7.2 STANDARD FOR INDEMNIFICATION. The Company shall indemnify a Person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding because the Person is or was a Manager or Officer of the Company, or for any action, related to Company or non-Company matters, if it is determined either by the Manager for any reason, or in accordance with this Article, that the Person:

A. conducted himself in good faith;

B. reasonably believed (i) in the case of conduct in his official capacity as a Manager of the Company, that his conduct was in the Company's best interests, and (ii) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the Company's best interests;

C. in the case of any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; or

D. for any other reason as may be determined solely in the discretion of the Manager.

7.3 PROHIBITED INDEMNIFICATION. Except to the extent permitted by this Article, a Manager or Member may not be indemnified under any Section of this Article in respect of a proceeding:

A. in which the Person is found liable on the basis that personal benefit from company assets was improperly received by him; or

B. in which the Person is found liable to the Company.

Either the Manager or majority of the membership may elect to provide for such indemnification of the Manager or any party under any circumstance.

7.4 EFFECT OF TERMINATION OF PROCEEDING. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not of itself determinative that the Person did not meet the requirements set forth in any Section of this Article. A Person shall be deemed to have been found liable in respect of any claim, issue or matter only after the Person shall have been so adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom. Until such time as to a final disposition, the Company shall provide the indemnification and defenses contemplated herein.

7.5 EXTENT OF INDEMNIFICATION. A Person shall be indemnified under this Article against judgments, penalties (including excise and similar taxes), fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses actually incurred by the Person in connection with the proceeding; but if the Person is found liable to the Company or is found liable on the basis that Personal benefit was improperly received by the Person, the indemnification shall (a) be limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred, and (b) not be made in respect of any proceeding in which the Person shall have been found liable for willful or intentional misconduct in the performance of such Person's duty to the Company.

7.6 DETERMINATION OF INDEMNIFICATION. A determination of indemnification under any Section of this Article may be made by (i) the Manager, (ii) legal counsel to the company, or (iii) by the Members in a vote.

7.7 AUTHORIZATION OF INDEMNIFICATION. Authorization of indemnification and determination as to reasonableness of expenses must be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that: (i) if the determination that indemnification is permissible is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and determination as to reasonableness of expenses must be made in the manner specified by the foregoing Section for the selection of special legal counsel; and (ii) the provision of this Article making indemnification mandatory in certain cases specified herein shall be deemed to constitute authorization in the manner specified by this Section of indemnification in such cases.

7.8 SUCCESSFUL DEFENSE OF PROCEEDINGS. Except as provided otherwise by law or by this Operating Agreement, the Company shall indemnify a Manager against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with a proceeding in which he is a named defendant or respondent if he has been wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of the proceeding.

7.9 COURT ORDER IN SUIT FOR INDEMNIFICATION. Indemnification required by the foregoing Section shall be subject to Order upon request by an indemnified party in a court of competent jurisdiction upon claim by the Manager as to entitlement to indemnification under that Section, the court shall order indemnification and shall award to the Manager the expenses incurred in securing the indemnification.

7.10 COURT DETERMINATION OF INDEMNIFICATION. Upon application of a Manager, a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine, after giving any notice the court considers necessary, that the Manager is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not he has met the requirements set forth in any Section of this Article or has been found liable in the circumstances described in any Section of this Article. The court shall order the indemnification that the court determines is proper and equitable; but, if the Person is found liable to the Company or is found liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the Person, the indemnification shall be limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the Person in connection with the proceeding.

7.11 ADVANCEMENT OF EXPENSES. Reasonable expenses incurred by a Manager who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding shall be paid or reimbursed by the Company in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding, without the authorization or determination specified in this Article, after the Company receives a written affirmation by the Manager of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under this Article and a written undertaking, which must be an unlimited general obligation of the Manager (and can be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment) but need not be secured, made by or on behalf of the Manager to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it is ultimately determined that he has not met that standard or if it is ultimately determined that indemnification of the Manager against expenses incurred by him in connection with that proceeding is prohibited by this Article. A provision contained in the Articles, this Operating Agreement, a resolution of Members or Manager, or an agreement that makes mandatory the payment or reimbursement permitted under this Section shall be deemed to constitute authorization of that payment or reimbursement.

7.12 EXPENSES OF WITNESS. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, the Company may pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a Manager in connection with his appearance as a witness or other participation in a proceeding at a time when he is not a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding, given that such appearance or participation occurs by reason of his being or having been a Manager of the Company.

7.13 INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS. The Company may, at the discretion of the Manager, indemnify and advance or reimburse expenses to a Person who is or was an officer of the Company to the same extent that it shall indemnify and advance or reimburse expenses to Manager under this Article.

7.14 INDEMNIFICATION OF OTHER PERSONS. The Company may, at the discretion of the Manager, indemnify and advance expenses to any Person who is not or was not an officer, employee, or agent of the Company but who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a Manager, director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent, or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise to the same extent that it shall indemnify and advance expenses to Manager under this Article.

7.15 ADVANCEMENT OF EXPENSES TO OFFICERS AND OTHERS. The Company shall indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, and may indemnify and advance expenses to an employee or agent of the Company, or other Person who is identified in the foregoing Section and who is not a Manager, to such further extent as such Person may be entitled by law, agreement, vote of Members or otherwise.

7.16 CONTINUATION OF INDEMNIFICATION. The indemnification and advance payments provided by this Article shall continue as to a Person who has ceased to hold his position as a Manager, officer, employee or agent, or other Person described in any Section of this Article, and shall inure to his heirs, executors and administrators.

7.17 LIABILITY INSURANCE. The Company may purchase and maintain insurance or another arrangement on behalf of any Person who is or was a Manager, officer, employee, or agent of the Company or who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a Manager, director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent, or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in such a capacity or arising out of his status as such a Person, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify him against that liability under this Article. If the insurance or other arrangement is with a Person or entity that is not regularly engaged in the business of providing insurance coverage, the insurance or arrangement may provide for payment of a liability with respect to which the Company would not have the power to indemnify the Person only if including coverage for the additional liability has been approved by the Members of the Company. Without limiting the power of the Company to procure or maintain any kind of insurance or other arrangement, the Company may, for the benefit of Persons indemnified by the Company, (1) create a trust fund; (2) establish any form of self-insurance; (3) secure its indemnity obligation by grant of a security interest or other lien on the assets of the Company; or (4) establish a letter of credit, guaranty, or surety arrangement. The insurance or other arrangement may be procured, maintained, or established within the Company or with any insurer or other Person deemed appropriate by the Manager regardless of whether all or part of the stock or other securities of the insurer or other Person are owned in whole or part by the Company. In the absence of fraud, the judgment of the Manager as to the terms and conditions of the insurance or other arrangement and the identity of the insurer or other Person participating in an arrangement shall be conclusive and the insurance or arrangement shall not be avoidable and shall not subject the Manager approving the insurance or arrangement to liability, on any ground, regardless of whether Manager participating in the approval are beneficiaries of the insurance or arrangement.

ARTICLE VIII: CERTIFICATES

8.1 CERTIFICATES. Certificates in the form determined by the Manager shall be executed representing all Membership Interests then outstanding, as may change from time to time. Such certificates shall be consecutively numbered, and shall be entered in the books of the Company as they are issued. Each certificate shall state on the face thereof the holder's name, the class of membership, the Membership Interest, and such other matters as may be required by the laws of the State of Nevada. They shall be signed by a Manager or officer of the Company, and may be sealed with the seal of the Company if adopted. A Member has the right to possess the original certificate, provided, however, that the Manager may keep a copy of such certificate in the records of the Company.

8.2 REPLACEMENT OF LOST OR DESTROYED CERTIFICATE. The Manager may direct a new certificate or certificates to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the Company alleged to have been lost or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder of record thereof, or his duly authorized attorney or legal representative who is claiming the certificate to be lost or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate or certificates, the Manager in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, may require the owner of such lost or destroyed certificate or certificates or his legal representative to advertise the same in such manner as it shall require or to give the Company a bond with surety and in form satisfactory to the Company (which bond shall also name the Company's transfer agents and registrars, if any, as obligees) in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Company or other obligees with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost or destroyed, or to both advertise and also give such bond.

8.3 TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP INTEREST. Upon surrender to the Company or the transfer agent of the Company of a certificate for Membership Interest duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer, it shall be the duty of the Company to issue a new certificate to the Person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

8.4 REGISTERED MEMBERS. The Company shall be entitled to treat the holder of record of any certificate or certificate of Membership interest of the Company as the owner thereof for all purposes and, accordingly shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such Membership interest or any rights deriving from such Membership Interest on the part of any other Person, including (but without limitation) a purchaser, assignee or transferee, unless and until such other Person becomes a Member, whether or not the Company shall have either actual or constructive notice of the interest of such Person, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE IX: TAXES

9.1 TAX RETURNS. The tax matters partner, as defined in Section 9.3, shall cause to be prepared and filed any necessary federal and state income tax returns for the Company, including making the elections described in Section 9.2. Each Member shall furnish to the tax matters partner all pertinent information in its possession relating to Company operations that is necessary to enable the Company's income tax returns to be prepared and filed.

9.2 TAX ELECTIONS. The Company may make the following elections on the appropriate tax returns:

A. to adopt the calendar year as the Company's fiscal year;

B. to adopt the cash method of accounting and to keep the Company's books and records on the income-tax method;

C. if a distribution of Company property as described in §734 of the Code occurs or if a transfer of a Membership Interest as described in §743 of the Code occurs, on written request of any Member, to elect, pursuant to §754 of the Code, to adjust the basis of Company properties;

D. to elect to amortize the organizational expenses of the Company and the start-up expenditures of the Company under §195 of the Code as permitted by §709(b) of the Code; and

E. any other election the Manager may deem appropriate and in the best interests of the Members.

9.3 TAX MATTERS PARTNER. The Manager shall designate itself to be the "tax matters partner" of the Company pursuant to §6231(a)(7) of the Code. The tax matters partner shall take such action as may be necessary to cause each other Member to become a "notice partner" within the meaning of §6223 of the Code. Any Member who is designated tax matters partner shall inform each other Member of all significant matters that may come to its attention in its capacity as tax matters partner by giving notice thereof on or before the fifth Business Day after becoming aware thereof and, within that time, shall forward to each other Member copies of all significant written communications it may receive in that capacity. The tax matters partner may not take any action contemplated by §§6222 through 6232 of the Code without the consent of a majority of Members but this sentence does not authorize any action left to the determination of an individual Member under §§6222 through 6232 of the Code.

ARTICLE X: NOTICE

10.1 METHOD. Whenever by statute or the Articles or this Operating Agreement, notice is required to be given to any Member or the Manager, and no provision is made as to how the notice shall be given, it shall not be construed to mean personal notice, but any such notice may be given in writing, postage prepaid, addressed to the Manager or Member at the address appearing on the books of the Company, or in any other method permitted by law. Any notice required or permitted to be given by mail shall be deemed given at the time when the same is thus deposited in the United States mail.

10.2 WAIVER. Whenever, by statute or the Articles or this Operating Agreement, notice is required to be given to any Member or Manager, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the Person or Persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated in such notice, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of the Manager or a Member at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Manager or Member attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE XI: BANKRUPTCY OF A MEMBER

11.1 BANKRUPTCY. If any Member becomes a Bankrupt Member, the Company shall have the option, exercisable by notice from the Manager to the Bankrupt Member (or its representative) at any time prior to the 180th day after receipt of notice of the occurrence of the event causing it to become a Bankrupt Member, to buy, and on the exercise of this option the Bankrupt Member's bankruptcy estate (or the trustee thereof) shall sell, its Membership Interest to the Company. The purchase price shall be a dollar amount equal to the Class A Capital Contribution of the Bankrupt Member plus the remaining Class B capital account, if any, of that Bankrupt Member. The payment to be made to the Bankrupt Member or its estate pursuant to this Section is in complete liquidation and satisfaction of all the rights and interest of the Bankrupt Member and its estate (and of all Persons claiming through the Bankrupt Member and its estate) in and in respect to the Company, including, without limitation, any Membership Interest, any rights in specific Company property, and any rights against the Company and (insofar as the affairs of the Company are concerned) against the Members.

ARTICLE XII: DISSOLUTION, LIQUIDATION, AND TERMINATION

12.1 DISSOLUTION. The Company shall dissolve and its affairs shall be wound up on the written consent of all Members.

12.2 LIQUIDATION AND TERMINATION. On dissolution of the Company, the Manager shall act as liquidator or may appoint one or more Members as liquidator. If there is no Manager then the Members by majority vote will appoint one or more Members as liquidator. The liquidator shall proceed diligently to wind up the affairs of the Company and make final distributions as provided herein and in the Act. The costs of liquidation shall be borne as a Company expense. Until final distribution, the liquidator shall continue to operate the Company properties with all of the power and authority of the Manager. The steps to be accomplished by the liquidator are as follows:

A. as promptly as possible after dissolution and again after final liquidation, the liquidator shall cause a proper accounting to be made by a recognized firm of certified public accountants of the Company's assets, liabilities, and operations through the last day of the calendar month in which the dissolution occurs or the final liquidation is completed, as applicable;

B. the liquidator shall provide written notice to be mailed to each known creditor of and claimant against the Company;

C. the liquidator shall pay, satisfy or discharge from Company funds all of the debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company (including, without limitation, all expenses incurred in liquidation) or otherwise make adequate provision for payment and discharge thereof (including, without limitation, the establishment of a cash escrow fund for contingent liabilities in such amount and for such term as the liquidator may reasonably determine); and

D. all remaining assets of the Company shall be distributed to the Members as follows:

(1) the liquidator may sell any or all Company property, including to Members, and any resulting gain or loss from each sale shall be computed and allocated to the capital accounts of the Members;

(2) with respect to all Company property that has not been sold, the fair market value of that property shall be determined and the capital accounts of the Members shall be adjusted to reflect the manner in which the unrealized income, gain, loss, and deduction inherent in property that has not been reflected in the capital accounts previously would be allocated among the Members if there were a taxable disposition of that property for the fair market value of that property on the date of distribution; and

(3) Company property shall be distributed among the Members in accordance with the positive capital account balances of the Members, as determined after taking into account all capital account adjustments for the taxable year of the Company during which the liquidation of the partnership occurs (other than those made by reason of this Clause (3)); and those distributions shall be made by the end of the taxable year of the Company during which the liquidation of the Company occurs (or, if later, 90 days after the date of the liquidation). All distributions in kind to the Members shall be made subject to the liability of each distributee for costs, expenses, and liabilities theretofore incurred or for which the Company has committed prior to the date of termination and those costs, expenses, and liabilities shall be allocated to the distributee pursuant to this Section 12.2. The distribution of cash and/or property to a Member in accordance with the provisions of this Section 12.2 constitutes a complete return to the Member of its Capital Contributions and a complete distribution to the Member of its Membership Interest and all the Company's property and constitutes a compromise to which all Members have consented. To the extent that a Member returns funds to the Company, it has no claim against any other Member for those funds.

12.3 DEFICIT CAPITAL ACCOUNTS. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Operating Agreement, and notwithstanding any custom or rule of law to the contrary, to the extent that the deficit, if any, in the capital account of any Member results from or is attributable to deductions and losses of the Company (including non-cash items such as depreciation), or distributions of money pursuant to this Operating Agreement to all Members in proportion to their respective Capital Contributions, upon dissolution of the Company such deficit shall not be an asset of the Company and such Members shall not be obligated to contribute such amount to the Company to bring the balance of such Member's capital account to zero.

12.4 ARTICLES OF DISSOLUTION. On completion of the distribution of Company assets as provided herein, the Company is terminated, and the Manager or a Member shall file Articles of Dissolution with the Secretary of State of Nevada and take such other actions as may be necessary to terminate the Company.

ARTICLE XIII: GENERAL PROVISIONS

13.1 BOOKS AND RECORDS.

A. The Company shall maintain those books and records as provided by statute and as it may deem necessary or desirable. All books and records provided for by statute shall be open to inspection of the Members from time to time and to the extent expressly provided by statute. (1) a current list that states:

(a) the name and mailing address of each Member;

(c) if one or more classes or groups are established in or under the Articles or this Operating Agreement, the names of the Members who are Members of each specified class or group;

(2) copies of the federal, state, and local information or income tax returns for the Company's six most recent tax years.

(a) the amount of the cash contribution and a description and statement of the agreed value of any other contribution made by each Member, and the amount of the cash contribution and a description and statement of the agreed value of any other contribution that the Member has agreed to make in the future as an additional contribution;
(b) the times at which additional contributions are to be made or events requiring additional contributions to be made;
(c) events requiring the Company to be dissolved and its affairs wound up; and
(d) the date on which each Member in the Company became a Member; and

(5) correct and complete books and records of accounts of the Company.

B. The Company shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

C. The Company shall keep in its registered office in Nevada and make available to Members on reasonable request the street address of its principal United States office in which the records required by this Section are maintained or will be available.

D. A Member, on written request stating the purpose, may examine and copy, in person or by the Member's representative, at any reasonable time, for any proper purpose, and at the Member's expense, records required to be kept under this Section and other information regarding the business, affairs, and financial condition of the Company as is just and reasonable for the Person to examine and copy.

E. On the written request by any Member, the Manager shall provide to the requesting Member or assignee, without charge, true copies of:

(1) the Articles and this Operating Agreement and all amendments or restatements; and
(2) any of the tax returns described in the Act.

13.2 AMENDMENT OR MODIFICATION. This Operating Agreement may be amended or modified from time to time only by a written instrument adopted by the affirmative vote of 98% or more of the Class A Members.

13.3 CHECKS, NOTES, DRAFTS, ETC. All checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of or payable to the Company shall be signed or endorsed by one or more designated Persons appointed by the Manager or Chief Financial Officer of the Company, if such officer position exists.

13.4 HEADINGS. The headings used in this Operating Agreement have been inserted for convenience only and do not constitute matter to be construed in interpretation.

13.5 CONSTRUCTION. Whenever the context so requires, the gender of all words used in this Operating Agreement includes the masculine, feminine, and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural, and conversely. All references to Articles and Sections refer to articles and sections of this Operating Agreement, and all references to Exhibits or Schedules, if any, are to Exhibits or Schedules attached hereto, if any, each of which is made a part hereof for all purposes. If any portion of this Operating Agreement shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible:

A. The remainder of this Operating Agreement shall be considered valid and operative; and
B. Effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

13.6 ENTIRE AGREEMENT; SUPERSEDURE. This Operating Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the Members of the Company and supersedes all prior contracts or agreements with respect to the Company, whether oral or written.

13.7 EFFECT OF WAIVER OR CONSENT. A waiver or consent, express or implied, to or of any breach or default by any Person in the performance by that Person of its obligations with respect to the Company is not a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance by that Person of the same or any other obligations of that Person with respect to the Company. Failure on the part of a Person to complain of any act of any Person or to declare any Person in default with respect to the Company, irrespective of how long that failure continues, does not constitute a waiver by that Person of its rights with respect to that default until the applicable statute-of-limitations period has run.

13.8 BINDING EFFECT. Subject to the restrictions on Dispositions set forth in this Operating Agreement, this Operating Agreement is binding on and inures to the benefit of the Members and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns.

13.9 DISPUTE RESOLUTION - BINDING ARBITRATION ELECTION. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof shall solely be settled by arbitration under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The parties specifically waive any rights to litigation as a dispute resolution methodology and further divest any Court of jurisdiction to determine disputes between the parties to this Agreement. Notwithstanding, judgment on the arbitrator's award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The arbitration shall be held in the City of Las Vegas and State of Nevada, in the English language, and shall be conducted before three arbitrators, wherein the party calling for arbitration selects one arbiter, the party defending selects one arbiter and the arbiters select a third, agreeable to the parties or, if no agreement can be reached, then selected by the AAA. All costs related to the arbitration shall initially be borne by the aggrieved party. The arbitrators shall make findings of fact and law in writing in support of his decision, and shall award reimbursement of attorney's fees and other costs of arbitration to the prevailing party as the arbitrator deems appropriate. The provisions hereof shall not preclude any party from seeking post arbitration injunctive relief to protect or enforce its rights hereunder, or prohibit any court from making findings of fact in connection with granting or denying such injunctive relief after and in accordance with the decision of the arbitrator. No decision of the arbitrator shall be subject to judicial review or appeal; the parties waive any and all rights of judicial appeal or review, on any ground, of any decision of the arbitrator.

13.10 LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION. Should any party initiate a civil proceeding against any other, notwithstanding the binding arbitration provision above, such party initiating civil litigation shall recognize that it has caused material damage and harm to the other by way of their breach of this agreement, and agrees to provide to the named defendant party, liquidated damages in the amount of any costs of defense incurred by the aggrieved party plus ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00).

13.11 GOVERNING LAW; SEVERABILITY. THIS OPERATING AGREEMENT IS GOVERNED BY AND SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, EXCLUDING ANY CONFLICT-OF-LAWS RULE OR PRINCIPLE THAT MIGHT REFER THE GOVERNANCE OR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THIS OPERATING AGREEMENT TO THE LAW OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION. In the event of a direct conflict between the provisions of this Operating Agreement and (a) any provision of the Articles, or (b) any mandatory provision of the Act, the applicable provision of the Act shall control. If any provision of this Operating Agreement or the application thereof to any Person or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Operating Agreement and the application of that provision to other Persons or circumstances is not affected thereby and that provision shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

13.12 FURTHER ASSURANCES. In connection with this Operating Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, each Member shall execute and deliver any additional documents and instruments and perform any additional acts that may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate and perform the provisions of this Operating Agreement and those transactions.

13.13 NOTICE TO MEMBERS OF PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT. By executing this

Operating Agreement, each Member acknowledges that it has actual notice of: (a) all of the provisions of this Operating Agreement, including, without limitation, the restrictions on the transfer of Membership Interests set forth in Article III; and (b) all of the provisions of the Articles. Each Member hereby agrees that this Operating Agreement constitutes adequate notice of all such provisions, including, without limitation, any notice requirement under the Chapter 86 of the Nevada Revised Statutes and under the Nevada Uniform Commercial Code, and each Member hereby waives any requirement that any further notice thereunder be given.

13.14 COUNTERPARTS. This Operating Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all signing parties had signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and constitute the same instrument.

13.15 CONFLICTING PROVISIONS. To the extent that one or more provisions of this Operating Agreement appear to be in conflict with one another, then the Manager shall have the right to choose which of the conflicting provisions are to be enforced. Wide latitude is given to the Manager in interpreting the provisions of this Operating Agreement to accomplish the purposes and objectives of the Company, and the Manager may apply this Operating Agreement in such a manner as to be in the best interest of the Company, in their sole discretion, even if such interpretation or choice of conflicting provisions to enforce is detrimental to one or more Members or the Manager.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned hereby certify that the foregoing Operating Agreement was unanimously adopted by the Members and Manager, effective as of the first date written in the preamble above, and we have hereunto affixed our signatures.

Vesting Letter

[to be attached]

First 100, LLC
Tivoli Village at Queens Ridge

Las Vegas, NV 89145

October 18, 2013

Re: Vesting Terms for 1.5% Class A Voting Membership Interest Grant to TGC/Farkas Funding LLC.

Dear TGC/Farkas Funding LLC:

The Executive Committee of Directors of First 100, LLC (the "Company") at its April 26, 2012 meeting, undertook a review of its policies regarding employee equity compensation in connection with continued employment with the Company. Based on that review and in order to provide its employees with appropriate equity compensation as incentive to continue their employment with the company, the Executive Committee of the Board has concluded that all Membership Interest Incentive grants with certain employees, as may be awarded by the Board, is to provide employees with a specified amount of Membership Interest which will vest under certain circumstances as defined herein.

Summary of the Vesting Terms.

A description of the Vesting Terms for Membership Interests grants is as follows.

Each of your existing and any future Membership Interest Incentive grants that may be awarded to you will provide that, such Membership Interest Incentive granted shall vest at a rate of 1/3 of any such position per year for three (3) years of continuous employment, with such Vesting Term commencing on the hire date of Matthew Farkas of August 28, 2013.

In the event that you resign, any unvested Membership Interested Incentive granted is subject to forfeiture and will be surrendered back to the company, being deemed as unearned.

In the event that your employment is terminated without cause (including poor performance) or you otherwise resign within 12 months after the Company is acquired, then vesting under each Membership Interest Incentive granted will automatically accelerate to reflect 100% vesting in any such grant, notwithstanding any outstanding vesting period remaining. Such vesting acceleration will also be automatically provided in the event that the corporation that acquires the Company elects not to assume or otherwise substitute equivalent equity for the unvested portion of the Membership Interest Incentive granted.

In the event of forfeiture of a Membership Interest Incentive grant, the total percentage of vested Membership Interest will be equal to the sum of all Membership Interest vested through the time of termination of employment which is the number of whole years that you have been continuously employed by the Company (and the Company's successor, if applicable).

An example of the operation of this accelerated vesting is as follows: Assume that an employee who was hired on January 1, 2013 has a total of 3% Membership Interest Incentive grant in Class A voting equity and the employee is terminated without cause on February 28, 20014. In that hypothetical case, 14 months would have passed from the date that the employee was hired until his/her termination. Without vesting acceleration, the employee shall be subject to forfeiture of 2% of the Membership Interest, retaining 1% of the Membership Interest. Should vesting acceleration be applicable here (and in lieu of regular vesting) the employee would retain the entirety of the 3% Membership Interest.

During the vesting period, any unvested Membership Interest Incentive grant's voting rights shall be voted by the Board.

Please sign below where indicated to confirm your acceptance of the foregoing Vesting Terms for any such Membership Interest Incentive grant as may be held by you. By signing below, you and the Company also agree that:

(a) Other than as expressly stated in this letter agreement, the terms and conditions of the Operating Agreement remain in full force and effect.

(b) This letter, together with any Membership Interest Incentive grant held by you (or that may be awarded to you in the future) sets forth the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior agreements and undertakings with respect to the subject matter hereof, however, remains subject to the terms and conditions of the Operating Agreement, as amended, as the controlling document.

Very Truly Yours,

Agreed and Accepted

Dear Matthew Farkas,

Let this letter serve as a memorial to an agreement stating the following:

The directorship of First 100, LLC has granted a 2% equity position in the company for services rendered in the VP of Finance position to Matthew Farkas, and by extension, the TGC Partnership between Matthew Farkas and Adam Flatto.

The 1% purchase for $1,000,000 by Adam Flatto will be pooled with this position to make a total position of 3% ownership.

Matthew Farkas (with the consent of the board) has offered to split this position with Adam Flatto on a 50%/50% basis. This will leave Matthew with a 1.5% position in First 100, LLC and Adam Flatto with an identical 1.5% position with First 100, LLC.
