

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

BRYAN WARREN DRYDEN, Appellant,
vs.
THE STATE OF NEVADA,
Respondent.

No. 83233

FILED

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY E. Brown
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DIRECTING ENTRY AND TRANSMISSION OF WRITTEN JUDGMENT OF CONVICTION AND SUSPENDING BRIEFING

This is an appeal from a judgment of conviction. The documents before this court do not contain a written judgment of conviction. The criminal court minutes indicate that the district court orally pronounced appellant's sentence on July 8, 2021. However, it appears that the district court has not yet entered a written judgment of conviction. Until the entry of a final, written judgment and the timely filing of a notice of appeal, the district court technically retains jurisdiction over appellant's case. In a criminal case, a notice of appeal filed after announcement of the decision, but before entry of the written judgment or order is deemed to have been filed "after such entry and on the day thereof." NRAP 4(b)(2). Thus, a copy of the written judgment is essential to a determination of this court's jurisdiction to consider this appeal.

Accordingly, the district court shall have 30 days from the date of this order within which to (1) enter a written judgment or (2) inform this court that it is reconsidering its decision. In the event the district court enters a written judgment (or has already entered a written judgment of which this court is unaware), the clerk of the district court shall immediately transmit a certified copy of the judgment to the clerk of this court.

The deadlines for filing documents and briefing of this appeal are suspended until further order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.
