inconsistencies with the evidence. 1 Initially Mr. Mitrov -- Mr. Leventhal had testified that he did 2 not at any point have possession of a Maserati. 3 Electronically Filed Mr. Mitrov took the stand, he testified the 21 2021 08:26 a.m. 4 Elizabeth A. Brown Mr. Leventhal did, in fact, have possessicherkoof Supereme Court 5 Maserati for about a month. 6 As to the Viper, Mr. Mitrov testified that 7 8 Mr. Leventhal did, in fact, have possession of the 9 Viper for almost a year. And he had -- Mr. Mitrov testified that he did file a grievance in June of 10 2020 to get Mr. Leventhal's attention because at that 11 12 point, after sending Mr. Leventhal numerous texts asking to pick up the Viper, he still had not 13 received the Viper by the time he signed -- submit 14 the grievance to the State Bar. It was only after 15 the submission of his grievance did he speak to 16 Mr. Leventhal and was able to pick up the Viper. 17 Mr. Mitrov also testified that he rented a 18 19 rental car because he was out of a car. And he also 20 testified that Mr. Leventhal did in fact give him rental car costs for that rental. And Mr. Leventhal, 21 2.2 initially when asked, we asked him about a rental car, he said he had no knowledge of it, did not give 2.3 him money, but Mr. Mitrov's testimony states 24

otherwise.

It does not, as I said earlier, it does not 1 matter that Mr. Mitrov also considers Mr. Leventhal a 2 The fact of the matter is from July of 2019 3 to June 2020, Mr. Leventhal and Mr. Mitrov had an 4 attorney-client relationship. Mr. Mitrov retained 5 Mr. Leventhal as his attorney from that period, and 6 during that period he did allow Mr. Mitrov --7 8 Mr. Leventhal to borrow both his Viper and his 9 Maserati. Mr. Mitrov testified that there was never 10 11 any writing pertaining to either the retention of 12 Mr. Leventhal as his attorney nor was there any writing related to Mr. Leventhal borrowing the Viper, 13 as well as the Maserati; therefore, there was no --14 there was no writing describing the transaction 15 16 terms, those terms of him, Mr. Leventhal borrowing 17 those vehicles were not fair and reasonable to Mr. Mitrov. 18 19 He was out of a car for a year. He did not 20 have access to his Viper for almost a year. He --Mr. Mitrov was not advised in writing to the 21 2.2 desirability of seeking or given a reasonable 23 opportunity to seek advice of independent counsel, nor did he give informed consent as to, in writing as 24 25 to Mr. Leventhal borrowing the Viper and the Maserati. 1 2 1.8 states that a lawyer shall not enter into a business transaction with a client or 3 knowingly acquire an ownership, possessory, security 4 or other pecuniary interest adverse to a client 5 unless those three things that I mentioned exist. 6 Mr. Leventhal had a possessory interest in 7 8 the Viper. He -- Mr. Mitrov did not have it. It was 9 adverse to him. He had the Viper for over -- for 10 almost a year. He had the Maserati for approximately 11 a month. As to Sosa-Avila, again he admits, 12 Mr. Leventhal admits that he accepted the property as 13 collateral and, therefore, he had a possessory 14 interest adverse to those clients. And with that the 15 State Bar submits. 16 17 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Mr. Clark? 18 MR. CLARK: I will say this again, as to 19 Sosa-Avila she has no interest in stolen property, 20 And if the purpose of the rule is to prevent overreaching by the lawyer, and that if he's going to 21 2.2 take collateral from her, it must be on terms that 2.3 are fair and reasonable to her, look at the facts. 24 She gave him stolen property. She got free 25 legal representation. He quashed her warrant and then she stiffed him. I believe those are fair and reasonable terms for her. It is undisputed that those items were stolen. It is undisputed. There is no countervailing testimony or evidence that those items were not stolen.

He testified that he looked at the, he looked at the discovery. The Louis Vuitton's in there. There's a cellphone in, which he said that's the iPhone, and when he talked to her about it, she admitted, yes, those items are stolen. He was like, okay, I need to submit that to Metro, and he did it anonymously to protect her rights, as he's required to do under Rule 1.6, confidentiality.

If those were her items, why isn't she here?
The reason is she's still facing charges, and she doesn't want to waive her Fifth Amendment rights, that's why she's not here. They couldn't find her.
They can't reach her.

Those items were stolen. And I would submit to you again that if it's a stolen item, it's a crime for her to possess it. She has no legitimate lawful possessory interest in a stolen piece of property; therefore, technically he cannot take a possessory interest adverse to her as a matter of law.

You can think, well, he thought he could and so he did, so he attempted to. That's not what they pled. They pled that he violated 1.8A because he took a possessory interest adverse to her. I'll say it again, I've said it before, if it's stolen, she does not have a legitimate interest that he can be adverse to her on.

The State Bar's burden of proof is clear and convincing, which in my brief I say is evidence that establishes every factual element to a high probability. So on Avila Sosa the undisputed testimony is those three items were stolen. The undisputed testimony is that the drone was a gift. Now, yes, he said in his letter that the drone was collateral; however, in his motion for summary judgment he declared under penalty of perjury that it was a gift. In his verified answer he denied that it was collateral.

Maribel Godinez testified here clearly, unequivocally that no, no, no the husband and wife came in and that drone was a gift. He can accept a gift. There's no violation of 1.8A for a gift, period. They have no adverse interest because they unsolicited voluntarily gave him the drone. And the State Bar did not plead 1.8C which is accepting gifts. They didn't plead that. They chose just

1 | 1.8A. So those four items as a technical matter 2 | there's no adverse interest.

And again let's step back to the policy reasons for 1.8. So he is not overreaching and he does not take advantage of her. He didn't take advantage of her, she took advantage of him. Again, you know, he quashed her warrant so she wouldn't lose her kids and go to jail, and she never paid him dime one on the $6,000.

And look at the fee agreement where it says she agrees that she has discussed the arrangement of fees with another lawyer, that her signature is informed consent, and she agrees to it. And she had done that after she said, I'll just give you property right now so that we can get you going. And he said fine. He didn't keep it, he didn't benefit from it, he didn't profit from it. There was no overreaching on her. He didn't gain any unfair advantage. He didn't engage in overreaching her. He just said, fine, I'll take it but you've got to pay me money.

Every time they called her they said, You've got to pay us money. They were expecting a thousand dollars in April and what she came in was with another piece of property. That wasn't their agreement, so he did not knowingly accept it. He did not -- so he couldn't have given her, you know, a preapproval or a pre-disclosure, he didn't even know it was coming in. In fact, he didn't know what was coming in at all.

But apparently no good deed goes unpunished because even though he did the work for her, he never got paid for it. And when he found out it was stolen, he turned it over to the police anonymously to still protect the rights of his nonpaying client. The State Bar now insists that it's a possessory interest and we have to challenge him for it. No, technically it's not a violation. Policy-wise it's not a purpose of discipline.

As to Mr. Mitrov. Mr. Mitrov. Todd testified he never gave him $5,000, which is curious because Mr. Mitrov testified that he didn't rent the car because of Mr. Leventhal's action. So when the State Bar says, well, there's this $5,000, it's of no moment. It's not adversity.

He said, I just -- I rented it because the Maserati didn't have air conditioning. I didn't rent it -- I didn't rent the vehicle because of Todd, and I never asked him for it back. I never asked him to pay for it, he did that out of the kindness of his heart. Todd disputes that. He never paid him

We don't know where Mr. Mitrov is coming up 1 $5,000. with that, but Todd never paid him. Frankly if he 2 did pay him, he would have said so. Like, look, I 3 mitigated this problem, I paid this money. 4 But Mr. Mitrov submitted that. He never 5 told the State Bar that it was paid until last week. 6 I submit that's a ridiculous statement. He's given 7 8 different versions of where he is. He wanted to 9 withdraw the grievance way back in September. look, I want out of this. I'm not harmed here, it's 10 a misunderstanding, just let me go home. He's not 11 12 out anything. He's not injured or damaged. He's, like, look, I'm fine. It was a favor. He didn't 13 give him -- let him use the Viper because he was his 14 15 lawyer, which is the purpose of 1.8. 16 And the legislative history says that if the 17 lawyer -- if the client feels compelled to do that, 18 then the attorney is using their fiduciary 19 relationship for an improper purpose and they're 20 overreaching. That's not what he did here. He said, look, I know him, I just let him use it. 21 22 As to the Maserati, Mr. Mitrov specifically 23 denies the State Bar allegations regarding any exchange of transaction or any use of the Maserati. 24 25 He said, look, I don't even know if he even sat in

I don't even know if he drove it. And as to 1 it. 2 both vehicles, at least the Viper, he says, look, when I went and picked it up, it looked like it had 3 never been driven, which supports Mr. Leventhal's 4 testimony that, look, yes, I drove it once. 5 I drove it to Pahrump, I came back and it failed and then I 6 7 had it towed into the shop, okay, but he didn't have it. 8 9 He said, go get it, it's at the shop. didn't have possessory interest in it, it was at the 10 There was nothing keeping it at -- from 11 12 Mr. Mitrov going to get it at the shop and taking it There's no evidence that Mr. Leventhal had it 13 home. 14 for a year, it was in the shop. And Mr. Mitrov could 15 have picked it up at any time. Mr. Mitrov is all over the place on his 16 17 testimony, his sworn testimony. He wanted to -- he 18 wanted his grievance withdrawn in September. 19 wanted his grievance withdrawn in December. in -- last week he says, look, I don't want anything 20 to do with this. I have no other beef with 21 22 Mr. Leventhal. I want nothing from him. So the purpose of 1.8 is to protect the 23 clients, he doesn't have a problem with 24 25 Mr. Leventhal. He's all square and fine.

Mr. Leventhal even got him a deal on restitution, 1 2 kept it out of the court records, and he never even bothers to pay it, but again no good deed goes 3 unpunished, and now Mr. Leventhal is standing here 4 having not profited a dime off of any of this and is 5 facing charges. 6 7 I would submit to you that on Amalia Sosa-Avila it is not a violation as a matter of law. 8 9 I would submit to you that as to Mr. Mitrov, it's not a violation either because it wasn't formed by -- it 10 wasn't compelled by the attorney-client relationship. 11 12 He did it as a favor for a friend. So I'd submit on 13 that. Thank you. Thank you. Anything else 14 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: 15 from the State Bar? 16 MR. GOSIOCO: Just briefly, Mr. Chairman. As to Miss Sosa-Avila, as Mr. Clark had stated, they 17 18 said the evidence shows that the items alleged -- the 19 items dropped off as collateral, the drone, Louis 20 Vuitton purse, the iPhone, and the diamond ring were 21 proven to be stolen; however the evidence shows, 2.2 based on the police report, the discovery, that 23 Mr. Leventhal testified to, and he also wrote in his response that he admits that he reviewed and signed 24 25 that all those items were collateral. He testifies that they were all -- he accepted those as collateral.

              And just briefly as to the cellphone,
 3
     Mr. Clark argues that the discovery associated with 4
     Miss Sosa-Avila's criminal case listed a cellphone; 5
     however, the only mention of a cellphone was under -- 6
     it stated type: Miscellaneous, in parenthesis, 7 8 cellphones, bicycles, worthless doc, items not 9
     listed, and then there was a description.
     description said one Discover card, red, white and 10
     blue was used at a Home Depot and gas.
11
12
     "miscellaneous" is simply a drop-down menu to 13 classify the items.
              MR. CLARK: I'm going to object to that.
14
     That evidence is not -- that testimony is not in evidence that it's a drop-down menu.
16
              CHAIRMAN EDWARDS:
                                 Overruled.
18 MR. GOSIOCO: Essentially the description of that states, does not state a cellphone at all, 19 20 merely right above the description it states "type." 21
     And so one can -- one can logically conclude that 22 that's just a type of item that was associated with 23 the alleged crime, and the description itself was actually a Discover card, not an iPhone. And with 24
     that the State Bar submits.

              CHAIRMAN EDWARDS:
                                 Thank you.
                                              Mr. Moore,
 2
     any questions for counsel before we go into deliberations?
 3
              COMMISSIONER MOORE:
                                   No, sir.
              CHAIRMAN EDWARDS:
                                 Mr. Lee, any questions?
                                 Question for Mr. Clark.
              COMMISSIONER LEE:
 7
     If we look at Rule 1.8, and it specified intent as 8 knowingly as one of the standards, is the issue the 9 question of intent at the time of the transaction, if there's a business transaction, or a knowingly 10 acquisition of a security interest at the time of the 11
     transaction? And if your answer is just simply what you've already said related to the stolen property, I 13
     already understand that, just go ahead and say that, 14
15
     but if you have something new to add, let me know.
                          Well, I would submit there's no
16
              MR. CLARK:
17
     business transaction at all because there was no 18
    moneys that were attached or changed hands.
19 to knowingly acquire, I -- my emphasis is again on 20 adverse to the client, by definition it cannot be 21 adverse to stolen property as she has no interest in 2.2
     it.
23
              COMMISSIONER LEE:
                                 Okay. So the same answer that you had before. I understand.
              Then for Bar Counsel, you know, this is a

1 different type of case than I've seen before. Like, 2 what exactly is the suggestive discipline under the ABA standards that you would be looking for? 3 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Mr. Lee, we're going to 4 first deliberate as to whether there was a rules 5 To the extent there is, we will come back 6 violation. and discuss possible sanctions. 7 I understand. 8 COMMISSIONER LEE: Okay. 9 Like, generally in these screening panels it's part of the argument, so I was a little confused. 10 11 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Sorry, I should have made 12 that more clear. Anything else? 13 Okay. Kristi, can you kick us out into our 14 15 private room please. 16 MS. FAUST: I will put you in the room right 17 now. 18 (A recess was taken.) 19 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Okay. We are back on the 20 record after the panel has deliberated as to whether there was a violation of the rules. As to Count 1, 21 2.2 the panel has unanimously found that there was a 2.3 violation of Rule 1.8A. In Exhibit 11 the respondent confirmed that 24 25 he reached an agreement with the client to accept collateral. At that point in time he had an obligation to comply with Rule 1.8A to obtain informed and written consent from the client with regard to the security agreement. He failed to do so.

We have not seen any legal authority and we don't think it makes sense that the attorney can be relieved of his ethical obligation under Rule 1.8A if it is later discovered that the property happened to be stolen.

As to Count 2, by a vote of two to one the panel has concluded there was a rules violation, a 1.8A violation as it relates to the Viper. The respondent's possession of the Viper became adverse when the client repeatedly demanded its return and the vehicle was not returned. At that point in time the obligation, Mr. Leventhal had an obligation to comply with Rule 1.8A. Given the lack of any written informed consent from the client at that point in time, we find a rules violation.

We find unanimously that the State Bar has not reached its burden as it relates to the Maserati.

So that's our ruling. If we can take a five-minute break, be back here to start the second phase. And again, Counsel, I'd ask you to do what

1 you can to streamline this as much as possible so we 2 can finish this today please. Off the record please. (A recess was taken.) 3 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: We are back on the record 4 for the second phase of this disciplinary hearing. 5 6 State Bar? MR. GOSIOCO: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. 7 In 8 light of the panel finding violations of, two violations of Rule 1.8A, the State Bar would move to 9 admit and publish to the members of the panel 10 Exhibit 2, which is the affidavit of prior discipline 11 12 for Mr. Leventhal. CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Mr. Clark, any objection? 13 14 MR. CLARK: No objection. 15 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Exhibit 2 is admitted. (Thereupon Complainant's Exhibit 16 17 2 was admitted into evidence.) 18 MR. GOSIOCO: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Now, 19 as to the suggested punishment, the ABA annotated standards for imposing lawyer sanctions, that's the 20 21 standards we go by. For this conduct we are looking 2.2 at standard 4.32 which states, Suspension is generally appropriate when a lawyer knows of a 23 conflict of interest and does not disclose to a 24 25 client the possibly effect of that conflict, and

1 | causes injury or potential injury to a client.

And the book also states that knowledge is the conscious awareness of the nature or attendant circumstances of the conduct but without the conscious objective or purpose to accomplish a particular result.

Right in the rule of 1.8A that rule states that lawyers shall not enter into a business transaction with a client or knowingly acquire a possessory ownership, security, or other pecuniary interest adverse to a client; therefore, as a -- since there was a violation of 1.8, and based on Mr. Leventhal's conduct, he knowingly acquired a possessory interest adverse to both Miss Sosa-Avila as well as Mr. Mitrov.

Now, once we have the standard, the ABA suggests that we are to look at any aggravating or mitigating circumstances which apply, and those factors are codified in Nevada Supreme Court Rule 102.5. As to the aggravation, SCR 102.5 sub 1, the State Bar believes that the following, the following aggravating factors apply to this instant proceeding. First, sub 1A, which is prior disciplinary offenses.

I see that Kristi had just circulated the affidavit of prior discipline. And based on this,

- there was a public reprimand issued to Mr. Leventhal on August 23, 2016 for violations of RPC 1.5, fees;

  1.7, conflict of interest to current clients; 1.8, conflict of interest to current clients: Specific rules; 5.4, professional independence of a lawyer; and 8.4, misconduct.

  And just a SparkNotes version of the public
  - And just a SparkNotes version of the public reprimand. Mr. Leventhal was retained by a Charlene Ellis. There was a flat fee retainer agreement executed between Mr. Leventhal and Miss Ellis. The fee agreement stated that the fee was nonrefundable and was, quote, fully -- paid in full by issuance of quitclaim deed, APN 41-471-13, Nye County, Nevada without encumbrance.

In that public reprimand it states that,
"The nonrefundable fee agreements and subsequent deed transfer failed to comply with the rules of professional conduct, as well as the guidelines set forth in the State Bar of Nevada Standing Committee on Ethics and Professional Responsibility Formal Opinion 15 and 37."

It also stated that Mr. Leventhal "failed to reasonably explain the terms of the fee agreement to Ellis in a manner she could properly understand, and you failed to provide Ellis a reasonable opportunity to retain the advice of independent counsel as to whether it would be in her best interest to enter into the agreement.

"The transaction was also unreasonable in light of your failure to provide the promised services to Ellis. Although you argued she improperly fired you, in fact, it created a conflict of interest with Ellis by using Zane to evict her from her home, which resulted in your foreseeable termination."

The State Bar also believe that sub 1B applies, dishonest or selfish motive; 1C, a pattern of misconduct; sub G, refusal to acknowledge the wrongful nature of conduct; and sub I, substantial experience in the practice of law. It looks like Mr. Leventhal was barred here in the state of Nevada September 25, 2003.

And as to mitigation, Supreme Court Rule 102.5 sub 2, the State Bar finds that there are no mitigating factors that apply in this case. And the State Bar also did want to briefly touch upon Supreme Court Rule 102.5 sub 2 sub C which states that factors which should not be considered as either aggravating or mitigating factors including sub C, withdrawal of grievance against the lawyer.

Taking all of that into consideration, the 1 State Bar would recommend that the panel impose a 2 one- to two-year suspension for Mr. Leventhal, or 3 whatever term that the panel sees fit, as well as to 4 impose Supreme Court Rule 120, costs, for the 5 suspension. And with that the State Bar will submit. 6 7 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Okav. Mr. Clark? 8 MR. CLARK: Thank you, Mr. Chair. The State 9 Bar is essentially telling you that for this conduct Mr. Leventhal is a threat to the public. He's a 10 threat to his clients. And look at what he's done. 11 12 The purpose of 1.8 is to prevent overreaching, taking 13 advantage. As he says in his -- in the ABA standards, cause injury or probable injury to the 14 15 client. I would submit to you that on Amalia 16 17 Sosa-Avila there utterly was no injury to her. There 18 was no injury at all. There is no selfish or 19 dishonest motive to that. He took collateral so that 20 she would pay him. She never paid him. He wasn't looking to get these items. He wasn't looking to 21 22 get, you know, the Hope Diamond with this. He was 23 going to give it all back to her, and that's 24 undisputed testimony. 25 The panel has found that he, regardless of whether it was stolen, he should have followed the forms of 1.8, and I would still submit that his fee agreement does that. But more importantly if this is a violation, if accepting as collateral ultimately stolen property is a violation, I would submit that this is a technical one at best. I still disagree. I think it's been a law, it isn't but the panel has found that it is.

But what's the sanction for that? She came into his office crying. She was in warrant. She was going to lose her children. He said, Okay, fine, I'll represent you. He gets the warrant quashed and she says, I can't pay you now but I'm going to give you something to get you started. He goes, okay, fine. Should he have done that? No. Is he going to do that again? No. But he didn't profit from this, from this collateral. He didn't -- he didn't take advantage of her from this collateral.

So as I said in my trial brief, the sanction must fit the violation, and it must be individually tailored. And but this one for Amalia Sosa-Avila, there was no selfish motive. He didn't get any money off it. He wasn't looking for money. He was looking to get her out of warrant, to quash the warrant so she wouldn't go to jail, but he wanted her to pay

1 him. She never paid him. So what did he do? 2 didn't get paid but yet he still got her out of warrant. He still got her free. That's what he did. 3 And then what else did he do in mitigation? 4 5 When he discovered that they were stolen property, 6 and that is an undisputed fact, he did the right thing and turned it over to the authorities, again 7 8 without saying who he got it from so he could protect 9 his client, who again never paid him. She was not injured here. She benefitted 10 He's the one who's left being punished. She's 11 12 not even being punished for possession of stolen property. He's the one being punished because he 13 helped her out and got her out of warrant. 14 15 We can have a disagreement as to whether or not this is a violation at all; however, if it's a 16 17 violation, I would say in the scheme of things in 18 what we need to teach the Bar, what we need to teach 19 our members, and what we need to teach the public, 20 this is not worthy of a suspension. It just isn't. He didn't follow the forms, and she gave him 21 22 stolen property. He's got to live with that, and 23 that's what he's doing now. But it's not like he's a predator out there taking advantage of her. 24 got -- he got set up on this one. He shouldn't have

He should have followed the forms. 1 done it. 2 should, you know what, you know, I don't -- I don't do collateral any more. I don't do any of this. 3 don't do anything but money, and she would have gone 4 to warrant and she would have been arrested and she 5 would have lost her kids. Instead he said, I'll help 6 7 you out. And he did what he was retained to do, 8 wasn't paid for it, but he did what he was retained There's no selfish motive here. 9 to do.

As to Zan Mitrov, he testified that he did this because he was his friend. He didn't testify that Mr. Leventhal used his good offices to impose this on him. And remember what he said. He said, I didn't rent -- I didn't rent the Escalade because he had the Viper, I rented it because I chose to. I chose to rent it. So it's not like his violation caused that impact.

And he had the Maserati back. And the panel found there was no violation of that. So he chose on his own to rent the Escalade. And then what's he do? He puts -- he puts that bill into his grievance to get Mr. Leventhal's attention, as he says. And then he says, And now we're all good. He goes, I didn't ask him for the money back, he agreed to pay me.

We again still don't know what he's talking

- He didn't pay him. But Mr. Mitrov did this 1 about. 2 on his own accord. It's not that like Mr. Leventhal abused his office and put pressure on Mr. Mitrov. 3 Mr. Mitrov said he didn't feel any pressure. 4 yes, he borrowed the car. He didn't know how long he 5 He drive it once. Mr. Mitrov said it looked had it. 6 like it had never been driven. It was in the shop. 7 8 It didn't deprive him of a car because he said he 9 always had a car. He had the Maserati. 10 So, yes, did he take a possessory interest in this? You found that he has. I would submit to 11 12 you that it's among these two, one who buys and drives vintage cars and Mr. Leventhal, this is not a 13 14 suspension-worthy event. He's not a predator. not out there needing to be removed from the practice 15 16 of law. 17 And remember what he did for Mr. Mitrov. He 18 got him a good deal when he was facing felonies. 19 got him -- he got it reduced. He got him a deal for 20 restitution outside the order so it couldn't be court
  - So he did what he was retained to do. He did it well. He didn't benefit financially from this. He got to drive the car once, and then it was enforced, and Mr. Mitrov walked away from that.

in the shop and he, you know, I guess he forgot about it. But should he have filed the forms? Yes. Okay, you should have filed those forms. But this is not a suspension-worthy infraction because the impact on the consequences are not suspension-worthy.

He received a public five years ago on many violations, and this is what he agreed to, this was a conditional guilty plea, he pled to this, he agreed to -- he accepted responsibility for it. He said, I'll take my lumps for this. It wasn't contested. He didn't fight it, he agreed to it.

And there was a 1.8 violation there, but all the other ones are not present here. It's just a 1.8 violation. And that was a house, this is stolen property and the temporary use of a car. I would submit to you that he is not -- he's not getting worse. He is not down this road and not learning from his mistakes and getting worse such that we have to ramp up the suspension, ramp up the discipline for a suspension.

What he's doing is he's got these two small matters. It's not like he had the last time with the house for which he got a public, all right. He agreed to a 1.8 violation for a house and got a public.

1 Here he's got a 1.8 violation for accepting 2 as collateral stolen property that he later turned over to the police and for driving a vehicle from a 3 client who never thought it was part of his 4 representation and didn't even miss the car. 5 wanted it back, but it didn't prevent him from 6 driving the other cars. 7 8 So we would submit that this is not a 9 suspension case. We would submit that this is, 10 frankly, a letter of reprimand case, at most a public, but I think it -- I don't -- it does not 11 12 rise -- he's not a threat to the public here. He's not demonstrated that he's a threat to the public. 13 14 He was doing them a favor. He did them good work. 15 And I think that under these circumstances, 16 under what he was found quilty and what his 17 violations are, it does not land in suspension. 18 Thank you. 19 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: For the State Bar? 20 MR. GOSIOCO: Nothing further, Mr. Chairman. 21 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Mr. Clark, I quess my qut 22 reaction is in light of this 2016 public reprimand 23 for, at least in part the same violation, it seems to 24 me that that did not work to deter respondent's 25 conduct in this situation. He got reprimanded for

1 taking property from a client without going through the, without complying with the Rule 1.8, and then 2 just a few years later he's doing the exact same 3 And I quess my concern is a reprimand 4 apparently wasn't enough the first time, but talk me 5 through that. 6 I would -- thank you, Mr. Chair. 7 MR. CLARK: 8 I appreciate the chance to respond to your concerns. 9 Remember that the public reprimand was for a host of 1.8, 1.5, 5.4, 8.4 and then warranted a 10 violations: 11 public. And again for the narrow 1.8, it was a 12 She signed over the deed to a house. And, I mean, if you look up possessory 13 14 interest, that always comes up with a property 15 interest. And, in fact, that's what happened here. 16 So he's not doing that again. It's not -- it's not 17 the same equivalency of getting a house signed over; 18 whereas, here he says, Fine, I'll guash your warrant, 19 and if you want to give me collateral until you get 20 the money to pay me, I'm okay with that. Or, fine, I'll defend you in this felony as long as you pay the 21 22 restitution and can I drive your car. He didn't kick 23 anybody out of their house. I would suggest -- and, again, if this is 24 25 the only violation, I would submit to you that he has learned from that one. It's certainly not on that scale. And I still maintain I think they're very -- they're quite technical. It's not an equivalent and it's not amplification of his prior misconduct, so he has learned.

He is learning and this is nowhere near of the scope of that misconduct, nowhere near the scope of that client harm. And in this case, again, he was helping his clients. He did good work for his clients; whereas, in the other one, the prior public reprimand talks about, well, did he actually follow through on it. Here he did. He did his job.

And the Avila Sosa one, he did it without pay. And in the Zan Mitrov one he actually didn't get fully paid on that one either, and neither did the victim get their restitution. But he did his job.

So that's why I would say -- you could say, well, we have to take a step up because it's the same violation, I would submit to you that it's not the same violation. It's the same rules violation, but the characteristic of the two are very different.

And because this one is such a diminished one, these two, it doesn't warrant an escalation of discipline that the State Bar wants, suspension, a two-year

1 suspension which would require him to apply for 2 reinstatement, so that adds another 18 months to it. So I would submit on that. 3 Thank you. CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Mr. Clark, I apologize if 4 I missed it, but do you have a recommended sanction 5 that we should consider? 6 7 MR. CLARK: I'd recommend -- I think for 8 Avila Sosa I think it should be a caution. It's a 9 technical violation, but the panel is empowered to say even with a violation we can impose no sanction, 10 but a caution. This is -- this is an odd one, I 11 12 would submit to you. And as for Zan Mitrov, I would think a reprimand in that regard would be sufficient. 13 14 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Okay. Mr. Moore, any 15 questions? 16 COMMISSIONER MOORE: No sir. 17 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Mr. Lee? 18 COMMISSIONER LEE: I also echo Mr. Edwards' 19 concern related to the prior discipline. I didn't hear you address the aggravating or mitigating 20 21 circumstances, you know, category by category like 2.2 Bar Counsel did, other than perhaps the prior 23 discipline. If you want to put anything on the record related to the aggravating or mitigating 24 25 circumstances, that would probably be helpful.

Okay. I thank you for that. 1 MR. CLARK: 2 Under 102.5(2), circumstances in mitigation, absence of a dishonest motive or -- dishonest motive, either 3 Absence of a selfish motive in Miss Sosa-Avila. 4 wav. You can argue that he did act out of self interest 5 for the vehicle. 6 7 No personal problems. I think he did make 8 timely, good faith efforts to rectify the 9 consequences of his misconduct with Sosa-Avila. He found out they were stolen and he returned the stolen 10 property to the police so they could do the right 11 12 thing. And, again, she's gone. Full and free disclosure to the disciplinary 13 authority. Yes, I took the collateral. 14 15 borrowed the car to drive it. He didn't hide that. He was not unforthcoming with the State Bar. 16 I know 17 the panel has problems with while his response said 18 one thing, which was more damning than what he said 19 under oath, but I think the fact that he didn't, you know, the drone was not part of this, and his 20 assistant confirmed that, that just goes to his, you 21 22 know, he just dismissed it. 23 But when the truth was told when he filed his verification, he files his declaration he said, 24 25 look, I didn't take the drone as collateral, it was a gift. And there's nothing to dispute the fact that it was, in fact, a gift, other than his misstatement in his letter to Louise Watson.

I think his character and reputation came out when he said he's been practicing here since, you know, 2000. He was a U.S. Attorney. He, you know, worked for Kamala Harris. He, you know, he's been a prosecutor. He's been a longtime criminal defense attorney. He does good work.

I don't believe there's any delay in the proceedings. I think he does have remorse. You talked to him when he said, look, you know, he's still concerned that he's the only one being punished for the stolen property. He's still concerned that Mr. Mitrov said, look, we're all good, we're all good, I don't want to do anything else, and he's still being punished for that or being disciplined for that.

But I think he does realize that, look, you know, I won't -- I won't do this anymore. I'm sorry I did it, if I didn't spell this out, you know, in 2020 when time stands still, I'm -- you know, he's like I probably should have, and that's on him and now he's going to have to live with that.

So I think those are the mitigating factors,

as said along with what actually landed on the
     clients, along with what work he did do for them, along with the fact that he didn't really profit from instance of misconduct among a number of violations. 1 2 I quess do you agree with Mr. Clark that we can do I guess two -- one type of sanction for Count 3 1 and a different type of sanction for Count 2 or do 4 they need to be combined? What's your take? 5 And MR. GOSIOCO: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. 6 my position on that is I believe that both instances 7 8 with regard to Miss Sosa-Avila and Mr. Mitrov are 9 very similar in nature. I think that it would be an error to apportion one type of discipline for 10 Miss Sosa-Avila and one different sanction for 11 Mr. Mitrov. I think because the nature of both 12 grievances are very similar, both 1.8 violations, 13 both very similar as far as the rule violation, I 14 believe that there should be just one sanction for 15 both violations. 16 17 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Okay. Mr. Clark, any 18 response to that? 19 MR. CLARK: As I put in my brief, ABA 20 standard 1.3 says that the sanctions must be tailored. We've looked at these -- these have been 21 They're not 22 tried as separate violations. 2.3 Mr. Mitrov showed up, you know, intertwined. Miss Sosa-Avila did not show up. I think they're 24 25 clearly distinct. They clearly have different

1 impacts on the client. So I think -- I certainly think you can. 2 certainly think that that's a measured thing to look 3 at because the sanction must conform to the 4 violation, and it must conform to the attorney's 5 individual conduct in each. So I think -- I think 6 it's perfectly acceptable to do that. 7 8 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Okay. Mr. Moore, 9 anything else? 10 Mr. Lee? 11 COMMISSIONER LEE: Bar Counsel, it seems to 12 go from a public reprimand to a two-year suspension is quite a jump. How do you justify the two-year 13 suspension? And if you've already addressed it, I 14 15 appreciate that, it just seems to be quite a jump. 16 MR. GOSIOCO: Right. Thank you. And as 17 Mr. Edwards and you had stated, our concern is 18 essentially in 2016 Mr. Leventhal had received a 19 public reprimand for numerous violations but 20 including -- one of them being the same exact RPC violation that we are, you know, discussing today. 21 2.2 think that the State Bar, the State Bar's goal is 23 really to protect the public, not necessarily punish 24 the lawyer. 25 But as the panel members had stated, 2016

1 was not that long ago. The evidence in this case states that Mr. Mitrov retained Mr. Leventhal in 2 2019, I believe that was the same case for 3 Miss Sosa-Avila, but he was already reprimanded in 4 2016, and one of those violations was for 1.8 5 violation. And in that order it mentioned 6 7 essentially the same things here, he didn't inform 8 the client reasonably of the terms in writing, didn't 9 have the opportunity to seek independent counsel, there was no informed consent. 10 So it's clear that Mr. Leventhal didn't 11 12 learn from this public reprimand. And as far as the State Bar's recommendation, as I stated, I believe a 13 14 one- to two-year suspension would be appropriate, or 15 whatever the panel deems is appropriate in this case. 16 COMMISSIONER LEE: I have no more questions. 17 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Okay. Anything else, Mr. Clark? 18 19 MR. CLARK: I would just say that the cases 20 that talk about violations of 1.8 speak to business 21 transactions, they speak to getting loans from 22 clients on sweetheart terms, they speak to, you know, 23 taking advantage of clients. And I don't think in these two cases you have that. You don't have -- I 24 25 mean, what's the cost of the car? There's no cost to collateral because nobody kept it. The cost was to him.

So the fact that he, well, he didn't learn from prior mistake, this isn't that mistake. It's a 1.8 violation but there's a whole range of 1.8 violations. You have to look at, you know, what actually happened, and you have to look at, you know, what is this worth. What would we have to do here to protect the public? What would we have to do here so that other lawyers don't do this, you know, don't take collateral and then get their client out of warrant and then get stiffed. You know, borrow a car for a while but then give it back.

And I don't think -- I just -- I don't think that in order to send a message, in order to correct his behavior that you have to, you know, put him on suspension for two years. I don't think this is -- I just -- I don't find a suspension is appropriate for what you need to correct, let me put it that way.

You don't need to suspend him and take him out of circulation, remove his livelihood in order to say, you know what, don't take collateral, you know, and then turn around, you know what, you know, have your clients, if they're going to lend you a car on their own accord, not as a lawyer, you know, put it

1 in writing, okay. Just remember to do that so that your clients can have a more informed consent. 2 Just do that. 3 But at the end of the day these are 4 violations of the forms. But it's not the injury, I 5 6 would submit to you, that the rule is designed to 7 prevent on a larger scale that would bring disrepute 8 to lawyers and disrepute to the integrity of the 9 legal system, you know, that a big loan would do or frankly even, you know, getting the house. 10 This is not that -- this is not that violation. 11 It is the 12 same violation, it's not the same severity of violation. Thank you. 13 All right. 14 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Thank vou. 15 We will -- did the State Bar have something they 16 wanted to say in response? 17 MR. GOSIOCO: Yes, if possible, 18 Mr. Chairman. Just -- just one minute. I would like 19 to comment on the mitigating factors that Mr. Clark 20 had mentioned in response to panel member Lee's 21 injury. 22 Mr. Clark mentioned several mitigating factors under SCR 102.5 sub 2. 23 The State Bar disagrees with each one of those mitigating factors, 24 25 but specifically I just did want to point out two, particularly 102.5 sub 2 sub C, which is personal or 1 2 emotional problems. I believe what I heard Mr. Clark testify --3 state was that Mr. Leventhal does not have any 4 personal or emotional problems. If my -- if 5 that's -- if that was a correct statement by 6 Mr. Clark, then I would, I would argue that sub C 7 8 does not apply as mitigation. 9 MR. CLARK: I didn't say that it did. sorry, if I misspoke, I apologize. I didn't say that 10 I say, well, he doesn't have personal or 11 it did. 12 emotional problems. I was just talking out loud. Ι apologize if I was confusing. 13 Then I'll move on. 14 MR. GOSIOCO: Okay. then the next subsection, sub D, a timely good faith 15 effort to make restitution or to rectify consequences 16 of misconduct. Our position is that Mr. Leventhal 17 18 did not make timely good faith effort to make restitution or to rectify the consequences of his 19 misconduct, especially for Mr. Mitrov. 20 21 Mr. Mitrov, as we saw in his -- heard in his 22 testimony that he asked numerous times to get the 23 Viper back. We saw the text messages of the numerous 24 text messages to Mr. Leventhal from Mr. Mitrov asking 25 for the Viper back, and it was only until Mr. Mitrov filed a grievance against Mr. Leventhal that 1 2 Mr. Leventhal returned the Viper. And so, therefore, the State Bar's position is sub D especially should 3 not apply as a mitigating factor. And with that the 4 State Bar submits. 5 CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: What about full and free 6 7 disclosure? MR. GOSIOCO: I'll submit to that. I have 8 9 no comment to that. CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: Okay. Thank you. 10 Let's 11 go off the record. 12 (A recess was taken.) CHAIRMAN EDWARDS: We are back on the 13 14 The panel has now deliberated on the penalty phase of this proceeding. We started analyzing the 15 lawyer's mental state, and we believe the mental 16 state was knowingly. The respondent knowingly agreed 17 18 to accept property from Miss Sosa-Avila as security but didn't comply with 1.8 and knowingly kept 19 possession of Mr. Mitrov's Viper after he repeatedly 20 asked to have it returned. 21 22 As for injury, as to Miss Sosa-Avila we find little or no injury because the property that was 23 conveyed to respondent was not actually hers. As to 24 25 Mr. Mitrov and the Viper, we find injury or potential

1 | injury. And I guess maybe more precisely we find 2 | injury.

He was without his Viper for almost six months after he requested it back, and he was, during the summer, forced to rent a vehicle because he did not have that Viper. Despite the fact that he had another vehicle that he could have used, that vehicle did not have air conditioning, which is why he rented another one. So we believe he had -- that Mr. Mitrov suffered an actual injury.

Based on those findings, we believe that ABA standard 4.32 applies, and that the baseline sanction is a suspension. Analyzed the aggravating and mitigating circumstances. For aggravating circumstances we find prior disciplinary offenses.

We find a selfish motive. At least two of the panel members were concerned that the keeping of Mr. Mitrov's car for such a long period of time made it look like he was holding the car hostage in able to -- in an effort to get payment from the client.

We find a pattern of misconduct based on these two counts here. Some of the panel members had concerns about Mr. Leventhal's credibility in his testimony, but we did not find it sufficient to find an aggravating circumstance of submission of false evidence or false statement, that we don't believe 1 2 that one applies. We believe that there's been a refusal to 3 acknowledge the wrongful nature of the conduct. 4 Didn't get a sense that Mr. Leventhal really 5 understood that this was a big deal, especially in 6 light of his past conduct. 7 8 And the last aggravating circumstance is 9 substantial experience in the practice of law. 10 As for mitigating circumstances, we find that Mr. Leventhal had full and free disclosure to 11 12 the disciplinary authority and a cooperative attitude 13 toward the proceeding. We did not consider the fact that Mr. Mitrov 14 15 withdrew his grievance, and we likewise did not consider that Mr. Sosa-Avila did not appear to 16 17 testify today at the hearing. 18 With those findings, we believe the 19 appropriate sanction is a one-year suspension 20 suspended to go into effect only if respondent 21 receives a reprimand or worse over the next five 22 years. 23 In addition, over that five-year period, the respondent needs to do one additional hour of ethics 24 25 CLE a year and one additional hour of law practice
