U.S. COURT OF APPEALS

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS

FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT

In re: TERRY L. WIKE, Esquire, Admitted to the bar of the Ninth Circuit: April 28, 2010, Respondent.	No. 20-80049 State Bar of Nevada No. 79305 ORDER

On March 11, 2020, the court ordered respondent Terry L. Wike, Esq., to show cause why he should not be reciprocally suspended from the practice of law based on his ineligibility to practice law in the State of Nevada. On March 19, 2020, respondent advised this court, in writing, that he agrees to a concurrent reciprocal suspension. Accordingly, respondent Wike is suspended from the practice of law in this court. The Clerk shall amend this court's records to so reflect respondent's suspension.

After termination of the suspension, respondent may petition this court for reinstatement using the docket number 20-80049 and include a showing that he is a member of good standing of the bar of the State of Nevada.

The Clerk shall serve this order electronically.

FOR THE COURT:

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

In re: Terry L. Wike
Attorney at Law, Bar No. 7211

Case No. 2:20-ms-00017

ORDER OF SUSPENSION

On March 16, 2020, this Court entered an Order to Show Cause ("OSC"), mailed via certified mail with a certified mail return receipt date of delivery of March 17, 2020. (ECF No. 1) The OSC provided Mr. Wike with 30 days to respond with reasons why the Court should not enter a reciprocal order of suspension following Mr. Wike's suspension by the Nevada Supreme Court. (Id.) Mr. Wike filed a response on April 6, 2020, agreeing to a concurrent order of reciprocal suspension in response to the OSC. (ECF No. 3.) The Court will thus enter this reciprocal order of suspension.

It is therefore ordered that Terry L. Wike, Bar No. 7211, is hereby suspended from practice in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada.

Wike Cross-Claimants are informed and believe, and thereon allege that the Copper Sands HOA, dealt with Wike Cross-Claimants breached the covenant of good faith and fair dealing by failing to comply with the terms of Retainer Agreement entered into by the Copper Sands HOA and its predecessors in interest.

71. As a proximate and legal result of the Copper Sands HOA'S breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, Wike Cross-Claimants have been caused, and will continue to be caused, damages as more fully described herein above, including, but not limited to interest on attorney fees and costs in pursuing the Copper Sands HOA'S claim, all to the general detriment and damage to Wike Cross-Claimants in an amount to be proven at the time of trial.

72. As a further proximate and legal result of the Copper Sands HOA'S breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing, Wike Cross-Claimants have incurred, and will continue to incur, expenses, including, but not limited to, attorney fees and costs in pursuing this Complaint, all in an amount to be established at the time of trial.

73. As a result of the Copper Sands HOA'S breach, Wike Cross-Claimants have been damaged in an amount in excess of $15,000.00, plus interest.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Money Due and Owing)

76. Wike Cross-Claimants repeat and reallege the preceding and subsequent paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

77. Nevada courts routinely recognize Plaintiff's Third Claim for Relief for "Money Due and Owing" as a cognizable claim in Nevada. See, e.g., M.C. Multi-Family Dev., L.L.C. v. Crestdale Associates, Ltd., 193 P.3d 536, 547 (Nev. 2008); Las Vegas Fetish & Fantasy Halloween Ball, Inc. v. Ahern Rentals, Inc., 182 P.3d 764, 766 (Nev. 2008).

78. Wike Cross-Claimants have fully performed under the term of the contract (Retainer Agreement) with the Copper Sands HOA, and the Copper Sands HOA has not.

79. The Copper Sands HOA had an obligation to compensate Wike Cross-Claimants for rendering legal representation and for costs Wike Cross-Claimants incurred for such services.

80. As a legal and proximate result of the Copper Sands HOA failing to pay for attorney fees and costs, has caused damage to the Wike Cross-Claimants.

81. As a result of the Copper Sands HOA'S failure to pay attorney fees and costs due and owing, Wike Cross-Claimants have been damaged in an amount in excess of $15,000.00, plus interest.

82. Wike Cross-Claimants have been required to retain the services of the SEEGMILLER & ASSOCIATES to prosecute this matter, and are entitled to an award of reasonable attorney fees and costs based thereon.

83. Wike Cross-Claimants incorporate by reference, as if set forth herein, the particular statement of damages described in the prayer for relief.

VI.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Quantum Meruit/Unjust Enrichment)

84. Wike Cross-Claimants repeat and reallege the preceding and subsequent paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

85. If the Court finds that there is no valid agreement between the Wike Cross-Claimants and the Copper Sands HOA, Wike Cross-Claimants are entitled to recover under the theory of quantum meruit/unjust enrichment. See Nevada Indus. Dev. v. Benedetti, 741 P.2d 802, 804 n.2 (Nev. 1987); See also, Unionamerica Mtg. v. McDonald, 626 P.2d 1272, 1273 (Nev. 1981).

86. Wike Cross-Claimants performed services that conferred a value upon the Copper Sands HOA, making it liable for disgorgement of that value in Quantum Meruit.

87. Wike Cross-Claimants conferred a value upon the Copper Sands HOA by representing it in the claim over the past ten (10) years, that involved and two court actions: 1) an action in the United States District Court, District of Nevada, entitled Copper Sands Homeowners Copper Sands HOA, Inc., v. DFT, Inc., a California corporation, dba The Cannon Management Company, Case No. 2:10-cv-00510-GMN-NJK; and 2) an action in the Clark County District Court, entitled Copper Sands Homeowners Copper Sands HOA, Inc., v. Flamingo 94, LLC, Case No. 08-A573517.

88. Wike Cross-Claimants incurred expert costs in representing the Copper Sands HOA, that conferred a value upon the Copper Sands HOA by providing the Copper Sands HOA expert reports that identified the nature and extent of the: construction defects; conversion defects; cost of repairing the construction and conversion defects; deficiencies in the amount of current reserves; deficiencies in the reserve studies; deficiencies in the amount of dues/special assessments necessary to collect from the unit owners for repair of the Subject Property; and deficiencies for the disclosures to new purchasers of the units in the Subject Property.

89. The Copper Sands HOA appreciated the benefits conferred by the Wike Cross-Claimants, during the Wike Cross-Claimants' ten (10) years of representation, and in excess of $1,000,000.00 in costs were advanced by Wike Cross-Claimants that enable the Copper Sands HOA to determine the nature and extent of problems affecting the Subject Property and the Copper Sands HOA.

90. The Copper Sands HOA accepted and retained the benefits conferred by the Wike Cross-Claimants, as the Copper Sands HOA has been represented in its claim, and it has the expert reports and information necessary to disclose to board members, owners and purchasers accurate information as to the condition of the Subject Property, and for the funding of reserves for the community.

91. Wike Cross-Claimants are informed and believe, and thereon allege the Copper Sands HOA has failed and refused, and continue to refuse to tender its performance, under the principles of quantum meruit/unjust enrichment in that reasonable attorney fees and costs were not paid, and have not been paid, by the Copper Sands HOA.

92. As a proximate and legal result of the Copper Sands HOA'S actions, Wike Cross-Claimants have been caused, and will continue to be caused, damages as more fully described herein above, including, but not limited to interest on attorney fees and costs in pursuing the Copper Sands HOA'S claim, all to the general detriment and damage to Wike Cross-Claimants in an amount to be proven at the time of trial.

93. As a further proximate and legal result of the Copper Sands HOA'S actions, Wike Cross-Claimants have incurred, and will continue to incur, expenses, including, but not limited to, attorney fees and costs in pursuing this Complaint, all in an amount to be established at the time of trial.

94. Wike Cross-Claimants are informed and believe, and thereon allege that the various agreements between the parties contain an implied covenant, that the parties will deal fairly with each other and in good faith.

95. As a result of the Copper Sands HOA'S breach, Wike Cross-Claimants have been damaged in an amount in excess of $15,000.00, plus interest.

96. Wike Cross-Claimants incorporate by reference, as if set forth herein, the particular statement of damages described in the prayer for relief.

97. Wike Cross-Claimants have been required to retain the services of the SEEGMILLER & ASSOCIATES to prosecute this matter, and are entitled to an award of reasonable attorney fees and costs based thereon.

WHEREFORE, Wike Cross-Claimants repeat and reallege the preceding and subsequent paragraphs as though fully set forth herein, and pray for judgment as follows:

1. General, special damages and punitive damages as provided by law, including but not limited to, attorney fees and costs, interest on attorney fees and costs incurred under the terms of the Retainer Agreement or reasonably determined, and any and all damages proximately caused thereby, in a sum to be determined according to proof;

PETITION FOR REINSTATEMENT

COMES NOW, Petitioner, TERRY L. WIKE, pro se, submits this Petition for Reinstatement to the practice of law, pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 116. This Petition for Reinstatement is based upon the papers and pleadings on file herein, the attached exhibits, the following memorandum of points and authorities, any supplements thereto, and the arguments of counsel at the time set for hearing this matter.

A. FACTS

1. Terry L. Wike ("Petitioner") was licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada on October 12, 1999, after graduating from Cleveland Marshall College of Law.

2. Upon passing the bar examination, Petitioner began practicing law at the law firm of Thorndal, Armstrong, Delk, Balkenbush, and Eisinger, and later with the law firm of Mainor & Harris. He subsequently opened his own firm in Las Vegas, which he had been operating for over 15 years, until his suspension.

3. On October 8, 2020, the Supreme Court of Nevada entered an Order of Suspension, suspending Petitioner from the practice of law for 6 months and one day, based on two disciplinary orders regarding the safekeeping of client property. The first order was issued on entered on February 27, 2020, and the second order was issued on October 8, 2020. The Court found that a mitigating factor was Petitioner's timely good faith effort to ensure that all clients and lienholders had been paid, which Petitioner did ensure before the State Bar began its investigations.

4. In addition to the payment of administrative costs, the Supreme Court ordered that Petitioner continue his probationary period imposed on February 27, 2020, which required Petitioner to be mentored by an attorney and to provide quarterly reports to his mentor and to the State Bar until February 27, 2022.

5. Petitioner has complied with Supreme Court's Order of Suspension, except for the payment of administrative costs which is more fully discussed infra.

6. Petitioner has remained active during his suspension, both in his personal life as well as with his studies of the law, including CLE classes, reviewing legal books and materials.

7. Petitioner has also taken the time of his suspension as an opportunity to voluntarily improve his accounting practices, by personally learning the details of Abacus Case Management Accounting and Quickbook Accounting programs to improve tracking and reconciliation of all client funds and business accounts.

8. In accord with the first disciplinary order, Petitioner has also worked with his mentor by providing his mentor and the State Bar quarterly reports detailing the accurate distribution of all client funds. These quarterly reports demonstrate Petitioner's ability, diligence and sincere efforts to safeguard client property.

9. Petitioner has also complied with his Continuing Legal Education requirements during his suspension.

10. Petitioner has not operated a law firm or shared in any legal fees while suspended. In fact, his firm has ceased all operations since the suspension.

11. Petitioner recognizes the seriousness and wrongfulness of his conduct and will not engage in any such conduct in the future.

12. Petitioner respectfully petitions the Board and the Supreme Court of Nevada for reinstatement of his license as set forth in this Petition.

B. LEGAL ARGUMENT

Rule 116. Reinstatement.

1. Order of supreme court required. An attorney suspended as discipline for more than 6 months may not resume practice unless reinstated by order of the supreme court.
2. Procedure for reinstatement. Petitions for reinstatement by a suspended attorney shall be filed with bar counsel's office, which shall promptly refer the petition to the chair of the appropriate disciplinary board. The chair or vice chair shall promptly refer the petition to a hearing panel, which shall, within 60 days after referral, conduct a hearing. An attorney may be reinstated or readmitted only if the attorney demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence the following criteria, or if not, presents good and sufficient reason why the attorney should nevertheless be reinstated or readmitted:

(a) Full compliance with the terms and conditions of all prior disciplinary orders;

(b) The attorney has neither engaged in nor attempted to engage in the unauthorized practice of law during the period of suspension;

(c) Any physical or mental disability or infirmity existing at the time of suspension has been removed; if alcohol or other drug abuse was a causative factor in the attorney's > misconduct, the attorney has pursued appropriate treatment, has abstained from the use of alcohol or other drugs for a stated period of time, generally not less than one year, and is likely to continue to abstain from alcohol or other drugs;

> (d) The attorney recognizes the wrongfulness and seriousness of the misconduct resulting in the suspension;
> (e) The attorney has not engaged in any other professional misconduct since suspension;
> (f) Notwithstanding the conduct for which the attorney was disciplined, the attorney has the requisite honesty and integrity to practice law; and
> (g) The attorney has kept informed about recent developments in the law and is competent to practice.
> Within 60 days after the hearing concludes, bar counsel shall file the record of the proceedings, together with the panel's findings and recommendation, with the supreme court. Receipt of the record shall be acknowledged in writing by the supreme court clerk.

1. Petitioner has complied with the terms and conditions of all prior disciplinary orders, except for the payment of the administrative costs.

The Supreme Court has entered two disciplinary order pertaining to this matter. The first was the Order of Suspension entered on February 27, 2020, in case No. 79305. In that case, the Order of Suspension was for two years, with all but the first three months stayed, commencing from the date of the order. During the stayed suspension, Petitioner was ordered to: (1) be mentored by an attorney who practices in personal injury law and is knowledgeable in its accounting practices; (2) submit quarterly reports to his mentor and to the State Bar; (3) be subject to periodic audits; and (4) pay the administrative costs of the disciplinary proceeding. See Exhibit 1, Mentor Agreement and Quarterly Reports. Petitioner has complied with the order, except for the payment of administrative costs as discussed infra.

The second disciplinary order was the Order of Suspension entered on October 8, 2020, in case No. 81340. In that case, the Order of Suspension was for 6 months and one day. Petitioner was also ordered to pay the administrative costs of the disciplinary proceedings, which is discussed infra. Since that time, Petitioner has shut down his practice and has neither attempted to nor engaged in the practice of law. Thus, Petitioner has not engaged in any professional misconduct since the suspension.

(a) There exists good and sufficient reasons as to why Petitioner has not paid the administrative costs which support his Reinstatement.

Pursuant to SCR 116(2), "an attorney who cannot demonstrate the criteria still may be reinstated if [he] 'presents good and sufficient reason why [he] should be resinstated'". See also Shoen, 136 Nev., Adv. Op. 30, 464 P.3d at 403-04 (2020). Shoen involved the disciplinary panel's chair striking a petition for reinstatement when the attorney failed to comply with prior disciplinary orders to pay the entire amount of $25,000.00 in restitution to her clients before filing the petition for reinstatement. Shoen successfully demonstrated to the hearing panel and to the Court, that the failure to reinstate her to the practice of law for not paying the restitution in advance of her petition, not only served as an additional punishment but diminished her ability to reach her full earning capacity to pay the restitution. The Court found these reasons presented good and sufficient basis for Shoen's failure to comply with the disciplinary order under the revisions to SCR 116(2), and thus she was reinstated. Id. Similarly, the financial situation faced by Petitioner, presents good and sufficient reasons for his failure to pay the administrative costs before seeking reinstatement.

Presently, Petitioner is undergoing severe financial hardship and is respectfully requesting an extension of time to pay the administrative costs of the proceedings, or in the appropriate, the waiver of the administrative costs due to Petitioner's recent bankruptcy. Petitioner has been a solo practitioner for approximately 17 years, and is currently unemployed. During the period of suspension, Petitioner has exhausted his limited savings and sold personal assets, which has detrimentally affected Petitioner and his family, both financially and emotionally. His taxes returns for the past two years demonstrates the severity of his financial hardship, in 2019 his income was -37,083.00 and in 2020 his income was -$4,541.00. See Exhibit 2, Taxes returns for 2019 and 2020. Petitioner is currently 7 months behind in his mortgage, and is in danger of foreclosure. See Exhibit 3, Shellpoint Mortgage Statement. Lastly, Petitioner has recently filed for bankruptcy in an effort to alleviate his financial hardship. See Exhibit 4, Bankruptcy Petition Case No. 21-11982. Accordingly, requiring the payment of the administrative costs prior to reinstatement in this case, is more akin to a punishment rather than a disciplinary purpose, which is disfavored by the Supreme Court.

(1) The Supreme Court favors reinstatement over additional punishment.

In Shoen supra, the Supreme Court cited to State Bar of Nevada v. Claiborne, 104 Nev. 115, 756 P.2d 464 (1988), the recognizing that "[t]he purpose of attorney discipline is to protect the public, the courts, and the legal profession, not to punish the attorney." In the instant case, Petitioner also submits that the failure to reinstate him for failing to pay the administrative costs prior to reinstatement, is tantamount to a failure to protect the public, and serves as additional punishment. Petitioner has successfully represented thousands of clients over the past 19 years, many of which, call upon Petitioner for additional legal services. This is not a case where restitution is owed to clients, but rather, involves the payment of administrative costs for disciplinary hearings. While the disciplinary orders have successfully modified Petitioner's conduct, as demonstrated in the quarterly reports and improved accounting practices, the requirement that the administrative costs be paid before reinstatement, is tantamount to an additional punishment given Petitioner's financial status and his inability to reach full earing capacity, unless or until he is reinstated. Accordingly, Petitioner respectfully requests a modified payment plan for the administrative costs, or if appropriate due to his recent bankruptcy, a waiver of all administrative costs.

2. Petitioner has neither engaged in nor attempted to engage in the unauthorized practice of law during the period of suspension.

As noted above, Petitioner has neither engaged in nor attempted to engage in the unauthorized practice of law during the period of suspension. After the Court entered the Order, Petitioner closed his law firm. Since the beginning of the disciplinary action, Petitioner has been constantly monitored by his mentor, Brad Mainor, who attests to the fact that Petitioner has the honesty and integrity to practice law, and that Petitioner has neither engaged in nor attempted to engage in the unauthorized practice of law during the period of suspension. See Exhibit 5, Affidavit of Brad Mainor. Hence Petitioner has not engaged in the unauthorized practice of law during the suspension.

3. Any physical or mental disability or infirmity existing at the time of suspension has been removed; if alcohol or other drug abuse was a causative factor in the attorney's misconduct, the attorney has pursued appropriate treatment, has abstained from the use of alcohol or other drugs for a stated period of time, generally not less than one year, and is likely to continue to abstain from alcohol or other drugs.

Petitioner did not have any mental disability or infirmity existing at the time of suspension, nor does he currently suffer from any mental disability or infirmity.

4. Petitioner recognizes the wrongfulness and seriousness of the misconduct resulting in the suspension.

Petitioner recognizes the wrongfulness and seriousness of the misconduct resulting in his suspension. He has reflected upon the wrongfulness and seriousness of his misconduct, and realizes that both his clients and the profession were harmed by his misconduct. Not only does Petitioner recognize that his misconduct was serious, he has also taken steps during the suspension to learn Abacus Case Management accounting and Quickbooks accounting software to ensure that all accounts are timely reconciled. Accordingly, Petitioner recognizes the seriousness of his actions and vows to never let this happen again.

5. Petitioner has not engaged in any other professional misconduct since the suspension.

Petitioner has not engaged in any other professional misconduct since his suspension.

6. Notwithstanding the conduct for which he was disciplined, Petitioner has the requisite honesty and integrity to practice law.

Although Petitioner engaged in misconduct by mishandling client funds, he has the requisite honesty and integrity to practice law. Notably and almost immediately, Petitioner recognized his misconduct, and then took the necessary steps to correct his actions by ensuring that all clients were paid in full. These corrective steps were taken before the State Bar began its investigation.

Petitioner has been practicing for over 20 years, which shows his commitment to his clients and the legal profession wherein he has provided the best service and advocacy for each of the more than 2000 clients that he successfully represented. Tammi Littleman has been a paralegal for over 25 years and has worked with Petitioner since 2003. Ms. Littleman supports Petitioner's reinstatement as she has personal observed his honesty, integrity and dedication to serve his clients in best manner possible. See Exhibit 6, Letter from Tammi Littleman. Jennifer Lovell was Petitioner's legal assistant for more than 15 years. Ms. Lovell also supports Petitioner's reinstatement finding him to be of impeccable honesty, integrity and character, as well as exhibiting the highest quality work ethic in representing his clients. See Exhibit 7, Letter from Jennifer Lovell.

Attorney, Brad Mainor, previously worked with Petitioner in the same law firm, and has known Petitioner for approximately 20 years. Mr. Mainor is currently mentoring Petitioner and is has been in constant communications since the initial disciplinary order. Based on this level of constant communications with Petitioner, Mr. Mainor attests to the fact that Petitioner has neither engaged in nor attempted to engage in the practice of law since his suspension. Mr. Mainor also attests to Petitioner's honesty, integrity and competency to practice law. Mr. Mainor supports Petitioner's restatement to the practice of law. See Exh. 5, Affidavit of Brad Mainor.

7. Petitioner has kept informed about recent developments in the law and is competent to practice.

During his suspension in 2020, Petitioner completed 14.25 hours in the following CLE courses:

(a) Ethics Primer: Privileges, Confidentiality and Conflicts of Interest;
(b) Lessons Learned from Lawyers in Mental Illness and Substance Abuse;

These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our financial centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts client) (20 business days if you are a new client, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you and you agree to not make a claim against us, for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a financial center for information.

Dear Sir/Madam:

My name is Tammi Littleman and I have been a Paralegal in Las Vegas for approximately 25 years. I am writing this letter on behalf of Terry L. Wike. I was previously employed by Terry Wike on a part-time and full time basis since 2003. During those years, Terry Wike advocated in his clients best interests as their attorney. I have seen him dedicate time in assisting his clients anytime they called the office or need questions answered, he always made himself available. As a former employee, he always made certain that as staff that we worked with honesty and integrity in the clients best interests.

I have tremendous respect for Terry Wike and over the years, I have become friends with him and his family. He truly does like to work as an attorney despite my many efforts to convince him otherwise, he loves what he does as an attorney.

I believe that Terry Wike possess the qualities and abilities to resume the practice of law with honesty and integrity to the legal profession. If you have any further questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.
