Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary, you may attach pages stating 1 2 additional grounds and facts supporting same. 3 (a) GROUND ONE: Ineffective assistance of counsel, in violation of 5th 6th and 14th amendment of the U.S. Court tution and Neveral Constitution Article 1 sections 3 6, and 8 and Article 4 section 21, because counsels presentation fell below objective revel of resonableness across to anally alex 7 (a) SUPPORTING FACTS (Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law): _ Course's preformance was deficient falling below an objective standard of reasonableness because prior to advising the defendant to stipulate to treatment as a habitual offender defense coursel 10 did not explian or even discuss the process NESSESARU For him 11 to be adjudicated as a babitual offender. 12 13 Comusel's performance was below an objective standard because 14 an attorney has a legal responsibility to properly inform his 15 16 client if the legal standard of any rights being waived direct consequences of his olea, in the 18 standard wrong. or was not in actuality pleading guilty to a charge of habitual criminality or that his stipulation to "treatment ment as a habitual offender" did not mean a automotic finding or adjudication to the status of a habitual offender upon the finding of 3 prior from consistency this petitioner would not have stipulated to "treatment as a habitual offender" as part of his guilty plea and counsel would have had the reded information to act as an advorate for his client instead of mercy a messenger for the prosecutor.

This petitioner understands that his authy plea and subsequent convictions and sontences on his underlying charges are valid , knowing and intelligently made and has not asked the court to disturb those however the stoulation or sentencing as a habitual offender upon course I advise must DE reviewed to determine what counsel advised . The defendant about the rights on process for him to be adjudicated and does the record demonstrate that the Detationer was advised by counsel who also seems signed the plea agreement that DETITIONER UNDERSTOOD HEAT adjudication as would be a pricess or that he would be associated with that process is challenging constitutionally convictions born of the same information and to present factors in mitigation against the habitual off ENDER Status IN fact this petitioner believes that requirelless defense counsel would be obligated to insure the court had all the correct information to properly rule.

1 construded that by stipulation the defendant is waving coetian rights or functions associated with the adjudication process, the issue 3 with "stipulate to treatment as a habitual offender" is that wiether the defendant or the court is ever actually informed of what is factvally agreed upon, waived or mutually acknowledged between parties therefore for all intent and purpose there is no stipulation, because due process demands that a defendant pleading guilty who waives any rights be specifically made aware, be informed and advised of those rights both in his written plea agreement as well as canvassed so that the record will demonstrate that at the time of his plea the defendon't knows and understands the rights he is giving up 12 13 The plea agreement that the defendant recipied 10 minutes or so before 14 ms was to Enter his plea differed from the agreement stated at the waver of preliminary necessing as the defendant will plead quilty to 16 the large habitual "to" "treatment as a habitual affender" consing the plea memo to become unclear and ambiguous. The state is the 18 | party who proposed the negotiated plea and authored the plea memorandum but the state mether verbally for the record or in the written offa memo does the state Ever make known to the defendant or the court what rights are being wouved or terms are being agreed upon either by acknowledgement or omission as relating to the hobitual offender adjudication process that would define use of the term "treated as a habitual or treatment as a habitual offen der" For Example: By Entering my plea to the large habitual 26 I understand that I am waiving and forever giving up the following rights and previledges: 1. To challenge the validity of prior convictions used to adjudicate me by the court 2. Present EVIDENCE or statements in mitigation against the hobitual criminal 3. Oppose being sentenced to 10-25 prior to the courts finding or at the very minimum (Example) Both parties. Stipulate that: 1. Only prior convictions that the defendant was represented by coursel will be submitted by the state to the court to support adjudication of the defendant as a habitual offender pursuant to his guilty plea 2. Not appose sentence of 10-25 yes 3. and only present evidence in mitagation so that the court will have the appropriate required factor's against adjudication, however defendant will stand silent and not argue the charge of habitual criminality be dismissed.

This petitioner asserts that this court must determine that the defendant believed that he was pleading guilty to the habitual criminal and that he did so believeng that upon having 3 or more prior felony convictions automatically made him a habitual offender, what the court is being ask to also determine is what need be afforded to the defendant when the habitual offender becomes his "direct consequences" pursuant to quilty plea that incorporates the habitual offender statute because there can not be any reasoning that the requirement pursuant to a guilty plea convass based on primary offenses can be said to qualify as informing a defendant who has plead quilty to the habitual criminal of the convolutions and consequence as they relate to or apply toward the habitual crim-

Points and Authorities

I. Ineffective Assistance of Counsel

Counsel for petitioner, Casear Amase, did not render to the defendant "reasonably effective assistance given the totality of the circumstances" a right guaranteed by the Sixth Amendment to criminal defendants. According to the plea negotiations offered by the state defense counsel was called to actually advise his client on two separate crucial matters, his plea of guilty on his primary amended charges and also the large habitual criminal; in the case at bar, this defendant alleges that on the latter prior to advising or agreeing with his client in regards to the large habitual, defense counsel was ineffective.

When deciding to enter into a plea agreement with the state, a criminal defendant has a right to reasonably effective assistance of counsel more so when that plea agreement, as in this case, involves both the intricacies of law and the advocacy of the public prosecutor after the plea, which is the habitual offender adjudication process, therefore a criminal defense attorney who does not provide his client with the guiding hand that the constitution guarantees has to be deemed as ineffective. The proper standard to determine if counsel performance was deficient is the two prong test as setforth in Strickland v. Washington 466 U.S. 668 supra.

The court must look to the harsh and penal nature of the habitual offender statute and the proported errors counsel is to have made prior to advising the defendant to plead guilty/stipulate to a charge of habitual criminality as part of his guilty plea to determine as a whole affirms misrepresentation of counsel.

The errors that counsel made are: not requesting a continu-1 ance to consult with his client and the laws that apply to plead-2 ing guilty or stipulating to the habitual criminal, on February 23 counsel met with his client for the first time during a motion to consolidate his case with the other charged suspect at that time counsel was approached by the state and presented an offer to relay to the defendant and told that the state would only afford the defense (2) days to give a decision, being that the plea offer included pleading to the large habitual combined with the 10 new appointment and discovery that exceeded 350 pages, counsel 11 should have requested a continuance for his own needs as well as 12 | his client's. Counsel also after only 30 minutes of consultation 13 with his client at the jail also on the same day he first met his client with only the understanding that his client believed that based on having (3) prior convictions he was a habitual criminal advised his client that it was best or O.K. to plead guilty to the 17 | large habitual, even though the Nevada Supreme Court in Staley v. State 787 P.2d 396 ruled that a defendant pleading guilty can not 19 stipulate to status as a habitual offender or further in Walker v. Deeds 50 F.3d 670 the habitual criminal "is not automatic on the finding of comission of (3) felonies," therefore his advise to 21 plead guilty/stipulate to the large habitual was error, even if a determination could be made that a criminal defendant could in fact stipulate/plead to the habitual criminal before counsel could 24 advise his client to do so he would need to make sure that his client's substantial rights are not prejudiced in that counsel would have to have inquired if any of his prior convictions were obtained when he did not have legal counsel, determine if prior

18

26

27

28

convictions were old and remote and if any mitigating evidence 2 existed that would or could convince the court to dismiss a charge of habitual criminality, to advise the defendant to plead/stipulate to the habitual criminal and not to inform his client that he will be waving certain substantive rights because at the time of advise on February 23, 2010 the day he first met his client and received the offer from the state he had no idea what rights his client would be waiving with the adjudication process nor where thoses 9 rights outline in his plea memo prior to counsel signing the memo-10 randum. Defense counsel has a duty to assist his client by bringing 11 |his expertise at law not only if the defendant goes to trial but 12 also when deciding to accept a negotiated plea, in this case coun-13 sel did not, and committed the following errors prior to advising 14 his client to accept a plea: 1. Did not request a continuance to 15 determine if it was lawful for a defendant pleading guilty to plead 16 or stipulate to the habitual criminal before advising the defendant on the matter. 2. Failed to inform the defendant that adjudication 18 is a process and not automatic upon the finding of (3) prior felony convictions. 3. Failed to inform his client of substantive rights associated with the habitual adjudication process that he would be waving by stipulation. 4. Failed to inquire of the state exactly what rights his defendant stipulates to waive. The aforementioned errors committed by counsel prejudiced the defendant because his decision to plead/stipulate to the large habitual was uninformed not based on the connotations and consequences, but a misguided perception that (3) prior felony convictions automatically made him a habitual offender.

17

27

28

Petitioner fully incorporates the supporting facts setforth herein as fully setforth in ground four ineffective assistance of counsel a sentencing where counsel's errors were 1. Counsel failed to challenge prior Judgment of Conviction that was constitutionally invalid. 2. Counsel failed to present evidence and factors in mitigation against the habitual offender.

II. Stipulating to Treatment as Habitual Offender Not Knowing and Intelligent Plea

17

18

Although the Nevada Supreme Court has ruled that a 10 defendant pleading guilty can not stipulate to status as 11 habitual offender "questions of validity of prior convictions 12 must be determined by District Court as a matter of law, with 13 | punishment dependant upon Courts excercise of its discretion 14 | Staley v. State, 787 P.2d 396, 106 Nev. 75 (1990); the State nontheless'did solicit Pickett, in this case to "stipulate" to treatment as a habitual offender as part of his guilty plea.

In reviewing an attack on a guilty plea a court must consider whether the plea was voluntarily entered as well as whether, "consider as a whole, the process by which the plea was obtained was fundamentally fair, Taylor v. Warden, Nevada State Prison (1980), 609 P.2d 587, 96 Nev. 272. This defendant asserts that even the term as written in his guilty plea memorandum "Defendant stipulate to large habitual treatment under N.R.S. 207.010" is ambiguous to be reviewed by the district court, U.S. v. Anderson, 970 F2d 602, and "Defendant treated as habitual under count 2 and receive 10-25 years sentence" is fundamentally unfair as it implies that there is no process and adjudication is automatic Taylor v. Warden, see: Exhibit A (Guilty Plea Agreement). The defendant is asked to "stipulate" to what?

- 1. Not oppose notice of charge of habitual criminality?
- 2. Three or more prior felony convictions?

- 3. Not to challenge constitutional validity of prior convictions?
- 4. Or not to oppose sentence recommendation if adjudicated a habitual offender?

NRS.174.035 (1) demands either a showing that the defendant himself (not just his attorney) understood the elements of the offense to which the plea was entered, or a showing that the defendant himself has made a factual statement to the court which constitute an admission to the offense plead to, NRS 207.010, Nevada Law requires a criminal information to "charge" a separate offense of being a habitual criminal. Hardison v. State, 437 P.2d 868 (1968), 84 Nev.125 and "Before a defendant may be sentenced as a habitual criminal, the state must duly file an allegation of habitual criminality" Grey v State", 178 P.3d 154(2008).

Under Nevada Law, decision to adjudicate a person as a "habitual criminal" is not automatic on findings of commission of (3) felonies, see: Walker v. Deeds, 50 F.3d 670 (1995), therefore a plea memorandum that charges habitual criminality has to insure that the defendant understands the "direct consequences" of his guilty plea, thus must inform the defendant himself of the adjudication process and the rights that attach, N.R.P.C. 3.8 (D) the prosecutor has a duty to "Make a timely discloser to the defense... in connection with sentencing, disclose to the defense and to the tribunal all unprivileged mitigating information known to the prosecutor ... The 2 | adjudication process for NRS 207.010, has to be construed as 3 | part of the nature of the charge i.e., element of the offense to the defendant pleading quilty, therefore the details of the process must be expressly outlined in his plea agreement or the court can not determine that a particular defendant actually understood the "Direct consequences" of his guilty plea, NRS 207.010, has a "immediate impact on sentencing", therefore has to be thoroughly canvassed at plea entry and outlined in the plea agreement to be knowing and intelligent.

When a defendant, as in this case does not know when he decides to enter his plea to a criminal information that does charge habitual criminality that his convictions #5 cc#143146 and #6 ccf 145127, obtained without his right to counsel can not be used because the record will prove by a preponderance of the evidence that:

- 1. Self representation was not a voluntary election as he did state to the court "I did not ask to represent myself, I asked for alternate counsel and she suggested that I represent myself" contrary to Faretta v. California, Supra 95 S.Ct.2525, 422 U.S. 806, 45 L.Ed.2d 562 U.S.Cal.1975, see: exhibit (B).
- 2. Later after the defendant was compelled to represent himself, and after his canvass the state did file notice of intent to seek habitual treatment the court failed to inquire as to if the defendant still would represent himself see: exhibit (C), because of greater penalty possibility see Scott v. State, 877

P.2d 503 110 Nev.622(1994. Those convictions are constitutionally invalid. Then that defendant has not been properly informed enough to be said to Have made a knowing or intelligent Plea, Waiver or stipulation, no matter how it may be phrased.

The State with full knowledge that defendant was not represented by counsel in case #143146/#145127, bearing, "the burden of proving the convictions where constitutionally valid" Burns v. State, 495 P2d, 88 Nev.215 (1972), further the aforementioned were "part of a single information" Rezin v. State, could only be counted as (1) conviction had they been able to be used for purpose of the habitual enhancement, did present to the Court all prior convictions as separate and valid. See Exhibit E

The critical factor being that "In proving prior convictions for purposes of defendant to be habitual criminal, burden is on the state to show that either attorney was present or validly waived at time of prior prosecutions Hamlet v. State, 455 P.2d 915, 85 Nev.385 (1969).

With regards to incorrect or insufficient information as to sentencing the proper test to be applied is whether defendant would have plead differently "stipulated in this case to treatment as a habitual offender" had he been correctly informed, upon which issue the state must bear the burden of proof. "Misinformation as to sentencing renders the plea involuntarily made and it must be vacated" Paige v. United States, 443 F.2d 781.

III. Due Process at Sentencing

Defendant asserts that the trial court was obstructed from affording him due process at his sentencing, based upon insufficient or misinformation as to sentencing. When the state did solicit the defendant to stipulate to "treatment as a habitual offender" and neither the State, Defense Counsel nor the Hearing Master who excepted his guilty plea, advised or informed defendant that adjudication as a habitual offender is a procedural process "not an automatic one; person alleged to be habitual offender is subject to broadest kind of judicial discretion" Clark v. State, 851 P.2d 426, 109 Nev. 426 (1993).

The State deprived the Trial Court of it's ability to make "an actual judgment" on the question that it is "Just and Proper" to punish and segregate the defendant as a habitual criminal by not informing the defendant of the rights he had associated with the adjudication process insuring the Court only had factors "for" (Defendants prior convictions) see: exhibit (E) and none "against" in which to weigh it's decision. The Nevada Supreme Court nor the United States District Court (Nevada) did not reach to the merits of Pickett's, post-conviction writ due to a procedural time bar he has always maintained that his waiver of counsel and convictions in cos 143146 and cos 145127, were unconstitutional. See: exhibit (D).

This Defendant standing silent during his adjudication, is a direct indication of his knowledge of the Habitual Adjudication process "None", surely had he known, convictions 5 and 6, would have been challenged and eliminated from the process. All of the defendant's prior convictions are for non-violent offenses, mostly property crimes relating to his long drug addiction, but without convictions 5 and 6, The Court would have to weigh nonviolent and remote convictions 16 to 19 years prior and give consideration to Tillema v. State, (1996) 914 P.2d 605, 112 Nev.9, the court found only that the copies of defendant's prior convictions sufficient to adjudicate him as a habitual criminal, but did not make an "Actual Judgment" on the question of whether it is "just and proper" for the defendant to be punished as a habitual offender Walker v. Deeds, 50 F.3d 670, but as previously mentioned not all of those convictions were valid and the state was aware of this.

"The District Court has inherent authority to correct a judgment or sentence found on mistakes is in accord with the constitutional considerations underlying the sentencing process. The United States Supreme Court has expressly held that where a defendant is sentenced on the basis of materially untrue assumptions concerning his criminal record "results whether caused by carelessness or design is inconsistent with due process of law" Townsend v. Burke, 736,741, 68 S.Ct. 1252, 1255, 92 L Ed. 1690 (1948). Further, the cases clearly established that constitutionally violate "materially untrue assumptions" concerning a criminal record may either arise as a result of sentencing Judges correct perception of misapprehension. (Emphasis in original) Id. 677 P.2d at 1048 n3..."

Defendant would ask that this Court not perceive this request to be pointing the finger at the Court and saying "you were wrong" as that is not the case. Defendant is merely requesting that the Court reconsider the sentence that was pronounced based upon mistakes of facts in the States allegation of habitual criminality and the defendant "stipulating to treatment as a habitual offender" as a part of his guilty plea.

Statement of the Facts

Defendant was arrested February 11, 2010, (1) of (2) suspects in Bar Robberies; he was charge formally on or about February 15th 2010, on or about February 16th 2010, during a states motion to consolidate his case with the other suspects Daniels Defendant met his Court Appointed Attorney Ceasar Almase, and advised the State had extend an offer to both defendant and we had (2) days to render our decision, (terms of plea agreement) see: plea memo, but basically plead guilty to (4) felonies stipulate to 10 years to 25 years as a habitual criminal to run consecutive to 2 years to 5 years ex-felon in possession of a firearm for a total of 12 years to 30 years.

Counsel for defendant visited him at C.C.D.C, provided a copy of discovery and discuses the plea offer in general however did not discuss anything that dealt with the adjudication hearing process or his prior convictions, on or about the 23rdof February 2010, Defendant again appeared in Court his codefendant agreed to plead guilty and therefore did Defendant also did agree. Defendant 14, days or so later appeared for entry of plea before the Courts Hearing Master, prior to entry of plea Defendant was provided with a written plea agreement that he did read and signed. The agreement only stated defendant stipulates to treatment as a habitual offender and 10 to 25 year sentence the agreement did not advise of the process of adjudication as a habitual offender.

The Defendant believing that (3) prior convictions could result in Multiple life sentences did plead to the terms of the plea agreement as he understood them and neither the plea agreement, the District Attorney, Defense Counsel or the Hearing Master advised or informed the defendant that:

- 1. Adjudicating a criminal Defendant is procedural
- Discretionary dependant upon many factors and the Court discretion, but not automatic solely due to (3) prior convivtions
- And that the allegation/charge could actually be dismissed
- 4. The legislative Intent may not be applicable based on the nature of his prior convictions and Drug Addiction which the Court will view as a whole
- 5. Prior conviction constitutionally infirm could not be used for the process.

Without any knowledge of the aforementioned; procedures, the defendants guilty plea was accepted, discussing with the defendant only the elements, waiver of rights and nature of charges for the underlying offenses and not the Habitual Criminal charge itself does not insure an understanding of the charge stipulated to that has the greater impact.

May 10, 2010, the defendant was sentence in accordance with the written plea agreement. The State did present certified copies of all of his prior conviction (2) of which the State knew or should have known should not have been submitted, the defendant stood silent as he believed he was required to do, further demonstrating how misinformed or rather uninformed he really was. The decision to adjudicate Defendant was based on only the information the State wanted the Court to weigh, the defendants prior convictions. This motion follows as it is at this time the defendant did become aware of his rights and the relevant case Authorities, therefore request relief from the Court.

CONCLUSION

Thereby, pursuant to the Facts and Laws stated herein, being that the State failed to property inform Defendant of valuable rights associated with the adjudication process of NRS.207.010, a duty the State was required to perform, as the aforementioned statute had an immediate impact on sentencing, further the submission of invalid prior conviction to the Court depriving the Court by misinformation of its ability to make an actual Judgment as to NRS.207.010.

The Defendant has been deprived of Due Process of Law at sentencing and request that his sentence be modified/corrected as follows: his sentence pursuant to NRS.207.010, be vacated, the charge of habitual criminality be dismiss

CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLEA

I understand that by pleading guilty I admit the facts which support all the elements of the offense(s) to which I now plead as set forth in Exhibit "1".

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 1, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than two (2) years and a maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment. I understand that I may also be fined up to $10,000.00.

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 2, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than one (1) year and a maximum term of not more than six (6) years. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment. I understand that I may also be fined up to $5,000.00.

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 3, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than two (2) years and a maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years, plus a consecutive minimum term of not less than one (1) year and a maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years for the use of a deadly weapon enhancement. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment.

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 4, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than one (1) year and a maximum term of not more than six (6) years. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment. I understand that I may also be fined up to $5,000.00.

I understand that the law requires me to pay an Administrative Assessment Fee.

 Further, I understand that if I am sentenced under the under the "small" habitual criminal enhancement, the Court must sentence me to a term not less than FIVE (5) years and a maximum of TWENTY (20) years in the Nevada Department of Corrections. I understand that if I am sentenced under the "large" habitual criminal enhancement the Court must sentence me to LIFE without the possibility of parole; life with the possibility of parole, parole eligibility begins after a minimum term of TEN (10) years has been served; OR a definite term of TWENTY FIVE (25) years, parole eligibility begins after a minimum of TEN (10) years has been served.

I understand that, if appropriate, I will be ordered to make restitution to the victim of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty and to the victim of any related offense which is being dismissed or not prosecuted pursuant to this agreement. I will also be ordered to reimburse the State of Nevada for any expenses related to my extradition, if any.

I understand that I am eligible for probation for the offense to which I am pleading guilty to in Count 1, 2, and 4. I understand that, except as otherwise provided by statute, the question of whether I receive probation is in the discretion of the sentencing judge.

I understand that I am not eligible for probation for the offense to which I am pleading guilty to in Count 3.

I also understand that I must submit to blood and/or saliva tests under the Direction of the Division of Parole and Probation to determine genetic markers and/or secretor status.

I understand that if more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed and I am eligible to serve the sentences concurrently, the sentencing judge has the discretion to order the sentences served concurrently or consecutively.

I also understand that information regarding charges not filed, dismissed charges, or charges to be dismissed pursuant to this agreement may be considered by the judge at sentencing.

I have not been promised or guaranteed any particular sentence by anyone. I know that my sentence is to be determined by the Court within the limits prescribed by statute.

I understand that if my attorney or the State of Nevada or both recommend any specific punishment to the Court, the Court is not obligated to accept the recommendation.

I understand that if the State of Nevada has agreed to recommend or stipulate a particular sentence or has agreed not to present argument regarding the sentence, or agreed not to oppose a particular sentence, or has agreed to disposition as a gross misdemeanor when the offense could have been treated as a felony, such agreement is contingent upon my appearance in court on the initial sentencing date (and any subsequent dates if the sentencing is continued). I understand that if I fail to appear for the scheduled sentencing date or I commit a new criminal offense prior to sentencing the State of Nevada would regain the full right to argue for any lawful sentence.

I understand if the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty to was committed while I was incarcerated on another charge or while I was on probation or parole that I am not eligible for credit for time served toward the instant offense(s).

I understand that the Division of Parole and Probation will prepare a report for the sentencing judge prior to sentencing. This report will include matters relevant to the issue of sentencing, including my criminal history. This report may contain hearsay information regarding my background and criminal history. My attorney and I will each have the opportunity to comment on the information contained in the report at the time of sentencing. Unless the District Attorney has specifically agreed otherwise, then the District Attorney may also comment on this report.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

By entering my plea of guilty, I understand that I am waiving and forever giving up the following rights and privileges:

27 | ///

28 | ///

 1. The constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, including the right to refuse to testify at trial, in which event the prosecution would not be allowed to comment to the jury about my refusal to testify.

- 2. The constitutional right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, free of excessive pretrial publicity prejudicial to the defense, at which trial I would be entitled to the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained. At trial the State would bear the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt each element of the offense charged.
- 3. The constitutional right to confront and cross-examine any witnesses who would testify against me.
  - 4. The constitutional right to subpoena witnesses to testify on my behalf.
  - 5. The constitutional right to testify in my own defense.
- 6. The right to appeal the conviction, with the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained, unless the appeal is based upon reasonable constitutional jurisdictional or other grounds that challenge the legality of the proceedings and except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 of NRS 174.035.

VOLUNTARINESS OF PLEA

I have discussed the elements of all of the original charge(s) against me with my attorney and I understand the nature of the charge(s) against me.

I understand that the State would have to prove each element of the charge(s) against me at trial.

I have discussed with my attorney any possible defenses, defense strategies and circumstances which might be in my favor.

All of the foregoing elements, consequences, rights, and waiver of rights have been thoroughly explained to me by my attorney.

I believe that pleading guilty and accepting this plea bargain is in my best interest, and that a trial would be contrary to my best interest.

I am signing this agreement voluntarily, after consultation with my attorney, and I am not acting under duress or coercion or by virtue of any promises of leniency, except for those set forth in this agreement.

I am not now under the influence of any intoxicating liquor, a controlled substance or other drug which would in any manner impair my ability to comprehend or understand this agreement or the proceedings surrounding my entry of this plea.

My attorney has answered all my questions regarding this guilty plea agreement and its consequences to my satisfaction and I am satisfied with the services provided by my attorney.

PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: Cary Pickett. Yes, Mr. Almase?

MR. ALMASE: Good morning, your Honor.

THE COURT: Good morning, sir.

MR. ALMASE: Mr. Pickett is present in custody. You want me to do it?

MR. NELSON: Either way. Whatever you want.

THE COURT: Why don't you go ahead and let Mr. Nelson put it on there. Go ahead, Mr. Nelson.

MR. NELSON: Judge, it's my understanding this morning he's going to plead guilty to one count of burglary while in possession of a firearm, count two, conspiracy to commit robbery, count three, robbery with use of a deadly weapon, and count four, possession of a firearm by ex-felon. There's a signed guilty plea agreement dated March 11th, today, Judge.

The State agreed to dismiss the remaining counts. The Defendant stipulates to the large habitual criminal treatment under NRS 207.010. The parties stipulate to a two- to five-year sentence with regard to count one. The Defendant will agree that he'll be treated as a large habitual under count two and receive a sentence of ten to twenty-five years. That will run consecutive to count one for a total of twelve to thirty years in the Nevada Department of Corrections. All the other counts will run concurrent, Judge.

THE COURT: Now did you hear that -- those negotiations put on the record by the State, sir?

1	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
2	THE COURT: What is your true name, Mr. Pickett?
3	THE DEFENDANT: Cary Jerard Pickett.
4	THE COURT: How old are you?

12	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
13	THE COURT: Understand what you're charged with?
14	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
15	THE COURT: What is your plea?
16	THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.
17	THE COURT: Before I can accept your guilty plea, I must be assured it's
18	freely and voluntarily given. Has anyone threatened you to get you to plead guilty?
19	THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.
20	THE COURT: Has anyone threatened anyone closely associated with you in
21	order to get you to plead guilty?
22	THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.
23	THE COURT: You understand the penalty range for count one is two to
24	fifteen years, Nevada Department of Prisons?

1	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
2	THE COURT: Do you understand it's consecutive to count one?
3	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And it says here in regards to count two that you did meet with Alan Daniels and between yourselves you willfully, unlawfully conspired and agreed to commit the crime of robbery, and in furtherance of that conspiracy you did the act set forth in count three?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And in regards to count three, robbery with use of a deadly weapon, it says you did willfully, unlawfully, and feloniously take personal property, lawful money of the United States, and cellular phone from the person of Justin Sanchez, and/or George Mattie, and/or Delton Lema, Aaron Parduhm, Jushua Kiehl, in their presence by means of force, fear, or violence of injury thereto, without the consent and against the will of those individuals; is that correct?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And during the commission of the crime either you or your co-defendant used a handgun; is that correct?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay, in regards to count four, possession of a firearm by an ex-felon, it says you did willfully, unlawfully, and feloniously own or have in your possession or under your control a weapon, and that was a handgun, and that at that time you were an ex-felon, 'cause in 2006 you had been convicted in Case Number C226282 of transport of controlled substance, a felony under the laws of the State of Nevada, and also in 1997 you had previously been convicted of a -- in 6 Case Number 145127 of burglary; is that correct? 7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 8 THE COURT: And in Case C21 -- 143 [sic] and you had been convicted of 9 grand larceny; is that correct? 10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 11 THE COURT: And in -- that was in 1993 -- excuse me. And then for a final 12 case you had was C109725 in 1993 where you'd been convicted of attempt grand 13 larceny; is that correct? 14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 15 THE COURT: So you had possession of a firearm after being convicted of 16 felonies: is that correct? 17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. 18 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else there, Mr. Nelson? 19 MR. NELSON: No, Judge. 20 THE COURT: Okay, Court accepts the Defendant's guilty plea as being freely 21 and voluntarily given. Listen closely now, sir. We're going to set your sentencing 22 date on --

ARGUMENT

Ι

DEFENSE COUNSEL WAS NOT INEFFECTIVE WITH REGARDS TO DEFENDANT'S HABITUAL CRIMINAL TREATMENT (GROUNDS 1 AND 4)

In order to assert a claim for ineffective assistance of counsel a defendant must prove that he was denied "reasonably effective assistance" of counsel by satisfying the two-prong test of Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686-87, 104 S.Ct. 2052, 2063-64 (1984). See also State v. Love, 109 Nev. 1136, 1138, 865 P.2d 322, 323 (1993). Under this test, the Defendant must show first that his counsel's representation fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, and second, that but for counsel's errors, there is a reasonable probability that the result of the proceedings would have been different. Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687-88, 694, 104 S.Ct. at 2065, 2068; Warden, Nevada State Prison v. Lyons, 100 Nev. 430, 432, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984) (adopting Strickland two-part test in Nevada). "Effective counsel does not mean errorless counsel, but rather counsel whose assistance is [w]ithin the range of competence demanded of attorneys in criminal cases." Jackson v. Warden, Nevada State Prison, 91 Nev. 430, 432, 537 P.2d 473, 474 (1975), quoting McMann v. Richardson, 397 U.S. 759, 771, 90 S.Ct. 1441, 1449 (1970).

In considering whether trial counsel has met this standard, the court should first determine whether counsel made a "sufficient inquiry into the information that is pertinent to his client's case." Doleman v State, 112 Nev. 843, 846, 921 P.2d 278, 280 (1996); citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690-691, 104 S.Ct. at 2066. Once such a reasonable inquiry has been made by counsel, the court should consider whether counsel made "a reasonable strategy decision on how to proceed with his client's case." Doleman, 112 Nev. at 846, 921 P.2d at 280, citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690-691, 104 S.Ct. at 2066. Finally, counsel's strategy decision is a "tactical" decision and will be "virtually unchallengeable absent extraordinary circumstances." Doleman, 112 Nev. at 846, 921 P.2d at 280; Howard v. State, 106 Nev. 713, 722, 800 P.2d 175, 180 (1990); Strickland, 466 U.S. at 691, 104 S.Ct. at 2066.

Based on the above law, the court begins with the presumption of effectiveness and then must determine whether or not the petitioner has proved disputed factual allegations underlying his ineffective-assistance claim by a preponderance of the evidence. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1012, 103 P.3d 25, 33 (2004). The role of a court in considering allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel is "not to pass upon the merits of the action not taken but to determine whether, under the particular facts and circumstances of the case, trial counsel failed to render reasonably effective assistance." Donovan v. State, 94 Nev. 671, 675, 584 P.2d 708, 711 (1978), citing Cooper v. Fitzharris, 551 F.2d 1162, 1166 (9th Cir. 1977).

This analysis does not mean that the court "should second guess reasoned choices between trial tactics nor does it mean that defense counsel, to protect himself against allegations of inadequacy, must make every conceivable motion no matter how remote the possibilities are of success." Donovan, 94 Nev. at 675, 584 P.2d at 711. In essence, the court must "judge the reasonableness of counsel's challenged conduct on the facts of the particular case, viewed as of the time of counsel's conduct." Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690, 104 S.Ct. at 2066.

"There are countless ways to provide effective assistance in any given case. Even the best criminal defense attorneys would not defend a particular client in the same way." Strickland, 466 U.S. at 689, 104 S.Ct. at 689. "Strategic choices made by counsel after thoroughly investigating the plausible options are almost unchallengeable." Dawson v. State, 108 Nev. 112, 117, 825 P.2d 593, 596 (1992), citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690, 104 S. Ct. at 2066; see also Ford v. State, 105 Nev. 850, 853, 784 P.2d 951, 953 (1989).

Even if a defendant can demonstrate that his counsel's representation fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, he must still demonstrate prejudice and show a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's errors, the result would have been different. McNelton v. State, 115 Nev. 396, 403, 990 P.2d 1263, 1268 (1999), citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687. "A reasonable probability is a probability sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome." Id., citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687-89, 694.

of the prior convictions used as the basis to have him adjudicated a habitual criminal as unconstitutional. Defendant also argues that had counsel informed him that he could challenge the prior convictions he would not have stipulated to be adjudicated a habitual criminal. However, this argument is wholly without merit. The State specified a total of seven (7) prior felonies in the Information to be considered by the court when sentencing. Ex. 2. Moreover, the State lodged seven (7) certified copies of the Judgments of Convictions in support of its request for habitual criminal treatment. Ex. 4. As such, even if Defendant could have successfully challenged the constitutionality of two (2) of those convictions there would be five (5) remaining to be considered.

First, Defendant claims his counsel was ineffective because he failed to challenge two Second, Defendant claims his counsel should have argued against habitual criminal treatment at sentencing. However, Defendant effectively stipulated to such treatment when the State specified the previous felonies in the Information (Ex. 2), the GPA contained the stipulation (Ex. 1 p. 1), and the court reminded him of the penalty ranges he would be facing under the large habitual criminal statute (Ex. 3 p. 4). See Hodges v. State, 119 Nev. 479, 78 P.3d 67 (2003). Counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for failing to make futile arguments. See Ennis v. State, 122 Nev. 694, 706, 137 P.3d 1095, 1103 (2006). Furthermore, it should also be noted that Defendant's attorney effectively negotiated with the State to substantially reduce the amount of prison time Defendant was facing if convicted. The State provided notice that it intended to seek habitual criminal treatment. Had Defendant been convicted of all sixteen (16) charges he would have been facing a possible sixteen (16) life sentences.

Defendant has also failed to explain how or why two of his previous convictions are allegedly infirm. Moreover, Defendant has also failed to specify what "mitigation" arguments his counsel could have made on his behalf that would have had a reasonable probability of success in avoiding being treated as a habitual criminal. Claims asserted in a petition for post-conviction relief must be supported with specific factual allegations, which if true, would entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove v. State, 100 Nev. 498, 502, 686 P.2d 222, 225 (1984). "Bare" and "naked" allegations are not sufficient, nor are those belied and repelled by the record. Id. It should also be noted that Defendant was facing twenty-three (23) felony counts. It is highly unlikely he would have insisted on going to trial. As such, he has failed to demonstrate prejudice.

П

DEFENDANT'S PLEA WAS ENTERED KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY (GROUND 2)

Pursuant to NRS 176.165, after sentencing, a defendant's guilty plea can only be withdrawn to correct "manifest injustice." See also Baal v. State, 106 Nev. 69, 72, 787 P.2d 391, 394 (1990). The law in Nevada clearly establishes that a plea of guilty is presumptively valid and the burden is on a defendant to show that the plea was not voluntarily entered. Bryant v. State, 102 Nev. 268, 272, 721 P.2d 364, 368 (1986) (citing Wingfield v. State, 91 Nev. 336, 337, 535 P.2d 1295, 1295 (1975)). Manifest injustice does not exist if defendant entered his plea voluntarily. Baal, 106 Nev. at 72, 787 P.2d at 394.

To determine whether a guilty plea was voluntarily entered the Court will review the totality of the circumstances surrounding the defendant's plea. Bryant, 102 Nev. at 271, 721 P.2d at 367. A proper plea canvass should reflect that:

"(1) the defendant knowingly waived his privilege against self-incrimination, the right to trial by jury, and the right to confront his accusers; (2) the plea was voluntary, was not coerced, and was not the result of a promise of leniency; (3) the defendant understood the consequences of his plea and the range of punishments; and (4) the defendant understood the nature of the charge, i.e., the elements of the crime." Wilson v. State, 99 Nev. at 367, 664 P.2d at 331 (citing Higby v. Sheriff, 86 Nev. 774, 476 P.2d 950 (1970)).

The Nevada Supreme Court suggests in Patton v. Warden that the presence and advice of counsel is a significant factor in determining the voluntariness of a plea of guilty. 91 Nev. 1, 2, 530 P.2d 107, 107 (1975).

This standard requires the court to personally address the defendant at the time he enters his plea in order to determine whether he understands the nature of the charges to which he is pleading. Bryant, 102 Nev. at 271, 721 P.2d at 367. A court may not rely simply on a written plea agreement without some verbal interaction with a defendant. Id. Thus, a "colloquy" is constitutionally mandated, and a "colloquy" is but a conversation in a formal setting, such as that occurring between an official sitting in judgment of an accused at plea. See Id. However, the court also need not conduct a ritualistic oral canvass. State v. Freese, 116 Nev. 1097, 13 P.3d 442 (2000). The guidelines for voluntariness of pleas of guilty "do not require the articulation of talismanic phrases. It required only 'that the record affirmatively disclose that a defendant who pleaded guilty entered his plea understandingly and voluntarily." Heffley v. Warden, 89 Nev. 573, 575, 516 P.2d 1403, 1404 (1973); Brady v. United States, 397 U.S. 742, 747-748, 90 S. Ct. 1463, 1470 (1970).

In the instant case, Defendant's plea was clearly entered knowingly and voluntarily. First, Defendant was represented by counsel. Patton, supra. Second, Defendant signed a guilty plea agreement which was filed on March 11, 2010. The relevant portions of said agreement are as follows:

My decision to plead guilty is based upon the plea agreement in this case which is as follows:

The State has agreed to dismiss the remaining counts. Defendant stipulates to large habitual treatment under NRS 207.010. The parties stipulate to a 2-5 year sentence on Count 1. Defendant treated as habitual under Count 2 and receive 10-25 year sentence, consecutive to Count 1, for a total of 12-30 years...all other counts to run concurrent.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLEA

"I understand that by pleading guilty I admit the facts which support all the elements of the offense(s) to which I now plead as set forth in Exhibit '1.'

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty of Count 1, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than two (2) years and maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years...

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty of Count 2, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than one (1) year and maximum term of not more than six (6) years...

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty of Count 3, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than two (2) years and maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years, plus a consecutive minimum term of not less than one (1) year and a maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years for the use of a deadly weapon enhancement...

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty of Count 4, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than one (1) year and maximum term of not more than six (6) years...

... Further, I understand that if I am sentenced under the "large" habitual criminal enhancement the Court must sentence me to LIFE without the possibility of parole; life with the possibility of parole, parole eligibility begins after a minimum term of TEN (10) years has been served; OR a definite term of TWENTY-FIVE (25) years, parole eligibility begins after a minimum of TEN (10) years has been served.

I have not been promised or guaranteed any particular sentence by anyone. I know that my sentence is to be determined by the Court within the limits prescribed by statute.

I understand that if my attorney or the State of Nevada or both recommend any specific punishment to the Court, the Court is not obligated to accept the recommendation.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

By entering my plea of guilty, I understand that I am waiving and forever giving up the following rights and privileges:

- 1. The constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, including the right to refuse to testify at trial, in which event the prosecution would not be allowed to comment to the jury about my refusal to testify.
- 2. The constitutional right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, free of excessive pretrial publicity prejudicial to the defense, at which trial I would be entitled to the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained. At trial the State would bear the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt each element of the offense charged.
- 3. The constitutional right to confront and cross-examine any witness who would testify against me.
- 4. The constitutional right to subpoena witnesses to testify on my behalf.
  - 5. The constitutional right to testify in my own defense.
  - 6. The right to appeal the conviction, with the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained, unless the appeal is based upon reasonable constitutional jurisdictional or other grounds that challenge the legality of the proceedings and except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 of NRS 174.035.

VOLUNTARINESS OF PLEA

I have discussed the elements of all of the original charge(s) against me with my attorney and I understand the nature of the charge(s) against me...

I understand that the State would have to prove each element of the charge(s) against me at trial.

I have discussed with my attorney any possible defenses, defense strategies, and circumstances which might be in my favor.

All of the foregoing elements, consequences, rights, and waiver of rights have been thoroughly explained to me by my attorney.

I believe that pleading guilty and accepting this plea bargain is in my best interest.

I am signing this agreement voluntarily, after consultation with my attorney....

I am not now under the influence of any intoxicating liquor, a controlled substance or other drug....

My attorney has answered all my questions regarding this guilty plea agreement and its consequences to my satisfaction and I am satisfied with the services provided by my attorney.

Ex. 1 p. 1-6.

The relevant portion of Defendant's plea canvass is as follows:

THE STATE:

Judge, it's my understanding this morning he's going to plead guilty to one count of burglary while in possession of a firearm, count two, conspiracy to commit robbery, count three, robbery with use of a deadly weapon, and count 4, possession of a firearm by ex-felon. There's a signed guilty plea agreement dated March 11th, today, Judge.

The State agreed to dismiss the remaining counts. The Defendant stipulates to the large habitual criminal treatment under NRS 207.010. The parties stipulate to a two-to-five-year sentence with regard to count one. The Defendant will agree that he'll be treated as a large habitual under count two and receive a sentence of ten to twenty-five years. That will run consecutive to count one for a total of twelve to thirty years in the Nevada Department of Corrections. All other counts will run concurrent, Judge.

	DEFENDANT:	Yes, sir.
<ul><li>22</li><li>23</li></ul>	THE COURT:	Do you understand the penalty range for count four is one to six years, Nevada Department of Prisons?

27	DEFENDANT:	Yes, sir.
28

1	THE COURT:	And you further understand, sir, that you stipulated to the use of the large habitual criminal which carries the following penalty

15	DEFENDANT:	Yes, sir.

convicted of a - - in Case Number 145127 of burglary; is that correct?

DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: and in Case C21—143(sic) you had been convicted of grand larceny, is that correct?

DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And in - - that was in 1993 - - excuse me. And then for a final case you had was C109725 in 1993 where you'd been convicted of attempt grand larceny; is that correct?

DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

Ex. 3 p. 3-7.

After reviewing both the relevant portions of Defendant's GPA, the plea canvass, and taking into account the presence of counsel, it is clear Defendant entered his plea freely, knowingly, and voluntarily. As such, there is no manifest injustice and Defendant's petition should be denied.

Ш

DEFENDANT'S CLAIM THAT HE WAS IMPROPERLY SENTENCED AS A HABITUAL CRIMINAL IS NOT COGNIZABLE (GROUND 3)

Defendant also argues that he was improperly sentenced under the habitual criminal statute. NRS 34.810(1)(a) states in relevant part:

- 1. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:
- (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or guilty but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an allegation that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

As such, this claim is not cognizable since Defendant's conviction was upon a plea of guilty. Furthermore, since this claim could have been raised on direct appeal but was not, it has been waived per NRS 34.810(1)(b)(2).

2	CONCLUSION
3	Based on the foregoing arguments, Defendant's petition should be denied.

GUILTY PLEA AGREEMENT

I hereby agree to plead guilty to: COUNT 1 - BURGLARY WHILE IN POSSESSION OF A FIREARM (Felony - NRS 205.060 / Category B); COUNT 2 - CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT ROBBERY (Felony - NRS 199.480, 200.380 / Category B); COUNT 3 - ROBBERY WITH USE OF A DEADLY WEAPON (Felony - NRS 200.380, 193.165 / Category B) and COUNT 4 - POSSESSION OF FIREARM BY EXFELON (Felony - NRS 202.360 / Category B), as more fully alleged in the charging document attached hereto as Exhibit "1".

My decision to plead guilty is based upon the plea agreement in this case which is as follows:

The State has agreed to dismiss the remaining counts. Defendant stipulates to large habitual treatment under NRS 207.010. Parties stipulate to a 2-5 year sentence on Count 1. Defendant treated as habitual under Count 2 and receive 10-25 year sentence, consecutive to

F:\WPDOCS\INF\002\00274204.doc

Count 1, for a total of 12-30 years in the Nevada Department of Corrections. All other counts to run concurrent.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLEA

I understand that by pleading guilty I admit the facts which support all the elements of the offense(s) to which I now plead as set forth in Exhibit "1".

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 1, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than two (2) years and a maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment. I understand that I may also be fined up to $10,000.00.

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 2, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than one (1) year and a maximum term of not more than six (6) years. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment. I understand that I may also be fined up to $5,000.00.

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 3, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than two (2) years and a maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years, plus a consecutive minimum term of not less than one (1) year and a maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years for the use of a deadly weapon enhancement. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment.

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 4, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than one (1) year and a maximum term of not more than six (6) years. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment. I understand that I may also be fined up to $5,000.00.

I understand that the law requires me to pay an Administrative Assessment Fee.

 Further, I understand that if I am sentenced under the under the "small" habitual criminal enhancement, the Court must sentence me to a term not less than FIVE (5) years and a maximum of TWENTY (20) years in the Nevada Department of Corrections. I understand that if I am sentenced under the "large" habitual criminal enhancement the Court must sentence me to LIFE without the possibility of parole; life with the possibility of parole, parole eligibility begins after a minimum term of TEN (10) years has been served; OR a definite term of TWENTY FIVE (25) years, parole eligibility begins after a minimum of TEN (10) years has been served.

I understand that, if appropriate, I will be ordered to make restitution to the victim of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty and to the victim of any related offense which is being dismissed or not prosecuted pursuant to this agreement. I will also be ordered to reimburse the State of Nevada for any expenses related to my extradition, if any.

I understand that I am eligible for probation for the offense to which I am pleading guilty to in Count 1, 2, and 4. I understand that, except as otherwise provided by statute, the question of whether I receive probation is in the discretion of the sentencing judge.

I understand that I am not eligible for probation for the offense to which I am pleading guilty to in Count 3.

I also understand that I must submit to blood and/or saliva tests under the Direction of the Division of Parole and Probation to determine genetic markers and/or secretor status.

I understand that if more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed and I am eligible to serve the sentences concurrently, the sentencing judge has the discretion to order the sentences served concurrently or consecutively.

I also understand that information regarding charges not filed, dismissed charges, or charges to be dismissed pursuant to this agreement may be considered by the judge at sentencing.

I have not been promised or guaranteed any particular sentence by anyone. I know that my sentence is to be determined by the Court within the limits prescribed by statute.

I understand that if my attorney or the State of Nevada or both recommend any specific punishment to the Court, the Court is not obligated to accept the recommendation.

I understand that if the State of Nevada has agreed to recommend or stipulate a particular sentence or has agreed not to present argument regarding the sentence, or agreed not to oppose a particular sentence, or has agreed to disposition as a gross misdemeanor when the offense could have been treated as a felony, such agreement is contingent upon my appearance in court on the initial sentencing date (and any subsequent dates if the sentencing is continued). I understand that if I fail to appear for the scheduled sentencing date or I commit a new criminal offense prior to sentencing the State of Nevada would regain the full right to argue for any lawful sentence.

I understand if the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty to was committed while I was incarcerated on another charge or while I was on probation or parole that I am not eligible for credit for time served toward the instant offense(s).

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty, if I am not a citizen of the United States, I may, in addition to other consequences provided for by federal law, be removed, deported, excluded from entry into the United States or denied naturalization.

I understand that the Division of Parole and Probation will prepare a report for the sentencing judge prior to sentencing. This report will include matters relevant to the issue of sentencing, including my criminal history. This report may contain hearsay information regarding my background and criminal history. My attorney and I will each have the opportunity to comment on the information contained in the report at the time of sentencing. Unless the District Attorney has specifically agreed otherwise, then the District Attorney may also comment on this report.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

By entering my plea of guilty, I understand that I am waiving and forever giving up the following rights and privileges:

- 1. The constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, including the right to refuse to testify at trial, in which event the prosecution would not be allowed to comment to the jury about my refusal to testify.
- 2. The constitutional right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, free of excessive pretrial publicity prejudicial to the defense, at which trial I would be entitled to the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained. At trial the State would bear the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt each element of the offense charged.
- 3. The constitutional right to confront and cross-examine any witnesses who would testify against me.
  - 4. The constitutional right to subpoena witnesses to testify on my behalf.
  - 5. The constitutional right to testify in my own defense.
- 6. The right to appeal the conviction, with the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained, unless the appeal is based upon reasonable constitutional jurisdictional or other grounds that challenge the legality of the proceedings and except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 of NRS 174.035.

VOLUNTARINESS OF PLEA

I have discussed the elements of all of the original charge(s) against me with my attorney and I understand the nature of the charge(s) against me.

I understand that the State would have to prove each element of the charge(s) against me at trial.

I have discussed with my attorney any possible defenses, defense strategies and circumstances which might be in my favor.

All of the foregoing elements, consequences, rights, and waiver of rights have been thoroughly explained to me by my attorney.

I believe that pleading guilty and accepting this plea bargain is in my best interest, and that a trial would be contrary to my best interest.

I am signing this agreement voluntarily, after consultation with my attorney, and I am not acting under duress or coercion or by virtue of any promises of leniency, except for those set forth in this agreement.

I am not now under the influence of any intoxicating liquor, a controlled substance or other drug which would in any manner impair my ability to comprehend or understand this agreement or the proceedings surrounding my entry of this plea.

My attorney has answered all my questions regarding this guilty plea agreement and its consequences to my satisfaction and I am satisfied with the services provided by my attorney.

PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: Cary Pickett. Yes, Mr. Almase?

MR. ALMASE: Good morning, your Honor.

THE COURT: Good morning, sir.

MR. ALMASE: Mr. Pickett is present in custody. You want me to do it?

MR. NELSON: Either way. Whatever you want.

THE COURT: Why don't you go ahead and let Mr. Nelson put it on there. Go ahead, Mr. Nelson.

MR. NELSON: Judge, it's my understanding this morning he's going to plead guilty to one count of burglary while in possession of a firearm, count two, conspiracy to commit robbery, count three, robbery with use of a deadly weapon, and count four, possession of a firearm by ex-felon. There's a signed guilty plea agreement dated March 11th, today, Judge.

The State agreed to dismiss the remaining counts. The Defendant stipulates to the large habitual criminal treatment under NRS 207.010. The parties stipulate to a two- to five-year sentence with regard to count one. The Defendant will agree that he'll be treated as a large habitual under count two and receive a sentence of ten to twenty-five years. That will run consecutive to count one for a total of twelve to thirty years in the Nevada Department of Corrections. All the other counts will run concurrent, Judge.

THE COURT: Now did you hear that -- those negotiations put on the record by the State, sir?

1	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
2	THE COURT: What is your true name, Mr. Pickett?
3	THE DEFENDANT: Cary Jerard Pickett.
4	THE COURT: How old are you?
5	THE DEFENDANT: Forty-four.
6	THE COURT: How far did you go in school?
7	THE DEFENDANT: Thirteen years.
8	THE COURT: Read, write, and understand the English language?
9	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
10	THE COURT: Okay, move just a little closer to the microphone if you would
11	there, Mr. Pickett.
12	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
13	THE COURT: Understand what you're charged with?
14	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.
15	THE COURT: What is your plea?
16	THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.
17	THE COURT: Before I can accept your guilty plea, I must be assured it's
18	freely and voluntarily given. Has anyone threatened you to get you to plead guilty?
19	THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.
20	THE COURT: Has anyone threatened anyone closely associated with you in
21	order to get you to plead guilty?
22
23
24	fifteen years, Nevada Department of Prisons?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

25

THE COURT: Do you understand the penalty range for count two is one to six years, Nevada Department of Prisons, up to a $5,000 fine?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Do you understand the penalty range for count three which you're pleading guilty to, robbery with use of a deadly weapon, is one to fifteen years -- two to fifteen years for the robbery; do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And do you understand there's an additional one- to fifteen-year penalty for use of a deadly weapon; you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Do you understand the penalty range for count four is one to six years, Nevada Department of Prisons, up to a $5,000 fine?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And do you understand that sentencing is strictly up to the Court and no one can promise you probation, leniency, or any special treatment?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And you further understand, sir, that you stipulated to the use of the large habitual criminal which carries the following penalty ranges: Life without the possibility of parole, life with the possibility of parole with parole eligibility beginning after ten years, or a definite term of twenty-five years in the Nevada Department of Prisons with parole eligibility beginning after ten years; you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And do you understand that you have stipulated to the last type of sentencing which is ten to twenty-five years; you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And it says here in regards to count two that you did meet with Alan Daniels and between yourselves you willfully, unlawfully conspired and agreed to commit the crime of robbery, and in furtherance of that conspiracy you did the act set forth in count three?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay, in regards to count four, possession of a firearm by an ex-felon, it says you did willfully, unlawfully, and feloniously own or have in your possession or under your control a weapon, and that was a handgun, and that at that time you were an ex-felon, 'cause in 2006 you had been convicted in Case Number C226282 of transport of controlled substance, a felony under the laws of the State of Nevada, and also in 1997 you had previously been convicted of a -- in Case Number 145127 of burglary; is that correct?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And in Case C21 -- 143 [sic] and you had been convicted of grand larceny; is that correct?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And in -- that was in 1993 -- excuse me. And then for a final case you had was C109725 in 1993 where you'd been convicted of attempt grand larceny; is that correct?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: So you had possession of a firearm after being convicted of felonies; is that correct?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. Anything else there, Mr. Nelson?

MR. NELSON: No, Judge.

	MEETS failure to conduct Any investigation into his

6	prior to advising his client to stipulate to the

MEMORANDUM/AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF APPEAL FROM EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

To: The Honorable Supreme Court Justices State of Nevada

Memorandum

10C262523-2

MEMO

17 State of Nevada SS. County of Clark

> Cary Pickett, Petitioner in pro-per, under penalty of perjury being duly sworn, deposes and says that:

- 1. That the Eighth Judicial District court denied my petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus citing Petitioner as failing to provide proof to support his four (4) grounds for relief at his April 6, 2011 hearing.
- 2. That the assertions raised in two (2) of the grounds raised in my petition are true and alleged ineffective assistance of counsel claims that warranted the Eighth Judicial District Courteller to conduct an evidenciary hearing in order to provide the proof required by the Court as proof.

APR 1 8 2011

SECONO OF THE COURT

ক ত

- 3. That the allegation of counsel's ineffectiveness related directly to his failure to investigate or ask any questions to assert in petitioner's prior felonies for constitutionally validity prior to advising Petitioner to stipulate/plead guilty to habitual criminal status and that two (2) of his prior convictions were in fact invalid.
- 4. That being Petitioner was sentenced by the District Court and two (2) invalid J.O.C.'s were used to adjudicate Petitioner should cause concern to this Court as to how all three (3) entities in the advocacy process could have missed (A) Defense Counsel (B) the Prosecution and (C) the Court.
- 5. That the petition also asserted improperly adjudicated as a habitual offender as the Court made its decision to adjudicate Petitioner using two (2) prior convictions (#143146 and 145127) that according to Nevada law were invalid for purposes of enhancement under N.R.S. 207.010 being that Petitioner was not represented by counsel and the State failed to acknowledge or disclosed to the Court the truth of those convictions (J.O.C.'s) and further did not provide any proof of valid waiver of counsel, however the Court although Petitioner also submitted copies of those J.O.C.'s as proof the Eighth Judicial District Court ignored them as proof according to its ruling.
- 6. That based on Nevada Law, the adjudication process is the responsibility of the State and the Cort to insure that only valid prior convictions be used to support an enhanced sentence before a defendant is adjudicated a habitual offender and not as claimed used how many valid ones remain would allow a sentence to stand; clearly the Court and the State got the standard wrong.

7. That this Court based on a review of the allegation and a ruling of th Eighth Judicial District Court should vacate his sentence under N.R.S. 207.010 or in the alternative remand his case back for an evidenciary hearing.

DATED: this 12th day of April, 2011.

Conspiracy to Commit Robbery, and six (6) counts of Possession of a Firearm by an Ex-Felon.

- 2. On March 10, 2010, pursuant to negotiations, Defendant was charged by way of Information with one count each of Burglary While in Possession of a Firearm, Conspiracy to Commit Robbery, Robbery With Use of a Deadly Weapon, and Possession of a Firearm by an Ex-Felon. On March 11, 2010, pursuant to a written Guilty Plea Agreement, Defendant pled guilty to the same charges.
- 3. On May 10, 2010, Defendant was adjudged a Habitual Criminal and sentenced as follows: as to Count 1 Burglary While in Possession of a Firearm, to a MAXIMUM of SIXTY (60) MONTHS with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of TWENTY-FOUR (24) MONTHS; as to Count 2 Conspiracy to Commit Robbery, to MAXIMUM of SIXTY (60) MONTHS with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of TWENTY-FOUR (24) MONTHS; as to Count 3 Robbery with Use of a Deadly Weapon, to a MAXIMUM of TWENTY-FIVE (25) YEARS with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of TEN (10) YEARS, Count 3 to run CONSECUTIVE to Count 1; as to Count 4 Possession of a Firearm by an Ex-Felon, to a MAXIMUM of SIXTY (60) MONTHS with a MINIMUM parole eligibility of TWENTY-FOUR (24) MONTHS, Count 4 to run CONCURRENT with Count 2, with EIGHTY-EIGHT (88) DAYS credit for time served.
  - 4. A Judgment of Conviction was filed on May 19, 2010.
  - 5. Defendant did not file a Direct Appeal.
  - 6. Defendant filed the instant petition on January 27, 2011.
  - 7. Defendant's counsel rendered effective assistance.
- 8. Defendant stipulated to habitual criminal treatment as part of his plea agreement.
- 9. Defendant has failed to provide any evidence supporting his claim that two out of seven of his previous felony convictions which were the basis for his treatment as a habitual criminal were constitutionally infirm.

- 10. Even if counsel had successfully challenged two of Defendant's previous convictions as constitutionally infirm, five would have remained for the court to consider. Defendant therefore cannot demonstrate prejudice.
- 11. Since Defendant stipulated to treatment as a habitual criminal, any arguments by counsel against such treatment at sentencing would have been futile. Counsel cannot be deemed ineffective for failing to make futile arguments.
- 12. Defendant's bare allegation that his counsel failed to make mitigation arguments at sentencing is insufficient for relief.
- 13. The totality of the circumstances, including the relevant portions of Defendant's GPA, the plea canvass, and taking into account the presence of counsel, demonstrates Defendant's guilty plea was entered knowingly and voluntarily.
- 14. Defendant's claim that he was improperly sentenced as a habitual criminal is not cognizable in a petition for post-conviction relief since Defendant's conviction was based upon a plea of guilty.
- 15. Defendant has failed to provide evidence for consideration which supports the grounds alleged.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. In order to assert a claim for ineffective assistance of counsel a defendant must prove that he was denied "reasonably effective assistance" of counsel by satisfying the two-prong test of Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686-87, 104 S.Ct. 2052, 2063-64 (1984). See also State v. Love, 109 Nev. 1136, 1138, 865 P.2d 322, 323 (1993). Under this test, the Defendant must show first that his counsel's representation fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, and second, that but for counsel's errors, there is a reasonable probability that the result of the proceedings would have been different. Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687-88, 694, 104 S.Ct. at 2065, 2068; Warden, Nevada State Prison v. Lyons, 100 Nev. 430, 432, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984) (adopting Strickland two-part test in Nevada).

P:\WPDOCS\FOF\002\00274201.doc

- 2. The court begins with the presumption of effectiveness and then must determine whether or not the petitioner has proved disputed factual allegations underlying his ineffective-assistance claim by a preponderance of the evidence. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1012, 103 P.3d 25, 33 (2004).
- 3. Judicial review of a lawyer's representation is highly deferential, and a defendant must overcome the presumption that a challenged action might be considered sound strategy. State v. LaPena, 114 Nev. 1159, 1166, 968 P.2d 750, 754 (1998) (quoting from Strickland, 466 U.S. at 689, 104 S.Ct at 2052 (1984)). Strategy or decisions regarding the conduct of defendant's case are "virtually unchallengeable absent extraordinary circumstances." Doleman v. State, 112 Nev. 843, 848, 921 P.2d 278, 280 (1996) (quoting Howard v. State, 106 Nev. 713, 722, 800P.2d 175, 180 (1990)).
- 4. Pursuant to NRS 176.165, after sentencing, a defendant's guilty plea can only be withdrawn to correct "manifest injustice." See also Baal v. State, 106 Nev. 69, 72, 787 P.2d 391, 394 (1990). The law in Nevada clearly establishes that a plea of guilty is presumptively valid and the burden is on a defendant to show that the plea was not voluntarily entered. Bryant v. State, 102 Nev. 268, 272, 721 P.2d 364, 368 (1986) (citing Wingfield v. State, 91 Nev. 336, 337, 535 P.2d 1295, 1295 (1975)). Manifest injustice does not exist if defendant entered his plea voluntarily. Baal, 106 Nev. at 72, 787 P.2d at 394. To determine whether a guilty plea was voluntarily entered the Court will review the totality of the circumstances surrounding the defendant's plea. Bryant, 102 Nev. at 271, 721 P.2d at 367.
  - 5. NRS 34.810(1)(a) states in relevant part:
    - 1. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:
    - (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or guilty but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an allegation that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUT CLERK

ORDER RE: ENTRY OF WRITTEN JUDGMENT OR ORDER AND RECORD ON APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from a decision denying a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus. This court's review of this appeal indicates that, as of the date of this order, the district court has not entered a written order denying the petition. The criminal court minutes indicate that the district court orally denied the petition in court on April 6, 2011. Prior to the entry of a final, written judgment or order, and the timely filing of a notice of appeal, the district court technically retains jurisdiction over appellant's case. See Bradley v. State, 109 Nev. 1090, 1094-95, 864 P.2d 1272, 1275 (1993). In a criminal case, a notice of appeal filed after announcement of the decision, but before entry of the written judgment or order is deemed to have been filed after such entry and on the day thereof. NRAP 4(b)(2). Thus, a copy of the written judgment or order is essential to a determination of this court's jurisdiction to consider this appeal.

Accordingly, the district court shall have 30 days from the date of this order within which to: (1) enter a written judgment or order or (2) inform this court that it is reconsidering its decision. In the event the district court enters a written judgment or order (or has already entered a written judgment or order of which this court is unaware), the clerk of the district court shall immediately transmit a certified copy of the judgment or order to the clerk of this court.

AGCEIVE7

CLERK OF The

Further, the clerk of the district court shall, within 60 days from the date of this order, transmit to the clerk of this court a certified copy of the complete trial court record of this appeal. See NRAP 11(a)(2). The record shall not include any physical, non-documentary exhibits or the original documentary exhibits filed in the district court, but copies of documentary exhibits submitted in the district court proceedings shall be transmitted as part of the record on appeal. The record shall also include any presentence investigation reports submitted in a sealed envelope identifying the contents and marked confidential. See NRS 176.156(5).

It is so ORDERED.

CLERK OF THE COURT

AUG 26 2011

LAS VEGAS, CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA MONDAY, MAY 10, 2010, 9:31 A.M.

****

THE COURT: Next case.

THE BAILIFF: Your Honor please, bottom of page 8.

THE COURT: Bottom of page 8, C262523, State of Nevada versus Cary Pickett. The record should reflect the presence of Mr. Pickett, again in custody with counsel, a representative of the State. This is the time set for sentencing. Any legal cause or reason why judgment should not be entered?

MR. ALMASE: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Hearing no reason to delay adjudication, the defendant is adjudicated guilty of: burglary while in possession of a firearm, Count 1; Count 2, conspiracy to commit robbery; Count 3, robbery with use of a deadly weapon; Count 4, possession of firearm by ex-felon.

My notes reflect the State's agreed to dismiss the remaining counts; the defendant stipulates to large habitual criminal treatment under NRS 270.010. The parties stipulate to two to five years on Count 1; the defendant treated as habitual on Count 2, receive ten to twenty-five. So it's structured under habitual criminal on the low of the three options available there, consecutive to Count 1, for a total of twelve to thirty years Nevada Department of Corrections; other counts to run concurrent.

Is that an accurate statement of the negotiations?

MR. ALMASE: That's correct, Judge.

THE COURT: Mr. Nelson, do you have any additional documents you wish to offer in support of adjudication pursuant to 207.010?

1	MR. NELSON: I do, Judge. And with regard to Mr. Daniels earlier, I
2	handed the Court two judgments of convictions. Can I just make sure those are
3	marked and admitted as Court Exhibits 1 and 2?
4	THE COURT: Yes.
5	THE CLERK: They are, Your Honor.
6	THE COURT: They've already been marked by my clerk as Court's
7	Exhibits 1 and 2. And actually, let's keep the photocopies that you offered to
8	both me and the defense on that.
9	MR. NELSON: Yes, Judge.
10	THE COURT: All right.
11	MR. NELSON: Judge, I have I believe seven in total judgments of
12	conviction with regard to Cary Pickett.
13	THE COURT: I only counted six.
14	MR. NELSON: Okay. It might be six then.
15	One is C99915X; that is a certified judgment of conviction out of
16	Nevada for attempt grand larceny, which was treated as a felony.
17	I have C107733X, which is a judgment of – Nevada judgment of
18	conviction; that felony is for burglary, from 1992.
19	I have C109725, which is a certified Nevada judgment of conviction
20	from 1992 for attempt grand larceny.
21	I have C119000, a 1994 certified judgment of conviction for a felony
22	of escape.
23	I have C143146, which is a certified judgment of conviction for grand
24	larceny from 1997.
25	I have C145127, which is a certified judgment of conviction from

Nevada for the felony offense of burglary.

And I have C226282, which is a felony, certified judgment of conviction from Nevada for transporting a controlled substance.

THE COURT: That's the one I didn't have, or didn't see.

MR. NELSON: And I ask that those be marked as Court Exhibits and admitted.

THE CLERK: State's Exhibits?

THE COURT: Yeah, State's Exhibits in support of adjudication.

Mr. Almase, have you had an opportunity to review those certified copies of judgments of conviction to determine whether or not to challenge any for constitutional – on any constitutional grounds?

MR. ALMASE: Actually, Judge, I haven't received a copy of them, but – here we go. If there's an issue with any of the representations by Mr. Nelson, I would reserve the right to address that at a later date, however I see no reason why there's any constitutional basis to challenge these judgments of conviction at this point, Judge.

THE COURT: It does appear, as for his Codefendant Mr. Daniels, that the D.A. did supply in advance copies, photocopies of those convictions. And as I'm required to do, I went through and made an independent determination of whether there's a certified copy of judgment of conviction for each one, and I did that. The only one I didn't have was the transport controlled substance, and when I looked at that this morning it does appear to be a certified copy of a felony as stated, so it does appear to be an accurate –

MR. ALMASE: Very well, Judge.

THE COURT: All right. But -

MR. NELSON: Judge, I would also note -

THE COURT: – but the minutes will reflect that Mr. Almase reserves any right to challenge those if necessary. But at this point there's no basis to delay the process.

MR. ALMASE: Thank you, Judge.

MR. NELSON: I'd also note that he's registered in Nevada for all seven of the felony convictions.

THE COURT: Okay. All right, the Court makes a finding that the State has provided, and I've independently analyzed those as I'm required to do, and the defendant is eligible for habitual criminal enhancement pursuant to 207.010.

Mr. Pickett, you're no different than Mr. Daniels. And the fact remains that I support negotiations; I try to help the process. It's just part of the realities of what we deal with here. With this multiple number of convictions you would be eligible potentially for a life-without sentence, but the structure as agreed upon and stipulated to was at the low range of that, the ten to twenty-five. And it would be my inclination to follow that. Do you have anything else, any additional information you would like to offer in mitigation, anything you'd like to tell me?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. If you're inclined to follow the recommendation, that's fine.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Almase, anything else?

MR. ALMASE: Judge, I would just like to say that Mr. Pickett has always taken responsibility for his actions, and he at no time tried to shirk what occurred here. He's a very articulate individual, and I'm hopeful that he gets the rehabilitation necessary and when he is paroled out that he will stay on the right side of the law.

THE COURT: All right. In accordance with the law of the State of Nevada: On Count 1, 24 to 60 months Nevada Department of Corrections. On Count 2, the defendant is enhanced pursuant to habitual criminal; the sentence will be 10 to 25 years, a minimum 10, maximum 25 years in Nevada Department of Corrections consecutive to Count 1. Count 3, we'll do – since Count 3 really isn't part of the structure, we'll do 24 to 60 –

MR. NELSON: Judge, maybe we could -

THE COURT: We can't do it. Yeah.

MR. NELSON: Why don't you just do Count 2, 24 to 60 and adjudicate him under the NRS 207.010 for Count 3. That way you won't have to mess around with the deadly weapon enhancement. I think that's the way –

THE COURT: You guys want -

MR. NELSON: - Mr. Almase and I intended it, and I may have written it wrong in the plea.

THE COURT: Okay. Count 1, 24 to 60 months; Count 2, 24 to 60.

Count 3, adjudication pursuant to habitual criminal 207.010; the sentence will be 10 on the bottom, 25 on the top, consecutive to Count 1. Count 3, 24 to 60 –

MR. NELSON: That's Count 4.

THE COURT: Counts 1 and 3 will run consecutive; Counts 2 and 4 will run concurrent. Correct, to the balance?

MR. NELSON: You just said Count 3 24 to 60, I just believe -

THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry.

MR. NELSON: - you meant Count 4.

1	THE COURT: I apologize.
2	MR. NELSON: Okay. Thank you.
3	THE COURT: Count 4, possession of firearm by ex-felon, will be 24
4	to 60.
5	MR. NELSON: Thank you, Judge.
6	THE COURT: Count 3 is the 10 to 25.
7	THE CLERK: Okay. And 1 and 3 are consecutive?
8	THE COURT: 1 and 3 are consecutive pursuant to the agreement,
9	Counts 2 and 4 concurrent. The spirit of the negotiations is that the total
10	sentence will be 12 on the bottom, 30 on the top; and that's the understanding of
11	the Court in the structure of the sentence.
12	Twenty-five dollar ($25) administrative assessment fee. Restitution
13	joint and several with the codefendant of $11,948.60. P&P is also indicating Mr.
14	Pickett to be individually responsible for restitution in the $1,550. No DNA
15	sample is necessary because of the prior efforts to collect - or the prior
16	successful efforts to collect a DNA sample from Mr. Pickett. The $250 IDF fee
17	does appear to be appropriate.
18	Is there any CTS against this sentence?
19	MR. ALMASE: 88 days.
20	THE COURT: 88 days CTS. Anything else, gentlemen?
21	MR. NELSON: That's it, Judge.
22	MR. ALMASE: No, Your Honor.
23	THE COURT: All right. Next case.
24	MR. ALMASE: Thank you, Judge.

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus.<sup>1</sup> Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; David B. Barker, Judge.

In his petition filed on January 27, 2011, appellant claimed that he received ineffective assistance of counsel. To prove ineffective assistance of counsel, a petitioner must demonstrate that counsel's performance was deficient in that it fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, and resulting prejudice such that there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's errors, the outcome of the proceedings would have been different. Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 687-

SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA

(O) 1947A 400

11-30381

&lt;sup>1</sup>This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Luckett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

88 (1984); Warden v. Lyons, 100 Nev. 430, 432-33, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984) (adopting the test in Strickland). To prove prejudice sufficient to invalidate the decision to enter a guilty plea, appellant must demonstrate that there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's errors, petitioner would not have pleaded guilty and would have insisted on going to trial. Hill v. Lockhart, 474 U.S. 52, 58-59 (1985); Kirksey v. State, 112 Nev. 980, 988, 923 P.2d 1102, 1107 (1996). Both components of the inquiry must be shown. Strickland, 466 U.S. at 697.

First, appellant claimed that his trial counsel was ineffective for advising him to enter a guilty plea which included a stipulation to large habitual criminal treatment under NRS 207.010 for the robbery count. Appellant claimed that trial counsel failed to challenge the change in terminology employed to describe the negotiations, failed to adequately investigate the validity of his prior convictions, and failed to adequately advise him of the habitual criminal adjudication process and the potential penalties for habitual criminal adjudication.

Appellant failed to demonstrate that his trial counsel's performance was deficient. Appellant's argument that he was not permitted to enter into a stipulation as a matter of law was incorrect as NRS 207.016(6) permits a court to impose an adjudication of habitual criminality based on a stipulation.<sup>2</sup> See also Hodges v. State, 119 Nev.

479, 484, 78 P.3d 67, 70 (2003). No substantive change occurred between the preliminary hearing and the plea canvass in the terminology to describe the plea negotiations. Appellant was further correctly informed of the penalty for large habitual criminal treatment in the written guilty plea agreement and during the plea canvass. Further, appellant failed to demonstrate that he was prejudiced as appellant received a substantial benefit in the instant case. In exchange for a guilty plea to one count of burglary while in possession of a firearm, one count of conspiracy to commit robbery, one count of robbery with a deadly weapon, and one count of possession of a firearm by an ex-felon and a stipulation to large habitual criminal treatment for the robbery count with an agreed upon sentence of ten to twenty-five years, the State agreed to the dismissal of twenty additional felony counts.<sup>3</sup> Therefore, we conclude that the district court did not err in denying this claim.

hearing. Any error in presenting two additional, invalid prior convictions was harmless as the other five convictions presented, which contain either seals or certification stamps, were more than sufficient for large habitual criminal treatment. NRS 207.010(1)(b); NRS 207.016(5).

<sup>3</sup>In regard to the dismissed counts, appellant faced the possibility of being adjudicated a habitual criminal and life imprisonment for each count.

SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA

(O) 1947A -

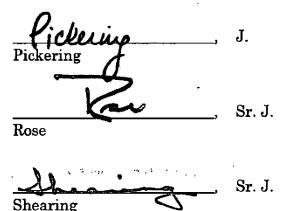

Second, appellant claimed that his trial counsel was ineffective for failing to investigate or present mitigating arguments at sentencing. Appellant failed to demonstrate that he was prejudiced. The district court imposed the sentence that appellant stipulated to receiving. Appellant failed to demonstrate by a reasonable probability that the district court would have dismissed the count of habitual criminality or that he would have received a lesser sentence had trial counsel presented mitigating arguments at sentencing. Therefore, we conclude that the district court did not err in denying this claim.

Next, appellant claimed that his plea was invalid because he was not personally canvassed about the habitual criminal adjudication process and any rights he waived by stipulating to large habitual criminal treatment. Appellant further claimed that he felt pressured into accepting the plea due to his co-defendant's acceptance of plea negotiations.

Appellant failed to carry his burden of establishing that the plea was not entered knowingly and intelligently. State v. Freese, 116 Nev. 1097, 1105, 13 P.3d 442, 448 (2000); Bryant v. State, 102 Nev. 268, 272, 721 P.2d 364, 368 (1986); see also Hubbard v. State, 110 Nev. 671, 675, 877 P.2d 519, 521 (1994). Appellant was properly and personally canvassed about the terms of the negotiations and the potential penalties he faced by entry of his plea. In entering his plea, appellant acknowledged that it was being entered voluntarily. Therefore, we conclude that the district court did not err in denying this claim.

SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA Finally, appellant claimed that the district court improperly adjudicated him a habitual criminal for a number of reasons. These challenges were outside the scope of claims permissible in a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus challenging a judgment of conviction based on a guilty plea. NRS 34.810(1)(a). Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.4

&lt;sup>4</sup>The Honorables Robert Rose and Miriam Shearing, Senior Justices, participated in the decision of this matter under general orders of assignment.

(O) 1947A 489

We have reviewed all documents that appellant has submitted in proper person to the clerk of this court in this matter, and we conclude that no relief based upon those submissions is warranted. ### CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLEA

I understand that by pleading guilty I admit the facts which support all the elements of the offense(s) to which I now plead as set forth in Exhibit "1".

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 1, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than two (2) years and a maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment. I understand that I may also be fined up to $10,000.00.

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 2, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than one (1) year and a maximum term of not more than six (6) years. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment. I understand that I may also be fined up to $5,000.00.

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 3, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than two (2) years and a maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years, plus a consecutive minimum term of not less than one (1) year and a maximum term of not more than fifteen (15) years for the use of a deadly weapon enhancement. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment.

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty as to Count 4, the Court must sentence me to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than one (1) year and a maximum term of not more than six (6) years. The minimum term of imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment. I understand that I may also be fined up to $5,000.00.

I understand that the law requires me to pay an Administrative Assessment Fee.

Further, I understand that if I am sentenced under the under the "small" habitual criminal enhancement, the Court must sentence me to a term not less than FIVE (5) years and a maximum of TWENTY (20) years in the Nevada Department of Corrections. I understand that if I am sentenced under the "large" habitual criminal enhancement the Court must sentence me to LIFE without the possibility of parole; life with the possibility of parole, parole eligibility begins after a minimum term of TEN (10) years has been served; OR a definite term of TWENTY FIVE (25) years, parole eligibility begins after a minimum of TEN (10) years has been served.

I understand that, if appropriate, I will be ordered to make restitution to the victim of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty and to the victim of any related offense which is being dismissed or not prosecuted pursuant to this agreement. I will also be ordered to reimburse the State of Nevada for any expenses related to my extradition, if any.

I understand that I am eligible for probation for the offense to which I am pleading guilty to in Count 1, 2, and 4. I understand that, except as otherwise provided by statute, the question of whether I receive probation is in the discretion of the sentencing judge.

I understand that I am not eligible for probation for the offense to which I am pleading guilty to in Count 3.

I also understand that I must submit to blood and/or saliva tests under the Direction of the Division of Parole and Probation to determine genetic markers and/or secretor status.

I understand that if more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed and I am eligible to serve the sentences concurrently, the sentencing judge has the discretion to order the sentences served concurrently or consecutively.

I also understand that information regarding charges not filed, dismissed charges, or charges to be dismissed pursuant to this agreement may be considered by the judge at sentencing.

I have not been promised or guaranteed any particular sentence by anyone. I know that my sentence is to be determined by the Court within the limits prescribed by statute.

I understand that if my attorney or the State of Nevada or both recommend any specific punishment to the Court, the Court is not obligated to accept the recommendation.

I understand that if the State of Nevada has agreed to recommend or stipulate a particular sentence or has agreed not to present argument regarding the sentence, or agreed not to oppose a particular sentence, or has agreed to disposition as a gross misdemeanor when the offense could have been treated as a felony, such agreement is contingent upon my appearance in court on the initial sentencing date (and any subsequent dates if the sentencing is continued). I understand that if I fail to appear for the scheduled sentencing date or I commit a new criminal offense prior to sentencing the State of Nevada would regain the full right to argue for any lawful sentence.

I understand if the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty to was committed while I was incarcerated on another charge or while I was on probation or parole that I am not eligible for credit for time served toward the instant offense(s).

I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty, if I am not a citizen of the United States, I may, in addition to other consequences provided for by federal law, be removed, deported, excluded from entry into the United States or denied naturalization.

I understand that the Division of Parole and Probation will prepare a report for the sentencing judge prior to sentencing. This report will include matters relevant to the issue of sentencing, including my criminal history. This report may contain hearsay information regarding my background and criminal history. My attorney and I will each have the opportunity to comment on the information contained in the report at the time of sentencing. Unless the District Attorney has specifically agreed otherwise, then the District Attorney may also comment on this report.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

By entering my plea of guilty, I understand that I am waiving and forever giving up the following rights and privileges:

MR. NELSON: Judge, I would also note ~

THE COURT: — but the minutes will reflect that Mr. Almase reserves any right to challenge those if necessary. But at this point there's no basis to delay the process.

MR. ALMASE: Thank you, Judge.

MR. NELSON: I'd also note that he's registered in Nevada for all seven of the felony convictions.

THE COURT: Okay. All right, the Court makes a finding that the State has provided, and I've independently analyzed those as I'm required to do, and the defendant is eligible for habitual criminal enhancement pursuant to 207.010.

Mr. Pickett, you're no different than Mr. Daniels. And the fact remains that I support negotiations; I try to help the process. It's just part of the realities of what we deal with here. With this multiple number of convictions you would be eligible potentially for a life-without sentence, but the structure as agreed upon and stipulated to was at the low range of that, the ten to twenty-five. And it would be my inclination to follow that. Do you have anything else, any additional information you would like to offer in mitigation, anything you'd like to tell me?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. If you're inclined to follow the recommendation, that's fine.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Almase, anything else?

MR. ALMASE: Judge, I would just like to say that Mr. Pickett has always taken responsibility for his actions, and he at no time tried to shirk what occurred here. He's a very articulate individual, and I'm hopeful that he gets the
