NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY

NRAP 31(e) states:

(e) Supplemental Authorities. When pertinent and significant authorities come to a party's attention after the party's brief has been filed, but before a decision, a party may promptly advise the Supreme Court by filing and serving a notice of supplemental authorities, setting forth the citations. The notice shall provide references to the page(s) of the brief that is being supplemented. The notice shall further state concisely and without argument the legal proposition for which each supplemental authority is cited. The notice may not raise any new points or issues. Any response must be made promptly and must be similarly limited. If filed less than 10 days before oral argument, a notice of supplemental authorities shall not be assured of consideration by the court at oral argument; provided, however, that no notice of supplemental authorities shall be rejected for filing on the ground that it was filed less than 10 days before oral argument.

NRAP 31(e) allows Newson to directly file supplemental authorities without first seeking permission from the court under NRAP 27.

Newson files this notice of supplemental authorities to direct the Court's attention to Brown v. State, 138 Nev. ___, ___ n. 12, 512 P.3d 269, 279 n. 12 (June 23, 2022). In Brown, this Court found the district court's erroneous denial of the defendant's right to physical confrontation to be harmless but in doing so admonished, "[w]e nevertheless caution that district courts, in considering Confrontation Clause arguments, should make express findings on the record regarding the factors enumerated in [Lipsitz v. State, 135 Nev. 131 (2019)]." Newson would like to supplement his Opening Brief at p. 15-16, 22, 24 and his Reply Brief at p. 3, 6-7, 10 with the aforementioned authority.
