16 parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption

12 of a court and one parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this 13 State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially 14 impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child,
15 and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him or her, the relocating parent 16 shall, before relocating:

17 (a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating parent to relocate with 18 the child; and

19 (b) If the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for 20 primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

21 2. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the relocating parent if the 22 court finds that the non-relocating parent refused to consent to the relocating parent's

4 ordered to pay child support to the other, that, pursuant to NRS 125.007, a parent responsible for 5 paying child support is subject to NRS 31A.010 through NRS 31A.340, inclusive, and Sections 2
6 and 3 of Chapter 31A of the Nevada Revised Statutes, regarding the withholding of wages and 7 commissions for the delinquent payment of support, that these statutes and provisions require 8 that, if a parent responsible for paying child support is delinquent in paying the support of a child 9 that such person has been ordered to pay, then that person's wages or commissions shall 10 immediately be subject to wage assignment and garnishment, pursuant to the provisions of the 11 above-referenced statutes.
