Our court order states I pick the babysitter and you transport to the babysitter I choose. You can go back in our court orders and search for it. My attorney sent your attorney a letter regarding this.

I have spoken with people who are close to La. They are also worried about her. There is more than Bert's domestic violence that is concerning. They also believe she has a drug addiction. Bert was her source for drugs and now since there is a protection order in place they feel she has turned to other sources to get her supply. I am sure they will testify to this if we need to go to court over La being the babysitter. I love her but I love our kids more. Please take this seriously. Our kids safety is what is important.

While you are at work and you are not willing to bring them to me, Crystal will watch them. You can drop them off at her house. Ty Hahaha Hahaha!!!!!! Ever heard of defamation of character?? I am all for taking a drug test just to show u how stupid u r. I'm causing a rift? Take a look in the mirror. U r a nasty toxic person.

RE: Shawn green folder/Abby purple folder

Sep 10, 2019 at 08:38 AM

I did not remove anything this weekend from shawns backpack it is was in there when i took him to school Monday. abbys i just noticed abbys purple math folder on table . Also you lied when you said she had only 7 minutes left on homework you only had her done -less than half the was 38 minutes left when it was supposed to be completed. Why are you always so adversarial towards me ,always accusing me of stuff instead of just getting along . You suck as a person that is supposed to help each other raise these kids you need to let go of your anger and just chill and be nice like the uniform on Friday for abbys cheer . I will not deal with you until you stop recording me like an asshole there us no need for it you only do it to be an asshole and that only effects- the kids . Good job.

Ok. Enjoy the gift the kids got you. They picked it out, paid for it themselves, and were excited to come with a gift for you.
