NOTICE

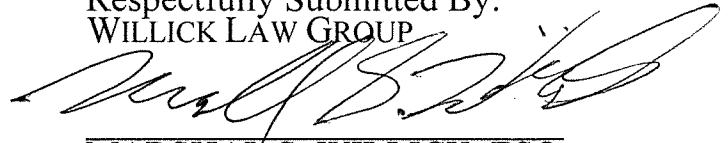

We recently received the purported “Child Custody Fast Track Statement” filed by opposing counsel, and the Court’s Notice of Rejection of Deficient Appendix.

We had nothing to do with drafting or submission of either the Fast Track Statement or the Appendix, but I was highly curious as to why the Statement had been filed at all, since child custody was not in issue in any way in the underlying case. This appeal solely addresses money issues – Craig’s effort to set aside the money judgment in the Decree, and Cristina’s efforts to hold Craig in contempt for non-payment, along with related fees issues.

I called the Nevada Supreme Court Clerk's office to inquire, and was directed to file this notice informing the Court that this appeal is not, in fact, a child custody case.

DATED this 17th day of November, 2021.

Respectfully Submitted By:
