

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

CRAIG A. MUELLER,
Appellant,
vs.
CRISTINA A. HINDS,
Respondent.

No. 83412

FILED

NOV 19 2021

ELIZABETH A. TROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER

This appeal was assigned to this court's fast track pursuant to NRAP 3E because it appeared to involve child custody. The parties have informed this court that, in fact, they are only litigating financial issues and the appeal does not involve child custody. Because the fast track statement and appendix have already been filed, and because there is a challenge to the original divorce decree, which does involve custody, the parties are directed to continue with briefing in accordance with NRAP 3E. Respondent shall have 21 days from the date of this order to file and serve the fast track response.

The parties may move for full briefing, pursuant to NRAP 3E(g), if they deem it warranted.

It is so ORDERED.

 C.J.

cc: McAvoy Amaya & Revero, Attorneys
Willick Law Group