

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

YOAV EGOSI,

Appellant,

vs.

PATRICIA EGOSI, N/K/A PATRICIA
LEE WOODS,

Respondent.

No. 83454

FILED

FEB 03 2022

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY:
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING MOTION

Appellant has filed a motion to have several volumes of the appendix filed under seal. The motion is denied without prejudice. Appellant offers no explanation for why the documents should be sealed. Documents filed in this court are presumed to be open to the public unless this court permits specific documents to be filed under seal based on a showing that such an action is required by law or an identified competing interest. Howard v. State, 128 Nev. 736, 744-45, 291 P.3d 137, 138-39 (2012). Because appellant's motion does not provide any information for this court to evaluate the request, the motion is denied.

Appellant may renew the motion, including a basis for sealing the documents. "[A] party who seeks to have documents or records filed with this court under seal must file a motion that identifies the information that the party seeks to have sealed, sets forth the reasons that such action is necessary, and specifies the duration of the sealing order." Id. The volumes of the appendix received on January 31, 2022, will remain confidential pending this court's ruling on any renewed motion to file the appendix under seal.

It is so ORDERED.
