COURT FINDS, on December 5, 2019, Respondent filed an "Objection" which the Court believes is a misnomer and Respondent intended Department C to hear a motion which is really meant to be a Motion for Reconsideration as to which department and judicial officer should be hearing the case (HM v. District Judge). District Attorney's assessment of the document entitled "Objection" is also that is something that should be addressed by the District Court judge prior to the UIFSA court holding any hearing on the merits of this case. Court contacted Dept. C for a court date for Respondent's "Objection" to be addressed. No parties present.

DDA reported today's hearing is a Order for Remand from Department C filed October 18, 2019. Respondent receives Medicaid.

COURT FINDS, on December 5, 2019, Respondent filed an "Objection" which the Court believes is a misnomer and Respondent intended Department C to hear a motion which is really meant to be a Motion for Reconsideration as to which department and judicial officer should be hearing the case (HM v. District Judge). District Attorney's assessment of the document entitled "Objection" is also that is something that should be addressed by the District Court judge prior to the UIFSA court holding any hearing on the merits of this case. Court contacted Dept. C for a court date for Respondent's "Objection" to be addressed. The date for this matter to be addressed has been set for February 3, 2020 at 9:00 AM in Dept C, located at 601 N. Pecos Road, Las Vegas, NV 89101.
