12 October 28, 2021 by which Action is Necessary

13 Appellant, Natasha Early, comes now, pursuant to NRAP 27(e) and
14 attached NRAP 27 (e) Certificate and respectfully request emergency or expedited
15 relief because the nature of this case concerns the economic welfare of her and her
16 child. The Respondent owes the Appellant unemployment compensation calculated
17 in thousands of dollars and she has been suffering during the entire Covid 19
18 pandemic shutdown. Appellant has endured over 18 months of being deprived and 19 has attempted to resolve this matter in the lower court to no avail. Appellant has 20 waited her due time in que for review by the Supreme Court of Nevada only to be
21 transferred to the Court of Appeals and now is at the back of the line still waiting.
22 Appellant is living in dire poverty and needs immediate review to prevent

14 FACTS SHOWING THE NATURE OF THE EMERGENCY

15 The averments which a stated in the request for emergency relief are 16
17 incorporated herein and are again as follows:

18 Appellant and her child is in jeopardy of becoming homeless because the
19 Respondent /Appellee has deprived her of the unemployment compensation justly
20
21 due to her.

22 Appellant and her child has food insecurity because Respondent / Appellee
23
24 has deprived her of the unemployment compensation justly due to her.

25 Appellant and her child have endured have been under severe hardship for 26
27 more than 18 months since the Covid 19 Pandemic Shutdown began, because 28

1 Respondent/ Appellant has deprived her of the unemployment compensation justly
2 due to her.

4 Appellant and her child have been justly patient with the Supreme Court and
5 now have been transferred to the back of the que with the Court of Appeals.

6
7 Appellant cannot wait till she is out on the street with her child being 8 homeless and starving and therefore request an emergency or expedited review to 9 be conducted in less than fourteen days.

10
11 Briefing is completed and the Respondent/Appellant has not yet been 12 ordered to participate in a response, no notification to Respondent/Appellant has 13 occurred since it would be futile concerning this requests.

14
15 All relief sought was sought in the lower District Court, with opposing 16 counsel to no avail. For the foregoing reasons the motion should not be denied but 17 granted.

18
19
20
21 Respectfully Submitted,
