ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY Elaine
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING MOTION

Appellant has filed a motion for leave to file an appendix in this pro se appeal based on the language inadvertently included in an order from the clerk's office granting a telephonic extension. As a party proceeding pro se, appellant is generally not permitted to file an appendix. NRAP 30(i). Moreover, the complete district court record has been transmitted to this court.

Appellant alternatively seeks an extension of time to amend his opening brief to conform his citations to the district court record. This court notes, however, that appellant's brief already cites to the district court record; accordingly, he does not appear to need additional time or to make corrections.

The motion is denied. Respondents need not file a response to the brief unless directed to do so by this court. NRAP 46A(c). The clerk shall return, unfiled, the appendix received on February 11, 2022.

It is so ORDERED.
