Lisa sheri Myers-Gambini,

I have yet to hear from you in regards to your visitation with Sydney this spring break. I am aware that people are encouraged not to fly due to the Corona virus. What are your plans on keeping our daughter safe during this time? If you fly up here to pick her up and return to Las Vegas what precautionary measures are you taking so that Sydney does not get the virus? If you pick Sydney up and the flights get canceled you are obligated to bring Sydney home by all means necessary. I don't care if you have to drive her home, she will return home when your visitation ends. Please let me know ASAP what you are planning on doing.

Sincerely,
The Haskins family

Lisa sheri Myers-Gambini,

I have yet to hear back from you regarding the email I recently sent you. I have contacted the Family courts and my attorney about the safety concerns of airline travel.

My number one concern is the safety of our daughter and I am not comfortable with her traveling to Las Vegas at this time. There are travel restrictions in place here and Las Vegas. The last thing both of us want is our daughter to catch the Corona virus.

I am in no way keeping you from our daughter. This is about the safety of everyone. I am willing to give you an extra week during your summer visitation to make up for this.

I hope you all are staying safe.

Sincerely,
The Haskins family

Hi Caleb:

I hope everyone there is safe and well under the current situation of our Nation and Globally, with regard to the Coronavirus (COVID-19). I have been waiting on current news of this situation to determine a decision best for Miss Sydney Rose and me for our scheduled timeshare during her Spring Break beginning Saturday, March 21st. I appreciate your email relaying your concerns and offer of an additional week during the Summer break with Miss Sydney Rose and will agree to allow her to remain with you at your home in Philomath, Oregon, due to the concerns with Coronavirus (COVID-19).

I would absolutely love to exercise my time-share with Miss Sydney Rose as I believe it is in her best interest to spend time with me, her mother, as well as, her family here. Otherwise, it will be six (6)-months from our last visit together until her time off for the Summer; we are also missing each other's birthdays, most importantly her birthday celebration with her family here. It is important for her and I to enjoy regular contact with each other.

I understand and appreciate your concerns about the Coronavirus (COVID-19). It is my understanding that there are currently more cases of Coronavirus (COVID-19) in the State of Oregon, which is in between the two hotspots of Washington State and the State of California, than in the State of Nevada. Also, I believe that children have been very resilient but could pass it on to someone else if they have it, just like anyone else. I am not ill nor is anyone in my immediate family, and I believe that I can keep Miss Sydney Rose as safe as you can keep her under the circumstances; especially, since she is apparently out of school and has been out of school unbeknownst to me as you did not notify me of same.

Since Miss Sydney Rose is out of school, I am requesting that I keep her for more time as the reason for the visit is because she is off school and has the time to spend with me since that is the only time she gets to spend with me. Therefore, it would only make sense for Miss Sydney Rose to be able to stay longer with me since she is apparently out of school through at least April 28, 2020, according to the Philomath School District's website. Is she currently completing school work from home and Zoom class sessions or will this time away from school be made up during the Summer break? If so, my concern is our scheduled time together for the Summer will then be delayed due to this, which will only further prolong our time apart. Please provide me with an update. Additionally, is she up to date with her immunizations and has she received a flu shot this year and last year? Please provide me with her immunization records, to include flu shot records and records concerning her Staph infection, as previously requested. I would also like a copy of her school records for this current school year, including her progress reports/grading records. I truly appreciate these updated records and information.

Currently, I had already procured flights, the first of which arrives this evening, March 20th, picking up Miss Sydney Rose tomorrow morning, March 21st at 9:00 a.m., returning to our home in Las Vegas on a flight shortly thereafter; travel/flights have not been banned within our Country. Again, I have and will always do my best to keep Miss Sydney Rose safe and away from any person(s), who may be ill, with her best interest at heart, as I have always done and continue to do. This is a time where it should be agreed that she can spend a longer time with me; especially, in light of these circumstances as I can comfort her.

With this being said, however, and in considering the current state of our Country and with Miss Sydney Rose's best interest at heart, I definitely do not want to place her in a position during travel between Portland and Las Vegas to possibly become in contact with this virus. I am in no way foregoing my timeshare with her, but will agree to allow her to remain with you at your home in Philomath, Oregon due to the concerns with Coronavirus (COVID-19). I would love for her and I to spend our time together as scheduled, as this time is so special and important for us both, and hope to be making-up this time by this Summer, if not sooner. I think it best for her and I to enjoy regular weekly video calls via cellphone, Zoom or Skype sessions as previously requested and noted within our Order, as well as, regular weekly phone calls at least three (3) per week. I would also like to see if you would be in agreement to her and I enjoying time on a weekend or two before our Summer timeshare once the COVID-19 concern resolves, businesses re-open and we return to a state of normalcy. Otherwise, it would be nearly six (6)-months or possibly more depending on her school schedule for her and I to spend time with one another.

Looking forward to your thoughts at your earliest possible convenience. Thank you in advance. In the interim, I am wishing for Miss Sydney Rose to be safe and well during this time and will be reaching out to her again this evening in an attempt to speak with her. She is more than welcome to call me anytime, as always. We both miss each other very much. Thank you again.

Blessings,

Screening Decision Narrative:

24HR, HASKINS, CALEB # Personal Nature (4)  Confidential Child Welfare (8)

Allegations of Neglect and Threat of Harm (DV) to Sydney Myers Haskins (10yo) by her father, Caleb Haskins and step mother, Valerie Sullivan.

It was reported that on 11/2/20, Sydney Myers Haskins (10yo), has indicated that she feels "sick to her stomach" and is reported to be experiencing extreme Confidential Child Welfare stress, reportedly due, to the ongoing family condition in the home, which is reported to be "chaotic and out of control." Reporter informs that on 6/12/20, when Sydney went to visit her mother, Lisa Myers in Arizona, Sydney expressed concern for her safety, as she indicated that both of her parents, Caleb Haskins and Valerie Sullivan will reportedly drink and drive while impaired by alcohol, with Sydney in the vehicle, in order to get more alcohol. It was reported that both parents, will reportedly engage in verbal altercations which will become physical to the extent that Sydney reports that her stepmother, Valerie and father, Caleb, will physically punch each other, while they are both impaired by alcohol. Reporter expressed concern for Sydney, as she indicated that she has only eaten a slice of pizza since she got back to her father's home on 11/3/20 and was able to eat a piece of peanut butter and bread on 11/2/20, as Sydney indicated that neither, Valerie, nor Caleb, will cook for her and expect her to feed herself and wash her own clothing; Confidential Child Welfare (8)

as it was reported that step sibling, Malachi (15yo) has reportedly came into her room on 11/2/20 in the middle of the night, reportedly to verbally assault her and call her derogatory names, while their parents were asleep. No marks nor bruises were reported to Sydney at this time. These concern meet criteria for Present Danger, as the family condition appears to be significant and out of control, which if left unchecked, may result in severe harm to any child in the home.

REPORT NARRATIVE:

Report Summary:

Sydney Myers Haskins (10yo) and Malachi Zambrano (15yo) reside with their legal parents, Caleb Haskins Personal Nature (4) and Valerie Sullivan Personal Nature (4) who reside at Personal Nature (4)

Also, in the home is adult children of Valerie, Other Individual (6) as well as Other Individual (6) 15-year-old girlfriend, (Unknown), who is reported to be pregnant.

ETHNICITY AND LANGUAGE:

Reporter identified the family as White and English speaking.

Screen/System Names (18) Sydney (10yo) is unable to be located in database, her parents were reported to be Caleb Haskins and Lisa Myers Personal Nature (4) who resides out of the home at Personal Nature (4) she is reported to have visitations with Sydney every major holiday and also during the summer, she recently had Sydney from 6/13/20- 11/1/20 in her care; Caleb is reported to be the primary caregiver for Sydney.

Screen/System Names (18) Malachi's (15yo) parents are reported to be Valeri Sullivan and Jose Guadalupe Zambrano, who resides out of the home at Personal Nature (4) visitation schedule unknown.

EXTENT OF ALLEGED ABUSE

It was reported that on 11/2/20, Sydney Myers Haskins (10yo), has indicated that she feels "sick to her stomach" and is reported to be experiencing extreme Confidential Child Welfare stress, reportedly due, to the ongoing family condition in the home, which is reported to be "chaotic and out of control." Reporter informs that on 6/12/20, when Sydney went to visit her mother, Lisa Myers in Arizona, Sydney expressed concern for her safety, as she indicated that both of her parents, Caleb Haskins and Valeri Sullivan will reportedly drink and drive while impaired by alcohol, with Sydney in the vehicle, in order to get more alcohol. It was reported that both parents, will reportedly engage in verbal altercations which will become physical to the extent that Sydney reports that her stepmother, Valerie and father, Caleb, will physically punch each other, while they are both impaired by alcohol. Reporter expressed concern for Sydney, as she indicated that she has only eaten a slice of pizza since she got back to her father's home on 11/3/20 and was able to eat a piece of peanut butter and bread on 11/2/20, as Sydney indicated that neither, Valeri, nor Caleb, will cook for her and expect her to feed herself and wash her own clothing; Confidential Child Welfare (8) it was reported that step sibling, Malachi (15yo) has reportedly came into her room on 11/2/20 in the middle of the night, reportedly to verbally assault her and call her derogatory names, while their parents were asleep. No marks nor bruises were reported to Sydney at this time.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF ALLEGED ABUSE

Reporter informs that Sydney (10yo), who has recently returned into her father's care as of 11/1/20, has expressed ongoing concerns regarding feeling Confidential Child Welfare (8) "sick to her stomach," reportedly due, to the ongoing family condition at her father's home, which is reported to be "chaotic and out of control." Reporter informs that on 6/12/20, when Sydney went to visit her mother, Lisa Myers in Arizona, Sydney expressed concern for her safety in general while she is living in her father's home, as she indicated that both of her parents, Caleb and Valeri will reportedly drink and drive while impaired by alcohol, with Sydney in the vehicle, in order to get more alcohol, typically in the middle of the night at the local convenience store down the road; reporter informs that Sydney did not report any form of accidents occurring from this, other than indicating that she did not feel safe because she knew her parents were impaired by alcohol. It was reported that both Caleb and Valeri will reportedly drink alcohol heavily on a regular basis, as it was reported that Valeri is reported to have a medical condition (unknown) where she reportedly likes to mix her medications with alcohol, as it supposedly helps her sleep well, where it was noted that both parents will take multiple "shots" of hard alcohol before they go to sleep.

Reporter informs that Valeri will reportedly sleep walk or get up in the middle of the night, where she appears to be impaired by alcohol, where she will reportedly knock over things in the living room, while she appears to be asleep and will sometimes open the door and fall asleep outside in the front lawn, leaving the door to the home open; it was reported that this occurs regularly according to Sydney. Reporter informs that Caleb is reported to have served in the military from 2006-2007, where he was reportedly discharged due to mental health concerns, where he is reported to have been diagnosed with PTSD and has a traumatic brain injury; he was reportedly prescribed "Lamictal," however, it is unknown if he is currently taking any medication, nor if he is currently seeing a mental health provider for these concerns. It was reported that when the parents fight, Caleb will usually leave the home for a couple days.

Reporter informs that Sydney indicated that her parents will reportedly engage in verbal altercations which will become physical to the extent that Sydney reports that her stepmother, Valorie and father, Caleb, will physically punch each other, while they are both impaired by alcohol on an ongoing basis; reporter informs that Sydney has indicated that everyone in the home appears to smoke marijuana, including Malachi (15yo), where Sydney is unsure what her parents smoke exactly, however, it was noted that Malachi has been caught with marijuana in the home by his parents, which don't condone him using, however, it was noted that they do not appear to be able to redirect Malachi, as he is reported to be a youth with significant oppositional defiance and has been noted to become quickly escalated, as well as verbally and physically abusive when challenged.

Reporter expressed concern for the safety of Sydney, as she indicated that she has only eaten a slice of pizza since she got back to her father's home on 11/1/20 and was able to eat a piece of peanut butter and bread on 11/2/20 through the entire day, as Sydney indicated that neither, Valeri, nor Caleb, will cook for her and expect her to feed herself and wash her own clothing. Reporter expressed additional concern for Sydney, as she reported that her step brother, Malachi (15yo) has reportedly came into her room on 11/2/20 in the middle of the night and reportedly verbally assault her and call her derogatory names, while their parents were asleep; it was reported that later in the day, Malachi did the same thing, however, this time around he was escalated and reportedly broke Sydney's TV in her room and called her derogatory names, regarding his alleged substance use regarding marijuana; it is unknown exactly what prompted Malachi to do this, however, it was noted that his is common behavior, as it was reported that historically, Malachi has "bullied" Sydney and has reportedly pushed her around; no marks nor bruises reported historically, nor today.

Reporter informs that Sydney is reportedly disciplined via use of taking away privileges and getting sent to her room for a time out, however, it was reported that Sydney will not be allowed to go to sleep and has to stay in the corner of her room and is also reportedly not allowed to use the rest room, as she has reported that she has had to urinate on herself, in order to comply with this mandate by both of her parents. It was reported that historically, both Caleb and Valerie would reportedly use a wooden spoon or their hands, to "smacked" Sydney on the mouth and bottom, arms or legs; historic marks were reported but not today. Reporter informs that when Sydney gets her cell phone taken away, Valeri will reportedly threaten to smash it with a hammer, so that Sydney is unable to keep in contact with her mother in Arizona; it was noted that Sydney has called her mother in Arizona over 16yo times since she got to her father's home in Oregon on 11/1/20.

Reporter described Sydney (10yo) as developmentally on track, who participates in pageants shows in Nevada and has two titles; she is reported to be doing well academically, and was recently seen by a doctor in AZ , where it was reported that she has been gaining weight, while in her mother's care, as it was reported that she was 30lbs underweight, while she was living in Oregon with her father, which they believed was attributed to Sydney not being given enough food to eat.

Reporter informs that in the home is older step sibling, Other Individual (6) who is reported to have a 15-year-old girlfriend (Unknown) who also lives in the home and is reportedly due to give birth anytime soon today in the home.

Reporter does not know much information about this arrangement; however, it was noted that both Valeri and Caleb are aware of the age differences between Other Individual (6) and his girlfriend. Lastly, reporter informs that older step siblings, Other Individual (6) is reported to be wheel chair bound, who is reported to need assistance with feeding and getting his diaper changed, where it was noted that Sydney has been tasked by Valeri to feed Other Individual (6) via spoon on an ongoing basis, as reportedly had Sydney sleep in the same bed with Other Individual (6) historically (Unknown for how long nor why); there were no disclosures of sexual abuse disclosed by Sydney against Other Individual (6) at this time. Reporter informs that given all of these concerns, they believed that Sydney is currently in danger, as neither one of her parents appears to protective nor willing to meet her needs, as they expect her to take care of herself and her older brother, Other Individual (6) (reporter informs that older siblings/adults change Other Individual (6) diapers).

CW HISTORY**

Mr. Haskins sent me an unprompted update today. He stated that Sydney had adjusted well and was doing much better. He shared that he was getting her into the therapist I'd recommended now that that therapist's practice could accept their insurance. He wanted to obtain my report for his custody proceedings in January and I informed him of the records request process.
12/29/20, 11:20 AM	Collateral			MYERS HASKINS, SYDNEY	Young, Rebekah, L.
Collateral contact with Clark County Child Protective Services caseworker who worked with the family in 2013. She reviewed some of her notes and corroborated a pattern of adverse behaviors by both parents within their custody case. She talked about Mr. Haskins attempting to get professionals aligned with him against Ms. Myers, and Ms. Myers also making unsubstantiated allegations against Mr. Haskins following visitation. There were also notes about contacts with a therapist for Sydney who talked about negative emotional impacts to Sydney due to the parents' conflict. The therapist talked about not being able to corroborate things both parents would say about the other.
The worker was attempting to help me obtain more records given that Clark County was not able to send me records directly due to their policies and DA oversight with regards to records.

COMPREHENSIVE ASSESSMENT

FUNCTIONING:

Child Name	DOB	Child Functioning
MYERS HASKINS, SYDNEY	<small>Personal Nature (4)</small>	Sydney is a quiet 10yo Caucasian female who likes animals and reading. She goes between her two parents' homes (her mother in Las Vegas, NV and her father in Philomath, OR), currently 50/50, and the family is currently engaged in custody proceedings to determine what is most appropriate for her. Sydney's parents have had conflict over custody of her since she was small and they both admit they do not co-parent well. She typically attends mainstream school but is being homeschooled at the time of this assessment due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Sydney is described as smart and capable, but emotional struggles get in the way of typical functioning for her. She was observed during this assessment to try and say what she thought adults wanted to hear, and she talked about being torn between her two parents. She has no formal diagnosis but is engaged in counseling and has had counseling since she was a toddler on and off. Sydney and her family denied any specialized medical issues or disabilities. She is neither Native American nor a refugee.

Adult Name	DOB	Adult Functioning

HASKINS, CALEB	Personal Nature (4)	Caleb Haskins is a 39yo Caucasian male, father of Sydney and a younger half-brother. He works full-time and contributes fully to the family's stable housing and financial stability. Mr. Haskins was the primary parent for Sydney for much of her life, awarded majority custody by Clark County in Nevada when she was a toddler. He denied a history of substance use or mental health issues, but family mentioned PTSD from his time in the military. He and his current partner denied any power and control dynamics within their relationship, but he has been described in the past to have a temper and be controlling. Mr. Haskins has no specialized medical issues or disabilities. He is neither Native American nor a refugee.
MYERS, LISA	Personal Nature (4)	Ms. Myers had brief contact with the caseworker during this assessment but could not be reached beyond initial contact. Thus most of her information was provided by Sydney and Mr. Haskins and collateral sources. Lisa Myers is a 43yo Caucasian female, mother of Sydney and additional half-siblings Personal Nature (4) She was described by family and Clark County DHS as paranoid and suspicious of others, and Sydney described control and boundary behaviors that are a cause for concern pertaining to emotional impact on her child. DHS has no knowledge of diagnoses or medications. She is described to not have other medical issues or disabilities. Ms. Myers is also reported as not Native American nor a refugee.
SULLIVAN, VALERI	Personal Nature (4)	Valeri Haskins (AKA Sullivan) is a 36yo Caucasian female, mother of Malachi and stepmom to Sydney. She stays at home to care for her disabled adult son and the other children, and manages the household's day-to-day happenings. She talks about a trauma history, but states she manages her emotions well currently. Ms. Haskins denied substance use issues. She identifies as a survivor of Domestic Violence and denies any presence of it in her current marriage. She has no specialized medical needs or disabilities. Ms. Haskins is neither Native American nor a refugee.

PARENTAL PRACTICES:

Parent Name	DOB	Disciplinary Practices/Knowledge
HASKINS, CALEB	Personal Nature (4)	Mr. Haskins reported he takes away privileges or that he grounds Sydney if she isn't following expectations. He also uses timeouts in her room for short periods, and typically follows up with discussion.
MYERS, LISA		Ms. Myers had brief contact with the caseworker during this assessment but could not be reached beyond initial contact. Thus most of her information was provided by Sydney and Mr. Haskins and collateral sources. Sydney said her Mom doesn't typically do anything if she isn't following the rules, and she said she doesn't get in trouble because she gets to do whatever she wants there.
SULLIVAN, VALERI		Ms. Sullivan stated that she has participated in much training through her children's providers in techniques to manage behavior in a safe way. She will typically take away privileges or take away electronics, as well as use problem-solving discussions to come to a compromise. She stated that she does not believe in physical discipline, but that when Malachi was out of control at the time of the initiating incident they used a physical hold to keep him and others safe.
Parent Name	DOB	Parenting Practices/Knowledge

HASKINS, CALEB	Personal Nature (4)	Mr. Haskins talked about being happy to have his daughter home. He spoke fondly of her and seemed sensitive to her struggle to adjust. He said he likes to do things with Sydney and that she has always seemed happy in his home, but recently things feel like they've changed. During conversation in this assessment he was able to articulate how Sydney is struggling and the things he does to support her through it. It was clear he knows his child and has developed a nurturing relationship with her. He pointed out that he makes mistakes, but he will always circle back and talk with her to understand how to make things better.
MYERS, LISA		Ms. Myers had brief contact with the caseworker during this assessment but could not be reached beyond initial contact. Thus most of her information was provided by Sydney and Mr. Haskins and collateral sources. Sydney said her Mom is more like a friend than a parent. She said she loves being with her and worries about her when she is with her Dad. She talked about her Mom taking her to do things, and helping her with schoolwork, and said that they like to spend time together.
SULLIVAN, VALERI	Personal Nature (4) Other Individual (6)	Ms. Sullivan states that her full-time job is raising and caring for her boys. She has had to learn how to meet their exceptional needs as   has physical disabilities and Malachi is on the Autism Spectrum.

	She's able to articulate how to address needs that arise, and she has a realistic view of what her children are capable of. Ms. Sullivan also talks about the support system she's built to help her meet the needs of her children because she recognizes she has limits. She also talks about the sacrifices she's made in order for her children's needs to be met in a community with ample resources to meet them.

EXTENT OF THE CHILD ABUSE OR NEGLECT:

This report was received at the Oregon Child Abuse Hotline in the afternoon on 11/02/2020, was referred to Corvallis CPS that evening, and assigned to me the next morning. I had previously worked with this family and was somewhat aware of family background, and further reviewed family history and background via OR-Kids, Screen/System Names (18) and social media.

Prior to my assignment I received a call as the assigned after-hours on-call worker from Philomath Police Officer Mark Koeppe who alerted me to his response to the home to see the child, Sydney Haskins Myers, who was emotionally distraught and wanting to leave the home. He shared with me that he completed a welfare check on her in the home and although she had many concerns to share, they did not constitute child abuse or neglect and that there was no probable cause to suspect a crime occurred. Both he and I had previously worked with another child in the home, Malachi Zambrano, and agreed that he was not an appropriate teen to be left to care for Sydney without a parent home because of his own behavioral issues, which is what Sydney was reporting was happening. I let him know I would be asking to be assigned when the referral came from screening and that I would check on Sydney. Prior to the case closing I had passed on my findings and he still had no probable cause, thus closing his case.

After receiving the referral on the morning on 11/03/2020, I contacted the mother in Nevada, Lisa Myers, to gather family information and current status of custody and her knowledge of how Sydney was doing. Ms. Myers spoke of a long history of conflict with Sydney's father, Caleb Haskins. She pointed out that she is primarily concerned for Sydney's safety and is prepared to come to Oregon to take her home if needed. She stated that she spoke to Sydney after she arrived at her Dad's house a few days ago and that Sydney was distraught, not eating, Confidential Child Welfare (8) Ms. Myers did not share that Sydney made any specific statements about unsafe behavior, but that she had complained that Malachi was being mean to her, that Mr. Haskins' wife Valeri Haskins (AKA Sullivan) was treating her poorly, and that she was alone in her room. I inquired about anything Ms. Myers had observed or heard herself and she said that when she was talking to Sydney Mr. Haskins hung the phone up, which was a cause for concern. I asked Ms. Myers if there was any pending motions or changes within the custody agreement and she stated that she was attempting to gain custody of Sydney and that they had a hearing coming up in January. She pointed out that she wasn't sure what was going on, and that she hoped I could check on Sydney. She said she didn't want to make assumptions and fly to Oregon to confront Mr. Haskins without accurate information. I told her I would let her know what I observed when I checked in on Sydney that day. I also gathered family functioning and parenting information from Ms. Myers reflected elsewhere in this assessment.

Next I spoke to Mr. Haskins. I had left him a message and he promptly returned my call. I informed him that I received a call from our hotline concerned for Sydney and asked him to tell me about her transition back to his house and about what has been going on over the last few days. He pointed out that he was aware the police were at the house before he got home from work and that they were all on edge in the home. He said Sydney was struggling emotionally with the transition, which is typical for her, but that this time it seemed even more difficult. He said he thought her mother called our hotline, I reminded him I don't talk about who called in, just that I check on what was called and he accepted that. He said Sydney hasn't been eating much and has been complaining of being anxious. He said she struggles with anxiety and that this has been a problem for years, ever since he got custody of her and visits at her Mom's house happened. He pointed out that her Mom has a history of severe mental health issues and that she puts ideas into Sydney's head to turn her against him. We talked about children in a custody battle struggling with who they are "supposed" to have allegiance for, and he was able to acknowledge that it isn't her job to please her parents, that they need to be able to support her through it. But he said that he and Ms. Myers cannot co-parent well at all. He ran through some of the history of their custody battle, pointed out that they've both made many allegations about each other, and that Sydney has been caught in the middle. Mr. Haskins shared that since Sydney arrived she's been quiet and crying a lot. He said they were able to have a good "heart-to-heart" a few nights ago and that he made it clear to her that he is here to support her and things will get better. I made plans with him to see Sydney later that morning because Sydney was still sleeping and usually woke up around 9:30am.

I visited Sydney at her Dad's home later that morning. I observed the home to be free of safety hazards and with ample resources for Sydney. She and I spoke alone in her room with the door closed. I asked her to tell me how things had been going since she got back to Oregon and she said she missed her Mom and wanted to go back to Nevada to make sure she was okay. I asked why she thought she wouldn't be okay, and Sydney said it was because she probably misses her. I asked if she's able to talk to her Mom and she said yes, on the phone when her Dad is home. Sydney shared with me that she didn't want to be in Oregon. She was ultimately able to articulate that she misses her Mom, she likes being an only child better in Nevada, that her Dad's house is louder and different than her Mom's, and that she felt like everyone was mad at her. She said since she arrived she had been yelled at by her stepbrothers, treated mean by her stepmom, and her Dad hasn't been home (he's been working). I used open-ended questions with Sydney and she did not corroborate any of the allegations that were in the initial report, just that she was very anxious and everyone was mean to her. She shared that she hadn't been eating because her stomach was upset from being so anxious, but that she had been offered regular meals and the opportunity to eat outside of meals if she felt like she could. Sydney was able to corroborate much of what Mr. Haskins shared had happened thus far as well. I asked more targeted questions around alcohol use and violence and she made no disclosures. I also completed a global safety interview and body safety interview with Sydney and she made no disclosures. Sydney also provided additional family functioning and family information reflected elsewhere in this assessment. I asked Sydney to stay in her room so I could speak with her Dad and I told her I'd check on her again soon.

I spoke with Mr. Haskins in the living room. I shared with him that I observed Sydney to be very upset and anxious and he showed appropriate concern. I pointed out that much of what had been reported was not what Sydney told me, and that it was apparent to me that he needed to focus on supporting her carefully while shielding her from everyone's opinions about her Mom. I also encouraged him to speak with members of the household about focusing on rebuilding relationships with her because she's 10 and isn't responsible for what her Mom says and that she can't help but be stuck between her two parents who have conflict. He agreed and said he would be doing that, he also pointed out that he'd addressed Ms. Haskins treatment of Sydney with her and said that everyone in the house has hurt feelings and isn't doing the best job handling them. He asked for advice about how to navigate co-parenting and I encouraged him to talk to his attorney about how to manage custody, and I counseled him on the impacts of custody conflicts on children, and what parents can do to manage their own emotions and reactions so as not to drag their children through the mud. I pointed out that her anxiety about it is very severe, which tells me that she is aware of the conflict and is feeling it without having coping skills to manage. We discussed her dire need for counseling (which he addressed quickly after my initial contact). I addressed alcohol use and family conflicts with Mr. Haskins and he stated that he and Ms. Haskins drink responsibly, he denied ever driving while drunk (or seeing Ms. Haskins do so), he stated that they might have a drink when he gets home from work, but not every day. He said he and Ms. Haskins argue, and can raise their voices sometimes, but he denied them ever having physical fights or severe yelling matches. He said the only physical thing that has happened has been when he is redirecting Malachi's behavior (this has been previously assessed by DHS). Went spent a good amount of time talking about his conflicts with Ms. Myers as well. He said he doesn't believe she is a safe parent, but he's trying to help Sydney be with her Mom too. He said she is mentally ill and will not communicate with him. Mr. Haskins also provided additional family functioning and parenting information reflected elsewhere in this assessment.

Ms. Haskins was out of town attending to a new grandchild being born, so I called in in lieu of speaking to her in person upon my first visit. I explained that I had gotten a new call from the hotline and gathered information about how things have been going since Sydney arrived from her perspective. Ms. Haskins shared that things had been very emotional. She said she made a few mistakes and hadn't been the most supportive since Sydney arrived, but that overall, it had been okay. I asked what the mistakes were and she shared that when Sydney was being difficult she made a comment about her acting like Ms. Myers. She stated that she shouldn't have said it because Sydney can't help that she's struggling, and that she'd tried to mend things. Ms. Haskins shared that before this visit the family had received documentation from the custody court case, and that she read that Sydney and her mother made statements about Mr. Haskins, Ms. Haskins, and her sons that live in the home that made them all very upset. We talked about the fact that Sydney is a child and that the burden to manage through the conflict falls on the adults, and Ms. Haskins was able to admit it wasn't fair to resent Sydney for it. She pointed out that prior to this visit she and Sydney have always been very close, had a great relationship, and that she hopes they will get back to that point once they've been able to process everything together. I asked her how she thought Malachi has been doing with his step-sister back and she said he's been mean to her. She pointed out that he was aware of the court documents as well and that he was holding it against Sydney and had said mean things to her about talking about their family. She pointed out that he's a mean older brother in general (as older brothers can be), but that his feelings were hurt too. I let her know that there was information in my report that he was saying mean things and making Sydney feel unsafe and that it falls on her to intervene. She assured me adults would be home with Sydney going forward, that it was a one-time thing because she was out of town. Ms. Haskins also provided additional family functioning and parenting information reflected elsewhere in this assessment.

Following my contacts with Sydney and her family in Oregon I sent a summary text message to Ms. Myers to inform her of my observations and thoughts, encouraging her to contact me with questions or further comment but she never did.

Later that day I contacted Ms. Haskins to inform her that I needed to interview Malachi, as he wasn't home when I visited the home prior. She and I set up a time the next day for me to see Malachi. I saw him in the afternoon on 11/04/2020 at the Haskins' home. During my interview with him I also saw Sydney briefly and she told me things were going okay. She was playing with a friend and seemed to have higher spirits than the previous day. Malachi remembered me from previous interviews on other cases and he was willing to speak with me. During the discussion Malachi vacillated trying to be a "tough guy" and showing genuine concern for his family. I pointed out to Malachi that I was called to check in on Sydney. He scoffed and called her a brat. I asked him what had happened since she came back. Malachi shared that the family was really upset with her because of things she and her Mom said in their custody paperwork, and he said he hadn't been nice to her. I asked what happened. He explained that he went into her room and yelled at her and shut off her TV the day after she arrived. I asked if he did anything physically and he said no, and asked if she said he hit her. I told him no, but that I wanted to know what happened exactly. He said he'd been ignoring her since then. I asked how other people have been treating her and he said her Dad babies her. He said his Mom was upset with her and wasn't saying much to her at all. I completed a global safety interview with Malachi and he made no disclosures. When we discussed physical altercations in the home, he said he fights with Mr. Haskins (referencing my previous investigation involving Mr. Haskins restraining Malachi when he was out of control), but no one else gets physical. He said his Mom and Mr. Haskins yell at each other, but he feels like it is the typical level of bickering between married people. He also described their alcohol use as casual. Malachi provided additional family functioning and parenting information reflected elsewhere in this assessment.

Following my contact with Malachi I spoke to Ms. Haskins outside. She reiterated that she understood that she needs to keep her emotions in check and support Sydney because she's the child in the situation. I asked her some clarifying questions about what had transpired since Sydney arrived and he explained that she made an off-hand comment (that she admitted she wasn't proud of) about Sydney being just like her Mom, calling Sydney "Lisa" when she arrived. She pointed out again that she and Sydney have been close prior to this visit, and that this made her wounds even deeper when she read the court paperwork. She said she plans to try and mend the relationship and help Sydney settle in. I asked Ms. Haskins about substance use and violence in the home. She denied any sort of Domestic Violence or physical altercations between she and Mr. Haskins, Personal Nature (4) pointing out that this is especially something

she will not tolerate within her marriage. She said they argue and fight like typical couples do, but it is never severe enough to be categorized as abusive. Ms. Haskins denied any drug use, stating that she cannot even use marijuana products because of its adverse effects on her. She said she does drink alcohol from time to time, but she rarely is drunk. She was adamant that she would never drive, and stated Mr. Haskins does not either. I asked her about sleep walking, as it had come up marginally in my report, and she explained that she has a history of sleep walking. She said there have been times that she has woken up in different places around the house, but she's never done anything violent or hurtful, that she's more zombielike. She said members of the household are aware and that they help keep her safe. She is working with a doctor to address the issue as well. Ms. Haskins also provided additional family functioning and parenting information reflected elsewhere in this assessment.

I attempted to gather records and Child Welfare history from Clark County, NV, where Sydney lived with her parents prior to their separation, and where the custody case is established. Their agency sent back a letter stating that there were no substantiated allegations of abuse or neglect regarding Sydney. I called a caseworker who had worked with the family there previously Confidential Child Welfare (8)

She said Mr. Haskins appeared to try and get professionals aligned with him for the purpose of their custody case. She had no concerns she could recall about Mr. Haskins being a safe parent. She stated she would connect me with the District Attorney in Clark County, but that contact did not occur prior to my finishing this assessment.

CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING THE CHILD ABUSE OR NEGLECT:

It's important to note in this case that Sydney's parents are currently engaged in an ongoing custody battle that has spanned most of her life. They are adversarial and not able to co-parent much at all. Both sides are frustrated with the other, and suspect abuse and neglect of each other that has not been able to be substantiated.

Justification for the Disposition:

This referral is UNFOUNDED for Threat of Harm and Neglect to Sydney Myers Haskins by her father Caleb Haskins and his wife Valeri Sullivan. Although it was reported that Mr. Haskins and Ms. Sullivan abuse alcohol, are belligerent and verbally and physically abusive toward each other, there was no supporting information or evidenced gathered to corroborate these claims. It appears they have typical spousal arguments devoid of violence, that they use alcohol appropriately (and do not drive while drunk), and that things they are alleged to have been saying to Sydney have not been said. Sydney and other members of the household also spoke of them providing food regularly and meeting Sydney's other needs appropriately.

Kindergarten Standards-Based Report Card

This report is designed to inform you about your child's progress based on their performance within Grade Level Standards. It will define what a student should understand and be able to do. Your child's academic growth will be reported in terms of progress toward meeting these standards at different times throughout the school year. Your child's levels of progress are assessed by tests, daily lessons, assignments, large and small group activities and teacher observations. This report, however, cannot communicate everything you might possibly want to know about your child's current progress. This report should be considered with other information you receive from the school such as your child's homework, the open house, conferences, and descriptions of the content taught. Communication between the family and school staff is highly encouraged.

Key	Achievement Scores	Effort Scores
4 - Exceeds Standard	Student has met the required grade level standards at a higher depth of knowledge.	4 - Strong/Always	Student displays superior effort/conduct for successful learning.
3 - Meets Standard	Student has consistently met the grade level standards	3 - Consistent/Usually	Student consistently displays effort/skill appropriate for successful learning.
2 - Approaching Standard	Student is showing progress but has not yet met the grade level standards.	2 - Inconsistent/Sometimes	Student inconsistently displays effort/skills that lead to successful learning.
1 - Does Not Meet Standard	Student is not showing progress in meeting the grade level standards.	1 - Poorly/Rarely	Student rarely displays effort/skills would to successful learning.

(-) = Standard Not Assessed Student has not been assessed on the grade level standard.

English Language Arts (ELA) and Mathematics curriculum is based on Nevada's adoption of the Common Core State Standards.

For more information visit <http://www.corestandards.org/>.

English Language Arts instruction focuses on the following:

- Foundational skills: phonological awareness, phonics/word analysis, print concepts, fluency
- A wide range of literature including stories, dramas, poetry, and myths
- Informational text from various disciplines including science, social studies, and history
- Using speaking and listening and language skills

Mathematics curriculum is based on mathematical understanding with the focus on students justifying their thinking, not just calculating. Please refer to the Report Card Descriptors document that states what students should understand and be able to do within each Domain and within each quarter.

RIT ranges may indicate an area of relative strength or area of possible concern determined by comparing the student's Goal Performance score with the student's Overall RIT Score for the test event.

* Projected RIT is only reported when there is growth norm data and a test event in the initial term. RIT Growth is only reported when there are test events in both the initial and final terms.

KinderCorner 2nd Edition Progress Note for Sydney Haskins

School Name: Mark Twain Elementary

Teacher: Maggie Kersten

Date: 01/07/2016

To the Family of Sydney Haskins:

During the recent grading period, your child participated in many activities that helped her understand important concepts about these themes:

- Unit 5, Week 1: Cornucopia
- Unit 5, Week 2: Cornucopia
- Unit 6, Week 1: What's on the Menu?
- Unit 6, Week 2: What's on the Menu?
- Unit 7, Week 1: Sing a Song-Paint a Picture
- Unit 7, Week 2: Sing a Song-Paint a Picture
- Unit 8, Week 1: Winter Weatherland
- Unit 8, Week 2: Winter Weatherland

Your child had many opportunities during the theme lessons to practice and acquire important oral language and literacy skills.

At this time, Sydney demonstrates skills for the writing development stage.

Sydney can read these sounds:

m, a, s, d, t, i, n, p, g, o, c, k, u, r, b, f, e, l, h, sh, z, w, ch, j, v, y, q, x

Encourage Sydney to practice reading these sounds:

Sydney can write these sounds:

m, a, s, d, t, i, n, p, g, o, c, k, u, r, b, f, e, l, h, sh, z, w, ch, j, v, y, q, x

Encourage Sydney to practice writing these sounds:

Sydney can name these letters:

M, m, A, a, S, s, D, d, T, t, I, i, N, n, P, p

The class also addressed and worked on these Getting Along Together skills: classifies feelings words, demonstrates Active Listening, gives a win-win solution to a problem, names a conflict solver, names Stop-and-Stay-Cool steps.

Your discussion with the teacher about the information below will help you understand your child's academic performance.

Average Scores	Grading Period 1	Grading Period 2	Grading Period 3	Grading Period 4	Explanation
Vocabulary	100/100	90/100			The score for understanding and using vocabulary words (100 points possible)
Oral Expression	90/100	100/100			The score for oral expression (100 points possible)
Theme Vocabulary Sentence	95/100	90/100			The average for producing complete sentences using thematic vocabulary words (100 points possible)
Oral Reading	14/14	12/12			The total number of beginning-reading skills demonstrated (includes concepts-of-print skills, sounding out words, and reading simple sentences). The expectation for grading period 2 is 8/12.
Read & Respond					The number of nights your child read at home and returned a signed Read & Respond form. The expectation for grading period 2 is 40.

Thank you for everything you do at home to support your child's reading, including the Read & Respond homework. When reading together, explore the meanings of words, and have fun talking about the story.

You and your child might also enjoy reading aloud these books, which may be available at your local library:

Owl Moon by Jane Yolen

Mouse Paint by Ellen Stoll Walsh

Gregory, the Terrible Eater by Mitchell Sharmat

Thank you for letting us be your partner in supporting Sydney Haskins's reading success.

Sydney is a fabulous reader. She thinks critically about the stories we are studying in class and can support her ideas with evidence from the text regularly. Sydney also does a wonderful job writing about her reading. Our mid year assessment shows that Sydney is reading 46 words per minute with 95% accuracy. The middle of the year goal is 23. Keep up the amazing work Sydney!

Sydney is a wonderful writer. She has beautiful hand writing and terrific ideas. She pays a lot of attention to detail. It is difficult for her to stop writing even if she knows we are going to come back to it again later.

The Language standard on the report card is a reflection of writing conventions. This includes writing letters properly, adequate spacing, as well as proper punctuation.

Semester 2: Sydney is a wonderful girl! She is kind, considerate and compassionate. Sydney has grown quite a bit since she arrived.

Though I have to say her handwriting was always amazing! Sydney is more than ready for chapter books so get her to the library quickly this summer. I have noticed that Sydney has been much more emotional or down the last few weeks. She has been having a hard time letting little problems go and often finds something to be unhappy about. We talk often about finding joy in her day. I would encourage her to start a journal over the summer so she can have a positive emotional outlet. I hope you guys have a wonderful summer!

Notes: S1: We have worked on basic addition and subtraction facts, place value, word problems and arrays during the first half of the school year. By the end of second grade, students must know all basic addition facts to the sum of 20 by memory. S2: We have continued to work on basic addition and subtraction facts during this second half of the year, as well as addition/subtraction strategies and regrouping, money, geometry, and measurement. As of the end of second grade, students should know all basic addition facts to the sum of 20 by memory and out of 100 facts, Sydney currently answers over 100 problems correctly on a five minute time test.

Student Attendance Score Report

To the Parent or Guardian of:

Sydney Haskins

340 N 16 Ln

PHILOMATH, OR 97370

Philomath Elementary School recognizes the importance of regular school attendance, and challenges all students to maintain a Satisfactory to Advanced attendance rate by attending 95% or more school days per school year.

Did you know?

- Poor attendance can influence whether children read proficiently by the end of 3rd grade.
- The academic impact of missing school is the same whether the absence is excused or unexcused.
- By 6th grade, chronic absence becomes a leading indicator that a student will drop out of high school.
- Missing 10% or more instructional days classifies your child as a chronic absentee. A child can reach 10% absence with as few as 1-2 day missed per month.

To support families in recognizing whether their child is reaching research-based levels of attendance for maximizing educational opportunity, Philomath Elementary School is providing this Student Attendance Score Report with information specific to your child's performance.

At the end of the 2017-2018 school year, your child's attendance performance level is:

Total Days of Absence: 7.5 Total Tardies: 0 Attendance Rate: 95.64%

Severe Chronic Absence	Chronic Absence	At-Risk	Satisfactory	Advanced
≤ 80%	81-90%	91-94%	95-98%	99-100%

Philomath Elementary School understands families may experience challenging barriers to regular attendance. Should you require assistance in helping your child achieve a Satisfactory to Advanced attendance level, please contact the school at (541-929-3253) to learn about supports.

Thank you for helping make regular attendance a priority in your home.

Dear Parents/Guardians,

The Individual Student Report includes results from the Oregon Statewide Assessment, which reflect Oregon's rigorous academic standards. Students receive an overall score and may receive scores within a claim or area. These results provide information about where your student is performing on grade level standards, and/or expectations, and skills. A student's overall score and corresponding achievement levels are displayed in the line graph.

Oregon teachers and administrators have worked to implement more challenging, relevant, and engaging English and math standards in every K-12 classroom.

These standards identify what students should know or be able to do to graduate high school on a path ready for college and career.

If you have questions about these results or how to best support your child, please contact your child's school.

Your child's scores and achievement levels

A student performing at Level 4 demonstrates a thorough ability to

- read closely and analytically to comprehend texts of unusually high complexity and use textual evidence to demonstrate complex critical thinking.
- produce compelling, well-supported writing for a diverse range of purposes and audiences.
- critically interpret and use information delivered orally or audio-visually.
- conduct short, simple research projects to investigate a topic and locate information and cite evidence to support ideas.

About scale scores and achievement standards

Student results are reported on scales that vary by test subject. Standards have been established with respect to these scores that identify your child's achievement level. A description of this achievement level is provided below the score(s). For more information on scores and achievement standards, see <http://www.oregon.gov/ode/educator-resources/standards/Pages/Achievement-Performance-Standards.aspx>.

Your child's scores and achievement levels

A student performing at Level 3 is able to:

- Interpret and carry out mathematical procedures with adequate precision and fluency.
- Make sense of and persevere in solving a range of unfamiliar problems in pure and applied mathematics with a limited degree of scaffolding.
- Adequately explain and apply mathematical concepts. Use stated assumptions, definitions and previous results to identify and repair a flawed argument.
- Reason abstractly and quantitatively to analyze complex, real-world scenarios. Construct and use mathematical models and appropriate tools to accurately solve problems.

Notes: S1: Sydney consistently seeks to follow directions in class and works well with others. She is improving at asking for help when she doesn't understand rather than getting discouraged. She is a good thinker and has good contributions to class discussions. S2: Sydney is a hard worker and friendly with her classmates. She has made good growth in solving social problems this spring and in persevering when she doesn't know the answer right away and is a good listener to instruction. She is such a sweet girl!

Notes:	S1: It is a joy to have Sydney in my class this year. I am continually grateful for her independent, hard work and willingness to engage in her own learning. Sydney is a great friend to others, and I appreciate the way she follows directions. If I were to critique one thing, it would be that Sydney enjoys chatting with her classmates just a little too much in the transition times of our day. She is slow to wrap up a conversation and move on to another class, and walk quietly through the hallways. Let's work on this next semester. All in all, I am so proud of Sydney for all that she does at Philomath Elementary School. S2: Sydney, I am so proud of you! Even in Distance Learning, your effort and hard work has been evident. I appreciate that you showed up and engaged in the process. I especially enjoyed communicating over the Google Classroom, this spring! You are so ready to tackle what life and 5th grade has for you. It has been a delight to be your teacher this year. You are very special, talented, responsible and kind! I will miss you. Have a great summer.

To whom it may concern,

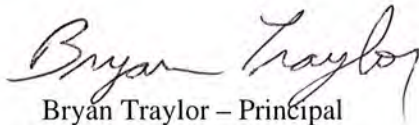

2/5/2020

Sydney Haskins's first semester report card will reflect that she was absent for a total of thirteen days to the date on this letter. All absences were excused absences.

At Philomath Elementary School, we leave our students enrolled up to the first ten days. After that time, we exercise our Ten Day Drop rule. Meaning that if a student does not show up for classes after ten days we UN-enroll them from our system.

The first ten days of Sydney's absences September 1st to September 15th 2020 were marked excused in our system as the elementary school was provided sufficient information about the family's circumstances. On September 16th 2020 she was unenrolled from Philomath elementary School.

Sydney was re-enrolled at Philomath Elementary School on November 3rd 2020. The following two days that Sydney was absent was due to Technical Difficulties. The next absent is on November 19th. This day was reported to the office that Sydney was sick,

Notes: S1: Sydney is an absolutely pleasure to have in class, is a hard worker, and has been a strong contributor to our classes this semester! She gets her work done, she shares thoughts and ideas, and very rarely requires redirection or reminders about work. She has a kind word to say to everyone and gets along with other students easily. Keep up the great work Sydney!

An NG grade means the student did not turn in enough work to demonstrate proficiency with grade level curriculum.

HPI

Sydney is a 10-year-old girl here with her dad for a well visit. Sydney has been experiencing more anxiety of late. She misses her friends. She also has more anxiety every time she visits her mother. Her parents are divorced. Her mother lives in Las Vegas. She spends 8 weeks in the summer, spring break, and winter break with her mother. Her dad reports that she seems come back more on edge and nervous. They are seeking a counselor for this so she can get therapy. She does not sleep well at night for a while afterwards. She is more nervous with online school now though she gets very good grades. She is eating healthy diet and exercising. She would prefer more time with her friends. She does spend a fair amount of time watching TV and playing X Box. She is brushing her teeth and helping a little bit with chores at home. Generally she reports she feels happy

ROS

ROS as noted in the HPI

Physical Exam

Patient is a 10-year-old female.

General: Well nourished, well kept. Alert and oriented in no distress

Extremities: no edema, FROM of joints. no deformities

Skin: intact, no rashes

Neuro: Alert and oriented, normal gait and balance, no sensory deficits

Assessment / Plan

- Well child visit - Generally healthy 10-year-old with some mild anxiety. We discussed the therapy is a good option. She will continue to exercise. I also strongly recommend that she limit her nonessential screen time to less than 2 hours a day. She will continue to work on sleep habits. Currently she is having to watch TV to calm herself down fall asleep. I recommended that she watch TV and when she feels tired then turn off the TV and go to bed. She can also use some melatonin 2-3 mg at bedtime to help her for the short term. We are still waiting for immunization records. Her dad says he has these at home will drop these off. He is quite certain that she is up-to-date on immunizations.

Z00.129: Encounter for routine child health examination without abnormal findings

Anxiety

F41.9: Anxiety disorder, unspecified

To: Caleb Haskins <calebhaskins1290@gmail.com>

Hello Mr. Haskins,

During her Orthodontic consultation Dr. Allison Tomlin recommended we wait 6 months to re-evaluate and give Sydney some more time to grow and lose some baby teeth as well. As far as sending notes go I would have to consult with our doctor since the responsible party we have on file is Ms. Lisa Myers.

3 (THE PROCEEDINGS BEGAN AT 10:29:17)

5 THE CLERK: We're on the record on Haskins v. Myers.

6 THE COURT: All right. Good morning. We are on 7 page 5 of our 10:00 calendar, we have post judgment
8 proceedings on the Haskins and Myers case. The case number is 9 D-2010-434495. We are on the record at the Regional Justice
10 Center. I have I believe Counsel and both parties connected
11 by BlueJeans.

12 If we have Mr. Zernich who can please confirm 13 appearance?

14 MR. ZERNICH: Thank you, Your Honor. Gary Zernich.
15 My Bar number is 7963. I'm here in an unbundled capacity for 16 Caleb Haskins. And I'd like the Court to know that the scope
17 of my representation is to present the matter to the Court,
18 But I've not been hired to prepare anything. That's all done
19 by Mr. Haskins and some outside service.

20 THE COURT: Yeah. That -- I'll talk about the 21 filings that we got yesterday --

22 MR. ZERNICH: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: -- in that context. But do we have 24 Ms. Marr?

1 MS. MARR: You do, Your Honor. Thank you. Patricia
2 Marr, Bar number 8846. I'm appearing in a retained capacity
3 on behalf of Ms. Myers who is also present via BlueJeans as 4 well as Jessica Adams with our office.

5 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine. We -- okay. You
6 know, I feel like this has been like a piece of quicksand as 7 far as the time that's really been churning almost for the 8 last year. This case was reopened in September of last year
9 when Dad filed a motion to enforce the custody orders to get 10 relief from the Court to get the child returned to him. He 11 has primary custody. And those filings were in September.

12 Mom filed a response in October. And in her
13 opposition, she filed a counter motion addressing parent/child
14 issues she wanted to enforce her rights. She also said that 15 there were some issues related to custody. We had a hearing
16 in October, and granted, Dad's motion, and we started this 17 process where we allowed discovery in the efforts of giving 18 the parties an opportunity to get access to information that 19 could support a finding of adequate cause to reopen or re-
20 litigate the issue of physical custody.

21 So we had a hearing in January. And we talked about 22 this issue of limited discovery because there was -- were 23 allegations, but there was a need to try to follow up on those 24 allegations and get records and do some things you couldn't do

1 without having the right of discovery.

2 We continued the matter for a couple of months. The 3 last -- you know, there were stipulations to continue the 4 matter. The case was continued from January 13th to February
5 24th to March 31st to April 19th, then May 12th, then June
6 8th, and then the Court continued it to June 30th. And you
7 know, I -- the Court just basically said okay, you're working
8 behind the scenes trying to gather information.

9 And June 30th we said okay, look. You've had your 10 discovery period. But we need all of everything to be wrapped
11 up. And we required Ms. Marr, on behalf of her client, to 12 prepare what I call the prima facie affidavit, basically the 13 statement under oath making offers of proof that would show
14 that if those things were proven, the Court might consider a
15 change in physical custody.

16 And usually that's done at the beginning of a 17 request for a change. But in this case, it was tied back to 18 the opposition and counter motion that goes back all the way
19 to October. And we set a deadline for them. Ms. Marr met the 20 deadline. There was an affidavit that was filed on July 19th,
21 and it dealt with some general allegations.

22 I mean, Dad's had custody in Oregon for many --
23 several years. She alleged medical or dental neglect, some 24 domestic violence in his household. And she alleged that he

1 kept the child from her in spring break 2020. So Mr. Zernich
2 filed a notice of appearance a couple weeks later, and then
3 there was a substantive response filed yesterday, and also 4 some offers of proof, some exhibits filed yesterday.

5 And as Mr. Zernich says, he's helping Mr. Haskins,
6 but he's not doing all of the filings. That's something he'll 7 have to sort out.

8 So, Ms. Marr, first thing I want to know is did you
9 get the response that was filed yesterday and the offers of 10 proof, the exhibits?

11 MS. MARR: I received it this morning.

12 THE COURT: That's fine.

13 MS. MARR: I --

14 THE COURT: That's fine. That's fine. I mean,
15 whether you -- I just wanted to know whether you've seen what
16 the Court's seen. This is the problem, okay? The reason why
17 we had the hearing on June 30th, and why I said that we would 18 have a deadline in July for the filing of an affidavit, and 19 then presumably a response, was so that we could have a 20 discussion, or at least a record made of whether there's 21 adequate cause to reopen and set an evidentiary hearing, or 22 not adequate cause to set an evidentiary hearing.

23 And this is a case in which, based on the 24 allegations and the offers of proof, it's a close call. I

1 think the Court could determine that there's adequate cause
2 and set a hearing, or the Court could say no, there's no
3 adequate cause.

4 And why would I do that? It would be because
5 there's no, you know, Dad's response where he says there's no
6 DV in my household. And by the way, here are a copy of the 7 records from the Division of Family Services up in Oregon
8 which investigated it and closed it unsubstantiated. Or I
9 didn't deny her spring break. The pandemic hit in the spring
10 of 2020, and I gave her an extra week during the summer of 11 2020. Or I don't have any medical neglect or dental neglect.
12 The child isn't being neglected. My responsibilities are 13 being met. Those kind of things.

14 So those are the factual disputes because Mom has 15 alleged that there is domestic violence in his home, that 16 there was medical and dental neglect, and that he wrongfully
17 withheld the child from his custody. Okay?

18 So obviously, you know, that is sort of the type of 19 allegations that would warrant either a hearing or to 20 determine that there's no adequate cause for hearing. The 21 problem that I have is that the filings yesterday and the 22 attachments are relevant to that analysis. And Ms. Marr, 23 because of the timing of this filing, has been denied an 24 opportunity to reply or even, based on her statement that she

1 saw them this morning just like the Court did, you know,
2 respond to it.

3 That's not what we're supposed to be doing,
4 especially when this matter has been percolating and working
5 behind the scenes for months now. Okay? So I know Counsel's
6 probably prepared to, you know, weigh in on that. You know,
7 Ms. Marr, you're going to be asking the Court to find adequate
8 cause and set a hearing. Mr. Zernich, you're going to say no
9 adequate cause, deny it under the principles of Rooney, the 10 res judicata principles.

11 And I'm not having that with me considering material
12 stuff that was filed yesterday, okay? So you know, in June I
13 wanted everything to be on the record and to have no issues
14 related to what we were arguing. And it didn't happen that 15 way. And it's not -- not the Defendant's fault per se. And 16 it may not even be the Plaintiff's fault. You got to get the 17 stuff on record.

18 And so what I'm going to do to fix that is I'm going
19 to continue this matter a week or so, require you, Ms. Marr,
20 to respond to the offers of proof, the exhibits and the 21 response that was filed yesterday, and then you'll be able to 22 make your argument on the affidavit, the response, and the 23 reply because if the Court says there's no adequate cause to 24 re-litigate the issue of custody, you would have rights to

1 challenge that conclusion.

2 And if the Court finds that there's adequate cause
3 for an evidentiary proceeding, we proceed to setting an 4 evidentiary proceeding, and then we would decide it and then
5 rights would attach to that order. Okay?

6 So what I got in mind is setting it over a week or
7 so. September 7th at 10 would be my first choice. And I
8 would set a deadline for you to file a response. We could 9 start the clock running today. And that would mean that a 10 response would have to be filed by say the 27th, a week from 11 Friday. I'd give you a few extra days.

12 MS. MARR: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And then everything would be in the can
14 so to speak on the 27th. We would be back in court a week
15 later. Mr. Zernich, I don't know what the scope is of your 16 unbundled representation. But, you know, you would be advised
17 that you can make an argument on behalf of Mr. Haskins at that 18 hearing. Okay?

19 MR. ZERNICH: Okay. Very good. So we have 20 September 7th at 10:00 a.m.

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 MR. ZERNICH: With August 27th deadline for --

23 THE COURT: That would be the -- look, I got -- I
24 got to be honest. I'm looking at the information that was

1 filed, I'm looking at the allegations that were made. You
2 know, I'm going to have to justify whether or not I say the 3 Court says no, we're not setting an evidentiary proceeding or 4 we are, and this is why. Okay?

5 MR. ZERNICH: Okay.

6 MS. MARR: Thank you. Your Honor, I appreciate
7 that. I'm good on my feet, but I'm not that good. And --

8 THE COURT: Well, no. And your client -- your 9 client is not going to be denied an opportunity to respond to 10 these records that she just got yesterday, or today.

11 MS. MARR: I think that --

12 MR. ZERNICH: Your Honor --

13 MS. MARR: -- the Court --

14 MR. ZERNICH: Patty and I -- Patty and I were on the 15 phone this morning talking about this very issue. And I
16 certainly have no objection. We anticipated this as part of 17 the -- what was going to happen. So we thank you for your 18 time. We're sorry to have not been ready to go this morning.

19 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

20 MS. MARR: Not your fault, Gary. There's only one
21 thing. I have a pretrial on a criminal case, and it's -- I
22 think it's in White Pine County. And it's already been moved,
23 and I hate to ask the Court to -- I don't think that I can
24 move it again. It's a felony case.

1 THE COURT: Well, what day is it -- what day is it
2 on?

3 MS. MARR: It's on a Tuesday, and I've got a 9:00
4 a.m. -- 9:00 a.m. in front of Judge Henderson, and then my
5 pretrial is at 10:00. I can do --

6 THE COURT: Well, then you're not available at 10:00
7 on the 7th.

8 MS. MARR: I'm not. I'm sorry, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Well, that's not a problem.
10 You could file -- you could file your response by the 27th.
11 We'll do it on August 30th -- I mean, August 31st at 10:00
12 a.m. We'll move it up a week.

13 MS. MARR: August 31st at 10:00 a.m. Okay.

14 THE COURT: Yeah. You got to -- you got to make 15 sure that you file before the end of the week before.
16 Otherwise --

17 MS. MARR: Okay.

18 THE COURT: -- we'll have the same problem.

19 MS. MARR: I got it. No, I get --

20 MR. ZERNICH: I'll get it the next day.

21 THE COURT: Okay. August 31st at 10:00 a.m., Madam
22 Clerk.

23 THE CLERK: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much.

above-entitled case to the best of my ability.

/s/ Michelle Rogan
Michelle Rogan

1 That I am the Defendant in the above-referenced action and respond to
2 Plaintiff's August 17, 2021 Declaration as follows:

3 2. Sydney's full legal name is Sydney Rose Myers-Haskins, however, Caleb
4 continues to refuse to use Myers at all on any legal documentation for school or 5 medical so I am excluded. He uses Sydney Haskins only and even corrects my 6 emails when responding to exclude Myers from Sydney's name;

9 4. Caleb was granted permission to relocate to Oregon in 2014, however, he
10 had already relocated without my or the Court's permission or knowledge, leaving
11 Sydney Rose behind to reside with his then wife, Charity Damesworth/Haskins'
12 former boyfriend. Charity then picked Sydney up from her former's boyfriend's
13 house in Nevada and drove her to Oregon herself. During this time I did not even 14 know Sydney was in Nevada, let alone living right down the street with me with 15 Charity's former boyfriend.
16

17 Caleb then moved from Oregon to Carson City, Nevada in 2014, again without my 18 or the Court's permission or knowledge where he resided for two (2) years.
19 During that time Caleb and Charity were going through a divorce and Charity
20 obtained a TPO against him due to Domestic Violence, which was on-going prior 21 to their relocation to Oregon.
22

23 I believe that Caleb filed his Motion to relocate with Sydney to Oregon under false
24 pretenses and that the true basis for his move was to restrict my contact with her
25 and avoid ongoing domestic violence investigations in Las Vegas, Nevada.
26

2 5. This is false as stated in my March 6, 2018, Motion filed by Attorney Kurth
3 and as evidenced in my subsequent pleadings on file herein. Specifically, Caleb
4 continues to refuse to allow Sydney Rose to call me, continues to refuse regular 5 phone contact or even commit to a time that she may to talk to me; and refused to 6 allow her to spend time with me during Spring Break, 2020 - resulting in Sydney
7 and I not being able to spend her birthday, or my birthday, and we were not able to 8 see each other for six (6) months, albeit flights were not restricted during that time.
9 My phone contact with Sydney was limited during that time, as it always is.
10 More recently, Sydney and I have not been able to speak since the last child
11 exchange on August 13, 2021. These restrictions by Caleb are typical and when I
12 am permitted to speak to her it is typically limited to less than ten (10) minutes.
13 Further, my limited phone contact with Sydney, not by my choice, is often 14 interrupted with Caleb, Valeri or others, yelling, calling me names, partying in the 15 background, telling her to hang up the phone, or yelling/calling me derogatory
16 names before allowing Sydney Rose to speak with me. Further, Sydney's dental 17 records evidence that he mouth is overcrowded and she requires braces/Invisalign.
18 The Las Vegas dental records state Sydney is in pain and it is difficult for her to 19 eat.

20 6. This is false as noted in my March 6, 2018, Motion filed by Attorney Kurth
21 and as evidenced in my subsequent pleadings on file herein and the proposed 22 evidence to be introduced at trial. Specifically, Sydney's medical records in 23 Oregon evidence that she is vitamin D deficient; evidences low weight for her age
24 that she suffers from anxiety and that she spends the majority of her day watching
25 TV or playing video games.
26

1 7. False. I am aware from Sydney and Charity that Caleb has a history of drug
2 abuse, alcohol abuse and domestic violence. The drug use includes meth and he
3 was in a drug rehab at one time in northern Nevada and his current wife, Valeri has 4 a history of drug abuse to include ongoing use of pain killers for her back pain.

6 8. False. Evidence to be introduced at the time of trial, including, inter alia,
7 police records from LVMPD and Oregon State, including, TPOs involving Charity
8 Damesworth/Haskins his ex-wife and Caleb's own discovery responses, will 9 demonstrate Caleb's propensity for violence/domestic violence. He and his current 10 wife fight on a regular basis and there is an active case in Oregon. In addition to 11 the violence in Caleb's house with Valeri, Valeri has physically assault her son, 12 Malakai, and Malakai has physically assaulted others in the home, as well as 13 caused damage to property in the house.

14
15 Further, a recent CPS investigation was conducted because Caleb was drinking and 16 driving with his 9-year-old son, Mason and Sydney Rose in the car. Besides 17 drinking and driving with the children in the car, Caleb left them alone in the 18 vehicle to go into the liquor store to purchase alcohol and then opened it while 19 driving.

20
21 9. As stated herein, Caleb has withheld contact between Sydney Rose and I and 22 continues to do so.

23
24 10. There were not flight restrictions at the time of Spring Break 2020; airline 25 flights were still proceeding as normal despite the beginning of the pandemic.
26

1 Therefore, Sydney Rose could have traveled with me to Las Vegas. Ironically,
2 despite Caleb's refusal to allow Sydney and I to spend time together during Spring
3 Break, he demanded Charity allow him time with his son, Mason who resides in 4 another city. I had no choice but to succumb to Caleb's demand under the 5 circumstances, because he refused to bring her to the airport and upon professional 6 advice, I sent an email to avoid any issue from the Court later on.

8 As stated in prior pleadings, photos and videos, Sydney Rose refused to get on the 9 plane to return to Oregon due to her fear of Caleb and the household she lives in 10 while in Oregon.
11

12 11. As state herein, Caleb continuously interferes with my ability to have a 13 mother-daughter relationship with Sydney. Sydney has reported that Caleb has 14 torn up pictures of me upon her return to Oregon, broke and even thrown away her 15 matching necklace that we have purchased while in Las Vegas.
16

17 12. Again, Caleb continuously interferes and refuses to allow communication
18 with Sydney. In my emails to Caleb I have provided my information to Skype, 19 Zoom or Facetime, however, he refuses and has never allowed Sydney Rose to 20 communicate in that manner with me. Notably, Caleb stated in his 2014 Motion to 21 Relocate that he would allow this means of communication but has consistently
22 denied me and Sydney Rose of the ability to communicate by this these means.
23

24 13. Caleb has taken Sydney to his dentist, who is not a pediatric dentist and has 25 refused to get her ortho treatment. Caleb will not allow me to use my orthodontic
26

1 insurance in Las Vegas to provide her with the treatment needed even though I
2 have repeatedly told him my dental insurance will cover it and for any portion that
3 it does not, I am willing to pay. If Sydney Rose does get the treatment needed here
4 in Las Vegas, it could be either braces or even Invisalign and she will be provided
5 with all trays and just have check-ups with her pediatric orthodontist as needed
6 here as well. Sydney is in pain and has relayed that she is to me/our family and the 7 ortho/dentist at Mtn View in Las Vegas. It is disturbing that Caleb has told Sydney
8 that she does not need braces and that if she gets them, she will look like a
9 pretentious b&*%h like me. This should be about Sydney's dental health and the 10 fact that her mouth is overcrowded, she has trouble chewing and is in pain. It 11 breaks my heart that she doesn't like to smile because of the way her teeth look,
12 but again, that is secondary to her dental health and health in general.

14 14. There was an incident wherein Charity filed a false TPO against me (which 15 she will attest to) at the direction of Caleb. This occurred prior to 2014, prior to 16 Caleb's move to Oregon and apparently, done at the bequest of Caleb. The goal, 17 as stated to me by Charity, was to have me arrested and use it against me in the 18 custody case. Otherwise, I have always been at the airport to exchange Sydney 19 Rose, regardless if Caleb was in Carson City or Oregon, sometimes notifying me at 20 the last moment.

21
22 On one occasion Caleb failed to appear at the Oregon airport to pick up Sydney
23 Rose where Sydney and I were waiting for him to perform the exchange. Albeit 24 we were waiting at the airport for Caleb he called the police and misinformed them
25 that I was in Las Vegas and refusing to provide Sydney to him. At that time,
26

1 Sydney and I had to wait until the next day to perform the exchange.

3 15. I have never, nor do I currently have, any mental health issues. In this 4 regard, Caleb was previously admonished by this Court to stop making these 5 unfounded allegations, however, he continues to do so. Again, I have never been 6 diagnosed with a mental illness or concern.

8 16. As stated in my March 6, 2018 Motion, still pending before the 9 Court, and subsequent pleadings herein, Caleb relocated to Oregon prior to the 10 filing and granting of his Motion to Relocate. Caleb then relocated to Carson City,
11 Nevada due to DV/TPO/arrest concerns between Caleb and his then
12 Wife, Charity, where he resided for two (2) years in multiple locations in the city.
13 Caleb then returned to Oregon where he resided in multiple cities to include Salem,
14 Albany and Philomath. Sydney Rose attended a multitude of schools in Carson
15 City and Oregon, all without my knowledge or approval.
16

17 17. As stated herein and the pleadings and papers on file herein.
18

19 18. False. See Response to Paragraph Number 6. The proposed evidence 20 supports the same.
21

22 19. The current custody arrangement does not adequately foster Sydney Rose's 23 relationship with both parents; Sydney and I are unable to see each other or even 24 talk with each other on a regular basis. It is never difficult for Sydney Rose to 25 leave Caleb and go with me during these exchanges, however the opposite is true
26

1 with Caleb. Sydney Rose becomes ill, crying, throwing up and blatantly refuses to
2 return to Oregon with Caleb - this has been on going.

4 20. Caleb is not supportive, quite the opposite. In fact, Caleb has even stated in 5 emails and in Court that he wants nothing more than for me to be jailed. He 6 doesn't want Sydney Rose to see me or speak with me, speaks ill of me with 7 Sydney Rose telling her I am mentally ill/sick and a liar. He refuses to allow for 8 exchanges to go forth as scheduled, where she and I go without seeing one another
9 for six (6) months, and not speaking with one another over the phone for up to a 10 month at a time.

11
12 I have never and will never psychologically manipulate Sydney Rose, but Caleb
13 consistently mentally and emotionally abuses her. He and Valeri break her
14 necklaces and special gifts I have given to her. He has broken and thrown away
15 photo frames with my picture in them, even tearing up pictures of me, her brother 16 and grandparents.

17
18 As evidenced in the photos, videos and the numerous phone calls (46) in the couple
19 of days after Sydney returned to Oregon (11/2020), she relayed her fears regarding 20 him and the household and her desire to remain with me. Sydney Rose has a 21 loving, caring and stable, positive, non-abusive home here with me and our family
22 in Las Vegas.

23
24 21. I did contact DFS in Oregon and the Oregon Police Department for a well
25 check a result of Sydney Rose's conversation with me and her being in the house
26

1 in Oregon with Malakai, the juvenile with the ankle monitor who physically
2 threatened Sydney Rose. When speaking to Sydney, her demeanor was one of fear
3 and she was crying, demanding for me to pick her up and return her to Las Vegas,
4 and calling me non-stop. Trenton, Valeri's handicapped adult son, was in the 5 house. Trenton is handicapped, restrained to a wheelchair as he cannot walk or 6 move his hands/arms, wears a diaper and needs someone to carry him to the toilet,
7 change him, bath him and feed him as he is unable to do any of this himself. When 8 he is not in his wheelchair, his is lying on the floor on a blanket or mattress.
9 Sydney Rose feeds him on occasion, however, Valeri is his legal guardian/care
10 giver. Caleb was working in another city about forty-five (45) minutes away and 11 Valeri was two (2) hours away in another city as well. When Valerie and Caleb
12 are not at home, Sydney must care for Trenton.

13
14 At no time did I ever tell Sydney Rose she needed to act upset, this is absolutely
15 untrue. I did tape record all calls and document our trip to the airport when she 16 was originally scheduled to return in August, 2020, based upon her concerning 17 behavior and her refusal to board the airplane.

18
19 22. Police records and Charity's statement prove otherwise. Additionally, the 20 police/CPS has consistently been to the house in Philomath, Oregon as a result of 21 Malakai's violence and actions. There have also numerous TPOs filed as well.

22
23 23. That is unknown; however, Malakai possessed marijuana and Valeri does 24 possess pain killers and other drugs in the house.
25
26
27
28

1 24. That is unknown to me; however Charity has been to Caleb's house to pick
2 up and drop off their son, Mason, who has observed occurrences in the house while 3 there.

5 25. Caleb was never granted a TPO against me. Charity applied for a TPO at 6 Caleb's direction, however it was dissolved. Charity admits this and relayed the 7 abuse and threats by Caleb during their marriage while residing in Las Vegas and 8 Oregon to the courts. As a result of his abuse and concerns for their son Mason,
9 Charity was awarded Sole Physical and Legal custody of Mason with limited
10 visitation to Caleb.

11
12 26. Records from Charity, as well as her testimony evidence the abuse she 13 suffered while in a relationship with Caleb and her concerns regarding his 14 household.

15
16 27-30. Caleb has not provided updated progress reports, grades, assignments,
17 Events to me, nor has he allowed the school to provide me with any information
18 at all to include the Boys and Girls Club or physician/dental offices. He never 19 notified me of her graduation ceremony or special events. He never notified me of 20 her injuries sustained at the Boys and Girls Club or when she had a Staph infection
21 and was taken to the Urgent Care on two (2) occasions in Philomath. I only found 22 out when a bill arrived for nearly $3k total and when I picked up Sydney Rose and 23 noticed she had a crater-shaped injury still healing on the side of her forehead. He 24 has never provided me with access to her school records whether at the school
25 directly or via their online parent log in despite my requests. He has never 26

1 provided any information with regard to her absences or his refusal to return her to
2 school when they returned to campus after COVID-19 this year. I have attempted
3 to contact the school and the other entities, however, they refuse to provide me
4 with any information as my name is not on the records as ordered by the Court.

6 31. This is relevant as to his relocations, despite the Court's Order and without
7 the Court's/my knowledge or permission. It is also relevant because it evidences
8 his instability and the veracity of my claims. Sydney Rose was in fact moved 9 around many times in and out of the State of Nevada and Oregon since the 10 relocation Order, attending many schools, residing in a multitude of places with 11 others to include Jodi, Caleb's friend, who had a warrant for her arrest.
12

13 32. Caleb never listed me as an emergency contact or even as her mother and 14 never notified me of this incident or others. He also never went to the Boys and 15 Girls Club to pick her up after they notified him of her injuries - more than one.
16

17 33. This video was provided to Caleb in my disclosures. Sydney Rose was 18 throwing up and crying incessantly, refusing to leave on the plane, begging me to 19 take her home with me. She did not want to return to Caleb and his household
20 in Oregon. Sydney Rose did not become upset at the airport due to her grandfather 21 passing nor did I make her feel guilty about wanting to return to Oregon, this is 22 absolutely false.
23

24 34. The Court will review the pleadings and papers on file herein, including my 25 offers of proof, and make a determination in the best interest of Sydney Rose. I
26

1 respectfully submit that the evidence will validate my claims and concerns that
2 there has been a substantial change that affects Sydney's welfare and the 3 basis for a modification of custody.

5 Paglini never testified in our case, nor was I ever evaluated by him in our case. I
6 was in a prior divorce matter (my ex-husband was a Metro police officer and was 7 abusive with myself and our son). Paglini worked for the police department at that 8 time and the report contained hearsay – statements by my ex-husband at the time.
9 That Court would not consider the Report. Regardless, Paglini never diagnosed
10 me in that Report and I went to three (3) separate psychiatrists/psychologists for 11 evaluations/forensic reports all which state no existing mental disease/defect. With 12 that being said, I have never been diagnosed by him or anyone with a mental 13 illness/disease or disorder. I am unsure as to how he would even have knowledge 14 of the report or of the contents of that report as that case is sealed and the report is 15 approximately fifteen (15) years old. This Honorable Court refused to entertain 16 this manufactured issue from Caleb and admonished him. More concerning is the 17 fact that Caleb frequently refers to me as crazy, sicko, schizo, baby killer and 18 mentally ill in front of Sydney or to Sydney.
19

20 I am a healthy, active mom; mentally and physically well without concern. I have 21 maintained employment as a Department Director/Chair for the Legal/Criminal
22 Justice and General Education Departments at a private College here in Nevada
23 for over six (6) years, have a teenage son who has been attending private school
24 and excelling in his academics and extracurricular interests. I have maintained a 25 strong, positive and loving relationship with my Sydney, despite all attempts by 26

1 Caleb to sabotage the same, as well as our family and provide her with the best
2 opportunities, and a healthy, happy lifestyle as evidenced. As noted above, the 3 Court has admonished Caleb from making these desperate and defamatory
4 statements to the Court.

6 Caleb, however, has been diagnosed with Medium to Severe PTSD with night
7 terrors, was prescribed Lamictal by the VA (this is a medication used in treating
8 bipolar/mood disorder), has a TBI, history of drug and alcohol abuse (incl'ing
9 Meth). He receives approx. $450/mo in VA benefits for his diagnosed TBI/PTSD.
10

11 I am competent to make this declaration. I have personal knowledge of the 12 matters and factual averments contained they are true and correct, except for those 13 matters not within my personal knowledge, and as to those matters, I believe them
14 to be true and correct. Further, the proffered evidence will support my allegations 15 made in my pleadings and papers on file herein.
16

17 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada
18 (NRS 53.045 and U.S.C. §1746, that the foregoing is true and correct.

DECISION AND ORDER

16 Defendant.)

Date of Hearing: 8/31/2021

17)

Time of Hearing: 10 AM

18 _____)
19
20 This decision and order concerns Lisa Myer's counter motion to modify 21 physical custody that was filed on October 12, 2020. The court considered the 22 papers and pleadings, and the arguments of counsel at the hearing on August 31,
23 2021. The court concludes that the motion should be denied, and the matter
24 should be closed. In support of this conclusion, the court finds:
25
26
27
28

- 1 1. This court has custody jurisdiction and personal jurisdiction over the
2 parties to this case. This court has continuing exclusive custody
3 jurisdiction over post-judgment custody matters pursuant to the UCCJEA
4 as adopted in the Nevada Revised Statutes. Lisa Meyers resides in Clark
5 County, Nevada. Caleb Haskins and the parties' minor child reside in 6 Oregon.
- 9 2. Caleb Haskins filed a Complaint for Divorce on August 20, 2010, and Lisa
10 Myers' Answer and Counterclaim was filed on October 5, 2010. The 11 parties have one minor child, S.R.H., who was born on March 30, 2010.
12
- 14 3. The case was assigned to Department H on June 19, 2012. The court set a 15 trial date, and the matter was decided after a non-jury trial on October 18, 16 2012, and October 22, 2012. The Decree of Divorce was filed on 17 November 13, 2012.
- 20 4. Caleb Haskins has had primary physical custody of S.R.H., subject to Lisa
21 Myers' visitation since 2012.
22
- 23 5. Caleb Haskins' motion to relocate with the child to Oregon was granted
24 after an evidentiary hearing held on February 27, 2014.
25
26
27
28

1 6. Caleb Haskins has had primary physical custody in Oregon since 2014, and
2 the child has travelled to Nevada to visit Lisa Myers.

4 7. Lisa Myers has filed ten (10) appeals to the Nevada Supreme Court before
5 and after the divorce. Specifically:

7 a. Lisa Myers filed a Notice of Appeal (1) on February 23, 2010.
8

9 b. Lisa Myers filed a Notice of Appeal (2) on April 28, 2011.
10

11 c. Lisa Myers filed a Notice of Appeal (3) on June 13, 2011.
12

13 d. Lisa Myers filed a Notice of Appeal (4) on June 13, 2011.
14

15 e. Lisa Myers filed a Notice of Appeal (5) on April 12, 2012.
16

17 f. Lisa Myers filed a Notice of Appeal (6) on June 11, 2012.
18

19 g. Lisa Myers filed a Notice of Appeal (7) on September 5, 2012.
20

21 h. Lisa Myers filed a Notice of Appeal (8) on December 17, 2012.
22

23 i. Lisa Myers filed a Notice of Appeal (9) on December 18, 2012.
24

25 j. Lisa Myers filed a Notice of Appeal (10) on April 21, 2014.
26

27 8. The appeals have been dismissed by the Nevada Supreme Court.
28 Specifically:

- 1 a. The Nevada Supreme Court filed a Judgment dismissing appeal
2 57825 on August 17, 2011.
4 b. The Nevada Supreme Court filed a Judgment dismissing appeal
5 59916 on March 16, 2012.
7 c. The Nevada Supreme Court filed a Judgment dismissing appeal
8 58306 on March 20, 2012.
10 d. The Nevada Supreme Court filed a Judgment dismissing appeal
11 59626 on May 15, 2012.
12
13 e. The Nevada Supreme Court filed a Judgment dismissing appeal
14 561046 on August 22, 2012.
15
16 f. The Nevada Supreme Court filed a Judgment dismissing appeal
17 60690 on September 5, 2012.
18
19 g. The Nevada Supreme Court filed a Judgment dismissing appeal
20 61664 on December 20, 2012.
21
22 h. The Nevada Supreme Court filed a Judgment dismissing appeal
23 62330 on May 8, 2013.
24
25 i. The Nevada Supreme Court filed a Judgment dismissing appeal
26 65518 on August 14, 2014.
27

- 1 9. This case was reopened by Caleb Haskins on September 21, 2020, when he
2 filed a motion to enforce the custody orders after Lisa Myers did not return
3 the child to him in August, 2020, after summer visitation in Nevada.
4
- 5 10. Lisa Myers filed an opposition and countermotion for a change in
6 physical custody on October 12, 2020.
7
- 8 11. The court heard this matter on October 14, 2020. The court ordered the 9 immediate return of the child to the custodial parent. The court filed a
10 Pick-Up Order on November 16, 2020, and the child was returned to Caleb
11 Haskins in Oregon.
12
- 13 12. The court allowed ninety days of post-judgment discovery to give the 14 parties an opportunity to persuade the court that there was adequate cause
15 to re-litigate physical custody. This period of limited discovery was 16 extended by the court, and by the parties' stipulation and order.
17
- 18 13. The court heard this matter on August 18, 2021. The court ordered final 19 briefing and set the matter for hearing on August 31, 2021. On that date,
20 the considered the papers on file, and the arguments of counsel. The matter
21 was taken under advisement.
22
- 23 14. Nevada statutes and case law provide that the district court has broad 24 discretion concerning child custody matters. Rooney v. Rooney, 109 Nev.
25 540, 853 P.2d 123 (1993).
26
27
28

1 15. The Nevada Supreme Court discussed the principles of res judicata as it
2 relates to a post-judgment request to change child custody orders in Castle
3 v. Simmons, 120 Nev. 98 (2004), and in Martin v. Martin, 120 Nev. 342
4 (2004). The doctrine of res judicata as applied through the changed
5 circumstances doctrine promotes finality and stability in child custody
6 cases.

9 16. The Nevada Supreme Court adopted an “adequate cause” standard,
10 holding that the district court has discretion to deny a motion to modify
11 custody without holding a hearing if the affidavits do not show a prima
12 facie basis for a change in custody. To constitute a prima facie case it 13 must be shown that (1) the facts alleged in the affidavits are relevant to 14 grounds for modification; and (2) the evidence is not merely cumulative or 15 impeaching. Rooney v. Rooney, 109 Nev. 540, 853 P.2d 123 (1993).
16

18 17. The Nevada Supreme Court applied and adopted the two-part test for 19 custody changes when one parent has primary physical custody. A 20 modification of primary physical custody is warranted only when (1) there 21 has been a substantial change in circumstances affecting the welfare of the 22 child, and (2) the child’s best interest is served by the modification. The 23 party seeking a modification of custody bears the burden of satisfying both 24 prongs. Ellis v. Carucci, 123 Nev. 145, 161 P.3d 239 (2007).
25
26
27
28

1 18. The court concludes that the countermotion filed by Lisa Myers and her
2 supporting filings do not state facts that would support a substantial change
3 in circumstances affecting the welfare of the child, and that the child's best
4 interest is served by the modification. The countermotion lacks merit and 5 should be denied.

7 Therefore,

8
9 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Lisa Myers' countermotion that was 10 filed on October 12, 2020, is denied.
11

12 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the matter is closed upon the entry of 13 this order.

3 (THE PROCEEDINGS BEGAN AT 11:05:15)

5 THE COURT: Okay. On page 1 of our 10:00 calendar,
6 we have the Haskins and Myers case, post judgment proceedings
7 on the D-2010-434495. Mr. Zernich, you're connected by 8 BlueJeans?

9 MR. ZERNICH: Yes, Your Honor, I am. Thank you.

10 THE COURT: And, Ms. Marr, are you connected by 11 BlueJeans?

12 MS. MARR: I am, Your Honor. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: All right. I appreciate you contacting
14 the Court. We understand that you were in another matter at 15 the beginning of the hour. So we are glad that both Counsel
16 are available.

17 MS. MARR: That's --

18 THE COURT: We just had a hearing a couple weeks
19 ago. This matter has actually been pending for, you know, the 20 better part of a year. The Court is going to be making a 21 decision as to whether we set an evidentiary proceeding, or 22 whether we determine that there's adequate cause to set one.

23 And I asked for you guys, since we had this period
24 of time for since the end of last year where we had discovery

1 that the Court allowed, and then those discovery deadlines
2 were extended by stipulation and order. I asked you to sort
3 of summarize everything with your filings and both of you have 4 done that.

5 The Court has had a chance to review your updated
6 papers including the papers that you filed, Ms. Marr, on the 7 27th of August. And I don't -- I don't have a lot of time on 8 this calendar. But I want you to be able to take a few
9 minutes to make your argument on the record. I know that 10 you've made your written arguments on more than one occasion.

11 But the Court is going to be taking this under and 12 issuing an order to determine whether the counter motion that 13 was filed last, I think it was October or September, whether 14 there's adequate cause to set an evidentiary proceeding on 15 Mom's request for change of custody.

16 So the way -- that's the way I'm going to approach
17 it. Mr. Zernich, I'm going to let Ms. Marr make her pitch for 18 the Court exercising discretion to set an evidentiary
19 proceeding. And then you'll state your position in 20 opposition.

21 You know, in this particular case, I mean, I --
22 there was a long period of time between the time that the 23 Court heard it. I think between 2014 and 2020 I had heard it
24 just once in 2018, and that was on a motion that I denied at

1 that time for the same, you know, I didn't find adequate cause
2 to re-litigate custody in '18.

3 So frankly, with the failure to return the child
4 last fall and then the order to have the child returned, and 5 then the motion and the counter motion and the other filings,
6 I wasn't sure whether there was adequate cause to re-litigate
7 the issue of custody. There's a lot of baggage in this case.
8 So I allowed the discovery period of time to see if facts
9 could be developed with the use of discovery to support a
10 prima facie case.

11 I mean, we know that Dad's had physical custody, so
12 Mom would have to make a prima facie case for changes in 13 circumstance and best interest. And you know, the Court
14 hadn't committed one way or another whether to have a hearing.
15 In my mind, I thought that this would be resolved and the case
16 would be closed, or we'd have a hearing months ago in the 17 spring.

18 But we're not getting around to it 'til now. So I
19 know you took the time to lay it all out in your filing on the 20 27th. What do you want to add, Ms. Marr?

21 MS. MARR: Your Honor, and I appreciate your kind
22 words. I put forth the argument the best I could in writing,
23 and I won't take too much of the Court's time because I
24 believe that we've submitted everything to the extent we were

1 able to. And I know that these matters aren't taken lightly
2 when there's somebody has primary physical custody.

3 And I've read Ellis v. Carucci as we all have, and 4 recognize the need for stability in a child's life, or 5 children's lives. With that being said, this is a child, and 6 I've seen things, some -- I'll make an offer of proof to the 7 Court that I've seen some communications subsequent to the 8 close of discovery between the parties in this case. And it
9 just solidified what -- what I put forth before the Court.

10 There's frustration of my client, Lisa Myers',
11 ability to co-parent. But probably most moving is the -- a 12 video wherein the child, at the prospect of returning to 13 primary physical custodian is actually physically sick. And 14 again, that's an offer of proof.

15 But this is a case, a sad case. But it -- and we're 16 supposed to consider the best interest of the child. Of 17 course we don't let children dictate where they want to be 18 simply because it would be fun or there won't be any -- any 19 discipline.

20 But that's not the case here, Your Honor. In 21 addition to -- we'll take it two prongs, the first being is 22 there's substantial change in circumstances affecting the 23 welfare of this child, absolutely. And unfortunately, there's 24 -- based on the lack of frustration and the -- or the lack of

1 co-parenting and the frustration and anger and the living
2 conditions that the child is in right now, and I'm not talking
3 about one parent may have more money or anything like that.

4 I'm talking about actual living conditions, the 5 people who are in the household, what the child is subjected
6 to, if there's DV in the household from -- from another --
7 another -- somebody else, a third person who's not a party to 8 this case. Yes, her life has changed. That coupled with the 9 fact that there's an abundance of opportunity that this child
10 could be given here in Las Vegas with Mom.

11 And it's not a fin -- it's not nearly a financial 12 opportunity. It's a -- it's a chance for her to grow and to 13 blossom into the young lady that she deserves. She deserves
14 that. And again, I can't emphasize enough, Your Honor, this 15 isn't about oh, you know, it's going to be fairytale life and 16 that's why we should change custody. We certainly don't do 17 that.

18 First and foremost, it's based upon the living
19 conditions. And even the refusal, this hostility towards Mom,
20 I can't understand it at the expense of the child. Her teeth
21 are one example. I -- I couldn't imagine not being able to 22 eat without pain. I couldn't imagine a father that wouldn't 23 talk to my brother for my well-being. I couldn't imagine a
24 world like that, Your Honor.

1 And so, yes, her living conditions are -- well,
2 there has been a change in circumstances. And I'm -- I'm
3 sorry that we got to this point, but here we are. And I know
4 Mom's committed to making the best -- and again, I'll make an
5 offer of proof. I've read the communications between the 6 parties, and it's always this negative, hostile response from 7 Dad. And irrespective of whatever that issue may be, this is 8 about the child and this is about giving her every opportunity
9 that's affordable to her.

10 THE COURT: All right. And if you had a hearing,
11 other than the parties, would -- who would you call?

12 MS. MARR: I would call the child's psychologist
13 that she's currently in school with. I would call Charity
14 Haskins because she's had an opportunity to observe a lot of 15 what's happening out of state. And it is unfortunate.

16 And offhand, I don't have my list available, Your 17 Honor, but I would certainly call the parties themselves. And 18 I would -- I'm trying to be as succinct and efficient as I
19 could at the time of evidentiary hearing because as this Court
20 has already stated, this has been going on for too long, and 21 this child needs resolution.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Zernich, briefly, please?

23 MR. ZERNICH: Yeah. Thank you, Your Honor. I have 24 to say that there's a reference that this case is a sad, sad

1 case. I'm going to have to say I think that the only sad
2 thing that this case is about the money that my client is
3 spending to show that Mom has no case.

4 The mom won't look at the evidence, and continues to 5 pursue this case with evidence that directly contradicts her
6 claims, that we would talk about negative or hostile
7 responses, that they tend to go both ways. And if they're 8 coming from Dad, then the Court should consider why. And it's 9 because Mom keeps bringing false claims.

10 I think we're here about the sufficiency of the 11 evidence, and there's been a lot of documents that have been 12 produced. But meanwhile, the brief about the sufficiency of 13 the evidence is nothing but a rehash of the motion. It 14 doesn't address any of the documents that were received, but 15 we keep hearing that we've seen the emails and that we're 16 going to call the witnesses, but -- but nothing to show that 17 there's any evidence whatsoever except for my client has 18 produced to show that Mom's claims are false.

19 I'm going to go through them pretty quickly. They 20 say that he withheld returning the child at the end of the 21 spring break. But Bates number 3 has emails between the two 22 of them that state otherwise. She -- he suggested he keep an 23 extra week and give a week of makeup in the summer. She 24 responds I appreciate your email and your concerns, and offer

1 an additional week during summer break with Sydney, we'll
2 agree to allow her to remain with you at your home, in 3 whatever town that is in Oregon, due to the concerns of the 4 coronavirus.

5 What is it about this that someone can't read and 6 continues to say that he withheld when she agreed? Why are we 7 even continuing this charade?

8 Okay. The DFS report, they claim that DFS
9 investigated and they found problems. We produced that. It
10 was produced in discovery, number -- page number 24. This
11 referral is unfounded in threat of harm or neglect to Sydney
12 Myers Haskins by her father Caleb and his wife Valerie. I
13 could read more, but that's essentially it. Right?

14 They keep talking about the teeth, and that the 15 teeth lead to two things. She's in pain so she can't eat.
16 She can't eat so she's underweight and what a horrible
17 condition. However, we produced pediatrician records of six 18 visits since April of 2018. If you look at page number 59, if 19 we look at every single -- every single one of them, but I
20 could point out the pages really quick.

21 Number 59, January 5th, 2021. Well nourished, well
22 kept. Underneath there, generally healthy 10-year-old with 23 some mild anxiety. All right. Then we go on to number 61
24 which is from 10/23/2019. General appearance, patient is well

1 developed and well nourished, sitting in the clinic chair
2 answering questions appropriately.

3 Then we go on to number 63. All right. June 12,
4 2019. General health -- generally constitutional healthy
5 appearing. Orientation alert, and oriented to person, place
6 and time. Mood and affect appropriate. Then we look at the 7 next one which is number 64 from April of 2018, generally
8 healthy, appearing well nourished. No acute distress.

9 Then we look at the next one on page number 70.
10 Right? Page number 70 shows that there has been six visits to 11 the doctor. Right? So then let's go to the -- to the dental 12 records because they're produced also. At page number 73 will 13 show you that -- cc means chief complaint. All right. This 14 is the dental records.

15 June 5th, 2019, chief complaint, none. December
16 11th, 2019, chief complaint, none. June 2nd, 2020, chief
17 complaint, none. December 8th, 2020, chief complaint, none.
18 She's not complaining about the teeth that they keep saying
19 she's having. Mom is telling that to the Court because she 20 wants a case. Right?

21 However, Mom took the child to the orthodontist. By 22 the way, against Court orders because she's not supposed to be
23 doing that. I believe that there was some legal custody
24 orders that change and said she's not supposed to be taking

1 the child to the doctor for some stuff prior to me being here.

2 And her own -- in her own orthodontist records,
3 let's look at page number 82, 83, and 84, and 86. Her own
4 orthodontist records. Well, my client got -- my client got a
5 follow up. He emailed the orthodontist. The follow up email
6 says general orthodontic consultation. Doctor Allison Tomon
7 (ph) recommended we wait six months to reevaluate and give
8 Sydney some time to grow, and lose some baby teeth, as well.

9 All right. The next page says behavior, good. No
10 treatment at this time. Doctor recommended flossing and 11 demonstrated on the teeth. Then we got the cc on the -- on 12 the next page. Patient presented with Mom (indiscernible)
13 reviewed, yes. Parental consent obtained. Chief complaint, 14 checkup. Nothing about pain. Last page. Waiting on primary
15 teeth to fall out.

16 Your Honor, I thought that discovery was opened to 17 give Mom a bit of a chance to -- to find information about her
18 allegations. It was somewhat of a fishing expedition, but 19 that's the Court's choice. We've been doing this a long time.
20 We've produced tons of documents. There's been no motions
21 into the discovery commission to say that he failed to produce
22 adequate documents.

23 And then we come back to have a sufficiency review,
24 and the only sufficiency review does is support my client's

1 case. I think the Court should shut this down right now and 2 allow us to present the fees and costs so we could recoup some 3 of the money that he's spending. That's it. Thank you for 4 the time.

5 THE COURT: All right. Good. I appreciate your 6 efforts, Counsel. I'm satisfied that, you know, that when we
7 had our hearing on the 18th, you did what I needed you to do
8 which was to try to tie up all the loose ends that would 9 explain why this matter might have been pending for -- since
10 September or October of last year.

11 And the Court is -- really needs to review the 12 record, the pleadings, the papers, and your arguments and 13 issue a written order, which I'll do as soon as I can. So the 14 matter is taken under advisement, and I'll try to get a
15 decision out this week.

16 MS. MARR: Thank you, Your Honor. May I -- may I
17 say one thing? The records that were produced, the exhibits
18 by Mr. Haskins are different from the records that were 19 produced during discovery, which are voluminous. So I haven't 20 -- I've been in trial. I haven't had an opportunity to 21 determine whether the records that he produced this last go
22 around after the close of discovery are identical. At first 23 blush, it appears not.

24 But in any event, we're confident and I would just

1 make one final offer of proof is that we have witnesses. The
2 last time I knew, I had -- actually had a federal judge tell
3 me one time who was concerned about a summary judgment motion,
4 Ms. Marr, what somebody testifies to is still evidence. So
5 I'll just leave it at that.

6 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

7 MS. MARR: And we do have witnesses.

8 THE COURT: All right. You can log off, hit the red
9 button so I can move on to another case. Thank you.
