Each parent shall designate his/her respective vacation plans and provide a general itinerary at least 30 days before the planned vacation. The dates shall be conveyed to the other party in writing by way of electronic mail (e-mail). If there is a conflict in dates, the parent who designates the vacation first (as verified by the e-mail) will prevail as to the vacation time. Neither parent shall schedule vacation time during the other parent's holiday time or during time the children are scheduled to be in school.

Other Holidays, Breaks and Special Occasions: Any holiday, break or special occasion not specifically mentioned in this Joint Petition for Divorce shall be celebrated with the parent who is regularly scheduled to be with the minor children on that day.

27

22 29. It is understood by Petitioners that entry of a Decree of Divorce
23 constitutes a final adjudication of the rights and obligations of the parties
24 with respect to the status of the marriage. Petitioners each expressly give 25 up their respective rights to receive written notice of any judgment or 26 decree of divorce, and Petitioners give up their right to request formal 27 findings of fact and conclusions of law. Petitioners waive their right to 28

1 appeal the Decree of Divorce, and the right to move for a new trial.

3 30. It is further understood by the Petitioners that a final Decree
4 of Divorce entered by this summary procedure does not prejudice or 5 prevent the rights of either Petitioner to bring an action to set aside the 6 final decree for fraud, duress, accident, mistake or the grounds recognized 7 at law or in equity.

10 31. That as of the date of the filing of this Petition, every condition
11 set forth in NRS 125.181 has been met.

12 WHEREFORE, Petitioners pray judgment as follows:

14 1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing 15 between the parties be dissolved, that Petitioners be granted an absolute 16 Decree of Divorce, and that the parties hereto be released from all the 17 obligations thereof and restored to the status of single persons.

19 2. That the terms agreed upon in this Joint Petition be included 20 in the Decree; and

22 ...

24 ...

26 ...

27 ...

28 ...

1 3. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just before enrolling the child(ren) in the extra-curricular activity.
3 and proper in the premises.

Each parent is to provide the other parent with the

Each parent shall be entitled to one (1) vacation each year with the children for a period not to exceed four (4) consecutive weeks (unless otherwise agreed to in writing). Each parent shall designate his/her respective vacation plans and provide a general itinerary at least 30 days before the planned vacation. The dates shall be conveyed to the other party in writing by way of electronic mail (e-mail). If there is a conflict in dates, the parent who designates the vacation first (as verified by the e-mail) will prevail as to the vacation time. Neither parent shall schedule vacation time during the other parent's holiday time or during time the children are scheduled to be in school.

Other Holidays, Breaks and Special Occasions: Any holiday, break or special occasion not specifically mentioned in this Joint Petition for Divorce shall be celebrated with the parent who is regularly scheduled to be with the minor children on that day.

stipulated child support obligation for any authorized reason, the court

1 will calculate the child support obligation in accordance with the child
2 support guidelines in effect at the time of the review.

15 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

16 I.

17 FACTS

18 The parties, Ammie Ann Wallace (“Ammie”) and William Shawn Wallace
19 (“William”) were married on October 10, 2009 in Las Vegas. There are three (3)
20 minor children of this marriage, namely William Shawn Wallace, Jr. (10), Miller
21 Clyde Wallace (9), and Quinn Rose Wallace (6). The parties separated in August
22 of 2017. Since that time the parties have maintained separate residences and 23 cooperated in the custody of the children.

24 During the time the parties were separated the parties frequently shared the 25 children. There was never a set schedule the parties adopted and the children
26 would frequently spend time at both parent’s houses. The parties cooperated in 27 asking the other party to watch the children if their individual schedules required
28 them to be away from the children.

During the time of the separation William was very involved in the

1 children's activities. He coached them on their respective baseball teams. When
2 the parties were still married and the children were young, William was that parent
3 that bathed the children nearly every night and played music with them. He taught
4 all three of the children to read, write, swim, ride a bike, play baseball, basketball,
5 roller skate, etc. William was the parent the children would call when they were 6 sick at school and the school nurse would ask whether the children wanted to call
7 mom or dad.

8 Then in March of 2020, COVID changed everything. The children were sent 9 home at the end of the school year to finish school. William was able to get 10 permission to work from home and the children began doing at-home school with 11 him. The children stayed with William three, four and sometimes five nights a 12 week.

13 During the summer of 2020 Ammie visited Texas to be with her mom
14 who was diagnosed with breast cancer. During that summer, William had the 15 children for two months. Shortly after her return from Texas, Ammie flew a 16 boyfriend from Texas to visit with her. At that point, the relationship between the 17 parties changed. Given Ammie's absence, and the new boyfriend in the residence,
18 the children did not wish to stay at her home upon her return.

19 Ammie told William that she and her new boyfriend were going to get
20 married (even though the parties were separated and not yet divorced). The parties
21 two sons reacted very negatively to the boyfriend staying at Ammie's residence and 22 the boys did not wish to go there.

23 On one particular Saturday evening, William Jr. repeatedly called William 24 telling him that he wanted his dad to come and get him because he did not want to
26 messages, to hang in there. Shortly thereafter, Ammie pulls up in front of 27 William's house, pulls the boys out of her car and throws their bags into William's
28 front yard and yells that she "never wants to see" the boys again.

1 Over the following week, the children become very resistant to going over to
2 Ammie's home. The children would frequently cry and resist the exchanges. Both
3 William Jr. And Miller left Ammie's home and walked to William's house on 4 different nights. Things have never been the same since Ammie's return from 5 Texas.

6 In August of 2020, the children were still doing school from home. The 7 parties worked out a schedule for child custody which was basically that the
8 children were with Ammie from Sunday at bedtime until Tuesday after school
9 (around 3:30 p.m.). Then the children would be with William from Tuesday
10 evening until Thursday at bedtime. The parties alternated every Friday and 11 weekend. If one party had them for the weekend, the other party would have them
12 for Friday. The parties observed this schedule from August 2020 for the first
13 three months of 2021—well past the time of the divorce decree and parenting
14 schedule contained therein.

15 Given Ammie's stated desire to marry, the parties formalized their divorce
16 through a Joint Petition in September of 2020. Ammie was represented by a law
17 firm, but William chose to represent himself. The parties agreed on a child support
18 figure—but in the intervening three years neither party had paid the other any child
19 support, nor asked for any child support. If the children had needs the parties
20 discussed them and met them. William has generally bought all of the boys
21 clothes, while Ammie buys all of Quinn's clothes. William pays for them to play
22 sports and all related sporting equipment. William bought the children their
23 musical instruments and pays for music lessons. He pays the for the boys' phones
24 monthly and has them on his health insurance. These were all agreeable to the 25 parties prior to the divorce decree.

26 In the divorce decree, the terms of the parties heretofore arrangements were 27 materially changed. Per the proposed decree, William would only have the 28

1 children from 3:00 p.m. through 6:30 p.m. on weekdays and alternating weekends.
2 William understood this to be that schedule meant that he would remain primarily
3 responsible to help the children with their school work and extra curricular 4 activities, but not that this would be the only time he was permitted to have the
5 children with him. In point of fact, after the divorce decree was entered—and for at 6 least six months thereafter—the parties did NOT follow the schedule in the decree.
7 Rather, they continued as they had prior to the entry of the decree.

8 Similarly, with respect to financial contributions, neither party asked any 9 funds from the other. The parties simply took care of what was needed by 10 agreement. This also continued for many months after the entry of the decree.
11 William was assured that things would continue as they had been—notwithstanding
12 anything in the decree.

13 William represented himself and was assured that things would remain as 14 they had been for many years—but that all changed. In April of 2021, the children
15 returned to school for the first time in a year. At the beginning of the week they 16 were staying with Ammie per the schedule the parties had agreed to. However,
17 after the first day of school, the children reported to William that Ammie was 18 yelling at them telling them she was not prepared to have them during the house
19 that week. The children indicated that they wanted to return to William's house,
20 but Ammie began to retaliate against them for the way they felt.

21 At one point in 2020, William underwent hip surgery. The children stayed
22 with Ammie for a longer period of time while William recovered. During this time
23 Ammie yelled at the children saying that she was not prepared to have them at her
24 house for that extra time. Ammie did not let the children visit William in the 25 hospital. William learned from the children that during this time Ammie forced 26 them to stay in their rooms and made them watch Ammie cry as she tried to make 27 them feel guilty for wanting to stay at William's house.

1 The children called William nearly every evening upset and asking to come to
2 William's house. William called Ammie and told her he was ready to have the
3 children back at his house because he was recovering well from hip surgery and the
4 children were asking him daily to come over. Ammie responded that the children
5 were NOT going to his home.

6 William picked up the children anyway, against Ammie's wishes, and kept
7 them from Wednesday after school until Sunday evening at 6:30, as was their
8 customary agreement. When William brought back the children to Ammie, she 9 began quoting to him the divorce decree and its language stating that he would only
10 have the children for three hours a day during the week. Ammie said they were 11 now going to start following the decree in the "most minute detail."

12 Shortly thereafter, the children began begging William to fight for more time 13 with them and were crying nearly every evening he was forced to take them back to 14 Ammie at 6:30. William informed Ammie that he would be seeking a modification
15 of the custody agreement. William felt it was the right thing to do because he 16 didn't want Ammie to feel blind-sided by this—however it proved to be a mistake as 17 Ammie became even more insistent on denying William time he had previously
18 enjoyed with the children.

19 Despite having an amicable arrangement regarding the children for three 20 years after their separation, and for nearly six months after the divorce decree was 21 entered, Ammie now wants to change the way the children interact with William in 22 a vindictive manner. William asks this court to modify the custody agreement to 23 provide for joint physical custody. Similarly, to the extent Ammie is now insisting 24 on child support payments, William believes that the parties prior agreement to 25 should be recognized and not order the payment of any back child support—which 26 was never asked for by Ammie in any event until after she had turned vexatious.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. Custody

NRC 125C.0045 states in part:

Orders: Modification or termination; form

1. In any action for determining custody of the minor child, the court may, except as otherwise provided in this section and NRS 125C0601 to 125C.0693, inclusive, and chapter 130 of NRS:

(a) During the pendency of the action, at the final hearing or at any time thereafter during the minority of the child, make such an order for the custody, care, maintenance and support of the minor child as appears in his or her best interests.

NRS 125C.0035 states:

1. In any action for determining physical custody of a minor child, the sole consideration for the court is the best interests of the child. If it appears to the court that joint physical custody would be in the best interests of the child, the court may grant physical custody to the parties jointly.

The Supreme Court has held consistently that “[i]n custody matters, the polestar for judicial decision is the best interest of the child.” Schwartz v. Schwartz, 107 Nev. 378, 812 P.2d 1268, 1272 (1991). The Court’s utmost consideration should always be the welfare of the children. Culbertson v. Culbertson, 91 NEV. 230, 533 P.2d 768 (1975). The foundation of all custody determinations lies in the particular facts and circumstances of each case. Arnold v. Arnold, 95 Nev. 951, 604 P.2d 109 (1979).

The test for modifications of one parent having primary physical custody to joint physical custody remains unchanged as ‘being in the best interest of the child.’ See, Traux v. Traux, 110 Nev. 437, 874 P.2d 10 (1994) (custody reviews are subject to the best interest of the child standard of review), Mosley v. Figliuzzi, 113 Nev. 51, 930 P.2d 1110 (1997) (holding in part, that the child’s best interests are best served by having both a father and a mother involved in being responsible for

1 the child, and for the child knowing each parent), Rivero v. Rivero, 125 Nev. 410,
2 216 P.2d 213 (2009) (affirming the “best interest of the child” standard and
3 defining what “joint physical custody” means, and how child support is affected in
4 such a relationship).

5 In this matter, William details his reasoning for seeking a change to Joint
6 Physical Custody by examining the provisions of NRS 125C.0035(4):

7 (a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form
8 an intelligent preference as to his or her custody.

9 The three children are respectively 10, 9 and 6 years of age. They have a
10 wonderfully loving relationship with William. William is extensively involved in 11 the children’s after school activities, coaches many of their respective teams and 12 spends considerable time assisting them with their efforts. The children enjoy their 13 time with William very much.

14 (b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

15 William understands that his children need both parents. For that reason
16 William seeks a joint physical custody arrangement which is unquestionably in the 17 best interests of the children.

18 (c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations
19 and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

20 Ammie has been the parent actively seeking to reduce the association the 21 children have with William. She has repeatedly accused William of seeing the 22 children on “her time” when the children were involved in extra-curricular
23 activities for which William is their coach. When Ammie needed assistance
24 watching the children, she asked William’s parents to watch the children then
25 became enraged when she learned that William had seen the children at his parent’s
26 house during “her time”, even though she was not physically present at that time.
27 Ammie’s actions show that William is the parent most likely to allow both parents
28 to have a continuing relationship with the children.

1 (d) The level of conflict between the parents.

2 The level of conflict between the parties is manageable.

3 (e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

4 William has cooperated with Ammie to meet the needs of the children. In
5 fact, William has demonstrated his willingness to go to great effort to make sure
6 the children participate in events they wish to, even at significant sacrifice to his 7 time and work.

8 (f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

9 Both parties are in good physical and mental health. William recently
10 underwent a hip replacement but that has not limited his ability to participate in the 11 raising of the children in any meaningful way.

12 (g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

13 William believes that the children's physical, developmental and emotional
14 needs would be better served by a joint physical custody arrangement. As it
15 currently stands, the children are unnecessarily shuttled between events on a very 16 tight timeframe. William is given only a few hours of time with the children, much
17 of which is spent in sports activities, during which there is little time for any other
18 family activity. Often the children will be forced to do homework in the care in 19 order to complete it during the short timeframe William has the children. William 20 believes a joint physical custody schedule would better serve the children's 21 physical, developmental and emotional needs. As it currently stands, about an hour
22 before the children are to return to Ammie's, the children become anxious and
23 uneasy. This is a nightly occurrence. A joint physical custody sharing arrangement
24 would mean this anxiety will occur less often.

25 (h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

26 The children enjoy a healthy relationship with William. William believes
27 that the current primary physical custody schedule deprives the children of a deeper
28

1 relationship with him. Further, Ammie's frequent insistence that William is trying
2 to see the children during "her time" (whether she is physically present or not)
3 causes a significant amount of anxiety in the children. William believes that a
4 formalized joint physical custody arrangement would promote the best possible
5 relationship between the children and both parents.

6 (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

7 Having joint physical custody of the children will promote these 8 relationships because the time the children spend with William will not be 9 dominated by shuttling the children too and from all of their activities in the limited
10 window of time William has with the children. This will allow the children certain 11 "down time" in which to play games, associate with one another in a non-rushed 12 way and develop their relationships more fully.

13 (j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child.

14 Neither party has a history of abuse or neglect.

15 (k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has 16 engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child
17 or any other person residing with the child.

18 Neither party has been involved in an act of domestic violence.

19 (l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has 20 committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

21 Neither parent has committed any act of abduction against the children or
22 any other child to the best of William's knowledge.

23 It is clear from the forgoing, and pursuant to NRS 125C.0025 and 24 125C.0035, that granting joint physical custody for the children is in their best
25 interest. The preference for joint physical custody under NRS 125C.0025 should 26 govern in this case as William has demonstrated his intent to foster meaningful
27 relationships with his children. William has sacrificed time and effort to be with 28 his children, even in the face of antagonism by Ammie. The best interests of the children call for awarding the parties joint physical custody. William suggests this

1 court order a 2-2-3 schedule for joint physical custody.

2 B. Child Support

3 With respect to child support William respectfully requests that this Court
4 deny any claim for "back child support" as that was never the parties previous 5 course of conduct, William had the children approximately half of the time, and the 6 parties incomes are similar. To the extent the Court decides to recalculate the 7 amount of child support which is owed, William will abide by whatever ruling the 8 Court makes.

9 III.

10 CONCLUSION

11 WHEREFORE, the Second Joint Petitioner prays as follows:

- 12 1. That the Decree of Divorce be modified to reflect joint physical 13 custody of the minor children on the terms noted above;
14 2. That the Decree of Divorce be modified regarding child support as 15 noted above;
16 3. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

15 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

16 I.

18 The parties, Ammie Ann Wallace ("Ammie") and William Shawn Wallace
19 ("William") were married on October 10, 2009 in Las Vegas. There are three (3)
20 minor children of this marriage, namely William Shawn Wallace, Jr. (10), Miller
21 Clyde Wallace (9), and Quinn Rose Wallace (6). The parties separated in August
22 of 2017. Since that time the parties have maintained separate residences and 23 cooperated in the custody of the children.

24 During the time the parties were separated the parties frequently shared the 25 children. There was never a set schedule the parties adopted and the children
26 would frequently spend time at both parent's houses. The parties cooperated in 27 asking the other party to watch the children if their individual schedules required
28 them to be away from the children.

During the time of the separation William was very involved in the

1 children's activities. He coached them on their respective baseball teams. When
2 the parties were still married and the children were young, William was that parent
3 that bathed the children nearly every night and played music with them. He taught
4 all three of the children to read, write, swim, ride a bike, play baseball, basketball,
5 roller skate, etc. William was the parent the children would call when they were 6 sick at school and the school nurse would ask whether the children wanted to call
7 mom or dad.

8 Then in March of 2020, COVID changed everything. The children were sent 9 home at the end of the school year to finish school. William was able to get 10 permission to work from home and the children began doing at-home school with 11 him. The children stayed with William three, four and sometimes five nights a 12 week.

14 who was diagnosed with breast cancer. During that summer, William had the 15 children for two months. Shortly after her return from Texas, Ammie flew a
16 boyfriend from Texas to visit with her. At that point, the relationship between the 17 parties changed. Given Ammie's absence, and the new boyfriend in the residence,
18 the children did not wish to stay at her home upon her return.

19 Ammie told William that she and her new boyfriend were going to get
20 married (even though the parties were separated and not yet divorced). The parties
21 two sons reacted very negatively to the boyfriend staying at Ammie's residence and 22 the boys did not wish to go there.

23 On one particular Saturday evening, William Jr. repeatedly called William 24 telling him that he wanted his dad to come and get him because he did not want to
26 messages, to hang in there. Shortly thereafter, Ammie pulls up in front of 27 William's house, pulls the boys out of her car and throws their bags into William's
28 front yard and yells that she "never wants to see" the boys again.

1 Over the following week, the children become very resistant to going over to
2 Ammie's home. The children would frequently cry and resist the exchanges. Both
3 William Jr. And Miller left Ammie's home and walked to William's house on 4 different nights. Things have never been the same since Ammie's return from 5 Texas.

6 In August of 2020, the children were still doing school from home. The 7 parties worked out a schedule for child custody which was basically that the
8 children were with Ammie from Sunday at bedtime until Tuesday after school
9 (around 3:30 p.m.). Then the children would be with William from Tuesday
10 evening until Thursday at bedtime. The parties alternated every Friday and 11 weekend. If one party had them for the weekend, the other party would have them
12 for Friday. The parties observed this schedule from August 2020 for the first
13 three months of 2021—well past the time of the divorce decree and parenting
14 schedule contained therein.

15 Given Ammie's stated desire to marry, the parties formalized their divorce
16 through a Joint Petition in September of 2020. Ammie was represented by a law
17 firm, but William chose to represent himself. The parties agreed on a child support
18 figure—but in the intervening three years neither party had paid the other any child
19 support, nor asked for any child support. If the children had needs the parties
20 discussed them and met them. William has generally bought all of the boys
21 clothes, while Ammie buys all of Quinn's clothes. William pays for them to play
22 sports and all related sporting equipment. William bought the children their
23 musical instruments and pays for music lessons. He pays the for the boys' phones
24 monthly and has them on his health insurance. These were all agreeable to the 25 parties prior to the divorce decree.

26 In the divorce decree, the terms of the parties heretofore arrangements were 27 materially changed. Per the proposed decree, William would only have the 28

1 children from 3:00 p.m. through 6:30 p.m. on weekdays and alternating weekends.
2 William understood this to be that schedule meant that he would remain primarily
3 responsible to help the children with their school work and extra curricular
4 activities, but not that this would be the only time he was permitted to have the
5 children with him. In point of fact, after the divorce decree was entered—and for at 6 least six months thereafter—the parties did NOT follow the schedule in the decree.
7 Rather, they continued as they had prior to the entry of the decree.

8 Similarly, with respect to financial contributions, neither party asked any 9 funds from the other. The parties simply took care of what was needed by 10 agreement. This also continued for many months after the entry of the decree.
11 William was assured that things would continue as they had been—notwithstanding
12 anything in the decree.

13 William represented himself and was assured that things would remain as 14 they had been for many years—but that all changed. In April of 2021, the children
15 returned to school for the first time in a year. At the beginning of the week they 16 were staying with Ammie per the schedule the parties had agreed to. However,
17 after the first day of school, the children reported to William that Ammie was 18 yelling at them telling them she was not prepared to have them during the house
19 that week. The children indicated that they wanted to return to William's house,
20 but Ammie began to retaliate against them for the way they felt.

22 with Ammie for a longer period of time while William recovered. During this time
23 Ammie yelled at the children saying that she was not prepared to have them at her
24 house for that extra time. Ammie did not let the children visit William in the 25 hospital. William learned from the children that during this time Ammie forced 26 them to stay in their rooms and made them watch Ammie cry as she tried to make 27 them feel guilty for wanting to stay at William's house.

1 The children called William nearly every evening upset and asking to come to
2 William's house. William called Ammie and told her he was ready to have the
3 children back at his house because he was recovering well from hip surgery and the
4 children were asking him daily to come over. Ammie responded that the children
5 were NOT going to his home.

6 William picked up the children anyway, against Ammie's wishes, and kept
7 them from Wednesday after school until Sunday evening at 6:30, as was their
8 customary agreement. When William brought back the children to Ammie, she 9 began quoting to him the divorce decree and its language stating that he would only
10 have the children for three hours a day during the week. Ammie said they were 11 now going to start following the decree in the "most minute detail."

12 Shortly thereafter, the children began begging William to fight for more time
13 with them and were crying nearly every evening he was forced to take them back to 14 Ammie at 6:30. William informed Ammie that he would be seeking a modification
15 of the custody agreement. William felt it was the right thing to do because he 16 didn't want Ammie to feel blind-sided by this—however it proved to be a mistake as
17 Ammie became even more insistent on denying William time he had previously
18 enjoyed with the children.

19 Despite having an amicable arrangement regarding the children for three 20 years after their separation, and for nearly six months after the divorce decree was 21 entered, Ammie now wants to change the way the children interact with William in 22 a vindictive manner. William asks this court to modify the custody agreement to
23 provide for joint physical custody. Similarly, to the extent Ammie is now insisting
24 on child support payments, William believes that the parties prior agreement to 25 should be recognized and not order the payment of any back child support—which 26 was never asked for by Ammie in any event until after she had turned vexatious.

A. Custody

NRC 125C.0045 states in part:

Orders: Modification or termination; form

1. In any action for determining custody of the minor child, the court may, except as otherwise provided in this section and NRS 125C0601 to 125C.0693, inclusive, and chapter 130 of NRS:

(a) During the pendency of the action, at the final hearing or at any time thereafter during the minority of the child, make such an order for the custody, care, maintenance and support of the minor child as appears in his or her best interests.

NRS 125C.0035 states:

1. In any action for determining physical custody of a minor child, the sole consideration for the court is the best interests of the child. If it appears to the court that joint physical custody would be in the best interests of the child, the court may grant physical custody to the parties jointly.

The Supreme Court has held consistently that “[i]n custody matters, the polestar for judicial decision is the best interest of the child.” Schwartz v. Schwartz, 107 Nev. 378, 812 P.2d 1268, 1272 (1991). The Court’s utmost consideration should always be the welfare of the children. Culbertson v. Culbertson, 91 NEV. 230, 533 P.2d 768 (1975). The foundation of all custody determinations lies in the particular facts and circumstances of each case. Arnold v. Arnold, 95 Nev. 951, 604 P.2d 109 (1979).

The test for modifications of one parent having primary physical custody to joint physical custody remains unchanged as ‘being in the best interest of the child.’ See, Traux v. Traux, 110 Nev. 437, 874 P.2d 10 (1994) (custody reviews are subject to the best interest of the child standard of review), Mosley v. Figliuzzi, 113 Nev. 51, 930 P.2d 1110 (1997) (holding in part, that the child’s best interests are best served by having both a father and a mother involved in being responsible for

1 the child, and for the child knowing each parent), Rivero v. Rivero, 125 Nev. 410,
2 216 P.2d 213 (2009) (affirming the “best interest of the child” standard and
3 defining what “joint physical custody” means, and how child support is affected in
4 such a relationship).

5 In this matter, William details his reasoning for seeking a change to Joint
6 Physical Custody by examining the provisions of NRS 125C.0035(4):

7 (a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form
8 an intelligent preference as to his or her custody.

9 The three children are respectively 10, 9 and 6 years of age. They have a
10 wonderfully loving relationship with William. William is extensively involved in 11 the children’s after school activities, coaches many of their respective teams and 12 spends considerable time assisting them with their efforts. The children enjoy their 13 time with William very much.

14 (b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

15 William understands that his children need both parents. For that reason
16 William seeks a joint physical custody arrangement which is unquestionably in the 17 best interests of the children.

18 (c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations
19 and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

20 Ammie has been the parent actively seeking to reduce the association the 21 children have with William. She has repeatedly accused William of seeing the 22 children on “her time” when the children were involved in extra-curricular
23 activities for which William is their coach. When Ammie needed assistance
24 watching the children, she asked William’s parents to watch the children then
25 became enraged when she learned that William had seen the children at his parent’s
26 house during “her time”, even though she was not physically present at that time.
27 Ammie’s actions show that William is the parent most likely to allow both parents
28 to have a continuing relationship with the children.

1 (d) The level of conflict between the parents.

2 The level of conflict between the parties is manageable.

3 (e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

4 William has cooperated with Ammie to meet the needs of the children. In
5 fact, William has demonstrated his willingness to go to great effort to make sure
6 the children participate in events they wish to, even at significant sacrifice to his
7 time and work.

8 (f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

9 Both parties are in good physical and mental health. William recently
10 underwent a hip replacement but that has not limited his ability to participate in the 11 raising of the children in any meaningful way.

12 (g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

13 William believes that the children's physical, developmental and emotional
14 needs would be better served by a joint physical custody arrangement. As it
15 currently stands, the children are unnecessarily shuttled between events on a very 16 tight timeframe. William is given only a few hours of time with the children, much
17 of which is spent in sports activities, during which there is little time for any other
18 family activity. Often the children will be forced to do homework in the care in 19 order to complete it during the short timeframe William has the children. William 20 believes a joint physical custody schedule would better serve the children's 21 physical, developmental and emotional needs. As it currently stands, about an hour
22 before the children are to return to Ammie's, the children become anxious and
23 uneasy. This is a nightly occurrence. A joint physical custody sharing arrangement
24 would mean this anxiety will occur less often.

25 (h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

26 The children enjoy a healthy relationship with William. William believes
27 that the current primary physical custody schedule deprives the children of a deeper
28

1 relationship with him. Further, Ammie's frequent insistence that William is trying
2 to see the children during "her time" (whether she is physically present or not)
3 causes a significant amount of anxiety in the children. William believes that a
4 formalized joint physical custody arrangement would promote the best possible
5 relationship between the children and both parents.

6 (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

7 Having joint physical custody of the children will promote these
8 relationships because the time the children spend with William will not be
9 dominated by shuttling the children too and from all of their activities in the limited
10 window of time William has with the children. This will allow the children certain 11 "down time" in which to play games, associate with one another in a non-rushed
12 way and develop their relationships more fully.

13 (j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child.

14 Neither party has a history of abuse or neglect.

15 (k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has 16 engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child
17 or any other person residing with the child.

18 Neither party has been involved in an act of domestic violence.

19 (l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has 20 committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

21 Neither parent has committed any act of abduction against the children or
22 any other child to the best of William's knowledge.

23 It is clear from the forgoing, and pursuant to NRS 125C.0025 and
24 125C.0035, that granting joint physical custody for the children is in their best
25 interest. The preference for joint physical custody under NRS 125C.0025 should 26 govern in this case as William has demonstrated his intent to foster meaningful
27 relationships with his children. William has sacrificed time and effort to be with 28 his children, even in the face of antagonism by Ammie. The best interests of the children call for awarding the parties joint physical custody. William suggests this

2 B. Child Support

3 With respect to child support William respectfully requests that this Court
4 deny any claim for "back child support" as that was never the parties previous
5 course of conduct, William had the children approximately half of the time, and the 6 parties incomes are similar. To the extent the Court decides to recalculate the 7 amount of child support which is owed, William will abide by whatever ruling the 8 Court makes.

9 III.

10 CONCLUSION

11 WHEREFORE, the Second Joint Petitioner prays as follows:

- 12 1. That the Decree of Divorce be modified to reflect joint physical 13 custody of the minor children on the terms noted above;
14 2. That the Decree of Divorce be modified regarding child support as 15 noted above;

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN T. KELLEHER, ESQ.

STATE OF NEVADA }
COUNTY OF CLARK } ss:

JOHN T. KELLEHER, ESQ, being of lawful age and first duly sworn,
deposes and states:

1. I am an attorney at Kelleher & Kelleher, LLC, counsel for Defendant William Wallace.

2. On June 18, 2021, Defendant filed a Motion to Modify the Decree of Divorce. A hearing is currently set for August 12, 2021 at 9:15am.

3. There are three (3) minor children of this marriage, namely William (Will) Shawn Wallace, Jr. (11), Miller Clyde Wallace (9), and Quinn Rose Wallace (6).

4. By way of brief background, the parties separated in 2017, but since that time the parties have maintained separate residences and cooperated in the custody of the children. During the time the parties were separated, the parties frequently shared the children. The parties never adopted a set schedule and the children would frequently spend time at both parent's houses.

5. When the COVID-19 pandemic began in March 2020, the children were sent home to finish the school year. William was able to get permission to work from home and the children began doing at-home school with him. The children stayed with William three, four and sometimes five nights a week.

6. During the summer of 2020, William had the children with him for two months while Plaintiff was in Texas with her family.

7. Shortly after Plaintiff returned from Texas, Plaintiff told William she had a boyfriend, he was staying in her residence, and they were going to get married. Since the parties were not yet divorced, this was very upsetting and uncomfortable for the children and the parties two sons reacted very negatively to

1 the boyfriend staying at Plaintiff's residence. They started expressing to William 2 that they did not wish to stay at her home and became very resistant to going over 3 to Plaintiff's home. The children would frequently cry and resist the exchanges.

4 8. In August of 2020, the children were still doing school from home. The
5 parties worked out a schedule for child custody which was basically that the 6 children were with Plaintiff from Sunday at bedtime until Tuesday after school
7 (around 3:30 p.m.). Then the children would be with William from Tuesday
8 evening until Thursday at bedtime. The parties alternated every Friday and 9 weekend. If one party had them for the weekend, the other party would have them
10 for Friday.

11 9. When Plaintiff announced she was getting married to the boyfriend, the 12 parties formalized their divorce through a Joint Petition in September of 2020.
13 Plaintiff was represented by a law firm, but William represented himself. Although 14 the parties agreed on a child support figure, in the previous three years neither party 15 had paid the other any child support, nor asked for any child support. If the 16 children had needs the parties discussed them and met them. William has generally 17 bought all of the boys clothes, while Plaintiff buys all of Quinn's clothes. William 18 pays for them to play sports and all related sporting equipment. William bought 19 the children their musical instruments and pays for music lessons. He pays for 20 the boys' phones monthly and has them on his health insurance. These were all 21 agreeable to the parties prior to the divorce decree.

22 10. After the divorce decree was entered—and for at least six months
23 thereafter—the parties did NOT follow the schedule in the decree. Rather, they 24 continued as they had prior to the entry of the decree.

25 11. Similarly, with respect to financial contributions, neither party asked 26 any funds from the other. The parties simply took care of what was needed by 27 agreement. This also continued for many months after the entry of the decree.
28 William was assured that things would continue as they had been—notwithstanding anything in the decree.

12. In April of 2021, the children returned to school for the first time in a year. At the beginning of the week they were staying with Plaintiff per the schedule the parties had agreed to. However, after the first day of school, the children reported to William that Plaintiff was yelling at them telling them she was not prepared to have them during the house that week. The children indicated that they wanted to return to William's house, but Plaintiff began to retaliate against them for the way they felt.

13. All of a sudden, Plaintiff decided she was going to start following the decree in the "most minute detail." She refused to let William have the children for more than what the Decree provided for which was from 3:00pm to 6:30pm on weekends and then alternating weekends.

14. Once Plaintiff started following this schedule, the children began begging William to fight for more time with them and were crying nearly every evening when he was forced to take them back to Plaintiff at 6:30. William informed Plaintiff that he would be seeking a modification of the custody agreement.

15. In retaliation, Plaintiff has vindictively opened a child support case and William's wages are now being garnished. William is still investigating how this garnishment was put in place without due process.

16. Around midnight of June 23-24, 2021, William received a call from his 11 year old son Will who was very distraught that he had not had seen William in seven (7) days.

17. Despite having an amicable arrangement regarding the children for three years after their separation, and for nearly six months after the divorce decree was entered, Plaintiff now wants to change the way the children interact with William in a vindictive manner.

18. As a result of Plaintiff's actions, William would request this matter be

1 heard on an order shortening time. The children are very upset and distraught and 2 are pleading to be with William. A wage garnishment has been put in place despite 3 the parties having followed their de facto financial agreement for three years before
4 the divorce and from the time of divorce until approximately April 2021.

5 19. This matter needs to be heard on an order shortening time. I thank the 6 Court for its consideration in this matter.

7 FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.

3 I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND:

4 Plaintiff, AMMIE ANN WALLACE (“Ammie”), and Defendant,

5 WILLIAM SHAWN WALLACE (“William”), were divorced by Decree of

6 Divorce (Joint Petition) on or about 09/10/2020. The parties have three (3)

7 minor children born the issue of their marriage, to wit: William Shawn

8 Wallace, Jr., date of birth: 06/24/2010, age 11; Miller Clyde Wallace, date

9 of birth: 05/15/2012, age 9; and, Quinn Rose Wallace, date of birth:

10 01/18/2015, age 6.

14 Pursuant to the Decree of Divorce filed less than 10 months ago on

15 09/10/2020, the parties agreed to share joint legal custody and that Ammie

16 should be awarded primary physical custody of the children. William was

17 awarded specific visitation with the children and the parties’ agreed upon

18 a holiday and visitation schedule. William was obligated to pay the sum

19 of $1,000.00 per month as and for child support.

22 Prior to divorcing, the family lived in Texarkana, Texas, where

23 Ammie’s family resides. William was employed by a local, small

24 construction firm as Chief Financial Officer. However, in or about

25 February, 2017, the owners of the firm (a father and his son), discovered

26 that William had been embezzling money from them by way of false

1 “bonuses,” as well as, using the company credit card for personal items like
2 pain management appointments and paying for his prescription pain
3 killers in an effort to conceal them from Ammie. Upon discovering this 4 information, the company owners took their discovery to the police. A
5 police officer then reached out to William and instead of being arrested, 6 William made a deal to go to the police station of his own volition. It was 7 decided that if William would pay back the entire amount embezzled in the 8 approximate amount of $20,000.00, the owners would not press charges.
9 The parties decided to use all of their available credit to pay back the 10 owners for the money William embezzled to keep him out of jail.

15 As a result, Bill was, obviously, out of a job and Ammie was solely 16 supporting the family. And, more importantly, was unable to obtain
17 employment because Texarkana is a small town and William’s
18 misappropriation of the company’s financial funds became common 19 knowledge.

22 In or about May 2017, William approached Ammie and stated that 23 he could no longer live in Texas and wanted to return to Las Vegas, where 24 William’s mother resides. This was an incredibly hard decision - Ammie
25 and the children loved their life in Texas. Ammie grew up in Texarkanna 26 so the children had the benefit of “it takes a village.” Six (6) of the

1 children's cousins, two (2) aunts, two (2) uncles, Ammie's stepfather, her
2 stepmother, and her mother (also known as the Kids' Nanny), and the list
3 goes on and on. The children's friends were Ammie's life long friends' kids.
4 The children were attending amazing public schools and church ran
5 daycare. The boys were established in sports. Ammie knew that moving
6 to Las Vegas would be a major upheaval of the life that they had known.
7 Ultimately, faced with the town talk and the shame and embarrassment
8 Ammie was feeling, coupled with the fact that William was now
9 unemployable, the parties concluded that they would move to Las Vegas
10 to protect the children from what would be a permanent stain on them
11 from their father's financial indiscretions. Ammie was hopeful that moving 12 back to Las Vegas would be a fresh start.

14 In June, 2017, William took the boys on a road trip to Las Vegas, to 15 look for a job. Ammie was working so she stayed behind with baby Quinn.
16 William stayed a couple weeks but returned without a job. The parties
17 were trying to figure out a way to move to Las Vegas prior to school
18 starting on 08/13/2017. By the second week of July, William had not 19 secured a job, the parties had no way to pay for such a move, and no plan 20 once they arrived. As a result, William's Mother offered to pay for the 21 move. Ammie picked up the phone, reached out to a close friend and

1 colleague, and had a phone interview scheduled the next day. Ammie was 2 hired with a start date of August 1, 2017.

4 The family arrived in Las Vegas on July 31 and Ammie started work
5 the next morning. The family stayed at William's mother's home in 6 Boulder City, Nevada, while she was away on an extended vacation.
7 Ammie enrolled the children in school while William stayed home with the 8 kids and was job hunting. When the kids started school, Ammie would 9 drive every morning from Boulder City to the Southwest, where the kids
10 were enrolled in school, and then onto her job in the Northwest. William 11 stayed at home with Quinn. Sometimes William would pick the kids up
12 while Ammie was working and sometimes the children would have to go
13 to SafeKey, and Ammie would pick them up after work.
16
17

18 Shortly after moving to Las Vegas, Nevada, the parties came to the 19 realization that the marriage was over. The parties discussed custody and 20 agreed that the timeshare needed to be consistent - that the children would 21 sleep at Ammie's house on school nights so that they could go to and from 22 school from one home. In October 2017, the parties began living separate 23 and apart and established the custodial timeshare outlined in the Decree
24 of Divorce. William, who was still unemployed, would retrieve the children 25 after school (around 3:30p), and would take them home to do homework, 26
28

1 play, snack, etc., until 6:30/7:00p, at which time he would drop the children
2 off to Ammie or she would pick them up. The parties alternated weekends
3 (Friday after school through Sunday evening).

5 In approximately September 2018, William became employed and 6 approached Ammie about health insurance. The parties compared their 7 policies and determined that William's policy provided better coverage and 8 it was several hundred dollars cheaper each month. So, the parties agreed 9 that William would provide health insurance coverage for the children.
10 Ammie removed the children from her health insurance after William 11 provided proof of coverage.
12
14

15 In approximately January 2019, William was evicted from the home
16 he was renting. William's mother advised Ammie that she had paid some 17 of William's "back rent" and paid for his utilities to be turned on in 18 December so that he could celebrate a "normal" Christmas with the 19 children. William continually lied about his living situation to Ammie and 20 his family, not admitting that he had been evicted. William put his "stuff"
21 in storage and stayed in a bedroom at the neighbor's house. William 22 would regularly bring the kids home very early because it was not a "good"
23 place for the kids to be.
25
26
27

28 . . .

1 Sometime in February/March 2019, the neighbor, Conway, began to 2 reach out to Ammie about William. Conway stated that William had asked
3 him if he could rent a room from him and that he had agreed. However,
4 William had yet to pay Conway any money after having been there for 5 weeks. Conway stated that William never slept there and would only come 6 around in the afternoon when he had the parties' kids with him, making
7 Conway feel like he could not approach him about the rent because he did
8 not want to burden the kids. Eventually Conway asked William to move 9 out.

12
13
14 Thereafter, William stated he would be staying with his girlfriend in 15 her home with her two (2) teenaged children and an adult female
16 roommate. There was no available space for the children to sleep. William's 17 girlfriend, Wendy, was a force to be reckoned with. The kids really did not 18 like her and did not want to be around her. Wendy would attend the 19 children's baseball practices and games and she was very embarrassing to 20 them. She was very loud and opinionated. She and William were 21 constantly at odds over the kids – Wendy did not like how William 22 parented and she made it known to everyone.
23
25

26 After weeks of Wendy asking to speak with Ammie, they finally 27 spoke. During the conversation, Ammie confirmed that she and William 28

1 were not divorced. Wendy became hysterical that William had lied to her.
3 That weekend was Easter and she and William had his family and the kids
4 over to her house. William and Wendy had a huge fight and Bill brought 5 the kids back to Ammie very early. The children were upset over the fight
6 and all the ugly things Wendy had said to them that day.

8 Shortly thereafter, William moved out of Wendy's home and began 9 sleeping at his Mother's house for the next couple of months until she 10 asked him to get out (she was exhausted from the five (5) former months 11 that she had solely supported Bill) and it was then he began sleeping in his
14

15 From January 2019 until February of 2020, William was unable to 16 maintain stable employment or housing, and stayed with a girlfriend, or 17 slept at his mother's house, or his sister's house. He had no home for more 18 than a year. In fact, from March 2019 through June 2019, William was 19 sleeping in his car. At this point, William had drained and exhausted his 20 mother and his sister. However, Ammie allowed William to see the kids 21 in her home, even feeding him dinner with the kids. But ultimately, unless 22 he had somewhere specifically to take them, William struggled to see the 23 children regularly.
25
26
27

28 . . .

1 In February 2019, Ammie started figuring out William's situation.
3 Ammie inquired about the children's health insurance after she took one
4 of the children to the doctor and was told that the insurance was no longer
5 in effect. When Ammie called to speak with William about it (he was still 6 claiming that he had not lost his job and that he was not evicted), he also 7 claimed that the children did still in fact have insurance and that there 8 was a delay because the company had chosen a new insurance provider.
10 William reassured Ammie that he would send her the new/revised 11 insurance card when he received them. And after asking for it again, 12
13 William finally sent it to Ammie. It was at that point that Ammie
14 discovered that William had put the children on Medicaid, despite the fact 15 that the parties were married and Ammie was gainfully employed with 16 health insurance benefits available. (Ammie was required to wait until 17 open enrollment in October 2019, to add them back on her health
18 insurance.)
20
21

22 On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization called 23 coronavirus (COVID-19) a pandemic. On March 13, 2020, a national 24 emergency was declared in the U.S.A. related to the outbreak of the novel
25 coronavirus, and life as the world knew it ground to a halt. In-person 26 learning at schools was canceled, coronavirus restrictions were enacted, 27

1 face masks became a familiar site, and social distancing became a way of 2 life. All the while, coronavirus cases and deaths soared in the United 3 States.

5 From August 2020, through March, 2021, the parties' followed a
6 flexible timeshare - both Ammie and William were working from home
7 (William was renting a home near Ammie's residence) and the children
8 went between the parties' homes freely during the day. The parties did 9 what was necessary to remain employed and care fo the children. However, 10 when the children returned to in-person learning in March, 2021, the 11 parties resumed following the timeshare outlined in the Decree/Joint 12 Petition, the same timeshare they had been following since their 13 separation in August, 2017, whereby Ammie had primary physical custody 14 of the children.

16 With regard to the alleged "facts" in William's Motion, Ammie denies 17 those allegations outright and will not waste the Court's time further 18 addressing William's misstatements, half truths, and outright falsehoods.

20 II. LEGAL ARGUMENT:

21 A. William's Motion Should be Denied:

22 1. Ammie Should Remain the Primary Physical Custodian 23 of the Children:

24 Ammie respectfully requests that the Court deny William's request
26
27
28

1 to change custody. Contrary to William's assertions, the parties
2 arrangements have not materially changed. Even if the parties
3 circumstances had changed, which they have not, that is not the standard
4 to change custody. William asserts that the test for modifications of 5 primary physical custody is the Truax "best interest of the child," which is 6 not correct. Rather, when a parent is seeking to modify an award of 7 primary physical custody, the correct standard is Ellis v. Carucci, 123 Nev.
8 145 (2007), where the Nevada Supreme Court concluded that a
9 modification of primary physical custody is warranted only when (1) there 10 has been a substantial change in circumstances affecting the welfare of the 11 child, and (2) the modification serves the best interest of the child.
12 Incredibly, William fails to even address factors outlined in Ellis v.
13 Carucci. And even if William addressed the factors, which he did not,
14 William would be unable to satisfy his burden under Ellis v. Carucci.
15 Interestingly, William does not assert a single "change of circumstances 16 affecting the welfare of the child[ren]." The reason? The children continue 17 to thrive physically, developmentally, emotionally, and academically in the 18 primary care of their mother. Clearly, there has been no change of 19 circumstances affecting the welfare of the children.
22
23
24
25
26
27

28 Most importantly, the children's best interests would not be served

1 by a change of custody - the children have been in Ammie's primary care
2 since the parties' separation in August, 2017. William failed to establish 3 that a modification of custody would serve the children's best interests.
4 Importantly, the parties stipulated to an award of primary physical 5 custody of the children to Ammie and William must overcome the 6 presumption that that award is not in the children's best interests, which 7 he cannot do.

10
11 William's reliance on NRS 125C.0025 and NRS 125C.0035 is 12 misguided at best – NRS 125C.0025 and NRS 125C.0035 are relevant
13 when the Court is making an initial custody determination, not a 14 modification of physical custody as William is requesting. Thus, Ammie 15 respectfully requests that William's request be denied because the 16 Decree/Joint Petition is an enforceable contract between the parties.

19 Pursuant to the Decree of Divorce (Joint Petition) filed on 09/10/2020, 20 which was ratified, approved and confirmed by the Court, and signed by 21 the parties before a notary public, the parties settled their child custody, 22 child support, medical support, alimony, and division of assets and debt
23 issues. Ammie and William's signatures appear on their signature blocks, 24 authenticating assent to the Decree of Divorce filed on 09/10/2020, and the 25 Joint Petition filed 09/04/2020.
26
28

1 EDCR 7.50 provides,

3 No agreement or stipulation between the parties or their 4 attorneys will be effective unless the same shall, by consent, be 5 entered in the minutes in the form of an order, or unless the 6 same is in writing subscribed by the party against whom the 7 same shall be alleged, or by the party's attorney.

8 The Agreement complies with the terms of EDCR 7.50 as the agreement
9 is in writing signed by Ammie and William. Ammie and William entered 10 into a contract (the Decree of Divorce and Joint Petition), which is subject 11 to general principles of contract law. As stated herein above, the Decree of 12 Divorce and Joint Petition comply with the procedural requirements of 13 EDCR 7.50.

15 In addition to satisfying this requirement, a stipulated settlement 16 agreement requires mutual assent or a meeting of the minds on the 17 contract's essential terms. The parties agreed to the terms contained in the 18 Decree of Divorce and Joint Petition. Lastly, the terms of the Decree of 19 Divorce and Joint Petition contain material terms that are sufficiently 20 certain and definite for the Court to ascertain what is required of the 21 respective parties and to compel compliance, if necessary. Accordingly, 22 pursuant to Grisham, the Decree of Divorce and Joint Petition is a valid, 23 binding contract, which should be enforced by the Court.
26
27

28 Furthermore, settlement agreements are in the nature of contract

1 law. Mack v. Estate of Mack, 125 Nev. 80, 95, 206 P.3d 98, 108 (2009).

2 The terms in the Decree of Divorce and Joint Petition are not
3 "unconscionable, illegal or in violation of public policy." Thus, the parties 4 entered into and acted on an enforceable agreement – both in writing and 5 signed by Ammie and William and the Decree and Joint Petition should be 6 enforced and William's request to change custody should be denied.

9 Before the Court can change custody, a hearing must be held in order
10 to assure all parties' rights are protected. See Weise v. Granata, 110 Nev.
11 1410 (1994); Moser v. Moser, 108 Nev. 572 (1992). However, a hearing is 12 not required if the moving party fails to demonstrate "adequate cause" in 13 the affidavits and points and authorities for a change in custody. Rooney
14 v. Rooney, 109 Nev. 540, 853 P.2d 123 (1993). Specifically, the Rooney
15 Court stated:
16
18

19 Nevada statutes and case law provide district courts with 20 broad discretion concerning child custody matters. Given such 21 discretion in this area, we hereby adopt an "adequate cause"
22 standard. That is, we hold that a district court has the 23 discretion to deny a motion to modify custody without holding 24 a hearing unless the moving party demonstrates "adequate
25 cause" for holding a hearing. "Adequate cause" requires 26 something more than allegations which, if proven, might 27 permit inferences sufficient to establish grounds for a custody
28 change. "Adequate cause" arises where the moving party presents a prima facie case for modification. To constitute a prima facie case it must be shown that: (1) the facts alleged in the affidavits are relevant to the grounds for modification; and
(2) the evidence is not merely cumulative or impeaching.

(Internal Citations omitted.) Id. at 124-125. A review of William's Motion reveals that he fails to establish in his affidavit and points and authorities "adequate cause" to require a hearing. As a result, the Court should deny William's Motion, without the benefit of granting William an evidentiary hearing regarding the same.

6. William Is Not Entitled to Child Support:

Pursuant to the Decree, child support was set in the amount of $1,000.00 per month, effective October 1, 2020. William has not consistently paid child support so Ammie sought the assistance of the Family Support Division to enforce William's child support obligation, immediately prior to William filing the instant Motion. Ammie's attempt to collect the child support obligation from William is the likely impetus for the filing of William's Motion, as there is no good faith basis for William to seek a change in custody. Additionally, there is no basis in law to deny Ammie's claim for "back child support" that is due and owing pursuant to the Decree filed 09/10/2020. Accordingly, Ammie respectfully requests that William's request for child support be denied.

B. The Court Should Award Attorneys' Fees for the Necessity of Filing the Opposition.

Ammie should be awarded the attorneys' fees she is incurring for the necessity of filing this Motion. An award of attorney's fees is appropriate

1 under NRS 18.010 and EDCR 7.60(b). EDCR 7.60(b) states as follows:

3 The court may, after notice and an opportunity to be heard,
4 impose upon an attorney or a party any and all sanctions which
5 may, under the facts of the case, be reasonable, including the
6 imposition of fines, costs or attorney's fees when an attorney or 7 a party without just cause:

8 (1) Presents to the court a motion or an opposition to a
9 motion which is obviously frivolous, unnecessary or
10 unwarranted.

11 (2) Fails to prepare for a presentation.

12 (3) So multiplies the proceedings in a case as to increase
13 costs unreasonably and vexatiously.

14 (4) Fails or refuses to comply with these rules.

15 (5) Fails or refuses to comply with any order of a judge of the 16 court.

17 As set forth above, William's motion is "obviously frivolous, 18 unnecessary or unwarranted" and "multiplies the proceedings in a case as 19 to increase costs unreasonably and vexatiously." Under such 20 circumstances, Ammie requests that she be reimbursed for the attorney's 21 fees and costs associated with this Opposition in accordance with EDCR
22 7.60(b) and NRS 18.010.

23 NRS 18.010(2)(b) provides that the court may award attorneys' fees
24 to the prevailing party in such circumstances. Pursuant to NRS 18.010, 25 this Court should liberally construe the provisions of NRS 18.010 "in favor 26 of awarding attorney's fees in all appropriate situations." Given the 27 specific facts and circumstances as explained in detail herein above, 28 coupled with the relevant authority, an award of attorneys' fees is

1 appropriate.

2 Pursuant to Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 455 P.2d 31, 85
3 Nev. 345 (1969), in the case at bar, the Court should consider the follow
4 factors in awarding attorneys' fees:

7 1. The Qualities of the Advocate:

8 The qualities of Plaintiff's attorney are excellent. Shelly Booth Cooley
9 has practiced law in the State of Nevada since 2004, and has a reputation
10 for competency in litigation. Ms. Cooley was an associate in a mid-sized 11 law firm from 2004 through March, 2009. Thereafter, in March, 2009, Ms.
12 Cooley founded The Cooley Law Firm, and she is the sole owner. Ms.
13 Cooley graduated from the William S. Boyd School of Law. She does not 14 have any State Bar Complaints and she has never been sued for legal 15 malpractice. Ms. Cooley practices exclusively in the area of family law, she 16 is certified by the State Bar of Nevada as a Family Law Specialist, she is 17 a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, she is a dual 18 Adoption and Assisted Reproduction Fellow of the Academy of Adoption
19 and Assisted Reproduction Attorneys, she is a Fellow of the International 20 Academy of Family Lawyers, and she is rated "AV Preeminent" by 21 Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings.
22
24
25
26
27

28 . . .

1 Ms. Cooley was the Chair of the State Bar of Nevada, Family Law
2 Section, Executive Council from 2017 to 2019 (and was elected to the 3 Council in 2010), she was Chair of the Board of Certified Family Law
4 Specialists from 2016 to 2019 (she was appointed to the Board in 2016, and 5 continues to serve), she was Vice Chair of the State Bar of Nevada, Family
6 Law Section, Executive Council from 2015 to 2017, and Editor of the 7 Nevada Family Law Report from 2010 to 2015. She has been involved in 8 state court hearings, participated in mediation, and bench trials. Ms.
9 Cooley has been selected to serve as a Settlement Hearing Master, 10 Parenting Coordinator and Guardian ad Litem through the Eighth Judicial 11 District Court. Ms. Cooley has filed appeals and participated in the 12 Supreme Court Settlement programs.

15
16
17
18 Clearly, Ammie's attorney is experienced, well trained and qualified
19 in relation to the fees charged for the services in this matter. Ms. Cooley's 20 hourly rate is $400.

22 2. The Character of the Work to be Done:

23
24 Under the circumstances of this case, the character of the work
25 completed certainly justifies the fees incurred in this matter. Ammie's
26 counsel was required to complete legal research and draft an Opposition 27 and Countermotion.
28

1 3. The Work Actually Performed by the Lawyer:

2 Ammie’s counsel has made every effort to be as efficient as possible
4 in completing the necessary work to obtain favorable results for her. The 5 amount of fees and costs accurately reflects the actual work done in this
7 matter. The work was completed in the most cost efficient manner to 8 minimize the over all fees and costs incurred. A copy of such redacted
10 billing as reflects the work actually performed can be provided after the 11 hearing on this matter, if requested by the Court.

12 4. The Result:

14 The final factor adopted in Brunzell, is whether the attorney was 15 successful and what benefits were derived. It is anticipated that Ammie 16 will be successful at the hearing on this matter, as the law supports the 17 requests made herein.
18

19 III. CONCLUSION:

20
21 Based upon the aforementioned considerations, Ammie respectfully 22 requests the following relief:

- 23 1. For an order denying William’s motion in its entirety;
24
25 2. For an award of attorneys’ fees and costs; and,

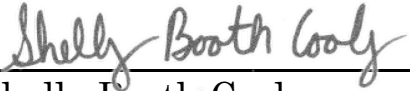

26 . . .

28 . . .

1 3. For such other relief as the Court deems appropriate.

16 STATEMENT OF FACTS

17 A. AMMIE ADMITS THE PARTIES SHARED JOINT PHYSICAL 18 CUSTODY PRIOR TO AND AFTER THE DIVORCE.

19 To begin her Opposition and Countermotion, Plaintiff Ammie Wallace
20 ("Ammie") spends nine (9) pages maligning Defendant William Wallace
21 ("William"). However, finally on page 11 of her pleading, she admits to the Court
22 that the parties did not follow the schedule in the Decree of Divorce from before 23 the Decree was filed in September 2020 through March 2021. She admits the 24 parties were sharing custody when the Decree was filed and continued to do so 25 until she abruptly demanded the schedule change in or about April 2021. See
26 Plaintiff's Opposition and Countermotion, p. 11, ll. 5-11.

27 ///

28 ///

1 Regarding Ammie's character assassination of William, he will not spend 2 nine (9) pages correcting the record but will address the main misrepresentations
3 made by Ammie.

4 B. WILLIAM WAS NOT UNEMPLOYED FROM FOR OVER A YEAR
5 IN 2017-2018 AS AMMIE ALLEGES.

6 The family relocated to Texarkana, Texas after William expressed an interest
7 in moving to Houston, and Ammie then talked William into relocating near her
8 family. It was difficult for William to gain traction with a client base in the small 9 town. He did not embezzle from his employer, and he resolved the employment
10 dispute with the business owner and did not pay $20,000.00 as Ammie alleges. He 11 settled the matter with funds from a personal injury settlement he received, not 12 credit as Ammie alleges. She also did not "solely" support the family in Texas as 13 she claimed as she only worked full time temporarily.

14 The job market was poor for both parties in the small town, so the parties 15 mutually agreed to move back to Las Vegas in the summer of 2017. Ammie was 16 energized by the move back to Las Vegas and got a job quickly. William stayed 17 home with the children full time for a couple of months in the summer while the 18 family resided in the home of William's mother who was on an extended 19 honeymoon. The parties decided to end their marriage. William began a new job in 20 August 2017 and moved into a rental house on September 25, 2017. Ammie stayed 21 with him for a short time until her new residence she chose was ready for 22 occupancy. From the fall of 2017 to the fall of 2018, the parties shared custody.
23 William was the sole parent who helped the children with their school work. He 24 also coached Little League and took them to their practices. William approached 25 Ammie once about sharing the expenses for baseball, and she stated, "I don't care 26 if they play baseball." William paid all their baseball expenses himself.

27 William does not know why Ammie would tell the Court he did not work
28 after the parties moved back to Las Vegas in the summer of 2017 until September
2018. See Ammie's Opposition and Countermotion p. 6, ll. 24 to p. 7, ll. 7. This is a

1 blatant misrepresentation of the facts. As stated, William stayed home full time
2 with the children for a short time while he looked for work and then began working 3 in August 2017. William's W-2 Forms for his job with Alterra Home Loans in Las 4 Vegas are filed as Exhibit A. As William's attached W-2 forms show, he worked 5 for Alterra in 2017 and continued working for them for part of the year in 2018.

6 Regarding William's prior girlfriend Wendy that he dated in 2019, William 7 openly acknowledges the minor children did care for her. Ammie convinced them
8 Wendy, a school teacher, was a terrible person. However, after having a heart to 9 heart talk with the children, William decided it was best to end the relationship 10 with Wendy. He chose his children over her. The Court should know that the 11 children report to William that they do not care for Ammie's most recent boyfriend 12 either.

13 C. WILLIAM HAS ALWAYS BEEN AN INVOLVED PARENT.

14 Since the parties' separation (and even before), William has been the parent 15 who has primarily picked the children up after school and helped them with their 16 homework. He also coached their baseball teams and attended their extracurricular 17 activities with them. See Facebook posts with photographs of the children from this 18 time period, filed as Exhibit B. The parties always worked together to make sure
19 the children spent time with both parents. So, it is reasonable that William thought
20 the language in the Decree of Divorce meant he was required to get the children
21 after school and help with their homework and extracurricular activities each day, 22 as this had been his primary responsibility. He would never have signed the 23 agreement if he had understood it to mean he could not have any overnights with 24 his children other than every other weekend. He would never have knowingly 25 agreed to such limited time with the children.¹

26
27 ¹ It is noteworthy that Ammie followed a shared custody schedule, as William 28 understood was the plan, for just over six (6) months after the divorce was final.

1 William's understanding of the intent of the Decree is supported by the 2 pattern and practice the parties followed after the divorce which was to share the 3 time with the children and follow a flexible timeshare as Ammie admits. See
4 Plaintiff's Opposition and Countermotion, p. 11, ll. 5-11.

5 When COVID-19 caused the children to go virtual for school in the spring of 6 2020, the parties began exercising a 2/3/2 timeshare. Both parties were working 7 from home, and William rented a home near Ammie for the convenience of 8 everyone. Ammie neglected to tell the Court that she spent two (2) months in the 9 summer of 2020 caring for her ill mother in Texas, and William cared for the 10 children on his own. Ammie returned to Las Vegas after her extended stay with a 11 new boyfriend. The children were happy living with William while Ammie was out 12 of state.

13 In the spring of 2021, Ammie suddenly insisted that William could only have 14 the children every other weekend. Her cruel conduct regarding William's custody
15 has been upsetting for the children, and they report to William that they are not 16 allowed to call him. The minor child Will recently texted his father requesting 17 pictures and stated to his father, "I will get in trouble if I call you." See copy of text
18 message, filed as Exhibit C.

19 Due to Ammie demanding that William get very limited time with the 20 children, something the parties had never practiced before, he told her he was 21 seeking legal representation. Ammie responded by suddenly demanding child
22 support, while the parties had not paid child support to date. She opened the case
23 with the DA's office in May 2021. Ammie knew she could not get child support
24 since William was caring for the children over 50% of the time, so she demanded
25 that William's time be reduced.

26
27 She did not demand the custodial schedule change or the child support until it was 28 past the deadline for William to file to set aside the Decree under NRCP 60(b).

1 The minor children are heartbroken to be withheld from William after he and 2 the children have enjoyed frequent associations and contact nearly every day of 3 their lives.

4 II.

5 LEGAL ARGUMENT

6 A. THE PARTIES SHOULD SHARE JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY OF 7 THE MINOR CHILDREN.

8 Ammie admits in her Opposition that the parties followed a flexible schedule
9 and shared physical custody from August 2020 through March 2021. She omits the 10 fact that the children were solely in William's care for two (2) additional months in 11 the summer of 2020 while Ammie was in Texas with her mother.

12 William misunderstood the implications of the custody provisions in the 13 Decree of Divorce Ammie's counsel drafted and he signed. Ammie was in a hurry 14 to get divorced so she could marry her boyfriend. William would have sought legal 15 assistance and asked to set the Decree aside based on his misunderstanding back in 16 the fall of 2020 if Ammie had actually tried to institute the harsh custodial 17 arrangement she is now demanding. In fact, William did seek legal representation 18 when Ammie began withholding the children from their regular timeshare with 19 William in the spring of 2021.

20 William is entitled to a change of custody from the arrangement included in 21 the September 2020 Decree of Divorce because the parties never followed the 22 Decree of Divorce. The Rivero case applies. See Rivero v. Rivero, 125 Nev. 410,
23 216 P.3d 213 (2009). "Physical custody involves the time that a child physically
24 spends in the care of a parent." Rivero, 125 Nev. at 421, 216 P.3d at 222. Nevada 25 has expressed a specific preference for parents to have joint physical custody of 26 minor children so long as a "parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to 27 demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to 28 establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child[ren]." NRS

1 125C.0025(1)(b). When determining custody of a minor child, the Court's
2 paramount concern is always the child's welfare. See Culbertson v. Culbertson, 91
3 Nev. 230, 233, 533 P.2d 768, 770 (1975).

4 In Rivero, the court held, "When considering whether to modify a physical 5 custody agreement, the district court must first determine what type of physical 6 custody arrangement exists because different tests apply depending on the district
7 court's determination. A modification to a joint physical custody arrangement is 8 appropriate if it is in the child's best interest. NRS 125.510(2). In contrast, a 9 modification to a primary physical custody arrangement is appropriate when there 10 is a substantial change in the circumstances affecting the child and the modification
11 serves the child's best interest." Rivero, citing Ellis v. Carucci, 123 Nev. at 150, 12 161 P.3d at 242 (2007).

13 In this matter, the parties have a written custody order which was never 14 followed. Ammie admits it was never followed. See Opposition and 15 Counter-motion, p. 11, ll. 5-11. The parties exercised joint physical custody in 16 practice before the Decree was finalized and after the Decree was finalized. Thus, 17 William has de facto joint physical custody despite the language in the Decree.
18 Ammie has not offered the Court any honest, legitimate reason for her sudden 19 insistence the parties follow a custody schedule they never followed in the past.

20 It is harmful for the children that Ammie suddenly demanded the parties
21 follow a custody schedule they had never followed. The children miss their time
22 with their father and William misses his children. Ammie is not even allowing them 23 to have phone communication with William on a regular basis. In addition, she 24 completely shut William out of the school registration decisions. He sent her a text 25 on May 24, 2021 about registration and she replied they could discuss it after she 26 returned from a trip. She never discussed it with William and on July 21, 2021 she 27 sent him a text saying, "They are registered." See copies of text messages, filed as 28

Exhibit D.

William sought legal assistance quickly after Ammie demanded these changes to their routine be implemented. Her conduct is cruel and William is seeking the Court's assistance for the benefit of the minor children and himself.

B. CHILD SUPPORT SHOULD BE SET IN ACCORDANCE WITH NEVADA LAW.

With respect to child support William respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order finding William does not owe any back child support. This was never the parties' previous course of conduct and based on Ammie's Financial Disclosure Form, she currently earns significantly more than William. The outcome of William's requests regarding child custody may impact child support, and William requests the Court apply Nevada law regarding child support in accordance with the custodial orders. In addition, this Court should rule on the tax exemptions since the Decree is not specific and the parties shared custody in 2020 and in 2021 until Ammie abruptly changed the custodial schedule.

C. AMMIE'S REQUEST FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES SHOULD BE DENIED.

As shown in William's Statement of Facts, Ammie was untruthful with the Court regarding William. In addition, she admitted the parties' followed a flexible custodial schedule before and after the Decree of Divorce was filed in September 2020. She admits they did not follow the schedule in the Decree. It is undisputed that the parties shared joint physical custody. Recently, Ammie inexplicitly demanded the parties modify their pattern and practice which caused William to seek legal representation and file his Motion. Thus, Ammie is not entitled to an award of attorney's fees and cost.

I spent the day with the kids at the "Slides, Rides & Rock n Roll" event. Water slides all day with live music and a car show.

We topped it off with shaved ice.

I would like to say it is because of all my years of coaching him, but he's a Wallace and comes from a long line of playing good ball. Will today at age 7, won a home run derby for his whole division at opening ceremonies. It was sick !! And he looks good in orange.

Good day for William Wallace Jr. he got an award today at school for the Honor Roll, but his team also played today for the Peccole Little League AAA championship. He went 3-4 with 3 RBI's. Now on to TOC to play all the other AAA winners in our division.

Took the kids to see a concert, the "Not - It's" out of Seattle, WA. During the show, we won a CD because their kick-ass dad was the best dancer (that's right, I got moves !!!). We need to talk about school registration for next year. I can believe Will is going to middle school.

Also, on Thursday and Friday, there is no school and I want to keep them those 2 days before you leave to TX. Summer vacation is here.

The registration thing is complicated and definitely needs a discussion. Let's do that after we get back from Texas. We leave Friday morning at 11am. Why don't you keep them Wednesday night and either Thursday night as long as there are home by 10am Friday morn.

or having them back late Thursday

I received a phone call today asking me about a William (Bill) Wallace, who worked for us back in 2016. Mr. Wallace did not have a good ending with our organization, he was terminated for embezzling and prosecution had been implemented. It came at the recommendation of the arresting officer that if Mr. Wallace could repay all or part of the funds he had stolen then he could avoid being prosecuted. I reluctantly agreed as I understood Mr. Wallace's time in jail would be measured in minutes, and he would receive probation and I would be out the money he took.

Mr. Wallace had been given a company Credit Card from AMEX that upon reconciliation I discovered he was using the company credit card for multitudes of personal purchases such as furniture, swing sets, groceries, etc. AMEX forgave the charges when we explained what had happened. Mr. Wallace was also given a signature card for the checking account as it was his job to maintain company expenses and payroll. He dubbed himself CFO which we all had a good laugh at. I noticed one afternoon while going through our checking account I was finding numerous cash withdrawals Mr. Wallace had taken with counter checks and attempted to disguise the withdrawals as cash payment for materials and to subcontractors. That amount came to somewhere around $15,000.00 I believe. Mr. Wallace also purchased a boat. He claimed his Mother In Law purchased the boat for the family and maybe that is true, I can't believe a single word he says, or said.

Upon discovering this, I fired Mr. Wallace and him and his family moved back to Las Vegas, out of shame I am sure. In my opinion, Mr. Wallace suffered from an opioid addiction, as he was buying Hydrocodone off the street. My family and I went out of our way to befriend him and his family and he stole from us while watching me have anxiety about paying bills for the company. In my opinion, Mr. Wallace has no business doing anything other than hauling trash as he absolutely cannot be trusted.

Attorney for Plaintiff,
AMMIE ANN WALLACE

DISTRICT COURT

AMMIE ANN WALLACE,

Plaintiff,

vs.

WILLIAM SHAWN WALLACE,

Defendant.

Case No.: D-20-613567-Z

Dept No.: S

MEMORANDUM OF FEES AND COSTS

Shelly Booth Cooley, and The Cooley Law Firm, pursuant to EDCR 2.21, hereby declares under penalty of perjury that the following assertions are true and of her own personal knowledge:

Shelly is an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada and represents Plaintiff, AMMIE ANN WALLACE ("Ammie"), in this action.

1 Attached hereto as Exhibit “1” are copies of Ammie’s billing
2 statements detailing the work performed by her counsel on this matter in 3 relation to the issues that have been pending before this Court.

5 Relevant Facts

7 As this Court is aware, post-divorce litigation was initiated by 8 William on 06/18/2021, when he filed his Motion to Modify Decree of 9 Divorce. In that Motion, William asserted the following claims:
10

- 11 * William requested that the Court modify custody;
- 12 * William requested that the Court deny Ammie’s claim for "back 13 child support;" and,
14
- 15 * William requested that the Court recalculate child support.
16

17 Obviously, William’s motion required a response from Ammie and 18 immediately led to her incurring substantial fees disputing his claims. It 19 is worthy to note that William did not attempt to resolve the issues in 20 dispute prior to filing his motion.
21

22 At the hearing on 08/12/2021, the matter came before the Court and 23 the matter was taken under advisement. After taking the matter under 24 advisement, this Court denied William’s motion in its entirety, awarded 25 Ammie attorneys’ fees and costs, and ordered Ammie’s counsel to prepare 26 the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, Decision, and Order.
27
28

1 NRS 18.010(2) states as follows:

3 In addition to the cases where an allowance is authorized by 4 specific statute, the court may make an allowance of attorney's
5 fees to a prevailing party:

6 (a) When the prevailing party has not recovered more than 7 $20,000; or

8 (b) Without regard to the recovery sought, when the court
9 finds that the claim, counterclaim, cross-claim or third-party
10 complaint or defense of the opposing party was brought or 11 maintained without reasonable ground or to harass the 12 prevailing party. The court shall liberally construe the 13 provisions of this paragraph in favor of awarding attorney's 14 fees in all appropriate situations. It is the intent of the 15 Legislature that the court award attorney's fees pursuant to 16 this paragraph and impose sanctions pursuant to Rule 11 of the 17 Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure in all appropriate situations
18 to punish for and deter frivolous or vexatious claims and 19 defenses because such claims and defenses overburden limited
20 judicial resources, hinder the timely resolution of meritorious 21 claims and increase the costs of engaging in business and 22 providing professional services to the public.

23 In addition, EDCR 7.60(b) states as follows:

24 The court may, after notice and an opportunity to be heard,
25 impose upon an attorney or a party any and all sanctions which 26 may, under the facts of the case, be reasonable, including the 27 imposition of fines, costs or attorney's fees when an attorney or 28 a party without just cause:

(1) Presents to the court a motion or an opposition to a motion which is obviously frivolous, unnecessary or unwarranted.

(2) Fails to prepare for a presentation.

(3) So multiplies the proceedings in a case as to increase

costs unreasonably and vexatiously.

(4) Fails or refuses to comply with these rules.

(5) Fails or refuses to comply with any order of a judge of the court.

Based on the Court's decision, Ammie was clearly the prevailing party. Further, based upon the findings of this Court, it is clear that William's underlying motion was not based on reasonable grounds. Further, it appears clear that William's underlying motion was frivolous, unnecessary, and unwarranted, that his position in the case unreasonably multiplied the costs of this litigation, and that he failed to comply with court rules.

Under such circumstances, Ammie requests that the Court award her all of the attorneys' fees and costs that she has had to incur in accordance with EDCR 7.60(b) and NRS 18.010.

In regard to the factors set forth in Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 455 P.2d 31, 85 Nev. 345 (1969), in the case at bar, Shelly has practiced law in the State of Nevada since 2004, and she practices exclusively in the area of family law, she is certified by the State Bar of Nevada as a Family Law Specialist, she is a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, she is a dual Adoption and Assisted Reproduction Fellow of the Academy of Adoption and Assisted

1 Reproduction Attorneys, she is a Fellow of the International Academy of 2 Family Lawyers, and she is rated "AV Preeminent" by Martindale-Hubbell
3 Peer Review Ratings. Shelly was the Chair of the State Bar of Nevada,
4 Family Law Section, Executive Council from 2017 to 2019 (and was elected
5 to the Council in 2010), she was Chair of the Board of Certified Family
6 Law Specialists from 2016 to 2019 (she was appointed to the Board in 7 2016, and served until 2021), she was Vice Chair of the State Bar of 8 Nevada, Family Law Section, Executive Council from 2015 to 2017, and 9 Editor of the Nevada Family Law Report from 2010 to 2015. It is hopeful 10 that the Court will deem counsel's work in this matter as more than 11 adequate, both factually and legally, and that the Court will recognize that 12 counsel has diligently reviewed the applicable law, explored the relevant 13 facts, and properly applied one to the other.

14 Shelly's hourly rate of $400.00 and the total amount of time incurred 15 in fees are reasonable under the circumstances of this case.
