ORDER DIRECTING ANSWER AND GRANTING TEMPORARY STAY

This original petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition challenges a district court discovery order compelling production of prior incident reports with limited redactions.¹ Petitioners have also filed an emergency motion seeking to stay the district court's order pending our consideration of this writ petition.

Having reviewed the petition and supporting documents, it appears that an answer may assist this court in resolving the petition. Therefore, real party in interest, on behalf of respondents, shall have 28 days from the date of this order within which to file and serve an answer, including authorities, against issuance of the requested writ. NRAP 21(b)(1). The answer may contain up to 10,891 words. NRAP 21(d). Petitioners shall have 14 days from service of the answer to file and serve any reply, which shall conform to the NRAP 21(d) page/type-volume limit. Further, the district court's discovery order is hereby temporarily stayed pending our receipt and consideration of any opposition to the stay motion and further order of this court. Any opposition to the stay motion is due by October 18, 2021.

¹Petitioners' motion for leave to file a petition in excess of the NRAP 21(d) type-volume limitation is granted; the petition was filed on October 11, 2021.
