ORDER ON PLAINTIFF'S
MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF
COUNSEL AND MOTION FOR
RECONSIDERATION AND
DISTRICT ATTORNEY
DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS

This matter, having come before the Court on July 20, 2021, regarding Plaintiff's Motion for Appointment of Counsel, Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration, and the District Attorney Defendants' Motion to Dismiss, Deputy District Attorney Joel K. Browning, appearing on behalf of the District Attorney Defendants; and the Court, having reviewed all fully briefed issues, heard oral arguments by the District Attorney Defendants and for good cause showing, finds and concludes as follows:

///

FINDINGS OF FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Court concluded that Plaintiff's Motion for Appointment of Counsel and Motion for Reconsideration and the District Attorney Defendants' Motion to Dismiss, having been fully briefed, were ripe for determination on July 20, 2021;
2. The Court concluded that, pursuant to NRS 34.720, an individual is only entitled to appointment of counsel under NRS 34.750 where that individual has filed a petition for writ of habeas corpus seeking relief from a judgment or conviction in a criminal case or has challenged the computation of time associated with the same;
3. The Court found that the instant action did not constitute a petition for a writ of habeas corpus or a challenge to the computation of time for Plaintiff's conviction;
4. Accordingly, the Court concluded that Plaintiff was not entitled to appointment of counsel in this matter and DENIED Plaintiff's Motion for Appointment of Counsel filed on July 1, 2021;
5. The Court found that the basis for Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration as to the Order dismissing Defendants Stefany Miley and Katlyn M. Brady was his assertion that the dismissal was premature as time to effect proper service on defendants still remained;
6. The Court, however, found that Defendants Stefany Miley and Katlyn M. Brady's Motion to Dismiss was granted based on their absolute judicial immunity and litigation privilege, respectively, and not issues of service;
7. Accordingly, the Court found that Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration, filed July 1, 2021, lacked merit and DENIED the same;
8. The Court found that Plaintiff had filed multiple post-conviction petitions requesting access to evidence in his underlying criminal case to perform genetic marker analysis;
9. The Court found that each of these petitions had been denied by the district court on the merits;
10. The Court found that Plaintiff had appealed the denial of his requests for access to evidence for genetic marker testing to the Nevada Supreme Court, which transferred his request to the Nevada Court of Appeals;
11. It was found that the Nevada Court of Appeals reviewed the merits of Plaintiff's request and affirmed the district court's denial of Plaintiff's request for access to evidence;
12. The Court found that the issues raised in these petitions were identical to the injunctive relief sought by Plaintiff in the instant matter, that the prior petitions were adjudicated on the merits, and that Plaintiff was the same party whose petitions had been previously rejected;
13. Accordingly, the Court concluded that Plaintiff's injunctive relief claims in this action were barred by res judicata and GRANTED the District Attorney Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the same;
14. The Court concluded that there is no constitutional right guaranteeing unfettered access to genetic material post-conviction and concluded that Plaintiff, by being properly denied access to this material, had not suffered a constitutional deprivation;

- 1 15. The Court also found that the conduct for the individual District Attorney Defendants
2 alleged by Plaintiff in his Complaint was conduct falling within the scope of their
3 prosecutorial duties;
- 4 16. Accordingly, the Court concluded that Plaintiff had failed to state a claim upon which
5 the Court could grant relief against the individual District Attorney Defendants and that
6 Plaintiff's claims against the individual District Attorney Defendants were barred by
7 prosecutorial immunity;
- 8 17. It was found that Plaintiff's Complaint failed to state a cognizable official capacity
9 claim against the Clark County District Attorney's Office and/or District Attorney
10 Steven B. Wolfson;
- 11 18. Accordingly, the Court concluded that Plaintiff had failed to state a constitutional claim
12 upon which relief could be granted against the District Attorney Defendants in both
13 their individual and official capacities and GRANTED the District Attorney
14 Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the case against them, with prejudice;
- 15 19. The Court found that granting the District Attorney Defendants' Motion to Dismiss was 16 completely dispositive of the case and would render all other pending motions moot;
17 and
- 18 20. The Court cautioned that any further attempts by Plaintiff to file additional motions or
19 pleadings in this matter once the case is closed would result in the Court seeking to
20 have Plaintiff declared a vexatious litigant in future civil actions.

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF
COUNSEL AND MOTION FOR
DISMISS

This matter, having come before the Court on July 20, 2021, regarding Plaintiff's Motion for Appointment of Counsel, Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration, and the District Attorney Defendants' Motion to Dismiss, Deputy District Attorney Joel K. Browning, appearing on behalf of the District Attorney Defendants; and the Court, having reviewed all fully briefed issues, heard oral arguments by the District Attorney Defendants and for good cause showing, finds and concludes as follows:

///

FINDINGS OF FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Court concluded that Plaintiff's Motion for Appointment of Counsel and Motion for Reconsideration and the District Attorney Defendants' Motion to Dismiss, having been fully briefed, were ripe for determination on July 20, 2021;
2. The Court concluded that, pursuant to NRS 34.720, an individual is only entitled to appointment of counsel under NRS 34.750 where that individual has filed a petition for writ of habeas corpus seeking relief from a judgment or conviction in a criminal case or has challenged the computation of time associated with the same;
3. The Court found that the instant action did not constitute a petition for a writ of habeas corpus or a challenge to the computation of time for Plaintiff's conviction;
4. Accordingly, the Court concluded that Plaintiff was not entitled to appointment of counsel in this matter and DENIED Plaintiff's Motion for Appointment of Counsel filed on July 1, 2021;
5. The Court found that the basis for Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration as to the Order dismissing Defendants Stefany Miley and Katlyn M. Brady was his assertion that the dismissal was premature as time to effect proper service on defendants still remained;
6. The Court, however, found that Defendants Stefany Miley and Katlyn M. Brady's Motion to Dismiss was granted based on their absolute judicial immunity and litigation privilege, respectively, and not issues of service;
7. Accordingly, the Court found that Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration, filed July 1, 2021, lacked merit and DENIED the same;
8. The Court found that Plaintiff had filed multiple post-conviction petitions requesting access to evidence in his underlying criminal case to perform genetic marker analysis;
9. The Court found that each of these petitions had been denied by the district court on the merits;
10. The Court found that Plaintiff had appealed the denial of his requests for access to evidence for genetic marker testing to the Nevada Supreme Court, which transferred his request to the Nevada Court of Appeals;
11. It was found that the Nevada Court of Appeals reviewed the merits of Plaintiff's request and affirmed the district court's denial of Plaintiff's request for access to evidence;
12. The Court found that the issues raised in these petitions were identical to the injunctive relief sought by Plaintiff in the instant matter, that the prior petitions were adjudicated on the merits, and that Plaintiff was the same party whose petitions had been previously rejected;
13. Accordingly, the Court concluded that Plaintiff's injunctive relief claims in this action were barred by res judicata and GRANTED the District Attorney Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the same;
14. The Court concluded that there is no constitutional right guaranteeing unfettered access to genetic material post-conviction and concluded that Plaintiff, by being properly denied access to this material, had not suffered a constitutional deprivation;

- 1 15. The Court also found that the conduct for the individual District Attorney Defendants
2 alleged by Plaintiff in his Complaint was conduct falling within the scope of their
3 prosecutorial duties;
- 4 16. Accordingly, the Court concluded that Plaintiff had failed to state a claim upon which
5 the Court could grant relief against the individual District Attorney Defendants and that
6 Plaintiff's claims against the individual District Attorney Defendants were barred by
7 prosecutorial immunity;
- 8 17. It was found that Plaintiff's Complaint failed to state a cognizable official capacity
9 claim against the Clark County District Attorney's Office and/or District Attorney
10 Steven B. Wolfson;
- 11 18. Accordingly, the Court concluded that Plaintiff had failed to state a constitutional claim
12 upon which relief could be granted against the District Attorney Defendants in both
13 their individual and official capacities and GRANTED the District Attorney
14 Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the case against them, with prejudice;
- 15 19. The Court found that granting the District Attorney Defendants' Motion to Dismiss was 16 completely dispositive of the case and would render all other pending motions moot;
17 and
- 18 20. The Court cautioned that any further attempts by Plaintiff to file additional motions or
19 pleadings in this matter once the case is closed would result in the Court seeking to
20 have Plaintiff declared a vexatious litigant in future civil actions.
