WOOLEY and JUDITH A. WOOLEY ("the Wooleys"), individually and as trustees of the Edward C. Wooley and Judith A. Wooley Intervivos Revocable Trust 2000 ("the Wooley Trust"), by and through undersigned attorneys, hereby allege, aver, and complain of Defendants BERRY-HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES ("BHI"), JERRY HERBST ("Herbst"), and JH, INC. ("JH") (collectively, "Defendants") as follows:

JURISDICTION

was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Nevada.

- 7. Defendant Jerry Herbst ("Herbst") is, and at all times relevant herein was, a citizen of the State of Nevada.
- 8. Defendant JH, Inc. ("JH") is, and at all times relevant herein was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Nevada. JH is the parent company of BHI.
- 9. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that basis allege that Defendant JH is the alter ego of Defendant BHI, given the commingling and diversion of the funds and assets of each, the failure to segregate said funds, the unity of interest and ownership between JH, BHI, and Herbst such that their individuality or separation has ceased, the disregard for corporate formalities, the undercapitalization of BHI to the extent that it cannot satisfy its legal obligations, and the commonality of officers, directors, and corporate office, resulting in BHI serving as a mere shell for the affairs of JH and Herbst and being used solely for the purpose of escaping personal liability. The interests of justice in avoiding inequitable results warrants the disregarding of BHI's corporate form and the holding of BHI's parent company, JH, as well as its sole shareholder, Herbst, liable for BHI's legal obligations.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Lease Agreement)

By the Willard Plaintiffs Against JH, Inc. and Berry-Hinckley Industries

- 10. Paragraphs 1 through 9 above are hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth at this point.
- 11. On November 18, 2005, BHI entered into a lease agreement (the "Willard Lease") on the property owned by the Willard Plaintiffs located at 7695-7699 S. Virginia Street, Reno, Nevada (the "Willard Property"). Under the Willard Lease, BHI agreed to lease the Virginia Street Property from January 2006 through January 2026 at a monthly rental rate of $122,031.25, said rental rate increasing by 2% per month through the lease term. A true and correct copy of the Willard Lease is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.
- 12. On Fehruary 17, 2007, BHI sent the Willard Plaintiffs a letter indicating Herbst's intent to acquire BHI's convenience store assets. Attached to that letter was a letter from Herbst requesting that the Willard Plaintiffs agree to a modifications of the Willard Lease in return for Herbst personally guaranteeing lease payments by BHI through the duration of the revised lease term. Also attached was a letter from Johnson Jacobson Wilcox dated January 31, 2007 attesting to the fact that Herbst's net worth was in excess of $200 million. A true and correct copy of the February 17, 2007 letter and accompanying attachments is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

- 13. On March 9, 2007, the Willard Plaintiffs agreed to amend the Willard Lease, thereby forgoing $5,250,045.20 in rent through the shortening of the lease term by 30 months, in return for Herbst's personally guaranteeing that BHI would make all lease payments through the term of the lease (the "Herbst-Willard Guaranty Agreement"). A true and correct copy of the Herbst-Willard Guaranty Agreement is attached bereto as Exhibit 3. A true and correct copy of the amendment to the Willard Lease is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.
- 14. In March 2013, BHI defaulted on the Willard Lease. BHI and Herbst negotiated an agreement (the "Operating Agreement") with the Willard Plaintiffs under which BHI would pay the Willard Plaintiffs 50% of net revenues minus $10,000.00 from continuing to operate at the Willard Property. A true and correct copy of the Interim Operating Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.
- 15. BHI failed to tender any payments to the Willard Plaintiffs as required under the Interim Operating Agreement, instead occupying the Willard Property through May 2013 without paying any rent. At the end of May 2013, BHI abandoned the Willard Property leaving it in such a state of dishevelment and disrepair that Willard was fined and continues to be fined by the City of Reno, said fines currently totaling $3,265.00.
- 16. As a direct and proximate result of BHI hreaching the Willard Lease, the Willard Plaintiffs were deprived of rental income in the amount of $19,443,836.94 that they otherwise would have received. The net present value of the remaining lease payments using a discount rate of 4% as specified in the Willard Lease was $15,741.360.75 as of March 1, 2013.
- 17. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching the Willard Lease, the Willard Plaintiffs were forced to sell the Willard Property in March 2014 in a short sale, thereby losing $4,437,500.00 of earnest money invested in the Willard Property and incurring at least $3,000,000.00 in tax consequences and $549,852.00 in closing costs.

	18.	As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching the Willard Lease, the
Willard	d Plainti	iffs were forced to purchase insurance on the Willard Property at a cost of $4,554	.53, wei	re forced to pay for installation of a security fence for the Willard Property at a cost of $2,668.62, and were charged $10,393.35 by Nevada Energy for utility fees rightly owed by BHI	I.

- 19. This guaranty was "a guaranty of timely payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations and not merely of collectability or enforceability of such obligations." Herbst agreed to be "directly responsible for the full extent of any unsatisfied Guarantee Obligations." Herbst further agreed that his guaranty "is an unconditional, absolute, present and continuing guaranty of payment and performance, and will remain in full force and effect without regard to, and the obligations of [Herbst] hereunder shall

- 64. Paragraphs 46 through 59 above are hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth at this point.
- 65. By virtue of the Herbst-Wooley Guaranty entered into by and between the Wooley Plaintiffs and Herbst on March 12, 2007, Herbst owed and continues to owe the Wooley Plaintiffs a fiduciary duty.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Attachment)

By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants

- 68. Paragraphs 1 through 67 above are hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth at this point.
- 69. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that basis allege that as a result of this action, Defendants will attempt to transfer or otherwise conceal assets in an effort to make it impossible for Plaintiffs to reach the property by execution after judgment is entered.
- 70. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that hasis allege that Defendants will move, transfer or otherwise conceal these assets in order to defeat or otherwise hinder Plaintiff's ability to collect after judgment is entered.
- 71. These allegations are based in part on the fact that on March 18, 2013, Defendants attorney, Gerald M. Gordon of Gordon Silver, sent a letter to Plaintiffs' attorney in which Defendants threatened to declare bankruptcy rather than honor their obligations arising under the leases. A true and correct copy of this letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 12.

72. These allegations are further based on the fact that on March 28, 2013, Defendants attorney, Gerald M. Gordon of Gordon Silver, sent a letter to Plaintiffs' attorney reiterating Defendants' threat of seeking bankruptcy protection and offering to pay a small fraction of the amount due under the leases and Herbst's personal guaranty, an offer which Plaintiffs rejected.

- 73. These allegations are further based on the fact that on July 1, 2013, while Plaintiffs had the instant claim pending against Defendants in Santa Clara County, California, Herbst and his wife transferred 100% of their interest in the estate located at 1701 Enclave Court, Las Vegas, Nevada 89134 to their sons, Timothy Paul Herbst and Troy Dederick Herbst, as trustees of the Jerry E. Herbst Residence Trust and the Maryanna Herbst Residence Trust. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that basis allege that such transfer was for the purpose of attempting to shelter the estate, which is estimated to be worth at least $18 million, from being attached by Plaintiffs.
- 74. In this action, Plaintiffs seek an attachment pursuant to NRS 31.013 because extraordinary circumstances exist which will make it improbable for Plaintiffs to reach the property of Defendants by execution after judgment has been entered. Specifically, Plaintiffs seek an attachment of the following property:
- the estate located at 1701 Enclave Court, Las Vegas, Nevada 89134, Parcel No. 138-20-416-003;
- the property located at 1001 South California Avenue, Parker, Arizona 85334,
 Parcel No. 311-23-031;
- the property located at 1005 South California Avenue, Parker, Arizona 85344,
 Parcel No. 311-23-030;
- the property located at 1009 South California Avenue, Parker, Arizona 85334,
 Parcel No. 311-23-028A;
- the property located at 515 Saddle View Way 23, Park City, Utah 84060, Parcel No. 01-923-06; and
 - such other and further assets and properties owned by Defendants sufficient to

secure payment of Plaintiffs' claims against Defendants.

75. Pursuant to NRS Chapter 31, Plaintiffs seek issuance of a prejudgment writ of attachment upon the assets of Defendant JH, Inc., Defendant Berry-Hinckley Industries, and Defendant Jerry Herbst, to secure payment of Plaintiffs' claims against Defendants.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Temporary Restraining Order)
By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants

- 76. Paragraphs 1 through 75 above are hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth at this point.
- 77. If Defendants are permitted the ability to transfer, sell, or otherwise conceal assets during the pendency of this action, Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable harm.
- 78. If Defendants are permitted to have the ability to transfer, sell, or otherwise conceal assets before this Court can issue a writ of attachment on the assets of Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiffs will be denied the extraordinary relief provided in NRS Chapter 31 to protect their rights.
- 79. An interlocutory injunction preventing Defendants or any person with actual knowledge of the injunction is necessary to maintain the status quo until this Court can determine whether a writ of attachment should issue and/or until the conclusion of this action after trial.
- 80. Plaintiffs are entitled to a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and any other person with notice of the injunction from transferring, selling, or otherwise encumbering any assets or property of Defendants.

Certain Defined Terms. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in Exhibit A hereto.

Lease of Property; Use; Possession. In consideration of the Rentals and other Monetary Obligations to be paid by Lessee and of the other terms, covenants and conditions on Lessee's part to be kept and performed, Lessor hereby leases to Lessee, and Lessee hereby takes and leases, the Property (as such term is defined in Exhibit A attached hereto and which Property is located at the address set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto and situated on the real property legally described in Exhibit B attached hereto, subject to the Permitted Encumbrances, all Legal Requirements (including any existing violation thereof), and the condition of the Property as of the Effective Date; provided, however, that the recital of the Permitted Encumbrances herein shall not be construed as a revival of any Permitted Encumbrance which may have expired or been terminated. During the Lease Term, the Property shall be used solely for the operation of a Permitted Facility, and related purposes such as ingress, egress and parking.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Lessee waives the implied warranty of suitability of the Property and Lessee acknowledges that it has accepted the Property "as is," in its current condition, with no representations, warranties or covenants, express or implied, on the part of the Lessor with respect to condition of the same or the suitability of the Property for Lessee's intended use.

Lease Term; Extension. The initial term of this Lease ("Initial Term") shall commence February 24, 2006 ("Effective Date") and shall expire at midnight on August 23, 2023 ("Expiration Date"), unless terminated sooner as provided in this Lease and as may be extended as provided herein. The time period during which this Lease shall actually be in effect, including any Extension Term, is referred to herein as the "Lease Term." Lessee shall have the right and option (each, an "Extension Option") to extend the Initial Term for four (4) additional successive periods of five (5) years each (each, an "Extension Term"), pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Lease then in effect. Lessee may only exercise the Extension Options by giving written notice thereof to Lessor of its election to do so first, no later than two hundred forty (240) days prior to the Expiration Date and two hundred forty (240) days prior to the immediately preceding Extension Term, as the case may be. If written notice of the exercise of any Extension Option is not received by Lessor by the applicable dates described above, then this Sample Lease 1/4/2006 000160/09959 GBDOCS 469445v2 Lease shall terminate on the last day of the Initial Term or, if applicable, the last day of the Extension Term then in effect.

4. Rental and Other Monetary Obligations.

- A. Base Monthly Rental. During the Initial Term, on or before the first day of each calendar month, Lessee shall pay in advance the Base Monthly Rental; provided, however, if the Effective Date is a date other than the first day of the month, Lessee shall pay to Lessor (or any other party designated by Lessor) on the Effective Date the Base Monthly Rental prorated by multiplying the Base Monthly Rental by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days remaining in the month (including the Effective Date) for which Rental is being paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in such month. During the Extension Terms, if any, Lessee shall pay the Rental (including the Base Monthly Rental) in the manner set forth in this Section 4. Unless otherwise specifically stated to the contrary herein, Lessee shall perform all its obligations under this Lease at its sole cost and expense and shall pay all Rental and any other Monetary Obligation due hereunder when due and payable, without notice or demand.
- B. Adjustments. On the first Adjustment Date and on each Adjustment Date thereafter, the Base Annual Rental shall increase by an amount equal to the Rent Adjustment. The "Rent Adjustment" shall be an amount equal to two percent (2%) of the Base Annual Rental in effect immediately prior to the applicable Adjustment Date. The Adjustment Date shall be on the annual anniversary of the Effective Date.
- C. Additional Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge, as additional rental ("Additional Rental"), all sums of money required to be paid by Lessee under this Lease which are not specifically referred to as Base Annual Rental or Base Monthly Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge any Additional Rental when the same shall become due, provided that amounts which are billed to Lessor or any third party, but not to Lessee, shall be paid within five (5) days after Lessor's demand for payment thereof or, if later, when the same are due. In no event shall Lessee be required to pay to Lessor any item of Additional Rental that Lessee is obligated to pay and has paid to any third party pursuant to any provision of this Lease.
- D. Payment of Rental and Other Monetary Obligations. All Rental and other Monetary Obligations which Lessee is required to pay bereunder shall be the unconditional obligation of Lessee and shall be payable in full when due without any setoff, abatement, deferment, deduction or counterclaim whatsoever, except as set forth herein. All payments of Base Monthly Rental and any other Monetary Obligations payable to Lessor shall be remitted to Lessor at Lessor's address set forth in the first paragraph of this Lease or such other address as Lessor may designate pursuant to Section 24 hereof.
- E. Late Payment Charge. Lessee acknowledges that late payment by Lessee to Lessor of Rental will cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of such costs being extremely difficult and impracticable to fix in advance.

Such costs include, without limitation, processing and accounting charges, and late charges that may be imposed on Lessor by the terms of any encumbrance and note secured by any encumbrance covering the Property. Therefore, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessoe to Lessor pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, then Lessee shall pay to Lessor, as a late payment charge, five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment. Additionally, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, such payment shall bear interest at the Default Rate until received by Lessor. The late payment charge and default interest shall be paid to Lessor at the time of payment of the delinquent amount. The late payment charge and the default interest charge shall compensate Lessor for the expenses incurred by Lessor in financing, collecting and processing the late payment. The parties agree that the late charge and the default interest charge represent a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs that Lessor will incur by reason of late payment by Lessee.

Gaming. Lessor hereby conditionally assigns to Lessoe all leases, written or oral, and all agreements for use or occupancy of the Property together with any and all extensions and renewals thereof and any and all further leases, subleases, lettings or agreements (including subleases thereof and tenancies following attornment) upon or covering the use or occupancy of the Property all of which leases, agreements, subleases and tenancies are herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Assigned Leases"; (ii) the immediate and continuing right to collect and receive all of the rents, income, receipts, revenues, issues and profits now due or which may become due or which may now or hereafter become due from or out of the Assigned Leases or any part thereof, including, but not limited to, security deposits, minimum rents, additional rents, parking rents, deficiency rents and liquidated damages following default, any premium payable by any tenant upon the exercise of a cancellation privilege contained in its Lease; all proceeds payable under any policy of insurance covering loss of rents resulting from untenantability caused by destruction or damage to the Property; any and all rights and claims of any kind which Lessor has or hereafter may have against the tenants under the Assigned Leases and any subtenants and other occupants of the Property; any award granted Lessor after the date hereof in any court proceeding involving any tenant in any bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization proceedings in any state or federal court and any and all payments made by any tenant in lieu of rent (any and all such moneys, rights and claims identified in this paragraph are herein sometimes referred to as the "Rents" and sometimes as the "Rent"); and (iii) all of the rights, powers and privileges of Lessor (A) to accept prepayment of more than one (1) monthly installment of the Rent thereunder, and (B) except with respect to the Assigned Lease, (I) to cancel, terminate or accept the surrender of any Assigned Lease, and (II) to amend, modify or abridge any of the terms, covenants or conditions of any Assigned Lease. The assignment contained in this Section 5 and Lessee's interest in the Assigned Leases shall become void and of no further force or effect upon the expiration or early termination of this Lease and upon such event, Lessor shall be the sole party with any interest as a landlord or lessor in the Assigned Leases. Furthermore, Lessee shall have no right to collect any amounts under the Assigned Leases upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default and all such amounts shall be paid to Lessor during any such period.

Lessor shall reasonably cooperate with Lessee, but without out-of-pocket expense to Lessor, in Lessee's efforts to restore utility service to the Property; provided, however, that if the utility service was disrupted due to Lessor's gross negligence or willful misconduct, then the cost of such restoration shall be borne by Lessor.

Such insurance shall contain an agreed valuation provision in lieu of any coinsurance clause, an increased cost of construction endorsement, debris removal coverage and a waiver of subrogation endorsement in favor of Lessor. Such insurance is to follow form of the real property "all risk" coverage and is not to contain a co-insurance clause.

Any such repairs or reconstruction shall restore the buildings and all improvements on the Property to substantially the same condition immediately prior to such damages or destruction and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect, provided, however, that Lessee shall have the right to replace the improvements with different structures so long as (a) the value of the Property with such different structures is no less than the value of the Property immediately prior to the date of casualty and the different square footage of the new buildings is no less than the buildings existing as of the date hereof, and (b) the new structure can be built and occupied in compliance with Legal Requirements (including any special or conditional use permits or other variances granted specifically for the Property) and the Permitted Encumbrances. Such repair, restoration, relocation and rebuilding (all of which are herein called a "repair") shall be commenced within a reasonable time however no more than thirty (30) days after the later of (i) the date that such damage or destruction occurred, (ii) the date that all permits and other approvals necessary to authorize such rebuilding have been issued following reasonable pursuit of the same by Lessee, and (iii) the date that any insurance proceeds payable to Lessor or its lender in conjunction with such damage or destruction, if any, have been made available to Lessee as set forth herein; thereafter, the repair shall be diligently pursued to completion. Lessee shall give Lessor at least fifteen (15) days written notice prior to commencing the repair to permit the Lessor to post appropriate notices of non-responsibility, and all such repair work shall be subject to the provisions of Section 14 hereof related to alterations, improvements and additions to the Property.

The proceeds of any insurance maintained under Section 10 hereof shall be made available to Lessee for payment of costs and expense of repair.

14. Waste; Alterations and Improvements; Trade Fixtures and Equipment.

Lessee shall not commit actual or constructive waste upon the Property. During the Lease Term, Lessee may construct any additions or improvements to the Property and make such structural or non-structural alterations to the Property as are reasonably necessary or desirable for Lessee's use of the Property for a Permitted Facility. All improvements, alterations, or additions shall be constructed by Lessee at Lessee's sole cost and expense. Prior to the commencement of construction of any additions, improvements, or alterations to the Property, Lessee shall give Lessor at least fifteen (15) days written notice to allow Lessor to post appropriate notices of nonresponsibility. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, without Lessor's prior written consent, Lessee shall not make any alterations that will decrease the value or function of the improvements located on the Property.

Lessee's right to make any alterations, improvements and additions shall be deemed conditioned upon Lessee acquiring a permit to do so from appropriate Governmental Authorities, the furnishing of a copy thereof to Lessor prior to the commencement of the work and the compliance by Lessee of all conditions of said permit in a prompt and expeditious manner. All alterations, improvements or other construction by Lessee shall be in compliance with all Legal Requirements, and all alterations and improvements shall be done and performed in good and workmanlike manner, using new and first quality materials. All costs of any such improvements shall be paid by Lessee.

Upon completion of any such work, Lessee shall submit to Lessor as-built plans of any structural, mechanical or interior utility improvements and alterations made, a swom construction statement, lien waivers from all persons or entities providing materials, services or equipment for the work completed and, if available, an endorsement to Lessor's policy of title insurance or other evidence from a title company confirming the absence of any liens or other matters of record related to the work performed.

Unless expressly released by Lessor in writing, all improvements or alterations shall be and remain, at the time of expiration or other termination of this Lease, the property of Lessor without payment or offset unless such improvements are not attached to the Property. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all plumbing, electrical, HVAC equipment, doors, ceiling and floor tiles, and wall coverings shall become the property of Lessor and remain in place on the Property upon expiration or other termination of this Lease.

During the Lease Term, Lessee shall have the right to locate in the Property such personal property, furniture, trade fixtures, and equipment (hereafter referred to as "Fixtures and Equipment") as shall be considered by Lessee to be appropriate or necessary to Lessee's use and occupancy of the Property.

All Fixtures and Equipment shall be provided by Lessee at Lessee's own cost and expense. During the term of this Lease, Lessee may remove any Fixtures and Equipment installed by Lessee, and any and all such Fixtures and Equipment shall remain the sole property of Lessee. Lessee shall perform (and pay all costs associated with) any and all restoration necessitated by the removal of Lessee's Fixtures and Equipment, including but not limited to damage resulting from removal of any of Lessee's signs in or about the Property.

Lessee shall keep the Property free and clear of all mechanic's, materialmen or similar liens, including, but not limited to, those resulting from the construction of alterations, improvements, additions, trade fixtures, and equipment performed by or for Lessee.

On final determination of the lien or claim of lien Lessee will immediately pay any judgment rendered, and all costs and charges, and shall cause the lien to be released or satisfied. In addition, Lessor may require Lessee to pay Lessor's reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in participating in such action if Lessor shall decide it is in its best interest to do so.

- 15. Indemnification. Lessee agrees to use and occupy the Property at its own risk and hereby releases Lessor and Lessor's agents and employees from all claims for any damage or injury to the full extent permitted by law. Lessee agrees that Lessor shall not be responsible or liable to Lessee or Lessee's employees, agents, customers or invitees for bodily injury, personal injury or property damage occasioned by the acts or omissions of any other lessee or such lessee's employees, agents, contractors, customers or invitees. In addition to other specific indemnification provisions set forth in this Lease, Lessee shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties from and against any and all Losses caused by, incurred or resulting from Lessee's use and occupancy of the Property, whether relating to its original design or construction, latent defects, alteration, maintenance, use by Lessee or any Person thereon, with supervision or otherwise, or from any breach of, default under, or failure to perform, any term or provision of this Lease by Lessee, its officers, employees, agents or other Persons. It is expressly understood and agreed that Lessee's obligations under this Section shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease for any reason.
- 16. Quiet Enjoyment. So long as Lessee shall pay the Rental and other Monetary Obligations herein provided and shall keep and perform all of the terms, covenants and conditions on its part herein contained, Lessee shall have, subject and subordinate to Lessor's rights herein, the right to the peaceful and quiet occupancy of the Property, subject to the Permitted Encumbrances, Laws and the WGI Agreement and any use or occupancy agreements, leases or licenses now affecting the Property or hereinafter made by Lessee.
- 17. Inspection; Right of Entry. Lessor and its authorized representatives shall have the right, at all reasonable times and upon giving reasonable prior notice (except in the event of an emergency, in which case no prior notice shall be required), to enter the Property or any part thereof and to inspect the same; to serve, post, or keep posted any notices required or allowed under the provisions of this Lease or by law; to show the Property to prospective brokers, agents, buyers, or persons interested in an exchange, at any time; and to show the Property to prospective tenants within two hundred forty (240) days prior to the expiration of this Lease or any time during the option period and to place upon the Property any "to let" or "for lease" signs at any time within two hundred forty (240) days prior to the expiration of this Lease. Lessee hereby waives any claim for damages for any injury or inconvenience to or interference with Lessee's business, any loss of occupancy or quiet enjoyment of the Property and any other loss occasioned by such entry, but, subject to Section 37, excluding damages arising as a result of the negligence or intentional misconduct of Lessor.

- A. Damage or Destruction to the Property; No Abatement of Rent. If the Property is damaged or destroyed as a result of fire or other casualty Lessee shall promptly restore the Property pursuant to the terms of Section 13 bereof. Notwithstanding the partial or total destruction of the Property and any part thereof, and notwithstanding whether the casualty is insured or not, there shall be no abatement of Rentals or of any other obligation of Lessee hereunder including, without limitation, payment of operating expenses, insurance premiums and Taxes, by reason of such damage or destruction unless the Lease is terminated by virtue of another provision of this Lease.
- B. Option to Terminate. If the Property is damaged or destroyed during the last one (1) year of the Lease Term to the extent that the Property is untenable, Lessee may terminate this Lease as of the date of such damage or destruction by giving written notice to Lessor of such election within thirty (30) days following the date of such fire or other casualty, in which case, all insurance proceeds related to the Property (other than attributable to Lessee's Fixtures and Equipment) will be paid over to Lessor, or if required by Lessor's Lender, to such lender.
- C. Termination Upon Taking. If as a consequence of a Taking, (i) any part of the convenience store building on the Property; or (ii) twenty-five percent (25 %) or more of the parking area at the Property shall be taken and Lessee determines in its reasonable discretion that such Taking will have a material adverse impact on the ability of Lessee to conduct its normal business operations from the Property, then, within thirty (30) days after the date on which Lessee receives written notice of such Taking, Lessee may terminate this Lease by written notice to Lessor which termination shall be effective as of the date the condemning authority takes actual possession of the portion of the Property that is subject to the Taking. If Lessee terminates this Lease, Lessor shall promptly refund to Lessee all unearned Annual Base Rental and other amounts paid in advance by Lessee.
- D. Obligation to Restore. If a Taking does not result in a termination of this Lease pursuant to Subsection C hereof, Lessee shall restore the Property to a condition similar in physical appearance to that which existed immediately prior to the Taking to the extent possible such that Lessee can conduct its normal business operations, Lessee shall commence such restoration within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of the taking and shall complete such restoration within six (6) months after the occurrence of the taking.
- E. Condemnation Award. Any condemnation award payable during the term of this Lease shall belong to and be paid to Lessor, including but not limited to awards payable with respect to damage to either the fee or leasehold estates, except that Lessee shall receive from the award the following:
 - i. If Lessee exercises its rights to terminate this Lease, the portion of the award, if any, attributable to Lessee's Equipment or Fixtures that are taken in the Taking and the unamortized cost of any leasehold improvements made to the Property by Lessee after the date hereof that are taken in the Taking.

Sample Lease 1/4/2006

- ii. The portion of the award, if any, attributable to severance damages for the repair or restoration of the Property (herein called "repair"), but only if Lessee does not exercise Lessee's right to terminate the Lease and further provided, that such damages shall be deposited and disbursed in accordance with the provisions hereof related to the handling of insurance proceeds that are applied to a repair of the Property and Lessee shall promptly commence and diligently complete the repair so that upon completion the Property will have a character and commercial value as nearly as possible equal to the value of the Property immediately prior to the taking, and further provided that, in the event such damages are insufficient to cover the cost of repair, then any amounts required over the amount thereof that are required to complete said repair shall be promptly deposited with the disbursing entity by Lessee in advance of commencing the repair.
- iii. Additionally, if this Lease is terminated as a result of any such taking, Lessee shall be permitted to recover its relocation expenses and the going concern value of Lessee's business from the condemning authority (but not from Lessor or the portion of the award otherwise payable to Lessor) as provided by law.
- 19. Intentionally Deleted.
- 20. Default, Conditional Limitations, Remedies and Measure of Damages.
- A. Event of Default. Each of the following shall be an event of default by Lessee under this Lease (each, an "Rvent of Default"):
 - (i) If any Rental or other Monetary Obligation due under this Lease is not paid within five (5) Business Days of notice it is past due, provided, however, that if within the first twelve (12) months of the Lease Term, Lessor has given two (2) such notices to Lessee, then a default shall be deemed to have occurred when such failure has continued for three (3) business days after the same is due, without notice thereof by Lessor to Lessee; and further, provided, however, that after the first twelve (12) months of the Lease Term, if Lessor has given such notice to Lessee within the preceding twelve (12) months, then a default shall be deemed to have occurred when such failure has continued for three (3) Business Days after the same is due, without notice thereof by Lessor to Lessee;
 - (ii) if there is an Insolvency Event;
 - (iii) if Lessee fails to observe or perform any of the other covenants, conditions or obligations of Lessee in this Lease; provided, however, if any such failure does not involve the payment of any Monetary Obligation, does not place any rights or property of Lessor in immediate jeopardy, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, then such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default hereunder, unless otherwise expressly provided herein, unless and until Lessor shall have given Lessee notice thereof and a period of thirty (30) days shall have elapsed, during which period Lessee may correct or cure such failure, upon failure of which an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred bereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required. If such failure cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, and Lessee is diligently pursuing a cure of such failure, then Lessee shall have a reasonable period to cure such failure beyond such thirty (30) day period. If Lessee shall fail to correct or cure such failure within such period and said period is not extended by the parties, an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required;

- (iv) if Lessee shall be liquidated or dissolved or shall begin proceedings towards its liquidation or dissolution; or
- B. Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, with or without notice or demand, except as otherwise expressly provided herein or such other notice as may be required by statute and cannot be waived by Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to exercise, at its option, concurrently, successively, or in any combination, all remedies available at law or in equity, including without limitation, any one or more of the following:
 - To terminate this Lease, whereupon Lessee's right to possession of the Property shall cease and this Lease, except as to Lessee's liability, shall be terminated. Upon such termination, Lessor shall be entitled to recover liquidated. damages equal to the total of (i) the cost of recovering possession of the Property; (ii) the unpaid Rental earned at the time of termination, plus interest at the Default Rate thereon; (iii) late charges and interest at the Default Rate on the unpaid Rental; (iv) the present value of the balance of the Base Annual Rental for the remainder of the Lease Term using a discount rate of four percent (4%), less the present value of the reasonable rental value of the Property for the balance of the Term remaining after a one-year period following repossession using a discount rate of four percent (4%); (v) costs of operating the Property until relet and the reasonable costs of performing any obligations of Lessee under this Lease to be performed upon termination or expiration of this Lease (including but not limited to the Lessee's obligations under Sections 12.D and 27 hereof); and (vi) any other sum of money and damages reasonably necessary to compensate Lessor for the detriment caused by Lessee's default.
 - (ii) To the extent not prohibited by applicable law, to reenter and take possession of the Property (or any part thereof) without being deemed guilty in any manner of trespass or becoming liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom, without resort to legal or judicial process, procedure or action. No notice from Lessor hereunder or under a forcible entry and detainer statute or similar law shall constitute an election by Lessor to terminate this Lease unless such notice specifically so states. If Lessee shall, after default, voluntarily give up possession of the Property to Lessor, deliver to Lessor or its agents the keys to the Property, or both, such actions shall be deemed to be in compliance with Lessor's

Sample Lease 1/4/2006 rights and the acceptance thereof by Lessor or its agents shall not be deemed to constitute a termination of the Lease. Lessor reserves the right following any reentry and/or reletting to exercise its right to terminate this Lease by giving Lessee written notice thereof, in which event this Lease will terminate, and Lessor may recover liquidated damages as set forth in Subsection (i) above.

- (iii) To bring an action against Lessee for any damages sustained by Lessor or any equitable relief available to Lessor.
- (iv) To relet the Property or any part thereof for such term or terms (including a term which extends beyond the original Lease Term), at such rentals and upon such other terms as Lessor, in its sole discretion, may determine, with all proceeds received from such reletting being applied to the Rentai and other Monetary Obligations due from Lessee in such order as Lessor may, in it sole discretion, determine, which other Monetary Obligations include, without limitation, all commercially reasonable repossession costs, brokerage commissions, attorneys' fees and expenses and repair costs. Lessor reserves the right following any reentry and/or reletting to exercise its right to terminate this Lease by giving Lessee written notice thereof, in which event this Lease will terminate as specified in said notice.
- (v) To recover from Lessee all Costs paid or incurred by Lessor as a result of such breach, regardless of whether or not legal proceedings are actually commenced.
- (vi) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, at Lessor's sole option but without any obligation to do so, correct such breach or default and charge Lessee all Costs incurred by Lessor therein. Any sum or sums so paid by Lessor, together with interest at the Default Rate, shall be deemed to be Additional Rental hereunder and shall be immediately due from Lessee to Lessor. Any such acts by Lessor in correcting Lessee's breaches or defaults hereunder shall not be deemed to cure said breaches or defaults or constitute any waiver of Lessor's right to exercise any or all remedies set forth herein.
- (vii) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, except as required herein, set off any money of Lessee held by Lessor under this Lease.
- (viii) To seek any equitable relief available to Lessor, including, without limitation, the right of specific performance.

All powers and remedies given by this Section to Lessor, subject to applicable Law, shall be cumulative and not exclusive of one another or of any other right or remedy or of any other powers and remedies available to Lessor under this Lease, by judicial proceedings or otherwise, to enforce the performance or observance of the covenants and agreements of Lessoe contained in this Lease, and no delay or omission of Lessor to exercise any right or power accruing upon the occurrence of any Event of Default shall impair any other or subsequent Event of Default or impair any rights or remedies consequent thereto. Every power and remedy given by this Section or by Law to Lessor may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by Lessor, subject at all times to Lessor's right in its sole judgment to discontinue any work commenced by Lessor or change any course of action undertaken by Lessor.

C. Default by Lessor. Lessor shall be in default under this Lease if Lessor fails or refuses to perform any obligation of Lessor under the terms of this Lease, and if the failure to perform the obligation is not cured within thirty (30) days after notice of the default has been given by Lessee to Lessor. If the default cannot reasonably be cured within thirty (30) days, then Lessor shall not be in default if Lessor commences to cure the default within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default thereafter.

Lessee, at any time after expiration of the cure period provided above and a subsequent written notice to Lessor, may cure the default at Lessor's cost. If Lessee at any time, as a result of Lessor's default, pays any sum or performs any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Lessee shall be due immediately from Lessor to Lessee at the time the sum is paid, and if paid at a later date shall bear interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date the sum is paid by Lessee until the date Lessee is reimbursed by Lessor. Any amounts due from Lessor to Lessee pursuant to this Section 15 may be deducted or offset against Lessee's Base Monthly Rental.

and/or the Property shall not be subordinate to any liens or encumbrances placed upon the Property by or resulting from any act of Lessee, and nothing herein contained shall be construed to require such subordination by Lessor. Notwithstanding the terms of or the parties to the WGI Agreement and any other agreements pursuant to which Persons other than Lessee have the right to occupy any portion of the Property, such agreements shall, as between Lessor and Lessee, be treated as an instrument subordinate to Lessor's interest in the Property and this Lease. Lessee shall keep the Property free from any liens for work performed, materials furnished or obligations incurred by Lessee. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT LESSEE IS NOT AUTHORIZED TO PLACE OR ALLOW TO BE PLACED ANY LIEN, MORTGAGE, DEED OF TRUST, SECURITY INTEREST OR ENCUMBRANCE OF ANY KIND UPON ALL OR ANY PART OF THE PROPERTY OR LESSEE'S LEASEHOLD INTEREST THEREIN, AND ANY SUCH PURPORTED TRANSACTION SHALL BE VOID.

This Lease at all times shall automatically be subordinate to the lien of any and all Deeds of Trust now or hereafter placed upon the Property by Lessor, provided, that the holder of such interest shall not disturb Lessee's use and enjoyment of Lessee's rights under this Lease so long as Lessee is not in default hereunder. Lessee covenants and agrees to execute and deliver, upon demand, such further instruments which are acceptable to Lessee, subordinating this Lease to the lien of any or all such Deeds of Trust as shall be desired by Lessor, or any present or proposed Deeds of Trust; provided, that the terms and provisions of any such instrument are commercially reasonable. The Lessee acknowledges that the terms and provisions of the Instrument attached hereto as Exhibit C are commercially reasonable.

If any Lessor's Lender, mortgagee, receiver or other secured party elects to have this Lease and the interest of Lessee hereunder be superior to any such Deed of Trust and evidences such election by notice given to Lessee, then this Lease and the interest of Lessee hereunder shall be deemed superior to any such Deed of Trust, whether this Lease was executed before or after such Deed of Trust and in that event such mortgagee, receiver or other secured party shall have the same rights with respect to this Lease as if it had been executed and delivered prior to the execution and delivery of such Deed of Trust and had been assigned to such mortgagee, receiver or other secured party.

In the event any purchaser or assignee of any mortgagee or deed of trust holder at a foreclosure sale acquires title to the Property, or in the event that any mortgagee or any assignee otherwise succeeds to the rights of Lessor as Lessor under this Lease, Lessee shall attorn to mortgagee or deed of trust holder or such purchaser or assignee, as the case may be (a "Successor Lessor"), and recognize the Successor Lessor as lessor under this Lease, and, if the Successor Lessor in its sole discretion elects to recognize Lessee's tenancy under this Lease, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect as a direct lease between the Successor Lessor and Lessee, provided that the Successor Lessor shall only be liable for any obligations of Lessor under this Lease which accrue after the date that such Successor Lessor acquires title. The foregoing provision shall be self-operative and effective without the execution of any further instruments.

Lessee shall give written notice to any Lessor's Lender of whom Lessee is notified of in writing of any breach or default by Lessor of any of its obligations under this Lease and give such lender or mortgagee the same rights to which Lessor might be entitled to cure such default before Lessee may exercise any remedy with respect thereto. Upon request by Lessor, Lessee shall authorize Lessor to release to Lessee's financial statements delivered to Lessor pursuant to this Lease to such Lessor's Lender.

22. Estoppel Certificate and Other Documents. At any time, and from time to time, each party shall, promptly and in no event later than ten (10) days after a request from the other execute, acknowledge and deliver to the requesting party, as the case may be, a certificate in the form supplied by the requesting party, certifying: (A) that this Lease is in full force and effect and has not been modified (or if modified, setting forth all modifications), or, if this Lease is not in full force and effect, the certificate shall so specify the reasons therefor; (B) the commencement and expiration dates of the Lease Term; (C) the date to which the Rentals have been paid under this Lease and the amount thereof then payable; (D) whether there are then any existing defaults by Lessee or Lessor in the performance of its obligations under this Lease, and, if there are any such defaults, specifying the nature and extent thereof; (E) that no notice has been received by the certifying party of any default under this Lease which has not been cured, except as to defaults specified in the certificate; (F) the capacity of the person executing such certificate, and that such person is duly authorized to execute the same on behalf of Lessee; and; (G) and any other information reasonably requested by the requesting party.

Lessor and Lessee further agree to reasonably negotiate execute all reasonable documents, including without limitation, estoppel certificates, non-disturbance certificates and other documents requested by WGI, any Lessor's Lender or any lender of Lessee in connection with a loan to be obtained by Lessor or Lessee, or in connection with a sale, assignment, sublease or other disposition of the Lessor's interest under this Lease.

23. Assignment/Subletting. Lessee's interest in this Lease shall not, voluntarily, involuntarily, or by operation of law, be assigned to any third person or entity without the prior written consent of Lessor which will not be unreasonably withhold conditioned or delayed.

In the event of an assignment of Lessee's interest under this Lease to a third person or entity which has been approved by the Lessor, the original Lessee shall be relieved from any and all further obligations under the terms of this Lease upon delivery to Lessor of an originally executed assumption of all of Lessee's obligations under this Lease by the assignee, and upon cure of all then existing defaults of Lessee under the terms of this Lease.

Other than for the WGI Agreement and any Replacement WGI Agreement, and any other agreements pursuant to which experienced and reputable operators are permitted to occupy discreet portions of the convenience store building located on the site for uses that are complementary to or extensions of Lessee's gas station and convenience store operations (e.g., quick-service restaurants, deli and sandwich shops, coffee shops, juice shops, postal contract units and/or UPS/Federal Express services) when such uses are not in violation of Legal Requirements or the Permitted Encumbrances(such other agreements are referred to herein as "Permitted Subleases"), Lessee may not sublease all or any part of the Property without the prior written consent of the Lessor, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. In no event will any Permitted Subleases, or any other subleases that Lessor consents to relieve Lessee of any liability hereunder during the period of any such subletting. Additionally, Lessee shall give Lessor at least thirty (30) days advance notice of any proposed Permitted Sublease, which notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the form of the Permitted Sublease.

Each Permitted Sublease, and any other sublease that Lessor may consent to pursuant to the foregoing paragraph shall provide that (i) the term thereof will not exceed the Initial Term hereof and any extensions of the Initial Term that are permitted hereunder; (ii) the sublease and subtenant shall be subject to and bound by all the terms and conditions of this Lease (except that the Lessee shall continue to pay all Rental and Monetary Obligations hereunder and Lessee shall collect any rents owed by the subtenant pursuant to the sublease); (iii) the sublease shall state that, at Lessor's election, the subtenant will attorn to Lessor and recognize Lessor as Lessee's successor under the sublease for the balance of the sublease term if this Lease is surrendered by Lessee or terminated by reason of Lessee's default.

Date Saturday, February 17^h, 2007

Over the past several weeks, Jerry Herbst of Terrible Herbst, Inc., in Las Vegas, Nevada, has been in discussions with us to acquire the convenience store assets of Berry-Hinckley Industries.

The Herbst's business is the second largest petroleum provider in Nevada after Berry-Hinckley, they have a 50% retail marketshare in Clark County (Las Vegas), and through a separate company controlled by the Herbst's three sons, operate in excess of 7,000 slot machines on a route and four casinos in Southern Nevada.

As a landlord of one of our properties, Mr. Herbst has requested that you consider certain changes to the leases that you have with Berry-Hinckley as a condition of assignment. We have attached an Estoppel, as well as a Lease modification document. Mr. Herbst has also attached a letter, in which he offers to personally guaranty your lease, as well as a brief summary on his net worth and company description. With this transaction, Mr. Herbst is also acquiring Berry-Hinckley's option to own Winners Gaming, Inc. which operates the slot machines in all of our convenience stores.

Our goal is to have all Estoppels and other documents agreed to and executed by February 23, 2006, and they will then be held by Chicago Title Insurance Company in escrow until closing.

Please address any concerns to Philip Tripoli, Berry-Hinckley's Vice President of Development at (775) 223-3590 or by e-mail at Philip tripoli@berry-hinckley.com. If you refer this on to your attorney to review, please have them communicate directly with Berry-Hinckley's counsel:

December 14, 2006

Dear Sir,

It is with pleasure that I am writing to you to inform you of our proposed transaction with PAMCo, Inc. to acquire the C-Store assets of Berry Hinckley Industries ("BHI"). The BHI C-Stores are strategically important to my family of companies as we are in the process of entering the Northern Nevada market. These assets will create a significant platform for us to grow our business.

In our review of the existing leases we identified a few minor provisions which we feel need modification. We are forwarding to you a contract amendment and consent form that we are asking you to execute and return to us. In exchange for this amendment and consent I will be willing to personally guarantee the lease obligation.

I look forward to establishing a good tenant/landford relationship with you and am very excited about closing the proposed transaction.

Regards.

The Guarantor unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guarantees the timely payment and performance of each of BHI's obligations arising out of and under the Lease (such obligations, the "Guaranteed Obligations"). The Guarantor's guaranty made hereby is a guaranty of timely payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations and not merely of collectibility or enforceability of such obligations.
- Remedies and Rights of the Lessor. The Guarantor agrees that if and to the extent that BHI either (a) fails to satisfy any of the Guaranteed Obligations and fails to remedy such failure within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice from the Lessor of such failure, or (b) is subject to a pending petition for relief under Chapter 6 or Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, the Guarantor will be directly responsible for the full extent of any unsatisfied Guaranteed Obligations. This Agreement is an unconditional, absolute, present and continuing guaranty of payment and performance, and will remain in full force and effect without regard to, and the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder shall not be impaired, affected or released by, any of the following: (i) any modification, supplement, extension or amendment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Lease; (ii) any extension, indulgence or other action in respect thereto or therefor; (iii) any failure or delay by the Lessor or BHI in exercising any right or power under the Lease; (iv) any invalidity or unenforceability in any respect of, or any irregularity or other defect in any of, the Lease or Guaranteed Obligations; (v) any exercise or nonexercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege in respect of this Agreement or any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (vi) any transfer of the assets of Lessor to, or any consolidation or merger of the Lessor with or into, any other entity; (vii) any voluntary or involuntary liquidation.

The Guarantor hereby waives any defense to its obligations hereunder that might arise as a result of any of the foregoing, and hereby waives the effect of any fact, circumstance or event of any nature whatsoever that would exonerate, or constitute or give rise to a defense to, the obligation of a surety or guarantor. Without limitation, except to the extent specifically provided in Paragraph 2 hereof, the Guarantor waives any right it may have to require the Lessor, and any obligation the Lessor may have, to proceed first against BHI or exhaust any remedies that it may have against BHI in respect of non-payment or non-performance of the Guaranteed Obligations, before demand for payment or performance by the Guarantor under this Agreement.

The Guarantor acknowledges that the rights and remedies herein provided are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies that the Lessor may otherwise have at law or in equity, and shall not prejudice the Lessor's right to assert any other claim under the Lease.

- 3. Duration of Agreement. The term of this Agreement will begin on, and this Agreement shall be of no force and effect until, the closing of that certain Stock Purchase Agreement by and among Guarantor, or a company controlled by him, and the stockholders of PAMCo. The Guaranteed Obligations will not be considered fully performed, satisfied and discharged (a) unless and until all obligations of BHI to the Lessor pursuant to the Lease have been fully and completely performed, satisfied and discharged, or (b) to the extent any claim by the Lessor against BHI remains outstanding.

Any purported assignment in violation of this section shall be null and void. All covenants and agreements in this Agreement made by the Guarantor shall bind and inure to the benefit of its successors and permitted assigns.
- 5. Integration: Modification: Waiver. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior understandings of the parties. No supplement, modification or amendment of this Agreement will be hinding unless executed in writing by the Guarantor and acknowledged and accepted by the Lessor or the then beneficiary of this Agreement. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement will be deemed to be or shall constitute a continuing waiver. No waiver will be binding unless executed in writing by the party making the waiver.

GUARANTY AGREEMENT

This GUARANTY AGREEMENT, dated as of this ______ day of March, 2007 (this "Agreement"), is inade by Jerry Herbst, an individual (the "Guarantor"), for the benefit of Overland Development Corporation Inc. and Larry J. Willard, Trustee of the Larry James Willard Trust (collectively, the "Lessor").

RECITALS:

- A. The Lessor and Berry-Hinckley Industries, a Nevada corporation ("BHI"), are parties to that certain Lease Agreement for 7695 South Virginia, Reno, Nevada (the "Lease").
- B. The Guarantor desires to enter into this Agreement in order to induce the Landlord to (i) provide consent under the Lease to a change of control of P.A. Morabito & Co., Limited ("PAMCo"), the corporation that owns all the stock of BHI and/or (ii) enter into an amendment to the Lease.

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Guarantor hereby guarantees, promises and undertakes as follows:

- 1. Guaranty. The Guarantor unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guarantees the timely payment and performance of each of BHI's obligations arising out of and under the Lease (such obligations, the "Guaranteed Obligations"). The Guarantor's guaranty made hereby is a guaranty of timely payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations and not merely of collectibility or enforceability of such obligations.
- Remedies and Rights of the Lessor. The Guarantor agrees that if and to the extent that BHI either (a) fails to satisfy any of the Guaranteed Obligations and fails to remedy such failure within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice from the Lessor of such failure, or (b) is subject to a pending petition for relief under Chapter 7 or Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, the Guarantor will be directly responsible for the full extent of any unsatisfied Guaranteed Obligations. This Agreement is an unconditional, absolute, present and continuing guaranty of payment and performance, and will remain in full force and effect without regard to, and the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder shall not be impaired, affected or released by, any of the following: (i) any modification, supplement, extension or amendment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Lease; (ii) any extension, indulgence or other action in respect thereto or therefor; (iii) any failure or delay by the Lessor or BHI in exercising any right or power under the Lease; (iv) any invalidity or unenforceability in any respect of, or any irregularity or other defect in any of, the Lease or Guaranteed Obligations; (v) any exercise or non-exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege in respect of this Agreement or any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (vi) any transfer of the assets of Lessor to, or any consolidation or merger of the Lessor with or into, any other entity; (vii) any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets, receivership, insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or similar proceeding affecting BHI or any of its assets; or (viii) any allegation or contest of the validity of the Lease or this Agreement. The Guarantor hereby waives any defense to its obligations hereunder that might arise as a result of any of the foregoing, and hereby waives the effect of any fact, circumstance or event of any nature whatsoever that would exonerate, or constitute or give rise to a defense to, the obligation of a surety or guarantor. Without limitation, except to the extent specifically provided in Paragraph 2 hereof, the Guarantor waives any right it may have to require the Lessor, and any obligation the Lessor may have, to proceed first against BHI or exhaust any remedies that it may have against BHI in respect of non-payment or non-performance of the Guaranteed Obligations, before demand for payment or performance by the Guarantor under this Agreement.

The Guarantor acknowledges that the rights and remedies herein provided are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies that the Lessor may otherwise have at law or in equity, and shall not prejudice the Lessor's right to assert any other claim under the Lease.

- Duration of Agreement. The term of this Agreement will begin on, and this Agreement shall be of no force and effect until, the closing of that certain Stock Purchase Agreement by and among Guarantor, or a company controlled by him, and the stockholders of PAMCo. This Agreement will continue in full force and effect and the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder will not be discharged until the earlier of (i) the date on which the Guaranteed Obligations are fully performed, satisfied and discharged or until BHI's liability to the Lessor under the Lease shall have been completely performed, satisfied and discharged, whichever occurs first, or (ii) upon a change in the control of BHI provided that the Lessor has consented to such change of control, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. For the purpose of the foregoing sentence, "change in the control of BHI" shall mean the transfer, on a cumulative basis, of 50% or more of the voting control of BHI to a party not owned, directly or indirectly, by the Guarantor, Edward Herbst, Timothy Herbst or Troy Herbst. Any transfer of Guarantor's interest in BHI other than upon a change in the control of BHI with Lessor's consent pursuant to section (ii) above will not cause this Agreement or Guarantor's obligations bereunder to terminate. The Guaranteed Obligations will not be considered fully performed, satisfied and discharged (a) unless and until all obligations of BHI to the Lessor pursuant to the Lease have been fully and completely performed, satisfied and discharged, or (b) to the extent any claim by the Lessor against BHI remains outstanding.
- 4. No Assignment. The rights and obligations of the Guarantor hereunder may not be assigned without the prior written consent of the Lessor or the then beneficiary of this Agreement. EXHIBIT 5

3. RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as reserving to Owner any right to exercise any control over, or to direct in any respect Operator's performance of the Services; the entire control and direction of the Services shall be and remain in Operator, subject only to Operator's performance of the obligations of this Agreement in compliance with all laws and regulations governing the operation of the Location and the Services provided at the Location. It is expressly understood and agreed that it is not the purpose or intention of this Agreement to create between the parties hereto, nor shall the same be construed as creating, nor shall Owner or Operator ever assert that this Agreement creates or created the relation of employer and employee, co-employer or joint employer, any type of partnership relationship, a franchise relationship under the Federal Petroleum Marketing Practices Act or any state franchise laws, or any joint venture. Neither Operator nor any person performing any duties or engaged in any work pursuant to this Agreement for or on behalf of Operator is authorized to impose on Owner any obligations or liability whatsoever except as expressly provided herein.

4. COMPENSATION TO OPERATOR.

In consideration of Operator performing the Services and the other mutual covenants set forth herein, Owner shall pay to Operator the sum of Ten Thousand and No/100ths Dollars ($10,000.00) per month (the "Fee"), and Owner then shall be entitled to all Net Profits (below defined) generated at the Location during each month of the term of this Agreement. The Fee and Net Profits payment shall be payable as set forth below.

Operator shall have fifty (50) days from the end of each month to tender the Net Profits to Owner and provide Owner with an accounting of the subject month's Net Profits. Based thereon, commencing on July 20, 2013, and continuing no later than the twentieth (20th) day of each month thereafter as necessary depending on the length of the term of this Agreement, Operator shall tender to Owner the subject month's Net Profits attributable to the Location, minus the Fee, which such Fee shall be retained by Operator. In the event that the Net Profits for any given month are negative or otherwise not sufficient to pay the Fee, Owner shall not be entitled to any payment and shall instead pay to Operator the amount of the negative Net Profits (if applicable) plus the balance of the Fee within three (3) days of receipt of written demand therefore. As used herein, the term Net Profits shall mean the gross receipts collected by Operator in operating the Location in any given month, minus any and all expenses incurred by Operator in operating the Location during such month including, but not limited to, the cost of all insurance required to be carried by Operator as well as the actual cost to Operator of all inventory sold during such month (regardless of whether Operator purchased such inventory during the subject month, or any previous month). Each payment of Net Profits to Owner hereunder (or alternatively, demand by Operator for payment of the Fee and/or negative Net Profits) shall be accompanied by documentation, certified by an officer of Operator to be accurate, supporting Operator's calculation of Net Profits for the subject month.

10. CONFLICTING PROVISIONS.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, Operator's use and occupancy of the Location shall be on the terms and provisions as set forth in the Lease. In the event of a conflict between the terms and provisions set forth in the Lease and the terms and provisions set forth in this Agreement, the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Owner and Operator have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date.

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT (this "Lease") is made as of December_	, 2005 by and between [EDWARD C. WOOLEY and JUDITH A. WOOLEY], a ("Lessor"), whose address is	, and BERRY-
HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES, a Nevada corporation ("Lessee"), whose address in	s 425 Maestro
Drive, Reno, NV 89511

In consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, Lessor and Lessee hereby covenant and agree as follows:

- 1. Certain Defined Terms. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in Exhibit A hereto.
- 2. Lease of Property; Use; Possession. In consideration of the Rentals and other Monetary Obligations to be paid by Lessee and of the other terms, covenants and conditions on Lessee's part to be kept and performed, Lessor hereby leases to Lessee, and Lessee hereby takes and leases, the Property (as such term is defined in Exhibit A attached hereto and which Property is located at the address set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto and situated on the real property legally described in Exhibit B attached hereto, subject to the Permitted Encumbrances, all Legal Requirements (including any existing violation thereof), and the condition of the Property as of the Effective Date; provided, however, that the recital of the Permitted Encumbrances herein shall not be construed as a revival of any Permitted Encumbrance which may have expired or been terminated. During the Lease Term, the Property shall be used solely for the operation of a Permitted Facility, and related purposes such as ingress, egress and parking.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Lessee waives the implied warranty of suitability of the Property and Lessee acknowledges that it has accepted the Property "as is," in its current condition, with no representations, warranties or covenants, express or implied, on the part of the Lessor with respect to condition of the same or the suitability of the Property for Lessee's intended use.

3. Lease Term; Extension. The initial term of this Lease ("Initial Term") shall commence May 1, 2006 ("Effective Date") and shall expire at midnight on April 30, 2006 ("Expiration Date"), unless terminated sooner as provided in this Lease and as may be extended as provided herein. The time period during which this Lease shall actually be in effect, including any Extension Term, is referred to herein as the "Lease Term." Lessee shall have the right and option (each, an "Extension Option") to extend the Initial Term for two (2) additional successive periods of five (5) years each (each, an "Extension Term"), pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Lease then in effect. Lessee may only exercise the Extension Options by giving written notice thereof to Lessor of its election to do so first, no later than two hundred forty (240) days prior to the Expiration Date and two hundred forty (240) days prior to the immediately preceding Extension Term, as the case may be. If written notice of the exercise of any Extension Option is not received by Lessor by the applicable dates described above, then this Lease shall terminate on the last day of the Initial Term or, if applicable, the last day of the Extension Term then in effect.

4. Rental and Other Monetary Obligations.

- each calendar month, Lessee shall pay in advance the Base Monthly Rental; provided, however, if the Effective Date is a date other than the first day of the month, Lessee shall pay to Lessor (or any other party designated by Lessor) on the Effective Date the Base Monthly Rental prorated by multiplying the Base Monthly Rental by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days remaining in the month (including the Effective Date) for which Rental is being paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in such month. During the Extension Terms, if any, Lessee shall pay the Rental (including the Base Monthly Rental) in the manner set forth in this Section 4. Unless otherwise specifically stated to the contrary herein, Lessee shall perform all its obligations under this Lease at its sole cost and expense and shall pay all Rental and any other Monetary Obligation due hereunder when due and payable, without notice or demand.
- B. Adjustments. On the first Adjustment Date and on each Adjustment Date thereafter, the Base Annual Rental shall increase by an amount equal to the Rent Adjustment. The "Rent Adjustment" shall be an amount equal to two percent (2%) of the Base Annual Rental in effect immediately prior to the applicable Adjustment Date. The Adjustment Date shall be on the annual anniversary of the Effective Date.
- C. Additional Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge, as additional rental ("Additional Rental"), all sums of money required to be paid by Lessee under this Lease which are not specifically referred to as Base Annual Rental or Base Monthly Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge any Additional Rental when the same shall become due, provided that amounts which are billed to Lessor or any third party, but not to Lessee, shall be paid within five (5) days after Lessor's demand for payment thereof or, if later, when the same are due. In no event shall Lessee be required to pay to Lessor any item of Additional Rental that Lessee is obligated to pay and has paid to any third party pursuant to any provision of this Lease.
- D. Payment of Rental and Other Monetary Obligations. All Rental and other Monetary Obligations which Lessee is required to pay hereunder shall be the unconditional obligation of Lessee and shall be payable in full when due without any setoff, abatement, deferment, deduction or counterclaim whatsoever, except as set forth herein. All payments of Base Monthly Rental and any other Monetary Obligations payable to Lessor shall be remitted to Lessor at Lessor's address set forth in the first paragraph of this Lease or such other address as Lessor may designate pursuant to Section 24 hereof.
- E. Late Payment Charge. Lessee acknowledges that late payment by Lessee to Lessor of Rental will cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of such costs being extremely difficult and impracticable to fix in advance. Such costs include, without limitation, processing and accounting charges, and late charges that may be imposed on Lessor by the terms of any encumbrance and note secured by any encumbrance covering the Property. Therefore, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee to Lessor pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, then Lessee shall pay to Lessor, as a late payment charge, five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment. Additionally, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, such payment shall bear interest at the Default Rate until received by Lessor. The late payment charge and default interest shall be paid to Lessor at the time of payment of the delinquent amount. The late payment charge and the default interest charge shall compensate Lessor for the expenses incurred by Lessor in financing, collecting and processing the late payment. The parties agree that the late charge and the default interest charge represent a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs that Lessor will incur by reason of late payment by Lessee.

- Gaming. Lessor hereby conditionally assigns to Lessee all leases, written or oral. and all agreements for use or occupancy of the Property together with any and all extensions and renewals thereof and any and all further leases, subleases, lettings or agreements (including subleases thereof and tenancies following attornment) upon or covering the use or occupancy of the Property all of which leases, agreements, subleases and tenancies are herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Assigned Leases"; (ii) the immediate and continuing right to collect and receive all of the rents, income, receipts, revenues, issues and profits now due or which may become due or which may now or hereafter become due from or out of the Assigned Leases or any part thereof, including, but not limited to, security deposits, minimum rents, additional rents, parking rents, deficiency rents and liquidated damages following default, any premium payable by any tenant upon the exercise of a cancellation privilege contained in its Lease; all proceeds payable under any policy of insurance covering loss of rents resulting from untenantability caused by destruction or damage to the Property; any and all rights and claims of any kind which Lessor has or hereafter may have against the tenants under the Assigned Leases and any subtenants and other occupants of the Property; any award granted Lessor after the date hereof in any court proceeding involving any tenant in any bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization proceedings in any state or federal court and any and all payments made by any tenant in lieu of rent (any and all such moneys, rights and claims identified in this paragraph are herein sometimes referred to as the "Rents" and sometimes as the "Rent"); and (iii) all of the rights, powers and privileges of Lessor (A) to accept prepayment of more than one (1) monthly installment of the Rent thereunder, and (B) except with respect to the Assigned Lease, (I) to cancel, terminate or accept the surrender of any Assigned Lease, and (II) to amend, modify or abridge any of the terms, covenants or conditions of any Assigned Lease. The assignment contained in this Section 5 and Lessee's interest in the Assigned Leases shall become void and of no further force or effect upon the expiration or early termination of this Lease and upon such event, Lessor shall be the sole party with any interest as a landlord or lessor in the Assigned Leases. Furthermore, Lessee shall have no right to collect any amounts under the Assigned Leases upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default and all such amounts shall be paid to Lessor during any such period.
- 6. Nevada Gaming Control Board. Lessor will follow all laws of the State of Nevada and cooperate with WGI in making application to the Nevada Gaming Control Board as may be required.

- Rentals To Be Net to Lessor. The Base Annual Rental payable hereunder shall 7. be net to Lessor, so that this Lease shall yield to Lessor the Rentals specified during the Lease Term, and all Costs and obligations of every kind and nature whatsoever relating to the Property shall be performed and paid by Lessee, including but not limited to all impositions, operating charges, maintenance charges, construction costs and any other charges, costs and expenses now existing or that arise or may be contemplated under the Permitted Encumbrances or otherwise. all maintenance and repair expenses, all utility expenses, all Taxes, all premiums for insurance required to be maintained by Lessee pursuant to the terms hereof and all other expenses, charges, assessments and costs associated with the Property or otherwise provided to be paid by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease. All such charges, costs and expenses shall constitute Additional Rental and upon the failure of Lessee to pay any of such costs, charges or expenses, Lessor shall have the same rights and remedies as otherwise provided in this Lease for the failure of Lessee to pay Base Annual Rental. It is the intention of the parties except as expressly provided herein that this Lease shall not be terminable for any reason by Lessee, and that Lessee shall in no event be entitled to any abatement of, or reduction in, Rental payable under this Lease, except as otherwise expressly provided herein. Any present or future law to the contrary shall not alter this agreement of the parties.
- 8. Taxes and Assessments. Lessee shall pay, prior to the earlier of delinquency or the accrual of interest on the unpaid balance, one hundred percent (100%) of the following (collectively, "Taxes"): all taxes and assessments of every type or nature assessed against or imposed upon the Property or Lessee during the Lease Term, including without limitation, all ad valorem taxes, assessments and special assessments upon the Property or any part thereof and upon any personal property, trade fixtures and improvements located on the Property, whether belonging to Lessor or Lessee, or any tax or charge levied in lien of such taxes and assessments; all taxes, charges, license fees and or similar fees imposed by reason of the use of the Property by Lessee; and all excise, transaction, privilege, license, sales, use and other taxes upon the Rental or other Monetary Obligations hereunder, the leasehold estate of either party or the activities of either party pursuant to this Lease, and all interest, surcharges or service or other fees payable in connection with the foregoing.

Within thirty (30) days after each tax and assessment payment is required by this Section to be paid and upon request of Lessor, Lessee shall, upon prior written request of Lessor, provide Lessor with evidence reasonably satisfactory to Lessor that such payment was made in a timely fashion. Lessee may, at its own expense, contest or cause to be contested by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, any above-described item or lien with respect thereto, including, without limitation, the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any such item, provided that (A) neither the Property nor any interest therein would be in any danger of being sold, forfeited or lost by reason of such proceedings, (B) no monetary Event of Default has occurred, (C) Lessee shall promptly provide Lessor with copies of all notices received or delivered by Lessee and filings made by Lessee in connection with such proceeding, and (D) Lessee shall indemnify and hold Lessor harmless against any loss, Costs or damages arising from or related to such contest.

If Lessee shall fail to pay any Taxes when due and before any delinquency, penalty or interest is imposed on such Taxes, Lessor shall bave the right to pay the same after notice to Lessee, in which case Lessee shall repay in full such amount to Lessor with Lessee's next Base Monthly Rental installment together with interest at the Default Rate.

- 9. Utilities. Lessee shall contract, in its own name, for and pay when due (and hold Lessor free and harmless from) all charges for the connection and use of water, gas, electricity, telephone, garbage collection, sewer use and other utility services supplied to the Property during the Lease Term. All utility charges, assessments and fees for the last year of the Lease shall be prorated as of the termination date of this Lease. No full or partial utility deprivation including, but not limited to, blackout, brownout, or rationing, nor any loss of or damage to improvements related to disruption or failure of any utility service shall give rise to any abatement of Rentals nor give rise to any right of Lessee to offset Rentals or to terminate the Lease, unless caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Lessor or its agents, employees or contractors (but not of any other tenants or occupants of the Property). Lessor shall reasonably cooperate with Lessee, but without out-of-pocket expense to Lessor, in Lessee's efforts to restore utility service to the Property; provided, however, that if the utility service was disrupted due to Lessor's gross negligence or willful misconduct, then the cost of such restoration shall be borne by Lessor.
- 10. Insurance. Throughout the Lease Term, Lessee shall maintain, at its sole expense, the following types and amounts of insurance:
 - Insurance against loss or damage to the Property and all buildings and improvements thereon under an "all risk" insurance policy, which shall include coverage against all risks of direct physical loss, including loss by fire, lightning, and other risks normally included in the standard ISO special form (which shall include coverage for all risks commonly insured for properties similar to the Property in the Reno, Nevada area, including insurance coverage for damage caused by earthquake, flood, tomado, windstorm and other disasters for which insurance is customarily maintained for similar commercial properties). Such insurance shall be in amounts sufficient to prevent Lessor from becoming a co-insurer under the applicable policies, and in any event, after application of deductible, in amounts not less than 100% of the full insurable replacement cost. Such insurance shall contain an agreed valuation provision in lieu of any coinsurance clause, an increased cost of construction endorsement, debris removal coverage and a waiver of subrogation endorsement in favor of Lessor. While any portion of the improvements on the Property is being rebuilt on the Land, Lessee shall provide such property insurance in builder's risk completed value form, including coverage available on the so-called "all-risk" non-reporting form of policy in an amount equal to 100% of the full insurable replacement value of the improvements on the Property or such portion as is being rebuilt. The insurance policy shall insure Lessee as loss payee. No parties other than Lessor, Lessor's Lender and Lessee may be named as insureds or loss payees on such property insurance policy.
 - B. Commercial general liability insurance, including products and completed operation liability, covering Lessor and Lessee against bodily injury liability, property damage liability and personal and advertising injury, liquor liability coverage (to the extent liquor is sold or manufactured at the Property), garage liability coverage including without limitation any liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, repair, condition or operation of the Property or adjoining ways, streets, parking lots or sidewalks. Such insurance policy or policies shall contain a broad form contractual liability endorsement under which the insurer agrees to insure Lessee's obligations under Section 15 hereof to the extent insurable, and a "severability of interest" clause or endorsement which precludes the insurer from denying the claim of Lessee, Lessor or Lessor's Lender because of the negligence or other acts of the other, shall be in amounts of not less than $2,000,000 per occurrence for bodily injury and property damage, and $2,000,000 general aggregate per location, or such higher limits as Lessor may reasonably require from time to time or as may be required by the Permitted Encumbrances, and shall be of form and substance satisfactory to Lessor.

- C. Workers' compensation insurance in the statutorily mandated limits covering all persons employed by Lessee on the Property or any persons employed by Lessee in connection with any work done on or about any Property for which claims for death or bodily injury could be asserted against Lessor, Lessee or the Property, together with Employers Liability Insurance with limits of not less than $100,000 per accident or disease and $500,000 aggregate by disease.
- D. Rental value insurance, equal to 100% of the Base Annual Rental (as may adjusted hereunder) for a period of not less than twelve (12) months; which insurance shall be carved out of Lessec's business interruption coverage for a separate rental value insurance payable to Lessor, or if rental value insurance is included in Lessec's business interruption coverage, the insurer shall provide priority payment to any Rental obligations, and such obligations shall be paid directly to Lessor. Such insurance is to follow form of the real property "all risk" coverage and is not to cantain a co-insurance clause.
- E. Comprehensive Boiler & Machinery Insurance against loss or damage from explosion of any steam or pressure boilers or similar apparatus, if any, located in or about the Property in an amount not less than the actual replacement cost of the Property. Such insurance should be in an amount of the lesser of 25% of the 100% replacement cost or $5,000,000.00.

All insurance policies shall:

- (i) Provide (1) for a waiver of subrogation by the insurer as to claims against Lessor, Lessor's Lenders and their employees, officers and agents, (2) that the insurer shall not deny a claim and that such insurance cannot be unreasonably cancelled, invalidated or suspended on account of the conduct of Lessee, its officers, directors, employees or agents, or anyone acting for Lessee or any sublessee or other occupant of the Property, and (3) that any losses otherwise payable thereunder shall be payable notwithstanding any act or omission of Lessor, Lessor's Lenders or Lessee which might, absent such provision, result in a forfeiture of all or a part of such insurance payment;
- (ii) Be primary and provide that any "other insurance" clause in the insurance policy shall exclude any policies of insurance maintained by Lessor and the insurance policy shall not be brought into contribution with insurance maintained by Lessor,

- (ili) intentionally omitted
- (iv) Contain a standard non-contributory mortgagee clause or endorsement in favor of any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor;
- (v) Provide that the policy of insurance shall not be terminated, cancelled or amended without at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Lessor and to any Lessor's Lender covered by any standard mortgagee clause or endorsement;
- (vi) Provide that the insurer shall not have the option to restore the Property if Lessor elects to terminate this Lease in accordance with the terms hereof:
- (vii) Be in amounts sufficient at all times to satisfy any coinsurance requirements thereof;
- (viii) Except for workers' compensation insurance referred to in Section 10.C above, name Lessor and any Lessor Affiliate requested by Lessor, as an "additional insured" (and, with respect to any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor, as an "additional insured mortgagee") with respect to general liability insurance, and as a "named insured" with respect to real property and "loss payee" with respect to all real property and rent value insurance, as appropriate and as their interests may appear;
- (ix) Be evidenced by delivery to Lessor and any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor of an Acord Form 28 for property coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor) and an Acord Form 25 for liability, workers' compensation and umbrella coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor); provided that in the event that either such form is no longer available, such evidence of insurance shall be in a form reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and any lender designated by Lessor; such certificates of insurance shall be delivered to Lessor prior to the Effective Date; and
- (x) Be issued by insurance companies licensed to do business in the states where the Property is located and which are rated A:VIII or better by Best's Insurance Guide or are otherwise approved by Lessor.

It is expressly understood and agreed that (I) if any insurance required hereunder, or any part thereof, shall expire, be withdrawn, become void by breach of any condition thereof by Lessee, or become void or in jeopardy by reason of the failure or impairment of the capital of any insurer, Lessee shall immediately obtain new or additional insurance reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and any lender designated by Lessor, (II) the foregoing minimum limits of insurance coverage shall not limit the liability of Lessee for its acts or omissions as provided in this Lease;

and (III) Lessee shall procure policies for all insurance for periods of not less than one year and shall provide to Lessor and any servicer or lender of Lessor certificates of insurance or, upon Lessor's request, duplicate originals of insurance policies evidencing that insurance satisfying the requirements of this Lease is in effect at all times.

Lessee shall pay as they become due all premiums for the insurance required by this Section 10. In the event that Lessee fails to comply with any of the foregoing requirements of this Section 10 within ten (10) days of the giving of written notice by Lessor to Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to procure such insurance. Any sums expended by Lessor in procuring such insurance shall be Additional Rental and shall be repaid by Lessee, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate, from the time of payment by Lessor until fully paid by Lessee immediately upon written demand therefor by Lessor.

Anything in this Section 10 to the contrary notwithstanding, any insurance which Lessee is required to obtain pursuant to this Section 10 may be carried under a "blanket" policy or policies covering other properties or liabilities of Lessee provided that such "blanket" policy or policies that otherwise comply with the provisions of this Section 10 and specify the location of the Property.

- 11 Intentionally Omitted
- 12. Compliance With Laws, Restrictions, Covenants, Encumbrances and Agreements. It is expressly understood and agreed that the obligations of Lessee under this Section shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease for any reason.
 - A. Legal and Gaming Law Compliance. Lessee's use and occupation of the Property, the use and occupation of the Property by any other person (including but not limited to any subtenants and WGI) and the condition of the Property, shall, at Lessee's sole cost and expense, comply with all Legal Requirements (including without limitation the Americans with Disabilities Act and all Legal Requirements related to gaming operations and the sales of tobacco and liquor on the Property). Lessee shall promptly file, or cause to be filed, and provide to Lessor any notices, reports or other filings that Lessee or any other Person is required to file or provide to any Governmental Authorities regarding the business operations conducted on or from the Property, including but not limited to those described in Subsection D(iii) hereof and those required by Governmental Authorities with respect to gaming operations and the sales of tobacco and liquor on the Property, including any filings required to be made in connection with the change of ownership or control of Lessee and, within fifteen (15) days of Lessee's receipt of written notice from Lessor of any planned or actual change in the ownership or control of Lessor or any planned or actual change in the Property.
 - B. Acts Resulting in Increased Insurance Rates. Lessee will use its commercially reasonable efforts to prevent any act or condition to exist on or about the Property which will materially increase any insurance rate thereon, except when such acts are required in the normal course of its business and Lessee shall pay for such increase. I assee shall comply with all orders and directives of any insurance companies issuing liability, fire, or extended coverage insurance pursuant to Section 10 hereof, and Lessee shall not do, bring, or keep anything in or about the Property that will cause a cancellation of any insurance covering the Property.

C. Prevention of Nuisance. Lessee shall not commit nor cause or permit to be committed any public or private nuisance on the Property.

D. Environmental.

- (i) Covenants. All uses and operations on or of the Property, including the use and operation of UST's on the Property, whether by Lessee or any other Person, shall be in compliance with all Environmental Laws and permits issued pursuant thereto. Lessee hereby represents and warrants that Lessee shall not install and shall not permit any person to install any asbestos containing materials ("ACM") or materials or equipment containing polychlorinated biphenyl ("PCBs") in the Property, and to the extent any ACM, PCBs or other Hazardous Materials are on or in the Property, the same shall be maintained, stored and used in accordance with all Legal Requirements.
- Notification Requirements. Lessee shall immediately notify Lessor in writing upon Lessee obtaining actual knowledge of (1) any Releases or Threatened Releases in, on, under or from the Property other than in Permitted Amounts, or migrating towards any of the Property; (2) any non-compliance with any Environmental Laws related in any way to any of the Property; (3) any actual or potential Environmental Lien; (4) any required or proposed Remediation of environmental conditions relating to any of the Property required by applicable Governmental Authorities; and (5) any written or oral notice or other communication which Lessee becomes aware from any source whatsoever (including but not limited to a Governmental Authority) relating in any way to Hazardous Materials, Regulated Substances or USTs, or Remediation thereof at or on the Property, other than in Permitted Amounts, possible liability of any Person relating to the Property pursuant to any Environmental Law, other environmental conditions in connection with the Property, or any actual or potential administrative or judicial proceedings in connection with anything referred to in this Subsection D.
- (iii) Reports and Investigations. Lessee shall promptly supply Lessor with copies of all reports of any testing of the Property conducted by or at the request of Lessor or any Governmental Authorities and all submissions by Lessee to any Governmental Authority concerning environmental matters, the USTs, or Hazardous Materials. Additionally, upon Lessor's reasonable request in the event that Lessor reasonably suspects that Contamination (as hereafter defined) may have occurred or be occurring at the Property, Lessee agrees to perform, at Lessee's sole expense, an environmental assessment of the Property, including soil borings, to confirm whether such Contamination is occurring. Additionally, at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Lease Term, Lessee agrees to perform an environmental assessment of the Property in order to define the nature and extent of Contamination, if any.

Indemnification. Lessee shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold each of the Indemnified Parties free and harmless from and against any and all Losses, arising from or caused in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by any of the following, unless arising from or caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnified Party requesting indemnification: (a) the use, storage, transportation, disposal, release, discharge or generation of Hazardous Materials to, in, on, under or about the Property (whether occurring before or after the date hercof) (any of the foregoing in violation of Legal Requirements is "Contamination"), including diminution in value of the Property; and (b) the cost of any required or necessary repair, remediation, cleanup or detoxification and the preparation of any closure or other required plans or reports, whether such action is required or necessary prior to or following transfer of title to the Property (such acts are sometimes referred to herein as "Corrective Action"), and (e) Lessee's failure to comply with any Legal Requirements.  - (ii) if there is an Insolvency Event;
 - (iii) if Lessee fails to observe or perform any of the other covenants, conditions or obligations of Lessee in this Lease; provided, however, if any such failure does not involve the payment of any Monetary Obligation, does not place any rights or property of Lessor in immediate jeopardy, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, then such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default hereunder, unless otherwise expressly provided herein, unless and until Lessor shall have given Lessee notice thereof and a period of thirty (30) days shall have elapsed, during which period Lessee may correct or cure such failure, upon failure of which an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required. If such failure cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, and Lessee is diligently pursuing a cure of such failure, then Lessee shall have a reasonable period to cure such failure beyond such thirty (30) day period. If Lessee shall fail to correct or cure such failure within such period and said period is not extended by the parties, an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required;

- B. Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, with or without notice or demand, except as otherwise expressly provided herein or such other notice as may be required by statute and cannot be waived by Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to exercise, at its option, concurrently, successively, or in any combination, all remedies available at law or in equity, including without limitation, any one or more of the following:

Upon such termination, Lessor shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages equal to the total of (i) the cost of recovering possession of the Property. (ii) the unpaid Rental earned at the time of termination, plus interest at the Default Rate thereon; (iii) late charges and interest at the Default Rate on the unpaid Rental; (iv) the present value of the balance of the Base Annual Rental for the remainder of the Lease Term using a discount rate of four percent (4%), less the present value of the reasonable rental value of the Property for the balance of the Term remaining after a one-year period following repossession using a discount rate of four percent (4%); (v) costs of operating the Property until relet and the reasonable costs of performing any obligations of Lessee under this Lease to be performed upon termination or expiration of this Lease (including but not limited to the Lessee's obligations under Sections 12.D and 27 hereof); and (vi) any other sum of money and damages reasonably necessary to compensate Lessor for the detriment caused by Lessee's default.
 - (ii) To the extent not prohibited by applicable law, to reenter and take possession of the Property (or any part thereof) without being deemed guilty in any manner of trespass or becoming liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom, without resort to legal or judicial process, procedure or action. No notice from Lessor hereunder or under a forcible entry and detainer statute or similar law shall constitute an election by Lessor to terminate this Lease unless such notice specifically so states. If Lessee shall, after default, voluntarily give up possession of the Property to Lessor, deliver to Lessor or its agents the keys to the Property, or both, such actions shall be deemed to be in compliance with Lessor's rights and the acceptance thereof by Lessor or its agents shall not be deemed to constitute a termination of the Lease. Lessor reserves the right following any reentry and/or reletting to exercise its right to terminate this Lease by giving Lessee written notice thereof, in which event this Lease will terminate, and Lessor may recover liquidated damages as set forth in Subsection (i) above.

- (iii) To bring an action against Lessee for any damages sustained by Lessor or any equitable relief available to Lessor.
- (iv) To relet the Property or any part thereof for such term or terms (including a term which extends beyond the original Lease Term), at such rentals and upon such other terms as Lessor, in its sole discretion, may determine, with all proceeds received from such reletting being applied to the Rental and other Monetary Obligations due from Lessee in such order as Lessor may, in it sole discretion, determine, which other Monetary Obligations include, without limitation, all commercially reasonable repossession costs, brokerage commissions, attorneys' fees and expenses and repair costs. Lessor reserves the right following any reentry and/or reletting to exercise its right to terminate this Lease by giving Lessee written notice thereof, in which event this Lease will terminate as specified in said notice.
- (v) To recover from Lessee all Costs paid or incurred by Lessor as a result of such breach, regardless of whether or not legal proceedings are actually commenced.
- (vi) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, at Lessor's sole option but without any obligation to do so, correct such breach or default and charge Lessee all Costs incurred by Lessor therein. Any sum or sums so paid by Lessor, together with interest at the Default Rate, shall be deemed to be Additional Rental hereunder and shall be immediately due from Lessee to Lessor. Any such acts by Lessor in correcting Lessee's breaches or defaults bereunder shall not be deemed to cure said breaches or defaults or constitute any waiver of Lessor's right to exercise any or all remedies set forth herein.
- (vii) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, except as required herein, set off any money of Lessee held by Lessor under this Lease.
- (viii) To seek any equitable relief available to Lessor, including, without limitation, the right of specific performance.

If the default cannot reasonably be cured within thirty (30) days, then Lessor shall not be in default if Lessor commences to cure the default within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default thereafter.

Lessee, at any time after expiration of the cure period provided above and a subsequent written notice to Lessor, may cure the default at Lessor's cost. If Lessee at any time, as a result of Lessor's default, pays any sum or performs any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Lessee shall be due immediately from Lessor to Lessee at the time the sum is paid, and if paid at a later date shall bear interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date the sum is paid by Lessee until the date Lessee is reimbursed by Lessor. Any amounts due from Lessor to Lessee pursuant to this Section 15 may be deducted or offset against Lessee's Base Monthly Rental.

This Lease at all times shall automatically be subordinate to the lien of any and all Deeds of Trust now or hereafter placed upon the Property by Lessor, provided, that the holder of such interest shall not disturb Lessee's use and enjoyment of Lessee's rights under this Lease so long as Lessee is not in default hereunder. Lessee covenants and agrees to execute and deliver, upon demand, such further instruments which are acceptable to Lessee, subordinating this Lease to the lien of any or all such Deeds of Trust as shall be desired by Lessor, or any present or proposed Deeds of Trust; provided, that the terms and provisions of any such instrument are commercially reasonable. The foregoing provision shall be self-operative and effective without the execution of any further instruments.

Lessee shall give written notice to any Lessor's Lender of whom Lessee is notified of in writing of any breach or default by Lessor of any of its obligations under this Lease and give such lender or mortgagee the same rights to which Lessor might be entitled to cure such default before Lessee may exercise any remedy with respect thereto. Upon request by Lessor, Lessee shall authorize Lessor to release to Lessee's financial statements delivered to Lessor pursuant to this Lease to such Lessor's Lender.

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT (this "Lease") is made as of ______, 2006 by and between EDWARD WOOLEY AND JUDITH WOOLEY, individuals (collectively "Lessor") and BERRY-HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES, a Nevada corporation ("Lessee"), whose address is 425 Maestro Drive, Reno, Nevada 89511.

In consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, Lessor and Lessee hereby covenant and agree as follows:

- 1. Certain Defined Terms. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in Exhibit A hereto.
- Monetary Obligations to be paid by Lessee and of the other terms, covenants and conditions on Lessee's part to be kept and performed, Lessor hereby lesses to Lessee, and Lessee hereby takes and leases, the Property (as such term is defined in Exhibit A attached hereto and which Property is located at the address set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto and situated on the real property legally described in Exhibit B attached hereto and commonly known as 1365 Baring Boulevard_Sparks. Nevada, subject to the Permitted Encumbrances, all Legal Requirements (including any existing violation thereof), and the condition of the Property as of the Effective Date; provided, however, that the recital of the Permitted Encumbrances herein shall not be construed as a revival of any Permitted Encumbrance which may have expired or been terminated. During the Lease Term, the Property shall be used for the operation of a Permitted Facility, and lawful or related purposes such as ingress, egress and parking.
- Commence May ___, 2006 ("Effective Date") and shall expire at midnight on October 31, 2023 ("Expiration Date"), unless terminated sconer as provided in this Lease and as may be extended as provided herein. The time period during which this Lease shall actually be in effect, including any Extension Term, is referred to herein as the "Lease Term." Lessee shall have the right and option (each, an "Extension Option") to extend the Initial Term for four (4) additional successive periods of five (5) years each (each, an "Extension Term"), pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Lease then in effect. Lessee may only exercise the Extension Options by giving written notice thereof to Lessor of its election to do so first, no later than two hundred forty (240) days prior to the Expiration Date and two hundred forty (240) days prior to the immediately preceding Extension Term, as the case may be. If written notice of the exercise of any Extension Option is not received by Lessor by the applicable dates described above, then this Lease shall terminate on the last day of the Initial Term or, if applicable, the last day of the Extension Term then in effect.

4. Rental and Other Monetary Ohligations.

A. Base Monthly Rental. During the Initial Term, on or before the first day of each calendar month, Lessee shall pay in advance the Base Monthly Rental; provided, however, if the Effective Date is a date other than the first day of the month, Lessee shall Wooley/BHI 1365 Baring Bivd/BHI Sparks, Nevada 7/6/2006 00016009959 GBBOCCS 576954v2 pay to Lessor (or any other party designated by Lessor) on the Effective Date the Base Monthly Rental prorated by multiplying the Base Monthly Rental by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days remaining in the month (including the Effective Date) for which Rental is being paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in such month. During the Extension Terms, if any, Lessee shall pay the Rental (including the Base Monthly Rental) in the manner set forth in this Section 4. Unless otherwise specifically stated to the contrary herein, Lessee shall perform all its obligations under this Lease at its sole cost and expense and shall pay all Rental and any other Monetary Obligation due hereunder when due and payable, without notice or demand.

- B. Adjustments. On the first Adjustment Date and on each Adjustment Date thereafter, the Base Annual Rental shall increase by an amount equal to the Rent Adjustment. The "Rent Adjustment" shall be an amount equal to two (2) percent of the Base Annual Rental in effect immediately prior to the applicable Adjustment Date. The Adjustment Date shall be on the annual anniversary of the Effective Date.
- C. Additional Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge, as additional rental ("Additional Rental"), all sums of money required to be paid by Lessee under this Lease which are not specifically referred to as Base Annual Rental or Base Monthly Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge any Additional Rental when the same shall become dne, provided that amounts which are billed to Lessor or any third party, but not to Lessee, shall be paid within five (5) days after Lessor's demand for payment thereof or, if later, when the same are due. In no event shall Lessee be required to pay to Lessor any item of Additional Rental that Lessee is obligated to pay and has paid to any third party pursuant to any provision of this Lease.
- D. Payment of Rental and Other Monetary Obligations. All Rental and other Monetary Obligations which Lessee is required to pay hereunder shall due without any setoff, abatement, deferment, deduction or counterclaim whatsoever, except as set forth herein. All payments of Base Monthly Rental and any other Monetary Obligations payable to Lessor shall be remitted to Lessor at Lessor's address set forth in the first paragraph of this Lease or such other address as Lessor may designate pursuant to Section 24 hereof.
- E. Late Payment Charge. Lessee acknowledges that late payment by Lessee to Lessor of Rental will cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of such costs being extremely difficult and impracticable to fix in advance. Such costs include, without limitation, processing and accounting charges, and late charges that may be imposed on Lessor by the terms of any encumbrance and note secured by any encumbrance covering the Property. Therefore, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee to Lessor pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, then Lessee shall pay to Lessor, as a late payment charge, five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment. Additionally, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, such Wooley/BHI 1365 Baring Blvd/BHI Sparks, Nevada 7/6/2006 000160/09959 GBDOCS 576954v2 payment shall bear interest at the Default Rate until received by Lessor. The late payment charge and default interest shall be paid to Lessor at the time of payment of the delinquent amount. The late payment charge and the default interest charge shall compensate Lessor for the expenses incurred by Lessor in financing, collecting and processing the late payment. The parties agree that the late charge and the default interest charge represent a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs that Lessor will incur by reason of late payment by Lessee.

- Gaming. Lessor hereby conditionally assigns to Lessee all leases, written or oral, 5. and all agreements for use or occupancy of the Property together with any and all extensions and renewals thereof and any and all further leases, subleases, lettings or agreements (including subleases thereof and tenancies following attornment) upon or covering the use or occupancy of the Property all of which leases, agreements, subleases and tenancies are herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Assigned Leases"; (ii) the immediate and continuing right to collect and receive all of the rents, income, receipts, revenues, issues and profits now due or which may become due or which may now or hereafter become due from or out of the Assigned Leases or any part thereof, including, but not limited to, security deposits, minimum rents, additional rents, parking rents, deficiency rents and liquidated damages following default, any premium payable by any tenant upon the exercise of a cancellation privilege contained in its Lease; all proceeds payable under any policy of insurance covering loss of rents resulting from untenantability caused by destruction or damage to the Property; any and all rights and claims of any kind which Lessor has or hereafter may have against the tenants under the Assigned Leases and any subtenants and other occupants of the Property; any award granted Lessor after the date hereof in any court proceeding involving any tenant in any bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization proceedings in any state or federal court and any and all payments made by any tenant in lieu of rent (any and all such moneys, rights and claims identified in this paragraph are herein sometimes referred to as the "Rents" and sometimes as the "Rent"); and (iii) all of the rights, powers and privileges of Lessor (A) to accept prepayment of more than one (1) monthly installment of the Rent thereunder, and (B) except with respect to the Assigned Lease, (I) to cancel, terminate or accept the surrender of any Assigned Lease, and (II) to amend, modify or abridge any of the terms, covenants or conditions of any Assigned Lease. The assignment contained in this Section 5 and Lessee's interest in the Assigned Leases shall become void and of no further force or effect upon the expiration or early termination of this Lease and upon such event, Lessor shall be the sole party with any interest as a landlord or lessor in the Assigned Leases. Furthermore, Lessee shall have no right to collect any amounts under the Assigned Leases upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default and all such amounts shall be paid to Lessor during any such period.
- 6. Nevada Gaming Control Board. Lessor will follow all laws of the State of Nevada, and cooperate with Winner's Gaming Inc. ("WGI") or its successor in making application to the Nevada Gaming Control Board if such application or approval is required.
- 7. Rentals To Be Net to Lessor. The Base Annual Rental payable hereunder shall be net to Lessor, so that this Lease shall yield to Lessor the Rentals specified during the Lease Term, and all Costs and obligations of every kind and nature whatsoever relating to the Property shall be performed and paid by Lessee, including but not limited to all impositions, operating Woolcy/BHI 1365 Baring 81vd/BHI Sparks, Nevada 7/6/2006 00016009959 GBDOCS 576954v2 charges, maintenance charges, construction costs and any other charges, costs and expenses now existing or that arise or may be contemplated under the Permitted Encumbrances or otherwise, all maintenance and repair expenses, all utility expenses, all Taxes, all premiums for insurance required to be maintained by Lessee pursuant to the terms hereof and all other expenses, charges, assessments and costs associated with the Property or otherwise provided to be paid by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease. All such charges, costs and expenses shall constitute Additional Rental and upon the failure of Lessee to pay any of such costs, charges or expenses, Lessor shall have the same rights and remedies as otherwise provided in this Lease for the failure of Lessee to pay Base Annual Rental. It is the intention of the parties except as expressly provided herein that this Lease shall not be terminable for any reason by Lessee, and that Lessee shall in no event be entitled to any abatement of, or reduction in, Rental payable under this Lease, except as otherwise expressly provided herein. Any present or future law to the contrary shall not alter this agreement of the parties.

8. Taxes and Assessments. Lessee shall pay, prior to the earlier of delinquency or the accrual of interest on the unpaid balance, one hundred percent (100%) of the following (collectively, "Taxes"): all taxes and assessments of every type or nature assessed against or imposed upon the Property or Lessee during the Lease Term, including without limitation, all ad valorem taxes, assessments and special assessments upon the Property or any part thereof and upon any personal property, trade fixtures and improvements located on the Property, whether belonging to Lessor or Lessee, or any tax or charge levied in lieu of such taxes and assessments; all taxes, charges, license fees and or similar fees imposed by reason of the use of the Property by Lessee; and all excise, transaction, privilege, license, sales, use and other taxes upon the Rental or other Monetary Obligations hereunder, the leasehold estate of either party or the activities of either party pursuant to this Lease, and all interest, surcharges or service or other fees payable in connection with the foregoing.

Upon request of Lessor, Lessee shall, upon prior written request of Lessor, provide Lessor with evidence reasonably satisfactory to Lessor that such payment was made in a timely fashion. Lessee may, at its own expense, contest or cause to be contested by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, any above-described item or lien with respect thereto, including, without limitation, the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any such item, provided that (A) neither the Property nor any interest therein would be in any danger of being sold, forfeited or lost by reason of such proceedings, (B) no monetary Event of Default has occurred, (C) Lessee shall promptly provide Lessor with copies of all notices received or delivered by Lessee and filings made by Lessee in connection with such proceeding, and (D) Lessee shall indemnify and hold Lessor harmless against any loss, Costs or damages arising from or related to such contest.

If Lessee shall fail to pay any Taxes when due and before any delinquency, penalty or interest is imposed on such Taxes, Lessor shall have the right to pay the same after notice to Lessee, in which case Lessee shall repay in full such amount to Lessor with Lessee's next Base Monthly Rental installment together with interest at the Default Rate.

9. Utilities. Lessee shall contract, in its own name, for and pay when due (and hold Lessor free and harmless from) all charges for the connection and use of water, gas, electricity, telephone, garbage collection, sewer use and other utility services supplied to the Property during the Lease Term. All utility charges, assessments and fees for the last year of the Lease shall be prorated as of the termination date of this Lease. No full or partial utility deprivation including, but not limited to, blackout, brownout, or rationing, nor any loss of or damage to improvements related to disruption or failure of any utility service shall give rise to any abatement of Rentals nor give rise to any right of Lessee to offset Rentals or to terminate the Lease, unless caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Lessor or its agents, employees or contractors (but not of any other tenants or occupants of the Property). Lessor shall reasonably cooperate with Lessee, but without out-of-pocket expense to Lessor, in Lessee's efforts to restore utility service to the Property; provided, however, that if the utility service was disrupted due to Lessor's gross negligence or willful misconduct, then the cost of such restoration shall be borne by Lessor.

- 10. Insurance. Throughout the Lease Term, Lessee shall maintain, at its sole expense, the following types and amounts of insurance:
 - Insurance against loss or damage to the Property and all buildings and A. improvements thereon under an "all risk" insurance policy, which shall include coverage against all risks of direct physical loss, including loss by fire, lightning, and other risks normally included in the standard ISO special form (which shall include coverage for all risks commonly insured for properties similar to the Property in the Reno, Nevada area, including insurance coverage for damage caused by earthquake, flood, tornado, windstorm and other disasters for which insurance is customarily maintained for similar commercial properties). Such insurance shall be in amounts sufficient to prevent Lessor from becoming a co-insurer under the applicable policies, and in any event, after application of deductible, in amounts not less than 100% of the full insurable replacement cost. Such insurance shall contain an agreed valuation provision in lieu of any coinsurance clause, an increased cost of construction endorsement, debris removal coverage and a waiver of subrogation endorsement in favor of Lessor. While any portion of the improvements on the Property is being rebuilt on the Land, Lessee shall provide such property insurance in builder's risk completed value form, including coverage available on the so-called "all-risk" non-reporting form of policy in an amount equal to 100% of the full insurable replacement value of the improvements on the Property or such portion as is being rebuilt. The insurance policy shall insure Lessee as loss payee. No parties other than Lessor, Lessor's Lender and Lessee may be named as insureds or loss payees on such property insurance policy.
 - B. Commercial general liability insurance, including products and completed operation liability, covering Lessor and Lessee against bodily injury liability, property damage liability and personal and advertising injury, liquor liability coverage (to the extent liquor is sold or manufactured at the Property), garage liability coverage including without limitation any liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, repair, condition or operation of the Property or adjoining ways, streets, parking lots or sidewalks. Such insurance policy or policies shall contain a broad form contractual liability endorsement under which the insurer agrees to insure Lessee's obligations under Section 15 hereof to the extent insurable, and a "severability of interest" clause or endorsement which precludes the insurer from denying the claim of Lessee, Lessor or

- (vi) Provide that the insurer shall not have the option to restore the Property if Lessor elects to terminate this Lease in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (vii) Be in amounts sufficient at all times to satisfy any coinsurance requirements thereof;
- (viii) Except for workers' compensation insurance referred to in Section 10.C above, name Lessor and any Lessor Affiliate requested by Lessor, as an "additional insured" (and, with respect to any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor, as an "additional insured mortgagee") with respect to general liability insurance, and as a "named insured" with respect to real property and "loss payee" with respect to all real property and rent value insurance, as appropriate and as their interests may appear;
- (ix) Be evidenced by delivery to Lessor and any Lessor's Lander designated by Lessor of an Acord Form 28 for property coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor) and an Acord Form 25 for liability, workers' compensation and umbrella coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor); provided that in the event that either such form is no longer available, such evidence of insurance shall be in a form reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and any lender designated by Lessor; such certificates of insurance shall be delivered to Lessor prior to the Effective Date; and
- (x) Be issued by insurance companies licensed to do business in the states where the Property is located and which are rated A:VIII or better by Best's Insurance Guide or are otherwise approved by Lessor.

If Lessee terminates this Lease, Lessor shall promptly refund to Lessee all unearned Annual Base Rental and other amounts paid in advance by Lessee.

- D. Obligation to Restore. If a Taking does not result in a termination of this Lease pursuant to Subsection C hereof, Lessee shall restore the Property to a condition similar in physical appearance to that which existed immediately prior to the Taking to the extent possible such that Lessee can conduct its normal business operations, Lessee shall commence such restoration within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of the taking and shall complete such restoration within six (6) months after the occurrence of the taking.
- E. Condemnation Award. Any condemnation award payable during the term of this Lease shall belong to and be paid to Lessor, including but not limited to awards payable with respect to damage to either the fee or leasehold estates, except that Lessee shall receive from the award the following:

 - (ii) The portion of the award, if any, attributable to severance damages for the repair or restoration of the Property (herein called "repair"), but only if Lessee does not exercise Lessee's right to terminate the Lease and further provided, that such damages shall be deposited and disbursed in accordance with the provisions hereof related to the handling of insurance proceeds that are applied to a repair of the Property and Lessee shall promptly commence and diligently complete the repair so that upon completion the Property will have a character and commercial value as nearly as possible equal to the value of the Property immediately prior to the taking, and further provided that, in the event such damages are insufficient to cover the cost of repair, then any amounts required over the amount thereof that are required to complete said repair shall be promptly deposited with the disbursing entity by Lessee in advance of commencing the repair.
 - (iii) Additionally, if this Lease is terminated as a result of any such taking, Lessee shall be permitted to recover its relocation expenses and the going concern value of Lessee's business from the condemning authority (but not from Lessor or the portion of the award otherwise payable to Lessor) as provided by law.

- 19. Intentionally Deleted.
- 20. Default, Conditional Limitations, Remedies and Measure of Damages.
- A. Event of Default. Each of the following shall be an event of default by Lessee under this Lease (each, an "Event of Default"):
 - (i) If any Rental or other Monetary Obligation due under this Lease is not paid within five (5) Business Days of notice it is past due,
 - (ii) if there is an Insolvency Event;
 - if Lessee fails to observe or perform any of the other covenants, conditions or obligations of Lessee in this Lease; provided, however, if any such failure does not involve the payment of any Monetary Obligation, does not place any rights or property of Lessor in immediate jeopardy, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, then such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default hereunder, unless otherwise expressly provided herein, unless and until Lessor shall have given Lessee notice thereof and a period of thirty (30) days shall have elapsed, during which period Lessce may correct or cure such failure, upon failure of which an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required. If such failure cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, and Lessee is diligently pursuing a cure of such failure, then Lessee shall have a reasonable period to cure such failure beyond such thirty (30) day period. If Lessee shall fail to correct or cure such failure within such period and said period is not extended by the parties, an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required;
 - (iv) if Lessee shall be liquidated or dissolved or shall begin proceedings towards its liquidation or dissolution.
- B. Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Lessor shall provide notice thereof to WGI and shall provide WGI with a thirty day period in which to elect, by notice to Lessor, to cure such Event of Default, in which case, Lessor will provide WGI reasonable access to the Premises to cure such Event of Default, and will accept such cure as if performed by Lessee. WGI may also elect within such thirty day period, to take an assignment of tenant's interests under this Lease, in which case, WGI will have a period of one hundred twenty (120) days following such assignment in which to further assign such tenant's rights, or to sublet the Premises, to a entity or person which will operate the Premises as a Permitted Facility, without the need for Lessor's consent or approval.

If WGI does not elect either such option then, except as otherwise expressly provided herein or such other notice as may be required by statute and cannot be waived by Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to exercise, at its option, concurrently, successively, or in any combination, all remedies available at law or in equity, including without limitation, any one or more of the following:

- To terminate this Lease, whereupon Lessee's right to possession of the Property shall cease and this Lease, except as to Lessee's liability, shall be terminated. Upon such termination, Lessor shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages equal to the total of (i) the cost of recovering possession of the Property: (ii) the unpaid Rental earned at the time of termination, plus interest at the Default Rate thereon; (iii) late charges and interest at the Default Rate on the unpaid Rental; (iv) the present value of the balance of the Base Annual Rental for the remainder of the Lease Term using a discount rate of four percent (4%), less the present value of the reasonable rental value of the Property for the balance of the Term remaining after a one-year period following repossession using a discount rate of four percent (4%); (v) costs of operating the Property until relet and the reasonable costs of performing any obligations of Lessee under this Lease to be performed upon termination or expiration of this Lease (including but not limited to the Lessee's obligations under Sections 12.D and 27 hereof); and (vi) any other sum of money and damages reasonably necessary to compensate Lessor for the detriment caused by Lessee's default.
- (ii) To the extent not prohibited by applicable law, to reenter and take possession of the Property (or any part thereof) without heing deemed guilty in any manner of trespass or becoming liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom, without resort to legal or judicial process, procedure or action. No notice from Lessor hereonder or under a forcible entry and detainer statute or similar law shall constitute an election by Lessor to terminate this Lease unless such notice specifically so states. If Lessee shall, after default, voluntarily give up possession of the Property to Lessor, deliver to Lessor or its agents the keys to the Property, or hoth, such actions shall be deemed to be in compliance with Lessor's rights and the acceptance thereof by Lessor or its agents shall not be deemed to constitute a termination of the Lease. Lessor reserves the right following any reentry and/or reletting to exercise its right to terminate this Lease by giving Lessee written notice thereof, in which event this Lease will terminate, and Lessor may recover liquidated damages as set forth in Subsection (i) above.
- (iii) To bring an action against Lessee for any damages sustained by Lessor or any equitable relief available to Lessor.
- (iv) To relet the Property or any part thereof for such term or terms (including a term which extends beyond the original Lease Term), at such rentals and upon such other terms as Lessor, in its sole discretion, may determine, with all proceeds received from such reletting being applied to the Rental and other Mooetary Ohligations due from Lessee in such order as Lessor may, in it sole

- (v) To recover from Lessee all Costs paid or incurred by Lessor as a result of such breach, regardless of whether or not legal proceedings are actually commenced.
- (vi) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, at Lessor's sole option but without any obligation to do so, correct such breach or default and charge Lessee all Costs incurred by Lessor therein. Any sum or sums so paid by Lessor, together with interest at the Default Rate, shall be deemed to be Additional Rental hereunder and shall be immediately due from Lessee to Lessor. Any such acts by Lessor in correcting Lessee's breaches or defaults hereunder shall not be deemed to cure said breaches or defaults or constitute any waiver of Lessor's right to exercise any or all remedies set forth berein.
- (vii) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, except as required herein, set off any money of Lessee held by Lessor under this Lease.
- (viii) To seek any equitable relief available to Lessor, including, without limitation, the right of specific performance.

Additionally, lender shall have the right (with no obligation) to cure such Event of Default within the time period afforded Lessee set forth in the Lease with respect to monetary defaults, and with respect to non-monetary defaults, such time reasonably necessary to cure such Event of Dafault, as long as the lender promptly commences to cure such Event of Default and diligently pursues such cure to completion. So long as Lessee is not then in default under this Lease, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect as a direct lease between the Successor Lessor and Lessee, provided that the Successor Lessor shall only be liable for any obligations of Lessor under this Lease which accrue from and after the date that such Successor Lessor acquires title to such Property or otherwise succeeds to the rights of Lessor as landlord hereunder. The foregoing provisions shall be self-operative and effective without the execution of further instruments."
 - 6. Assignment/Subletting. Section 23 is hereby amended as follows:
 - (a) The following sentence is added to the end of the first paragraph of Section 23:

"For purposes of clarification, this Section is not and shall not be deemed to prohibit Lessee's right to collaterally assign its interest to any third person or entity, including, without limitation, by placing or granting any lien, encumbrance or other security interest on the Lease or its interests thereunder, all of which such actions may be taken by Lessee without Lessor's consent."

Re: Obligations of Berry-Hinkley Industries Inc. ("BHI") and Jerry Herbst ("Mr. Herbst") with regard to 7695 South Virginia St., Reno, Nevada 89511 (the "Leased Premises")

Dear Mr. Goldblatt:

This office has been retained by Mr. Herbst and BHI with regard to certain outstanding obligations due regarding the Leased Premises. I am in receipt of your letter of March 12, 2013, on behalf of Overland Development Corporation, Inc., dba LJW Enterprises, Inc. and Larry J. Willard, Trustee of Larry James Willard Trust Privilege. According to the records and documents provided to us, BHI is the lessee of the Leased Premises pursuant to a Lease Agreement entered into on November 18, 2005 (together with all amendments and modifications, the "Lease"), and Mr. Herbst is the guarantor of the Lease obligations pursuant to a Guaranty Agreement dated as of the 9th day of March, 2007 (the "Guaranty").

It is my understanding that several years ago BHI and Mr. Herbst approached your clients with regard to compromise and settle the obligations due under the Lease and Guaranty. For various reasons, no agreements were agreed upon in this regard. Over the intervening time the financial and economic situations for both BHI and Mr. Herbst have worsened. BHI is simply not in the position to continue to operate the business located on the Leased Premises and maintain the Lease. As such, there are two options available; (i) an agreement for the orderly turnover of the Leased Premises to your clients and a termination of the Lease on terms acceptable to BHI together with an agreement limiting Mr. Herbst's continued exposure on the Guaranty, or (ii) BHI will seek liquidation under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code with an immediate termination of business at the Leased Premises, and your clients can pursue a claim in the Chapter 7 case. To the extent that your clients seek to enforce the Guaranty, in light of Mr. Herbst's other outstanding obligations and financial condition, he will have no other option but to seek protection under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, and your clients can pursue a claim for damages under the Guaranty.

I believe that you are aware of the limitations on the payment of future lease obligations under Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, which limitation is applicable to your clients' claims under the Guaranty. I also believe that you are aware of the provisions for payment of allowed unsecured claims against an individual debtor in Chapter 11. As such, your clients' recoveries in the event that Mr. Herbst must seek protection under the Bankruptcy Code will be materially impaired.

Given the outcome in the event of no resolution; no recovery from BHI, a limited recovery under the Guaranty payable over time, and repossession of non-operating locations, BHI is prepared to assist in a coordinated turnover of the Leased Premises, which affords your clients the opportunity to maintain operations and preserve value. Mr. Herbst will agree to amend the Guaranty to provide for a total payment over sixty (60) months of the allowed claim that your clients will have under Section 502(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code for future amounts due under the Lease, together with interest at 3% per annum. We believe that this amount will be significantly greater than the amount your clients will receive under Chapter 11.

If your clients are interested in pursuing this alternative resolution, please contact me no later than close of business on March 25, 2013. We will provide you with calculations of the amount which Mr. Herbst will agree to pay and discuss the process for the turnover of the Leased Premises. All negotiations must be concluded by April 1, 2013.

Let me be very clear on two points. First, given the amount of moneys involved, agreements must be reached with each holder of a guaranty by Mr. Herbst of a BHI lease or other obligation. Second, the agreements with each landlord will be on the same monetary formula and terms; no agreement will be reached with your clients that is better or worse than the agreements reached with the others lessors.

I have not responded to each of the points you have raised in your letter. However, BHI and Mr. Herbst categorically deny the allegations set forth in the letter regarding the conduct of BHI and Mr. Herbst and any claim for damages associated with such alleged conduct.

Very truly yours,

GORDON SILVER

Re: Proposed settlement offer regarding the obligations of Berry-Hinkley Industries Inc. ("BHI") and Jerry Herbst ("Mr. Herbst") with regard to 7695 South Virginia St., Reno, Nevada 89511 (the "Leased Premises")

Dear Mr. Goldblatt:

As indicated in our March 18, 2013 letter, BHl is prepared to assist in a coordinated turnover of the Leased Premises, which affords your clients the opportunity to maintain operations and preserve value. Mr. Herbst will agree to amend his guaranty to provide for a total payment over sixty (60) months equal to the allowed claim that your clients would bave under Section 502(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code for future amounts due under the lease in the event Mr. Herbst is required to file a petition under Chapter 11, together with interest at 3% per annum.

The amount allowed pursuant to Section 502(b)(6) with regard to the Leased Premises is $2,921,180 from March 1, 2013, to August 23, 2023. Subject to the conditions set forth in the March 18, 2013 letter, Mr. Herbst is prepared to pay your clients $3,149,387 over 60 months, which amount includes the $2,921,180 amount under Section 502(b)(6), together with interest at 3% per annum. The proposed monthly settlement payment is $52,490.

These calculations of allowed amounts include all scheduled rent increases pursuant to the lease and, as noted, are calculated from March 1, 2013, to expiration of the lease.

I look forward to hearing from you in regard to this proposal.

Very truly yours,

GORDON SILVER

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

In accordance with Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 11, all possible affirmative defenses may or may not have been asserted herein insofar as sufficient facts were not available to Defendants after reasonable inquiry upon the filing of this pleading and therefore Defendants assert the following defenses based in fact or upon reasonable belief and hereby reserve the right to amend this Answer to allege appropriate or additional defenses, if subsequent investigation or discovery so warrants:

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendants hereby incorporate by reference those affirmative defenses enumerated in Rule 8 of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure as if fully set forth herein. In the event further investigation or discovery reveals the applicability of any such defenses, Defendants reserve the right to seek leave of the court to amend this Answer to specifically assert any such defense. Such defenses are herein incorporated by reference for the specific purpose of not waiving any such defense.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

1	THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
2	Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Defendants did not owe any
3	legal duty to Plaintiffs or, if Defendants owed any such legal duty, Defendants did not breach
4	that duty.
5	FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
6	Plaintiffs' claims are contrary to the terms of the agreement(s) between the parties.
7	FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
8	Defendants are excused from performance.
9	SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
10	Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches, waiver,
11	equitable estoppel, and ratification.
12	SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
13	Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff failed to adequately
14	mitigate any injuries and damages that it allegedly suffered.
15	EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
16	Defendants are entitled to set-off, should any damages be awarded against them.
17	NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
18	Plaintiffs may not recover on the claims pled in the Complaint because the damages
19	sought are too speculative and remote.
20	TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
21	Plaintiff has contractually waived the right to seek consequential, special, and indirect
22	damages.
23	ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
24	Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitation.
25	TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
26	Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, for failure to provide reasonable and
27	adequate notice of any claimed breach.
28	///

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE 1 2 It has been necessary for Defendants to employ the services of an attorney to defend this action and a reasonable sum should be allowed Defendants as and for attorney's fees, together 3 with their costs expended in this action. 4 FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE 5 Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to state sufficient facts or claims to support punitive damages 6 7 against Defendants. FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE 8 Plaintiffs are not contractually entitled to accelerated rent. 9 10 SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE 11 Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to allege facts, or a cause of action, sufficient to support a 12 claim for attorney's fees, costs, or interest. 13 PRAYER FOR RELIEF WHEREFORE, Defendants BERRY HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES and JERRY HERBST 14 15 hereby pray for judgment against Plaintiffs as follows: 1. That Plaintiffs take nothing by way of their Complaint and that the same be 16 dismissed with prejudice. 17 18 2. PRETRIAL ORDER

The procedures described in this pretrial order are designed to secure a just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of the issues. If any party believes that a procedure described below will not achieve these ends in this case, that party should seek an immediate conference among all parties and the Court so that alternative possibilities may be discussed. Otherwise, failure of either party to comply with the provisions in this order may result in the imposition of sanctions, including dismissal of the action or entry of a default. All references to "counsel" include self-represented litigants.

I. TRIAL SETTING AND PRETRIAL CONFERENCES

A. Trial Setting. Within 30 days of the date of this Order, Counsel for Plaintiff(s) must notice counsel for Defendant(s) and set this matter for trial. Said trial setting may be via telephone conference with all parties conferenced first before calling the Court.

- B. Interim Pretrial Conferences. The Court is available to meet with the parties whenever the parties agree that a meeting would be beneficial in facilitating this litigation. The Court also may order one or more pretrial conferences sua sponte or upon motion by any party.
- C. Final Pretrial Conference. When this case is initially scheduled for trial, the parties shall also arrange for a final pretrial conference, to be held no later than 60 calendar days prior to trial.

- 3. Use of Equipment at Trial—At this conference, counsel must advise the Court fully with respect to the following matters:
 - (a) the equipment to be used during trial;
 - (b) the presentation software to be used during trial, and whether each party is able to receive and use digital files of presentation materials prepared by another;

(d) the testing, inspection, compatibility, reliability, positioning, and backup for any equipment to be brought to the courtroom.

D. Personal Appearance Required. Except upon prior approval otherwise, counsel must appear at all conferences in person.

II. DISCOVERY

- A. Explanation and Support for Objections. A party objecting to a discovery request must, in the original response, specifically state the grounds for any objection asserted, including (a) an explanation supporting the stated objection, and (b) affidavits, declarations, or other evidence to support any factual assertions upon which the objection is based. The Court will disregard general objections used to assert objections that might exist to unspecified portions of a discovery request.
- B. Consultation Before Motion Practice. Prior to filing any discovery motion, the attorney for the moving party must consult with opposing counsel about the disputed issues. Counsel for each side must present to each other the merits of their respective positions with the same candor, specificity, and supporting material as would be used in connection with a discovery motion.
- C. Dilatory Motions. Notwithstanding the deadline for submitting pretrial motions, all discovery motions must be filed and submitted in a reasonably prompt manner with respect to the request or response giving rise to the motion.
- D. Discovery Hearings. Discovery motions typically are resolved without the need for oral argument. However, if both sides desire a dispute resolution conference pursuant to NRCP 16.l(d), counsel must contact the Discovery Commissioner's office, at (775) 328-3293, to obtain a date and time for the conference that is convenient to all parties and the Discovery Commissioner. If the parties cannot agree upon the need for a conference, the party seeking the conference must file and submit a motion in that regard.

- E. Effect of Trial Continuance. A continuance of trial does not extend the deadline for completing discovery. A request for an extension of the discovery deadline, if needed, must be made separately or included as part of any motion for continuance of trial.
- F. Electronically Stored Information. Electronically stored information ("ESI") is any information created, stored, or best utilized with computer technology of any type. ESI generally is discoverable to the same extent as other information.
- 1. Notice of ESI Discovery—If any party intends to seek the production of ESI in this case, that fact should be communicated as soon as possible to counsel for the party in possession, custody, or control of that ESI, and the categories or types of information to be sought should be clearly identified.
- 2. Consultation About ESI—If discovery of ESI will be sought or is likely to be sought, the parties must meet and confer about the issues, problems, and disputes that might reasonably arise from such a request.
- 3. Knowledge of Systems—To the extent that discovery of a party's ESI is or reasonably may be an issue in the case, counsel for that party (either personally or through a representative) must become appropriately familiar with the operation of the client's relevant information management systems, including the manner in which information is stored and retrieved. The degree of familiarity necessary will depend upon the nature of the case, the information systems, the discovery requests, and other relevant factors.
- G. Computer Animations. If any party intends to offer a computer-generated animation either as an evidentiary exhibit or an illustrative aid, that party must disclose that intention when expert disclosures are made pursuant to NRCP 16.1(a)(2). A copy of the animation must be furnished to all other parties no later than 30 calendar days prior to trial. Disclosure of the animation includes copies of the underlying digital files as well as the completed animation.

III. SETTLEMENT AND ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- A. Notice of Settlement. In the event that this case is settled prior to trial, the parties must promptly notify the presiding judge's judicial assistant.
- B. Settlement Conference or Alternative Dispute Resolution. The court may order, upon a party's request or sua sponte, that the parties and their attorneys (a) meet in person with a judge other than the presiding judge in this case and attempt to settle the case, or (b) participate in mediation or some other appropriate form of alternative dispute resolution in an effort to resolve this case prior to trial.

IV. TRIAL-RELATED PROCEDURES

- A. All Motions and Motions in Limine. All motions, except for motions in limine, must be fully briefed and submitted for decision no later than 30 calendar days before trial. Motions in limine must be fully briefed and submitted for decision no later than 15 calendar days before trial. Any party filing a motion in limine, or any other paper stating a party's position in connection with a motion in limine, must deliver to chambers a copy of that party's filing. The parties are relieved of the requirement that motions in limine be attached to a party's trial statement.
- B. Page Limits. Legal memoranda submitted in support of any motion may not exceed fifteen pages in length; opposition memoranda may not exceed fifteen pages in length; and reply memoranda may not exceed five pages in length. These limitations are exclusive of exhibits. A party may file memoranda that exceed these limits only with prior approval of the Court, upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances. Said approval will only be considered upon the party filing a Motion to Exceed Page Limits. Absent a Motion to Exceed Page Limits and the Court's approval of said motion, any motion, opposition or reply submitted to Department Six that exceeds the page limits listed above, will be rejected.

- C. Exhibits. The Court Clerk(s) for Department 6, will contact trial counsel, no later than seven calendar days prior to trial, to arrange a date and time to mark trial exhibits.
- 1. Marking and Objections—All exhibits shall be marked in one numbered series (Exhibit 1, 2, 3, etc.) and placed in one or more binders provided by counsel, unless the Court permits a different procedure. When marking the exhibits with the clerk, counsel shall advise the clerk of all exhibits which may be admitted without objection, and those that may be admissible subject to objections.
- 2. Copies—Counsel must cooperate to insure that three identical sets of exhibits—one for the Court, one for the clerk to be used for trial, and one for the testifying witnesses—are provided to the Court.
- 3. Custody of Exhibits—After trial exhibits are marked by the clerk, they will remain in the custody of the clerk.
- 4. Unmarked Exhibits—Any exhibits not timely submitted to opposing counsel and the clerk in full compliance with these procedures will not be marked by the clerk, and may not be offered or referenced during the trial.
- 5. Illustrative Aids—No later than seven judicial days before trial, the parties must exchange any illustrative aids that they may use at trial. These exhibits must be exchanged in the form and format in which they may be used at trial.
- D. Trial Statements. The trial statement required by WDCR 5 must be filed and served no later than 5:00 p.m. five judicial days before trial. It must be served upon other parties by personal delivery, fax, or email, and a copy must be delivered to the chambers of the presiding judge.
 - E. Jury Instructions and Verdict Forms. All proposed jury instructions and verdict forms must be submitted to the Court no later than five judicial days prior to trial.

- 1. Format—All original jury instructions must be accompanied by a separate copy of each instruction containing a citation to the form instruction or to the authority supporting that instruction. All modifications made to instructions taken from statutory authority, Nevada Pattern Jury Instructions, Devitt and Blackmar, CACI, BAJI, or other form instructions must be separately underscored on the citation page.
- 2. Exchange—The parties must exchange all proposed jury instructions and verdict forms no later than seven judicial days before trial.
- 3. Agreement and Submission—The parties must confer regarding the proposed jury instructions and verdict forms before they are submitted to the Court. All undisputed instructions and verdict forms must be submitted jointly to the Court; the parties must separately submit any disputed instructions and verdict forms.
- 4. Disputes and Additional Instructions—After commencement of the trial, the Court will meet with counsel to determine the jury instructions and verdict forms that will actually be used. At that time, the Court will resolve all disputes over instructions and verdict forms, and consider the need for any additional instructions which could not reasonably have been foreseen prior to trial.
- F. Juror Notes and Questions. Jurors will be permitted to take notes during trial. Jurors will be permitted to submit questions in writing during trial; however, juror questions will be asked only after the questions are reviewed by counsel and approved by the Court. Any objection to this procedure must be set forth in the trial statement.
- G. Use of Electronically Recorded Depositions. No depositions that were recorded by other than stenographic means may be edited until the Court rules on objections. If such a recording is to be used at trial, it must be edited to eliminate cumulative testimony and to present only those matters that are relevant and material. All extended silent passages and objections/exchanges between counsel must be omitted.

- H. Evidentiary Rulings. Every witness that counsel intends to call at trial must be informed about any rulings that restrict or limit testimony or evidence (e.g., rulings on motions in limine), and to further inform them that they may not offer or mention any evidence that is subject to that ruling.
- 1. Examination Limits. Absent extraordinary circumstances, counsel will be given the opportunity for one re-direct and one re-cross examination.

V. MISCELLANEOUS

- A. Communication with Department. In addition to communication by telephone, letter, or facsimile, counsel may communicate with Department 6 via electronic mail to the Judicial Assistant at: heidi.boe@washoecourts.us. All written communications must be copied to all opposing counsel and unrepresented litigants.
- B. Request for Accommodation or Interpreter. Counsel must notify the Court as early as possible of any reasonable accommodation needed because of a disability or the need for an interpreter.
- C. Audio Visual Equipment. Attorneys requesting the use of audio visual equipment in the courtroom must complete the "audio visual equipment request form" and fax the completed form to Court Administration at the number provided thereon. Please note that significant lead time is needed for the request as Court equipment is limited. The form is available on the Second Judicial District Court's web site at:

http://washoecourts.com/filing_office/PDF/Audio%20Visual%20Equipment%20Request%20

D. Etiquette and Decorum. Counsel must adhere to professional standards of courtroom etiquette and decorum. In addition, direct attacks on the character or ethics of other counsel which the Court deems unwarranted—whether occurring in a writing submitted to the Court, at a deposition, or in connection with a trial, hearing, or meeting with the Court—may result in the imposition of sanctions.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this day of November, 2014.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Lease Agreement)

By the Willard Plaintiffs Against Berry-Hinckley Industries

- 8. Paragraphs 1 through 7 above are hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth at this point.
- 9. On November 18, 2005, BHI entered into a lease agreement (the "Willard Lease") on the property owned by the Willard Plaintiffs located at 7695-7699 S. Virginia Street, Reno, Nevada (the "Willard Property"). Under the Willard Lease, BHI agreed to lease the Virginia Street Property from January 2006 through January 2026 at a monthly rental rate of $122,031.25, said rental rate increasing by 2% per month through the lease term. A true and correct copy of the Willard Lease is attached bereto as Exhibit 1.
- 10. On February 17, 2007, BHI sent the Willard Plaintiffs a letter indicating Herbst's intent to acquire BHI's convenience store assets. Attached to that letter was a letter from Herbst requesting that the Willard Plaintiffs agree to a modifications of the Willard Lease in return for Herbst personally guaranteeing lease payments by BHI through the duration of the revised lease term. Also attached was a letter from Johnson Jacobson Wilcox dated January 31, 2007 attesting to the fact that Herbst's net worth was in excess of $200 million. A true and correct copy of the February 17, 2007 letter and accompanying attachments is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.
- 11. On March 9, 2007, the Willard Plaintiffs agreed to amend the Willard Lease, thereby forgoing $5,250,045.20 in rent through the shortening of the lease term by 30 months, in return for Herbst's personally guaranteeing that BHI would make all lease payments through the term of the lease (the "Herbst-Willard Guaranty Agreement"). A true and correct copy of the Herbst-Willard Guaranty Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 3. A true and correct copy of the amendment to the Willard Lease is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.
- 12. In March 2013, BHI defaulted on the Willard Lease. BHI and Herbst negotiated an agreement (the "Operating Agreement") with the Willard Plaintiffs under which BHI would pay the Willard Plaintiffs 50% of net revenues minus $10,000.00 from continuing to operate at the Willard Property. A true and correct copy of the Interim Operating Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

- 13. BHI failed to tender any payments to the Willard Plaintiffs as required under the Interim Operating Agreement, instead occupying the Willard Property through May 2013 without paying any rent. At the end of May 2013, BHI abandoned the Willard Property leaving it in such a state of dishevelment and disrepair that Willard was fined and continues to be fined by the City of Reno, said fines currently totaling $3,265.00.
- 14. As a direct and proximate result of BHI breaching the Willard Lease, the Willard Plaintiffs were deprived of rental income in the amount of $19,443,836.94 that they otherwise would have received. The net present value of the remaining lease payments using a discount rate of 4% as specified in the Willard Lease was $15,741.360.75 as of March 1, 2013.
- 15. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching the Willard Lease, the Willard Plaintiffs were forced to sell the Willard Property in March 2014 in a short sale, thereby losing $4,437,500.00 of earnest money invested in the Willard Property and incurring at least $3,000,000.00 in tax consequences and $549,852.00 in closing costs.
- 16. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching the Willard Lease, the Willard Plaintiffs were forced to purchase insurance on the Willard Property at a cost of $4,554.53, were forced to pay for installation of a security fence for the Willard Property at a cost of $2,668.62, and were charged $10,393.35 by Nevada Energy for utility fees rightly owed by BHI.
- 17. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching the Willard Lease, Willard filed for bankruptcy protection, incurring $22,623.00 in legal fees and $15,000.00 in accounting fees in the process. Six months later, upon the advice of counsel, Willard withdrew his bankruptcy petition but has been rendered insolvent by virtue of the breaches by BHI and Herbst.
- 18. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching the Willard Lease, the Willard Plaintiffs hired an attorney to file suit against BHI and Herbst in Santa Clara County,

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Personal Guaranty)

By the Willard Plaintiffs Against Jerry Herbst

- 19. Paragraphs 1 through 18 above are hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth at this point.
- 20. Upon receiving notice from the Willard Plaintiffs that BHI was in default of the Willard Lease, Herbst breached his duties under the Herbst-Willard Guaranty in failing to tender payment of rent due by BHI to the Willard Plaintiffs.
- 21. Under the terms of the Herbst-Willard Guaranty, Herbst guaranteed "unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably" the timely payment and performance of each of BHI's obligations arising out of and under the Willard Lease. This guaranty was "a guaranty of timely payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations and not merely of collectability or enforceability of such obligations." Herbst agreed to be "directly responsible for the full extent of any unsatisfied Guarantee Obligations." Herbst further agreed that his guaranty "is an unconditional, absolute, present and continuing guaranty of payment and performance, and will remain in full force and effect without regard to, and the obligations of [Herbst] hereunder shall not be impaired, affected or released by, any of the following: (i) any modification, supplement, extension or amendment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Lease; (ii) any extension, indulgence or other action in respect thereto or therefor; (iii) any failure or delay by the Lessor or BHI in exercising any right or power under the Lease; (iv) any invalidity or unenforceability in any respect of, or any irregularity or other defect in any of, the Lease or Guaranteed Obligations; (v) any exercise or non-exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege in respect of this Agreement or any of the Guaranteed obligations; (vi) any transfer of the assets of Lessor to, or any consolidation or merger of the Lessor with or into, any other entity; (vii) any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets, receivership, insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or similar proceeding affecting BHI or any of its assets; (viii) any allegation or contest of the validity of the Lease or this Agreement."

- 22. In the Herbst-Willard Guaranty, Herbst expressly waived "any defense to its obligations . . . that might arise as a result of any of the" contingencies articulated in Paragraph 20, and further waived "the effect of any fact, circumstance or event of any nature whatsoever that would exonerate, or would constitute or give rise to a defense to, the obligation of a surety or guarantor."
- Agreement, the Willard Plaintiffs were forced to sell the Willard Property in March 2014 in a short sale, thereby losing $4,437,500.00 of earnest money invested in the Willard Property and incurring at least $3,000,000.00 in tax consequences and $549,852.00 in closing costs.
- As a direct and proximate result of Herbst breaching the Herbst-Willard Guaranty Agreement, the Willard Plaintiffs were forced to purchase insurance on the Willard Property at a cost of $4,554.53, were forced to pay for installation of a security fence for the Willard Property at a cost of $2,668.62, and were charged $10,393.35 by Nevada Energy for utility fees rightly owed by BHI.
- As a direct and proximate result of Herbst breaching the Herbst-Willard Guaranty Agreement, Willard filed for bankruptcy protection, incurring $22,623.00 in legal fees and $15,000.00 in accounting fees in the process. Six months later, upon the advice of counsel, Willard withdrew his bankruptcy petition but has been rendered insolvent by virtue of the breaches by BHI and Herbst.
- 26. As a direct and proximate result of Herbst breaching the Herbst-Willard Guaranty Agreement, the Willard Plaintiffs hired an attorney to file suit against BHI and Herbst in Santa Clara County, California, thereby incurring $35,000.00 in attorney's fees.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Lease Agreement)

By the Wooley Plaintiffs Against Berry-Hinckley Industries

- 27. Paragraphs 1 through 7 above are hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth at this point.
- 28. On December 2, 2005, BHI entered into a lease agreement ("Wooley Lease #1") on the property owned by the Wooley Plaintiffs located at 1820 Highway 50 East, Carson City,

- 29. On June 6, 2006, BHI entered into a lease agreement ("Wooley Lease #2") on the property owned by the Wooley Plaintiffs located at 1365 Baring Boulevard, Sparks, Nevada (the "Sparks Property"). Under Wooley Lease #2, BHI agreed to lease the Sparks Property from June 6, 2006 through September 30, 2025 at a monthly rental rate of $19,856.25, said rental rate increasing by 2% per month through the lease term. A true and correct copy of Wooley Lease #2 is attached hereto as Exhibit 7.
- 30. On February 17, 2007, BHI sent the Wooley Plaintiffs a letter indicating Herbst's intent to acquire BHI's convenience store assets. Attached to that letter was a letter from Herbst requesting that the Wooley Plaintiffs agree to a modifications of Wooley Lease #1 and Wooley Lease #2 in return for Herbst personally guaranteeing lease payments by BHI through the duration of the revised lease terms. Also attached was a letter from Johnson Jacobson Wilcox dated January 31, 2007 attesting to the fact that Herbst's net worth was in excess of $200 million. A true and correct copy of the February 17, 2007 letter and accompanying attachments is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.
- 31. On March 12, 2007, the Wooley Plaintiffs agreed to amend Wooley Lease #1 and Wooley Lease #2, thereby forgoing $1,834,663.77 in rent through the shortening of the lease terms by 30 months, in return for Herbst's personally guaranteeing that BHI would make all lease payments through the term of the lease (the "Herbst-Wooley Guaranty Agreement"). A true and correct copy of the Herbst-Wooley Guaranty Agreement regarding the Highway 50 Property is attached hereto as Exhibit 8. A true and correct copy of the Herbst-Wooley Guarantee is attached hereto as Exhibit 9. A true and correct copy of the amendment to Wooley Lease #1 is attached hereto as Exhibit 10. A true and correct copy of the amendment to Wooley Lease #2 is attached hereto as Exhibit 11.
 - 32. In March 2013, BH1 defaulted on Wooley Lease #1.

- 33. As a direct and proximate result of BHI breaching Wooley Lease #1, the Wooley Plaintiffs were deprived of rental income in the amount of $4,420,244.00 that they otherwise would have received. The net present value of the remaining lease payments using a discount rate of 4% as specified in Wooley Lease #1 was $3,323,543.49 as of March 1, 2013.
- 34. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching Wooley Lease #1, the Highway 50 Property suffered a diminution in value in an amount to be proven at trial but which is at least $2,000,000.00.
- 35. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching Wooley Lease #1, the Wooley Plaintiffs incurred property taxes in the amount of $1,500.00.
- 36. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching Wooley Lease #1, the Wooley Plaintiffs were forced to purchase insurance on the Highway 50 Property at a cost of $3,840.00.
- 37. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching Wooley Lease #1, the Wooley Plaintiffs incurred maintenance costs on the Highway 50 Property of $4,000.00.
- 38. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching Wooley Lease #1, the Wooley Plaintiffs incurred management fee costs on the Highway 50 Property of $2,500.00.
- 39. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching Wooley Lease #1, the Wooley Plaintiffs were deprived of the security deposit from the subtenant at the Highway 50 Property in the amount of $2,485.00.
- 40. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching Wooley Lease #1, because the Sparks Property was cross-collateralized with the Highway 50 Property, the Wooley Plaintiffs were forced to sell the Sparks Property at a loss of $147,847.30.
- 41. As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching Wooley Lease #1, because the Sparks Property was cross-collateralized with the Highway 50 Property and the Wooley Plaintiffs were forced to sell the Sparks Property, the Wooley Plaintiffs incurred tax liabilities in an amount to be proven at trial but which is at least $600,000.00.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Attachment)

By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants

- 57. Paragraphs 1 through 56 above are hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth at this point.
- 58. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that basis allege that as a result of this action, Defendants will attempt to transfer or otherwise conceal assets in an effort to make it impossible for Plaintiffs to reach the property by execution after judgment is entered.
- 59. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that basis allege that Defendants will move, transfer or otherwise conceal these assets in order to defeat or otherwise hinder Plaintiff's ability to collect after judgment is entered.
- 60. These allegations are based in part on the fact that on March 18, 2013, Defendants attorney, Gerald M. Gordon of Gordon Silver, sent a letter to Plaintiffs' attorney in which Defendants threatened to declare bankruptcy rather than honor their obligations arising under the leases. A true and correct copy of this letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 12.
- These allegations are further based on the fact that on March 28, 2013, Defendants attorney, Gerald M. Gordon of Gordon Silver, sent a letter to Plaintiffs' attorney reiterating Defendants' threat of seeking bankruptcy protection and offering to pay a small fraction of the amount due under the leases and Herbst's personal guaranty, an offer which Plaintiffs rejected.

- 62. These allegations are further based on the fact that on July 1, 2013, while Plaintiffs had the instant claim pending against Defendants in Santa Clara County, California, Herbst and his wife transferred 100% of their interest in the estate located at 1701 Enclave Court, Las Vegas, Nevada 89134 to their sons, Timothy Paul Herbst and Troy Dederick Herbst, as trustees of the Jerry E. Herbst Residence Trust and the Maryanna Herbst Residence Trust. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that basis allege that such transfer was for the purpose of attempting to shelter the estate, which is estimated to be worth at least $18 million, from being attached by Plaintiffs.
- 63. In this action, Plaintiffs seek an attachment pursuant to NRS 31.013 because extraordinary circumstances exist which will make it improbable for Plaintiffs to reach the property of Defendants by execution after judgment has been entered. Specifically, Plaintiffs seek an attachment of the following property:
- the estate located at 1701 Enclave Court, Las Vegas, Nevada 89134, Parcel No. 138-20-416-003;
- the property located at 1001 South California Avenue, Parker, Arizona 85334, Parcel No. 311-23-031;
- the property located at 1005 South California Avenue, Parker, Arizona 85344, Parcel No. 311-23-030;
- the property located at 1009 South California Avenue, Parker, Arizona 85334,
 Parcel No. 311-23-028A;
- the property located at 515 Saddle View Way 23, Park City, Utah 84060, Parcel No. 01-923-06; and
- such other and further assets and properties owned by Defendants sufficient to secure payment of Plaintiffs' claims against Defendants.
- 64. Pursuant to NRS Chapter 31, Plaintiffs seek issuance of a prejudgment writ of attachment upon the assets of Defendant Berry-Hinckley Industries and Defendant Jerry Herbst, to secure payment of Plaintiffs' claims against Defendants.

- 67. If Defendants are permitted to have the ability to transfer, sell, or otherwise conceal assets before this Court can issue a writ of attachment on the assets of Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiffs will be denied the extraordinary relief provided in NRS Chapter 31 to protect their rights.
- 68. An interlocutory injunction preventing Defendants or any person with actual knowledge of the injunction is necessary to maintain the status quo until this Court can determine whether a writ of attachment should issue and/or until the conclusion of this action after trial.
- 69. Plaintiffs are entitled to a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and any other person with notice of the injunction from transferring, selling, or otherwise encumbering any assets or property of Defendants.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

In accordance with Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 11, all possible affirmative defenses may or may not have been asserted herein insofar as sufficient facts were not available to Defendants after reasonable inquiry upon the filing of this pleading and therefore Defendants assert the following defenses based in fact or upon reasonable belief and hereby reserve the right to amend this Answer to allege appropriate or additional defenses, if subsequent investigation or discovery so warrants:

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendants hereby incorporate by reference those affirmative defenses enumerated in Rule 8 of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure as if fully set forth herein. In the event further investigation or discovery reveals the applicability of any such defenses, Defendants reserve the right to seek leave of the court to amend this Answer to specifically assert any such defense. Such defenses are herein incorporated by reference for the specific purpose of not waiving any such defense.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

1	The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.
2	THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
3	Plaintiffs' claims are contrary to the terms of the agreement(s) between the parties.
4	FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
5	Defendants are excused from performance.

7	Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches, waiver,

13	Defendants are entitled to set-off, should any damages be awarded against them.
14	EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

It has been necessary for Defendants to employ the services of an attorney to defend this action and a reasonable sum should be allowed Defendants as and for attorney's fees, together with their costs expended in this action.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to allege facts, or a cause of action, sufficient to support a claim for attorney's fees, costs, or interest.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Defendants BERRY HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES and JERRY HERBST hereby pray for judgment against Plaintiffs as follows:

- 1. That Plaintiffs take nothing by way of their Complaint and that the same be dismissed with prejudice.
 - 2. For costs of suit and reasonable attorneys' fees; and
- 3. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper in the circumstances.

COUNTERCLAIM

Counterclaimants Berry-Hinckley Industries and Jerry Herbst, by and through their counsel of record, Gordon Silver, allege as follows:

PARTIES

- 1. Berry-Hinckley Industries ("BHI") is a Nevada corporation.
- 2. Jerry Herbst ("Herbst," and collectively with BHI, "Counterclaimants") is an individual and a resident of the State of Nevada.
- 3. Counter-defendant Larry J. Willard ("Willard") is, on information and belief, a resident of California, and at all relevant times herein was trustee of the Larry James Willard Trust Fund (the "Willard Trust").
- 4. Counter-defendant Overland Development Corporation, Inc., dba LJW Enterprises, Inc. ("Overland"), is, on information and belief, a California corporation.

5. On information and belief, Willard is the president of Overland. Willard, the Willard Trust, and Overland are collectively referred to hereinafter as "Counter-defendants."

6. On May 1, 2013, BHI entered into an Operation and Management Agreement (the "Operation Agreement") with Counter-defendants related to the real property located at 7695 S. Virginia Street in Reno, Nevada, which BHI had occupied pursuant to a Lease Agreement by and between BHI and Counter-defendants (the "Willard Lease"). A true and correct copy of the Operation Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

7. Pertinent to this Counterclaim, Section 4 of the Operation Agreement provided the following with respect to compensation to BHI, who is defined in the Operation Agreement as the "Operator":

In consideration of Operator performing the Services and other mutual covenants set forth herein, Owner shall pay to Operator the sum of Ten Thousand and No/100ths Dollars ($10,000.00) per month (the "Fee"), and Owner then shall be entitled to all Net Profits (below defined) generated at the Location during each month of the term of this Agreement. The Fee and Net Profits payment shall be payable as set forth below.

Operator shall have fifty (50) days from the end of each month to tender the Net Profits to Owner and provide Owner with an accounting of the subject month's Net Profits. Based thereon, commencing on July 20, 2013, and continuing no later than the twentieth (20th) day of each month thereafter as necessary depending on the length of the term of this Agreement, Operator shall tender to Owner the subject month's Net Profits attributable to the Location, minus the Fee, which such Fee shall be retained by Operator. In the event that the Net Profits for any given month are negative or otherwise not sufficient to pay the Fee, Owner shall not be entitled to any payment and shall instead pay to Operator the amount of the negative Net Profits (if applicable) plus the balance of the Fee within three (3) days of receipt of written demand therefore. As used herein, the term Net Profits shall mean the gross receipts collected by Operator in operating the Location in any given month, minus any and all expenses incurred by Operator in operating the Location during such month including, but not limited to, the cost of all insurance required to be carried by Operator as well as the actual cost to Operator of all inventory sold during such month (regardless of whether Operator purchased such inventory during the subject month, or any previous month). Each payment of Net Profits to Owner hereunder (or alternatively, demand by Operator for payment of the Fee and/or negative Net Profits) shall be accompanied by documentation, certified by an officer of Operator to be accurate, supporting Operator's calculation of Net Profits for the subject month.

8. Section 5 of the Operation Agreement also provided that BHI had no obligation to make the rent payments set forth in the Willard Lease. Specifically:

During the term of this Agreement, Operator shall have no obligation to make the rent payments set forth in the Lease. Owner hereby acknowledges and agrees that the continuous operation of the Location by Operator and the payment of the Net Profits to Owner (if any) constitutes sufficient consideration of Operator's occupation of the Location and shall be in lieu of any obligation to pay rent under the Lease during the term of this Agreement.

9. Further, Section 9 of the Operation Agreement provides that Counter-defendants must indemnify BHI as follows:

Owner shall indemnify and defend Operator, and its officers, directors, owners, employees, affiliates and agents against, and hold them harmless from, any and all costs, expenses, claims, suits, liabilities, loss and damages, including attorneys' fees arising out of or relating to this Agreement and/or the services provided by Operator under this Agreement, excepting therefrom costs, expenses, claims, suits, liabilities, loss and damages arising as a result of Operator's gross negligence. The indemnification obligations set forth herein shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

- 10. BHI incurred a negative Net Profit during the term of the Operation Agreement, which was also insufficient to pay the Fee contemplated in Section 4 of the Operation Agreement.
- 11. However, Counter-defendants have failed to pay to BHI the amount of negative Net Profits plus the balance of the Fee as was required by Section 4 of the Operation Agreement.
- 12. Further, Counter-defendants have brought suit against BHI, seeking, inter alia, rental payments under the Willard Lease that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation Agreement.
- 13. Counter-defendants have also brought suit against Herbst, claiming, inter alia, that Herbst is liable for rental payments under the Willard Lease that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation Agreement by virtue of a guaranty between Herbst and Counter-defendants (the "Willard Guaranty").

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

14. Counterclaimants incorporate by reference all allegations previously stated in this

Counterclaim as though set forth fully herein.

- 15. The Operation Agreement constitutes a binding legal contract.
- 16. BHI performed under the terms of the Operation Agreement.
- 17. Counter-defendants' failure to pay to BHI the amount of negative Net Profits plus the balance of the Fee as was required by Section 4 of the Operation Agreement constitutes a breach of the Operation Agreement.
- 18. As a result of Counter-defendants' breach of the Operation Agreement, BHI has suffered damages in excess of $10,000, plus interest, attorneys' fees, and costs.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF (DECLARATORY RELIEF)

- 19. Counterclaimants incorporate by reference all allegations previously stated in this Counterclaim as though set forth fully herein.
- 20. Pursuant to NRS 30.040(1) and NRS 30.050, any person interested under a written contract, or whose rights, status, or other legal relations are affected by a contract, may have determined any question of construction or validity arising under the contract and obtain a declaration of rights, status, or other legal relations thereunder, regardless of whether or not a breach has occurred.
- 21. Here, a controversy exists because Counter-defendants have brought suit against BHI seeking, inter alia, rental payments under the Willard Lease that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation Agreement.
- 22. Similarly, Counter-defendants have brought suit against Herbst, claiming, inter alia, that Herbst is liable for rental payments under the Willard Lease that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation Agreement by virtue of the Willard Guaranty.
- 23. While BHI and Herbst deny any liability under the Willard Lease and Willard Guaranty, BHI and Herbst request a declaration that BHI and Herbst are not responsible for any of the rental payments that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation Agreement, as Section 5 of the Operation Agreement expressly provides that "[d]uring

1	the term of this Agreement, Operator shall have no obligation to make the rent payments set
2	forth in the Lease."
3	PRAYER FOR RELIEF
4	WHEREFORE, Counterclaimants pray for relief as follows against Counter-defendants:
5	1. Judgment for damages in excess of $10,000 in favor of BHI and against Counter-
6	defendants.
7	2. A judicial declaration that BHI and Herbst are not responsible for any of the rental
8	payments that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation
9	Agreement.
10	3. For all attorneys' fees, costs, and interest according to law; and
11	4. For such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

18 19 Counterclaimants Berry-Hinckley Industries and Jerry Herbst, by and through their counsel of record, Gordon Silver, allege as follows:

20

21

1. Berry-Hinckley Industries ("BHI") is a Nevada corporation.

22

2. Jerry Herbst ("Herbst," and collectively with BHI, "Counterclaimants") is an individual and a resident of the State of Nevada.

2324

3. Counter-defendant Larry J. Willard ("Willard") is, on information and belief, a resident of California, and at all relevant times herein was trustee of the Larry James Willard Trust Fund (the "Willard Trust").

4. Counter-defendant Overland Development Corporation, Inc., dba LJW Enterprises, Inc. ("Overland"), is, on information and belief, a California corporation.

5. On information and belief, Willard is the president of Overland. Willard, the Willard Trust, and Overland are collectively referred to hereinafter as "Counter-defendants."

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

On May 1, 2013, BHI entered into an Operation and Management Agreement (the "Operation Agreement") with Counter-defendants related to the real property located at 7695 S. Virginia Street in Reno, Nevada, which BHI had occupied pursuant to a Lease Agreement by and payable as set forth below.

between BHI and Counter-defendants (the "Willard Lease"). A true and correct copy of the Operation Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

8 9

7. Pertinent to this Counterclaim, Section 4 of the Operation Agreement provided the following with respect to compensation to BHI, who is defined in the Operation Agreement as the "Operator":

10

In consideration of Operator performing the Services and other mutual covenants set forth herein, Owner shall pay to Operator the sum of Ten Thousand and No/100ths Dollars ($10,000.00) per month (the "Fee"), and Owner then shall be entitled to all Net Profits (below defined) generated at the Location during each month of the term of this Agreement. The Fee and Net Profits payment shall be

24

Operator shall have fifty (50) days from the end of each month to tender the Net Profits to Owner and provide Owner with an accounting of the subject month's Net Profits. Based thereon, commencing on July 20, 2013, and continuing no later than the twentieth (20th) day of each month thereafter as necessary depending on the length of the term of this Agreement, Operator shall tender to Owner the subject month's Net Profits attributable to the Location, minus the Fee, which such Fee shall be retained by Operator. In the event that the Net Profits for any given month are negative or otherwise not sufficient to pay the Fee, Owner shall not be entitled to any payment and shall instead pay to Operator the amount of the negative Net Profits (if applicable) plus the balance of the Fee within three (3) days of receipt of written demand therefore. As used herein, the term Net Profits shall mean the gross receipts collected by Operator in operating the Location in any given month, minus any and all expenses incurred by Operator in operating the Location during such month including, but not limited to, the cost of all insurance required to be carried by Operator as well as the actual cost to Operator of all inventory sold during such month (regardless of whether Operator purchased such inventory during the subject month, or any previous month). Each payment of Net Profits to Owner hereunder (or alternatively, demand by Operator for payment of the Fee and/or negative Net Profits) shall be accompanied by documentation, certified by an officer of Operator to be accurate, supporting Operator's calculation of Net Profits for the subject month.

8. Section 5 of the Operation Agreement also provided that BHI had no obligation to make the rent payments set forth in the Willard Lease. Specifically:

During the term of this Agreement, Operator shall have no obligation to make the rent payments set forth in the Lease. Owner hereby acknowledges and agrees that the continuous operation of the Location by Operator and the payment of the Net Profits to Owner (if any) constitutes sufficient consideration of Operator's occupation of the Location and shall be in lieu of any obligation to pay rent under the Lease during the term of this Agreement.

9. Further, Section 9 of the Operation Agreement provides that Counter-defendants must indemnify BHI as follows:

Owner shall indemnify and defend Operator, and its officers, directors, owners, employees, affiliates and agents against, and hold them harmless from, any and all costs, expenses, claims, suits, liabilities, loss and damages, including attorneys' fees arising out of or relating to this Agreement and/or the services provided by Operator under this Agreement, excepting therefrom costs, expenses, claims, suits, liabilities, loss and damages arising as a result of Operator's gross negligence. The indemnification obligations set forth herein shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

- 10. BHI incurred a negative Net Profit during the term of the Operation Agreement, which was also insufficient to pay the Fee contemplated in Section 4 of the Operation Agreement.
- 11. However, Counter-defendants have failed to pay to BHI the amount of negative Net Profits plus the balance of the Fee as was required by Section 4 of the Operation Agreement.
- 12. Further, Counter-defendants have brought suit against BHI, seeking, inter alia, rental payments under the Willard Lease that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation Agreement.
- 13. Counter-defendants have also brought suit against Herbst, claiming, inter alia, that Herbst is liable for rental payments under the Willard Lease that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation Agreement by virtue of a guaranty between Herbst and Counter-defendants (the "Willard Guaranty").

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

14. Counterclaimants incorporate by reference all allegations previously stated in this

Counterclaim as though set forth fully herein.

- 15. The Operation Agreement constitutes a binding legal contract.
- 16. BHI performed under the terms of the Operation Agreement.
- 17. Counter-defendants' failure to pay to BHI the amount of negative Net Profits plus the balance of the Fee as was required by Section 4 of the Operation Agreement constitutes a breach of the Operation Agreement.
- 18. As a result of Counter-defendants' breach of the Operation Agreement, BHI has suffered damages in excess of $10,000, plus interest, attorneys' fees, and costs.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF (DECLARATORY RELIEF)

- 19. Counterclaimants incorporate by reference all allegations previously stated in this Counterclaim as though set forth fully herein.
- 20. Pursuant to NRS 30.040(1) and NRS 30.050, any person interested under a written contract, or whose rights, status, or other legal relations are affected by a contract, may have determined any question of construction or validity arising under the contract and obtain a declaration of rights, status, or other legal relations thereunder, regardless of whether or not a breach has occurred.
- 21. Here, a controversy exists because Counter-defendants have brought suit against BHI seeking, inter alia, rental payments under the Willard Lease that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation Agreement.
- 22. Similarly, Counter-defendants have brought suit against Herbst, claiming, inter alia, that Herbst is liable for rental payments under the Willard Lease that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation Agreement by virtue of the Willard Guaranty.
- 23. While BHI and Herbst deny any liability under the Willard Lease and Willard Guaranty, BHI and Herbst request a declaration that BHI and Herbst are not responsible for any of the rental payments that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation Agreement, as Section 5 of the Operation Agreement expressly provides that "[d]uring

1	the term of this Agreement, Operator shall have no obligation to make the rent payments set
2	forth in the Lease."
3	PRAYER FOR RELIEF
4	WHEREFORE, Counterclaimants pray for relief as follows against Counter-defendants:
5	1. Judgment for damages in excess of $10,000 in favor of BHI and against Counter-
6	defendants.
7	2. A judicial declaration that BHI and Herbst are not responsible for any of the rental
8	payments that Counter-defendants claim were incurred during the term of the Operation
9	Agreement.
10	3. For all attorneys' fees, costs, and interest according to law; and
11	4. For such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
12	AFFIRMATION Property 44 A NDS 220B 020
13	Pursuant to NRS 239B.030

As used herein, the term Net Profits shall mean the gross receipts collected by Operator in operating the Location in any given month, minus any and all expenses incurred by Operator in operating the Location during such month including, but not limited to, the cost of all insurance required to be carried by Operator as well as the actual cost to Operator of all inventory sold during such month (regardless of whether Operator purchased such inventory during the subject month, or any previous month). Each payment of Net Profits to Owner hereunder (or alternatively, demand by Operator for payment of the Fee and/or negative Net Profits) shall be accompanied by documentation, certified by an officer of Operator to be accurate, supporting Operator's calculation of Net Profits for the subject month.

OPERATOR'S EMPLOYEES.

Operator shall select and maintain the staff of employees for the Location as Operator deems necessary for its performance of the Services hereunder. All personnel furnished by Operator for its performance of the Services hereunder shall be the employees of Operator, and Operator shall have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to select, hire, pay, supervise, discipline and discharge such employees. FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendants' Counterclaim, and each and every allegation contained therein, fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendant Herbst is estopped from bringing the Counterclaim, and each and every allegation contained therein, and has waived any and all rights to pursue the claims alleged in the Counterclaim by virtue of Section 2 of the Guaranty executed by Defendant Herbst, which reads as follows:

2. Remedies and Rights of the Lessor. The Guarantor agrees that if and to the extent that BHI either (a) fails to satisfy any of the Guaranteed Obligations and fails to remedy such failure within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice from the Lessor of such failure, or (b) is subject to a pending petition for relief under Chapter 7 or Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, the Guarantor will be directly responsible for the full extent This Agreement is an of any unsatisfied Guaranteed Obligations. unconditional, absolute, present and continuing guaranty of payment and performance, and will remain in full force and effect without regard to, and the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder shall not he impaired, affected or released by, any of the following: (i) any modification, supplement, extension or amendment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Lease; (ii) any extension, indulgence or other action in respect thereto or therefor; (iii) any failure or delay by the Lessor or BHI in exercising any right or power under the Lease; (iv) any invalidity or unenforceability in any respect of, or any irregularity or other defect in any of, the Lease or Guaranteed Obligations; (v) any exercise or non-exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege in respect of this Agreement or any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (vi) any transfer of the assets of Lessor to, or any consolidation or merger of the Lessor with or into, any other entity; (vii) any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets, receivership, insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or similar proceeding affecting BHI or any of its assets; or (viii) any allegation or contest of the validity of the Lease or this Agreement. The Guarantor hereby waives any defense to its obligations hereunder that might arise as a result of any of the foregoing, and hereby waives the effect of any fact, circumstance or event of any nature whatsoever that would exonerate, or constitute or give rise to a defense to, the obligation of a surety or guarantor. Without limitation, except to the extent specifically provided in Paragraph 2 hereof, the Guarantor waives any right it may have to require the Lessor, and any obligation the Lessor may have, to proceed first against BHI or exhaust any remedies that it may have against BHI in respect of non-payment or non-performance of the Guaranteed Obligations, before demand for payment or performance by the Guarantor under this Agreement. THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that Defendants obtained Counter-Defendants' consent to enter into the Operation Agreement through fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation and that as a result the Operation Agreement is invalid.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that Defendants waived each purported cause of action in Defendants' Counterclaim.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that their performance arising under the Operation Agreement was conditioned upon Defendants first performing, or another act or condition to occur, that such performance, act, or condition never took place, and that as a result Counter-Defendants were never obligated to perform. Specifically, Defendants failed to satisfy the conditions precedent to Counter-Defendants' performance in failing to provide Counter-Defendants with a certified accounting and supporting documents of Defendants' Net Profits on July 20, 2013 as required under Section 4 of the Operation Agreement, failing to provide Counter-Defendants with a certified accounting and supporting documents of the subject month's Net Profits within fifty (50) days from the end of the subject month as required under Section 4 of the Operation Agreement, and failing to make a demand to Counter-Defendants for the alleged negative Net Profits as required under Section 4 of the Operation Agreement.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that Defendants failed to comply with the terms of the Operation Agreement by breaching the implied warranty of good faith and fair dealing by acting unreasonably, denying the benefits of the Operation Agreement to Counter-Defendants.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants are informed and believe, and based upon such information and belief allege that Defendants are barred by the Equitable Doctrine of Unclean Hands from obtaining the relief requested in the Counterclaim.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that Defendants owe money to Counter-Defendants and that as a result if any amount is owed, which Counter-Defendants deny, Counter-Defendants owe less than the amount claimed by Defendants.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that even if Defendants' other allegations are true, Defendants did not suffer any damages.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that they performed all duties owed under the Operation Agreement other than any duties that were prevented or excused, and therefore Counter-Defendants never breached the Operation Agreement.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that Defendants failed to take reasonable steps to reduce or minimize the damages alleged. Specifically, Defendants failed to exercise reasonable diligence in d the Location during the effective period of the Operation Agreement.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that Defendants acted in bad faith in failing to perform the duties required of them under the Operation Agreement and therefore Defendants should be barred from recovery in any amount.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that Defendants are not entitled to an award of attorneys' fees under the Operation Agreement nor at law for Counter-Defendants' alleged breach.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that the injuries, if any, suffered by Defendants as alleged in the Counterclaim were caused in whole or in part by the acts or omissions of Defendants, reducing the amount of recovery, if any, available to Defendants.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that the injuries, if any, suffered by Defendants as alleged in the Counterclaim were caused in whole or in part by the acts or omissions of a third party over which Counter-Defendants had no control.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that the injuries, if any, suffered by Defendants as alleged in the Counterclaim were caused in whole or in part by the acts or omissions of a third party over which Counter-Defeudants had no control.

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that Defendants brought this Counterclaim without reasonable cause and without a good faith belief that there was a justifiable controversy under the facts or the law which warranted the filing of the Counterclaim against Counter-Defendants. Defendants should therefore be responsible for and reimburse Counter-Defendants all of Counter-Defendants necessary and reasonable attorney's fees and defense costs.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants allege that Defendants have suffered no damage and are not entitled to the relief sought, and that any claim for damages are speculative in nature.

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Pursuant to NRCP 11, all possible affirmative defenses and/or counterclaims may not have been fully alleged herein, in so far as sufficient facts were not available after reasonable inquiry upon the filing of this Answer and, therefore, Counter-Defendants reserve the right to amend this Answer to allege additional affirmative defenses and counterclaims if subsequent investigation warrants.

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Counter-Defendants deny each and every allegation of the Counterclaim not specifically admitted or otherwise pled to herein.

WHEREFORE, Counter-Defendants pray for judgment on Defendants' Counterclaim as follows:

- 1. That Defendants take nothing by their Counterclaim and that the Counterclaim be dismissed with prejudice in its entirety;
 - 2. For costs incurred in defense of Defendants' Counterclaim;
 - 3. For reasonable attorney's fees incurred in defense of this action;
 - 4. For such other relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

MOTION TO FOR CONTEMPT PURSUANT TO NRCP 45(e) AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS AGAINST PLAINTIFFS' COUNSEL PURSUANT TO NRCP 37

Defendants Berry-Hinckley Industries and Jerry Herbst (collectively, "Defendants"), by and through their attorneys of record, Dickinson Wright PLLC, hereby respectfully submit this Motion for Contempt and/or Motion for Sanctions, seeking to compel third-party Daniel Gluhaich to comply with the Subpoena Duces Tecum with which he was served, and seeking sanctions against counsel for the Plaintiffs in this case, Brian P. Moquin. This Motion is based upon NRCP 37 and NRCP 45, the following memorandum of points and authorities and declaration of Brian R. Irvine, attached hereto as Exhibit 1, all pleadings and papers on file herein, and any other material that this Court may choose to consider.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES FACTS AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

While this Motion concerns the failure of third-party Daniel Gluhaich to respond to Defendants' Subpoena Duces Tecum with which he was served, Defendants respectfully submit that Mr. Gluhaich's failure to respond to the Duces Tecum appears largely to be a result of Mr. Moquin's dilatory conduct.

On June 11, 2015, counsel for Defendants wrote to counsel for Plaintiffs regarding a Subpoena Duces Tecum for Mr. Gluhaich (the "Subpoena," attached hereto as Exhibit 2), and inquired (1) whether Mr. Gluhaich or his company would be the more appropriate recipient of such a subpoena; and (2) whether Mr. Moquin would accept service of the Subpoena on behalf of Mr. Gluhaich. (June 11, 2015, email exchange, Exhibit 3.) Mr. Moquin responded that Mr.

Gluhaich was the proper recipient of the Subpoena and that Mr. Moquin had authority to accept service on Mr. Gluhaich's behalf. Id.

On June 29, 2015, counsel for Defendants sent to Mr. Gluhaich and Plaintiffs' counsel the following: (1) the Subpoena; (2) a form for acceptance of service; and (3) a cover letter listing the deadlines to respond. (June 29, 2015, email, Exhibit 4.) Specifically, the cover letter stated, in pertinent part, that Mr. Gluhaich was required to (1) produce true, legible, and durable copies of the documents identified in the Subpoena at the office of Talty Court Reporters, 2131 The Alameda, San Jose, CA 95126, on July 20, 2015, at 9:00 a.m.; or (2) in lieu of his personal appearance on that date, to deliver copies of the documents to the office of Defendants' counsel on or before July 15, 2015, at 9:00 a.m., along with a Certificate of Authenticity. (Cover Letter, Exhibit 4.) Mr. Moquin acknowledged receipt of the Subpoena and signed the acceptance of service. (June 29, 2015, email response, Exhibit 5.)

On July 17, 2015, Defendants' counsel informed Mr. Moquin that Defendants had not yet received any responses from Mr. Gluhaich. (July 17, 2015, email exchange, Exhibit 6.) Mr. Moquin responded that responses would be tendered at Talty Court Reporters on July 20, 2015. Id. Mr. Moquin subsequently represented that, in lieu of having Mr. Gluhaich appear at the San Jose court reporter's office, he would place the responsive documents, along with a Certification of Authenticity from Mr. Gluhaich, into an emailed Dropbox file on July 20, 2015, notwithstanding that the deadline for providing documents other than a personal appearance at Talty Court Reports was July 15, 2015. Id. Importantly, based on Mr. Moquin's representation that he would submit Mr. Gluhaich's response via Dropbox, Defendants' counsel took the records deposition off calendar and did not require Mr. Gluhaich's personal appearance at Talty Court Reporters on July 20, 2015. (Decl. of B. Irvine, Exhibit 1.)

On July 20, 2015, Mr. Moquin informed Defendants' counsel that he had "been working for 20 hours straight on the Gluhaich subpoena response," and "should have it to [Defendants' counsel] sometime [that night]." (July 20, 2015, email, Exhibit 7.) Mr. Moquin also assured Defendants' counsel that he would provide documents to supplement Plaintiffs' wholly deficient discovery responses by July 21, 2015. Id.

Mr. Moquin did not provide any documents to Defendants' counsel by the dates specified in his email. (Decl. of B. Irvine, Exhibit 1.) On July 21, 2015, Defendants' counsel informed Mr. Moquin that they had still not received a response to the Subpoena. (July 21, 2015, email, Exhibit 7.) Defendants' counsel admonished Mr. Moquin that "[a]s of [July 22, 2015, the next day], that response will be one-week late and we will have no choice but to file another motion. Please advise as to the status of that response." Id.

On July 23, 2015, Defendants' counsel informed Mr. Moquin that Defendants still did not have responses from Mr. Gluhaich, stating as follows:

[W]e still do not have a response to our subpoena to Mr. Gluhaich. The response is now eight days late, and you have fallen into a pattern of ignoring discovery deadlines. We intend to file a motion tomorrow and seek relief on shortened time unless I have a response by morning. I am truly not trying to be difficult, but these continued delays are not allowing us to conduct the discovery we need to prepare this case for our clients.

(July 23, 2015, email, Exhibit 8.) Mr. Moquin did not provide a substantive response indicating when documents responsive to the subpoena to Mr. Gluhaich would be produced. (Decl. of B. Irvine, Exhibit 1.) And, as of today's date, Defendants have not received any documents responsive to the Subpoena. Id.

DISCUSSION

Pursuant to NRCP 45(e), "[f]ailure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued." Here, Mr. Gluhaich has failed to timely respond to the Subpoena: his delivery of documents, along with a Certificate of Authenticity, is already nine days late. (Cover Letter, Exhibit 4.) Thus, Defendants respectfully request that this Court compel Mr. Gluhaich to produce all documents responsive to the Subpoena.

Additionally, as noted herein, Mr. Gluhaich's failure to timely comply with the subpoena appears to be attributable to Mr. Moquin.Mr. Moquin appears to have an established relationship with Mr. Gluhaich, and it is clear that Mr. Gluhaich has a long-standing relationship with each of the Plaintiffs as their real estate broker. Mr. Moquin certainly represented that he was authorized to accept service on Mr. Gluhaich's behalf and assured Defendants that he would timely provide the documents responsive to the subpoena directed at Mr. Gluhaich on behalf of Mr. Gluhaich. (July 17, 2015, email exchange, Exhibit 6.) Based on Mr. Moquin's representation that he would facilitate Mr. Gluhaich's response via Dropbox, Defendants' counsel did not require Mr. Gluhaich's personal appearance at Talty Court Reporters on July 20, 2015. (Decl. of B. Irvine, Exhibit 1.) In other words, but for Mr. Moquin's representations, Defendants would have taken steps to procure the responsive documents from Mr. Gluhaich on July 20, 2015, at Talty Court Reporters.

Indeed, according to Mr. Moquin, Mr. Gluhaich has already provided Mr. Moquin with responsive documents on or before July 20, 2015, as Mr. Moquin purportedly "work[ed] for 20 hours straight on the Gluhaich subpoena response" on July 20, 2015. (July 20, 2015, email, Exhibit 7.) In fact, Mr. Moquin represented in June that Mr. Gluhaich provided Mr. Moquin with "162,000 e-mail messages" in response to Defendants' discovery requests to Plaintiffs. (June 23, 2015, email, Exhibit 9.) If Mr. Moquin had responsive documents as of the Subpoena deadline, the delay in responding to the Subpoena is attributable to Mr. Moquin.

Defendants also note that Mr. Moquin's repeated—but empty—reassurances of forthcoming documents have become a pattern. As this Court is aware, Plaintiffs' first round of discovery responses in this matter were more than 20 days late (following several extensions), resulting in this Court compelling Plaintiffs to produce their responses and awarding Defendants their fees. (Order Granting Motion to Compel, on file herein.) Since that time, Mr. Moquin has not only delayed in providing responses to the Subpoena, he has also delayed in providing supplemental responses to Plaintiffs' deficient discovery responses. (See, e.g., July 20, 2015, email, Exhibit 7.) Defendants have heard excuses ranging from business trips to India, to potential eviction, to last-minute hearings or trials, to ignorance of the fact that verification of discovery responses must be notarized. Defendants are certainly sympathetic to any justified requests for extensions, but Mr. Moquin's repeated failure to provide Defendants with responsive documents is severely hampering Defendants' ability to conduct the discovery necessary to defend this case.

Plaintiffs' unjustifiable and continual failure to provide Defendants with responses to Defendants' discovery requests has left Defendants with no choice but to file the present Motion. Further, Defendants have made repeated efforts to obtain documents responsive to the subpoena from Mr. Moquin. (See, e.g., July 17, 2015, email exchange, Exhibit 6; July 21, 2015, email, Exhibit 7; July 23, 2015, email, Exhibit 9.) Defendants have also notified Mr. Moquin on two occasions that absent a response to the Subpoena, Defendants would file a motion for relief. (See, e.g., July 21, 2015, email, Exhibit 7; July 23, 2015, email, Exhibit 9.) Thus, Defendants respectfully request that this Court award Defendants the fees and costs associated with the filing of this Motion against Mr. Moquin. Pursuant to NRCP 37(a)(4)(A):

If the motion is granted or if the disclosure or requested discovery is provided after the motion was filed, the court shall, after affording an opportunity to be heard, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in making the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the motion was filed without the movant's first making a good faith effort to obtain the disclosure or discovery without court action, or that the opposing party's nondisclosure, response or objection was substantially justified, or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

Defendants also note that Defendants have propounded additional discovery requests to Plaintiffs, responses to which are due by August 6, 2015. (Decl. of B. Irvine, Exhibit 1.) Defendants have also scheduled three depositions, at least one of which Mr. Moquin has already attempted to reschedule. Id. Defendants fear that, absent affirmative relief against Mr. Moquin, a pattern of obstructive conduct will continue and Defendants will continue to be severely prejudiced in their attempt to defend this case.

CONCLUSION 1 Based on the foregoing, Defendants respectfully request that this Court compel responses 2 3 to the Subpoena and award sanctions against Mr. Moquin in the form of Defendants' fees and costs associated with the filing of this Motion. 4 AFFIRMATION 5 Pursuant to NRS 239B.030 6 The undersigned does hereby affirm that the preceding document does not contain the 7 social security number of any person. 8 DATED this 24th day of July, 2015. 9 DICKINSON WRIGHT PLLC 10 11 12 By: /s/ Brian Irvine JOHN P. We plan to serve a document-only subpoena duces tecum for Mr. Daniel Gluhaich. We know that Mr. Gluhaich is employed at Intero Real Estate Services; do you know if we should issue the subpoena to Mr. Gluhaich, Intero, or to both? We want to ensure that the recipient of the subpoena has the appropriate authority to provide us with our requested documents, whether that be Mr. Gluhaich or Intero.

Additionally, are you authorized to accept service of the subpoena?

Thank you, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sorry, I must have missed the episode of Sesame Street where the definition of the term "deposition" was redefined.

I will place the responsive documents along with a certification from Mr. Gluhaich in the Dropbox share on Monday.

You misunderstand me, and how records depositions work. We either need Mr. Gluhaich to sign the custodian of records certificate provided as part of his subpoena packet (which we should have received on July 15, 2015 pursuant to the subpoena), or he needs to appear personally at the Court Reporter's office on Monday and confirm on the record that he is providing documents that are fully responsive to the subpoena.

I don't want to come to San Jose on Monday, and I don't want to take Mr. Gluhaich's deposition on Monday. But, I do need him to certify that he is supplying documents that are fully-responsive to the subpoena. I would prefer to use Dropbox again as opposed to taking an unnecessary trip. Please confirm that is how you intend to proceed, and that Mr. Gluhaich will include the custodian of records certificate as part of his production.

Thanks,

Brian

Rule 45(c)(2)(A) states: "A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial." The subpoena you served requests that Mr. Gluhaich "produce and permit inspection and copying of designated materials, information, or tangible things in the possession, custody, or control of the deponent," not that he "attend and give testimony at a deposition." Your letter stated, "You are required, pursuant to Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 45, to produce true, legible, and durable copies of the documents identified in Exhibit A to the Subpoena Duces Tecum at the office of Talty Court Reporters, 2131 The Alameda, San Jose, CA 95126 on July 20, 2015, at 9:00 a.m. If you fail to attend, you may be deemed guilty of contempt of Court and liable to pay all losses and damages caused by your failure to appear." Nowhere does it state that Mr. Gluhaich needed to appear to be deposed.

If you prefer, I can deliver the documents on Monday via Dropbox. If not, even if Mr. Gluhaich accompanies me to Talty Court Reporters on Monday to deliver the records, he will not submit to a deposition at that time since he was nowise commanded to do so. You have already noticed Mr. Gluhaich for deposition in late August, and he plans to attend that deposition.

I'll be offline until I land in Hong Kong in about ten hours.

Thanks for your response. Does that mean that Mr. Gluhaich intends to appear personally for a duces tecum records deposition on July 20, 2015 at 9:00 a.m. in San Jose? The letter you referenced specified that Mr. Gluhaich could personally appear and produce records on July 20, 2015, or in the alternative, that he could deliver copies to my office in Reno on or before July 15, 2015.

Please clarify, as I do not want to travel to San Jose on Monday for the deposition if the documents will be mailed or provided via Dropbox.

Per your letter dated June 29, 2015 that accompanied the subpoena duces tecum to Mr. Gluhaich, you extended the deadlines to produce copies at Talty Court Reporters in San Jose, California until July 20, 2015. Responsive documents will be tendered as specified on July 20, 2015.

Note that I will be traveling home and most likely unavailable until Saturday, July 18 after 11:30 P.M.

Dear Brian-

I just listened to your voice message regarding the cancellation of the deposition of Larry Willard set for August 19, 2015. As you know, we have been attempting to conduct written discovery and take several depositions in this matter, all of which needs to be completed well in advance of the September 11, 2015 deadline for the disclosure of initial expert witnesses. The August 19, 2015 date was agreed-upon, and is at the very end of what I consider to be reasonable to allow sufficient time for the preparation of deposition transcripts that could be reviewed and relied upon by potential experts. Is it possible for your co-counsel, Mr. O'Mara, to defend the deposition so we can keep the date? That would be my preference. If that is absolutely not possible, we need an alternative date immediately, and we still intend to take the deposition in Reno so my client does not incur additional expenses.

Also, we still do not have a response to our subpoena to Mr. Gluhaich. The response is now eight days late, and you have fallen into a pattern of ignoring discovery deadlines. We intend to file a motion tomorrow and seek relief on shortened time unless I have a response by morning. I am truly not trying to be difficult, but these continued delays are not allowing us to conduct the discovery we need to prepare this case for our clients.

Sincerely,

Brian Irvine

I called and spoke with Mr. Irvine when the question regarding issuing a subpoena to Mr. Gluhaich arose. I told him that I was going down to retrieve documents from Mr. Gluhaich, which I did. I have been working literally day and night ever since, culling through 162,000 e-mail messages that I received from him to extract messages related to the discovery responses. While it is certainly within your right to file a motion to compel, I will have the responses to you by the end of this week.

LARRY J. WILLARD, individually and as trustee of the Larry James Willard Trust Fund: OVERLAND DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION, a California corporation; Counter-defendants.

Defendants/Counterclaimants Berry-Hinckley Industries ("BHI") and Jerry Herbst (collectively, "Defendants") hereby bring this Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on certain claims for consequential damages asserted by Plaintiffs Larry J. Willard, individually and as trustee of the Larry James Willard Trust Fund, and Overland Development Corporation (collectively, "Willard"), and Edward C. Wooley and Judith A. Wooley, individually and as trustees of the Edward C. Wooley and Judith A. Wooley Trust 2000 (collectively, "Wooley"). This Motion is made pursuant to NRCP 56, the attached memorandum of points and authorities, the affidavit of Timothy Herbst (Exhibit 1), all pleadings and papers on file herein, and any other material that this Court may choose to consider.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES INTRODUCTION

This is an action for breach of lease agreements that were entered into by Defendants and two separate groups of Plaintiffs: Willard and Wooley. The lease agreements were for different parcels of property. This Motion addresses Plaintiffs' baseless claims for millions of dollars in purported consequential damages to which Plaintiffs are not entitled as a matter of law.

¹While two motions could have been filed to address Willard's Wooley's claims separately, Defendants chose to file one motion because the legal issues regarding Willard and Wooley's claims addressed herein greatly overlap and it is therefore more efficient to address both Willard and Wooley's claims in the same motion. As filing one motion instead of two has caused Defendants to exceed the page limits set forth in this Court's Order, Defendants are contemporaneously filing a motion to exceed page limits.

Specifically, well beyond the more than $20 million cumulatively sought by Plaintiffs as rent-based damages,² Plaintiffs also seek millions of dollars in damages for purported losses that do not result directly from any purported breach and that Plaintiffs have admitted were not foreseeable at the time the leases were executed. Plaintiffs' overreaching attempt to hold Defendants liable for costs that Defendants could not foresee and did not agree to is prohibited by Nevada law. Even worse, Plaintiffs never actually incurred many of their damages sought. Nevada law does not permit parties to use lawsuits as a means to profit millions of dollars beyond their actual purported losses; thus, Plaintiffs are not entitled to these damages as a matter of law. Finally, even if Plaintiffs incurred some of the unforeseeable damages sought, a review of the purported "damages" demonstrates just how overreaching is Plaintiffs' request for consequential damages. For example, Plaintiffs request attorneys' fees that they incurred in a previous action which they instituted against Defendants in an improper forum and in which Defendants, not Plaintiffs, were the prevailing party, as Defendants successfully obtained dismissal of the entire case in California. Plaintiffs' request for those fees, which is untimely, made in the wrong court, and not recoverable pursuant to prevailing party principles, is an example of how Plaintiffs are using this lawsuit to seek damages well beyond those permitted by law. This conduct should not be permitted and this Court should grant the Motion in order to streamline issues for trial.

The undisputed facts demonstrate that Plaintiffs are not entitled to the damages addressed herein as a matter of law. Thus, to streamline this case and eliminate consideration at trial of overreaching and impermissible damages requests which can be resolved in advance, Defendants respectfully request that this Court grant summary judgment in Defendants' favor and preclude Plaintiffs from seeking such damages at trial.

²Defendants have numerous defenses to these purported damages which will not be addressed in this Motion but at a later time.

FACTS AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

1. The Willard Lease.

In 2005, Willard and BHI entered into a commercial lease (the "Willard Lease") for the lease of real property in Reno, Nevada (the "Willard Property"). (Willard Lease, Exhibit 2; First Amended Complaint ("FAC") ¶ 9, on file herein). In 2007, Mr. Herbst entered into a guaranty agreement for the Willard Lease. (Willard Guaranty, Exhibit 3; FAC ¶ 11, on file herein).

Willard claims that BHI breached the Willard Lease in 2013. (FAC ¶ 12, on file herein). As a result of this purported breach, Willard seeks approximately $15 million in purported future rent. Id. ¶ 14. Willard also seeks more than $10 million in purported consequential damages which will be addressed in this Motion: (1) attorneys' fees allegedly incurred by Willard in an action Plaintiffs brought against Defendants in California; (2) fees Willard allegedly incurred in his voluntary bankruptcy; and (3) damages related to the short sale of the Willard Property. However, it is undisputed that these damages were not foreseeable and that many of these purported damages were not even actually incurred by Willard or are otherwise not recoverable.

Specifically, with respect to the "attorneys' fees" damages, upon BHI's purported breach, Willard (and Wooley) filed a lawsuit in California against Defendants and numerous other individuals and entities who had no relationship to Willard and Wooley, including Maryanne Herbst, JH Inc., Terrible Herbst, and Marc Berger. (Docket Sheet, Exhibit 4). Defendants moved to dismiss the California action for lack of personal jurisdiction because, amongst other things, all Defendants reside in Nevada, the leased property is located in Nevada, and the leases contained a forum selection clause that required any action to be filed in Nevada. (Second Amended Motion to Dismiss, Exhibit 5). The California court granted Defendants' motion and dismissed the case. (Docket Sheet p. 11 at 3/18/2014, Exhibit 4). Even though Defendants prevailed, and had to incur needless fees defending against this baseless action filed in an improper forum, Willard is now requesting his fees incurred in that action. This untimely request, made in the wrong court, is for $35,000 that Willard purportedly incurred in fees in that action. (FAC ¶ 18, on file herein).

With respect to the "bankruptcy fees" damages, Willard filed a voluntary bankruptcy in 2013. Id. ¶ 17. Willard seeks to recover from Defendants $22,623 in legal fees and $15,000 in accounting fees purportedly incurred in connection with this bankruptcy. Id. However, there are no facts in the record that demonstrate that this bankruptcy was or would have been foreseeable to Defendants at the time the parties executed the Willard Lease. In fact, Willard has admitted that he never discussed with Defendants that a breach of the Willard Lease could result in him filing bankruptcy. (Deposition of L. Willard at 115, Exhibit 6). Further, Willard's purported need to file bankruptcy at all is questionable, as Willard voluntarily dismissed the bankruptcy a mere six months after filing it. (FAC ¶ 17, on file herein).

Finally, with respect to the "short sale" damages, in March 2014, Willard sold the Willard Property in a short sale. Id. ¶ 15. Willard's lenders then forgave any remaining debt owed on the Willard Property after the short sale. (Deposition of L. Willard at 89, Exhibit 6). Willard now seeks to hold Defendants liable for more than $5 million³ of alleged tax consequences that purportedly resulted from the forgiven debt in the short sale, for $549,852 in closing costs, and for $4,437,500 of "lost earnest money" that Willard purportedly invested in the Willard Property. (FAC ¶ 15, on file herein). However, there are no facts in the record which demonstrate that this short sale was or would have been foreseeable at the time the parties executed the Willard Lease, nor that resulting tax consequences would have been foreseeable. (Affidavit of T. Herbst, Exhibit 1; Deposition of L. Willard p. 117-119, Exhibit 6). Further, Willard never actually paid the income tax or closing costs he seeks, and therefore, they are not recoverable as damages. (2014 Federal Tax Return for Overland, Exhibit 7; 2013

³Willard has estimated the tax consequences to be $2,430,000 for Overland and $3,152,000 for Mr. Willard. (Responses to First Set of Interrogatories at 7, Exhibit 12).

Exhibit 8; Seller's Final Closing Statement, Exhibit 9).

In 2005, BHI and Wooley entered into a commercial lease for the lease of property on Highway 50 ("Highway 50 Lease"). (Highway 50 Lease, Exhibit 10; FAC ¶ 28, on file herein). Mr. Herbst entered into a guaranty agreement on the lease in 2007. (Highway 50 Guaranty, Exhibit 11; FAC ¶ 31, on file herein). Wooley claims that BHI breached the Highway 50 Lease in 2013. (FAC \P 32, on file herein).

Federal Tax Return for Overland, Exhibit 24; 2014 Federal Tax Return for Mr. Willard,

In 2006, Wooley bought property on Baring Boulevard (the "Baring Property"), and BHI and Wooley entered into a separate lease for that property (the "Baring Lease"). (Baring Purchase Agreement, Exhibit 13; Baring Lease, Exhibit 14; FAC ¶ 29, on file herein). Upon Wooley's purchase of the Baring Property, Wooley entered into a mortgage loan for the Baring Property which purportedly contained a clause which "cross-collateralized" the Baring Property and the Highway 50 Property. (Baring Property Loan at ECW78 1.7, Exhibit 15). However, it is undisputed that neither BHI nor Mr. Herbst were party to Wooley's mortgage loan, and that neither BHI nor Mr. Herbst knew about the cross-collateralization provisions that are apparently contained in Wooley's financing documents. (Deposition of E. Wooley p. 119, 120, Exhibit 16; Affidavit of T. Herbst, Exhibit 1).

In or about December 2009, BHI assigned its interests and obligations in the Baring Lease to Jacksons Food Stores, Inc. (Assignment, Exhibit 17). Wooley subsequently sold the Baring Property while Jacksons was still a tenant in the Baring Property, receiving more than $870,000 from the sale. (HUD Statement, Exhibit 18). BHI was not in breach of the Baring Lease when Wooley sold the Baring Property. (Deposition of E. Wooley p. 99, 100, Exhibit 16).

⁴It is also undisputed that Jacksons was not in breach of the Baring Lease when Wooley initiated this lawsuit in Nevada. However, despite that fact, Wooley attempted to sue BHI for breach of the Baring Lease, seeking nearly $4 million in damages. (Initial Complaint at ¶¶ 34, Wooley seeks two categories of purported damages which will be addressed in this Motion. First, even though it is undisputed that Defendants did not know about the cross-collateralization and were not in breach of the Baring Lease when Wooley sold the Baring Property, Wooley seeks to recover more than $600,000 in damages he purportedly incurred from selling the Baring Property based upon its cross-collateralization with the Highway 50 Property. Specifically, Wooley claims that because the Baring Property was cross-collateralized with the Highway 50 Property, Defendants' purported breach of the Highway 50 Property forced Wooley to sell the Baring Property "at a loss" and he "incurred tax liabilities." (FAC, on file herein). Second, Wooley seeks $45,088 in attorneys' fees that he purportedly incurred in the baseless action that he and Willard improperly initiated against Defendants in California that was ultimately dismissed. Id.

3. Present procedural posture.

The parties have been conducting discovery for more than one year, and the facts pertinent to the consequential damages addressed in this Motion have been fully developed to allow this Court to grant summary judgment in Defendants' favor. (Decl. of B. Irvine, Exhibit 25). Both Mr. Willard and Mr. Wooley have stated that they have produced all pertinent documents to their counsel, and Mr. Wooley and Mr. Willard have each been deposed. (Deposition of L. Willard p. 131, Exhibit 6; Deposition of E. Wooley p. 14, Exhibit 16). No facts adduced thus far even remotely support an argument that the consequential damages sought by Plaintiffs were foreseeable and possibly recoverable. Thus, Defendants are entitled to summary judgment in order to properly focus the issues in this case.

42-44, on file herein.) Defendants were forced to bring this fact to Wooley's attention and threaten motion practice in this case before Wooley finally agreed to amend his pleading to remove a claim for breach of the Baring Lease. (November 2014 email exchange, Exhibit 19; January 2015 email exchange, Exhibit 20). This is another example of Plaintiffs' over-reaching approach to this entire case.

Interestingly, in the original complaint, Wooley attributed BHI's purported breach of the Baring Lease as being the reason for these claimed damages. (Initial Complaint at ¶¶ 42-44, on file herein.) Upon revising the complaint to remove allegations of BHI's purported breach of the Baring Lease, Wooley now attributes these damages to BHI's purported breach of the Highway 50 Lease.

the damages sought were not contemplated at the time of entry into the contracts. (Deposition of L. Willard p. 115, 117-119, Exhibit 6; Deposition of E. Wooley p. 119, 120, Exhibit 16). Further, Defendants are entitled to judgment on other bases in addition to the unforeseeable nature of the damages. Thus, summary judgment on Plaintiffs' request for consequential damages is appropriate. Jackson v. Roadway Exp., Inc., 2007 WL 1875932, at *3 (S.D. Tex. June 27, 2007) (awarding summary judgment where there was no evidence in the record that would support the foreseeability requirement of plaintiff's claims for consequential damages). In fact, summary judgment is necessary to streamline the case and avoid further resources wasted resolving claims that can be decided on the undisputed facts.

2. Willard is not entitled to consequential damages as a matter of law.

As noted, Willard seeks the following damages as a result of Defendants' purported breach: (1) Willard claims that "[Willard was] forced to sell the Willard Property in March 2014 in a short sale, thereby losing $4,437,500.00 of earnest money invested in the Willard Property and incurring at least $3,000,000.00 in tax consequences and $549,852.00 in closing costs," (FAC ¶15, on file herein); (2) "Willard filed for bankruptcy protection, incurring $22,623.00 in legal fees and $15,000 in accounting fees in the process," id. ¶17; and (3) Willard "hired an attorney to file suit against BHI and Herbst in Santa Clara County, California, thereby incurring $35,000 in attorney's fees." Id. ¶ 18. Willard is not entitled to these damages as a matter of law.

a. Willard is not entitled to any "short sale" damages.

First, Willard seeks three categories of "short sale" damages that he claims to have incurred by being "forced to sell the Willard Property in March 2014 in a short sale" as a result ⁶Certain categories of consequential damages sought by Willard are not addressed in this Motion but will be addressed at a later time.

⁷Willard has since revised that estimate to be $2,430,000 for Overland and $3,152,000 for Mr. Willard. (Responses to First Set of Interrogatories at 7, Exhibit 12).

of Defendants' purported breach: (1) earnest money invested in the Willard Property; (2) tax consequences resulting from his mortgage debt cancelled by the short sale; and (3) closing costs. (FAC ¶ 15, on file herein). Willard is not entitled to these damages as a matter of law for two independent reasons: (1) the loss and resulting damages were not foreseeable at the time the parties entered into the contracts; and (2) Willard did not actually incur many, if not all, of the damages sought.

i. The loss was not foreseeable at the time the parties entered into the contracts.

As a threshold matter, these damages are categorically not recoverable because the short sale and the resulting claimed damages were not a foreseeable consequence of Defendants' purported breach. There is no allegation by Willard that the short sale damages are direct damages that would necessarily result from a breach of the Willard Lease, such as lost rent. Nor does the Willard Lease address these damages in any way. Thus, Willard's request is properly classified as one for consequential damages.

"Damages are not recoverable for loss that the party in breach did not have reason to foresee as a probable result of the breach when the contract was made." Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 351(1); Hilton Hotels Corp., 98 Nev. at 115, 642 P.2d at 1087 ("There can be no recovery for damages that are not reasonably foreseeable at the time of the contract."). Indeed, a contracting party is not "liable in the event of breach for loss that he did not at the time of contracting have reason to foresee as a probable result of the breach." Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 351at cmt. a.

The only way such damages can be foreseeable is if the loss is a probable result of the breach: "loss may be foreseeable as a probable result of the breach because it follows from the breach (a) in the ordinary course of events, or (b) as a result of special circumstances, beyond the ordinary course of events, that the party in breach had reason to know." Id. at 351(2); Margolese v. Bruce, 902 F.2d 1578 (9th Cir. 1990) ("To recover consequential damages for breach of contract, plaintiffs must prove either: (1) the losses were reasonably foreseeable by the party to be charged at the time the contract was made; or (2) if the injury was not foreseeable, that the defendant had special knowledge of the risk he was undertaking."). Unless the loss is probable, "the mere circumstance that some loss was foreseeable, or even that some loss of the same general kind was foreseeable, will not suffice if the loss that actually occurred was not foreseeable." Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 351 at cmt. a. The burden of proving foreseeability is on the plaintiff. Margolese, 902 F.2d 1578 (discussing what the plaintiff must prove). Thus, for Willard's purported short sale damages to be recoverable, Willard must prove that the short sale and the resulting requested damages were a probable result of a breach at the time of the execution of the Willard Lease because they followed from the breach in the ordinary course of events or as a result of special circumstances that Defendants had reason to know.

The undisputed facts demonstrate that Willard cannot satisfy this burden as a matter of law. First, the claimed "forced sale" of a landlord's property would not occur in the ordinary course of events of a tenant's breach. Indeed, "[i]n the case of a lessee, the lessee generally does not expect that the lessor will lose his property if the lease is breached. Rather, a lessee would expect to be liable for lost rent and any physical damage to the premises." Margolese, 902 F.2d at 1578 (emphasis added); Enak Realty Corp. v. City of New York, 109 A.D.2d 814 (N.Y. Sup. 1985) ("We modify Special Term's order to the extent of striking plaintiff's demands for damages resulting from the foreclosure inasmuch as such damages were not a foreseeable result of the breach of the lease...."); Boise Joint Venture v. Moore, 806 P.2d 707, 710 (Or. Ct. App. 1991) ("To recover its equity as consequential damages, BJV had to prove that, at the time of contracting, the parties contemplated that, as the probable result of defendant's failing to make lease payments, BJV would allow its interest to be foreclosed and forfeit its equity. We agree with the trial court that BJV failed to prove that, when the parties contracted to lease the motel, they contemplated that defendant would be liable for repayment of BJV's equity.").

Discovery has revealed no evidence that Defendants knew anything, at the time the Willard Lease was executed, that would lead them to believe that a breach of that Lease would force Willard to sell the property at a short sale.

Even less foreseeable in the ordinary course of events are Willard's claimed tax consequences purportedly resulting from the claimed forced sale. See In re Coombs, 2012 WL 1578756, at *3 (Bankr. D.N.M. May 4, 2012). Even if Defendants had some knowledge that a future breach would have forced Willard to sell the property, they certainly would have had no idea that such sale would have caused income tax damages to Willard. Thus, the claimed damages were not possibly foreseeable in the ordinary course of events.

Because the loss claimed by Willard would not be a probable result of the purported breach in the ordinary course of events, Willard cannot recover the requested damages unless Willard can prove that Defendants had actual special knowledge at the time the parties entered into the contracts that it was probable that such a loss could occur in the event of a breach. It is undisputed that Willard cannot meet this burden. (Affidavit of T. Herbst, Exhibit 1). It is settled law that foreseeability is measured as of the time the parties enter into a contract. Hilton Hotels Corp., 98 Nev. at 115, 642 P.2d at 1087 ("There can be no recovery for damages that are not reasonably foreseeable at the time of the contract."); Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 351 at cmt. a ("A contracting party is generally expected to take account of those risks that are foreseeable at the time he makes the contract. He is not, however, liable in the event of breach for loss that he did not at the time of contracting have reason to foresee as a probable result of such a breach."). Here, the evidence adduced through discovery shows that Willard's claimed loss was not foreseeable at the time the parties entered into the contracts. In fact, Mr. Willard himself testified that he only spoke with Tim Herbst several years after the execution of the Lease (in 2008, or possibly 2012). (Willard Deposition at 117, 118:20-25, 119, Exhibit 6; Willard Lease, Exhibit 2; Willard Guaranty, Exhibit 3). Even then, Mr. Willard did not discuss the possibility, much less probability, of a forced sale. Id.; Restatement (Second) of Contracts §

351 at cmt. a. Mr. Willard has also not indicated that he spoke with any other representative of Defendants about these topics. Thus, while Defendants dispute ever having any knowledge that such loss or damages would be a probable result of any breach of the Willard Lease, it is undisputed that Defendants did not have any such knowledge at the time of entry into the contracts. Nor were there any objective indicia that the loss would be foreseeable. In other words, it is undisputed Defendants had no "special knowledge of the risk [they were] undertaking" at the time they entered into the contracts, and therefore such a risk cannot be attributed to them. Margolese, 902 F.2d at 1578.

Therefore, because the claimed loss was not foreseeable to Defendants at the time they entered into the contracts, either in the ordinary course of events or through special knowledge, the undisputed facts and law demonstrate that Willard is not entitled to recover these damages from Defendants. Defendants respectfully request that this Court deny Willard's claim for its short sale consequential damages as a matter of law.

ii. Willard did not incur many of the claimed short sale damages.

Further, even if the claimed damages were somehow foreseeable, Willard never actually incurred many, if not all, of the damages sought. Willard is not entitled to damages not incurred: "the party seeking damages has the burden of proving both the fact of damages and the amount thereof." Mort Wallin of Lake Tahoe, Inc. v. Commercial Cabinet Co., 105 Nev. 855, 857, 784 P.2d 954, 955 (1989); 22 Am. Jur. 2d Damages § 48 ("As a general rule, a non-breaching party is not entitled, through the award of damages, to achieve a better or superior position to the one it would reasonably have occupied had the breach not occurred.").

Specifically, with respect to the purported tax consequences, Willard claims to have incurred "at least $3,000,000 in tax consequences" from the short sale. (FAC ¶ 15, on file herein). Willard has since revised that estimate to be $2,430,000 for Overland and $3,152,000 for Mr. Willard. (Responses to First Set of Interrogatories at 7, Exhibit 12). Presumably, these "tax consequences" were incurred as a result of mortgage debt forgiven by the lender as part of the short sale. (Deposition of L. Willard at 89, Exhibit 6). However, the tax returns for both Overland and Mr. Willard demonstrate that neither Overland nor Mr. Willard ever actually paid income tax on the forgiven debt; in fact, they did not pay any income taxes at all for 2014, when the short sale closed. (2014 Federal Tax Return Overland, Exhibit 7; 2014 Federal Tax Return Mr. Willard, Exhibit 8). Rather, both Overland and Mr. Willard avoided those taxes entirely by claiming to be insolvent prior to the cancellation of the mortgage debt, relieving their obligation to include the canceled debt in their taxable income. Id.;(IRS Publication 4681 at 5, Exhibit 21 ("Don't include a canceled debt income to the extent that you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation.")); IRC 108(a)(1)(B) ("Gross income does not include any amount which (but for this subsection) would be includible in gross income by reason of the discharge (in whole or in part) of indebtedness of the taxpayer if the discharge occurs when the taxpayer is insolvent.").

Specifically, in describing the short sale and cancellation of debt resulting from the short sale, Overland's tax return stated as follows:

NCUAB/TCCU Bank, - Account #[redacted], first loan on the [Willard Property] has issued form 1099-C debt cancelled in the total amount of $8,597,250 under debtor's ID# [redacted] and debtor's name Overland Development Corp., Inc. The property is 41% owned by Overland Development Inc. and 59% owned by Larry J. Willard, Truste[e] of the Larry James Willard Trust dated 11/14/1987. The amount of cancellation of debt for Overland development Inc. is $3,524,873. Overland Development Inc.'s total of all its liabilities exceed the [fair market value] of all of its assets immediately before the cancellation of this debt. Therefore Overland Development Inc. is considered insolvent.

(2014 Federal Tax Return Overland at Federal Supplemental Information pg. 1, Exhibit 7). Overland claimed $3,524,873 as "discharged indebtedness excluded from gross income." Id. at Form 982. Overland did not pay or owe anything in income tax for the year 2014, the year the short sale occurred. Tax Return at pg. 1, lines 32, 34; (2013 Federal Tax Return Overland at pg. 1, lines 30, 34, Federal Statements pg. 2, Exhibit 24).

Similarly, in describing the short sale and cancellation of debt resulting from the short sale, Mr. Willard's tax return stated that:

NCUAB/TCCU Bank, - Account #[redacted], first loan on the [Willard Property] has issued form 1099-C debt cancelled in the total amount of $8,597,250 under debtor's ID#[redacted] and debtor's name Overland Development Corp., Inc. The property is 41% owned by Overland Development Inc. and 59% owned by Larry J. Willard, Truste[e] of the Larry James Willard Trust dated 11/14/1987. Taxpayer's total of all his liabilities exceed the [fair market value] of all of his assets immediately before the cancellation of this debt. Therefore taxpayer is considered insolvent.

(2014 Federal Tax Return for Mr. Willard at Federal Supplemental Information, Exhibit 8). Mr. Willard put $4,196,190 as the "total amount of discharged indebtedness excluded from gross income." Id. at Form 982. Mr. Willard did not pay or owe anything in income tax for 2014, the year the short sale occurred. Id. at Form 1040, lines 63, 74, 78.

Thus, as Overland and Mr. Willard did not actually pay any taxes for 2014, much less the more than $5 million claimed, Overland and Mr. Willard cannot recover the claimed tax damages that they seek from Defendants, for the simple reason that they did not actually incur those damages by paying the taxes. Indeed, "a breach of contract claim fails as a matter of law if the plaintiff cannot establish that he or she has been damaged by the alleged breach." Roberts v. Brunswick Corp., 783 N.W.2d 226, 233 (Minn. Ct. App. 2010). Further, to award Willard this amount would be to inequitably make Willard far more than whole because these damages were not actually incurred by Willard. 22 Am. Jur. 2d Damages § 48 ("As a general rule, a non-breaching party is not entitled, through the award of damages, to achieve a better or superior position to the one it would reasonably have occupied had the breach not occurred."). Therefore, Willard is not entitled to his claimed tax consequences damages as a matter of law, and judgment should be entered in Defendants' favor.

With respect to the closing cost damages, Willard claims to have incurred "$549,852 in closing costs" as a result of the purported forced sale. (FAC ¶ 15, on file herein). The only evidentiary support that Willard has ever provided for this allegation is the "Seller's Final Closing Statement." (Closing Statement, Exhibit 9; Responses to Interrogatories at 7, Exhibit 12 ("Damages for closing costs were calculated from the values appearing on the Seller's Final Closing Statement.")). However, the Closing Statement does not support Willard's claim for damages.

First, there is absolutely no indication that Willard actually paid the costs in the Closing Statement. Mort Wallin, 105 Nev. at 857, 784 P.2d at 955 ("The party seeking damages has the burden of proving both the fact of damages and the amount thereof."). According to the Closing Statement, Willard's lenders received all of the proceeds from the short sale, while Willard received nothing. (Closing Statement, Exhibit 9). Willard's lenders then forgave any remaining debt owed on the Willard Property after the short sale. (Deposition of L. Willard at 89, Exhibit 6). Therefore, the closing costs for the sale only impacted how much Willard's lenders received in payoff from the purchase price. Further, the payoff amount made no difference to Willard's damages because the lenders forgave any remaining debt outstanding on the mortgage (and Willard did not claim that debt forgiveness as gross income). Thus, the Closing Statement only reflects that the lenders were paid the purchase price minus the closing costs, not that Willard actually paid any closing costs—or incurred any other financial consequences from the closing costs since the lenders forgave any outstanding remaining debt owed by Willard. As Willard did not pay any closing costs or incur financial consequences from the amount of closing costs (only the lenders' payoff amount was impacted by the closing costs, which was irrelevant to Willard because the lenders forgave Willard's remaining debt), Willard is not entitled to recover these costs as a matter of law.

Even if Willard did incur any purported closing costs, the total closing costs listed in the Closing Statement, including commissions paid to the broker, are $134,615. (Closing Statement, Exhibit 9). After a reduction is made for the credits from the buyer, the net closing costs total $84,260. Id. Thus, Willard's claim for closing costs—assuming that those costs were foreseeable and actually incurred by Willard (neither of which is satisfied here)—are overstated by $465,592. Therefore, Willard is not entitled to his claimed costs of $549,852 as a matter of law.

Finally, with respect to the purported earnest money damage, Willard claims to have incurred "$4,437,500.00 of earnest money invested in the Willard Property" as a result of the purported forced sale. Assuming the existence of any documentary support for this claim (Willard has not provided any), nothing in the Willard Lease requires or even contemplates Defendants paying Willard his purported invested earnest money in the event of a breach. Indeed, it would be categorically unreasonable to require a tenant to be responsible for a landlord's purported lost earnest money in the property absent an express agreement in the lease to do so. Thus, Willard is not entitled to recover this money from Defendants as a matter of law.

b. Willard is not entitled to its attorneys' fees consequential damages.

In addition to the short sale damages, Willard also sought the following consequential damages: (1) attorneys' fees incurred in a California action that Willard brought against Defendants for breach of the Willard Lease; and (2) attorneys' fees and accounting fees incurred in a bankruptcy action that Willard filed as a result of Defendants' purported breach. Willard is not entitled to these damages as a matter of law.

i. The California action.

Willard claims that "as a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching the Willard Lease, the Willard Plaintiffs "hired an attorney to file suit against BHI and Herbst in Santa Clara County, California, thereby incurring $35,000 in attorney's fees." (FAC ¶ 18, on file herein). This action was a complaint filed in California against Defendants for breach of the Willard Lease. (Docket Sheet, Exhibit 4). Unsurprisingly, as all Defendants and the lease are Nevada-based, and the lease specifically requires lawsuits to be brought in Nevada, Defendants obtained a dismissal of the action for lack of personal jurisdiction. Id. at 11. The fees purportedly incurred by Willard in that action are clearly not recoverable. These attorneys' fees could only be recoverable as litigation fees or as special damages, neither of which applies to this case. Sandy Valley Associates v. Sky Ranch Estates Owners Ass'n, 117 Nev. 948, 956, 35 P.3d 964, 969 (2001), receded from on other grounds by Horgan v. Felton, 123 Nev. 577, 170 P.3d 982 (2007); Liu v. Christopher Homes, LLC, 130 Nev. ____, ___, 321 P.3d 875, 878 (2014) (noting the general rule that attorneys' fees cannot be awarded absent a statute, rule, or contract provision, and that "as an exception to the general rule, attorney fees may be awarded as special damages in limited circumstances.").

First, "when parties seek attorney fees as a cost of litigation, documentary evidence of the fees is presented to the trial court, generally in a post-trial motion." Sandy Valley, 117 Nev. at 956, 35 P.3d at 969. However, "generally, attorney fees are not recoverable absent authority under a statute, rule, or contract." Christopher Homes, LLC, 130 Nev. at ____, 321 P.3d at 878. Here, to the extent that Willard is seeking the California action attorneys' fees as a cost of litigation, Willard has not identified any statute, rule, or contract provision that would entitle Willard to fees incurred in the futile and now dismissed California action. Nor could he: Plaintiffs chose an improper forum, and Defendants were the prevailing party in the California action and successfully obtained dismissal of the case for lack of jurisdiction. (Docket Sheet at 11, Exhibit 4). Thus, if anyone is entitled to their fees from the California action, it is Defendants. Further, even if Willard was somehow able to provide a basis for recovering attorneys' fees in the California action, it is wholly unclear why this Court, as opposed to the court in the California action, should determine the award of attorneys' fees incurred in that action. Not only is Willard's request for fees in this Court untimely, it would be inappropriate for this Court, rather than the presiding court, to make determinations regarding the reasonableness of the fees. See NRCP 54(d)(2). Thus, Willard is not entitled to the fees in the California action as a cost of that litigation.

Second, "when a party claims it has incurred attorney fees as foreseeable damages arising from tortious conduct or a breach of contract, such fees are considered special damages."

Sandy Valley, 117 Nev. at 956, 35 P.3d at 969. Special damages can only be sought in a narrow set of circumstances: (1) a party to a contract can seek to recover from a breaching party the attorneys' fees that arise from the breach that caused the former party to accrue attorneys' fees in defending himself against a third party's legal action; and (2) in cases concerning title to real property, attorneys' fees can be allowable as special damages in slander of title actions. Christopher Homes, LLC, 130 Nev. at ____, 321 P.3d at 875. Here, no purported breach by Defendants has caused Willard to have to defend himself against a third party's legal action. Rather, Willard seeks attorneys' fees purportedly incurred from Willard bringing an improper action against Defendants in California, not a third-party action. (FAC ¶ 18, on file herein (Willard "hired an attorney to file suit against BHI and Herbst in Santa Clara County, California, thereby incurring $35,000 in attorney's fees.")). "Attorneys' fees and other expenses of former litigation, particularly suits prosecuted by the plaintiff against the defendant, ordinarily are not recoverable in a subsequent action." Robert Rossi, 1 Attorneys' Fees 8:1 (3d ed.). The Nevada Supreme Court has been clear that such fees are only recoverable, if at all, in defending against a third-party action. Christopher Homes, LLC, 130 Nev. at ____, 321 P.3d at 875. Thus, the first circumstance does not apply. Further, the California action had nothing to do with real property claims, much less slander of title claims. Thus, the attorneys' fees are not recoverable as special damages.8

Accordingly, because Willard is not entitled to recover the attorneys' fees allegedly incurred in the California action as either a cost of that litigation or as special damages, ⁸Even if Willard's claim was entitled to seek the attorneys' fees in the California action as special damages, "as a practical matter, attorney fees are rarely awarded as damages simply because parties have a difficult time demonstrating that the fees were proximately and necessarily caused by the actions of the opposing party and that the fees were a reasonably foreseeable consequence of the breach or conduct. Because parties always know lawsuits are possible when disputes arise, the mere fact that a party was forced to file or defend a lawsuit is insufficient to support an award of attorney fees as damages." Sandy Valley, 117 Nev. at 957, 35 P.3d at 969-70.

Defendants respectfully request that this Court deny Willard's request for such damages as a matter of law.

The bankruptcy.

Willard also claims that "as a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching the Willard Lease, Willard filed for bankruptcy protection, incurring $22,623.00 in legal fees and $15,000 in accounting fees in the process." (FAC ¶ 17, on file herein). Willard is not entitled to these fees as a matter of law.

First, it is undisputed that Willard's bankruptcy was not foreseeable at the time the parties entered into the contracts. Willard expressly admitted that he never had any discussions with Defendants that a breach of the lease could result in him filing bankruptcy. (Deposition of L. Willard at 115, Exhibit 6; Affidavit of T. Herbst, Exhibit 1). In fact, not only was the bankruptcy unforeseeable, it was frivolous: Willard admits that a mere six months after filing the bankruptcy, Willard voluntarily withdrew his bankruptcy petition upon the advice of his counsel. (FAC ¶ 17, on file herein). If Willard's bankruptcy was not a foreseeable consequence of a breach of the Willard Lease, then any fees incurred "in the process" of Willard filing and pursuing his six-month voluntary bankruptcy are also not foreseeable, and therefore not recoverable by Willard. Footnote 8; Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 351(1) ("Damages are not recoverable for loss that the party in breach did not have reason to foresee as a probable result of the breach when the contract was made.").

Second, even if the bankruptcy was somehow foreseeable, Willard does not meet any of the requirements to seek his fees purportedly incurred as a result of the bankruptcy. 9 If Willard wanted to recover his fees as a cost of litigation of the bankruptcy, he should have sought them with the bankruptcy court, although the availability of such fees upon a voluntarily dismissed voluntary bankruptcy would be questionable at best. Further, if Willard seeks these fees as special damages, Willard does not fall within the specific categories of damages permitted to be sought as special damages. Christopher Homes, LLC, 130 Nev. at ____, 321 P.3d at 875. Thus, Willard is not entitled to the attorneys' fees or accounting fees purportedly incurred in the bankruptcy as a matter of law.

⁹While the law cited herein discusses attorneys' fees, Willard appears to claim that his accounting fees were a cost of the bankruptcy litigation. Thus, the analysis should be the same for both.

Thus, Willard is not entitled to any of the consequential damages discussed herein, and summary judgment is appropriate on these claims.

3. Wooley is not entitled to consequential damages as a matter of law.

Wooley also seeks consequential damages, claiming that as a result of Defendants' purported breach: 10 (1) "because the [Baring] Property was cross-collateralized with the Highway 50 Property, the Wooley Plaintiffs were forced to sell the [Baring] Property at a loss of $147,847.30"; (2) "because the [Baring] Property was cross-collateralized with the Highway 50 Property and the Wooley Plaintiffs were forced to sell the [Baring] Property, the Wooley Plaintiffs incurred tax liabilities in an amount to be proven at trial but which is at least $600,000"; and (3) Wooley "hired an attorney to file suit against BHI and Herbst in Santa Clara County, California, thereby incurring $45,088.00 in attorney's fees." (FAC ¶¶ 34, 39-42, on file herein). As will be discussed herein, Wooley is not entitled to these damages as a matter of law.

a. Cross-collateralization with the Baring Property.

With respect to the purported "Baring Property" damages, Wooley claims that because Defendants allegedly breached the Highway 50 Lease, and Wooley's mortgage loan for the Highway 50 Property was cross-collateralized with his loan for a separate property, the Baring Property, ¹¹ Defendants' purported breach of the Highway 50 Lease forced Wooley to sell the ¹⁰Certain consequential damages sought by Wooley are not addressed in this Motion but will be addressed at a later time.

¹¹According to Mr. Wooley, this means that "if you do not make your payments on either one of the properties, they can foreclose on both of the properties." (Deposition of E. Wooley p. 105, Exhibit 16).

 $\begin{bmatrix} 2 \\ 3 \end{bmatrix}$

Baring Property "at a loss" and caused him to incur tax liabilities. Id.; (Deposition of E. Wooley p. 104-106, Exhibit 16). Wooley is not entitled to these purported damages because they were unforeseeable as a matter of law.

Specifically, nothing in the Highway 50 Lease mentioned that a consequence for a breach was that BHI would be liable for damages incurred with respect to selling one of Wooley's other properties, the Baring Property. (Highway 50 Lease, Exhibit 10). Thus, the only way that Wooley could recover these consequential damages is by proving that such a loss was foreseeable as a probable result of the breach at the time the parties entered into the Highway 50 Lease. Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 351(1).

The undisputed facts show that Wooley cannot satisfy this burden as a matter of law. First, it would be impossible for anyone to know at the time of execution of the Highway 50 Lease that the Highway 50 and Baring Properties were cross-collateralized, or that breach of the Highway 50 Lease could impact the Baring Property, because Wooley did not even enter into the Baring Property loan until after the execution of the Highway 50 Lease. (Highway 50 Lease, Exhibit 10; Baring Loan, Exhibit 15). The Baring cross-collateralization language is found in the July 18, 2006, Baring Property Loan, which was executed months after the December 2005 Highway 50 Lease. (Highway 50 Lease, Exhibit 10; Baring Property Loan at ECW78 1.7, Exhibit 15). Because foreseeability is measured at the time of entry into a contract,

Jackson's. Importantly, it is undisputed that Defendants were not in breach of the Baring Lease when Wooley sold the Baring Property. (Deposition of E. Wooley p. 99-100, Exhibit 16; Lease Assignment, Exhibit 17; Second Amendment to Baring Lease, Exhibit 22). However, despite that fact, Wooley attempted to sue BHI for breach of the Baring Lease, seeking nearly $4 million in damages. (Initial Complaint ¶¶ 34, 42-44, on file herein.) Defendants were forced to bring this fact to Wooley's attention and threaten motion practice in this case before Wooley finally agreed to amend his pleading to remove a claim for breach of the Baring Lease. (November 2014 email exchange, Exhibit 19; January 2015 email exchange, Exhibit 20). Interestingly, Wooley originally attempted to claim that BHI's purported breach of the Baring Lease caused the claimed damages discussed herein. (Initial Complaint ¶¶ 42-44, on file herein.)

this precludes Wooley from claiming foreseeability as a matter of law. Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 351 at cmt. a.

Second, regardless, it is undisputed that Defendants did not know about the Highway 50 Property being cross-collateralized with the Baring Property. (Affidavit of T. Herbst at ___ Exhibit 1). In written discovery, Defendants asked Wooley to "please identify and describe in detail any and all facts demonstrating that BHI knew at the time [Wooley] and BHI entered into the Highway 50 Lease that the Highway 50 property was cross-collateralized with the Baring Property." (Wooley Responses to Second Set of Interrogatories at 3, Exhibit 23). In response, Wooley stated that Wooley "is presently unaware of facts responsive to this request," and reserved the right to amend the response. Id. Mr. Wooley agreed with this response during his deposition, and elaborated "I don't know why they would even know.... They're not party to getting a loan. I am. They take the check and cash it." (Deposition of E. Wooley p.119, Exhibit 16). Mr. Wooley's description could hardly be plainer.

Defendants also asked Wooley to "please identify and describe in detail any and all facts demonstrating that Jerry Herbst at the time [Wooley] and BHI entered into the Highway 50 lease that the Highway 50 property was cross-collateralized with the Baring Property." (Wooley Responses to Second Set of Interrogatories at 4, Exhibit 23). In response, Wooley stated that Wooley "is presently unaware of facts responsive to this request," and reserved the right to amend the response. Id. Wooley agreed with this answer at his deposition. (Deposition of E. Wooley p. 120, Exhibit 16).

Finally, it is not clear how Wooley both sold the Baring Property "at a loss" yet also had to pay "at least $600,000" in tax liabilities. (FAC, on file herein). Contrary to Wooley's claim that the Baring Property was sold at a loss, the closing statement for the sale of the Baring Property states that Wooley sold the Baring Property at a gain of $870,844.39, (Closing Statement, Exhibit 9), which Wooley admits that he deposited in his bank account. (Deposition of E. Wooley p. 111, Exhibit 16).

Thus, it is undisputed that Defendants did not have reason to foresee this purported "loss" as a probable result of their alleged breach when the contracts were made, precluding Wooley from recovering any damages as a matter of law.¹³ Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 351(1).

b. Fees in the California action.

Wooley claims that as a result of Defendants' purported breach, Wooley "hired an attorney to file suit against BHI and Herbst in Santa Clara County, California, thereby incurring $45,088.00 in attorney's fees." (FAC ¶ 42, on file herein). This is the same California action as that pursued by Willard. (Docket Sheet, Exhibit 4). Wooley's claim also has the same deficiencies as Willard's and was dismissed as such.

Specifically, as explained supra p. 17-19, no rule, statute, or contractual provision entitles Wooley to these fees as a cost of litigating the California action. Indeed, Defendants, who obtained a full dismissal of the case, were unequivocally the prevailing party, and regardless, a request for fees incurred as a cost of the California litigation would have only been appropriate in the California court. Further, the California action was not within the limited set of actions that would entitle Wooley to seek these fees as special damages. Thus, Wooley is not entitled to these fees as a matter of law.

CONCLUSION

Defendants respectfully request that this Court conclude that Plaintiffs are not entitled to recover the following as a matter of law: (1) Willard's "short sale" damages, including tax consequences, closing costs, and earnest money; (2) Willard's attorneys' fees incurred in the California action; (3) Willard's attorneys' and accounting fees incurred in the bankruptcy; (4) Wooley's "Baring Property" damages, including tax consequences and purported lost monies as

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT (this "Lesse") is made as of November 18, 2005 by and between OVERLAND DEVEOPMENT CORPORATION INC. dba LJW ENTERPIRSES INC. and LARRY J. WILLARD, TRUSTEE OF THE LARRY JAMES WILLARD TRUST ("Lessor"), whose address is 133 Glenridge Avenue, Los Getos, CA 95030, and BERRY-HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES, a Nevada corporation ("Lessee"), whose address is 425 Maestro Drive, Reno, NV 89511

In consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, Lessor and Lessee hereby covenant and agree as follows:

Certain Defined Terms. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in Exhibit Δ hereto.

Lesse of Property; Use; Possession. In consideration of the Rentals and other Monetary Obligations to be paid by Lessee and of the other terms, covenants and conditions on Lessee's part to be kept and performed, Lessor hereby leases to Lessee, and Lessee hereby takes and lesses, the Property (as such term is defined in Exhibit A attached hereto and which Property is located at the address set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto and situated on the real property legally described in Exhibit B attached hereto), subject to the Permitted Encumbrances, all Legal Requirements (including any existing violation thereof), and the condition of the Property as of the Effective Date; provided, however, that the recital of the Permitted Encumbrances herein shall not be construed as a revival of any Permitted Encumbrance which may have expired or been terminated. During the Lesse Term, the Property shall be used solely for the operation of a Permitted Facility, and related purposes such as ingress, ogress and parking.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Lessee waives the implied warranty of suitability of the Property and Lessee asknowledges that it has accepted the Property "as is," in its current condition, with no representations, warranties or covenants, express or implied, on the part of the Lessor with respect to condition of the same or the suitability of the Property for Lessee's intended use.

Lease Term; Extension. The initial term of this Lease ("Initial Term") shall commence February 24, 2006 ("Effective Date") and shall expire at midnight on Angust 23, 2023 ("Expiration Date"), unless terminated sconer as provided in this Lease and as may be extended as provided herein. The time period during which this Lease shall actually be in affect, including any Extension Term, is referred to herein as the "Lease Term." Lessee shall have the right and option (each, an "Extension Option") to extend the Initial Term for four (4) additional successive periods of five (5) years cach (each, an "Extension Term"), pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Lease then in effect. Lessee may only exercise the Extension Options by giving written notice thereof to Lessor of its election to do so first, no later than two hundred forty (240) days prior to the Expiration Date and two hundred forty (240) days prior to the immediately preceding Extension Term, as the case may be. If written notice of the exercise of any Extension Option is not received by Lessor by the applicable dates described above, then this Sample Lesso 1/4/2006 00016009979 (TBDOCS 449445v2 Lease shall terminate on the last day of the Initial Term or, if applicable, the last day of the Extension Term then in effect.

4. Rental and Other Monetary Obligations.

- A. Base Monthly Rental. During the Initial Term, on or before the first day of each calendar month, Lessee shall pay in advance the Base Monthly Rental; provided, however, if the Effective Date is a date other than the first day of the month, Lessee shall pay to Lessor (or any other party designated by Lessor) on the Effective Date the Base Monthly Rental prorated by multiplying the Base Monthly Rental by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days remaining in the month (including the Effective Date) for which Rental is being paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in such month. During the Extension Terms, if any, Lessee shall pay the Rental (including the Base Monthly Rental) in the manner set forth in this Section 4. Unless otherwise specifically stated to the contrary herein, Lessee shall perform all its obligations under this Lesse at its sole cost and expense and shall pay all Rental and any other Monetary Obligation due hereunder when due and payable, without notice or demand.
- B. Adjustments. On the first Adjustment Date and on each Adjustment Date thereafter, the Base Annual Rental shall increase by an amount equal to the Rent Adjustment. The "Rent Adjustment" shall be an amount equal to two percent (2%) of the Base Annual Rental in effect immediately prior to the applicable Adjustment Date. The Adjustment Date shall be on the annual anniversary of the Effective Date.
- C. Additional Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge, as additional rental ("Additional Rental"), all sums of money required to be paid by Lessee under this Lesse which are not specifically referred to as Base Annual Rental or Base Monthly Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge any Additional Rental when the same shall become due, provided that amounts which are billed to Lessor or any third party, but not to Lessee, shall be paid within five (5) days after Lessor's demand for payment thereof or, if later, when the same are due. In no event shall Lessee be required to pay to Lessor any item of Additional Rental that Lessee is obligated to pay and has paid to any third party pursuant to any provision of this Lesse.
- D. Payment of Rental and Other Monetary Obligations. All Rental and other Monetary Obligations which Lesses is required to pay hereunder shall be the unconditional obligation of Lesses and shall be payable in full when due without any setoff, abatement, deferment, deduction or counterclaim whatsoever, except as set forth herein. All payments of Base Monthly Rental and any other Monetary Obligations payable to Lessor shall be remitted to Lessor at Lessor's address set forth in the first paragraph of this Lesse or such other address as Lessor may designate pursuant to Section 24 hereof.
- B. Late Payment Charge. Lessee acknowledges that late payment by Lessee to Lessor of Rental will cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of such costs being extremely difficult and impracticable to fix in advance.

Semple Lease 14/2006

Such costs include, without limitation, processing and accounting charges, and late charges that may be imposed on Lessor by the terms of any encumbrance and note secured by any encumbrance covering the Property. Therefore, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee to Lessor pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, then Lessee shall pay to Lessor, as a late payment charge, five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment. Additionally, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, such payment shall bear interest at the Default Rate until received by Lessor. The late payment charge and default interest shall be paid to Lessor at the time of payment of the delinquent amount. The late payment charge and the default interest charge shall compensate Lessor for the expenses incurred by Lessor in financing, collecting and processing the late payment. The parties agree that the late charge and the default interest charge represent a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs that Lessor will incur by reason of late payment by Lessee.

Gaming. GUARANTY AGREEMENT

This GUARANTY AGREEMENT, dated as of this _______ day of March, 2007 (this "Agreement"), is made by Jerry Herbst, an individual (the "Guarantor"), for the benefit of Overland Development Corporation Inc. and Larry J. Willard, Trustee of the Larry James Willard Trust (collectively, the "Lessor").

RECITALS:

- A. The Lessor and Berry-Hinckley Industries, a Nevada corporation ("BHI"), are parties to that certain Lease Agreement for 7695 South Virginia, Reno, Nevada (the "Lease").
- B. The Guarantor desires to enter into this Agreement in order to induce the Landlord to (i) provide consent under the Lease to a change of control of P.A. Morabito & Co., Limited ("PAMCo"), the corporation that owns all the stock of BHI and/or (ii) enter into an amendment to the Lease.

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Guarantor hereby guarantees, promises and undertakes as follows:

- 1. Guaranty. The Guarantor unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guarantees the timely payment and performance of each of BHI's obligations arising out of and under the Lease (such obligations, the "Guaranteed Obligations"). The Guarantor's guaranty made hereby is a guaranty of timely payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations and not merely of collectibility or enforceability of such obligations.
- Remedies and Rights of the Lessor. The Guarantor agrees that if and to the extent that BHI either (a) falls to satisfy any of the Guaranteed Obligations and fails to remedy such failure within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice from the Lessor of such failure, or (b) is subject to a pending petition for relief under Chapter 7 or Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, the Guarantor will be directly responsible for the full extent of any unsatisfied Guaranteed Obligations. This Agreement is an unconditional, absolute, present and continuing guaranty of payment and performance, and will remain in full force and effect without regard to, and the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder shall not be impaired, affected or released by, any of the following: (i) any modification, supplement, extension or amendment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Lease; (ii) any extension, indulgence or other action in respect thereto or therefor; (iii) any failure or delay by the Lessor or BHI in exercising any right or power under the Lease; (iv) any invalidity or unenforceability in any respect of, or any irregularity or other defect in any of, the Lesse or Guaranteed Obligations; (v) any exercise or non-exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege in respect of this Agreement or any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (vi) any transfer of the assets of Lessor to, or any consolidation or merger of the Lessor with or into, any other entity; (vii) any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets, receivership, insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or similar proceeding affecting BHI or any of its assets; or (viii) any allegation or contest of the validity of the Lease or this Agreement. The Guarantor hereby walves any defense to its obligations hereunder that might arise as a result of any of the foregoing, and hereby walves the effect of any fact, circumstance or event of any nature whatsoever that would exonerate, or constitute or give rise to a defense to, the obligation of a surety or guarantor. Without limitation, except to the extent specifically provided in Paragraph 2 hereof, the Guarantor waives any right it may have to require the Lessor, and any obligation the Lessor may have, to proceed first against BHI or exhaust any remedies that it may have against BHI in respect of non-payment or non-performance of the Guaranteed Obligations, before demand for payment or performance by the Guarantor under this Agreement.

The Guarantor acknowledges that the rights and remedies herein provided are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies that the Lessor may otherwise have at law or in equity, and shall not prejudice the Lessor's right to assert any other claim under the Lesso.

- Duration of Agreement. The term of this Agreement will begin on, and this Agreement shall be of no force and effect until, the closing of that certain Stock Purchase Agreement by and among Guarantor, or a company controlled by him, and the stockholders of PAMCo. This Agreement will continue in full force and effect and the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder will not be discharged until the earlier of (i) the date on which the Guaranteed Obligations are fully performed, satisfied and discharged or until BHI's liability to the Lessor under the Lease shall have been completely performed, satisfied and discharged, whichever occurs first, or (ii) upon a change in the control of BHI provided that the Lessor has consented to such change of control, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. For the purpose of the foregoing sentence, "change in the control of BHT" shall mean the transfer, on a cumulative basis, of 50% or more of the voting control of BHI to a party not owned, directly or indirectly, by the Guarantor, Edward Herbst, Timothy Herbst or Troy Herbst. Any transfer of Guarantor's interest in BHI other than upon a change in the control of BHI with Lessor's consent pursuant to section (ii) above will not cause this Agreement or Guarantor's obligations hereunder to terminate. The Guaranteed Obligations will not be considered fully performed, satisfied and discharged (a) unless and until all obligations of BHI to the Lessor pursuant to the Lease have been fully and completely performed, satisfied and discharged, or (b) to the extent any claim by the Lessor against BHI remains outstanding.
- 4. No Assignment. The rights and obligations of the Guarantor hereunder may not be assigned without the prior written consent of the Lessor or the then beneficiary of this Agreement. Any purported assignment in violation of this section shall be null and void. All covenants and agreements in this Agreement made by the Guarantor shall bind and inure to the benefit of its successors and permitted assigns.
- 5. Integration: Modification: Waiver. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior understandings of the parties. No supplement, modification or amendment of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by the Guarantor and acknowledged and accepted by the Lessor or the then beneficiary of this Agreement. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement will be deemed to be or shall constitute a continuing waiver. No waiver will be binding unless executed in writing by the party making the waiver.

- 6. No Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement shall confer any rights or remedies upon any person other than the Lessor and its successors and assigns.
- 7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Nevada without regard to conflicts of law principles.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

This is an action for breach of lease agreements and guaranty agreements that were entered into by Jerry Herbst and Berry-Hinckley Industries ("BHI") and two separate and distinct groups of Plaintiffs. In 2007, JH, a Nevada holding corporation, entered into a transaction to purchase all of the issued and outstanding stock of BHI, a Nevada corporation operating gas stations and convenience stores in Northern Nevada. At the time, BHI was the lessee of the property at issue in this case. Specifically, BHI leased one parcel of Nevada real property from Overland Development Corporations Inc. and Larry J. Willard, Trustee of the Larry James Willard Trust (the "Willard Plaintiffs"). BHI also leased two parcels of Nevada real property from Edward C. Wooley and Judith A. Wooley (the "Wooley Plaintiffs").

The three lease agreements contain an identical forum selection clause identifying Nevada as the proper forum for any action or proceeding arising out of the lease. Section 38(H) of the lease agreements contains a general consent to Nevada jurisdiction and provides the Plaintiffs with the right to "commence any proceeding in the federal or state courts located in the state where each Property is located to the extent Lessor deems such proceeding necessary or advisable to exercise remedies available under this Lease." As all of the real property at issue in this case is located in Nevada, the contract requires any lawsuit to be maintained in Nevada.

At the time JH purchased the stock of BHI, BHI entered into amended lease agreements with the Willard Plaintiffs and the Wooley Plaintiffs. BHI negotiated and entered into these agreements in Nevada. The amended lease agreements all expressly incorporate the forum selection provisions contained in Section 38(H) of the original contracts, thus designating Nevada as the proper forum for litigation.

In or around the same time, Jerry Herbst, a Nevada resident and domiciliary, negotiated and entered into a guaranty agreement with the Willard Plaintiffs in Nevada. Mr. Herbst also negotiated and entered into two guarantees with the Wooley Plaintiffs in Nevada. Each of the three guarantees contains a choice of law provision providing that the contracts are governed by Nevada law.

The Willard and Wooley Plaintiffs, claiming that the guarantees and lease agreements were breached, have now joined forces to sue numerous defendants that have nothing to do with the allegations in the Complaint and who are not parties to the underlying lease agreements. The Court should dismiss this case in order to enforce the forum selection clauses contained in the Lease Agreements. Alternatively, in light of the fact this is a Nevada action involving Nevada individuals and entities and the lease of Nevada real property, this action should be stayed or dismissed pursuant to the doctrine of forum non conveniens.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The allegations in the Complaint refer to two separate and distinct transactions. The only similarity between the transactions is that they involve the same defendants. The Plaintiffs are wholly separate as are the referenced leaseholds.

A. Procedural History

Plaintiffs originally filed the Complaint in this matter on April 19, 2013 (the "Complaint"). On July 18, 2013, prior to filing an answer or making a general appearance, certain Defendants filed a Motion to Quash Service of Summons and/or to Dismiss or Stay Complaint (the "Consolidated Motion"). The Consolidated Motion exceeded the maximum allowable page limit. Therefore, on September 20, 2013, the moving Defendants bifurcated the Consolidated Motion and filed an Amended Motion to Dismiss or Stay Complaint and an Amended Motion to Quash Service of Summons and Complaint (collectively, the "Amended Motions"). Prior to a hearing on the Amended Motions, on October 9, 2013, Defendants and Plaintiffs entered into a Stipulation and [Proposed] Order for Leave to File First Amended Complaint (the "Stipulation"). The Stipulation expressly provided that Plaintiffs were permitted to file a First Amended and Verified Complaint (the "First Amended Complaint"), in the form attached as an exhibit to the Stipulation, adding additional claims and parties. The Stipulation also provided that the Amended Motions were to be deemed withdrawn upon the filing of the First Amended Complaint, without prejudice to Defendants' ability to re-file them and challenge the jurisdiction of this Court and the sufficiency of the Plaintiffs claims by renewing the Amended Motions. Thereafter, on October 9, 2013, the Court entered an order affirming the terms of the Stipulation, and expressly permitting the filing of the First Amended Complaint (the "Order").

The Order was entered by the Court nearly four (4) months ago on October 9, 2013. Notwithstanding this Court's Order, and repeated requests by Defendants (See Order, Exhibit 1), Plaintiffs have failed to file the First Amended Complaint. Even though Plaintiffs have failed to file the First Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs have recently sought written discovery from Defendants (See Discovery dated February 3, 2014 [unsigned], Exhibit 2), are seeking to engage in mediation (See Exhibit 3) and have recently informed Defendants that they intend to commence certain motion practice (See Exhibit 4) relating to claims and parties who are included in the unfiled first amended complaint. As such, Defendants hereby renew the previously filed Amended Motions. Because the only operative complaint on file is the original Complaint filed on April 19, 2013, this Motion attacks jurisdiction based on the allegations contained therein.

C. The Willard Transaction

On or about November 18, 2005, BHI entered into a Lease Agreement with Overland Development Corporation Inc. dba LJW Enterprises Trust for the lease of 7695-7699 South Virginia, Reno, Nevada. (S. Virginia Lease Agreement, Exhibit A to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5.) The Lease Agreement explicitly provides that any action or proceeding arising out of the Lease must be commenced in the State of Nevada. Id. § 38(H).

At the time the Lease Agreement was entered into, the Chief Executive Officer of BHI was Paul Morabito and the stock of BHI was owned by P.A. Morabito & Co., Limited ("PAMCO"). Id. at 28; (ARSPA, Exhibit 8.) On or about June 28, 2007, JH entered into an Amended and Restated Stock Purchase Agreement ("ARSPA") with PAMCO, whereby JH purchased all of the issued and outstanding stock of BHI. (ARSPA, Exhibit 8)

On or about March 9, 2007, Mr. Herbst entered into a Guaranty Agreement (the "Willard Guaranty Agreement") with Willard and Overland (collectively, the "Willard Plaintiffs") to amend the Lease to reflect the transaction that led to the ARSPA. (Compl. ¶ 6, Guaranty Agreement, Exhibit 1 to the Compl.) Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Herbst agreed to guaranty certain obligations of BHI under the lease with the Willard Plaintiffs. (Guaranty Agreement, Exhibit 1 to the Compl.) The Willard Guaranty Agreement contains the following choice of law provision: "This Agreement will be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Nevada without regard to conflicts of law principles." Id. ¶ 7.

On or about March 9, 2007, BHI entered into an Amendment to Lease Agreement with Overland Development Corp., dba LJW Enterprises Inc. and Larry Willard, Trustee of the Larry James Willard Trust. (Amendment to Lease Agreement, Exhibit B to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5.) Mr. Willard claims to have executed the agreement in on or about March 9, 2007, in Santa Clara, California. Id. BHI, through Trevor Lloyd, its Corporate Secretary at the time, signed the lease in Washoe County, Nevada, on June 19, 2007, more than three months after it was signed by Larry Willard. Id.

D. The Wooley Transactions

On or about January of 2006, BHI entered into a Lease Agreement with Edward C. Wooley and Judith A. Wooley, for the property located at U.S. Highway 50 in Sparks, Nevada. (US Highway 50 Lease Agreement, Exhibit E to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5.) In 2006, BHI also entered into a Lease Agreement with the Wooley Plaintiffs for the property located at 1365 Baring Blvd., Sparks, Nevada. (Baring Lease Agreement, Exhibit C to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5.) Both agreements expressly provide that any action or proceeding arising out of the Lease must be commenced in the State of Nevada. (US Highway 50 Lease Agreement § 38(H), Exhibit E to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5; Baring Lease Agreement § 38(H), Exhibit C to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5.)

At the time the Lease Agreements were executed, the Chief Executive Officer of BHI was Paul Morabito and the stock of BHI was owned by P.A. Morabito & Co., Limited ("PAMCO"). Id. at 28; (ARSPA, Exhibit 8.) On or about June 28, 2007, JH entered into an Amended and Restated Stock Purchase Agreement ("ARSPA") with PAMCO, whereby JH purchased all of the issued and outstanding stock of BHI. (ARSPA, Exhibit 8.)

Jerry Herbst also entered into two Guaranty Agreements (the "Wooley Guaranty Agreements") with the Wooley Plaintiffs. (Wooley Guaranty Agreement, Exhibit 2 to the Compl.) Pursuant to the Agreements, Mr. Herbst agreed to guaranty certain obligations of BHI under the leases with Mr. and Mrs. Wooley. Id. The Wooley Guaranty Agreements each contain the following choice of law provision: "This Agreement will be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Nevada without regard to conflicts of law principles." Id. ¶ 7.

D. Plaintiffs Improperly Filed This Action in California

Despite the unequivocal choice of law and venue provisions, along with the nature of this dispute regarding real property located in Nevada, Plaintiffs inexplicably filed this action in the Superior Court of the State of California on or about April 17, 2013. (Compl.) The gravamen of the actions consists of Plaintiffs' allegations that BHI and Mr. Herbst breached the three leases and the three guaranty agreements by failing to remit the March 1, 2013 payments due under the leases. (Compl. ¶ 19.) The Complaint sets forth eleven (11) claims for relief. Id.

III. DISCUSSION

In the event this Court denies Defendants' Motion to Quash and finds the existence of personal jurisdiction, the Court should still dismiss all or part of this case for the following reasons: (1) the contracts at issues contain Nevada choice of law and venue provisions; (2) the doctrine of forum non conveniens; and (3) Plaintiffs' claim for tortious interference with contract fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

A. The Court Should Dismiss this Action Pursuant to the Nevada Choice of Law and Venue Provisions in the Relevant Contracts

The Court should dismiss this action as the underlying Lease Agreements require Plaintiffs to file suit in Nevada. Specifically, both the Lease Agreements and their amendments provide that any action to enforce any rights under such agreement must be brought in Nevada.

California courts may dismiss a complaint in order to enforce a forum selection clause. Miller-Leigh LLC v. Henson, 152 Cal. App. 4th 1143, 1146, 62 Cal. Rptr. 3d 83, 85 (2007); Code of Civil Procedure 410.30. "A forum selection clause is valid in the absence of the resisting party meeting a heavy burden of proving enforcement of the clause would be unreasonable under the circumstances of the case." Bancomer, S. A. v. Superior Court, 44 Cal. App. 4th 1450, 1457, 52 Cal. Rptr. 2d 435 (1996) (citing Smith, Valentino & Smith, Inc. v. Superior Court, 17 Cal.3d 491, 496, 131 Cal.Rptr. 374, 551 P.2d 1206 (1976)). A party opposing enforcement of a forum selection clause bears the burden of showing it "will be so gravely difficult and inconvenient that he will for all practical purposes be deprived of his day in court. Absent that, there is no basis for concluding that it would be unfair, unjust, or unreasonable to hold that party to his bargain." M/S Bremen v. Zapata Off-Shore Co., 407 U.S. 1, 18 (1972).

In this case, each of the Lease Agreements contains the following identical choice of forum provision:

For purposes of any action or proceeding arising out of this Lease, the parties hereto expressly submit to the jurisdiction of all federal and state courts located in the State of Nevada. Lessee consents that it may be served with any process or paper by registered mail or by personal service within or without the State of Nevada in accordance with applicable law. Furthermore, Lessee waives and agrees not to assert in any such action, suit or proceeding that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of such courts, that the action, suit or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum or that venue of the action suit or proceeding is improper. Nothing contained in this Section shall limit or restrict the right of Lessor to commence any proceeding in the federal or state courts located in the state where each Property is located to the extent Lessor deems such proceeding necessary or advisable to exercise remedies available under the Lease.

(S. Virginia Lease Agreement § 38(H), Exhibit A to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5; US Highway 50 Lease Agreement § 38(H), Exhibit E to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5; Baring Lease Agreement § 38(H), Exhibit C to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5) (emphasis added). This provision was expressly adopted by each of the amendments to the Lease Agreements. (Amendments to Lease Agreements § 6, Exhibits B, D, and F to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5.)

"It is a general rule governing the construction of contracts that unless a contract is ambiguous, its meaning must be determined from the words used." S. California Gas Co. v. Ventura Pipe Line Const. Co., 150 Cal. App. 2d 253, 257, 309 P.2d 849, 852 (1957). Contracts must not be construed to add new terms that do not otherwise exist. Id. (citing Westinghouse Electric Elevator Co. v. La Salle Monroe Bldg. Corp., 395 Ill. 429, 70 N.E.2d 604, 606, 607 (1946)). Moreover, "[c]ourts must interpret contractual language in a manner which gives force and effect to every provision, and not in a way which renders some clauses nugatory, inoperative or meaningless." City of Atascadero v. Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc., 68 Cal. App. 4th 445, 473, 80 Cal. Rptr. 2d 329, 349 (1998) (citing New York Life Ins. Co. v. Hollender, 38 Cal.2d 73, 81-82, 237 P.2d 510 (1951)).

Here, the forum selection provisions, by their plain terms, select the State of Nevada as the proper forum for any action or proceeding arising out of the lease. Pursuant to Section 38(H), the parties first consented to the jurisdiction of the State of Nevada. See, e.g., (S. Virginia Lease Agreement § 38(H), Exhibit A to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5.) BHI further agreed that it would not challenge jurisdiction in Nevada, assert Nevada as an inconvenient forum, or challenge venue in Nevada. Id. Finally, the forum selection clauses specifically state that the Plaintiffs have the right to commence any proceeding where the property is located, which is the State of Nevada. Id. Thus, this action should be dismissed.

In the event the Court finds § 38(H) ambiguous, such ambiguity can be resolved by the maxim of expressio unius est exclusio alterius. White v. W. Title Ins. Co., 40 Cal. 3d 870, 882, 710 P.2d 309, 314 (1985). Under this maxim, the specific expression of one thing is the exclusion of all others. Id. Because the contract specifically expresses Nevada as the venue to decide disputes, the contract excludes all other venues.

Thus, this action should be dismissed due to the forum selection clause appearing in the Lease Agreements and amendments thereto. Plaintiffs cannot demonstrate that enforcement of the clause would be unreasonable under the circumstances of the case.

B. The Court Should Dismiss this Action Pursuant to the Doctrine of Forum Non Conveniens

The center of gravity of this case lies in Northern Nevada. This action concerns contracts entered into by Nevada defendants in connection with doing business in Nevada. The contracts with Plaintiffs involve the lease of real property located in Nevada. The contractual documents include Nevada choice of law and venue provisions. In contradistinction to these numerous contacts, the connection between this action and California consists entirely of Plaintiffs' decision to reside in California. Again, the unilateral act of a plaintiff cannot support the exercise or jurisdiction over a particular defendant as a matter of law. Because this is a Nevada action regarding Nevada property, the interests of justice favor dismissing or staying this action to allow Plaintiffs to pursue their case in Nevada.

Section 410.30(a) of the California Code of Civil Procedure provides for the stay or dismissal of an action on the grounds of forum non conveniens. Section 410.30(a) provides as follows: "When a court upon motion of a party or its own motion finds that in the interest of substantial justice an action should be heard in a forum outside this state, the court shall stay or dismiss the action in whole or in part on any conditions that may be just." Cal. Code Civ. P. 410.30. "Forum non conveniens is an equitable doctrine invoking the discretionary power of a court to decline to exercise the jurisdiction it has over a transitory cause of action when it believes that the action may be more appropriately and justly tried elsewhere." Stangvik v. Shiley Inc., 54 Cal. 3d 744, 751, 819 P.2d 14 (1991) (citing Leet v. Union Pac. R. R. Co., 25 Cal.2d 605, 609, 155 P.2d 42 (1944)).

In considering a motion to dismiss based on forum non conveniens, the court's inquiry is twofold: (1) whether the alternate forum is a "suitable" place for trial; and (2) the private interests of the litigants and the interests of the public in retaining the action for trial in California. Id. at 751, 819 P.2d 14. Defendants bear the ultimate burden of showing that California is a seriously inconvenient forum. Morris v. AGFA Corp., 144 Cal. App. 4th 1452, 1464, 51 Cal. Rptr. 3d 301, 310 (2006) (citations omitted). Each prong of the forum non conveniens analysis is discussed separately below.

1. Nevada is a Suitable Place for Trial

As a threshold matter there is no question that Nevada is a "suitable" alternative forum. "An alternative forum is suitable if it has jurisdiction and the action in that forum will not be barred by the statute of limitations." Guimei v. Gen. Elec. Co., 172 Cal. App. 4th 689, 696, 91 Cal. Rptr. 3d 178, 185 (2009).

In this case, there can be no good faith dispute that Nevada courts have jurisdiction. Jerry Herbst, Maryanne Herbst and Tim Herbst are all residents and domiciliaries of Nevada. (Decls. of J. Herbst ¶ 2, Exhibit 5; Decl. of M. Herbst ¶ 23, Exhibit 6; Decl. of T. Herbst ¶ 2, Exhibit 7.) JH, BHI and THI are all Nevada corporations. (Decl. of J. Herbst ¶ 4, 7, 11, Exhibit 5.) Defendants X Roads and Mr. Berger do not contest personal jurisdiction in Nevada. Thus, Nevada courts have personal jurisdiction over all defendants such that Plaintiffs can bring their action in Nevada.

It should also be noted that Plaintiffs have each expressly consented to the jurisdiction of the State of Nevada. Section 38(H) of each of the lease agreements at issue in this case provides, in part, as follows: "For purposes of any action or proceeding arising out of this Lease, the parties hereto expressly submit to the jurisdiction of all federal and state courts located in the State of Nevada." (S. Virginia Lease Agreement § 38(H), Exhibit A to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5; US Highway 50 Lease Agreement § 38(H), Exhibit E, to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5; Baring Lease Agreement § 38(H), Exhibit C, to the Declaration of J. Herbst, Exhibit 5).

In addition, the statute of limitations in Nevada has not run. As the claims at issue are breach of contract claims, the statute of limitations in Nevada is six years. NRS 11.190. As the alleged breaches in this allegedly occurred during the 2008-2012 timeframe, the statute of limitation is no bar to Plaintiffs' ability to bring an action in Nevada.

2. The Private and Public Interest Factors Favor Dismissal

Because Nevada is indisputably a suitable place for trial, the Court must analyze the private and public interest factors. "The private interest factors are those that make trial and the enforceability of the ensuing judgment expeditious and relatively inexpensive, such as the ease of access to sources of proof, the cost of obtaining attendance of witnesses, and the availability of compulsory process for attendance of unwilling witnesses." Stangvik, 54 Cal. 3d at 751, 819 P.2d 14.

In this case, the private interest factors favor trial in Nevada. First, as this is a Nevada dispute involving a Nevada corporation's lease of real property located in Nevada, the great weight of the evidence will be located in Nevada. In fact, other than Plaintiffs themselves, all witnesses in this case will be located in Nevada. As a result, the cost of litigating this matter in California is overly burdensome on Defendants. Moreover, Defendants will have no ability to compel the attendance of witnesses located in Nevada. For these reasons, the private interest factors favor suit in Nevada.

Similarly, the public interest factors also favor suit in Nevada. Public interest factors include (1) the court's congested calendar, (2) protecting the interests of potential jurors so that they are not called upon to decide cases in which the local community has little concern, and (3) weighing the competing interests of California and the alternate jurisdiction in the litigation. Stangvik, 54 Cal. 3d at 751.

Here, two separate and distinct sets of Plaintiffs have filed a thirty-page Complaint with eleven separate claims for relief against ten separate defendants. The gravamen of this case relates to real property located in the State of Nevada that was leased by a Nevada corporation to provide services to Nevada residents. As a result, the public interest in avoiding overburdening the local California court about a case centered in Nevada weighs in favor of a Nevada forum. For the same reasons, the public interest in protecting potential jurors from having to decide a Nevada case weighs in favor of a Nevada forum.

Similarly, an analysis of the competing interests of California and Nevada to this litigation favors litigation in Nevada. California's interest in this action is limited to ensuring Plaintiffs, California residents, a venue to litigate their dispute.

In contrast, Nevada has a much larger interest in the dispute. Plaintiffs have named as defendants three Nevada individuals and residents and three Nevada corporations. The real property at issue is located in Nevada. Such property was used by a Nevada corporation to operate a Nevada business. As the nature of the Nevada business was the operation of gas stations and convenience stores, the business primarily, if not exclusively, served Nevada residents. Moreover, the guarantees at issue in this case contain a Nevada choice of law provision. Nevada certainly has an interest in applying its own law. In short, Nevada has a much greater interest in this litigation than California and the case should be heard tried in Nevada.

C. The Court Should Dismiss Plaintiffs' Seventh Claim for Relief

Finally, the Court should sustain Defendants' general demurrer and dismiss Plaintiffs' seventh claim pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 430.10 et seq. for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Plaintiffs' seventh claim for relief is for tortious interference with contract.

In California, a general demurer can be raised to challenge whether the complaint contains a claim upon which relief can be granted. See Cantu v. Resolution Trust Corp., 4 Cal. App. 4th 857, 879, 6 Cal. Rptr. 2d 151 (1992). To establish a valid cause of action, a plaintiff must plead facts sufficient to establish every element of that cause of action. Id. In considering the allegations of a complaint, the court accepts "as true all properly pleaded allegations and do[es] not go beyond the four corners of the complaint except as to matters which are judicially noticeable." Saunders v. Superior Court, 27 Cal. App. 4th 832, 837-38, 33 Cal. Rptr. 2d 438 (1994).

To state a claim for relief for intentional interference with contractual relations, Plaintiffs must allege each of the following (1) a valid contract between plaintiff and a third party; (2) defendant's knowledge of this contract; (3) defendant's intentional acts designed to induce a breach or disruption of the contractual relationship; (4) actual breach or disruption of the contractual relationship; and (5) resulting damage. Pac. Gas & Elec. Co. v. Bear Stearns & Co., 50 Cal. 3d 1118, 1126, 791 P.2d 587, 589-90 (1990).

Here, Plaintiffs allege that Jerry Herbst and Tim Herbst instructed Marc Berger to interfere with Mr. Willard's notes and deeds of trust entered into with Business Partners, Inc. ("Business Partners.") (Compl. ¶ 106.) Mr. Berger allegedly contacted Business Partners and demanded a fifty percent reduction of Mr. Willard's principal on his loan with Business Partners. Id. ¶ 107. Plaintiffs further allege that Mr. Willard subsequently defaulted on his contractual obligations through his own volition. Id. ¶ 108.

These allegations are insufficient in that they fail to plead intentional acts designed to induce breach or disruption of a contractual relationship and that such relationship was actually disrupted. Specifically, Plaintiffs allege that Tim Herbst¹ intentionally breached the guarantees (which he was not a party to) and the lease agreements such that the Willard Plaintiffs' lender would place Willard in default. (Compl. ¶ 106.) Plaintiffs further allege that the Willard Plaintiffs breached their own agreement with their lender. See id. ¶ 108.

The actions of BHI in allegedly defaulting under the Lease Agreement did not, by Plaintiffs' own allegations, cause a breach their loan agreement. Rather, the Willard Plaintiffs choose to breach their loan agreement by their own conduct. The Willard Plaintiffs could have simply paid their lender regardless of BHI's alleged breach. To the extent the Willard Plaintiffs failed to meet their own contractual obligations, such failure was caused solely by the actions of the Willard Plaintiffs. The risk of a tenant defaulting was inherent in the Willard Plaintiffs' decision to borrow money to purchase property and rely upon a lessee to make the payment on said property. Thus, by Plaintiffs' own allegations, their breach of their own contract was simply not caused by any tortious actions of BHI or Tim Herbst.

V. CONCLUSION

Based on all the foregoing, Defendants respectfully request that this action be dismissed or stayed, in whole or part, to enforce the forum selection clause contained in the Lease

¹ Plaintiffs make the same allegations with respect to Jerry Herbst, Marc Berger and X Roads Solutions. The arguments raised here equally apply to these three defendants.

Agreements and their amendments or pursuant to the doctrine of forum non conveniens. Defendants further request an order sustaining their general demurer to the seventh claim for relief for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

115 1 Q Okay. Let me ask this. When you purchased this 2 property from Berry-Hinckley when it was owned by Mr. 3 Morabito. 4 Α Right. 5 Did you ever have any discussions with him 0 6 saying hey, I need this rent or I'm going to have to file 7 bankruptcy? 8 With Morabito? 9 Yeah. 10 Α No. 11 And when Jerry Herbst came in and purchased BHI Q 12 and signed a guarantee of this lease --13 Α Uh-hum. 14 -- did you ever have any discussions with him? 0 15 A With Mr. Herbst? 16 0 Yes. 17 A No. 18 Okay. If you could go back to your declaration Q 19 there from the bankruptcy court? Right there. Yes. 20 Exhibit 38. 21 Α Okay. 22 Paragraph 9. Wait. 0 23 Α Okay. 24 Actually, I've got the wrong documents. Q 25 Now, this is this -- this is your bankruptcy. A

Q Okay. And then I wanted to go to page 2 at Paragraph 9, which reads "As a direct and proximate result of Herbst breach in failing to remit the required rent of $140,175 on March 1st, 2013, or curing such default by May 1st, 2013, Jerry Herbst knew that his failure to pay the guarantee would cause and did cause me to default on my loan."

A Yes.

Q So what is the basis for your statement in this declaration that Mr. Herbst knew that his failure to pay the guarantee would cause you to default on your loan?

A I think my discussions, I had prior discussions on a couple of occasions with Ken Herbst, his son. And during those meetings, when they were trying to either restructure or trying to do something with this property, I felt somewhat intimidated, and I never will forget one of the meetings where they were talking about this type of a situation. I said look. I have -- I told Tim and I think his -- it might -- one of his brothers were there, nice guy, but I told him, I said "Tim, this is a very delicate situation. I have everything I have that I worked very hard for invested in this property. I have a blind father I'm supporting." And I was at the time paying for his assisted living. I was in the midst of going through some difficult domestic situations. And I took out a little bottle of nitroglycerin, and I sat it down on the table. I said "This discussion that we're having is gonna cause something to happen here, I'm afraid." Because I'd had some panic type of -- that's why I had that.

So in answer to your question? They were very aware. Not Mr. Herbst. Well, I would think -- I never had the occasion to talk to Jerry. I would like to have had. In fact, I tried to appeal to him with a letter when they breached that he did not answer. So in answer to that question, they were very aware, as well as knowing the situation through Dan of what we were -- what I was going through. They knew, without a doubt. So yes. I affirmatively say yes, they knew.

- O You told Tim?
- A Tim knew.

- Q And whichever one of his brothers was there, Troy or Ed?
 - A Oh, yeah. I think it was maybe Troy. I think maybe, yeah.
- Q And this was, to the best of your recollection, 2008 time frame?
 - A It might have been. Might have been at that time, or I think it was an occasion maybe in 2012 because yeah. I think there was a couple meetings I had a couple meetings in Las Vegas.

Q With Tim?

A So I knew -- I knew Tim and, you know, I thought he was a real upstanding guy. And, you know, we had some nice -- we had civil discussions.

- Q Paragraph 17 of the same document, Mr. Willard?
- A Yes, sir.
 - Q Sort of a similar line of questions.
- A Okay.

Q Starts at the very last line on that page, it says "Jerry Herbst knew with substantial certainty that the reasonable rental value of the property would be reduced to zero dollars, knew that his breach of the lease under the interim operating agreement," I'll paraphrasing a little bit, would result in my inability pay to pay Business Partners the $87,000 plus monthly payment.

Then you go on to say "And then it would be foreclosed on." Again, same question. What's your basis for saying what Jerry Herbst knew about the rent being diminished and the consequences of nonpayment?

A I'd have to refer to the same answer that I gave you to the previous question.

Q Okay.

A He knew my situation. Unless he does not communicate with his boys, and I don't think that is the case.

Q Okay.

- A And that would be -- that would be the answer that I would give you, yes.
 - Q Okay. And you mentioned you had a paper file at home. Right?
 - A Yeah. But there's just very -- I mean, it's just a lot of loose ends of --
 - Q Well, as you sit here today, are you confident that you've given your attorney everything you have in your possession that's relevant to that case?
 - A Absolutely.
 - Q Okay. And what about emails, are you confident that you've given your attorney all your emails that are relevant to this case?
 - A One hundred percent.
 - Q Are there any other responsive documents that you have in your possession that you haven't given to your lawyer?
 - A I've given him everything that I -- that he could of and I could think of.
 - Q Okay. Now, have you taken any steps to go get documents from people that have worked for you? And by that I mean other lawyers, accountants, brokers, anyone like that, have you personally done anything like that?
- A Pertaining to this?

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT (this "Lease") is made as of December between [EDWARD C. WOOLEY and JUDITH A. WOOLEY], a	ر 2005 by and
Detween Libward C. Woodist and books	, and BERRY-
HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES, a Nevada corporation ("Lessee"), whose address is	TZJ WIACSEO
Drive, Reno, NV 89511

In consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, Lessor and Lessee hereby covenant and agree as follows:

- 1. Certain Defined Terms. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in Exhibit A hereto.
- Monetary Obligations to be paid by Lessee and of the other terms, covenants and conditions on Lessee's part to be kept and performed, Lessor hereby leases to Lessee, and Lessee hereby takes and leases, the Property (as such term is defined in Exhibit A attached hereto and which Property is located at the address set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto and situated on the real property legally described in Exhibit B attached hereto), subject to the Permitted Encumbrances, all Legal Requirements (including any existing violation thereof), and the condition of the Property as of the Effective Date; provided, however, that the recital of the Permitted Encumbrances herein shall not be construed as a revival of any Permitted Encumbrance which may have expired or been terminated. During the Lease Term, the Property shall be used solely for the operation of a Permitted Facility, and related purposes such as ingress, egress and parking.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Lessee waives the implied warranty of suitability of the Property and Lessee acknowledges that it has accepted the Property "as is," in its current condition, with no representations, warranties or covenants, express or implied, on the part of the Lessor with respect to condition of the same or the suitability of the Property for Lessee's intended use.

3. Lease Term; Extension. The initial term of this Lease ("Initial Term") shall commence May 1, 2006 ("Effective Date") and shall expire at midnight on April 30, 2006 ("Expiration Date"), unless terminated sooner as provided in this Lease and as may be extended as provided herein. The time period during which this Lease shall actually be in effect, including any Extension Term, is referred to herein as the "Lease Term." Lessee shall have the right and option (each, an "Extension Option") to extend the Initial Term for two (2) additional successive periods of five (5) years each (each, an "Extension Term"), pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Lease then in effect. Lessee may only exercise the Extension Options by giving written notice thereof to Lessor of its election to do so first, no later than two hundred forty (240) days prior to the Expiration Date and two hundred forty (240) days prior to the immediately preceding Extension Term, as the case may be. If written notice of the exercise of any Extension Option is not received by Lessor by the applicable dates described above, then this Lease shall terminate on the last day of the Initial Term or, if applicable, the last day of the Extension Term then in effect.

4. Rental and Other Monetary Obligations.

- each calendar month, Lessee shall pay in advance the Base Monthly Rental; provided, however, if the Effective Date is a date other than the first day of the month, Lessee shall pay to Lessor (or any other party designated by Lessor) on the Effective Date the Base Monthly Rental prorated by multiplying the Base Monthly Rental by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days remaining in the month (including the Effective Date) for which Rental is being paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in such month. During the Extension Terms, if any, Lessee shall pay the Rental (including the Base Monthly Rental) in the manner set forth in this Section 4. Unless otherwise specifically stated to the contrary herein, Lessee shall perform all its obligations under this Lease at its sole cost and expense and shall pay all Rental and any other Monetary Obligation due hereunder when due and payable, without notice or demand.
- B. Adjustments. On the first Adjustment Date and on each Adjustment Date thereafter, the Base Annual Rental shall increase by an amount equal to the Rent Adjustment. The "Rent Adjustment" shall be an amount equal to two percent (2%) of the Base Annual Rental in effect immediately prior to the applicable Adjustment Date. The Adjustment Date shall be on the annual anniversary of the Effective Date.
- C. Additional Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge, as additional rental ("Additional Rental"), all sums of money required to be paid by Lessee under this Lease which are not specifically referred to as Base Annual Rental or Base Monthly Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge any Additional Rental when the same shall become due, provided that amounts which are billed to Lessor or any third party, but not to Lessee, shall be paid within five (5) days after Lessor's demand for payment thereof or, if later, when the same are due. In no event shall Lessee be required to pay to Lessor any item of Additional Rental that Lessee is obligated to pay and has paid to any third party pursuant to any provision of this Lease.
- D. Payment of Rental and Other Monetary Obligations. All Rental and other Monetary Obligations which Lessee is required to pay hereunder shall be the unconditional obligation of Lessee and shall be payable in full when due without any setoff, abatement, deferment, deduction or counterclaim whatsoever, except as set forth herein. All payments of Base Monthly Rental and any other Monetary Obligations payable to Lessor shall be remitted to Lessor at Lessor's address set forth in the first paragraph of this Lease or such other address as Lessor may designate pursuant to Section 24 hereof.
- E. Late Payment Charge. Lessee acknowledges that late payment by Lessee to Lessor of Rental will cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of such costs being extremely difficult and impracticable to fix in advance. Such costs include, without limitation, processing and accounting charges, and late charges that may be imposed on Lessor by the terms of any encumbrance and note secured by any encumbrance covering the Property. Therefore, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee to Lessor pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, then Lessee shall pay to Lessor, as a late payment charge, five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment. Additionally, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, such payment shall bear interest at the Default Rate until received by Lessor. The late payment charge and default interest shall be paid to Lessor at the time of payment of the delinquent amount. The late payment charge and the default interest charge shall compensate Lessor for the expenses incurred by Lessor in financing, collecting and processing the late payment. The parties agree that the late charge and the default interest charge represent a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs that Lessor will incur by reason of late payment by Lessee.

- 5. Gaming. Lessor hereby conditionally assigns to Lessee all leases, written or oral, and all agreements for use or occupancy of the Property together with any and all extensions and renewals thereof and any and all further leases, subleases, lettings or agreements (including subleases thereof and tenancies following attornment) upon or covering the use or occupancy of the Property all of which leases, agreements, subleases and tenancies are herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Assigned Leases"; (ii) the immediate and continuing right to collect and receive all of the rents, income, receipts, revenues, issues and profits now due or which may become due or which may now or hereafter become due from or out of the Assigned Leases or any part thereof, including, but not limited to, security deposits, minimum rents, additional rents, parking rents, deficiency rents and liquidated damages following default, any premium payable by any tenant upon the exercise of a cancellation privilege contained in its Lease; all proceeds payable under any policy of insurance covering loss of rents resulting from untenantability caused by destruction or damage to the Property; any and all rights and claims of any kind which Lessor has or hereafter may have against the tenants under the Assigned Leases and any subtenants and other occupants of the Property; any award granted Lessor after the date hereof in any court proceeding involving any tenant in any bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization proceedings in any state or federal court and any and all payments made by any tenant in lieu of rent (any and all such moneys, rights and claims identified in this paragraph are herein sometimes referred to as the "Rents" and sometimes as the "Rent"); and (iii) all of the rights, powers and privileges of Lessor (A) to accept prepayment of more than one (1) monthly installment of the Rent thereunder, and (B) except with respect to the Assigned Lease, (I) to cancel, terminate or accept the surrender of any Assigned Lease, and (II) to amend, modify or abridge any of the terms, covenants or conditions of any Assigned Lease. The assignment contained in this Section 5 and Lessee's interest in the Assigned Leases shall become void and of no further force or effect upon the expiration or early termination of this Lease and upon such event, Lessor shall be the sole party with any interest as a landlord or lessor in the Assigned Leases. Furthermore, Lessee shall have no right to collect any amounts under the Assigned Leases upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default and all such amounts shall be paid to Lessor during any such period.
- 6. Nevada Gaming Control Board. Lessor will follow all laws of the State of Nevada and cooperate with WGI in making application to the Nevada Gaming Control Board as may be required.

- Rentals To Be Net to Lessor. It is the intention of the parties except as expressly provided herein that this Lease shall not be terminable for any reason by Lessee, and that Lessee shall in no event be entitled to any abatement of, or reduction in, Rental payable under this Lease, except as otherwise expressly provided herein. Lessee may, at its own expense, contest or cause to be contested by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, any above-described item or lien with respect thereto, including, without limitation, the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any such item, provided that (A) neither the Property nor any interest therein would be in any danger of being sold, forfeited or lost by reason of such proceedings, (B) no monetary Event of Default has occurred, (C) Lessee shall promptly provide Lessor with copies of all notices received or delivered by Lessee and filings made by Lessee in connection with such proceeding, and (D) Lessee shall indemnify and hold Lessor harmless against any loss, Costs or damages arising from or related to such contest.

No full or partial utility deprivation including, but not limited to, blackout, brownout, or rationing, nor any loss of or damage to improvements related to disruption or failure of any utility service shall give rise to any abatement of Rentals nor give rise to any right of Lessee to offset Rentals or to terminate the Lease, unless caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Lessor or its agents, employees or contractors (but not of any other tenants or occupants of the Property). Lessor shall reasonably cooperate with Lessee, but without out-of-pocket expense to Lessor, in Lessee's efforts to restore utility service to the Property; provided, however, that if the utility service was disrupted due to Lessor's gross negligence or willful misconduct, then the cost of such restoration shall be borne by Lessor.

Such insurance is to follow form of the real property "all risk" coverage and is not to contain a co-insurance clause.

- (ix) Be evidenced by delivery to Lessor and any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor of an Acord Form 28 for property coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor) and an Acord Form 25 for liability, workers' compensation and umbrella coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor); provided that in the event that either such form is no longer available, such evidence of insurance shall be in a form reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and any lender designated by Lessor; such certificates of insurance shall be delivered to Lessor prior to the Effective Date; and

It is expressly understood and agreed that (I) if any insurance required hereunder, or any part thereof, shall expire, be withdrawn, become void by breach of any condition thereof by Lessee, or become void or in jeopardy by reason of the failure or impairment of the capital of any insurer, Lessee shall immediately obtain new or additional insurance reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and any lender designated by Lessor; (II) the foregoing minimum limits of insurance coverage shall not limit the liability of Lessee for its acts or omissions as provided in this Lease;

and (III) Lessee shall procure policies for all insurance for periods of not less than one year and shall provide to Lessor and any servicer or lender of Lessor certificates of insurance or, upon Lessor's request, duplicate originals of insurance policies evidencing that insurance satisfying the requirements of this Lease is in effect at all times.

Lessee shall pay as they become due all premiums for the insurance required by this Section 10. In the event that Lessee fails to comply with any of the foregoing requirements of this Section 10 within ten (10) days of the giving of written notice by Lessor to Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to procure such insurance. Any sums expended by Lessor in procuring such insurance shall be Additional Rental and shall be repaid by Lessee, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate, from the time of payment by Lessor until fully paid by Lessee immediately upon written demand therefor by Lessor.

 - B. Acts Resulting in Increased Insurance Rates. Lessee will use its commercially reasonable efforts to prevent any act or condition to exist on or about the Property which will materially increase any insurance rate thereon, except when such acts are required in the normal course of its business and Lessee shall pay for such increase. Lessee shall comply with all orders and directives of any insurance companies issuing liability, fire, or extended coverage insurance pursuant to Section 10 hereof, and Lessee

- Notification Requirements. Lessee shall immediately notify Lessor in writing upon Lessee obtaining actual knowledge of (1) any Releases or Threatened Releases in, on, under or from the Property other than in Permitted Amounts, or migrating towards any of the Property; (2) any non-compliance with any Environmental Laws related in any way to any of the Property; (3) any actual or potential Environmental Lien; (4) any required or proposed Remediation of environmental conditions relating to any of the Property required by applicable Governmental Authorities; and (5) any written or oral notice or other communication which Lessee becomes aware from any source whatsoever (including but not limited to a Governmental Authority) relating in any way to Hazardous Materials, Regulated Substances or USTs, or Remediation thereof at or on the Property, other than in Permitted Amounts, possible liability of any Person relating to the Property pursuant to any Environmental Law, other environmental conditions in connection with the Property, or any actual or potential administrative or judicial proceedings in connection with anything referred to in this Subsection D.

Lessee shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold each of the Indemnified Parties free and harmless from and against any and all Losses, arising from or caused in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by any of the following, unless arising from or caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnified Party requesting indemnification: (a) the use, storage, transportation, disposal, release, discharge or generation of Hazardous Materials to, in, on, under or about the Property (whether occurring before or after the date hereof) (any of the foregoing in violation of Legal Requirements is "Contamination"), including diminution in value of the Property; and (b) the cost of any required or necessary repair, remediation, cleanup or detoxification and the preparation of any closure or other required plans or reports, whether such action is required or necessary prior to or following transfer of title to the Property (such acts are sometimes referred to herein as "Corrective Action"), and (c) Lessee's failure to comply with any Legal Requirements. In the event that Lessee has not completed its Corrective Action (if necessary), as required herein, by the expiration of the Lease Term, Lessor shall grant Lessee, and its consultants, contractors and agents a revocable license, at no cost to Lessee except as set forth in the succeeding sentence, to enter upon the Property from and after the date of expiration of the Lease Term to conduct Corrective Action and to place and remove all necessary equipment and improvements on the Property sufficient to satisfy the requirements of all Governmental Authorities regarding the Contamination. If such post-expiration Corrective Action will unreasonably interfere with a reasonably foreseeable intended commercial use of the Property (i.e., if Lessor cannot reasonably lease the Property for reasonable commercial uses at reasonable market rents), the Lease Term shall be extended until sixty (60) days after the Corrective Action has been performed such that post-expiration Corrective Action by Lessee no longer unreasonably interferes with a reasonably foreseeable commercial use of the Property, and Lessee agrees to keep Lessor apprised of the anticipated completion date of the Corrective Action.

Lessee must make all repairs, corrections, replacements, improvements or alterations necessitated by age, Lessee's use, or natural elements or as required pursuant to Governmental Authorities or Legal Requirements. Lessee expressly waives the benefit of any statute now or hereinafter in effect which would otherwise afford Lessee the right to make repairs, corrections, improvements or alterations at Lessor's expense or to terminate this Lease because of Lessor's failure to keep the Property in good order, condition or repair, or which would otherwise require Lessor to make repairs, corrections, improvements, replacements or alterations. If the buildings or any improvements on the Property violate any Permitted Encumbrances or Legal Requirements, then Lessee shall, upon the written demand of a Governmental Authority or the written demand of a party to or beneficiary of any Permitted Encumbrance, repair, restore, relocate and/or rebuild the same in accordance with Legal Requirements (including any special or conditional use permits or other variances granted specifically for the Property) and the Permitted Encumbrances.

Lessee shall give Lessor at least fifteen (15) days written notice prior to commencing the repair to permit the Lessor to post appropriate notices of non-responsibility, and all such repair work shall be subject to the provisions of Section 14 hereof related to alterations, improvements and additions to the Property.

The proceeds of any insurance maintained under Section 10 hereof shall be made available to Lessee for payment of costs and expense of repair.

Lessee shall not commit actual or constructive waste upon the Property. During the Lease Term, Lessee may construct any additions or improvements to the Property and make such structural or non-structural alterations to the Property as are reasonably necessary or desirable for Lessee's use of the Property for a Permitted Facility. All improvements, alterations, or additions shall be constructed by Lessee at Lessee's sole cost and expense. Prior to the commencement of construction of any additions, improvements, or alterations to the Property, Lessee shall give Lessor at least fifteen (15) days written notice to allow Lessor to post appropriate notices of non-responsibility. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, without Lessor's prior written consent, Lessee shall not make any alterations that will decrease the value or function of the improvements located on the Property.

Lessee's right to make any alterations, improvements and additions shall be deemed conditioned upon Lessee acquiring a permit to do so from appropriate Governmental Authorities, the furnishing of a copy thereof to Lessor prior to the commencement of the work and the compliance by Lessee of all conditions of said permit in a prompt and expeditious manner. All alterations, improvements or other construction by Lessee shall be in compliance with all Legal Requirements, and all alterations and improvements shall be done and performed in good and workmanlike manner, using new and first quality materials. All costs of any such improvements shall be paid by Lessee.

Upon completion of any such work, Lessee shall submit to Lessor as-built plans of any structural, mechanical or interior utility improvements and alterations made, a sworn construction statement, lien waivers from all persons or entities providing materials, services or equipment for the work completed and, if available, an endorsement to Lessor's policy of title insurance or other evidence from a title company confirming the absence of any liens or other matters of record related to the work performed.

Unless expressly released by Lessor in writing, all improvements or alterations shall be and remain, at the time of expiration or other termination of this Lease, the property of Lessor without payment or offset unless such improvements are not attached to the Property. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all plumbing, electrical, HVAC equipment, doors, ceiling and floor tiles, and wall coverings shall become the property of Lessor and remain in place on the Property upon expiration or other termination of this Lease.

During the Lease Term, Lessee shall have the right to locate in the Property such personal property, furniture, trade fixtures, and equipment (hereafter referred to as "Fixtures and Equipment") as shall be considered by Lessee to be appropriate or necessary to Lessee's use and occupancy of the Property.

During the term of this Lease, Lessee may remove any Fixtures and Equipment installed by Lessee, and any and all such Fixtures and Equipment shall remain the sole property of Lessee. Lessee shall perform (and pay all costs associated with) any and all restoration necessitated by the removal of Lessee's Fixtures and Equipment, including but not limited to damage resulting from removal of any of Lessee's signs in or about the Property.

Lessee shall keep the Property free and clear of all mechanic's, materialmen or similar liens, including, but not limited to, those resulting from the construction of alterations, improvements, additions, trade fixtures, and equipment performed by or for Lessee.

Lessee shall have the right to contest the correctness or validity of any such lien if, Lessee first procures and records a lien release bond issued by a corporation authorized to issue surety bonds in the state in which the Property are located in an amount required by Legal Requirements to remove such lien. The bond or its equivalent shall meet all applicable requirements of the state in which the Property are located. In the event that any lien does so attach, and is not released within thirty (30) days after written notice to Lessee thereof, Lessor, in its sole discretion, may pay and discharge the same and relieve the Property therefrom, and Lessee agrees to repay and reimburse Lessor as Additional Rental upon demand for the amount so paid by Lessor. On final determination of the lien or claim of lien Lessee will immediately pay any judgment rendered, and all costs and charges, and shall cause the lien to be released or satisfied. In addition, Lessor may require Lessee to pay Lessor's reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in participating in such action if Lessor shall decide it is in its best interest to do so.

- 15. Indemnification. Lessee agrees to use and occupy the Property at its own risk and hereby releases Lessor and Lessor's agents and employees from all claims for any damage or injury to the full extent permitted by law. Lessee agrees that Lessor shall not be responsible or liable to Lessee or Lessee's employees, agents, customers or invitees for bodily injury, personal injury or property damage occasioned by the acts or omissions of any other lessee or such lessee's employees, agents, contractors, customers or invitees. In addition to other specific indemnification provisions set forth in this Lease, Lessee shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties from and against any and all Losses caused by, incurred or resulting from Lessee's use and occupancy of the Property, whether relating to its original design or construction, latent defects, alteration, maintenance, use by Lessee or any Person thereon, with supervision or otherwise, or from any breach of, default under, or failure to perform, any term or provision of this Lease by Lessee, its officers, employees, agents or other Persons. It is expressly understood and agreed that Lessee's obligations under this Section shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease for any reason.
- Obligations herein provided and shall keep and perform all of the terms, covenants and conditions on its part herein contained, Lessee shall have, subject and subordinate to Lessor's rights herein, the right to the peaceful and quiet occupancy of the Property, subject to the Permitted Encumbrances, Laws and the WGI Agreement and any use or occupancy agreements, leases or licenses now affecting the Property or hereinafter made by Lessee.
- the right, at all reasonable times and upon giving reasonable prior notice (except in the event of an emergency, in which case no prior notice shall be required), to enter the Property or any part thereof and to inspect the same; to serve, post, or keep posted any notices required or allowed under the provisions of this Lease or by law; to show the Property to prospective brokers, agents, buyers, or persons interested in an exchange, at any time; and to show the Property to prospective tenants within two hundred forty (240) days prior to the expiration of this Lease or any time during the option period and to place upon the Property any "to let" or "for lease" signs at any time within two hundred forty (240) days prior to the expiration of this Lease. Lessee hereby waives any claim for damages for any injury or inconvenience to or interference with Lessee's business, any loss of occupancy or quiet enjoyment of the Property and any other loss occasioned by such entry, but, subject to Section 37, excluding damages arising as a result of the negligence or intentional misconduct of Lessor.

18. Condemnation and Casualty.

A. Damage or Destruction to the Property; No Abatement of Rent. If the Property is damaged or destroyed as a result of fire or other casualty Lessee shall promptly restore the Property pursuant to the terms of Section 13 hereof.

Notwithstanding the partial or total destruction of the Property and any part thereof, and notwithstanding whether the casualty is insured or not, there shall be no abatement of Rentals or of any other obligation of Lessee hereunder including, without limitation, payment of operating expenses, insurance premiums and Taxes, by reason of such damage or destruction unless the Lease is terminated by virtue of another provision of this Lease.

- B. Option to Terminate. If the Property is damaged or destroyed during the last one (1) year of the Lease Term to the extent that the Property is untenable, Lessee may terminate this Lease as of the date of such damage or destruction by giving written notice to Lessor of such election within thirty (30) days following the date of such fire or other casualty, in which case, all insurance proceeds related to the Property (other than attributable to Lessee's Fixtures and Equipment) will be paid over to Lessor, or if required by Lessor's Lender, to such lender.
- C. Termination Upon Taking. If as a consequence of a Taking, (i) any part of the convenience store building on the Property, or (ii) twenty-five percent (25 %) or more of the parking area at the Property shall be taken and Lessee determines in its reasonable discretion that such Taking will have a material adverse impact on the ability of Lessee to conduct its normal business operations from the Property, then, within thirty (30) days after the date on which Lessee receives written notice of such Taking, Lessee may terminate this Lease by written notice to Lessor which termination shall be effective as of the date the condemning authority takes actual possession of the portion of the Property that is subject to the Taking. If Lessee terminates this Lease, Lessor shall promptly refund to Lessee all unearned Annual Base Rental and other amounts paid in advance by Lessee.
- D. Obligation to Restore. If a Taking does not result in a termination of this Lease pursuant to Subsection C hereof, Lessee shall restore the Property to a condition similar in physical appearance to that which existed immediately prior to the Taking to the extent possible such that Lessee can conduct its normal business operations, Lessee shall commence such restoration within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of the taking and shall complete such restoration within six (6) months after the occurrence of the taking.
- E. Condemnation Award. Any condemnation award payable during the term of this Lease shall belong to and be paid to Lessor, including but not limited to awards payable with respect to damage to either the fee or leasehold estates, except that Lessee shall receive from the award the following:
 - i. If Lessee exercises its rights to terminate this Lease, the portion of the award, if any, attributable to Lessee's Equipment or Fixtures that are taken in the Taking and the unamortized cost of any leasehold improvements made to the Property by Lessee after the date hereof that are taken in the Taking.
 - ii. The portion of the award, if any, attributable to severance damages for the repair or restoration of the Property (herein called "repair"), but only if Lessee does not exercise Lessee's right to terminate the Lease and further provided, that such damages shall be deposited and disbursed in accordance with the provisions hereof related to the handling of insurance proceeds that are applied to a repair of the Property and Lessee shall promptly commence and diligently complete the repair so that upon completion the Property will have a character and commercial value as nearly as possible equal to the value of the Property immediately prior to the taking, and further provided that, in the event such damages are insufficient to cover the cost of repair, then any amounts required over the amount thereof that are required to complete said repair shall be promptly deposited with the disbursing entity by Lessee in advance of commencing the repair.

- iii. Additionally, if this Lease is terminated as a result of any such taking, Lessee shall be permitted to recover its relocation expenses and the going concern value of Lessee's business from the condemning authority (but not from Lessor or the portion of the award otherwise payable to Lessor) as provided by law.
- 19. Intentionally Deleted.
- 20. Default, Conditional Limitations, Remedies and Measure of Damages.
- A. Event of Default. Each of the following shall be an event of default by Lessee under this Lease (each, an "Event of Default"):
 - (i) If any Rental or other Monetary Obligation due under this Lease is not paid within five (5) Business Days of notice it is past due, provided, however, that if within the first twelve (12) months of the Lease Term, Lessor has given two (2) such notices to Lessee, then a default shall be deemed to have occurred when such failure has continued for three (3) business days after the same is due, without notice thereof by Lessor to Lessee; and further, provided, however, that after the first twelve (12) months of the Lease Term, if Lessor has given such notice to Lessee within the preceding twelve (12) months, then a default shall be deemed to have occurred when such failure has continued for three (3) Business Days after the same is due, without notice thereof by Lessor to Lessee;
 - (ii) if there is an Insolvency Event;
 - (iii) if Lessee fails to observe or perform any of the other covenants, conditions or obligations of Lessee in this Lease; provided, however, if any such failure does not involve the payment of any Monetary Obligation, does not place any rights or property of Lessor in immediate jeopardy, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, then such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default hereunder, unless otherwise expressly provided herein, unless and until Lessor shall have given Lessee notice thereof and a period of thirty (30) days shall have elapsed, during which period Lessee may correct or cure such failure, upon failure of which an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required. If such failure cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, and Lessee is diligently pursuing a cure of such failure, then Lessee shall have a reasonable period to cure such failure beyond such thirty (30) day period. If Lessee shall fail to correct or cure such failure within such period and said period is not extended by the parties, an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required;

- (iv) if Lessee shall be liquidated or dissolved or shall begin proceedings towards its liquidation or dissolution; or
- B. Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, with or without notice or demand, except as otherwise expressly provided herein or such other notice as may be required by statute and cannot be waived by Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to exercise, at its option, concurrently, successively, or in any combination, all remedies available at law or in equity, including without limitation, any one or more of the following:
 - To terminate this Lease, whereupon Lessee's right to possession of the Property shall cease and this Lease, except as to Lessee's liability, shall be terminated. Upon such termination, Lessor shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages equal to the total of (i) the cost of recovering possession of the Property; (ii) the unpaid Rental earned at the time of termination, plus interest at the Default Rate thereon; (iii) late charges and interest at the Default Rate on the unpaid Rental; (iv) the present value of the balance of the Base Annual Rental for the remainder of the Lease Term using a discount rate of four percent (4%), less the present value of the reasonable rental value of the Property for the balance of the Term remaining after a one-year period following repossession using a discount rate of four percent (4%): (v) costs of operating the Property until relet and the reasonable costs of performing any obligations of Lessee under this Lease to be performed upon termination or expiration of this Lease (including but not limited to the Lessee's obligations under Sections 12.D and 27 hereof); and (vi) any other sum of money and damages reasonably necessary to compensate Lessor for the detriment caused by Lessee's default.
 - (ii) To the extent not prohibited by applicable law, to reenter and take possession of the Property (or any part thereof) without being deemed guilty in any manner of trespass or becoming liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom, without resort to legal or judicial process, procedure or action. No notice from Lessor hereunder or under a forcible entry and detainer statute or similar law shall constitute an election by Lessor to terminate this Lease unless such notice specifically so states. If Lessee shall, after default, voluntarily give up possession of the Property to Lessor, deliver to Lessor or its agents the keys to the Property, or both, such actions shall be deemed to be in compliance with Lessor's rights and the acceptance thereof by Lessor or its agents shall not be deemed to constitute a termination of the Lease. Lessor reserves the right following any reentry and/or reletting to exercise its right to terminate this Lease by giving Lessee written notice thereof, in which event this Lease will terminate, and Lessor may recover liquidated damages as set forth in Subsection (i) above.

- (iii) To bring an action against Lessee for any damages sustained by Lessor or any equitable relief available to Lessor.
- (iv) To relet the Property or any part thereof for such term or terms (including a term which extends beyond the original Lease Term), at such rentals and upon such other terms as Lessor, in its sole discretion, may determine, with all proceeds received from such reletting being applied to the Rental and other Monetary Obligations due from Lessee in such order as Lessor may, in it sole discretion, determine, which other Monetary Obligations include, without limitation, all commercially reasonable repossession costs, brokerage commissions, attorneys' fees and expenses and repair costs. Lessor reserves the right following any reentry and/or reletting to exercise its right to terminate this Lease by giving Lessee written notice thereof, in which event this Lease will terminate as specified in said notice.
- (v) To recover from Lessee all Costs paid or incurred by Lessor as a result of such breach, regardless of whether or not legal proceedings are actually commenced.
- (vi) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, at Lessor's sole option but without any obligation to do so, correct such breach or default and charge Lessee all Costs incurred by Lessor therein. Any sum or sums so paid by Lessor, together with interest at the Default Rate, shall be deemed to be Additional Rental hereunder and shall be immediately due from Lessee to Lessor. Any such acts by Lessor in correcting Lessee's breaches or defaults hereunder shall not be deemed to cure said breaches or defaults or constitute any waiver of Lessor's right to exercise any or all remedies set forth herein.
- (vii) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, except as required herein, set off any money of Lessee held by Lessor under this Lease.
- (viii) To seek any equitable relief available to Lessor, including, without limitation, the right of specific performance.

All powers and remedies given by this Section to Lessor, subject to applicable Law, shall be cumulative and not exclusive of one another or of any other right or remedy or of any other powers and remedies available to Lessor under this Lease, by judicial proceedings or otherwise, to enforce the performance or observance of the covenants and agreements of Lessee contained in this Lease, and no delay or omission of Lessor to exercise any right or power accruing upon the occurrence of any Event of Default shall impair any other or subsequent Event of Default or impair any rights or remedies consequent thereto. Every power and remedy given by this Section or by Law to Lessor may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by Lessor, subject at all times to Lessor's right in its sole judgment to discontinue any work commenced by Lessor or change any course of action undertaken by Lessor.

C. Default by Lessor. Lessor shall be in default under this Lease if Lessor fails or refuses to perform any obligation of Lessor under the terms of this Lease, and if the failure to perform the obligation is not cured within thirty (30) days after notice of the default has been given by Lessee to Lessor. If the default cannot reasonably be cured within thirty (30) days, then Lessor shall not be in default if Lessor commences to cure the default within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default thereafter.

Lessee, at any time after expiration of the cure period provided above and a subsequent written notice to Lessor, may cure the default at Lessor's cost. If Lessee at any time, as a result of Lessor's default, pays any sum or performs any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Lessee shall be due immediately from Lessor to Lessee at the time the sum is paid, and if paid at a later date shall bear interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date the sum is paid by Lessee until the date Lessee is reimbursed by Lessor. Any amounts due from Lessor to Lessee pursuant to this Section 15 may be deducted or offset against Lessee's Base Monthly Rental.

and/or the Property shall not be subordinate to any liens or encumbrances placed upon the Property by or resulting from any act of Lessee, and nothing herein contained shall be construed to require such subordination by Lessor. Notwithstanding the terms of or the parties to the WGI Agreement and any other agreements pursuant to which Persons other than Lessee have the right to occupy any portion of the Property, such agreements shall, as between Lessor and Lessee, be treated as an instrument subordinate to Lessor's interest in the Property and this Lease. Lessee shall keep the Property free from any liens for work performed, materials furnished or obligations incurred by Lessee. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT LESSEE IS NOT AUTHORIZED TO PLACE OR ALLOW TO BE PLACED ANY LIEN, MORTGAGE, DEED OF TRUST, SECURITY INTEREST OR ENCUMBRANCE OF ANY KIND UPON ALL OR ANY PART OF THE PROPERTY OR LESSEE'S LEASEHOLD INTEREST THEREIN, AND ANY SUCH PURPORTED TRANSACTION SHALL BE VOID.

This Lease at all times shall automatically be subordinate to the lien of any and all Deeds of Trust now or hereafter placed upon the Property by Lessor, provided, that the holder of such interest shall not disturb Lessee's use and enjoyment of Lessee's rights under this Lease so long as Lessee is not in default hereunder. Lessee covenants and agrees to execute and deliver, upon demand, such further instruments which are acceptable to Lessee, subordinating this Lease to the lien of any or all such Deeds of Trust as shall be desired by Lessor, or any present or proposed Deeds of Trust; provided, that the terms and provisions of any such instrument are commercially reasonable. The Lessee acknowledges that the terms and provisions of the Instrument attached hereto as Exhibit C are commercially reasonable.

If any Lessor's Lender, mortgagee, receiver or other secured party elects to have this Lease and the interest of Lessee hereunder be superior to any such Deed of Trust and evidences such election by notice given to Lessee, then this Lease and the interest of Lessee hereunder shall be deemed superior to any such Deed of Trust, whether this Lease was executed before or after such Deed of Trust and in that event such mortgagee, receiver or other secured party shall have the same rights with respect to this Lease as if it had been executed and delivered prior to the execution and delivery of such Deed of Trust and had been assigned to such mortgagee, receiver or other secured party.

In the event any purchaser or assignee of any mortgagee or deed of trust holder at a foreclosure sale acquires title to the Property, or in the event that any mortgagee or any assignee otherwise succeeds to the rights of Lessor as Lessor under this Lease, Lessee shall attorn to mortgagee or deed of trust holder or such purchaser or assignee, as the case may be (a "Successor Lessor"), and recognize the Successor Lessor as lessor under this Lease, and, if the Successor Lessor in its sole discretion elects to recognize Lessee's tenancy under this Lease, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect as a direct lease between the Successor Lessor and Lessee, provided that the Successor Lessor shall only be liable for any obligations of Lessor under this Lease which accrue after the date that such Successor Lessor acquires title. The foregoing provision shall be self-operative and effective without the execution of any further instruments.

Lessee shall give written notice to any Lessor's Lender of whom Lessee is notified of in writing of any breach or default by Lessor of any of its obligations under this Lease and give such lender or mortgagee the same rights to which Lessor might be entitled to cure such default before Lessee may exercise any remedy with respect thereto. Upon request by Lessor, Lessee shall authorize Lessor to release to Lessee's financial statements delivered to Lessor pursuant to this Lease to such Lessor's Lender.

Estoppel Certificate and Other Documents. At any time, and from time to time, each party shall, promptly and in no event later than ten (10) days after a request from the other execute, acknowledge and deliver to the requesting party, as the case may be, a certificate in the form supplied by the requesting party, certifying: (A) that this Lease is in full force and effect and has not been modified (or if modified, setting forth all modifications), or, if this Lease is not in full force and effect, the certificate shall so specify the reasons therefor; (B) the commencement and expiration dates of the Lease Term; (C) the date to which the Rentals have been paid under this Lease and the amount thereof then payable; (D) whether there are then any existing defaults by Lessee or Lessor in the performance of its obligations under this Lease, and, if there are any such defaults, specifying the nature and extent thereof; (E) that no notice has been received by the certifying party of any default under this Lease which has not been cured, except as to defaults specified in the certificate; (F) the capacity of the person executing such certificate, and that such person is duly authorized to execute the same on behalf of Lessee; and; (G) and any other information reasonably requested by the requesting party.

Lessor and Lessee further agree to reasonably negotiate execute all reasonable documents, including without limitation, estoppel certificates, non-disturbance certificates and other documents requested by WGI, any Lessor's Lender or any lender of Lessee in connection with a loan to be obtained by Lessor or Lessee, or in connection with a sale, assignment, sublease or other disposition of the Lessor's interest under this Lease.

23. Assignment/Subletting. Lessee's interest in this Lease shall not, voluntarily, involuntarily, or by operation of law, be assigned to any third person or entity without the prior written consent of Lessor which will not be unreasonably withhold conditioned or delayed.

In the event of an assignment of Lessee's interest under this Lease to a third person or entity which has been approved by the Lessor, the original Lessee shall be relieved from any and all further obligations under the terms of this Lease upon delivery to Lessor of an originally executed assumption of all of Lessee's obligations under this Lease by the assignee, and upon cure of all then existing defaults of Lessee under the terms of this Lease.

Other than for the WGI Agreement and any Replacement WGI Agreement, and any other agreements pursuant to which experienced and reputable operators are permitted to occupy discreet portions of the convenience store building located on the site for uses that are complementary to or extensions of Lessee's gas station and convenience store operations (e.g., quick-service restaurants, deli and sandwich shops, coffee shops, juice shops, postal contract units and/or UPS/Federal Express services) when such uses are not in violation of Legal Requirements or the Permitted Encumbrances(such other agreements are referred to herein as "Permitted Subleases"), Lessee may not sublease all or any part of the Property without the prior written consent of the Lessor, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. In no event will any Permitted Subleases, or any other subleases that Lessor consents to relieve Lessee of any liability hereunder during the period of any such subletting. Additionally, Lessee shall give Lessor at least thirty (30) days advance notice of any proposed Permitted Sublease, which notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the form of the Permitted Sublease.

Each Permitted Sublease, and any other sublease that Lessor may consent to pursuant to the foregoing paragraph shall provide that (i) the term thereof will not exceed the Initial Term hereof and any extensions of the Initial Term that are permitted hereunder; (ii) the sublease and subtenant shall be subject to and bound by all the terms and conditions of this Lease (except that the Lessee shall continue to pay all Rental and Monetary Obligations hereunder and Lessee shall collect any rents owed by the subtenant pursuant to the sublease); (iii) the sublease shall state that, at Lessor's election, the subtenant will attorn to Lessor and recognize Lessor as Lessee's successor under the sublease for the balance of the sublease term if this Lease is surrendered by Lessee or terminated by reason of Lessee's default.

24. Notices. All notices, demands, designations, certificates, requests, offers, consents, approvals, appointments and other instruments given pursuant to this Lease (collectively called "Notices") shall be in writing and given by any one of the following:

(A) hand delivery, (B) express overnight delivery service, (C) certified or registered mail, return receipt requested or (D) facsimile, provided that a copy of such facsimile is also sent via certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or by overnight delivery service, within one Business Day of the transmission of such facsimile, and shall be deemed to have been delivered upon (i) receipt, if hand delivered, (ii) the next Business Day, if delivered by a reputable express overnight delivery service, (iii) the third Business Day following the day of deposit of such notice with the United States Postal Service, if sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or (iv) transmission, if delivered by facsimile pursuant to the requirements of Section 24.D above. If Lessee remains in possession of the Property after the expiration of the term hereof, Lessee, at Lessor's option and within Lessor's sole discretion, may be deemed a Lessee on a month-to-month basis and shall continue to pay Rentals and other Monetary Obligations in the amounts herein provided, except that the Base Monthly Rental shall be automatically increased to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the last Base Monthly Rental payable under this Lease.

26. Intentionally Omitted.

27. Surrender. At the expiration of the Lease Term, Lessee may remove from the Property all of Lessee's Fixtures and Equipment. Lessee shall repair any damage caused by such removal and shall leave the Property broom clean and in good and working condition and repair inside and out, and comply with all of the requirements of Section 12.D hereof. Lessor may, in its sole discretion, elect to retain or dispose of in any manner any Fixtures or Equipment, personal property and vehicles to which Lessee is entitled but which Lessee does not remove from the Property pursuant to this Section within ten (10) days after notice, provided, however, that upon demand, Lessee shall reimburse Lessor for all costs incurred by Lessor in removing any Fixtures and Equipment and any all personal property, vehicles and inventory, Hazardous Materials, USTs and related equipment, located in or about the Property that are left therein by Lessee or in restoring the Property to the condition required by this Lease.

Once per calendar year, and within 120 days after the end of Lessee's fiscal year, Lessee shall furnish to Lessor audited financial statements of Lessee for the immediately preceding fiscal year. Lessor shall maintain such statements in confidence but may disclose any financial statements furnished by Lessee to Lessor's lawyers, any prospective purchaser of the Property who has entered into a signed purchase agreement with Lessor, prospective and existing lenders of Lessor, and to Lessor's consultants and accountants; Lessor shall advise such permitted recipients that the financial statements furnished to them are to be held in confidence. In no event shall Lessor knowingly disclose Lessee's financial statements to competitors of Lessee.
- 29. Force Majeure. Any prevention, delay or stoppage due to strikes, lockouts, acts of God, enemy or hostile governmental action, civil commotion, fire or other casualty beyond the control of the party obligated to perform (each, a "Force Majeure Event") shall excuse the performance by such party for a period equal to any such prevention, delay or stoppage, expressly excluding, however, the obligations imposed upon Lessee with respect to Rental and other Monetary Obligations to be paid hereunder.
- 30. No Merger. There shall be no merger of this Lease nor of the leasehold estate created by this Lease with the fee estate in or ownership of the Property by reason of the fact that the same person, corporation, firm or other entity may acquire or hold or own, directly or indirectly, (A) this Lease or the leasehold estate created by this Lease or any interest in this Lease or in such leasehold estate, and (B) the fee estate or ownership of the Property or any interest in such fee estate or ownership. No such merger shall occur unless and until all persons, corporations, firms and other entities having any interest in (i) this Lease or the leasehold estate created by this Lease, and (ii) the fee estate in or ownership of the Property or any part thereof sought to be merged shall join in a written instrument effecting such merger and shall duly record the same.
- 31. Characterization. Lessor and Lessee acknowledge and warrant to each other that each has been represented by independent counsel and has executed this Lease after being fully advised by said counsel as to its effect and significance. This Lease shall be interpreted and construed in a fair and impartial manner without regard to such factors as the party which prepared the instrument, the relative bargaining powers of the parties or the domicile of any party. Whenever in this Lease any words of obligation or duty are used, such words or expressions shall have the same force and effect as though made in the form of a covenant.
- 32. Easements. During the Lease Term, Lessor shall not have the right to grant easements on, over, under and above the Property without the prior consent of Lessee, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

In addition, the prevailing party shall, upon demand, be entitled to all attorneys' fees and all other Costs incurred in the preparation and service of any notice or demand hereunder, whether or not a legal action is subsequently commenced.

- 35. Memorandum of Lease. Concurrently with the execution of this Lease, Lessor and Lessee are executing Lessor's standard form memorandum of lease in recordable form, indicating the names and addresses of Lessor and Lessee, a description of the Property, the Lease Term, but omitting Rentals and such other terms of this Lease as Lessor may not desire to disclose to the public. Further, upon Lessor's request, Lessee agrees to execute and acknowledge a termination of lease and/or quit claim deed in recordable form to be held by Lessor until the expiration or sooner termination of the Lease Term.
- 36. No Broker. Lessor and Lessee represent and warrant to each other that they have had no conversation or negotiations with any broker concerning the leasing of the Property. Each of Lessor and Lessee agrees to protect, indemnify, save and keep harmless the other, against and from all liabilities, claims, losses, Costs, damages and expenses, including attorneys' fees, arising out of, resulting from or in connection with their breach of the foregoing warranty and representation.

Waiver of any matter shall not be deemed a waiver of the same or any other matter on any future occasion. No acceptance by Lessor of an amount less than the Rental and other Monetary Obligations stipulated to be due under this Lease shall be deemed to be other than a payment on account of the earliest such Rental or other Monetary Obligations then due or in arrears nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or letter accompanying any such payment be deemed a waiver of Lessor's right to collect any unpaid amounts or an accord and satisfaction.

Lessee further agrees to give such notices to any successor-in-interest of Lender, provided that such successor-in-interest shall have given written notice to Lessee of its acquisition of Lender's interest in the Deed of Trust and designated the address to which such notices are to be sent.
- 5. Lessee acknowledges that, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, Lessor has assigned to Lender the rentals under the Lease as additional security for said loan, and Lessee hereby expressly consents to and recognizes such Deed of Trust, and agrees to pay the Rental to Lender or its nominee whenever Lender claims or requests the Rental under the terms of said Assignment.

RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES

INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

Please identify and describe in detail any and all measures you have taken, if any, to relet or sell the Property since the Lease was allegedly breached.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

In early March 2013, immediately upon learning that BHI was walking out on their lease of the Property, Respondent engaged Daniel Gluhaich to try to find another lessee. Respondent was never informed of and is not currently aware of all the details of measures taken by Mr. Gluhaich to re-let or sell the Property. In or around April 2013, in an attempt to maintain the value of the Property to prospective lessees or purchasers, Mr. Gluhaich and Respondent's counsel negotiated the Interim Operating Agreement with BHI, which took effect on May 1, 2013. On or about May 18, 2013, Respondent's counsel notified BHI that BHI was in default of the Interim Operating Agreement. When BHI then willfully breached the Interim Operating Agreement, Respondent contacted Mr. Gluhaich and had him redouble his efforts to re-let or sell the Property. In or around August/September 2013, Respondent began negotiating with the mortgage holder to allow the property to be sold via a short sale. Mr. Gluhaich served as my broker for the short sale. The property was sold to Longley Partners, LLC for $4,150,000.00 on February 14, 2014.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

Please identify any persons or entities who expressed interest in leasing or purchasing the Property since the Lease was allegedly breached.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 6:

May 31, 2013.

INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

Please explain in detail how the damages in Paragraphs 13-18 alleged in your Amended Complaint were calculated.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

Damages alleged in Paragraph 13 were calculated using the actual notices from the City of Reno forwarded by Propounding Parties to Respondent's counsel. Such damages are expressly the responsibility of Defendants under, inter alia, Sections 4(A), 7, 13, 15, 20(B)(i)(vi), 20(B)(v) of the Lease.

Damages alleged in Paragraph 14 were calculated by computing the Base Monthly Rental from 3/1/2013 through 8/23/2023, including the annual 2% adjustment authorized under Lease § 4(B), as follows:

RENTAL PERIOD	ANNUAL PAYMENTS	MONTHLY
3/2006 - 2/2007	1,464,375.00	122,031.25
3/2007 - 2/2008	1,493,662.50	124,471.88

The remaining amount of rent due under the Lease was calculated as the sum of each year's annual payments shown in red in the table above, yielding a total of $19,443,836.94. The Net Present Value as of March 1, 2013 was then calculated using the "NPV" formula in the Apple Numbers spreadsheet application, applying a 4% Discount Rate per the terms of the Lease, yielding a Net Present Value of $15,741,360.75. This figure was independently verified to be correct by Hratch Karakachian, a Certified Public Accountant and attorney-associate of Respondent's counsel in California.

Damages alleged in Paragraph 15 were calculated using the actual value of carnest money invested by Respondent when the Property was purchased, $4,437,500.00. The tax consequences in the amount of at least $3,000,000.00 was obtained from Respondent's accountant, Mitra Ehsanipour. This figure was revised on March 1, 2015 by Ms. Ehsanipour to be $2,430,000.00 for Overland Development Corporation and $3,152,000.00 for Larry Willard. Damages for closing costs were calculated from the values appearing on the Seller's Final Closing Statement.

Damages alleged in Paragraph 16 were calculated from the actual invoices received by Respondent in the amount of $4,554.53 for insurance, $2,668.62 for installation of a security fence, and $10,393.35 from Nevada Energy.

Damages alleged in Paragraph 17 were calculated from the actual invoices received and paid by Respondent from Respondent's bankruptcy attorney and accountant.

Damages alleged in Paragraph 18 were calculated from the actual invoices received and paid by Respondent from Respondent's initial California attorney, L. Steven Goldblatt.

INTERROGATORY NO. 8:

Please identify and describe in detail your basis for stating in Paragraph 13 of the Amended Complaint that BHI had an obligation to make payments to Plaintiffs pursuant to the Interim Operating Agreement.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 8:

The terms of the Interim Operating Agreement at Section 4 expressly provides that Operator, i.e., BHI, shall have fifty days from the end of each month to tender the Net Profits to Owner and provide Owner with a certified accounting of the subject month's Net Profits upon which payments owed to or by Respondent shall be calculated. The first such accounting was due from BHI on July 20, 2013, but BHI never provided Respondent with any such accounting. In addition, on or about May 18, 2013, BHI was served with a notice of default by Respondent's attorney but failed to cure the breach of their obligation under Section 5 of the Interim Operating Agreement to continuously operate the Property, instead abandoning the Property on May 31, 2013. As a result of this willful breach by BHI of the Interim Operating Agreement and BHI's failure to comply with their duties under Sections 4 and 5 thereof, both of which constitute overt misrepresentations if not outright fraud in the inducement, the Interim Operating Agreement is voidable at Respondent's election, which Respondent in fact elected. Respondent has not pled any causes of action based on BHI's breach of the Interim Operating Agreement, nor has Respondent sought damages for said breach.

INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

Please identify and describe in detail the circumstances of the short sale referred to in Paragraph 15 of the Amended Complaint, including the process by which Willard decided to short sale the Property.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

With Defendants having left the Property in an utterly disheveled and unpresentable condition upon abandoning the Property by virtue of which Respondent was unable to sell or relet the Property, and Respondent, by virtue of Defendants' breach and having left Respondent with no income whatsoever but with liability to pay $87,000.00 per month in mortgage payments on the Property, Respondent had no choice but to negotiate with the mortgage holder to allow a short sale to occur. These negotiations began in or around August 2013 and the short sale was completed on February 14, 2014, with the Property being sold to Longley Partners, LLC for $4,050,354.68 with Daniel J. Gluhaich representing Respondent.

INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

Please identify and describe in detail the insurance on the Willard Property referred to in Paragraph 16 of the Amended Complaint. Please also include details of the installation of the Security Fence and charges by Nevada Energy.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

Respondent obtained liability insurance from Redwood Fire & Casualty on June 1, 2013, policy no. NVM500990. A true and correct copy of the Final Premium Notice on this policy was already provided to Defendants, Bates Number LJW000294. Respondent now produces the Certificate of Liability Insurance in response to Propounding Party's Request for Production.

On June 4, 2013, Respondent hired Tholl Fence to install a security fence as required by Respondent's mortgage holder. A copy of the Statement of Account as of July 31, 2013 from Tholl Fence is being produced in response to Propounding Party's Request for Production.

Propounding Party has already been provided with the invoices sent to Respondent by Nevada Energy, Bates Numbers LJW000339 through LJW000355.

INTERROGATORY NO. 11:

Please identify and explain in detail your basis for claiming that BHI is responsible for the legal fees associated with Willard's Bankruptcy filing, referred to in Paragraph 17 of the Complaint, which was subsequently dismissed voluntarily.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 11:

The terms of the Lease expressly provide in Section 20(B)(i)(vi) that Propounding Parties are liable for "any other sum of money and damages reasonably necessary to compensate Lessor for the detriment caused by Lessee's default." Section 20(B)(v) provides that Respondent is entitled "[t]o recover from Lessee all Costs paid or incurred by Lessor as a result of such breach, regardless of whether or not legal proceedings are actually commenced."

In addition, Respondent contends that it is beyond dispute that cessation of rental payments in the amount of $140,175.55 per month, with Respondent still being liable for monthly mortgage payments of $87,000.00 per month, renders Respondent's action of filing for bankruptcy protection a foreseeable consequence of Defendants' breach, thereby entitling Respondent to consequential damages for costs incurred in having sought bankruptcy protection as a direct result of Defendants' breach.

INTERROGATORY NO. 12:

Please identify and explain in detail your basis for claiming that BHI is responsible for the legal fees associated with Plaintiffs' filing of a lawsuit in Santa Clara, California.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 12:

The terms of the Lease expressly provide in Section 20(B)(i)(vi) that Propounding Parties are liable for "any other sum of money and damages reasonably necessary to compensate Lessor for the detriment caused by Lessee's default." Section 20(B)(v) provides that Respondent is entitled "[t]o recover from Lessee all Costs paid or incurred by Lessor as a result of such breach, regardless of whether or not legal proceedings are actually commenced." Section 34 provides that "In the event of any judicial or other adversarial proceeding concerning this Lease, to the extent permitted by Law, Lessor the prevailing party [sic] shall be entitled to recover all of its reasonable attorneys' fees and other Costs in addition to any other relief to which it may be entitled. In addition, the prevailing party shall, upon demand, be entitled to all attorneys' fees and all other Costs incurred in the preparation and service of any notice or demand hereunder, whether or not a legal action is subsequently commenced."

Section 2.01. Title Insurance.

- (a) Title Commitment and Title Policy. Within five (5) days of execution of this Agreement, Saller shall order an owner's title insurance commitment ("Title Commitment") with respect to the Property issued by the Title Company, for an owner's title insurance policy (the "Title Policy"). During the Lease Term, the Property shall be used for the operation of a Permitted Facility, and lawful or related purposes such as ingress, egress and parking.
- 3. Lease Term; Extension. The initial term of this Lease ("Initial Term") shall commence May __, 2006 ("Effective Date") and shall expire at midnight on October 31, 2023 ("Expiration Date"), unless terminated sooner as provided in this Lease and as may be extended as provided herein. The time period during which this Lease shall actually be in effect, including any Extension Term, is referred to herein as the "Lease Term." Lessee shall have the right and option (each, an "Extension Ontion") to extend the Initial Term for four (4) additional successive periods of five (5) years each (each, an "Extension Term"), pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Lease then in effect. Lessee may only exercise the Extension Options by giving written notice thereof to Lessor of its election to do so first, no later than two hundred forty (240) days prior to the Expiration Date and two hundred forty (240) days prior to the immediately preceding Extension Term, as the case may be. If written notice of the exercise of any Extension Option is not received by Lessor by the applicable dates described above, then this Lease shall terminate on the last day of the Initial Term or, if applicable, the last day of the Extension Term then in effect.

4. Rental and Other Monetary Obligations.

A. Base Monthly Rental. During the Initial Term, on or before the first day of each calendar month, Lessee shall pay in advance the Base Monthly Rental; provided, however, if the Effective Date is a date other than the first day of the month, Lessee shall Weolog/BHi 1365 Buring Bivd/BHI Sparks, Noveds 7/6/2006 000160/0959 DEDCCS 576954v1 pay to Lessor (or any other party designated by Lessor) on the Effective Date the Base Monthly Rental prorated by multiplying the Base Monthly Rental by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days remaining in the month (including the Effective Date) for which Rental is being paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in such month. During the Extension Terms, if any, Lessee shall pay the Rental (including the Base Monthly Rental) in the manner set forth in this Section 4. Unless otherwise specifically stated to the contrary herein, Lessee shall perform all its obligations under this Lease at its sole cost and expense and shall pay all Rental and any other Monetary Obligation due hereunder when due and payable, without notice or demand.

- B. Adjustments. On the first Adjustment Date and on each Adjustment Date thereafter, the Base Annual Rental shall increase by an amount equal to the Rent Adjustment. The "Rent Adjustment" shall be an amount equal to two (2) percent of the Base Annual Rental in effect immediately prior to the applicable Adjustment Date. The Adjustment Date shall be on the annual anniversary of the Effective Date.
- C. Additional Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge, as additional rental ("Additional Rental"), all sums of money required to be paid by Lessee under this Lease which are not specifically referred to as Base Annual Rental or Base Monthly Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge any Additional Rental when the same shall become due, provided that amounts which are billed to Lessor or any third party, but not to Lessee, shall be paid within five (5) days after Lessor's demand for payment thereof or, if later, when the same are due. In no event shall Lessee be required to pay to Lessor any item of Additional Rental that Lessee is obligated to pay and has paid to any third party pursuant to any provision of this Lease.
- D. Payment of Rental and Other Monetary Obligations. All Rental and other Monetary Obligations which Lessee is required to pay hereunder shall due without any setoff, abatement, deferment, deduction or counterclaim whatsoever, except as set forth herein. All payments of Base Monthly Rental and any other Monetary Obligations payable to Lessor shall be remitted to Lessor at Lessor's address set forth in the first paragraph of this Lease or such other address as Lessor may designate pursuant to Section 24 hereof.
- E. Late Payment Charge. Lessee acknowledges that late payment by Lessee to Lessor of Rental will cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of such costs being extremely difficult and impracticable to fix in advance. Such costs include, without limitation, processing and accounting charges, and late charges that may be imposed on Lessor by the terms of any encumbrance and note secured by any encumbrance covering the Property. Therefore, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee to Lessor pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than teh (10) days after the due date thereof, then Lessee shall pay to Lessor, as a late payment charge, five percent (5%) of the smount of the delinquent payment. Additionally, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, such Wooley/BHI 1365 Baring Bird/BHI Sparks, Nevada 7/4/2005 000160/9999 GBDOCS 576954v2 payment shall bear interest at the Default Rate until received by Lessor. The late payment charge and default interest shall be paid to Lessor at the time of payment of the delinquent amount. The late payment charge and the default interest charge shall compensate Lessor for the expenses incurred by Lessor in financing, collecting and processing the late payment. The parties agree that the late charge and the default interest charge represent a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs that Lessor will incur by reason of late payment by Lessoe.

- Gaming. Lessor hereby conditionally assigns to Lessee all leases, written or oral, and all agreements for use or occupancy of the Property together with any and all extensions and renewals thereof and any and all further leases, subleases, lettings or agreements (including subleases thereof and tenancies following attornment) upon or covering the use or occupancy of the Property all of which leases, agreements, subleases and tenancies are herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Assigned Leases": (ii) the immediate and continuing right to collect and receive all of the rents, income, receipts, revenues, issues and profits now due or which may become due or which may now or hereafter become due from or out of the Assigned Leases or any part thereof, including, but not limited to, security deposits, minimum rents, additional rents, parking rents, deficiency rents and liquidated damages following default, any premium payable by any tenant upon the exercise of a cancellation privilege contained in its Lease; all proceeds payable under any policy of insurance covering loss of rents resulting from untenantability caused by destruction or damage to the Property; any and all rights and claims of any kind which Lessor has or hereafter may have against the tenants under the Assigned Leases and any subtenants and other occupants of the Property; any award granted Lessor after the date hercof in any court proceeding involving any tenant in any bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization proceedings in any state or federal court and any and all payments made by any tenent in lieu of rent (any and all such moneys, rights and claims identified in this paragraph are herein sometimes referred to as the "Rents" and sometimes as the "Rent"); and (iii) all of the rights, powers and privileges of Lessor (A) to accept prepayment of more than one (1) monthly installment of the Rent thereunder, and (B) except with respect to the Assigned Lease, (I) to cancel, terminate or accept the surrender of any Assigned Lease, and (II) to amend, modify or abridge any of the terms, covenants or conditions of any Assigned Lease. The assignment contained in this Section 5 and Lessee's interest in the Assigned Lesses shall become void and of no further force or effect upon the expiration or early termination of this Lease and upon such event, Lessor shall be the sole party with any interest as a landlord or lessor in the Assigned Leases. Furthermore, Lessee shall have no right to collect any amounts under the Assigned Leases upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default and all such amounts shall be paid to Lessor during any such period.
- 6. Nevada Gaming Control Board. Lessor will follow all laws of the State of Nevada, and cooperate with Winner's Gaming Inc. ("WGI") or its successor in making application to the Nevada Gaming Control Board if such application or approval is required.
- 7. Rentals To Be Net to Lessor. The Base Annual Rental payable hereunder shall be not to Lessor, so that this Lease shall yield to Lessor the Rentals specified during the Lease Term, and all Costs and obligations of every kind and nature whatsoever relating to the Property shall be performed and paid by Lessee, including but not limited to all impositions, operating Wooley/BHI 1365 Buring Blvd/BHI Sparks, Novada 7/6/2006 00016009959 GBDOCS 576954v2 charges, maintenance charges, construction costs and any other charges, costs and expenses now existing or that arise or may be contemplated under the Permitted Encumbrances or otherwise, all maintenance and repair expenses, all utility expenses, all Taxes, all premiums for insurance required to be maintained by Lessee pursuant to the terms hereof and all other expenses, charges, assessments and costs associated with the Property or otherwise provided to be paid by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease. All such charges, costs and expenses shall constitute Additional Rental and upon the failure of Lessee to pay any of such costs, charges or expenses, Lessor shall have the same rights and remedies as otherwise provided in this Lease for the failure of Lessee to pay Base Annual Rental. It is the intention of the parties except as expressly provided herein that this Lease shall not be terminable for any reason by Lessee, and that Lessee shall in no event be entitled to any abatement of, or reduction in, Rental payable under this Lease, except as otherwise expressly provided herein. Any present or future law to the contrary shall not alter this agreement of the parties.

8. Taxes and Assessments. Lessee shall pay, prior to the earlier of delinquency or the accrual of interest on the unpaid balance, one hundred percent (100%) of the following (collectively, "Taxes"): all taxes and assessments of every type or nature assessed against or imposed upon the Property or Lessee during the Lease Term, including without limitation, all ad valorem taxes, assessments and special assessments upon the Property or any part thereof and upon any personal property, trade fixtures and improvements located on the Property, whether belonging to Lessor or Lessee, or any tax or charge levied in lieu of such taxes and assessments; all taxes, charges, license fees and or similar fees imposed by reason of the use of the Property by Lessee; and all excise, transaction, privilege, license, sales, use and other taxes upon the Rental or other Monetary Obligations hereunder, the lessehold estate of either party or the activities of either party pursuant to this Lesse, and all interest, surcharges or service or other fees payable in connection with the foregoing.

Upon request of Lessor, Lessee shall, upon prior written request of Lessor, provide Lessor with evidence reasonably satisfactory to Lessor that such payment was made in a timely fashion. Lessee may, at its own expense, contest or cause to be contested by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, any above-described item or lien with respect thereto, including, without limitation, the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any such item, provided that (A) neither the Property nor any interest therein would be in any danger of being sold, forfeited or lost by reason of such proceedings, (B) no monetary Event of Default has occurred, (C) Lessee shall promptly provide Lessor with copies of all notices received or delivered by Lessee and filings made by Lessee in connection with such proceeding, and (D) Lessee shall indemnify and hold Lessor harmless against any loss, Costs or damages arising from or related to such contest.

If Lessee shall fail to pay any Taxes when due and before any delinquency, penalty or interest is imposed on such Taxes, Lessor shall have the right to pay the same after notice to Lessee, in which case Lessee shall repay in full such amount to Lessor with Lessee's next Base Monthly Rental installment together with interest at the Default Rate.

 Utilities. Lesses shall contract, in its own name, for and pay when due (and hold Lessor free and harmless from) all charges for the connection and use of water, gas, electricity, Wooley/BHI 1365 Baring Blvd/BHI Sparks, Navada 7/6/2006 contensor 59 CEDCHES 5769442 telephone, garbage collection, sewer use and other utility services supplied to the Property during the Lease Term. All utility charges, assessments and fees for the last year of the Lease shall be prorated as of the termination date of this Lease. No full or partial utility deprivation including, but not limited to, blackout, brownout, or rationing, nor any loss of or damage to improvements related to disruption or failure of any utility service shall give rise to any abatement of Rentals nor give rise to any right of Lessee to offset Rentals or to terminate the Lease, unless caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Lessor or its agents, employees or contractors (but not of any other tenants or occupants of the Property). Lessor shall reasonably cooperate with Lessee, but without out-of-pocket expense to Lessor, in Lessee's efforts to restore utility service to the Property; provided, however, that if the utility service was disrupted due to Lessor's gross negligence or willful misconduct, then the cost of such restoration shall be borne by Lessor.

- 10. Insurance. Throughout the Lease Term, Lessee shall maintain, at its sole expense, the following types and amounts of insurance:
 - Insurance against loss or damage to the Property and all buildings and improvements thereon under an "all risk" insurance policy, which shall include coverage against all risks of direct physical loss, including loss by fire, lightning, and other risks normally included in the standard ISO special form (which shall include coverage for all risks commonly insured for properties similar to the Property in the Reno, Nevada area, including insurance coverage for damage, caused by earthquake, flood, tornado, windstorm and other disasters for which insurance is customarily maintained for similar commercial properties). Such insurance shall be in amounts sufficient to prevent Lessor from becoming a co-insurer under the applicable policies, and in any event, after application of deductible, in amounts not less than 100% of the full insurable replacement cost. Such insurance shall contain an agreed valuation provision in lieu of any coinsurance clause, an increased cost of construction endorsement, debris removal coverage and a waiver of subrogation endorsement in favor of Lessor. While any portion of the improvements on the Property is being rebuilt on the Land, Lessee shall provide such property insurance in builder's risk completed value form, including coverage available on the so-called "all-risk" non-reporting form of policy in an amount equal to 100% of the full insurable replacement value of the improvements on the Property or such portion as is being rebuilt. The insurance policy shall insure Lessee as loss payee. No parties other than Lessor, Lessor's Lender and Lessee may be named as insureds or loss payees on such property insurance policy.
 - B. Commercial general liability insurance, including products and completed operation liability, covering Lessor and Lessee against bodily injury liability, property damage liability and personal and advertising injury, liquor liability coverage (to the extent liquor is sold or manufactured at the Property), garage liability coverage including without limitation any liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, repair, condition or operation of the Property or adjoining ways, streets, parking lots or sidewalks. Such insurance policy or policies shall contain a broad form contractual liability endorsement under which the insurer agrees to insure Lessee's obligations under Section 15 hereof to the extent insurable, and a "severability of interest" clause or endorsement which precludes the insurer from denying the claim of Lessee, Lessor or

- (vi) Provide that the insurer shall not have the option to restore the Property if Lessor elects to terminate this Lease in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (vii) Be in amounts sufficient at all times to satisfy any coinsurance requirements thereof;
- (viii) Except for workers' compensation insurance referred to in Section 10.C above, name Lessor and any Lessor Affiliate requested by Lessor, as an "additional insured" (and, with respect to any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor, as an "additional insured mortgagee") with respect to general liability insurance, and as a "named insured" with respect to real property and "loss payee" with respect to all real property and rent value insurance, as appropriate and as their interests may appear;
- (ix) Be evidenced by delivery to Lessor and any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor of an Acord Form 28 for property coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor) and an Acord Form 25 for liability, workers' compensation and umbrella coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor); provided that in the event that either such form is no longer available, such evidence of insurance shall be in a form reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and any lender designated by Lessor; such cartificates of insurance shall be delivered to Lessor prior to the Effective Date; and
- (x) Be issued by insurance companies licensed to do business in the states where the Property is located and which are rated A:VIII or better by Best's Insurance Guide or are otherwise approved by Lessor.

It is expressly understood and agreed that (I) if any insurance required hereunder, or any part thereof, shall expire, be withdrawn, become void by breach of any condition thereof by Lessee, or become void or in jeopardy by reason of the failure or impairment of the capital of any insurer, Lessee shall immediately obtain new or additional insurance reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and any lender designated by Lessor, (II) the foregoing minimum limits of insurance coverage shall not limit the liability of Lessee for its acts or omissions as provided in this Lease; and (III) Lessee shall produce policies for all insurance for periods of not less than one year and shall provide to Lessor and any servicer or lender of Lessor certificates of insurance or, upon Lessor's request, duplicate originals of insurance policies evidencing that insurance satisfying the requirements of this Lease is in effect at all times.

Lessee shall pay as they become due all premiums for the insurance required by this Section 10. In the event that Lessee fails to comply with any of the foregoing requirements of this Section 10 within ten (10) days of the giving of written notice by Lessor to Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to procure such insurance. Any sums expended by Lessor in procuring such insurance shall be Additional Rental and shall be repaid by Lessee, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate, from the time of payment by Lessor until fully paid by Lessee immediately upon written demand therefor by Lessor.

 - B. Acts Resulting in Increased Insurance Rates. Lessee will use its commercially reasonable efforts to prevent any act or condition to exist on or about the Property which will materially increase any insurance rate thereon, except when such acts are required in the normal course of its business and Lessee shall pay for such increase. Lessee shall comply with all orders and directives of any insurance companies issuing liability, fire, or extended coverage insurance pursuant to Section 10 hereof, and Lessee shall not do, bring, or keep anything in or about the Property that will cause a cancellation of any insurance covering the Property.
 - C. Prevention of Nuisance. Lessee shall not commit nor cause or permit to be committed any public or private nuisance on the Property.
 - D. Environmental.
 - (i) Covenants. All uses and operations on or of the Property, including the use and operation of UST's on the Property, whether by Lessec or any other Person, shall be in compliance with all Environmental Laws and permits issued pursuant thereto. Lessee shall keep the Property or cause the

- Notification Requirements. Lessee shall immediately notify Lessor in writing upon Lessee obtaining actual knowledge of (1) any Releases or Threatened Releases in, on, under or from the Property other than in Permitted Amounts, or migrating towards any of the Property; (2) any non-compliance with any Environmental Laws related in any way to any of the Property; (3) any actual or potential Environmental Lian; (4) any required or proposed Remediation of environmental conditions relating to any of the Property required by applicable Governmental Authorities; and (5) any written or oral notice or other communication which Lessee becomes aware from any source whatsoever (including but not limited to a Governmental Authority) relating in any way to Hazardous Materials, Regulated Substances or USTs, or Remediation thereof at or on the Property, other than in Permitted Amounts, possible liability of any Person relating to the Property pursuant to any Environmental Law, other environmental conditions in connection with the Property, or any actual or potential administrative or judicial proceedings in connection with snything referred to in this Subsection D.
- Reports and Investigations. Lessee shall promptly supply Lessor with copies of all reports of any testing of the Property conducted by or at the request of Lessor or any Governmental Authorities and all submissions by Lessee to any Governmental Authority concerning environmental matters, the USTs, or Hazardous Materials. Lessee shall furnish to Lessor certificates of enrollment issued by the State of Nevada, Division of Environmental Projection, for each UST at the Property no later than October 30 of each year, and gasoline storage tank permits issued by the Department of Air Quality Management of the County in which the Property is located with respect to each UST on the Property no later than May 5 of each year, and such other certificates or permits as may be issued or required by any other Governmental Authority; all of the foregoing shall evidence continuing compliance of each UST on the Property with all applicable Legal Requirements. - (iv) Indemnification. Lessee shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold cach of the Indemnified Parties free and harmless from and against any and all Losses, arising from or caused in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by any of the following, unless arising from or caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnified Party requesting indemnification: (a) the use, storage, transportation, disposal, release, discharge or generation of Hazardous Materials to, in, on, under or about the Property (whether occurring before or after the date hereof) (any of the foregoing in violation of Legal Requirements is Lessee's obligations to perform Correction Action shall include, without limitation, and whether foreseeable or unforeseeable, all cost of any investigation (including consultants and attorneys fees and testing) required or nacessary repair, remediation, restoration clean up, detoxification or decontamination of the Property and the preparation and implementation of any closure, remedial action or other required plans in connection therewith, and shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Term of this Lease. This agreement to indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties shall be in addition to any other obligations or liabilities Lessee may have to Lessor or the Indemnified Parties, if any, at common law under all statutes and ordinances or otherwise and survive the termination of the Lease.

In the event that Lessce has not completed its Corrective Action (if necessary), as required herein, by the expiration of the Lease Term, Lessor shall grant Lessee, and its consultants, contractors and agents a revocable license, at no cost to Lessee except as set forth in the succeeding sentence, to enter upon the Property from and after the date of expiration of the Lease Term to conduct Corrective Action and to place and remove all necessary equipment and improvements on the Property sufficient to satisfy the requirements of all Governmental Authorities regarding the Confamination. If such post-expiration Corrective Action will unreasonably interfere with a reasonably foreseeable intended commercial use of the Property (i.e., if Lessor cannot reasonably lease the Property for reasonable commercial uses at reasonable market rents), the Lease Term shall be extended until sixty (60) days after the Corrective Action has been performed such that post-expiration Corrective Action by Lessee no longer unreasonably interferes with a reasonably foresecable commercial use of the Property, and Lessee agrees to keep Lessor apprised of the anticipated completion date of the Corrective Action.

Intentionally Omitted.

F. Dealer Requirements. In addition to the requirements set forth in this Lease, Lessee, in its use, occupancy and maintenance of the Property shall comply with all requirements of its Dealer Agreements with Dealer. Lessee hereby consents to Lessor providing information it obtains to Dealer and to Lessor obtaining from Dealer information which Dealer receives relating to Lessee's operation of its business on the Property.

Lessee must make all repairs, corrections, replacements, improvements or alterations necessitated by age, Lessee's use, or natural elements or as required pursuant to Governmental Authorities or Legal Requirements. Lessee expressly waives the benefit of any statute now or hereinafter in effect which would otherwise afford Lessee the right to make repairs, corrections, improvements or alterations at Lessor's expense or to terminate this Lease because of Lessor's fallure to keep the Property in good order, condition or repair, or which would otherwise require Lessor to make repairs, corrections, improvements, replacements or alterations. If the buildings or any improvements on the Property violate any Permitted Encumbrances or Legal Requirements, then Lessee shall, upon the written demand of a Governmental Authority or the written demand of a party to or beneficiary of any Permitted Encumbrance, repair, restore, relocate and/or rebuild the same in accordance with Legal Requirements (including any special or conditional use permits or other variances granted specifically for the Property) and the Permitted Encumbrances.

Any such repairs or reconstruction shall restore the buildings and all improvements on the Property to substantially the same condition immediately prior to such damages or destruction and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect, provided, however, that Lessee shall have the right to replace the improvements with different structures so long as (a) the value of the Property with such different structures is no less than the value of the Property immediately prior to the date of casualty and the different square footage of the new buildings is no less than the buildings existing as of the date hereof, and (b) the new structure can be built and occupied in compliance with Legal Requirements (including any special or conditional use permits or other variances granted specifically for the Property) and Woolcy/BHI 1365 Baring Blvd/BHI Sparks, Nevada 7/072896 00016809959 BBDQCS 57495442 the Permitted Encumbrances. Such repair, restoration, relocation and rebuilding (all of which are herein called a "repair") shall be commenced within a reasonable time however no more than thirty (30) days after the later of (i) the date that such damage or destruction occurred, (ii) the date that all permits and other approvals necessary to anthorize such rebuilding have been issued following reasonable pursuit of the same by Lessee, and (iii) the date that any insurance proceeds payable to Lessor or its lender in conjunction with such damage or destruction, if any, have been made available to Lessee as set forth herein; thereafter, the repair shall be diligently pursued to completion. Lessee shall give Lessor at least fifteen (15) days written notice prior to commencing the repair to permit the Lessor to post appropriate notices of non-responsibility, and all such repair work shall be subject to the provisions of Section 14 hereof related to alterations, improvements and additions to the Property.

The proceeds of any insurance maintained under Section 10 hereof shall be made available to Lessee for payment of costs and expense of repair.

14. Waste; Alterations and Improvements; Trade Fixtures and Equipment.

Lessee shall not commit actual or constructive waste upon the Property. During the Lease

Term, Lessee may construct any additions or improvements to the Property and make such structural or non-structural alterations to the Property as are reasonably necessary or desirable for Lessee's use of the Property for a Permitted Facility. All improvements, alterations, or additions shall be constructed by Lessee at Lessee's sole cost and expense. Prior to the commencement of construction of any additions, improvements, or alterations to the Property, Lessee shall give Lessor at least fifteen (15) days written notice to allow Lessor to post appropriate notices of nonresponsibility. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, without Lessor's prior written consent, Lessee shall not make any alterations that will decrease the value or function of the improvements located on the Property.

Lessee's right to make any alterations, improvements and additions shall be deemed conditioned upon Lessee acquiring a permit to do so from appropriate Governmental Authorities, the furnishing of a copy thereof to Lessor prior to the commencement of the work and the compliance by Lesses of all conditions of said permit in a prompt and expeditious manner. All alterations, improvements or other construction by Lessee shall be in compliance with all Legal Requirements, and all alterations and improvements shall be done and performed in good and workmanlike manner, using new and first quality materials. All costs of any such improvements shall be paid by Lessee.

Upon completion of any such work, Lessee shall submit to Lessor as-built plans of any structural, mechanical or interior utility improvements and alterations made, a sworn construction statement, lien waivers from all persons or entities providing materials, services or equipment for the work completed and, if available, an endorsement to Lessor's policy of title insurance or other evidence from a title company confirming the absence of any liens or other matters of record related to the work performed.

Unless expressly released by Lessor in writing, all improvements or alterations shall be and remain, at the time of expiration or other termination of this Lease, the property of Lessor without payment or offset unless such improvements are not attached to the Property.

FIVE YEAR ADJUSTABLE TERM NOTE

July 18, 2006

$2,100,000.00

For value received, the undersigned Edward C. Wooley and Judith A. Wooley Intervivos Revocable Trust Year 2000, a California trust, with an address of 41 Peralta Avenue, Los Gatos, California 95030 (collectively, the "Borrower"), jointly and severally, promise to pay to the order of Pacific Capital Bank, N.A., a national banking association, doing business as South Valley National Bank with an address of c/o Loan Services, PO Box 60654, Santa Barbara, California 93160-0654 (together with its successors and assigns, the "Bank"), the principal amount of Two Million One Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($2,100,000.00) on or before July 18, 2016 (the "Maturity Date"), as set forth below, together with interest from the date hereof on the unpaid principal balance from time to time outstanding until paid in full. The Borrower shall pay consecutive monthly installments of principal and interest, as follows: $13,971.35 on August 18, 2006, and the same amount (except the last installment which shall be the unpaid balance) on the 18th day of each month thereafter. The aggregate principal balance outstanding shall initially bear interest thereon at a per annum rate equal to 7.00%. The interest rate on the aggregate principal balance shall change on July 18, 2011 and on that day every sixtleth month thereafter (each a "Change Date") to a fixed rate equal to Two and One-Half Percent: (2.50%) above the Treasury Index (as hereinafter defined) on each such Change Date. On each Change Date each monthly installment due and payable until the next Change Date shall be recalculated (increased or reduced) to reflect the adjusted interest rate, the outstanding principal balance at such time and the remaining term of the 360-month amortization period commencing on the date of this Note in accordance with the Bank's calculation in the Bank's sole discretion.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Note, the interest rate on this Note is limited by a floor as follows: the minimum interest rate (i.e. floor) is 5.25%.

Treasury Index means the weekly average yield on United States Treasury securities, adjusted to a constant maturity equal to the Applicable Treasury Rate Period (as hereinafter defined), or, in the event the Treasury Index is no longer available, the base, reference or other rate then designated by the Bank, in its sole discretion, for general commercial loan reference purposes, it being understood that such rate is a reference rate, not necessarily the lowest, established from time to time, which serves as the basis upon which effective interest rates are calculated for loans making reference thereto. The Applicable Treasury Rate Period is 5 years, Principal and interest shall be payable at the Bank's main office of at such other place as the Bank may designate in writing in immediately available funds in lawful money of the United States of America without set-off, deduction or counterclaim. Interest shall be calculated on the basis of actual number of days elapsed in a 360-day year.

At the option of the Bank, this Note shall become immediately due and payable without notice or demand upon the occurrence at any time of any of the following events of default (each, an "Event of Default"): (1) default of any liability, obligation or undertaking of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to the Bank, hereunder or otherwise, including, without limitation, failure to pay in full and when due any installment of principal or interest or default of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof under any other loan document delivered by the Borrower or any guarantor, or in connection with the loan evidenced by this Note or any other agreement by the Borrower or any guarantor with the Bank continuing for 10 days with respect to the payment of money or continuing for 30 days with respect to any other default; (2) failure of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to maintain aggregate collateral security value satisfactory to the Bank continuing for 30 days; (3) default of any material liability, obligation or undertaking of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to any other party continuing for 30 days; (4) if any statement, representation or warranty heretofore, now or hereafter made by the Borrower or any guarantor hereof in connection with the loan evidenced by this Note or in any supporting financial statement of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof shall be determined by the Bank to have been false in any material respect when made; (5) if the Borrower or any guarantor hereof is a corporation, trust, partnership or limited liability company, the liquidation, termination or dissolution of any such organization, or the merger or consolidation of such organization into another entity, or its ceasing to carry on actively its present business or the appointment of a receiver for its property; (6) the death of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof and, if the Borrower or any guarantor hereof is a partnership or limited liability company, the death of any partner or member; (7) the institution by or against the Borrower or any guarantor hereof of any proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code 11 USC §101 et seq. or any other law in which the Borrower or any guarantor hereof is alleged to be insolvent or unable to pay its debts as they mature, or the making by the Borrower or any guarantor hereof of an assignment for the benefit of creditors or the granting by the Borrower or any guarantor hereof of a trust mortgage for the benefit of creditors; (8) the service upon the Bank of a writ in which the Bank is named as trustee of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof; (9) a judgement or judgements for the payment of money shall be rendered against the Borrower or any guarantor hereof, and any such judgement shall remain unsatisfied and in effect for any period of thirty (30) consecutive days without a stay of execution; (10) any levy, lien (including mechanics lien), seizure, attachment, execution or similar process shall be issued or levied on any of the property of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof; (11) the termination or revocation of any guaranty hereof; or (12) the occurrence of such a change in the condition or affairs (financial or otherwise) of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof, or the occurrence of any other event or circumstance, such that the Bank, in its sole discretion, deems that it is insecure or that the prospects for timely or full payment or performance of any obligation of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to the Bank has been or may be impaired.

Any payments received by the Bank on account of this Note shall, at the Bank's option, be applied first, to accrued and unpaid interest; second, to the unpaid principal balance hereof; third to any costs, expenses or charges then owed to the Bank by the Borrower; and the balance to escrows, if any. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any payments received after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default shall be applied in such manner as the Bank may determine. The Borrower hereby authorizes the Bank to charge any deposit account which the Borrower may maintain with the Bank for any payment required hereunder without prior notice to the Borrower.

If pursuant to the terms of this Note, the Borrower is at any time obligated to pay interest on the principal balance at a rate in excess of the maximum interest rate permitted by applicable law for the loan evidenced by this Note, the applicable interest rate shall be immediately reduced to such maximum rate and all previous payments in excess of the maximum rate shall be deemed to have been payments in reduction of principal and not on account of the interest due hereunder. More specifically, if from any circumstances whatsoever, fulfillment of any provision of this Note or any other loan document excuted and delivered in connection with this Note, at the time performance of such provision becomes due, would exceed the limit on interest then permitted by any applicable usury statute or any other applicable law, the Bank may, at its option (a) reduce the obligations to be fulfilled to such limit on interest, or (b) apply the amount in excess of such limit on interest to the reduction of the outstanding principal balance of the obligations, and not to the payment of interest, with the same force and effect as though Borrower had specifically designated such sums to be so applied to principal and Bank had agreed to accept such extra payments(s) as a premium-free prepayment, so that in no event shall any exaction be possible under this Note or any other loan document that is in excess of the applicable limit on interest. It is the intention of Borrower and Bank that the total liability for payments in the nature of interest shall not exceed the limits imposed by any applicable state or federal interest rate laws. The provisions of this paragraph shall control every other provision of this Note, and any provision of any other loan document in conflict with this paragraph.

The Borrower represents to the Bank that the proceeds of this Note will not be used for personal, family or household purposes or for the purpose of purchasing or carrying margin stock or margin securities within the meaning of Regulations U and X of the Board of Governors of the

The Borrower and each guarantor hereof grant to the Bank a continuing lien on and security interest in any and all deposits or other sums at any time credited by or due from the Bank (or any of its banking or lending affiliates, or any bank acting as a participant under any loan arrangement between the Bank and the Borrower, or any third party acting on the Bank's behalf (collectively, the "Bank Affiliates")) to the Borrower and each guarantor hereof and any cash, securities, instruments or other property of the Borrower and each guarantor hereof in the possession of the Bank or any Bank Affiliate, whether for safekeeping or otherwise, or in transit to or from the Bank or any Bank Affiliate (regardless of the reason the Bank or Bank Affiliate had received the same or whether the Bank or Bank Affiliate has conditionally released the same) as security for the full and punctual payment and performance of all of the liabilities and obligations of the Borrower and any guarantor hereof to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate and such deposits and other sums may be applied or set off against such liabilities and obligations of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate at any time, whether or not such are then due, whether or not demand has been made and whether or not other collateral is then available to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate.

No delay or omission on the part of the Bank in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of such right or of any other right of the Bank, nor shall any delay, omission or waiver on any one occasion be deemed a bar to or waiver of the same or any other right on any future occasion. The Borrower and every guarantor of this Note, regardless of the time, order or place of signing, waives presentment, demand, protest, notice of intent to accelerate, notice of acceleration and all other notices of every kind in connection with the delivery, acceptance, performance or enforcement of this Note and assents to any extension or postponement of the time of payment or any other indulgence, to any substitution, exchange or release of collateral, and to the addition or release of any other party or person primarily or secondarily tlable and waives all recourse to suretyship and guarantor defenses generally, including any defense based on impairment of collateral.

The Borrower and each guarantor of this Note shall indemnify, defend and hold the Bank and the Bank Affiliates and their directors, officers, employees, agents and attorneys harmless against any claim brought or threatened against the Bank by the Borrower, by any guarantor, or by any other person (as well as from attorneys' reasonable fees and expenses in connection therewith) on account of the Bank's relationship with the Borrower or any guarantor hereof (each of which may be defended, compromised, settled or pursued by the Bank with counsel of the Bank's selection, but at the expense of the Borrower and any guarantor), except for any claim arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Bank.

The Borrower and each guarantor of this Note agree to pay, upon demand, costs of collection of all amounts under this Note including, without limitation, principal and interest, or in connection with the enforcement of, or realization on, any security for this Note, including, without limitation, to the extent permitted by applicable law, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, interest shall accrue at a rate per annum equal to the aggregate of 3.0% plus the rate provided for herein. If any payment due under this Note is unpaid for 15 days or more, the Borrower shall pay, in addition to any other sums due under this Note (and without limiting the Bank's other remedies on account thereof), a late charge equal to the greater of $10.00 or 10.0% of such unpaid amount.

This Note shall be binding upon the Borrower and each guarantor hereof and upon their respective heirs, successors, assigns and legal representatives, and shall inure to the benefit of the Bank and its successors, endorsees and assigns.

The Borrower and each guarantor, if any, hereby waive presentment, demand, protest, notice of dishonor, notice of protest and all other notices and demands of every kind, and all suretyship defenses of any kind, in each case that would otherwise be available in connection with this Note including, without limitation, any right (whether now or hereafter existing) to require the holder hereof to first proceed against the Borrower, or any guarantor, for any security.

The Borrower and each guarantor, if any, further waive to the extent permited by law any and all rights and defenses that each may have because the debt evidenced by this Note is secured by real property: this means, among other things, that: (1) the Bank may collect from the Borrower and any guarantor, without first foreclosing on any real or personal property, collateral pledged by the Borrower and any guarantor; and (2) if the Bank forecloses on any real property collateral pledged by the Borrower or any guarantor, then (A) the amount of the debt may be reduced only by the price for which that collateral is sold at the foreclosure sale, even if the collateral is worth more than the sale price, and (B) the Bank may collect from the Borrower even if the Bank, by foreclosing on the real property collateral, has destroyed any right the Borrower may have to collect from the underlying debtor. The foregoing sentence is an unconditional and irrevocable waiver of any rights and defenses the Borrower may have because the underlying debt is secured by real property. These rights and defenses being waived by the Borrower include, but are not limited to, any rights or defenses based upon Sections 580a, 580b, 580d or 726 of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing or any other provision hereof, the Borrower further expressly waives to the extent permitted by law any and all rights and defenses, including without limitation any rights of subrogation, reimbursement, indemnification and contribution, which might otherwise be available to the Borrower under California Civil Code Sections 2822, 2787 to 2855, inclusive, 2899 and 3433, or under California Code of Civil Procedure Sections 580a, 580b, 580d and 726, or any such section.

In the event that at any time, a surety is liable upon only a portion of the Borrower's or any guarantor's obligations under this Note and the Borrower provides partial satisfaction of any such obligation(s), each of the Borrower and each guarantor hereof, if any, hereby waives any right it would otherwise have, under Section 2822 of the California Civil Code, to designate the portion of the obligations to be satisfied. The designation of the portion of the obligation to be satisfied shall, to the extent not expressly made by the terms of this Note, be made by the Bank rather than Borrower.

The liabilities of the Borrower and any guarantor of this Note are joint and several; provided, however, the release by the Bank of the Borrower or any one or more guarantors shall not release any other person obligated on account of this Note. Any and all present and future debts of the Borrower to any guarantor of this Note are subordinated to the full payment and performance of all present and future debts and obligations of the Borrower to the Bank. Each reference in this Note to the Borrower, and any guarantor, is to such person individually and also to all such persons jointly. No person obligated on account of this Note may seek contribution from any other person also obligated, unless and until all liabilities, obligations and indebtedness to the Bank of the person from whom contribution is sought have been satisfied in full. The release or compromise by the Bank of any collateral shall not release any person obligated on account of this Note.

The Borrower and each guarantor hereof each authorizes the Bank to complete this Note if delivered incomplete in any respect. A photographic or other reproduction of this Note may be made by the Bank, and any such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence with the same effect as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding, whether or not the original is in existence.

The Borrower will from time to time execute and deliver to the Bank such documents, and take or cause to be taken, all such other further action, as the Bank may request in order to effect and confirm or vest more securely in the Bank all rights contemplated by this Note or any other to an documents related thereto (including, without limitation, to correct clerical errors) or to vest more fully in or assure to the Bank the security interest in any collateral securing this Note or to comply with applicable statute or law.

This Note is delivered to the Bank at one of its offices in California and shall be governed by the laws of the State of California.

Any notices under or pursuant to this Note shall be deemed duly received and effective if delivered in hand to any officer of agent of the Borrower or the Bank, or if mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the Borrower or the Bank at the address set forth in this Note or as any party may from time to time designate by written notice to the other party.

The Borrower and each guarantor of this Note acknowledges that the Bank is entitled to a minimum interest charge of $75.00.

The Borrower and each guarantor of this Note each irrevocably submits to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any Federal or state court sitting in California, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Note. Each of the Borrower and each guarantor irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, any objection it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that the same has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the Borrower and each guarantor hereby consents to any and all process which may be served in any such suit, action or proceeding, (i) by mailing a copy thereof by registered and certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the Borrower's or guarantor's address shown below or as notified to the Bank and (ii) by serving the same upon the Borrower(s) or guarantor(s) in any other manner otherwise permitted by law, and agrees that such service shall in every respect be deemed effective service upon the Borrower or such guarantor.

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE BORROWER AND EACH GUARANTOR AND THE BANK EACH HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY, AND AFTER AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL, (A) WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS NOTE, ANY OF THE OBLIGATIONS OF THE BORROWER AND EACH GUARANTOR TO THE BANK, AND ALL MATTERS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND DOCUMENTS EXECUTED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH AND (B) AGREES NOT TO SEEK TO CONSOLIDATE ANY SUCH ACTION WITH ANY OTHER ACTION IN WHICH A JURY TRIAL CAN NOT BE, OR HAS NOT BEEN, WAIVED. THE BORROWER, EACH GUARANTOR AND THE BANK EACH CERTIFIES THAT NEITHER THE BANK NOR ANY OF ITS REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS OR COUNSEL HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT THE BANK WOULD NOT IN THE EVENT OF ANY SUCH PROCEEDING SEEK TO ENFORCE THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.

IN THE EVENT THAT THE JURY WAIVER SET FORTH ABOVE IS JUDICIALLY DETERMINED TO NOT BE PERMITTED BY LAW, THE PARTIES AGREE TO ATTEMPT IN GOOD FAITH TO RESOLVE ANY DISPUTES WHICH MAY ARISE AMONG THEM IN CONNECTION WITH THE INTERPRETATION OR ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE APPLICATION OR VALIDITY THEREOF. IN THE EVENT THAT ANY DISPUTE CANNOT BE SO RESOLVED, AND UNLESS THE RELIEF SOUGHT REQUIRES THE EXERCISE OF THE EQUITY POWERS OF A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION, SUCH DISPUTE SHALL BE SUBMITTED TO ARBITRATION, SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE HELD IN THE COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ARBITRATION PROVISIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE. THIS AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE SHALL BE SPECIFICALLY ENFORCEABLE. ANY AWARD RENDERED IN ANY SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE FINAL AND BINDING ON EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND JUDGEMENT MAY BE ENTERED THEREON IN ANY COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION.

Due on Sale or Transfer. Bank may, at it option, declare immediately due and payable all sums secured by one or more deed of trusts provided by Borrower to secure this Note upon the sale or transfer, without Bank's prior written consent, of all or any part of the real property covered by any such deed of trust, or any interest in such real property. A "sale or transfer" means the conveyance of the such real property or any right, title or interest therein; whether legal, beneficial or equitable; whether voluntary or involuntary; whether by outright sale, deed, installment sale contract, land contract, contract for deed, option contract, or by sale, assignment or transfer of any beneficial interest in or to any land trust holding title to such real property, or by any other method of conveyance of a real property interest. If Borrower is a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, transfer also includes any change in ownership of more that 20% of the voting stock, partnership interests or limited liability company interest, as the case may be, of Borrower. This option shall not be exercised by Bank if such exercise is prohibited by applicable law.

- 5.3 Nonexclusive Remedies. All of the Bank's rights and remedies not only under the provisions of this Agreement but also under any other agreement or transaction shall be cumulative and not alternative or exclusive, and may be exercised by the Bank at such time or times and in such order of preference as the Bank in its sole discretion may determine.

6. MISCELLANEOUS

- 6.1 Waivers. The Borrower waives notice of intent to accelerate, notice of acceleration, notice of nonpayment, demand, presentment, protest or notice of protest of the Obligations, and all other notices, consents to any renewals or extensions of time of payment thereof, and generally waives any and all suretyship defenses and defenses in the nature thereof.
- 6.2 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or portion of such provision or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall to any extent be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement (or the remainder of such provision) and the application thereof to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.
- Deposit Collateral. The Borrower hereby grants to the Bank a continuing lien and security interest in any and all deposits or other sums at any time credited by or due from the Bank (or any of its banking or lending affiliates, or any bank acting as a participant under any loan arrangement between the Bank and the Borrower, or any third party acting on the Bank's behalf (collectively, the "Bank Affiliates")) to the Borrower and any cash, securities, instruments or other property of the Borrower in the possession of the Bank or any Bank Affiliate, whether for safekeeping or otherwise, or in transit to or from the Bank or any Bank Affiliate (regardless of the reason the Bank or Bank Affiliate had received the same or whether the Bank or Bank Affiliate has conditionally released the same) as security for the full and punctual payment and performance of all of the liabilities and obligations of the Borrower to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate and such deposits and other sums may be applied against such liabilities and obligations of the Borrower to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate at any time, whether or not such are then due, whether or not demand has been made and whether or not other collateral is then available to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate.
- 6.4 Indemnification. The Borrower shall indemnify, defend and hold the Bank harmless of and from any claim brought or threatened against the Bank by the Borrower, any guarantor or endorser of the Obligations, or any other person (as well as from reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses in connection therewith) on account of the Bank's relationship with the Borrower, or any guarantor or endorser of the Obligations (each of which may be defended, compromised, settled or pursued by the Bank with counsel of the Bank's election, but at the expense of the Borrower), except for any claim arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Bank. The within indemnification shall survive payment of the Obligations, and/or any termination, release or discharge executed by the Bank in favor of the Borrower.

- 6.5 Costs and Expenses. The Borrower shall pay to the Bank on demand any and all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, court costs, litigation and other expenses) incurred or paid by the Bank in establishing, maintaining, protecting or enforcing any of the Bank's rights or the Obligations, including, without limitation, any and all such costs and expenses incurred or paid by the Bank in defending the Bank's security interest in, title or right to any collateral or in collecting or attempting to collect or enforcing or attempting to enforce payment of any Obligation.
- 6.6 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute but one agreement.
- 6.7 Complete Agreement. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire agreement and understanding between and among the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior proposals, negotiations, agreements and understandings among the parties hereto with respect to such subject matter.
- Binding Effect of Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the parties hereto, and shall remain in full force and effect (and the Bank shall be entitled to rely thereon) until terminated as to future transactions by written notice from either party to the other party of the termination hereof; provided that any such termination shall not release or affect any Obligations incurred or rights accrued hereunder prior to the effective date of such notice (as hereinafter defined) of such termination. The Bank may transfer and assign this Agreement and deliver it to the assignee, who shall thereupon have all of the rights of the Bank; and the Bank shall then be relieved and discharged of any responsibility or liability with respect to this Agreement. The Borrower may not assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement. Except as expressly provided herein or in the other Loan Documents, nothing, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.
- 6.9 Further Assurances. Borrower will from time to time execute and deliver to Bank such documents, and take or cause to be taken, all such other or further action, as Bank may request in order to effect and confirm or vest more securely in Bank all rights contemplated by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (including, without limitation, to correct clerical errors) or to comply with applicable statute or law.
- 6.10 Amendments and Waivers. This Agreement may be amended and Borrower may take any action herein prohibited, or omit to perform any act herein required to be performed by it, if Borrower shall obtain the Bank's prior written consent to each such amendment, action or omission to act. No course of dealing and no delay or omission on the part of Bank in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of such right or any other right and waiver on any one or more occasions shall not be construed as a bar to or waiver of any right or remedy of Bank on any future occasion.
- Obligations or obligation of Borrower to Bank shall be outstanding, or the Bank shall have any obligation to extend any financial accommodation hereunder, and is supplementary to each and every other agreement between Borrower and Bank and shall not be so construed as to limit or otherwise derogate from any of the rights or remedies of Bank or any of the liabilities, obligations or undertakings of Borrower under any such agreement, nor shall any contemporaneous or subsequent agreement between Borrower and the Bank be construed to limit or otherwise derogate from any of the rights or remedies of Bank or any of the liabilities, obligations or undertakings of Borrower hereunder, unless such other agreement specifically refers to this Agreement and expressly so provides.

- 6.14 Reproductions. This Agreement and all documents which have been or may be hereinafter furnished by Borrower to the Bank may be reproduced by the Bank by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, xerographic or similar process, and any such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding (whether or not the original is in existence and whether or not such reproduction was made in the regular course of business).
- G.15 Jurisdiction and Venue. Borrower irrevocably submits to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any Federal or state court sitting in California, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Borrower irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, any objection it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that the same has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Borrower hereby consents to any and all process which may be served in any such suit, action or proceeding, (i) by mailing a copy thereof by registered and certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the Borrower's address shown in this Agreement or as notified to the Bank and (ii) by serving the same upon the Borrower in any other manner otherwise permitted by law, and agrees that such service shall in every respect be deemed effective service upon Borrower.

The designation of the portion of the obligation to be satisfied shall, to the extent not expressly made by the terms of the Loan Documents, be made by the Bank rather than Borrower.

THE BORROWER CERTIFIES THAT NEITHER THE BANK NOR ANY OF ITS REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS OR COUNSEL HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT THE BANK WOULD NOT IN THE EVENT OF ANY SUCH PROCEEDING SEEK TO ENFORCE THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.
- 6.18 Arbitration. IN THE EVENT THAT THE JURY WAIVER SET FORTH ABOVE IS JUDICIALLY DETERMINED TO NOT BE PERMITTED BY LAW, THE PARTIES AGREE TO ATTEMPT IN GOOD FAITH TO RESOLVE ANY DISPUTES WHICH MAY ARISE AMONG THEM IN CONNECTION WITH THE INTERPRETATION OR ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE APPLICATION OR VALIDITY THEREOF. IN THE EVENT THAT ANY DISPUTE CANNOT BE SO RESOLVED, AND UNLESS THE RELIEF SOUGHT REQUIRES THE EXERCISE OF THE EQUITY POWERS OF A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION, SUCH DISPUTE SHALL BE SUBMITTED TO ARBITRATION. SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE HELD IN THE COUNTY OF

- (e) Trustor will at all times keep the Property in good and first-rate repair and condition (damage from casualty not excepted) and will not commit or permit any strip, waste, impairment, deterioration or alteration of the Property or any part thereof.
- 2.5 Nevada Covenants. Where not otherwise inconsistent with the other provisions of this Deed of Trust, Covenants Nos. 1; 2 (full replacement value); 3; 4 (highest rate permitted under the Note); 5; 6; 7 (a reasonable percentage); 8; and 9 of Nevada Revised Statutes Section 107.030, are hereby adopted and made a part of this Deed of Trust.
- Payments. The Trustor covenants to pay when due: all Federal, state, municipal, real properly 2.6 and other taxes, betterment and improvement assessments and other governmental levies, water rates, sewer charges, insurance premiums and other charges on the Property, this Deed of Trust or any Obligation secured hereby that could, if unpaid, result in a lien on the Property or on any interest therein. If and when requested by the Beneficiary, the Trustor shall deposit from time to time with the Beneficiary sums determined by the Beneficiary to be sufficient to pay when due the amounts referred to in this Section. The Trustor shall have the right to contest any notice, lien, encumbrance, claim, tax, charge, betterment assessment or premium filed or asserted against or relating to the Property; provided that it contests the same diligently and in good faith and by proper proceedings and, at the Beneficlary's request, provides the Beneficiary with adequate cash security, in the Beneficiary's reasonable judgement, against the enforcement thereof. The Trustor shall furnish to the Beneficiary the receipted real estate tax bills or other evidence of payment of real estate taxes for the Property within thirty (30) days prior to the date from which interest or penalty would accrue for nonpayment thereof. The Trustor shall also furnish to the Beneficiary evidence of all other payments referred to above within fifteen (15) days after written request therefor by the Beneficiary. If Trustor shall fall to pay such sums, the Beneficiary may, but shall not be obligated to, advance such sums. Any sums so advanced by the Beneficiary shall be added to the Obligations, shall bear interest at the highest rate specified in any note evidencing the Obligations, and shall be secured by the lien of this Deed of Trust.
- 2.7 Notices; Notice of Default. The Trustor will deliver to the Beneficiary, promptly upon receipt of the same, copies of all notices or other documents it receives that affect the Property or its use, or claim that the Trustor is in default in the performance or observance of any of the terms hereof or that the Trustor or any tenant is in default of any terms of the Leases. The Trustor further agrees to deliver to the Beneficiary written notice promptly upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder or event that with the giving of notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute an Event of Default hereunder.
- Zakings. In case of any condemnation or expropriation for public use of, or any damage by reason of the action of any public or governmental entity or authority to, all or any part of the Property (a "Taking"), or the commencement of any proceedings or negotiations that might result in a Taking, the Trustor shall promptly give written notice to the Beneficiary, describing the nature and extent thereof. The Beneficiary may, at its option, appear in any proceeding for a Taking or any negotiations relating to a Taking and the Trustor shall promptly give to the Beneficiary copies of all notices, pleadings, determinations and other papers relating thereto. The Trustor shall in good faith and with due diligence and by proper proceedings file and prosecute its claims for any award or payment on account of any Taking. The Trustor shall not settle any such claim without the Beneficiary's prior written consent. The Trustor shall hold any amounts received with respect to such awards or claims, by settlement, judicial decree or otherwise, in trust for the Beneficiary and promptly pay the same to the Beneficiary. The Trustor authorizes any award or settlement due in connection with a Taking to be paid directly to the Beneficiary in amounts not exceeding the Obligations. The Beneficiary may apply such amounts to the Obligations in such order as the Beneficiary may determine.

2.9 Insurance Proceeds. The proceeds of any insurance resulting from any loss with respect to the Property shall be paid to the Beneficiary and, at the option of the Beneficiary, be applied to the Obligations in such order as the Beneficiary may determine; provided, however, that if the Beneficiary shall require repair of the Property, the Beneficiary may release all or any portion of such proceeds to the Trustor for such purpose. Any insurance proceeds paid to the Trustor shall be held in trust for the Beneficiary and promptly paid to it.

3. CERTAIN RIGHTS OF THE BENEFICIARY

- 3.1 Legal Proceedings. The Beneficiary shall have the right, but not the duty, to intervene or otherwise participate in any legal or equitable proceeding that, in the Beneficiary's reasonable judgement, might affect the Property or any of the rights created or secured by this Deed of Trust. The Beneficiary shall have such right whether or not there shall have occurred an Event of Default hereunder.
- 3.2 Appraisals/Assessments. The Beneficiary shall have the right, at the Trustor's sole cost and expense, to obtain appraisals, environmental site assessments or other inspections of the portions of the Property that are real estate at such times as the Beneficiary deems necessary or as may be required by applicable law, or its prevailing credit or underwriting policies.
- 3.3 Financial Statements. The Beneficiary shall have the right, at the Trustor's sole cost and expense, to require delivery of financial statements in form and substance acceptable to the Beneficiary from the Trustor or any guarantor of any of the Obligations and the Trustor hereby agrees to deliver such financial statements and/or cause any such guarantor to so deliver any such financial statement when required by the Beneficiary.
- 3.4 Substitution of Trustee. The Beneficiary may from time to time, without notice to the Trustor or Trustee and with or without cause and with or without the resignation of Trustee, substitute a successor or successors to the Trustee named herein or acting hereunder. Upon such appointment, the successor trustee shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon the Trustee named herein or acting hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by a writing executed by Beneficiary and when duly recorded in the appropriate office shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of such successor Trustee. The procedure herein provided for substitution of the Trustee shall be conclusive of all other provisions for substitution, statutory or otherwise.
- 3.5 Leases and Rent Roll. The Trustor shall deliver to the Beneficiary during each calendar year and at such other times as the Beneficiary shall request a rent roll for the Property, in form acceptable to the Beneficiary, listing all tenants and occupants and describing all of the Leases.

4. DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

- 4.1 Events of Default. Event of Default shall mean the occurrence of any one or more of the following events:
 - (a) default of any liability, obligation or undertaking of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to the Beneficiary, hereunder or otherwise, including, without limitation, failure to pay in full and when due any installment of principal or interest or default of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations under any other Loan Document or any other agreement with the Beneficiary continuing for 10 days with respect to the payment of money or continuing for 30 days with respect to any other default;
 - (b) failure by the Trustor to perform, observe or comply with any of the covenants, agreements, terms or conditions set forth in this Deed of Trust or the Loan Documents continuing for 30 days;

- (c) the (i) occurrence of any material loss, theft, damage or destruction of, or (ii) issuance or making of any levy, seizure, attachment, execution or similar process on a material portion of the Property;
- (d) failure of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to maintain aggregate collateral security value satisfactory to the Beneficiary continuing for 30 days;
- (e) default of any material liability, obligation or undertaking of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to any other party continuing for 30 days;
- (f) if any statement, representation or warranty heretofore, now or hereafter made by the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations in connection with this Deed of Trust or in any supporting financial statement of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations shall be determined by the Beneficlary to have been false in any material respect when made;
- (g) If the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations is a corporation, trust, partnership or limited liability company, the liquidation, termination or dissolution of any such organization, or the merger or consolidation of such organization into another entity, or its ceasing to carry on actively its present business or the appointment of a receiver for its property;
- (h) the death of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations and, if the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations is a partnership or limited liability company, the death of any partner or member;
- (i) the institution by or against the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations of any proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code 11 USC §101 et seq. or any other law in which the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations is alleged to be insolvent or unable to pay its debts as they mature, or the making by the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations of an assignment for the benefit of creditors or the granting by the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations of a trust mortgage for the benefit of creditors;
- the service upon the Beneficiary of a writ in which the Beneficiary is named as trustee of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations;
- (k) a judgement or judgements for the payment of money shall be rendered against the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations, and any such judgement shall remain unsatisfied and in effect for any period of thirty (30) consecutive days without a stay of execution;
- any levy, lien (including mechanics lien), seizure, attachment, execution or similar process shall be issued or levied on any of the property of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations;
- (m) the termination or revocation of any guaranty of the Obligations; or
- (n) the occurrence of such a change in the condition or affairs (financial or otherwise) of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations, or the occurrence of any other event or circumstance, such that the Beneficiary, in its sole discretion, deems that it is insecure or that the prospects for timely or full payment or performance of any obligation of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to the Beneficiary has been or may be impaired.
- 4.2 Remedies. On the occurrence of any Event of Default the Beneficiary may, at any time thereafter, at its option and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, without notice, exercise any or all of the following remedies:

- (a) Declare the Obligations due and payable, and the Obligations shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, without presentment, protest, demand or notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Trustor except for Obligations due and payable on demand, which shall be due and payable on demand whether or not an event of default has occurred hereunder;
- (b) Enter, take possession of, manage and operate the Property (including all personal property and all records and documents pertaining thereto) and any part thereof and exclude the Trustor therefrom, take all actions it deems necessary or proper to preserve the Property and operate the Property as a mortgagee in possession with all the powers as could be exercised by a receiver or as otherwise provided herein or by applicable law; provided, however, the entry by the Beneficiary upon the Property for any reason shall not cause the Beneficiary to be a mortgagee in possession, except upon the express written declaration of the Beneficiary;
- With or without taking possession, receive and collect all rents, income, issues and profits (c) ("Rents") from the Property (including all real estate and personal property and whether past due or thereafter accruing), including as may arise under the Leases, and the Trustor appoints the Beneficiary as its true and lawful attorney with the power for the Beneficiary in its own name and capacity to demand and collect Rents and take any action that the Trustor is authorized to take under the Leases. The Beneficiary shall (after payment of all costs and expenses incurred) apply any Rents received by it to the Obligations in such order as the Beneficiary determines, or in accordance with any applicable statute, and the Trustor agrees that exercise of such rights and disposition of such funds shall not be deemed to cure any default or constitute a waiver of any foreclosure once commenced nor preclude the later commencement of foreclosure for breach thereof. The Beneficiary shall be liable to account only for such Rents actually received by the Beneficiary. Lessees under the Leases are hereby authorized and directed, following notice from the Beneficiary, to pay all amounts due the Trustor under the Leases to the Beneficiary, whereupon such lessees shall be relieved of any and all duty and obligation to the Trustor with respect to such payments so made;
- (d) In addition to any other remedies, to sell the Property or any part thereof or interest therein pursuant to exercise of its power of sale or otherwise at public auction on terms and conditions as the Beneficiary may determine, or otherwise foreclose this Deed of Trust in any manner permitted by law, and upon such sale the Trustor shall execute and deliver such instruments as the Beneficiary may request in order to convey and transfer all of the Trustor's interest in the Property, and the same shall operate to divest all rights, title and interest of the Trustor in and to the Property. In the event this Deed of Trust shall include more than one parcel of property or subdivision (each hereinafter called a "portion"), the Beneficiary shall, in its sole and exclusive discretion and to the extent permitted by applicable law, be empowered to foreclose upon any such portion without impairing its right to foreclose subsequently upon any other portion or the entirety of the Property from time to time thereafter. In addition, the Beneficiary may in its discretion subordinate this Deed of Trust to one or more Leases for the sole purpose of preserving any such Lease in the event of a foreclosure:
- (e) Cause one or more environmental assessments to be taken, arrange for the cleanup of any Hazardous Substances or otherwise cure the Trustor's failure to comply with any statute, regulation or ordinance relating to the presence or cleanup of Hazardous Substances, and the Trustor shall provide the Beneficiary or its agents with access to the Property for such purposes; provided that the exercise of any of such remedies shall not be deemed to have relieved the Trustor from any responsibility therefor or given the Beneficiary "control" over the Property or cause the Beneficiary to be considered to be a mortgagee in possession, "owner" or "operator" of the Property for purposes of any applicable law, rule or regulation pertaining to Hazardous Substances; and

(f) Take such other actions or proceedings as the Beneficiary deems necessary or advisable to protect its interest in the Property and ensure payment and performance of the Obligations, including, without limitation, appointment of a receiver (and the Trustor hereby walves any right to object to such appointment) and exercise of any of the Beneficiary's remedies provided herein or in any other document evidencing, securing or relating to any of the Obligations or available to a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or under other applicable law.

In addition, the Trustee and the Beneficiary shall have all other remedies provided by applicable law, including, without limitation, the right to pursue a judicial sale of the Property or any portion thereof.

The Trustor agrees and acknowledges that the acceptance by the Trustee or the Beneficiary of any payments from either the Trustor or any guarantor after the occurrence of any Event of Default, the exercise by the Trustee or the Beneficiary of any remedy set forth herein or the commencement, discontinuance or abandonment of foreclosure proceedings against the Property shall not waive the Trustee's or the Beneficiary's subsequent or concurrent right to foreclose or operate as a bar or estoppel to the exercise of any other rights or remedies of the Trustee or the Beneficiary. The Trustor agrees and acknowledges that the Trustee or the Beneficiary, by making payments or incurring costs described herein, shall be subrogated to any right of the Trustor to seek reimbursement from any third parties, including, without limitation, any predecessor in interest to the Trustor's title or other party who may be responsible under any law, regulation or ordinance relating to the presence or cleanup of Hazardous Substances.

- Advances. If the Trustor fails to pay or perform any of its obligations respecting the Property, the Beneficiary may in its sole discretion do so without waiving or releasing Trustor from any such obligation. Any such payments may include, but are not limited to, payments for taxes, assessments and other governmental levies, water rates, insurance premiums, maintenance, repairs or improvements constituting part of the Property. Any amounts paid by the Beneficiary hereunder shall be, until paid, part of the Obligations and secured by this Deed of Trust, and shall be due and payable to the Beneficiary, on demand, together with interest thereon to the extent permitted by applicable law, at the highest rate permitted under any of the notes evidencing the Obligations.
- 4.4 Cumulative Rights and Remedies. All of the foregoing rights, remedies and options (including without limitation the right to enter and take possession of the Property, the right to manage and operate the same, and the right to collect Rents, in each case whether by a receiver or otherwise) are cumulative and in addition to any rights the Beneficiary might otherwise have, whether at law or by agreement, and may be exercised separately or concurrently and none of which shall be exclusive of any other. The Trustor further agrees that the Trustee and the Beneficiary may exercise any or all of its rights or remedies set forth herein without having to pay the Trustor any sums for use or occupancy of the Property.
- 4.5 Trustor's Walver of Certain Rights. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Trustor hereby walves the benefit of all present and future laws (i) providing for any appraisal before sale of all or any portion of the Property or (ii) in any way extending the time for the enforcement of the collection of the Obligations or creating or extending a period of redemption from any sale made hereunder.
- 4.6 Transfer of Title. Upon the completion of any sale or sales of any Property, Trustee shall execute and deliver to the accepted purchaser or purchasers a good and sufficient deed of conveyance or assignment and transfer, lawfully conveying, assigning, and transferring the Property sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied.
- 4.7 Effect of Sale. Any sale or sales made by virtue of or under this Deed of Trust, whether under any power of sale herein granted or through judicial proceedings, shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, operate to divest all right, title, estate, interest, claim, and demand whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of Trustor in and to the property so sold, or any part thereof from, through or under Trustor, its successors and assigns. The receipt by Trustee shall be full and sufficient discharge to any purchaser of the Property or any part thereof sold as aforesaid for the purchase money; and no purchaser or his representatives, grantees or assigns after paying such purchase money and receiving such receipt, shall be bound to see to the application of such purchase money upon or for any trust or purpose of this Deed of Trust, or in any manner whatsoever be answerable for any loss, misapplication or non-application of any such purchase money or be bound to inquire as to the authorization, necessity, expedience or regularity of any such sale.

4.8 Reconveyance. Upon written request of the Beneficiary and surrender of this Deed of Trust and any Notes to Trustee for cancellation or endorsement, and upon payment of its fees and charges, Trustee shall reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the Property then subject to this Deed of Trust. Any reconveyance, whether full or partial, may be made in terms to "the person or persons legally entitled thereto," and the recitals in such reconveyance of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof.

5. MISCELLANEOUS

- Costs and Expenses. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Trustor shall pay to the Trustee and the Beneficiary, on demand, all reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses and reasonable consulting, accounting, appraisal, brokerage and similar professional fees and charges) incurred by the Trustee and the Beneficiary in connection with the Trustee's and the Beneficiary's interpretation, recordation of this Deed of Trust, exercise, preservation or enforcement of any of its rights, remedies and options set forth in this Deed of Trust and in connection with any litigation, proceeding or dispute whether arising hereunder or otherwise relating to the Obligations, together with interest thereon to the extent permitted by applicable law, until paid in full by the Trustor at the highest rate set forth in any of the notes evidencing the Obligations. Any amounts owed by the Trustor hereunder shall be, until paid, part of the Obligations and secured by this Deed of Trust, and the Beneficiary shall be entitled, to the extent permitted by law, to receive and retain such amounts in any action for a deficiency against or redemption by the Trustor, or any accounting for the proceeds of a foreclosure sale or of insurance proceeds.
- 5.2 Indemnification Regarding Leases. The Trustor hereby agrees to defend, and does hereby indemnify and hold the Beneficiary, Trustee, and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and attorneys (each an "Indemnitee") harmless from all losses, damages, claims, costs or expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) resulting from the assignment of the Leases and from all demands that may be asserted against such Indemnitees arising from any undertakings on the part of the Beneficiary to perform any obligations under the Leases. It is understood that the assignment of the Leases shall not operate to place responsibility for the control or management of the Property upon the Beneficiary or any indemnitee or make them liable for performance of any of the obligations of the Trustor under Leases, respecting any condition of the Property or any other agreement or arrangement, written or oral, or applicable law.
- 5.3 Indemnification Regarding Hazardous Substances. The Trustor hereby agrees to defend, and does hereby Indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnitee from and against any and all losses, damages, claims, costs or expenses, including, without limitation, litigation costs and attorneys' fees and expenses and fees or expenses of any environmental engineering or cleanup firm incurred by such indemnitee and arising out of or in connection with the Property or resulting from the application of any current or future law, regulation or ordinance relating to the presence or cleanup of Hazardous Substances on or affecting the Property. The Trustor agrees its obligations hereunder shall be continuous and shall survive termination or discharge of this Deed of Trust and/or the repayment of all debts to the Beneficiary including repayment of all Obligations.
- 5.4 Indemnitee's Expenses. If any Indemnitee is made a party defendant to any litigation or any claim is threatened or brought against such Indemnitee concerning this Deed of Trust or the Property or any part thereof or therein or concerning the construction, maintenance, operation or the occupancy or use thereof by the Trustor or other person or entity, then the Trustor shall indemnify, defend and hold each Indemnitee harmless from and against all liability by reason of said litigation or claims, including attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by such Indemnitee in connection with any such litigation or claim, whether or not any such litigation or claim is prosecuted to judgement. The within indemnification shall survive payment of the Obligations, and/or any termination, release or discharge executed by the Beneficiary in favor of the Trustor.

- Waivers. The Trustor waives notice of nonpayment, demand, presentment, protest or notice of 5.5 protest of the Obligations and all other notices, consents to any renewals or extensions of time of payment thereof, and generally waives any and all suretyship defenses and defenses in the nature thereof. No delay or omission of the Beneficiary in exercising or enforcing any of its rights, powers, privileges, remedies, immunities or discretion (all of which are hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Beneficiary's rights and remedies") hereunder shall constitute a waiver thereof; and no waiver by the Beneficiary of any default of the Trustor hereunder or of any demand shall operate as a walver of any other default hereunder or of any other demand. No term or provision hereof shall be waived, altered or modified except with the prior written consent of the Beneficiary, which consent makes explicit reference to this Deed of Trust. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, no other agreement or transaction, of whatsoever nature, entered into between the Beneficiary and the Trustor at any time (whether before, during or after the effective date or term of this Deed of Trust) shall be construed as a waiver, modification or limitation of any of the Beneficiary's rights and remedies under this Deed of Trust (nor shall anything in this Deed of Trust be construed as a waiver, modification or limitation of any of the Beneficiary's rights and remedies under any such other agreement or transaction) but all the Beneficiary's rights and remedies not only under the provisions of this Deed of Trust but also under any such other agreement or transaction shall be cumulative and not alternative or exclusive, and may be exercised by the Beneficiary at such time or times and in such order of preference as the Beneficiary in its sole discretion may determine.
- 5.6 Severability. If any provision of this Deed of Trust or portion of such provision or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall to any extent be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Deed of Trust (or the remainder of such provision) and the application thereof to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.
- 5.7 Complete Agreement. This Deed of Trust and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire agreement and understanding between and among the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior proposals, negotiations, agreements and understandings among the parties hereto with respect to such subject matter.
- Binding Effect of Agreement. This Deed of Trust shall run with the land and be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the parties hereto, and shall remain in full force and effect (and the Beneficiary shall be entitled to rely thereon) until all Obligations are fully and indefeasibly paid. The Beneficiary may transfer and assign this Deed of Trust and deliver any collateral to the assignee, who shall thereupon have all of the rights of the Beneficiary; and the Beneficiary shall then be relieved and discharged of any responsibility or liability with respect to this Deed of Trust and such collateral. Except as expressly provided herein or in the other Loan Documents, nothing, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Deed of Trust or the other Loan Documents.
- 5.9 Notices. Any notices under or pursuant to this Deed of Trust shall be deemed duly received and effective if delivered in hand to any officer of agent of the Trustor or the Beneficiary, or if mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the Trustor or the Beneficiary at the address set forth in this Deed of Trust or as any party may from time to time designate by written notice to the other party.
- 5.10 Governing Law. This Deed of Trust shall be governed by Nevada law without giving effect to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

- 5.11 Reproductions. This Deed of Trust and all documents which have been or may be hereinafter furnished by the Trustor to the Beneficiary may be reproduced by the Beneficiary by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, xerographic or similar process, and any such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding (whether or not the original is in existence and whether or not such reproduction was made in the regular course of business).
- 5.12 Jurisdiction and Venue. The Trustor irrevocably submits to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any Federal or state court sitting in Nevada, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Deed of Trust. The Trustor irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, any objection it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that the same has been brought in an inconvenient forum. The Trustor hereby consents to process being served in any such suit, action or proceeding (i) by the mailing of a copy thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the Trustor's address set forth herein or such other address as has been provided in writing to the Beneficiary and (ii) in any other manner permitted by law, and agrees that such service shall in every respect be deemed effective service upon the Trustor.
- JURY WAIVER. THE TRUSTOR AND THE BENEFICIARY EACH HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY, AND AFTER AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL, (A) WAIVE ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS DEED OF TRUST, THE OBLIGATIONS, ALL MATTERS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND DOCUMENTS EXECUTED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH AND (B) AGREE NOT TO CONSOLIDATE ANY SUCH ACTION WITH ANY OTHER ACTION IN WHICH A JURY TRIAL CAN NOT BE, OR HAS NOT BEEN WAIVED. THE TRUSTOR CERTIFIES THAT NEITHER THE BENEFICIARY NOR ANY OF ITS REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS OR COUNSEL HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT THE BENEFICIARY WOULD NOT IN THE EVENT OF ANY SUCH PROCEEDING SEEK TO ENFORCE THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.
- 5.14 Arbitration. IN THE EVENT THAT THE JURY WAIVER SET FORTH ABOVE IS JUDICIALLY DETERMINED TO NOT BE PERMITTED BY LAW, THE PARTIES AGREE TO ATTEMPT IN GOOD FAITH TO RESOLVE ANY DISPUTES WHICH MAY ARISE AMONG THEM IN CONNECTION WITH THE INTERPRETATION OR ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE APPLICATION OR VALIDITY THEREOF. IN THE EVENT THAT ANY DISPUTE CANNOT BE SO RESOLVED, AND UNLESS THE RELIEF SOUGHT REQUIRES THE EXERCISE OF THE EQUITY POWERS OF A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION, SUCH DISPUTE SHALL BE SUBMITTED TO ARBITRATION. SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE HELD IN THE COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ARBITRATION PROVISIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE. THIS AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE SHALL BE SPECIFICALLY ENFORCEABLE. ANY AWARD RENDERED IN ANY SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE FINAL AND BINDING ON EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND JUDGEMENT MAY BE ENTERED THEREON IN ANY COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION.

        Α
            Every email. That's a hard question.
        Q
            Okay.
             I've kept some, yeah.
 3
        Α
            Okay. But not all?
 4
 5
        Α
            On my most recent laptop.
            Okay. Have you kept all correspondence that would be pertinent to this case?
7
             I've kept a lot of it, yes.
8
 9
        Q
            Okay.
             In paper form and some of it on my hard 10
   drive in my laptop.
             Okay. Have you kept all documents that 12
   would be pertinent to this case?
14
        Α
            All documents?
15
          Like any leases?
16
            Yeah, I have all that.
17
             Okay. Have you provided all that 18 information to your attorney?
19
        A
             My attorney, yes.
             So let's talk about your ownership of 20 properties generally. How many properties do you 21
22 own at the present?
23
        А
             Two.
24
             And how many of those are nonresidential?
25
             One.

On the Baring property?
        Α
            Yes.
 3
            When did they stop paying on the Baring 4 property?
            Okay. We discussed this 2009 they stopped payment.
 5
 6
7
            Okay, correct. And then you said that they repaid everything.
 8
9
        Α
            Yes, they did.
            So as of May 2014 when you sold the Baring 10 property, can you list for me every breach that BHI 11
   had committed as of that time?
            MR. MOQUIN: Objection, calls for a legal 13
   conclusion.
14
             THE WITNESS: We've already covered this 15
16 ground.
17
   BY MS. WEBSTER:
            Could you state it for me again?
18
19
             They stopped payment somewhere in the neighborhood of 2007 to 2010. I went after them 20
        Α
   with my lawyers and they relented and they paid me.
   The total amount was about 190-something thousand dollars.
23
24
             Then they assigned the lease for Sparks
25
   Avenue -- Baring Boulevard -- that's another breach -- without my notification. What else?

 1
   think that's it.
 2
            Were those breaches cured by the time that 3 you sold the Baring property?
 5
            Well, I guess I got notified by this document, which I don't recognize, and it was a check from Jacksons Foods and I cashed it.
        Α
 7
 8
            Correct. So were they in default when you sold the Baring property? Was BHI in default when 9
   you sold the Baring property?
10
             Well, I consider it to be defaulted --
12 well, okay. I would say no.
13
            Okay. So I may have asked you this.
   apologize if I'm repeating it.
15
             When did you sell the Baring property?
          May of 2014.
16
17
        Q
            Okay.
             (Deposition Exhibit 19 marked for 18 19 identification.)
20
21
             THE WITNESS: Yeah, I should have sold it 22
   BY MS. WEBSTER:
23
             Okay. So have you produced the 24
        Q

Do you know if he ever adjusted the sales price?

             When I sold it, yeah, it went down.
 4
             You did from the time -- from what you 5 originally listed the sales price for?
 6
        Α
             Yes.
 7
            And why did you do that?
 8
             We weren't getting any offers.
 9
             How long was the property on the market 0 before you got offers?
10
11
             I don't recall.
12
             When did you first decide to sell the 13
   Baring property?
14
             When I was forced to.
15
             Okay. And can you explain the 0
16 circumstances of that?
17
             Herbst Oil stopped payments on my leases.
18
             On the Baring lease?
19
        Α
                  But they stopped everything on the Highway 50 so that I was in debt on Highway 50 and
   way behind in my mortgage payments and I was being 22 foreclosed on.
23
             On the Highway 50 property?
        0
24
        Α
             Yes.
25
             Okay. And so in March of 2013, is that when you were being foreclosed on?

```
2
                It took a while.
        Α
            No.
 3 Approximately when?
        0
            Oh, probably the first part of '14.
 4
        Α
            Okay. And so was that when you decided to 5
 6 sell the Baring property?
 7
             I didn't decide. I had to.
        Α
            Okay. But that's when you first put it on the market?
             Otherwise, I was going to lose both 10
        Α
   properties.
12
            And why would that be?
            Because they were cross collateralized.
13
        Α
            Can you explain that a little bit more, please?
14
15
16
             The properties were collateralized.
17
             Can you explain that a little bit more?
        0
             The properties are collateral for the note.
18
19
        Q Correct.
             So if you've -- if you do not make your 20
21 payments on either one of the properties, they can 22 foreclose on both of the properties.
             Okay. And is that in your agreements?
23
24
             It's in the note with the bank.
25
             So once you had the property on the market,
```

did you receive offers on this property -- offers to buy the property?
            Yeah, I got an offer.
 3
            Did you only get one offer?
5
             I don't recall. There might have been another one. I don't recall really.
7
            Who was the purchaser?
        0
            His name was Mr. Tway or Tray, or something 8 like that.
9
            Richard Ray?
10
11
        Α
            Ray. That's it.
12
            Okay. And do you remember what the 0 purchase price was?
13
14
             Somewhere around a million-one.
        A million-one, something like that.
15
16
            Okay. And so you don't know if you had
17 multiple offers?
18
             Not a million-one. Three.1.
            Okay. And you don't remember if you had
20 more than just Mr. Ray's offer on this property?
21
             I had some people showing interest.
22
        Q
             Okay.
23
             I couldn't tell you who --
        Q
             Okay.
25
             -- or when.
```

How much?
1
        Α
            $1,308,792.85 in principal.
2
 3
        A
            For Sparks?
            For the Carson City loan.
        0
            This says "Sparks loan" and I don't know.
5
 6
   You know, I paid off the loan. I took some of the proceeds and I paid off what was delinquent on 7
   Highway 50.
 9
            Okay. So back to the HUD 1 settlement 0 statement, if you look at line 603, what was the 10 total cash to seller?
12
        Α
             $870,844.39.
13
            Okay. And what did you do with that cash?
        Q
             I put it in my bank account.
14
15
             Okay. So how much of that went to paying off the Highway 50 or Carson property loan?
16
17
             I don't recall.
        Α
            Did any of it?
18
        Q Absolutely.
19
20
             Okay.
        0
21
        Α
             I was being foreclosed on.
22
             Okay. And then did you have any 1031 tax
23 consequences from the sale of the Baring property?
24
        Α
             Sure I did. Absolutely.
25
             Let's talk about those.
```

```
Interrogatory No. 3, "Please identify and 1
   describe in detail any and all facts demonstrating that the BHI knew at the time you and BHI entered 3 into the Highway 50 lease that the Highway 50
 5 property was cross-collateralized with the Baring 6
 7
            And then your response is "Respondent is 8 presently unaware of facts responsive to this 9 request. Respondent reserves the right to amend 10 this response in light of future discovery."
11
            Do you agree with that?
12
13
            THE WITNESS: I don't know why they would 14
   even know.
15
   BY MS. WEBSTER:
16
        Q
            Okay.
17
            They're not party to getting a loan.
18
   They take the check and cash it.
            Okay. So Interrogatory No. 4, "Please 19 identify and describe in detail any and all facts 20
21 demonstrating that Jerry Herbst at the time you and 22
   BHI entered into the lease that the Highway 50
23 property was cross-collateralized with the Baring 24
25
             The response on the next page is,
```

```
"Respondent is presently unaware of facts responsive to this request. Respondent reserves the right to 3 amend this response."
2
 4
            I agree with that.
 5
 6 identify any documents which entitled you to the security deposit from the subtenant at the Highway
 8
   50 property in the amount of two thousand" -- and I 9 believe it's a typo. It should be "2,485 as set 10 forth in paragraph 39 of the First Amended 11 Complaint."
12
            And your answer is that "Respondent bases 13 this contention on the fact that the propounding party breached the Highway 50 lease."
15
            Do you see agree with that?
16
        Α
            Well, in my experience a deposit is 17 something that goes with the people that are 18 responsible for paying it back to the tenant.
19
             So they're asking me what? Did I know that Jerry Herbst knew, no. I don't have any 20 21
   documentation.
22
            Okay.
        0
23
             It's just common sense.
24
            Okay. And then we also went through
25
   Interrogatory No. 6 and you said that you do not

Assignment and Assumption of Lease.pdf

Dear Brian and David-

I have been reviewing documents for disclosure in this case this week. Yesterday, I came across documents showing that the lease for the 1365 Baring Blvd. in Sparks, Nevada location was assigned from Berry Hinckley Industries, Inc. ("BHI") to Jacksons Food Stores, Inc. ("Jacksons") in late 2009. I contacted both my client and counsel for Jacksons about this Issue and learned that Jacksons has been operating that location since 2010, and that the Wooley plaintiffs collected rent from Jacksons from 2010 forward. In addition, I am informed that when the Wooley plaintiffs sold the Baring Blvd. location earlier this year, the rent for the site was fully-pald and up to date. Now, I understand Jacksons continues to pay rent to the new owner at that location.

Based upon these facts, it is clear to me that your clients have no basis to maintain a claim in this case for breach of the Baring Blvd. lease. Your clients were paid in full for the rent to which they were entitled prior to the sale of that location, and they have no standing to seek damages for future rent at that location because they no longer own it. I assume that both of you had no knowledge of these facts, or you would not have filed the complaint as written. However, it seems apparent that your clients must have known all of these facts, and therefore the complaint should never have been filed with any claims related to Baring Blvd.

I note that the amended complaint that you drafted does not appear to have been filed, so it seems to be a good time to clean up plaintiffs' complaint to remove all claims related to Baring Blvd. as part of plaintiffs' amended complaint. Please confirm that your clients will agree to remove all claims for relief related to Baring Blvd., and send me a new amended complaint to consider at your earliest convenience.

I have attached the Assignment and Assumption of Lease document for your convenience. I also expect to receive a letter from counsel for Jacksons with some accounting documentation showing rental payments for the last several years early next week, and I can forward that to you if you wish.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Brian Irvine

Brian,

I apologize for the delay in getting you the First Amended Compliant but I thought I sent this before the Nevada day holiday. While you review the document, I will work on a simple stipulation for your review.

Additionally, I would like to set up a time to conduct the 16.1 Case Conference. Would you be available next week. I was supposed to be in San Francisco for mediations on Monday and Tuesday but those were cancelled. Please let me know if you are available.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Dear Brian and David-

It has now been about six weeks since I first communicated with you about the need to dismiss the portion of the case related to the Baring Boulevard location, but I still have not seen an amended complaint. We need to proceed with written discovery, and the lack of a proper set of pleadings is impeding our ability to frame that discovery and prepare the case. Please provide me with a draft amended complaint to review by Tuesday, January 20, 2015. If I do not see it by then, I will move to dismiss and will also seek sanctions for being forced to file an unnecessary motion. Please let me know where you are on this.

Hi, Brian. My overseas trip turned out to be more cumbersome and less productive than I'd anticipated, and consequently I have not finished putting the draft together. I return to the States tomorrow and will have the amended pleading finished by this coming Monday. I apologize for the delay and appreciate your patience.

Mr. Irvine-

I left a voicemail for you earlier today, am in the middle of a deposition and have been occupied with depositions every day for the past week and a half.

I agree that there is an issue in terms of the allegations in the complaint related to the Baring Blvd. location. We plan to amend the complaint to correct this. Unfortunately, I'm occupied with an expert witness deposition this coming Monday and fly to Germany for two weeks on Tuesday, so realistically the earliest date I can commit to having the amended complaint to you is Monday, December 22, 2014. If you find that unacceptable, please let me know.

Dear Brian and David-

I have not received any response from you regarding my email below. As you are now aware, the allegations in the complaint made by the Wooley plaintiffs regarding the Baring Boulevard property are baseless and must be dismissed. Please find attached a letter and rent roll that we received from corporate counsel for Jacksons showing that the rent at that location has been paid throughout all of 2013-2014 by Jacksons, and that such rent was received by the Wooley plaintiffs until they sold the property.

Please contact me about how you wish to proceed, or provide me with an updated draft amended complaint with claims related to the Baring Boulevard location removed. If I do not hear from you by the close of business this Friday, December 12, 2014, we will file a motion seeking dismissal of those claims and will also request sanctions for being forced to bring a motion to dismiss these claims.

Subject: RE: Willard v. Berry-Hinckley

Dear Brian and David-

I have been reviewing documents for disclosure in this case this week. Yesterday, I came across documents showing that the lease for the 1365 Baring Blvd. In Sparks, Nevada location was assigned from Berry Hinckley Industries, Inc. ("BHI") to Jacksons Food Stores, Inc. ("Jacksons") in late 2009. I contacted both my client and counsel for Jacksons about this issue and learned that Jacksons has been operating that location since 2010, and that the Wooley plaintiffs collected rent from Jacksons from 2010 forward. In addition, I am informed that when the Wooley plaintiffs sold the Baring Blvd. location earlier this year, the rent for the site was fully-paid and up to date. Now, I understand Jacksons continues to pay rent to the new owner at that location.

Based upon these facts, it is clear to me that your clients have no basis to maintain a claim in this case for breach of the Baring Blvd. lease. Your clients were paid in full for the rent to which they were entitled prior to the sale of that location, and they have no standing to seek damages for future rent at that location because they no longer own it. I assume that both of you had no knowledge of these facts, or you would not have filed the complaint as written. However, it seems apparent that your clients must have known all of these facts, and therefore the complaint should never have been filed with any claims related to Baring Blvd.

I note that the amended complaint that you drafted does not appear to have been filed, so it seems to be a good time to clean up plaintiffs' complaint to remove all claims related to Baring Blvd. as part of plaintiffs' amended complaint. Please confirm that your clients will agree to remove all claims for relief related to Baring Blvd., and send me a new amended complaint to consider at your earliest convenience.

I have attached the Assignment and Assumption of Lease document for your convenience. I also expect to receive a letter from counsel for Jacksons with some accounting documentation showing rental payments for the last several years early next week, and I can forward that to you if you wish.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Brian Irvine

Brian,

I apologize for the delay in getting you the First Amended Compliant but I thought I sent this before the Nevada day holiday. While you review the document, I will work on a simple stipulation for your review.

Additionally, I would like to set up a time to conduct the 16.1 Case Conference. Would you be available next week. I was supposed to be in San Francisco for mediations on Monday and Tuesday but those were cancelled. Please let me know if you are available.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Introduction

This publication explains the federal tax treatment of canceled debts, foreclosures, repossessions, and abandonments.

Generally, if you owe a debt to someone else and they cancel or forgive that debt for less than its full amount, you are treated for income tax purposes as having income and may have to pay tax on this income.

Note. This publication generally refers to debt that is canceled, forgiven, or discharged for less than the full amount of the debt as "canceled debt."

Sometimes a debt, or part of a debt, that you don't have to pay isn't considered canceled debt. These exceptions are discussed later under Exceptions.

Sometimes a canceled debt may be excluded from your income. But if you do exclude canceled debt from income, you may be required to reduce your "tax attributes." These exclusions and the reduction of tax attributes associated with them are discussed later under Exclusions.

Foreclosure and repossession are remedies that your lender may exercise if you fail to make payments on your loan and you have previously granted that lender a mortgage or other security interest in some of your property. These remedies allow the lender to seize or sell the property securing the loan. When your property is foreclosed upon or repossessed and sold, you are treated as having sold the property and you may recognize taxable gain. Whether you also recognize income from canceled debt depends in part on whether you are personally liable for the debt and in part on whether the outstanding loan balance is more than the fair market value (FMV) of the property. Figuring your gain or loss and income from canceled debt arising from a foreclosure or repossession is discussed later under Foreclosures and Repossessions.

Generally, you abandon property when you voluntarily and permanently give up possession and use of property you own with the intention of ending your ownership but without passing it on to anyone else. Figuring your gain or loss and income from canceled debt arising from an abandonment is discussed later under Abandonments.

Common Situations Covered In This Publication

The sections of this publication that apply to you depend on the type of debt canceled, the tax attributes you have, and whether or not you continue to own the property that was subject to the debt. Some examples of common circumstances are provided in the following paragraphs to help guide you through this publication. These examples don't cover every situation but are intended to provide general guidance for the most common situations.

Nonbusiness credit card debt cancellation. If you had a nonbusiness credit card debt canceled, you may be able to exclude the canceled debt from income if the cancellation occurred in a title 11 bankruptcy case or you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation. You should read Bankruptcy or Insolvency under Exclusions in chapter 1 to see if you can exclude the canceled debt from income under one of those provisions. If you can exclude part or all of the canceled debt from income, you should also read Bankruptcy and Insolvency under Reduction of Tax Attributes in chapter 1.

Personal vehicle repossession. If you had a personal vehicle repossessed and disposed of by the lender during the year, you will need to determine your gain or nondeductible loss on the disposition. This is explained in chapter 2. If the lender also canceled all or part of the remaining amount of the loan, you may be able to exclude the canceled debt from income if the cancellation occurred in a title 11 bankruptcy case or you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation. You should read Bankruptcy or Insolvency under Exclusions in chapter 1 to see if you can exclude the canceled debt from income under one of those provisions. If you can exclude part or all of the canceled debt from income, you should also read Bankruptcy and Insolvency under Reduction of Tax Attributes in chapter 1.

Main home foreclosure or abandonment. If a lender foreclosed on your main home during the year, you will need to determine your gain or loss on the foreclosure. Foreclosures are explained in chapter 2 and abandonments are explained in chapter 2 and abandonments are explained in chapter 2 and abandonments are explained in or part of the remaining amount on the mortgage loan, and you were personally liable for the debt, you should also read Qualified Principal Fesidence Indebtedness under Exclusions in chapter 1 to see if you can exclude part or all of the canceled debt from income.

Main home loan modification (workout agreement). If a lender agrees to a mortgage loan modification (a "workout") that includes a reduction in the principal balance of the loan, you should read Qualified Principal Residence Indebtedness under Exclusions in chapter 1 to see if you can exclude part or all of the canceled debt from income. If you can exclude part or all of the canceled debt from income, you should also read Qualified Principal Residence Indebtedness under Reduction of Tax Attributes in chapter 1.

Canceled Debts

This chapter discusses the tax treatment of canceled debts.

General Rules

Generally, if a debt for which you are personally liable is forgiven or discharged for less than the full amount owed, the debt is considered canceled in whatever amount it remained unpaid. There are exceptions to this rule, discussed under Exceptions, later. Generally, you must include the canceled debt in your income. However, you may be able to exclude the canceled debt. See Exclusions, later.

Example. John owed $1,000 to Mary. Mary agreed to accept and John paid $400 in satisfaction of the entire debt. John has canceled debt of $600.

Example. Margaret owed $1,000 to Henry. Henry and Margaret agreed that Margaret would provide Henry with services (instead of money) in full satisfaction of the debt. Margaret doesn't have canceled debt. Instead, she has income from services.

A debt includes any indebtedness:

- · For which you are liable, or
- Subject to which you hold property.

Debt for which you are personally liable is recourse debt. All other debt is nonrecourse debt.

If you aren't personally liable for the debt, you don't have ordinary income from the cancellation of debt unless you retain the collateral and either:

- The lender offers a discount for the early payment of the debt, or
- The lender agrees to a loan modification that results in the reduction of the principal balance of the debt.

See Discounts and Loan Modifications, later.

However, upon the disposition of the property securing a nonrecourse debt, the amount realized includes the entire unpaid amount of the debt, not just the FMV of the property. As a result, you may realize a gain or loss if the outstanding debt immediately before the disposition is more or less than your adjusted basis in the property. For more details on figuring your gain or loss, see chapter-2 of this publication or see Pub. 544, Sales and Other Dispositions of Assets.

There are several exceptions and exclusions that may result in part or all of a canceled debt being nontaxable. See Exceptions and Exclusions, later. You must report any taxable canceled debt as ordinary income on:

- Form 1040 or Form 1040NR, line 21, if the debt is a nonbusiness debt;
- Schedule C (Form 1040), line 6 (or Schedule C-EZ (Form 1040), line 1), if the debt is related to a nonfarm sole proprietorship;
- Schedule E (Form 1040), line 3, if the debt is related to nonfarm rental of real property;
- Form 4835, line 6, if the debt is related to a farm rental activity for which you use Form 4835 to report farm rental income based on crops or livestock produced by a tenant; or
- Schedule F (Form 1040), line 8, if the debt is farm debt and you are a farmer.

Form 1099-C

If you receive a Form 1099-C, that means an applicable entity has reported an identifiable event to the IRS regarding a debt you owe. The identifiable event may be an actual cancellation of the debt or it may be an event the applicable entity is required, solely for purposes of reporting to the IRS, to treat as a cancellation of debt. For information on the reasons an applicable entity files Form 1099-C, see Identifiable event codes, next. Unless you meet one of the exceptions or exclusions discussed later, this canceled debt is ordinary income and must be reported on the appropriate form discussed above.

An applicable entity includes:

- 1. A financial institution.
- 2. A credit union.
- Any of the following, its successor, or subunit of one of the following:
 - The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC),
 - b. The Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC),
 - c. The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA), or
 - d. Any other federal executive agency, including government corporations, any military department, the U.S. Postal Service, or the Postal Rate Commission.
- A corporate subsidiary of a financial institution or credit union (if the affiliation subjects the subsidiary to federal or state regulation).
- A federal government agency, including a department, an agency, a court or court administrative office, or a judicial or legislative instrumentality.
- Any organization a significant trade or business of which is lending money.

For more information on the applicable entities that must file a Form 1099-C, see the Instructions for Forms 1099-A and 1099-C, available at www.irs.gov/instructions/i1099ac.

Identifiable event codes. Box 6 of Form 1099-C should indicate the reason the creditor filed this form. The codes shown in box 6 are explained below. Also see the chart after the explanation for a quick reference guide for the codes used in box 6.

Note. Codes A through G and I identify specific occurrences involving an actual discharge of indebtedness. However, Code H, Expiration of nonpayment testing period, identifies an occurrence that doesn't necessarily involve an actual discharge of indebtedness.

Code A — Bankruptcy. Code A is used to identify cancellation of debt as a result of a title 11 bankruptcy case. See Bankruptcy, later.

Code B — Other judicial debt relief.
Code B is used to identify cancellation of debt as a result of a receivership, foreclosure, or similar federal or state court proceeding other than bankruptcy.

Code C — Statute of limitations or expiration of deficiency period. Code C is used to identify cancellation of debt either when the statute of limitations for collecting the debt expires or when the statutory period for filing a claim or beginning a deficiency judgment proceeding expires. In the case of the expiration of a statute of limitations, an identifiable event occurs only if and when your affirmative defense of the statute of limitations is upheld in a final judgment or decision in a judicial proceeding, and the period for appealing the judgment or decision has expired.

Code D — Foreclosure election. Code D is used to identify cancellation of debt when the creditor elects foreclosure remedies that statutorily end or bar the creditor's right to pursue collection of the debt. This event applies to a mortgage lender or holder who is barred from pursuing debt collection after a power of sale in the mortgage or deed of trust is exercised.

Code E — Debt relief from probate or similar proceeding. Code E is used to identify cancellation of debt as a result of a probate court or similar legal proceeding.

Code F — By agreement. Code F is used to identify cancellation of debt as a result of an agreement between the creditor and the debtor to cancel the debt at less than full consideration.

Code G — Decision or policy to discontinue collection. Code G is used to identify cancellation of debt as a result of a decision or a defined policy of the creditor to discontinue collection activity and cancel the debt. For purposes of this identifiable event, a defined policy includes both a written policy and the creditor's established business practice.

Code H — Expiration of nonpayment testing period. Code H is used to indicate that the creditor hasn't received a payment on the debt during a testing period ending on December 31, 2015. The testing period is a 36-month period increased by the number of months the creditor was prevented from engaging in collection activity by a stay in bankruptcy or similar bar under state or local law. This identifiable event applies only for a creditor that is a financial institution or credit union (and certain of their subsidiaries), the FDIC, the RTC, the NCUA, any other federal executive agencies, and any successor or subunit of the FDIC, the RTC, the NCUA, or a federal executive agency.

Expiration of the nonpayment testing period doesn't necessarily result from an actual discharge of indebtedness.

Code I — Other actual discharge before identifiable event. Code I is used to identify an actual cancellation of debt that occurs before any of the identifiable events described in codes A through H.

Chapter 1 Canceled Debts

Form 1099-C Reference Guide for Box 6 Identifiable Event Codes

- A Bankruptcy
- B Other judicial debt relief
- Statute of limitations or expiration of deficiency period
- D Foreclosure election
- E Debt relief from probate or similar proceeding
- F By agreement
- G Decision or policy to discontinue collection
- H Expiration of nonpayment testing period
- I Other actual discharge before identifiable event

Even if you didn't receive a Form 1099-C, you must report canceled debt as gross income on your tax return unless one of the exceptions or exclusions described later applies.

Amount of canceled debt. The amount in box 2 of Form 1099-C may represent some or all of the debt that has been canceled or treated as canceled. The amount in box 2 will include principal and may include interest and other nonprincipal amounts (such as fees or penalties). Unless you meet one of the exceptions or exclusions discussed later, the amount of the debt that has been canceled is ordinary income and must be reported on the appropriate form as discussed earlier.

Interest included in canceled debt. If any interest is included in the amount of canceled debt in box 2, it will be shown in box 3. Whether the interest portion of the canceled debt must be included in your income depends on whether the interest would be deductible if you paid it. See Deductible Debt under Exceptions, later.

Persons who each receive a Form 1099-C showing the full amount of debt. If you and another person were jointly and severally liable for a canceled debt, each of you may get a Form 1099-C showing the entire amount of the canceled debt. However, you may not have to report that entire amount as income. The amount, if any, you must report depends on all the facts and circumstances, including:

- · State law.
- The amount of debt proceeds each person received
- How much of any interest deduction from the debt was claimed by each person,
- How much of the basis of any co-owned property bought with the debt proceeds was allocated to each co-owner, and
- Whether the canceled debt qualifies for any of the exceptions or exclusions described in this publication.

See Example 3 under Insolvency, later.

Discounts and Loan Modifications

If a lender discounts (reduces) the principal balance of a loan because you pay it off early, or agrees to a loan modification (a "workout") that includes a reduction in the principal balance of a loan, the amount of the discount or the amount of principal reduction is canceled debt. However, if the debt is nonrecourse and you didn't retain the collateral, you don't have cancellation of debt income. The amount of the canceled debt must be included in income unless one of the exceptions or exclusions described later applies. For more details, see Exceptions and Exclusions, later.

Sales or Other Dispositions (Such as Foreclosures and Repossessions)

Recourse debt. If you owned property that was subject to a recourse debt in excess of the FMV of the property, the lender's foreclosure or repossession of the property is treated as a sale or disposition of the property by you and may result in your realization of gain or loss. The gain or loss on the disposition of the property is measured by the difference between the FMV of the property at the time of the disposition and your adjusted basis (usually your cost) in the property. The character of the gain or loss (such as ordinary or capital) is determined by the character of the property. If the lender forgives all or part of the amount of the debt in excess of the FMV of the property, the cancellation of the excess debt may result in ordinary income. The ordinary income from the cancellation of debt (the excess of the canceled debt over the FMV of the property) must be included in your gross income reported on your tax return unless one of the exceptions or exclusions described later applies. For more details, see Exceptions and Exclusions, later.

Nonrecourse debt. If you owned property that was subject to a nonrecourse debt in excess of the FMV of the property, the lender's foreclosure on the property doesn't result in ordinary income from the cancellation of debt. The entire amount of the nonrecourse debt is treated as an amount realized on the disposition of the property. The gain or loss on the disposition of the property is measured by the difference between the total amount realized (the entire amount of the nonrecourse debt plus the amount of cash and the FMV of any property received) and your adjusted basis in the property. The character of the gain or loss is determined by the character of the property.

More information. See chapter 2 of this publication and Pubs. 523, 544, and 551 for more details.

Abandonments

Recourse debt. If you abandon property that secures a debt for which you are personally liable (recourse debt) and the debt is canceled, you will realize ordinary income equal to the canceled debt. You must report this income on your tax return unless one of the exceptions or exclusions described later applies. For more details, see Exceptions and Exceptions, later. This income is separate from any amount realized from the abandonment of the property. For more details, see Chapter 3.

Nonrecourse debt. If you abandon property that secures a debt for which you aren't personally liable (nonrecourse debt), you may realize gain or loss but won't have cancellation of indebtedness income.

Stockholder Debt

If you are a stockholder in a corporation and the corporation cancels or forgives your debt to it, the canceled debt is a constructive distribution. For more information, see Pub. 542, Corporations

Exceptions

There are several exceptions to the requirement that you include canceled debt in income. These exceptions apply before the exclusions discussed later and don't require you to reduce your tax attributes.

Gifts, Bequests, Devises, and Inheritances

In most cases, you don't have income from canceled debt if the debt is canceled as a gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance.

Student Loans

Certain student loans provide that all or part of the debt incurred to attend a qualified educational institution will be canceled if the person who received the loan works for a certain period of time in certain professions for any of a broad class of employers.

If your student loan is canceled as the result of this type of provision, the cancellation of this debt isn't included in your gross income. To qualify for this treatment, the loan must have been made by:

- The Federal Government, a state or local government, or an instrumentality, agency, or subdivision of one of those govern-
- A tax-exempt public benefit corporation that has assumed control of a state, county, or municipal hospital, and whose employees are considered public employees under state law, or
- 3. An educational institution (defined later):
 - Under an agreement with an entity described in (1) or (2) that provided the funds to the institution to make the loan, or
 - As part of a program of the institution designed to encourage students to serve in occupations or areas with unmet needs and under which the services provided are for or under the direction of a governmental unit or a tax-exempt section 501(c)(3) organization (defined later).

A loan to refinance a qualified student loan also will qualify if it was made by an educational institution or a tax-exempt section 501(a) organization under its program designed as described in (3)(b).

Publication 4681 (2015)

Exception. Generally, the cancellation of a student loan made by an educational institution because of services you performed for that institution or another organization that provided funds for the loan must be included in the gross income on your tax return.

Education loan repayment assistance. Education loan repayments made to you by the National Health Service Corps Loan Repayment Program or a state education loan repayment program eligible for funds under the Public Health Service Act aren't taxable if you agree to provide primary health services in health professional shortage areas.

Amounts you received after 2008 under any other state loan repayment or loan forgiveness program also aren't taxable. The program must be intended to increase the availability of health care services in underserved areas or areas with a shortage of health professionals.

Educational Institution. An educational institution is an organization with a regular faculty and curriculum and a regularly enrolled body of students in attendance at the place where the educational activities are carried on.

Section 501(c)(3) organization. A section 501(c)(3) organization is a tax-exempt corporation, community chest, fund, or foundation organized and operated exclusively for one or more of the following purposes.

- · Charitable.
- · Educational.
- Fostering national or international amateur sports competition (but only if none of the organization's activities involve providing athletic facilities or equipment).
- Literary.
- · Preventing cruelty to children or animals.
- · Religious.
- · Scientific.
- Testing for public safety.

Deductible Debt

If you use the cash method of accounting, you don't realize income from the cancellation of debt if the payment of the debt would have been a deductible expense. This exception applies before the price reduction exception discussed next.

Example. In December 2014, you get accounting services for your farm on credit. In early 2015, you have trouble paying your farm debts and your accountant forgives part of the amount you owe for the accounting services. How you treat the canceled debt depends on your method of accounting.

- Cash method, You don't include the canceled debt in income because payment of the debt would have been deductible as a business expense in 2015.
- Accrual method. Unless another exception or exclusion applies, you must include the canceled debt in ordinary income because the expense was deductible in 2014 when you incurred the debt.

Price Reduced After Purchase

If debt you owe the seller for the purchase of property is reduced by the seller at a time when you aren't insolvent and the reduction doesn't occur in a title 11 bankruptcy case, the reduction doesn't result in cancellation of debt income. However, you must reduce your basis in the property by the amount of the reduction of your debt to the seller. The rules that apply to bankruptcy and insolvency are explained in Exclusions, later.

Home Affordable Modification Program

Pay-for-Performance Success Payments and PRA investor incentive payments that reduce the principal balance of your home mortgage under the Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP) are generally not taxable.

However, reductions of the principal balance of your home mortgage under HAMP's Principal Reduction Alternative may be taxable as cancellation of debt income. You may be able to recognize this income over a 3-year period. For more information, see www.irs.gov/ uac/Principal-Reduction-Alternative-Under-the-Home-Affordable-Modification-Program Revenue Procedure 2013-16, available at www.irs.gov/irb/2013-07_IRB/ar09.html.

Exclusions

After you have applied any exceptions to the general rule that a canceled debt is included in your income, there are several reasons why you might still be able to exclude a canceled debt from your income. These exclusions are explained next, If a canceled debt is excluded from your income, it is nontaxable. In most cases, however, if you exclude canceled debt from income under one of these provisions, you must also reduce your tax attributes (certain credits, losses, and basis of assets) as explained later under Reduction of Tax Attributes.

Reacquisition of business debt.

If you elected to defer and ratably include income from the cancellation of business debt arising from the reacquisition of certain business debt in 2009 and/or 2010, you must include the second portion of the deferred debt in gross income on your 2015 return.

Bankruptcy

Debt canceled in a title 11 bankruptcy case isn't included in your income. A title 11 bankruptcy case is a case under title 11 of the United States Code (including all chapters in title 11 such as chapters 7, 11, and 13), but only if the debtor is under the jurisdiction of the court and the cancellation of the debt is granted by the court or occurs as a result of a plan approved by the court.

How to report the bankruptcy exclusion. To show that your debt was canceled in a bankruptcy case and is excluded from income, attach Form 982 to your federal income tax return and check the box on line 1a. Lines 1b through 1e don't apply to a cancellation that occurs in a title 11 bankruptcy case. Enter the total amount of debt canceled in your title 11 bankruptcy case on line 2. You must also reduce your tax attributes in Part II of Form 982 as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later.

Insolvency

Don't include a canceled debt in income to the extent that you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation. You were insolvent immediately before the cancellation to the extent that the total of all of your liabilities was more than the FMV of all of your assets immediately before the cancellation. For purposes of determining insolvency, assets include the value of everything you own (including assets that serve as collateral for debt and exempt assets which are beyond the reach of your creditors under the law, such as your interest in a pension plan and the value of your retirement account). Liabilities include:

- · The entire amount of recourse debts,
- The amount of nonrecourse debt that isn't in excess of the FMV of the property that is security for the debt, and
- The amount of nonrecourse debt in excess of the FMV of the property subject to the nonrecourse debt to the extent nonrecourse debt in excess of the FMV of the property subject to the debt is forgiven.

You can use the Insolvency Worksheet, to help calculate the extent that you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation.

Note. This exclusion doesn't apply to a cancellation of debt that occurs in a title 11 bankruptcy case. It also doesn't apply if the debt is qualified principal residence indebtedness (defined in this section under Qualified Principal Residence Indebtedness, later) unless you elect to apply the insolvency exclusion instead of the qualified principal residence indebtedness exclusion.

How to report the insolvency exclusion. To show that you are excluding canceled debt from income under the insolvency exclusion, attach Form 982 to your federal income tax return and check the box on line 1b. On line 2, include the smaller of the amount of the debt canceled or the amount by which you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation. You can use the Insolvency Worksheet, later, to help calculate the extent that you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation. You must also reduce your tax attributes in Part II of Form 982 as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later.

Example 1-amount of insolvency more than canceled debt. In 2015, Greg was released from his obligation to pay his personal credit card debt in the amount of $5,000. Greg received a 2015 Form 1099-C from his credit card lender showing the entire amount of discharged debt of $5,000 in box 2. None of the exceptions to the general rule that canceled debt is included in income apply. Greg uses the Insolvency Worksheet to determine that his total liabilities immediately before the cancellation were $15,000 and the FMV of his total assets immediately before the cancellation was $7,000. This means that immediately before the cancellation, Greg was insolvent to the extent of $8,000 ($15,000 total liabilities minus $7,000 FMV of his total assets). Because the amount by which Greg was insolvent immediately before the cancellation was more than the amount of his debt canceled, Greg can exclude the entire $5,000 canceled debt from income.

When completing his tax return, Greg checks the box on line 1b of Form 982 and enters $5,000 on line 2. Greg completes Part II to reduce his tax attributes as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later. Greg doesn't include any of the $5,000 canceled debt on line 21 of his Form 1040. None of the canceled debt is included in his income.

Example 2—amount of insolvency less than canceled debt. The facts are the same as in Example 1 except that Greg's total liabilities immediately before the cancellation were $10,000 and the FMV of his total assets immediately before the cancellation was $7,000. In this case, Greg is insolvent to the extent of $3,000 ($10,000 total liabilities minus $7,000 FMV of his total assets) immediately before the cancellation. Because the amount of the canceled debt was more than the amount by which Greg was insolvent immediately before the cancellation, Greg can exclude only $3,000 of the $5,000 canceled debt from income under the insolvency exclusion.

Greg checks the box on line 1b of Form 982 and includes $3,000 on line 2. Also, Greg completes Part II to reduce his tax attributes as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later. Additionally, Greg must include $2,000 of canceled debt on line 21 of his Form 1040 (unless another exclusion applies).

Example 3-joint debt and separate returns. In 2015, James and his wife Robin were released from their obligation to pay a debt of $10,000 for which they were jointly and severally liable. None of the exceptions to the general rule that canceled debt is included in income apply. They incurred the debt (originally $12,000) to finance James's purchase of a $9,000 motorcycle and Robin's purchase of a laptop computer and software for personal use for $3,000. They each received a 2015 Form 1099-C from the bank showing the entire canceled debt of $10,000 in box 2. Based on the use of the loan proceeds, they agreed that James was responsible for 75% of the debt and Robin was responsible for the remaining 25%. Therefore, James's share of the debt is $7,500 (75% of $10,000), and Robin's share is $2,500 (25% of $10,000). By completing the Insolvency Worksheet, James determines that, immediately before the cancellation of the debt, he was insolvent to the extent of $5,000 ($15,000 total liabilities minus $10,000 FMV of his total assets). He can exclude $5,000 of his $7,500 canceled debt. Robin completes a separate insolvency worksheet and determines she was insolvent to the extent of $4,000 ($9,000 total liabilities minus $5,000 FMV of her total assets). She can exclude her entire canceled debt of $2,500.

When completing his separate tax return, James checks the box on line 1b of Form 982 and enters $5,000 on line 2. He completes Part II to reduce his tax attributes as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later. He must include the remaining $2,500 ($7,500 – $5,000) of canceled debt on line 21 of his Form 1040 (unless another exclusion applies).

When completing her return, Robin checks the box on line 1b of Form 982 and enters $2,500 on line 2. She completes Part II to reduce her tax attributes as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later. She doesn't include any of the canceled debt on line 21 of her Form 1040. None of the canceled debt has to be included in her income.

Qualified Farm Indebtedness

You can exclude canceled farm debt from income on your 2015 return if all of the following apply.

- The debt was incurred directly in connection with your operation of the trade or business of farming.
- Fifty percent or more of your total gross receipts for 2012, 2013, and 2014 were from the trade or business of farming.
- The cancellation was made by a qualified person. A qualified person is an individual, organization, partnership, association, corporation, or other person, who is actively and regularly engaged in the business of lending money. A qualified person also includes any federal, state, or local government or agency or instrumentality of one of those governments. For example, the United States Department of Agriculture is a qualified person. A qualified person can't be related to you, can't be the person from whom you acquired the property (or a person related to this person), and can't be a person who receives a fee due to your investment in the property (or a person related to this person).

For the definition of the term "related person," see Related persons under At-Risk Amounts in Pub. 925, Passive Activity and At-Risk Rules.

Note. This exclusion doesn't apply to a cancellation of debt in a title 11 bankruptcy case or to the extent you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation. If qualified farm debt is canceled in a title 11 case, you must apply the bankruptcy exclusion rather than the exclusion for canceled qualified farm debt. If you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation of qualified farm debt, you must apply the insolvency exclusion before applying the exclusion for canceled qualified farm debt.

Exclusion limit. The amount of canceled qualified farm debt you can exclude from income under this exclusion is limited. It can't be more than the sum of:

- · Your adjusted tax attributes, and
- The total adjusted bases of qualified property you held at the beginning of 2016.

If you excluded canceled debt under the insolvency exclusion, the adjusted basis of any qualified property and adjusted tax attributes are determined after any reduction of tax attributes required under the insolvency exclusion.

Any canceled qualified farm debt that is more than this limit must be included in your income.

For more information about the basis of property, see Pub. 551, Basis of Assets.

Adjusted tax attributes. Adjusted tax attributes means the sum of the following items.

- Any net operating loss (NOL) for 2015 and any NOL carryover to 2015.
- Any net capital loss for 2015 and any capital loss carryover to 2015.
- Any passive activity loss carryover from 2015.
- 4. Three times the sum of any:
 - General business credit carryover to or from 2015,
 - b. Minimum tax credit available as of the beginning of 2016,
 - Foreign tax credit carryover to or from 2015, and
 - d. Passive activity credit carryover from 2015.

Qualified property. This is any property you use or hold for use in your trade or business or for the production of income.

How to report the qualified farm indebtedness exclusion. To show that all or part of your canceled debt is excluded from income because it is qualified farm debt, check the box on line 1c of Form 982 and attach it to your Form 1040. On line 2 of Form 982, include the amount of the qualified farm debt canceled, but not more than the exclusion limit (explained earlier). You must also reduce your tax attributes in Part II of Form 982 as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later.

Example 1. In 2015, Chuck was released from his obligation to pay a $10,000 debt that was incurred directly in connection with his trade or business of farming. Chuck received a Form 1099-C from the qualified lender showing discharged debt of $10,000 in box 2. For his 2012, 2013, and 2014 tax years, at least 50% of Chuck's total gross receipts were from the trade or business of farming. Chuck's adjusted tax attributes are $5,000 and Chuck has $3,000 total adjusted bases in qualified property at the beginning of 2016. Chuck had no other debt canceled during 2015 and no other exception or exclusion relating to canceled debt income applies.

Chuck can exclude $8,000 ($5,000 of adjusted tax attributes plus $3,000 total adjusted bases in qualified property at the beginning of 2016) of the $10,000 canceled debt from income. Chuck checks the box on line 1c of Form 982 and enters $8,000 on line 2. Also, Chuck completes Part II to reduce his tax attributes as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later. The remaining $2,000 of canceled qualified farm debt is included in Chuck's income on Schedule F, line 8.

Example 2. On March 2, 2015, Bob was released from his obligation to pay a $10,000 business credit card debt that was used directly in connection with his farming business. For his 2012, 2013, and 2014 tax years, at least 50% of Bob's total gross receipts were from the trade or business of farming. Bob received a 2015 Form 1099-C from the qualified lender showing discharged debt of $10,000 in box 2. The FMV of Bob's total assets on March 2, 2015 (immediately before the cancellation of the credit card debt), was $7,000 and Bob's total fiabilities at that time were $11,000. Bob's adjusted tax attributes (a 2015 NOL) are $7,000 and Bob has $4,000 total adjusted bases in qualified property at the beginning of 2016.

Bob qualifies to exclude $4,000 of the canceled debt under the insolvency exclusion because he is insolvent to the extent of $4,000 immediately before the cancellation ($11,000 total liabilities minus $7,000 FMV of total assets). Bob must reduce his tax attributes under the insolvency rules before applying the rules for qualified farm debt.

Bob also qualifies to exclude the remaining $6,000 of canceled qualified farm debt. The limit on Bob's exclusion from income of canceled qualified farm debt is $7,000, the sum of his adjusted tax attributes of $3,000 (the $7,000 NOL minus the $4,000 reduction of tax attributes required because of the $4,000 exclusion of canceled debt under the insolvency exclusion) plus $4,000 (Bob's total adjusted bases in qualified property at the beginning of 2016).

Bob checks the boxes on lines 1b and 1c of Form 982 and enters $10,000 on line 2. Bob completes Part II to reduce his tax attributes as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later. Bob doesn't include any of his canceled debt in income.

Example 3. The facts are the same as in Example 2 except that immediately before the cancellation Bob was insolvent to the extent of the full $10,000 canceled debt. Because the exclusion for qualified farm debt doesn't apply to the extent that Bob was insolvent immediately before the cancellation, he checks only the box on line 1b of Form 982 and enters $10,000 on line 2. Bob completes Part II to reduce his tax attributes based on the insolvency exclusion as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later. Bob doesn't include any of the canceled debt in income.

Qualified Real Property Business Indebtedness

You can elect to exclude canceled qualified real property business indebtedness from income. Qualified real property business indebtedness is debt (other than qualified farm debt) that meets all of the following conditions.

- It was incurred or assumed in connection with real property used in a trade or business
- It is secured by that real property. As long as certain other requirements are met, indebtedness that is secured by 100% of the ownership interest in a disregarded entity holding real property will be treated as indebtedness that is secured by real property. For more information, and for the requirements that must be met, see Revenue Procedure 2014-20 available at www.irs.gov/irb/2014-9 IRB/ar09.html.

- 3. It was incurred or assumed:
 - a. Before 1993, or
 - b. After 1992, if the debt is either (i) qualified acquisition indebtedness (defined next), or (ii) debt incurred to refinance qualified real property business debt incurred or assumed before 1993 (but only to the extent the amount of such debt doesn't exceed the amount of debt being refinanced).
- It is debt to which you elect to apply these rules.

Residential rental property generally qualifies as real property used in a trade or business unless you also use the dwelling as a home. For more information, see Dwelling Unit Used as a Home in Pub. 527.

Definition of qualified acquisition indebtedness. Qualified acquisition indebtedness is:

- Debt incurred or assumed to acquire, construct, reconstruct, or substantially improve real property that is used in a trade or business and secures the debt, or
- Debt resulting from the refinancing of qualified acquisition indebtedness, to the extent the amount of the debt doesn't exceed the amount of debt being refinanced.

Note. This exclusion doesn't apply to a cancellation of debt in a title 11 bankruptcy case or to the extent you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation. If qualified real property business debt is canceled in a title 11 bankruptcy case, you must apply the bankruptcy exclusion rather than the exclusion for canceled qualified real property business debt. If you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation of qualified real property business debt, you must apply the insolvency exclusion before applying the exclusion for canceled qualified real property business debt.

Exclusion limit. The amount of canceled qualified real property business debt you can exclude from income under this exclusion is limited to the excess (if any) of:

- The outstanding principal amount of the qualified real property business debt (immediately before the cancellation), over
- The FMV (immediately before the cancellation) of the business real property securing the debt, reduced by the outstanding principal amount of any other qualified real property business debt secured by that property (immediately before the cancellation).

In addition to this limit, a second overall limit applies. The amount of canceled qualified real property business debt you can exclude from income can't be more than the total adjusted bases of depreciable real property you held immediately before the cancellation of the qualified real property business indebtedness (other than depreciable real property acquired in contemplation of the cancellation). When figuring this overall limit, use the adjusted basis of the depreciable real property after any reductions in basis required because of the exclusion of debt canceled under the bankruptcy, insolvency, or farm debt provisions described in this publication.

For more information about the basis of property, see Pub. 551.

How to elect the qualified real property business debt exclusion. You must make an election to exclude canceled qualified real property business debt from gross income. The election must be made on a timely filed (including extensions) federal income tax return for 2015 and can be revoked only with IRS consent. The election is made by completing Form 982 in accordance with its instructions. Attach Form 982 to your federal income tax return for 2015 and check the box on line 1d. Include the amount of canceled qualified real property business debt (but not more than the amount of the exclusion limit, explained earlier) on line 2 of Form 982. You must also reduce your tax attributes in Part II of Form 982 as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later.

If you timely filed your tax return without making this election, you can still make the election by filing an amended return within 6 months of the due date of the return (excluding extensions). Enter "Filed pursuant to section 301.9100-2" on the amended return and file it at the same place you filed the original return.

Example. In 2009, Curt bought a retail store for use in a business he operated as a sole proprietorship. Curt made a $20,000 down payment and financed the remaining $200,000 of the purchase price with a bank loan. The bank loan was a recourse loan and was secured by the property. Curt used the property in his business continuously since he bought it. He had no other debt secured by that depreciable real property. In addition to the retail store, Curt owned depreciable equipment and furniture with an adjusted basis of $50,000.

Curt's business encountered financial difficulties in 2015. On September 25, 2015, the bank financing the retail store loan entered into a workout agreement with Curt under which it canceled $20,000 of the debt. Immediately before the cancellation, the outstanding principal balance on the retail store loan was $185,000, the FMV of the store was $165,000, and the adjusted basis was $210,000 ($220,000 cost minus $10,000 accumulated depreciation).

The bank sent him a 2015 Form 1099-C showing discharged debt of $20,000 in box 2. Curt had no tax attributes other than basis to reduce and didn't qualify for any exception or exclusion other than the qualified real property business debt exclusion.

Curt elects to apply the qualified real property business debt exclusion to the canceled debt. The amount of canceled qualified real property business debt that he can exclude from income is limited to $20,000 (the excess of the $185,000 outstanding principal amount of his qualified real property business debt immediately before the cancellation over the $165,000 FMV of the business real property securing the debt). Curt's exclusion is also subject

Curt must also use line 4 of Form 982 to reduce his basis in depreciable real property by the $20,000 of canceled qualified real property business debt excluded from his income as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, later.

Qualified Principal Residence Indebtedness

You can exclude canceled debt from income if it is qualified principal residence indebtedness. Qualified principal residence indebtedness is any mortgage you took out to buy, build, or substantially improve your main home. It also must be secured by your main home. Qualified principal residence indebtedness also includes any debt secured by your main home that you used to refinance a mortgage you took out to buy, build, or substantially improve your main home, but only up to the amount of the old mortgage principal just before the refinancing.

Example 1. In 2009, Becky bought a main home for $315,000. She took out a $300,000 mortgage loan to buy the home and made a down payment of $15,000. The loan was secured by the home. In 2010, Becky took out a second mortgage loan in the amount of $50,000 that she used to add a garage to her home

In 2015, when the outstanding principal of her first and second mortgage loans was $325,000, Becky refinanced the two loans into one loan in the amount of $400,000. The FMV of the home at the time of the refinancing was $430,000. She used the additional $75,000 debt proceeds ($400,000 new mortgage loan minus $325,000 outstanding principal balances of her first and second mortgage loans immediately before the refinancing) to pay off personal credit cards and to pay college tuition for her daughter.

After the refinancing, Becky's qualified principal residence indebtedness is $325,000 because the debt resulting from the refinancing is qualified principal residence indebtedness only to the extent it isn't more than the old mortgage principal just before the refinancing.

Example 2. In 2012, Steve acquired his main home for $200,000, subject to a mortgage of $175,000. In 2013, he took out a home equity loan for $10,000, secured by his main home, which he used to pay off personal credit cards.

In 2014, when the outstanding principal on his mortgage was $170,000 and the outstanding principal on his home equity loan was $9,000, he refinanced the two loans into one loan in the amount of $200,000. The FMV of the home at the time of refinancing was $210,000. He used the additional $21,000 ($200,000 new mortgage loan minus $179,000 outstanding principal balances on the mortgage and home equity loan) to cover medical expenses.

After refinancing, Steve's qualified principal residence indebtedness is $170,000 because the debt resulting from the refinancing is qualified principal residence indebtedness only to the extent it refinances debt that had been secured by the main home and was used to buy, build, or substantially improve the main home.

Main home. Your main home is the one in which you live most of the time. You can have only one main home at any one time.

Note. This exclusion doesn't apply to a cancellation of debt in a title 11 bankruptcy case. If qualified principal residence indebtedness is canceled in a title 11 bankruptcy case, you must apply the bankruptcy exclusion rather than the exclusion for qualified principal residence indebtedness. If you were insolvent immediately before the cancellation, you can elect to apply the insolvency exclusion (as explained under Insolvency, earlier) instead of applying the qualified principal residence indebtedness exclusion. To do this, check the box on line 1b of Form 982 instead of the box on line 1e.

Exclusion limit. The maximum amount you can treat as qualified principal residence indebtedness is $2 million ($1 million if married filing separately). You can't exclude canceled qualified principal residence indebtedness from income if the cancellation was for services performed for the lender or on account of any other factor not directly related to a decline in the value of your home or to your financial condition

Ordering rule. If only a part of a loan is qualified principal residence indebtedness, the exclusion applies only to the extent the amount canceled is more than the amount of the loan (immediately before the cancellation) that is not qualified principal residence indebtedness. The remaining part of the loan may qualify for another exclusion.

Example. Ken incurred recourse debt of $800,000 when he bought his main home for $880,000. When the FMV of the property was $1,000,000, Ken refinanced the debt for $850,000. At the time of the refinancing, the principal balance of the original mortgage loan was $740,000. Ken used the $110,000 he obtained from the refinancing ($850,000 minus $740,000) to pay off his credit cards and to buy a new car.

About 2 years after the refinancing, Ken lost his job and was unable to get another job paying a comparable salary. Ken's home had declined in value to between $700,000 and $750,000. Based on Ken's circumstances, the lender agreed to allow a short sale of the property for $735,000 and to cancel the remaining $115,000 of the $850,000 debt. Under the ordering rule. Ken can exclude only $5,000 of the canceled debt from his income under the exclusion for canceled qualified principal residence indebtedness ($115,000 canceled debt minus the $110,000 amount of the debt that wasn't qualified principal residence indebtedness). Ken must include the remaining $110,000 of canceled debt in income on line 21 of his Form 1040 (unless another exclusion applies).

How to report the qualified principal residence indebtedness exclusion. To show that all or part of your canceled debt is excluded from income because it is qualified principal residence indebtedness, attach Form 982 to your federal income tax return and check the box on line 1e. On line 2 of Form 982, include the amount of canceled qualified principal residence indebtedness, but not more than the amount of the exclusion limit (explained earlier). If you continue to own your home after a cancelation of qualified principal residence indebtedness, you must reduce your basis in the home as explained under Reduction of Tax Attributes, next.

Reduction of Tax Attributes

If you exclude canceled debt from income, you must reduce certain tax attributes (but not below zero) by the amount excluded. Use Part II of Form 982 to reduce your tax attributes. The order in which the tax attributes are reduced depends on the reason the canceled debt was excluded from income. If the total amount of canceled debt excluded from income (line 2 of Form 982) was more than your total tax attributes, the total reduction of tax attributes in Part II of Form 982 will be less than the amount on line 2.

Qualified Principal Residence Indebtedness

If you exclude canceled qualified principal residence indebtedness from income and you continue to own the home after the cancellation, you must reduce the basis of the home (but not below zero) by the amount of the canceled qualified principal residence indebtedness excluded from income. Enter the amount of the basis reduction on line 10b of Form 982,

For more details on determining the basis of your main home, see Pub. 523, Selling Your Home.

Bankruptcy and Insolvency

No tax attributes other than basis of personal-use property. If the canceled debt you are excluding isn't qualified principal residence indebtedness and you have no tax attributes other than the adjusted basis of personal-use property (see the list of seven tax attributes, later), you must reduce the basis of the personal-use property you held at the beginning of 2016 (in proportion to adjusted basis). Personal-use property is any property that isn't used in your trade or business nor held for investment (such as your home, home furnishings, and car). Include on line 10a of Form 982 the smallest of:

- The bases of your personal-use property held at the beginning of 2016,
- The amount of canceled nonbusiness debt (other than qualified principal residence indebtedness) that you are excluding from income on line 2 of Form 982, or
- The excess of the total bases of the property and the amount of money you held immediately after the cancellation over your total liabilities immediately after the cancellation.

For general information about the basis of property, see Pub. 551.

Example. In 2013, Mya bought a car for personal use. The cost of the car was $12,000. Mya put down $2,000 and took out a loan of $10,000 to buy the car. The loan was a recourse loan, meaning that Mya was personally liable for the full amount of the debt.

On December 7, 2015, when the balance of the loan was $8,500, the lender repossessed and sold the car because Mya had stopped making payments on the loan. The FMV of the car was $7,000 at the time the lender repossessed and sold it. The lender applied the $7,000 it received on the sale of the car against Mya's loan and forgave the remaining loan balance of $1,500 ($8,500 outstanding balance immediately before the repossession minus the $7,000 FMV of the car).

Mya's only other assets at the time of the cancellation are the furniture in her apartment which has a basis of $5,000 and an FMV of $3,000, jewelry with a basis of $500 and an FMV of $1,000, and a $600 balance in her savings account. Thus, the FMV of Mya's total assets immediately before the cancellation was $11,600 ($7,000 car plus $3,000 furniture plus $1,000 jewelry plus $600 savings). Mya also had an outstanding student loan balance of $6,000 immediately before the cancellation, bringing her total liabilities at that time to $14,500 ($8,500 balance on car loan plus $6,000 student loan balance). Other than the car, which was repossessed, Mya held all of these assets at the beginning of 2016. The FMV and bases of the assets remained the same at the beginning of 2016.

Mya received a 2015 Form 1099-C showing $1,500 in box 2 (amount of debt that was canceled) and $7,000 in box 7 (FMV of the property). Mya can exclude all $1,500 of canceled debt from income because at the time of the cancellation, she was insolvent to the extent of $2,900 ($14,500 of total liabilities immediately before the cancellation minus $11,600 FMV of total assets at that time).

Mya checks box 1b on Form 982 and enters $1,500 on line 2. She enters $100 on line 10a, the smallest of:

- The $5,500 bases of her personal-use property held at the beginning of 2016 ($5,000 furniture plus $500 jewelry),
- The $1,500 nonbusiness debt she is excluding from income on line 2 of Form 982, or
- The $100 excess of the total bases of the properly and the amount of money Mya held immediately after the cancellation over her total liabilities at that time ($5,500 bases of property held immediately after the cancellation plus $600 savings minus $6,000 student loan).

Mya must reduce her bases in each item of property in proportion to her total adjusted bases in all her property. Thus, she reduces her basis in the furniture by $91 ($100 \times $5,000/$5,500) and her basis in the jewelry by $9 ($100 \times $500/$5,500).

All other tax attributes. If the canceled debt is excluded by reason of the bankruptcy or insolvency exclusions, you must use the excluded debt to reduce the following tax attributes (but not below zero) in the order listed unless you elect to reduce the basis of depreciable property first, as explained later. Reduce your tax attributes after you figure your income tax liability for 2015.

- Net operating loss (NOL). First reduce any 2015 NOL and then reduce any NOL carryover to 2015 (after taking into account any amount used to reduce 2015 taxable income) in the order of the tax years from which the carryovers arose, starting with the earliest year. Reduce the NOL or carryover by one dollar for each dollar of excluded canceled debt.
- General business credit carryover. Reduce the credit carryover to or from 2015.
 Reduce the credit carryovers to 2015 in the order in which they are taken into account for 2015. For more information on the credit ordering rules for 2015, see the Instructions for Form 3800, General Business Credit. Reduce the carryover by 33% cents for each dollar of excluded canceled debt.
- Minimum tax credit. Reduce the minimum tax credit available at the beginning of 2016. Reduce the credit by 33% cents for each dollar of excluded canceled debt.
- 4. Net capital loss and capital loss carryovers. First reduce any 2015 net capital loss and then any capital loss carryover to 2015 (after taking into account any amount used to reduce 2015 taxable income) in the order of the tax years from which the carryovers arose, starting with the earliest year. Reduce the net capital loss or carryover by one dollar for each dollar of excluded canceled debt.
- Basis. Reduce the bases of the property you hold at the beginning of 2016 in the following order (and, within each category, in proportion to adjusted basis).
 - Real property used in your trade or business or held for investment (other than real property held for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business) if it secured the canceled debt.
 - Personal property used in your trade or business or held for investment (other than inventory and accounts and notes receivable) if it secured the canceled debt.
 - c. Any other property used in your trade or business or held for investment (other than inventory, accounts receivable, notes receivable, and real property held for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business).
 - Inventory, accounts receivable, notes receivable, and real property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business.
 - e. Personal-use property (property not used in your trade or business nor held for investment).

Reduce the basis by one dollar for each dollar of excluded canceled debt. However, the reduction can't be more than the excess of the total bases of the property and the amount of money you held immediately after the debt cancellation over your total liabilities immediately after the cancellation.

For allocation rules that apply to basis reductions for multiple canceled debts, see Regulations section 1.1017-1(b)(2). Also see Election to reduce the basis of depreciable property before reducing other tax attributes, later.

- Passive activity loss and credit carryovers. Reduce the passive activity loss and credit carryovers from 2015. Reduce the loss carryover by one dollar for each dollar of excluded canceled debt. Reduce the credit carryover by 33½ cents for each dollar of excluded canceled debt.
- Foreign tax credit. Reduce the credit carryover to or from 2015. Reduce the credit carryovers to 2015 in the order in which they are taken into account for 2015. Reduce the carryover by 33½ cents for each dollar of excluded canceled debt.

Election to reduce the basis of depreciable property before reducing other tax attributes. You can elect to reduce the bases of depreciable property you held at the beginning of 2016 before reducing other tax attributes. You can reduce the basis of this property by all or part of the canceled debt. Basis of property is reduced in the following order.

- Depreciable real property used in your trade or business or held for investment that secured the canceled debt.
- Depreciable personal property used in your trade or business or held for investment that secured the canceled debt.
- Other depreciable property used in your trade or business or held for investment,
- Real property held primarily for sale to customers if you elect to treat it as if it were depreciable property on Form 982.

Basis reduction is limited to the total adjusted bases of all your depreciable property. Depreciable property for this purpose means any property subject to depreciation or amortization, but only if a reduction of basis will reduce the depreciation or amortization otherwise allowable for the period immediately following the basis reduction. If the amount of canceled debt excluded from income is more than the total bases in depreciable property, you must use the excess to reduce the other tax attributes in the order described earlier under All other tax attributes. In figuring the limit on the basis reduction in (5), Basis, use the remaining adjusted bases of your properties after making this election. See Form 982 for information on how to make this election. The election can be revoked only with IRS consent.

Recapture of basis reductions. If you reduce the basis of property under these provisions and later sell or otherwise dispose of the property at a gain, the part of the gain due to this basis reduction is taxable as ordinary income under the depreciation recapture provisions. Treat any property that isn't section 1245 or section 1250 property as section 1245 property. For section 1250 property, determine the depreciation adjustments that would have resulted under the straight line method as if there were no basis reduction for debt cancellation. See Pub. 544 or Pub. 225, Farmer's Tax Guide, for more details on sections 1245 and 1250 property and the recapture of gain as ordinary income.

Qualified Farm Indebtedness

If you exclude canceled debt from income under both the insolvency exclusion and the exclusion for qualified farm indebtedness, you must first reduce your tax attributes by the amount excluded under the insolvency exclusion. Then reduce your remaining tax attributes (but not below zero) by the amount of canceled debt that qualifies for the farm debt exclusion.

In most cases, when reducing your tax attributes for canceled qualified farm indebtedness excluded from income, reduce them in the same order explained under Bankruptcy and Insolvency, earlier. However, don't follow the rules in item (5), Basis. Instead, reduce only the basis of qualified property. Qualified property is any property you use or hold for use in your trade or business or for the production of income. Reduce the basis of qualified property in the following order.

- Depreciable qualified property. You can elect on Form 982 to treat real property held primarily for sale to customers as if it were depreciable property.
- Land that is qualified property and is used or held for use in your farming business.
- 3. Other qualified property.

Qualified Real Property Business Indebtedness

If you make an election to exclude canceled qualified real property business debt from income, you must reduce the basis of your depreciable real property (but not below zero) by the amount of canceled qualified real property business debt excluded from income. The basis reduction is made at the beginning of 2016. However, if you dispose of your depreciable real property before the beginning of 2016, you must reduce its basis (but not below zero) immediately before the disposition. Enter the amount of the basis reduction on line 4 of Form 982.

Example 1. In 2010, Curt bought a retail store for use in a business he operated as a sole proprietorship. Curt made a $20,000 down payment and financed the remaining $200,000 of the purchase price with a bank loan. The bank loan was a recourse loan and was secured by the property. He used the property in his business continuously since he bought it and had no other debt secured by that depreciable real property. In addition to the retail store, Curt owned depreciable equipment and furniture with an adjusted basis of $50,000. His tax attributes included the basis of depreciable property, a net operating loss, and a capital loss carryover to 2015.

Curt's business encountered financial difficulties in 2015. On September 25, 2015, the bank financing the retail store loan entered into a workout agreement with him under which it canceled $20,000 of the principal amount of the debt. Immediately before the bank entered into the workout agreement, he was insolvent to the extent of $12,000. At that time, the outstanding principal balance on the retail store loan was $185,000, the FMV of the store was $165,000, and the adjusted basis was $210,000 ($220,000 cost minus $10,000 accumulated depreciation). The bank sent him a 2015 Form 1099-C showing canceled debt of $20,000 in box 2.

Curt must apply the insolvency exclusion before applying the exclusion for canceled qualified real property business indebtedness. Under the insolvency exclusion rules, he can exclude $12,000 of the canceled debt from income. Curt elects to reduce his basis of depreciable property before reducing other tax attributes. Under that election, he must first reduce his basis in the depreciable real property used in his trade or business that secured the canceled debt. After the basis reduction, his adjusted basis in that property is $198,000 ($210,000 adjusted basis before entering into the workout agreement minus $12,000 of canceled debt excluded from income under the insolvency exclusion).

Curt may be able to exclude the remaining $8,000 of canceled debt from income under the exclusion for qualified real property business indebtedness, if he elects to apply it. The amount he can exclude is subject to both the following limits.

- The excess, if any, of the outstanding principal amount of the qualified real property business indebtedness (immediately before the cancellation) over the FMV (immediately before the cancellation) of the real property securing the debt ($185,000 minus $165,000, which equals $20,000).
- The total adjusted basis (determined after reduction for the canceled debt excluded under the insolvency exclusion) of depreciable real property he held immediately before the cancellation ($198,000).

Since both limits are more than the $8,000 of remaining canceled debt ($20,000 minus $12,000), Curt can exclude $8,000 under the qualified real property business indebtedness exclusion.

Curt checks the boxes on lines 1b and 1d of Form 982. He completes Part II of Form 982 to reduce his basis in the depreciable real property by $20,000, the amount of the canceled debt excluded from income. He enters $8,000 on line 4 and $12,000 on line 5.

Example 2. Bob owns depreciable real property used in his retail business. His adjusted basis in the property is $145,000. The FMV of the property is $120,000. The property is subject to $134,000 of recourse debt which is secured by the property. Bob had no other debt secured by that depreciable real property. Bob also had a $15,000 NOL in 2015.

During 2015, Bob entered into a workout agreement with the lender under which the lender canceled $14,000 of the debt on the real property used in his business. Immediately before the cancellation, Bob was insolvent to the extent of $10,000. He excludes $10,000 of the canceled debt from income under the insolvency exclusion. As a result of that exclusion, he reduced his NOL by $10,000.

Bob may be able to exclude the remaining $4,000 of canceled debt from income under the qualified real property business indebtedness exclusion, if he elects to apply it. The amount he can exclude is subject to both of the following limits.

- The excess, if any, of the outstanding principal amount of the qualified real property business debt (immediately before the cancellation) over the FMV (immediately before the cancellation) of the business real property securing the debt (the excess of $134,000 over $120,000, which equals $14,000).
- The total adjusted bases of depreciable real property held immediately before the cancellation of debt ($145,000).

Since both limits ($14,000 and $145,000) are more than the remaining $4,000 of canceled debt, Bob can also exclude the remaining $4,000 of canceled debt.

Bob checks the boxes on lines 1b and 1d of Form 982 and enters $14,000 on line 2. Bob completes Part II of Form 982 to reduce his basis of depreciable real property and his 2015 NOL by entering $4,000 on line 4 and $10,000 on line 6. None of the canceled debt is included in his income.

Foreclosures and Repossessions

If you don't make payments you owe on a loan secured by property, the lender may foreclose on the loan or repossess the property. The foreclosure or repossession is treated as a sale from which you may realize gain or loss. This is true even if you voluntarily return the property to the lender. If the outstanding loan balance was more than the FMV of the property and the lender cancels all or part of the remaining loan balance, you also may realize ordinary income from the cancellation of debt. You must report this income on your return unless certain exceptions or exclusions apply. See chapter 1 for more details.

Borrower's gain or loss. You figure and report gain or loss from a foreclosure or repossession in the same way as gain or loss from a sale. The gain is the difference between the amount realized and your adjusted basis in the transferred property (amount realized minus adjusted basis). The loss is the difference between your adjusted basis in the transferred property and the amount realized (adjusted basis minus amount realized). For more information on figuring gain or loss from the sale of property, see Gain or Loss From Sales and Exchanges in Pub. 544.

You can use Table 1-1 to figure your ordinary income from the cancellation of debt and your gain or loss from a foreclosure or repossession.

Amount realized and ordinary income on a recourse debt. If you are personally liable for the debt, the amount realized on the foreclosure or repossession includes the smaller of:

- The outstanding debt immediately before the transfer reduced by any amount for which you remain personally liable immediately after the transfer, or
- The FMV of the transferred property.

The amount realized also includes any proceeds you received from the foreclosure sale. If the FMV of the transferred property is less than the total outstanding debt immediately before the transfer reduced by any amount for which you remain personally liable immediately after the transfer, the difference is ordinary income from the cancellation of debt. You must report this income on your return unless certain exceptions or exclusions apply. See chapter 1 for more details.

Example 1. Tara bought a new car for $15,000. She made a $2,000 downpayment and borrowed the remaining $13,000 from the dealer's credit company. Tara is personally liable for the loan (recourse debt) and the car is pledged as security for the loan. On August 1, 2015, the credit company repossessed the car because Tara had stopped making loan payments. The balance due after taking into account the payments Tara made was $10,000. The FMV of the car when it was repossessed was $9,000. On November 16, 2015, the credit company forgave the remaining $1,000 balance on the loan due to insufficient assets.

In this case, the amount Tara realizes is $9,000. This is the smaller of:

- The $10,000 outstanding debt immediately before the repossession reduced by the $1,000 for which she remains personally liable immediately after the repossession ($10,000 - $1,000 = $9,000), or
- The $9,000 FMV of the car.

Tara figures her gain or loss on the repossession by comparing the $9,000 amount realized with her $15,000 adjusted basis. She has a $6,000 nondeductible loss. After the cancellation of the remaining balance on the loan in November, Tara also has ordinary income from cancellation of debt in the amount of $1,000 (the remaining balance on the $10,000 loan after the $9,000 amount satisfied by the FMV of the repossessed car). Tara must report this $1,000 on her return unless one of the exceptions or exclusions described in chapter 1 ap-

Example 2. Lili paid $200,000 for her home. She made a $15,000 downpayment and borrowed the remaining $185,000 from a bank. Lili is personally liable for the mortgage loan and the house secures the loan. In 2015, the bank foreclosed on the mortgage because Lili stopped making payments. When the bank foreclosed the mortgage, the balance due was $180,000, the FMV of the house was $170,000, and Lili's adjusted basis was $175,000 due to a casualty loss she had deducted. At the time of the foreclosure, the bank forgave $2,000 of the $10,000 debt in excess of the FMV ($180,000 minus $170,000). She remained personally liable for the $8,000 balance.

In this case, Liti has ordinary income from the cancellation of debt in the amount of $2,000. The $2,000 income from the cancellation of debt is figured by subtracting the $170,000 FMV of the house from the $172,000 difference between her total outstanding debt immediately before the transfer of property and the amount for which she remains personally liable immediately after the transfer ($180,000 minus $8,000). She is able to exclude the $2,000 of canceled debt from her income under the qualified principal residence indebtedness rules discussed earlier.

Lili must also determine her gain or loss from the foreclosure. In this case, the amount that she realizes is $170,000. This is the smaller of: (a) the $180,000 outstanding debt immediately before the transfer reduced by the $8,000 for which she remains personally liable immediately after the transfer ($180,000 - $8,000 =$172,000) or (b) the $170,000 FMV of the house. Lili figures her gain or loss on the foreclosure by comparing the $170,000 amount realized with her $175,000 adjusted basis. She has a $5,000 nondeductible loss.

Amount realized on a nonrecourse debt. If you aren't personally liable for repaying the debt secured by the transferred property, the amount you realize includes the full amount of the outstanding debt immediately before the transfer. This is true even if the FMV of the property is less than the outstanding debt immediately before the transfer,

Example 1. Tara bought a new car for $15,000. She made a $2,000 downpayment and borrowed the remaining $13,000 from the dealer's credit company. Tara isn't personally liable for the loan (nonrecourse), but pledged the new car as security for the loan.

On August 1, 2015, the credit company repossessed the car because Tara had stopped making loan payments. The balance due after taking into account the payments Tara made was $10,000. The FMV of the car when it was repossessed was $9,000.

The amount Tara realized on the repossession is $10,000. That is the outstanding amount of debt immediately before the repossession, even though the FMV of the car is less than $10,000. Tara figures her gain or loss on the repossession by comparing the $10,000 amount realized with her $15,000 adjusted basis. Tara has a $5,000 nondeductible loss.

Example 2. Lili paid $200,000 for her home. She made a $15,000 downpayment and borrowed the remaining $185,000 from a bank. She isn't personally liable for the loan, but grants the bank a mortgage.

The bank foreclosed on the mortgage because Lili stopped making payments. When the bank foreclosed on the mortgage, the balance due was $180,000, the FMV of the house was $170,000, and Lili's adjusted basis was $175,000 due to a casualty loss she had deducted.

The amount Lili realized on the foreclosure is $180,000, the outstanding debt immediately before the foreclosure. She figures her gain or loss by comparing the $180,000 amount realized with her $175,000 adjusted basis. Lili has a $5,000 realized gain. See Pub. 523, Selling Your Home, to figure and report any taxable amount.

Forms 1099-A and 1099-C. A lender who acquires an interest in your property in a foreclosure or repossession should send you Form 1099-A, Acquisition or Abandonment of Secured Property, showing information you need to figure your gain or loss. However, if the lender also cancels part of your debt and must file Form 1099-C, the lender can include the information about the foreclosure or repossession on that form instead of on Form 1099-A. The lender must file Form 1099-C and send you a copy if the amount of debt canceled is $600 or more and the lender is a financial institution. credit union, federal government agency, or other applicable entity as discussed earlier in chapter 1. For foreclosures or repossessions occurring in 2015, these forms should be sent to you by February 1, 2016.

Abandonments

You abandon property when you voluntarily and permanently give up possession and use of the property with the intention of ending your ownership but without passing it on to anyone else. Whether an abandonment has occurred is determined in light of all the facts and circumstances. You must both show an intention to abandon the property and affirmatively act to abandon the property.

A voluntary conveyance of the property in lieu of foreclosure isn't an abandonment and is treated as the exchange of property to satisfy a debt. For more information, see Sales and Exchanges in Pub. 544.

The tax consequences of abandonment of property that secures a debt depend on whether you were personally liable for the debt (recourse debt) or weren't personally liable for the debt (nonrecourse debt).

See Pub. 544 if you abandoned property that didn't secure debt. This publication only discusses the tax consection only quences of abandoning property that secured a debt.

Abandonment of property securing recourse debt. In most cases, if you abandon property that secures debt for which you are personally liable (recourse debt), you don't have gain or loss until the later foreclosure is completed. For details on figuring gain or loss on the foreclosure, see chapter 2.

Example 1—abandonment of personal-use property securing recourse debt. In 2011, Anne purchased a home for $200,000, She borrowed the entire purchase price, for which she was personally liable, and gave the bank a mortgage on the home. In 2015, Anne lost her job and was unable to continue making her mortgage loan payments. Because her mortgage loan balance was $185,000 and the FMV of her home was only $150,000, Anne decided to abandon her home by permanently moving out on August 1, 2015. Because Anne was personally liable for the debt and the bank didn't complete a foreclosure of the property in 2015, Anne has neither gain nor loss in tax year 2015 from abandoning the home. If the bank sells the house at a foreclosure sale in 2016, Anne will have to figure her gain or nondeductible loss for tax year 2016 as discussed earlier in chapter 2.

Example 2—abandonment of business or investment property securing recourse debt. In 2011, Sue purchased business property for $200,000. She borrowed the entire purchase price, for which she was personally liable, and gave the lender a security interest in the property. In 2015, Sue was unable to continue making her loan payments. Because her loan balance was $185,000 and the FMV of the property was only $150,000, Sue abandoned the property on August 1, 2015. Because Sue was personally liable for the debt and the lender didn't complete a foreclosure of the property in 2015, Sue has neither gain nor loss in tax year 2015 from abandoning the property. If the lender sells the property at a foreclosure sale in 2016, Sue will have to figure her gain or deductible loss for tax year 2016 as discussed earlier in chapter 2.

Abandonment of property securing nonrecourse debt. If you abandon property that secures debt for which you aren't personally liable (nonrecourse debt), the abandonment is treated as a sale or exchange.

The amount you realize on the abandonment of property that secured nonrecourse debt is the amount of the nonrecourse debt. If the amount you realize is more than your adjusted basis, then you have a gain. If your adjusted basis is more than the amount you realize, then you have a loss. For more information on how to figure gain and loss, see Gain or Loss From Sales and Exchanges in Pub. 544.

Loss from abandonment of business or investment property is deductible as a loss. The character of the loss depends on the character of the property. The amount of deductible capital loss may be limited. For more information, see Treatment of Capital Losses in Pub. 544. You can't deduct any loss from abandonment of your home or other property held for personal use.

Example 1—abandonment of personal-use property securing nonrecourse debt. In 2011, Timothy purchased a home for $200,000. He borrowed the entire purchase price, for which he wasn't personally liable, and gave the bank a mortgage on the home. In 2015, Timothy lost his job and was unable to continue making his mortgage loan payments. Because his mortgage loan balance was $185,000 and the FMV of his home was only $150,000, Timothy decided to abandon his home by permanently moving out on August 1, 2015. Because Timothy wasn't personally liable for the debt, the abandonment is treated as a sale or exchange of the home in tax year 2015.

Timothy's amount realized is $185,000 and his adjusted basis in the home is $200,000. Timothy has a $15,000 nondeductible loss in tax year 2015. (Had Timothy's adjusted basis been less than the amount realized, Timothy would have had a gain that he would have to include in gross income.) The bank sells the house at a foreclosure sale in 2016. Timothy has neither gain nor loss from the foreclosure sale. Because he wasn't personally liable for the debt, he also has no cancellation of debt income.

Example 2-abandonment of business or investment property securing nonrecourse debt. In 2011, Robert purchased business property for $200,000. He borrowed the entire purchase price, for which he wasn't personally liable, and gave the lender a security interest in the property. In 2015, Robert was unable to continue making his loan payments. Because his loan balance was $185,000 and the FMV of the property was only $150,000, Robert decided to abandon the property on August 1, 2015. Because Robert wasn't personally liable for the debt, the abandonment is treated as a sale or exchange of the property in tax year 2015. Robert's amount realized is $185,000 and his adjusted basis in the property is $180,000 (as a result of $20,000 of depreciation deductions on the property). Robert has a $5,000 gain in tax year 2015. (Had Robert's adjusted basis been greater than the amount realized, he would have had a deductible loss.) The lender sells the property at a foreclosure sale in 2016. Robert has neither gain nor loss from the foreclosure sale. Because he wasn't personally liable for the debt, he also has no cancellation of debt income.

Canceled debt. If the abandoned property secures a debt for which you are personally liable and the debt is canceled, you will realize ordinary income equal to the canceled debt. This income is separate from any amount realized from abandonment of the property. You must report this income on your return unless one of the exceptions or exclusions described in chapter 1 applies.

Forms 1099-A and 1099-C. In most cases, if you abandon

- real property (such as a home),
- intangible property, or
- tangible personal property held (wholly or partly) for use in a trade or business or for investment.

that secures a loan and the lender knows the property has been abandoned, the lender should send you Form 1099-A showing information you need to figure your gain or loss from the abandonment. Also, if your debt is canceled and the lender must file Form 1099-C, the lender can include the information about the abandonment on that form instead of on Form 1099-A. The lender must file Form 1099-C and send you a copy if the amount of debt canceled is $600 or more and the lender is a financial institution, credit union, federal government agency, or other applicable entity as discussed earlier in chapter 1.

For abandonments of property and debt cancellations occurring in 2015, these forms should be sent to you by February 1, 2016.

understand what these rights mean to you and how they apply. These are your rights, Know them, Use them,

How Else Does the Taxpayer Advocate Service Help Taxpayers?

Please identify the provision in the Highway 50 Lease which supports Your contention in paragraph 28 of the First Amended Complaint that the rental rate in the Highway 50 Lease increases by two percent per month.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

Respondent responds that paragraph 28 contains a typographical error and should have read that the rental rate of the Highway 50 Lease increases by two percent per year.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

Please explain the basis for Your contention in paragraph 31 of the First Amended Complaint that the Wooley Plaintiffs agreed to amend the Highway 50 Lease and the Baring Lease through shortening the lease term by 30 months in return for Herbst personally guaranteeing that BHI would make all lease payments through the term of the lease.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

The initial lease duration for the Highway 50 Property was from May 1, 2006 through April 30, 2026. On April 20, 2007, Respondent executed a Memorandum of Lease which states that the term of the Highway 50 Lease is from December 1, 2005 through November 30, 2025.

INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

Please identify and describe in detail any and all facts demonstrating that BHI knew at the time You and BHI entered into the Highway 50 Lease that the Highway 50 Property was "cross-collateralized" with the Baring Property.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

Respondent is presently unaware of facts responsive to this Request. Respondent reserves the right to amend this Response in light of future discovery.

INTERROGATORY NO. 4:

Respondent bases this contention on the fact that Propounding Party breached the Highway 50 Lease.

INTERROGATORY NO. 6:

What is Your current balance due on any and all mortgage loans for the Highway 50 Property?

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 6:

The current balance due on the mortgage loan for the Highway 50 Property is $0.00.

AFFIDAVIT OF BRIAN P. MOQUIN

I, Larry J. Willard, declare:

- I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of California and admitted pro hac vice to this Court to represent the plaintiff in the above-captioned matter. I am over the age of eighteen years and am otherwise sui juris. I have personal knowledge of the following facts, and if called and sworn as a witness I could and would testify to the veracity thereof.
- 2. I was retained by plaintiffs Larry J. Willard, Overland Development Corporation, Edward C. Wooley and Judith A. Wooley (collectively, "Plaintiffs") in early March 2014 when Plaintiffs' prior counsel, L. Steven Goldblatt ("Goldblatt"), was incapacitated due to an automobile accident. Goldblatt had filed suit against defendants Berry-Hinckley Industries ("BHI"), Jerry Herbst ("Herbst") (collectively, "Defendants") and others in the Superior Court of Santa Clara County, California ("the California case") for breaches of Plaintiffs' commercial leases on properties they owned in Nevada as well as to foreclose the personal guaranties Herbst had signed regarding the leases.
- 3. When I took over the California case, there were two motions that had been brought by Defendants that were scheduled for hearing. One was a motion to dismiss the California case for lack of proper venue. The other was a motion to quash Goldblatt's discovery requests.
- 4. I promptly contacted opposing counsel for Defendants, John P. Desmond, Esq. ("Desmond"), and told him that if given leave to file an amended complaint I could probably simplify matters significantly. Desmond agreed, and consequently we executed and filed a joint stipulation under which I would withdraw Goldblatt's discovery requests, I would be given time to draft and file an amended complaint, and Defendants would take the upcoming hearings off-calendar. I filed this joint stipulation on March 13, 2014. A true and correct copy of the joint stipulation is attached hereto as Exhibit 18.
- 5. On March 14, 2014, I received written confirmation via e-mail from Desmond's legal secretary, Cindy Grinstead ("Grinstead"), that she had "called the Court and took the hearings currently scheduled on March 18, 2014 @ 9:00 a.m. and April 4, 2014 at 9:00 a.m. off calendar." A true and correct copy of my correspondence with Grinstead is attached hereto as Exhibit 19.

- 6. On March 21, 2014, while reviewing the online docket I discovered that Defendants had not taken the hearing on their motion to dismiss off calendar, and, with no appearances being made, the Court granted the motion. I immediately called the clerk's office and had them fax a copy of the minute order to me, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 20.
- 7. I then contacted Desmond to ask why the hearing had not been taken off calendar as I had been told it had been. He had no explanation.
- 8. Subsequently, Desmond and I engaged in numerous discussions regarding the merits of the case, in particular the issue of venue. Because my clients had been financially devastated by Plaintiffs' breaches of their respective leases and were anxious to have the case to move along, my clients agreed to allow me to voluntarily dismiss the California case without prejudice and bring the instant matter in Nevada, an action with which Desmond concurred. A true and correct copy of the request for dismissal without prejudice filed May 19, 2014 is attached hereto as Exhibit 21.
- 9. Consequently, Defendants' claim that they won their motion to dismiss is a blatant misrepresentation of fact. Defendants' motion to dismiss was granted due to Defendants' failing to comply with the terms of the joint stipulation, which stipulation led to me not filing an opposition nor attending the hearing. This marks the second time in the instant matter that Defendants have made this fraudulent claim.

I swear under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 29^{th} day of August 2016.

AFFIDAVIT OF LARRY J. WILLARD

I, Larry J. Willard, declare:

- 1. I am a named plaintiff in the above-captioned matter. I am over the age of eighteen years and am otherwise sui juris. I have personal knowledge of the following facts, and if called and sworn as a witness I could and would testify to the veracity thereof.
- 2. I am the President and sole shareholder of named plaintiff Overland Development Corporation ("Overland").
- 3. On November 18, 2005, as part of a property exchange pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 1031 (a "1031 Exchange"), I entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement with P.A. Morabito & Co, Limited to purchase a commercial property located at 7695 and 7699 South Virginia Street, Reno, Nevada (the "Virginia Property") for a total purchase price of $17,750,000.00. A true and correct copy of the Purchase and Sale Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 27.
- 4. The Purchase and Sale Agreement contained a lease-back provision under which the seller would lease back the Virginia Property for a period of twenty years ("the Virginia Lease Term") from January 2006 through January 2026 at a base annual rental rate of $1,464,375.00 with the annual rental rate increasing by two percent per year compounded annually. [Ex. 27 at p. 1.]
- 5. On December 2, 2005, Defendant Berry-Hinckley Industries ("BHI"), Overland and I executed a Lease Agreement (the "Virginia Lease") containing the terms mentioned above, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 28.
- 6. As part of a 1031 Exchange, Overland and I paid a total of $4,668,738.49 in earnest money for the Virginia Property from the sale of a property that Overland and I owned in Las Vegas. Overland and I obtained financing for the balance of the purchase price by securing a loan in the amount of $13,250,000.00 from South Valley. Escrow on the purchase of the Virginia Property closed on February 24, 2006. A true and correct copy of the Seller's Final Settlement Statement and the Buyer's Final Settlement Statement are attached hereto as Exhibit 29. A true and correct copy of the Deed of Trust securing the loan from South Valley is attached hereto as Exhibit 30. A true and correct copy of the Promissory Note securing the loan from South Valley is attached hereto as Exhibit 31.

- 7. On February 21, 2006, BHI, Overland, and I executed a "Lease Subordination, Non-Disturbance and Attornment Agreement" (the "Subordination Agreement"), which informed BHI of the fact that I was purchasing the Virginia Property with financing from South Valley National Bank ("South Valley"). A true and correct copy of the Subordination Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 32.
- In the Subordination Agreement, BHI expressly acknowledged that South Valley would not make the loan to me without the Subordination Agreement being in place and BHI agreeing to relinquish and subordinate the Virginia Lease in favor of South Valley's rights under the loan. [Ex. 32 at § 2.4.] BHI also consented to and approved all provisions of the Note and the Deed of Trust regarding the loan. [Ex. 32 at § 2.2.]
- 9. In the Subordination Agreement, BHI certified that the Summary of Lease Terms attached thereto as Appendix 1 was true and correct. [Ex. 32 at p. 2.] This Summary of Lease Terms confirms that the original Virginia Lease Term was through January 2026. [Ex. 32 at Appx. 1, § 2.4.]
- 10. In the Subordination Agreement, BHI also expressly agreed not to terminate the Virginia Lease without first obtaining the consent of South Valley. [Ex. 32 at § 3.3.]
- 11. On March 16, 2006, I refinanced the South Valley loan with Telesis Community Credit Union ("Telesis") for a total loan amount of $13,312,500.00. Under this new loan (the "Telesis Loan"), Overland and I were required to pay $87,077.52 per month to Telesis's loan servicing agent, Business Partners, LLC ("Business Partners"). A true and correct copy of the Deed of Trust, Assignment of Rents and Security Agreement executed as part of this refinancing agreement with Telesis is attached hereto as Exhibit 33. A true and correct copy of the mortgage statement from March 2013 showing the monthly charge on the loan of $87,077.52 is attached hereto as Exhibit 34. A true and correct copy of the Substitution of Trustee and Full Reconveyance transferring the loan from South Valley to Telesis is attached hereto as Exhibit 35.

- 12. On February 17, 2007, BHI sent an offer letter to myself and other landlords indicating that Defendant Jerry Herbst ("Herbst") intended to acquire BHI's convenience store assets, which included the Virginia Property. A true and correct copy of the February 17, 2007 offer letter and the relevant attachments is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.
- 13. In the offer letter, Herbst offered to personally guarantee BHI's payments and performance under the Virginia Lease if I agreed to amend the Virginia Lease. [Ex. 5 at pp. 3-4.] Included with the offer letter was a statement from Johnson Jacobson Wilcox dated January 31, 2007 attesting to the fact that Herbst's net worth was in excess of $200 million. [Ex. 5 at p. 2.]
- 14. One of the requirements of Herbst's offer was that Overland and I agree to shorten the Virginia Lease Term by thirty months, thereby forgoing $5,250,045.20 in rent that we would otherwise have received under the Virginia Lease, in return for which Herbst would personally guarantee BHI's payment and performance under the Virginia Lease.
- 15. On March 9, 2007, based on the representations as to Herbst's net worth and the offer by Herbst to personally guarantee BHI's payments and performance under the Virginia Lease, I accepted Herbst's offer. A true and correct copy of the Amendment to Lease Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 36. A true and correct copy of the Herbst Guaranty is attached hereto as Exhibit 37.
- 16. On March 1, 2013, without any notice whatsoever, BHI defaulted on the Virginia Lease by not sending the monthly rental payment for March 2013.
- 17. On March 10, 2013, having not received the monthly rental payment from BHI, I called BHI's finance department and I was told that BHI was no longer going to pay rent. I immediately retained L. Steven Goldblatt, Esq. ("Goldblatt"), who sent a letter to Herbst on March 12, 2013 demanding payment of the March 2013 rent. A true and correct copy of that letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 38.
- 18. On March 18, 2013, counsel for BHI and Herbst responded to my counsel's letter with an unacceptable settlement offer that in no way indicated that BHI and Herbst intended to cure the breach nor honor the Herbst Guaranty. A true and correct copy of that letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 39.

- 19. On April 12, 2013, counsel for BHI and Herbst sent a letter to my attorney indicating that BHI did not intend to cure the breach and planned to vacate the Virginia Property on April 30, 2013. A true and correct copy of that letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 40.
- 20. On April 17, 2013, Goldblatt filed a lawsuit against BHI, Herbst, and others in Santa Clara County, California (the "California case") for breach of the Virginia Lease and foreclosure of the Herbst Guaranty.
- 21. Shortly thereafter, my real estate agent appealed to BHI to remain on the Virginia Property until we were able to find a buyer or a new tenant so that the Virginia Property would retain its value. Consequently, I entered into an interim "Operation and Management Agreement" with BHI effective May 1, 2013 under which BHI agreed to continue active operations on the Virginia Property. I agreed to this Operation and Management Agreement because I knew that the amount of rent at issue, which, at that point was $140,175.55 per month, would be difficult to obtain from a new tenant if the Virginia Property was "dark." Herbst did not sign the Operation and Management Agreement nor is there any mention in it of the Herbst Guaranty. A true and correct copy of the Operation and Management Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 41.
- 22. I hired consultant Greg Breen ("Breen"), who had previously been the operations manager for BHI, to accompany me to the Virginia Property to assess its condition. Mr. Breen had formerly served as operations manager for BHI. Breen and I visited the Virginia Property on May 26, 2013 and May 27, 2013. We discovered that the Virginia Property was not fully operational. For example, all signage had been removed, there were severe maintenance issues, and several employees told me in person that they did not have enough supplies to conduct operations.
- 23. On June 1, 2013, BHI vacated the Virginia Property having paid no rent whatsoever since their breach on March 1, 2013. Under the terms of the Operation and Management Agreement, BHI had until July 20, 2013 to provide me with a profit and loss statement and to remit net profits earned during May 2013 minus $10,000.00. [Ex. 41 at § 4.] However, BHI never provided me with the required profit and loss statement, nor did they ever tender any payment of net profits for the month of May 2013.

- 24. Because BHI had breached the Virginia Lease, thereby depriving me of more than $140,000.00 per month in income while I remained liable to make payments of $87,077.52 per month under the Telesis Loan, based on the strong advice from Goldblatt that I do so, I engaged bankruptcy attorney Stanley Zlotoff ("Zlotoff") to prepare and file a Chapter 11 bankruptcy petition. I paid Zlotoff $21,213.00 to handle my bankruptcy.
- 25. On the advice of counsel, I also retained accountant Mitra Ehsanipour ("Ehsanipour") to prepare the accounting required for my bankruptcy petition. I paid Ehsanipour $17,520 for this work.
- 26. On June 14, 2013, I received a Notice of Intent to Foreclose from Business Partners stating that a monetary default existed due to non-payment of the March 1, 2013, April 1, 2013, May 1, 2013, and June 1, 2013 monthly loan payments as well as non-payment of the 2012 Washoe County real estate property taxes. A true and correct copy of this Notice of Intent to Foreclose is attached hereto as Exhibit 42.
- 27. On June 17, 2013, I filed a Chapter 11 bankruptcy petition. A true and correct copy of the Notice of Bankruptcy Case Filing is attached hereto as Exhibit 43.
- 28. On July 24, 2013, Zlotoff filed a motion to dismiss my Chapter 11 bankruptcy case at my direction due to the fact that my having filed for bankruptcy had not facilitated fruitful negotiations with Telesis regarding the outstanding $13 million loan. A true and correct copy of my declaration submitted in support of that motion is attached hereto as Exhibit 44.
- 29. After nearly one year of motion practice and representing our interests in negotiations with BHI and Herbst for which I paid Goldblatt and his associates a total of $35,000.00, Goldblatt was seriously injured in an automobile accident and I obtained present counsel, Brian P. Moquin, Esq. ("Moquin") to handle the matter. Moquin substituted into the California case on March 13, 2014. A true and correct copy of this substitution is attached hereto as Exhibit 45.

- 30. I expressed my frustration to Moquin regarding the fact that nearly a year had gone by and we still didn't seem close to resolving the matter. Moquin informed me that the defendants, including BHI and Herbst, had filed a Motion to Dismiss the matter for lack of proper venue which was to be heard on March 18, 2014. Moquin suggested that he amend the complaint to streamline the issues and potentially agree to transfer venue to Nevada in the interests of reaching resolution in a more timely fashion.
- 31. On March 13, 2014, Moquin and counsel for Herbst, BHI, and the other defendants entered into a Joint Stipulation to take the pending hearing on defendants' Motion to Dismiss off-calendar and give Moquin an opportunity to draft and file an amended complaint. A true and correct copy of this Joint Stipulation is attached hereto as Exhibit 18.
- 32. On March 14, 2014, Moquin contacted me and informed me that he had filed the Joint Stipulation and that he had received confirmation from the defendants' attorney that they had taken the hearing off-calendar.
- 33. On March 21, 2014, Moquin contacted me and informed me that despite having confirmed to Moquin that defendants had taken the hearing off-calendar, the Santa Clara Superior Court had held the hearing on defendants' Motion to Dismiss and had granted it without prejudice. I was very upset by this underhanded behavior by defendants, but Moquin told me that in the interests of expediting litigation he thought it best to refile the complaint in Nevada. I agreed.
- 34. Because my real estate agent had been unsuccessful in finding a tenant to lease the Virginia Property and had also not been able to find a buyer willing to offer enough for the Virginia Property to cover the outstanding principal balance owed on the Telesis Loan, on January 14, 2014, Overland and I entered into an agreement with Longley Partners, LLC ("Longley") for Longley to purchase the Virginia Property via a short sale. A true and correct copy of the Declaration of Arm's Length Transaction is attached hereto as Exhibit 46.

- 35. On February 14, 2014, Longley, Overland, and I executed a Purchase and Sale Agreement under which Longley agreed to purchase the Virginia Property for $4 million. A true and correct copy of this Purchase and Sale Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 47.
- 36. On February 19, 2014, Overland and I entered into a Short Sale Agreement with National Credit Union Administration Board ("NCUAB") in its capacity as liquidating agent for Telesis for the sale of the Virginia Property. A true and correct copy of the Short Sale Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 48.
- 37. On February 25, 2014, I engaged my real estate agent to conduct the short sale of the Virginia Property. A true and correct copy of the Consent to Act is attached hereto as Exhibit 49.
- 38. On March 3, 2014, the Virginia Property was sold via a short sale for a total of $4,050,354.68. Of that amount, $65,936.98 went to pay the outstanding 2012/2013 Washoe County property taxes, $120,000.00 was paid in commissions to Colliers International, and $14,615.00 was paid in closing costs. A true and correct copy of the Final Closing Statement is attached hereto as Exhibit 50.
- 39. Following the short sale, NCUAB canceled the outstanding debt owed under the Telesis Loan. This debt cancellation totaled $8,597,250.20. Due to this debt cancelation, both Overland and I incurred a significant tax liability for Fiscal Year 2014. A true and correct copy of the IRS Form 1099-C issued by NCUAB showing the debt cancellation is attached hereto as Exhibit 51. Per IRS regulations, since both my and Overland's total debt were greater than our total assets immediately prior to the debt cancellation, these tax liabilities were not reported as income and consequently are no longer being claimed as damages flowing from Defendants' breach.
- 40. However, because I was forced to give up the Virginia Property via the short sale, I lost $1,018,200.00 in Capital Loss Carryovers that I had been carrying as an asset and Overland lost $3,671,800.00 in Capital Loss Carryovers that it had been carrying as an asset under the 1031 Exchange through which Overland and I had purchased the Virginia

Property. In addition, due to BHI's abandonment of the Virginia Property and subsequent breach of the Interim Operation and Management Agreement, the Virginia Property suffered a dramatic diminution in value, the amount of which is not relevant to the instant motion. I swear under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 15th day of August 2016. Jany Hallow Larry J. Willard

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs Larry J. Willard ("Willard"), Overland Development Corporation ("Overland") (collectively, "the Willard Plaintiffs"), and Edward C. Wooley and Judith A. Wooley (collectively, "The Wooley Plaintiffs") herein oppose the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment brought by defendants Berry-Hinckley Industries ("BHI") and Jerry Herbst ("Herbst") (collectively, "Defendants"). Through their Motion, Defendants seek to preemptively foreclose recovery by Plaintiffs of certain categories of damages they claim were a direct result of Defendants' breach of their respective long-term commercial lease agreements and personal guaranties. As illustrated herein, Defendants' contentions are eviscerated by the express terms of the leases and guaranties at issue here—which Defendants completely ignored in their Motion—and are contrary to well-established law.

Given the commonality of claims by the Willard Plaintiffs and the Wooley Plaintiffs and the fact that the leases and guaranties at issue are absolutely identical in pertinent part, Plaintiffs do not object to Defendants' request to have the issues regarding damages recoverable by the Willard Plaintiffs and those recoverable by the Wooley Plaintiffs heard in a single motion.

II.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

A. Properties Of The Wooley Plaintiffs

1. The purchase and renting out of the Highway 50 Property to BHI.

On July 1, 2005, as part of a 1031 Exchange, the Wooley Plaintiffs entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement to purchase a commercial property located at 1820 East U.S. Highway 50, Carson City, Nevada (the "Highway 50 Property") from Tibarom, Inc. for $3,400,000.00. [Decl. Edward C. Wooley at ¶ 3; Ex. 1.]

On December 1, 2005, BHI entered into a 20-year lease for the Highway 50 Property (the "Highway 50 Lease") at a base annual rental rate of $272,000.00, increasing by 2% per annum. [Id. at ¶ 4; Ex. 2.]

On January 19, 2007, the Wooley Plaintiffs obtained a loan for $2,200,000.00 from

Pacific Capital Bank, N.A. d/b/a South Valley National Bank ("South Valley") which was secured by a Deed of Trust on the Highway 50 Property. [*Id.*at ¶ 5; Exs. 3, 4.]

On February 17, 2007, the Wooley Plaintiffs received a letter from counsel for Herbst informing them and other landlords of Herbst's intention to acquire BHI and requesting that the Wooley Plaintiffs agree to certain modifications to the Highway 50 Lease in return for Herbst signing a guaranty (the "Highway 50 Guaranty") to be personally responsible for BHI's performance under the Highway 50 Lease. Included in this letter was a statement from a financial services firm stating that Herbst had a net worth in excess of $200 million. [Id. at ¶ 6; Ex. 5.]

On March 12, 2007, in consideration for the security provided by the Highway 50 Guaranty, the Wooley Plaintiffs executed a First Amendment to the Highway 50 Lease, which included the modifications requested by Herbst. [Id. at ¶ 7; Ex. 6.] That same day, Herbst executed a guaranty agreement regarding the Highway 50 Property (the "Highway 50 Guaranty"). [Id. at ¶ 8; Ex. 7.]

On June 29, 2011, BHI and the Wooley Plaintiffs executed a Second Amendment to the Highway 50 Lease, which freed up moneys held in escrow for BHI to build out the property and which decreased the base monthly rental amount from $25,000.00 per month to $20,025.82 per month. This Second Amendment did not modify the terms of the Highway 50 Guaranty. [Id.; Ex. 8.]

2. The purchase and renting out of the Baring Property to BHI.

On May 8, 2006, the Wooley Plaintiffs entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement to purchase a property located at 1365 Baring Boulevard, Sparks, Nevada (the "Baring Property") from Spirit SPE Portfolio 2005-5, LLC for a purchase price of $3,286,552.00. [Id. at ¶ 10; Ex. 9.]

On July 6, 2006, BHI signed a long-term lease for the Baring Property (the "Baring Lease") at a base monthly rental rate of $19,856.25, increasing by two percent per annum. [Id. at ¶ 11; Ex. 10.]

On July 18, 2006, the Wooley Plaintiffs obtained a loan from South Valley for

$2,100,000.00 which was secured by a Deed of Trust on the Baring Property. [Id. at \P 12; Exs. 11, 12.]

On March 12, 2007, the Wooley Plaintiffs agreed to the modifications to the Baring Lease requested by Herbst and executed a First Amendment to the Lease Agreement. [Id. at ¶ 13; Ex. 13.]

In consideration for the Wooley Plaintiffs having agreed to the modifications to the Baring Lease, on March 12, 2007, Herbst signed a personal guaranty of the Baring Lease (the "Baring Guaranty"). [Id. at ¶ 14; Ex. 14.]

On July 5, 2007, in direct violation of the capitalized prohibition in the Baring Lease, BHI entered into an Assignment of Entitlements, Contracts, Rents and Revenues with First National Bank of Nevada to secure a $74 million line of credit. [Id. at ¶ 15; Ex. 15.]

On December 29, 2009, without first seeking and obtaining permission from the Wooley Plaintiffs as required by the Baring Lease, BHI assigned the Baring Lease to Jacksons Food Stores, Inc. ("Jackson"). [Id. at ¶ 16; Ex. 16.]

3. Commencement in California of litigation for Defendants' breach.

On March 1, 2013, BHI failed to tender rent payments under both the Baring Lease and the Highway 50 Lease. As a result, the Wooley Plaintiffs engaged the services of attorney L. Steven Goldblatt, Esq. ("Goldblatt") to contact BHI and Herbst and demand payment. [Id. at ¶ 17.]

Defendants failed to cure the breach of the Highway 50 Lease. As a result, on April 17, 2013, Goldblatt filed a lawsuit against Defendants and others in Santa Clara County, California (the "California case") for breach of the leases and to foreclose on the Herbst guaranties. [Id. at ¶ 18.]

After nearly one year of motion practice and representing the Wooley Plaintiffs' interests in negotiations with BHI and Herbst for which the Wooley Plaintiffs paid Goldblatt and his associates a total of $45,088.00, Goldblatt was seriously injured in an automobile accident and the Wooley Plaintiffs were compelled to hire Brian P. Moquin, Esq. ("Moquin"), to take over the matter. Moquin substituted into the California case on March 13, 2014. [Id. at ¶ 19; Ex. 17.]

4. Dismissal of the California case obtained via fraud.

Prior to Moquin substituting into the California case, Defendants had filed a Motion to Dismiss the case for lack of proper venue, which was to be heard on March 18, 2014. [Id. at ¶ 20.] Moquin suggested to Defendants that he amend Plaintiffs' complaint to streamline the issues and potentially agree to transfer the matter to Nevada in the interests of expediting resolution. [Id.] To that end, Moquin and counsel for Defendants entered into a Joint Stipulation under which Plaintiffs would be given time to amend their complaint, Plaintiffs would withdraw the numerous discover requests that Defendants were seeking to quash, and Defendants would take the pending hearings off-calendar. [Id. at ¶ 21; Decl. Brian P. Moquin at ¶ 4; Ex. 18.]

On March 13, 2014, Moquin filed the Joint Stipulation. [Id.] Moquin also received written confirmation from Defendants that they had in fact taken the pending hearings off-calendar. [Id. at ¶ 5; Ex. 19.]

On March 21, 2014, Moquin learned that Defendants had not taking the hearing on their Motion to Dismiss off-calendar and as a result the court had granted Defendants' motion. [Id. at ¶ 6; Ex. 20.]

Subsequently, in the interests of expediting resolution of Plaintiffs' claims, Plaintiffs voluntarily dismissed the California matter without prejudice and brought the instant matter in this Court. [Id. at \P 8; Ex. 21.]

5. Circumstances necessitating the sale of the Baring Property.

On January 22, 2014, the Wooley Plaintiffs received a Notice of Default regarding payments to South Valley, which had since been taken over by Union Bank, N.A., on the Highway 50 Loan and the Baring Loan, both of which the Wooley Plaintiffs had not been able to pay due to the lack of rental income caused by Defendants' breach of the Highway 50 Lease. [Decl. Wooley at ¶ 24; Ex. 22

The Wooley Plaintiffs contacted Union Bank and engaged in negotiations with Terri Baron ("Baron"), Union Bank's Vice President and Senior Workout Specialist. Baron advised them that, per the terms of both the Highway 50 Loan and the Baring Loan, the two properties were cross-collateralized and hence the only way to save either of them was to cure both defaults. [Id. at ¶ 25; Ex. 23.]

As a result of this cross-collateralization, and because BHI and Herbst's breaches of the Highway 50 Lease had left the Wooley Plaintiffs in a position where they could not cure both defaults, they were forced to sell one of the properties. On May 20, 2014, the Wooley Plaintiffs sold the Baring Property for a contract price of $3,100,000.00, incurring $147,847.30 in settlement charges, $156.49 in sewer use fees, and $1,225.34 in county property taxes as part sale. After the Baring Loan was paid off, the Wooley Plaintiffs were left with $870,844.39, which was less than the amount of earnest money they had invested in the Baring Property. In fact, the Baring Property had experienced a diminution in value of $186,552.00 compared to the price at which the Wooley Plaintiffs had purchased it. [Id. at ¶ 26; Ex. 24.]

As a direct result of BHI and Herbst breaching the Highway 50 Lease which forced the Wooley Plaintiffs to sell the Baring Property at a loss in order to save the Highway 50 Property, the Wooley Plaintiffs also incurred a Federal tax liability of $302,881.00 and a state tax liability of $114,502.00 due to the capital gains imposed on them from the loss of their 1031 Exchange benefits. The Wooley Plaintiffs have paid those taxes. [Id. at ¶ 27; Exs. 25, 26.]

B. The Willard Plaintiffs' Property

1. The purchase and renting out the Virginia Property to BHI.

On November 18, 2005, as part of a property exchange pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 1031 (a "1031 Exchange"), the Willard Plaintiffs entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement with P.A. Morabito & Co, Limited to purchase a commercial property located at 7695 and 7699 South Virginia Street, Reno, Nevada (the "Virginia Property") for a total purchase price of $17,750,000.00. [Decl. Larry J. Willard at ¶ 3; Ex. 27.]

The Purchase and Sale Agreement contained a lease-back provision under which the seller would lease back the Virginia Property for a period of twenty years ("the Virginia Lease Term") from January 2006 through January 2026 at a base annual rental rate of $1,464,375.00 with the annual rental rate increasing by two percent per year compounded annually. [Id. at ¶ 4; Ex. 27 at p. 1.]

On December 2, 2005, Defendant Berry-Hinckley Industries ("BHI") and the Willard

Plaintiffs executed a Lease Agreement (the "Virginia Lease"). [Id. at ¶ 5; Ex. 28.]

As part of a 1031 Exchange, the Willard Plaintiffs paid a total of $4,668,738.49 in earnest money for the Virginia Property from the sale of a property that they owned in Las Vegas. They obtained financing for the balance of the purchase price by securing a loan in the amount of $13,250,000.00 from South Valley. Escrow on the purchase of the Virginia Property closed on February 24, 2006. [Id. at ¶ 6; Exs. 29, 30, 31.]

2. Defendants' express acknowledgment of Willard's loan.

On February 21, 2006, BHI and the Willard Plaintiffs executed a "Lease Subordination, Non-Disturbance and Attornment Agreement" (the "Subordination Agreement"), which informed BHI of the fact that the Willard Plaintiffs were purchasing the Virginia Property with financing from South Valley National Bank ("South Valley"). [Id. at ¶ 7; Ex. 32.]

In the Subordination Agreement, BHI expressly acknowledged that South Valley would not make the loan to the Willard Plaintiffs without the Subordination Agreement being in place and BHI agreeing to relinquish and subordinate the Virginia Lease in favor of South Valley's rights under the loan. [Ex. 32 at § 2.4.] BHI also consented to and approved all provisions of the Note and the Deed of Trust regarding the loan. [Ex. 32 at § 2.2.] BHI also certified that the Summary of Lease Terms attached thereto as Appendix 1 was true and correct. [Ex. 32 at p. 2.] This Summary of Lease Terms confirms that the original Virginia Lease Term ran through January 2026. [Ex. 32 at Appx. 1, § 2.4.] BHI also expressly agreed not to terminate the Virginia Lease without first obtaining the consent of South Valley. [Ex. 32 at § 3.3.]

On March 16, 2006, the Willard Plaintiffs refinanced the South Valley loan with Telesis Community Credit Union ("Telesis") for a total loan amount of $13,312,500.00. Under this new loan (the "Telesis Loan"), the Willard Plaintiffs were required to pay $87,077.52 per month to Telesis's loan servicing agent, Business Partners, LLC ("Business Partners"). [Id. at ¶ 11; Exs. 33, 34, 35.]

3. Plaintiffs sacrifice $5.25 million to obtain the Herbst's Guaranty.

On February 17, 2007, BHI sent an offer letter to the Willard Plaintiffs and other landlords indicating that Herbst intended to acquire BHI's convenience store assets, which included the Virginia Property. [Id. at ¶ 12; Ex. 5.] Therein, Herbst offered to personally guarantee BHI's payments and performance under the Virginia Lease if the Willard Plaintiffs agreed to amend the Virginia Lease. [Id. at ¶ 13; Ex. 5 at pp. 3-4.] Included with the offer letter was a statement from Johnson Jacobson Wilcox dated January 31, 2007 attesting to the fact that Herbst's net worth was in excess of $200 million. [Id.; Ex. 5 at p. 2.]

One of the requirements of Herbst's offer was that the Willard Plaintiffs agree to shorten the term of the Virginia Lease by thirty months, thereby forgoing $5,250,045.20 in rent that they would otherwise have received under the Virginia Lease, in return for which Herbst would personally guarantee BHI's payment and performance under the Virginia Lease. [Id. at ¶ 14.]

On March 9, 2007, based on the representations as to Herbst's net worth and the offer by Herbst to personally guarantee BHI's payments and performance under the Virginia Lease, the Willard Plaintiffs accepted Herbst's offer, executed an Amended Lease, and Herbst provided a personal guaranty (the "Virginia Guaranty"). [Id. at ¶ 15; Exs. 36, 37.]

4. Commencement in California of litigation for Defendants' breach.

On March 1, 2013, without any notice whatsoever, BHI defaulted on the Virginia Lease by not sending the monthly rental payment for March 2013. [Id. at ¶ 16.]

On March 10, 2013, having not received the monthly rental payment from BHI, the Willard Plaintiffs called BHI's finance department and were told that BHI was no longer going to pay rent. They immediately retained L. Steven Goldblatt, Esq. ("Goldblatt"), who sent a letter to Herbst on March 12, 2013 demanding payment of the March 2013 rent. [Id. at ¶ 17; Ex. 38.]

On March 18, 2013, counsel for Defendants responded to Goldblatt's letter with an unacceptable settlement offer that in no way indicated that BHI and Herbst intended to cure the breach nor honor the Virginia Guaranty. [Id. at ¶ 18; Ex. 39.]

On April 12, 2013, counsel for Defendants sent a letter to Goldblatt indicating that BHI did not intend to cure the breach and planned to vacate the Virginia Property on April 30, 2013. [Id. at ¶ 19; Ex. 40.]

On April 17, 2013, Goldblatt filed a lawsuit against BHI, Herbst, and others in Santa Clara County, California (the "California case") for breach of the Virginia Lease and foreclosure of the Virginia Guaranty. [Id. at ¶ 20.]

5. Defendants undermine Plaintiffs' attempt to mitigate damages.

Shortly thereafter, the Willard Plaintiffs' real estate agent appealed to BHI to remain on the Virginia Property until a buyer or a new tenant could be obtained so that the Virginia Property would retain its value. Consequently, the Willard Plaintiffs entered into an interim "Operation and Management Agreement" with BHI effective May 1, 2013 under which BHI agreed to continue active operations on the Virginia Property. The Willard Plaintiffs agreed to this Operation and Management Agreement because they knew that the amount of rent at issue, which at that point was $140,175.55 per month, would be difficult to obtain from a new tenant if the Virginia Property was "dark." Herbst did not sign the Operation and Management Agreement nor is there any mention in it of the Virginia Guaranty within it. [Id. at \P 21; Ex. 41.]

The Willard Plaintiffs hired consultant Greg Breen ("Breen"), who had previously been the operations manager for BHI, to accompany them to the Virginia Property to assess its condition. Mr. Breen had formerly served as operations manager for BHI. They visited the Virginia Property on May 26, 2013 and May 27, 2013 and discovered that the Virginia Property was not fully operational. For example, all signage had been removed, there were severe maintenance issues, and several employees told me in person that they did not have enough supplies to conduct operations. [Id. at \P 22.]

On June 1, 2013, BHI vacated the Virginia Property having paid no rent whatsoever since their breach on March 1, 2013. Under the terms of the Operation and Management Agreement, BHI had until July 20, 2013 to provide the Willard Plaintiffs with a profit and loss statement and to remit net profits earned during May 2013 minus $10,000.00. [Id. at ¶ 23; Ex. 41] at § 4.] However, BHI never provided the Willard Plaintiffs with the required profit and loss statement, nor did they ever tender any payment of net profits for the month of May 2013. [Id.]

6. Willard files for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection.

Because BHI had breached the Virginia Lease, thereby depriving the Willard Plaintiffs of more than $140,000.00 per month in income while they remained liable to make payments of $87,077.52 per month under the Telesis Loan, based on the strong advice from Goldblatt that he do so, Larry Willard engaged bankruptcy attorney Stanley Zlotoff ("Zlotoff") to prepare and file a Chapter 11 bankruptcy petition. Willard paid Zlotoff $21,213.00 to handle his bankruptcy. [Id. at ¶ 24.]

On the advice of counsel, Willard also retained accountant Mitra Ehsanipour ("Ehsanipour") to prepare the accounting required for his bankruptcy petition. He paid Ehsanipour $17,520 for this work. [Id. at ¶ 25.]

On June 14, 2013, the Willard Plaintiffs received a Notice of Intent to Foreclose from Business Partners stating that a monetary default existed due to non-payment of the March 1, 2013, April 1, 2013, May 1, 2013, and June 1, 2013 monthly loan payments as well as non-payment of the 2012 Washoe County real estate property taxes. [Id. at ¶ 26; Ex. 42.]

On July 24, 2013, Zlotoff filed a motion to dismiss Willard's Chapter 11 bankruptcy case at Willard's direction due to the fact that his having filed for bankruptcy had not facilitated fruitful negotiations with Telesis regarding the outstanding $13 million loan. [Id. at ¶ 28; Ex. 44.]

On June 17, 2013, Willard filed a Chapter 11 bankruptcy petition. [Id. at ¶ 27; Ex. 43.]

As the Wooley Plaintiffs had done, in March 2014, the Willard Plaintiffs hired Moquin to substitute into the California case. [Id. at ¶ 29; Ex. 45.] All facts regarding the wrongful dismissal of the California case noted above also apply to the Willard Plaintiffs, who were coplaintiffs in that case.

7. Circumstances necessitating the short sale of the Virginia Property.

Because the Willard Plaintiffs' real estate agent had been unsuccessful in finding a tenant to lease the Virginia Property and had also not been able to find a buyer willing to offer enough for the Virginia Property to cover the outstanding principal balance owed on the Telesis Loan, on January 14, 2014, the Willard Plaintiffs entered into an agreement with Longley Partners, LLC ("Longley") for Longley to purchase the Virginia Property via a short sale. [Id. at ¶ 34; Ex. 46.]

On February 14, 2014, Longley and the Willard Plaintiffs executed a Purchase and Sale Agreement under which Longley agreed to purchase the Virginia Property for $4 million. [Id. at

¶ 35; Ex. 47.]

On February 19, 2014, the Willard Plaintiffs entered into a Short Sale Agreement with National Credit Union Administration Board ("NCUAB") in its capacity as liquidating agent for Telesis for the sale of the Virginia Property. [Id. at ¶ 36; Ex. 48.]

On February 25, 2014, the Willard Plaintiffs engaged their real estate agent to conduct the short sale of the Virginia Property. [Id. at ¶ 37; Ex. 49.]

On March 3, 2014, the Virginia Property was sold via a short sale for a total of $4,050,354.68. Of that amount, $65,936.98 went to pay the outstanding 2012/2013 Washoe County property taxes, $120,000.00 was paid in commissions to Colliers International, and $14,615.00 was paid in closing costs. [Id. at ¶ 38; Ex. 50.]

Following the short sale, NCUAB canceled the outstanding debt owed under the Telesis Loan. This debt cancellation totaled $8,597,250.20. Due to this debt cancellation, the Willard Plaintiffs incurred a significant tax liability for Fiscal Year 2014. [Id. at ¶ 39; Ex. 51.] Per IRS regulations, since the Willard Plaintiffs' respective total debt was greater than their respective total assets immediately prior to the debt cancellation, these tax liabilities were not reported as income and consequently are no longer being claimed as damages flowing from Defendants' breach in the instant action.

However, because the Willard Plaintiffs were forced to give up the Virginia Property via the short sale, Willard lost $1,018,200.00 in Capital Loss Carryovers that he had been carrying as an asset and Overland lost $3,671,800.00 in Capital Loss Carryovers that it had been carrying as an asset under the 1031 Exchange through which the Willard Plaintiffs had purchased the Virginia Property. In addition, due to BHI's abandonment of the Virginia Property and subsequent breach of the Interim Operation and Management Agreement, the Virginia Property suffered a dramatic diminution in value, the amount of which is not relevant to the instant motion. [Id. at ¶ 40.]

III.

ARGUMENT

A. Legal Standard

1. Summary Judgment.

Summary judgment is appropriate when the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, admissions, and affidavits, if any, that are properly before the Court demonstrate that no genuine issue of material fact exist, and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Pegasus v. Reno Newspapers, Inc., 118 Nev. 706, 713, 57 P.3d 82, 87 (2002). Substantive law controls whether factual disputes are material and will preclude summary judgment; other factual disputes are irrelevant. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 106 S.Ct. 2505, 91 L.Ed.2d 202 (1986). A genuine issue of material fact is one where the evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party. Valley Bank v. Marble, 105 Nev. 366, 367, 775 P.2d 1278, 1282 (1989).

The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the non-moving party may not defeat a motion for summary judgment by relying "on gossamer threads of whimsy, speculation and conjecture." Wood v. Safeway, 121 Nev. 724, 732, 121 P.3d 1026, 1031 (2005). When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as required by Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 56, the non-moving party must not rest upon general allegations and conclusions, but must by affidavit or otherwise set forth specific facts demonstrating the existence of a genuine factual issue. Id.

The pleadings and proof offered in a Motion for Summary Judgment are construed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party. Hoopes v. Hammargren, 102 Nev. 425, 429, 725 P.2d 238, 241 (1986). However, the non-moving party still "bears the burden to 'do more than simply show that there is some metaphysical doubt' as to the operative facts in order to avoid summary judgment being entered." Wood, supra, 121 Nev. at 732, 121 P.3d at 1031. "To successfully defend against a summary judgment motion, 'the nonmoving party must transcend the pleadings and, by affidavit or other admissible evidence, introduce specific facts that show a genuine issue of material fact." Torrealba v. Kesmetis, 124 Nev. 95, 100, 178 P.3d 716, 720 (Nev. 2008) (quoting Cuzze v. Univ. & Cmty. Coll. Sys. of Nev., 123 Nev. 598, 72 P.3d 131, 134 (Nev. 2007)).

2. Interpretation of contract terms.

Under Nevada law, there is no right to interpret an agreement as meaning something different from what the parties intended as expressed by the language they saw fit to employ. Reno Club, Inc. v. Young Investment Co., 64 Nev. 312, 324, 182 P.2d 1011, 1017 (1947) (citations omitted). When the contract at issue is clear on its face, the Court should enforce the contract as it is written. Canfora v. Coast Hotels & Casinos, Inc., 121 Nev. 771, 776, 121 P.3d 599, 603 (2005). Where a contact is unambiguous, parole evidence may not be introduced to interpret the agreement of the parties. See Margrave v. Dermody Props., 110 Nev. 824, 829, 878 P.2d 291, 294 (1994), citing Farmers Ins. Exchange v. Young, 108 Nev. 328, 333 n.3, 832 P.2d 376 (1992); Canfield v. Gill, 101 Nev. 170, 171 n.1, 693 P.2d 1259 (1985).

3. Interpretation of express indemnity provisions.

An indemnity provision must be interpreted by the Court as a matter of law so long as extrinsic evidence is not required to interpret the indemnity language. Continental-Heller Corp. v. Amtech Mechanical Services, Inc., 53 Cal.App.4th 500, 504, 61 Cal.Rptr.2d 668, 670 (1997). Contractual, or express, indemnity arises when two parties agree, pursuant to a contractual provision, that one party will reimburse the second party for liability from the first party's actions. See George L. Brown Ins. Agency, Inc. v. Star Ins. Co., 126 Nev. 316, 237 P.3d 92, 96 (Nev. 2010) (internal citations omitted); Continental Casualty Co. v. Farnow, 79 Nev. 428, 386 P.2d 90 (1963).

Where the parties have expressly contracted with respect to the duty to indemnify, the extent of that duty must be determined from the contract. See George L. Brown, supra, at 96 (internal citations omitted). Thus, the contract should be read as a whole and given a construction that will accomplish the object of providing indemnity for the losses covered by the contract. American Excess Inc. Co. v. MGM Grand Hotels, Inc., 102 Nev. 601, 604, 729 P.2d 1352 (1986); National Union Fire Ins. v. Reno's Exec. Air, 100 Nev. 360, 682 P.2d 1380 (1984).

B. Relevant Terms And Provisions Of The Leases And Guaranties

In their Motion, Defendants seek to foreclose recovery by Plaintiffs of certain categories of damages. Specifically, Defendants contend that as a matter of law the Willard Plaintiffs cannot recover: 1) damages for attorneys' fees and costs incurred for legal representation in the California case against Defendants and in Bankruptcy Court; 2) the fees and costs associated with the short sale of the Virginia Property; and 3) damages due to the tax consequences of cancellation of the $8.6 million in debt for the Telesis Loan.

With respect to the Wooley Plaintiffs, Defendants argue that the following categories of damages are not recoverable: 1) attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the California case; 2) the costs associated with the sale of the Baring Property, which the Wooley Plaintiffs were forced to sell due to their two properties being cross-collateralized, as well as the loss incurred and the resulting tax liability due to the concomitant termination of 1031 Exchange benefits.

Defendants' contentions are based on three legal arguments: 1) attorney fees are only recoverable as an award to the prevailing party to litigation; 2) damages that were not foreseeable at the time of contract formation are not recoverable; 3) damages that were not actually incurred are not recoverable. With respect to the first two arguments, the express terms of the leases and personal guaranties at issue here render them wholly meritless. In terms of the third argument,

As shown below, based on Nevada law as well as the express language in the leases and personal guaranties at issue here, Defendants' contentions have no merit.

The terms and provisions related to damages for breach in the Virginia Lease and the Highway 50 Lease are absolutely identical, as are the Virginia Guaranty and the Highway 50 Guaranty. Consequently, the following analysis refers to these documents as "the Lease" and "the Guaranty" refers to one copy of each since the relevant terms are identical in versions for both the Willard and the Wooley Plaintiffs.

1. Lease terms regarding breaches and recoverable damages.

Generally, "when a contract is clear on its face, it will be construed from the written language and enforced as written." Canfora, supra, 121 Nev. at 776 (internal quotations omitted). Likewise, when a duty to indemnify arises from contractual language, it is generally not subject to equitable considerations; rather, it is enforced in accordance with the terms of the contracting parties' agreement. United Rentals Hwy. Techs. v. Wells Cargo, 289 P.3d 221, 128 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 59 (Nev. 2012).

Below are the lease terms relating to remedies for breach by the Lessee and the damages that are recoverable, with references to the Virginia Lease.

a. BHI's Monetary Obligations are unconditional.

The Lease provides very strong protections for the Lessor in the event of a breach by the Lessee. In pertinent part, Section 4(D) of the Lease provides as follows:

All Rental and other Monetary Obligations which Lessee is required to pay hereunder shall be the unconditional obligation of Lessee and shall be payable in full when due without any setoff, abatement, deferment, deduction or counterclaim whatsoever, except as set forth herein.

(Emphasis added.) [Ex. 28 at p. 2.]

The term "Monetary Obligations" is defined in the Lease as follows:

[A]ll Rental and all other sums payable or reimbursable by Lessee under this Lease to Lessor, to any third party on behalf of Lessor, or to any Indemnified Party.

[Id. at p. 33.]

b. BHI is liable for all taxes flowing from their activities under the Lease.

Section 8 of the Lease requires Lessee to pay all taxes and assessments:

Taxes and Assessments. Lessee shall pay, prior to the earlier of delinquency or the accrual of interest on the unpaid balance, one hundred percent (100%) of the following (collectively, "Taxes"): all taxes and assessments of every type or nature assessed against or imposed upon the Property or Lessee during the Lease Term, including without limitation, all ad valorem taxes, assessments and special assessments upon the Property or any part thereof and upon any personal property, trade fixtures and improvements located on the Property, whether belonging to Lessor or Lessee, or any tax or charge levied in lieu of such taxes and assessments; all taxes, charges, license fees and or similar fees imposed by reason of the use of the Property by Lessee; and all excise, transaction, privilege, license, sales, use and other taxes upon the Rental or other Monetary Obligations hereunder, the leasehold estate of either party or the activities of either party pursuant to this Lease, and all interest, surcharges or service or other fees payable in connection with the foregoing.

c. Liquidated damages.

Section 20(B) of the Lease lays out the remedies available to the Lessor in the event of a breach by the Lessee. In pertinent part, it reads as follows:

Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, with or without notice or demand, except as otherwise expressly provided herein [...], Lessor shall be entitled to exercise, at its option, concurrently, successively, or in any combination, all remedies available at law or in equity, including without limitation, any one or more of the following:

- (i) To terminate this Lease, whereupon Lessee's right to possession of the Property shall cease and this Lease, except as to Lessee's liability, shall be terminated. Upon such termination, Lessor shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages equal to the total of
 - (i) the cost of recovering possession of the Property;[]
 - (v) costs of operating the Property until relet and the reasonable costs of performing any obligations of Lessee under this Lease to be performed upon termination or expiration of this Lease (including but not limited to the Lessee's obligations under Sections 12.D and 27 hereof); and
 - (vi) any other sum of money and damages reasonably necessary to compensate Lessor for the detriment caused by Lessee's default.

(iii) To bring an action against Lessee for any damages sustained by Lessor or any equitable relief available to Lessor.

[]

(v) To recover from Lessee all Costs paid or incurred by Lessor as a result of such breach, regardless of whether or not legal proceedings are actually commenced.

[]

(Emphasis added.) [Id. at pp. 17-18.]

d. "Costs" defined.

The term "Costs" is defined in the Lease as follows:

[A]ll reasonable costs and expenses incurred by a Person, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, court costs, expert witness fees, costs of tests and analyses, repair and maintenance, travel and

(Emphasis added.) [Id. at p. 30.]

e. Express indemnification against "any and all" Losses.

In addition, the Lease contains an extremely broad express indemnification provision in Section 15, which reads in pertinent part as follows:

[...] In addition to other specific indemnification provisions set forth in this Lease, Lessee shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties from and against any and all Losses caused by, incurred or resulting from Lessee's [...] breach of, default under, or failure to perform, any term or provision of this Lease by Lessee [...]

(Emphasis added.) [Id. at p. 14.]

The term "Indemnified Parties" is defined in the Lease as follows:

Lessor, any Lessor's Lenders and their members, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, employees, agents, servants, representatives, contractors, subcontractors, affiliates, subsidiaries, participants, successors and assigns, including, but not limited to, any successors by merger, consolidation or acquisition of all or a substantial portion of the assets and business of Lessor or any Lessor's Lenders, as applicable.

[Id. at p. 32.]

f. "Losses" defined.

The term "Losses" is defined in the Lease as follows:

[A]ny and all claims, suits, liabilities (including, without limitation, strict liabilities), actions, proceedings, obligations, debts, damages, losses, Costs, diminutions in value, fines, penalties, interest, charges, fees, judgments, awards, amounts paid in settlement and damages of whatever kind or nature, inclusive of bodily injury and property damage to third parties (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and other Costs of defense).

(Emphasis added.) [Id. at p. 33.]

g. Express attorneys' fees provision.

In addition to being recoverable as "Costs" (i.e., special damages) in several sections described above, an award of attorneys' fees is expressly provided for in Section 34 of the

Lease:

Attorneys' Fees. In the event of any judicial or other adversarial proceeding concerning this Lease, to the extent permitted by Law, Lessor the prevailing party [sic] shall be entitled to recover all of its reasonable attorneys' fees and other Costs in addition to any other relief to which it may be entitled. In addition, the prevailing party shall, upon demand, be entitled to all attorneys' fees and all other Costs incurred in the preparation and service of any notice or demand hereunder, whether or not a legal action is subsequently commenced.

(Emphasis added.) [Ex. 28 at p. 24.] It is important to note that under this section, the Lessor is entitled to both reasonable attorneys' fees and other Costs incurred as the prevailing party to litigation and to all attorneys' fees and Costs incurred prior to the litigation in which they prevail.

2. Relevant terms and provisions of the Herbst Guaranties.

In February and March of 2007, Herbst negotiated with Plaintiffs to modify some terms of their respective leases in return for which Herbst would provide Plaintiffs with a personal guarantee. Both the Wooley Plaintiffs and the Willard Plaintiffs accepted Herbst's offer. With respect to the Willard Plaintiffs, Herbst demanded that they shorten the lease term by thirty months in return for his personal guaranty; by doing so, the Willard Plaintiffs sacrified $5,250,045.20 in rent they would otherwise have received. [Dec. Willard at ¶ 14.

The terms in Highway 50 Guaranty and the Virginia Guaranty are absolutely identical. [Exs. 7, 37.] Within them, Herbst "unconditionally, absolutely, and irrevocably guarantees the timely payment and performance of each of BHI's obligations arising out of and under the Lease." [Ex. 7 at p. 1; Ex. 37 at p. 1]

In the event of a breach of the Lease by BHI, Herbst "will be directly responsible for the full extent of any unsatisfied Guaranteed Obligations," i.e., for "each of BHI's obligations arising out of and under the Lease." [Id. at § 1.]

In addition, Herbst waived "the effect of any fact, circumstance or event of any nature whatsoever that would exonerate, or constitute or give rise to a defense to" his obligations as guarantor." [Id. at § 2.]

C. Plaintiffs Are Entitled To Attorneys' Fees And Costs As Special Damages

Defendants contend that Plaintiffs are not entitled to attorneys' fees and costs incurred prior to commencement of the instant litigation. They also contend that such fees are only ever awardable on motion by a prevailing party. Both of these contentions are incorrect.

Nevada Supreme Court has held:

[W]hen a party claims it has incurred attorney fees as foreseeable damages arising from tortious conduct or a breach of contract, such fees are considered special damages. They must be pleaded as special damages in the complaint pursuant to NRCP 9(g) and proved by competent evidence just as any other element of damages. . . . [W]hen attorney fees are considered as an element of damages, they must be the natural and proximate consequence of the injurious conduct.

Sandy Valley Assocs. V. Sky Ranch Estates owners Ass'n, 117 Nev. 948, 956-57, 35 P.3d 964, 969 (2001), receded from on other grounds, Horgan v. Felton, 123 Nev. 577, 170 P.3d 982 (2007); see also Am. Fed. Of Musicians v. Reno's Riverside Hotel, Inc., 86 Nev. 695, 699, 475 P.2d 220, 222 (1970) ("It is appropriate in some cases to consider attorney's fees as an item of damage").

In their Verified Amended Complaint filed on January 21, 2015, Plaintiffs expressly sought compensation for the attorneys' fees and costs incurred prior to initiation of the instant matter as special damages.

Specifically, in Paragraphs 17 and 25 of Plaintiffs' Verified Amended Complaint, the Willard Plaintiffs alleged that, "As a further direct and proximate result of [BHI|Herbst] breaching the [Willard Lease|Herbst-Willard Guaranty], Willard filed for bankruptcy protection, incurring $22,623.00 in legal fees and $15,000.00 in accounting fees in the process." In Paragraphs 18 and 26, the Willard Plaintiffs alleged, "As a further direct and proximate result of BHI breaching the Willard Lease, the Willard Plaintiffs hired an attorney to file suit against BHI and Herbst in Santa Clara County, California, thereby incurring $35,000.00 in attorney's fees."

Likewise, in Paragraphs 42 and 56 of Plaintiffs' Verified Amended Complaint, the Wooley Plaintiffs alleged that, "As a further direct and proximate result of [BHI|Herbst] breaching [Wooley Lease #1|the Herbst-Wooley Guaranty], the Wooley Plaintiffs hired an attorney to file suit against BHI and Herbst in Santa Clara County, California, thereby incurring $45,088.00 in attorney's fees."

In addition, under Section 20(B)(v) of the Leases, Plaintiffs are entitled "To recover from Lessee all Costs paid or incurred by Lessor as a result of such breach, regardless of whether or not legal proceedings are actually commenced." [Ex. 28 at p. 18.] The term "Costs" is defined in Appendix "A" of the Leases and includes "all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by a Person, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses." [Id. at p. 30.]

Furthermore, Section 15 of the Leases provides that Defendants shall indemnify Plaintiffs against "any and all Losses caused by, incurred or resulting from [BHI's] . . . breach of, default under, or failure to perform any term or provision of this Lease . . . " [Id. at p. 14.]

Also, under the express Attorneys' Fees provision of the Leases, which is found in Section 34, once they have prevailed in litigation, Plaintiffs are entitled not only to recover "all of its reasonable attorneys' fees and other Costs," but is also "entitled to all attorneys' fees and all other costs incurred in the preparation and service of any notice of demand hereunder, whether or not a legal action is subsequently commenced." [Id. at p. 24.]

On top of all this, Defendants have once again falsely claimed in a pleading before this Court that they won their Motion to Dismiss in the California case, submitting as evidence in support thereof a "docket sheet" printed off the Web while omitting the fact that the court granted their Motion because Defendants did not take the hearing thereon off-calendar as required under the Joint Stipulation they signed but told Plaintiffs that they had done so. Regardless of whether or not Defendants intended to mislead Plaintiffs at the time, there is no excuse for Defendants fraudulently claiming that the Motion was won on the merits. All claims within Defendant's instant Motion insinuating that Plaintiffs have put forth frivolous claims pale in comparison to that.

Consequently, it is beyond dispute that Plaintiffs are entitled to recover attorneys' fees incurred in dealing with Defendants' breach prior to commencement of the instant action. Contrary to Defendants' assertion, such fees and costs are recoverable as special damages.

1. Willard is entitled to attorneys' fees and costs incurred in bankruptcy.

Many of the provisions of the Lease discussed above also serve to authorize recovery by Willard of the attorney fees and costs incurred when he filed for bankruptcy. Any argument that it was "unforeseeable" that Willard would take such action if Defendants breached the Virginia Lease and Guaranty is thoroughly refuted by virtue of BHI having signed a Subordination, Attornment and Nondisturbance Agreement in which they "consent[ed] to and approve[d] (a) all provisions of the Note and the Deed of Trust in favor of Lender, and (b) all agreements, including but not limited to any loan or escrow agreements, between Borrower and Lender for the disbursement of the proceeds of such Loan" [Ex. 29 at § 2.2] and furthermore acknowledged that but for BHI agreeing to subordinate the Virginia Lease in favor of the Deed of Trust, the loan would not have been made. [Id. at § 2.4.]

Having acknowledged and approved of all provisions of the Note securing the Willard Plaintiff's loan in excess of $13 million for the purchase of the Virginia Property for $17.75 million, it was both eminently foreseeable and highly probable that Willard would have to file for bankruptcy in the event that Defendants' breached the Virginia Lease and he was no longer receiving the $140,000.00+/month in rent, $87,000.00 of which went directly to pay the loan.

Consequently, with respect to Plaintiffs' claims for attorneys' fees and costs incurred prior to the instant litigation, Defendant's Motion must be denied.

D. Under The Leases, All Losses Flowing From The Breach Recoverable

Under Nevada law, a plaintiff is not limited to recovery of direct damages for breach of contract but may also recover consequential damages that were contemplated or reasonably foreseeable to the contracting parties when the contract was formed. See Colo. Env'ts, Inc. v. Valley Grading Corp., 105 Nev. 464, 471, 779 P.2d 80, 84 (1989).

"Under well settled rules of contract construction, a court has no power to create a new contract for the parties which they have not created or intended themselves. Parties are presumed to contract with reference to existing statutes. Applicable statutes will generally be incorporated into the contract; however, other legal principles may govern the legal relationship where they are expressly set forth in the contract. Indeed, 'when parties to a contract foresee a condition which may develop and provide in their contract a remedy for the happening of that condition, the presumption is that the parties intended the prescribed remedy as the sole remedy for that condition." Gilman v. Gilman, 114 Nev. 416, 426, 956 P.2d 761, 767 (1998) (internal citations omitted).

Here, the Leases contain numerous provisions authorizing Plaintiffs to recover "any and all" damages proximately flowing from a breach. To wit, the liquidated damages clause in Section 20(B)(i)(vi) allows Plaintiffs to recover "any other sum of money and damages reasonably necessary to compensate Lessor for the detriment caused by Lessee's default. . . ." [Ex. 28 at p. 18.] Likewise, Section 15 expressly provides that "Lessee shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold harmless [Lessor] from and against any and all Losses caused by, incurred or resulting from Lessee's [. . .] breach of, default under, or failure to perform any term or provision of this Lease by Lessee." [Id. at p. 14.] The "Losses" covered include "any and all claims, suits, liabilities [. . .] actions, proceedings, obligations, debts, damages, losses, Costs, diminutions in value, fines, penalties, interest, charges, fees, [. . .] and damages of whatever kind or nature. . . ." [Id. at p. 30.]

Defendants do not dispute the fact that the Baring Property and the Highway 50 Property were cross-collateralized, nor have they countered the fact that as a result, due to Defendants' breach the Wooley Plaintiffs were forced to sell the Baring Property in order to not lose both properties. Consequently, under the provisions discussed above, the Wooley Plaintiffs are clearly entitled to compensation for the losses they incurred.

With respect to Defendant's admitted confusion regarding the Wooley Plaintiffs' claims, the Wooley Plaintiffs incurred a tax liability from the sale of the Baring Property due to the loss of shelter provided by the 1031 Exchange under which it had been purchased, triggering liability for carry-over capital gains. [Decl. Wooley at ¶ 27.]

In their Motion, Defendants claim that "Contrary to Wooley's claim that the Baring Property was sold at a loss, the closing statement for the sale of the Baring Property states that Wooley sold the Baring Property at a gain of $870,844.39, which Wooley admits that he deposited in his bank account." The Wooley Plaintiffs purchased the Baring Property for

1	$3,286,552.00 [Ex. 9] and sold it for $3,1000,000.000 [Ex. 24]—obviously incurring a net loss.
2	The fact that Wooley received $870,844.39 at close of escrow ignores the fact that he tendered
3	over $1 million in earnest money to purchase it.
4	Overall, every category of damages Defendants seek to exclude are recoverable under the
5	express terms of the Lease, and, as evidenced by the Affidavits and Exhibits accompanying this
6	Opposition, all of the claimed damages were the direct and proximate result of Defendants'
7	breach.
8	Consequently, Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment should be denied.
9	IV.
10	CONCLUSION
11	Based on the foregoing argument, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court deny
12	Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment.

In consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, Lessor and Lessee hereby covenant and agree as follows:

- 1. Certain Defined Terms. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in Exhibit A hereto.
- 2. Lease of Property; Use; Possession. In consideration of the Rentals and other Monetary Obligations to be paid by Lessee and of the other terms, covenants and conditions on Lessee's part to be kept and performed, Lessor hereby leases to Lessee, and Lessee hereby takes and leases, the Property (as such term is defined in Exhibit A attached hereto and which Property is located at the address set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto and situated on the real property legally described in Exhibit B attached hereto), subject to the Permitted Encumbrances, all Legal Requirements (including any existing violation thereof), and the condition of the Property as of the Effective Date; provided, however, that the recital of the Permitted Encumbrances herein shall not be construed as a revival of any Permitted Encumbrance which may have expired or been terminated. During the Lease Term, the Property shall be used solely for the operation of a Permitted Facility, and related purposes such as ingress, egress and parking.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Lessee waives the implied warranty of suitability of the Property and Lessee acknowledges that it has accepted the Property "as is," in its current condition, with no representations, warranties or covenants, express or implied, on the part of the Lessor with respect to condition of the same or the suitability of the Property for Lessee's intended use.

3. Lease Term; Extension. The initial term of this Lease ("Initial Term") shall commence May 1, 2006 ("Effective Date") and shall expire at midnight on April 30, 2006 ("Expiration Date"), unless terminated sooner as provided in this Lease and as may be extended as provided herein. The time period during which this Lease shall actually be in effect, including any Extension Term, is referred to herein as the "Lease Term." Lessee shall have the right and option (each, an "Extension Option") to extend the Initial Term for two (2) additional successive periods of five (5) years each (each, an "Extension Term"), pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Lease then in effect. Lessee may only exercise the Extension Options by giving written notice thereof to Lessor of its election to do so first, no later than two hundred forty (240) days prior to the Expiration Date and two hundred forty (240) days prior to the immediately preceding Extension Term, as the case may be. If written notice of the exercise of any Extension Option is not received by Lessor by the applicable dates described above, then this Lease shall terminate on the last day of the Initial Term or, if applicable, the last day of the Extension Term then in effect.

4. Rental and Other Monetary Obligations.

- A. Base Monthly Rental. During the Initial Term, on or before the first day of each calendar month, Lessee shall pay in advance the Base Monthly Rental; provided, however, if the Effective Date is a date other than the first day of the month, Lessee shall pay to Lessor (or any other party designated by Lessor) on the Effective Date the Base Monthly Rental prorated by multiplying the Base Monthly Rental by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days remaining in the month (including the Effective Date) for which Rental is being paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in such month. During the Extension Terms, if any, Lessee shall pay the Rental (including the Base Monthly Rental) in the manner set forth in this Section 4. Unless otherwise specifically stated to the contrary herein, Lessee shall perform all its obligations under this Lease at its sole cost and expense and shall pay all Rental and any other Monetary Obligation due hereunder when due and payable, without notice or demand.
- B. Adjustments. On the first Adjustment Date and on each Adjustment Date thereafter, the Base Annual Rental shall increase by an amount equal to the Rent Adjustment. The "Rent Adjustment" shall be an amount equal to two percent (2%) of the Base Annual Rental in effect immediately prior to the applicable Adjustment Date. The Adjustment Date shall be on the annual anniversary of the Effective Date.
- C. Additional Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge, as additional rental ("Additional Rental"), all sums of money required to be paid by Lessee under this Lease which are not specifically referred to as Base Annual Rental or Base Monthly Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge any Additional Rental when the same shall become due, provided that amounts which are billed to Lessor or any third party, but not to Lessee, shall be paid within five (5) days after Lessor's demand for payment thereof or, if later, when the same are due. In no event shall Lessee be required to pay to Lessor any item of Additional Rental that Lessee is obligated to pay and has paid to any third party pursuant to any provision of this Lease.
- D. Payment of Rental and Other Monetary Obligations. All Rental and other Monetary Obligations which Lessee is required to pay hereunder shall be the unconditional obligation of Lessee and shall be payable in full when due without any setoff, abatement, deferment, deduction or counterclaim whatsoever, except as set forth herein. All payments of Base Monthly Rental and any other Monetary Obligations payable to Lessor shall be remitted to Lessor at Lessor's address set forth in the first paragraph of this Lease or such other address as Lessor may designate pursuant to Section 24 hereof.
- E. Late Payment Charge. Lessee acknowledges that late payment by Lessee to Lessor of Rental will cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of such costs being extremely difficult and impracticable to fix in advance. Such costs include, without limitation, processing and accounting charges, and late charges that may be imposed on Lessor by the terms of any encumbrance and note secured by any encumbrance covering the Property. Therefore, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee to Lessor pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, then Lessee shall pay to Lessor, as a late payment charge, five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment. Additionally, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, such payment shall bear interest at the Default Rate until received by Lessor. The late payment charge and default interest shall be paid to Lessor at the time of payment of the delinquent amount. The late payment charge and the default interest charge shall compensate Lessor for the expenses incurred by Lessor in financing, collecting and processing the late payment. The parties agree that the late charge and the default interest charge represent a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs that Lessor will incur by reason of late payment by Lessee.

- Gaming. Lessor hereby conditionally assigns to Lessee all leases, written or oral, and all agreements for use or occupancy of the Property together with any and all extensions and renewals thereof and any and all further leases, subleases, lettings or agreements (including subleases thereof and tenancies following attornment) upon or covering the use or occupancy of the Property all of which leases, agreements, subleases and tenancies are herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Assigned Leases"; (ii) the immediate and continuing right to collect and receive all of the rents, income, receipts, revenues, issues and profits now due or which may become due or which may now or hereafter become due from or out of the Assigned Leases or any part thereof, including, but not limited to, security deposits, minimum rents, additional rents, parking rents, deficiency rents and liquidated damages following default, any premium payable by any tenant upon the exercise of a cancellation privilege contained in its Lease; all proceeds payable under any policy of insurance covering loss of rents resulting from untenantability caused by destruction or damage to the Property; any and all rights and claims of any kind which Lessor has or hereafter may have against the tenants under the Assigned Leases and any subtenants and other occupants of the Property; any award granted Lessor after the date hereof in any court proceeding involving any tenant in any bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization proceedings in any state or federal court and any and all payments made by any tenant in lieu of rent (any and all such moneys, rights and claims identified in this paragraph are herein sometimes referred to as the "Rents" and sometimes as the "Rent"); and (iii) all of the rights, powers and privileges of Lessor (A) to accept prepayment of more than one (1) monthly installment of the Rent thereunder, and (B) except with respect to the Assigned Lease, (I) to cancel, terminate or accept the surrender of any Assigned Lease, and (II) to amend, modify or abridge any of the terms, covenants or conditions of any Assigned Lease. The assignment contained in this Section 5 and Lessee's interest in the Assigned Leases shall become void and of no further force or effect upon the expiration or early termination of this Lease and upon such event, Lessor shall be the sole party with any interest as a landlord or lessor in the Assigned Leases. Furthermore, Lessee shall have no right to collect any amounts under the Assigned Leases upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default and all such amounts shall be paid to Lessor during any such period.
- 6. Nevada Gaming Control Board. Lessor will follow all laws of the State of Nevada and cooperate with WGI in making application to the Nevada Gaming Control Board as may be required.

- Rentals To Be Net to Lessor. The Base Annual Rental payable hereunder shall 7. be net to Lessor, so that this Lease shall yield to Lessor the Rentals specified during the Lease Term, and all Costs and obligations of every kind and nature whatsoever relating to the Property shall be performed and paid by Lessee, including but not limited to all impositions, operating charges, maintenance charges, construction costs and any other charges, costs and expenses now existing or that arise or may be contemplated under the Permitted Encumbrances or otherwise, all maintenance and repair expenses, all utility expenses, all Taxes, all premiums for insurance required to be maintained by Lessee pursuant to the terms hereof and all other expenses, charges, assessments and costs associated with the Property or otherwise provided to be paid by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease. All such charges, costs and expenses shall constitute Additional Rental and upon the failure of Lessee to pay any of such costs, charges or expenses, Lessor shall have the same rights and remedies as otherwise provided in this Lease for the failure of Lessee to pay Base Annual Rental. It is the intention of the parties except as expressly provided herein that this Lease shall not be terminable for any reason by Lessee, and that Lessee shall in no event be entitled to any abatement of, or reduction in, Rental payable under this Lease, except as otherwise expressly provided herein. Any present or future law to the contrary shall not alter this agreement of the parties.
- the accrual of interest on the unpaid balance, one hundred percent (100%) of the following (collectively, "Taxes"): all taxes and assessments of every type or nature assessed against or imposed upon the Property or Lessee during the Lease Term, including without limitation, all ad valorem taxes, assessments and special assessments upon the Property or any part thereof and upon any personal property, trade fixtures and improvements located on the Property, whether belonging to Lessor or Lessee, or any tax or charge levied in lieu of such taxes and assessments; all taxes, charges, license fees and or similar fees imposed by reason of the use of the Property by Lessee; and all excise, transaction, privilege, license, sales, use and other taxes upon the Rental or other Monetary Obligations hereunder, the leasehold estate of either party or the activities of either party pursuant to this Lease, and all interest, surcharges or service or other fees payable in connection with the foregoing.

Within thirty (30) days after each tax and assessment payment is required by this Section to be paid and upon request of Lessor, Lessee shall, upon prior written request of Lessor, provide Lessor with evidence reasonably satisfactory to Lessor that such payment was made in a timely fashion. Lessee may, at its own expense, contest or cause to be contested by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, any above-described item or lien with respect thereto, including, without limitation, the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any such item, provided that (A) neither the Property nor any interest therein would be in any danger of being sold, forfeited or lost by reason of such proceedings, (B) no monetary Event of Default has occurred, (C) Lessee shall promptly provide Lessor with copies of all notices received or delivered by Lessee and filings made by Lessee in connection with such proceeding, and (D) Lessee shall indemnify and hold Lessor harmless against any loss, Costs or damages arising from or related to such contest.

If Lessee shall fail to pay any Taxes when due and before any delinquency, penalty or interest is imposed on such Taxes, Lessor shall have the right to pay the same after notice to Lessee, in which case Lessee shall repay in full such amount to Lessor with Lessee's next Base Monthly Rental installment together with interest at the Default Rate.

- Quilities. Lessee shall contract, in its own name, for and pay when due (and hold Lessor free and harmless from) all charges for the connection and use of water, gas, electricity, telephone, garbage collection, sewer use and other utility services supplied to the Property during the Lease Term. All utility charges, assessments and fees for the last year of the Lease shall be prorated as of the termination date of this Lease. No full or partial utility deprivation including, but not limited to, blackout, brownout, or rationing, nor any loss of or damage to improvements related to disruption or failure of any utility service shall give rise to any abatement of Rentals nor give rise to any right of Lessee to offset Rentals or to terminate the Lease, unless caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Lessor or its agents, employees or contractors (but not of any other tenants or occupants of the Property). Lessor shall reasonably cooperate with Lessee, but without out-of-pocket expense to Lessor, in Lessee's efforts to restore utility service to the Property; provided, however, that if the utility service was disrupted due to Lessor's gross negligence or willful misconduct, then the cost of such restoration shall be borne by Lessor.
- 10. Insurance. Throughout the Lease Term, Lessee shall maintain, at its sole expense, the following types and amounts of insurance:
 - Insurance against loss or damage to the Property and all buildings and improvements thereon under an "all risk" insurance policy, which shall include coverage against all risks of direct physical loss, including loss by fire, lightning, and other risks normally included in the standard ISO special form (which shall include coverage for all risks commonly insured for properties similar to the Property in the Reno, Nevada area, including insurance coverage for damage caused by earthquake, flood, tornado, windstorm and other disasters for which insurance is customarily maintained for similar commercial properties). Such insurance shall be in amounts sufficient to prevent Lessor from becoming a co-insurer under the applicable policies, and in any event, after application of deductible, in amounts not less than 100% of the full insurable replacement cost. Such insurance shall contain an agreed valuation provision in lieu of any coinsurance clause, an increased cost of construction endorsement, debris removal coverage and a waiver of subrogation endorsement in favor of Lessor. While any portion of the improvements on the Property is being rebuilt on the Land, Lessee shall provide such property insurance in builder's risk completed value form, including coverage available on the so-called "all-risk" non-reporting form of policy in an amount equal to 100% of the full insurable replacement value of the improvements on the Property or such portion as is being rebuilt. The insurance policy shall insure Lessee as loss payee. No parties other than Lessor, Lessor's Lender and Lessee may be named as insureds or loss payees on such property insurance policy.
 - B. Commercial general liability insurance, including products and completed operation liability, covering Lessor and Lessee against bodily injury liability, property damage liability and personal and advertising injury, liquor liability coverage (to the extent liquor is sold or manufactured at the Property), garage liability coverage including without limitation any liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, repair, condition or operation of the Property or adjoining ways, streets, parking lots or Sample Lease 1/4/2006 sidewalks. Such insurance policy or policies shall contain a broad form contractual liability endorsement under which the insurer agrees to insure Lessee's obligations under Section 15 hereof to the extent insurable, and a "severability of interest" clause or endorsement which precludes the insurer from denying the claim of Lessee, Lessor or Lessor's Lender because of the negligence or other acts of the other, shall be in amounts of not less than $2,000,000 per occurrence for bodily injury and property damage, and $2,000,000 general aggregate per location, or such higher limits as Lessor may reasonably require from time to time or as may be required by the Permitted Encumbrances, and shall be of form and substance satisfactory to Lessor.

- C. Workers' compensation insurance in the statutorily mandated limits covering all persons employed by Lessee on the Property or any persons employed by Lessee in connection with any work done on or about any Property for which claims for death or bodily injury could be asserted against Lessor, Lessee or the Property, together with Employers Liability Insurance with limits of not less than $100,000 per accident or disease and $500,000 aggregate by disease.
- D. Rental value insurance, equal to 100% of the Base Annual Rental (as may adjusted hereunder) for a period of not less than twelve (12) months; which insurance shall be carved out of Lessee's business interruption coverage for a separate rental value insurance payable to Lessor, or if rental value insurance is included in Lessee's business interruption coverage, the insurer shall provide priority payment to any Rental obligations, and such obligations shall be paid directly to Lessor. Such insurance is to follow form of the real property "all risk" coverage and is not to contain a co-insurance clause.
- E. Comprehensive Boiler & Machinery Insurance against loss or damage from explosion of any steam or pressure boilers or similar apparatus, if any, located in or about the Property in an amount not less than the actual replacement cost of the Property. Such insurance should be in an amount of the lesser of 25% of the 100% replacement cost or $5,000,000.00.

All insurance policies shall:

- (i) Provide (1) for a waiver of subrogation by the insurer as to claims against Lessor, Lessor's Lenders and their employees, officers and agents, (2) that the insurer shall not deny a claim and that such insurance cannot be unreasonably cancelled, invalidated or suspended on account of the conduct of Lessee, its officers, directors, employees or agents, or anyone acting for Lessee or any sublessee or other occupant of the Property, and (3) that any losses otherwise payable thereunder shall be payable notwithstanding any act or omission of Lessor, Lessor's Lenders or Lessee which might, absent such provision, result in a forfeiture of all or a part of such insurance payment;
- (ii) Be primary and provide that any "other insurance" clause in the insurance policy shall exclude any policies of insurance maintained by Lessor and

Sample Lease 1/4/2006 the insurance policy shall not be brought into contribution with insurance maintained by Lessor;

- (iii) intentionally omitted
- (iv) Contain a standard non-contributory mortgagee clause or endorsement in favor of any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor;
- (v) Provide that the policy of insurance shall not be terminated, cancelled or amended without at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Lessor and to any Lessor's Lender covered by any standard mortgagee clause or endorsement;
- (vi) Provide that the insurer shall not have the option to restore the Property if Lessor elects to terminate this Lease in accordance with the terms hereof:
- (vii) Be in amounts sufficient at all times to satisfy any coinsurance requirements thereof;
- (viii) Except for workers' compensation insurance referred to in Section 10.C above, name Lessor and any Lessor Affiliate requested by Lessor, as an "additional insured" (and, with respect to any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor, as an "additional insured mortgagee") with respect to general liability insurance, and as a "named insured" with respect to real property and "loss payee" with respect to all real property and rent value insurance, as appropriate and as their interests may appear;
- (ix) Be evidenced by delivery to Lessor and any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor of an Acord Form 28 for property coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor) and an Acord Form 25 for liability, workers' compensation and umbrella coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor); provided that in the event that either such form is no longer available, such evidence of insurance shall be in a form reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and any lender designated by Lessor; such certificates of insurance shall be delivered to Lessor prior to the Effective Date; and
- (x) Be issued by insurance companies licensed to do business in the states where the Property is located and which are rated A:VIII or better by Best's Insurance Guide or are otherwise approved by Lessor.

It is expressly understood and agreed that (I) if any insurance required hereunder, or any part thereof, shall expire, be withdrawn, become void by breach of any condition thereof by Lessee, or become void or in jeopardy by reason of the failure or impairment of the capital of any insurer, Lessee shall immediately obtain new or additional insurance reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and any lender designated by Lessor; (II) the foregoing minimum limits of insurance coverage shall not limit the liability of Lessee for its acts or omissions as provided in this Lease;

and (III) Lessee shall procure policies for all insurance for periods of not less than one year and shall provide to Lessor and any servicer or lender of Lessor certificates of insurance or, upon Lessor's request, duplicate originals of insurance policies evidencing that insurance satisfying the requirements of this Lease is in effect at all times.

Lessee shall pay as they become due all premiums for the insurance required by this Section 10. In the event that Lessee fails to comply with any of the foregoing requirements of this Section 10 within ten (10) days of the giving of written notice by Lessor to Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to procure such insurance. Any sums expended by Lessor in procuring such insurance shall be Additional Rental and shall be repaid by Lessee, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate, from the time of payment by Lessor until fully paid by Lessee immediately upon written demand therefor by Lessor.

Anything in this Section 10 to the contrary notwithstanding, any insurance which Lessee is required to obtain pursuant to this Section 10 may be carried under a "blanket" policy or policies covering other properties or liabilities of Lessee provided that such "blanket" policy or policies that otherwise comply with the provisions of this Section 10 and specify the location of the Property.

- 11. Intentionally Omitted
- 12. Compliance With Laws, Restrictions, Covenants, Encumbrances and Agreements. It is expressly understood and agreed that the obligations of Lessee under this Section shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease for any reason.
 - A. Legal and Gaming Law Compliance. Lessee's use and occupation of the Property, the use and occupation of the Property by any other person (including but not limited to any subtenants and WGI) and the condition of the Property, shall, at Lessee's sole cost and expense, comply with all Legal Requirements (including without limitation the Americans with Disabilities Act and all Legal Requirements related to gaming operations and the sales of tobacco and liquor on the Property). Lessee shall promptly file, or cause to be filed, and provide to Lessor any notices, reports or other filings that Lessee or any other Person is required to file or provide to any Governmental Authorities regarding the business operations conducted on or from the Property, including but not limited to those described in Subsection D(iii) hereof and those required by Governmental Authorities with respect to gaming operations and the sales of tobacco and liquor on the Property, including any filings required to be made in connection with the change of ownership or control of Lessee and, within fifteen (15) days of Lessee's receipt of written notice from Lessor of any planned or actual change in the ownership or control of Lessor or any planned or actual change in the Property.
 - B. Acts Resulting in Increased Insurance Rates. Lessee will use its commercially reasonable efforts to prevent any act or condition to exist on or about the Property which will materially increase any insurance rate thereon, except when such acts are required in the normal course of its business and Lessee shall pay for such increase. Lessee shall comply with all orders and directives of any insurance companies issuing liability, fire, or extended coverage insurance pursuant to Section 10 hereof, and Lessee shall not do, bring, or keep anything in or about the Property that will cause a cancellation of any insurance covering the Property.

C. Prevention of Nuisance. Lessee shall not commit nor cause or permit to be committed any public or private nuisance on the Property.

D. Environmental.

- (i) Covenants. All uses and operations on or of the Property, including the use and operation of UST's on the Property, whether by Lessee or any other Person, shall be in compliance with all Environmental Laws and permits issued pursuant thereto. Lessee shall keep the Property or cause the Property to be kept free and clear of all Environmental Liens, whether due to any act or omission of Lessee or any other Person. Lessee hereby represents and warrants that Lessee shall not install and shall not permit any person to install any asbestos containing materials ("ACM") or materials or equipment containing polychlorinated biphenyl ("PCBs") in the Property, and to the extent any ACM, PCBs or other Hazardous Materials are on or in the Property, the same shall be maintained, stored and used in accordance with all Legal Requirements.
- Notification Requirements. Lessee shall immediately notify Lessor (ii) in writing upon Lessee obtaining actual knowledge of (1) any Releases or Threatened Releases in, on, under or from the Property other than in Permitted Amounts, or migrating towards any of the Property; (2) any non-compliance with any Environmental Laws related in any way to any of the Property; (3) any actual or potential Environmental Lien; (4) any required or proposed Remediation of environmental conditions relating to any of the Property required by applicable Governmental Authorities; and (5) any written or oral notice or other communication which Lessee becomes aware from any source whatsoever (including but not limited to a Governmental Authority) relating in any way to Hazardous Materials, Regulated Substances or USTs, or Remediation thereof at or on the Property, other than in Permitted Amounts, possible liability of any Person relating to the Property pursuant to any Environmental Law, other environmental conditions in connection with the Property, or any actual or potential administrative or judicial proceedings in connection with anything referred to in this Subsection D.
- (iii) Reports and Investigations. Lessee shall promptly supply Lessor with copies of all reports of any testing of the Property conducted by or at the request of Lessor or any Governmental Authorities and all submissions by Lessee to any Governmental Authority concerning environmental matters, the USTs, or Hazardous Materials. Lessee shall furnish to Lessor certificates of enrollment issued by the State of Nevada, Division of Environmental Projection, for each UST at the Property no later than October 30 of each year, and gasoline storage tank permits issued by the Department of Air Quality Management of the County in which the Property is located with respect to each UST on the Property no later than May 5 of each year, and such other certificates or permits as may be issued Sample Lease 1/4/2006 or required by any other Governmental Authority; all of the foregoing shall evidence continuing compliance of each UST on the Property with all applicable Legal Requirements. Additionally, upon Lessor's reasonable request in the event that Lessor reasonably suspects that Contamination (as hereafter defined) may have occurred or be occurring at the Property, Lessee agrees to perform, at Lessee's sole expense, an environmental assessment of the Property, including soil borings, to confirm whether such Contamination is occurring. Additionally, at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Lease Term, Lessee agrees to perform an environmental assessment of the Property in order to define the nature and extent of Contamination, if any.

Indemnification. Lessee shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold each of the Indemnified Parties free and harmless from and against any and all Losses, arising from or caused in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by any of the following, unless arising from or caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnified Party requesting indemnification: (a) the use, storage, transportation, disposal, release, discharge or generation of Hazardous Materials to, in, on, under or about the Property (whether occurring before or after the date hereof) (any of the foregoing in violation of Legal Requirements is "Contamination"), including diminution in value of the Property; and (b) the cost of any required or necessary repair, remediation, cleanup or detoxification and the preparation of any closure or other required plans or reports, whether such action is required or necessary prior to or following transfer of title to the Property (such acts are sometimes referred to herein as "Corrective Action"), and (c) Lessee's failure to comply with any Legal Requirements. Lessee's obligations to perform Correction Action shall include, without limitation, and whether foreseeable or unforeseeable, all cost of any investigation (including consultants and attorneys fees and testing) required or necessary repair, remediation, restoration clean up, detoxification or decontamination of the Property and the preparation and implementation of any closure, remedial action or other required plans in connection therewith, and shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Term of this Lease. This agreement to indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties shall be in addition to any other obligations or liabilities Lessee may have to Lessor or the Indemnified Parties, if any, at common law under all statutes and ordinances or otherwise and survive the termination of the Lease.

In the event that Lessee is required to perform Corrective Action to address any Contamination, Lessee shall perform such activities in a diligent manner. In the event that Lessee has not completed its Corrective Action (if necessary), as required herein, by the expiration of the Lease Term, Lessor shall grant Lessee, and its consultants, contractors and agents a revocable license, at no cost to Lessee except as set forth in the succeeding sentence, to enter upon the Property from and after the date of expiration of the Lease Term to conduct Corrective Action and to place and remove all necessary equipment and improvements on the Property sufficient to satisfy the requirements of all Governmental Authorities regarding the Contamination. If such post-expiration

Corrective Action will unreasonably interfere with a reasonably foreseeable intended commercial use of the Property (i.e., if Lessor cannot reasonably lease the Property for reasonable commercial uses at reasonable market rents), the Lease Term shall be extended until sixty (60) days after the Corrective Action has been performed such that post-expiration Corrective Action by Lessee no longer unreasonably interferes with a reasonably foreseeable commercial use of the Property, and Lessee agrees to keep Lessor apprised of the anticipated completion date of the Corrective Action.

- E. Intentionally Omitted..
- F. Dealer Requirements. In addition to the requirements set forth in this Lease, Lessee, in its use, occupancy and maintenance of the Property shall comply with all requirements of its Dealer Agreements with Dealer. - G. WGI Agreements. Lessee represents that the WGI Agreement is in full force and effect, and that the WGI Agreement permits WGI to operate gaming machines on the Property. Lessee shall abide by all the terms and conditions of the WGI Agreement, and Lessee represents and warrants that WGI has approved this Lease, if WGI has such approval rights under the WGI Agreement.
- H. Winner's Corner. Lessee shall at all times operate the gas station and convenience store on the Property under the trade name "Winner's Corner" and/or under a major oil brand (such as Chevron, BP, Amoco, Shell, Sun Oil, or the such).

Lessee shall, at its sole cost and expense, be responsible for keeping all of the buildings, structures, improvements and signs erected on the Property in good and substantial order, condition, and repair, including but not limited to replacement, maintenance and repair of all structural or load-bearing elements, roofs, walls, foundations, gutters and downspouts, heating, ventilating and air conditioning systems, any building security and monitoring system, windows, walls, doors, electrical and other utility systems and equipment, mechanical equipment, plumbing and all other components of the buildings, moving of lawns and care, weeding and replacement of plantings; replacing, resurfacing and striping of walkways, driveways and parking areas, and adjacent public sidewalks; removal of snow and ice from the Property and adjacent public sidewalks, removal of trash, maintenance of utility lines and exterior lighting and signage on Property, and any maintenance, repairs or replacements (or fees or reserves therefor) as may be required by any Permitted Encumbrances. All such replacements, maintenance and repair shall keep the Property in good repair and in a clean, safe, and sanitary condition and in compliance with all Legal Requirements and insurance regulations. Lessee must make all repairs, corrections, replacements, improvements or alterations necessitated by age, Lessee's use, or natural elements or as required pursuant to Governmental Authorities or Legal Requirements. Lessee expressly waives the benefit of any statute now or hereinafter in effect which would otherwise afford

Lessee the right to make repairs, corrections, improvements or alterations at Lessor's expense or to terminate this Lease because of Lessor's failure to keep the Property in good order, condition or repair, or which would otherwise require Lessor to make repairs, corrections, improvements, replacements or alterations. If the buildings or any improvements on the Property violate any Permitted Encumbrances or Legal Requirements, then Lessee shall, upon the written demand of a Governmental Authority or the written demand of a party to or beneficiary of any Permitted Encumbrance, repair, restore, relocate and/or rebuild the same in accordance with Legal Requirements (including any special or conditional use permits or other variances granted specifically for the Property) and the Permitted Encumbrances.

Lessee shall, at its sole cost and expense, be responsible to repair or reconstruct damage or destruction to any buildings, structures or improvements erected on the Property from acts of God or any other catastrophes or causes. Any such repairs or reconstruction shall restore the buildings and all improvements on the Property to substantially the same condition immediately prior to such damages or destruction and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect, provided, however, that Lessee shall have the right to replace the improvements with different structures so long as (a) the value of the Property with such different structures is no less than the value of the Property immediately prior to the date of casualty and the different square footage of the new buildings is no less than the buildings existing as of the date hereof, and (b) the new structure can be built and occupied in compliance with Legal Requirements (including any special or conditional use permits or other variances granted specifically for the Property) and the Permitted Encumbrances. Such repair, restoration, relocation and rebuilding (all of which are herein called a "repair") shall be commenced within a reasonable time however no more than thirty (30) days after the later of (i) the date that such damage or destruction occurred, (ii) the date that all permits and other approvals necessary to authorize such rebuilding have been issued following reasonable pursuit of the same by Lessee, and (iii) the date that any insurance proceeds payable to Lessor or its lender in conjunction with such damage or destruction, if any, have been made available to Lessee as set forth herein; thereafter, the repair shall be diligently pursued to completion. Lessee shall give Lessor at least fifteen (15) days written notice prior to commencing the repair to permit the Lessor to post appropriate notices of non-responsibility, and all such repair work shall be subject to the provisions of Section 14 hereof related to alterations, improvements and additions to the Property.

The proceeds of any insurance maintained under Section 10 hereof shall be made available to Lessee for payment of costs and expense of repair.

Lessee shall not commit actual or constructive waste upon the Property. During the Lease Term, Lessee may construct any additions or improvements to the Property and make such structural or non-structural alterations to the Property as are reasonably necessary or desirable for Lessee's use of the Property for a Permitted Facility. All improvements, alterations, or additions shall be constructed by Lessee at Lessee's sole cost and expense. Prior to the commencement of construction of any additions, improvements, or alterations to the Property, Lessee shall give Lessor at least fifteen (15) days written notice to allow Lessor to post appropriate notices of non-responsibility. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, without Lessor's prior written consent, Lessee shall not make any alterations that will decrease the value or function of the improvements located on the Property.

Lessee's right to make any alterations, improvements and additions shall be deemed conditioned upon Lessee acquiring a permit to do so from appropriate Governmental Authorities, the furnishing of a copy thereof to Lessor prior to the commencement of the work and the compliance by Lessee of all conditions of said permit in a prompt and expeditious manner. All alterations, improvements or other construction by Lessee shall be in compliance with all Legal Requirements, and all alterations and improvements shall be done and performed in good and workmanlike manner, using new and first quality materials. All costs of any such improvements shall be paid by Lessee.

Upon completion of any such work, Lessee shall submit to Lessor as-built plans of any structural, mechanical or interior utility improvements and alterations made, a sworn construction statement, lien waivers from all persons or entities providing materials, services or equipment for the work completed and, if available, an endorsement to Lessor's policy of title insurance or other evidence from a title company confirming the absence of any liens or other matters of record related to the work performed.

Unless expressly released by Lessor in writing, all improvements or alterations shall be and remain, at the time of expiration or other termination of this Lease, the property of Lessor without payment or offset unless such improvements are not attached to the Property. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all plumbing, electrical, HVAC equipment, doors, ceiling and floor tiles, and wall coverings shall become the property of Lessor and remain in place on the Property upon expiration or other termination of this Lease.

During the Lease Term, Lessee shall have the right to locate in the Property such personal property, furniture, trade fixtures, and equipment (hereafter referred to as "Fixtures and Equipment") as shall be considered by Lessee to be appropriate or necessary to Lessee's use and occupancy of the Property.

All Fixtures and Equipment shall be provided by Lessee at Lessee's own cost and expense. During the term of this Lease, Lessee may remove any Fixtures and Equipment installed by Lessee, and any and all such Fixtures and Equipment shall remain the sole property of Lessee. Lessee shall perform (and pay all costs associated with) any and all restoration necessitated by the removal of Lessee's Fixtures and Equipment, including but not limited to damage resulting from removal of any of Lessee's signs in or about the Property.

Lessee shall keep the Property free and clear of all mechanic's, materialmen or similar liens, including, but not limited to, those resulting from the construction of alterations, improvements, additions, trade fixtures, and equipment performed by or for Lessee.

On final determination of the lien or claim of lien Lessee will immediately pay any judgment rendered, and all costs and charges, and shall cause the lien to be released or satisfied. In addition, Lessor may require Lessee to pay Lessor's reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in participating in such action if Lessor shall decide it is in its best interest to do so.

- and hereby releases Lessor and Lessor's agents and employees from all claims for any damage or injury to the full extent permitted by law. Lessee agrees that Lessor shall not be responsible or liable to Lessee or Lessee's employees, agents, customers or invitees for bodily injury, personal injury or property damage occasioned by the acts or omissions of any other lessee or such lessee's employees, agents, contractors, customers or invitees. In addition to other specific indemnification provisions set forth in this Lease, Lessee shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties from and against any and all Losses caused by, incurred or resulting from Lessee's use and occupancy of the Property, whether relating to its original design or construction, latent defects, alteration, maintenance, use by Lessee or any Person thereon, with supervision or otherwise, or from any breach of, default under, or failure to perform, any term or provision of this Lease by Lessee, its officers, employees, agents or other Persons. - Obligations herein provided and shall keep and perform all of the terms, covenants and conditions on its part herein contained, Lessee shall have, subject and subordinate to Lessor's rights herein, the right to the peaceful and quiet occupancy of the Property, subject to the Permitted Encumbrances, Laws and the WGI Agreement and any use or occupancy agreements, leases or licenses now affecting the Property or hereinafter made by Lessee.
- 17. Inspection; Right of Entry. Lessor and its authorized representatives shall have the right, at all reasonable times and upon giving reasonable prior notice (except in the event of an emergency, in which case no prior notice shall be required), to enter the Property or any part thereof and to inspect the same; to serve, post, or keep posted any notices required or allowed under the provisions of this Lease or by law; to show the Property to prospective brokers, agents, buyers, or persons interested in an exchange, at any time; and to show the Property to prospective tenants within two hundred forty (240) days prior to the expiration of this Lease or any time during the option period and to place upon the Property any "to let" or "for lease" signs at any time within two hundred forty (240) days prior to the expiration of this Lease. Lessee hereby waives any claim for damages for any injury or inconvenience to or interference with Lessee's business, any loss of occupancy or quiet enjoyment of the Property and any other loss occasioned by such entry, but, subject to Section 37, excluding damages arising as a result of the negligence or intentional misconduct of Lessor.

18. Condemnation and Casualty.

A. Damage or Destruction to the Property; No Abatement of Rent. If the Property is damaged or destroyed as a result of fire or other casualty Lessee shall promptly restore the Property pursuant to the terms of Section 13 hereof. Notwithstanding the partial or total destruction of the Property and any part thereof, and notwithstanding whether the casualty is insured or not, there shall be no abatement of Rentals or of any other obligation of Lessee hereunder including, without limitation, payment of operating expenses, insurance premiums and Taxes, by reason of such damage or destruction unless the Lease is terminated by virtue of another provision of this Lease.

- B. Option to Terminate. If the Property is damaged or destroyed during the last one (1) year of the Lease Term to the extent that the Property is untenable, Lessee may terminate this Lease as of the date of such damage or destruction by giving written notice to Lessor of such election within thirty (30) days following the date of such fire or other casualty, in which case, all insurance proceeds related to the Property (other than attributable to Lessee's Fixtures and Equipment) will be paid over to Lessor, or if required by Lessor's Lender, to such lender.
- C. Termination Upon Taking. If as a consequence of a Taking, (i) any part of the convenience store building on the Property; or (ii) twenty-five percent (25 %) or more of the parking area at the Property shall be taken and Lessee determines in its reasonable discretion that such Taking will have a material adverse impact on the ability of Lessee to conduct its normal business operations from the Property, then, within thirty (30) days after the date on which Lessee receives written notice of such Taking, Lessee may terminate this Lease by written notice to Lessor which termination shall be effective as of the date the condemning authority takes actual possession of the portion of the Property that is subject to the Taking. If Lessee terminates this Lease, Lessor shall promptly refund to Lessee all unearned Annual Base Rental and other amounts paid in advance by Lessee.
- D. Obligation to Restore. If a Taking does not result in a termination of this Lease pursuant to Subsection C hereof, Lessee shall restore the Property to a condition similar in physical appearance to that which existed immediately prior to the Taking to the extent possible such that Lessee can conduct its normal business operations, Lessee shall commence such restoration within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of the taking and shall complete such restoration within six (6) months after the occurrence of the taking.
- E. Condemnation Award. Any condemnation award payable during the term of this Lease shall belong to and be paid to Lessor, including but not limited to awards payable with respect to damage to either the fee or leasehold estates, except that Lessee shall receive from the award the following:
 - i. If Lessee exercises its rights to terminate this Lease, the portion of the award, if any, attributable to Lessee's Equipment or Fixtures that are taken in the Taking and the unamortized cost of any leasehold improvements made to the Property by Lessee after the date hereof that are taken in the Taking.
 - ii. The portion of the award, if any, attributable to severance damages for the repair or restoration of the Property (herein called "repair"), but only if Lessee does not exercise Lessee's right to terminate the Lease and further Sample Lease 1/4/2006 provided, that such damages shall be deposited and disbursed in accordance with the provisions hereof related to the handling of insurance proceeds that are applied to a repair of the Property and Lessee shall promptly commence and diligently complete the repair so that upon completion the Property will have a character and commercial value as nearly as possible equal to the value of the Property immediately prior to the taking, and further provided that, in the event such damages are insufficient to cover the cost of repair, then any amounts required over the amount thereof that are required to complete said repair shall be promptly deposited with the disbursing entity by Lessee in advance of commencing the repair.

- iii. Additionally, if this Lease is terminated as a result of any such taking, Lessee shall be permitted to recover its relocation expenses and the going concern value of Lessee's business from the condemning authority (but not from Lessor or the portion of the award otherwise payable to Lessor) as provided by law.
- 19. Intentionally Deleted.
- 20. Default, Conditional Limitations, Remedies and Measure of Damages.
- A. Event of Default. Each of the following shall be an event of default by Lessee under this Lease (each, an "Event of Default"):
 - (i) If any Rental or other Monetary Obligation due under this Lease is not paid within five (5) Business Days of notice it is past due, provided, however, that if within the first twelve (12) months of the Lease Term, Lessor has given two (2) such notices to Lessee, then a default shall be deemed to have occurred when such failure has continued for three (3) business days after the same is due, without notice thereof by Lessor to Lessee; and further, provided, however, that after the first twelve (12) months of the Lease Term, if Lessor has given such notice to Lessee within the preceding twelve (12) months, then a default shall be deemed to have occurred when such failure has continued for three (3) Business Days after the same is due, without notice thereof by Lessor to Lessee;
 - (ii) if there is an Insolvency Event;
 - (iii) if Lessee fails to observe or perform any of the other covenants, conditions or obligations of Lessee in this Lease; provided, however, if any such failure does not involve the payment of any Monetary Obligation, does not place any rights or property of Lessor in immediate jeopardy, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, then such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default hereunder, unless otherwise expressly provided herein, unless and until Lessor shall have given Lessee notice thereof and a period of thirty (30) days shall have elapsed, during which period Lessee may correct or cure such failure, upon failure of which an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required. If such failure

Sample Lease 1/4/2006 cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, and Lessee is diligently pursuing a cure of such failure, then Lessee shall have a reasonable period to cure such failure beyond such thirty (30) day period. If Lessee shall fail to correct or cure such failure within such period and said period is not extended by the parties, an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required;

- (iv) if Lessee shall be liquidated or dissolved or shall begin proceedings towards its liquidation or dissolution; or
- B. Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, with or without notice or demand, except as otherwise expressly provided herein or such other notice as may be required by statute and cannot be waived by Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to exercise, at its option, concurrently, successively, or in any combination, all remedies available at law or in equity, including without limitation, any one or more of the following:
 - To terminate this Lease, whereupon Lessee's right to possession of (i) the Property shall cease and this Lease, except as to Lessee's liability, shall be terminated. Upon such termination, Lessor shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages equal to the total of (i) the cost of recovering possession of the Property; (ii) the unpaid Rental earned at the time of termination, plus interest at the Default Rate thereon; (iii) late charges and interest at the Default Rate on the unpaid Rental; (iv) the present value of the balance of the Base Annual Rental for the remainder of the Lease Term using a discount rate of four percent (4%), less the present value of the reasonable rental value of the Property for the balance of the Term remaining after a one-year period following repossession using a discount rate of four percent (4%); (v) costs of operating the Property until relet and the reasonable costs of performing any obligations of Lessee under this Lease to be performed upon termination or expiration of this Lease (including but not limited to the Lessee's obligations under Sections 12.D and 27 hereof); and (vi) any other sum of money and damages reasonably necessary to compensate Lessor for the detriment caused by Lessee's default.
 - (ii) To the extent not prohibited by applicable law, to reenter and take possession of the Property (or any part thereof) without being deemed guilty in any manner of trespass or becoming liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom, without resort to legal or judicial process, procedure or action. No notice from Lessor hereunder or under a forcible entry and detainer statute or similar law shall constitute an election by Lessor to terminate this Lease unless such notice specifically so states. If Lessee shall, after default, voluntarily give up possession of the Property to Lessor, deliver to Lessor or its agents the keys to the Property, or both, such actions shall be deemed to be in compliance with Lessor's rights and the acceptance thereof by Lessor or its agents shall not be deemed to constitute a termination of the Lease. Lessor reserves the right following any reentry and/or reletting to exercise its right to terminate this Lease by giving Lessee written notice thereof, in which event this Lease will terminate, and Lessor may recover liquidated damages as set forth in Subsection (i) above.

- (iii) To bring an action against Lessee for any damages sustained by Lessor or any equitable relief available to Lessor.
- (iv) To relet the Property or any part thereof for such term or terms (including a term which extends beyond the original Lease Term), at such rentals and upon such other terms as Lessor, in its sole discretion, may determine, with all proceeds received from such reletting being applied to the Rental and other Monetary Obligations due from Lessee in such order as Lessor may, in it sole discretion, determine, which other Monetary Obligations include, without limitation, all commercially reasonable repossession costs, brokerage commissions, attorneys' fees and expenses and repair costs. Lessor reserves the right following any reentry and/or reletting to exercise its right to terminate this Lease by giving Lessee written notice thereof, in which event this Lease will terminate as specified in said notice.
- (v) To recover from Lessee all Costs paid or incurred by Lessor as a result of such breach, regardless of whether or not legal proceedings are actually commenced.
- (vi) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, at Lessor's sole option but without any obligation to do so, correct such breach or default and charge Lessee all Costs incurred by Lessor therein. Any sum or sums so paid by Lessor, together with interest at the Default Rate, shall be deemed to be Additional Rental hereunder and shall be immediately due from Lessee to Lessor. Any such acts by Lessor in correcting Lessee's breaches or defaults hereunder shall not be deemed to cure said breaches or defaults or constitute any waiver of Lessor's right to exercise any or all remedies set forth herein.
- (vii) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, except as required herein, set off any money of Lessee held by Lessor under this Lease.
- (viii) To seek any equitable relief available to Lessor, including, without limitation, the right of specific performance.

All powers and remedies given by this Section to Lessor, subject to applicable Law, shall be cumulative and not exclusive of one another or of any other right or remedy or of any other powers and remedies available to Lessor under this Lease, by judicial proceedings or otherwise, to enforce the performance or observance of the covenants and agreements of Lessee contained in this Lease, and no delay or omission of Lessor to exercise any right or power accruing upon the occurrence of any Event of Default shall impair any other or subsequent Event of Default or impair any rights or remedies consequent thereto. Every power and remedy given by this Section or by Law to Lessor

Sample Lease 1/4/2006 may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by Lessor, subject at all times to Lessor's right in its sole judgment to discontinue any work commenced by Lessor or change any course of action undertaken by Lessor.

C. Default by Lessor. Lessor shall be in default under this Lease if Lessor fails or refuses to perform any obligation of Lessor under the terms of this Lease, and if the failure to perform the obligation is not cured within thirty (30) days after notice of the default has been given by Lessee to Lessor. If the default cannot reasonably be cured within thirty (30) days, then Lessor shall not be in default if Lessor commences to cure the default within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default thereafter.

Lessee, at any time after expiration of the cure period provided above and a subsequent written notice to Lessor, may cure the default at Lessor's cost. If Lessee at any time, as a result of Lessor's default, pays any sum or performs any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Lessee shall be due immediately from Lessor to Lessee at the time the sum is paid, and if paid at a later date shall bear interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date the sum is paid by Lessee until the date Lessee is reimbursed by Lessor. Any amounts due from Lessor to Lessee pursuant to this Section 15 may be deducted or offset against Lessee's Base Monthly Rental.

and/or the Property shall not be subordinate to any liens or encumbrances placed upon the Property by or resulting from any act of Lessee, and nothing herein contained shall be construed to require such subordination by Lessor. Notwithstanding the terms of or the parties to the WGI Agreement and any other agreements pursuant to which Persons other than Lessee have the right to occupy any portion of the Property, such agreements shall, as between Lessor and Lessee, be treated as an instrument subordinate to Lessor's interest in the Property and this Lease. Lessee shall keep the Property free from any liens for work performed, materials furnished or obligations incurred by Lessee. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT LESSEE IS NOT AUTHORIZED TO PLACE OR ALLOW TO BE PLACED ANY LIEN, MORTGAGE, DEED OF TRUST, SECURITY INTEREST OR ENCUMBRANCE OF ANY KIND UPON ALL OR ANY PART OF THE PROPERTY OR LESSEE'S LEASEHOLD INTEREST THEREIN, AND ANY SUCH PURPORTED TRANSACTION SHALL BE VOID.

This Lease at all times shall automatically be subordinate to the lien of any and all Deeds of Trust now or hereafter placed upon the Property by Lessor, provided, that the holder of such interest shall not disturb Lessee's use and enjoyment of Lessee's rights under this Lease so long as Lessee is not in default hereunder. Lessee covenants and agrees to execute and deliver, upon demand, such further instruments which are acceptable to Lessee, subordinating this Lease to the lien of any or all such Deeds of Trust as shall be desired by Lessor, or any present or proposed Deeds of Trust; provided, that the terms and provisions of any such instrument are commercially reasonable. The Lessee acknowledges that the terms and provisions of the Instrument attached hereto as Exhibit C are commercially reasonable.

If any Lessor's Lender, mortgagee, receiver or other secured party elects to have this Lease and the interest of Lessee hereunder be superior to any such Deed of Trust and evidences

In the event any purchaser or assignee of any mortgagee or deed of trust holder at a foreclosure sale acquires title to the Property, or in the event that any mortgagee or any assignee otherwise succeeds to the rights of Lessor as Lessor under this Lease, Lessee shall attorn to mortgagee or deed of trust holder or such purchaser or assignee, as the case may be (a "Successor Lessor"), and recognize the Successor Lessor as lessor under this Lease, and, if the Successor Lessor in its sole discretion elects to recognize Lessee's tenancy under this Lease, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect as a direct lease between the Successor Lessor and Lessee, provided that the Successor Lessor shall only be liable for any obligations of Lessor under this Lease which accrue after the date that such Successor Lessor acquires title. The foregoing provision shall be self-operative and effective without the execution of any further instruments.

Lessee shall give written notice to any Lessor's Lender of whom Lessee is notified of in writing of any breach or default by Lessor of any of its obligations under this Lease and give such lender or mortgagee the same rights to which Lessor might be entitled to cure such default before Lessee may exercise any remedy with respect thereto. Upon request by Lessor, Lessee shall authorize Lessor to release to Lessee's financial statements delivered to Lessor pursuant to this Lease to such Lessor's Lender.

22. Estoppel Certificate and Other Documents. At any time, and from time to time, each party shall, promptly and in no event later than ten (10) days after a request from the other execute, acknowledge and deliver to the requesting party, as the case may be, a certificate in the form supplied by the requesting party, certifying: (A) that this Lease is in full force and effect and has not been modified (or if modified, setting forth all modifications), or, if this Lease is not in full force and effect, the certificate shall so specify the reasons therefor; (B) the commencement and expiration dates of the Lease Term; (C) the date to which the Rentals have been paid under this Lease and the amount thereof then payable; (D) whether there are then any existing defaults by Lessee or Lessor in the performance of its obligations under this Lease, and, if there are any such defaults, specifying the nature and extent thereof; (E) that no notice has been received by the certifying party of any default under this Lease which has not been cured, except as to defaults specified in the certificate; (F) the capacity of the person executing such certificate, and that such person is duly authorized to execute the same on behalf of Lessee; and; (G) and any other information reasonably requested by the requesting party.

Lessor and Lessee further agree to reasonably negotiate execute all reasonable documents, including without limitation, estoppel certificates, non-disturbance certificates and other documents requested by WGI, any Lessor's Lender or any lender of Lessee in connection with a loan to be obtained by Lessor or Lessee, or in connection with a sale, assignment, sublease or other disposition of the Lessor's interest under this Lease.

Other than for the WGI Agreement and any Replacement WGI Agreement, and any other agreements pursuant to which experienced and reputable operators are permitted to occupy discreet portions of the convenience store building located on the site for uses that are complementary to or extensions of Lessee's gas station and convenience store operations (e.g., quick-service restaurants, deli and sandwich shops, coffee shops, juice shops, postal contract units and/or UPS/Federal Express services) when such uses are not in violation of Legal Requirements or the Permitted Encumbrances(such other agreements are referred to herein as "Permitted Subleases"), Lessee may not sublease all or any part of the Property without the prior written consent of the Lessor, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. In no event will any Permitted Subleases, or any other subleases that Lessor consents to relieve Lessee of any liability hereunder during the period of any such subletting. Additionally, Lessee shall give Lessor at least thirty (30) days advance notice of any proposed Permitted Sublease, which notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the form of the Permitted Sublease.

Each Permitted Sublease, and any other sublease that Lessor may consent to pursuant to the foregoing paragraph shall provide that (i) the term thereof will not exceed the Initial Term hereof and any extensions of the Initial Term that are permitted hereunder; (ii) the sublease and subtenant shall be subject to and bound by all the terms and conditions of this Lease (except that the Lessee shall continue to pay all Rental and Monetary Obligations hereunder and Lessee shall collect any rents owed by the subtenant pursuant to the sublease); (iii) the sublease shall state that, at Lessor's election, the subtenant will attorn to Lessor and recognize Lessor as Lessee's successor under the sublease for the balance of the sublease term if this Lease is surrendered by Lessee or terminated by reason of Lessee's default.

Lessee further agrees to give such notices to any successor-in-interest of Lender, provided that such successor-in-interest shall have given written notice to Lessee of its acquisition of Lender's interest in the Deed of Trust and designated the address to which such notices are to be sent.

The interest rate on the aggregate principal balance shall change on January 15, 2010 and again on January 15, 2013 (each a "Change Date") to a fixed rate equal to Three Percent (3.00%) above the Treasury Index (as hereinafter defined) on each such Change Date. On each Change Date each monthly installment due and payable until the next Change Date shall be recalculated (increased or reduced) to reflect the adjusted interest rate, the outstanding principal balance at such time and the remaining term of the 300-month amortization period commencing on the date of this Note in accordance with the Bank's calculation in the Bank's sole discretion.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Note, the interest rate on this Note is limited by a floor as follows: the minimum interest rate (i.e. floor) is 5.25%.

Treasury Index means the weekly average yield on United States Treasury securities, adjusted to a constant maturity equal to the Applicable Treasury Rate Period (as hereinafter defined), or, in the event the Treasury Index is no longer available, the base, reference or other rate then designated by the Bank, in its sole discretion, for general commercial loan reference purposes, it being understood that such rate is a reference rate, not necessarily the lowest, established from time to time, which serves as the basis upon which effective interest rates are calculated for loans making reference thereto. The Applicable Treasury Rate Period is 3 years.

Principal and Interest shall be payable at the Bank's main office or at such other place as the Bank may designate in writing in immediately evallable funds in lawful money of the United States of America without set-off, deduction or counterclaim. Interest shall be calculated on the basis of actual number of days elapsed in a 360-day year.

At the option of the Bank, this Note shall become immediately due and payable without notice or demand upon the occurrence at any time of any of the following events of default (each, an "Event of Default"): (1) default of any liability, obligation or undertaking of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to the Bank, hereunder or otherwise, including, without limitation, failure to pay in full and when due any installment of principal or interest or default of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof under any other loan document delivered by the Borrower or any guarantor, or in connection with the loan evidenced by this Note or any other agreement by the Borrower or any guarantor with the Bank continuing for 10 days with respect to the payment of money or continuing for 30 days with respect to any other default; (2). failure of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to maintain aggregate collateral security value satisfactory to the Bank continuing for 30 days; (3) default of any material liability, obligation or undertaking of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to any other party continuing for 30 days; (4) if any statement, representation or warranty heretofore, now or hereafter made by the Borrower or any guarantor hereof in connection with the loan evidenced by this Note or in any supporting financial statement of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof shall be determined by the Bank to have been false in any material respect when made; (5) if the Borrower or any guarantor hereof is a corporation, trust, partnership or limited liability company, the liquidation, termination or dissolution of any such organization, or the merger or consolidation of such organization into another entity, or its ceasing to carry on actively its present business or the appointment of a receiver for its property; (6) the death of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof and, if the Borrower or any guarantor hereof is a partnership or limited liability company, the death of any partner or member; (7) the institution by or against the Borrower or any guarantor hereof of any proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code 11 USC §101 et seq. or any other law in which the Borrower or any guarantor hereof is alleged to be insolvent or unable to pay its debts as they mature, or the making by the Borrower or any guarantor hereof of an assignment for the benefit of creditors or the granting by the Borrower or any guarantor hereof of a trust mortgage for the benefit of creditors; (8) the service upon the Bank of a writ in which the Bank is named as trustee of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof; (9) a judgement or judgements for the payment of money shall be rendered against the Borrower or any guarantor hereof, and any such judgement shall remain unsatisfied and in effect for any period of thirty (30) consecutive days without a stay of execution; (10) any levy, lien (including mechanics lien), seizure, attachment, execution or similar process shall be issued or levied on any of the property of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof, (11) the termination or revocation of any guaranty hereof, or (12) the occurrence of such a change in the condition or affairs (financial or otherwise) of the Borrower or any guaranter hereof, or the occurrence of any other event or circumstance, such that the Bank, in its sole discretion, deems that it is insecure or that the prospects for timely or full payment or performance of any obligation of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to the Bank has been or may be impaired.

Any payments received by the Bank on account of this Note shall, at the Bank's option, be applied first, to accrued and unpeld interest; second, to the unpeld principal balance hereof; third to any costs, expenses or charges then owed to the Bank by the Borrower; and the balance to escrows, if any. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any payments received after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default shall be applied in such manner as the Bank may determine. The Borrower hereby authorizes the Bank to charge any deposit account which the Borrower may maintain with the Bank for any payment required hereunder without prior notice to the Borrower.

if oursuant to the terms of this Note, the Borrower is at any time obligated to pay interest on the principal balance at a rate in excess of the maximum interest rate permitted by applicable law for the loan evidenced by this Note, the applicable interest rate shall be immediately reduced to such maximum rate and all previous payments in excess of the maximum rate shall be deemed to have been payments in reduction of principal and not on account of the interest due hereunder. More specifically, if from any circumstances whatsoever, fulfillment of any provision of this Note or any other loan document excuted and delivered in connection with this Note, at the time performance of such provision becomes due, would exceed the limit on interest then permitted by any applicable usury statute or any other applicable law, the Bank may, at its option (a) reduce the obligations to be fulfilled to such limit on interest, or (b) apply the amount in excess of such limit on interest to the reduction of the outstanding principal balance of the obligations, and not to the payment of interest, with the same force and effect as though Borrower had specifically designated such sums to be so applied to principal and Bank had agreed to accept such extra payments(s) as a premium-free prepayment, so that in no event shall any exaction be possible under this Note or any other loan document that is in excess of the applicable limit on interest. It is the intention of Borrower and Bank that the total liability for payments in the nature of interest shall not exceed the limits imposed by any applicable state or federal interest rate laws. The provisions of this paragraph shall control every other provision of this Note, and any provision of any other loan document in conflict with this paragraph.

The Borrower represents to the Bank that the proceeds of this Note will not be used for personal, family or household purposes or for the purpose of purchasing or carrying margin stock or margin securities within the meaning of Regulations U and X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 12 C.F.R. Parts 221 and 224.

The Borrower and each guarantor hereof grant to the Bank a continuing lien on and security interest in any and all deposits or other sums at any time credited by or due from the Bank (or any of its benking or lending affiliates, or any bank acting as a participant under any loan arrangement between the Bank and the Borrower, or any third party acting on the Bank's behalf (collectively, the "Bank Affiliates")) to the Borrower and each guarantor hereof and any cash, securities, instruments or other property of the Borrower and each guarantor hereof in the possession of the Bank or any Bank Affiliate, whether for safekeeping or otherwise, or in transit to or from the Bank or any Bank Affiliate (regardless of the reason the Bank or Bank Affiliate had received the same or whether the Bank or Bank Affiliate has conditionally released the same) as security for the full and punctual payment and performance of all of the liabilities and obligations of the Borrower and any guarantor hereof to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate and such deposits and other sums may be applied or set off against such liabilities and obligations of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate at any time, whether or not such are then due, whether or not demand has been made and whether or not other collateral is then available to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate.

No delay or omission on the part of the Bank in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of such right or of any other right of the Bank, nor shall any delay, omission or waiver on any one occasion be deemed a bar to or waiver of the same or any other right on any future occasion. The Borrower and every guarantor of this Note, regardless of the time, order or place of signing, waives presentment, demand, protest, notice of intent to accelerate, notice of acceleration and all other notices of every kind in connection with the delivery, acceptance, performance or enforcement of this Note and assents to any extension or postponement of the time of payment or any other indulgence, to any substitution, exchange or release of collateral, and to the addition or release of any other party or person primarily or secondarily liable and waives all recourse to suretyship and guarantor defenses generally, including any defense based on impairment of collateral.

The Borrower and each guarantor of this Note shall indemnify, defend and hold the Bank and the Bank Affiliates and their directors, officers, employees, agents and attorneys harmless against any claim brought or threatened against the Bank by the Borrower, by any guarantor, or by any other person (as well as from attorneys' reasonable fees and expenses in connection therewith) on account of the Bank's relationship with the Borrower or any guarantor hereof (each of which may be defended, compromised, settled or pursued by the Bank with counsel of the Bank's selection, but at the expense of the Borrower and any guarantor), except for any claim arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Bank.

The Borrower and each guarantor of this Note agree to pay, upon demand, costs of collection of all amounts under this Note including, without limitation, principal and interest, or in connection with the enforcement of, or realization on, any security for this Note, including, without limitation, to the extent permitted by applicable law, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, interest shall accrue at a rate per annum equal to the aggregate of 3.0% plus the rate provided for herein. If any payment due under this Note is unpaid for 15 days or more, the Borrower shall pay, in addition to any other sums due under this Note (and without limiting the Bank's other remedies on account thereof), a late charge equal to the greater of $10.00 or 10.0% of such unpaid amount.

This Note shall be binding upon the Borrower and each guarantor hereof and upon their respective heirs, successors, assigns and legal representatives, and shall inure to the benefit of the Bank and its successors, endorsees and assigns.

The Borrower and each guarantor, if any, hereby waive presentment, demand, protest, notice of dishonor, notice of protest and all other notices and demands of every kind, and all suretyship defenses of any kind, in each case that would otherwise be available in connection with this Note including, without limitation, any right (whether now or hereafter existing) to require the holder hereof to first proceed against the Borrower, or any guarantor, for eny security.

The Trustor further agrees to give the Beneficiary prompt written notice of the imposition, or notice, of any lien referred to in this Section and to take any action necessary to secure the prompt discharge or release of the same. The Trustor agrees to defend its title to the Property and the Beneficiary's interest therein against the claims of all persons and, unless the Beneficiary requests otherwise, to appear in and diligently contest, at the Trustor's sole cost and expense, any action or proceeding that purports to affect the Trustor's title to the Property or the priority or validity of this Deed of Trust or the Beneficiary's interest hereunder.

2.4 Operation of Property. The Trustor covenants and agrees as follows:

- (a) The Trustor will not permit the Property to be used for any unlawful or improper purpose, will at all times comply with all Federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations, and the provisions of any Lease, easement or other agreement affecting all or any part of the Property, and will obtain and maintain all governmental or other approvals relating to the Trustor, the Property or the use thereof, including without limitation, any applicable zoning or building codes or regulations and any laws or regulations relating to the handling, storage, release or cleanup of Hazardous Substances, and will give prompt written notice to the Beneficiary of (i) any violation of any such law, ordinance or regulation by the Trustor or relating to the Property, (ii) receipt of notice from any Federal, state or local authority alleging any such violation and (iii) the presence or release on the Property of any Hazardous Substances;

Such policies shall include (i) a mortgage endorsement determined by the Beneficiary in good faith to be equivalent to the "standard" mortgage endorsement so that the insurance, as to the interest of the Beneficiary, shall not be invalidated by any act or neglect of the Trustor or the owner of the Property, any foreclosure or other proceedings or notice of sale relating to the Property, any change in the title to or ownership of the Property, or the occupation or use of the Property for purposes more hazardous than are permitted at the date of inception of such insurance policies; (ii) a replacement cost endorsement; (iii) an agreed amount endorsement; (iv) a contingent liability from operation endorsement; and (v) such other endorsements as the Beneficiary may request. The Trustor will furnish to the Beneficiary upon request such original policies, certificates of insurance or other evidence of the foregoing as are acceptable to the Beneficiary. The terms of all insurance policies shall be such that no coinsurance provisions apply, or if a policy does contain a coinsurance provision, the Trustor shall insure the Property in an amount sufficient to prevent the application of the coinsurance provisions;
- (c) Trustor will not enter into or modify the Leases in any material respect without the prior written consent of the Beneficiary, execute any assignment of the Leases except in favor of the

- (d) Trustor will at all times (i) maintain complete and accurate records and books regarding the Property in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and (ii) permit the Beneficiary and the Beneficiary's agents, employees and representatives, at such reasonable times as the Beneficiary may request, to enter and inspect the Property and such books and records; and
- (e) Trustor will at all times keep the Property in good and first-rate repair and condition (damage from casualty not excepted) and will not commit or permit any strip, waste, impairment, deterioration or alteration of the Property or any part thereof.
- Nevada Covenants. Where not otherwise inconsistent with the other provisions of this Deed of Trust, Covenants Nos. 1; 2 (full replacement value); 3; 4 (highest rate permitted under the Note); 5; 6; 7 (a reasonable percentage); 8; and 9 of Nevada Revised Statutes Section 107.030, are hereby adopted and made a part of this Deed of Trust.
- Payments. The Trustor covenants to pay when due: all Federal, state, municipal, real property and other taxes, betterment and improvement assessments and other governmental levies, water rates, sewer charges, insurance premiums and other charges on the Property, this Deed of Trust or any Obligation secured hereby that could, if unpaid, result in a lien on the Property or on any interest therein. If and when requested by the Beneficiary, the Trustor shall deposit from time to time with the Beneficiary sums determined by the Beneficiary to be sufficient to pay when due the amounts referred to in this Section. The Trustor shall have the right to contest any notice, lien, encumbrance, claim, tax, charge, betterment assessment or premium filed or asserted against or relating to the Property; provided that it contests the same diligently and in good faith and by proper proceedings and, at the Beneficiary's request, provides the Beneficiary with adequate cash security, in the Beneficiary's reasonable judgement, against the enforcement thereof. The Trustor shall furnish to the Beneficiary the receipted real estate tax bills or other evidence of payment of real estate taxes for the Property within thirty (30) days prior to the date from which interest or penalty would accrue for nonpayment thereof. The Trustor shall also furnish to the Beneficiary evidence of all other payments referred to above within fifteen (15) days after written request therefor by the Beneficiary. If Trustor shall fail to pay such sums, the Beneficiary may, but shall not be obligated to, advance such sums. Any sums so advanced by the Beneficiary shall be added to the Obligations, shall bear interest at the highest rate specified in any note evidencing the Obligations, and shall be secured by the lien of this Deed of Trust.
- 2.7 Notices; Notice of Default. The Trustor will deliver to the Beneficiary, promptly upon receipt of the same, copies of all notices or other documents it receives that affect the Property or its use, or claim that the Trustor is in default in the performance or observance of any of the terms hereof or that the Trustor or any tenant is in default of any terms of the Leases. The Trustor further agrees to deliver to the Beneficiary written notice promptly upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder or event that with the giving of notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute an Event of Default hereunder.
- Zakings. In case of any condemnation or expropriation for public use of, or any damage by reason of the action of any public or governmental entity or authority to, all or any part of the Property (a "Taking"), or the commencement of any proceedings or negotiations that might result in a Taking, the Trustor shall promptly give written notice to the Beneficiary, describing the nature and extent thereof. The Beneficiary may, at its option, appear in any proceeding for a Taking or any negotiations relating to a Taking and the Trustor shall promptly give to the Beneficiary copies of all notices, pleadings, determinations and other papers relating thereto. The Trustor shall in good faith and with due diligence and by proper proceedings file and prosecute its claims for any award or payment on account of any Taking. The Trustor shall not settle any such claim without the Beneficiary's prior written consent. The Trustor shall hold any amounts received with respect to such awards or claims, by settlement, judicial decree or otherwise, in trust for the Beneficiary and promptly pay the same to the Beneficiary. The Trustor authorizes any award or settlement due in connection with a Taking to be paid directly to the Beneficiary in amounts not exceeding the Obligations. The Beneficiary may apply such amounts to the Obligations in such order as the Beneficiary may determine.

2.9 Insurance Proceeds. The proceeds of any insurance resulting from any loss with respect to the Property shall be paid to the Beneficiary and, at the option of the Beneficiary, be applied to the Obligations in such order as the Beneficiary may determine; provided, however, that if the Beneficiary shall require repair of the Property, the Beneficiary may release all or any portion of such proceeds to the Trustor for such purpose. Any insurance proceeds paid to the Trustor shall be held in trust for the Beneficiary and promptly paid to it.

3. CERTAIN RIGHTS OF THE BENEFICIARY

- 3.1 Legal Proceedings. The Beneficiary shall have the right, but not the duty, to intervene or otherwise participate in any legal or equitable proceeding that, in the Beneficiary's reasonable judgement, might affect the Property or any of the rights created or secured by this Deed of Trust. The Beneficiary shall have such right whether or not there shall have occurred an Event of Default hereunder.
- 3.2 Appraisals/Assessments. The Beneficiary shall have the right, at the Trustor's sole cost and expense, to obtain appraisals, environmental site assessments or other inspections of the portions of the Property that are real estate at such times as the Beneficiary deems necessary or as may be required by applicable law, or its prevailing credit or underwriting policies.
- 3.3 Financial Statements. The Beneficiary shall have the right, at the Trustor's sole cost and expense, to require delivery of financial statements in form and substance acceptable to the Beneficiary from the Trustor or any guarantor of any of the Obligations and the Trustor hereby agrees to deliver such financial statements and/or cause any such guarantor to so deliver any such financial statement when required by the Beneficiary.
- 3.4 Substitution of Trustee. The Beneficiary may from time to time, without notice to the Trustor or Trustee and with or without cause and with or without the resignation of Trustee, substitute a successor or successors to the Trustee named herein or acting hereunder. Upon such appointment, the successor trustee shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon the Trustee named herein or acting hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by a writing executed by Beneficiary and when duly recorded in the appropriate office shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of such successor Trustee. The procedure herein provided for substitution of the Trustee shall be conclusive of all other provisions for substitution, statutory or otherwise.
- 3.5 Leases and Rent Roll. The Trustor shall deliver to the Beneficiary during each calendar year and at such other times as the Beneficiary shall request a rent roll for the Property, in form acceptable to the Beneficiary, listing all tenants and occupants and describing all of the Leases.

4. DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

- 4.1 Events of Default. Event of Default shall mean the occurrence of any one or more of the following events:
 - (a) default of any liability, obligation or undertaking of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to the Beneficiary, hereunder or otherwise, including, without limitation, failure to pay in full and when due any installment of principal or interest or default of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations under any other Loan Document or any other agreement with the Beneficiary continuing for 10 days with respect to the payment of money or continuing for 30 days with respect to any other default;

- (b) failure by the Trustor to perform, observe or comply with any of the covenants, agreements, terms or conditions set forth in this Deed of Trust or the Loan Documents continuing for 30 days;
- (c) the (i) occurrence of any material loss, theft, damage or destruction of, or (ii) issuance or making of any levy, seizure, attachment, execution or similar process on a material portion of the Property;
- (d) failure of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to maintain aggregate collateral security value satisfactory to the Beneficiary continuing for 30 days;
- (e) default of any material liability, obligation or undertaking of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to any other party continuing for 30 days;
- (f) if any statement, representation or warranty heretofore, now or hereafter made by the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations in connection with this Deed of Trust or in any supporting financial statement of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations shall be determined by the Beneficiary to have been false in any material respect when made;
- (g) if the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations is a corporation, trust, partnership or limited liability company, the liquidation, termination or dissolution of any such organization, or the merger or consolidation of such organization into another entity, or its ceasing to carry on actively its present business or the appointment of a receiver for its property;
- (h) the death of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations and, if the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations is a partnership or limited liability company, the death of any partner or member;
- the institution by or against the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations of any proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code 11 USC §101 et seq. or any other law in which the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations is alleged to be insolvent or unable to pay its debts as they mature, or the making by the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations of an assignment for the benefit of creditors or the granting by the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations of a trust mortgage for the benefit of creditors;
- (j) the service upon the Beneficiary of a writ in which the Beneficiary is named as trustee of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations;
- (k) a judgement or judgements for the payment of money shall be rendered against the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations, and any such judgement shall remain unsatisfied and in effect for any period of thirty (30) consecutive days without a stay of execution;
- (I) any levy, lien (including mechanics lien), seizure, attachment, execution or similar process shall be issued or levied on any of the property of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations;
- (m) the termination or revocation of any guaranty of the Obligations; or
- (n) the occurrence of such a change in the condition or affairs (financial or otherwise) of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations, or the occurrence of any other event or circumstance, such that the Beneficiary, in its sole discretion, deems that it is insecure or that the prospects for timely or full payment or performance of any obligation of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to the Beneficiary has been or may be impaired.

- 4.2 Remedies. On the occurrence of any Event of Default the Beneficiary may, at any time thereafter, at its option and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, without notice, exercise any or all of the following remedies:
 - (a) Declare the Obligations due and payable, and the Obligations shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, without presentment, protest, demand or notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Trustor except for Obligations due and payable on demand, which shall be due and payable on demand whether or not an event of default has occurred hereunder:
 - (b) Enter, take possession of, manage and operate the Property (including all personal property and all records and documents pertaining thereto) and any part thereof and exclude the Trustor therefrom, take all actions it deems necessary or proper to preserve the Property and operate the Property as a mortgagee in possession with all the powers as could be exercised by a receiver or as otherwise provided herein or by applicable law; provided, however, the entry by the Beneficiary upon the Property for any reason shall not cause the Beneficiary to be a mortgagee in possession, except upon the express written declaration of the Beneficiary;
 - With or without taking possession, receive and collect all rents, income, issues and profits (c) ("Rents") from the Property (including all real estate and personal property and whether past due or thereafter accruing), including as may arise under the Leases, and the Trustor appoints the Beneficiary as its true and lawful attorney with the power for the Beneficiary in its own name and capacity to demand and collect Rents and take any action that the Trustor is authorized to take under the Leases. The Beneficiary shall (after payment of all costs and expenses incurred) apply any Rents received by it to the Obligations in such order as the Beneficiary determines, or in accordance with any applicable statute, and the Trustor agrees that exercise of such rights and disposition of such funds shall not be deemed to cure any default or constitute a waiver of any foreclosure once commenced nor preclude the later commencement of foreclosure for breach thereof. The Beneficiary shall be liable to account only for such Rents actually received by the Beneficiary. Lessees under the Leases are hereby authorized and directed, following notice from the Beneficiary, to pay all amounts due the Trustor under the Leases to the Beneficiary, whereupon such lessees shall be relieved of any and all duty and obligation to the Trustor with respect to such payments so made;
 - In addition to any other remedies, to sell the Property or any part thereof or interest therein pursuant to exercise of its power of sale or otherwise at public auction on terms and conditions as the Beneficiary may determine, or otherwise foreclose this Deed of Trust in any manner permitted by law, and upon such sale the Trustor shall execute and deliver such instruments as the Beneficiary may request in order to convey and transfer all of the Trustor's interest in the Property, and the same shall operate to divest all rights, title and interest of the Trustor in and to the Property. In the event this Deed of Trust shall include more than one parcel of property or subdivision (each hereinafter called a "portion"), the Beneficiary shall, in its sole and exclusive discretion and to the extent permitted by applicable law, be empowered to foreclose upon any such portion without impairing its right to foreclose subsequently upon any other portion or the entirety of the Property from time to time thereafter. In addition, the Beneficiary may in its discretion subordinate this Deed of Trust to one or more Leases for the sole purpose of preserving any such Lease in the event of a foreclosure;
 - (e) Cause one or more environmental assessments to be taken, arrange for the cleanup of any Hazardous Substances or otherwise cure the Trustor's failure to comply with any statute, regulation or ordinance relating to the presence or cleanup of Hazardous Substances, and the Trustor shall provide the Beneficiary or its agents with access to the Property for such purposes; provided that the exercise of any of such remedies shall not be deemed to have relieved the Trustor from any responsibility therefor or given the Beneficiary "control" over the Property or cause the Beneficiary to be considered to be a mortgagee in possession, "owner" or "operator" of the Property for purposes of any applicable law, rule or regulation pertaining to Hazardous Substances; and

(f) Take such other actions or proceedings as the Beneficiary deems necessary or advisable to protect its interest in the Property and ensure payment and performance of the Obligations, including, without limitation, appointment of a receiver (and the Trustor hereby waives any right to object to such appointment) and exercise of any of the Beneficiary's remedies provided herein or in any other document evidencing, securing or relating to any of the Obligations or available to a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or under other applicable law.

In addition, the Trustee and the Beneficiary shall have all other remedies provided by applicable law, including, without limitation, the right to pursue a judicial sale of the Property or any portion thereof.

The Trustor agrees and acknowledges that the acceptance by the Trustee or the Beneficiary of any payments from either the Trustor or any guarantor after the occurrence of any Event of Default, the exercise by the Trustee or the Beneficiary of any remedy set forth herein or the commencement, discontinuance or abandonment of foreclosure proceedings against the Property shall not waive the Trustee's or the Beneficiary's subsequent or concurrent right to foreclose or operate as a bar or estoppel to the exercise of any other rights or remedies of the Trustee or the Beneficiary. The Trustor agrees and acknowledges that the Trustee or the Beneficiary, by making payments or incurring costs described herein, shall be subrogated to any right of the Trustor to seek reimbursement from any third parties, including, without limitation, any predecessor in interest to the Trustor's title or other party who may be responsible under any law, regulation or ordinance relating to the presence or cleanup of Hazardous Substances.

- Advances. If the Trustor fails to pay or perform any of its obligations respecting the Property, the Beneficiary may in its sole discretion do so without waiving or releasing Trustor from any such obligation. Any such payments may include, but are not limited to, payments for taxes, assessments and other governmental levies, water rates, insurance premiums, maintenance, repairs or improvements constituting part of the Property. Any amounts paid by the Beneficiary hereunder shall be, until paid, part of the Obligations and secured by this Deed of Trust, and shall be due and payable to the Beneficiary, on demand, together with interest thereon to the extent permitted by applicable law, at the highest rate permitted under any of the notes evidencing the Obligations.
- 4.4 Cumulative Rights and Remedies. All of the foregoing rights, remedies and options (including without limitation the right to enter and take possession of the Property, the right to manage and operate the same, and the right to collect Rents, in each case whether by a receiver or otherwise) are cumulative and in addition to any rights the Beneficiary might otherwise have, whether at law or by agreement, and may be exercised separately or concurrently and none of which shall be exclusive of any other. The Trustor further agrees that the Trustee and the Beneficiary may exercise any or all of its rights or remedies set forth herein without having to pay the Trustor any sums for use or occupancy of the Property.
- 4.5 Trustor's Waiver of Certain Rights. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Trustor hereby waives the benefit of all present and future laws (i) providing for any appraisal before sale of all or any portion of the Property or (ii) in any way extending the time for the enforcement of the collection of the Obligations or creating or extending a period of redemption from any sale made hereunder.
- 4.6 Transfer of Title. Upon the completion of any sale or sales of any Property, Trustee shall execute and deliver to the accepted purchaser or purchasers a good and sufficient deed of conveyance or assignment and transfer, lawfully conveying, assigning, and transferring the Property sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied.

- 4.7 Effect of Sale. Any sale or sales made by virtue of or under this Deed of Trust, whether under any power of sale herein granted or through judicial proceedings, shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, operate to divest all right, title, estate, interest, claim, and demand whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of Trustor in and to the property so sold, or any part thereof from, through or under Trustor, its successors and assigns. The receipt by Trustee shall be full and sufficient discharge to any purchaser of the Property or any part thereof sold as aforesaid for the purchase money; and no purchaser or his representatives, grantees or assigns after paying such purchase money and receiving such receipt, shall be bound to see to the application of such purchase money upon or for any trust or purpose of this Deed of Trust, or in any manner whatsoever be answerable for any loss, misapplication or non-application of any such purchase money or be bound to inquire as to the authorization, necessity, expedience or regularity of any such sale.
- 4.8 Reconveyance. Upon written request of the Beneficiary and surrender of this Deed of Trust and any Notes to Trustee for cancellation or endorsement, and upon payment of its fees and charges, Trustee shall reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the Property then subject to this Deed of Trust. Any reconveyance, whether full or partial, may be made in terms to "the person or persons legally entitled thereto," and the recitals in such reconveyance of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof.

5. MISCELLANEOUS

- Costs and Expenses. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Trustor shall pay to the Trustee and the Beneficiary, on demand, all reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses and reasonable consulting, accounting, appraisal, brokerage and similar professional fees and charges) incurred by the Trustee and the Beneficiary in connection with the Trustee's and the Beneficiary's interpretation, recordation of this Deed of Trust, exercise, preservation or enforcement of any of its rights, remedies and options set forth in this Deed of Trust and in connection with any litigation, proceeding or dispute whether arising hereunder or otherwise relating to the Obligations, together with interest thereon to the extent permitted by applicable law, until paid in full by the Trustor at the highest rate set forth in any of the notes evidencing the Obligations. Any amounts owed by the Trustor hereunder shall be, until paid, part of the Obligations and secured by this Deed of Trust, and the Beneficiary shall be entitled, to the extent permitted by law, to receive and retain such amounts in any action for a deficiency against or redemption by the Trustor, or any accounting for the proceeds of a foreclosure sale or of insurance proceeds.
- 5.2 Indemnification Regarding Leases. The Trustor hereby agrees to defend, and does hereby indemnify and hold the Beneficiary, Trustee, and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and attorneys (each an "Indemnitee") harmless from all losses, damages, claims, costs or expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) resulting from the assignment of the Leases and from all demands that may be asserted against such Indemnitees arising from any undertakings on the part of the Beneficiary to perform any obligations under the Leases. It is understood that the assignment of the Leases shall not operate to place responsibility for the control or management of the Property upon the Beneficiary or any Indemnitee or make them liable for performance of any of the obligations of the Trustor under Leases, respecting any condition of the Property or any other agreement or arrangement, written or oral, or applicable law.
- Indemnification Regarding Hazardous Substances. The Trustor hereby agrees to defend, and does hereby indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnitee from and against any and all losses, damages, claims, costs or expenses, including, without limitation, litigation costs and attorneys' fees and expenses and fees or expenses of any environmental engineering or cleanup firm incurred by such Indemnitee and arising out of or in connection with the Property or resulting from the application of any current or future law, regulation or ordinance relating to the presence or cleanup of Hazardous Substances on or affecting the Property. The Trustor agrees its obligations hereunder shall be continuous and shall survive termination or discharge of this Deed of Trust and/or the repayment of all debts to the Beneficiary including repayment of all Obligations.

- Indemnitee's Expenses. If any Indemnitee is made a party defendant to any litigation or any claim is threatened or brought against such Indemnitee concerning this Deed of Trust or the Property or any part thereof or therein or concerning the construction, maintenance, operation or the occupancy or use thereof by the Trustor or other person or entity, then the Trustor shall indemnify, defend and hold each Indemnitee harmless from and against all liability by reason of said litigation or claims, including attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by such Indemnitee in connection with any such litigation or claim, whether or not any such litigation or claim is prosecuted to judgement. The within indemnification shall survive payment of the Obligations, and/or any termination, release or discharge executed by the Beneficiary in favor of the Trustor.
- 5.5 Waivers. The Trustor waives notice of nonpayment, demand, presentment, protest or notice of protest of the Obligations and all other notices, consents to any renewals or extensions of time of payment thereof, and generally waives any and all suretyship defenses and defenses in the nature thereof. No delay or omission of the Beneficiary in exercising or enforcing any of its rights, powers, privileges, remedies, immunities or discretion (all of which are hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Beneficiary's rights and remedies") hereunder shall constitute a waiver thereof; and no waiver by the Beneficiary of any default of the Trustor hereunder or of any demand shall operate as a waiver of any other default hereunder or of any other demand. No term or provision hereof shall be waived, altered or modified except with the prior written consent of the Beneficiary, which consent makes explicit reference to this Deed of Trust. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, no other agreement or transaction, of whatsoever nature, entered into between the Beneficiary and the Trustor at any time (whether before, during or after the effective date or term of this Deed of Trust) shall be construed as a waiver, modification or limitation of any of the Beneficiary's rights and remedies under this Deed of Trust (nor shall anything in this Deed of Trust be construed as a waiver, modification or limitation of any of the Beneficiary's rights and remedies under any such other agreement or transaction) but all the Beneficiary's rights and remedies not only under the provisions of this Deed of Trust but also under any such other agreement or transaction shall be cumulative and not alternative or exclusive, and may be exercised by the Beneficiary at such time or times and in such order of preference as the Beneficiary in its sole discretion may determine.
- 5.6 Severability. If any provision of this Deed of Trust or portion of such provision or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall to any extent be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Deed of Trust (or the remainder of such provision) and the application thereof to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.
- 5.7 Complete Agreement. This Deed of Trust and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire agreement and understanding between and among the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior proposals, negotiations, agreements and understandings among the parties hereto with respect to such subject matter.
- Binding Effect of Agreement. This Deed of Trust shall run with the land and be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the parties hereto, and shall remain in full force and effect (and the Beneficiary shall be entitled to rely thereon) until all Obligations are fully and indefeasibly paid. The Beneficiary may transfer and assign this Deed of Trust and deliver any collateral to the assignee, who shall thereupon have all of the rights of the Beneficiary; and the Beneficiary shall then be relieved and discharged of any responsibility or liability with respect to this Deed of Trust and such collateral. Except as expressly provided herein or in the other Loan Documents, nothing, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Deed of Trust or the other Loan Documents.
- 5.9 Notices. Any notices under or pursuant to this Deed of Trust shall be deemed duly received and effective if delivered in hand to any officer of agent of the Trustor or the Beneficiary, or if mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the Trustor or the Beneficiary at the address set forth in this Deed of Trust or as any party may from time to time designate by written notice to the other party.

- 5.10 Governing Law. This Deed of Trust shall be governed by Nevada law without giving effect to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.
- 5.11 Reproductions. This Deed of Trust and all documents which have been or may be hereinafter furnished by the Trustor to the Beneficiary may be reproduced by the Beneficiary by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, xerographic or similar process, and any such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding (whether or not the original is in existence and whether or not such reproduction was made in the regular course of business).
- 5.12 Jurisdiction and Venue. The Trustor irrevocably submits to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any Federal or state court sitting in California and any Federal or state court sitting in Nevada, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Deed of Trust. The Trustor irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, any objection it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that the same has been brought in an inconvenient forum. The Trustor hereby consents to process being served in any such suit, action or proceeding (i) by the mailing of a copy thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the Trustor's address set forth herein or such other address as has been provided in writing to the Beneficiary and (ii) in any other manner permitted by law, and agrees that such service shall in every respect be deemed effective service upon the Trustor.
- Arbitration. THE PARTIES AGREE TO ATTEMPT IN GOOD FAITH TO RESOLVE ANY DISPUTES WHICH MAY ARISE AMONG THEM IN CONNECTION WITH THE INTERPRETATION OR ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE APPLICATION OR VALIDITY THEREOF. IN THE EVENT THAT ANY DISPUTE CANNOT BE SO RESOLVED, AND UNLESS THE RELIEF SOUGHT REQUIRES THE EXERCISE OF THE EQUITY POWERS OF A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION, SUCH DISPUTE SHALL BE SUBMITTED TO ARBITRATION. SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE HELD IN THE COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ARBITRATION PROVISIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE. THIS AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE SHALL BE SPECIFICALLY ENFORCEABLE. ANY AWARD RENDERED IN ANY SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE FINAL AND BINDING ON EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND Judgement MAY BE ENTERED THEREON IN ANY COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION. THE FOREGOING AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE DOES NOT LIMIT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY TO (I) FORECLOSE AGAINST REAL OR PERSONAL PROPERTY COLLATERAL; (II) EXERCISE SELF-HELP REMEDIES RELATING TO COLLATERAL OR PROCEEDS OF COLLATERAL SUCH AS SETOFF OR REPOSSESSION; OR (III) OBTAIN PROVISIONAL OR ANCILLARY REMEDIES SUCH AS REPLEVIN, INJUNCTIVE RELIEF, ATTACHMENT OR THE APPOINTMENT OF A RECEIVER, BEFORE DURING OR AFTER THE PENDENCY OF ANY ARBITRATION PROCEEDING. THIS EXCLUSION DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF THE RIGHT OR OBLIGATION OF ANY PARTY TO SUBMIT ANY DISPUTE TO ARBITRATION HEREUNDER, INCLUDING THOSE ARISING FROM THE EXERCISE OF THE ACTIONS DETAILED IN THE FOREGOING CLAUSES (I), (II) AND (III).

BERRY-HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES

Memorandum

To Berry-Hinckley Industries - convenience store landlords

Re Jerry Herbs acquisition of Winners Corner & Chevron convenience stores

Date Saturday, February 17^h, 2007

Over the past several weeks, Jerry Herbst of Terrible Herbst, Inc., in Las Vegas, Nevada, has been in discussions with us to acquire the convenience store assets of Berry-Hinckley Industries.

The Herbst's business is the second largest petroleum provider in Nevada after Berry-Hinckley, they have a 50% retail marketshare in Clark County (Las Vegas), and through a separate company controlled by the Herbst's three sons, operate in excess of 7,000 slot machines on a route and four casinos in Southern Nevada.

As a landlord of one of our properties, Mr. Herbst has requested that you consider certain changes to the leases that you have with Berry-Hinckley as a condition of assignment. We have attached an Estoppel, as well as a Lease modification document. Mr. Herbst has also attached a letter, in which he offers to personally guaranty your lease, as well as a brief summary on his net worth and company description. With this transaction, Mr. Herbst is also acquiring Berry-Hinckley's option to own Winners Gaming, Inc. which operates the slot machines in all of our convenience stores.

Our goal is to have all Estoppels and other documents agreed to and executed by February 23, 2006, and they will then be held by Chicago Title Insurance Company in escrow until closing.

Please address any concerns to Philip Tripoli, Berry-Hinckley's Vice President of Development at (775) 223-3590 or by e-mail at Philip.tripoli@berry-hinckley.com. If you refer this on to your attorney to review, please have them communicate directly with Berry-Hinckley's counsel:

Thank you for your trust and confidence in Berry-Hinckley Industries.

Dear Sir,

It is with pleasure that I am writing to you to inform you of our proposed transaction with PAMCo, Inc. to acquire the C-Store assets of Berry Hinckley Industries ("BHI"). The BHI C-Stores are strategically important to my family of companies as we are in the process of entering the Northern Nevada market. These assets will create a significant platform for us to grow our business.

In our review of the existing leases we identified a few minor provisions which we feel need modification. We are forwarding to you a contract amendment and consent form that we are asking you to execute and return to us. In exchange for this amendment and consent I will be willing to personally guarantee the lease obligation.

I look forward to establishing a good tenant/landlord relationship with you and am very excited about closing the proposed transaction.

Regards,

Jerry Herbst

The foregoing provisions shall be self-operative and effective without the execution of further instruments."
 - 5. Assignment/Subletting. Section 23 is hereby amended as follows:
 - (a) The following sentence is added to the end of the first paragraph of Section 23:

GUARANTY AGREEMENT

This GUARANTY AGREEMENT, dated as of this _____ day of December, 2006 (this "Agreement"), is made by Jerry Herbst, an individual (the "Guarantor"), for the benefit of Overland Development Corporation Inc. and Larry J. Willard, Trustee of the Larry James Willard Trust (collectively, the "Lessor").

RECITALS:

- A. The Lessor and Berry-Hinckley Industries, a Nevada corporation ("BHI"), are parties to that certain Lease Agreement for #1 Highway 95-A & Goldfield, Yerington, Nevada (the "Lease").
- B. The Guarantor desires to enter into this Agreement in order to induce the Landlord to (i) provide consent under the Lease to a change of control of P.A. Morabito & Co., Limited ("PAMCo"), the corporation that owns all the stock of BHI and/or (ii) enter into an amendment to the Lease.

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Guarantor hereby guarantees, promises and undertakes as follows:

- 1. Guaranty. The Guarantor unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guarantees the timely payment and performance of each of BHI's obligations arising out of and under the Lease (such obligations, the "Guaranteed Obligations"). The Guarantor's guaranty made hereby is a guaranty of timely payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations and not merely of collectibility or enforceability of such obligations.
- Remedies and Rights of the Lessor. The Guarantor agrees that if and to the extent that BHI either (a) fails to satisfy any of the Guaranteed Obligations and fails to remedy such failure within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice from the Lessor of such failure, or (b) is subject to a pending petition for relief under Chapter 6 or Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, the Guarantor will be directly responsible for the full extent of any unsatisfied Guaranteed Obligations. This Agreement is an unconditional, absolute, present and continuing guaranty of payment and performance, and will remain in full force and effect without regard to, and the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder shall not be impaired, affected or released by, any of the following: (i) any modification, supplement, extension or amendment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Lease; (ii) any extension, indulgence or other action in respect thereto or therefor; (iii) any failure or delay by the Lessor or BHI in exercising any right or power under the Lease; (iv) any invalidity or unenforceability in any respect of, or any irregularity or other defect in any of, the Lease or Guaranteed Obligations; (v) any exercise or nonexercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege in respect of this Agreement or any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (vi) any transfer of the assets of Lessor to, or any consolidation or merger of the Lessor with or into, any other entity; (vii) any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets, receivership, insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or similar proceeding affecting BHI or any of its assets; or (viii) any allegation or contest of the validity of the Lease or this Agreement. The Guarantor hereby waives any defense to its obligations hereunder that might arise as a result of any of the foregoing, and hereby waives the effect of any fact, circumstance or event of any nature whatsoever that would exonerate, or constitute or give rise to a defense to, the obligation of a surety or guarantor. Without limitation, except to the extent specifically provided in Paragraph 2 hereof, the Guarantor waives any right it may have to require the Lessor, and any obligation the Lessor may have, to proceed first against BHI or exhaust any remedies that it may have against BHI in respect of non-payment or non-performance of the Guaranteed Obligations, before demand for payment or performance by the Guarantor under this Agreement.

The Guarantor acknowledges that the rights and remedies herein provided are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies that the Lessor may otherwise have at law or in equity, and shall not prejudice the Lessor's right to assert any other claim under the Lease.

- 3. Duration of Agreement. The term of this Agreement will begin on, and this Agreement shall be of no force and effect until, the closing of that certain Stock Purchase Agreement by and among Guarantor, or a company controlled by him, and the stockholders of PAMCo. This Agreement will continue in full force and effect and the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder will not be discharged until the earlier of (i) the date on which the Guaranteed Obligations are fully performed, satisfied and discharged or until BHI's liability to the Lessor under the Lease shall have been completely performed, satisfied and discharged, whichever occurs first, or (ii) the date on which Guarantor no longer owns any interest, directly or indirectly, in BHI. The Guaranteed Obligations will not be considered fully performed, satisfied and discharged (a) unless and until all obligations of BHI to the Lessor pursuant to the Lease have been fully and completely performed, satisfied and discharged, or (b) to the extent any claim by the Lessor against BHI remains outstanding.
- 4. No Assignment. The rights and obligations of the Guarantor hereunder may not be assigned without the prior written consent of the Lessor or the then beneficiary of this Agreement. Any purported assignment in violation of this section shall be null and void. All covenants and agreements in this Agreement made by the Guarantor shall bind and inure to the benefit of its successors and permitted assigns.
- 5. Integration; Modification; Waiver. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior understandings of the parties. No supplement, modification or amendment of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by the Guarantor and acknowledged and accepted by the Lessor or the then beneficiary of this Agreement. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement will be deemed to be or shall constitute a continuing waiver. No waiver will be binding unless executed in writing by the party making the waiver.
- No Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement shall confer any rights or remedies upon any person other than the Lessor and its successors and assigns.

7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Nevada without regard to conflicts of law principles.

PURCHASE AND SALE AGREEMENT

THIS PURCHASE AND SALE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made by and between Spirit SPE Portfolio 2005-5, LLC a Delaware limited liability company ("Seller"), and Edward Wooley an individual ("Purchaser"). Except as otherwise expressly defined herein, capitalized terms will have the meanings set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference.

For and in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises hereinafter set forth, the parties hereby mutually covenant and agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

PURCHASE OF PROPERTY

Section 1.01. Agreement To Purchase. Purchaser agrees to purchase, and Seller agrees to sell, in accordance with the terms, conditions and stipulations set forth in this Agreement (the "Transaction"), all of Seller's right, title and interest in and to (a) the real property as more particularly described on Exhibit B attached hereto, and any and all improvements thereon and appurtenances thereto (collectively, the "Real Property"); (b) the fixtures affixed thereto; (c) all leases and rental agreements relating to the Real Property or any portion thereof, including, without limitation, the Lease, and to the extent held by Seller, all rent, prepaid rent, security deposits and other tenant payments and deposits; and (d) all other property interests belonging or appurtenant to the Real Property (all of the foregoing items in clauses (a) through (d) above, now or hereafter existing, collectively, the "Property").

Section 1.02. Purchase Price. The purchase price to be paid by Purchaser to Seller for the Property is Three Million Two Hundred Eighty Six Thousand Five Hundred Fifty Two and 00/100 Dollars ($3,286,552) (the "Purchase Price"). The Purchase Price, as may be adjusted pursuant to requirements of this Agreement, shall be paid by Purchaser in immediately available federal funds at Closing.

Section 1.03. Earnest Money Deposit. Within three (3) Business Days after the Effective Date of this Agreement, Purchaser shall deposit with the Title Company the sum of Twenty Five Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($25,000) (together with all interest accrued thereon, the "Initial Deposit"). Upon the expiration of the Inspection Period, as defined below, Purchaser shall deposit an additional sum of Twenty Five Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($25,000) (together with the Initial Deposit and all interest accrued thereon, the "Earnest Money Deposit"). The Earnest Money Deposit shall be placed in an interest-bearing account by the Title Company, and shall be held by the Title Company and applied against the Purchase Price at Closing or disbursed as provided herein.

Section 1.04. Prorations. All taxes, insurance, utilities and maintenance expenses relating to the Property for the year of the Closing to be paid by the tenant pursuant to the Lease shall not be prorated; all other amounts, if any, shall be prorated as of the Closing Date. Rents actually paid to and received by Seller with respect to the Property for the month in which the Closing occurs shall be prorated as of the Closing Date.

Section 1.05. Purchaser's Financial Contingency. Within twenty one (21) Business Days after execution of this Agreement (the "Loan Commitment Deadline"), Purchaser shall have obtained a loan commitment for market rate financing (the "Loan"). Purchaser shall diligently and timely pursue obtaining the Loan in good faith and shall execute all documents and furnish all information and documents required by the lender and shall timely pay the costs and fees of obtaining the Loan. Purchaser agrees to satisfy reasonable requirements of lender and shall not withdraw Purchaser's loan application nor intentionally cause any change in circumstances that would prejudice lender's approval of the loan application or funding of the Loan. Purchaser must provide written notice to Seller by the Loan Commitment Deadline of Purchaser's inability to obtain a loan commitment for the Loan. If Purchaser so notifies Seller, this Agreement shall terminate, in which event the Initial Deposit shall be returned to Purchaser and neither Purchaser nor Seller shall have any further duties or obligations under this Agreement, except as otherwise provided herein. If Seller does not receive timely written notice to terminate and Purchaser does not close, Purchaser shall be in default under this Agreement.

Section 1.06. Condition of Property. Seller and Purchaser understand and agree that Purchaser's purchase of the Property and other rights to be conveyed, sold, transferred and/or assigned pursuant to this Agreement shall be on an "AS IS" "WHERE IS" physical basis, "WITH ALL FAULTS," without representation or warranty, express or implied, with regard to physical condition, including without limitation, any latent or patent defects, conditions of soils or groundwater, existence or nonexistence of hazardous materials, quality of construction, workmanship, merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose as to the physical measurements or useable space thereof. Purchaser hereby acknowledges that Purchaser has inspected or will inspect the Property to Purchaser's satisfaction and that Seller does not plan to conduct its own inspection and shall not be liable for any latent or patent defects in the Property. Purchaser acknowledges that neither Seller nor any representative or agent of Seller has made any representation or warranty as to any of the following: (a) the physical or environmental condition (including surface and subsurface conditions), state of repair, income, expenses, operations of the Property and surrounding property; (b) the assignability, assumability, transferability or validity of any licenses, permits, government approvals, warranties or guaranties relating to the Property or the use and operation thereof; (c) the accuracy or completeness of any information provided by Seller with respect to environmental matters; (d) compliance or noncompliance with local, state or federal statutes, ordinances, orders or regulations concerning the Property or the use thereof; (e) prior or current operations conducted on the Property; or (f) any matter or thing affecting or relating to the Property or this Agreement not expressly stated in this Section 1.06. Purchaser has not been induced by and has not relied upon any statement, representation or agreement, whether express or implied, not specifically set forth in this Agreement. Seller shall not be liable or bound in any manner by any oral or written statement, agreement or information pertaining to the Property or this Agreement furnished by any agent, employee or other Person.

ARTICLE II

DUE DILIGENCE

Section 2.01. Title Insurance.

- (a) Title Commitment and Title Policy. Within five (5) days of execution of this Agreement, Seller shall order an owner's title insurance commitment ("Title Commitment") with respect to the Property issued by the Title Company, for an owner's title insurance policy (the "Title Policy"). Seller shall cause a copy of the Title Commitment and copies of the Schedule B-2 exceptions to be delivered to Purchaser. The premium related to the Title Policy shall be paid by Purchaser and costs for endorsements, if any, shall be the responsibility of Purchaser.
- (b) Title Company. The Title Company is hereby employed by the parties to act as escrow agent in connection with this Transaction. This Agreement shall be used as instructions to the Title Company, as escrow agent, which may provide its standard conditions of acceptance of escrow; provided, however, that in the event of any inconsistency between such standard conditions of acceptance and the terms of this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail. The Title Company's receipt of this Agreement and the opening of an escrow pursuant to this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute conclusive evidence of the Title Company's agreement to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement pertaining to the Title Company.
- Title Company Actions. The Title Company is authorized to pay, from any funds held by it for each party's respective credit and in accordance with the closing statements executed by both parties, all amounts set forth on the closing statements as necessary to procure the delivery of any documents and to pay, on behalf of Purchaser and Seller, all charges and obligations payable by them, respectively. Seller and Purchaser will pay all charges payable by them to the Title Company. The Title Company shall not cause the Transaction to close unless and until it has received written instructions from Seller and Purchaser to do so. The Title Company is authorized, in the event any conflicting demand is made upon it concerning these instructions or the escrow, at its election, to hold any documents and/or funds deposited hereunder until an action shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to determine the rights of Seller and Purchaser or to interplead such documents and/or funds in an action brought in any such court. Deposit by the Title Company of such documents and funds, after deducting therefrom its reasonable expenses and attorneys' fees incurred in connection with any such court action, shall relieve the Title Company of all further liability and responsibility for such documents and funds.

(d) Title Objections.

(i) Within three (3) days after the Purchaser's receipt of both the Title Commitment and the Survey, Purchaser shall notify Seller in writing of Purchaser's objection, if any, to any exceptions or other title matters shown on the Title Commitment or the Survey (each, a "Title Objection"). If any Title Objection is not removed or resolved by Seller to Purchaser's satisfaction at least one (1) day prior to the Closing Date, then Purchaser shall have the option, as its sole remedy, to terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Seller, in which event the Earnest Money Deposit shall be returned to Purchaser and neither Purchaser nor Seller shall have any further duties or obligations under this Agreement, except as otherwise provided herein.

- (ii) If any supplement to the Title Commitment or the Survey discloses any additional title defects which were not created by or with the consent of Purchaser, and which are not acceptable to Purchaser, Purchaser shall notify Seller in writing of its objection thereto (each, an "Additional Title Objection") within three (3) days following receipt of such supplement or revision. If any Additional Title Objection is not removed or resolved by Seller to Purchaser's satisfaction at least one (1) day prior to the Closing Date, then Purchaser shall have the option, as its sole remedy, to terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Seller, in which event the Earnest Money Deposit shall be returned to Purchaser and neither Purchaser nor Seller shall have any further duties or obligations under this Agreement, except as otherwise provided herein.
- (iii) Purchaser's failure to timely deliver a Title Objection or an Additional Title Objection shall be deemed Purchaser's acceptance of the matters disclosed by the Title Commitment and the Survey. If Purchaser does not terminate this Agreement by reason of any Title Objection or Additional Title Objection as provided in this Section, then such Title Objection or Additional Title Objection shall be deemed waived and approved by Purchaser and shall thereafter be deemed a Permitted Encumbrance.

Section 2.02. Seller Documents. With reasonable promptness, but in no event later than five (5) days from the Effective Date, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser the following items which are in Seller's possession or under its control (collectively, the "Seller Documents"):

- (a) survey related to the Property (the "Survey");
- (b) environmental report related to the Property (the "Environmental Report"); and
- (c) a full and complete copy of the Lease, together with all amendments, modifications and guaranties relating thereto, and to the extent that the same is not proprietary or confidential, all financial information related to the tenant under the Lease.
- Section 2.03. Survey. Purchaser may, at its expense, order an update to the Survey if required by the Title Company or otherwise required by Purchaser.
- Section 2.04. Environmental. Purchaser may, at its expense, order an update to the Environmental Report, if deemed necessary by Purchaser in its sole discretion.

4845-9631-6928.1 Spirit - Purchase and Sale Agreement Tibarom / Sparks, NV 1365 Baring Blvd. Section 2.05. Tenant Estoppel. Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain and deliver to Purchaser, at least three (3) days prior to Closing, a tenant estoppel certificate from the tenant under the Lease certifying (a) that the Lease is in full force and effect and that, except as otherwise stated therein, the Lease has not been amended or modified; (b) the commencement and expiration dates of the Lease; (c) the rent due and payable under the Lease; (d) the security deposits, if any, held by Seller, as landlord under the Lease; (e) except as otherwise stated therein, that no party is in default under the Lease.

Section 2.06. Inspections. From the Effective Date and for a period of ten (10) Business Days after Purchaser's receipt of the Seller Documents (the "Inspection Period"), Purchaser may perform whatever investigations, tests and inspections upon the Property during normal business hours or as otherwise requested by Seller; that Purchaser deems reasonably appropriate (collectively, the "Inspections"); provided, however, that prior thereto, (a) Purchaser shall give Seller at least three (3) days' prior notice thereof; and (b) Seller and any representative of Seller shall have the right to be present during any Inspection. Purchaser shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by written notice to Seller on or before the expiration of the Inspection Period if, based upon the Inspections, Purchaser determines, in its sole discretion, that the Property is not satisfactory, in which event, this Agreement shall terminate without further liability to the parties except as expressly set forth herein and the Initial Deposit shall be returned to Purchaser. In the event that Purchaser fails to provide such written notice to Seller on or before expiration of the Inspection Period, Purchaser shall be deemed to have waived any objections based upon the Inspections and subject to Sections 2.01(d), 6.02(a) and 7.01, the Initial Deposit shall be non-refundable.

ARTICLE III

Section 3.01. Closing Date. Subject to the provisions of Article V of this Agreement, the closing date of the Transaction contemplated by this Agreement (the "Closing") shall be set by mutual agreement within ten (10) days after the expiration of the Inspection Period, but in no event later than sixty (60) days after the Effective Date (the "Closing Date"). Pre-closing, which includes the parties' deposit with Seller's counsel (or, if directed by Seller's counsel, with the Title Company) of all documents (including without limitation, the executed Transaction Documents), all as necessary to comply with the parties' respective obligations hereunder, shall occur three (3) Business Days prior to the Closing Date or as otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties. The parties shall deposit all funds required hereunder with the Title Company on or before the Closing Date.

Section 3.02. Possession. Possession of the Property, free and clear of all tenants or other parties in possession, except for the tenant under the Lease, shall be delivered to Purchaser upon Closing.

Section 3.03. Transaction Costs. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, Purchaser shall pay for all costs associated with the updates of the Survey and Environmental Report, procurement of the Loan, endorsements to the Title Policy, recording Section 3.04. Tenant's Letter. Upon Closing, Purchaser shall deliver the Tenant Letter to the tenant under the Lease in the manner described in the Lease for the giving of notice, or if not so described, by certified or registered U.S. mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid. The obligation of Purchaser in this Section 3.04 shall survive Closing.

Waiver of any matter shall not be deemed a waiver of the same or any other matter on any future occasion.

Section 7.11. Personal Liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided in this Agreement, it is specifically understood and agreed, such agreement being a primary consideration for the execution of this Agreement by Seller, that (i) there shall be absolutely no personal liability on the part of any shareholder, director, officer, manager, member, officer or employee of Seller with respect to any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Agreement; and (ii) Purchaser waives all claims, demands and causes of action against Seller's officers, directors, managers, members, employees and agents in the event of any breach by Seller of any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Agreement to be performed by the other party.

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT (this "Lease") is made as of _______, 2006 by and between EDWARD WOOLEY AND JUDITH WOOLEY, individuals (collectively "Lessor") and BERRY-HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES, a Nevada corporation ("Lessee"), whose address is 425 Maestro Drive, Reno, Nevada 89511.

In consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, Lessor and Lessee hereby covenant and agree as follows:

- 1. Certain Defined Terms. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in Exhibit A hereto.
- 2. Lease of Property; Use; Possession. In consideration of the Rentals and other Monetary Obligations to be paid by Lessee and of the other terms, covenants and conditions on Lessee's part to be kept and performed, Lessor hereby leases to Lessee, and Lessee hereby takes and leases, the Property (as such term is defined in Exhibit A attached hereto and which Property is located at the address set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto and situated on the real property legally described in Exhibit B attached hereto) and commonly known as 1365 Baring Boulevard, Sparks, Nevada, subject to the Permitted Encumbrances, all Legal Requirements (including any existing violation thereof), and the condition of the Property as of the Effective Date; provided, however, that the recital of the Permitted Encumbrances herein shall not be construed as a revival of any Permitted Encumbrance which may have expired or been terminated. During the Lease Term, the Property shall be used for the operation of a Permitted Facility, and lawful or related purposes such as ingress, egress and parking.
- 3. Lease Term; Extension. The initial term of this Lease ("Initial Term") shall commence May __, 2006 ("Effective Date") and shall expire at midnight on October 31, 2023 ("Expiration Date"), unless terminated sooner as provided in this Lease and as may be extended as provided herein. The time period during which this Lease shall actually be in effect, including any Extension Term, is referred to herein as the "Lease Term." Lessee shall have the right and option (each, an "Extension Option") to extend the Initial Term for four (4) additional successive periods of five (5) years each (each, an "Extension Term"), pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Lease then in effect. Lessee may only exercise the Extension Options by giving written notice thereof to Lessor of its election to do so first, no later than two hundred forty (240) days prior to the Expiration Date and two hundred forty (240) days prior to the immediately preceding Extension Term, as the case may be. If written notice of the exercise of any Extension Option is not received by Lessor by the applicable dates described above, then this Lease shall terminate on the last day of the Initial Term or, if applicable, the last day of the Extension Term then in effect.

4. Rental and Other Monetary Obligations.

A. Base Monthly Rental. During the Initial Term, on or before the first day of each calendar month, Lessee shall pay in advance the Base Monthly Rental; provided, however, if the Effective Date is a date other than the first day of the month, Lessee shall pay to Lessor (or any other party designated by Lessor) on the Effective Date the Base Monthly Rental prorated by multiplying the Base Monthly Rental by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days remaining in the month (including the Effective Date) for which Rental is being paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in such month. During the Extension Terms, if any, Lessee shall pay the Rental (including the Base Monthly Rental) in the manner set forth in this Section 4. Unless otherwise specifically stated to the contrary herein, Lessee shall perform all its obligations under this Lease at its sole cost and expense and shall pay all Rental and any other Monetary Obligation due hereunder when due and payable, without notice or demand.

- B. Adjustments. On the first Adjustment Date and on each Adjustment Date thereafter, the Base Annual Rental shall increase by an amount equal to the Rent Adjustment. The "Rent Adjustment" shall be an amount equal to two (2) percent of the Base Annual Rental in effect immediately prior to the applicable Adjustment Date. The Adjustment Date shall be on the annual anniversary of the Effective Date.
- C. Additional Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge, as additional rental ("Additional Rental"), all sums of money required to be paid by Lessee under this Lease which are not specifically referred to as Base Annual Rental or Base Monthly Rental. Lessee shall pay and discharge any Additional Rental when the same shall become due, provided that amounts which are billed to Lessor or any third party, but not to Lessee, shall be paid within five (5) days after Lessor's demand for payment thereof or, if later, when the same are due. In no event shall Lessee be required to pay to Lessor any item of Additional Rental that Lessee is obligated to pay and has paid to any third party pursuant to any provision of this Lease.
- D. Payment of Rental and Other Monetary Obligations. All Rental and other Monetary Obligations which Lessee is required to pay hereunder shall due without any setoff, abatement, deferment, deduction or counterclaim whatsoever, except as set forth herein. All payments of Base Monthly Rental and any other Monetary Obligations payable to Lessor shall be remitted to Lessor at Lessor's address set forth in the first paragraph of this Lease or such other address as Lessor may designate pursuant to Section 24 hereof.
- E. Late Payment Charge. Lessee acknowledges that late payment by Lessee to Lessor of Rental will cause Lessor to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of such costs being extremely difficult and impracticable to fix in advance. Such costs include, without limitation, processing and accounting charges, and late charges that may be imposed on Lessor by the terms of any encumbrance and note secured by any encumbrance covering the Property. Therefore, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee to Lessor pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than teh (10) days after the due date thereof, then Lessee shall pay to Lessor, as a late payment charge, five percent (5%) of the amount of the delinquent payment. Additionally, if any payment which is required to be made by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease is made more than ten (10) days after the due date thereof, such payment shall bear interest at the Default Rate until received by Lessor. The late payment charge and default interest shall be paid to Lessor at the time of payment of the delinquent amount. The late payment charge and the default interest charge shall compensate Lessor for the expenses incurred by Lessor in financing, collecting and processing the late payment. The parties agree that the late charge and the default interest charge represent a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs that Lessor will incur by reason of late payment by Lessee.

- Gaming. Lessor hereby conditionally assigns to Lessee all leases, written or oral, and all agreements for use or occupancy of the Property together with any and all extensions and renewals thereof and any and all further leases, subleases, lettings or agreements (including subleases thereof and tenancies following attornment) upon or covering the use or occupancy of the Property all of which leases, agreements, subleases and tenancies are herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Assigned Leases": (ii) the immediate and continuing right to collect and receive all of the rents, income, receipts, revenues, issues and profits now due or which may become due or which may now or hereafter become due from or out of the Assigned Leases or any part thereof, including, but not limited to, security deposits, minimum rents, additional rents, parking rents, deficiency rents and liquidated damages following default, any premium payable by any tenant upon the exercise of a cancellation privilege contained in its Lease; all proceeds payable under any policy of insurance covering loss of rents resulting from untenantability caused by destruction or damage to the Property; any and all rights and claims of any kind which Lessor has or hereafter may have against the tenants under the Assigned Leases and any subtenants and other occupants of the Property; any award granted Lessor after the date hereof in any court proceeding involving any tenant in any bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization proceedings in any state or federal court and any and all payments made by any tenant in lieu of rent (any and all such moneys, rights and claims identified in this paragraph are herein sometimes referred to as the "Rents" and sometimes as the "Rent"); and (iii) all of the rights, powers and privileges of Lessor (A) to accept prepayment of more than one (1) monthly installment of the Rent thereunder, and (B) except with respect to the Assigned Lease, (I) to cancel, terminate or accept the surrender of any Assigned Lease, and (II) to amend, modify or abridge any of the terms, covenants or conditions of any Assigned Lease. The assignment contained in this Section 5 and Lessee's interest in the Assigned Leases shall become void and of no further force or effect upon the expiration or early termination of this Lease and upon such event, Lessor shall be the sole party with any interest as a landlord or lessor in the Assigned Leases. Furthermore, Lessee shall have no right to collect any amounts under the Assigned Leases upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default and all such amounts shall be paid to Lessor during any such period.
- 6. Nevada Gaming Control Board. Lessor will follow all laws of the State of Nevada, and cooperate with Winner's Gaming Inc. ("WGI") or its successor in making application to the Nevada Gaming Control Board if such application or approval is required.
- 7. Rentals To Be Net to Lessor. The Base Annual Rental payable hereunder shall be net to Lessor, so that this Lease shall yield to Lessor the Rentals specified during the Lease Term, and all Costs and obligations of every kind and nature whatsoever relating to the Property shall be performed and paid by Lessee, including but not limited to all impositions, operating charges, maintenance charges, construction costs and any other charges, costs and expenses now existing or that arise or may be contemplated under the Permitted Encumbrances or otherwise, all maintenance and repair expenses, all utility expenses, all Taxes, all premiums for insurance required to be maintained by Lessee pursuant to the terms hereof and all other expenses, charges, assessments and costs associated with the Property or otherwise provided to be paid by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease. All such charges, costs and expenses shall constitute Additional Rental and upon the failure of Lessee to pay any of such costs, charges or expenses, Lessor shall have the same rights and remedies as otherwise provided in this Lease for the failure of Lessee to pay Base Annual Rental. It is the intention of the parties except as expressly provided herein that this Lease shall not be terminable for any reason by Lessee, and that Lessee shall in no event be entitled to any abatement of, or reduction in, Rental payable under this Lease, except as otherwise expressly provided herein. Any present or future law to the contrary shall not alter this agreement of the parties.

8. Taxes and Assessments. Lessee shall pay, prior to the earlier of delinquency or the accrual of interest on the unpaid balance, one hundred percent (100%) of the following (collectively, "Taxes"): all taxes and assessments of every type or nature assessed against or imposed upon the Property or Lessee during the Lease Term, including without limitation, all ad valorem taxes, assessments and special assessments upon the Property or any part thereof and upon any personal property, trade fixtures and improvements located on the Property, whether belonging to Lessor or Lessee, or any tax or charge levied in lieu of such taxes and assessments; all taxes, charges, license fees and or similar fees imposed by reason of the use of the Property by Lessee; and all excise, transaction, privilege, license, sales, use and other taxes upon the Rental or other Monetary Obligations hereunder, the leasehold estate of either party or the activities of either party pursuant to this Lease, and all interest, surcharges or service or other fees payable in connection with the foregoing.

Upon request of Lessor, Lessee shall, upon prior written request of Lessor, provide Lessor with evidence reasonably satisfactory to Lessor that such payment was made in a timely fashion. Lessee may, at its own expense, contest or cause to be contested by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, any above-described item or lien with respect thereto, including, without limitation, the amount or validity or application, in whole or in part, of any such item, provided that (A) neither the Property nor any interest therein would be in any danger of being sold, forfeited or lost by reason of such proceedings, (B) no monetary Event of Default has occurred, (C) Lessee shall promptly provide Lessor with copies of all notices received or delivered by Lessee and filings made by Lessee in connection with such proceeding, and (D) Lessee shall indemnify and hold Lessor harmless against any loss, Costs or damages arising from or related to such contest.

If Lessee shall fail to pay any Taxes when due and before any delinquency, penalty or interest is imposed on such Taxes, Lessor shall have the right to pay the same after notice to Lessee, in which case Lessee shall repay in full such amount to Lessor with Lessee's next Base Monthly Rental installment together with interest at the Default Rate.

9. Utilities. Lessee shall contract, in its own name, for and pay when due (and hold Lessor free and harmless from) all charges for the connection and use of water, gas, electricity, telephone, garbage collection, sewer use and other utility services supplied to the Property during the Lease Term. All utility charges, assessments and fees for the last year of the Lease shall be prorated as of the termination date of this Lease. No full or partial utility deprivation including, but not limited to, blackout, brownout, or rationing, nor any loss of or damage to improvements related to disruption or failure of any utility service shall give rise to any abatement of Rentals nor give rise to any right of Lessee to offset Rentals or to terminate the Lease, unless caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Lessor or its agents, employees or contractors (but not of any other tenants or occupants of the Property). Lessor shall reasonably cooperate with Lessee, but without out-of-pocket expense to Lessor, in Lessee's efforts to restore utility service to the Property; provided, however, that if the utility service was disrupted due to Lessor's gross negligence or willful misconduct, then the cost of such restoration shall be borne by Lessor.

- 10. Insurance. Throughout the Lease Term, Lessee shall maintain, at its sole expense, the following types and amounts of insurance:
 - Insurance against loss or damage to the Property and all buildings and A. improvements thereon under an "all risk" insurance policy, which shall include coverage against all risks of direct physical loss, including loss by fire, lightning, and other risks normally included in the standard ISO special form (which shall include coverage for all risks commonly insured for properties similar to the Property in the Reno, Nevada area, including insurance coverage for damage caused by earthquake, flood, tornado, windstorm and other disasters for which insurance is customarily maintained for similar commercial properties). Such insurance shall be in amounts sufficient to prevent Lessor from becoming a co-insurer under the applicable policies, and in any event, after application of deductible, in amounts not less than 100% of the full insurable replacement cost. Such insurance shall contain an agreed valuation provision in lieu of any coinsurance clause, an increased cost of construction endorsement, debris removal coverage and a waiver of subrogation endorsement in favor of Lessor. While any portion of the improvements on the Property is being rebuilt on the Land, Lessee shall provide such property insurance in builder's risk completed value form, including coverage available on the so-called "all-risk" non-reporting form of policy in an amount equal to 100% of the full insurable replacement value of the improvements on the Property or such portion as is being rebuilt. The insurance policy shall insure Lessee as loss payee. No parties other than Lessor, Lessor's Lender and Lessee may be named as insureds or loss payees on such property insurance policy.
 - B. Commercial general liability insurance, including products and completed operation liability, covering Lessor and Lessee against bodily injury liability, property damage liability and personal and advertising injury, liquor liability coverage (to the extent liquor is sold or manufactured at the Property), garage liability coverage including without limitation any liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, repair, condition or operation of the Property or adjoining ways, streets, parking lots or sidewalks. Such insurance policy or policies shall contain a broad form contractual liability endorsement under which the insurer agrees to insure Lessee's obligations under Section 15 hereof to the extent insurable, and a "severability of interest" clause or endorsement which precludes the insurer from denying the claim of Lessee, Lessor or

- (vi) Provide that the insurer shall not have the option to restore the Property if Lessor elects to terminate this Lease in accordance with the terms hereof:
- (vii) Be in amounts sufficient at all times to satisfy any coinsurance requirements thereof;
- (viii) Except for workers' compensation insurance referred to in Section 10.C above, name Lessor and any Lessor Affiliate requested by Lessor, as an "additional insured" (and, with respect to any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor, as an "additional insured mortgagee") with respect to general liability insurance, and as a "named insured" with respect to real property and "loss payee" with respect to all real property and rent value insurance, as appropriate and as their interests may appear;
- (ix) Be evidenced by delivery to Lessor and any Lessor's Lender designated by Lessor of an Acord Form 28 for property coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor) and an Acord Form 25 for liability, workers' compensation and umbrella coverage (or any other form requested by Lessor); provided that in the event that either such form is no longer available, such evidence of insurance shall be in a form reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and any lender designated by Lessor; such certificates of insurance shall be delivered to Lessor prior to the Effective Date; and
- (x) Be issued by insurance companies licensed to do business in the states where the Property is located and which are rated A:VIII or better by Best's Insurance Guide or are otherwise approved by Lessor.

It is expressly understood and agreed that (I) if any insurance required hereunder, or any part thereof, shall expire, be withdrawn, become void by breach of any condition thereof by Lessee, or become void or in jeopardy by reason of the failure or impairment of the capital of any insurer, Lessee shall immediately obtain new or additional insurance reasonably satisfactory to Lessor and any lender designated by Lessor; (II) the foregoing minimum limits of insurance coverage shall not limit the liability of Lessee for its acts or omissions as provided in this Lease; and (III) Lessee shall procure policies for all insurance for periods of not less than one year and shall provide to Lessor and any servicer or lender of Lessor certificates of insurance or, upon Lessor's request, duplicate originals of insurance policies evidencing that insurance satisfying the requirements of this Lease is in effect at all times.

Lessee shall pay as they become due all premiums for the insurance required by this Section 10. In the event that Lessee fails to comply with any of the foregoing requirements of this Section 10 within ten (10) days of the giving of written notice by Lessor to Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to procure such insurance. Any sums expended by Lessor in procuring such insurance shall be Additional Rental and shall be repaid by Lessee, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate, from the time of payment by Lessor until fully paid by Lessee immediately upon written demand therefor by Lessor.

Anything in this Section 10 to the contrary notwithstanding, any insurance which Lessee is required to obtain pursuant to this Section 10 may be carried under a "blanket" policy or policies covering other properties or liabilities of Lessee provided that such "blanket" policy or policies that otherwise comply with the provisions of this Section 10 and specify the location of the Property.

11. Intentionally Omitted

- 12. Compliance With Laws, Restrictions, Covenants, Encumbrances and Agreements. It is expressly understood and agreed that the obligations of Lessee under this Section shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease for any reason.
 - A. Legal and Gaming Law Compliance. Lessee's use and occupation of the Property, the use and occupation of the Property by any other person (including but not limited to any subtenants and WGI) and the condition of the Property, shall, at Lessee's sole cost and expense, comply with all Legal Requirements (including without limitation the Americans with Disabilities Act and all Legal Requirements related to gaming operations and the sales of tobacco and liquor on the Property). Lessee shall promptly file, or cause to be filed, and provide to Lessor any notices, reports or other filings that Lessee or any other Person is required to file or provide to any Governmental Authorities regarding the business operations conducted on or from the Property, including but not limited to those described in Subsection D(iii) hereof and those required by Governmental Authorities with respect to gaming operations and the sales of tobacco and liquor on the Property, including any filings required to be made in connection with the change of ownership or control of Lessee and, within fifteen (15) days of Lessee's receipt of written notice from Lessor of any planned or actual change in the ownership or control of Lessor or any planned or actual change in the ownership of the Property.
 - B. Acts Resulting in Increased Insurance Rates. Lessee will use its commercially reasonable efforts to prevent any act or condition to exist on or about the Property which will materially increase any insurance rate thereon, except when such acts are required in the normal course of its business and Lessee shall pay for such increase. Lessee shall comply with all orders and directives of any insurance companies issuing liability, fire, or extended coverage insurance pursuant to Section 10 hereof, and Lessee shall not do, bring, or keep anything in or about the Property that will cause a cancellation of any insurance covering the Property.
 - C. Prevention of Nuisance. Lessee shall not commit nor cause or permit to be committed any public or private nuisance on the Property.

D. Environmental.

(i) Covenants. All uses and operations on or of the Property, including the use and operation of UST's on the Property, whether by Lessee or any other Person, shall be in compliance with all Environmental Laws and permits issued pursuant thereto. Lessee shall keep the Property or cause the Property to be kept free and clear of all Environmental Liens due to any act or omission of Lessee.

- Notification Requirements. Lessee shall immediately notify Lessor (ii) in writing upon Lessee obtaining actual knowledge of (1) any Releases or Threatened Releases in, on, under or from the Property other than in Permitted Amounts, or migrating towards any of the Property; (2) any non-compliance with any Environmental Laws related in any way to any of the Property; (3) any actual or potential Environmental Lien; (4) any required or proposed Remediation of environmental conditions relating to any of the Property required by applicable Governmental Authorities; and (5) any written or oral notice or other communication which Lessee becomes aware from any source whatsoever (including but not limited to a Governmental Authority) relating in any way to Hazardous Materials, Regulated Substances or USTs, or Remediation thereof at or on the Property, other than in Permitted Amounts, possible liability of any Person relating to the Property pursuant to any Environmental Law, other environmental conditions in connection with the Property, or any actual or potential administrative or judicial proceedings in connection with anything referred to in this Subsection D.
- (iii) Reports and Investigations. Lessee shall promptly supply Lessor with copies of all reports of any testing of the Property conducted by or at the request of Lessor or any Governmental Authorities and all submissions by Lessee to any Governmental Authority concerning environmental matters, the USTs, or Hazardous Materials. Lessee shall furnish to Lessor certificates of enrollment issued by the State of Nevada, Division of Environmental Projection, for each UST at the Property no later than October 30 of each year, and gasoline storage tank permits issued by the Department of Air Quality Management of the County in which the Property is located with respect to each UST on the Property no later than May 5 of each year, and such other certificates or permits as may be issued or required by any other Governmental Authority; all of the foregoing shall evidence continuing compliance of each UST on the Property with all applicable Legal Requirements. Additionally, upon Lessor's reasonable request in the event that Lessor reasonably suspects that Contamination (as hereafter defined) may have occurred or be occurring at the Property, Lessee agrees to perform, at Lessee's sole expense, an environmental assessment of the Property, including soil borings, to confirm whether such Contamination is occurring.
- (iv) Indemnification. Lessee shall indemnify, defend, protect and hold each of the Indemnified Parties free and harmless from and against any and all Losses, arising from or caused in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by any of the following, unless arising from or caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnified Party requesting indemnification: (a) the use, storage, transportation, disposal, release, discharge or generation of Hazardous Materials to, in, on, under or about the Property (whether occurring before or after the date hereof) (any of the foregoing in violation of Legal Requirements is "Contamination"), including diminution in value of the Property; and (b) the cost of any required or necessary repair, remediation, cleanup or detoxification and the preparation of any closure or other required plans or reports, whether such action is required or necessary prior to or following transfer of title to the Property (such acts are sometimes referred to herein as "Corrective Action"), and (c) Lessee's failure to comply with any Legal Requirements. Lessee's obligations to perform Correction Action shall include, without limitation, and whether foreseeable or unforeseeable, all cost of any investigation (including consultants and attorneys fees and testing) required or necessary repair, remediation, restoration clean up, detoxification or decontamination of the Property and the preparation and implementation of any closure, remedial action or other required plans in connection therewith, and shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Term of this Lease. This agreement to indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties shall be in addition to any other obligations or liabilities Lessee may have to Lessor or the Indemnified Parties, if any, at common law under all statutes and ordinances or otherwise and survive the termination of the Lease.

In the event that Lessee is required to perform Corrective Action to address any Contamination, Lessee shall perform such activities in a diligent manner. In the event that Lessee has not completed its Corrective Action (if necessary), as required herein, by the expiration of the Lease Term, Lessor shall grant Lessee, and its consultants, contractors and agents a revocable license, at no cost to Lessee except as set forth in the succeeding sentence, to enter upon the Property from and after the date of expiration of the Lease Term to conduct Corrective Action and to place and remove all necessary equipment and improvements on the Property sufficient to satisfy the requirements of all Governmental Authorities regarding the Contamination. If such post-expiration Corrective Action will unreasonably interfere with a reasonably foreseeable intended commercial use of the Property (i.e., if Lessor cannot reasonably lease the Property for reasonable commercial uses at reasonable market rents), the Lease Term shall be extended until sixty (60) days after the Corrective Action has been performed such that post-expiration Corrective Action by Lessee no longer unreasonably interferes with a reasonably foreseeable commercial use of the Property, and Lessee agrees to keep Lessor apprised of the anticipated completion date of the Corrective Action.

E. Intentionally Omitted.

F. Dealer Requirements. In addition to the requirements set forth in this Lease, Lessee, in its use, occupancy and maintenance of the Property shall comply with all requirements of its Dealer Agreements with Dealer. Lessee hereby consents to Lessor providing information it obtains to Dealer and to Lessor obtaining from Dealer information which Dealer receives relating to Lessee's operation of its business on the Property.

- G. WGI Agreements. Lessee represents that the WGI Agreement is in full force and effect, and that the WGI Agreement permits WGI to operate gaming machines on the Property. Lessee shall abide by all the terms and conditions of the WGI Agreement, and Lessee represents and warrants that WGI has approved this Lease, if WGI has such approval rights under the WGI Agreement.
- Maintenance; Repairs and Reconstruction. Lessee shall, at its sole cost and 13. expense, be responsible for keeping all of the buildings, structures, improvements and signs erected on the Property in good and substantial order, condition, and repair, including but not limited to replacement, maintenance and repair of all structural or load-bearing elements, roofs, walls, foundations, gutters and downspouts, heating, ventilating and air conditioning systems, any building security and monitoring system, windows, walls, doors, electrical and other utility systems and equipment, mechanical equipment, plumbing and all other components of the buildings, mowing of lawns and care, weeding and replacement of plantings; replacing, resurfacing and striping of walkways, driveways and parking areas, and adjacent public sidewalks; removal of snow and ice from the Property and adjacent public sidewalks, removal of trash, maintenance of utility lines and exterior lighting and signage on Property, and any maintenance, repairs or replacements (or fees or reserves therefor) as may be required by any Permitted Encumbrances. All such replacements, maintenance and repair shall keep the Property in good repair and in a clean, safe, and sanitary condition and in compliance with all Legal Requirements and insurance regulations. Lessee must make all repairs, corrections, replacements, improvements or alterations necessitated by age, Lessee's use, or natural elements or as required pursuant to Governmental Authorities or Legal Requirements. Lessee expressly waives the benefit of any statute now or hereinafter in effect which would otherwise afford Lessee the right to make repairs, corrections, improvements or alterations at Lessor's expense or to terminate this Lease because of Lessor's failure to keep the Property in good order, condition or repair, or which would otherwise require Lessor to make repairs, corrections, improvements, replacements or alterations. If the buildings or any improvements on the Property violate any Permitted Encumbrances or Legal Requirements, then Lessee shall, upon the written demand of a Governmental Authority or the written demand of a party to or beneficiary of any Permitted Encumbrance, repair, restore, relocate and/or rebuild the same in accordance with Legal Requirements (including any special or conditional use permits or other variances granted specifically for the Property) and the Permitted Encumbrances.

Lessee shall, at its sole cost and expense, be responsible to repair or reconstruct damage or destruction to any buildings, structures or improvements erected on the Property from acts of God or any other catastrophes or causes. Any such repairs or reconstruction shall restore the buildings and all improvements on the Property to substantially the same condition immediately prior to such damages or destruction and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect, provided, however, that Lessee shall have the right to replace the improvements with different structures so long as (a) the value of the Property with such different structures is no less than the value of the Property immediately prior to the date of casualty and the different square footage of the new buildings is no less than the buildings existing as of the date hereof, and (b) the new structure can be built and occupied in compliance with Legal Requirements (including any special or conditional use permits or other variances granted specifically for the Property) and the Permitted Encumbrances. Such repair, restoration, relocation and rebuilding (all of which are herein called a "repair") shall be commenced within a reasonable time however no more than thirty (30) days after the later of (i) the date that such damage or destruction occurred, (ii) the date that all permits and other approvals necessary to authorize such rebuilding have been issued following reasonable pursuit of the same by Lessee, and (iii) the date that any insurance proceeds payable to Lessor or its lender in conjunction with such damage or destruction, if any, have been made available to Lessee as set forth herein; thereafter, the repair shall be diligently pursued to completion. Lessee shall give Lessor at least fifteen (15) days written notice prior to commencing the repair to permit the Lessor to post appropriate notices of non-responsibility, and all such repair work shall be subject to the provisions of Section 14 hereof related to alterations, improvements and additions to the Property.

The proceeds of any insurance maintained under Section 10 hereof shall be made available to Lessee for payment of costs and expense of repair.

Lessee shall not commit actual or constructive waste upon the Property. During the Lease Term, Lessee may construct any additions or improvements to the Property and make such structural or non-structural alterations to the Property as are reasonably necessary or desirable for Lessee's use of the Property for a Permitted Facility. All improvements, alterations, or additions shall be constructed by Lessee at Lessee's sole cost and expense. Prior to the commencement of construction of any additions, improvements, or alterations to the Property, Lessee shall give Lessor at least fifteen (15) days written notice to allow Lessor to post appropriate notices of non-responsibility. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, without Lessor's prior written consent, Lessee shall not make any alterations that will decrease the value or function of the improvements located on the Property.

Lessee's right to make any alterations, improvements and additions shall be deemed conditioned upon Lessee acquiring a permit to do so from appropriate Governmental Authorities, the furnishing of a copy thereof to Lessor prior to the commencement of the work and the compliance by Lessee of all conditions of said permit in a prompt and expeditious manner. All alterations, improvements or other construction by Lessee shall be in compliance with all Legal Requirements, and all alterations and improvements shall be done and performed in good and workmanlike manner, using new and first quality materials. All costs of any such improvements shall be paid by Lessee.

Upon completion of any such work, Lessee shall submit to Lessor as-built plans of any structural, mechanical or interior utility improvements and alterations made, a sworn construction statement, lien waivers from all persons or entities providing materials, services or equipment for the work completed and, if available, an endorsement to Lessor's policy of title insurance or other evidence from a title company confirming the absence of any liens or other matters of record related to the work performed.

Unless expressly released by Lessor in writing, all improvements or alterations shall be and remain, at the time of expiration or other termination of this Lease, the property of Lessor without payment or offset unless such improvements are not attached to the Property.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all plumbing, electrical, HVAC equipment, doors, ceiling and floor tiles, and wall coverings shall become the property of Lessor and remain in place on the Property upon expiration or other termination of this Lease.

During the Lease Term, Lessee shall have the right to locate in the Property such personal property, furniture, trade fixtures, and equipment (hereafter referred to as "Fixtures and Equipment") as shall be considered by Lessee to be appropriate or necessary to Lessee's use and occupancy of the Property.

All Fixtures and Equipment shall be provided by Lessee at Lessee's own cost and expense. During the term of this Lease, Lessee may remove any Fixtures and Equipment installed by Lessee, and any and all such Fixtures and Equipment shall remain the sole property of Lessee. Lessee shall perform (and pay all costs associated with) any and all restoration necessitated by the removal of Lessee's Fixtures and Equipment, including but not limited to damage resulting from removal of any of Lessee's signs in or about the Property.

Lessee shall keep the Property free and clear of all mechanic's, materialmen or similar liens, including, but not limited to, those resulting from the construction of alterations, improvements, additions, trade fixtures, and equipment performed by or for Lessee.

Lessee shall have the right to contest the correctness or validity of any such lien if, Lessee first procures and records a lien release bond issued by a corporation authorized to issue surety bonds in the state in which the Property are located in an amount required by Legal Requirements to remove such lien. The bond or its equivalent shall meet all applicable requirements of the state in which the Property are located. In the event that any lien does so attach, and is not released within thirty (30) days after written notice to Lessee thereof, Lessor, in its sole discretion, may pay and discharge the same and relieve the Property therefrom, and Lessee agrees to repay and reimburse Lessor as Additional Rental upon demand for the amount so paid by Lessor. On final determination of the lien or claim of lien Lessee will immediately pay any judgment rendered, and all costs and charges, and shall cause the lien to be released or satisfied. In addition, Lessor may require Lessee to pay Lessor's reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in participating in such action if Lessor shall decide it is in its best interest to do so.

and hereby releases Lessor and Lessor's agents and employees from all claims for any damage or injury to the full extent permitted by law. Lessee agrees that Lessor shall not be responsible or liable to Lessee or Lessee's employees, agents, customers or invitees for bodily injury, personal injury or property damage occasioned by the acts or omissions of any other lessee or such lessee's employees, agents, contractors, customers or invitees. In addition to other specific indemnification provisions set forth in this Lease, Lessee shall indemnify, protect, defend and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties from and against any and all Losses caused by, incurred or resulting from Lessee's use and occupancy of the Property, whether relating to its original design or construction, latent defects, alteration, maintenance, use by Lessee or any Person thereon, with supervision or otherwise, or from any breach of, default under, or failure to perform, any term or provision of this Lease by Lessee, its officers, employees, agents or other Persons. It is expressly understood and agreed that Lessee's obligations under this Section shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease for any reason.

- 16. Quiet Enjoyment. So long as Lessee shall pay the Rental and other Monetary Obligations herein provided and shall keep and perform all of the terms, covenants and conditions on its part herein contained, Lessee shall have, subject and subordinate to Lessor's rights herein, the right to the peaceful and quiet occupancy of the Property, subject to the Permitted Encumbrances, Laws and the WGI Agreement and any use or occupancy agreements, leases or licenses now affecting the Property or hereinafter made by Lessee.
- 17. Inspection; Right of Entry. Lessor and its authorized representatives shall have the right, at all reasonable times and upon giving reasonable prior notice (except in the event of an emergency, in which case no prior notice shall be required), to enter the Property or any part thereof and to inspect the same; to serve, post, or keep posted any notices required or allowed under the provisions of this Lease or by law; to show the Property to prospective brokers, agents, buyers, or persons interested in an exchange, at any time; and to show the Property to prospective tenants within two hundred forty (240) days prior to the expiration of this Lease or any time during the option period and to place upon the Property any "to let" or "for lease" signs at any time within two hundred forty (240) days prior to the expiration of this Lease. Lessee hereby waives any claim for damages for any injury or inconvenience to or interference with Lessee's business, any loss of occupancy or quiet enjoyment of the Property and any other loss occasioned by such entry, but, subject to Section 37, excluding damages arising as a result of the negligence or intentional misconduct of Lessor.

18. Condemnation and Casualty.

- A. Damage or Destruction to the Property; No Abatement of Rent. If the Property is damaged or destroyed as a result of fire or other casualty Lessee shall promptly restore the Property pursuant to the terms of Section 13 hereof.

 Notwithstanding the partial or total destruction of the Property and any part thereof, and notwithstanding whether the casualty is insured or not, there shall be no abatement of Rentals or of any other obligation of Lessee hereunder including, without limitation, payment of operating expenses, insurance premiums and Taxes, by reason of such damage or destruction unless the Lease is terminated by virtue of another provision of this Lease.
- B. Option to Terminate. If the Property is damaged or destroyed during the last one (1) year of the Lease Term to the extent that the Property is untenable, Lessee may terminate this Lease as of the date of such damage or destruction by giving written notice to Lessor of such election within thirty (30) days following the date of such fire or other casualty, in which case, all insurance proceeds related to the Property (other than attributable to Lessee's Fixtures and Equipment) will be paid over to Lessor, or if required by Lessor's Lender, to such lender.
- C. Termination Upon Taking. If as a consequence of a Taking, (i) any part of the convenience store building on the Property; or (ii) twenty-five percent (25 %) or more of the parking area at the Property shall be taken and Lessee determines in its reasonable discretion that such Taking will have a material adverse impact on the ability of Lessee to conduct its normal business operations from the Property, then, within thirty (30) days after the date on which Lessee receives written notice of such Taking, Lessee may terminate this Lease by written notice to Lessor which termination shall be effective as of the date the condemning authority takes actual possession of the portion of the Property that is subject to the Taking. If Lessee terminates this Lease, Lessor shall promptly refund to Lessee all unearned Annual Base Rental and other amounts paid in advance by Lessee.

- D. Obligation to Restore. If a Taking does not result in a termination of this Lease pursuant to Subsection C hereof, Lessee shall restore the Property to a condition similar in physical appearance to that which existed immediately prior to the Taking to the extent possible such that Lessee can conduct its normal business operations, Lessee shall commence such restoration within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of the taking and shall complete such restoration within six (6) months after the occurrence of the taking.
- E. Condemnation Award. Any condemnation award payable during the term of this Lease shall belong to and be paid to Lessor, including but not limited to awards payable with respect to damage to either the fee or leasehold estates, except that Lessee shall receive from the award the following:
 - (i) If Lessee exercises its rights to terminate this Lease, the portion of the award, if any, attributable to Lessee's Equipment or Fixtures that are taken in the Taking and the unamortized cost of any leasehold improvements made to the Property by Lessee after the date hereof that are taken in the Taking.
 - (ii) The portion of the award, if any, attributable to severance damages for the repair or restoration of the Property (herein called "repair"), but only if Lessee does not exercise Lessee's right to terminate the Lease and further provided, that such damages shall be deposited and disbursed in accordance with the provisions hereof related to the handling of insurance proceeds that are applied to a repair of the Property and Lessee shall promptly commence and diligently complete the repair so that upon completion the Property will have a character and commercial value as nearly as possible equal to the value of the Property immediately prior to the taking, and further provided that, in the event such damages are insufficient to cover the cost of repair, then any amounts required over the amount thereof that are required to complete said repair shall be promptly deposited with the disbursing entity by Lessee in advance of commencing the repair.
 - (iii) Additionally, if this Lease is terminated as a result of any such taking, Lessee shall be permitted to recover its relocation expenses and the going concern value of Lessee's business from the condemning authority (but not from Lessor or the portion of the award otherwise payable to Lessor) as provided by law.

- Intentionally Deleted.
- 20. Default, Conditional Limitations, Remedies and Measure of Damages.
- A. Event of Default. Each of the following shall be an event of default by Lessee under this Lease (each, an "Event of Default"):
 - (i) If any Rental or other Monetary Obligation due under this Lease is not paid within five (5) Business Days of notice it is past due,
 - (ii) if there is an Insolvency Event;
 - (iii) if Lessee fails to observe or perform any of the other covenants. conditions or obligations of Lessee in this Lease; provided, however, if any such failure does not involve the payment of any Monetary Obligation, does not place any rights or property of Lessor in immediate jeopardy, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, then such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default hereunder, unless otherwise expressly provided herein, unless and until Lessor shall have given Lessee notice thereof and a period of thirty (30) days shall have elapsed, during which period Lessee may correct or cure such failure, upon failure of which an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required. If such failure cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, as determined by Lessor in its reasonable discretion, and Lessee is diligently pursuing a cure of such failure, then Lessee shall have a reasonable period to cure such failure beyond such thirty (30) day period. If Lessee shall fail to correct or cure such failure within such period and said period is not extended by the parties, an Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder without further notice or demand of any kind being required;
 - (iv) if Lessee shall be liquidated or dissolved or shall begin proceedings towards its liquidation or dissolution.
- B. Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Lessor shall provide notice thereof to WGI and shall provide WGI with a thirty day period in which to elect, by notice to Lessor, to cure such Event of Default, in which case, Lessor will provide WGI reasonable access to the Premises to cure such Event of Default, and will accept such cure as if performed by Lessee. WGI may also elect within such thirty day period, to take an assignment of tenant's interests under this Lease, in which case, WGI will have a period of one hundred twenty (120) days following such assignment in which to further assign such fenant's rights, or to sublet the Premises, to a entity or person which will operate the Premises as a Permitted Facility, without the need for Lessor's consent or approval.

If WGI does not elect either such option then, except as otherwise expressly provided herein or such other notice as may be required by statute and cannot be waived by Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to exercise, at its option, concurrently, successively, or in any combination, all remedies available at law or in equity, including without limitation, any one or more of the following:

- (i) To terminate this Lease, whereupon Lessee's right to possession of the Property shall cease and this Lease, except as to Lessee's liability, shall be terminated. Upon such termination, Lessor shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages equal to the total of (i) the cost of recovering possession of the Property; (ii) the unpaid Rental earned at the time of termination, plus interest at the Default Rate thereon; (iii) late charges and interest at the Default Rate on the unpaid Rental; (iv) the present value of the balance of the Base Annual Rental for the remainder of the Lease Term using a discount rate of four percent (4%), less the present value of the reasonable rental value of the Property for the balance of the Term remaining after a one-year period following repossession using a discount rate of four percent (4%); (v) costs of operating the Property until relet and the reasonable costs of performing any obligations of Lessee under this Lease to be performed upon termination or expiration of this Lease (including but not limited to the Lessee's obligations under Sections 12.D and 27 hereof); and (vi) any other sum of money and damages reasonably necessary to compensate Lessor for the detriment caused by Lessee's default.
- (ii) To the extent not prohibited by applicable law, to reenter and take possession of the Property (or any part thereof) without being deemed guilty in any manner of trespass or becoming liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom, without resort to legal or judicial process, procedure or action. No notice from Lessor hereunder or under a forcible entry and detainer statute or similar law shall constitute an election by Lessor to terminate this Lease unless such notice specifically so states. If Lessee shall, after default, voluntarily give up possession of the Property to Lessor, deliver to Lessor or its agents the keys to the Property, or both, such actions shall be deemed to be in compliance with Lessor's rights and the acceptance thereof by Lessor or its agents shall not be deemed to constitute a termination of the Lease. Lessor reserves the right following any reentry and/or reletting to exercise its right to terminate this Lease by giving Lessee written notice thereof, in which event this Lease will terminate, and Lessor may recover liquidated damages as set forth in Subsection (i) above.
- (iii) To bring an action against Lessee for any damages sustained by Lessor or any equitable relief available to Lessor.
- (iv) To relet the Property or any part thereof for such term or terms (including a term which extends beyond the original Lease Term), at such rentals and upon such other terms as Lessor, in its sole discretion, may determine, with all proceeds received from such reletting being applied to the Rental and other Monetary Obligations due from Lessee in such order as Lessor may, in it sole discretion, determine, which other Monetary Obligations include, without limitation, all commercially reasonable repossession costs, brokerage commissions, attorneys' fees and expenses and repair costs. Lessor reserves the right following any reentry and/or reletting to exercise its right to terminate this Lease by giving Lessee written notice thereof, in which event this Lease will terminate as specified in said notice.

- (v) To recover from Lessee all Costs paid or incurred by Lessor as a result of such breach, regardless of whether or not legal proceedings are actually commenced.
- (vi) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, at Lessor's sole option but without any obligation to do so, correct such breach or default and charge Lessee all Costs incurred by Lessor therein. Any sum or sums so paid by Lessor, together with interest at the Default Rate, shall be deemed to be Additional Rental hereunder and shall be immediately due from Lessee to Lessor. Any such acts by Lessor in correcting Lessee's breaches or defaults hereunder shall not be deemed to cure said breaches or defaults or constitute any waiver of Lessor's right to exercise any or all remedies set forth herein.
- (vii) To immediately or at any time thereafter, and with or without notice, except as required herein, set off any money of Lessee held by Lessor under this Lease.
- (viii) To seek any equitable relief available to Lessor, including, without limitation, the right of specific performance.

All powers and remedies given by this Section to Lessor, subject to applicable Law, shall be cumulative and not exclusive of one another or of any other right or remedy or of any other powers and remedies available to Lessor under this Lease, by judicial proceedings or otherwise, to enforce the performance or observance of the covenants and agreements of Lessee contained in this Lease, and no delay or omission of Lessor to exercise any right or power accruing upon the occurrence of any Event of Default shall impair any other or subsequent Event of Default or impair any rights or remedies consequent thereto. Every power and remedy given by this Section or by Law to Lessor may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by Lessor, subject at all times to Lessor's right in its sole judgment to discontinue any work commenced by Lessor or change any course of action undertaken by Lessor.

C. Default by Lessor. Lessor shall be in default under this Lease if Lessor fails or refuses to perform any obligation of Lessor under the terms of this Lease, and if the failure to perform the obligation is not cured within thirty (30) days after notice of the default has been given by Lessee to Lessor. If the default cannot reasonably be cured within thirty (30) days, then Lessor shall not be in default if Lessor commences to cure the default within the thirty (30) day period and diligently and in good faith continues to cure the default thereafter.

Lessee, at any time after expiration of the cure period provided above and a subsequent written notice to Lessor, may cure the default at Lessor's cost. If Lessee at any time, as a result of Lessor's default, pays any sum or performs any act that requires the payment of any sum, the sum paid by Lessee shall be due immediately from Lessor to Lessee at the time the sum is paid, and if paid at a later date shall bear interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date the sum is paid by Lessee until the date Lessee is reimbursed by Lessor. Any amounts due from Lessor to Lessee pursuant to this Section 15 may be deducted or offset against Lessee's Base Monthly Rental.

21. Mortgage, Subordination and Attornment. Lessor's interest in this Lease and/or the Property shall not be subordinate to any liens or encumbrances placed upon the Property by or resulting from any act of Lessee, and nothing herein contained shall be construed to require such subordination by Lessor. Notwithstanding the terms of or the parties to the WGI Agreement and any other agreements pursuant to which Persons other than Lessee have the right to occupy any portion of the Property, such agreements shall, as between Lessor and Lessee, be treated as an instrument subordinate to Lessor's interest in the Property and this Lease. Lessee shall keep the Property free from any liens for work performed, materials furnished or obligations incurred by Lessee. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT LESSEE IS NOT AUTHORIZED TO PLACE OR ALLOW TO BE PLACED ANY LIEN, MORTGAGE, DEED OF TRUST, SECURITY INTEREST OR ENCUMBRANCE OF ANY KIND UPON ALL OR ANY PART OF THE PROPERTY OR LESSEE'S LEASEHOLD INTEREST THEREIN, AND ANY SUCH PURPORTED TRANSACTION SHALL BE VOID.

This Lease at all times shall automatically be subordinate to the lien of any and all Deeds of Trust now or hereafter placed upon the Property by Lessor, provided, that the holder of such interest shall not disturb Lessee's use and enjoyment of Lessee's rights under this Lease so long as Lessee is not in default hereunder. Lessee covenants and agrees to execute and deliver, upon demand, such further instruments which are acceptable to Lessee, subordinating this Lease to the lien of any or all such Deeds of Trust as shall be desired by Lessor, or any present or proposed Deeds of Trust; provided, that the terms and provisions of any such instrument are commercially reasonable. The Lessee acknowledges that the terms and provisions of the Instrument attached hereto as Exhibit C are commercially reasonable.

If any Lessor's Lender, mortgagee, receiver or other secured party elects to have this Lease and the interest of Lessee hereunder be superior to any such Deed of Trust and evidences such election by notice given to Lessee, then this Lease and the interest of Lessee hereunder shall be deemed superior to any such Deed of Trust, whether this Lease was executed before or after such Deed of Trust and in that event such mortgagee, receiver or other secured party shall have the same rights with respect to this Lease as if it had been executed and delivered prior to the execution and delivery of such Deed of Trust and had been assigned to such mortgagee, receiver or other secured party.

Loan No. 100798974

FIVE YEAR ADJUSTABLE TERM NOTE

July 18, 2006

$2,100,000.00

For value received, the undersigned Edward C. Wooley and Judith A. Wooley Intervivos Revocable Trust Year 2000, a California trust, with an address of 41 Peralta Avenue, Los Gatos, California 95030 (collectively, the "Borrower"), jointly and severally, promise to pay to the order of Pacific Capital Bank, N.A., a national banking association, doing business as South Valley National Bank with an address of c/o Loan Services, PO Box 60654, Santa Barbara, California 93160-0654 (together with its successors and assigns, the "Bank"), the principal amount of Two Million One Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($2,100,000.00) on or before July 18, 2016 (the "Maturity Date"), as set forth below, together with interest from the date hereof on the unpaid principal balance from time to time outstanding until paid in full. The Borrower shall pay consecutive monthly installments of principal and interest, as follows: $13,971.35 on August 18, 2006, and the same amount (except the last installment which shall be the unpaid balance) on the 18th day of each month thereafter. The aggregate principal balance outstanding shall initially bear interest thereon at a per annum rate equal to 7.00%. The interest rate on the aggregate principal balance shall change on July 18, 2011 and on that day every sixtieth month thereafter (each a "Change Date") to a fixed rate equal to Two and One-Half Percent (2.50%) above the Treasury Index (as hereinafter defined) on each such Change Date. On each Change Date each monthly installment due and payable until the next Change Date shall be recalculated (increased or reduced) to reflect the adjusted interest rate, the outstanding principal balance at such time and the remaining term of the 360-month amortization period commencing on the date of this Note in accordance with the Bank's calculation in the Bank's sole discretion.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Note, the interest rate on this Note is limited by a floor as follows: the minimum interest rate (i.e. floor) is 5.25%.

Treasury Index means the weekly average yield on United States Treasury securities, adjusted to a constant maturity equal to the Applicable Treasury Rate Period (as hereinafter defined), or, in the event the Treasury Index is no longer available, the base, reference or other rate then designated by the Bank, in its sole discretion, for general commercial loan reference purposes, it being understood that such rate is a reference rate, not necessarily the lowest, established from time to time, which serves as the basis upon which effective interest rates are calculated for loans making reference thereto. The Applicable Treasury Rate Period is 5 years.

Principal and interest shall be payable at the Bank's main office or at such other place as the Bank may designate in writing in immediately available funds in lawful money of the United States of America without set-off, deduction or counterclaim. Interest shall be calculated on the basis of actual number of days elapsed in a 360-day year.

At the option of the Bank, this Note shall become immediately due and payable without notice or demand upon the occurrence at any time of any of the following events of default (each, an "Event of Default"): (1) default of any liability, obligation or undertaking of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to the Bank, hereunder or otherwise, including, without limitation, failure to pay in full and when due any installment of principal or interest or default of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof under any other loan document delivered by the Borrower or any guarantor, or in connection with the loan evidenced by this Note or any other agreement by the Borrower or any guarantor with the Bank continuing for 10 days with respect to the payment of money or continuing for 30 days with respect to any other default; (2) failure of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to maintain aggregate collateral security value satisfactory to the

Bank continuing for 30 days; (3) default of any material liability, obligation or undertaking of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to any other party continuing for 30 days; (4) if any statement, representation or warranty heretofore, now or hereafter made by the Borrower or any guarantor hereof in connection with the loan evidenced by this Note or in any supporting financial statement of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof shall be determined by the Bank to have been false in any material respect when made; (5) if the Borrower or any guarantor hereof is a corporation, trust, partnership or limited liability company, the liquidation, termination or dissolution of any such organization, or the merger or consolidation of such organization into another entity, or its ceasing to carry on actively its present business or the appointment of a receiver for its property; (6) the death of the Borrower or any quarantor hereof and, if the Borrower or any guarantor hereof is a partnership or limited liability company, the death of any partner or member; (7) the institution by or against the Borrower or any guarantor hereof of any proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code 11 USC §101 et seq. or any other law in which the Borrower or any guarantor hereof is alleged to be insolvent or unable to pay its debts as they mature, or the making by the Borrower or any quarantor hereof of an assignment for the benefit of creditors or the granting by the Borrower or any guarantor hereof of a trust mortgage for the benefit of creditors; (8) the service upon the Bank of a writ in which the Bank is named as trustee of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof; (9) a judgement or judgements for the payment of money shall be rendered against the Borrower or any guarantor hereof, and any such judgement shall remain unsatisfied and in effect for any period of thirty (30) consecutive days without a stay of execution; (10) any levy, lien (including mechanics lien), seizure, attachment, execution or similar process shall be issued or levied on any of the property of the Borrower or any quarantor hereof; (11) the termination or revocation of any quaranty hereof; or (12) the occurrence of such a change in the condition or affairs (financial or otherwise) of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof, or the occurrence of any other event or circumstance, such that the Bank, in its sole discretion, deems that it is insecure or that the prospects for timely or full payment or performance of any obligation of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to the Bank has been or may be impaired.

Any payments received by the Bank on account of this Note shall, at the Bank's option, be applied first, to accrued and unpaid interest; second, to the unpaid principal balance hereof; third to any costs, expenses or charges then owed to the Bank by the Borrower; and the balance to escrows, if any. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any payments received after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default shall be applied in such manner as the Bank may determine. The Borrower hereby authorizes the Bank to charge any deposit account which the Borrower may maintain with the Bank for any payment required hereunder without prior notice to the Borrower.

If pursuant to the terms of this Note, the Borrower is at any time obligated to pay interest on the principal balance at a rate in excess of the maximum interest rate permitted by applicable law for the loan evidenced by this Note, the applicable interest rate shall be immediately reduced to such maximum rate and all previous payments in excess of the maximum rate shall be deemed to have been payments in reduction of principal and not on account of the interest due hereunder. More specifically, if from any circumstances whatsoever, fulfillment of any provision of this Note or any other loan document excuted and delivered in connection with this Note, at the time performance of such provision becomes due, would exceed the limit on interest then permitted by any applicable usury statute or any other applicable law, the Bank may, at its option (a) reduce the obligations to be fulfilled to such limit on interest, or (b) apply the amount in excess of such limit on interest to the reduction of the outstanding principal balance of the obligations, and not to the payment of interest, with the same force and effect as though Borrower had specifically designated such sums to be so applied to principal and Bank had agreed to accept such extra payments(s) as a premium-free prepayment, so that in no event shall any exaction be possible under this Note or any other loan document that is in excess of the applicable limit on interest. It is the intention of Borrower and Bank that the total liability for payments in the nature of interest shall not exceed the limits imposed by any applicable state or federal interest rate laws. The provisions of this paragraph shall control every other provision of this Note, and any provision of any other loan document in conflict with this paragraph.

The Borrower represents to the Bank that the proceeds of this Note will not be used for personal, family or household purposes or for the purpose of purchasing or carrying margin stock or margin securities within the meaning of Regulations U and X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 12 C.F.R. Parts 221 and 224.

The Borrower and each guarantor hereof grant to the Bank a continuing lien on and security interest in any and all deposits or other sums at any time credited by or due from the Bank (or any of its banking or lending affiliates, or any bank acting as a participant under any loan arrangement between the Bank and the Borrower, or any third party acting on the Bank's behalf (collectively, the "Bank Affiliates")) to the Borrower and each guarantor hereof and any cash, securities, instruments or other property of the Borrower and each guarantor hereof in the possession of the Bank or any Bank Affiliate, whether for safekeeping or otherwise, or in transit to or from the Bank or any Bank Affiliate (regardless of the reason the Bank or Bank Affiliate had received the same or whether the Bank or Bank Affiliate has conditionally released the same) as security for the full and punctual payment and performance of all of the liabilities and obligations of the Borrower and any guarantor hereof to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate and such deposits and other sums may be applied or set off against such liabilities and obligations of the Borrower or any guarantor hereof to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate at any time, whether or not such are then due, whether or not demand has been made and whether or not other collateral is then available to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate.

No delay or omission on the part of the Bank in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of such right or of any other right of the Bank, nor shall any delay, omission or waiver on any one occasion be deemed a bar to or waiver of the same or any other right on any future occasion. The Borrower and every guarantor of this Note, regardless of the time, order or place of signing, waives presentment, demand, protest, notice of intent to accelerate, notice of acceleration and all other notices of every kind in connection with the delivery, acceptance, performance or enforcement of this Note and assents to any extension or postponement of the time of payment or any other indulgence, to any substitution, exchange or release of collateral, and to the addition or release of any other party or person primarily or secondarily liable and waives all recourse to suretyship and guarantor defenses generally, including any defense based on impairment of collateral.

The Borrower and each guarantor of this Note shall indemnify, defend and hold the Bank and the Bank Affiliates and their directors, officers, employees, agents and attorneys harmless against any claim brought or threatened against the Bank by the Borrower, by any guarantor, or by any other person (as well as from attorneys' reasonable fees and expenses in connection therewith) on account of the Bank's relationship with the Borrower or any guarantor hereof (each of which may be defended, compromised, settled or pursued by the Bank with counsel of the Bank's selection, but at the expense of the Borrower and any guarantor), except for any claim arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Bank.

The Borrower and each guarantor of this Note agree to pay, upon demand, costs of collection of all amounts under this Note including, without limitation, principal and interest, or in connection with the enforcement of, or realization on, any security for this Note, including, without limitation, to the extent permitted by applicable law, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, interest shall accrue at a rate per annum equal to the aggregate of 3.0% plus the rate provided for herein. If any payment due under this Note is unpaid for 15 days or more, the Borrower shall pay, in addition to any other sums due under this Note (and without limiting the Bank's other remedies on account thereof), a late charge equal to the greater of $10.00 or 10.0% of such unpaid amount.

This Note shall be binding upon the Borrower and each guarantor hereof and upon their respective heirs, successors, assigns and legal representatives, and shall inure to the benefit of the Bank and its successors, endorsees and assigns.

The Borrower and each guarantor, if any, hereby waive presentment, demand, protest, notice of dishonor, notice of protest and all other notices and demands of every kind, and all suretyship defenses of any kind, in each case that would otherwise be available in connection with this Note including, without limitation, any right (whether now or hereafter existing) to require the holder hereof to first proceed against the Borrower, or any guarantor, for any security.

The Borrower and each guarantor, if any, further waive to the extent permited by law any and all rights and defenses that each may have because the debt evidenced by this Note is secured by real property: this means, among other things, that: (1) the Bank may collect from the Borrower and any guarantor, without first foreclosing on any real or personal property, collateral pledged by the Borrower and any guarantor, and (2) if the Bank forecloses on any real property collateral pledged by the Borrower or any guarantor, then (A) the amount of the debt may be reduced only by the price for which that collateral is sold at the foreclosure sale, even if the collateral is worth more than the sale price, and (B) the Bank may collect from the Borrower even if the Bank, by foreclosing on the real property collateral, has destroyed any right the Borrower may have to collect from the underlying debtor. The foregoing sentence is an unconditional and irrevocable waiver of any rights and defenses the Borrower may have because the underlying debt is secured by real property. These rights and defenses being waived by the Borrower include, but are not limited to, any rights or defenses based upon Sections 580a, 580b, 580d or 726 of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing or any other provision hereof, the Borrower further expressly waives to the extent permitted by law any and all rights and defenses, including without limitation any rights of subrogation, reimbursement, indemnification and contribution, which might otherwise be available to the Borrower under California Civil Code Sections 2822, 2787 to 2855, inclusive, 2899 and 3433, or under California Code of Civil Procedure Sections 580a, 580b, 580d and 726, or any such section.

In the event that at any time, a surety is liable upon only a portion of the Borrower's or any guarantor's obligations under this Note and the Borrower provides partial satisfaction of any such obligation(s), each of the Borrower and each guarantor hereof, if any, hereby waives any right it would otherwise have, under Section 2822 of the California Civil Code, to designate the portion of the obligations to be satisfied. The designation of the portion of the obligation to be satisfied shall, to the extent not expressly made by the terms of this Note, be made by the Bank rather than Borrower.

The liabilities of the Borrower and any guarantor of this Note are joint and several; provided, however, the release by the Bank of the Borrower or any one or more guarantors shall not release any other person obligated on account of this Note. Any and all present and future debts of the Borrower to any guarantor of this Note are subordinated to the full payment and performance of all present and future debts and obligations of the Borrower to the Bank. Each reference in this Note to the Borrower, and any guarantor, is to such person individually and also to all such persons jointly. No person obligated on account of this Note may seek contribution from any other person also obligated, unless and until all liabilities, obligations and indebtedness to the Bank of the person from whom contribution is sought have been satisfied in full. The release or compromise by the Bank of any collateral shall not release any person obligated on account of this Note.

The Borrower and each guarantor hereof each authorizes the Bank to complete this Note if delivered incomplete in any respect. A photographic or other reproduction of this Note may be made by the Bank, and any such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence with the same effect as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding, whether or not the original is in existence.

The Borrower will from time to time execute and deliver to the Bank such documents, and take or cause to be taken, all such other further action, as the Bank may request in order to effect and confirm or vest more securely in the Bank all rights contemplated by this Note or any other loan documents related thereto (including, without limitation, to correct clerical errors) or to vest more fully in or assure to the Bank the security interest in any collateral securing this Note or to comply with applicable statute or law.

This Note is delivered to the Bank at one of its offices in California and shall be governed by the laws of the State of California.

Any notices under or pursuant to this Note shall be deemed duly received and effective if delivered in hand to any officer of agent of the Borrower or the Bank, or if mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the Borrower or the Bank at the address set forth in this Note or as any party may from time to time designate by written notice to the other party.

The Borrower and each guarantor of this Note acknowledges that the Bank is entitled to a minimum interest charge of $75.00.

The Borrower and each guarantor of this Note each irrevocably submits to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any Federal or state court sitting in California, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Note. Each of the Borrower and each guarantor irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, any objection it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that the same has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the Borrower and each guarantor hereby consents to any and all process which may be served in any such suit, action or proceeding, (i) by mailing a copy thereof by registered and certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the Borrower's or guarantor's address shown below or as notified to the Bank and (ii) by serving the same upon the Borrower(s) or guarantor(s) in any other manner otherwise permitted by law, and agrees that such service shall in every respect be deemed effective service upon the Borrower or such guarantor.

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE BORROWER AND EACH GUARANTOR AND THE BANK EACH HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY, AND AFTER AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL, (A) WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS NOTE, ANY OF THE OBLIGATIONS OF THE BORROWER AND EACH GUARANTOR TO THE BANK, AND ALL MATTERS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND DOCUMENTS EXECUTED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH AND (B) AGREES NOT TO SEEK TO CONSOLIDATE ANY SUCH ACTION WITH ANY OTHER ACTION IN WHICH A JURY TRIAL CAN NOT BE, OR HAS NOT BEEN, WAIVED. THE BORROWER, EACH GUARANTOR AND THE BANK EACH CERTIFIES THAT NEITHER THE BANK NOR ANY OF ITS REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS OR COUNSEL HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT THE BANK WOULD NOT IN THE EVENT OF ANY SUCH PROCEEDING SEEK TO ENFORCE THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.

IN THE EVENT THAT THE JURY WAIVER SET FORTH ABOVE IS JUDICIALLY DETERMINED TO NOT BE PERMITTED BY LAW, THE PARTIES AGREE TO ATTEMPT IN GOOD FAITH TO RESOLVE ANY DISPUTES WHICH MAY ARISE AMONG THEM IN CONNECTION WITH THE INTERPRETATION OR ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE APPLICATION OR VALIDITY THEREOF. IN THE EVENT THAT ANY DISPUTE CANNOT BE SO RESOLVED, AND UNLESS THE RELIEF SOUGHT REQUIRES THE EXERCISE OF THE EQUITY POWERS OF A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION, SUCH DISPUTE SHALL BE SUBMITTED TO ARBITRATION. SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE HELD IN THE COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ARBITRATION PROVISIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE. THIS AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE SHALL BE SPECIFICALLY ENFORCEABLE. ANY AWARD RENDERED IN ANY SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE FINAL AND BINDING ON EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND JUDGEMENT MAY BE ENTERED THEREON IN ANY COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION.

Due on Sale or Transfer. Bank may, at it option, declare immediately due and payable all sums secured by one or more deed of trusts provided by Borrower to secure this Note upon the sale or transfer, without Bank's prior written consent, of all or any part of the real property covered by any such deed of trust, or any interest in such real property. A "sale or transfer" means the conveyance of the such real property or any right, title or interest therein; whether legal, beneficial or equitable; whether voluntary or involuntary; whether by outright sale, deed, installment sale contract, land contract, contract for deed, option contract, or by sale, assignment or transfer of any beneficial interest in or to any land trust holding title to such real property, or by any other method of conveyance of a real property interest. If Borrower is a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, transfer also includes any change in ownership of more that 20% of the voting stock, partnership interests or limited liability company interest, as the case may be, of Borrower. This option shall not be exercised by Bank if such exercise is prohibited by applicable law.

 - (b) Borrower's filed Federal tax returns, including all schedules thereto and K-1's or copy of extension, for the prior year within 30 days after the date that Borrower's tax returns are actually filed each such year or by such other date approved by the Bank;
 - (c) from time to time, such financial data and information about Borrower as Bank may reasonably request; and
 - (d) any financial data and information about any guarantors of the Obligations as Bank may reasonably request.
- 3.4 Conduct of Business. The Borrower will comply with all laws and regulations of the United States and of any state or states thereof and of any political subdivision thereof, and of any governmental authority which may be applicable to it or to its business; provided that this covenant shall not apply to any tax, assessment or charge which is being contested in good faith and with respect to which reserves have been established and are being maintained.
- 3.5 Taxes. Borrower will promptly pay all real and personal property taxes, assessments and charges and all franchise, income, unemployment, old age benefits, withholding, sales and other taxes assessed against it or payable by it before delinquent; provided that this covenant shall not apply to any tax assessment or charge which is being contested in good faith and with respect to which reserves have been established and are being maintained.
- 3.6 Maintenance. Borrower will keep and maintain its properties, if any, in good repair, working order and condition. The Borrower will immediately notify the Bank of any loss or damage to or any occurrence which would adversely affect the value of any such property.
- Insurance. Borrower will maintain in force property and casualty insurance on any property of the Borrower, if any, against risks customarily insured against by companies engaged in businesses similar to that of the Borrower containing such terms and written by such companies as may be satisfactory to the Bank, such insurance to be payable to the Bank as its interest may appear in the event of loss and to name the Bank as insured pursuant to a standard loss payee clause; no loss shall be adjusted thereunder without the Bank's approval; and all such policies shall provide that they may not be canceled without first giving at least Thirty (30) days written notice of cancellation to the Bank. In the event that the Borrower fails to provide evidence of such insurance, the Bank may, at its option, secure such insurance and charge the cost thereof to the Borrower. At the option of the Bank, all insurance proceeds received from any loss or damage to any property shall be applied either to the replacement or repair thereof or as a payment on account of the Obligations. From and after the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Bank is authorized to cancel any insurance maintained hereunder and apply any returned or unearned premiums, all of which are hereby assigned to the Bank, as a payment on account of the Obligations.
- 3.8 Notification of Default. Upon becoming aware of the existence of any condition or event which constitutes an Event of Default, or any condition or event which would upon notice or lapse of time, or both, constitute an Event of Default, Borrower shall promptly give Bank written notice thereof specifying the nature and duration thereof and the action being or proposed to be taken with respect thereto.

- 3.9 Notification of Material Litigation. Borrower will promptly notify the Bank in writing of any litigation or of any investigative proceedings of a governmental agency or authority commenced or threatened against it which would or might be materially adverse to the financial condition of Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations.
- Pension Plans. With respect to any pension or benefit plan maintained by Borrower, or to which Borrower contributes ("Plan"), the benefits under which are guarantied, in whole or in part, by the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation created by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, P.L. 93-406, as amended ("ERISA") or any governmental authority succeeding to any or all of the functions of the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation ("Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation"), Borrower will (a) fund each Plan as required by the provisions of Section 412 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; (b) cause each Plan to pay all benefits when due; (c) furnish Bank (i) promptly with a copy of any notice of each Plan's termination sent to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (ii) no later than the date of submission to the Department of Labor or to the Internal Revenue Service, as the case may be, a copy of any request for waiver from the funding standards or extension of the amortization periods required by Section 412 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended and (iii) notice of any Reportable Event as such term is defined in ERISA; and (d) subscribe to any contingent liability insurance provided by the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation to protect against employer liability upon termination of a guarantied pension plan, if available to Borrower.

4. NEGATIVE COVENANTS

- 4.1 Limitations on Indebtedness. - 4.2 Loans or Advances. Borrower shall not make any loans or advances to any individual, firm or corporation, including without limitation its employees; provided, however, that Borrower may make advances to its employees, with respect to expenses incurred or to be incurred by such employees in the ordinary course of business which expenses are reimbursable by Borrower; and provided further, however, that Borrower may extend credit in the ordinary course of business in accordance with customary trade practices.

- 4.5 Restriction on Liens. Borrower shall not grant any security interest in, or mortgage of, any of its properties or assets. Borrower shall not agree with any person other than the Bank to not grant any security interest in, or mortgage of, any of its properties or assets.

- 5.2 Acceleration. If an Event of Default shall occur, at the election of the Bank, all Obligations shall become immediately due and payable without notice or demand, except with respect to Obligations payable on DEMAND, which shall be due and payable on DEMAND, whether or not an Event of Default has occurred.
- 5.3 Nonexclusive Remedies. All of the Bank's rights and remedies not only under the provisions of this Agreement but also under any other agreement or transaction shall be cumulative and not alternative or exclusive, and may be exercised by the Bank at such time or times and in such order of preference as the Bank in its sole discretion may determine.

6. MISCELLANEOUS

- 6.1 Waivers. The Borrower waives notice of intent to accelerate, notice of acceleration, notice of nonpayment, demand, presentment, protest or notice of protest of the Obligations, and all other notices, consents to any renewals or extensions of time of payment thereof, and generally waives any and all suretyship defenses and defenses in the nature thereof.
- 6.2 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or portion of such provision or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall to any extent be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement (or the remainder of such provision) and the application thereof to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.
- Deposit Collateral. The Borrower hereby grants to the Bank a continuing lien and security interest in any and all deposits or other sums at any time credited by or due from the Bank (or any of its banking or lending affiliates, or any bank acting as a participant under any loan arrangement between the Bank and the Borrower, or any third party acting on the Bank's behalf (collectively, the "Bank Affiliates")) to the Borrower and any cash, securities, instruments or other property of the Borrower in the possession of the Bank or any Bank Affiliate, whether for safekeeping or otherwise, or in transit to or from the Bank or any Bank Affiliate (regardless of the reason the Bank or Bank Affiliate had received the same or whether the Bank or Bank Affiliate has conditionally released the same) as security for the full and punctual payment and performance of all of the liabilities and obligations of the Borrower to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate at any time, whether or not such are then due, whether or not demand has been made and whether or not other collateral is then available to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate.
- 6.4 Indemnification. The Borrower shall indemnify, defend and hold the Bank harmless of and from any claim brought or threatened against the Bank by the Borrower, any guarantor or endorser of the Obligations, or any other person (as well as from reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses in connection therewith) on account of the Bank's relationship with the Borrower, or any guarantor or endorser of the Obligations (each of which may be defended, compromised, settled or pursued by the Bank with counsel of the Bank's election, but at the expense of the Borrower), except for any claim arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Bank. The within indemnification shall survive payment of the Obligations, and/or any termination, release or discharge executed by the Bank in favor of the Borrower.

- 6.5 Costs and Expenses. The Borrower shall pay to the Bank on demand any and all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, court costs, litigation and other expenses) incurred or paid by the Bank in establishing, maintaining, protecting or enforcing any of the Bank's rights or the Obligations, including, without limitation, any and all such costs and expenses incurred or paid by the Bank in defending the Bank's security interest in, title or right to any collateral or in collecting or attempting to collect or enforcing or attempting to enforce payment of any Obligation.
- 6.6 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute but one agreement.
- 6.7 Complete Agreement. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire agreement and understanding between and among the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior proposals, negotiations, agreements and understandings among the parties hereto with respect to such subject matter.
- Binding Effect of Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the parties hereto, and shall remain in full force and effect (and the Bank shall be entitled to rely thereon) until terminated as to future transactions by written notice from either party to the other party of the termination hereof; provided that any such termination shall not release or affect any Obligations incurred or rights accrued hereunder prior to the effective date of such notice (as hereinafter defined) of such termination. The Bank may transfer and assign this Agreement and deliver it to the assignee, who shall thereupon have all of the rights of the Bank; and the Bank shall then be relieved and discharged of any responsibility or liability with respect to this Agreement. The Borrower may not assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement. Except as expressly provided herein or in the other Loan Documents, nothing, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.
- 6.9 Further Assurances. Borrower will from time to time execute and deliver to Bank such documents, and take or cause to be taken, all such other or further action, as Bank may request in order to effect and confirm or vest more securely in Bank all rights contemplated by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (including, without limitation, to correct clerical errors) or to comply with applicable statute or law.
- 6.10 Amendments and Waivers. This Agreement may be amended and Borrower may take any action herein prohibited, or omit to perform any act herein required to be performed by it, if Borrower shall obtain the Bank's prior written consent to each such amendment, action or omission to act. No course of dealing and no delay or omission on the part of Bank in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of such right or any other right and waiver on any one or more occasions shall not be construed as a bar to or waiver of any right or remedy of Bank on any future occasion.
- Obligations or obligation of Borrower to Bank shall be outstanding, or the Bank shall have any obligation to extend any financial accommodation hereunder, and is supplementary to each and every other agreement between Borrower and Bank and shall not be so construed as to limit or otherwise derogate from any of the rights or remedies of Bank or any of the liabilities, obligations or undertakings of Borrower under any such agreement, nor shall any contemporaneous or subsequent agreement between Borrower and the Bank be construed to limit or otherwise derogate from any of the rights or remedies of Bank or any of the liabilities, obligations or undertakings of Borrower hereunder, unless such other agreement specifically refers to this Agreement and expressly so provides.
- 6.12 Notices. Any notice under or pursuant to this Agreement shall be a signed writing or other authenticated record (within the meaning of Article 9 of the Code). Any such notice shall be deemed duly received and effective (i) if delivered in hand to, or received by, any officer or agent of the Borrower or the Bank, upon such delivery or receipt, or (ii) if mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, and properly addressed to the Borrower or the Bank, two (2) business days after being so mailed. A party's proper address is that set forth for such party in this Agreement or such address as that party may from time to time hereafter designate by notice to the other party.

- 6.13 Governing Law. This Agreement has been executed or completed and/or is to be performed in California, and it and all transactions thereunder or pursuant thereto shall be governed as to interpretation, validity, effect, rights, duties and remedies of the parties thereunder and in all other respects by the laws of California.
- 6.14 Reproductions. This Agreement and all documents which have been or may be hereinafter furnished by Borrower to the Bank may be reproduced by the Bank by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, xerographic or similar process, and any such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding (whether or not the original is in existence and whether or not such reproduction was made in the regular course of business).
- G.15 Jurisdiction and Venue. Borrower irrevocably submits to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any Federal or state court sitting in California, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Borrower irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, any objection it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that the same has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Borrower hereby consents to any and all process which may be served in any such suit, action or proceeding, (i) by mailing a copy thereof by registered and certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the Borrower's address shown in this Agreement or as notified to the Bank and (ii) by serving the same upon the Borrower in any other manner otherwise permitted by law, and agrees that such service shall in every respect be deemed effective service upon Borrower.
- 6.16 Civil Code Section 2822. In the event that at any time, a surety is liable upon only a portion of Borrower's obligations under the Loan Documents and Borrower provides partial satisfaction of any such obligation(s), Borrower hereby waives any right it would otherwise have, under Section 2822 of the California Civil Code, to designate the portion of the obligations to be satisfied. The designation of the portion of the obligation to be satisfied shall, to the extent not expressly made by the terms of the Loan Documents, be made by the Bank rather than Borrower.
- BORROWER AND BANK EACH HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY, AND AFTER AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL, (A) WAIVE ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE OBLIGATIONS, ALL MATTERS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND DOCUMENTS EXECUTED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH AND (B) AGREE NOT TO SEEK TO CONSOLIDATE ANY SUCH ACTION WITH ANY OTHER ACTION IN WHICH A JURY TRIAL CANNOT BE, OR HAS NOT BEEN, WAIVED. THE BORROWER CERTIFIES THAT NEITHER THE BANK NOR ANY OF ITS REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS OR COUNSEL HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT THE BANK WOULD NOT IN THE EVENT OF ANY SUCH PROCEEDING SEEK TO ENFORCE THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.
- 6.18 Arbitration. IN THE EVENT THAT THE JURY WAIVER SET FORTH ABOVE IS JUDICIALLY DETERMINED TO NOT BE PERMITTED BY LAW, THE PARTIES AGREE TO ATTEMPT IN GOOD FAITH TO RESOLVE ANY DISPUTES WHICH MAY ARISE AMONG THEM IN CONNECTION WITH THE INTERPRETATION OR ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE APPLICATION OR VALIDITY THEREOF. IN THE EVENT THAT ANY DISPUTE CANNOT BE SO RESOLVED, AND UNLESS THE RELIEF SOUGHT REQUIRES THE EXERCISE OF THE EQUITY POWERS OF A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION, SUCH DISPUTE SHALL BE SUBMITTED TO ARBITRATION. SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE HELD IN THE COUNTY OF

SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ARBITRATION PROVISIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE. THIS AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE SHALL BE SPECIFICALLY ENFORCEABLE. ANY AWARD RENDERED IN ANY SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE FINAL AND BINDING ON EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND Judgement MAY BE ENTERED THEREON IN ANY COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION.

This Deed of Trust shall secure the principal amount of Obligations of up to $2,100,000.00. The maximum amount of principal secured hereby may be increased or decreased by amendment to this Deed of Trust. This Deed of Trust shall nevertheless secure payment and performance of all Obligations including, without limitation, any other liabilities and future advances, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, now existing or hereafter arising from the Trustor to the Beneficiary. - 1.7 Cross-Collateral and Future Advances. It is the express intention of the Trustor that this Deed of Trust secure payment and performance of all of the Obligations, whether now existing or hereinafter incurred by reason of future advances by the Beneficiary or otherwise, and regardless of whether such Obligations are or were contemplated by the parties at the time of the granting of this Deed of Trust. 2. REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, COVENANTS

- 2.1 Representations and Warranties. The Trustor represents and warrants that:
 - (a) This Deed of Trust has been duly executed and delivered by the Trustor and is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Trustor enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally;
 - (b) The Trustor is the sole legal owner of the Property, holding good and marketable fee simple title to the Property, subject to no liens, encumbrances, leases, security interests or rights of others, other than as set forth in any title insurance policy, title report, or final title opinion issued in favor of, and accepted by, the Bank in connection with this Deed of Trust (the "Permitted Encumbrances");
 - (c) The Trustor is the sole legal owner of the entire lessor's interest in Leases, if any, with full power and authority to encumber the Property in the manner set forth herein, and the Trustor has not executed any other assignment of Leases or any of the rights or rents arising thereunder:

- (e) Each Obligation is a commercial obligation and does not represent a loan used for personal, family or household purposes and is not a consumer transaction.
- Recording; Further Assurances. The Trustor covenants that it shall, at its sole cost and expense 2.2 and upon the request of the Beneficiary, cause this Deed of Trust, and each amendment, modification or supplement hereto, to be recorded and filed in such manner and in such places, and shall at all times comply with all such statutes and regulations as may be required by law in order to establish, preserve and protect the interest of the Beneficiary in the Property and the rights of the Beneficiary under this Deed of Trust. Trustor will from time to time execute and deliver to the Beneficiary such documents, and take or cause to be taken, all such other further action, as the Beneficiary may request in order to effect and confirm or vest more securely in the Beneficiary all rights contemplated by this Deed of Trust (including, without limitation, to correct clerical errors) or to vest more fully in, or assure to the Beneficiary the security interest in, the Property or to comply with applicable statute or law. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Trustor authorizes the Beneficiary to file financing statements, continuation statements or amendments without Trustor's signature appearing thereon, and any such financing statements, continuation statements or amendments may be signed or authenticated by the Beneficiary on behalf of Trustor, if necessary, and may be filed at any time in any jurisdiction. The Beneficiary may at any time and from time to time file financing statements, continuation statements and amendments thereto that describe the Property as "all assets of Trustor" or words of similar effect and which contain any other information required by Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code for the sufficiency or filing office acceptance of any financing statement, continuation statement or amendment, including whether Trustor is an organization, the type of organization and any organization identification number issued to Trustor; Trustor also authorizes the Beneficiary to file financing statements describing any agricultural liens or other statutory liens held by the Beneficiary. Trustor agrees to furnish any such information to the Beneficiary promptly upon request. In addition, Trustor shall at any time and from time to time, take such steps as the Beneficiary may reasonably request for the Beneficiary (i) to obtain an acknowledgement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Beneficiary, of any bailee having possession of any of the Property that the bailee holds such Property for the Beneficiary, (ii) to obtain "control" of any investment property, deposit accounts, letter-of-credit rights or electronic chattel paper (as such terms are defined in Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code relating to what constitutes "control" for such items of Property), with any agreements establishing control to be in form and substance satisfactory to the Beneficiary, and (iii) otherwise to insure the continued perfection and priority of the Beneficiary's security interest in any of the Property and the preservation of its rights therein. Trustor hereby constitutes the Beneficiary its attorneyin-fact to execute and file all filings required or so requested for the foregoing purposes, all acts of such attorney being hereby ratified and confirmed; and such power, being coupled with an interest, shall be irrevocable until this Deed of Trust terminates in accordance with its terms, all Obligations are paid in full and the Property is released.
- 2.3 Restrictions on the Trustor. The Trustor covenants that it will not, nor will it permit any other person to, directly or indirectly, without the prior written approval of the Beneficiary in each instance:
 - (a) Sell, convey, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, lease or dispose of all or any part of any legal or beneficial interest in the Trustor or the Property or any part thereof or permit any of the foregoing, except as expressly permitted by the terms of this Deed of Trust;
 - (b) Permit the use, generation, treatment, storage, release or disposition of any oil or other material or substance constituting hazardous waste or hazardous materials or substances under any applicable Federal or state law, regulation or rule ("Hazardous Substances"); or
 - (c) Permit to be created or suffer to exist any mortgage, lien, security interest, attachment or other encumbrance or charge on the Property or any part thereof or interest therein (except for the Permitted Encumbrances), including, without limitation, (i) any lien arising under any Federal, state or local statute, rule, regulation or law pertaining to the release or cleanup of Hazardous Substances and (ii) any mechanics' or materialmen's lien. The Trustor further agrees to give the Beneficiary prompt written notice of the imposition, or notice, of any lien referred to in this Section and to take any action necessary to secure the prompt discharge or release of the same. The Trustor agrees to defend its title to the Property and the Beneficiary's interest therein against the claims of all persons and, unless the Beneficiary requests otherwise, to appear in and diligently contest, at the Trustor's sole cost and expense, any action or proceeding that purports to affect the Trustor's title to the Property or the priority or validity of this Deed of Trust or the Beneficiary's interest hereunder.

2.4 Operation of Property. The Trustor covenants and agrees as follows:

- (a) The Trustor will not permit the Property to be used for any unlawful or improper purpose, will at all times comply with all Federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations, and the provisions of any Lease, easement or other agreement affecting all or any part of the Property, and will obtain and maintain all governmental or other approvals relating to the Trustor, the Property or the use thereof, including without limitation, any applicable zoning or building codes or regulations and any laws or regulations relating to the handling, storage, release or cleanup of Hazardous Substances, and will give prompt written notice to the Beneficiary of (i) any violation of any such law, ordinance or regulation by the Trustor or relating to the Property, (ii) receipt of notice from any Federal, state or local authority alleging any such violation and (iii) the presence or release on the Property of any Hazardous Substances;
- The Trustor will at all times keep the Property insured for such losses or damage, in such (b) amounts and by such companies as may be required by law and which the Beneficiary may require, provided that, in any case, the Trustor shall maintain: (i) physical hazard insurance on an "all risks" basis in an amount not less than 100% of the full replacement cost of the Property; (ii) flood insurance if and as required by applicable Federal law and as otherwise required by the Beneficiary; (iii) comprehensive commercial general liability insurance; (iv) rent loss and business interruption insurance; and (v) such other insurance as the Beneficiary may require from time to time, including builder's risk insurance in the case of construction loans. All policies regarding such insurance shall be issued by companies licensed to do business in the state where the policy is issued and also in the state where the Property is located, be otherwise acceptable to the Beneficiary, provide deductible amounts acceptable to the Beneficiary, name the Beneficiary as mortgagee, loss payee and additional insured, and provide that no cancellation or material modification of such policies shall occur without at least Thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Beneficiary. Such policies shall include (i) a mortgage endorsement determined by the Beneficiary in good faith to be equivalent to the "standard" mortgage endorsement so that the insurance, as to the interest of the Beneficiary, shall not be invalidated by any act or neglect of the Trustor or the owner of the Property, any foreclosure or other proceedings or notice of sale relating to the Property, any change in the title to or ownership of the Property, or the occupation or use of the Property for purposes more hazardous than are permitted at the date of inception of such insurance policies; (ii) a replacement cost endorsement; (iii) an agreed amount endorsement; (iv) a contingent liability from operation endorsement; and (v) such other endorsements as the Beneficiary may request. The Trustor will furnish to the Beneficiary upon request such original policies, certificates of insurance or other evidence of the foregoing as are acceptable to the Beneficiary. The terms of all insurance policies shall be such that no coinsurance provisions apply, or if a policy does contain a coinsurance provision, the Trustor shall insure the Property in an amount sufficient to prevent the application of the coinsurance provisions;
- (c) Trustor will not enter into or modify the Leases in any material respect without the prior written consent of the Beneficiary, execute any assignment of the Leases except in favor of the Beneficiary, or accept any rentals under any Lease for more than one month in advance and will at all times perform and fulfill every term and condition of the Leases;

- (d) Trustor will at all times (i) maintain complete and accurate records and books regarding the Property in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and (ii) permit the Beneficiary and the Beneficiary's agents, employees and representatives, at such reasonable times as the Beneficiary may request, to enter and inspect the Property and such books and records; and
- (e) Trustor will at all times keep the Property in good and first-rate repair and condition (damage from casualty not excepted) and will not commit or permit any strip, waste, impairment, deterioration or alteration of the Property or any part thereof.
- 2.5 Nevada Covenants. Where not otherwise inconsistent with the other provisions of this Deed of Trust, Covenants Nos. 1; 2 (full replacement value); 3; 4 (highest rate permitted under the Note); 5; 6; 7 (a reasonable percentage); 8; and 9 of Nevada Revised Statutes Section 107.030, are hereby adopted and made a part of this Deed of Trust.
- Payments. The Trustor covenants to pay when due: all Federal, state, municipal, real property 2.6 and other taxes, betterment and improvement assessments and other governmental levies, water rates, sewer charges, insurance premiums and other charges on the Property, this Deed of Trust or any Obligation secured hereby that could, if unpaid, result in a lien on the Property or on any interest therein. If and when requested by the Beneficiary, the Trustor shall deposit from time to time with the Beneficiary sums determined by the Beneficiary to be sufficient to pay when due the amounts referred to in this Section. The Trustor shall have the right to contest any notice, lien, encumbrance, claim, tax, charge, betterment assessment or premium filed or asserted against or relating to the Property; provided that it contests the same diligently and in good faith and by proper proceedings and, at the Beneficiary's request, provides the Beneficiary with adequate cash security, in the Beneficiary's reasonable judgement, against the enforcement thereof. The Trustor shall furnish to the Beneficiary the receipted real estate tax bills or other evidence of payment of real estate taxes for the Property within thirty (30) days prior to the date from which interest or penalty would accrue for nonpayment thereof. The Trustor shall also furnish to the Beneficiary evidence of all other payments referred to above within fifteen (15) days after written request therefor by the Beneficiary. If Trustor shall fail to pay such sums, the Beneficiary may, but shall not be obligated to, advance such sums. Any sums so advanced by the Beneficiary shall be added to the Obligations, shall bear interest at the highest rate specified in any note evidencing the Obligations, and shall be secured by the lien of this Deed of Trust.
- 2.7 Notices; Notice of Default. The Trustor will deliver to the Beneficiary, promptly upon receipt of the same, copies of all notices or other documents it receives that affect the Property or its use, or claim that the Trustor is in default in the performance or observance of any of the terms hereof or that the Trustor or any tenant is in default of any terms of the Leases. The Trustor further agrees to deliver to the Beneficiary written notice promptly upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder or event that with the giving of notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute an Event of Default hereunder.
- Takings. In case of any condemnation or expropriation for public use of, or any damage by reason of the action of any public or governmental entity or authority to, all or any part of the Property (a "Taking"), or the commencement of any proceedings or negotiations that might result in a Taking, the Trustor shall promptly give written notice to the Beneficiary, describing the nature and extent thereof. The Beneficiary may, at its option, appear in any proceeding for a Taking or any negotiations relating to a Taking and the Trustor shall promptly give to the Beneficiary copies of all notices, pleadings, determinations and other papers relating thereto. The Trustor shall in good faith and with due diligence and by proper proceedings file and prosecute its claims for any award or payment on account of any Taking. The Trustor shall not settle any such claim without the Beneficiary's prior written consent. The Trustor shall hold any amounts received with respect to such awards or claims, by settlement, judicial decree or otherwise, in trust for the Beneficiary and promptly pay the same to the Beneficiary. The Trustor authorizes any award or settlement due in connection with a Taking to be paid directly to the Beneficiary in amounts not exceeding the Obligations. The Beneficiary may apply such amounts to the Obligations in such order as the Beneficiary may determine.

2.9 Insurance Proceeds. The proceeds of any insurance resulting from any loss with respect to the Property shall be paid to the Beneficiary and, at the option of the Beneficiary, be applied to the Obligations in such order as the Beneficiary may determine; provided, however, that if the Beneficiary shall require repair of the Property, the Beneficiary may release all or any portion of such proceeds to the Trustor for such purpose. Any insurance proceeds paid to the Trustor shall be held in trust for the Beneficiary and promptly paid to it.

3. CERTAIN RIGHTS OF THE BENEFICIARY

- 3.1 Legal Proceedings. The Beneficiary shall have the right, but not the duty, to intervene or otherwise participate in any legal or equitable proceeding that, in the Beneficiary's reasonable judgement, might affect the Property or any of the rights created or secured by this Deed of Trust. The Beneficiary shall have such right whether or not there shall have occurred an Event of Default hereunder.
- 3.2 Appraisals/Assessments. The Beneficiary shall have the right, at the Trustor's sole cost and expense, to obtain appraisals, environmental site assessments or other inspections of the portions of the Property that are real estate at such times as the Beneficiary deems necessary or as may be required by applicable law, or its prevailing credit or underwriting policies.
- 3.3 Financial Statements. The Beneficiary shall have the right, at the Trustor's sole cost and expense, to require delivery of financial statements in form and substance acceptable to the Beneficiary from the Trustor or any guarantor of any of the Obligations and the Trustor hereby agrees to deliver such financial statements and/or cause any such guarantor to so deliver any such financial statement when required by the Beneficiary.
- 3.4 Substitution of Trustee. The Beneficiary may from time to time, without notice to the Trustor or Trustee and with or without cause and with or without the resignation of Trustee, substitute a successor or successors to the Trustee named herein or acting hereunder. Upon such appointment, the successor trustee shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon the Trustee named herein or acting hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by a writing executed by Beneficiary and when duly recorded in the appropriate office shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of such successor Trustee. The procedure herein provided for substitution of the Trustee shall be conclusive of all other provisions for substitution, statutory or otherwise.
- 3.5 Leases and Rent Roll. The Trustor shall deliver to the Beneficiary during each calendar year and at such other times as the Beneficiary shall request a rent roll for the Property, in form acceptable to the Beneficiary, listing all tenants and occupants and describing all of the Leases.

4. DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

- 4.1 Events of Default. Event of Default shall mean the occurrence of any one or more of the following events:
 - (a) default of any liability, obligation or undertaking of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to the Beneficiary, hereunder or otherwise, including, without limitation, failure to pay in full and when due any installment of principal or interest or default of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations under any other Loan Document or any other agreement with the Beneficiary continuing for 10 days with respect to the payment of money or continuing for 30 days with respect to any other default;
 - failure by the Trustor to perform, observe or comply with any of the covenants, agreements, terms or conditions set forth in this Deed of Trust or the Loan Documents continuing for 30 days;

- (c) the (i) occurrence of any material loss, theft, damage or destruction of, or (ii) issuance or making of any levy, seizure, attachment, execution or similar process on a material portion of the Property;
- (d) failure of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to maintain aggregate collateral security value satisfactory to the Beneficiary continuing for 30 days;
- (e) default of any material liability, obligation or undertaking of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to any other party continuing for 30 days;
- (f) if any statement, representation or warranty heretofore, now or hereafter made by the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations in connection with this Deed of Trust or in any supporting financial statement of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations shall be determined by the Beneficiary to have been false in any material respect when made;
- (g) if the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations is a corporation, trust, partnership or limited liability company, the liquidation, termination or dissolution of any such organization, or the merger or consolidation of such organization into another entity, or its ceasing to carry on actively its present business or the appointment of a receiver for its property;
- (h) the death of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations and, if the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations is a partnership or limited liability company, the death of any partner or member;
- (i) the institution by or against the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations of any proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code 11 USC §101 et seq. or any other law in which the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations is alleged to be insolvent or unable to pay its debts as they mature, or the making by the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations of an assignment for the benefit of creditors or the granting by the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations of a trust mortgage for the benefit of creditors;
- (j) the service upon the Beneficiary of a writ in which the Beneficiary is named as trustee of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations;
- (k) a judgement or judgements for the payment of money shall be rendered against the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations, and any such judgement shall remain unsatisfied and in effect for any period of thirty (30) consecutive days without a stay of execution;
- any levy, lien (including mechanics lien), seizure, attachment, execution or similar process shall be issued or levied on any of the property of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations;
- (m) the termination or revocation of any guaranty of the Obligations; or
- (n) the occurrence of such a change in the condition or affairs (financial or otherwise) of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations, or the occurrence of any other event or circumstance, such that the Beneficiary, in its sole discretion, deems that it is insecure or that the prospects for timely or full payment or performance of any obligation of the Trustor or any guarantor of the Obligations to the Beneficiary has been or may be impaired.
- 4.2 Remedies. On the occurrence of any Event of Default the Beneficiary may, at any time thereafter, at its option and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, without notice, exercise any or all of the following remedies:

- (a) Declare the Obligations due and payable, and the Obligations shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, without presentment, protest, demand or notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Trustor except for Obligations due and payable on demand, which shall be due and payable on demand whether or not an event of default has occurred hereunder;
- (b) Enter, take possession of, manage and operate the Property (including all personal property and all records and documents pertaining thereto) and any part thereof and exclude the Trustor therefrom, take all actions it deems necessary or proper to preserve the Property and operate the Property as a mortgagee in possession with all the powers as could be exercised by a receiver or as otherwise provided herein or by applicable law; provided, however, the entry by the Beneficiary upon the Property for any reason shall not cause the Beneficiary to be a mortgagee in possession, except upon the express written declaration of the Beneficiary;
- With or without taking possession, receive and collect all rents, income, issues and profits (c) ("Rents") from the Property (including all real estate and personal property and whether past due or thereafter accruing), including as may arise under the Leases, and the Trustor appoints the Beneficiary as its true and lawful attorney with the power for the Beneficiary in its own name and capacity to demand and collect Rents and take any action that the Trustor is authorized to take under the Leases. The Beneficiary shall (after payment of all costs and expenses incurred) apply any Rents received by it to the Obligations in such order as the Beneficiary determines, or in accordance with any applicable statute, and the Trustor agrees that exercise of such rights and disposition of such funds shall not be deemed to cure any default or constitute a waiver of any foreclosure once commenced nor preclude the later commencement of foreclosure for breach thereof. The Beneficiary shall be liable to account only for such Rents actually received by the Beneficiary. Lessees under the Leases are hereby authorized and directed, following notice from the Beneficiary, to pay all amounts due the Trustor under the Leases to the Beneficiary, whereupon such lessees shall be relieved of any and all duty and obligation to the Trustor with respect to such payments so made;
- (d) In addition to any other remedies, to sell the Property or any part thereof or interest therein pursuant to exercise of its power of sale or otherwise at public auction on terms and conditions as the Beneficiary may determine, or otherwise foreclose this Deed of Trust in any manner permitted by law, and upon such sale the Trustor shall execute and deliver such instruments as the Beneficiary may request in order to convey and transfer all of the Trustor's interest in the Property, and the same shall operate to divest all rights, title and interest of the Trustor in and to the Property. In the event this Deed of Trust shall include more than one parcel of property or subdivision (each hereinafter called a "portion"), the Beneficiary shall, in its sole and exclusive discretion and to the extent permitted by applicable law, be empowered to foreclose upon any such portion without impairing its right to foreclose subsequently upon any other portion or the entirety of the Property from time to time thereafter. In addition, the Beneficiary may in its discretion subordinate this Deed of Trust to one or more Leases for the sole purpose of preserving any such Lease in the event of a foreclosure;
- (e) Cause one or more environmental assessments to be taken, arrange for the cleanup of any Hazardous Substances or otherwise cure the Trustor's failure to comply with any statute, regulation or ordinance relating to the presence or cleanup of Hazardous Substances, and the Trustor shall provide the Beneficiary or its agents with access to the Property for such purposes; provided that the exercise of any of such remedies shall not be deemed to have relieved the Trustor from any responsibility therefor or given the Beneficiary "control" over the Property or cause the Beneficiary to be considered to be a mortgagee in possession, "owner" or "operator" of the Property for purposes of any applicable law, rule or regulation pertaining to Hazardous Substances; and

(f) Take such other actions or proceedings as the Beneficiary deems necessary or advisable to protect its interest in the Property and ensure payment and performance of the Obligations, including, without limitation, appointment of a receiver (and the Trustor hereby waives any right to object to such appointment) and exercise of any of the Beneficiary's remedies provided herein or in any other document evidencing, securing or relating to any of the Obligations or available to a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or under other applicable law.

In addition, the Trustee and the Beneficiary shall have all other remedies provided by applicable law, including, without limitation, the right to pursue a judicial sale of the Property or any portion thereof.

The Trustor agrees and acknowledges that the acceptance by the Trustee or the Beneficiary of any payments from either the Trustor or any guarantor after the occurrence of any Event of Default, the exercise by the Trustee or the Beneficiary of any remedy set forth herein or the commencement, discontinuance or abandonment of foreclosure proceedings against the Property shall not waive the Trustee's or the Beneficiary's subsequent or concurrent right to foreclose or operate as a bar or estoppel to the exercise of any other rights or remedies of the Trustee or the Beneficiary. The Trustor agrees and acknowledges that the Trustee or the Beneficiary, by making payments or incurring costs described herein, shall be subrogated to any right of the Trustor to seek reimbursement from any third parties, including, without limitation, any predecessor in interest to the Trustor's title or other party who may be responsible under any law, regulation or ordinance relating to the presence or cleanup of Hazardous Substances.

- Advances. If the Trustor fails to pay or perform any of its obligations respecting the Property, the Beneficiary may in its sole discretion do so without waiving or releasing Trustor from any such obligation. Any such payments may include, but are not limited to, payments for taxes, assessments and other governmental levies, water rates, insurance premiums, maintenance, repairs or improvements constituting part of the Property. Any amounts paid by the Beneficiary hereunder shall be, until paid, part of the Obligations and secured by this Deed of Trust, and shall be due and payable to the Beneficiary, on demand, together with interest thereon to the extent permitted by applicable law, at the highest rate permitted under any of the notes evidencing the Obligations.
- 4.4 Cumulative Rights and Remedies. All of the foregoing rights, remedies and options (including without limitation the right to enter and take possession of the Property, the right to manage and operate the same, and the right to collect Rents, in each case whether by a receiver or otherwise) are cumulative and in addition to any rights the Beneficiary might otherwise have, whether at law or by agreement, and may be exercised separately or concurrently and none of which shall be exclusive of any other. The Trustor further agrees that the Trustee and the Beneficiary may exercise any or all of its rights or remedies set forth herein without having to pay the Trustor any sums for use or occupancy of the Property.
- 4.5 Trustor's Waiver of Certain Rights. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Trustor hereby waives the benefit of all present and future laws (i) providing for any appraisal before sale of all or any portion of the Property or (ii) in any way extending the time for the enforcement of the collection of the Obligations or creating or extending a period of redemption from any sale made hereunder.
- 4.6 Transfer of Title. Upon the completion of any sale or sales of any Property, Trustee shall execute and deliver to the accepted purchaser or purchasers a good and sufficient deed of conveyance or assignment and transfer, lawfully conveying, assigning, and transferring the Property sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied.
- 4.7 Effect of Sale. Any sale or sales made by virtue of or under this Deed of Trust, whether under any power of sale herein granted or through judicial proceedings, shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, operate to divest all right, title, estate, interest, claim, and demand whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of Trustor in and to the property so sold, or any part thereof from, through or under Trustor, its successors and assigns. The receipt by Trustee shall be full and sufficient discharge to any purchaser of the Property or any part thereof sold as aforesaid for the purchase money; and no purchaser or his representatives, grantees or assigns after paying such purchase money and receiving such receipt, shall be bound to see to the application of such purchase money upon or for any trust or purpose of this Deed of Trust, or in any manner whatsoever be answerable for any loss, misapplication or non-application of any such purchase money or be bound to inquire as to the authorization, necessity, expedience or regularity of any such sale.

4.8 Reconveyance. Upon written request of the Beneficiary and surrender of this Deed of Trust and any Notes to Trustee for cancellation or endorsement, and upon payment of its fees and charges, Trustee shall reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the Property then subject to this Deed of Trust. Any reconveyance, whether full or partial, may be made in terms to "the person or persons legally entitled thereto," and the recitals in such reconveyance of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof.

5. MISCELLANEOUS

- Costs and Expenses. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Trustor shall pay to the Trustee and the Beneficiary, on demand, all reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses and reasonable consulting, accounting, appraisal, brokerage and similar professional fees and charges) incurred by the Trustee and the Beneficiary in connection with the Trustee's and the Beneficiary's interpretation, recordation of this Deed of Trust, exercise, preservation or enforcement of any of its rights, remedies and options set forth in this Deed of Trust and in connection with any litigation, proceeding or dispute whether arising hereunder or otherwise relating to the Obligations, together with interest thereon to the extent permitted by applicable law, until paid in full by the Trustor at the highest rate set forth in any of the notes evidencing the Obligations. Any amounts owed by the Trustor hereunder shall be, until paid, part of the Obligations and secured by this Deed of Trust, and the Beneficiary shall be entitled, to the extent permitted by law, to receive and retain such amounts in any action for a deficiency against or redemption by the Trustor, or any accounting for the proceeds of a foreclosure sale or of insurance proceeds.
- 5.2 Indemnification Regarding Leases. The Trustor hereby agrees to defend, and does hereby indemnify and hold the Beneficiary, Trustee, and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and attorneys (each an "Indemnitee") harmless from all losses, damages, claims, costs or expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) resulting from the assignment of the Leases and from all demands that may be asserted against such Indemnitees arising from any undertakings on the part of the Beneficiary to perform any obligations under the Leases. It is understood that the assignment of the Leases shall not operate to place responsibility for the control or management of the Property upon the Beneficiary or any Indemnitee or make them liable for performance of any of the obligations of the Trustor under Leases, respecting any condition of the Property or any other agreement or arrangement, written or oral, or applicable law.
- 5.3 Indemnification Regarding Hazardous Substances. The Trustor hereby agrees to defend, and does hereby indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnitee from and against any and all losses, damages, claims, costs or expenses, including, without limitation, litigation costs and attorneys' fees and expenses and fees or expenses of any environmental engineering or cleanup firm incurred by such Indemnitee and arising out of or in connection with the Property or resulting from the application of any current or future law, regulation or ordinance relating to the presence or cleanup of Hazardous Substances on or affecting the Property. The Trustor agrees its obligations hereunder shall be continuous and shall survive termination or discharge of this Deed of Trust and/or the repayment of all debts to the Beneficiary including repayment of all Obligations.
- 5.4 Indemnitee's Expenses. If any Indemnitee is made a party defendant to any litigation or any claim is threatened or brought against such Indemnitee concerning this Deed of Trust or the Property or any part thereof or therein or concerning the construction, maintenance, operation or the occupancy or use thereof by the Trustor or other person or entity, then the Trustor shall indemnify, defend and hold each Indemnitee harmless from and against all liability by reason of said litigation or claims, including attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by such Indemnitee in connection with any such litigation or claim, whether or not any such litigation or claim is prosecuted to judgement. The within indemnification shall survive payment of the Obligations, and/or any termination, release or discharge executed by the Beneficiary in favor of the Trustor.

- Waivers. The Trustor waives notice of nonpayment, demand, presentment, protest or notice of 5.5 protest of the Obligations and all other notices, consents to any renewals or extensions of time of payment thereof, and generally waives any and all suretyship defenses and defenses in the nature thereof. No delay or omission of the Beneficiary in exercising or enforcing any of its rights, powers, privileges, remedies, immunities or discretion (all of which are hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Beneficiary's rights and remedies") hereunder shall constitute a waiver thereof; and no waiver by the Beneficiary of any default of the Trustor hereunder or of any demand shall operate as a waiver of any other default hereunder or of any other demand. No term or provision hereof shall be waived, altered or modified except with the prior written consent of the Beneficiary, which consent makes explicit reference to this Deed of Trust. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, no other agreement or transaction, of whatsoever nature, entered into between the Beneficiary and the Trustor at any time (whether before, during or after the effective date or term of this Deed of Trust) shall be construed as a waiver, modification or limitation of any of the Beneficiary's rights and remedies under this Deed of Trust (nor shall anything in this Deed of Trust be construed as a waiver, modification or limitation of any of the Beneficiary's rights and remedies under any such other agreement or transaction) but all the Beneficiary's rights and remedies not only under the provisions of this Deed of Trust but also under any such other agreement or transaction shall be cumulative and not alternative or exclusive, and may be exercised by the Beneficiary at such time or times and in such order of preference as the Beneficiary in its sole discretion may determine.
- 5.6 Severability. If any provision of this Deed of Trust or portion of such provision or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall to any extent be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Deed of Trust (or the remainder of such provision) and the application thereof to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.
- 5.7 Complete Agreement. This Deed of Trust and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire agreement and understanding between and among the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior proposals, negotiations, agreements and understandings among the parties hereto with respect to such subject matter.
- Binding Effect of Agreement. This Deed of Trust shall run with the land and be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the parties hereto, and shall remain in full force and effect (and the Beneficiary shall be entitled to rely thereon) until all Obligations are fully and indefeasibly paid. The Beneficiary may transfer and assign this Deed of Trust and deliver any collateral to the assignee, who shall thereupon have all of the rights of the Beneficiary; and the Beneficiary shall then be relieved and discharged of any responsibility or liability with respect to this Deed of Trust and such collateral. Except as expressly provided herein or in the other Loan Documents, nothing, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Deed of Trust or the other Loan Documents.
- 5.9 Notices. Any notices under or pursuant to this Deed of Trust shall be deemed duly received and effective if delivered in hand to any officer of agent of the Trustor or the Beneficiary, or if mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the Trustor or the Beneficiary at the address set forth in this Deed of Trust or as any party may from time to time designate by written notice to the other party.
- 5.10 Governing Law. This Deed of Trust shall be governed by Nevada law without giving effect to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

- 5.11 Reproductions. This Deed of Trust and all documents which have been or may be hereinafter furnished by the Trustor to the Beneficiary may be reproduced by the Beneficiary by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, xerographic or similar process, and any such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding (whether or not the original is in existence and whether or not such reproduction was made in the regular course of business).
- 5.12 Jurisdiction and Venue. The Trustor irrevocably submits to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any Federal or state court sitting in California and any Federal or state court sitting in Nevada, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Deed of Trust. The Trustor irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, any objection it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that the same has been brought in an inconvenient forum. The Trustor hereby consents to process being served in any such suit, action or proceeding (i) by the mailing of a copy thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the Trustor's address set forth herein or such other address as has been provided in writing to the Beneficiary and (ii) in any other manner permitted by law, and agrees that such service shall in every respect be deemed effective service upon the Trustor.
- JURY WAIVER. THE TRUSTOR AND THE BENEFICIARY EACH HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY, AND AFTER AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL, (A) WAIVE ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS DEED OF TRUST, THE OBLIGATIONS, ALL MATTERS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND DOCUMENTS EXECUTED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH AND (B) AGREE NOT TO CONSOLIDATE ANY SUCH ACTION WITH ANY OTHER ACTION IN WHICH A JURY TRIAL CAN NOT BE, OR HAS NOT BEEN WAIVED. THE TRUSTOR CERTIFIES THAT NEITHER THE BENEFICIARY NOR ANY OF ITS REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS OR COUNSEL HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT THE BENEFICIARY WOULD NOT IN THE EVENT OF ANY SUCH PROCEEDING SEEK TO ENFORCE THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.
- Arbitration. IN THE EVENT THAT THE JURY WAIVER SET FORTH ABOVE IS JUDICIALLY DETERMINED TO NOT BE PERMITTED BY LAW, THE PARTIES AGREE TO ATTEMPT IN GOOD FAITH TO RESOLVE ANY DISPUTES WHICH MAY ARISE AMONG THEM IN CONNECTION WITH THE INTERPRETATION OR ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE APPLICATION OR VALIDITY THEREOF. IN THE EVENT THAT ANY DISPUTE CANNOT BE SO RESOLVED, AND UNLESS THE RELIEF SOUGHT REQUIRES THE EXERCISE OF THE EQUITY POWERS OF A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION, SUCH DISPUTE SHALL BE SUBMITTED TO ARBITRATION. SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE HELD IN THE COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ARBITRATION PROVISIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE. THIS AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE SHALL BE SPECIFICALLY ENFORCEABLE. ANY AWARD RENDERED IN ANY SUCH ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS SHALL BE FINAL AND BINDING ON EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND JUDGEMENT MAY BE ENTERED THEREON IN ANY COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION.

"Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Lessor shall give any lender whose name and notice address information has been provided to Lessor in writing, notice of such Event of Default contemporaneously with the delivery of such notice to Lessee. Additionally, lender shall have the right (with no obligation) to cure such Event of Default within the time period afforded Lessee set forth in the Lease with respect to monetary defaults, and with respect to non-monetary defaults, such time reasonably necessary to cure such Event of Default, as long as the lender promptly commences to cure such Event of Default and diligently pursues such cure to completion. If lender does not elect such option to cure, then, except as otherwise expressly provided herein or such other notice as may be required by statute and cannot be waived by Lessee, Lessor shall be entitled to exercise, at its option, concurrently, successively, or in any combination, all remedies available at law or in equity, including without limitation, any one or more of the following:"

- 5. Mortgages, Subordination and Attornment. Section 21 is hereby amended as follows:
- (a) The last sentence of the first paragraph of Section 21 is hereby deleted in its entirety.
- (b) The fourth paragraph of Section 21 is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following: "In the event any purchaser or assignee of any mortgage at a foreclosure sale acquires title to any of the Properties, or in the event that any mortgagee or any assignee otherwise succeeds to the rights of Lessor as landlord under this Lease, Lessee shall attorn to mortgagee or such purchaser or assignee, as the case may be (a "Successor Lessor"), and recognize the Successor Lessor as lessor under this Lease, and Successor Lessor shall recognize and not disturb Lessee's tenancy created hereby. So long as Lessee is not then in default under this Lease, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect as a direct lease between the Successor Lessor and Lessee, provided that the Successor Lessor shall only be liable for any obligations of Lessor under this Lease which accrue from and after the date that such Successor Lessor acquires title to such Property or otherwise succeeds to the rights of Lessor as landlord hereunder. The foregoing provisions shall be self-operative and effective without the execution of further instruments."
 - 6. Assignment/Subletting. Section 23 is hereby amended as follows:
 - (a) The following sentence is added to the end of the first paragraph of Section 23:

"For purposes of clarification, this Section is not and shall not be deemed to prohibit Lessee's right to collaterally assign its interest to any third person or entity, including, without limitation, by placing or granting any lien, encumbrance or other security interest on the Lease or its interests thereunder, all of which such actions may be taken by Lessee without Lessor's consent."

(b) The following paragraph is added to the end of Section 23:

"Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Lease, Lessor consents to the transfer or assignment of Lessee's rights under this Lease upon a foreclosure on Lessee's interests herein, or deed in lieu of foreclosure, to any lender of Lessee or an affiliate of such lender, and to the first transfer or assignment of such rights subsequent to foreclosure by such lender to a third party, so long as the third party can demonstrate sufficient financial creditworthiness reasonably acceptable to Lessor."

- 7. Governing Law. Sections 37 and 38.H are hereby incorporated in full by this reference.
- 8. No Other Modification. Except as expressly set forth in this Amendment, nothing herein contained shall be deemed to modify, supplement, supersede or otherwise amend any term or condition in the Lease, and the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that all terms and conditions of the Lease are and shall remain in full force and effect.
- 9. Condition to Effectiveness. This Amendment shall only be effective upon the closing of that certain transaction whereby the shareholders of P.A. Morabito & Co., Limited ("PAMCo"), the corporation that owns all the stock of Lessee, will enter into a Stock Purchase Agreement with Jerry Herbst ("Herbst") pursuant to which Herbst will purchase all of the outstanding stock of PAMCo.
- 10. Counterparts. This Amendment may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original.

GUARANTY AGREEMENT

This GUARANTY AGREEMENT, dated as of this \(\frac{1}{\infty} \) day of March, 2007 (this "Agreement"), is made by Jerry Herbst, an individual (the "Guarantor"), for the benefit of Edward C. Wooley and Judith A. Wooley, as trustees of the Edward C. Wooley and Judith A. Wooley Intervivos Revocable Trust Year 2000 (the "Lessor").

RECITALS:

- A. The Lessor and Berry-Hinckley Industries, a Nevada corporation ("BHI"), are parties to that certain Lease Agreement for 1365 Baring Boulevard, Sparks, Nevada (the "Lease").
- B. The Guarantor desires to enter into this Agreement in order to induce the Landlord to (i) provide consent under the Lease to a change of control of P.A. Morabito & Co., Limited ("PAMCo"), the corporation that owns all the stock of BHI and/or (ii) enter into an amendment to the Lease.

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Guarantor hereby guarantees, promises and undertakes as follows:

- 1. Guaranty. The Guarantor unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guarantees the timely payment and performance of each of BHI's obligations arising out of and under the Lease (such obligations, the "Guaranteed Obligations"). The Guarantor's guaranty made hereby is a guaranty of timely payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations and not merely of collectibility or enforceability of such obligations.
- 2. Remedies and Rights of the Lessor. The Guarantor agrees that if and to the extent that BHI either (a) fails to satisfy any of the Guaranteed Obligations and fails to remedy such failure within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice from the Lessor of such failure, or (b) is subject to a pending petition for relief under Chapter 7 or Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, the Guarantor will be directly responsible for the full extent of any unsatisfied Guaranteed Obligations. This Agreement is an unconditional, absolute, present and continuing guaranty of payment and performance, and will remain in full force and effect without regard to, and the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder shall not be impaired, affected or released by, any of the following: (i) any modification, supplement, extension or amendment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Lease; (ii) any extension, indulgence or other action in respect thereto or therefor; (iii) any failure or delay by the Lessor or BHI in exercising any right or power under the Lease; (iv) any invalidity or unenforceability in any respect of, or any irregularity or other defect in any of, the Lease or Guaranteed Obligations; (v) any exercise or non-exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege in respect of this Agreement or any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (vi) any transfer of the assets of Lessor to, or any consolidation or merger of the Lessor with or into, any other entity; (vii) any voluntary or involuntary liquidation.

dissolution, sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets, receivership, insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or similar proceeding affecting BHI or any of its assets; or (viii) any allegation or contest of the validity of the Lease or this Agreement. The Guarantor hereby waives any defense to its obligations hereunder that might arise as a result of any of the foregoing, and hereby waives the effect of any fact, circumstance or event of any nature whatsoever that would exonerate, or constitute or give rise to a defense to, the obligation of a surety or guarantor. Without limitation, except to the extent specifically provided in Paragraph 2 hereof, the Guarantor waives any right it may have to require the Lessor, and any obligation the Lessor may have, to proceed first against BHI or exhaust any remedies that it may have against BHI in respect of non-payment or non-performance of the Guaranteed Obligations, before demand for payment or performance by the Guarantor under this Agreement.

The Guarantor acknowledges that the rights and remedies herein provided are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies that the Lessor may otherwise have at law or in equity, and shall not prejudice the Lessor's right to assert any other claim under the Lease.

- Duration of Agreement. The term of this Agreement will begin on, and this Agreement shall be of no force and effect until, the closing of that certain Stock Purchase Agreement by and among Guarantor, or a company controlled by him, and the stockholders of PAMCo. This Agreement will continue in full force and effect and the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder will not be discharged until the earlier of (i) the date on which the Guaranteed Obligations are fully performed, satisfied and discharged or until BHI's liability to the Lessor under the Lease shall have been completely performed, satisfied and discharged, whichever occurs first, or (ii) upon a change in the control of BHI provided that the Lessor has consented to such change of control, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. For the purpose of the foregoing sentence, "change in the control of BHI" shall mean the transfer, on a cumulative basis, of 50% or more of the voting control of BHI to a party not owned, directly or indirectly, by the Guarantor, Edward Herbst, Timothy Herbst or Troy Herbst. Any transfer of Guarantor's interest in BHI other than upon a change in the control of BHI with Lessor's consent pursuant to section (ii) above will not cause this Agreement or Guarantor's obligations hereunder to terminate. The Guaranteed Obligations will not be considered fully performed, satisfied and discharged (a) unless and until all obligations of BHI to the Lessor pursuant to the Lease have been fully and completely performed, satisfied and discharged, or (b) to the extent any claim by the Lessor against BHI remains outstanding.
- 4. No Assignment. The rights and obligations of the Guarantor hereunder may not be assigned without the prior written consent of the Lessor or the then beneficiary of this Agreement. Any purported assignment in violation of this section shall be null and void. All covenants and agreements in this Agreement made by the Guarantor shall bind and inure to the benefit of its successors and permitted assigns.
- 5. Integration; Modification; Waiver. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior understandings of the parties. No supplement, modification or amendment of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by the Guarantor and acknowledged and accepted by the Lessor or the then beneficiary of this Agreement. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement will be deemed to be or shall constitute a continuing waiver. No waiver will be binding unless executed in writing by the party making the waiver.

- 6. No Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement shall confer any rights or remedies upon any person other than the Lessor and its successors and assigns.
- 7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Nevada without regard to conflicts of law principles.

(i) cause, or consent to, any cancellation, termination or surrender of any Equipment Agreement, Spacelease or Entitlement if such cancellation, termination or surrender would be reasonably likely to materially and adversely affect either the Convenience Store Facilities or any Additional Business (except for any cancellation or termination of an Equipment Agreement, Spacelease or Entitlement which is caused by a default thereunder on the part of a party other than Assignor or one of its Affiliates);

(ii) permit any event to occur which would entitle any party to an Equipment Agreement, Spacelease or Entitlement to terminate or cancel said Equipment Agreement, Spacelease or Entitlement if such cancellation or termination would be reasonably likely to materially and adversely affect either the Convenience Store Facilities or any Additional Business (except any cancellation or termination of an Equipment Agreement, Spacelease or Entitlement which is caused by a default thereunder on the part of a party other than Assignor or one of its Affiliates);

(iii) amend or modify any of the Equipment Agreements or the Spaceleases or any of the Entitlements if such amendment or modification would be reasonably likely to materially and adversely affect either the Convenience Store Facilities or any Additional Business;

(iv) waive any default under or breach of any Equipment Agreements, any Spaceleases or any Entitlements except for any waiver that would not be reasonably likely to result in any material adverse affect on either the Convenience Store Facilities or any Additional Business; or

(v) give any consent, waiver or approval which would impair Assignor's interest in any of the Equipment Agreements, any of the Spaceleases or any of the Entitlements if such consent, waiver or approval would be reasonably likely to materially and adversely affect either the Convenience Store Facilities or any Additional Business.

- (c) Assignor will promptly notify Lender of the occurrence of any default under any of the Equipment Agreements, Spaceleases and/or Entitlements, which, if left uncured, would be reasonably likely to materially and adversely affect either the Convenience Store Facilities or any Additional Business.
- 4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Assignment, it is understood and agreed that so long as there shall exist no Event of Default under the Credit Agreement there is reserved to Assignor a revocable license to retain, use and enjoy the Equipment Agreements, the Spaceleases, the

S:\jlm\miscbnk\fnb\herbst\ent asn 1365 baring.doc 062607

Entitlements and the properties and entitlements which are the subject thereof. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, and so long as such Event of Default is continuing, such license granted to Assignor may be immediately revoked by Lender (except that, upon occurrence of an Event of Default under subsections 7.01(g), (h) or (i) of the Credit Agreement, such license granted to Assignor shall be automatically revoked) without further demand or notice and Lender is hereby empowered to enter and take possession of the Real Property and to use, manage and operate the same and to do all acts required or permitted by the Equipment Agreements, the Spaceleases and/or the Entitlements, and perform such other acts in connection with the use, management and operation of the property and entitlements, which are the subject of the Equipment Agreements, the Spaceleases and the Entitlements as Lender, in its sole discretion, may deem proper (including, without limitation, such acts as are otherwise authorized under this Assignment). Lender agrees that, until such license granted to Assignor has been revoked, as set forth above. Lender shall refrain from exercising its rights and remedies which are granted with respect to the Equipment Agreements, the Spaceleases, and/or the properties they concern under Section 1 of this Assignment or under this Section 4. Should the Event\of Default which resulted in any such revocation be cured prior to foreclosure, deed in-lieu of foreclosure, or a similar conveyance under the Deed of Trust, then such license granted to Assignor shall be immediately reinstated without further demand or notice and Lender shall, as soon as reasonably possible, redeliver to Assignor possession of the Equipment Agreements, of the Spaceleases and of the Entitlements (and, at the expense of Assignor, shall execute such notices to third parties as Assignor may reasonably request) and the parties hereto shall each be restored to, and be reinstated in, their respective rights and positions hereunder as if the Event of Default had not occurred (without impairment of or limitation on Lender's right to proceed hereunder upon subsequent Events of Default).

It is also understood and agreed that so long as there shall exist no Event of Default under the Credit Agreement there is reserved to Assignor a revocable license to collect the Rents and Revenues as they become due, but not prior to accrual. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, and so long as such Event of Default is continuing, such license/granted to Assignor may be immediately revoked (except that, \upon occurrence of an Event of subsections 7.01(g), (h) or (i) of the Credit Agreement, such license granted to Assignor shall be automatically revoked) without further demand or notice and Lender is hereby empowered, but\shall not be obligated, to do any, or all of the following: (i) enter and take possession of the Real Property; (ii) manage and operate all, or any portion of, the Real Property, the Convenience Store Facilities and/or the Additional Businesses (or any of them); (iii) demand payment of the Rents and Revenues from the appropriate party; fiv) give notice that further payments of Rents and Revenues are to be made as directed by Lender; and (v) settle compromise, bring suit in respect of Rents and Revenues or otherwise deal with the person owing such Rents and Revenues, either in the name of Assignor or in its own name; all on its own behalf or through a receiver. If any such Rents and Revenues are collected by Assignor in violation of this Assignment, such Rents and Revenues shall be held in trust tor the benetit of Lender. No action taken by Lender, or by a receiver, in exercising any of the rights and remedies hereunder shall cause any of them to be characterized as a "Mortgagee in Possession". This Assignment is intended to be and is an absolute present assignment from Assignor to Lender and not merely the passing of a security interest. Lender agrees that, until such license granted to Assignor has been revoked, as set torth above, Lender shall refrain from exercising its rights and remedies which are granted with respect to the Rents and Revenues and/or the collection thereof Should the Event ot under Section 1 of this Assignment or under this Section 5. Default which resulted in any such revocation be cured prior to foreclosure, deed-in-lieu of toreclosure, or a similar conveyance under the Deed of Trust, then such license granted to Assignor shall be immediately reinstated without further demand or notice and Lender shall, as soon as reasonably possible, execute, at the expense of Assignor, such notices to third parties as Assigner may reasonably request and the parties hereto shall each be restored to, and be reinstated in, their respective rights and positions hereunder as if the Event of Default had not occurred (without impairment of or limitation on Lender's right to proceed hereunder upon subsequent Events of Default).

- Lender shall not be obligated to perform or discharge any 6. obligation or duty to be performed or discharged by Assignor under the Equipment Agreements, the Spaceleases, the Entitlements, and/or relating to the Rents and This Assignment shall not place responsibility tor the management, Revenues. control, care, operation or repair of the Real Property, the Convenience Store Facilities or any Additional Business, upon Lender, or upon any of its trustees, officers, employees, agents, attorneys or stockholders (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties"); nor shall this Assignment cause any of the Indemnified Parties to be responsible or liable for any negligence in the management, control, care, operation or repair of the Real Property, the Convenience Store Facilities or any Additional Business, which results in loss, injury or death to any tenant, quest, licensee, employee or stranger (provided that this Section 6 shall not act to relieve any Indemnified Party from liability which results from such Indemnified Party's own gross negligence or willful misconduct).
- 7. Assignor agrees to indemnify, protect, detend and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties from and against any and all losses, damages, expenses or liabilities of any kind or nature from any suits, claims or demands including reasonable counsel fees incurred in investigating or defending such claim, suffered by any of them and caused by, relating to, arising out of, resulting from, or in any way connected with: (i) this Assignment; (ii) any of the Equipment Agreements, Spaceleases, Entitlements, or Rents and Revenues; or (iii) the management, control, care, operation or repair of the Real Property, the Convenience Store Facilities and/or any Additional Business; all in accordance with Section 5.13 of the Credit Agreement, which is incorporated by reference herein, as if fully set forth herein (provided that this Section 7 shall not act to relieve any Indemnified Party from liability which results from such Indemnified Party's own gross negligence or willful misconduct).

- 8. Assignor agrees that this Assignment and the designation and directions herein set forth are irrevocable. Until Bank Facility Termination has occurred, Assignor will not make any other assignment, designation or direction inconsistent herewith (except as otherwise permitted in the Credit Agreement), and any such assignment, designation or direction which is inconsistent herewith shall be void. Assignor will, from time to time, execute all such instruments of turther assurance and all such supplemental instruments as may be reasonably requested by Lender.
- 9. No action or inaction on the part of Lender shall constitute an assumption, on the part of Lender of any obligations or duties under the Equipment Agreements, Spaceleases and/or the Entitlements, or relating to the Rents and Revenues. No action or inaction on the part of Assignor shall adversely affect or limit in any way the rights of Lender under this Assignment or, through this Assignment, under the Equipment Agreements, the Spaceleases and/or the Entitlements, or relating to the Rents and Revenues.
- 10. Assignor covenants and represents that it has the full right and title to assign the Equipment Agreements, the Spaceleases, the Entitlements, the Rents and Revenues; that no other assignments of its interests in the Equipment Agreements, Spaceleases and/or the Entitlements, or of its interests in the Rents and Revenues have been made; that no notice of termination has been served on it with respect to any Equipment Agreements, the Spaceleases or the Entitlements, the termination of which would be reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Change; and that there are presently no defaults existing under any of the Equipment Agreements, the Spaceleases or the Entitlements, which defaults would be reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Change it left uncured.
- 11. The full performance of the terms contained in the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents and the due release and termination of the Security Documentation shall render this Assignment void. Upon such performance, release and termination, Lender, at the request and the expense of Assignor, will promptly deliver either an instrument canceling this Assignment or assigning the rights of the Lender hereunder, as Assignor shall direct.

- 12. Assignor and Lender intend that this Assignment shall be a present, absolute and unconditional assignment, subject to the license granted above, and not merely the passing of a security interest. During the term of this Assignment, neither the Equipment Agreements, the Spaceleases, the Entitlements nor the Rents and Revenues shall constitute property of Assignor (or any estate of Assignor) within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 541 (as it may be amended or recodified from time to time).
- 13. This Assignment applies to, binds and inures to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective heirs, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. This Assignment may not be modified or terminated orally.
- 14. All of the rights and remedies of Lender hereunder are cumulative and not exclusive of any other right or remedy which may be provided for hereunder or under any other Loan Document. Nothing contained in this Assignment and no act done or omitted by Lender pursuant to its terms shall be deemed a waiver, by Lender of any rights or remedies under the Loan Documents, and this Assignment is made and accepted without prejudice to any rights or remedies possessed by Lender under the terms of the Loan Documents. The right of the Lender to collect the secured principal, interest, and other Indebtedness, and to enforce any security may be exercised by Lender prior to, simultaneous with, or subsequent to any action taken under this Assignment.
- 15. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Assignor shall be deemed to have appointed and does hereby appoint Lender the attorney-in-fact of Assignor to prepare, sign, file and/or record such documents or instruments, or take such other actions, as may be reasonably necessary to perfect and preserve, against third parties, the interest in the Equipment Agreements, the Spaceleases, the Entitlements and Rents and Revenues which is granted to Lender hereunder.
- 16. This Assignment shall be governed by the internal laws of the State of Nevada, without regard to principles of conflict of law.
- 17. This Assignment may be executed in any number of separate counterparts with the same effect as if the signatures hereto and hereby were upon the same instrument. All such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same document.

DECLARATION OF COMPLIANCE

NV SB 321 (2013) Sec. 11

The undersigned, as	s an authorized agent or employee of the mortgage servicer named below, hereby declares that:
	The mortgage servicer has contacted the borrower pursuant to SB321 Section 11(2) in order to assess the borrower's financial situation and explore options for the borrower to avoid a foreclosure sale and to provide the toll free number to enable the borrower to find a housing counselor certified by HUD. Thirty (30) calendar days or more have passed since "initial contact" was made.
	The mortgage servicer has tried with due diligence to contact the borrower pursuant to SB321 Section 11(5) in order to assess the borrower's financial situation and explore options for the borrower to avoid foreclosure sale. Despite the exercise of due diligence, the mortgage servicer has been unable to contact the borrower. Thirty (30) calendar days or more have passed since the due diligence requirements were satisfied.
.	The requirements set forth in SB321 Section 11 do not apply because the individual did not meet the definition of "Borrower" pursuant to SB 321 Section 3.
×	The requirements set forth in SB321 Section 11 do not apply because the subject loan is not a "residential mortgage loan" as defined by SB321 Section 7. A residential mortgage loan as defined by SB321 Section 7 is a loan primarily for personal, family or household use and which is secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on owner-occupied housing as defined in N.R.S. §107.086.
	The requirements of SB321 Section 11 do not apply because the default event which precipitated this foreclosure was not a monetary default as defined in SB321 Section 11.
	Pursuant to SB 321 (2013) Sec. 7 because the property is not "owner-occupied" real property (as defined in N.R.S. § 107.086).
	No contact is required because the mortgage servicer is a financial institution as defined in N.R.S. § 660.45 that, during its immediately preceding annual reporting period, as established with its primary regulator, has foreclosed on 100 or fewer real properties located in this state which constitute owner-occupied housing as defined N.R.S. §107.86

Subject: RE: Final PA?

Ed.,

I need a complete copy of the signed version of the document not just the signature pages and a draft not signed.

We still need to talk about the Cross Collateral clause in the Sparks and Carson City docs and how to resolve this since the Demand & Default is out on Sparks also and the potential sale does not resolve it.

You may want to have your attorney involved in that conversation with me and my attorney.

Let me know if we can schedule a time to talk tomorrow or Friday with counsel.

Sincerely,

Terri Baron
