23 pretrial issue(s) which could have been raised at trial are waived by 24 my plea.

25 6. I understand that the consequences of my plea of guilty
26 are that I may be imprisoned for a period of 1-5 years in the Nevada

1 State Department of Corrections and that I am eligible for probation.
2 I may also be fined up to $10,000.00.

3 7. In exchange for my plea of guilty, the State, my
4 counsel and I have agreed to recommend the following: The State will 5 not oppose probation upon me meeting certain conditions outlined 6 elsewhere, and the parties will be free to argue the terms and 7 underlying conditions of probation. If those conditions are not met,
8 the parties will be free to argue for an appropriate sentence. The 9 State will not file additional criminal charges or enhancements
10 resulting from the arrest in this case.

11 8. I understand that, even though the State and I have 12 reached this plea agreement, the State is reserving the right to 13 present arguments, facts, and/or witnesses at sentencing in support
14 of the plea agreement.

15 9. I also agree that I will make full restitution in this
16 matter, as determined by the Court. Where applicable, I additionally 17 understand and agree that I will be responsible for the repayment of 18 any costs incurred by the State or County in securing my return to 19 this jurisdiction.

20 10. I understand that the State, at their discretion, is 21 entitled to either withdraw from this agreement and proceed with the 22 prosecution of the original charges or be free to argue for an
23 appropriate sentence at the time of sentencing if I fail to appear at 24 any scheduled proceeding in this matter OR if prior to the date of my
25 sentencing I am arrested in any jurisdiction for a violation of law
26 OR if I have misrepresented my prior criminal history. I understand

1 and agree that the occurrence of any of these acts constitutes a
2 material breach of my plea agreement with the State. I further
3 understand and agree that by the execution of this agreement, I am
4 waiving any right I may have to remand this matter to Justice Court
5 should I later withdraw my plea.

6 11. I understand and agree that pursuant to the terms of 7 the plea agreement stated herein, any counts which are to be
8 dismissed and any other cases charged or uncharged which are either
9 to be dismissed or not pursued by the State, may be considered by the 10 court at the time of my sentencing.

11 12. I understand that the Court is not bound by the 12 agreement of the parties and that the matter of sentencing is to be 13 determined solely by the Court. I have discussed the charge, the 14 facts and the possible defenses with my attorney. All of the 15 foregoing rights, waiver of rights, elements, possible penalties, and 16 consequences, have been carefully explained to me by my attorney. My 17 attorney has not promised me anything not mentioned in this plea
18 memorandum, and, in particular, my attorney has not promised that I
19 will get any specific sentence. I am satisfied with my counsel's
20 advice and representation leading to this resolution of my case. I
21 am aware that if I am not satisfied with my counsel I should advise
22 the Court at this time. I believe that entering my plea is in my 23 best interest and that going to trial is not in my best interest. My 24 attorney has advised me that if I wish to appeal, any appeal, if 25 applicable to my case, must be filed within thirty days of my
26 sentence and/or judgment.

1           13. I understand that this plea and resulting conviction
2 will likely have adverse effects upon my residency in this country if
3 I am not a U. S. Citizen. I have discussed the effects my plea will
4 have upon my residency with my counsel.

5           14. I offer my plea freely, voluntarily, knowingly and
6 with full understanding of all matters set forth in the Information
7 and in this Plea Memorandum. I have read this plea memorandum
8 completely and I understand everything contained within it.

9           15. My plea of guilty is voluntary and is not the result
10 of any threats, coercion or promises of leniency.

11           16. I am signing this Plea Memorandum voluntarily with 12 advice of counsel, under no duress, coercion, or promises of 13 leniency.

14           17. I do hereby swear under penalty of perjury that all of 15 the assertions in this written plea agreement document are true.

2. I desire to enter a plea of guilty to the offense of, BURGLARY OF A BUSINESS, a violation of NRS 205.060, a category C Felony, as more fully alleged in the charge filed against me.

3. By entering my plea of guilty I know and understand that I am waiving the following constitutional rights:

A. I waive my privilege against self-incrimination.

B. I waive my right to trial by jury, at which trial the State would have to prove my guilt of all elements of the offense(s)

1 beyond a reasonable doubt.

2 C. I waive my right to confront my accusers, that is, the 3 right to confront and cross examine all witnesses who would testify
4 at trial.

5 D. I waive my right to subpoena witnesses for trial on my 6 behalf.

7 4. I understand the charge against me and that the 8 elements of the offense which the State would have to prove beyond a
9 reasonable doubt at trial are that on July 1st, 2021, or thereabout, 10 in the County of Washoe, State of Nevada, I did, willfully and 11 unlawfully, by day or night, enter or remain, in any business
12 structure, Best Buy located at 5575 Virginia Street, Washoe County,
13 Nevada, with the intent then and there to commit a larceny therein.

14 5. I understand that I admit the facts which support all 15 the elements of the offense(s) by pleading guilty. I admit that the 16 State possesses sufficient evidence which would result in my 17 conviction. I have considered and discussed all possible defenses
18 and defense strategies with my counsel. I understand that I have the 19 right to appeal from adverse rulings on pretrial motions only if the 20 State and the Court consent to my right to appeal in a separate 21 written agreement. I understand that any substantive or procedural 22 pretrial issue(s) which could have been raised at trial are waived by 23 my plea.

24 6. I understand that the consequences of my plea of guilty
25 are that I may be imprisoned for a period of 1 to 5 years in the 26 Nevada State Department of Corrections. I am eligible for probation.

1 I may also be fined up to $10,000.00.

2 7. In exchange for my plea of guilty, the State, my
3 counsel and I have agreed to recommend the following: The parties
4 will be free to argue for an appropriate sentence, including 5 concurrent or consecutive time with any other case. The State will 6 not pursue any other criminal charges arising out of this transaction
7 or occurrence.

8 8. I understand that, even though the State and I have
9 reached this plea agreement, the State is reserving the right to 10 present arguments, facts, and/or witnesses at sentencing in support
11 of the plea agreement.

12 9. I also agree that I will make full restitution in this
13 matter, as determined by the Court. Where applicable, I additionally 14 understand and agree that I will be responsible for the repayment of 15 any costs incurred by the State or County in securing my return to 16 this jurisdiction.

17 10. I understand that the State, at their discretion, is 18 entitled to either withdraw from this agreement and proceed with the 19 prosecution of the original charges or be free to argue for an
20 appropriate sentence at the time of sentencing if I fail to appear at 21 any scheduled proceeding in this matter OR if prior to the date of my
22 sentencing I am arrested in any jurisdiction for a violation of law
23 OR if I have misrepresented my prior criminal history. I understand
24 and agree that the occurrence of any of these acts constitutes a

26 understand and agree that by the execution of this agreement, I am

1     waiving any right I may have to remand this matter to Justice Court
2     should I later withdraw my plea.

3             11. I understand and agree that pursuant to the terms of 4     the plea agreement stated herein, any counts which are to be
5     dismissed and any other cases charged or uncharged which are either
6     to be dismissed or not pursued by the State, may be considered by the

12    foregoing rights, waiver of rights, elements, possible penalties, and

14    attorney has not promised me anything not mentioned in this plea
15    memorandum, and, in particular, my attorney has not promised that I
16    will get any specific sentence. I am satisfied with my counsel's
17    advice and representation leading to this resolution of my case. I
18    am aware that if I am not satisfied with my counsel I should advise
19    the Court at this time. I believe that entering my plea is in my 20    best interest and that going to trial is not in my best interest. My 21    attorney has advised me that if I wish to appeal, any appeal, if 22    applicable to my case, must be filed within thirty days of my
23    sentence and/or judgment.

24            13. I understand that this plea and resulting conviction
25    will likely have adverse effects upon my residency in this country if 26    I am not a U. S. Citizen. I have discussed the effects my plea will

1 have upon my residency with my counsel.

2 14. I offer my plea freely, voluntarily, knowingly and
3 with full understanding of all matters set forth in the Information
4 and in this Plea Memorandum. I have read this plea memorandum
5 completely and I understand everything contained within it.

6 15. My plea of guilty is voluntary and is not the result
7 of any threats, coercion or promises of leniency.

8 16. I am signing this Plea Memorandum voluntarily with 9 advice of counsel, under no duress, coercion, or promises of 10 leniency.

11 17. I do hereby swear under penalty of perjury that all of 12 the assertions in this written plea agreement document are true.

22 Case No. CR21-1433, State versus Joshua Alexander
23 Duran, and Case No. CR21-2210. Let's go with our appearances on 24 this one.

25 MR. HEIDRICH: Thank you, Your Honor. Hunter Heidrich

1 for the State. I'm in Washoe County. I have received all of the 2 relevant notices, and I have no objection to proceeding in this 3 manner.

4 MS. GARCIA: Jenna Garcia appearing on behalf of Joshua
5 Duran. I am also in receipt of all relevant notices. I have no
6 objection to proceeding. I am located in Washoe County, Nevada.
7 I have had a chance to talk to my client, Judge. We are prepared
8 to proceed with the arraignment. And before you begin, I did
9 want to note that I would like to address custody status
10 following the entry of pleas.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. PEREZ: Carlos Perez for the division.

13 THE COURT: Thank you. Good morning, Mr. Duran.

14 THE DEFENDANT: Good morning, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And Mr. Heidrich, it does appear in Case
16 No. CR21-1433, the charge of battery resulting in substantial
17 bodily harm, that there is an alleged victim, and Article 1,
18 Section 8A impacts this case, as well as in Case No. CR21-2210, 19 burglary of a business, that there is an alleged victim, and that 20 Article 1, Section 8A of the Nevada Constitution impacts this 21 case. Would you please provide an offer of proof and notice of 22 rights given in each case.

23 MR. HEIDRICH: Yes, Your Honor. Regarding CR21-1433, 24 the battery resulting in substantial bodily harm, the victim in 25 this case as been notified. They did opt in for information

1 regarding hearings. They were provided notice of today's court
2 date, and they are not present. And regarding CR21-2210, the 3 burglary of a business, the victim was the Best Buy on South
4 Virginia. We did send them the Marsy's Law notice. They did not 5 opt in.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. How will we be 7 proceeding in both of these matters, Miss Garcia?

8 MS. GARCIA: Your Honor, in Case No. CR21-2210, my 9 client's name is correctly spelled at line 12. We are familiar
10 with the contents and we are going to waive a formal reading, and 11 Mr. Duran is going to be pleading to the sole count burglary of a 12 business. In exchange for that plea, the parties are going to be 13 free to argue for an appropriate sentence.

14 In Case No. CR21-1433, my client's name is also 15 correctly spelled at line 12. We are familiar with its contents,
16 we would waive a formal reading, and he's going to be entering a
17 plea to the sole count, battery resulting in substantial bodily
18 harm, a Category C felony. Again the parties are free to argue,
19 and it is a free to argue between whether the cases will run
20 concurrent or consecutive.

21 MR. HEIDRICH: That is a correct statement, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Thank you.

23 Please swear the defendant.

24 (Defendant sworn.)

25 THE COURT: Mr. Duran, did you hear the negotiations in

1 each of the cases --

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I did, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: -- that were stated by your counsel?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Did you agree with them?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I did, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: What language do you read, write, and 8 understand the best?

9 THE DEFENDANT: English.

10 THE COURT: How old are you?

11 THE DEFENDANT: 29.

12 THE COURT: How far did you get in school?

13 THE DEFENDANT: I got a GED through the army.

14 THE COURT: So with that background, is it fair to say
15 that the guilty plea memorandum in each of these cases was easy
16 for you to read?

17 THE DEFENDANT: It was relatively easy, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And you had the opportunity to 19 discuss them fully with your counsel; is that right?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, at length, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: And all of your questions were answered; is 22 that correct?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, they were, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. And so are there a copy of 25 those guilty plea memorandums there in front of you?

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

2 THE COURT: So you should have two. So make sure that 3 one of them has Case No. CR21-1433 and then it has your name on 4 it.

5 THE DEFENDANT: Okay, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: And if you completely understand all of the 7 terms and conditions and you agree with all of them, you may sign
8 it if you wish.

9 Thank you, deputy.

10 Mr. Duran has executed the guilty plea memorandum in 11 CR21-1433.

12 So now you should have a second one that has Case No.
13 CR 21-2210, and it also has your name on it at line 12. And if 14 you completely agree with that and all of its terms and 15 conditions, you may sign it if you wish.

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Thank you, deputy. Mr. Duran has also 18 executed the guilty plea memorandum in CR21-2210.

19 I'm going to ask you a series of questions regarding 20 your constitutional rights, Mr. Duran. They apply in both cases.
21 Do you understand?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: We will parse it out as to an individual
24 case if I need to.

25 Do you understand that by pleading guilty you are

1 giving up important constitutional rights?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Do you understand you are waiving your 4 right to a jury trial to be conducted within 60 days of today or 5 as can be under current administrative orders?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Do you understand that you are waiving your 8 right to require the State to prove the charges against you
9 beyond a reasonable doubt?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Do you further understand that you are 12 waiving your right against self-incrimination?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: And that by admitting these charges do you
15 understand you are in fact incriminating yourself?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Do you understand you are giving up your 18 right to cross-examine all of the State's witnesses?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Do you further understand that you are 21 giving up your right to subpoena witnesses in and compel their 22 attendance in court at the time of trial?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Heidrich, would you please advise Mr.
25 Duran what the State would be prepared to prove beyond a

1 reasonable doubt if the case were to proceed to trial. And I'd 2 ask you to start with CR21-1433.

3 MR. HEIDRICH: Yes, Your Honor. Had this matter gone
4 to trial the State would have been prepared to prove to a fair
5 and impartial jury that Mr. Duran committed the crime of battery
6 resulting in substantial bodily harm, a violation of NRS 200.481,
7 that on or about April 30, within the county of Washoe, state of 8 Nevada, Mr. Duran did willfully and unlawfully use force or 9 violence upon the person of Dennis Owen at 200 Mill Street, Reno, 10 Nevada, such force or violence causing substantial bodily harm to 11 Mr. Owen.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 Mr. Duran, do you understand the elements the State was 14 prepared to prove against you should this matter go to trial?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Did you commit the crime with the intent as
17 described in the charges stated by the deputy district attorney?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I did, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Heidrich, would you please apprise Mr.
20 Duran what the State would be prepared to prove beyond a
21 reasonable doubt in Case No. CR21-2210.

22 MR. HEIDRICH: Yes, Your Honor. Had this matter gone
23 to trial, the State would have been prepared to prove beyond a
24 reasonable doubt to a fair and impartial jury that Mr. Duran did
25 commit the crime of burglary of a business, a violation of NRS

1 205.060, that on or about July 1, 2021, Mr. Duran did willfully
2 and unlawfully, by day or night, enter or remain in the Best Buy
3 located at 5575 South Virginia, a business in Washoe County,
4 Nevada, with the intent there and then to commit a larceny
5 therein.

6 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Heidrich.

7 Do you understand the elements the State was prepared
8 to prove against you should Case No. CR21-2210 go to trial?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Did you commit the crime with the intent as
11 described in the charges stated by the deputy district attorney?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I did, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Do you understand that in the battery
14 resulting in substantial bodily harm case that the maximum 15 penalty for the crime to which you are pleading guilty is that 16 you may be imprisoned for a period of one to five years in the 17 Nevada Department of Corrections; you are eligible for probation;
18 you may also be fined up to $10,000?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I understand that, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: And with regard to Case No. CR21-2210,
21 which is burglary of a business, that the maximum penalty is you
22 may be imprisoned for a period of one to five years in the Nevada
23 Department of Corrections; you are eligible for probation; you
24 may also be fined up to $10,000?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I understand that, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. And do you also understand that 2 those sentences can be imposed either to run concurrent or 3 consecutive?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I understand.

5 THE COURT: What does concurrent mean to you?

6 THE DEFENDANT: We usually called it bowlegged in jail,
7 but it's ran -- well, no. Concurrent is together, right?

8 THE COURT: At the same time. So I don't think it's 9 bowlegged.

10 THE DEFENDANT: Bowlegged is consecutive.

11 THE COURT: Right. So in other words, concurrent is 12 that they run at the same time. If you were sentenced to serve
13 both sentences on a Monday, or for one day, you would serve them
14 both on Monday. Do you understand?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Is that a yes?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And you understand that in the future,
19 though, if someone was looking at your criminal history, it would 20 show two different incarcerations, although physically it was 21 one. Do you understand that?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Okay, yeah, I understand that now, Your 23 Honor.

24 THE COURT: And so what does consecutive mean to you?

25 THE DEFENDANT: That my time won't be together, so for

1 every day that I do, I'm only doing it on that one number, and 2 then when I'm finished with that I'll have to do the other
3 sentence.

4 THE COURT: Exactly. So you understand I'm not bound
5 by any arguments that are made at the time of sentencing by 6 counsel, but the Court alone will determine your sentence.

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I understand that the Court alone.

8 THE COURT: Do you also understand that may result in 9 your incarceration for consecutive sentences?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: With all of those rights in mind that you
12 have waived and all the information I have provided to you, do
13 you still wish to plead guilty?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Have you had sufficient time to talk about 16 both of these cases in their entirety with your attorney?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Are you satisfied with the representation
19 provided to you by your attorney throughout this entire 20 proceeding, including today?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I am, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Has anyone promised you anything or 23 threatened you in any way to get you to plead guilty?

24 THE DEFENDANT: No, they have not, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty freely and

1 voluntarily?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I am, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Are you under the influence of any alcohol
4 or drugs or do you have any condition or circumstance that might 5 preclude you from fully understanding me today?

6 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Do you have any questions for me about
8 either of these proceedings, Mr. Duran?

9 THE DEFENDANT: No, not at this time, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: What is your plea in Case No. CR21-1433 to 11 the charge of battery resulting in substantial bodily harm?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

13 THE COURT: And what is your plea in Case No. CR21-2210
14 to the charge of burglary of a business?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: The Court finds on each of these matters
17 Mr. Duran understands the nature of the offense charges, the 18 consequences of his pleas, that he's made knowing, voluntary, and 19 intelligent waivers of his constitutional rights. The Court will 20 accept his guilty pleas, and we will set a date for sentencing in 21 a moment.

22 You should get some paperwork up there, and the 23 division of parole and probation is going to prepare a report.
24 The deputy will give you paperwork that you are able to 25 contribute to that report, and then someone from the division

1 will come and meet with you. Now, that may change based on the 2 custody status arguments. So before we set a date, and we give 3 you any more information with regard to the PSI, I'd like to hear
4 from you, Miss Garcia.

5 MS. GARCIA: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 MR. HEIDRICH: I apologize. Before we begin, the State
7 would object to hearing the custody matter at this time. Under 8 the statewide rules of criminal procedure, the State has not
9 received notice. And as Mr. Duran has had his individualized
10 bail hearing, unless we agree to a bail hearing at this time, any 11 motions to change his custody status must be made in writing.
12 Further, we have not provided notice to the victim of the custody
13 hearing. So we would object to the matter proceeding today and 14 in this manner.

15 THE COURT: That was the first question I was going to 16 ask Miss Garcia.

17 MS. GARCIA: If the victim has been provided notice of 18 an arraignment, that is notice of a hearing. So I would strongly
19 say that that's not true. Second of all, I understand 20 Mr. Heidrich's argument. It's the argument the D.A.s make in 21 other departments. It's never been made here.

22 THE COURT: Yes, it has.

23 MS. GARCIA: I have never made it, and I have never had 24 it made against me. So I thought we were going to be able to 25 proceed to making an argument on OR to inpatient.

1 THE COURT: What I would like you to do, it has been
2 made here, and what we have done is gone forward where there's 3 been an agreement between the district attorney to address it
4 with the P.D. That's where it's been made.

5 Here's what I will do, though, is I will direct IAP to 6 work with Mr. Duran in the interim. And you may choose to make a 7 motion, but they can start a process of trying to secure an 8 inpatient program.

9 MS. GARCIA: So that's actually happened, and that's 10 why I was going to bring this up, because he's already done the 11 application for New Frontiers. And so that was the, I have been 12 in contact with New Frontiers. They are waiting for an 13 evaluation to come back.

14 THE COURT: So you can feel free to file a quick motion
15 when you have your evaluation, and we can hear it on an expedited
16 basis. Okay?

17 MS. GARCIA: That's fine, Your Honor. I'll do that.

18 THE COURT: Thank you. So our sentencing date?

19 THE CLERK: Sentencing date will be October 7 at 9:00
20 a.m.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, I just wanted to say I
23 never had received a bail hearing on my burglary of a business.

24 MS. GARCIA: That's true. But Mr. Duran, that wasn't
25 the argument the D.A. was making, so I'm going to be filing a

1 motion. Okay?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

3 THE COURT: And we will put this on calendar as soon as 4 you have an opportunity to file that, and they can oppose, and we
5 will go from there. So if it's before that sentencing date, I'm 6 happy to hear it.

5 THE COURT: All right. And as we move
6 through the calendar, I may ask in a bit for you to clear
7 some other members of the -- persons there, the 13 all of my comments thus far in each transcript for each

14 hearing today.

15 THE COURT: Case Number CR21-1433 and 16 21-2210: The State versus Joshua Alexander Duran. This 17 is the time set for a motion for O.R. release to 18 inpatient treatment in both of these matters.

19 MS. HIGHTOWER: Good morning, Your Honor.
20 Zadora Hightower, appearing on behalf of the State.

21 MS. GARCIA: Jenna Garcia, appearing for 22 Joshua Duran, located in Washoe County, Nevada. I'm in 23 receipt of all relevant notices and I have no objection
24 to proceeding in this manner.

1                   SPECIALIST WILSON: Thomas Wilson for the 2 Division, Your Honor.

3                   THE COURT: And good morning, Mr. Duran.

4                   THE DEFENDANT: Good morning, Your Honor.
5 How are you?

6                   THE COURT: I'm well. Thank you for your 7 patience in all of the movement today. We had a lot of 8 logistics we needed to address.

9                   All right. So before the Court is the motion
10 for O.R. release that was filed on September 2nd, 2021.
11 The request is transfer via the Inmate Assistance Program
12 to inpatient treatment.

13                  I did review the filing, and I understand,
14 Ms. Garcia, that you have no objection to the State
15 making its argument on the record. Correct?

16                  MS. GARCIA: Your Honor, that is correct. I
17 wanted to get this on calendar sooner, and so I
18 absolutely have no objection to them making their 19 opposition orally.

20                  THE COURT: And just to confirm, previously,
21 Mr. Duran was given, in each matter, a Valdez-Jimenez
22 hearing; correct?

23                  MS. GARCIA: He was not granted a
24 Valdez-Jimenez hearing on the second matter, the

1 burglary, because he had the hold on the first matter.

2 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So what I want
3 you to do is be free to address any factors that I would
4 address where someone has had a Valdez-Jimenez hearing
5 and then one who hasn't. What's important for this Court
6 is the complete picture today, and so you may proceed.

7 MS. GARCIA: So, Your Honor, I know that
8 you've reviewed my motion, so I don't want to be 9 duplicative. So there's a couple of things, though, I
10 want to emphasize or add to that were not in the motion.

11 So the first is in regards to what happened
12 with the second case and whatnot because I think that's 13 really important. That's why I wanted it to be traileed.
14 I didn't want to put my client in any jeopardy at the 15 jail.

16 So Mr. Duran, after picking up that first
17 case, an agreement was reached between the Deputy 18 District Attorney, Ms. Morton and I, to release him
19 because a detective wanted him to assist him with some 20 work.

21 Now, one thing that I'm actually sharing with 22 the mental health court program is I'm asking them to 23 take him, and that application is in the works right now;
24 is that if I had seen the evaluation or had the

1 evaluation that I filed with you, my response and
2 discussion with my client would have been different, I
3 think, in regards to him doing that work. I think it was 4 incredibly inadvisable given now what I know now, but I
5 didn't know it at the time, and he did want to be 6 released to do work, so he was.

7 What happened is, Judge, is that the work
8 he's doing is he basically had connections -- and he can 9 correct me if I get any of these specifics wrong, but I
10 think he said -- was it a fence? Is that the term? What 11 was the term?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Booster.

13 MS. GARCIA: So essentially, his connections
14 were what the detectives wanted to utilize were that drug 15 dealers ask him to steal them things, and he then 16 provides those items to the drug dealers. That is what 17 his role was previously that the detective wanted to 18 utilize in order to gain information on people dealing 19 drugs in the community.

20 So unfortunately, what happened is what
21 sometimes happens when people are working, is Mr. Duran
22 was not able to stay clean because he was back in the 23 drug world. He was asked to boost some items from a drug 24 dealer. He did make contact with the detective, but then

1 he kind of made the determination he was going to go
2 forward and attempt to do this in order to gain trust.
3 It wasn't advisable, but I don't think he was thinking
4 very clearly. That's how he picked up the new charges.

5 So that's where we're at is it doesn't exist
6 in a vacuum. There were reasons. Was it advisable? No.
7 Was it the smart thing to do? No. Was it the way to go
8 about it? No. He wasn't just out there trying to commit
9 crimes. He was trying to work with this detective, and 10 it just didn't go as we wanted it to go.

11 So the other thing I want to talk about then,
12 Judge, is I actually went back through his criminal
13 history really thoroughly when prepping my mental health
14 court application. And I did want to point out to the 15 Court because I think this is important that the first 16 charge that he's pled to is battery with causing 17 substantial.

18 I really want to emphasize to the Court I
19 looked at his whole criminal history. He does not have 20 any other violent convictions. I saw a theft of a 21 vehicle that was a felony in 2011, and I saw the burg in 22 2014. Everything else I saw was petty misdemeanor and 23 drug and some trespassing. I think maybe there was one 24 resisting a public officer, so this is not a history for

1 Mr. Duran of being violent.

2 I think the circumstances that I described in 3 my motion of what happened with the City of Reno workers,
4 I think that -- and this is my personal take, Judge, is 5 that Mr. Duran has Bipolar I disorder, as he was 6 diagnosed, and it has aspects of paranoia.

7 I'm not saying that I don't believe what he 8 says happened, but I think it was a combination of he 9 felt threatened. He felt that they were following him,
10 and they were following him. The degree to which they 11 were following him -- I know he thinks they tried to run
12 him over. And I'm not saying that happened or didn't 13 happen. I wasn't there. But he felt very threatened,
14 and he threw the rock.

15 I don't think that if properly treated for 16 his amphetamine disorder as well as his cooccurring for 17 the bipolar, I don't think that he would present that 18 kind of community risk, and that's why I want him to be 19 in mental health court because Mr. Duran has expressed to 20 me that he really wants to get help.

21 And I do think looking at his history, while 22 again, as I pointed out, he does have prior felonies, he 23 has no violence. I think that his mental health issues
24 are maybe getting a little bit worse. And so I think

1 this is the moment to attack them and get them under
2 control so he doesn't end up with these more serious
3 crimes. And I think he feels the same way. I think he 4 really desperately wants to get back on the right track,
5 and so my plan and goal -- because I think it matters to 6 this motion -- is that he be hopefully taken into mental 7 health court, and so I'm preparing a very thorough
8 application.

9 And in the meantime, I would like him to get
10 a chance to start some treatment at New Frontiers. And I
11 also want to put on the record and let him know that 12 because I think this is also important.

13 In my staffing for misdemeanor court on 14 Monday, I was informed that New Frontiers right now is on 15 a lockdown because of COVID. So I am not saying that -- 16 I want him to know I don't know when he could go. But 17 essentially, I just want to get his application and the 18 ball rolling such that if this Court was going to grant
19 him mental health court, he would be in a position to 20 hopefully get into that placement because wait times are 21 long, and it's not only New Frontiers, it's also 22 Vitality. Two programs are in full lockdown because of 23 COVID. And so people are going to be sitting waiting for 24 beds.

1                   And that's the reason why I am making this
2                   application now with the hopes that we can perhaps start 3                   the ball on him getting into some treatment because he 4                   really needs the stability if he's going to succeed. And 5                   so that's the basis, Judge. Thank you.

6                   THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

7                   Ms. Hightower?

8                   MS. HIGHTOWER: Thank you, Your Honor. The 9                   State is going to oppose that request. In looking at 10                  sort of what got us here, the defendant was arrested on 11                  the original case, and the underlying facts are 12                  concerning. They're extremely violent. Somebody stepped 13                  in to try and intervene on a situation. He throws rocks 14                  at them, breaks windows.

15                  One of the victims required stitches as a 16                  result of being hit with those rocks. The defendant is 17                  threatening individuals with knives. So the prosecutor 18                  in the case -- against her better judgment -- agreed to 19                  release him to work with this detective, and he promptly 20                  picks up more charges, and they're also violent. He's 21                  again throwing rocks at individuals and causing a 22                  disturbance to the community as well as a hazard to 23                  people who are just at work trying to mind their own 24                  business. And for --

1 MS. GARCIA: Your Honor, I'm so sorry to -- I
2 just want to make sure we're talking about the same thing
3 because his new charge was burglary of a business. I
4 just want to make sure we're all on the same page. Sorry
5 to interrupt. It was not throwing rocks or anything
6 violent.

7 MS. HIGHTOWER: Those were not the charges,
8 but that was also a part of it.

9 MS. GARCIA: It was Best Buy. He was inside
10 Best Buy. He grabbed some items and ran and then was 11 tackled from behind by an employee.

12 MS. HIGHTOWER: It was my understanding he 13 also threw rocks after leaving.

14 MS. GARCIA: Okay.

15 THE COURT: Go ahead.

16 MS. HIGHTOWER: I would also note in having 17 individuals work with detectives, they always make it
18 very clear that they are to comply with Pretrial
19 Services, that they are not to engage in illegal activity
20 while they are out doing work.

21 There is no -- in my experience in working 22 with detectives, there's no question that they're not 23 supposed to go out and commit new offenses while they're 24 out of custody performing work with police officers.

1 I would also note that he has a failure to
2 appear arrest out of Reno Municipal Court from March of 3 this year and prior burglary conviction from 2014 and a
4 number of other ones. And so the defendant was out of 5 custody, picked up new charges. There's violence in both 6 cases. And so the State is free to argue for prison in 7 these cases and does oppose release and would request
8 that his bail remain as set on both cases.

9 THE COURT: All right. And presently,
10 there's the currently set for sentencing on October 7th.
11 Correct?

12 MS. GARCIA: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. The Court has 14 reviewed all of the entire matter, and thank you for 15 agreeing to respond orally. And I've weighed everything
16 here. And I agree with Ms. Garcia that if there's an 17 opportunity for intervention, this is the time.

18 And I recognize and I want to make sure you
19 understand, Mr. Duran, that the Court is going to grant
20 your release on your own recognizance with Pretrial
21 Services' supervision only with direct transport to New 22 Frontiers or a functional equivalent. That may not 23 happen, frankly, with everything that's going on with 24 COVID. But if the opportunity is there for you to

1 commence some sort of treatment, and I don't know if you
2 are -- I mean, I haven't looked at everything at all
3 regarding the mental health court. I don't know whether 4 I would be inclined to allow you that opportunity or not.
5 But it just seems to me based on all of the circumstances
6 that there is a significant mental health component here
7 and that if you can commence to address that, given the 8 unknowns.

9           You may just remain in jail until that time,
10 but if there is an opportunity, I am going to give it to 11 you. But here's the thing. You can't walk away from the 12 program because I'm going to look at all of this when you
13 come to sentencing. So there's a lot weighing on this.

14           And usually, the specialty courts like to be 15 in the position of sending you to inpatient or not, but 16 based on everything I read last night, I think that a 17 jump start for you would actually help you in your 18 performance if you are granted mental health court. That 19 is no guarantee because as you just heard, the prosecutor
20 is going to ask for prison time. So this is an 21 opportunity -- excuse the vernacular -- but to sort of 22 put your money where your mouth is.

23           THE DEFENDANT: Exactly.

24           THE COURT: And so that will be the order of

1 the Court on both of these matters.

2 And, Ms. Garcia, will you agree that this
3 complies with Valdez-Jimenez or do you want me to go
4 through exact factors?

5 MS. GARCIA: No, Your Honor. I waive any
6 issues with that. I agree and I just want to make sure
7 I'm clear on something and that Mr. Duran is. Because 8 you ordered functional equivalent, it sounds to me like 9 it would be prudent of him to fill out additional 10 applications.

11 THE DEFENDANT: Make sure I'm qualified?

12 MS. GARCIA: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Yes. Well, and the reason is, is 14 that sometimes we -- just from my experience, we used to 15 do really specific orders into one particular program,
16 and then there would be something that it didn't work and 17 then it would cause your counsel to have to come back and 18 ask for another program.

19 And so it's just me being proactive in my 20 order that if let's say New Frontiers, if that's the best
21 for you and it's in lockdown, then what we want to do is 22 try to still have you have an opportunity to get a jump
23 start on some treatment. And frankly, either way. If 24 you go to mental health court or you to go to prison, I

1 think this is really important for you at this moment in 2 your life. So that's the order of the Court.

3 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you very much. You
4 have been very thorough, Your Honor, and I appreciate it.
5 I know it takes a lot of time and everything, but I just 6 want to let you now personally I appreciate it.

7 THE COURT: All right. Do those
8 applications. We'll be in recess.

15    today?   Okay.

16                               * * * * *

17
18            THE COURT:   Case No. CR21-1433, State versus 19    Joshua Alexander Duran.   This is the time set for 20    sentencing.

21            MS. HIGHTOWER:   Good morning, your Honor.   Zahara
22    Hightower appearing on behalf of the State.

23            MS. GARCIA:   Jenna Garcia appearing on behalf of 24    Joshua Duran.   I am located in Washoe County, Nevada.   I

1 am receipt of all relevant notices, and I have no
2 objection to proceeding in this manner.

3 I have had adequate time to speak to Mr. Duran,
4 although I did not get a chance to tell him, because I
5 don't know if the court saw, but the Mental Health Court
6 has filed their letter not accepting him and they did it
7 yesterday so --

8 THE COURT: Yes, I saw it.

9 MS. GARCIA: -- that was the one thing I didn't 10 get to tell him. But otherwise we've talked, we were 11 prepared for this, and we're ready to go forward.

12 THE COURT: All right. Officer Perez?

13 MR. PEREZ: Carlos Perez for the Division.

14 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Duran.

15 THE DEFENDANT: Good morning, your Honor. How are 16 you?

17 THE COURT: I'm okay.

18 I know that you've been sitting for quite a while,
19 but this is a courtroom and so I don't want to have you
20 doing massive stretching during our proceeding. Okay?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am. Sorry about that.

22 THE COURT: So -- I understand. It's sometimes
23 people forget that we're still conducting a formal event.
24 Like right now it's going to be difficult because I have

1 a lawnmower outside.

2 Okay. So I have had an opportunity to review the
3 September 15, 2021, Presentence Investigation Report
4 filed on September 23rd, 2021. It reflects a credit for 5 time served of 151 days. May I hear from the Division
6 regarding any changes, corrections or additions?

7 MR. PEREZ: Thank you, your Honor.

8 We have no corrections, and the 151 days is 9 accurate.

10 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Garcia, did you have 11 an opportunity to review the PSI with Mr. Duran, and do
12 you have any changes, corrections or additions?

13 MS. GARCIA: Your Honor, Mr. Duran and I did
14 discuss -- when I spoke to him, he said he hadn't 15 received them, but I found out my office had sent them on 16 9/23. I had them send them again, though.

17 Mr. Duran, did you receive that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: No, I did not.

19 MS. GARCIA: Are you comfortable moving forward
20 given what we discussed?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I am.

22 MS. GARCIA: We're ready to move forward, your 23 Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. So you're waiving any

1 challenge that will be based on the fact that you haven't
2 seen it entirely; is that right?

3 MS. GARCIA: Yes, your Honor, he's waiving that.
4 We talked about the PSI. He just apparently didn't have
5 it in front of him, and I guess it didn't get to him
6 again yet.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Duran, is that correct, you still 8 want to go forward?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. I believe you're pretty 10 thorough with everything, your Honor, so I'm not -- I'm 11 not concerned that something would slip past you if it
12 was a big thing.

13 THE COURT: Okay. And Ms. Garcia, do you
14 stipulate to the 151 days?

15 MS. GARCIA: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Then I did -- I saw the Mental 17 Health Court rejection notice, but I did thoroughly read
18 the Mental Health Court evaluation again in preparation
19 for this this morning and the information that -- how it
20 enhances the Presentence Investigation Report.

21 Were there any other documents that you wished to 22 have before the court?

23 MS. GARCIA: No, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: You may proceed.

1 MS. GARCIA: Thank you, your Honor.

2 I know it's not this court's problem, but I was 3 really disappointed that Mr. Duran was not accepted into 4 Mental Health Court because that was an application that
5 I actually spent a lot of time on. I even sent them a
6 letter because I really felt that was a really good and 7 appropriate place for him.

8 A lot of these arguments, your Honor, I know I
9 made at the bail hearing and I want to try to not repeat
10 myself too much but also make my record.

11 So what I'll let the court know is that since
12 Mental Health Court has determined they will not accept 13 him due to criminal history, I'm going to go ahead and 14 make my argument instead that he be placed into -- on 15 probation with the condition of Drug Court on both of 16 these cases with underlying sentences.

17 Your Honor, as I described before with Mr. Duran,
18 looking carefully at his criminal history there's no
19 doubt he has a criminal history; however, a lot of that 20 history, if not all of it, appears to be theft-type
21 crimes. I do see a burglary, a possession of a stolen
22 motor vehicle, a resisting, another burglary, possession
23 of a controlled substance, so really use and possession
24 of drug paraphernalia, trespassing, resisting. So up

1     until these cases, Mr. Duran's criminal history was one
2     consistent with someone who is struggling with drug use,
3     but not consistent with any sort of violence.

4             So obviously that really led me to look at and 5     wonder what was happening in this particular case, the 6     first case that's in front of you, to lead him to throw
7     that rock, because it's really not what his history
8     implies. We got that mental health evaluation. The 9     recommendations made a lot of sense to me that Mr. Duran
10    has Bipolar I, as well as some PTSD, and sometimes that 11    manifests itself for him in paranoia. So I think that 12    really explains and describes for the court what happened
13    in that initial case with the City of Reno workers.

14            They felt they had witnessed something between him
15    and his girlfriend, and they wanted to follow him. And 16    so they did, and they followed him far. He had tried to 17    yell at them, to waive them off. They followed him.
18    They waited for him outside a building.

19            Mr. Duran has expressed to me that he felt they 20    drove up on the sidewalk at him. Obviously, I don't know
21    if that happened or not, but what I do know is that he 22    threw that rock not to be violent but, frankly, because 23    he was angry, scared, and wanted them to leave him alone.
24    The rock broke the window and it ended up hitting one of

1 the workers. That's what resulted in the charge that 2 he's here in front of you on.

3 So getting his mental health under control, along
4 with getting the substance abuse under control,
5 co-occurring, I think is what's going to be the key for 6 him to change things around. I think the PSI and the 7 evaluation really show you that he has had a lot of 8 struggles and a lot of challenges his entire life.

9 Starting from childhood, he's never -- he's made
10 attempts. He entered the Army but he's never really been 11 able to get a firm, strong grasp, and that appears that 12 mental health is now becoming a bigger issue. I don't 13 want to see him go down that path. As I spoke to you at 14 the bail hearing, I think this is the time for 15 intervention for him.

16 He is still waiting for that bed, and I think that 17 bed so -- going into the inpatient bed, as the court has 18 ordered, if that's going to work out. I know he 19 expressed to me he wasn't accept at Bristlecone, so
20 certainly that would be something probably the specialty
21 court needs to relook at, is where he might be able to 22 go. But, as of now, he's got that order to go to 23 inpatient and --

24 THE DEFENDANT: I got denied to all three of them.

1 I just found out that New Frontier denied me because my
2 Medicaid lapsed. My Nevada Medicaid lapsed so I no
3 longer have medical insurance so they won't take me.

4 MS. GARCIA: All right. So probably asking that 5 the order be revised to include some sort of residential
6 program is probably going to be something appropriate,
7 maybe not for this court, maybe for Drug Court to handle.
8 But, at any rate, getting him back on the correct path so
9 that these types of things don't happen again.

10 Moving to the second case, Judge, I think I
11 described at the bail hearing -- I see there's someone
12 else in the courtroom so I don't want to go into it too
13 much. I think the court knows the circumstance of his 14 release, and then what led him to the point where he was 15 in that Best Buy where he shoplifted, he was tackled, 16 there was a physical altercation that ensued, and 17 ultimately he's pleading to that burglary of a business.

18 So he's got these two cases, he's really on a
19 precipice here and so he's really -- frankly, Judge, he's 20 been pretty patient. He's been working with me. He was 21 really open and honest with the evaluator. I think he 22 really does want help. Frankly, I'm kind of hopeful that 23 if he was to go into Drug Court and then showed and 24 performed appropriately that they may ultimately put him

1 in Mental Health Court. As you know, that happens
2 sometimes within the specialty courts, people there are 3 concerned about if they show that they are going to 4 participate, sometimes they'll put them where they need
5 to be, so that would kind of be my hope for Mr. Duran.

6 But that's our request today, your Honor, is an
7 opportunity for him in the specialty court programs, Drug
8 Court at this point, with the condition -- as a condition
9 of probation, and then underlying sentences on each case
10 as put forth.

11 Your Honor, you're on mute.

12 THE COURT: I did not call the CR21-2210 case, an 13 I should have.

14 The PSI was filed on the same date, and is dated 15 the same date, but it reflects credit for time served of 16 98 days.

17 Is that correct, from the Division?

18 MR. PEREZ: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: And does the defendant stipulate to 20 that?

21 MS. GARCIA: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay. And I, of course, because I
23 read the Mental Health Evaluation, I applied it to both 24 cases and read everything I considered.

1 Ms. Hightower?

2 MS. HIGHTOWER: Thank you, your Honor.

3 In looking at the facts of the two cases, how we 4 got here, and defendant's criminal history, I do not
5 believe that is he a good candidate for probation.

6 In looking at the facts on the first case, it was 7 a violent offense against individuals who were attempting 8 to be Good Samaritans and help out in what they perceived
9 to be a domestic situation. He approached them with a 10 knife, and they felt threatened that they got in their 11 vehicle, rolled up the car windows, locked the doors, and 12 drove away. And when attempting to give the information
13 of his location to RPD, he grabbed a rock and threw it at 14 the vehicle hard enough to shatter the window. It takes 15 a good bit of force to break a car window, and then have 16 the rock also strike the driver in the head. That's 17 concerning.

18 And then while he was out on release on that case,
19 he picked up new charges, quite frankly, showing that 20 he's not a good candidate for probation by that conduct
21 alone. When we had the incident at the Best Buy, he then 22 got into an altercation with the security officer when he 23 attempted to stop him. So it's continued behavior, and 24 when looking at his criminal history, he was dishonorably

1 discharged from parole on his burglary case in 2014, and
2 then on his attempted burglary conviction he was granted
3 probation, had his probation revoked. Was then paroled
4 and then had his parole revoked, and ended up expiring
5 his sentence.

6 His history does not show he's a good candidate
7 for probation. He did not show this court that he's a
8 good candidate, did not take the opportunity of his 9 release to show that he could comply, and so at this 10 point the State feels that prison is appropriate and 11 would recommend 18 to 60 months on the battery with 12 substantial bodily harm and 12 to 36 months on the 13 burglary, to run consecutive.

14 THE COURT: All right. The law gives you the 15 opportunity to speak to me, Mr. Duran, to tell me
16 anything I should consider before imposing sentence.
17 Would you like to address the court?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Absolutely, your Honor.

19 First, I wanted to address, because it came to my 20 mind, what stood out the most, the City of Reno workers
21 were never out of their vehicle. There was no time where 22 they were out of their the vehicle where I chased their 23 vehicle. They stop in the middle of the street, and 24 confronted me. When I came towards them, because I

1 didn't even hear what they said, they had rolled their
2 windows up, I didn't -- I didn't chase them into their 3 vehicle and like in a very threatening manner to where 4 they were running away. It's two of them, one of me.
5 But I wanted to make sure that was understood.

6 Then I didn't -- because the windows were up when
7 this rock hit the window, obviously -- I mean, I'm not a
8 baseball player, I'm not somebody who has got this super
9 great arm, and I was very scared and I had just -- you
10 know, I'd been coming down. I was -- of course, I'd been 11 on drugs, you know. I was coming down. I was exhausted.

12 The house that I ran into, the people could have 13 told you when I went in, some of my -- I wouldn't say
14 friends -- associates, would tell you that I was 15 breathing heavily. I was sweating. I was very scared
16 actually. And when I came back out and they were there,
17 yeah, I did throw a rock at them. But I can guarantee
18 you, I was more afraid for my life when they came after 19 me, after I'd been in the house for five minutes, than 20 they could even come close to when they stopped on the 21 street for me.

22 And it didn't make any sense that they didn't go
23 check on girlfriend but they chased after me. But they 24 were trying to be Good Samaritans and stop a domestic,

1 why didn't they help her? They didn't do anything to 2 help her. They just came after me in their vehicle and 3 tried to run me over twice.

4 I mean, I was -- I hate to admit that I'm scared
5 because I'm a man. I'm prideful. But at the same time,
6 yeah, I was scared, and that's why I acted in the way I
7 did.

8 I mean, as far as the probation thing goes and the 9 parole thing goes, yeah, I got an attempted burglary, I
10 was allowed out on parole and I committed a new burglary
11 with weapons enhancement. It was very -- it was a 12 serious thing. And I went and I spent five years in 13 prison for it, your Honor. I did 21 months in solitary
14 confinement. I never want to go back there again, I can 15 assure you of that. I spent almost three years out
16 without any incident like that.

17 And I did -- I didn't complete my parole on the 18 next case because I didn't make the payments. Not 19 because I failed any drug tests, not because I didn't 20 come in. I was paroled to Las Vegas and I met with my 21 parole officer every single time I was supposed to. I
22 came back up to Reno with my mom. I came and seen him
23 every time I was supposed to. I never failed a drug 24 test. I don't know if P & P has those records, but I'm

1 sure that they can tell you if they do have those records
2 that there was not one time that I failed.

3 Yeah, I got out for a couple of days and the thing
4 happened at Best Buy, but I truly -- I truly believed 5 that that was what was being asked of me to do, was to --
6 in order to accomplish what I needed to, so I attempted
7 it. It may have been foolish to think that I -- I don't 8 know. It was definitely foolish now that I look back on 9 it. Obviously I shouldn't have. I should have been more
10 patient, but I had just gotten a job, I wanted to put all
11 this stuff behind me, and I went and I -- I gambled on 12 something thinking that my gamble was going to pay off
13 and I wasn't going to get caught. And you know what? It
14 backfired on me.

15 I got tackled by security, through two doorways
16 and into a concrete pole. My head was all completely
17 busted open. I just -- really, your Honor, I just want
18 the opportunity -- I just don't want to do this no more.
19 I'm trying to get some help. Prison isn't going to help.
20 I've been there. I sat there. All you do is sit there.
21 I've done every program you can in there. I want some 22 real help. I don't want -- you know, I've got denied to 23 these programs because I don't have medical insurance
24 because somebody filed for my stimulus checks in a

1 different state and stole my identity, so I can't get
2 even get medical insurance in Nevada in order to get in 3 these programs. I just -- that's pretty much what I want
4 to say, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. Okay. Thank you,
6 Mr. Duran.

7 Is the victim present or anyone else here that
8 wishes to address this matter?

9 All right. Is there any legal reason why judgment
10 should not now be imposed?

11 MS. GARCIA: No, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Duran, I spent a lot of time on 13 your cases last night. Thank you for all the information
14 that's been provided by your attorney and by you.

15 You are sentenced to a term of 18 to 60 months in 16 Case No. CR21-1433. You have credit for time served of 17 151 days.

18 In addition, an administrative assessment will be 19 imposed of $25, DNA administrative assessment of $3, 20 attorney's fee of $500, and no DNA sample fee is 21 required.

22 In Case No. CR21-2210, you are sentenced to a term
23 of 12 to 36 months in the Nevada Department of 24 Corrections. In addition, fees will be imposed in the

1 amount of $25 administrative assessment, $3 DNA
2 administrative assessment, no DNA sample fee is required,
3 and a $500 attorney's fees.

4 You have credit for time served of 98 days.

5 I am imposing the sentence in CR21-2210
6 consecutive. In looking at all the pieces, this is not 7 appropriate for probation, so that is the order of the 8 court.

9 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, if I may briefly, because 10 you ran this case consecutive, the 2210 actually now has 11 zero days.

12 THE COURT: Yes. Thank you. I misspoke.

13 All right. Thank you.
