Re: Supreme Court Case no. 83730 - Request to have extension of time

Dear Ms. Brown:

Appellant realizes that he is timely behind to File Documents and Directing Transmission of Records due to his hardship in the last ninety days to seek and engage legal services with any local counsels/attorneys in order to assist him and Nhu Tran Foundation, Inc. with the timely and proper judicial burdens. There is literally not a single soul out of over two dozen counsels who for no reason is willing and compassionate to take on this Appellate challenge.

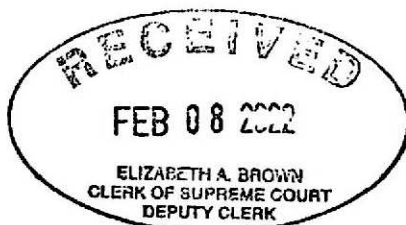

Therefore, Appellant requests an extension of another ninety days to so seek legal assistances since Appellant is incapable to handle the Appellate works himself, nor does he permit/authorized to represent and protect the foresaid Foundation by the District Court.

Your considering this request is gratefully appreciated. Otherwise, Appellant declares his surrender to the one and only, unimaginable, questionable and authoritative power, law and justice which have unjustifiably, unilaterally and oppressively imposed and wielded by the District Court upon Appellant and the foresaid Foundation who have lived, breathed and succumbed by such inequitable law in the last four and a half years.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
