16 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

17 I.

18 INTRODUCTION AND STATEMENT OF FACTS

19 The Defendants in this matter conspired to sell Medappeal a worthless medical appeals
20 and credentialing business package for $75,000.00 in which Defendants did not, could not and 21 had no intention of delivering. Conspiring together as online business brokers, sellers and 22 trainers, Defendants sold worthless business opportunities to at least a dozen other victims before 23 they made Medappeal their next victim. Defendants led Medappeal to “purchase” a package of 24 lies and strung Medappeal along when it questioned Defendants Weinstein, V. Reddy, and 25 Brown about the nature of the business. After two years of litigation, Medappeal obtained
26 summary judgment regarding the claims against the various Defendants in this matter.

27 Medappeal is entitled to an award of its reasonable attorney fees and costs. Defendants’ 28 conduct throughout litigation demonstrated that their claims and defenses were meritless and designed only to conceal their fraudulent conduct. Moreover, this Court has already ordered that Medappeal may seek to recover its attorney fees. In these circumstances, the fees Medappeal incurred to pursue its claims should be awarded.

II.

ARGUMENT

A. Standard of Review.

Under Nevada law, the district court may award attorney fees when authorized under a statute, rule or contract. Albios v. Horizon Communities, Inc., 122 Nev. 409, 417, 132 P.3d 1022, 1027-28 (2006) (citations omitted). NRS 18.010 states:

(2) In addition to the cases where an allowance is authorized by specific statute, the court may make an allowance of attorney's fees to a prevailing party:

(a) When the prevailing party has not recovered more than $20,000; or

(b) Without regard to the recovery sought, when the court finds that the claim, counterclaim, cross-claim or third-party complaint or defense of the opposing party was brought or maintained without reasonable ground or to harass the prevailing party. The court shall liberally construe the provisions of this paragraph in favor of awarding attorney's fees in all appropriate situations....

3. In awarding attorney's fees, the court may pronounce its decision on the fees at the conclusion of the trial or special proceeding without written motion and with or without presentation of additional evidence

The “well known basic elements to be considered in determining the reasonable value of an attorney’s services . . . may be classified under four general headings.” Brunzell v. Golden Gate. Nat. Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455 P.2d 31, 33 (1969). Those four factors are:

- (1) the qualities of the advocate: his ability, his training, education, experience, professional standing and skill;
- (2) the character of the work to be done: its difficulty, its intricacy, its importance, time and skill required, the responsibility imposed and the prominence and character of the parties where they affect the importance of the litigation;
- (3) the work actually performed by the lawyer, the skill, time and attention given to the work;
- (4) the result: whether the attorney was successful and what benefits were derived.

Id. (emphasis added). Although no one element controls, the district court should use “reason and fairness” in calculating attorneys’ fees. Albios, 122 Nev. at 417, 132 P.3d at 1034; Miller v. Wilfong, 121 Nev. 619, 623, 119 P.3d 727, 730 (2005); Brunzell, 85 Nev. at 349, 455 P.2d at 33.

1 An analysis of reason and fairness includes consideration of the complexity of the matter, the 2 amount of time spent and therefore the reasonableness of the number of hours spent thereon. See
3 e.g., Salmon v. Davis Cty., 916 P.2d 890, 893 (Utah 1996).

4 B. Medappeal is Entitled to an Award of Attorney Fees and Costs Against the 5 Defendants.

6 This Court already ordered that Medappeal is entitled to seek its attorney fees and costs
7 when it granted summary judgment. See June 18, 2021 Notice of Entry of Order and Findings
8 of fact and Conclusions of Law, 26:9-11. Medappeal is entitled to recover its attorney fees
9 pursuant to NRS 207.470(1), costs under NRS 207.470(1) and NRS 18.0220(3) and pre-10 judgment interest under NRS 17.130. Id.

11 Further, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of its reasonable attorney fees and costs as the 12 prevailing party in this matter and due to the frivolousness and unreasonableness of Defendants'
13 defenses in light of the claims and evidence set forth. A party prevails if it succeeds on any 14 significant issue in litigation which achieves some of the benefit it sought in bringing suit. See 15 Pardee Homes of Nevada v. Wolfram, 135 Nev. 173, 179, 444 P.3d 423, 427 (2019)
16 citing Las Vegas Metro. Police Dep't v. Blackjack Bonding, Inc., 131 Nev. 80, 90, 343 P.3d 608, 17 615 (2015). An order dismissing a complaint is sufficient to find a prevailing party. MB Am., Inc.
18 v. Alaska Pac. Leasing, 132 Nev. 78, 89, 367 P.3d 1286, 1292 (2016).

19 Here, throughout the course of the litigation, Defendants engaged in frivolous motion
20 practice, designed to waste the time, money, and resources of Plaintiff and the Court.
21 Specifically, on March 30, 2021, this court sanctioned Defendant Weinstein's attorney for filing 22 counterclaims that were frivolous and without merit.

23 Defendants' motions are even more egregious in light of the fact that V. Reddy and 24 Weinstein have since admitted to engaging in the very fraudulent scheme as alleged by Plaintiff
25 in this case. Despite their current admission, Plaintiff had to expend hundreds of hours and 26 thousands of dollars opposing such ridiculous motions as Defendants' Motion for "attorney's 27 eyes only" protection for Defendant Weinstein's "confidential and proprietary information."
28 Nothing Weinstein possessed was worthy of any protection from this court, is obvious from his

1 guilty plea.

2 Therefore, the only remaining question is the amount of the reasonable attorney fees
3 incurred and to be reimbursed.

4 C. Medappeal's Attorney's Fees and Costs are Justified Under *Brunzell

5 When considering an award of attorney's fees and costs, Nevada law requires an analysis
6 pursuant to the factors enumerated in Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 85 Nev. 345
7 (1969), specifically: (1) the qualities of the advocate; (2) the character of the work to be done;
8 (3) the work actually performed by the lawyer; and (4) the result.

9 1. Qualities of the Advocate

10 Under this factor, the Court should evaluate Mr. Ball's abilities, training, education, 11 experience, professional standing and skill. Id. at 349. Mr. Ball has been a licensed attorney in 12 Nevada since 2003. He has a great deal of experience in all aspects of litigation involving real 13 estate, ownership disputes and contract disputes. See Declaration of Zach Ball attached as 14 Exhibit A. Therefore, he had the necessary experience and skill to handle this matter.

15 Mr. Ball is well-educated having graduated from the University of Utah in 1999 where he 16 obtained a B.A. He then went to Gonzaga University School of Law where he earned his JD in 17 2002 and Gonzaga University College of Business where he heard his MBA. He is also a 18 respected member of the legal community and is known for his quality legal work. See Exhibit
19 A.

20 Further, Mr. Ball has handled numerous contract cases and is well-versed in the applicable
21 law. See Exhibit A. Most importantly, Mr. Ball has been an effective advocate and excellent 22 representative for each of his clients including Plaintiff. Based on Mr. Ball's extensive legal 23 experience, education, effective management of multiple cases, including those involving 24 matters similar to the matter at hand, his legal rate of $250.00 per hour is justified. See Exhibit
25 A.

26 Mr. Ball also retained the services of a freelance attorney, Jason M. Gerber, to assist with 27 the case. See Exhibit A. Mr. Gerber assisted with providing document review, legal research and 28 drafting during the case. Mr. Gerber has extensive knowledge and more than 18 years'

1 experience as a trial lawyer in the US Army, Nevada and Michigan. See Exhibit A.

2 Likewise, Mr. Jay Freedman provided advice and services to Medappeal prior to Mr. Ball
3 taking over the case. Mr. Freedman was educated at California State Polytechnic University and 4 earned his law degree at Loyola Law School, Los Angeles. See Exhibit A.

5 Prior to filing in Nevada, this case was brought in Illinois. Attorney Gregory Markwell
6 graduated from Urbana-Champaign with a Bachelor of Arts in 2008; he obtained his Juris
7 Doctorate from DePaul University College of Law in 2012. The litigation in Illinois was brought 8 pursuant to the same facts and circumstances as this action and was only dismissed because of a 9 forum selection clause in the fraudulently obtained contract. Nonetheless, the work was all still 10 necessary for the eventual result before this Court. The litigation was handled by Medappeal's 11 in-house attorney as well.

12 2. Character of the Work Done

13 When analyzing this factor, the Court should consider the case's difficulty, intricacy, 14 importance, time and skill required, the responsibility imposed, and the prominence and 15 character of the parties where they affect the importance of the litigation. Id. The work performed 16 on behalf of Medappeal was extremely important to where it was able to recover despite the 17 fraud of the Defendants. The work also included multi-jurisdictional work and considerable 18 investigation into Defendants' complicated multi-state scam. This case required a significant 19 amount of time and skill to ensure a proper, fair and effective defense was provided.

20 3. Work Performed

21 As to this factor, it takes into account the skill, time and attention given to the work. Id.
22 Mr. Ball and his team absolutely took the necessary time to effectively represent Medappeal in 23 this matter. The quality of Mr. Ball's work is reflective in every document filed and argument 24 presented. As discussed above, Mr. Ball had the requisite skills to identify the proper course of 25 the case, which included successfully arguing the Motion for Summary Judgment. Further, the 26 fees incurred in the predecessor Illinois Action were all incurred for work necessary to pursue 27 claims in this case.

28 ///

2 4. Result

3 This factor focuses on whether the attorney was successful and the benefits derived. Id.
4 There is no question that Mr. Ball achieved an excellent result in this case based on the Court's 5 decision.

6 D. Amount of Attorney Fee Award.

7 Given the outcome of the case, the attorneys' skills and successful advocacy, Medappeal's 8 reasonable attorney fees of $137,647.97 should be awarded. See Billing Statements attached as 9 Exhibit B.

10 E. Award of Costs.

11 Medappeal is also entitled to an award of its litigation costs as the prevailing party. See
12 NRS 18.110(1). In order to award litigation costs, a district court must have before is evidence 13 that the costs were reasonable, necessary and actually incurred. Cadle Co. v. Woods & Erickson,
14 LLP, 131 Nev. 114, 121, 345 P.3d 1049, 1054 (2015). Here, Medappeal seeks to recover costs
15 as outlined in her Memorandum of Costs filed concurrently with this Motion. See Memorandum
16 of Costs attached as Exhibit C. The Memorandum of Costs includes all of the documentation for 17 the claimed costs. Further, all of the costs were actually incurred and necessary to properly
18 pursue this matter against Defendants. See Exhibit A. Therefore, Medappeal is entitled to recover
19 its costs in the amount of $6,325.57.

20 III.
21 CONCLUSION

22 Based on the foregoing, Colvin respectfully requests the Court awards Medappeal the 23 attorney's fees in the amount of $137,647.97 and costs in the amount of $6,325.57.

24 DATED this July 8, 2021.

Exhibit A

Exhibit A

[illegible]

7. Prior to taking over this case, Mr. Jay Freedman acted as counsel of record. Mr. Freedman was educated at California State Polytechnic University and earned his law degree

1 at Loyola Law School, Los Angeles. Mr. Freedman was further utilized by our firm as a non-
2 attorney at the request of Plaintiff.

3 8. Prior to Mr. Freedman's retention in the case, this case was brought in Illinois.
4 Attorney Gregory Markwell graduated from Urbana-Champaign with a Bachelor of Arts in 5 2008; he obtained his Juris Doctorate from DePaul University College of Law in 2012. The 6 litigation in Illinois was brought pursuant to the same facts and circumstances as this action
7 and was only dismissed because of a forum selection clause in the fraudulently obtained
8 contract. Nonetheless, the work was all still necessary for the eventual result before this Court.

9 9. I respectfully submit that the fees incurred set forth in Exhibit A by all of the above-
10 named individuals (attached hereto), which I reviewed in detail, meet all the requirements of 11 the Nevada Supreme Court's opinion in Brunzell v. Golden Gale Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349
12 (1969), wherein it set forth the factors relevant to determine the reasonableness of an attorney
13 fee award. Specifically, these include (1) the qualities of the advocate: his ability, his training, 14 education, experience, professional standing and skill; (2) the character of the work to be done:
15 its difficulty, its intricacy, its importance, time and skill required, the responsibility imposed 16 and the prominence and character of the parties where they affect the importance of the 17 litigation; (3) the work actually performed by the lawyer: the skill time and attention given to 18 the work; (4) the result: whether the attorney was successful and what benefits were derived.

19 10. When applying the Brunzell factors to the total request of $137,647.97 in attorney's 20 fees, which includes those attorney's fees incurred for preparing all documents and pleadings,
21 motion practice, and the Arbitration hearing, the Arbitrator is requested to find that the four 22 factors are satisfied by Plaintiff. This includes, without limitation, the qualities of the attorneys,
23 their ability, training, education, experience and professional standing and skill, the character
24 of the work completed by counsels, especially with the importance of the issues in this action, 25 the work actually performed by counsels and the skill, time and attention that was devoted to 26 the work performed, and finally, the successful result obtained and the benefits derived as a 27 result of that work.

28 11. I helped prepare and revise the Motion for Attorney's Fees, and any references

1 therein, including those regarding the analysis of the Brunzell factors are truthful and accurate.

2 12. I also prepared the Memorandum of Costs and the associated documentation
3 attached as Exhibit C. I am familiar with all of the litigation costs identified in the 4 Memorandum and reviewed the documentation at the time the costs were incurred and again
5 at the time the Memorandum was prepared. I believe all of these costs were necessary to 6 properly defend Colvin and to avoid the impact of any judgment against her. I can attest that 7 all of these costs were reasonable in my experience, necessary for this case and actually 8 incurred in this matter.

9 I declare under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the State of Nevada, that the foregoing 10 statements are true and correct.

11 Further declarant sayeth naught.
