ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER REINSTATING BRIEFING AND DENYING MOTION FOR STAY

This is an appeal from a district court order granting, in part, a motion to enforce a divorce decree. When initial review of the docketing statement and documents before this court revealed a potential jurisdictional defect, this court ordered appellant to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Having considered appellant's response, this appeal may proceed. However, this appeal is subject to later dismissal if it is determined that this court lacks jurisdiction.

Appellant shall have 14 days from the date of this order to file and serve a transcript request form. See NRAP 9(a). If no transcript is to be requested, appellant shall file and serve a certificate to that effect within the same time period. See NRAP 9(a)(1)(C). Appellant shall have 90 days from the date of this order to file and serve the opening brief and appendix. Thereafter, briefing shall proceed in accordance with NRAP 31(a)(1). Failure to timely comply with this order may result in the imposition of sanctions, including the dismissal of this appeal. NRAP 9(a)(7); NRAP 31(d).

Appellant has filed a motion for stay pending appeal. Respondent opposes the motion. When considering a motion for stay pending appeal, this court considers the following factors: whether (1) the object of the appeal will be defeated absent a stay, (2) appellant will suffer irreparable or serious harm without a stay, (3) respondent will suffer irreparable or serious harm if a stay is granted, and (4) appellant is likely to prevail on the merits of the appeal. NRAP 8(c). Having considered the parties' arguments in light of these factors, this court concludes that the factors do not militate in favor of a stay. Accordingly, the motion for stay is denied.

It is so ORDERED.
