AFFIDAVIT OF VALARIE I. FUJII, ESQ. IN SUPPORT OF MEMORANDUM OF ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS

STATE OF NEVADA	)
	)	SS
COUNTY OF CLARK	)

Affiant, VALARIE I. FUJII, ESQ., being first duly sworn, hereby swears under penalty of perjury that the following assertions are true of her own personal knowledge:

That Affiant is an attorney duly licensed to practice law in all jurisdictions within the State of Nevada, Nevada Bar No. 005955. That Affiant is the owner and principal of Valarie I. Fujii & Associates and is counsel of record for the Plaintiff CHRISTINA CALDERON in the above-entitled matter. Affiant was retained by Plaintiff on or about August 26, 2019.

This Memorandum of Attorney's Fees and Costs (Memorandum) is being made pursuant to the hearing before the Discovery Commissioner Pro Tem Holly Fic on January 24, 2020, in which Commissioner Fic stated that she would be awarding attorney's fees to Plaintiff. Counsel received a subsequent communication from the Commissioner's office to submit Report and Recommendations from the hearing which should include a Memorandum of Fees and Costs.

The billing statement attached as Exhibit A accurately reflects the services provided by this firm in the above-entitled case. Based upon such billings, Plaintiff CHRISTINA CALDERON has incurred the sum of $5,040.00 in attorney's fees and costs for legal services provided by Affiant specifically related to her Motion to Compel Defendant's Discovery Responses, Including Responses to Requests for Production of Documents, Answers to Interrogatories and Request for Admissions; Failure to Make NRCP 16.2 Disclosures and Productions; and for an Award of Attorney's Fees and Costs.

As shown in the analysis set forth below, the fees charged by Valarie I. Fujii & Associates are reasonable under the standards set forth by the Nevada Supreme Court in Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455 P. 2d 31, 33 (1969) and Miller v. Wilfong, 121 Nev. 619, 119 P. 3d 727 (2005).

DATED this day of February, 2020.

BACKGROUND

On December 10, 2019, Plaintiff CHRISTINA CALDERON propounded written discovery to Defendant MITCHELL STIPP, specifically Plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories to Defendant, Plaintiff's First Set of Request for Admissions to Defendant, and Plaintiff's First Set of Requests for Production of Documents to Defendant. Defendant's discovery responses were due to Plaintiff's counsel on or before January 9, 2019.

On January 9, 2020 at 5:01 p.m. Defendant e-served his discovery responses. They did not include his counsel, Radford J. Smith's signature, rather it was Defendant's electronic signature and the certificate of mailing was e-signed by his wife. Defendant's responses were non-responsive, inadequate and insufficient pursuant to NRCP Rules 33, 34 and 35. Defendant objected to almost every question/request, and many of his Answers and Responses merely referred to his deposition testimony on January 7, 2020.

Plaintiff's counsel complied with EDCR 5.602, communicated first in writing to Defendant's counsel Mr. Smith regarding the inadequacies of Defendant STIPP's discovery responses, and then held a telephone conference between counsel regarding the same. The issue was not resolved.

Plaintiff's counsel Ms. Fujii filed a Motion to Compel on January 14, 2020, and Defendant MITCHELL STIPP personally (without his counsel Mr. Smith) filed an Opposition that same date, which included an unrelated Counter-Motion in Limine.

At the hearing on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel on January 24, 2020, Discovery Commissioner Pro Tem Holly Fic granted the Motion and recommended that Defendant STIPP supplement all of his discovery responses by January 31, 2020. Commissioner Fic further awarded fees to Plaintiff CALDERON and subsequently instructed Ms. Fujii's office to prepare a Report and Recommendations from the Hearing and file this Memorandum of Fees and Costs.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

NRCP 37(a)(5)(A) provides as follows:

(iii)

If the motion is granted - or if the disclosure or requested discovery is provided after the motion was filed - the court must, after giving an opportunity to be heard, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion, the party or attorney advising that conduct, or both to pay the movant's reasonable expenses incurred in making the motion, including attorney fees. But the court must not order this payment if:

- (I) the movant filed the motion before attempting in good faith to obtain the disclosure or discovery without court action;
- (ii) the opposing party's nondisclosure, response, or objection was substantially justified; or
- unjust.
  See State Emps. Ass'n, Inc. v. Daines, 108 Nev. 15, 19, 824 P.2d 276, 278 (1992).

  Hines v. Nat'l Default Servicing Corp. (Nev. 2015). Even making a good faith effort to provide the discovery responses before hearing of the motion will not other circumstances make an award of expenses preclude the award of fees. See NRCP 37(a)(5)(A), setting forth sanctions where the "requested discovery is provided after the motion to compel was filed." *Okada*v. Eight Judicial Dist. Court of Nevada, 408 P. 3d 566 (Nev. 2018)

With specific reference to Family Law matters, the Court has adopted "well known basic elements, which in addition to hourly time schedules kept by the attorney, are to be considered in determining the reasonable value of any attorney's services qualities", commonly referred to as the Brunzell factors.

Brunzell v. Golden Gate National Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455 P.2d 31, 33 (1969). The factors are:

- (1) The qualities of the advocate: his/her ability, training, education, experience, professional standing and skill;
- (2) The character of the work to be done: its difficulty, its intricacy, its importance, time and skill required, the responsibility imposed and the prominence and character of the parties where they affect the importance of the litigation;
- (3) The work actually performed by the lawyer: the skill, time and attention given to the work;
- (4) The result: whether the attorney was successful and what benefits were derived.

Additionally, notwithstanding a Brunzell analysis and the statute or rule warranting the award of fees, in family cases, the award must consider the disparity in income. Miller v. Wilfong, 119 P.3d 727 (Nev. 2005).

First, as to the qualifications of Ms. Fujii, she is peer review rated AV by Martindale Hubble, the highest rating you can achieve. Since passing the bar in the State of Nevada twenty (24) years ago in 1996, she has amassed vast experience in civil litigation and has appeared at every level of court in the State including the Nevada Supreme Court, the Nevada Court of Appeals, Federal Court, District Court, Justice Court, Small Claims Court. Since 1997, she has been a part of the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Nevada, and has attended the annual Family Law Conference. She is also a participant in the Nevada Family Section website. Ms. Fujii also piloted and participated in the first Short Jury Trials in the Short Trial Program and, at one time, was the attorney who had tried the most Short Trials in the State of Nevada, before focusing her practice on Family Law. She is experienced in family law and her hourly rate is reasonable and customary for this type of work and for the work performed in this case.

The character of the work performed in this case was not at a high level of difficulty; however, it has been frustrating and tedious work due to Defendant's relentless litigiousness.

The work actually performed by the lawyer and her staff in this case includes but is not limited to the receipt and review of Defendant's discovery responses, including Answers to Interrogatories, Responses to Requests for Production of Documents, and Responses to Requests for Admission; prepare correspondence to opposing counsel Radford Smith that Defendant's discovery responses are inadequate/insufficient, requesting that he supplement the same, and requesting EDCR 5.602(d) Conference to discuss the issue; Notice EDCR 5.602(d) Conference with o/c Radford Smith; participate in EDCR 5.602(d) Conference with o/c Radford Smith; prepare Motion to Compel Discovery; prepare Ex Parte Application for OST on Motion to Compel Discovery; court appearance on Motion to Compel; reviewed Defendant's supplemental responses to discovery responses, including Supplemental Answers to Interrogatories, Supplemental Responses to Requests for Production of Documents (109 pages), and Supplemental Responses to Requests for Admissions; communications with o/c Radford Smith re: adequacy of Defendant's supplemental discovery responses; and reviewed Defendant's Motion to Compel Plaintiff's Discovery Responses filed after the DCO and without an EDCR 5.602(d) telephone conference.

The result of Plaintiff CHRISTINA CALDERON's Motion to Compel was that she was the prevailing party. As the prevailing party, the Discovery Commissioner Pro Tem Holly Fic requested that Plaintiff's counsel prepare the Report and Recommendations of the January 24, 2020, hearing so that Plaintiff's fees could be awarded to her, as well as that Plaintiff's counsel file the instant Memorandum of Fees and Costs. Plaintiff is seeking an Order for fees in the amount of $5,040.00.

Pursuant to Miller v. Wilfong, 119 P.3d 727 (2005), the Court must address whether or not there is a disparity in the parties' incomes. The parties have not filed Financial Disclosure Forms in this matter, and financial matters have not been addressed. Therefore, it is not known if there is a disparity of income between the parties. Plaintiff CHRISTINA CALDERON is a Deputy District Attorney, and Defendant MITCHELL STIPP is an attorney in private practice.

CONCLUSION

Having prevailed before this Court on her Motion to Compel Defendant's Discovery Responses, Including Responses to Requests for Production of Documents, Answers to Interrogatories and Request for Admissions; Failure to Make NRCP 16.2 Disclosures and Productions; and for an Award of Attorney's Fees and Costs, and based upon the attached billing statement, Plaintiff CHRISTINA CALDERON is requesting that she be awarded her attorney's fees and costs in the amount of §5,040.00. This sum should be reduced to judgment against Defendant MITCHELL STIPP and in favor of Plaintiff CHRISTINA CALDERON, collectible by any lawful means.

9	MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES
10	There was an evidentiary hearing on January 23, 2020 and continued hearing
11
12	scheduled on March 5, 2020 to address physical custody. Defendant served written
13	discovery on December 3, 2019. See Exhibit A. Plaintiff, Christina Calderon
<ul><li>14</li><li>15</li></ul>	("Plaintiff"), e-served her responses on December 31, 2019 (responses to requests for
16	admissions) and January 2, 2020 (responses to interrogatories and requests for 17	production of documents). Plaintiff's responses to Defendant's interrogatories and
18 19	requests for production of documents are included as part of Exhibit B .
20	NRCP 37(a) provides as follows (emphasis added):
21	Rule 37. Failure to Make Disclosures or to Cooperate in
22	Discovery; Sanctions
23	<ul><li>(a) Motion for an Order Compelling Disclosure or Discovery.</li><li>(1) In General. On notice to other parties and all affected</li></ul>
24	persons, a party may move for an order compelling disclosure or discovery. The motion must include a certification that the movant has
25	in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the person or party
26	failing to make disclosure or discovery in an effort to obtain it without
27	court action.  (2) Appropriate Court. A motion for an order to a party must
28	be made in the court where the action is pending. A motion for an order to a nonparty must be made in the court where the discovery is or will  OOD  AA0001344

2	<ul><li>(3) Specific Motions.</li><li>(A) To Compel Disclosure. If a party fails to make a</li></ul> disclosure required by Rule 16.1(a), 16.2(d), or 16.205(d), any other
3	party may move to compel disclosure and for appropriate sanctions.
4	(B) To Compel a Discovery Response. A party seeking
5	discovery may move for an order compelling an answer, designation, production, or inspection. This motion may be made if:
6	(i) a deponent fails to answer a question asked
7	under Rule 30 or 31;
	(ii) a corporation or other entity fails to make a
8	designation under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a)(4);
9	(iii) a party fails to answer an interrogatory
10	submitted under Rule 33; or
	(iv) a party fails to produce documents or fails to respond that inspection will be permitted — or fails to permit inspection
11	— as requested under Rule 34.
12	(C) Related to a Deposition. When taking an oral
13	deposition, the party asking a question may complete or adjourn the examination before moving for an order.
14	(4) Evasive or Incomplete Disclosure, Answer, or Response.
15	For purposes of Rule 37(a), an evasive or incomplete disclosure,
16	answer, or response must be treated as a failure to disclose, answer, or respond. A party's production of documents that is not in compliance
17	with Rule $34(b)(2)(E)(i)$ may also be treated as a failure to produce documents.
18	(5) Payment of Expenses; Protective Orders.
19	(A) If the Motion Is Granted (or Disclosure or Discovery
20	Is Provided After Filing). If the motion is granted — or if the
20	disclosure or requested discovery is provided after the motion was filed
21	— the court must, after giving an opportunity to be heard, require the
22	party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion, the party or attorney advising that conduct, or both to pay the movant's reasonable
23	expenses incurred in making the motion, including attorney fees. But
24	the court must not order this payment if:
	(i) the movant filed the motion before attempting
25	in good faith to obtain the disclosure or discovery without court action;
26	(ii) the opposing party's nondisclosure, response, or objection was substantially justified; or
27	(iii) other circumstances make an award of
 	expenses unjust.
• •

28

(B) If the Motion Is Denied. If the motion is denied, the

2 attorney filing the motion, or both to pay the party or deponent who opposed the motion its reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the 3 motion, including attorney fees. But the court must not order this 4 payment if the motion was substantially justified or other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust. 5 (C) If the Motion Is Granted in Part and Denied in Part. 6 If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the court may issue any protective order authorized under Rule 26(c) and may, after giving 7 an opportunity to be heard, apportion the reasonable expenses for the 8 motion. 9 If a party resists discovery, the requesting party may file a motion to compel. See 10 NRCP 37. A facially valid motion to compel has two components. First, the motion 11 12 must certify that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the 13 party resisting discovery. ShuffleMaster, Inc. v. Progressive Games, Inc., 170 F.R.D. 14 166, 171 (D. Nev. 1996). Second, the motion must include a threshold showing that 15 16 the information in controversy is relevant and discoverable under NRCP 26. See Hofer 17 v. Mack Trucks, Inc., 981 F.2d 377, 380 (8th Cir. 1992) (citing Oppenheimer Fund, Inc. 18 v. Sanders, 437 U.S. 340, 352 (1978)). 19 20 Defendant and his co-counsel, Radford Smith, have in good faith conferred with 21 Plaintiff's attorney, Valerie Fujii, regarding the deficiencies in Plaintiff's responses to 22 Defendant's discovery, and the disputes have not been resolved. # A. Plaintiff fails properly to answer Defendant's Interrogatories

Defendant propounded Interrogatory # 8 which provides as follows:

INTERROGATORY #8:

Do you claim to have been denied access to the children by the adverse party? If so, describe each such event by providing the date access was requested, the response date (if any), and the content of the response.

Plaintiff's response to Interrogatory #8 was as follows:

ANSWER NO. 8:

The circumstances involved with respect to Mitchell's unwillingness to abide by the stipulation and Court Order of joint custody is fully set forth in all of the documents that I have filed following Mitch's August 23, 2019, refusal to abide by the existing custodial order, to wit: a) Plaintiff's Motion for Order to Show Cause Against Defendant for Wilfully Disobeying the Custody Order; a Request for Immediate Return of the Children, Make Up Visitation and an Award of Attorney's Fees, filed on August 29, 2019; b) Ex Parte Application for Order to Show Cause filed on August 30, 2019; c) Plaintiff's Opposition to Defendant's Motion for Child Interview by FMC and Related Relief; and Countermotion for Immediate Return of the Children, Make-up Visitation, Sanctions, and Award of Attorney's Fees, filed on September 11, 2019; d) Plaintiff's Ex Parte Application for Order Shortening Time filed on September 26, 2019; e) Plaintiff's Emergency Motion for Temporary Primary Physical Custody and Request for Writ of Attachment Order and Attorney's Fees filed on October 9, 2019; and all related affidavits and exhibits in support of the above-referenced filings.

No objections were provided. Instead, Plaintiff fails to answer the interrogatory and refers Defendant to the filings in the case. Plaintiff's allegation is Defendant has denied her access to the children in accordance with the parties' parenting plan. Reference to 1 2 the docket is non-responsive. 3 Defendant propounded Interrogatory # 9 which provides as follows: 4 INTERROGATORY #9: 5 Do you claim that it is the preference of either child to be in your physical 6 7 custody, and if so, state each date when such preference was expressed, the 8 circumstances giving rise to such expression, and the words used in 9 expressing the preference, and the names of any witnesses to such 10 expressions. 11 12 Plaintiff's response to Interrogatory #9 was as follows: 13 14 15 ANSWER NO. 9: 16 Mia and Ethan should be exercising custodial time with me as set forth in 17 our existing custodial order, which the Court has affirmed is still valid and 18 operative in our case. 19 20 21 No objections were provided. Instead, Plaintiff fails to answer the interrogatory and 22 23 provides an argument. If it is not her claim, then the answer is "no." If it is her claim, 24 then the answer is "yes," and she is obligated to provide the explanation requested. 25 /// 26 27 /// and the state of the door of referenced fillings.

No objections were provided. Instead, Plaintiff fails to answer the interrogatory and refers Defendant to the filings in the case. Plaintiff's allegation is Defendant has denied her access to the children in accordance with the parties' parenting plan. Defendant is entitled to know what efforts Plaintiff has undertaken to spend time with the children.

Reference to the docket is non-responsive.

Defendant propounded Interrogatory # 12 which provides as follows:

INTERROGATORY #12:

State the general condition of your physical and mental health at the present time, including reference to any physical disabilities or chronic ailments, continuing diagnosis, mental health disorders, prescribed medication, and continuing treatment or care plans, including the name, address and telephone number of any physician, hospital or practitioner, psychologist, psychiatrist, or mental health professional who is presently or has at any time in the past five years treated you for such condition.

Plaintiff's response to Interrogatory #12 was as follows:

ANSWER NO. 12:

I am in good health. I do not have any physical disabilities or chronic ailments or mental health disorders for which I am prescribed medication or a continuing treatment or care plan.

No objections were provided. Instead, Plaintiff qualifies her response with reference to physical disabilities or chronic ailments or mental health disorders for which she is prescribed medication or a continuing treatment or care plan. This was not the question. Plaintiff testified at her deposition that she receives counseling services from Ann Nichols (personal therapist), Donna Wilburn (personal therapist/parent coach), and Nicholas Ponzo (family therapy). See Exhibit D. These mental health providers were not disclosed and details requested in the response to the interrogatory. Since Plaintiff's

11	21 Primary Physical Custody and Request for Writ of Attachment Order and
12	Attorney's Fees filed on October 9, 2019, which sets forth the facts in support of
13	the factors identified in this interrogatory, as well as the following: a) Plaintiff's
14	Motion for Order to Show Cause Against Defendant for Wilfully Disobeying the
14	Custody Order; a Request for Immediate Return of the Children, Make Up

24
25	No objections were provided. Instead, Plaintiff fails to answer the interrogatory
26	and refers Defendant to the filings in the case. The best interest of the children is
27	relevant to the analysis of physical custody. Defendant is entitled to know Plaintiff's

1	responsive.
2	B. Plaintiff fails to produce documents required by Defendant's Request fo
3	Production.
5	In response to Defendant's requests for production #1, #3, #4, #9, #10, #12, and
6 7	#15, Plaintiff makes no objections, produces nothing, and refers Plaintiff to the docket
8	in this case. Reference to the docket is non-responsive.
9	With respect to Defendant's requests for production #5, Plaintiff stated that she 10	would produce baseball and music performance videos of the children. However, the 11
12	request was broader. In addition, Plaintiff never produced even these videos.
13	Request #7 asks for medical records. Plaintiff provides no objections and
<ul><li>14</li><li>15</li></ul>	produces nothing. Plaintiff responds she does not have chronic illness, physical
16	disability, addiction or rehabilitation treatment, mental health diagnosis, mental health
17	treatment or mental health testing. This statement is not responsive to the request
<ul><li>18</li><li>19</li></ul>	Moreover, Plaintiff admits during her deposition to receiving services from multiple

21	Request #13 asks for communications and documents provided to Donna
<ul><li>22</li><li>23</li></ul>	Wilburn. Plaintiff responds as follows:
24	17 RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 13:
25	I do not recall specifically what documents or communications Donna  Wilburn reviewed in connection with her letter dated Sentember 11, 2010, profiled.
26	Wilburn reviewed in connection with her letter dated September 11, 2019, entitled  "Recommended Protocol Regarding Child Visitation Refusal." In addition, discovery is continuing and Plaintiff reserves her right to supplement this Response as additional information and documentation become available.

27

28

No objections were made. This response is non-responsive. Plaintiff has the ability to review her emails (or other communications) and consult with Ms. Wilburn regarding the documents and communications Plaintiff provided to her. Ms. Wilburn wrote a letter in support of Plaintiff's requested relief. She has listed Ms. Wilburn as a witness. However, Plaintiff has produced nothing.

Request #3 provides as follows:

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION #3:

Provide all documentation which tend to support the ability (or inability) of the parties to work with one another to resolve disputes.

As discussed above, Plaintiff referred Defendant to the docket in this case:

15	RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 3:
11	Please see all of the documents listed in the 71 pages consisting of the
16	current docket sheet available on Odyssey for Case No. D-08-389203-Z. 52 of 71
17	pages consist of documents filed by the parties from 2008-2014. Ten pages
18 15	consist of filings from August 29, 2019, to the present. There was NO
16	LITIGATION between July 2014 to August 2019. The remainder are
19	financial/administrative entries. In addition, discovery is continuing and Plaintiff
20 18	reserves her right to supplement this Response as additional information and
21	documentation become available.

Clearly, there are documents responsive to this request. Plaintiff testified that she recorded an "in-person" parent meeting at Starbucks after Plaintiff and one of the parties' minor children were in a physical fight. See Exhibit D. The term "documents" is defined and includes the audio recording and the transcript of the recording. Plaintiff disclosed the audio recording on the last day of discovery (1/13/2020) despite allegedly

1	being provided to Plaintiff's attorney (together with the transcript) for disclosure.
2	However, the transcript has not been produced. Reference to the docket is non-
3	responsive.
<ul><li>4</li><li>5</li></ul>	For the reasons set forth above, Defendant's motion to compel should be granted,
6	and he should be awarded $5,000.00 in attorney's fees and costs.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

- 1. Plaintiff objects to these Interrogatories on the basis that the definitions, explanatory notes and instructions are so complex, numerous and burdensome that they create an unreasonable and undue burden upon Plaintiff. In addition, the definitions, explanatory notes and instructions cause the Interrogatories and requests to reach an objectional breadth, ambiguity, complexity and vagueness, and call for information and/or documents which are irrelevant, not calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, protected by the attorney-client privilege or attorney work-product doctrine, and beyond the permissible scope of discovery.
- 2. Plaintiff objects to any answer or response protected by the attorneyclient privilege or the attorney work product doctrine.
- 3. Plaintiff objects to any answer or response irrelevant to the subject matter of this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
- 4. No response, nor subsequent response, constitutes a waiver of any other objection pursuant to these Interrogatories and requests or to other similar requests that may be propounded at a later time.

INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

Specifically identify what relief you are requesting regarding physical custody and/or timeshare in this case, setting forth your proposed calendar showing when each party should have each child during the calendar year.

ANSWER NO. 1:

I am requesting that Mitchell abide by the joint physical custody timeshare that we determined was in the children's best interests in 2014 and followed without deviation from July 2014 until August 23, 2019. See Stipulation and Order, filed July 2014.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

Specify in detail why the custody or timeshare schedule proposed in your Answer to Interrogatory #1 is in the best interests of each child.

ANSWER NO. 2:

Mitchell and I agreed that joint physical custody on a week on/week off schedule was in the children's best interest, the Court approved the stipulated joint timeshare, we practiced it without deviation for five years, and joint physical custody is statutorily presumed to be in the children's best interest.

INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

Describe the nature of the relationship you have with each of the children and your ability to assess and meet each child's emotional, physical and intellectual needs.

ANSWER NO. 3:

I have a loving relationship with each child that has been strained by Mitchell's continuing violation of the current custody order. His actions have resulted in severely limiting my contact with the children to the detriment of our relationship with each other.

ANSWER NO. 6:

Mitchell has withheld the children from my custody since August 23, 2019. Once he begins to comply with the Court Order, my father, Peter Calderon, will assist with childcare. My father resides at 3136 Donnegal Bay Drive, Las Vegas, Nevada 89117. He is 69 years old. He has known each child their entire lives and has been an active part of their lives since their respective births. No changes anticipated.

INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

If you believe you are the more appropriate primary physical custodian for each child, state in detail what you allege to be the reasons which bring you to that conclusion (including specific facts, actions, dates of occurrence, all persons involved witnessing each such event).

ANSWER NO. 7:

If Mitchell continues to be unwilling to abide by the joint physical custodial order, then I would be the more appropriate primary physical custodian because, unlike Mitchell, I can ensure that the children have frequent, continuous and meaningful contact with both of their parents.

INTERROGATORY NO. 8:

Do you claim to have been denied access to the children by the adverse party? If so, describe each such event by providing the date access was requested, the response date (if any), and the content of the response.

The circumstances involved with respect to Mitchell's unwillingness to abide by the stipulation and Court Order of joint custody is fully set forth in all of the documents that I have filed following Mitch's August 23, 2019, refusal to abide by the existing custodial order, to wit: a) Plaintiff's Motion for Order to Show Cause Against Defendant for Wilfully Disobeying the Custody Order; a Request for Immediate Return of the Children, Make Up Visitation and an Award of Attorney's Fees, filed on August 29, 2019; b) Ex Parte Application for Order to Show Cause filed on August 30, 2019; c) Plaintiff's Opposition to Defendant's Motion for Child Interview by FMC and Related Relief; and Countermotion for Immediate Return of the Children, Make-up Visitation, Sanctions, and Award of Attorney's Fees, filed on September 11, 2019; d) Plaintiff's Ex Parte Application for Order Shortening Time filed on September 26, 2019; e) Plaintiff's Emergency Motion for Temporary Primary Physical Custody and Request for Writ of Attachment Order and Attorney's Fees filed on October 9, 2019; and all related affidavits and exhibits in support of the above-referenced filings.

INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

Do you claim that it is the preference of either child to be in your physical custody, and if so, state each date when such preference was expressed, the circumstances giving rise to such expression, and the words used in expressing the preference, and the names of any witnesses to such expressions.

ANSWER NO. 9:

Mia and Ethan should be exercising custodial time with me as set forth in our existing custodial order, which the Court has affirmed is still valid and operative in our case.

INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

Describe in detail the facts and circumstances of the physical altercations between you and Mia Stipp including the events that are alleged to have occurred on May 9, 2019 and August 13, 2019.

ANSWER NO. 10:

On May 9, 2019, Mia hit me after I took her cellular phone away from her. She scratched me on my hand and lip. On August 13, 2019, Mia punched me on my right arm after I told her to get off of her cellular phone when she was speaking to her boyfriend, Joey, late that evening, which was a school night.

INTERROGATORY NO. 11:

Describe in detail what efforts you have undertaken to spend time with each of the children since August 23, 2019.

ANSWER NO. 11:

The efforts I have undertaken to spend time with each of the children since August 23, 2019, consist of multiple written communications to Mitchell via text message and email to request his compliance with the existing custodial order and are detailed in the following court filings: a) Plaintiff's Motion for Order to Show Cause Against Defendant for Wilfully Disobeying the Custody Order; a Request for Immediate Return of the Children, Make Up Visitation and an Award of Attorney's Fees, filed on August 29, 2019; b) Ex Parte Application for Order to Show Cause filed on August 30, 2019; c) Plaintiff's Opposition to Defendant's Motion for Child Interview by FMC and Related Relief; and Countermotion for Immediate Return of the Children, Make-up Visitation, Sanctions, and Award of Attorney's Fees, filed on September 11, 2019; d) Plaintiff's Ex Parte Application for Order Shortening Time filed on September 26, 2019; e) Plaintiff's Emergency Motion for Temporary Primary Physical Custody and Request for Writ of Attachment Order and Attorney's Fees filed on October 9, 2019; and all related affidavits and exhibits in support of the above-referenced filings.

INTERROGATORY NO. 12:

State the general condition of your physical and mental health at the present time, including reference to any physical disabilities or chronic ailments, continuing diagnosis, mental health disorders, prescribed medication, and continuing treatment or care plans, including the name, address and telephone number of any physician, hospital or practitioner, psychologist, psychiatrist, or mental health professional who is presently or has at any time in the past five years treated you for such condition.

ANSWER NO. 12:

I am in good health. I do not have any physical disabilities or chronic ailments or mental health disorders for which I am prescribed medication or a continuing treatment or care plan.

INTERROGATORY NO. 13:

State whether you have retained the services of a private investigator, conducted personal surveillance, or in any way had a third party watch the adverse party or either child for the purposes of gathering information. If so, please describe in detail the following: name and address of person performing the surveillance, the dates of surveillance, what information was gathered, and a description of any documents/photographs/video recordings that exist regarding this surveillance and who has possession of each.

ANSWER NO. 13:

With the exception of pre-divorce private investigation regarding Mitchell's marital infidelity, I have not retained the services of a private investigator, conducted personal surveillance, or in any way had a third party watch the adverse party or either child for the purposes of gathering information.

INTERROGATORY NO. 14:

Identify each person who has knowledge of the facts and events described in the papers and pleadings filed in this case on or after August 26, 2019 or in any answers to these Interrogatories or who may testify at any proceeding in this matter, including the following information:

- a. Name;
- b. Address;
- c. Telephone;
- d. Email address;

- e. Topic of anticipated testimony;
- f. Identify whether the person is expected to testify; and
- g. Identify any documents in the person's custody or control relevant to any issue in this matter.

ANSWER NO. 14:

Mitchell Stipp, Amy Stipp, Gerardo Hernandez, Martha Hernandez, James Upp, Joseph Robert Trautman, Misayo Lopez, Allison Morris, Elena Calderon, Peter Calderon, Anthony Calderon, Antonia Calderon, Nicholas Petsas, and Donna Wilburn. In addition, discovery is continuing and Plaintiff reserves her right to supplement this Answer as additional information becomes available.

INTERROGATORY NO. 15:

The factors set forth below are derived from NRS 125C.0035(4) and are used by the court in determining the best interest of the children with respect to custody and timeshare. ## ANSWER NO. 15:

Please see the detailed analysis previously provided to you in my Court filings, including, in particular, Plaintiff's Emergency Motion for Temporary Primary Physical Custody and Request for Writ of Attachment Order and Attorney's Fees filed on October 9, 2019, which sets forth the facts in support of the factors identified in this interrogatory, as well as the following: a) Plaintiff's Motion for Order to Show Cause Against Defendant for Wilfully Disobeying the Custody Order; a Request for Immediate Return of the Children, Make Up Visitation and an Award of Attorney's Fees, filed on August 29, 2019; b) Ex Parte Application for Order to Show Cause filed on August 30, 2019; c) Plaintiff's Opposition to Defendant's Motion for Child Interview by FMC and Related Relief; and Countermotion for Immediate Return of the Children, Make-up Visitation, Sanctions, and Award of Attorney's Fees, filed on September 11, 2019; d) Plaintiff's Ex Parte Application for Order Shortening Time filed on September 26, 2019; and all related affidavits and exhibits in support of the above-referenced filings.

INTERROGATORY NO. 16:

State each and every substantial change in circumstances and/or condition which you allege supports a modification of physical custody and/or timeshare. Provide any and all facts and information including the dates, locations and witnesses for all incidents you allege support your position.

ANSWER NO. 16:

The existing custodial order providing for joint physical custody on a week on/week off basis for both children should be followed by Mitchell. If the Court considers modification, it should make me primary physical custodian based upon the changed circumstance of Mitchell's continuing unwillingness to follow the existing custodial order from August 23, 2019, to the present.

Valerie:

We received your letter referenced below. Radford and I discussed the same. It is unclear from your letter other than the reference to my deposition and matters of privacy, confidentiality and/or privilege what are your client's specific concerns. Many of the form objections to the interrogatories which reference my deposition also have other objections which we believe to be valid. In other words, removing this form objection (i.e., asked and answered) does not require a further response because there are other objections. We do not yet have the my deposition transcript. However, once available, I am happy to attach the transcript and reference portions of the same as a supplement.

We would like to avoid discovery litigation. I have asked Radford to be available to address your letter on the date/time in your subsequently served notice. If he is not available, you may call me directly. In the meantime, I would ask for further clarification/explanation of your letter which specifically addresses why the objections are not valid. If you could provide this detailed information before the conference on Tuesday, it will make the call more productive.

I did not receive any response to my email regarding your client's objections to my discovery responses. We had hoped you would provide a detailed explanation in writing so we understood the nature of the objections. As far as responses to interrogatories, we are willing to revise to reference the deposition transcript. However, there was not adequate time to complete that task before discovery ended yesterday.

In addition to your client's discovery issues, I have reviewed your client's disclosures and have the following preliminary issues:

- 1. No communications/documents regarding therapy with Nick Ponzo is admissible under the 2014 parenting plan and Chapter 49 of NRS. You client has included in her disclosures and as purported exhibits an email she asked Mr. Ponzo to write (recommendations for access/facilitate timeshare) and other advice she claims he provided. Setting aside the issue of hearsay, matters of family therapy should not be disclosed and/or used at trial. We have asked Mr. Ponzo to appear as a potential witness in the event your client seeks to violate this confidentiality/privilege. We will also seek to have these matters excluded.
- 2. It appears your client is now disclosing an audio file of a recording she allegedly made of our  $\frac{0.072}{0.072}$ meeting at Starbucks in April/May of 2019. No transcript was included. We addressed this issue at your client's deposition. Your client admits to recording a meeting and having a transcript prepared. In September, during one of our calls, you offered to provide the audio and transcript (i.e., clearly the audio was available). Radford confirms the same during his initial call with you. Yet, we never received them. Our request for production # 's 3 and 4 would have included these items. Yet, they were not disclosed when required. We intend to have the audio and transcript excluded.

3. Your client has disclosed confidential settlement communications which appears she wants to use at trial. We intend to have the settlement offer excluded.

I expect Radford can discuss these items during your call at 10am.

Just to be clear— we want to see the transcript of the meeting at Starbucks. If your client got the audio transcribed, the service provider would need the audio file. This means your client always had the file. The excuse about the new phone was false. The transcript will prove that.

Please provide. We can discuss how to proceed once disclosed.

Subject: Stipp v. Calderon

Valarie,

When we spoke this morning I advised you that I had just left court, and that I did not have the file or the discovery documents in front of me. Rather than allowing me to get back to my office, you began talking without allowing much input from me. You indicated that on January 10 you had e-served to me a detailed letter addressing your concerns with Mr. Stipp's written discovery responses. I had presumed for our conference that you were claiming that you sent two letters on January 10 because we had already responded to your first letter. In reviewing my file, I see you only sent one letter, and because I was out of the office after 2:00 p.m. that day, I discussed your initial letter with Mr. Stipp, and he wrote the response. The substance of the response was that you would have to advise us why answers were insufficient. You did not respond to that letter.

Instead, this morning you orally stated a handful of concerns. You first pointed out that for those interrogatory questions that Mr. Stipp had already answered in the deposition, he referred to his deposition transcript. NRCP 26 reads in relevant part:

On motion or on its own, the court must limit the frequency or extent of discovery otherwise allowed by these rules or by local rule if it determines that:

(i) the discovery sought is unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, or can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive;

(ii) the party seeking discovery has had ample opportunity to obtain the information by discovery in the action; or (iii) the proposed discovery is outside the scope permitted by Rule 26(b)(1).

Here, all of the questions that formed your interrogatories were asked by you in the deposition of Mr. Stipp, and thus the information responsive to your requests "can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive." Here, requiring my office or Mr. Stipp to answer written questions you have already asked in a sworn deposition is a waste of time and money. I also note that many of the questions were ambiguous or vague, or subject to other objections stated in the responses.

You also complained that the interrogatory responses included an objection to the number of interrogatories. Those objections were valid, and you did exceed the number of questions and subparts permitted under the rules. Nevertheless, Mr. Stipp provided responses to the interrogatories.

You did not provide any information as to why you believed the Responses to Requests for production referenced in your letter of June 10 were inadequate, but instead indicated that "I'm not worried about the Responses to the Requests for Admissions." Further, you claimed that Mr. Stipp did not properly provide documents pursuant to the Requests for Production of documents, and you were apparently not aware that my office had served your office with documents. As part of the meet and confer, you are required to state not only the response that you are challenging or want to discuss, but you are required to provide some reason or citation to law that forms the basis of your position. You did not do that in our conversation.

I see that you have filed a motion so this matter will go before Judge Ritchie even though we agreed that I would respond to the specifics of the letter you referenced as part of the conference. I think your motion is both premature, and that you have not met the good faith requirements of our rules. I will address your claims in my response to your motion and file the appropriate countermotion relating to the issues that Mr. Stipp raised with you (late identification of witnesses, production of documents containing settlement discussions, providing confidential communications with Mr. Ponzo, etc.) You did not respond to those issues in our conference today, so if you believe that there would be a benefit to discussing those objections, please let me know. If I do not receive your timely response to this email, I will understand that your client believes your identification of witnesses, and production of documents, is not subject to challenge and that any further discussion is unnecessary.

If you have further questions, let me know.

Best,

Radford

of the conversation? 1 A. The substance of the conversation was Mitch was standing? 2 taking Mia. And -- and I had -- and then we talked 3 about the incident, and I asked him, "Instead of 4 taking Mia, why don't you tell her not to hit her mom 5 and take her phone instead?" Because I said, "Think 6 very clearly about the message you're going to be 7 sending to Mia by taking her today."

Q. What was Mitch's response to that statement?

A. He said, "Given our history, I can't believe what you are telling me." And Amy was very defensive and saying, "We can't take her phone. She needs to have her phone."

Q. Do you recall anything else said by anyone in that conversation other than what you've just described?

A. It was a lengthy conversation. So...

Q. Okay. What -- what do you recall in that conversation as you sit here today?

A. I recall showing Mitch my injuries. I recall him like talking, but I don't remember specifically word for word verbatim what he said but --

Q. Okay. I'm asking you just to give your best recollection, not some transcript but your best recollection of what he said.

your garage where you and Amy were seated and Mitch

A. I remember several instances where she wanted Mitch to disengage from the conversation and leave. So, she kept saying, "Mitch, we got to go. We got to feed the kid," to the point where she got in the truck and was calling him to stop talking and come back to 8 9

Q. Okay. Other than the -- the statements that you've now described in regard to that conversation, can you recall anything else in that conversation?

A. No.

Q. Did Mitch offer, to your recollection, any explanation, other than he didn't trust you or didn't believe you, as to why he was taking Mia from your home?

17 A. Not that I recall.

18 Q. Did you advise him of the facts associated 19 with the altercation that you've described here today

20 in the deposition?

A. Yeah. Yes. 21

22 Q. Do you recall him reacting in any manner to that other than saying that he doesn't believe you? 23 24

Q. Was Mia in listening distance of this 10

A. That he -- he can't believe anything I say, given our history, and he's taking Mia.

Q. Anything else?

A. No.

Q. Do you recall anything else that Amy said during the conversation?

A. I just recall Amy being very defensive of any type of consequence for Mia's actions, to the point that it seemed that instead of being like a parent, she was like Mia's friend, like, You can't take her phone. You know, it was -- it was a strange dynamic.

MR. SMITH: I'm going to turn this off, because this will happen like 45,000 times per day. (Off the record.)

MR. SMITH: Okay. Okay. Let me go back on the record and say that I apologize. I had my iPhone watch. So, it -- it rings when my phone rings. And so I gave that outside to my office so it wouldn't interrupt us. Sorry about that.

BY MR. SMITH: 21

> Q. So, going back, you had indicated what you characterized as defensiveness with Amy.

> Was there anything that you can specifically recall she said during the time of the conference in

1 conversation? Was she present? 2

A. She was in the truck. The truck was in full view of our conversation. So, she was at the end of the driveway, and we were in the garage. I don't know if she could hear or not.

6 Q. Has there been anything that's occurred since

7 that date that suggests to you that she could hear the 8 conversation or has been made aware of the 9 conversation that occurred on that date?

A. She saw it visually but, no.

11 Q. There is nothing -- okay. Just so I'm clear: My question was, Is there anything that's occurred 12

13 since the date of that conversation that suggests to 14 you that Mia could hear or has been described the 15 conversation on that date?

A. No.

17 Q. Was anyone else present in the home, at the 18 time of the incident between you and Mia in April of 19 2019, that witnessed any portion of what had occurred?

A. No.

Q. Okay. So, after the incident with Mia in

2.2 April, what was the time share between you and Mitch in regard to Mia? 23

24 A. The exact same.

25 Q. Okay. So, there was never a time in which

- 1 Mitch had Mia in his care for an extended period 2 between April and the time of -- I believe it was 3 September or so, maybe August, when the second incident occurred.
  - A. There was no deviation in the schedule. I believe Mitch did exercise a vacation -- an extra vacation week in May.
    - Q. Okay. So, when was the next time that you can recall having Mia in your care after the April incident? How long was it?
  - A. One week. One week on, one week off. So, the Friday was the -- the exchange day, and I got her back the next Friday.
    - Q. And how would you describe your time with Mia during that week that you had her in your care following the April incident? Did it affect your relationship in any manner? is my point.
- 1 2 A. We had a talk when she first came back. She 19 apologized for hitting me. I told her she cannot do that again. And we proceeded, you know, regularly 20 21 without incident.
- 22 Q. Do you recall whether, after the conversation 23 you described at your home on the date of the incident in April, you had any additional conversations either 2.4 25 orally or through writing with Mitch or Amy regarding

- A. Uh-huh.
- 10 Q. And you indicated something about your phone 11 changing in October?
  - A. Yes. I got a new phone.
- 13 Q. Okay. And so is it your recollection that on 14 your previous phone there would be recordings and/or documents responsive to that request?
- 15 16 A. A recording. And I believe the request was 17 for videos. So, I have to download all the baseball
- 18 videos and music videos but no --19
  - Q. Okay.
- 20 A. If that's what was requested.

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. Let's talk about Mr. Ponzo. I think that you had indicated previously -- or let met just ask the question.

Did you select Mr. Ponzo to provide family therapy at any time?

Α. Yes.

Q. When was that?

A. When I first selected him? 13

14 Q. Yes.

15 A. I believe it was 2015.

Q. And when did that therapy end?

A. I believe it was 2017. 17

18 Q. How -- how many sessions do you recall attending -- or what is your best estimate of the 19 2.0

amount of sessions that you attended with Mr. Ponzo

21 between 2015 and 2017?

22 A. It wasn't consistent. So, it would be hard to estimate, but I would say -- I mean, I was just 23 guessing. At least once a month maybe. 24

Q. And so I don't want you to guess. I want your

A. To assist with the relationship dynamics.

3 of litigation that we started seeing Mr. Ponzo. The kids had been through that whole tension of conflict.

4 5 And we were transitioning to a new schedule in terms

6 of time share. And the kids were resistant to the 7 idea of me being their mom. Like that was one of the 8 weirdest parts of the therapy. Nick would say, "You have one mom." And they would say, "No. We have two moms."

10

11 So, it took about a year and a half before 12 they stopped being angry and antagonistic about that 13 basic concept.

14 Q. So, the -- the two moms they were referring to 15 is that they believed that they had a mother in Amy 16 Stipp and a mother, you, their natural mother.

17

18 A. Yeah. And Nick would tell them, "Yes. You 19 have a mom and a stepmom." And they would say, "No."

20 Q. And I assume you explored the reasons why that 21 occurred. Correct?

22 A. What, I explored it in therapy or Dr. -- or 23

5 Q. So, you don't know. The answer is, "I don't 6 know."

A. I don't know.

Q. Okay.

A. Okay.

Q. So -- but you do recall having multiple sessions with Mr. Ponzo between 2015 and 2017.

12 A. Yes.

Q. Correct? And were the children involved in 13 14 those sessions?

A. Some, ves.

16 Q. Okay. Were both children or just Mia or just 17 Ethan?

A. Sometimes it was both. Sometimes it was one. 18 19 Sometimes it was just me.

20 Q. Did you feel like you made progress in those 21 sessions?

22 A. Some.

23 Q. What was the -- without telling me the content 24 of the sessions, what was the general goal of the sessions from having family therapy with Mr. Ponzo?

1 felt they had two moms. 2

A. I don't know that Nick explored that explicitly or just talked about like the said directly, "Why do you feel that way?"

6 Q. And you don't recall them ever saying why.

A. I do not.

10 Q. Did family therapy with Mr. Ponzo resume after 11 August of 2019?

12 A. Yes.

Q. When?

14 A. In October.

15 O. Why?

16 A. We agreed on the record during a court hearing

17 to use Mr. Ponzo as a family therapist.

18 O. At the same time you were also involved in 19 therapy October 2019 with Ms. Wilburn. 20

Is that correct?

Q. Okay. Let's look at Request No. 6 in Exhibit B.

11 How is -- who is Ms. Connie Warling? 12 A. Mia's music teacher.

13 Q. Okay. And why do you believe that communications with Mia's music teacher that Mr. Stipp or Amy Stipp has made are relevant to this proceeding?

A. I don't know what they have said to 17 Ms. Warling. I know it's been difficult to get 18 information about Mia's past music performances.

19

20 I don't see why that would not be relevant, 21 how they communicate to third parties.

A. No. It's a point of inquiry.

O. Have you ever communicated with Ms. Warling about Mia in relation to her behavior as opposed to in 8 relation to her musical achievements or lessons?

A. I have.

10 Q. And when did you first do that?

A. I don't recall specifically when.

12 Q. So, give me a year.

A. At least a year ago.

14 O. Okay. And what was the -- what caused you to 15 reach out to Ms. Warling about Mia's behavior?

16 A. Mia misbehaved and did not earn music lesson

17 that week. So, I wanted to reach out to Ms. Warling

18 to let her know why we were -- why Mia was missing the 19 lesson and to communicate that -- that to her.

20 Ms. Warling shared with me that she had struggles of

> A. Oh, they will say -- they -- they regurgitate Mitch's line: "You need to take responsibility for your actions. You're never going to change. You're a

Q. And why do you call that Mitch's line?

A. Because they repeat exactly what's in Mitch's pleadings.

Q. Other than your statement about you need to take responsibility for your actions and that you're a liar, is there anything else that you can recall in Mitch's pleadings that suggest to you that the children have repeated something in those pleadings? 16 17 A. Yes. Like Nick Ponzo will share with me 1 2 discussions he has with Mitch and it's the same -

19 he -- he -- Mitch has met with Nick Ponzo and asked him, "Has she taken responsibility? What has she 20 admitted?" things to that effect. And then the kids 21

22 repeat the same thing: "You're -- you're not

23 changing. You're not learning from therapy. You have to take responsibility for your actions." 2.4

Q. What evidence did you supply Ms. Wilburn that when she said that your parenting strategies are not supported?

3 A. Use of electronic equipment, including cell 4 phones. 5

Q. Okay. What else?

A. Phone -- being -- being in their rooms all the time, Mia specifically.

Q. How is that your parenting strategy, that you want them in their rooms?

A. No, that I don't want them in their rooms.

11 Q. And what is it about -- what is Mitch doing to 12 undermine that parenting strategy of not having them 13 always in their rooms?

A. How Donna explained it is that Mitch is sabotaging my parenting by not abiding by an agreement to restrict service and access to cell phone. So, Mia lock herself in her room with her cell phone. And when I ask Mitch don't send the cell phone this week, he does anyway.

So, it's just like saying, I don't respect you as a parent, communicating that by words and/or actions to the kids and that just going on for years.

Q. Well, how long has it been since you have requested him -- well, first of all, how long has she had a cell phone: Mia?

58

confirms that, quote, your parenting strategies are not supported?

A. The cell phone. The cell phone has been an ongoing issue.

Q. Anything else? Any -- what are your parenting strategies that you believe are not supported by Mitch, other than the cell phone?

A. Anything. I mean, what he says to the kids about me being a bad parent, not believing me, it -just the dynamic that -- parenting dynamics I've discussed with Donna. Donna says that, "It appears that Mitch is relegating you to the level of a child and parenting you." So, you can't have a co-parent parent the other parent. And that's what Mitch tries to do.

And so since August he has decided "I am not going to even try to co-parent. I'm just going to keep the kids, and I'll give you whatever visits I deem appropriate."

Q. Well, the question started with, What are your parenting strategies that are not supported? So --

A. I said anything, any parenting.

Q. Okay. So, what -- what are your parenting strategies that were -- were -- that -- as you understood them, that Ms. Wilburn was referring to A. Since elementary school.

Q. Okay. And have you at various times, prior to the incident in April of 2019, attempted to restrict her use of her cell phone?

A. Yes. Uh-huh.

Q. And in those circumstances it's your statement that Mitch has never allowed you to restrict her cell phone?

A. No. He has not.

O. No, he has not.

A. He has not.

Q. Has he ever explained to you why he has not allowed you to -- to restrict the cell phone?

A. He just says, "Get it -- get it yourself. Go 14 15 ahead and take it from her." He has said that in 16

> And Donna's suggestion was, go to court, get an order. And I've wanted to avoid court for as long as possible, given the history.

Q. Okay. So, are you -- as part of the relief, you're seeking in this action to have absolute authority over the cell phone in your home.

22 A. I want normal parenting, co-parenting from 23

Mitch. I don't know that that's possible. 24 25

Q. That's not my question.

15 (Pages 57 to 60)

61 63 A. So, yes, to the extent that access to 1 e-mails, court documents, or the substance of that 2 electronic equipment is normal parenting, 2 information. 3 co-parenting, yes, that's what I would like. 3 Q. Correct? 2

A. Yes.

Q. So, you've explained the parenting strategies as the cell phone and the spending time in their room and exposing them to what you indicated are -- at least Mia being exposed to the pleadings and e-mails

Are there any other parenting strategies that you believe that Mitch has undermined?

- A. Yes, access to friends, like overnights with friends. Mitch objects when I allowed Ethan to spend the night at Allison's house. But when Ethan is in Mitch's care, he allows it.
- Q. Is Allison a boy or a girl?
- 15 A. Girl. But Allison is the mom of Ethan's best 16 friend, Nicholas.
- 17 Q. When did that occur? When did Ethan -- or did 18 Mitch object to Ethan staying at Allison's house?
  - A. In the summer of 2019.
- 20 Q. Did Mitch explain why he objected?
- 21 A. Yes.
- 22 Q. And what was his explanation?
- A. He said that Ethan reported to him that 23
- 24 Allison allows her teenage son to vape and have sex 25 like a little parent and said, "Amy is pissed that you let Ethan spend the night at Allison's. Allison is a bad parent." And I brought that to Mitch's attention, that why is Mia getting involved in this.

So, on December 25th, Christmas Day, after twenty or more e-mails back and forth about whether or not I was going to have a visit with the kids, Mitch ultimately brought the kids to my home, parked in front of my house. Allison's car was in front of my house. Mia text me from outside. I opened the garage door. And she said, "It appears you have company. Is this a good time?" And I said, "Absolutely it's a good time. Allison was just leaving." She said, "We'll come back when Allison is gone." And Mitch's car took off with the kids.

I text Mia back immediately, five minutes later: "Allison is gone. Are you coming back?" No response. I e-mailed Mitch. Mitch says, "We're already home. Ethan is uncomfortable with Allison being there and you sharing information with Allison." Then guess where Ethan spent the night on the 26th. Allison's house.

So, what message does that communicate to the kids? Right? You can't even see your own mother on Christmas Day, but go ahead and spend the night at

Q. Do you think it was unreasonable for him, with that knowledge, to object to the child spending the night there?

A. Yeah, but then he lets him spend the night there. That's what's unreasonable, like why -- why are you going to raise concerns about a parent and then allow the child to spend the night there during your time but not my time?

Q. When was the time, in relation to your request to have Ethan spend time at Allison's house, that you had knowledge that Mitchell -- Mitch allowed Ethan to spend time at Allison's house or overnights at

13 Allison's house? 14

A. I didn't request permission from Mitch to have Ethan spend the night. Mitch brought to my attention in the summer of 2019 that he had concerns about Allison's parenting, specifically vaping and sex. It -- as a result of his concerns to me, I did not allow Ethan to go on a trip with Allison in the 19 20

Then after that trip, Ethan spent the night at Allison's house. I believe it was August of 2019. And Mitch sent me an e-mail saying, "I question why you're letting him spend the night when we talked about it." And my -- and -- and Mia came to me at --

1 Allison's the next day. It's a game. 2

Q. All right. So, so far in your parenting strategies you've identified the cell phone, not in the room, the exposure to litigation, and access to Allison's house or concerns about access to Allison's

6 house and the allowing him to spend the night at Allison's house later.

A. Restricting access to friends' houses when they're in my care, that the same restrictions don't apply when they're in Mitch's care.

Q. And are there other friends that he's indicated to you that he would like you to restrict access to other than Allison's house?

A. No.

O. So, it's just Allison's house.

A. I don't think -- I don't know that Ethan spent the night at anybody else's house, that I know of.

O. So, other than those parenting strategies: allowing Ethan to stay at Allison's house, the use of 20 the children and their cell phones, staying in their rooms, and access of Mia to e-mails and pleadings, is 21 there any other parenting strategies that you believe

23 Mitch has undermined?

24 A. No.

happening in the case. You've indicated to me that it's your intent to do so. So, I --

MS. FUJII: Unfortunately -- and just to make 3 a quick record: The deposition of -- one second. 5

The deposition of Gerardo Hernandez, who is Mitch's step -- father-in-law. Sorry -- father-in-law was filed on December 10, 2019 and served. But as you know, as a witness I had to subpoena Gerardo Hernandez. The clerk of the court had to issue that subpoena, which was electronically issued on December 11th. And then that was filed and served. I then had to pay -- schedule with Oasis scheduling reporting that would be at my office. In addition, I had to pay a legal process server a hundred and fifty dollars to personally serve him.

At our discussion on December 20th, which was a Friday before Christmas, we discussed doing all depositions here, which would be very convenient for counsel and I, as I did not think Mr. Stipp's deposition nor the deposition of the grandfather would take a while, would take more than a few hours. So, that was my understanding.

I did not believe reissuing a notice for a subpoena for service would be necessary nor pay an course, to be present via telephone if we break before Mitch's deposition, which was agreed to conclude at the conclusion of Christina's or Mr. Hernandez's. I will allow that, of course.

MR. SMITH: So, I just want to note that -for the record that my statement on the record is, that was agreed upon at the last proceeding was the next thing that's going to happen in this case is, we're going to complete Christina's deposition. There was never any discussion that we would -- there would be an ongoing deposition of Amy's father. In fact, I said Amy's father -- we will talk to him to -- and she -- you said that is part -- it has to be part and parcel. I said we will be there at the time for his deposition; I know Nick -- Mitch does not think that that's his responsibility. It isn't. And if he refuses, of course, we can't do anything about that. MS. FUJII: Right.

MR. SMITH: But he's under subpoena.

MS. FUJII: And what I indicated on the record was, I did not mind continuing Christina's deposition. We could have arranged to do it at any time, because we had her present right there.

What is more difficult is to reschedule a subpoenaed witness for which we've already paid a additional legal process invoice of another hundred and fifty dollars to try and serve him over the Christmas holiday just to change locations. And we 3 were doing it at the same time.

So, I had a phone log of contact to Mr. Hernandez and texts to him as well which he ignored, which means, unfortunately, I am forced that -- to -- to take his deposition at the location previously agreed to, which was at my office, because no one spoke to him, and he refused to respond to me. So, I -- I have to now incur, because of e-mails from Mr. Stipp -- I sent numerous e-mails regarding this, giving deadlines, because I didn't want it to be inconvenient, and did not receive a response only from Mr. Stipp, the client, saying that he -- that I have to make alternative arrangements with Mr. Hernandez when I had subpoenaed him and gone to great lengths to perfect that service when in -- in truth, we agreed to all depositions being here on one location so all counsel could attend.

Because I could not reach the witness, who I guess Mr. Stipp is attesting he couldn't talk to either, and my attempts, you know, were unsuccessful, I have to then be at two places at one time. If necessary, I can make it possible for Mr. Smith, of 1 process server to serve. And being that we could not reach him and no efforts were made by Mitch to help 2 assist in that regard, we have no choice but to be at 3 4 two places at the same time. 5

MR. SMITH: Do you really think that the judge is going to think that after you have agreed that we're going to complete the deposition here, that it's -- and we did so because you had to go to your hair appointment.

MS. FUJII: That is --

MR. SMITH: -- that that was -- that that's an appropriate thing to do, is to proceed forward with a deposition of a witness who is, by any means, peripheral? I mean, the judge has made that -- over and over indicated that the -- the -- he wants to hear from the parties and the children. And we have what --

MS. FUJII: Counsel, that's -- counsel, that's your opinion.

MR. SMITH: One day.

MS. FUJII: The truth is, we have depositions scheduled and set and timely noticed. Those were to occur at certain times. If yours was cut short, arrangements could have been made with Christina right there as to another day -- let me finish. -- as to

- Q. When was the last time you can recall Amy 2 giving permission for the children to do something without your consent or knowledge?
  - A. I know that she signed up for Mia's PSAT college board account, and she and Mitch refused to provide me information regarding her test scores.
  - O. When did you ask for that?
  - A. Jan -- December and -- December 2018 and January 2019.

- 13 Q. Did you subsequently use -- learn what those 14 scores were?
- 15 A. Yes.
- 16 O. And were they -- how did you learn about that?
- 17 A. I had to call the college board to find out

- A. She doesn't reside in my household. I don't 3 4 reside in hers. She works with her -- their dad to 5 parent the children when they're in his care.
- Q. Okay. Have you communicated that there is a difference between you and Amy, when it comes to parenting the children, to the children?
  - A. No.
- 10 Q. Have you ever discussed Amy's role, in 11 parenting them, with the children?
- 12 A. No.
- Q. What is Mia's relationship with Amy, to your 13 14 knowledge?
- 15 A. Good.
- 16 Q. Okay. And does that concern you?
- 17 A. Only to the extent that Amy is not supportive
- 18 of Mia having a healthy relationship with me.
- O. And this goes back to the idea that she's in 19 20 lockstep with Mitch in regard to what has occurred in
- this litigation. Correct? 21

- Q. Did -- did you ever advise Mitch and Amy that you had gained access to the board scores?

1 A. About a year ago it was suggested that it would be helpful for the kids for Mitch and I to 2 3 interact as normal human beings during the school 4 functions and kid activities.

So, during a baseball game I went up to Mitch and asked him how did Ethan bat. Mitch was sitting next to Grandpa Jerry. Mitch told me about Ethan's performance when I wasn't at the game. We shared information about Ethan's thoughts on the baseball team. Mitch was upset that they didn't put Ethan in the infield, that they had him in the outfield. And I went back to my seat. We had a normal conversation.

Right after that baseball game Mitch rushed over to me with a weird expression on his face and he said, "Amy said that she saw you walk over and talk to me, and she thinks you did it to make her jealous. So, I can no longer communicate with you in person. All communications between us have to be in e-mail." And Amy was circling, circling, watching us. And then

- 20 Mitch waved her over. She came over to both of us, 21 and she said, "You shouldn't talk to people who don't
  - like you."
- 23 O. And when did these events occur?

Mitch: So we had some issues and we talked about um our conversation at your house and then um and then we talked to Mia about (inaudible) and then talked about many things about what happened yesterday

Christina: Ok

Mitch: Uh...with regard to the her (inaudible) the doorbell issue

Here...here's overall the way I see it. The way I see it is that given the choice I think both Mia and Ethan would both prefer to live with us...but...(inaudible) and and I'm not saying that is even a question whether it be...[long pause]

And so so I'm not I'm not speaking as to uh (inaudible) want to live (inaudible)

Number two...uh...obviously, you're their mother, you love them

Number three, there's clearly a difference of how they act at your house versus at our house because you primarily have issues with Mia. Um. I think Mia's anxiety has a lot to do I think with the way that she acts and...um...whether the anxiety is a product of the nature of her personality, environmental factors, age, the divorce, the way that she's been treated by you or your family, or me and our family, there's a number of reasons and and no one can pinpoint specifically with one-hundred percent certainty as to why. Right?

We can all have beliefs. You can have your belief...uh that...you know...and I'm just ...I want you to hear me out...

Christina: Yeah. That's fine.

Mitch: your belief may be you know uh that um she's afraid of me that and so she she doesn't act the way she does at your house and she Amy doesn't have a relationship with her like a parent, it's more of a friendship, so there's a different dynamic there and uh I brainwashed the kids and my family brainwashed the kids and so therefore (inaudible) so uh....

The issue is...is that I...I don't want to speak to why I think the kids act the way they do but I want to move past that...I don't want either child to be cursing at your house either at each other or uh to you or I whether (inaudible) in general I think that you should curse at them, if you curse, it's your house, and you're a parent, you can do what you want, calling them names and things of that nature...Now I'm not saying whether you do or you don't...I'm not speaking to that...I'm just...I wouldn't want a parent-child relationship where your daughter calls you...whatever. Or you call her a whore, bitch, cunt or this and that. And Ethan, you know, doing the same...

Number two is that you do need some mechanism in which to enforce your rules...and it doesn't appear that is Mia respected you in that regard. Uh...if you...if Mia does something that's inappropriate...you...and you want to uh uh punish her appropriately by taking away her phone then...it appears that you're not able to do that...either because—and for whatever reason—

As a general matter, uh you...you uh should have the ability to impose some punishment for you know bad behavior, whatever it is, bad grade, um um the kids fighting, um Mia acting inappropriately, whatever there has to be some kind of...I don't think there should ever be I'm going to call your friends, I'm going to call your friend's parents, I'm going to call the school, I'm going to call the counselor, I'm going to call the teacher, (inaudible) um uh...

Should you be able to take Mia's phone away? Yes.

Christina: Uh huh

Mitch: We have. Um. We're ok with that. We will work with you to ensure that that is the case. Um. And. So...I don't...those are just a lot of thoughts...

Christina: Sure.

Mitch: that we have come up with...

Christina: Sure.

Mitch: We're not um I'm not here to tell you that they prefer (inaudible) I'm not here to tell you that we're planning (inaudible) have I thought of all of those things? Yes. Uh. Do I think that is the potentially better off in the short term but maybe in the long term with us? Uh. Do I think you should have the opportunity to repair your relationship with Mia? Or to the extent that it needs to be repaired with Ethan? Under the right circumstances? Yes.

Christina: Ok.

Mitch: And the circumstances that I am talking about are the circumstances that I am suggesting. So. What I want...what I want from you ... is...is it possible to clean slate?

I don't think it will benefit you to punish Mia for what has transpired over the last couple of weeks. Even though I think...from your point of view and based on the facts and circumstances...she likely deserves punishment. There's no question. Um...

Christina: Well there's the consequences...

Mitch: Consequences.

Christina: Yeah.

Mitch: I think Mia...as I talked about before...she has substantial anxiety.

Christina: Yes.

Mitch: And that anxiety...um...that anxiety is claimed...um...by the nature of your relationship with her...and so...as it turns out...personality...or whatever there's a conflict there in terms of...of the way you in which you interact with her that heightens her anxiety.

Christina: I didn't hear the last part.

Mitch: Heightens her anxiety.

Christina: ok.

Mitch: Um. And her anxiety has obviously been substantial over the last two weeks because of finals, performances, trips, travel, all of that stuff

Christina: Correct.

Mitch: Um. And so...is that your fault? Like I said we're not getting into why she has anxiety...

Christina: I think we'll never agree. I think we need to agree to disagree...

Mitch: Right. Exactly.

Christina: ...on...

Mitch: It's not worth...

Christina: ...on why. On the question of why.

Mitch: It's not worth it.

Christina: We are here now.

Mitch: Right.

Christina: Got it.

Mitch: So. The thing is is...the thing is...is that we don't want Mia to act that way to you or anybody else.

Christina: Right.

Mitch: Regardless of how I feel or Amy feels or we feel about each other, it shouldn't happen.

Christina: Yeah.

Mitch: Uh. Even if what you're doing...uh...you know...Mia doesn't agree with, or we don't agree with, I can't imagine a set of circumstances where what you are doing is going to be...you know... SO extreme that it results in (inaudible)...it should have. You know. Um. There should be no contact (inaudible) either you or her or vice versa. She shouldn't be. You shouldn't be. Nobody should be destroying anybody's property. It shouldn't...it shouldn't happen.

Christina: Right.

Mitch: And if these things do happen. (inaudible) There's really a problem. Regardless of whether it's Mia's fault or not. Um. All that stuff needs to be worked to try to resolve it.

Christina: Ok.

Mitch: Um. So. We want to help you. We want to help you as best and to the extent that you want us to.

Christina: Ok.

Mitch: Uh. We want to support you, um, but we want you to, um, I'm going to trust you, you have to trust us...

Christina: Ok.

Mitch: There's things that we don't like we want to be able to say and vice versa

Christina: Ok.

Mitch: Um. We...we want both the kids to see that we're communicating, we are on the same page, and we, uh...if they do something there that's (inaudible) that you call or text us and to the extent that you can't take Mia's phone away because she won't give it to you, then, at least initially, I'll come and get it. Uh...

Christina: Or cut service.

Mitch: Huh?

Christina: Or cut service.

Mitch: But...and that's what we were talking about. The idea would be that if I have to do that they are not getting it back.

Christina: Ok.

Mitch: And I don't think it makes a difference, at least initially...

Christina: Yeah.

Mitch: ....in terms of the consequences. Whatever the circumstances, that if I have to pick up a phone...

Amy: We don't want to have to turn them on and off, on and off, on and off with Mia...

Christina: Ok.

Mitch: If I take it, I'm just going to take it away.

Christina: Ok.

Mitch: Uh. And, and that will...and...and...that will motivate Mia to, you know, behave appropriate.

Christina: Uh huh.

Mitch: I mean. Obviously she has a lot of trust and anger issues, lot of anger, she feels it (inaudible) she doesn't like you, and things of that nature...whatever the source but the bottom line is that Mia still is (inaudible) she can't act inappropriate

Subject: RE: Stipp SAO re Discovery Hearing

Valarie,

This is a perfect example of no good deed goes unpunished. Mitch and I spend the time to answer interrogatories by citing information that is already in a deposition (something that I am confident is not required under the current standard in Rule 26), and provide additional responses that frankly ignored the significant problems and rationale objections to your requests, yet you insist on more litigation.

No one is going to the hearing because of the stipulation to vacate. Please provide us any proposed recommendation you intend to submit to the court; we do not agree that you were awarded fees.

Further, your creation of a transcript yesterday that you claimed was already created is troubling at best. We would like the copy of the transcript that both you and Christina claimed was in your office at the time of her deposition. Moreover, our deal on our Motion to compel was based upon the stipulation we sent that would have dismissed your motion. Consequently, because you have not complied with either part of the offer (no authentic transcript and no vacation of the motion), you will need to supplement your discovery responses consistent with the terms of the letter sent to you from Mr. Stipp pursuant to EDCR 5.602. We believe that we have met the requirements of that rule, but if you want to discuss the problems with Christina's responses to discovery identified in the letter, please let me know. Moreover, I am not aware of any rule that prevents a party from seeking to enforce the discovery rules after the close of discovery for discovery that was served prior to the deadline.

I suspect that you will incur more in fees proceeding with this course, so you may want to consider taking the first deal, vacating the motion and request for fees, but that is up to you. I look forward to hearing from you.

Subject: RE: Stipp SAO re Discovery Hearing

Attached hereto is my signature vacating the hearing scheduled for tomorrow. I disagree however, as the Hearing Master ordered fees. "I am going to grant attorneys fees to her because EDCR 5.602(d) was met ." (See VC 3:53:20), and it is in her affidavit." Ms. Fujii argued fees are mandated and not discretionary pursuant to NRCP Rule 37(a)(4)(a) unless an exception applies. See State Emps. Ass'n, Inc. v. Daines 108 Nev. 15, 19, 824 P.2d 276, 278 (1992) Hines v. Nat'l Default Servicing Corp (Nev. 2015) even making a good faith effort to obtain the discovery responses before filing of the Motion will not preclude the award of fees. See NRCP 37(a)(4) setting forth sanctions where the "requested discovery is provided after the motion to compel was filed. Okada v. Eight Judicial Dist. Court of Nevada., 408 P. 3d 566 (Nev. 2018). (VC 4:09:50)

I see no reason to appear tomorrow just to ensure fees when it was already ordered. If Radford disagrees with the Report and Recommendation for fees awarded, he can file an objection, but why go again and expend additional money.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Defendant MITCHELL STIPP's Motion to Compel Responses to Discovery and for Attorney's Fees and Costs is improper pursuant to EDCR 5.602(d) for the following reasons:

- Defendant's counsel Mr. Smith failed to send correspondence to Plaintiff's counsel Ms. Fujii identifying which of Plaintiff's discovery requests he believed were insufficient and the reasons for the deficiency;
- 2. Defendant's counsel Mr. Smith failed to schedule a Conference with Plaintiff's counsel Ms. Fujii and Notice the same; and
- 3. Defendant's counsel Mr. Smith failed to personally discuss the alleged deficiencies in Plaintiff's discovery responses with Plaintiff's counsel Ms. Fujii prior to the filing of Defendant's Motion to Compel.

Defendant's Motion to Compel was filed on January 29, 2020, which was 16 days beyond the Discovery Cut-Off of January 13, 2020, and 27 days following Defendant's receipt of Plaintiff's discovery responses. If Defendant had truly found Plaintiff's discovery responses insufficient, he had ample opportunity between receipt of the same on January 2 and the DCO on January 13, 2020, to address the same with Plaintiff's counsel. No such communication occurred until the filing of Defendant's Motion to Compel on January 29, 2020. Defendant's Motion to Compel was obviously retaliatory in nature, since Plaintiff's own Motion to Compel had just been granted by the Discovery Commissioner in this matter on January 24, 2020, and Plaintiff was awarded fees for the same.

Further, following the filing of Defendant's Motion to Compel, Defendant's counsel Mr. Smith and Plaintiff's counsel Ms. Fujii reached an agreement that Defendant's Motion would be vacated if Ms. Fujii provided a transcript of the parties' conversation with occurred at Starbucks which Plaintiff had recorded. See Exhibit 1, text messages between Mr. Smith, Ms. Fujii and Ms. Fujii's paralegal Theresa Locklar on Wednesday, February 5, 2020, confirming the agreement. See also Exhibit 2, email from Ms. Fujii's paralegal Ms. Locklar to Mr. Smith dated Thursday, February 6, 2020, with the attached Starbucks transcript and requesting that he vacate the hearing pursuant to the agreement.

Defendant's counsel Mr. Smith sent an email to Ms. Fujii on Friday, February 7, 2020, which stated in part, "Further, your creation of a transcript yesterday that you claimed was already created is troubling at best. We would like the copy of the transcript that both you and Christina claimed was in your office at the time of her deposition." Ms. Fujii responded with an email to Mr. Smith on February 7, 2020, as follows: "I have neither the time nor the desire to recreate a transcript or falsify or amend documents. I gave you what I got, which is the same thing we had, which was mentioned at the depo." Mr. Smith's responsive email also on February 7, 2020, was as follows: "The metadata associated with the document shows that it was created by your client the day it was produced." See Exhibit 3 for the three emails referenced in this paragraph.

Unbelievably, Defendant's counsel Mr. Smith was accusing Plaintiff's counsel Ms. Fujii of creating the transcript of the parties' conversation at Starbucks on February 6, 2020. For some unknown reason, Mr. Smith and/or his client Defendant STIPP searched the "properties" of the Starbucks transcript file that was emailed to Mr. Smith in the February 6, 2020, email by Ms. Fujii's paralegal Ms. Locklar, and "discovered" that it had been "created" on February 6, 2020, thereby causing Defendant and Mr. Smith to presume some nefarious dealings on the part of Plaintiff CHRISTINA and her counsel Ms. Fujii. Of course, none such existed.

See Exhibit 4, the email from Ms. Fujii's paralegal Ms. Locklar to Mr. Smith dated February 7, 2020, which stated the following:

Hello Radford,

Before we sent you the Starbucks transcript yesterday, Christina corrected two misspellings of the word "hear" to "here" and she saved it in pdf format. She did not want the MS Word "docx" version of the document sent over. However, because Mitch believes that his foray into the metadata proves that the transcript was created yesterday, we are sending over the MSWord document which we received from Christina on 09-09-19. Please note that it contains two misspellings of the word "hear" which should have been "here". Otherwise, the document is the same.

Valarie states that she sincerely hopes that Mitch looks into taking some medication for his OCD.

Following that February 7, 2020, email, Plaintiff CHRISTINA and her counsel Ms. Fujii believed that the issue of Defendant's baseless Motion to Compel was resolved, and that his counsel Mr. Smith would be vacating the hearing thereon, especially in light of the fact that Defendant already faced paying Plaintiff attorney's fees in her own Motion to Compel which was granted at the hearing on January 24, 2020, in this matter. Then, on Monday, February 10, 2020, Ms. Fujii was served with an Ex Parte Application for an Order Shortening Time on Defendant's Motion to Compel with Defendant's request to go forward with his Motion before the Discovery Commissioner prior to Day #2 of the Evidentiary Hearing on March 5, 2020.

Therefore, Plaintiff has been forced to file this Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Compel Responses to Discovery and for Attorney's Fees and Costs, which must be denied for the reasons described hereinabove. Plaintiff is further requesting that the Court grant her Countermotion for Fees for being forced to pay her counsel to file this Countermotion and appear at the hearing in this matter.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. Defendant Failed to Comply With EDCR 5.602(d):

EDCR 5.602(d) states the following:

A discovery motion must set forth that after a discovery dispute conference or a good-faith effort to confer, counsel were unable to resolve the matter satisfactorily, detailing what attempts to resolve the dispute were made, what was resolved and what was not resolved, and why. A conference requires either a personal or telephone conference between or among the parties; if a personal or telephone conference was not possible, the motion shall set forth the reasons. Such a motion must be supported by affidavit. (Emphasis added)

At the time that Defendant's counsel Mr. Smith filed Defendant's Motion to Compel Responses to Discovery and for Attorney's Fees and Costs on January 29, 2020, he had failed to comply with EDCR 5.602(d). That same day, January 29, 2020, Plaintiff's counsel Ms. Fujii e-served a letter on Mr. Smith advising him of the deficiencies and requesting that he immediately vacate the motion, as follows:

We are in receipt of the Motion to Compel filed today in this case; however, counsel failed to comply with the Rules, as you did not do the following PRIOR to filing said Motion: 1) send a letter to my office identifying which discovery requests were insufficient and the reasons for the deficiency; and 2) reach out to my office and schedule an EDCR 5.602(d) Conference and notice the same. "A discovery motion must set forth that after a discovery dispute conference or a good faith effort to confer, counsel were unable to resolve the matter satisfactorily, detailing what attempts to resolve the dispute were made, what was resolved and what was not resolved, and why. A conference requires either a personal or telephone conference between or among the parties; if a personal or telephone conference was not possible, the motion shall set forth the reasons. Such a motion must be supported by affidavit." EDCR 5.602(d). The Motion to Compel contained no such Affidavit. Further, the Motion to Compel was filed beyond the Discovery Cut-Off of January 13, 2020.

I am willing to supplement Plaintiff's Responses; however, you must vacate Defendant's Motion to Compel immediately. It is dilatory in nature and done in bad faith, especially based upon our recent appearance before the Discovery Commissioner. If we are forced to file an Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Compel, we will seek an award for fees.

Please call me if you have any questions or wish to discuss this further. As you know, my direct cell phone number is 702-525-9968, and my paralegal Theresa's cell phone number is 702-292-9034. Our shared email address is vip@fujiilawlv.com. Thank you.

See Exhibit 5.

Defendant STIPP himself responded with the filing of a "Declaration of MITCHELL STIPP" filed January 29, 2020, which stated:

- 1. I attempted to meet and confer with Valerie [sic] Fujii who represents the Plaintiff in this case regarding the deficiencies in her client's responses to written discovery. Ms. Fujii refused to respond to emails or speak to me via telephone.
- 2. Radford Smith (co-counsel with the undersigned) and Ms. Fuji [sic] had a telephone conference on January 14, 2020 regarding these deficiencies and other matters.
- 3. Plaintiff has not supplemented her responses to written discovery.

26

27

- 4. Trial is scheduled to resume on March 5, 2020.
- 5. A motion to compel is necessary to obtain complete responses by Plaintiff before trial is completed.
- 6. I am competent and willing to testify before the Discovery Commissioner as to the facts contained in the motion to compel and exhibits filed in support. I have personal knowledge of these facts, save those stated upon information and/or belief, and as to those matters, I believe them to be true.

Defendant STIPP's Declaration contains FALSE and misleading information to the Court. First, there were no attempts by Defendant and/or his counsel Mr. Smith to meet and confer with Ms. Fujii regarding any alleged deficiencies to Plaintiff's discovery responses. No proof of any such attempts can be provided, i.e. no letters attempting to schedule an EDCR 5.602(d) Conference. no Notice of EDCR 5.602(d) Conference, no telephone records of attempts to telephone her, etc. Emails do not suffice as communication pursuant to EDCR 5.602(d); the communication must be in person or telephonic. Secondly, the EDCR 5.602(d) Conference held on January 14, 2020, between Ms. Fujii and Mr. Smith was as to the deficiencies in Defendant's discovery responses, not Plaintiff's. See Notice of EDCR 5.602(d) Conference filed by Ms. Fujii on January 10, 2020. The fact that Defendant STIPP sent two emails to Ms. Fujii regarding Plaintiff's responses on January 14, 2020, one 13 minutes prior to the 10:00 EDCR 5.602(d) Conference, and one 2 minutes before, does not mean that those emails were received by Ms. Fujii or Mr. Smith or discussed in the telephonic conference (See Defendant's Exhibit F). In any event, nothing contained in Defendant's January 14, 2020, emails have anything to do with the subject of Defendant's Motion to Compel. Specifically, Defendant STIPP's emails of January 14, 2020, which he stated is his EDCR 5.602(d) communication compliance herein, related to the following ONLY:

- Communications/documents regarding therapy with Nicolas
   Ponzo which Plaintiff included in her NRCP 16.2 Disclosures and which Defendant will seek to have excluded at trial;
- 2. A transcript of a conversation that the parties had at Starbucks which Defendant wants Plaintiff to produce; and
- 3. Confidential settlement communications which Defendant believes that Plaintiff may want to use at trial and which he will seek to have excluded. (Emphasis added)

However, in his Motion to Compel, Defendant has raised other issues not addressed in his January 14, 2020, email to Ms. Fujii, which he maintains is his EDCR 5.602(d) communication to specifically address the concerns he has regarding Plaintiff's discovery responses. Mr. Smith reaffirmed that in his email to Ms. Fujii on the afternoon on January 14, 2020, which addressed only the ancillary issues and none of the issues contained in Defendant's Motion to Compel, as follows:

When we spoke this morning I advised you that I had just left court, and that I did not have the file or the discovery documents in front of me. . . I will address your claims in my response to your motion and file the appropriate countermotion relating to the issues that Mr.

Stipp raised with you (late identification of witnesses, production of documents containing settlement discussions, providing confidential communications with Mr. Ponzo, etc.) You did not respond to those issues in our conference today, so if you believe that there would be a benefit to discussing those objections, please let me know. If I do not receive your timely response to this email, I will understand that your client believes your identification of witnesses, and production of documents, is not subject to challenge and that any further discussion is unnecessary. (Emphasis added)

It is painfully clear that neither Defendant STIPP nor his counsel Mr. Smith has complied with EDCR 5.602(d) herein, in that: 1) there was no written communication to Ms. Fujii outlining any alleged deficiencies in Plaintiff's discovery responses which are the subject of Defendant's Motion to Compel on file herein; 2) there was no scheduling of an EDCR 5.602(d) Conference and no Notice of EDCR 5.602(d) Conference was filed; and 3) there was no telephonic or in person conference regarding any alleged deficiencies in Plaintiff's discovery responses, prior to the filing of Defendant's Motion to Compel. In addition, following the filing of Defendant's Motion to Compel, in fact on the same day of its filing, Plaintiff's counsel Ms. Fujii advised Mr. Smith of the deficiencies in the Motion and offered to supplement any inadequate responses, but warned him to vacate the Motion or Defendant would face additional fees being awarded to the Plaintiff by the Discovery Commissioner (the DC awarded fees to Plaintiff at the hearing on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel on January 24, 2020). See Exhibit 5.

On February 5, 2020, counsel reached an agreement that Defendant's counsel would vacate the hearing on his Motion if Plaintiff's counsel provided the Exhibit 2. When the transcript was provided to Defendant's counsel on February 6, 2020, Mr. Smith accused Ms. Fujii of creating the transcript on that same date (February 6, 2020), and even after Ms. Fujii provided proof that she did not on February 7, 2020, Defendant filed an Ex Parte Application for his Motion to Compel to be heard on an Order Shortening Time.

III.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

Plaintiff is requesting that she be awarded attorney's fees from Defendant in the amount of $5,000.00 for being forced to file this Opposition and Counter-Motion and have her attorney appear on her behalf at the time of the hearing in this matter. Defendant STIPP and his counsel Mr. Smith failed to comply with EDCR 5.602(d) prior to the filing of the Motion to Compel, and thereafter reneged on an agreement to vacate the Motion if Plaintiff's counsel provided the transcript of the parties' conversation at Starbucks, which she did. Further, absolutely nothing addressed in Defendant's Motion to Compel was EVER addressed either in writing or verbally AT ANY TIME between counsel, as the issues contained in Defendant's Exhibit F are COMPLETELY DIFFERENT ISSUES and Defendant is attempting to "pull one over" on this Court to make it believe he complied with the Rules when it fact he has continued his flagrant disregard of the same.

NRCP 37(a)(5)(B) states the following:

If the motion is denied, the court may issue any protective order authorized under Rule 26(c) and must, after giving an opportunity to be heard, require the movant, the attorney filing the motion, or both to pay the party or deponent who opposed the motion its reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney fees. But the court must not order this payment if the motion was substantially justified or other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

Therefore, Plaintiff is seeking attorney's fees in the amount of $5,000.00.

IV.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the above, Plaintiff CHRISTINA CALDERON respectfully requests that the Discovery Commissioner deny Defendant's Motion to Compel Responses to Discovery and for Attorney's Fees and Costs, and grant Plaintiff's Counter-Motion for Attorney's Fees in the sum of $5,000.00 herein.

He lied and said he tried to discuss with me personally the deficiencies not true no EDCR 2.34 conference noticed by him or you prior to filing of motion. That's a nonissue. He sent e-mail only after discovery was already cut off and did not attempt to speak with me as required. Also he had plenty of time to do all of this prior to discovery cut off.

Let's agree to disagree, but the issue can be resolved simply by you providing the transcript of the tape you provided. The tape you gave us is unintelligible, and both you and Christina indicated at her depo that you have the transcript.

Hi Radford, This is Theresa because Val is back in court. It is her abuse and neglect track day. Just to clarify, are you saying that if Christina provides the hairsellot and

Good morning Radford and Courtney,

Attached is the Starbucks transcript. As you discussed with Val, please vacate Mitch's Motion to Compel set for March 6, 2020, as Mitch did not comply with EDCR 5.602 by having a personal discussion with me prior to filing his Motion.

Radford,

I have neither the time nor the desire to recreate a transcript or falsify or amend documents. I gave you what I got, which is the same thing we had, which was mentioned at the depo.

As to Mitch's MTC, we never had an EDCR 5.602(d) Conference regarding Christina's discovery responses, nor is it relevant because none of this was done before the DCO, and you and Mitch had our client's discovery responses for 26 days prior to the MTC being filed.

You cannot try to back door or correct the untimeliness, deficiencies and procedural defects of your client's MTC now. Vacate the hearing, or I will again request fees.

Valarie,

This is a perfect example of no good deed goes unpunished. Mitch and I spend the time to answer interrogatories by citing information that is already in a deposition (something that I am confident is not required under the current standard in Rule 26), and provide additional responses that frankly ignored the significant problems and rationale objections to your requests, yet you insist on more litigation.

No one is going to the hearing because of the stipulation to vacate. Please provide us any proposed recommendation you intend to submit to the court; we do not agree that you were awarded fees.

Further, your creation of a transcript yesterday that you claimed was already created is troubling at best. We would like the copy of the transcript that both you and Christina claimed was in your office at the time of her deposition. Moreover, our deal on our Motion to compel was based upon the stipulation we sent that would have dismissed your motion. Consequently, because you have not complied with either part of the offer (no authentic transcript and no vacation of the motion), you will need to supplement your discovery responses consistent with the terms of the letter sent to you from Mr. Stipp pursuant to EDCR 5.602. We believe that we have met the requirements of that rule, but if you want to discuss the problems with Christina's responses to discovery identified in the letter, please let me know. Moreover, I am not aware of any rule that prevents a party from seeking to enforce the discovery rules after the close of discovery for discovery that was served prior to the deadline.

I suspect that you will incur more in fees proceeding with this course, so you may want to consider taking the first deal, vacating the motion and request for fees, but that is up to you. I look forward to hearing from you.

Hello Radford,

Before we sent you the Starbucks transcript yesterday, Christina corrected two misspellings of the word "hear" to "here" and she saved it in pdf format. She did not want the MS Word "docx" version of the document sent over. However, because Mitch believes that his foray into the metadata proves that the transcript was created yesterday, we are sending over the MSWord document which we received from Christina on 09-09-19. Please note that it contains two misspellings of the word "hear" which should have been "here". Otherwise, the document is the same.

Valarie states that she sincerely hopes that Mitch looks into taking some medication for his OCD.

Re: Christina Calderon v. Mitchell Stipp; Case No. D-08-389203-Z

Dear Radford:

We are in receipt of the Motion to Compel filed today in this case; however, counsel failed to comply with the Rules, as you did not do the following PRIOR to filing said Motion: 1) send a letter to my office identifying which discovery requests were insufficient and the reasons for the deficiency; and 2) reach out to my office and schedule an EDCR 5.602(d) Conference and notice the same. "A discovery motion must set forth that after a discovery dispute conference or a good faith effort to confer, counsel were unable to resolve the matter satisfactorily, detailing what attempts to resolve the dispute were made, what was resolved and what was not resolved, and why. A conference requires either a personal or telephone conference between or among the parties; if a personal or telephone conference was not possible, the motion shall set forth the reasons. Such a motion must be supported by affidavit." EDCR 5.602(d). The Motion to Compel contained no such Affidavit. Further, the Motion to Compel was filed beyond the Discovery Cut-Off of January 13, 2020.

I am willing to supplement Plaintiff's Responses; however, you must vacate Defendant's Motion to Compel immediately. It is dilatory in nature and done in bad faith, especially based upon our recent appearance before the Discovery Commissioner. If we are forced to file an Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Compel, we will seek an award for fees.

Please call me if you have any questions or wish to discuss this further. As you know, my direct cell phone number is 702-525-9968, and my paralegal Theresa's cell phone number is 702-292-9034. Our shared email address is vip@fuiilawlv.com. Thank you.
