State's Opposition to Defendant's Motion for Bail FILED IN OPEN COURT. Discussion between Court and counsel regarding the current bail setting as to the charges. Argument by Ms. Diefenbach requesting a standard bail setting on each of the counts and noted that Defendant is homeless and would most likely be unable to make that bail. Argument by Ms. Pandukht advising Defendant was very bold in his actions against the victims in this case, has past felonies, and that he is a substantial danger to the victims if released. Ms. Pandukht further stated Count V qualifies Defendant as a violent criminal and requested a One Million dollar bail setting on Count V alone. Further arguments by counsel. COURT ORDERED, Bail set in the amount of $75,000 PER COUNT. Calendar call and trial dates STAND. CUSTODY ;

DEFT'S MOTION TO APPOINT NEW COUNSEL...DEFT'S PRO PER MOTION TO DISMISS COUNSEL AND APPOINTMENT OF NEW COUNSEL Ms. Pandukht present before court convened. Ms. Kollins present when the matter was called. Mr. Avants advised this is Ms. Diefenbach's case and that she had requested a one-day continuance. COURT SO ORDERED. Matter RECALLED at Defendant's request. Defendant advised the Court that he had letters he had written to the Court and a letter Ms. Diefenbach had written to him stating she had intercepted said letters and allegedly instructed Defendant not to communicate with the Court directly. Court advised Defendant it would be improper for this Court to obtain communication which would possibly violate Defendant's confidentiality rights between himself and his attorney. Defendant argued these were letters advising the Court of why he was requesting new counsel. Court requested Defendant remove the letter from Ms. Diefenbach and the Court accepted Defendant's letters to the Court. Defendant attempted to make a statement regarding being diagnosed as bi-polar. Mr. Avants stopped Defendant and advised him to make no further statements. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED for the presence of Ms.

DEFT'S MOTION TO SUPPRESS CONFESSION...DEFT'S MOTION TO STRIKE DUPLICITOUS COUNTS Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Pandukht and Ms. Diefenbach announced ready for trial. DEFT'S MOTION TO SUPPRESS CONFESSION: Ms. Diefenbach argued that the Miranda warning was given to Defendant prior to the tape player being turned on and she feels an Evidentiary Hearing is needed. Ms. Pandukht argued there was a full and complete Preliminary Hearing; that the officer was questioned regarding Miranda, but she did not have him recite the whole thing and neither did Ms. Diefenbach. Court noted it feels there is insufficient reasons to warrant a suppression, the fact that Defendant was tired by the end of the interview does not mean he is incompetent and the confession should be suppressed, therefore COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED. DEFT'S MOTION TO STRIKE DUPLICITOUS COUNTS: Court noted this involved Counts V and VI and X and XI. Ms. Pandukht concurred stating she did charge the lesser includeds and will put on the Jury form that they can only find one or the other. Ms. Diefenbach stated she feels it looks better to the Jury if the Defendant is facing 9 counts instead of 11. COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED. DEFT'S PRO PER MOTION TO DISMISS COUNSEL AND APPOINTMENT OF NEW COUNSEL: Court noted this motion was set after trial and inquired if Defendant was desirous of going forward at this time. Defendant stated he would like new counsel. Court pointed out that if Defendant wanted to hire new counsel, the trial would be set in January, 2003. Mr. Avants advised that Defendant gave them 5 names, however, they will not be calling any of these as witnesses. Ms. Diefenbach stated they contacted most of the people he listed, however, have chosen not to use them; and she has copies of the records he wanted. COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED. Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Pandukht advised the trial should last 5 days with 17 witnesses and 2 being out-of-State. COURT ORDERED, Jury selection would begin at 1:30 PM on Monday, March 4, 2002. 1:36 PM OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Defendant advised of his right not to testify. IN PRESENCE OF JURY: Testimony and exhibits presented (see worksheets). 3:03 PM STATE RESETS. DEFENSE RESTS. OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Jury excused for the day. Ms. Diefenbach objected to pictures of the victim in the hospital being shown to the jury. Ms. Kollins argued that they had 10 pictures and only used 4 to show her injuries. Court concurred that the State paired the pictures down and that the 4 that were chosen would be received into evidence. Ms. Diefenbach objected to prospective Juror Ms. Hymes being excused with no real reason and she was a minority. Ms. Pandukht stated this juror was late, she missed opening remarks and the witness list. Court stated she was a minority, not sure if she was African American, but substantial questions had already been put to the jurors; this Court felt rather than to start over, she was excused. Ms. Diefenbach put forth a Batson challenge as to juror Washington being preempted by the State. Ms. Kollins argued that the 1st reason was because she was a paralegal. The 2nd reason, she voiced what terrible treatment her brother received and the State did not feel she could be fair. Court stated the reasons for her dismissal were apparent and there is no Batson challenge. Mr. Avants stated the Defense had prepared voir dire questions that the Court decided not to use. Ms. Kollins stated that actually there were some questions that were incorporated into the Court's voir dire. Court read the proposed questions and explained why they were not used. Ms. Kollins advised she received a call from the Defense re the transcript. They have prepared a redacted one and it will be used as opposed to the other one. The other one will be put in a sealed envelope. Additionally, there was a Justice Referral slip in Defendant's wallet that will be taken out and put in the envelope and that will not go to the Jury. Ms. Kollins stated the original micro tape has been marked as a Court's exhibit. Court so noted and advised it would be admitted. Jury instructions settled on the record. EVENING RECESS. ;

MOTION TO APPOINT COUNSEL...MOTION TO STOP RESTITUTION...MOTION TO MODIFY SENTENCE Court noted Motion to Appoint Counsel also is inclusive what appears to be a Motion for Modification of Sentence. Further, the Court is not taking any argument today as the Court did not request Def. to be transported and is able to assess the case from the briefs alone. There is also a Motion to Modify Sentence placed on calendar for July 19, 2021, and the Court does not have any reason to believe that is any different argument that has been set forth in the Motion to Appoint Counsel. COURT ORDERED, motion set for July 19, 2021, ADVANCED to today. As to Motion to Stop Restitution, the Court is persuaded by the State's argument, primarily in the circumstances that he is not really entitled simply because two of the victims have passed away, to consider himself absolved of his restitution

requirement and in the end, whether or not anyone has passed away, there is still possibility of their heirs being able to continue to receive and benefit from restitution. Further, from the State's argument there are still other victim's that need to be paid, no legal basis to support the arguments, Deft. did not provide any evidentiary basis for the claim the individuals have passed away and ORDERED, motion DENIED and restitution STANDS. Even if Deft. were to provide evidence two of the victims have passed away that would still not be a basis upon which to stop the order of restitution and the money is still legally able to be claimed and entitled to be paid to the heirs of the individuals. As to Motion to Appoint Counsel, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED for the reasons primarily stated in the State's opposition. Further, the reasoning for appointing counsel is not provided by the Deft., as we know there has not been a Habeas Corpus Petition filed, there does not appear to be a legal basis upon which he would need appointment of counsel, do understand he filed Motion for Modification of Sentence but again, we do not see any legal basis to allow that to proceed, there are procedural bars that he has been unable to overcome, does not see where appointment of counsel would change facts or circumstances. As to Motion to Modify Sentence which is also encompassed in the matter set on a future date, there is a procedural bar by the law of the case as well as Red Judicata, motion is also untimely, as the State has pointed out there is no conflict between the Amended Judgment of Conviction and the Habitual Criminal Notice contained in the Amended Information. Further, the arguments for modification of sentence are belied by the record, procedurally barred and ORDERED, motion DENIED. State to prepare order. NDC CLERK'S NOTE: The above minute order has been distributed to: Oscar A. Stanley #73085, Ely State Prison, P.O. Box 1989, Ely, NV 89031. aw;

Ms. Pandukht present before court convened. Ms. Kollins present when the matter was called. Mr. Avants advised this is Ms. Diefenbach's case and that she had requested a one-day continuance.
COURT SO ORDERED.

Matter RECALLED at Defendant's request. Defendant advised the Court that he had letters he had written to the Court and a letter Ms. Diefenbach had written to him stating she had intercepted said letters and allegedly instructed Defendant not to communicate with the Court directly. Court advised Defendant it would be improper for this Court to obtain communication which would possibly violate Defendant's confidentiality rights between himself and his attorney. Defendant argued these were letters advising the Court of why he was requesting new counsel. Court requested Defendant remove the letter from Ms. Diefenbach and the Court accepted Defendant's letters to the Court. Defendant attempted to make a statement regarding being diagnosed as bi-polar. Mr. Avants stopped Defendant and advised him to make no further statements. - DEFT'S MOTION TO SUPPRESS CONFESSION...DEFT'S MOTION TO STRIKE DUPLICITOUS COUNTS

Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Pandukht and Ms. Diefenbach announced ready for trial.

DEFT'S MOTION TO SUPPRESS CONFESSION: Ms. Diefenbach argued that the Miranda warning was given to Defendant prior to the tape player being turned on and she feels an Evidentiary Hearing is needed. Ms. Pandukht argued there was a full and complete Preliminary Hearing; that the officer was questioned regarding Miranda, but she did not have him recite the whole thing and neither did Ms. Diefenbach. Court noted it feels there is insufficient reasons to warrant a suppression, the fact that Defendant was tired by the end of the interview does not mean he is incompetent and the confession should be suppressed, therefore COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED.

DEFT'S MOTION TO STRIKE DUPLICITOUS COUNTS: Court noted this involved Counts V and VI and X and XI. Ms. Pandukht concurred stating she did charge the lesser includeds and will put on the Jury form that they can only find one or the other. Ms. Diefenbach stated she feels it looks better to the Jury if the Defendant is facing 9 counts instead of 11. COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED.

DEFT'S PRO PER MOTION TO DISMISS COUNSEL AND APPOINTMENT OF NEW COUNSEL: Court noted this motion was set after trial and inquired if Defendant was desirous of going forward at this time. Defendant stated he would like new counsel. Court pointed out that if Defendant wanted to hire new counsel, the trial would be set in January, 2003. Mr. Avants advised that Defendant gave them 5 names, however, they will not be calling any of these as witnesses. Ms. Diefenbach stated they contacted most of the people he listed, however, have chosen not to use them; and she has copies of the records he wanted. COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED.

Upon Court's inquiry, Ms. Pandukht advised the trial should last 5 days with 17 witnesses and 2 being out-of-State. COURT ORDERED, Jury selection would begin at 1:30 PM on Monday, March 4, 2002.

- 1:36 PM OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Defendant advised of his right not to testify. IN PRESENCE OF JURY: Testimony and exhibits presented (see worksheets). 3:03 PM STATE RESETS. DEFENSE RESTS. OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF JURY: Jury excused for the day. Ms. Diefenbach objected to pictures of the victim in the hospital being shown to the jury. Ms. Kollins argued that they had 10 pictures and only used 4 to show her injuries. Court concurred that the State paired the pictures down and that the 4 that were chosen would be received into evidence. Ms. Diefenbach objected to prospective Juror Ms. Hymes being excused with no real reason and she was a minority. Ms. Pandukht stated this juror was late, she missed opening remarks and the witness list. Court stated she was a minority, not sure if she was African American, but substantial questions had already been put to the jurors; this Court felt rather than to start over, she was excused. Ms. Diefenbach put forth a Batson challenge as to juror Washington being preempted by the State. Ms. Kollins argued that the 1st reason was because she was a paralegal. The 2nd reason, she voiced what terrible treatment her brother received and the State did not feel she could be fair. Court stated the reasons for her dismissal were apparent and there is no Batson challenge. Mr. Avants stated the Defense had prepared voir dire questions that the Court decided not to use. Ms. Kollins stated that actually there were some questions that were incorporated into the Court's voir dire. Court read the proposed questions and explained why they were not used. Ms. Kollins advised she received a call from the Defense re the transcript. They have prepared a redacted one and it will be used as opposed to the other one. The other one will be put in a sealed envelope. Additionally, there was a Justice Referral slip in Defendant's wallet that will be taken out and put in the envelope and that will not go to the Jury. Ms. Kollins stated the original micro tape has been marked as a Court's exhibit. Court so noted and advised it would be admitted. Jury instructions settled on the record. EVENING RECESS.

- Deft. not present, Nevada Department of Corrections (NDC).

COURT NOTED it has previously DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE related Pro Per Motions from Deft. Deft's. Motion is hand-written, Court needs to understand a basis for Deft's. Motion. There is no argument regarding ineffective assistance of counsel. Court is not sure Deft. can overcome time bar issues. No argument will be taken today. COURT ORDERED, Motion DENIED. Deft. needs to help the Court understand what relief he is seeking and the basis for that request to overcome any procedural bars. State to prepare the Order.

- MOTION TO APPOINT COUNSEL...MOTION TO STOP RESTITUTION...MOTION TO MODIFY SENTENCE

Court noted Motion to Appoint Counsel also is inclusive what appears to be a Motion for Modification of Sentence. Further, the Court is not taking any argument today as the Court did not request Deft. to be transported and is able to assess the case from the briefs alone. There is also a Motion to Modify Sentence placed on calendar for July 19, 2021, and the Court does not have any reason to believe that is any different argument that has been set forth in the Motion to Appoint Counsel. COURT ORDERED, motion set for July 19, 2021, ADVANCED to today.

As to Motion to Stop Restitution, the Court is persuaded by the State's argument, primarily in the circumstances that he is not really entitled simply because two of the victims have passed away, to consider himself absolved of his restitution requirement and in the end, whether or not anyone has passed away, there is still possibility of their heirs being able to continue to receive and benefit from restitution. Further, from the State's argument there are still other victim's that need to be paid, no legal basis to support the arguments, Deft. did not provide any evidentiary basis for the claim the individuals have passed away and ORDERED, motion DENIED and restitution STANDS. Even if Deft. were to provide evidence two of the victims have passed away that would still not be a basis upon which to stop the order of restitution and the money is still legally able to be claimed and entitled to be paid to the heirs of the individuals.

As to Motion to Appoint Counsel, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED for the reasons primarily stated in the State's opposition. Further, the reasoning for appointing counsel is not provided by the Deft., as we know there has not been a Habeas Corpus Petition filed, there does not appear to be a legal basis upon which he would need appointment of counsel, do understand he filed Motion for Modification of Sentence but again, we do not see any legal basis to allow that to proceed, there are procedural bars that he has been unable to overcome, does not see where appointment of counsel would change facts or circumstances.

As to Motion to Modify Sentence which is also encompassed in the matter set on a future date, there is a procedural bar by the law of the case as well as Red Judicata, motion is also untimely, as the State has pointed out there is no conflict between the Amended Judgment of Conviction and the Habitual Criminal Notice contained in the Amended Information. Further, the arguments for modification of sentence are belied by the record, procedurally barred and ORDERED, motion DENIED.

State to prepare order.
